THE SHOE MAN

CATTLE THIEF IS CAUGHT

Alex. Hammer Who is Wanted in Kent, Arrested in Galt.

Was a Partner of Robert Miller, and a Leader of a Notorious Gang Who Operated in This County

Alex. Hammer, a noted cattle thief, has been arrested in Galt. He is wanted in Chatham and will probably be brought here to answer for some of his actions in Kent County. Hammer is a companion and brother-in-crime of Robert Miller, who was sent down some time ago from Chatham for cattle stealing. His brother is now serving time in Kingston for a similar offense.

Galt, Jan. 29.—Alex. Hammer, alias "Jones," alias any number of other cognomens, is locked up in Galt police cells tonight. In him the police believe they have the leader of a notorious cattle and sheep stealing gang.

The credit of the capture, which means a great deal to the peace of mind and to the pockets of the farmers of the province, belongs to Chief Gorman, who has been shadowing the man for weeks past, under the suspicion that he was following some pursuit that would be worth investigating from a police viewpoint. The prisoner is a young man 26 years of age, tall, well-made and fashionably dressed. He has a swarthy face, features fine cut and eyes dark and piercing. His address is good. He would be about the last man to be picked out from a crowd as a cattle thief.

But that such he is, there is abundant testimony to establish, say the police. And no common casual operator of this class, either, but a skilled, persistent and clever "fifer," whose work has been going on for a long time, who has gathered together a fat bank account, and who is wanted all over this province on charges of stealing cattle, sheep, turkeys, geese and other property of farmers.

GOOD LECTURE

A Mark Twain in his humor, an Emerson in his philosophy and a Henry Irving in his delivery, Mr. Parlette possesses the power to hold and thrill his hearers, and can deliver from the stage a stronger, a greater, a further reaching and a more palatable sermon, than the pulpit, from the disadvantage of solemn surroundings, can ever yield us. With scintillating wit and powerful oratory, ever turning, ever changing from the joyful to the sad back from the sad to the joyful, he led his audience, last evening, right through the whole course of study in the schools of "Needful and Needless Knocks," quoting from the greatest efforts into a vivid and magnificent summary of the moral of "Hard Knocks," his hearers were too spell bound to show their approval and appreciation until the curtain had fallen, and then they paid their greatest tribute to him in a storm of applause.

D. S. Paterson, who was instrumental in bringing Mr. Parlette here, is to be highly commended for providing such a treat for Chatham theatre-goers. This was the second number in the Chatham Lecture Course which Mr. Paterson is conducting this year.

LOST BOY

A Well Dressed Child Wandered into Mrs. Longley's House at Noon Today—His Name is Percy

At noon to-day a little boy, dressed in a brown suit and having a red woollen cap on his head, strayed into Mrs. Longley's home on Adelaide St., and informed the occupants of the house that he was lost.

Mrs. Longley, after much persuasion, induced the child to tell his first name, which it said was Percy, but what his surname was the little fellow didn't seem to know. The good lady informed The Planet at two o'clock this afternoon that should she not find out who the child is before this notice appears, Percy's parents will find him safe and comfortable in her care.

PRETTY KETTLE OF FISH

Letters Read to the Fishery Commission Show Them Up—Mutilated Letter Books Are Offered in Evidence at First Day's Inquiry Into Alleged Irregularities in the Fishery Department—Partizant Spirit.

Toronto, Jan. 30.—What might be called a pretty kettle of fish is being analyzed at the Parliament buildings, where Major J. C. Judd of London is the commission, taking evidence regarding some charges made by James Webster, chief clerk in the department of fisheries, against S. T. Bastedo, deputy commissioner of fisheries, who has been his chief in the department.

The most serious of the allegations made by Webster is that Mr. Bastedo caused letters to be mutilated and torn to remove evidence of improper conduct in the business of his branch, and further, with mutilating, secreting or destroying letters received in the course of business.

Letter books were produced to show that sheets had been torn out of the ordinary books and transferred to a private book. Many other pages of the books had been torn out altogether and were among the missing things. Corners of the pages containing the number had been torn off to make them mysterious, but nothing was brought out to show that Mr. Bastedo had done it, and whether or not somebody did it with felonious intent, is to be decided by the commission.

Mr. Webster has barrister J.E. Jones with him and looking up letter books is their large job so far.

Who Switched the Letters? Mr. Bastedo has yet to answer to the proofs that letters were switched from one book to another and perhaps he can prove that it was all done under the direction of the minister of the department, who was Hon. Mr. Latchford.

Mr. Bastedo follows the proceedings very closely, and he has legal advisers in L. F. Hellmuth and E. C. Cattenach. No evidence whatever was produced to show by whom the mutilation of books and papers had been ordered, but the books had been tampered with by somebody and many of the sheets sought are in the hands of the commission. It is shown that many minor public officials were active to a very thorough degree in elections and that their efforts were not frowned upon by the department.

As a sample of some of the transferred correspondence disclosed by Mr. Jones, much of which he unnecessarily asked be omitted from publication, was a letter asking an appointment for young Mr. Riddell, whose father of the firm of Hart & Riddell was a valued friend of the party. More letters of similar value were to be found transferred to the private letter book. Missing pages were commented upon and explanations will be forthcoming. Conductor F. W. Cowley of the M.C.E., who was wired from St. Thomas to Niagara, in a letter deplored the fact that Niagara fishermen all voted Conservative because they could not get licenses. He wanted a license for himself, so that he could give it to somebody and thus help himself in his ambitions to become an executive head of the Liberal party in Lincoln.

