

The Old World.

Townsend Threatens to Shoot the Premier.

The Royal Wedding to Take Place in July.

Presentation of a Club House to the Paris Y. M. C. A.

Seigniorial Outcome of a Cossack Mutiny—Fifteen Men Killed—Revolt in Orissa—India—A Startling Tragedy Enacted in an Austrian Theater.

Opened by the Queen. LONDON, May 10.—The Imperial Institute was opened today by Queen Victoria with royal pomp.

Eastern Cuba Quiet. MADRID, May 10.—A dispatch from Cuba announces that the Captain-General has raised the state of siege in Eastern Cuba in view of the present peaceful aspect in that part of the island.

Mr. Schnadhorst Back. LONDON, May 10.—Mr. Schnadhorst is back earlier than was expected when he started on his Australian trip. He is wanted to organize a home rule campaign in the constituencies, for he is still a name to conjure with.

The Home Rule Bill.

LONDON, May 10.—The House of Commons today, in committee on the Irish Home Rule Bill, rejected by a vote of 295 to 244 the motion of T. W. Russell (Liberal Unionist) to the effect that the provision of the bill providing for the election of members of the Irish Legislature be eliminated.

They Want a Home Ruler.

LONDON, May 10.—William Saunders, Liberal member for Newington Valeworth, who showed a disposition to vote against the second reading of the Irish Home Rule Bill, but finally voted with his party, is about to retire from Parliament in deference to the wishes of his constituents, who are displeased with his course.

Revolt in India.

LONDON, May 10.—A Calcutta dispatch says: "Advices from Kumbhar, capital of the native State of that name in Orissa, shows that a serious revolt has broken out in the State. The palace of the Rajah is beleaguered by 10,000 insurgents. The palace is defended by 400 native troops under command of four European officers. The Rajah is tributary to the British, and the Rajah has demanded that reinforcements be sent to him."

Cossack Mutiny—Fifteen Men Killed.

VIENNA, May 10.—Particulars of a recent mutiny of Cossacks in Kiev have just been received here. The mutiny was due to the harshness of the officers. The ring-leaders fired upon their superiors and the mutineers fled to a place of refuge, where they were besieged for 28 hours. They did not surrender until their provisions gave out. Fifteen mutineers were killed and fifteen wounded.

The Corporation's Gift.

LONDON, May 10.—The wedding gift of the Corporation of London to the Duke of York and the Princess will consist of a service of silver such as was selected when the previous royal marriage was in view; but the articles will be of course not be the same as the silver then ordered and subsequently melted in the presence of the representatives of the corporation and of the firm of silversmiths who supplied it.

A Popular Indian Prince Dead.

LONDON, May 10.—The death of Maharajah Duleep Singh's popular young son will be generally regretted both in London and Paris. Both in manners and feelings he was an Englishman and always strongly disapproved of his father's attitude toward the English Government. Four or five years ago the prince, then fresh from university experience and army training, was generally to be seen at the Premier's, and was wont to give very smart parties in a flat furnished with some degree of Oriental splendor.

Threatened the Premier in a Letter.

LONDON, May 10.—According to Edward Bates, the unfortunate lunatic Townsend, who has again been remanded in Bow Street, wrote a threatening letter to Mr. Gladstone two days before his arrest announcing his intention to shoot him, and this is to be made the ground of a more serious charge than that on which he is now in jail. It is an extraordinary anomaly of English law that threatening to shoot a man is a graver offense than hanging about with a loaded revolver to carry out a threat, but such seems to be the case. The charge now made against the prisoner is one a magistrate can deal with, but the sending of a threatening letter is an indictable offense, which may lead to penal servitude.

John Curtin's Career of Crime.

LONDON, May 10.—John Curtin, an American crook, who was arrested in this city a few days ago on the nominal charge of violating his ticket-of-leave, was really taken into custody to answer a charge made against him by the German authorities of robbing a clerk of 157,000 marks while the clerk was entering a bank at Frankfurt. Curtin is well known by the American police, and has already served three terms of imprisonment in the United States. While serving a sentence in an English prison for a Manchester bank robbery and a London diamond robbery, Curtin was released on ticket-of-leave. He disappeared for a time, but subsequently returned to London, apparently with plenty of money, and was shortly afterwards arrested as already stated.

A Great Gift.

PARIS, May 10.—By the munificence of George Stokes, of New York, the French Young Men's Christian Association has opened a club that cost 1,000,000 francs. The father of Mr. Stokes was one of the citizens delegated to receive Lafayette on his second visit to America. Lafayette, on landing, kissed those awaiting him on both cheeks, and this tenderness inspired the father with an intense love for France.

which the son shared and proved by contributing 400,000 francs to aid an institution likely to benefit the youth of France.

Varying Views.

PARIS, May 10.—The Debates, commenting upon Emperor William's speech to the officers of the guards, says that the chief feature is that it contains nothing that need alarm the neighbors of Germany. On the other hand the Temps considers the Emperor's speech a manifesto.

Berlin, May 10.—The radical newspapers freely criticize the Emperor's speech. The Vossische Zeitung questions the accuracy of the published report of the speech, and contends that the Emperor has no power to dissolve the Reichstag without the consent of the Bundesrat.

The Royal Wedding.

LONDON, May 10.—The royal wedding is to take place in July, either in London or at Kew Church, where the bride's mother was married 26 years ago. If the ceremony is in London, it will be in the private chapel at Buckingham Palace, on very much the same lines as was the marriage of the Duke and Duchess of Fife. The Princess of Wales is particularly anxious for obvious reasons that the wedding should be celebrated as quietly as possible. There was no engagement between the Duke of York and the princess till Tuesday last. All the announcements on the subject which have appeared were purely speculative. The early marriage of the Duke of York has been a great object to the Queen and Prince of Wales since his brother's death. The duke asked the Queen's permission to marry Princess Victoria at Windsor on Sunday a week ago, and went to Richmond and proposed to her on Tuesday.

Tragedy in Earnest.

VIENNA, May 10.—The theater at Lemburg, Austria, was the scene last night of a most tragic occurrence. The theater was filled, and the play proceeding satisfactorily, when suddenly Herr Delozak, one of the actors, drew a revolver, placed the weapon to his head and blew out his brains. The greatest confusion and excitement followed. Women in the body of the house shrieked wildly and some fainted. It was subsequently learned that Delozak's act was prompted by jealousy. In the company was a young actress of whom Delozak was deeply enamored. During the progress of the play Delozak detected his sweetheart flirting with a man who occupied one of the stalls, and when the couple left the stage at the end of the act Delozak upbraided the girl for her perfidy. She treated the matter lightly, and refused to accept the flirtation. Desperately enraged at his sweetheart, Delozak followed her, as his part required, but instead of speaking his lines he walked close to the footlights, and without a word killed himself.

