CHILDREN SCORE BIG SUCCESS IN McKEOUGH SCHOOL CONCERT

Delightful Program Presented at the Grand Last Evening—Capital Addresses Accompany Awards—A Charming Operetta Prettily Presented—Message from Former Teacher.

It was a grand sight and no parent in Chatham should have failed to see it.

This was the popular comment on the scene presented to the crowded house at the Grand last evening when the curtain was rung up on the McKeough school concert. The entertainment was a huge success in every way and reflected great credit upon all who had anything to do with its management. The house was well filled and everyone present was delighted with the program.

The concert was given for the distribution of the medals and prizes of the school and for the presentation of the operetta, "The Sleeping Beauty," a pretty little composition by M. C. Gillington, arranged by Thomas Faer.

The evening was opened with a chorus, "Rule Britannia," sung by all of the children of the school, who were arranged on an embankment of seats extending up from the stage floor to the roof. It was a rousing chorus capably sung and well received.

Chairman John McCorvie of the Public School Board, who was the chairman of the evening, gave a brief opening address in which he congratulated the teachers and scholars on the splendid showing they had made and thanked the audience on behalf of the management for the interest displayed by the very large attendance.

The little kindergarteners then gave a chorus which was remarkably well sung and well liked by the audience.

The little kindergarteners who took part in this chorus were: Margery West, Lillian McAuley, Winnie Newcombe, Gladys Capman, Doreen Bowers, Florence Cottingham, Woody Cottingham, Albert Davidson, Grace Cameron, Ruby Blackburn, Nellie Eberis, Adie Graves, Clinia Smith, Edith Howard, Verna Trumpus.

The chairman then introduced Mr. Fred Stone, who presented the John McCorvie medal to Miss Cora See, who was the most proficient pupil in English. Mr. Stone made an able and scholarly address in presenting this medal. Mr. Stone is an orator of more than ordinary ability and his address was one of the treats of the evening. He dwelt on the paramount importance of the study of English in the public schools and congratulated the receiver on the winning of such a desirable medal. The English language is the overruling language of the world, and so it was quite necessary that every pupil in the school should be able to speak and write it intelligently. Miss See was loudly applauded as Mr. Stone presented her with the medal.

Dr. James H. Duncan then presented Geo. Connibear with the J. Brackin medal, given to the best athlete of the school. The doctor made a splendid speech and the young athlete was given a good round of applause. The doctor was a great believer in gentlemanly sport and athletics, as it taught the boys self-denial and self-control. He thought that any boy should be proud to win such a medal, and hoped he would continue to be an athlete and thereby become a good man.

The Mayor, William E. McKeough, presented the William McKeough memorial medal to the eight winners—Mary E. Park, Charles B. Knight, W. Stewart McKeough, Myrtle Side, Chrystenah Baines, Jean R. Duncan, John A. West and Beatrice Douglas—and the special prize to Mabel Handysides. The Mayor, who is ever a ready and eloquent speaker, did full justice to himself last evening. In presenting the medal to his son Stewart, he said, "Stewart, you have made your daddy the happiest man in Chatham to-night." He had a congratulatory word for each of the winners.

This concluded the first part, and as the curtain was rung down in preparation for the second part the school was given a hearty round of applause.

The operetta, which was next presented, was conducted by Miss V. Aylesworth, with Miss Rose Morrison at the piano, assisted by the Opera House Orchestra, playing the accompaniments to the solos and choruses. The piece is a very interesting one—a history of which is as follows:—

ACT I.

Everyone is invited to the palace of the King and Queen of Rosacia to the christening feast of their infant daughter, the Princess Briar-Rose. It is to be a feast worthy of the occasion, and dainties and gifts innumerable have been provided for the guests. Too late the King discovers that of the Fairies invited to attend the christening to be godmothers to the little Princess, the most easily offended and vengeful, Blackabog, has been overlooked and he fears no good will come of it. Sure enough, in the midst of the ceremony, while the fairy godmothers are bestowing their blessings of health, happiness, beauty, etc., on the precious babe, old Blackabog enters and maliciously declares that the Princess shall die from the prick of a spindle before she reaches the age of fifteen. The grief of those present is great, but one good fairy promises, though she cannot revoke this wicked spell, to lessen it by substituting sleep for death, so that the Princess will fall asleep and remain so until awakened by a Fairy Prince; but the King determines to shut his little girl up so that she will not see nor hear of a spindle until after her fifteenth birthday.

ACT II.

The Princess has safely reached her fifteenth birthday, but is weary of being shut up in the palace and longs to go out as others do. It cheers her to know that after this day she will be given more liberty. She and her maids of honor start a game of hide-and-seek, the Princess to hide, the Maids to seek. In her search for a hiding place she discovers Blackabog sitting spinning, picks up her spindle, pricks herself with it, and not only she, but every occupant of the palace falls into a deep sleep.

ACT III.

Just about this time a band of robbers from a distance by chance make their way into the palace to rob it, but they too, almost fall under the spell, though by struggling hard they escape.

ACT IV.

Now, the land of Rosacia has always been noted for the number and beauty of its roses. During the hundred years of slumber, while—

"The palace lies so dumb,
So hushed and still in endless dreaming,
No step to go or come,
No light across the silence gleaming."

they overrun the palace, creeping in through its windows and covering the Sleeping Beauty, the King, the Queen, the Ladies, Courtiers and Maids of Honor. The roses and birds sing the first two choruses, the rose selling how they have grown, the birds proclaiming the coming of the Prince to waken the sleeping maiden. He is successful, "the spell is snapt, the charm is broken, the Prince has given the fated token," and the whole castle springs into life. The Prince is Promised the Princess for his bride, the Fairy Godmothers return to bless them both and there is a final chorus of rejoicing.

Act one is characterized by an opening chorus, "Ring the Bells," followed by "Behold the Beautiful Babe," by the nurses, and a semi-chorus, "From our Fairy Haunts," by the fairy Godmothers; a solo "Though I Haven't Been Invited," by Blackabog, and a final chorus, "A Dread Enchantment," by the school. Act two consists of choruses, "The King and Queen," by the school, solo, "I Wish I were a Milkmaid," by the Princess, "I Spin the Threads," by Blackabog, and a final chorus, "My Dear, I am so Sleepy," by the King, Queen and school.

Act three consists of the choruses by the Robbers, "We are Twenty Bold and Wicked Robbers," and "Really we are Yawning."

Act four comprises five choruses by the school, solo, "Within This Hedge of Roses," by the Prince, with the finale chorus, "The Bells are Ringing," by the whole school.

May Lampard as the Princess Briar-Rose was a star. She sang beautifully and acted her part like an old stage star. She was a great favorite with the audience. The part of Prince Florio, of Joyous Isle, was ably acted and sung by George Gaudion. George has a splendid soprano voice and it was easily seen that his work was enjoyed and appreciated by the audience. Fenne Arnold and Stanley McCormick as Queen Pepita and King Pepin were good, especially in the dialogue work. The Herald, Douglas Bell, bore himself with that stateliness and deep respect which is expected from a Herald to the King, while Gertie Irving as Blackabog was certainly a star. She had a difficult part to play and she played it with great credit to herself. But, indeed, if justice were done, all of the children who took part in the concert would be praised for the manner in which they conducted themselves. The operetta was prepared in one month's time and it was presented without a flaw. This also speaks well of Miss Aylesworth, the able conductor, and her splendid assistants, Principal Abram and the other teachers of the school.

The following is the cast of characters in the operetta:
The Princess Briar-Rose—May Lampard.
The Prince Florio of Joyous Isle—George Gaudion.
Queen Pepita of Rosacia—Fenne Arnold.
King Pepin of Rosacia—Stanley McCormick.

GOOD TEACHERS ARE HONORED

C. C. I. Board Pay Practical Tribute to Good Work of Messrs. Collins, Jennings and Thompson.

Principal Twohey's Praise—A Very Amusing Discussion—More Improvements Inaugurated.

The great difficulty of the C. C. I. Board seems to be to secure a quorum at the opening of their meetings. Again yesterday the chairman, Rev. Dr. Battisby, and Col. J. B. Rankin waited some twenty minutes for their tardy colleagues, who finally made their appearances.

There were present the chairman, Rev. Dr. Battisby, Col. Rankin, Dr. Thornton, S. B. Arnold, W. G. Richards, and Robt. Smith.

Col. Rankin reported relative to the resignation of Mr. Collins that the commercial master had withdrawn the same after a consultation and arrangement and moved the confirmation of his appointment at specialist's salary of $1250 to date from Sept. 1st last.—Carried.

