§ Organs or ran Boars or Talan, Montreal, 7th Morch, 1800.

Sin.—On the 13th October last, I had the bosse of transmitting a memorial from the Montreal Band of Trade, to His Excellency the Governer General, on the subject of deepening Lake St. Peter; pointing out the importance of proceeding with the works, and praying that His Excellency would be pleased to direct the necessary steps to be taken, to larne them to completion at an early a period as possible.

In subject, the memorial, your setter of 12th, more month, informed me that the matter had been referred to the Commissioners of Public Works, who would being if under the creation, and in the season for renewing operations in the Lake approaches, I have respectfully to rejternis the project, has since been made to the Board, and in the season for renewing operations in the Lake approaches, I have respectfully to rejternis the project the account memorial. Provincial Secretary, Toronto.

The Chief Commissioner has taken the sarliest opportunity to examine your Memorial of the 13th October, and letter of 7th March last, transferred to this Department, on the subject of deepening the channel through Lake St. Peter, on which upwards of £70,000 has been expended, and on which it appears there is required a further outlay of about £20,000.

We have said sufficient of the local advantages which attach to the Caughnawaga traverse, propose at least our perfect disinterest-classes, and our desire to coroperate with any parties really disposed to press to completion a line of Railways which will connect Muntreal with New York and Boston; and if we lexitate before we commit oursidees to a preference for the Caughnawaga line, we are but pensing the path of men who examine ant investigate causiously and deliberate before in the caughnawaga line, we are but pensing the path of men who examine ant investigate causiously and deliberate by before finally deciding. We will remember, some sixtum years since, when Craig Street contained an open creek in the vente, now covered up and hid from view, that the opponents of the plantal and hid from view, that the opponents of the plantal before the case, and turning into it the waste water of the Lachine Casal, discharging the sewerage of the city below the Creek. The want of an independent Press at that period, and its indolerance and apathy of the public, resulted in the waters of the creek, with all the fifth of the city sewers, being turned into the very centre of our harbor, being turned into the very centre of our harbor, contaminating the stream, and necessarily polluting the water drawn from the river by the Water Works, for the use of the city sewers, being turned into the very centre of our harbor, being turned into the very centre of our harbor, and manufacture of the proper remedy being applied we see regulative when the quantity with the series of the same deliberate being turned into the proper remedy being applied. We believe it was in 1847, when money was abundant, capitalists liberal, and apeculation rife, that the idea of a bridge was first seriously entertained. The merchants, like prudent men, went to work methodically; H. Judah, and John.

Young, Esquires, solicited aid in behalf of survey and examination of the proposed line of operations,—$1000 were cheerfully contributed and with that sum, the services, we believe, of Mr. Day, a very distinguished American Engimir. Day, a very distinguished American Engineer, were secured. He surveyed the line from Windmill Point to the apposits shore, imspected the bottom of the River, and faving satisfied his mind upon every essential fact, he proposed for the sum of one hundred thousand pounds, to throw a wooden bridge over the stream, the span of the arches to be two hundred feet unde, with stone pillars, and a drawidizing, if required. You have doubtless heard of the diagraceful affair in our District Court; and as the matter will come before the floure at its next Session, and a statement made to the Governor immediately, I will give you the facts as they occurred—I being engaged in the case with Judge Field.

