The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Victoria University Library
TORONTO

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Victoria University Library
TORONTO

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

Constituency of Polling Sub-Division No.

Town

Polling Place situate at

.....

This is entrusted confidentially to Mr.

for his own exclusive use, to instruct and protect voters in his Polling Sub-Division.

Immediately after the poll, obtain and send to Headquarters of Riding the Deputy Returning Officer's Certificate of Votes, which, under the law, he must sign and give to you. (See page 10.)

Do not leave the polling place WITHOUT this Report.

At the same time send in any report you have to make regarding occurrences at the poll. Note well who were active on behalf of OPPOSING CANDIDATE and give their NAMES in report.

The Deputy Returning Officer will have a copy of the Dominion Elections Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, and Amendments to date), to which you can refer with these "Hints." But you SHOULD HAVE a copy of the Act for your own personal use.

Study and discuss these "Hints" with the other Unionist scrutineers.

BE VIGILANT! Even one vote may turn the election.
One Vote in Each Subdivision is Important!

Take the utmost precautions against all trickery and fraud.

HINTS TO UNIONISTS

References are to Sections of the Dominion Elections Act as amended and effected by the War-time Elections Act, 1917, and the Military Voters Act, 1917.

AGENTS

Take with you to the polling booth:—

1. Your written authority to act as Scrutineer (Sec. 139), signed by candidate himself. What the Scrutineer needs at the poll.
 2. A marked Voters' List of the Division; which should show you who are to be sworn.
 3. This book of "Hints."
 4. A copy of the Election Act and amendments.
 5. Your luncheon.
 6. Slips of paper for memoranda, and a pencil.
- One stick of blue sealing wax and some special seal to seal (after closing of poll) the packets of the unused and the rejected ballots as well as the ballots cast for the candidates and other poll papers.

Be Careful to Make D.E.O. Open Ballot Box, Remove Any Papers Therein, and Lock the Box.

At opening of poll see D.R.O. open ballot box, remove any papers therein, and lock the box.

Be sure that you are at the poll half an hour before it opens (Sec. 136, 141); you Cannot Demand that Black Ballots be Counted if not present fifteen minutes before the opening of the poll; and on no account leave it until after the ballots are counted at the close of the poll. Your absence, remember, will not invalidate the acts of our opponents, or of the D.R.O. (Sec. 140 (2)). Be there at half an hour before poll opens.

YOUR RIGHTS AND DUTIES

I. OPENING THE POLL

Time of opening poll.

1. In the Cities of Hamilton, London, Ottawa, Toronto, Stratford, St. Thomas, Kingston, Brockville, Belleville, Windsor and Chatham the poll will open at 6 a.m. and close at 5 p.m. In other places it will open at 9 a.m. and close at 5 p.m.

Oath of Secrecy.

2. At least one of the agents of each candidate, On being admitted to the Polling Booth, shall take the Oath of Secrecy, Form U (Sec. 142). Insist on this. Otherwise make a formal protest to the D.R.O. in writing.

3. If an agent leaves, see that the substitute is At Once sworn. Make note of the fact and time of leaving and of return. Only the sworn agents can be present when an illiterate or physically incapacitated voter is voting.

The first counting of the ballot papers.

4. If You Are in Attendance 15 Minutes Before the Hour for Opening the Poll, you shall be entitled to have and must have the ballot papers carefully counted, and to inspect them and all other papers, forms and documents relating to the poll (Sec. 141). Examine these with utmost care. Make note of the number of ballots.

The ballot box.

5. At opening of poll the D.R.O. must, in your presence, open the ballot box (Sec. 145). Test it, make sure that it has not a false bottom or false side. Satisfy yourself completely that there are no ballot papers or other papers left therein, and that it is really locked again at once.

Require the oath if poll officials vote on certificate.

6. Every Deputy Returning Officer, Poll Clerk, or Agent for a Polling station other than the station where he is entitled to vote, shall, if required by you, take the oath in Form V. (Sec. 144.)

The voting compartment.

7. Examine the compartment where voters are to mark their ballots and see that there is no means of communicating with the outside. Make sure it is a Black lead pencil that has been provided (Sec. 162). If it is very soft, so that when the marked ballot is folded the X might be duplicated, have the D.R.O. change it.

8. This is a legally arranged Booth Table, with Ballot box on the table. Insist upon this arrangement.

1. Deputy Returnir ; Officer.

2. Poll Clerk.

and 4. Scrutineers for one side.

5 and 6. Scrutineers for other side.

9. The D.R.O. must post up the printed directions for voting.

10. Remember that your duties are very important, that you perform a statutory duty, and that your rights are extensive. Do not allow yourself to be placed at a distance. Sit where you can see that the law is fulfilled in every particular on behalf of your candidate. Have everything done exactly according to the Statute. Be vigilant in your duties; insist on your rights.