An Imposing Ceremony.

LONDON, May 10.—Seven years ago was conceived the idea of an imperial institute, in which might be placed the products of the colonies and dependencies of Great Britain. The building occupies a beautiful site near the Albert Hall in London, and is a masterpiece of architectural work, costing hundreds of thousands of pounds. Today the Imperial Institute was formally opened by the Queen. The weather was beautiful, and the things were present at the ceremonies. Her Majesty wore a rich black satin dress, the cape trimmed with guipure lace, and a bonnet of black Chantilly lace over white, with cut steel ornaments. Her Majesty appeared to be in good health and in radiant spirits. She bowed incessantly in response to the cheers of the multitudes who thronged the route from Buckingham Palace to the institute. The Prince of Wales and other members of the royal family were present.

After the building had been declared inaugurated, a splendid master key of elegant workmanship was presented to the Queen. The key is made of metals and precious stones from all parts of the British Empire. The face of the handle showed the insignia of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, and the reverse shows the Star of India. The handle is embellished with precious stones, and the remainder of the key is gold. This key her Majesty inherited in the beautiful silver model of the institute, which was presented to the Prince and Princess of Wales upon their silver wedding day by the citizens of London. The placing of the key in the model completed the circuit of an electrical signal to the Queen's tower of the institute, where a peal was immediately rung upon the bells. Simultaneously salutes were fired from guns of a battery of horse artillery, drawn up in Hyde Park.

This part of the ceremony having been concluded, the Queen returned to the Equestrian Colonnade, and entering her carriage was driven to Queen's gate, the enthusiasm of the people being strongly marked.

Went Blind Through Crying.

STANTON, Mich., May 11.—News comes from Tawas City that Mrs. Richard Colter, formerly Miss Lizzie Anderson of this place, has become suddenly blind. Some time ago she lost her twin babies, and the wept so hard from grief as to lose her eyesight.

Grain Stored in the Northwest.

WINNEPEG, May 10.—Latest returns from different parts of the Northwest show that there are 2,034,920 bushels of wheat, 124,000 bushels of oats and 33,500 bushels of barley stored in the interior, while the Canadian Pacific elevators at Fort William contain no less than 3,111,865 bushels. The movement is light, only 15,000 bushels having been brought forward last week.

Biennial Y. M. C. A. Conference.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 10.—The international biennial conference of the Y. M. C. A. opened today. The session was devoted chiefly to the election of officers and general organization. The object of the conference is to review the work of the last two years. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, G. N. Pierce, Dayton, Ohio; first vice-president, L. H. Packard, Montreal; second vice-president, R. A. Orr, Pittsburgh.

Bad for Michigan.

LANSING, May 10.—According to the crop report for May (just issued) the outlook for wheat is not so good as it was a month ago. Five per cent. of the acreage will be plowed up as winter-killed or in other ways damaged. Compared with April report the decline is 10 per cent. The southern counties corresponding with out exception report a much better condition. Clover meadows and pastures are 10 per cent. better than a year ago, while fruit buds have not yet been injured.

Have PUGHAM'S PILLS ready in the house.

INTERNATIONAL Y. M. C. A.

The 30th international convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of America opened in Indianapolis yesterday. Its sessions will last for several days. Mr. T. S. McPheters, of St. Louis, the president of the association, presiding. Nearly a quarter of a century has elapsed since the convention met in Indianapolis. This period has witnessed a remarkable growth in all directions of the work for young men. A long list of topics will be discussed, among the most important being "Work Among Railroad Men," "Striking Aspects of the College Field," "Work Among Colored Men," "Obligations to Foreign-speaking Young Men," and "Work Among Commercial Travelers." Mr. McPheters, who is at the head of the association, has been long and closely connected with all the details of its great work. Not only has his energy been felt throughout his immediate field at St. Louis, but his influence has spread along the line, from Canada to the Pacific coast.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The Provincial Grand Council's Eighth Session Commences Here.

At yesterday's session of the Royal Arcanum Grand Council a civic deputation, consisting of Mayor Essery, City Clerk Kingston and Ald. Taylor, were admitted and introduced to the Grand Council. In a neat and gracious speech the mayor tendered the Grand Council a hearty welcome and cordial greeting to the city of London. The grand regent responded in felicitous terms and the deputation retired. The following message was received amid applause:

"ASHTABULA, Ohio, May 10.

"Ohio extends her warmest fraternal greetings and best wishes. May Almighty God abundantly bless you in the glorious work of the Royal Arcanum. May your session be harmonious and profitable. LUCY S. SENGWORTH, grand regent of Ohio."

The annual reports of the grand regent, the grand secretary, the grand treasurer, the provincial medical examiner, the supreme representative, and the standing committees were presented and adopted. The grand regent reported that he had personally visited Peterboro, Owen Sound, Ottawa, Smith's Falls, Perth, Toronto, Hamilton, London, Chatham, Windsor, Sarnia, Petrolia, Seaford, Stratford, Trenton, Morrisburg, and various other places, reviving councils and awakening enthusiasm in the membership generally. A new article in the Grand Council constitution was inserted as follows:

"There shall also be an executive committee of this Grand Council consisting of the grand regent, grand past regent, grand vice-regent (who shall be the chairman), grand secretary, grand treasurer and the chairmen of the committees on finance, laws and state of the order, which executive committee shall have the general control of the work of the order and of organizing new councils, and of reviving, strengthening and visiting existing councils, and generally promoting the interests of the order in this jurisdiction while the Grand Council is not in session, such as the grand regent or his representative, and the standing committee, at such times and places as may be decided upon at the annual meeting of the Grand Council, or as the grand regent or chairman may direct, and for their services, meeting during the session of the Grand Council, and at least once between each annual session, at such times and places as may be decided upon at the annual meeting of the Grand Council, or as the grand regent or chairman may direct, and for their services, meeting during the session of the Grand Council, and at least once between each annual session, at such times and places as may be THE COMING PLEBISCITE.

Views of Mr. J. J. MacLaren, Q.C., on the Action Taken.

The Action Taken by Sir Oliver Mowat All That Anyone Can Fairly Ask.