Col. Rankin also moved that recognizing the worth of Messrs. Thompson and Jennings their salaries be increased $50 each, dating from Sept. 1st last.—Carried.

The discussion on an account from W. J. Kenny for ink occasioned some merry repartees. It was pointed out that, purchasing by the gallon, the price seemed high.

Mr. Smith said that in buying small bottles of ink for the small schools the price ran up.

The Chairman—True, but buying in bulk it should be cheaper. You can buy whiskey by the gallon much more cheaper than by the goblet.

Col. Rankin, smiling—We are quite willing, Doctor, I am sure to accept your testimony on that matter.

Dr. Thornton—I presume it's expert testimony.

Dr. Battisby—Nay, but I think it would be if I had your nose.

The account was referred for investigation.

The Principal's report on attendance for September was submitted by Mr. Twohey as follows.

Form 4—Enrolled 7, average 7.
Form 3A—Enrolled 35, average 32.
Form 3B—Enrolled 48, average 43.
Form 2—Enrolled 44, average 42.
Form 1A—Enrolled 45, average 43.
Form 1B—Enrolled 36, average 34.
Form 1C—Enrolled 26, average 24.
Senior Commercial—Enrolled 48, average 43.
Junior Commercial—Enrolled 42, average 38.
Total—Enrolled 331, average 306.

A very satisfactory report this proved. It shows that the average attendance for the past month is greater than at any other time in the history of the institution.

The Remington Typewriter Co., wrote re-rentals.—Referred to Property Committee.

A. E. Jeynt wrote reviewing the advanced character of the work of the science department and urged the equipment of a biological lavatory and library and various other improvements. He also asked some latitude in the purchase of small supplies, and enclosed a list of books required for the botanical library.—Referred to Supply Committee.

Principal Twohey briefly addressed the Board. He recommended the purchase of two teachers' desks for the commercial department, and the removal of the partition in the old building to make room for the calisthenic classes. Also it would be necessary to arrange for the heating of this department. The Principal also recommended that Mr. Lane be supplied with two maps to assist the classes in French and German and twelve copies of a French work. He thought all were necessary.

The Principal's recommendation in these matters were endorsed by the Board and the Supply Committee was authorized to attend to the same.

The following accounts were passed—

Blonde Lumber Co., $491.00.
Planet, $2.50.
W. J. Kenny (referred) $25.60.
W. C. Bentley, $2.00.
Typewriter Co., $9.
John Brown, $1.25.
A. R. Crow, $25.30.
Hiram Brown, $3.30.
Gas Co., $7.25.
Mail & Empire, $1.56.

Speaking of the recognition extended to Messrs. Collins, Thompson and Jennings, Principal Twohey expressed pleasure and satisfaction with the Board's action. He paid a hearty tribute to the work of these gentlemen.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4.

A SHARP CONTRAST.

The Toronto World the other day had a lengthy article contrasting the Canadian Transcontinental Railway Commission with the United States Isthmian Canal Commission, and the comparison shows greatly to the disadvantage of the former. The personnel of the commissions is as follows—

Canadian Transcontinental Railway Commission—F. L. Wade, K. C., lawyer, chairman; A. Brunet, formerly cashier of a bank; R. Reid, stationer; C. A. Young, implement agent. United States Isthmian Canal Commission—Rear-Admiral John G. Walker, U. S. N.; Major-Gen. Geo. W. Davis, U. S. A.; Wm. B. Parsons, C. E.; Wm. H. Burr, C. E.; Ben. M. Harrod, C. E.; C. E. Grunsky, C. E.; Frank J. Hecker, business man; D. I. Murphy, journalist, secretary.

There is good reason to find fault with the Canadian Commissioners on the score of lack of training and experience for the work for which they will be held responsible to the people of Canada. Not one of them is a railroad man, or a civil engineer or an expert of any kind having a bearing on railway building, and the inference must be that they have been placed in offices of emolument because of party affiliations and as a reward for party services rendered or for the purpose of partisan administering of the vast funds they are to expend. No regard has been had for efficiency. This is in decided contrast with the considerations which influenced the selection of the members of the Isthmian Canal Commission, who were appointed because of their fitness for the work. In making the appointments, President Roosevelt addressed the commissioners as follows—

"I have chosen you with reference to nothing save my belief, after full and patient enquiry, that you are, among all the available men of whom I have knowledge, those best fitted to bring this great task to a successful conclusion. You have been chosen purely because of your personal and professional reputation for integrity and ability. You represent the whole country. You represent neither section nor party. I have not sought to find out the politics of a single one of you. I have not the slightest idea of what your political affiliations are. So long as you render official service of the highest type you may rest assured of my hearty support and backing in every way. I shall expect you to apply precisely the same principles in the choice and retention of the subordinates who are to do the work under you as I have applied in your choice and shall apply in your retention. I shall expect you to appoint no man for reasons other than your belief in the aid he can render you in digging the canal."

While it is not often that the United States has been cited as furnishing a good pattern to go by, it must be conceded that the above is eminently sensible and businesslike, and might well have been copied by the Dominion Government in the constitution of the railway commission. Mr. Roosevelt further said to the commissioners:

"The plans are to be carefully made with a view of the needs not only of the moment, but of the future. The expenditures are to be supervised rigorously as if they were being made for a private corporation dependent for its profits upon the returns. You are to secure the best talent this country can afford to meet the conditions created by every need which may arise. The methods for achieving the results must be yours. What this nation will insist upon is that the results be achieved."

The Canadian Government and Commissioners would do well to commit this to memory and act upon it to the utmost of their ability, no matter whether the present plan of the Government carries or whether the Conservative party comes to power and has the road constructed as a Government-owned line.

The Mail and Empire scores a further point by resurrecting from the campaign speeches of former Liberal leaders strong denunciation of the system of building and administering Government railways by commission, as being contrary to the spirit of Parliamentary Government. Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, in a campaign speech which he delivered at Clinton, prior to the election of 1878, made this statement:

"When we came into office we found that four commissioners were conducting the affairs of the Intercolonial Railway, one on a salary of $4,000 a year, and the others on a salary of $3,000 a year, one of them being a member of Parliament. I introduced an Act at once to abolish

NEW CITY MARKET BUILDING WILL BE BUILT AT LAST

Aldermen Take Action on The Planet's Suggestion—By-Law to be Submitted—Ald. Marshall Tenders and Withdraws Resignation—The Lighting Problem—Lengthy Meeting of City Council.

The City Council last night gave another sample of how to take much time to do little business, the aldermen crowding a good half-hour's work into the two hours and a half in which they went in for oratory practice. Ald. Scullard, who presided after the departure of Mayor McKeough, was generous and, although he rubbed his eyes wearily at times and ever and anon sighed sadly, he gave a kindly latitude to the speakers in front of him—a courtesy which they gave very practical evidence that they appreciated. In discussing the proposal to have the lighting system inspected, for instance, 49 minutes of actual time was monopolized and one alderman distinguished himself by speaking some eleven times.

After the happy presentation to Clarence E. Stringer, which preceded the meeting, the Mayor withdrew, "not," as he smilingly stated, "because I love you less, but because I love the children more." On motion of Ald. Piggott and Edmondson, Ald. Scullard was elected to the chair for the balance of the evening.

Ald. Marshall tendered his resignation as an alderman owing to his alliance with the new industry which looks towards establishment in this city.

Ald. McKeough moved that the resignation be not accepted. He had spent nearly five years with Ald. Marshall at the civic board and paid a high compliment to his worth and services. He hoped Ald. Marshall would reconsider his decision.

All the other aldermen spoke heartily in support of the motion.

Ald. Marshall expressed his appreciation of the kind words of confidence tendered and consented to withdraw the resignation, stating he would refrain from discussing or voting upon the matter in which he was interested.

"I presume we all read the editorial article in to-night's Planet on the matter of the market building," declared Ald. Edmondson, "and think its criticism is quite right and its suggestion should be acted upon. The market is without doubt the most disgraceful spot in our city. It is about the most valuable property location in the city, yet the city treasurer assured him it was hardly self-sustaining. I would move that a committee be appointed to go into the matter, have plans prepared and a by-law submitted. Let the citizens inspect the matter and ascertain the cost."

Ald. Martin—I heartily second the motion.

Ald. Westman spoke strongly in support of the resolution. The present market, he said, was a disgrace.

On the suggestion of Ald. McKeough it was unanimously decided that the Council act as a committee of the whole in taking prompt steps in this matter.

Ald. Piggott made a very satisfactory statement of the comparative figures of the Board of Works in Windsor and Chatham. In Windsor the estimated expenditure of their Board this year was $14,500, while in Chatham, with more work done, it was only $7,500.