He wanted to catch a fish in Lake Erie in spring and fall months, while the other fellows could only do it in the summer. He had good credentials of his standing in the party, mentioning the names of Dr. Wilson, A. McCrimmon, Donald McNish, J. M. Glenn, Andrew Grant, P. Stewart, all stalwarts of St. Thomas. A further letter Mr. Cowley admitted that by setting the license he might pick up a little money.

Letters with Mr. Craig of Glenburnie showed that Shibley, who was identified with Mr. Lort in the ballot box informalities down east, had to be consulted as to the government's actions.

The Partisan Spirit. The partisan attitude of the late government is shown in a letter to G. P. Graham of Brockville, asking for the political faith of Black & Co., bookbinders, Brockville, because the boiler of the Eva Bell was out of repair and a new one might be needed before the season ended.

The name of the denounced Duncan Bole appears in the proceedings, for he got $40 for something Mr. Webster doesn't think he should have received money for. Other charges of small amounts improperly paid to people are brought out, but not yet substantiated. A letter to M. C. Cameron, Goderich, congratulating him upon his nomination and hoping victory would perch upon his banner, as well as referring to the possibilities of the patronage, was read. Mr. Cameron was recommended to Mr. Bates, the overseer at Goderich, to talk with him.

Mr. Webster claims that in 1902 the sum of $1428 was paid in refunds, whereas this amount was represented in the report to government by an item showing $156.

Many letters which had been transferred were read showing that the deceased government was out after all. It could get for the party at any time. The investigation will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morning.

Boy Crushed by Street Car. Toronto, Jan. 30.—George Liddiard, 16 years of age, residing with his parents at 2271-2 Brock avenue, was seriously injured in a street car smash at Queen and Clarence streets while returning from work at 4:30 last night. The boy was on the rear platform of a car when a Dundas car following struck it. He fell through the chain space on to the fender of the Dundas car and was crushed against the bumpers. One thigh is fractured and there are internal injuries.

TROUBLES OF A SINGER

Anson Tschirhart's Sweet Tenor Voice Won the Heart of Rich Detroit Maiden

Popular Vocalist Receives $1,200. in Presents but Returns Them—Young Woman Will Not Give Him Up

Miss Hattie Bender, a tall, good-looking, blonde-haired girl of a little over 20, sister of the late August Bender, whose insurance claims are still in the courts, and possessor, and his heir and in other ways, of several thousand dollars, is the complainant in a warrant sworn out against Anson Tschirhart, 1091 Field avenue. Tschirhart is a road estate dealer and singer in the choir of Mary Palmer Memorial Methodist Episcopal church. Miss Bender says she was engaged to marry him. Miss Bender charges Tschirhart with larceny of $50. Friends say that her acquaintance of about four years has cost her something like $1,200 in presents.

Miss Bender and Mr. Tschirhart became acquainted, so friends say, while the latter was singing for the Foresters of America, of which order Miss Bender's brother was an officer. The attachment continued until this winter, when it was broken off by Tschirhart, who denied that he had ever meant anything more than friendship.

Mr. Tschirhart was not at home yesterday afternoon.

"What a warrant out for Anson!" exclaimed his mother. "Why, I can't believe it. She charges him with larceny? I know that is not true, for Anson sent back everything that she gave him. She was always making him presents—knick-knacks, toilet articles, books, everything you could think of—and they made a cart-load. Anson never would take a thing that was not his. This thing will hurt his career. He is just establishing himself in business and in a musical way, and nothing could do him more harm."—Detroit Free Press.

Mr. Tschirhart, the young man mentioned in the above article, is well known in this city as a promising young tenor singer. He is a distant relative of Frank Tschirhart, of this city, whom he has visited several times.

GREAT LUCK

Iowa Man Found $1,200. in Bills, in an Old Table When Facing Hunger

Des Moines, Ia., January 28.—Driven to desperation for fuel, Charles Wrightman resorted to breaking up the furniture of his home only to discover a neat fortune hidden between dusty boards.

He took first an old kitchen table and had nearly finished demolishing it when a musty package rolled out. The contents consisted of $1,200 in well-preserved bills.

Mr. Wrightman cannot conceive how the bills came there unless they were hidden before he purchased the table second-handed many years ago.

WAKING UP AT LAST.

That was a remarkable interview with George Grant, M. P., Dominion Government whip for Ontario, which appeared in the Ottawa Journal on Wednesday.

In that interview Mr. Grant is reported to have expressed his disgust with the personnel, policy and manner of the present Cabinet, and to have intimated that eighteen Government supporters from Ontario are prepared to bolt, unless a change for the better speedily takes place.

Mr. Grant stated frankly, says the interview that old Liberalism has been lost sight of and a new element entered, to the domination of which Ontario Liberals will no longer submit.

Mr. Grant might go much further and state that Liberalism of all kinds has been, not only lost sight of, but disgraced and trampled upon by the ultra-Toryism and ultramontanism of Laurier and his Cabinet.

Mr. Grant openly charges that the Laurier Government intends to increase the tariff and that it is holding off the meeting of the House merely that the people may have time to forget the strong demands for lower tariff that were made before the Tariff Commission.