It has been represented that Mr. J. J. MacLaren, Q.C., the well known temperance advocate, and authority on constitutional law, is opposed to the course adopted by Sir Oliver Mowat in the case of the plebiscite. A correspondent interviewed Mr. MacLaren, and he said: "I am not an enemy of the law, but I am a friend of the people. I believe that the people have the right to be heard on the question of the liquor trade. I believe that the people have the right to be heard on the question of the liquor trade. I believe that the people have the right to be heard on the question of the liquor trade."

"I believe that the people have the right to be heard on the question of the liquor trade. I believe that the people have the right to be heard on the question of the liquor trade. who failed to hear her missed a treat. Somerset Hall was full to the door. On account of the lecture several items of business were laid over till next meeting. The lecture will be held on May 23, when the following subjects will be taken up: "Unfermented and home-made wines" and "Liquor in cookery."

CLERK KEARY'S CASE

Investigation With Closed Doors—Proceedings Adjourned for a Week.

The special committee to investigate the charges against Police Court Clerk John M. Keary met last evening. Ald. Coe was chairman and others present were Mayor Eassey, Ald. Jas. Fitzgerald, Taylor, Wells, Shaw and Thos. Jones, City Solicitor Meredith, City Clerk Kingston, Mr. Keary and his solicitors, Messrs. E. Meredith, Q.C., and Frank Love, Chief Williams, Sgt. Crawford, Detectives Nickle and Rider.

As soon as the meeting opened all but the committee and city solicitor were asked to retire as the latter was to give his legal advice. After a half hour's interview, Mr. Keary and his solicitors were called in. They requested an adjournment until Tuesday in order that they might present a written defense. The committee agreed, and afterwards informed that they would be admitted at the next meeting if the defense did not object. Evidence will then be taken.

TERRIBLE FATE

Of a Couple Who Went for an Evening Drive.

AKRON, Ohio, May 10.—On Monday night Guy Schuler hired a rig and, with Miss Martha Kline, started out for a drive to Cuyahoga Falls. The street railway company is constructing its tracks over the bridge that crosses the Cuyahoga River just above the Glen and has torn a piece of the bridge away. It seems that the danger signals were not out and Schuler attempted to drive over the bridge. Next morning the horse was discovered standing in the bridge about 30 feet below the bridge. The bridge is 100 feet above the water, and the couple must have met instant death.

SABBATH DESECRATION

Alarmingly on the Increase in Montreal—Recommendations of the Synod.

OTTAWA, May 10.—At the meeting of the synod to-day the report on Sabbath observance was this morning brought forward by Rev. J. Nichols, Montreal. Four of the six synods reported in Montreal that Sabbath observance is alarmingly on the increase. Street cars running, candy, fruit and cigar stores and creameries open, many of these being closed for gambling. The contractors under the Dominion Government permitted the use of the bridge over the Lachine Canal, and the railways despite the fact that even more trains on Sunday than on any other day of the week.

It is stated that 500,000 persons are employed by the drink traffic alone, and 200,000 of these are young women. The committee made recommendations to the synod to-day, and the synod expressed its pleasure that the World's Fair is not open Sunday; to urge parents to teach the evil of Sabbath desecration; to encourage the Dominion Government to prohibit the sale of liquor on Sunday; to urge the Dominion Government to prohibit the sale of liquor on Sunday; to urge the Dominion Government to prohibit the sale of liquor on Sunday.

The Borden Case.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., May 10.—The famous Borden murder case will be called on the first Monday in June at the Circuit Court in this city.

Failure of a Toronto Coal Firm.

TORONTO, May 10.—A. and R. Fleming, coal and wood dealers, have made an assignment. Nominal assets, $73,000; liabilities, about $83,000.

The Bridgman Shooting Case.

MONTREAL, May 10.—Courtlandt Bridgman, who shot his wife Laura yesterday, was brought before his wife at the hospital this evening and she reported recovery of the shooting. Mrs. Bridgman is recovering. Bridgman is in jail.

Burglars Capture $500 at Copetown.

COPETOWN, Ont., May 10.—About 1 o'clock this morning burglars entered the residence of Mrs. G. W. Howell through a window, blew open the safe and took away the cash box containing $500. They secured all the outside doors of the house with rope fastened to the doorlocks to the veranda posts and made good their escape.

The Governor-Generalship.

OTTAWA, May 10.—No official intimation has yet been received of the appointment of a successor to his Excellency, Lord Aberdeen, who is expected to return to England in order to support the Home Rule Bill when it reaches the Lords.

Who It Was.

Jinks—When burglars were in your house the other night, did Mrs. Filkins look under the bed for a man?

Filkins—Yes, and found one too!

Jinks—One of the burglars?

Filkins—No, no.

A Misapprehension.

"You have had a great deal of experience on the ocean, haven't you, Mr. Shingie?" asked Miss Dinwiddie.

"Why, no, Miss Dinwiddie! I have never even seen the ocean."

That's odd. I'm sure I've heard papa say you have often been half-sea-sick.

A Story of John Bright.

Of Bright, Mr. Torrens records a very characteristic remark. When Frederic Lucas, his brother-in-law, had joined the Roman Catholic Church, Bright asked: "Well, Frederic, how is your new superstition?" and was met with the reply, "Better, John, I think, than the old hypocrisy."

"The Liek Observatory" is what some people call the postage stamp window.

London, Thursday, May 11.

D'ALTON MCCARTHY is the Bogey Man of the Conservative leaders.E. E. SHEPPARD, of Toronto Saturday Night, having surveyed the field, will start a Winnipeg Saturday Night in the capital of the Prairie Province.WE HAVE fostered protection until it has become a virus in the blood.—(Principal Grant, of Queen's University, Kingston, one-time N. P. supporter.)COL. SAUNDERSON'S honesty in opposing the establishment of a local legislature in Ireland need not be impugned; but his good sense in calling his political opponents bad names may be questioned. He has put it on record that it is necessary for the Imperial Parliament to "curb the predatory propensities of the squalid Irish Parliament
with a hungry executive floating in whisky."
While the old school-day explanation,
"Sticks and stones will break bones, but names will never hurt" doubtless holds good in Ireland, an outsider might be tempted to ask, in all fairness, what kind of a place does the belligerent colonel desire his country to appear?THE Toronto Star is performing good service in opposing the bonus hunters, who go from place to place asking bids for the establishment of alleged new industries.
"A man who has a manufacturing project which promises profit," remarks our contemporary, "does not look for bonuses, and all who do look for such bounties are men who have no confidence in their schemes
and rely upon the general public to support them. If there are any concessions to be made let them be given to businesses now in existence as an encouragement for their enlargement or wider operation. The bonus system is the very worst way in which to secure industries. How many towns are there in Ontario with empty factories and workshops which were once the abode of bonused manufacturers, but which closed their doors as soon as the bonus was exhausted and left the ratepayers to wonder how it came that they were so bonused."