When the account of Dr. Charteris, for expenses as delegate to a health convention, was passed, the finance minister, Ald. Marshall, took occasion to sound an ominous warning.

"I do not like these accounts," he said. "Unfortunately we have no way to stop them or secure redress. Under the statute we must just pay up and look pleasant, or try to look so. But it is apparent that the commission, and to make it a duty of the Minister of Public Works to conduct the Intercolonial Railway as a public work in Canada, and we saved by that means the sum of $10,000 per annum."

It is not the saving, however, that is the chief consideration. The objection urged by both Mr. Alex. Mackenzie and Mr. Edward Blake to the employment of commissioners was that it removed the public outlays from the control of Parliament. Mr. Blake very forcibly pointed out that danger of transferring to outside persons duties and responsibilities over which the Parliamentary body ought to hold a check. A commission appointed by the Cabinet is beyond the reach of the people's representatives. Their policy and expenditures are alike irresponsible to the electorate. Such a system was so foreign to the principle of responsible government that Mr. Mackenzie declared it could not be tolerated under Liberal rule. The new Liberalism has not only reintroduced it, but in a form far more objectionable than before.

The Liberal leaders have held up their hands in horror at thought of the old Pacific Scandal, which, if all their charges about it were true, has been discounted by their own election exploits, and certainly by appointing such a commission as they have, they are starting out in such a way as to make the people look for a new Pacific Scandal to which the other was a pigmy.

Health Board will considerably overstep its estimates and, with the present high rate, I think it is unfortunate that more care is not exercised in incurring accounts."

All the members of the Council were present.

The Bank of Commerce wrote asking permission to build extension.—Property.

R. Lowe wrote asking allowance for flankage on Patterson Ave.—Finance.

Several petitions for local improvements were read and referred.

Tid. Defiance Iron Works Co., of Syracuse, wrote submitting their final proposition for the establishment of their factory in Chatham.—Referred to Industrial Committee to prepare a by-law.

Mary Glasgow wrote asking $15 and doctor bill for accident on Fifth St. West.

J. H. Tyrell wrote giving notice of claim for damages on account of accident on Joseph St.—Finance.

Ald. Piggott asked whether it was the fault of the linemen or the lamps that there was no light on King St. West.

Ald. Edmondson said he had taken up the matter and would later move the appointment of an expert to inspect. He desired to know where the trouble was. If it was the linemen's fault he would move their discharge.

It was decided to ask for tenders for the cleaning of Sandys St. sewer.

Ald. Piggott reported that he had directed a passage over the Fifth Street for the Fire Dept. to be left where repairs were going on.

Ald. Edmondson moved that an expert be engaged to inspect the lighting system and see where the difficulty arises.

Ald. Piggott thought that one of the linemen was derelict in his duty. He thought the City Engineer should be intrusted with the inspection.

Ald. McKeough said that he hoped the council would now take the action he recommended before the purchase of the dynamo, viz., the thorough and proper overhauling of the entire system.

Ald. Piggott said if the City Engineer wasn't aware of the poor lights it was time the Council made him aware of it.

The matter was finally left with Property Committee.

Wm. Chrysler's bond for granulithio walks was accepted and approved.

Ald. Tyrell brought up the matter of the Lansdowne Ave. sewer and asked if the council purposed doing justice to Mr. Charles. He strongly favored a settlement.

Ald. Martin moved that the city compensate Mr. Charles in the matter by the payment of $12 in a strong address.

The discussion waxed quite warm. Ald. Martin was declared out of order and heatedly responded.

He finally moved the rescinding of the former motion. Ald. Edmondson seconded. The motion failed.

A YOUNG HERO

Mayor McKeough Fittingly Present Recognition to Brave Maple City Youth.

A memorable and exceedingly pleasant event took place at the City Council meeting last evening, when a recent heroic act of a Maple City lad in saving a comrade's life from drowning was suitably commemorated.

After the opening routine of the civic session his worship Mayor McKeough asked Clarence E. Stringer to step forward.

The Mayor rose in honor of the youth as he entered within the rail and addressed him heartily.

"Shakespeare," said his worship, "has said that there is a tide in the flood, leads on to fortune." All men have not the opportunity of being heroes. Some when the chance comes do not seize it and their life is one long regret; others place deeds of valor upon record. It takes nerve and courage to perform a brave deed. "You gallantly saved a fellow companion's life. We are proud of you, Clarence, and Chatham is proud of you, and it affords me much pleasure to present you with this parchment from the Royal Canadian Humane Society."

Amid rounds of hearty applause the Mayor then handed the lad the handsome engraved record of his brave deed, when by heroic presence of mind he saved James Clarke from drowning in the River Thames.

HAPPIEST MAN IN UNCLE SAM'S NAVY.

"I am the happiest man in Uncle Sam's Navy. I must have got the pills from always sitting on the guns, for I have to get on them to clean them, as I am first-class gunner's mate in the after turret."

"I could not do any work when I had the piles, my shipmates did it for me. I certainly was in a bad condition; to-day there is no man on board the ship in better condition than I am, and I can certainly thank Pyramid Pile Cure for the world of good it has done me. I used so many different medicines and spent lots of money until I used this remedy; it is the only one of the whole lot that did me any good."

"The first box nearly cured me, and I don't think I ever felt better in my life, that I thought I got the real stuff at last. To make sure of a cure I used a number of boxes, also two boxes of Pyramid Pills and one and-a-half boxes of Pyramid Ointment, and I still have four boxes of Pyramid Pile Cure left, that I keep in case I meet anyone that is a sufferer of piles. I thank Pyramid Pile Cure a million times." Julius A. Koester, U. S. Flagship Kearsarge.

The wonderful cures effected by this remedy are subject for remark among members of the medical profession everywhere. A little book describing the causes and cure of piles is published by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., and we advise every sufferer to get it. It is a singular fact that one out of every four suffers from this distressing complaint, and another peculiar feature is that it is no respecter of persons, attacking both those of high and of low degree, the laborer and the millionaire, the scrubwoman and the lady of fashion. We have pleasure in recommending Pyramid Pile Cure, to all such, as it possesses merit, and since it is sold by all druggists generally for the low price of fifty cents a package a prompt and speedy cure is easily within the reach of everyone.

EARNST WORK OF GOOD LADIES

Successful Annual Meeting of the Home of Friendless Held Yesterday.

Eulogy By Dr. Battisby—Thanks to Col. Rankin—Officers Elected and Reports Received.

The annual meeting of the ladies of the Home was held in the City Council Chamber, Harrison Hall, yesterday afternoon. Dr. Battisby was the only gentleman present outside the newspaper representatives. The doctor never misses the annual meeting, and at the request of the ladies he opened the meeting with prayer. The Rev. doctor had to withdraw immediately afterwards owing to the meeting of the C. C. I. Board, of which he is chairman. Mrs. N. H. Stevens presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Stegman. There were present at the meeting Mrs. Tyhurst, Mrs. Laird, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. R. G. Fleming, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. S. F. Gardner, Miss Charlotte Ryan, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Flynn, Mrs. Eberts, Mrs. W. D. Sheldon, Mrs. Bounsell and Mrs. Tissiman.

Dr. Battisby made a short address in which he praised the ladies of the Home for the good work they were doing. Theirs was a thankless task and one which had many discouraging elements. The aged poor were not as grateful as they might be. Still they should be born with.

Mrs. Stevens thanked the doctor for his presence and his address.

Mrs. Charlotte Ryan read the secretary's report for year ending Sept. 30, 1904, as follows:

In presenting this the twenty-third annual report of the Home for the Friendless, comparatively speaking the Home has been filled this year, and much credit is due to the matron, Miss Green, who has given her time to these afflicted ones. From 18 to 22 persons have been in constant attendance, of whom 14 were present last year. 40 persons admitted during the year; 21 male; 19 female; 5 Roman Catholics; 30 Protestants; 5 strangers, sheltered over night; 36 from the city; 4 from other parts; 31 white; 9 colored. We received board from four aged persons and one child and still continue the education at the Bellevue Institute of little Herbert Wilson. Furnished outside of the Home fuel and provisions to 129 householders, 452 persons in all; 30 Roman Catholics; 99 Protestants; 54 white, 76 colored; 3 burials; 17 hospital patients; 14 railway passes issued to the travelling poor; 241 grocery orders, varying from 25 cents to $1.00; 185 wood and coal orders distributed, not including the regular Christmas cheer.

The Board of Management of the Home avail themselves of this opportunity of thanking Mr. Gosnell for the use of his office during the past year.

CHARLOTTE RYAN, Secretary.

