AN INJUSTICE.

HOW UNION PRINTERS LOSE

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,-Allow me space in the clumns of your paper to make a few emarks with regard to the way things are done in some of the printing es tablishments in this city, and the way the proprietors of our dailes are imposed upon by some of our sporting and musical entertaining clubs, which came under my notice through having an interview with one of the St. John's Typographical Union members. I came as a surprise to me when he re lated certain incidents which are oc curing day after day. For instance he said a few of the jobbing shop proprietors bum around from place to place, with the soft salutation of 'good day," etc., and talk a kind o nice about the different churches and societies connected therewith; the result is that all the small jobbing, such as admission cards, programmes, invitation cards and such like are given them for execution. Then the managers of these socities have gall enough the day before the event comes off, to drop in to see the proprietor or reocriers of the daily papers and delibretely ask them to give a nice local notice, calling the attention of the public to the grand performance, etc., which they are going to put on the cards for the amusement of the cheral public; and the publisher polishly accedes to their request;

The next morning after the performance in trots a prominent member, requesting the worn-out reporter to give them a good "write-up," and to eulogize their show for all it is worth. The daily papers are instrumental in making the affair an immense success by cheap advertising and get nothing in return-only some times abuse, because the reporters happen to strike out some frivolous thing which the manager wanted in-consequently, the event, of whatever kind it may be, is brought under the notice of at least 30,000 readers, young

On the other hand, the little job of fice, which prints the cards and pro grammes scoop in the dollars they charge for the work and give nothing in the way of publicity. Now, I con tend if these people want publicit, given, and want themselves brough to the notice of the public by news papers, it is there they should have their job printing. If not don't have the consummate gall and cheek to go to the dailies to get cheap puff-ups. Another matter he referred to which is worthy of consideration and the Unions of this city should consider and keep in mind, is this: a job is taken around to the four daily papers and tenders are asked for and prices obtained, which are charged ccording to the nine-hour day-time and the Union scale of wages, which being figured so closely gives the pro-'prietor a small margin of profit; then the "hawker" calls round to see the small job-shops and gets their price which is very much cheaper, because the small shops employ men and boys at a low rate of wages. Some of those shops work every Saturday night when the city dry goods and other stores are open, and in the opening seasons of spring and fall until half-past nine at night, without com pensating the three or four hands for

Now sir I would ask in all cor science is this mode of business fair to the Unions and those concerned in the matter: and is it not possible to remedy this crying injustice. Anyway, at the next meeting of the Trade and Labour Council I shall endeavour to draw their attention to this state of affairs. I am obliged to the party for the information given, and will like ly refer to this matter again.

Hoping I have not trespessed nuch on your valuable space. I remain, yours sincerely, DELEGATE. St. John's, April 21, 1910.

At frequent intervals Sir Edward would come into the room on tip toe -though he might have ridden in on in elephant for all Geoffrey would have noticed-and stood beside the bed: ooking down at the flushed, drawn ace of the man who had, in all propability, saved his life; and when Geoffrey's eyes would open sightlessly and unconsciously Edward would bend ower and touch his hand and speak

o him, muttering : 'How are you, old chap? Don't cnow me, I'm afraid! I'm the pal you fought for, don't you know? I vish you'd come to and give me a hance of telling you what I think of you. Think he's in any pain, Eva?' I can't tell. I think he is sometimes, she would answer, in her low voice—it had grown still gentler and softer in these days of nursing. 'He tosses his head to and fro very often, and now and again he draws a long

I most heartily recommend this medicine to all women who suffer with female troubles. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and think they are fine."—Mrs. Frank Emsley, Lindsay, Ontario.

Frank Emsley, Lindsay, Ontario.

We cannot understand why women will take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, without first trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, as displacements, inflammation, ulcer ation, fibroid tumors, irregularities periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration.

breath and frowns as if he were uneasy. Oh, I wish we would recover consciousness, so that he might ask him where he felt the pain and help

Sir Edward was very dull and disspirited during this time of suspense; and the precarious condition of the unknown man was not the only cause, It will be remembered that Mr. Oldham had asked Eva to tell her brother that the old lawyer wished to see him. Eva had delivered the message, and task that she lost all count of Sir Edward-who hated lawyers, or, the rest of the world, and when at any rate, all business with them, but one day the latter had caught the eckless, careless young man out riding, and had reminded him that cer-

Now Sir Edward had received the rents, but had lost them to Sidney Bassington-and a large sum in addi-And he had also borrowed money off that gentleman, who lent it promptly enough, and had expressed his willingness to lend some more. Sir Edward had intended availing himself of Sidney's offer and borrowing enough for this interest, but Sidney had gone away from the castlehad been away for some weeks, and Sir Edward did not know where to find him. Nor could Mr. Oldham enlighten him as to his whereabouts. "Mr. Sidney Bassington is on the continent, I believe, but it is only conjecture on my part. He drew his allowance before he left." he added. with a smile, "so that he may not be back before it is spent-not even then, for I have the earl's instructions to supply him with any money he may require." "Rather rum, his going away all in a minute, and without leaving word" had been Sir Edward's glum comment, but Mr. Oldham had only shrugged his shoulders and taken a pinch of snuff, saying, as he rode on:

"And you won't forget this interest, Sir Edward? We can't have them foreclosing."