NO SECRET SESSIONS.

The investigation into the charge against Police Clerk Keary began badly, from a public point of view.It was decreed that the mayor and aldermanic committee should meet with closed doors and discuss the matter with the city solicitor.The secret session occupied half an hour, and of what took place the taxpayers cannot be made acquainted.Is this a proper way for the representatives of the people to go about the business of the public? The city solicitor is the paid servant of the taxpayers, and what he had to say regarding the case the public have a right to know.Those star chamber proceedings do not look well.WOMAN'S POSITION AS DEFINED
BY THE LEGISLATURE.In the Ontario Legislature yesterday Mr.
Waters (North Middlesex) moved his bill extending the voting power to women in the election of members of that body. The measure was defeated, the vote in its favor being much smaller than expected. Sixteen representatives only stood up to be counted.Mr. Waters has no reason to be discouraged. The principle for which he contends is beyond question a correct one, and the time is not far distant when he will see it embodied in the statutes of this Province.
The entering wedge was the granting of womanhood suffrage for municipal elections. The reform cannot end there.
Everywhere, within the last ten or twenty years, the cause of woman has advanced enormously. Within the living memory of persons now only at middle age not more than a half-dozen occupations all told were considered within the ability of woman to undertake, whereas at the present there are very few avenues of business or professional life which are not, to a greater or less extent, occupied by women. This is only along the line of a general advance. Women have taken their places alongside men in the best educational positions; women have made their influence felt in the great missionary enterprises, in promoting the Christian religion, and in many other labors of a responsible and progressive nature.But to the discussion in the Legislature.
The Premier, in a recent interview with those in favor of the enfranchisement of women, expressed himself as conceding the rightfulness of the principle, but he expressed the fear that the time had not yet arrived when public opinion would be willing to sustain it. It is to be regretted that Sir Oliver Mowat, with his immense influence in this Province, should havetaken this ground. No doubt, the fact that he did so had much to do with the relative smallness of the vote in favor of the reform.That the Government and the House felt themselves called upon to strongly justify their position is evident from the length of the amendment moved by Hon. Mr. Dryden as contained in our report of the proceedings.
The first clause, which is practically to the effect that at present more men oppose granting the franchise to women than are in favor of it, needs little comment. Every measure which is a little out of the common is obliged to encounter such an objection at the outset. The fact that women have no votes at elections for the Imperial or other Parliaments, except in some of the States of the adjoining republic, is no argument at all. In Great Britain, let it be remembered, women have long voted for school trustees, are now to be endowed with the municipal franchise, and are almost certain to have the parliamentary franchise within a short time. This is the natural sequence of the demand made upon women by men that they shall form themselves into Conservative Primrose Leagues and Woman's Liberal Federations. Knowing that these organizations exist, that women are called upon even now to organize general election campaigns and to participate in the work of the constituencies, it would certainly be childish for the other sex to hope to keep them out of the power of exercising the dual and potent right to walk up to the polls and deposit a ballot for the candidate of their choice. Assuredly, that simple act is far less laborious than the other electoral duties now cheerfully and enthusiastically performed by many thousands of women.The third clause in the amendment strikes us as decidedly absurd, and the fears expressed therein devoid of foundation. It is to the effect that, as the extension of the franchise to women might double or more than double the number of electors, it would involve the transfer to women of a preponderating voting power. This view proceeds on the assumption that all the men of the Province would stand on one side of the line and all the women on the other, voting against each other,
whereas the vote would be a common one,
and men and women would divide exactly as men now do, according to their pre-dispositions and convictions. There would be no antagonism between men and women as such. Standing as electors, there is no more reason to believe that men and women would vote according to sex than that they would divide according to creed, or color, or avoirdupois weight.The final reason in the preamble is that the subject has not been sufficiently dealt with at any general election, and therefore further action should not be taken at the present time. THE AD-VERTISER desires to reiterate its view that no valid reason has been advanced why the injustice should longer be continued of disfranchising that half of the community who contribute their share to the production of wealth, who pay a full half of the taxes, indirectly if not directly, who have in every respect as much interest in the legislation
of the day as any other portion of the community, and who can only have their views properly respected when they have a direct share in the election of those who are the representatives of the people in the Legislature.Many reasons could be adduced why women should have full voting powers.
Here are a few which are unanswerable:

1. Because it is right that those who obey the laws should have a voice in making them.
2. Because those who pay taxes should have a right to say how they should be collected and spent.
3. Because it is the quietest, easiest and most dignified way of influencing public opinion.
4. Because it would increase woman's influence and usefulness in promoting good laws.
5. Because it would result in the election of better men to office. This is the experience of the States where tried.

WHY CALL "STINKING FISH"?

There is an old and homely adage that the fish dealer who desires to make a good sale never announces that his wares are "stinking." So the man or body of men who have a railway to dispose of will not,
if they have any wisdom left, and no alterior object in view, decry the line as good for nothing.These comments are penned after listening to the indignant protests of several city merchants against the policy of our city contemporary in crying down the value of the London and Port Stanley Railway.It is desirable that the City Council should be able to make the best possible bargain for the disposal of the line.Will it help them to have the value of the railway cried down at this stage?
Surely if the merits of the line cannot be attractively portrayed, its shortcomings
should not be magnified at a time when it is confessed that the decrier does not even possess knowledge enough to pronounce upon the subject.Incredible Reports of Asylum Atrocities.Dubuque, Iowa, May 10.—Boiling the corpses of patients in the slaughter-house cauldrons to make skeletons, dumping the brains of dissected patients down vaults
and beating troublesome patients to death
are some of the charges which are made against the management of the State Insane Asylum at Independence, containing over 1,000 patients. These charges are to be investigated at once by order of Governor Boies. Attendants are accused of having beaten patients so badly that they died, and then reported to the authorities that the wounds were self-inflicted. The patients have been fed on the meat of lumpy-jawed cattle and other diseased animals. Their food has been insufficient. For want of clothing they have been frozen while working outside during the winter. Dr. Hall, the superintendent, is charged with having soaked them on his private farm.