On motion of Mrs. Ferguson, seconded by Mrs. Tissiman, the report was adopted.

Mrs. R. G. Fleming presented the treasurer's report. It was very clear and the treasurer was complimented for its excellence. It was as follows:

Receipts, cash in Bank, Oct. 1, '03, $782.50; received from Ontario Government, $314.58; received from city of Chatham, $2,000; from inmates, $225.50; members, $4.50; Mrs. Ma $148.18; subscriptions, $145.90; in cash from Bank, $24.50; total, $3,599.

Expenditures—Meat, $157.71, flour, bread, etc., $119.75; milk, $60; wages, $30.12; potatoes and vegetables, $4.70; groceries and provisions, $456.36; postage, etc., $16.26; shoes, clothing, etc., $32.18; fuel, $86.35; furniture, bedding, etc., $32.54; medicine, etc., $135.33; repairs, $136.10; salaries, $227.25; hospitals, $142.68; funerals, $31.90; artificial limbs, $25; passes, $10.65; other expenses, $39.58; cash in Bank, $468.71; cash in Savings Bank, $472.68; total, $3,595.75. Signed ALTA FLEMING, Treasurer.

Mrs. Laird, for the Religious committee, reported that the clergy members of the city had paid the following number of visits: Rev. Dr. Battisby 8, Rev. Mr. Cobbleck 5, Rev. R. McCosh 4, Rev. T. Beverley Smith 4, Rev. Mr. MacGillivray 4, Rev. F. E. Mallott 3. Religious services were held by Messrs. Macaulay, Reeve, Thompson, Sde, Moore, Walker, Putnam and Judge Woods.

Mrs. McLean, the corresponding secretary, reported that she had written 19 letters during the year. Mrs. John Ferguson, treasurer of the Special committee, reported the receipt of $40 from the Sherwood bequest. This was expended as follows: Christmas cheer, $24.75; clothing, $3.30; Mrs. Gordon, $11.65.

Mrs. Gardner moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. W. D. Sheldon, Mrs. John Ferguson, Mrs. Tyhurst, and Mrs. E. W. Scane, the ladies who had charge of the Wards. The vote of thanks carried unanimously.

Mrs. McLean suggested a vote of thanks to the press to their courtesy during the year.

On motion of Mrs. Sheldon, seconded by Mrs. Ferguson, it was carried unanimously.

COLONEL RANKIN THANKED.

On motion of Mrs. Fleming, seconded by Mrs. Johnson, a hearty vote of thanks was passed to Colonel J. B. Rankin. Mrs. Fleming said that Col. Rankin had been the solicitor for the Home ever since it had been started and had always given his aid and his advice without recompense. The Colonel was deserving of recognition and thanks for what he had done.

In the absence of Mayor McKeough, Mrs. N. H. Stevens presided during the election of officers: Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Johnson were appointed secretaries.

The following officers were elected: President—Mrs. E. W. Scane. Vice-President—Mrs. S. F. Gardner.

Treasurer—Mrs. R. G. Fleming. Secretary—Miss Ryan. Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Johnson.

The newly elected officers made short addresses.

It was moved by Mrs. Stevens, seconded by Mrs. Johnson, that a vote of thanks be passed to Mrs. E. W. Scane, who had been the religious committee, for her splendid work for the Home. The following ladies were appointed: Messdames E. B. John A. Walker, Ball, F. E. the Mayor, Judge House Park and John A. Walker.

TRENTON MAN LOST.

Fell Overboard While On the Atlantic Ocean.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 4.—Bright Sceptre, Capt. Burke, arrived at Lunenburg Sunday evening from the West Indies, with her flag at half mast, having lost Jas. Samphier, seaman, who fell off the bowsprit of the vessel on Sept. 23, at 6.30 in the evening, during a heavy breeze. A life-line was thrown to him at once but although he was seen for a moment he was unable to grasp it and sank. Samphier was 36 years old, belonged to Trenton, Ont., and shipped with Capt. Burke on Aug. 8, 1904, from Halifax. He has been employed by the Victoria Sealing Co., Victoria, B.C., for several years.

Fell Six Feet to Death.

Winton, Oct. 4.—The sad intelligence of the death of Rev. Samuel Acheson, minister of the Presbyterian Church, Cowner, N. D., late of St. Andrew's Church, Kippen, Ont., reached his brother, Rev. Stuart Acheson, minister of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church here, Saturday. It appears that the deceased went to see a new building, the model of a new manse, that was being built for him at West Hope, N.D., and when standing on the stairs, 6 feet from the floor, the temporary step suddenly gave way, and Mr. Acheson fell into the cellar, receiving such injuries that he died on Monday, Sept. 26, five days after the accident. Deceased was born at Mono Mills, County of Simcoe, Ont., on May 4, 1846. He was educated at the University of Toronto and Knox College, and graduated from Knox in 1876, and was ordained the same year by the Presbytery of Peterboro. He served the Canadian Presbyterian Church in Minden, Wick and Greenbank, and St. Andrew's Church, Kippen. In the last charge he spent sixteen years. In all he served the Canadian church for a quarter of a century. He was called to Pembina, N. D., in April, 1901.

Drowns in a Cistern.

London, Oct. 4.—A particularly sad accident occurred at the home of Mr. George Wells, Pearl street, East London, Sunday morning, when Harry, his 2-year-old son, fell into a cistern and was drowned. His mother, missing the child, found him in the cistern.

Powder Mill Explosion.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 4.—The corner mill of the Dupont Powder Co., near Peckville, exploded, instantly killing Richard Halsey and Walter Allworth, two employees. Buildings near by were set on fire.

Six Buried in Mine.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 4.—A special from Cartersville, this State, says six men have been buried in a mine near that place. The dead are R. P. Morgan, owner of the mine, and five of his employees.

Welsh Railway Fatality.

London, Oct. 4.—Four persons were killed, and it is estimated nearly 50 were injured, one of them fatally, by the derailment of a train near Llanelli, Wales, yesterday.

Puts It Inland.

Montreal, Oct. 4.—In view of the immense strategic importance of uninterrupted communication by wireless telegraphy at all times between Canada and Great Britain, the Marconi Company has decided that the station near Glace Bay should be located in a less exposed position than it is at present, the case, was the statement made yesterday by J. D. Oppe, vice-president of the Marconi Company, on his arrival in the city of New York. A site some distance inland, he added, has already been secured and Mr. Marconi will take the opportunity offered by the removal of the station for incorporating a number of improvements.

$100 Went Astray.

London, Oct. 4.—On Friday evening last a certain young lady who holds a position as clerk in one of the stores here deposited a roll of bills under a pillow in her bedroom at her boarding house, for safe keeping. Her precaution had not escaped the attention of some person evidently aware of her possession of the money, and when she awakened in the morning the money was gone. It contained over $100. The theft was reported to the police, who are now working on the case.

Lad Did Thieving.

Galt, Oct. 4.—Within the last six weeks there has been much petty thieving done in and around Galt. As a result the police have been working overtime in an effort to locate the thief. Chief German quietly took up the cases, and that he worked effectively, is demonstrated by the fact that on Saturday night he arrested a 16-year-old boy named Lawrence Smith, who lives on Bruce street, and Smith has confessed to seven charges. He has been remanded for sentence.

From Hudson Bay.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 4.—The French steamer Stord, from Hudson Bay, has arrived here. She reports that the winter is rapidly settling in, and that an ice pack packed Hudson Strait on Aug. 12. There had been frequent snow storms before Sept. 8. The temperature at that time was never above 35 degrees. The Canadian cruiser Neptune was sighted on Sept. 10, proceeding west through the Straits.

Barthold Dying.

Paris, Oct. 4.—Frederick Auguste Bartholdi, the sculptor of the statue of Liberty in New York Bay, is critically ill of tuberculosis. Hopes of his recovery have practically been abandoned.

Barque Sunk; Crew Saved.

Fredrickstad, Norway, Oct. 4.—The Norwegian barque Sir John Laurence (from London) has struck on sunken rocks outside this harbor and has broken up. The crew were rescued.

JOHNDILLON, M.P., SAYS:

"Nobody in England Thinks Home Rule Dead."

Points to Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick's Presence at Redmond's Montreal Meeting As a Proof—Says That Minister Was Charged By Cabinet to Convey Its Full Sympathy For the Demand For Irish Party.