Mr. Grant warns the Government that not only he, but rural Ontario generally, will "resist to the utmost any advance in tariff."

Nor does Mr. Grant confine himself to criticism of the Government's policy. He attacks the make-up of the Cabinet. He distrusts Fitzpatrick, thinks Paterson and others are incompetent, and of the Ministers from Ontario approves only of Aylesworth and Hyman.

He thinks the G. T. P. deal was not creditable, and strongly suspects that the letting of the contracts for the section of the road east of Winnipeg will not be in the best interests of the country.

What has led to this sudden outburst of dissatisfaction? Surely Mr. Grant must have known what an insincere set of opportunists and grafters he has been supporting for the last three or four years! It is scarcely credible that he has found them out only now.

They are Liberals only in name, honorable only by Act of Parliament, and in power only by virtue of colossal bribery in the form of the indemnity-salary-pension grab. Mr. Grant must have known this for some time.

But perhaps he has spent many anxious days and sleepless nights in working up his courage, before he felt strong enough to take the plunge. There is also a possibility that Laurier has not carried out all his part of the deal whereby he purchased the votes of the House for coercion.

Whatever the cause of Mr. Grant's disaffection, it is a hopeful sign. While it is always certain that no Parliamentary party can hold power by bribery, trickery and in open defiance of the majority of the people, the Laurier party has employed the vilest methods with surprising success. But the split must come. No set of men can be associated in crime without developing a contempt for each other that sooner or later produces rupture and destruction.

This Grant rebellion may be suppressed, but another will follow. The downfall of Laurierism in Canada is not far distant. Now is the time for a real Liberal party to prepare to take its place.

A Party of School Children Have an Exciting Experience While Returning Home From School

At noon yesterday an accident, which might have had a serious consequence, occurred on King St. East. Mr. Snider, a local teamster, was driving his empty dray home along King St., when about twenty-five scholars from the Central School availed themselves of this excellent opportunity for a free ride home.

Laden with these noisy and talkative young people the dray made its way toward Mr. Snider's home, and all went well until the C. P. R. crossing at Adelaide St. was reached, when the breaking of the hind axle of the vehicle precipitated the merry school children in a struggling heap, from which they quickly disentangled themselves and laughingly made the rest of their way home.

Fortunately, none of the children were hurt, and their laughable efforts to sort themselves and their belongings out of the heap were hugely enjoyed by all who witnessed the affair.

The Essex Terminal Railway Company will apply for an extension of time for the commencement and completion of their line and to enable changes to be made in the provisional directorate.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

At The Grand—
Pauline—Jan. 30, for 5 nights.
(Supplied to The Planet by Press Agents.)

THE GREAT PAULINE IN KINGSTON.

Pauline, the eminent French hypnotist and mind reader, the man of mirth and mystery, and his company of elite entertainers, finished the banner week's business of the season at the Victoria Theatre Saturday evening. Nothing could better demonstrate the drawing power of the Great Pauline than a capacity business for an entire week with the thermometer at from 36 to 40 degrees below zero, but the citizens of Kingston were certainly warmed with excitement and enthusiasm at the marvellous and pleasing performance of the Great Pauline and turned out en masse to attest their hearty approval. The test of mind reading in which Pauline has no equal seen beyond belief and should be seen to be appreciated, and his experiments in that great unexplainable science, Hypnotism has convinced the most skeptical beyond a doubt and was both instructive and pleasing in the extreme. Our only regret is that the Pauline Company could not stay with us longer, and should they return they will certainly be greeted with large crowds and a hearty welcome.

—From the Kingston, Ont., Daily White.

Pauline opens a five night engagement at the Grand to-night, Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

GEORGE ADE ON FOOTBALL

Noted Dramatist and Novelist Submits Rules for Rough American Game

According to New Regulations New Players Will Certainly Have to be Brought Into the Game

I have been taken to task lately by some very nice people on the ground that my play, "The College Widow," glorifies the brutal game of football. They say that football excitement disorganizes our colleges, encourages gambling and drinking, puts a premium on beef and crowds brains into a corner, and that in writing about the game I should have held it up to scorn, thereby pointing a moral lesson.

These criticisms have touched me to the quick. Football is a rough and unfriendly game, but that is not my fault. Instead of condemning the dramatist, who pictures conditions as he finds them, the thing for all friends of humanity to do is to join hands and reform the game. It can be done. Eliminate all physical violence, debase the contest, sweeten it with brotherly forbearance and the game will at once be as harmless as Jackstraws or charades. The principal objection to the game, as it is now played, is that strength and ferocity are put up at a premium, scholarship counts no figure whatever.

Under the following revised rules the test of a player's ability will be his class standing. It is hoped that these rules will be approved by that vast army of editorial writers whose knowledge of the game has been obtained by reading the headlines. Walter Camp may object to some of the provisions, but what care we?

RULES FOR 1906.

SELECTION OF PLAYERS—The eleven players constituting the team shall be selected by the faculty, and the student who has received the highest grade in Greek anthology shall be the captain of the team. No student shall be eligible for the team unless he is up in his class work and has an established reputation for piety.

WEATHER CONDITIONS—In case of rain, snow, high wind, extreme heat or extreme cold, a contest may be indefinitely postponed or transferred to a class room.

PRELIMINARIES—When a team appears on a field for a contest it shall greet the opposing team with the Chautauqua salute, which consists of waving the handkerchief. After this a few friendly chats concerning books and writers may precede the opening of the game.