"BLARNEY CASTLE."

Opening of the Irish Village at the Columbian Fair—Lord and Lady Aberdeen Preside.CHICAGO, Ill., May 10.—The green flag of Ireland and the Stars and Stripes floated from the battlements of Blarney Castle this afternoon on the occasion of the opening of the Irish village, over which the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen preside. A good crowd was in attendance. The center of attraction was the primitive concert hall, where Lord and Lady Aberdeen addressed the assemblage on the philanthropic object of the village enterprise and the commendable purpose of the Irish Industrial Association. A real Irish musical programme was carried out in the hall, all the participants being from the "Old Sod."Vernon's building was dedicated to-day in the presence of the Governor and many citizens of the Green Mountain State.

FATEFUL FLAMES!

A Family of Five Burned to Death—
A Number of Confagurations.WABSAW, Ind., May 10.—The village of North Galveston, ten miles northwest of this city, was almost totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The residence of J. J.
Jackson, among others, was consumed,
and the entire family, consisting of himself, wife and two daughters, perished in the flames. Several other persons were badly burned. Many families lost their entire earthly possessions. Loss, $75,000.Bellefonte, Ont., May 13.—Mrs. H.
Keefe's sack and blind factory and some adjoining sheds were completely destroyed by fire last night. Loss, between $6,000 and $10,000; insured.Bellefonte, Ont., May 10.—Fire broke out about 3 o'clock this morning in George
P. Brown's warehouse, Coleman street.
Carriages to the value of $2,000 were destroyed. Insured for $1,300.STERLING, Ont., May 10.—About 5:30 o'clock this morning fire started in the upper story of Jas. Milne's establishment.
Jas. Milne & Son lost on building $2,000;
on stock $3,500; L. Meiklejohn on stock about $1,500; E. F. Parker, loss on stock $1,600.

Edwin Booth.

New York, May 10.—It is believed another acute crisis in the case of Edwin Booth has arisen.

Potency of a Pistol.

VANCOUVER, May 10.—Bob Leatherdale, of Vancouver, a handsome Lethario, who has figured in many notorious amours lately, was forced to marry a sister of the wife of Hugh Keefe, contractor, formerly of Thorold, Ont. The persuasive revolver was in the hands of Mrs. Keefe, who is a sister of the late Jesse James, the bandit.Why was the match spoiled? "The old man threw cold water on it. That would spoil any match."

Suffered From Birth
With a Severe Form of Scrofula Humor

"Until my boy was six years of age he was from birth a terrible sufferer from scrofula humor. Sores would appear on him and spread until as large as a dollar and then discharge, followed by others, so that the larger part of his body was one mass of sores all the time, especially severe on his legs and back of his head, having only the scars to show where they had been. These have all disappeared. We are unable to express our thanks for the good."

Intense Itching

We cannot tell how that poor boy suffered in all those years. Physicians did not effect a cure. At last I decided to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla, as my druggist recommended it. In about two weeks the Sarsaparilla began to have effect. The sores commenced to heal up; the flesh began to look more natural and healthy. Then the scales came off and over his body new and healthy flesh and skin formed. When he had taken two bottles he was entirely free from sores, having only the scars to show where they had been. These have all disappeared. We are unable to express our thanks for the good."

C. P. R. Statistics—Lord Mountstephen Withdraws from the Board.

The annual statement of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's affairs, submitted by the secretary at the annual meeting on Wednesday, shows gross earnings, $21,469,351; working expenses, $12,989,004; net earnings, $8,480,347; total surplus carried forward, $6,923,531.

The board of directors of the C. P. R. Company were elected with the exception of Lord Mountstephen, who has retired. Mr. Van Horne was re-elected president and Mr. Shaughnessy vice-president.

It was understood at first that there would be an issue of $32,000,000 preferred stock, but the directors were authorized to issue only $8,000,000.

The Santa Fe Railroad Company have cut rates so that passengers can ride 300 miles for 25 cents. It is said the Rio Grand road will meet the cut.

Women Refused Suffrage for the Assembly.

Mr. Waters' Bill "Held" by a Non-Partisan Vote of 17 to 16—Cost of Binder Twine.

[From Our Own Representative.]
PARLIAMENT HOUSE, TORONTO, May 10.—Among the 73 members present in the House, there were found sixteen only who were ready to do battle for Mr. Waters' bill, proposing womanhood suffrage for the Legislative Assembly.

The division (which was irrespective of party) resulted in a vote of 57 for and 16 against Hon. Mr. Dryden's amendment, which read as follows:

"That while the propriety of the extension of the suffrage to women has been strongly contended for by many in this country and elsewhere, the opposite view has generally prevailed:

"That women have no votes at elections for the Imperial Parliament or for the Legislature of any Province of the Dominion or the Empire, or so far as known, of any other country in the world (except the State of Wyoming);

"That the extension of suffrage to women would double or more than double the number of elections, and might, therefore, involve the transfer to women of a preponderating voting power in all matters affecting the laws and institutions of the Province;

"That such a far-reaching change in the electoral franchise is a subject which has not been seriously dealt with or considered at any general election in the Province, and that under all the circumstances it is the opinion of this House that it is the present duty of the House to refuse its assent to any measure providing for female suffrage at Parliamentary elections;

"This House therefore orders that the said bill be not now read a second time, but be read a second time this day six months."

RETURN OF DEFECTIONS.
There has been considerable talk this session about the looseness of the municipal bookkeeping in Ontario, and in this connection an important return has been brought down. It shows the defections that took place in the municipalities between 1871 and 1891, and does not warrant the sweeping statements made. The total amount of the defections, which were eighteen in number, was $54,931, and the actual losses were $32,823. The difference of $22,000 was doubtless recovered. The Government issued several commissions to inquire into the various defections.

The return shows that the treasurers of three cities, three towns, four villages, four counties and four townships were short in their accounts.

COST OF BINDER TWINE.
In response to Mr. Galt's inquiry as to the probable cost of the binder twine, Provincial Secretary Gibson has stated that it would be placed on the market at a figure commensurate with the rate estimated for prison labor 60 cents a day, and sufficient to give a small revenue to the Province. Although it would not be sold at actual cost price, it would reach the consumer directly and at a much lower figure than the present ruling prices. The very fact that such an industry had been established at the Central Prison, together with the uncertainty as to its selling price, had already acted as a discouraging element to the combines, and had materially reduced the price, an advantage which the farmer was even now sharing.