So Sir Edward was rather down in the dumps, for he missed his fellowgambler and companion-and banker. Eva, in her absorption, had almost, if not entirely forgotten the boy whom she had befriended; but one day Martha, with an old servant's despotism, insisted upon her mistress going for a walk, and Eva put on her hat and jacket, and wandered, for the first time since Geoffrey's arrival, beyond the gates and down the lane.

She sauntered along aimlessly and dreamily, scarcely noticing the change the weeks had made in the landscape. It was autumn now, and the leaves were beginning to take on their yellow and crimson tints, and some of them were falling like ghos's from the tall poplars and the vast elms.

She was thinking of the sick man, wondering who he was, and why he had come to Starborough; wondering, too, whether, when he was well, he would go away-never to come nothing else but the enormous benefit back, perhaps-when the sight of she derived from using this grand Betty's cottage reminded her of Ron. nie; and with a half-guilty feelingfor had she not in the absorption of she had befriended? She opened the gate and entered the little front gar-

"I'm very sorry," said Eva, regretfully. "I ought to have come to see after you before this; but I've been busy, yes, very busy. I have not been beyond the gates for weeks, or else I should have called to ask how you were getting on, Ronnie." "Oh, I'm getting on very well," said Cottie, nodding at the gloves lying on her knee. "But what have you been doing?"

'I've been nursing a wounded man,' said Eva. 'He was injured, dreadfully injured, while saving my brother from thieves.'

'There seem to be plenty of thieves n this neighbourhood,' said Cottie. You haven't heard anything of my bank-notes? But I'm sorry they hurt this man, and glad it wasn't your brother. Who is he?'

'We don't know,' replied Evail but we shall know when he is become conscious and well enough to answer questions. How well you are look-

"That's more than I can say for you," retorted Cottie, eyeing Eva's pale face with a woman's sharpness. "You look thin and pale,"

Eva laughed softly. "Oh, I'm all right. It's the long hours nursing. I shall be quite well directly my patient recovers. And I hope you're happy, Ronnie, and you don t find it dull?"

Cottie shrugged her shoulders.

'Oh, I'm happy enough, she said. No-1'm not. I want some money. Want some money,' echoed Eva, seating herself on the bench in the porch. 'What for? You can't spend any here.'

'I want it to take me back to Australia,' said Cottie, with a certain energy, a swift rush of blood to the face and an almost fierce light in her beautiful eyes. 'I want to get back,'

Nerves at High Tension

Restoration obtained by using DR. A.W.CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

The successful men and women are often of the high-strung nervous type—keen and active—but with too little reserve force.
A little extra werry and anxiety and snap goes the nervous system. Weeks and months are often required before energy and vigor are regained.

Rest helps, so does fresh air and exercise, but the blood must also be made rich and red by use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mr. Wm. Branton, Victoria St., Strathroy, Ont., writes:—My nervous system seemed all unstrung. I could not sleep, had no appetite, my digestion was poor and I had jerking of the limbs. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food helped me and I continued until I had taken twenty-four house. This treatment has and four boxes. This treatment has made a radical change in my condition, building up the system and strengthening the nerves." Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Success of Or Hamilton's Pills. For her life and health Mrs. E. K. Wilkinson, is indebted to the marvellous curative porperties of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Her brightness, activity and present good looks are due to medicine.

From her home in Newton where she resides with her large family, Mrs. Wilkinson writes: "For years I her nursing, in her intense interest in was pale, anaemic and lacking in vithe injured man, neglected the boy tality. I was a constant sufferer from indigestion, and the distress and pain it caused me, coupled with ever-increasing anaemia made me weaker day by day. Constant headaches, specks before the eyes and attacks bending over her gloves, and as she of dizziness made me feel as if life were not worth living. My constitution was completely undermined and the constant pallor and dullness in my eyes showed what a sick woman I was. I began to take Dr. Hamilton's Pills and the improvement although slow was sure. I gradually got back my strength and my appetite grew much stronger and I enjoyed my meals thoroughly. I felt happier and more contented and the sickly pallor on my face was replaced by a bright rosy color which proved that a strong medicine was at work. In a few months Dr. Hamilton's Pills brought me from a condition of deathly despair to robust health." You can obtain the same results by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills-beware of the substitutor that offers you anything except Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00, at all dealers or The Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

'The castle!' said Eva, with mild surprise.

