

Nerves So Bad That She Would Sit and Cry

Mrs. Mary Hocking, Madoc, Ont., writes—
 "Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done me a wonderful lot of good. I suffered from general weakness and was so run down and my heart and nerves were in such bad shape that I would sit down and cry and not know what I was crying about. I also used to have weak spells. Thanks to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, however, I am real well now. I shall always keep a box of the Nerve Food in the house, and recommend them to my friends; they are a wonderful medicine."
 (Mr. J. W. Vince, Druggist, of Madoc, Ont., says: "I have sold Mrs. Hocking your Nerve Food, and the medicine has done her much good.")

LADY LAURAS' RELEASE

THE STORY OF A SPOILED BEAUTY.

CHAPTER XLIX.

"And now, love, I am at your mercy. My fortune and life are yours. If it be your will and pleasure that I should wait yet awhile for my answer, I will wait. But when the shadow has passed from your life, send me one line. My love for you deserves that. You need give no residence, no sign, no name, but say simply, 'I shall be at such a place at such a time'—that is all. Thus I will meet you. Address the note to me at the Argemmon Club, Piccadilly. I shall wait anxiously for that note, and till I receive it may Heaven give me patience! I kiss the white hands I hold so fair, and on my knees I do homage to the loveliest and sweetest girl in the land, my future wife.

From her devoted lover,
GLEN ARLEIGH.

Happy tears filled her eyes, happy smiles curved the sweet lips as she finished reading the letter.

"There was never so loyal a lover," thought Angela to herself. How few men would have left her in so chivalrous a manner! She admired the civility of the act; it was that which appealed to her. Could he have done more? He had left his house in order that she might remain there. It was the courtly action of a true gentleman, and she loved him for it. She buried her face in her hands and for a moment gave herself up to happy thoughts of a happy future. The world had suddenly grown most dear to her because it held him, her life most precious to her because he wished to share it. Now more than ever she longed for the day when the advertisement should appear and set her free.

CHAPTER L.
 One morning, when Angela had put away the Times, feeling sad and disappointed because the looked-for advertisement did not appear, Mrs. Bowen came to see her about some little matter, and the young girl began talking to her of the country and the neighborhood.

"What is the very large house with all white towers which we can see from the park?" she asked.

"That is Cuddale Hall," answered Mrs. Bowen. "Lord and Lady Cuddale live there; and I hear that they have returned with a large party of guests. They generally return to the Hall about the middle of June." And Mrs. Bowen went on to describe the wealth and the grandeur of the family. "Not," said the loyal servant, "that they rank so high as the Arleighs—my lady takes precedence of Lady Cuddale—but they are very rich. Nearly all Cuddale belongs to them."

"Are they old people?" asked Angela.

"No; they are quite young. I have heard that Lord Cuddale is thought to be rather a 'fast' man, and I have been told that Lady Cuddale is too fond of cards—a strange taste for a young lady—but then we must not believe gossip."

"Are the two families intimate?" asked Angela.

"Well, I should not use that word in speaking of them. They are friendly, but they do not visit much; Lady Arleigh is considered very proud. I hear that they have a very gay party at Cuddale now, and amongst them is a famous London beauty; I forget her name." Perhaps, had she remembered it, a great tragedy might have been avoided.

"Did Lord Arleigh visit them while he was at home?" asked Angela.

"No, not this time, I think. I never heard him say so. You should see Cuddale Hall, Miss Charles; it is well worth a visit.

But Angela took no especial interest in it. Had she known who was there, probably she would have done so.

The household of Beantome Hall, during the summer months attended service at St. Cuthbert's Church, Cuddale—there was no other church nearer—and on Sunday morning after Lord Arleigh had left the Hall, Mrs. Bowen went to Angela.

"Miss Charles," she said, "I am going to St. Cuthbert's Church this morning; would you like to go with me? You have not been to church since you have been here."

"I should like it very much," she replied. In her simple, loving heart there arose a great desire to go. It was not, perhaps, quite prudent, as she was so desirous of concealing her whereabouts; but then, as she thought the risk would be small, for she would see no one who knew her, and, besides, she would wear a thick black veil. "I will go with pleasure," she added.

Angela never forgot the beauty, the calm of that Sabbath day, and her heart, naturally full of devotion, was raised to Heaven in earnest, loving gratitude for all the manifold blessings she saw around her in luxuriant nature.