Blind and illiterate voters.

11. You may assist a friendly voter who is blind or cannot read, in marking his ballot. He must in such case make oath in Form BB that he is incapable of voting without assistance (Sec. 166) and the reason must be recorded in the poll book (Sec. 167).

Scrutinize every act, every person, every official.

Be vigilant first, last, and always.

Remain in the booth till the last official detail is fulfilled.

Take nothing for granted.

II. THE POLLING OF THE VOTE

Who may be in the booth.

1. In addition to the D.R.O. and the Poll Clerk, the Enumerator, the Candidates and two Agents for each candidate, and in the absence of agents two electors for each candidate, no others shall be permitted to remain within the room where the votes are given. (Sec. 137.)

2. Only one elector shall enter the compartment at a time (Sec. 147).

The ballot when handed to the voter.

3. Make sure that the D.R.O. has placed on the back of the ballot, before giving it to the voter—

(a) His initials.

(b) The stamp of the electoral district, and

(c) on the counterfoil a number corresponding to the number opposite the voter's name in the poll book. (Sec. 160, 162.) Watch each ballot closely; observe closely the appearance of the paper, the size, lightness or heaviness of the initials and number. It is the duty of the D.R.O. also to examine them. (Sec. 162.) Ascertain that the paper returned to the D.R.O. by the voter is really the one just given. Watch this closely, otherwise your candidate may be defrauded.

4. Insist that the counterfoil shall be removed and destroyed before D.R.O. deposits ballot in box. (Sec.

162.) Protest formally and earnestly if D.R.O. attempts to pocket counterfoil. Be very vigilant that it is destroyed at once and not pocketed or thrown under the table.

5. See that each friendly voter is instructed by the D.R.O. how to mark and fold his ballot properly. (Sec. 161.)

6. Make a note of anything wrong and report to the Central Committee of the riding at once, if possible.

7. Remember that when once a voter gets a ballot he has a right to use it: he cannot then be sworn; remember that if a voter once refuses to be sworn he cannot then change his mind and be admitted to vote; a voter cannot be admitted a second time to the polling booth, whether he has voted or not. (Sec. 156.)

WHO MAY VOTE

1. Any person whose name is found on the list of voters may vote, except if he refuses to take any oath, or affirmation, or answer any question or produce any evidence as required by the Elections Act.

2. In municipally unorganized districts any person qualified to vote, although not on the list, may vote upon production of enumerator's certificate. (Sec. 62.)

3. The following officials and persons, though omitted from the voters' list on account of their official positions, may vote at the federal elections upon being sworn. Sec. 150):—

Provincial disqualifications that do not apply. (Sec. 150).

Customs and Inland Revenue Officers.

Postmasters in cities and towns.

Stipendiary Magistrates, Police Magistrates of cities and towns of 5,000 and over.

Clerks of the Peace, County Crown Attorneys, Dep. Clerk of Crown.

Registrars, Sheriffs and Deputy Sheriffs.

Agents for sale of Crown Lands.

In fact, any one possessed of the ordinary qualifications required by the provincial law, even if declared to be disqualified by that law.

NOTE.—If any question arises under Section 150, the oath to be used is Form X therein mentioned, which is printed at page 21. This oath is omitted from the official Elections Act issued to Returning Officers.

Female voter may vote on certificate.

4. Except in cities, county or district towns of over 9,000 population, any female voter who is not on the voters' list but who produces a certificate from the enumerator that she is entitled to vote or a declaration of the enumerator that she had applied for a certificate, provided she takes the oath, shall be entitled to receive ballot. If the certificate of the female voter is not challenged she shall be allowed to vote in the ordinary way. If it is challenged then she shall be allowed to mark her ballot, and her ballot will be put in a separate envelope; this also applies to female voters being given a ballot upon a declaration. (See Sec. 62.)

In certain cases persons struck off may vote on certificate.

5. Except in cities or counties or district towns of over 9,000 population, persons struck off list by enumerator on the ground of disqualification, may be given certificate by enumerator under Sec. 62 and vote as described above.

Military elector may vote upon being sworn.

6. Military elector as defined by Sub-section (c), Section 2 of Part 4, being the Military Voters' Act, 1917, may, if he is a resident within Canada and no longer on active service, vote in the electoral district where he is resident at the time of polling. He shall, however, take the oath prescribed to the effect that he is honorably discharged, and produce his discharge or official letter releasing him from service.

Returning Officer, etc., may vote upon certificate of enumerator or R.O.