Cottie nodded. 'Yes; I know the Earl-the old centleman who owns it. I often go there; and I can walk about the gardens and pick the flowers; and he lets me go over the house." "How strange! I mean, I am very glad you have found some amusement recreation. And that must help you to be patient. We must see about the noney you want, Ronnie; perhaps my prother can help us. Of course you must go back if you are not happy, if you're pining for your brother-it was your brother, wasn't it?"

"Yes," responded Cottie, eyeing her shrewedly. "You're different-somehow. I don't mean that you are thinner and paler. It's not only that. You look-oh, it's in your eyes and about your mouth, and I can't explain."

Eva rose, with a laugh. "You are a strange boy, Ronnie, and full of fancies!" she said. "I'm not changed in the least! At any rate, I don't feel I am. I must go now: for my time must be nearly up. We take it by turns-Martha and I.'

Mahmouth Won Match

Buffalo, N. Y., April 16 .- Last night Yusiff Mahmouth, the Turkish champion wrestler, won his finish match from Fred. Beell, the Wiscousin badger, with two straight falls. The time was 6.09 and 26.35. Beell made a spectacular fight in the early part of the match, but the Turk, after allowing Beell to work himself out, also showed flashes of speed that brought applause from the crowded house. Mahmouth had 20 pounds advantage in weight,

NASAL CATARRH

An Old Physician Says to Look for Dizziness, Frontal Headache, Stuffiness and Nose Colds.

TELLS HOW TO CURE.

Catarrh in almost every instance starts with a common cold in the head which is added to with another cold, and because of some extra exposure or weakness of the system, it becomes chronic.

A full case of disgusting nasal and throat catarrh then develops. Unless a radical cure is effected then the dis ease passes rapidly to the throat, bronchial tubes and finally to the lungs.

No man or woman can ever get new lungs any more than new fingers or a new nose: but everyone suffering from Catarrh can get a cure by inhaling Catarrhozone, and this is proved after you read further.

Woman's Power

Over Man

Woman's most florious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R.V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N.Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No konest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

Not Unworthy.

It is an interesting coincidence that the English reading public should be mourning the passing of Mark Twain on the anniversary of the death of Shakespear, and on the Patron Saint O'Neil; Mesdames Cashin, Grant, Fin-Day of England. O'Neil; Mesdames Cashin, Grant, Fin-Day of England.

in words. He moulded American humour into artistic form. His finished style, however, almost escapes observation in the fascination of his wit and the magnetism of his humor. Few. if any, American writers have done more to bring American literature before the English reading public. His way, their former tutor, with a handreaders have been legion for forty years, and his influence in promoting a style of humor free of offence to childhood and chivalric to women has been profound. It is not out of place then that the passing of Mark Twain should be associated with the memory of the greatest master of the English tongue. They are of different ages, different in degree, different in capacity, but both have added greatly to the joy of the nation and the innocent enjoyment of the people in their own tongue. It is also not unworthy that one whose devotion to womanhood, as shown in his pathetic affection for his daughter and reflected in his writings, should be mourned on the Patron Saint Day of England, for St. George typifies civalry in its idealized form. Much of his wit is not unworthy of Shakespeare, and his fight for right not unworthy of St. George.

He had a motor boat which is run by kerosene oil and was putting a supply into the blow torch, which contained about three gallons, which contained about three gallois, when there was a sudden explosion and the burning fluid was thrown over his clothing which soon was enrapped in flames. He endeavored to quench the blaze but in vain, and had to jump overboard to put out the fire and save his life. He did not esunscathed for his legs and arms were badly burned and his pants were reduced to tinder. The boat also caught fire and when Mr. Currie clambered on board after much difficulty he quenched the flames.