London, Oct. 4.—(C. A. P.)—John Dillon, M. P., in addressing a gathering of Nationalists at Sligo, said, "nobody in England thinks home rule is dead; if they did I should advise them to turn their eyes across the Atlantic and watch the triumphant progress of the leader of the Irish party, courted and welcomed by all the leaders of the great political parties in the United States. When he passed on into loyal Canada, which used always to be quoted by Chamberlain when she sent a contingent to fight the Boers, yet we saw in Montreal last week the Attorney-General of Canada, a good Irishman, coming to the meeting and taking his seat on the platform at the side of Mr. Redmond and telling Mr. Redmond he had been charged by the Cabinet of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to convey to the Irish party the full sympathy of the Canadian Cabinet in our demand for Irish liberty—(applause)—that did not look very much like a dying cause."

Big Jim Clements calls attention to the fact that the street light at the city limits on St. Clair St. is seldom lighted. Mr. Clements threatens to take up a subscription and start a coal oil lamp at that point.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, Thamesville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Annie L., to Dr. A. J. McKendrick, of Port Huron, Mich. The marriage will take place on Oct. 28th.

You probably know that your sallow complexion is caused, through thin, poor blood, but you probably don't know that by taking Vito Tonic you can have bright, rosy cheeks. Messrs. Gunn & Co., druggists, keep it in stock.

Chas. W. Raymond, formerly of Mitchell's Bay, has returned from a three months' trip to St. Louis and Webb City, Missouri, through Kansas and the Indian Territory. He brought back a number of specimens from the well known mines in Webb City.

Chief Holmes received word from M. C. R. Detective Mike Heenan that the M. C. R. station agents office had been entered at St. Thomas yesterday about 1.30 and $94 taken. The thief was a short red headed English boy aged 22. He wore a peak cap and serge coat.

MOTHER AND CHILD

Scott's Emulsion is cod liver oil made almost as palatable as milk. It is easy and soothing to the weak stomach; it checks the tendencies of children toward thinness.

Scott's Emulsion gives strength to weak mothers because it creates healthy flesh and new blood.

Nursing mothers will find a special value in Scott's Emulsion because it insures a flow of rich, nourishing milk for the baby. More and better than a medicine; Scott's Emulsion is a food.

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, Toronto, Ont.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

It is said John Charlton will not again contest Norfolk County, owing to his state of health.

J. B. Tudhope, M.P.P., denies the statement that he will accept the Liberal nomination in East Simcoe.

It is announced that Hon. Sydney Fisher will stump Ontario and give his version of the Dundonald incident.

Premier Laurier, accompanied by Hon. L. P. Brodeur, will devote a week of the campaign, from Oct. 9 to 15, to Ontario.

About 40 M.P.P.'s have already accepted the invitation to the Temiskaming Railway trip. About half the members at least are expected to go next Monday. The excursionists will return the following Thursday.

Monday the Premier's ante-room at Ottawa was crowded continuously by politicians and delegations.

R. D. Gunn, K.C., the candidate for East Simcoe; Arch. McNepe, editor of The Windsor Post; O. E. Talbot, ex-M.P. for Bellchase, and the Liberal candidate for that constituency; James Bicknell, K.C., Toronto; Thomas Murray, Pontiac; Peter Ryan, Toronto, and many other politicians from all parts of the country are about the corridors.

Of Course He Will.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—The rumor is persistent in Hull that Charles Devlin, M.P., Galway, will seek election in his old constituency, Wright County. He is on the steamer Parisian and will reach here by the end of the week.

Sir Wilfrid to Go to Quebec.

Quebec, Oct. 4.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Prime Minister of the Dominion of Canada, will arrive in this city to-day on business connected with the general election.

Streetsville Greets Mr. Gagey.

Streetsville, Oct. 4.—This village does not occupy a very large place on the map, but last night it turned out 1,000 people to give R. H. Gagey, M.P.P. for Manitowish, an enthusiastic reception. He spoke over three hours, and at 11.45 the crowd was still calling "go on."

A Benjamin Came to Judgment.

Wong Bing Deported.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Oct. 4.—U. S. Commissioner Gray yesterday ordered the deportation of Wong Bing, a Chinaman unlawfully residing in the United States, it is alleged. Wong Bing conducted a store at Brockville, Ont., for many years, and it is said is a naturalized British subject. Representations were made to the Commissioner that the Dominion Government would permit Wong Bing to re-enter Canada on his certificate, but the Commissioner finds no authority for deporting Chinamen to Canada, and rules that he must go back to China. Appeal will be taken on the point of the Chinaman's British citizenship.

A Change of Route.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—The party of locating engineers on the G.T.P. survey, who were running a line about 160 miles north of Lake Nepegin, found it necessary owing to the physical and topographical condition to throw their line one hundred miles south of the route they desired. The height of land between Lake Superior and James Bay takes a sharp bend to the north, as it passes behind Lake Nepegin and it looks as if the G.T.P. line must cross this summit twice in a short distance.

BOARD OF HEALTH

The Board of Health met yesterday afternoon. There were present, Dr. Charters, Dr. R. V. Bray, Dr. Cornell, Chas. Hadley, W. S. Richards, and W. R. Baxter.

Dr. Hall verbally reported the filter basins in the river at London. He had understood that they had been damaged by the flood last spring and now he had found out that they were not in use at all.

When City Engineer Jones was there before he had been deceived. When in London again Mr. Jones investigated the filter basins and found that they had not been in use for a long time.

Dr. Hall had received a telegram to-day from the City Engineer stating that the filter basins were not in use. This was a great menace to the health of Chatham.

Dr. Hall advised that the Board of Health should take action and send a strong protest to the Provincial Board of Health.

On motion, it was decided to send a protest to the Provincial Board of Health, asking that the City of London be compelled to use their filter beds.

Dr. Bray called attention to the water from the creamery, which flows into the alleyway near Ben Harper's, and becomes stagnant.

Has it ever occurred to you that most sickness commences with the stomach? This is because the blood becomes impoverished through lack of nourishment. If you want to get well and keep well take Vito Tonic.

I. O. O. F. NOTICE

All members of Chatham Lodge, No. 29, I. O. O. F., are requested to attend meeting to-night, as there will be several initiations on and some important business will come before the Lodge. Visiting brethren welcome.

Chatham, Oct. 4, 1904.

In the game of carpet ball match between the Sons of England and the Workmen last evening in the Workmen Hall, the latter won by 5 shots. The Sons of England were skipped by Messrs. Wm. A. Moore and Geo. Clements while Harry Barnes and Jas. Dyer performed that duty for the Workmen. A meeting is called for the general committees of the league to-morrow evening to arrange for formation of same.

Expenses of N.W.T. Government

Regina, Oct. 4.—At the session of the Legislature yesterday afternoon the Premier moved that hereafter night sessions be held, and accordingly the House will commence sitting at nights to-day. This will render possible an early prorogation, enabling the members to take part in the Federal campaign. The estimates for the year were presented. An expenditure of $101,540 is provided for as against $89,965 last year.

Big Order For Steel Rails.

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 4.—The Canadian Pacific Railway has placed an order with the Consolidated Lake Superior Company for 40,000 tons of steel rails. The delivery is to be at the rate of 10,000 tons a month, beginning February, 1905. The Consolidated Company has notified the railway company that it is prepared to accept the contract at once and that it will comply with all the specifications made by the railway.

Homesick Up in Smoke.

Guelph, Oct. 4.—Prof. Zavitz, O. A.C., received a telegram yesterday morning stating that his old homestead at Coldstream, Middlesex, had been burned to the ground. The family settled there in 1869, and the buildings alone were worth $5,000, outside of the contents. A spark from an engine when cutting for silo was the cause. Mr. Zavitz left this afternoon for Coldstream.

Four Months in Central.

St. Catharines, Oct. 4.—Burton Disher, the young man run down by the Noble Detective Agency and committed for trial by Police Magistrate Comfort, on a charge of stealing $370 in cancelled bills from the corner of stone of the new Ridley College building, this city, in July last, was brought before Judge Carman yesterday morning for trial. He was sentenced to four months in the Central Prison.

Canada and Natal.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Canadian trade with Natal is growing at a satisfactory rate. In 1902 it amounted to $81,205. The following year it had increased to $1,037,705, and for the first six months of the present fiscal year it amounted to $408,542.

THEY ALL COME HERE FOR CLOTHES..

Men from all the walks of life come here for clothes.

WHAT'S THE REASON FOR IT?

Any man who buys clothing here has the satisfaction of knowing that he's getting the very best clothing his money can buy.

We make it our business to see and to know that the men who buy clothes here

GET THE BEST.

They must have it. They shall have it. We stick to this policy with steadfast devotion. This is the story in a nut shell. The chapter is ended.

M.C.R., Roundhouse Burned.