BEFORE THE MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE.
Mr. Gilmour's bill, requiring two-thirds of the owners to petition a council to submit in bonus by-laws in aid of a street railway, instead of a majority, was adopted.

Mr. Waters' bill proposing to relieve members of municipal councils, qualifying as tenants, from the necessity of the tenancy being free from mortgage made by the landlord already acted as a discouraging element to the combines, and had materially reduced the price, an advantage which the farmer was even now sharing.

MURDER OF A MURDERER!
Sequel to the Roehl-Pallister Escape from the Death House at Sing Sing—Roehl's Body Found in the River.

SING SING, N. Y., May 10.—The body of Frank W. Roehl, who with Thomas Pallister, escaped from the death house this morning in the Hudson River directly across from Sing Sing. The body was found by three fishermen. They towed the remains of the murderer to the upper dock and notified the prison officials.

When the body had been washed it was found that Roehl had been shot in the right side of the head, and the supposition is that Pallister shot him for the large sum of money which Roehl is supposed to have received from a relative as soon as he left the prison.

At the time of the escape, it will be remembered the two threw paper into the death watch's eyes, overpowered him, secured his keys and locked him and the night roundman into the cells. When they left the prison they offered to release Carlisle Harris, but at that time Harris had not abandoned hope of executive clemency and would not go. Roehl and Pallister were believed at that time to have tried to cross the river, and as a heavy gale was blowing it had been suspected all along that their disappearance without leaving a single trace would be explained by the discovery that they had been drowned.

His Repentance.

"For Caroline's sake," he entreated. "If this mistake becomes known in all its unhappy details, my professional doom is sealed. Never again, as long as I live, as you and I are together, will I attempt to act on my opinion in opposition to yours. Be merciful to me, Dr. Davenal! For her and my sake conceal it from the world."

And Dr. Davenal yielded. Ever merciful, ever striving to act in accordance with the great precepts of love and mercy, he yielded to the prayer of the unhappy and agitated man before him. His own partner, Caroline's husband, no, he could not, would not, bring upon him the obloquy of the world. "I will keep the secret," Mark Cray. Be easy. You have my promise."

The unhappy tidings were made known to the household—that their mistress could not be aroused from the effect of chloroform which had been administered with a view of saving her pain; and they came flocking in. She was not dead but she was lying still and motionless; and the means of recalling life were lost. Mark Cray continued his efforts when all hope was gone, trying every means, probable and improbable, in his madness. Had a battery been at hand he would have employed galvanism.

Also they might as well have sought to arouse a stone statue. Never more would there be any arousing for poor Lady Oswald in this world. Death was claiming her, uncomplaining death. "I will keep the secret," Mark Cray. Be easy. You have my promise."

Parkins, considerably recovered from her own attack, but in a shaky and fearful state, had come into the room with the rest. Parkins seemed inclined to rebel at the state of things; to question everybody, to cast blame somewhere. "Why should chloroform have been given to her?" she asked of Mr. Cray.

"It was given with a view to deaden the pain," Mr. Samuel T. Casey, Belleville, writes: "In the spring of 1884 I began to be troubled with dyspepsia, which gradually became more and more distressing. I used various domestic remedies and applied to my family physician, but received no benefit. By this time my trouble assumed the form of dropsy. I was unable to use any food whatever except boiled milk and bread; my limbs were swollen to twice their natural size; all hopes of my recovery were given up, and I quite expected death within a few weeks. Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY having been recommended to me, I tried a bottle with but little hope of relief; and now, after using eight bottles, my Dyspepsia and Dropsy are cured. Although now 79 years of age I can enjoy my meals as well as ever, and my general health is good. I am well-known in this section of Canada, having lived here 57 years; and you have liberty to use my name in recommendation of your VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, which has done such wonders in my case."

Egypt—Where are you working now? Cholly—Gwent heavens! I'm not working; I'm employed in my own father's bank. Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruises, cuts and sores succumb to its action.

In Christians, with its 160,000 inhabitants there are only 27 places where liquor is retained. Beware of peddlers or others who are going around soliciting orders for Pure Gold Baking Powder in bulk, and delivering instead a trashy alum powder worth only about one-quarter of the price. Pure Gold is sold only in small packages or cans, bearing the well known lithographed label used by the company. A liberal reward will be paid by the Pure Gold Company to anyone giving such information as will lead to punishment of fraud of this kind.

There is no good reason why blind asylum attendants shouldn't consider themselves entitled to rank among our leading citizens. Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills as they are extremely mild and in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

"My dear fellow I am awfully glad to see you! I hope you are in a position to lend me that $10 you owe me."

A man's wife should always be the same nervous and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her feel like a different person, at least so they all say, and their husbands say so too.

The reason a person sees stars when he is struck in the head must be because it makes him sore aloft. Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is earache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted to the above ailment, but also to the other disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are especially subject.

If you are in want of pipe give them a call.

"If the operation over, sir?" "Yes," curtly answered Mark.

"When did you ever know Dr. Davenal unsuccessful?" retorted Mark. "That was successful enough."

It never occurred to Julius Wild that the stress upon the word "that" implied, or could imply, that, though the operation had been successful, something else was not. Perhaps it was half a subterfuge in Mark Cray to have said it. The young man asked no more questions. Finding himself so snubbed, he desisted, and walked behind in silence. Neither of them told the unhappy truth to him, Dr. Davenal may have been too pained, too shocked to speak; and Mark Cray's conscience too suggestive. Nay, Dr. Davenal may not have seen his way clear to speak at all. If he was to conceal the culpability of Mark Cray, the less he opened his mouth about it the better.

Suddenly Mark turned around. "You are not wanted, Mr. Wild. There's nothing more to-night."

The young man took the hint at once, wished them good-evening, and walked off to the infirmary, there to leave certain articles that he had been carrying. He observed that Dr. Davenal usually so courteous, never answered him, never gave him the good-evening in reply to his.

The two surgeons walked on in silence. The streets were nearly deserted, and the sound of praise and prayer came upon their ears from the lighted places of worship as they passed them. The evening was a warm one, and the doors of the churches and chapels stood open. They never spoke a word one to the other. Mark Cray felt as he had probably never felt in his life—ashamed, repentant, grieved, humble. He was guilty of the blood of a fellow-creature. He called it a "mistake." A mistake in one sense it undoubtedly was, but a wicked and wilful one. Dr. Davenal felt it to be both; felt that the giving of the chloroform stealthily, in direct opposition to his expressed opinion, deserved a worse name; and, though he had promised not to betray Mark, he could not but subdue his own feelings, and speak to him in friendly tones. Thus in silence they reached the doctor's gate.