Shoal Harbour.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,-Your paper of the 8th inst. contains notes from Shoal Harbor from correspondent on Mission work, politics and local matters. It is to the latter we wish to refer. Your correspondent says the foundation of a Town Hall was laid to-day. The great event was celebrated by flying of flags. The facts are these: On Tuesday night, the 5th inst., a public meeting was called at the Methodist Parsonage. The object of the meeting was to consider the site for a new schoolhouse and to see what volunteer labor could be put in at once, as the people decided to commence work the next day. Two sites were suggested. A vote was taken on a piece of land near the old schoolhouse. The vote stood at seven. A vote was then taken for a site for the north, and was carried by a majority of seven. The Rev. E. Taylor was in the chair. A building committee was then appointed to take charge of the work, and they decided to commence in the morning. This has been carried out by from 12 to 18 volunteered, who have given their services free for a week to the neglect of their own homesteads. They stayed work yes terday waiting for lumber, which will arrive to-night by train, and to-morrow work will commence again, and if it is a good day by to-morrow evening it will be covered in. The ladies of this place, too, help on the work They have fromed a Mutual Endeavor Society and have received $72.50 for this work, When Mr. W. D. Reid was here last fall the President spoke to him on this matter, and he very kindly promised two hundred and fifty dollars for a new school building. We hope with this amount and by straining every nerve we will be able to build and furnish this house without any Government grant. J.L.MATHIEU,

Tucker and myself went into a re tail store down town to-day to buy some pitch and other articles to get our boat ready for the fishery. We wanted to see the "head man." for our money was a kind o' slack and we were anxious to drive a hard bargain. He passed us a few times and looked at us with a face that seemed to be out all night, and didn't appear to be anxious to do business with us. spoke to one of the hands and asked him what torchlight procession walked over the boss. "Oh," said he 'there were two men just like ye in here to-day looking for a subscription. They said they lost a horse on day last fall and he thinks no doubt ye're the same fellows, come back

We laughed till we nearly broke of our suspenders, and when the boss hove along again we approached him. He drew back from us like as if we had the new brand of smallpox, and said he hadn't time to talk to us, and suggested that we go interview the Minister of Agriculture. Tucker got his bed, Malachi F. McAuliffe, a well mad and asked him who he was trying to take a lend of.

Ain't you ready to do business with is asked Tucker? Ain't you paid to sell fishery supplies to men with money to pay for them?

Instantly his manner changed when he beheld the roll of notes in Tucker's hand. "Excuse" me, men, said he, "I made a mistake for I thought you were the same two men who were in here this morning lookng for assistance to get a horse."

"Is that so?" said Tucker, "well you at conclusions so quickly. Thank goodness, we lost no horse, and if we 'id I wouldn't like to be depending on the like of you, for you haven't crough to give a copper to the blind organ man. You are ready to thaw out now," said Tucker, "when you see the greenbacks, but I wouldn't buy a om-cod jigger from from you now or you're no good."

This upstart was all apologies, but anologies of that kind don't go down with myself or Tucker. It's only another case of the many we meet in this town. Some people in it can see you a mile off when they want to see you but if they imagine you want any thing from them, they are ready either dock at 5 p.m. yesterday to load pulp to walk on you with both feet or treat and paper and will sail for London you with scorn. Men of this kind are on Tuesday next.

no good for King or country, but they should be careful before jumping at conclusions, for they never know when their pockets suffer. Kindness and civility bring their reward, and no man no matter how "well fixed" he is can afford to treat people by kicking them over the stairs. They are likely to get up again and pay you back in your own coin when you're least expecting it.

Samuel Langhorne Clemens whose death at the age of 74 is just announced. was a great humorist, a wit and a sentimentalist. "Mark Twain" his pen name was the word used by the pilots on the Mississippi to denote two fathoms deep. Clements' great book was "The Innocents Abroad." It is full of humour and also good sense, and an excellent Guide Book for Europe. It describes the adventures of a lot of Americans on a continental tour. Dear Sir,-With your permission service in outports. Who is the responsible party as to changing way offices? Is it the Postmaster Genera or the member who represents the district? If the former gentleman is responsible, I think it would be wise for him to enquire as to the educa tional ability of appointee before making the change. I believe the mail service in outports should be conducted according to proper forms, i.e. the person in charge should be able I say leave such jobs with a man or woman who understands the work and gives public satisfaction. Complaint From

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,-Please allow me space in your valuable paper to state a few facts in connection with the way our freight for Fox Harbor is handled by the train hands. Mistakes will occur of course, but they have occurred here too often to have them passed over lightly.

The railway station is situated about about three miles from Fox Harbon and the road thither is almost unfit for travel in "damp" weather, it has been there 18 years now and never received any repair. People cannot cart freight out, they must go in the Sound by water then roll, wheel or drag the unfortunate parcels a mile and a half disadvantages, but when the railway men think it too much trouble to throw off a parcel and thus have it for an hour, I suggested that my wife carried to Placentia so that it cost the try him on Grape-Nuts. SENSATIONAL FAILURE.