SUBSTITUTE FOR "THE TOSS"—Instead of tossing a coin to determine which side gets the ball, the two captains shall be called upon to extract a cube root of a given number provided by the professor of mathematics. The captain who is first to hand in the correct solution gets the ball.

ADVANCING THE BALL—The ball having been placed in the centre of the field, the umpire, who must be a professor of geology, exhibits to the team having possession of the ball a fossil. All members of the team who think they can name the geological period to which the fossil belongs, hold up their right hands. The umpire selects a player to name the period. If he answers correctly, he advances the ball two yards. If, in addition, he gives the scientific name of the fossil, he advances the ball five yards. If no member of the team can answer the questions propounded by the umpire, the opposing team shall be given a trial. If successful, it is given the ball.

ROTATION OF UMPIRES—After each touchdown there shall be a change of umpires, so that the questions asked of a team may, during the progress of a long but exciting game, cover the class work in zoology, applied metaphysics, veterinary science, Sanskrit, and other useful studies.

OFFSIDE PLAYS—Any player who makes a grammatical error, mispronounces a word or seeks assistance from a fellow student, shall be deemed guilty of an offside play and his side shall be penalized at least five yards.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR KICKING GOAL—After a touchdown has been made, the team making it shall be credited with five points and the captain of the team shall transcribe 500 words of Caesar's Commentaries. If he does so without an error, his team is given an additional point, the same as if a goal were kicked. If he fails, the ball goes to the opposing team on the 25-yard line.

RESUMING PLAY—On resuming play after a touchdown, one of the players, to be known as "Q," is blindfolded and the other players join hands and circle around him, singing:

London bridge is falling down, Falling down, falling down.

While the players are circling about, the player known as "Q" touches one of the others in a gentlemanly manner and asks him three questions, which must be answered. Then he tries to guess the name of the player. If he succeeds he picks up the ball and advances it 15 yards.

CONDUCT DURING GAME—No pushing, scuffling or boisterous conversation will be permitted. Both players and spectators must maintain absolute silence during the mental tests.

These rules probably will require further elaboration, but as they are given herewith they are sufficient to start the game on a new basis.

HAD A FROLIO

Yesterday morning a horse escaped from Barnes livery stable and ran into King street. The passers-by were afforded some little amusement at the antics of the refractory quarup, which, for ten minutes or so, defied the efforts of all to induce it to enter the domicile it had so hurriedly vacated. One of the stable hands at length secured the frisky animal and amid some laughter restored it to its stall.

GOOD PROGRAM

Members of Park St. League Hold a Very Successful Concert—A Good Attendance

The Park St. Epworth held a very successful meeting in the Sunday School Hall last evening. Mr. W. J. Young officiated as chairman, and in this position he ably directed the affairs of the evening.

The A. O. F. Orchestra was in attendance and rendered the following splendid numbers:—

Yankee Grit—March by A. Holzman.

In a Rose Garden—Polka.

The Frolics—Descriptive March.

Mrs. Fisher gave a fine recitation, and Miss Lillian Wemp was well received for her instrumental solo.

Mrs. Morgan's solo, with violin accompaniment, was very much applauded, and, in short, the program was appreciated by all present.

A couple of interesting and amusing games were played during the evening, and the large crowd that attended the meeting went away well pleased with the entertainment which had been provided for them.

GOT AWAY

Burglars Tried to Enter Robert's Liquor Warehouse, but Were Frightened Off

Petty thieving is still going on in Chatham, or at least is still being attempted. Some time either Saturday or Sunday night burglars attempted to enter the warehouses of Fred Robert, liquor dealer. A short time ago Taylor & McKay's liquor store was broken into and a quantity of liquors stolen. This time the robbers were not so successful, they being evidently frightened away before they had completed their job.

Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock Mr. Robert and a customs inspector went to the warehouse to take out some liquors. They found both locks on the doors broken. The work was evidently done with an iron bar. As far as could be ascertained no stuff was missing. Mr. Robert, however, will have to take stock before he can tell definitely if any liquors were stolen.

There are about 1,000 cases of goods in the storehouse, mostly foreign importations.

The police are investigating.

KINGSTON LIBERAL

E. J. B. Pense Returned Over McIntyre by a Majority of 34—Trouble at Polling Booths.

Kingston, Jan. 30.—After a close and hardly contested election, even in this city of hotly-contested elections, the Liberals won yesterday by the small majority of 34.

The voters on both sides were busy bringing in the electors. There were a number of conveyances at work, though not so many as on former occasions. All of these were supposed to be volunteers, yet it is freely asserted that some were engaged to be paid for by the Liberals.

The vote cast was smaller than on last January by 400.

After the last return was in and the issue was assured both candidates addressed the crowds. The Conservatives were scarcely less jubilant and cheered heartily Mr. McIntyre, who told them to prepare for another fight in the near future, as the election would likely be protested in case any irregularities were found to exist on the other side.

Polling Booth Troubles.

There was trouble at several of the polling places over the ballots. It was understood that there were not to be numbered. However, the ballots were all numbered, and the Liberals lodged protests to Returning Officer Dawson over the action of the deputies in putting their initials directly under the number on the outside of the ballots.

Mr. Dawson went around the polling places and threatened to shut down all those whose deputies did not put their initials on the corner of the ballot, away from the numbers.

