Consequently, a mixed marriage contracted before a Protestant minister, though invalid in the eyes of the Catholic church, is not illegal, except in the province of Quebec, for the reasons stated below. Outside of that province, if one of the parties were to desert the other or attempt to marry again, he or she would be liable to the penalties prescribed by the civil law.

NOT SO MARVELOUS.
"I tell you what it is, Silas," said Uncle Mose Peavey, as he and the letter-carrier sat together near the stove in the post office discussing things in general, "old Squire Dandley's a-bustin' good shot with a rifle. Ye can talk all ye please about these glass-ball shooters, and your yew these champion shots on the city, but there ain't many on 'em can shoot in the same way with the rifle. He can hit a dollar thru into the air at fifty yards nine times out o' ten."

"Yes, I reckon he kin," said Silas, pulling strenuously away on his corn-cob and chewing meditatively the rest of the gathering nut, "but what if he kin? After all, Mose, you know as well as I do that a dollar looks ten times as big to old Squire Dandley than it does to most of the rest of us."

GALA PERFORMANCE AT COVENT GARDEN

Royal Family and 10,000 There

Gorgeous Uniforms and Lavish Display of Rare Jewels

All the Coronation Representatives Present to Hear World's Famous Artists—Magnificent Ball at Duke of Westminster's Followed.

London, June 26—One of the most magnificent spectacles in connection with the coronation was the command performance to-night in Covent Garden. Those privileged to be within the great auditorium will long remember the gorgeous scintillating picture, the fragrance of 10,000 perfumed blooms, the noble company of men and women representing the royalty of the world, and all the most distinguished in British official and social life, who filled every box and every stall.

The royal box consisted of ten boxes in the centre grand tier thrown into one, providing 100 seats. Nearly all of which were occupied by guests of royal rank.
Flanking the royal box were two other large boxes each occupied by 100 representatives of foreign countries, in gorgeous uniforms, and representatives of the dominions.

In point of picturesque attire the Indian princes glittering with jewels were easily first, eclipsing even the royalties in their most splendid uniforms.

The king wore an admiral's uniform, and wore the order of the garter. The queen wore a gown of delicate pink over which the blue ribbon of the garter showed in marked relief. On her bosom were the twin stars of Africa, on her head a diamond tiara de la and a maltese cross.
The queen was escorted to the royal box by Count Prince Frederick William of Germany, and the German crown princess entered on the arm of his majesty.

Although rain again fell to mar the occasion, dense crowds gathered outside Covent Garden to witness the arrival and departure of their majesties, and the royal visitors. After the performance all the guests, the special envoys and members of the diplomatic corps attended a ball by the Duke and Duchess of Westminster at Grosvenor House.

Renowned artists took part in the gala performance. The programme opened with a scene from the second act of Verdi's "Aida." This was followed by the second act of Gounod's "Roméo and Juliet," then Act III of Rossini's "The Barber of Seville," and "The Tales of Hoffmann." Among the artists were Mmes. Melba, Destinn, Tetrazzini, Berat and Kirky Lynn, and John McCormack, Sammarco Franz, Bassi and Malatesta.

Horace Greenfield, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., Killed in Colorado, Had Fortune With Him.

Denver, June 26—Two travel worn trunks left in a hotel here by Horace Greenfield of Mount Vernon (N. Y.), have been opened by the public administrator and found to contain half a million dollars on which the state will collect an inheritance tax.

Greenfield was known to be wealthy, but was not supposed to carry a fortune with him. His widow and daughter came here for the body and later began looking over his extensive mining interests in the state. An attorney told the public administrator that he should take charge of the estate and that officer went to the hotel where Greenfield had registered, found the trunks and opened them. He was surprised by the discovery of a $500,000 government bond, a $100,000 bill, much other currency and gold edged railroad bonds, jewelry, etc., valued at fully $500,000.

RECIPROcity HAS BIG MAJORITY IN TEST VOTE

Root Amendment Bowled Out in the Senate After Short Debate

Opponents Didn't Ask for a Roll Call—Senator Penrose, in Charge of Bill, Now Confident That It Will Pass and That Congress Will Adjourn by August 1—Wool and Free List Bills Likely to be Disposed of, Too

Washington, June 26—The Canadian reciprocity bill emerged from its first ordeal in the senate tonight unscathed. The Root amendment, proposing a modification of the wool and free list paper section of the agreement, was defeated after seven hours of debate, by an overwhelming vote.
Senator LaFollette announced in a speech, opposing the Root amendment, that he would give to the senate a chance to pass on general tariff amendments for free paper, free lumber and lumber products, and for reductions in many other schedules.

Senator Clapp also announced his intention of offering a free paper amendment later, and other senators gave evidence of their purpose to force, from now on, consideration of tariff revision on the widest basis.