LIVERPOOL, April 22. The cotton market to-day was excited to an almost unprecedented degree by sensational reports of the failure of the Alabama cotton firm of Knight, Yancey & Co., which heavily hit the Liverpool cotton houses. The would make a total loss at current quotations of over 6,000 bales. This would make a total believed to have been affected by the failure of the Alabama firm.

There was a sensation in the cotton ircles to-day, born of widely circuated statements that forged bills of ading for cotton, supposed to have been shipped from the U.S., had been incovered. The alleged fraudulent methods was said to involve cottons valued at $2,500,000, and in addition to 30 Liverpool concerns, it was stated that several continental cotton house were heavy losers. The Echo says that the method of using the alleged false bills of lading was to append facsimile carriers' signatures to bills of lading sent with drafts to this side before the cotton was delivered by carriers, and that importers in many cases paid such drafts. When the practice was discovered the steamship companies withheld deliveries until the bills of lading were verified. The Echo says that an investigation made by the importers shows that no only were a number of those bills o lading false, but there was actually no cotton against some of them

Bad Train Robbery.

Benicia, Cal., April 17.-The China apan mail, which left San Francisco over the Southern Pacific Railway for the East at 9 o'clock Saturday night was held up by two masked men a Sprig, two miles east of here, early to day and robbed of nine pouches of registered mail. The passengers on the train were not disturbed, and several of them did not learn of the robbery until this morning, Four of the pouches have been recovered, but the robbers rifled the others, and now are hiding in the mountans.

Before the fast mail arrived at Ben icia, two men, who had left Oaklandon another train two hours earlie and had left their train on the Port Costa ferry, climbed unobserved on the rear of the fast mail's locomotive. The train had only gone a short dis tance from Benicia when they crawled Old English Curve Cut, over the oil tank of the tender and charge of Herbert J. Black and his assistant, T. A. Clancy. "Throw out the registered mail pouches," the robbers ordered. Black started to throw cut the newspaper sacks, but the robpers detected the ruse at once. They threatened to kill the clerk unless he gave them the registered mail. Black complied.

The engine crew was then made to carry the nine sacks to the engine. The igine and mail car were uncoupled from the coaches filled with sleeping passengers, and run down the track two miles. Here the mail pouches vere thrown out, the engine was uncoupled, and its throttle pushed wide pen. The engine dashed wildly for ward towards No. 5 west-bound train eavily loaded, sixteen miles east passing the first section on a siding at Cygnus. As the engine passed the station at Suisun, the operator noticed it was running wild. He immediately reported to the despatcher's office at Oakland, and received instructions to call men to derail the on-coming engine. The second section of the westbound train had just arrived at Tolenvaluable cargo taken from the ship to- China-Japan mail. The switch was thrown over and the runaway engine, by this time pretty well out of steam, ran on a siding and dashed into a string of box cars. In the meantime the robbers made their escape.

Spark From Pipe Results in Death of an Aged Ontario Man.

WINDSOR MILLS, April 16 .- Gab riel Therrien, over eighty years of age, and an invalid through rheumatism was burned alive in his bed at his farm house at St. Francis Xavier Brompton, about four miles from here late Wednesday. Alone in the house indulging in his own comfort, his old clay pipe, it is supposed a spark set fire to the bed. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Therrien on her return from attending the cattle. The house outery was heard. The lone woman stood by and watched the little home crumble under the flames with her husband a helpless victim inside. Within a brief space of time the entire place was a smouldering ruin.

FROM A THANKFUL MOTHER

Having given Dr. Bovel's Iron Tonic Pills a fair trial, of two boxes, I can truthfully say that they are all you claim them to be.

I have been greatly benefitted by them, having suffered several years with Neuralgia of the Heart, Liver Trouble, Stomach Disorders, and a complication of diseases. Why, the pains have left me entirely and I feel now as if life was worth living for.

I always used your Boyel's Herb Tablets at the same time.

Must say that your Herb and Gum Salve is wonderful for Skin diseases of all kinds.

And your Menthol Inhaler is really a blessing to the house. I have used it for colds in the head. When I could not sleep at nights, sore throat was cured like magic. I have cured my sister's two little children with very bad colds in the head, and herself. We could not be without it, especially during winter months, when colds are so frequent. You may publish this testimonial if you wish, as it may help some other poor sufferers as it surely helped me. sufferers as it surely helped me.

Tablets

"Dr. Bovel's Herb Tableta" is a remedy sold on its merits. The powder is then scientifically prepared by expert chemists and made into small chocolate coated tablets containing the exact proportion necessary to achieve certain and perfect results in treating all diseases arising from bad blood, disordered stomach and inactive liver and kidneys. These organs may rightly be called the main machinery of the human system, as they are either directly or indirectly responsible for all our suffering.