"Good-night," said he, turning in at it. "Good-night," replied Mark, continuing his way. But—and he felt it—there had been no invitation to him to enter, no pleasant look, no shake of the hand.

Neal was at the door, sitting himself and watching the passers-by in the dusky street. The Sunday arrangements were good at Dr. Davenal's, each servant being expected to attend public worship twice in a general way. Neal's times were morning and evening, and Dr. Davenal inquired why he was not at church.

"It was Jessy's evening at home, sir, but she had word sent her that her father was taken very ill; so I offered to stay in for her while she went to see him."

Of course there was no objection to be made to that; Neal had done right. Dr. Davenal went into his study, and lifted his hat from his brow as if a heavy weight were there. He had no light except what came in from the street lamp.

He leaned against the window in thought. Two hours before, Lady Oswald had been, so to say, as full of life as he was, and now—dead. Killed. There was no minding the matter to himself; she had been killed. Killed by Mark Cray!

Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY having been recommended to me, I tried a bottle with but little hope of relief; and now, after using eight bottles, my Dyspepsia and Dropsy are cured. Although now 79 years of age I can enjoy my meals as well as ever, and my general health is good. I am well-known in this section of Canada, having lived here 57 years; and you have liberty to use my name in recommendation of your VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, which has done such wonders in my case."

Egypt—Where are you working now? Cholly—Gwent heavens! I'm not working; I'm employed in my own father's bank. Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruises, cuts and sores succumb to its action.

In Christians, with its 160,000 inhabitants there are only 27 places where liquor is retained. Beware of peddlers or others who are going around soliciting orders for Pure Gold Baking Powder in bulk, and delivering instead a trashy alum powder worth only about one-quarter of the price. Pure Gold is sold only in small packages or cans, bearing the well known lithographed label used by the company. A liberal reward will be paid by the Pure Gold Company to anyone giving such information as will lead to punishment of fraud of this kind.

There is no good reason why blind asylum attendants shouldn't consider themselves entitled to rank among our leading citizens. Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills as they are extremely mild and in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

"My dear fellow I am awfully glad to see you! I hope you are in a position to lend me that $10 you owe me."

A man's wife should always be the same nervous and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her feel like a different person, at least so they all say, and their husbands say so too.

The reason a person sees stars when he is struck in the head must be because it makes him sore aloft. Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is earache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted to the above ailment, but also to the other disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are especially subject.

Sewer Pipe. Toronto Junction are at present laying 10,000 feet of 12 and 18 foot Hamilton sewer pipe. This order was given in preference to any other make, they having used 100 cars of this pipe last year. Bow man & Co., 246 Bathurst street, city, are agents of this celebrated pipe. If you are in want of pipe give them a call.

"If the operation over, sir?" "Yes," curtly answered Mark.

"When did you ever know Dr. Davenal unsuccessful?" retorted Mark. "That was successful enough."

BRANT.
Two hotel-keepers and twelve patrons have enlarged the Brantford treasury by depositing over $100 at the Police Court. The hotel-keepers had their places open on Sunday last and twelve patrons were seated in them. The former paid $22.85 each and the latter $4.85 each.

The Brant county teachers' convention is meeting at Brantford this week.

ESSEX.
Clerk Lusted, of Windsor, has tried to find the bylaw authorizing the city to collect $70 from each liquor license and in regard to which Inspector Pasand wrote the council. The search so far has been unsuccessful, and he thinks perhaps that when it was passed the original was sent to the license commissioners and it has been lost. Unless it is found those who have taken out liquor license in that city will have the $70 refunded.

James Black, who has been for some time in the employ of the Grand Trunk Railroad, Windsor, has mysteriously disappeared. He did not return to his boarding-house Saturday night, and no one can account for his strange disappearance.

MIDDLESEX.
A. C. Attwood, of Vanecko, writes us that since the notice in last week's issue of his offer to teach parties free how to save fruit trees which have been eaten by mice, he has had parties come to his place from far and near. One man came who had 100 trees destroyed, which he now can save, which was worth to him at least $100.

Mr. Attwood says he is going out to his stock farm in Brooke next week, and asks that no person come for instructions until he returns on the 20th inst.

Joseph Chambers, of Dawn Mills, who is 106 years old, has left for St. Joseph, Neb., to visit his sons in that city.

PERTH.
The Presbytery of Stratford met in Knox Church, Stratford, on the 9th inst. Rev. A. Stewart, moderator. The session records of Knox Church, Stratford and North Nissouri were presented for examination. A request from the congregation of Knox Hill that the church there shall be known as Boyd's Church, in memory of their late pastor, was granted.

Mr. P. Scott asked and obtained leave of absence for six months that he may recruit his health. Messrs. Leitch and Drummond resigned their commissions to assembly, and Messrs. Hamilton and Pantou were appointed in their stead. A paper on "The propriety of ordaining at time of licensure" was read by Mr. Hamilton, and the Presbytery without committing itself in any way tendered its thanks to Mr. Hamilton. The clerk was instructed to forward a Presbyterial certificate to Rev. S. C. Craik. References were made to the removal by death of Mr. Thos. Freeborn, of Welliesley, and Mr. Wm. Dunn, of Knox Church, Stratford, and Mr. Wm. Davidson, of Carleton Place, of whom had served many years in the eldership. Communication from the Presbyteries of Calgary, Brandon, Kingston and Halifax, showing that application would be made to assembly for leave to receive Revs. A. Robinson, R. Galloway, F. W. Florence, A. King, and F. Davey, as ministers of that church was read. The Presbytery then adjourned to meet again in Knox Church, Stratford, on July 11 next, at 10:30 a.m.

Post Veritas Editor.

A tall, lank young man came into a New York editor's sanctum, and handing him a poem several feet long to read, said in a condescending sort of way:

"You can publish this poem for $10."

"All right. Just hand over the $10. This is below our usual rates, but times are hard."

"You misunderstood me. I mean you can have the poem by paying $10."

"Can't take it. It's too cheap. It would be robbing you, for I know where you can get more than $10 for it."

"Where?"

"Take it to a justice of the peace and read it to him, and you will get $20 and 30 days in the county jail if you don't pay the fine."

He looked sadly at the editor, shook his head and waited himself out of the door.