7. Although not on the list, any returning officer, candidate, agent, or polling clerk shall be permitted to vote at the polling station where he is employed, provided he produces a certificate from the enumerator to the effect that he is a qualified voter. In cities and towns, being a County or District Town over 9,000 population, this certificate must be obtained from the Returning Officer.

8. The old provision (Sec. 167), although not on the Voters absent on military duty. list, whereby any person whose name has been omitted from the list on account of his absence on military service or as a war correspondent (Sec. 157), may vote upon taking the oath prescribed by Sections 158 and 159, is still in force. All "military electors" within Canada, however, must vote in the manner prescribed by Part IV.

9. Under Section 67 (g) certain persons, if otherwise Persons born in certain parts of France, Italy and Denmark. qualified, born in parts of France, Italy or Denmark now under German rule, may vote with a certificate of enumerator for W 3.

He shall enter the word VOTED opposite the name of each elector as he votes; and according to the circumstances SWORN OR AFFIRMED—REFUSED TO BE SWORN OR REFUSED TO AFFIRM OR REFUSED TO ANSWER; PROVINCIAL DISQUALIFICATIONS OATH taken or REFUSED TO TAKE THE PROVINCIAL DISQUALIFICATIONS OATH. (Sec. 171.)

poll book.

4. In counting the ballots be vigilant. Only the Deputy Returning Officer should handle them. Scrutineers should examine everything—that is your duty. If possible arrange to have all the ballots that are objected to laid aside to be considered later, so that you may see how they will affect the whole vote at the poll. Then examine closely, back and front, those which the agents for the opposing candidate claim are valid. Remember that every vote counts. If they are not marked according to law, get the D.R.O. to reject them, or make him note your objection (Sec. 174). Every objection must be made in writing by the Deputy Returning Officer and numbered. Keep a record of your own objections with the numbers, as well as a record of those made by the agents of the opposing candidate. Remember to make exact copy of the ballots rejected; objected to and counted; or occasioning discussion. Do your utmost to prevent any ballot of our candidate from being rejected. Object to ballots for our opponent that have not the D.R.O.'s initials. Sec. 160 and 162.)

Mis-spelled names.

5. If the name of a voter is misspelled or misprinted on the list, he can nevertheless vote if he can say he is the person intended.

(See the Oath, "you are the person named or INTENDED TO BE NAMED.")

The whole oath to be administered.

6. INSIST on the D.R.O. administering the WHOLE OATH applicable to any voter that you wish to be sworn.

Spoilt ballots.

7. If a friendly voter has inadvertently spoilt his ballot, see that he gets a new one and also that the D.R.O. defaces the other ballot. (Sec. 163.)

8. When counting ballots, one scrutineer should do the writing while the other keeps eyes and ears open.

9. On Election night or as soon after as possible see that your candidate or organizer for the electoral district has a full report from your poll.

OUTSIDE SCRUTINEERS

1. As soon as a voter enters, cancel his name on your list.

2. Have a small pad of paper on which you may give short lists of voters to be sent for. Rush the vote early.

3. Watch closely suspicious persons, who leave the booth. If possible have them followed.

4. Caution every one of our voters to use only a BLACK PENCIL to mark their ballots; lest the previous voter may have substituted another.

5. See that you have at least half a dozen supporters from among the best citizens around the poll—not necessarily the same ones all the time—all day—they may influence the waverers; will get in the dilatory and will give moral support (and more if required) by their presence to the inside scrutineers to stand up for their rights.

SCRUTINIZING BALLOTS

A ballot with more marks on it than a X may be Good ballots. good if the marks are accidental; and cannot be fairly claimed to show an intention, on the part of the voter, to let someone, watching the ballots being counted, know how he voted. Thus two lines crossing each other, in the form of a X in one compartment, whether they are above, below, in front, or behind the name; whether they are crooked or straight, one long and one short, or the ends reach into the next compartment, would be a good ballot. Also, one line in one compartment and a X in the other is a good ballot; and a X in one compartment, scrubbed out, and a plain X in the other, is good. He changed his mind. More than one X, but all in one compartment, is good.

A ballot with more marks than a X, by which it can Bad ballots. be fairly claimed the voter intended to let someone know how he voted, is bad. Thus, any number, any letter, any name on the face, any mark made by the voter on the back, a peculiarity in the X like a ring around it, a V instead of an X, makes a bad ballot.

The whole thing is, do the extra or unusual marks show "accident" or "intention"? You will constantly be meeting new marks, and you must decide on the spot whether they show an "accident" or an "understanding." Finally, remember voters sometimes intentionally spoil their ballots.

Examine the chart of good and bad ballots. They are the actual decisions of the Courts. See insert.