The totals are: Pense, 2,097; McIntyre, 2,063. Portsmouth, the seat of the penitentiary and asylum, gave McIntyre a majority of 22, last time it went for Pense by over 40. The vote by wards was:

| Ward | Pense | McIntyre |
|--------------|-------|----------|
| Sydenham | 221 | 153 |
| Ontario | 136 | 138 |
| St. Lawrence | 160 | 82 |
| Cataraqui | 258 | 334 |
| Frontenac | 432 | 428 |
| Rideau | 511 | 544 |
| Victoria | 272 | 295 |
| Portsmouth | 67 | 89 |

Total ... 2,097 2,063
Mr. Pense's home ward is Sydenham. Mr. McIntyre's is in Rideau.

LAI'D TO REST

The funeral of the late Francis O'Rourke took place this morning at 9.30. The cortege left the late residence of the deceased, on Cross St., and proceeded to St. Joseph's Church, in which an impressive service was held. Interment was made in St. Anthony's Cemetery.

The number of people who followed the hearse was a great tribute to the upright life of Mr. O'Rourke, and the many tokens of sympathy received by the family show with what respect the deceased was held by his many friends and acquaintances.

"Take care of the pennies and the pounds will take care of themselves."

Large things are but an aggregation of small things. If we take care of the small things we are in effect taking care of the large things which the small things combine to make.

Take care of what you eat, when you eat, and how you eat, and your stomach will take care of itself. But who takes care of such trivial things? That is why, someday, the majority of people have to take care of the stomach. When that day comes, there is no aid so effective in undoing the results of past carelessness as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, and restores the organs of digestion and nutrition to a condition of healthy activity. It cures biliousness, heartburn, flatulence, indigestion, palpitation, dizziness, cold extremities and a score of other ailments which are but the symptoms of disorder in the stomach and its allied organs.

Sinclair's Condition Serious.

Toronto, Jan. 30.—Magnus Sinclair, the caretaker of the Labor Temple, who was assaulted early Saturday morning in the building, was reported to be in a serious condition last night. His assailants, Burt Leslie and Donald Burgoyne, are under arrest. It is said that Burgoyne beat Sinclair with a bottle.

Better Than Spanking

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box 4, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child; the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

The Red Rose Flavor and Strength

NO Ceylon tea nor Indian tea alone can have the "rich fruity flavor" of Red Rose Tea, because neither variety in itself possesses all the qualities of strength, richness, delicacy, and fragrance. Each has its own peculiar qualities, but each has its weaknesses.

By combining the two in the Red Rose proportions, I produce a tea with the "rich fruity flavor" and strength of Red Rose Tea, a flavor and strength found in no brand of Ceylon alone.

CHAPTER X.

Seven o'clock next morning found us entering Table Bay, our eventful journey accomplished. Overhead towered the famous mountain from which the Bay derives its name, its top shrouded in its cloth. At its foot reposed the town with which my destiny seemed so vitally connected, and which I was approaching with so much trepidation. As I stood on the promenade deck and watched the land open out before me, my sensations would have formed a good problem for a student of character. With a perception rendered abnormally acute by my fear, I could discern the host of the port authorities putting off to us long before I should, at any other time, have been able to see it. It had yet to be discovered whether or not it contained a police official in search of me. As I watched her dipping her nose into the sea, and then tossing the spray off from either bow, in her haste to get to us, she seemed to me to be like a bloodhound on my track. The closer she came the more violently my heart began to beat, until it was as much as I could do to breathe. If only I could be certain that she was conveying an officer to arrest me, I felt I might find pluck enough to drop overboard and so end the pursuit for good and all. But I did not know, and the doubt upon the point decided me to remain where I was and brave the upshot.

As I watched her I heard a footstep upon the deck behind me. I turned my head to find that it was Miss Maybourne. She came up beside me, and having glanced ashore at the city nestled at the foot of the great mountain, and then at the launch coming out to meet us, turned to address me. "Mr. Wrexford," she began, "I am going to ask you to do me a great favor, and I want you to promise me to grant it before I tell you what it is."

"I'm afraid I can hardly do that," I answered. "But if you will tell me what it is, I will promise to do it for you if it is in any way possible."

"It is this," she said, "I want you, in the event of my father's meeting me, to take me home. Oh don't say no, Mr. Wrexford, I want you so much to do it. Surely you will not deny me the last request I make to you?"

She looked so pleadingly into my face that, as usual, it required all my courage not to give way to her. But the risk was too great for me even to contemplate such a thing for a moment. My rescue of the daughter of Cornelius Maybourne, and my presence in Cape Town, would soon leak out, and then it would be only a matter of hours before I should be arrested. Whatever my own inclinations may have been, I felt there was nothing for it but for me to refuse.

"I am not my own master in this matter," I replied, with a bitterness which must have shown her how much I earnestly I was. "It is impossible that I remain so long in the place. There are the most vital reasons in the world against it. I can only ask you to believe that."

I saw large tears rise in her eyes, though she turned hurriedly away in the hope that I should not see them. To see her weep, however, was more than I could bear, and under the influence of her trouble my resolutions began to give way. After all, if I was destined to be arrested, I might just as well be taken at Mr. Maybourne's house as elsewhere—perhaps better. Besides, it was more than likely, in the event of no warrant having been issued, Mr. Maybourne, whose influence I had been told, was enormous in the colony, might prove just the very friend of all others I wanted. At any rate, if I were not taken before the time came for going ashore, I would do as she wished. I told her this, and she immediately thanked me and went down below again.