Windsor, Oct. 4.—The Michigan Central roundhouse here was totally destroyed by fire Sunday night. All but two large mogul engines were taken out in safety. Those were reduced to twisted masses of iron and steel, and are beyond repair. Telegraphic communication was cut off a couple of hours. The loss will be about $40,000.

Hon. Mr. Bryce in Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 4.—The Right Hon. James Bryce, one of the most notable of the King's Privy Counsellors, now on his fifth visit to Canada, paid the Canadian Club a marked honor in addressing it last night, and the club recognized the occasion with a record attendance of about 400.

THE KING'S PRINTER.

Dr. S. E. Dawson is Neither Dead Nor Moribund, and Does Not Yet Seek Rest From Labor.

The King's Printer at Ottawa, Dr. Samuel Edward Dawson, is in his 72nd year. He does not look it. Inquire a few days ago as to the rumor that he had asked for superannuation and that it was about to be granted met a frank, unqualified and cheerful denial. His declaration on that occasion that he was "neither dead nor moribund" has already gone the rounds of the Canadian press. Dr. Dawson, though of slender build, has an eye and a complexion which any man of twenty years younger would envy. His physical powers have shown no signs of impairment. In and out of season he has since 1891 filled to the satisfaction of both Conservative and Liberal Governments the post he now holds. He has at his back a staff with a capable superintendent whose duty it is to order the purely technical requirements of the Printing Bureau. But the King's Printer has a larger task. He must play tactically the part of a Deputy Minister on the one hand—and by the way he bears this title—but, on the other hand, the post of headship is an institution which calls for a combination of a large measure of technical knowledge, tact and firmness. Dr. Dawson has to handle the affairs of what is largely a department, but he is constantly within telephone range, so to say, of every other department in the public service.

And his recreation is his annual attendance on the sittings of the Royal Society of Canada, of which for literary merit he is a fellow, and presently honorary secretary. Samuel Edward Dawson was born in Halifax in 1833. He was son to Benjamin Dawson, who after coming to Montreal became a Protestant Episcopal clergyman. The present King's Printer had something to do with the forming of the Dominion Bank Note Company and the Montreal News Company. He was a member of the Protestant School Commission of Montreal. His affiliation with the historic Dawson book firm in Montreal seems to have given him mind that literary bent which was rewarded in 1890 by his decoration by the University of Laval with the degree of Doctor of Literature. He was made Queen's Printer in 1891. In the same year he was delegate to the International Copyright Conference in Washington. In 1893 he was made fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, of which he is now secretary.

Water and the Human Body.

Comparatively few people know what a large amount of water the human body consists of. A man weighing 200 pounds is made up of 120 pounds of water and 80 pounds of solids. The latter includes bone, muscle, etc. Even the fat of the body contains 15 per cent. of water, the liver is made up of 69 per cent. and the blood of 83. The skin contains 72 per cent., the brain 75 and the muscle 75.

It may be naturally supposed that a fluid so universally distributed throughout the body must constitute a very important article of its existence. Experiments have shown that on water alone life may be sustained as long as fifty-five days, whereas if dry food only were given death would ensue in a quarter of that time, and this in a most agonizing way. The terrible agony that shipwrecked mariners sometimes suffer in this way will induce them to drink sea water, and this adds a hundredfold to the uncontrollable thirst that induces delirium and death.

Women Make Poor Detectives.

The manager of a detective agency who had warned women not to reply to his advertisement said the other day:
"Outside of special lines in department store work women do not make good detectives. They look at facts as they want them to be, not as they are, and work on those lines. They jump at conclusions quickly and cling to them beyond all reason. They work for spectacular effect and not for landing the goods."
"A woman detective is sometimes successful in entrapping a man, but there must always be an element of personal passion or revenge in it. If this is the case you are not sure of her."

"With their own sex women slouts are not good at all. Clever women criminals can always play on their credulity and vanity. Women detectives in fiction, except in the field of high diplomatic circles, are untrue to those we find in real life."—New York Press.

Rebuked the Duke.

When commanding the warship Galatea some years ago the Duke of Edinburgh called in plain clothes on an admiral, who rebuked him with the stiff greeting, "I should have been very happy to receive your Royal Highness on any other occasion, but unfortunately at this moment I am expecting a visit from the captain of the Galatea." The Duke went back to his ship and put on his uniform.

Miss Nellie Holmes, treasurer of the Young Woman's Temperance Association of Buffalo, N.Y., strongly advises all suffering women to rely, as she did, upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Your medicine is indeed an ideal woman's medicine, and by far the best I know to restore lost health and strength. I suffered misery for several years, being troubled with menorrhagia. My back ached, I had bearing-down pains and frequent headaches. I would often wake from restless sleep, and in such pain that I suffered for hours before I could go to sleep again. I dreaded the long nights as much as the weary days. I consulted two different physicians, hoping to get relief, but finding that their medicine did not seem to cure me. I tried your Vegetable Compound on the recommendation of a friend from the East who was visiting me. I am glad that I followed her advice, for every ache and pain is gone, and not only this, but my general health is much improved. I have a fine appetite and have gained in flesh. My earnest advice to suffering women is to put aside all other medicines and to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Miss NELLIE HOLMES, 540 No. Division St., Buffalo, N.Y.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

LIFE A SONG.

By Being Divinely Alert and Responsive on Every Plane and Conscious in Every Fiber of Our Being.

The man who is strong within himself, who is not a slave to his environment, who keeps true to the voice within him and who follows the golden mean of simple and wholesome living will find at last that the earth has touches of heaven, that all creatures hold traces of the divine and that he who follows the upward path will be filled with a perennial joy. To be resolute, but not obstinate; self-reverent, but humble; individual, but respectful to the opinions of others, unbending in following one's own path and yet sweet and courteous to all—this is to have real force of character. The most powerful may seem the meekest. The most masterful may seem the most yielding. Keeping ever one goal in view and going steadily toward it, however the path may wind, influencing others for good while leaving them free, bending them without forcing or constraining them, being righteous without pharisaism and pure without condemnation—this it is to have reached the highest human plane. If men and women could but realize what a glorious heritage is given them here and now life would seem indeed a paradise. But we permit little things to draw us aside, little obstacles to afflict us, little natures to vex us and little tasks to gail us until we are overwhelmed by petty troubles that we should be too great to give a second thought to. We must awaken in the innermost depths of us. We must be conscious in every fibre of our being. We must be divinely alert and responsive on every plane. Get alive inside. Become acquainted with your own soul. Seek the divinity in all things by finding the divinity within yourself. Grow sympathetic and receptive to the world around you, kindly and friendly to all beings, conscious of the life that pulsates through all things. Being Christ-like is simply being man-like in the truest and best sense. Reach your own highest function in your own highest nature, be genuinely and honestly yourself. To him who lives his better self earth is a place of beauty and life is worth while.

SLIPPING INTO THE SEA.

Little English Village of Hallsands, Eng., Losing Its Old Time Charm, Is Being Washed Away by Waves.

Nestling under the cliffs about a mile from Start Point, England, is a cluster of white cottages, which form the little village of Hallsands. Far removed from a railway and separated from the nearest point of tourist traffic by several miles of rough Devonshire lanes, its main connection with modern life is the daily cart which carries crabs to the station. The inhabitants are a hardy race of "crabbers," inured to toil and stormy weather; they are splendid boatmen, and most of them belong or have belonged to the Royal Naval Reserve.

The village, which is built close to the sea, faces east, and is exposed to the fury of easterly gales. Walls and quays have from time to time been built to prevent the waves reaching the houses, and nature provided a safeguard in the shape of fifty yards of pebble beach, which the gale rolled up against the quays and formed a natural embankment to preserve the walls and foundations. All would, no doubt, have continued to go well with this primitive spot had not the contractors for Government works at Keyham cast their eyes on that bank of shingle. They persuaded the Government to let them use this beach for their work, and for three years every spell of fine weather brought a dredger to the spot, and strings of lighters would go away laden with the shingle.

In time the beach sank twelve feet for a mile and a half, leaving the quays exposed. When bad weather came, the mischief done was apparent. Ground swells swept the beach bare, leaving little rocks. Soon the walls of the quays began to give, and then the sea began slowly but surely to encroach on the shore, until house after house had to be abandoned because of the damage done to them by the force of the waves that beat against them unrestrainedly. Every storm does further damage, and one of the last inroads made by the sea cut through the one street of the village, the two sides of which are now connected by a wooden foot bridge.

A fund has been started to buy land on the top of the cliff at the BRIDGE ACROSS THE HALLSANDS STREET. back of the village as a site for a new village, for the old Hallsands seems doomed. The destruction of the fishing village is to be made the subject of a lawsuit.