Those interested in Muskoka as a summer resort will be glad to peruse an announcement on the subject issued by the Grand Trunk Railway and the Muskoka Navigation Company. The work, besides containing all the information that could possibly be desired in a concise and illustrated form, is a "Picture-que" Views and Maps of the Muskoka Lakes. It indicates this feature. There are three birdseye views of the principal lakes—Lake Muskoka, Lake Rosseau and Lake Joseph—of the remaining pictures are devoted to the leading hotels and principal private houses, with here and there a characteristic piece of verdant scenery interspersed. Ralph Smith & Co., Toronto, are the publishers.

Some New Tramps in Town.
A trio of tramps attracted L. C. Howie's attention on Egerton street near the car shops yesterday afternoon. They were all the more conspicuous from the fact that one of their number was a woman.

She ran into a house near by, and after getting someone to telephone for the patrol, Mr. Howie started after the tramps. The wagon brought out Detectives Rider and Nickle, and they joined in the chase after the men, who had started across the railroad track and into the swamps to the east of the city. One of the men got tangled up in a bird wire fence and fell an easy prey to the fast pursuing policemen. One of his comrades became hopelessly stuck in the mud in the swamp, a little further on, and he too succumbed.

The third gave Mr. Howie a run out to the old race course, and ultimately got away. The two men caught are of the Burke-Wilson variety, and gave their names as Geo. Egan and Geo. Powell, and Buffalo as the place of their activity. Egan was the man who chased the woman. On Powell was found some jewelry—a woman's brooch and a small gold basket, pendant from a pin.

Business at Osgoode Hall.
The Court of Appeal began its May sittings Tuesday. The Queen's Bench and Common Pleas Divisional Courts begin their sittings next Monday, and the Chancery sittings for the trial of cases will be begun on the same day. Next Thursday will be the last day for setting down cases for these three courts.

In High Court of Justice—Chapman vs. Shawell.—Judgment on appeal by the plaintiff from an order of G. C. J. J. 4, dismissing the application of the appellant to be appointed receiver, without security, of the rents and profits of certain lands, the appellant being an execution creditor of the defendant, who had an interest in the lands as tenant by the entirety. The marriage took place in 1887. The chief justice held that, having regard to the provisions of sec. 4, sub-sec. 3 of the Devolution of Estates Act, unless the defendant had declared his election to take an interest as tenant by the entirety, in the manner prescribed and within the time limited, the property of the wife must be disposed of under the provisions of sec. 9, and the right of the husband to possession of the property of his wife was gone. Appeal dismissed with costs. Walter Read for the appellant; Magee, Q.C., for the respondent.

London West Council.
At the last meeting of the London West Council Whit Lancaster & Co. presented a claim of $15 for boats during the freshet on March 24. The hiring of the boats was not authorized and the account was filed. For $50 for services rendered by Electric Light Company on March 19, 91. Filed. Not authorized.

The Alert Baseball Club asked permission to erect a fence against the break-water at the Tecumseh Park. Granted. J. B. Allen's request that the council remove sidewalk of his lot was referred to the board of works.

A. R. Murdoch, H. Horn and T. J. Guymer applied for a drain or culvert on Galt street. Referred to board of works with power.

An account of J. R. Gurd of $19.84 for relief was referred to Chairman Collins of the finance committee to report.

Collector J. R. Lord reported $2,600 uncollected taxes. It was voted that the collector be authorized to return the roll by June 1.

A Nice Point as to Tickets.
An important judgment was given by the Court of Appeal for Ontario yesterday in the case of Beaver vs. the Grand Trunk Railway. According to this judgment a conductor has no right to put a passenger off the train for failing to show his ticket.

The plaintiff, Beaver, is a merchant at Six Nations postoffice, in the county of Haldimand, and purchased a return ticket over the defendant's railway from Caledonia to Detroit. On the return trip he was ejected from the train in which he was traveling, having mislaid his ticket; and in this action he claimed damages to the amount of $1,000 for the trespass. The trial judge held that the conductor of the train was justified in ejecting the plaintiff, having first demanded the ticket or the amount of the fare and having allowed the plaintiff a reasonable time to pay his way. On appeal, the Divisional Court reversed this decision and held that, in the absence of express conditions requiring the passenger who had paid his fare and received the ticket to display the latter on demand, the company have no right to eject him for failing to do so. The company took the case to the Court of Appeal and the majority of the court agree with the judgment of the court below. Mr. Justice Oiler dissented, holding that the very purpose of giving a passenger a ticket is that he may prove to the conductor that he has paid his fare, and that he takes it with the condition annexed to it, that he shall produce it when called upon. The appeal was dismissed with costs.

The African Native Choir.
A gentleman who heard the famous African Native Choir, just after their arrival in this country, writes as follows: "The audience was immense, every available seat being occupied, both in the auditorium and the gallery, while the aisles were improved with chairs. The talent of these African singers, natives of Central Southern Africa, is perfectly unique, and especially the Kaffir songs gave one a very vivid conception of the character of that remarkable race. The feature about the concert was the dramatic element running through it. The talkative women and their quarrels were very comical, while the song, Mo-lo-ke-da, or marching melody, was intensely realistic. The wedding song, with its strange antics, and the capture of the bride gave a very vivid conception of the immense difference existing between the ceremony amongst African tribes and that of the Anglo-Saxon race. Certainly Christianity, civilization, and the church had done much for the white races. The Lord's Prayer, as sung before her Majesty the Queen at Osborne, was reproduced with fine and reverent effect by these Christianized heathens. Altogether the concert was most remarkable, and presented in the wonderful refinement of voice and manner in the sacred selections the effect upon these people of the power of Christianity to elevate the race. It was a remarkable change from the wild Kaffir dance to the National Anthem, 'God Save the Queen,' and yet it was only another tribute to the extent and power of the British Empire, upon which the sun never sets, for the British scepter rules no less than 39,837,600 people in Africa." The plan for this remarkable attraction opens on Tuesday, May 16. Nobody should miss this exceptional opportunity of hearing the Africans. The Opera House will doubtless be packed.

"Brace Up"
Is a tantalizing admonition to those who at this season feel all tired out, weak, without appetite and discouraged. But the way in which Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the tired frame and gives a good appetite, is really wonderful. So we say, "Take Hood's and it will brace you up."

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills.

"It seems," said the barber, "that my whole life is to be spent getting out of one scrape into another."

The combatants in the piano war should hold the fort.