Just as I announced my decision the launch came alongside, and a moment later her passengers were ascending the accommodation ladder, which had been lowered to receive them. They were three in number, and included—so I was told—by a gentleman who stood beside me—the harbor master, the officer of health, and another individual, about whose identity my informant was not quite assured. I looked at the last-named with no little apprehension; my nervousness endowed him with all the attributes of a police official, and my mind's eye could almost discover the manacles reposing in his coat pocket. I trust I may never pass through such another agonizing few minutes as I experienced then. I saw the party step on to the spar deck, where they shook hands with the purser and chief officer, and watched them as they ascended to the promenade deck and made their way towards the skipper. Here they were received by the skipper, I leaned against the rails, sick with fear and trembling in every limb, expecting every moment to feel a heavy hand upon my shoulder, and to hear a stern voice saying in my ear—"Gilbert Pennefather, arrest you on a charge of murder."

But minute after minute went by, and still not one came to speak the words. The ship, which had been brought to a standstill to pick up the boat, had now got under weigh again, and we were approaching closer and closer to the docks. In less than half an hour I should know my fate.

As soon as we were safely installed in dock, and everyone was looking after his or her luggage, saying "good-bye" and preparing to go ashore, I began to look about me for Miss Maybourne. Having found her we went

4,500 CONVERSIONS.

Toronto, Jan. 29.—"There has been a wonderful work in Toronto, and I am well satisfied with the results. The whole city is moved and the country round as well. The newspapers have done a great work by their reports of my meetings, which have gone all over the country."

This was Dr. Torrey's pronouncement upon the results of the 29 days' campaign he has waged in Toronto. Beginning with the huge rally at his opening meeting on Sunday, the last day of the old year, there have been compassed within the space of those 29 days, 53 addresses by Dr. Torrey before Massey Hall audiences. Also there have been held a score or more of church and mission house meetings, so that the revival movement has been responsible for the holdings of possibly 75 gatherings.

Dr. Torrey estimates that there were about 4,500 conversions in all, and says that he considers the proportion of converts to the attendance at meetings was quite up to, if not above, the average of other cities. He remarked that a great many conversion other than those made manifest by profession, would show in increased church attendance.

Prayers For Dying Son.

Before beginning his address last night, Dr. Torrey said he had a pathetic request for prayer to read. It was from a mother whose son had only a short time to live. His life had been spent in worldly pleasure, and it was desired that he might "see the light." There were many fervent exclamations of "Amen" from the crowded platform.

"Now, as I shall preach for the last time in Toronto, may the Holy Ghost come upon me," prayed Dr. Torrey. "To-day and To-morrow" was the theme of his address. As might be guessed, it was a plea against vacillation in entering on the Christian life. "To-day is the wise man's day, to-morrow is the fool's day," said the preacher, oracularly. There was no speedier road to triumph than by making a start to-day, and shorter road to failure than when one realized that thing ought to be done, and said it should be done to-morrow.

The world didn't satisfy. If men who had tried the world and had tried Christ were asked, they would say they had found satisfaction only in the Christian life. "I wouldn't be surprised any night to be down to sleep and wake up in heaven," said Dr. Torrey. Addressing his hearers, he said: "Who knows whether you will wake up in Toronto or wake up in hell?"

The speaker concluded amid a hushed silence.

MORE THAN ALLY.

Nicholas Toasts German Kaiser in Very Friendly Words.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 29.—A new grouping of the powers of Europe, with Germany and Russia arrayed side by side in the closest friendship, and the mismatched alliance of the empire, with Republican France lagging in the rear, was forecasted by the words of Emperor Nicholas as a gala luncheon at Tsarskoe-Selo Saturday in honor of Emperor William's birthday.

Rising to his feet before a brilliant company of Russian and German representatives to propose a toast to the German Emperor, Emperor Nicholas lifted his glass and said slowly and distinctly, as if weighing every word—the health of the health of the Emperor of Germany and King of Prussia, my brother and very dear friend."

The phrases chosen were significant enough in themselves, the Emperor in previous years having proposed the health of the Emperor King without the qualifying expression of brotherhood and friendship, but, turning to Herr Von Schoan, the German Ambassador, who was standing at his right, the Emperor grasped him by the hand, and is reported to have said: "Frere est plus que allie" (Brother that's more than ally).

ROBIN'S POLICY.

Carberry, Man., Jan. 29.—The provincial Conservative convention, which came to a close Saturday, passed a series of resolutions embodying the principles for which Conservatives in Manitoba stand.

Free rural delivery where conditions warrant.

Control of all lands for school purposes.

Establishment of technical schools.

Vladivostok Is Orderly.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 29.—Count Witte yesterday received a telegram from Gen. Linevitch, reporting that order prevails at Vladivostok, where the mutinous sailors have been disarmed.

Bank Teller Has Smallpox.

Theftford, Jan. 28.—Mr. McArthur of the Sovereign Bank here has been taken down with smallpox, and moved to an isolated building.

He who commits injustice is even more wretched than he who suffers it.