An owner of property there has issued a writ against Sir John Jackson, Limited, the contractors for Keyham Dockyard extension works. The plaintiff alleges that the defendants, by dredging, removed thousands of tons of shingle which formed a natural barrier against the sea. The Admiralty and Sir John Jackson subscribed £1,500 ($7,500) toward a sea-wall to protect the village, but that has been partially washed away.

London Pigeons.

When the time comes for its destruction, the picturesque London pigeon will not, so far as the corporation of the City of London is concerned, be favored with so modern a death as electrocution.

An enquiry by an Express representative at the office of the chief electrical engineer to the corporation elicited the statement that if any of the nuisance, the services of a man, with a bag of corn as a bait, who could quickly seize and kill the birds, would clear the Guildhall contingent in less than an hour.

An effectual method of keeping down the number of the birds is their capture by city dwellers who appreciate pigeon pie. The birds, being no one's property, are free to all, and a little more "poaching" is recommended.

The interesting calculation is made that the number of pigeons within the city's limits is not less than 4,000.

Will Women Be Giants?

A woman's periodical published in London is worried at the size of the modern woman. "Whereas," it says, "a decade since the average size in women's shoes was 3, 5 being accounted specially large, 7 and 8 are now commonly asked for, while the average size has become 5. The little glove has likewise grown into a good size hand shoe. My lady's hosiery has become bigger at the same time. In short, the average girl of 1904 could not wear any article of apparel that fitted the girl of 1874. And where, one now tremblingly asks, is this to end?"

Machine Shop Marvels.

It is now possible with high speed steel to turn any machine steel at a rate up to 400 feet per minute and also to drill cast iron at twenty-five inches per minute. These are indeed remarkable speeds when it is remembered that only a comparatively short time back with the ordinary crucible steels a cutting speed of thirty feet to fifty feet per minute was more like the limit.—Page's Magazine.

A REMARKABLE RECORD.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many millions of bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by All Druggists.

Stanstead Junction, P. Q., August 12th, 1893.

Gentlemen,—I fell from the bridge leading from a platform to a loaded car while assisting my men in unloading a load of grain. The bridge went down as well as the load on my back and I struck on the ends of the sleepers, causing a serious injury to my leg. Only for its being very fleshy would have broken it. In an hour could not walk a step. Commenced using MINARD'S LINTMENT and the third day went to Montreal on business and got about well by the use of a cane. In ten days was nearly well. I can sincerely recommend it as the best Lintment that I know of in use.

IMMORTAL JOAN OF ARC

ROUEN'S MONUMENT TO MEMORY OF WARRIOR MAIDEN.

Three Week Year the City Honors Her Deeds—Festival In Without Parallel, for French and English People Stand on Common Ground to Commemorate Her Faith, Courage and Determination—Calm and Dignified.

The historic town of Orleans annually celebrates in May the day when Joan of Arc entered the town as a victor. The fête lasts during the evening of the 7th and the whole of the 8th. In many ways the festival is without parallel, for it is a day when French and English people stand on common ground to do honor to the unfortunate maid whose faith, courage and determination played so conspicuous a part in the deliverance of her country.

The town of Orleans is a very aristocratic, ecclesiastical and conservative one; "un peu morte," but the influx of people from other parts of France and the Continent on this occasion, together with the decorations, gives the town an unusually animated appearance. It is said that in no other town could the fête preserve its calm and dignified character. On the evening of May 7 the most interesting part of the whole ceremony takes place. It is known as "La Remise de l'Etendard."

The original standard carried by Joan is carefully preserved during the year in the Hotel de Ville, but on the eve of the fête it is carried by MONUMENT TO JOAN OF ARC AT ROUEN. The mayor, accompanied by all the chief civic and military dignitaries of the town, to the steps of the great cathedral, which stands a little to one side of a square, where the soldiers who are to take part in the torchlight procession which precedes and follows "La Remise de l'Etendard" are massed. The standard is confided to the care of the Bishop of Orleans and left in the cathedral for the night.

The moment the mayor reaches the steps, three salutes are fired and these are the signal for the illumination of the facade of the cathedral. The prelates salute the members of the Municipal Council, a benediction is pronounced, and the clergy re-enter the cathedral with the standard. The military torchlight procession then marches to the Hotel de Ville.

At sunrise next morning one is awakened by the gun salute and the ringing of the cathedral bells. At a quarter of ten o'clock all the functionaries, civil and military, assemble in the cathedral to take part in the religious ceremony which precedes the procession through the streets. At ten o'clock the musical part of the service begins. This is followed by the panegyric on Jeanne d'Arc, which is generally pronounced by one of the bishops.

A procession forms in the great square in front of the cathedral. The route followed is as nearly as possible that followed by Jeanne d'Arc, starting from the cathedral and ending at the Hotel de Ville.

Air in a Subway.

An English physician has made an analysis of the air in the underground railway of London with astonishing results. The amount of oxygen in the atmosphere was only 20.60 parts in volume, while in the worst courts in London it was never found lower than 20.86. Pure air contains 20.94 per cent of oxygen. And with a proportionate increase in the carbonic acid gas. The normal quantity is .087 in 100 parts, but the expert found that in one of the Metropolitan Railway tunnels the carbonic acid gas was .338 per cent. This is excessively high when it is taken into consideration that whenever the carbonic acid gas in the atmosphere exceeds 100 per cent the air is much too polluted to be breathed with safety to one's health.

TILBURY

Oct. 4.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Rev. Robt. Wilson in St. Andrew's English Church yesterday were largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. T. Dobson, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Mr. Brownlee, of Ridgeway, after which High Lordship Bishop Baldwin pronounced an eloquent discourse, in which he paid a glowing tribute to the high character and steadfast Christianity of the deceased. The remains were interred in St. George's cemetery, Tilbury West, beside the remains of his parents. The family's tribute was a handsome floral pillow. A number of the members of deceased's congregation in London township, were present to pay their last respects.

Juliana Sandburg Suffered Six Years with Dyspepsia and was Cured by One Box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

"For over six years I was troubled with Dyspepsia and Headache," says Juliana Sandburg, of 221 John street, North Hamilton, Ont. "Nothing I ate would agree with me."

"I tried several remedies but could not get any relief. Then I was advised to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and I bought one box. After taking part of it I found relief and by the time I had finished the box I was completely cured."

That was a case of long suffering quickly cured. Just think of suffering for six years with permanent relief within easy reach all the time. How many other Canadians are still complaining of Stomach Troubles? They too can find a lasting cure in Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

4,000 JAPANESE SLAIN

Terrible Artillery Conflicts Add to Port Arthur's Horrors.

Only One Non-Commissioned Officer and Eleven Men Escaped to Tell the Tale of the Death Roll in a Russian Sortie Against the Kanagawa Regiment—The Japanese Blockade of Port Arthur Fully Effective.

London, Oct. 4.—The Daily Telegraph's Nagasaki correspondent, cabling under date of Sept. 25, says: "Terrible artillery conflicts are adding to the horrors of the situation at Port Arthur. On Sept. 22 and 23 the Russians made sorties against the Japanese, made serious losses in position held by the Kanagawa regiment and desperate fighting ensued."

"The Japanese force was practically annihilated, only one non-commissioned officer and eleven men remained alive out of the 4,000 who went into the engagement. The Japanese tunnel into Port Arthur was completed on Sept. 24, and was immediately used. The result is unknown."

The Standard's Tokyo correspondent reports that at a conference of bankers it was decided to issue immediately a third domestic war loan of $40,000,000, completing the loans for the current fiscal year.

Small outpost fights constitute the sum of the activities reported from the vicinity of Mukden. The Japanese blockade of Port Arthur is so effective that Gen. Stoessel has been unable to inform the War Office at St. Petersburg of the situation. The report of the arrival of the Russian armored cruiser Bayan at the Port Arthur squadron at Hanchau Bay, near Shanghai, has no official confirmation.

Admiralty Doesn't Believe It. St. Petersburg, Oct. 4.—The Admiralty expresses incredulity at the report that a Russian warship, believed to be the armored cruiser Bayan, has arrived at Hanchau Bay, near Shanghai.

The reports circulated abroad during the last few days that the Emperor had received most pessimistic reports from Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel are denied. The contrary, the feeling about Port Arthur is more hopeful, owing to the failure of the besiegers to make headway.

Fighting At Port Arthur. Chefoo, Oct. 4.—A private letter received here yesterday from Port Arthur, dated Sept. 23, gives further details of the fighting from Sept. 19 to Sept. 22. The Japanese began with a heavy bombardment directed against nearly all the Russian outposts and many of the forts. The shelling of the redoubts protecting the water supply of Port Arthur was tremendous. Nightfall, Sept. 19, found the waterworks redoubts reduced to mere heaps of debris. The garrisons of the redoubts thereupon retreated safely to the main fortifications, under the cover of the darkness.