Attack on the Root amendment was interrupted with attack on the whole reciprocity measure in the debate that ran throughout the afternoon and which resulted in the defeat of Senator Root's proposition to change the house bill by requiring that all the Canadian provinces should remove their export restriction on pulpwood and fish products, before the reciprocal legislation was applied to the wool and free list items of the agreement.

LaFollette's Objection.
Senator LaFollette declared there was no justification for any duty on print paper.
He analyzed the tariff bill, and pointed out that the best mills in the United States actually produce paper cheaper than the best mills of Canada. To continue to pay a premium on "inefficiency and sloth," and to make the prospective tariff "dead-weight" on the industry, was, in his opinion, "unjust and unwise."

Senator LaFollette criticized the new paper tariff, "not only because it is a measure that is a burden on the industry, but because it is a measure that will postpone all tariff legislation until a report can be received from the tariff board."

Sensation in
LORIMER CASE
Star Witness, Before Senate Committee, Tells of Being Shadowed by Detectives.

Washington, June 26—Shadowed for weeks by detectives instructed to get anything possible against him, was the alleged experience of one Clarence S. Funk, of Chicago, star witness in the present Lorimer investigation, complained today to the senate committee inquiring into the Lorimer election.

The statement produced a sensation, because the name of Edward Hines, whom Mr. Funk mentioned in his testimony, was contributing $10,000 toward "100,000 used to pay the Lester award of $5,000 and two years' interest following an arbitration award confirmed by the Ontario law court in connection with the parallel streets of North Toronto.

Mr. Funk declared that four detectives had followed him to Washington and two had watched him during luncheon today.
One of them, he said, had been compelled to give his name and that of his employer, when caught in a tight place. Mr.
Funk declined to break his word to the detective and reveal his name. He said the employer was not Senator Lorimer.

The committee ended the day's hearing by going into executive session to have revealed the detective's name and promised further revelations.

FARMERS STILL BOMBARD BORDEN

More Demands For Reciprocity

Southern Alberta Tailors Fail to Enlist Tory Leader's Sympathy

Conservative Leader to Invade Northern Section of Alberta Today—Yesterday Marked His 57th Birthday and He Received Many Congratulations.

Calgary, June 26—This was an exceedingly busy day for R. L. Borden, who is fifty-seven years old today. He formally opened the new city hall at Calgary this morning, and held a reception which lasted for nearly two hours.

This afternoon he addressed a meeting at High River, 57 miles south in the community of MacLeod, and tonight he returned to Calgary where he addressed a mass meeting in the rink. Calgary gave the opposition leader a fine reception, the city being lavishly decorated.

At High River his special train was met by almost the entire population, which consists of a large percent of immigrants, and Mr. Borden was taken to the public park, where he was presented with a memorial on behalf of the United Farmers of Alberta, favoring reciprocity, and the other planks of his platform.

In his reply, Mr. Borden repeated his promises attending the passage of such an important measure without the people being consulted, and promised to do all in his power to force the government to consult the country before ratifying the pact.

Mr. Borden also welcomed the new members from the United States, declaring that the experience of the past showed that they were not one whit behind Canadians in patriotism for the land of their adoption. Mr. Borden invokes the northern portion of Alberta tomorrow, going to Lacombe, Red Deer, and Edmonton.

The correspondents of Conservative papers on the coast today presented Mr. Borden with a bouquet of 57 roses, one for each year. He has received a large number of telegrams from all parts of the dominion, wishing him many happy returns of the day.

Port au Prince, Hayti, June 26—President Simon has started out again at the head of his troops for the purpose of bringing about peace in the northern district of Hayti. He left today with large force under his command aboard the cruiser Antoine Simon, his destination being Cape Haytien, but the cruiser will call at St. Mari and Port Apaix.

It is impossible here to obtain any definite information concerning the revolutionary force, but recent advices have indicated that the movement is of considerable extent and that much damage has been done. It is said that the president is undertaking the expedition with the most pacific intention and will make an endeavor to persuade the insurgents to lay down their arms before employing force.

LIVERPOOL DOCK
WORKERS JOIN
SEAMEN'S STRIKE

London, June 26—Another shipping strike was launched today. The union workers on the docks at Liverpool generally, obeyed the order to strike against the forty-six firms in the shipping federation. The shipping interest in Hull, Goole, Grangemouth and Clyde found themselves in a similar plight, the union men refusing to handle goods from federation ships. Negotiations between employers and employees have ceased for the time being at least.

MEXICO ORDERS CANADIAN BANK OFFICIAL'S ARREST

Government Will Extradite T. Sydney Saunders, Man- ager of Bank of Montreal in Mexico City, in Connection With Bank Failure.

Mexico City, via Galveston, June 25—Life in Mexico promises to be a moving picture show of investigation within the next few months. General Francisco I.
Madero has finally admitted in a public statement that he elected to attend to on foot an investigation of all large corporations having relations with the government through special concessions. He insists it will be a general and not a special inquiry into any one company.