A MILLION NEEDLES

COULD NOT INFLICT THE TORTURE WOMEN SUFFER FROM HEADACHES

Headache is not in itself a disease, but a symptom or accompaniment of other disease, principally those of the stomach, liver and bowels, such as Constipation, Dyspepsia, Liver Trouble, Bad Blood, Female Complaints, General Debility and Weakness. Headache is common to both sexes, but more frequently afflicts females.

The varieties of headache most common are sick or bilious headache, nervous headache, headache from constipation, debility or indigestion, periodical and spasmodic headache. Undoubtedly the cause must be removed before permanent relief can be had.

removes the cause of the headache, and not only does this, but it also restores the entire system to healthy action and buoyant vigor.

"I was troubled with headache for a number of years, but could get nothing to help me. I procured a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and finding it was doing me so much good, I got two more. I am now fully cured and think there is nothing in the world like Burdock Blood Bitters for headache."

AFFIDAVIT FOR ALIBI.

To Prove That Garrett Van Zant Was Not In St. Thomas.

Toronto, Jan. 29.—In an affidavit made by T. J. Woodcock, J. P. of Newmarket, auditor for the County of York, Governor Garrett Van Zant of Toronto has moved to establish an alibi in the charges against him of personating a D. R. O. in St. Thomas during the West Elgin bye-election.

The affidavit declares that the late Judge McDougall, Joseph T. Stokes and Garrett R. Van Zant were, in 1899, the members of the board of audit for the County of York. That this board met in Toronto on Jan. 5, 6, 7, 12, 13 and 14, 1899, and that the whole of the members were present.

THE WONDERS OF THE BODY.

Its mechanism, like delicate machinery, by even a slight cause is so disarranged as to be practically useless. A headache is no trifling matter, because the stomach, kidneys and liver are sure to be affected. To cure the cause of headaches and prevent new attacks, use Ferrozone. It aids the stomach by supplying nourishing blood, vitalizes the nerves and brain instantly. Ferrozone braces—gives tone—elevates your spirits. No such health bringer known. Fifty cents per box or fifty chocolate coated tablets at all dealers.

Montreal, Jan. 29.—In the presence of an immense number of people at 40-van-on-the-Clyde yesterday was successfully launched the magnificent new Canadian Pacific steamship, the Empress of Ireland, built for the Montreal, Quebec and Liverpool trade. Mrs. Grace, wife of the managing director of the Fairfield Shipbuilding Co., officiated at the christening ceremony.

IT HEALS THE LUNGS.

An irritable throat, "Catharhose" cures in five minutes, bronchitis, it soothes instantly, weak lungs are fed and quickly nourished back to health. To be free from colds and coughs, to avoid catarrh and bronchitis—use Catharhose; it is prescribed by more than twenty thousand physicians in America alone and used by the people of nine nations.

A Village on Fire.

DO YOU GET BILIOUS?

No remedy could be more prompt and agreeable than Dr. Hamilton's Pills. No matter where you go you'll hear of the grand cures they make. Writing from Ottawa M. S. M. LeGere says: "For people inclined to biliousness and sick headache I don't think there is a remedy to compare with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I formerly had bilious attacks about once a month—used Dr. Hamilton's Pills and obtained grand results. My stomach has been put in good order and my health greatly improved." No medicine better for men, women or children. Try Dr. Hamilton's Pills—25c. per box or five boxes for $1.00 at all druggists.

Sixty Claims to Settle.

Peterboro, Jan. 29.—Steps are now being taken to repair the big break in the Trent Canal bank. All the trouble is apparently over. The Government will have about sixty claims to settle owing to flooded cellars, loss of stock and provisions, etc.

PAIN ABOUT THE HIPS.

It is a common complaint with women. The right treatment is Nerviline, which penetrates to the seat of the pain immediately. Nerviline warms and soothes the affected parts, draws out the irritation and pain, allows the patient ease after one rubbing. No liniment so economical and safe. Nearly fifty years in use, and the demand immensely greater every day! Nerviline must be good.

ELLA G. TURNS TURTLE

Reported From Bamfield, B. C., Lost With Six Hands.

Another Large Barque, Supposed to Be the Admiral Courbel, Reported Ashore Near Carmanah Point—Capt. Alex. McLean, the Notorious Sealer, One of the Six Lost on the Ella G.—A Valencia Enquiry.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 29.—"The fishing schooner Ella G., a small 'Pinkie' schooner of about 15 tons, is reported from Bamfield to have been lost with all hands, six in number, having turned turtle in the southwest gale of Tuesday, when the wind blew from 50 to 60 miles an hour. There were six men on board, one of whom was the notorious sealer, Capt. Alexander McLean, who escapes with the sealing schooner 'Carmenita' caused United States Government to order a revenue cutter to arrest the vessel.

The Ella G. left Victoria on Saturday, the 20th, on a fishing cruise off the Vancouver Island coast, in the vicinity of the entrance of the straits. She was seen on Tuesday last by settlers at Carmanah Point, standing off Bonilla Point, two miles to the eastward of Carmanah, and, according to those who then watched her, she did not pass out and appeared to be acting strangely. Last night there were rumors that she had been lost.

A despatch now comes from Bamfield Creek to the effect that the schooner had turned turtle, and all on board were lost.

May Be Another.