Bombardment and Assault. At 4 o'clock the same afternoon, Sept. 19, the Japanese assault on "High Hill" began. The Japanese plan of attack never varied. First a bombardment and then an assault, and when repulsed a bombardment again and then another assault. The desperate determination of the Japanese to capture this position amounted to fanaticism, their efforts never ceasing during four days. One battalion of Japanese having retreated into a valley, were exposed to the Russian machine gun fire and were almost annihilated.

She's Going Home. Constantinople, Oct. 4.—The Russian volunteer fleet steamer Nijni Novgorod has passed the Bosphorus, homeward bound.

Peace Conference. Boston, Oct. 4.—Secretary John Hay, representing the United States, spoke the words of welcome yesterday afternoon to the delegates to the International Peace Congress, which assembled in Tremont Temple for the first formal meeting of the thirteenth annual convention. Secretary Hay traced briefly the war history of the United States, and pointed out that the country's greatest men had been warm advocates of peace. He agreed with Tolstoi that religion is the remedy for war.

Another Peace Conference. London, Oct. 4.—Sir Thomas Barclay, who has been prominently identified with the movement for establishing amity between nations, informed the Associated Press yesterday that the movement had under consideration the calling of a conference to extend the scope of the Hague convention prior to President Roosevelt's recent announcement of his desire to take action in that direction. "There is little difficulty," Sir Thomas said, "about the adoption of the proposal of President Roosevelt, and there is a possibility of either the American and German Governments calling a conference jointly, or one may give way to the other."

Whipping Post For Thugs. Copenhagen, Oct. 4.—A Ministerial crisis here, which had long been threatened, has been averted, assurances of support having been given by his colleagues to Minister of Justice Alberti, who insisted on bringing a law to re-establish the whipping post for thugs. It will cause an exciting session of the Rigsdag.

Won $2,050 In Prizes. Ottawa, Oct. 4.—J. G. Clarke of Westboro, who carried off the honors at St. Louis in cattle and swept everything with his Ayrshire herd, has arrived home. He won $2,050 in prizes.

Killed 600 Tribesmen. Aden, Arabia, Oct. 4.—A Somali Mullah is reported to have attacked and robbed the Ogga tribe, killing 600 tribesmen and capturing many camels and sheep.

BALFOUR'S PLATFORM

Premier Denies Redmond's Forecast of the Next House.

Unionists Are Not For Sale, and There Will Be No Bargaining So Far As They Are Concerned—Mr. Balfour Asserts That He Is No Protectionist—Could Not Lead Such a Party.

Edinburgh, Oct. 4.—(C.A.P.)—Premier Balfour opened the autumn campaign here last night as the guest of the Conservative Club. He first seconded a motion of condolence with Lady Harcourt and the members of her family and paid a tribute to the late baronet.

In replying to the toast, "Our Guest," Mr. Balfour said that as this was his first speech of the autumn campaign, he desired to be explicit on one or two essential points. In the first place, he said, the leader of the Irish party had given wide currency, in America, to the view that in the next Parliament the Irish members would hold the balance of power. So far as the Unionists were concerned, no bargaining would occur. The Unionists were not for sale. Regarding the final policy, Mr. Balfour said he had nothing to alter in what is known as the Sheffield policy.

Mr. Balfour said he was no protectionist, he was one of those who thought protection was not the best policy under existing circumstances. It was not a policy that he recommended directly or indirectly either to his colleagues or to the country and he did not think he could remain the leader of his party if protection were adopted.

The Colonies. Referring to the colonies, he said the question of the colonies more than any other requires consideration by the party and the country which shall take it out of the region of mere platform controversy and put it in the very first place in the view of every citizen of these islands. It was surely wrong that we should now be using voluntarily or involuntarily those Imperial sentiments as exist in our great self-governing colonies as counters in the political game.

Referring to Lord Rosebery's saying that Mr. Borden said he went in for Mr. Chamberlain's policy, and that Mr. Borden said it because it annoyed the Government, Mr. Balfour said Lord Rosebery ought to know what motives would move a leader of an opposition as he had long experience. Premier Balfour did not believe it possible, consistently with our duty, as head of the Empire to leave the question in doubt. As it now stands we have got to a point where the only way of moving out of the impasse we now find ourselves in is a conference with the self-governing colonies and India. Representatives of the colonies and ourselves should meet in order to talk out the subject in the freest possible manner without being bound by special views or special instructions.

Mr. Chamberlain's Estimate. Whether Mr. Chamberlain's estimate of colonial opinion was right or wrong, Mr. Balfour entirely agreed with Mr. Chamberlain that a point should be reached where the only way out was to have a free conference with the self-governing colonies and India. Mr. Balfour strongly recommended that course to the Unionist party and said he believed such a conference might do much good.

He did not think they could induce the colonies to join in a conference unless they have right to appeal to the irrefragable electorate as to any scheme which may be hammered out. If they claim that liberty, as he was sure they will, that liberty of necessity must be equally claimed by us.

British Press On Speech. The Daily Mail says Premier Balfour's speech is of importance from the distinction it draws between Mr. Balfour's individual opinion and his duty as leader of the party. The section which Mr. Chamberlain has still to convert were of opinion that if the colonies expressed themselves strongly in favor of a change in the fiscal relations between the mother country and the colonies he might take a step forward.

The Daily Telegraph says the proposition of Mr. Balfour marks a great advance in the progress towards Imperial unity.

The Standard says Mr. Balfour's speech was even more significant for what it repudiated than for what it advocated. The Times thinks the whole problem is to arrange commercial agreements on terms advantageous to both parties. If that problem is solved by rival and even hostile States in the face of the keenest jealousies and the most complicated commercial conditions why should it be insoluble by the component parts of the British Empire. When all are anxious for its solution the logical course, as we have seen for the nation to accept the fundamental principle as the colonies have done and then negotiate.

Steamer Aground. Huntsville, Oct. 4.—The Huntsville, Lake of Bays and Lake Simcoe Navigation Company's steamer Empress Victoria, having about fifteen passengers and out-going tourists on board, ran aground at Grassmore, eight miles from this town, on her return trip Saturday evening, unshipping and injuring her rudder. Some days will be needed to make necessary repairs.

Woman Vote Will Be Heavy. Chicago, Oct. 4.—Women of the west this year will figure in the Presidential campaign as they never have figured before, and according to despatches from Denver, Salt Lake City and Cheyenne, Wyo., their vote will be the heaviest.

One noticeable feature of the concert was the splendid order maintained by such a vast number of children.

The Principal and staff desire to heartily thank the parents for their kindness and trouble in arranging for and making the dainty costumes.

Miss Aylesworth's departure will be a distinct loss to the school. She has been a popular girl and an able and energetic educational worker.

The little kindergarteners who took part were Ray Ripley, Henry Louzon, Helen London, Hazel Bishop, Susie Pickard, Irene Paxton, Janie Craft, Leto Barton, Phyllis McKishnie.

At the conclusion and before her departure Miss Aylesworth was presented with a ring by Miss Ross on behalf of the choir of St. Andrew's church, of which she was a valued member.

During the evening Miss V. Aylesworth, the conductress, was presented by Miss Helen London, on behalf of the kindergarten, with a pearl crescent. Miss Aylesworth made a brief and fitting reply.

Chatham is known far and wide as a musical city and judging from the singing of the children of the McKeough School, the coming generation will uphold the proud reputation of the Maple City in this respect.

When Dr. Leonard, of Lincoln, Neb., gave Anti-Pill to the world he had unbounded faith in the treatment but he did not foresee the world-wide and wonderful results it is now achieving in the cure of disease. Here is the story of another Anti-Pill victory— "For many months I have been troubled with dyspepsia, dizziness in my head, cold chills, and suffered most of the time from constipation, and was unable to do my housework, tried every kind of pill and medicine that either the doctors or myself self could think of, and finally tried Anti-Pill. The treatment has practically made a new woman of me. I am able to do all my own work. The dizziness has all gone, my stomach feels much better, and I am no longer troubled with constipation. I cannot praise Anti-Pill too highly."—Mrs. Thos. Tabb, Emerald Street North, Hamilton, Ont.

Mrs. Tabb's letter is only one of many. Anti-Pill is sold by all druggists at 50c, or The Wilson-Fyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont. Sole agents for Canada.

The tide has gone out a long ways today, hasn't it? Yes! it saw Miss Boston coming toward it in a bathing suit!