Changes in the personnel of the board of directors of the National Railways are also included in the Madero programme.
Another step in the investigation line is the order for the arrest of T. Sydney Saunders, manager of the Bank of Montreal at the time of the failure of the United States Banking Company here.
The court, in whose hands the United States Bank now rests, has issued an order for the arrest of Mr. Saunders. This it is stated is preliminary to asking extradition papers, as Mr. Saunders is not thought to be in this country. The charge is retaining possession of notes and securities in certain operations between the United States Bank and the Bank of Montreal just before the failure.

This case has an international aspect and the alleged part played by British diplomatic representatives here under instructions from Downing street has been the subject of wide comment here.

Today the prisoner confessed to Sheriff Walt that he had robbed Charles O'Brien's bank, telling where he sold the gold watch. An officer from Cumberland is expected at Dorchester tomorrow to take the prisoner to Amherst to stand trial.

The Scott act case against John O'Regan of St. John came up in Stipendiary Magistrate's court this morning and was disposed of in one hour.

Davie, Awaiting Trial for Larceny, Suggests Change in Bill of Fare to Council Committee.

Boston, June 26—Members of the city council committee on prisons visited Charles street jail yesterday. Several suggestions for the improvement of prison conditions were made to them by Robert L.
Davie, the broker now awaiting trial for larceny. These were:

Extra duty in yard at least three hours a week for those awaiting trial. Present bathtubs should be replaced with shower baths. Alternate the present cereal drink with cocoa shells. Replace the boiled peas which are now served on Saturdays with boiled kidney beans. Mail received for those awaiting trial to be delivered to them unread. Gradually replace the blue and white striped uniforms with suits made of blue denim, which would be much lighter and not show the dirt so much as those now worn.

The committee announced that they will give serious consideration to the suggestions.

THE CROWNED KING No great pageant and so important a ceremony as those which were carried through without any marbling note in London yesterday were naturally the occasion for more or less anxiety, and there will be throughout the Empire a feeling of thankfulness because Coronation Day passed happily and without any untoward incident.

THE ANDOVER MEETING Important statements regarding the Valley Railway and reciprocity were made by Hon. Mr. Pugsley at the public meeting in Andover on Wednesday evening, and Hon. C. W. Robinson, Mr. Tweeddale and other delivered striking addresses on provincial political topics.

FARM VALUES A correspondent writes to The Telegraph asking whether there is any reason to believe that a statement recently published by the Standard, regarding farm values, taken from a recent publication of the United States Senate, is to be depended upon.

TRADE AND DISLOYALTY Under the reciprocity treaty of 1854, which was a much more sweeping measure than the trade agreement now under consideration, Canada flourished and became more loyal to the Crown than ever; yet Conservatives who are speaking for the alarmed and selfish protected interests are trying to convince the people that reciprocity today would result in diminishing, if not destroying, British connection.

to succumb to the competition of the new nation, and he added that the British farmer must not expect that the British cow would give as much milk under his persuasion as an American cow could give in an American newspaper.

And, has this extraordinary growth of our trade with the United States diminished our loyalty? "No one can truthfully assert that while this remarkable transformation has been going on our loyalty to England has abated, or the strength of the Confederation been diminished. The exact opposite is the case. At no former period in our career has there been a greater affection for England or less feeling in favor of the United States."

THE FARMS AND RECIPROCITY The Standard asserts that it recently published "an official document of the United States Senate which showed conclusively" that the average value per acre of improved land in this province since 1900 had advanced 120 per cent, against an advance in farm values in Maine of sixty-seven per cent.

INDIVIDUALISM

The national ideals of the United States were stereotyped at a time when individual action, individual initiative and freedom were emphasized more than at any other period in the world's history.

SENATOR BAIRD AND RECIPROCITY

To the Editor of The Telegraph. Sir:—Too little prominence has been given to Hon. Senator Baird's speech at the complimentary dinner to "Honest John" Costigan at St. Basil on Tuesday, June 20.

Due to the fact that Mr. Costigan's friends were out in forces to do him honor, and these friends numbered hosts of Conservatives, the speakers preceding Senator Baird kept clear of political questions.

Consequently one and all were amazed at the turn of affairs when Mr. Baird announced that the time had come when he had to state that he was unequivocally in favor of Reciprocity; that the time had come for plain speaking, and though it was a wrench for a man to break with his party yet when he felt that his party's position to this measure was merely political when it should not be, as it was the greatest measure ever introduced by any government for the benefit of the Canadian people, he could do nothing else but sever his relations with his own party and support what he felt was right.

His remarks electrified everyone and drew a storm of applause, showing that the speaker had voiced the sentiment of those present, Liberal and Conservative alike.

And when we consider Senator Baird's knowledge of Canada and his wide interests, which extend from New Brunswick to British Columbia, together with his long experience in public affairs, his utterance is doubly powerful and must carry weight.

St. John, June 24, 1911. Yours, etc., ONE WHO WAS PRESENT.