There are fears that a big barque will be driven on the Vancouver Island coast near Carmanah. At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the lightkeeper at Carmanah reported that a large barque was within a mile from shore and a half miles west of Carmanah Point, and a big swell was setting jushorewards. The tugboat companies were notified so that attempts could be made to save the vessel if possible. It is believed here that the barque in distress is the Admiral Courbel, which was lost from the tug Pioneer when being towed to Puget Sound inward from San Francisco on Tuesday, and has not been heard of since.

An Ottawa despatch says the Canadian Government has ordered an investigation into the wreck of the Valencia.

Premier McBride announced yesterday that the Provincial Government would co-operate with the Dominion Government in a full investigation for the west coast of Vancouver Island.

Only 37 Saved. The total number of the survivors of the Valencia is shown to have been but thirty-seven of the total on board the steamer—151 persons.

The survivors who drifted into Barkley Sound on a raft speak highly of the bravery of both the stewards and stewardess, and their death. They say that before they left the vessel the stewards and stewardess were engaged constantly in passing food to all, and long after the crew took to the rigging the steward and many of his waiters passed up meat and sandwiches to those lashed in the cordage of the wreck.

IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, Girl Gets Leg Broken.

Whitby, Jan. 29.—The young ladies of the O. L. C. to the number of 50, started for Oshawa Saturday to be photographed.

The party completely filled two of Newport's band wagons. The larger wagon was driven by Teamster Andrew Brown, and seated on the front seat with the driver were Miss Ormsby and Miss Muriel Koyle of Lindsay.

About half way between the two towns and near the residence of farmer Jerry Lick, the nut on the bolt of the whitetree fell off and the whitetree was pulled out, striking one of the horses. This caused the horse to jump and the pole fell to the ground, turning the wagon completely over in the ditch and throwing all the occupants out.

Miss Ormsby jumped, but unfortunately Miss Koyle, a driver's leg was badly broken, some three inches of the bone protruding through the skin, and Driver Johnston was badly cut on the face. She was carried into Mr. Lick's house and medical aid sent for.

Drs. Meldrum and McGillivray were quickly on the spot. The other young ladies were frightened and shaken up and most of them preferred to walk home.

Of the injured men two cannot recover.

Private conferences continue concerning the more important question of adjusting the Franco-German differences regarding Morocco's political future.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE BEST MADE.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Porterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by all druggists.

What War Cost Japan.

Tokio, Jan. 29.—An official report submitted to the diet shows that the actual outlay for the war from the beginning of hostilities to their end in September last was, for the army, 5,000,000, and for the navy $90,000,000.

CURED HIS MOTHER OF RHEUMATISM.

"My mother has been suffering for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at other times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by all druggists.

Col. Mann Arrested for Perjury.

New York, Jan. 29.—Col. William A. Mann, editor of Town Topics, was arrested late Saturday on a charge of perjury growing out of his testimony in the recent criminal libel proceedings against Norman Hapgood, editor of Collier's Weekly. Col. Mann was arraigned before a city magistrate and held in $10,000 bail for examination next Thursday, Feb. 1. Bail was furnished by Mrs. Albert A. Wray, a daughter of Col. Mann, who pledged as surety up to real estate valued at $300,000.

THAT OVER WORKED, PLAYED OUT FEELING AMONG WOMEN

There are thousands of females all over our land who are broken down in health and dragging out a miserable existence, overburdened with diseases peculiar to their sex, apparently growing old while yet young. Often they have pale or sallow complexion, hollow, sunken eyes, with a lifeless look; the face has a pinched and haggard appearance; they are weak, weary and trembling, often extremely nervous, starting at every little noise. Many are low-spirited, and some are fretful. Some are apparently bloodless, with cold hands and feet, while others are flushed by an unequal circulation of the blood, dizziness, and sometimes dimness of vision, loss of memory, and often loss of appetite and sleep, and are wearied with terrible dreams. Palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, smothering and sinking spells, shortness of breath and the sensation of pins and needles are all indications of a weakened condition of the heart or nervous system, and should any of them be present we would strongly advise the use of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They bring health to the broken down, energy to the weakened constitution, tone up the tired, overstrained nerves, and strengthen the weak heart. Mrs. Edward Jackson, Hall's Bridge, Ont., writes: "For a year I was greatly troubled with nervousness and loss of appetite, and could neither sleep nor eat. After taking a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I was completely cured and can recommend them to all sufferers."

DUSTY STREET

Board of Works Should Bring the Sprinkler into Commission, so Says Annoyed Merchant

The dusty state of Chatham's main thoroughfare on dry days is occasioning both comment and complaint from King St. store-keepers. When the dust is being blown about by shifting winds and disturbed by passing vehicles and pedestrians, it is an utter impossibility to keep it from entering the stores and settling on the goods inside. To some tradesmen this may mean a loss of extra work and annoyance and the constant use of the duster, but to others the trouble has a more serious side. We refer to grocers and others who keep articles of food for human consumption and who, in spite of their own unceasing efforts to maintain a high standard of quality and purity in their wares, are defeated by the lack of proper insulation from the dust of the road.

A King St. merchant, speaking to a Planet reporter this morning, asked why the Board of Works do not use the city sprinkler during this dry and dusty weather, and also wanted to know if it were not adding insult to injury to sweep the street without first sprinkling it? Several others made reference to the same thing, the consensus of opinion being that the Board of Works must certainly be very slow in realizing that King St. has lately been more like a miniature Sahara than, as it has frequently been called, the Woodward Avenue of the Maple City.