Byon our motion, the Court had ordered a new trial, for the reason that it (the Court) had refused to let ur call the Pisnisiff upon the stand, to prove a contract; and when the stants arrived, showing our right, granted a new trial, apon payment of costs. Without making out their bill of costs, the parties appeared to the action, and, upon agreement, postponer the trial from Tuesday until Friday. Upon the calling of the case, the Plaintiff's Counsel demanded the costs. Judge Field arose to say that they had waived their right to costs until the faul describes. Taking the average of the last twenty years, we exceed the margin, when we state, that passengers can cross, and have crossed, opposite Montreal, with the exceptions of three days in the Spring, and three days in the Fall. Any citizen, who has long resided here, must have had frequent opportunities of seeing passengers for the Packet muster on the edge of the bordage, the canoes drawn up on the see, and the baggare piled alongside, preparatory to crossing. Now is it not reusonable to suppose, that, if Caughnawaga were so much more desirable as a ferry, experienced travellers, like most of the Packet passengers, would not rather undergo the slight trouble of a seven miles land journey to Caughnawaga to avoid the hazards of the Montreal ferry? We submit this point as worthy of notice. We do not deny that there may be, and have been, days when the Montreal ferry is, and will be, impracticable; but it should not be forgotten, thet, when once the ice has token, the natural Winter communication between the Southern bank of the St. Lawrence and Montreal is incomparably better grateful return for the kindness of the Superintendent of the Rutland Railroad, in offering, a short time since, it carry the Central's mails gratifionely, the civil and "accomplished" Superintendent of the Central has tendered the services of that road to carry passengers and freigh for the other. Accounts received from Schleswig-Holstein, "mnounce a most sanguinary engagement to have taken place between the Danish and Schleswig-Holstein forces. The engagement commenced on the morning of the 25th ult., and lest duminter-upstedly for eleven hours. Until 11 o'clock, A. M., fortune seemed, notwithstanding the immense finumerical superiority mexpectedly displayed by the Danes, to favor the former, as they succeeded twice in loveing the Danes to their first position between Ceverage and Assacherholz. At this hour, however, the Danes brought fresh troops into the field, and an immense force of artillery, against the centere of General Williser's position in front of Istedt, and after a frightful rannonade of two hours, duration, followed up, by a successful attack, the Schleswig-Holstein army retired in good order through Schleswig and Missande to a position in the south at Sebestedt. The loss of both a deals avery great. The batteries at Eckernforde are dismounted.

DESTH OF A PATRIXER.—The patriance Dornor died lately, nour the foot of the Hill of Allen. County Kildare, at the advanced age of 125. The deceased lived in the same townland in which he was born in the year 1725, having thus seen the throng of England filled by six successive sovereigns. He had been in a state of second infancy for nearly a quarter of a century.

Laturagh, the resping of the barley is general and wheat, outs, and potatoes promise large and sound crops. In the nurriest of Armagh, the supply of potatoes is so abundant that they can be laid for 2d, per store. The Larrick Reparter, which had such gloomy reports of the blight last week, now states that potatoes supposed to be discussed are recovering.

The Cork Enferiese has accounts from all parts of the Counties of Cork, Kerry, Limerick, and Waterstond, which concur in stating that there is yet no real potato discussed and that the prespects of the barvest are most cheering. To crown all, some of the Provincial journals, which reported a serious blight in the wheat crop, now declare that that crop, in general, is sound, and promises a good produce. Condence is rapidly reliving among the farmers, with the hope of a return to abundance.

He has ettit another remarkable case to report, as follows.

The child of Mr. R. J. Powler, Professor of Masic, residing at No. 53, Craig Street, Montreul, had, been suffering severely from an attack of the usual summer compaint, attendant on Teething. The infant become greatly reduced by the saverity of the disease, as well as the Influence of the heat of the weather; and great fears were custrainted as to its recovery. The parents were induced by the suggestions of a friend, to resort to the use of the Plantageact Water, and knowing that their family physician, Dr. McCulloch, had favourably recommended the use of this Water in many caves, they consented to unke one of the ame, and they believe it was the means of austoring their child it such an improvement of beatth, as to adford a hope for its ultimate recovery. The above circumstances will, no doubt, prove interesting to those families or indust, and the season of antipe and unwholesome iruits and vegetables.

C. LAROCOUER, Agent.

For the past eleven years I have labored under an impaired state of the digositive organs, from which I have lound no relief, even by following the prescriptions given by the best physicians of Paras, of Benavais, of Crepy, and I Greay, on the lester, but since I have made use of the Paratagenet Waters, I had myself much better. My heath has sensibly improved, and I am quite inclined to bolieve that, by the means of these boueficial Waters, I can be radically cured.