The church stood on a hill that overlooked the sea, and the chime of the bells seemed to float away over the restless waves. St. Cuthbert's was an ancient edifice, with a battlemented tower, from which rose a tall, graceful spire that seemed to penetrate the blue ether. The interior was quaint and picturesque; there was a curious, oak-grained roof, and the walls were freely adorned with tablets, over which the windows of stained glass shed a subdued and solemn light.

"We can use the family pew," said Mrs. Bowen, not ill-pleased to show her importance. "I always do, when my lady is not at home."

A few minutes later Angela found herself seated in the comfortable, old-fashioned pew belonging to the Arleigh family. The little church was well filled, and, with a hasty glance round, she saw that some elegantly dressed ladies were near her.

"The Cuddale party!" whispered Mrs. Bowen; and Angela raised her eyes, when, lo, they fell on the dark, beautiful face of Gladys Rane!

With a stifled groan, her face unnaturally pale, her limbs trembling, Angela fell back in her seat. Fortunately no one had noticed the slender veiled figure, all eyes being directed toward the radiant loveliness of Gladys Rane. When Angela recovered herself, she looked again, half hoping that she had made a mistake. But no; there was the face the fatal beauty of which had ruined her mother's life, and had rendered her own one of constant peril.

What had brought Gladys Rane there? Angela wondered. Then she remembered suddenly what Mrs. Bowen had told her. This was the Cuddale party, and Gladys Rane was evidently one of it. The explanation was simple enough—Gladys Rane was on a visit to Cuddale Park!

Angela took courage. No one had noticed her, and she flattered herself that those who knew her well would not recognize her under her black veil. She looked again at the face which had been the bane of her mother's life and happiness. It was beautiful enough to captivate men, as it did; but it was not so serenely beautiful as her mother's face—not so sweet, so good. It was rather the face of a siren than a saint.

As Angela watched for a moment the fair face of her mother's rival, her heart suddenly stood still, and she experienced a terrible shock. A gentleman bent forward to give Miss Rane a book, and she saw that it was her mother's husband, Captain Wynyard. The church walls seemed to close around her; a red mist rose before her eyes; there was a rush as of many waters in her ears. She seemed bewildered; all her senses seemed to be confused. There they were before her, Gladys Rane and Captain Wynyard—the man and the woman who, between them, had ruined her mother's life.

For a moment a fear seized her that her mother was dead. Then she remembered that that could not have happened without her knowing it, for Jane would have written to her. But why should these two be here together? She watched them with burning eyes and wildly beating heart.

Fishermen and Longshoremen, Attention!

SOME PLAIN TRUTHS.
Some Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—The Premier, Sir R. Squires has not said one word as to whether it is the intention of the French Government, to give a very substantial bonus this year, to encourage its fishermen, to come to the Grand Banks to compete with our fishermen in every market that they have entry to at present. Last year the Government of France gave a substantial bonus to their men, who were supplying the Italian market. This year, the bonus is to be made more universal. Have the French candidates told this to the fishermen of this country. No, it is all humbug. Humber, the fishermen want to hear fishery talk from the candidates. Years ago we foiled the French fishery bonus, one of the cases of the bank, crash, by refusing to sell our herring bait to those competitors every spring. No longer is this bait necessary, as now, trawling is used and before our fishermen are ready, the French will be able to have fish in the market. It is too soon yet, to make the fishery a secondary proposition, a proposition that has been our staple industry for years, and by the meddling with which, during the life of the Squires party, so many of our generous suppliers have gone or almost gone to the wall.

If our fishermen had an opportunity of reading in foreign periodicals, of what the French Government contemplates doing, they would get alive and vote down the Coaker-Squires candidates, who are keeping them in the dark and asleep, till they wake up shortly after the election. In the event of the return of Coaker and find themselves in a starry condition. Many, disgusted with the present regime, will take no further chances and are flocking away to the U.S.A. by every boat. In my town several have had passages booked since early in March, but through lack of accommodation, have had to remain over. Fishermen, if you wish to continue your avocation, beware of Coaker and Squires and cast your votes for the Bennett Government which will aid you in every way to realise more profit on the outcome of your next season's catch. Before concluding, let me state, that, though not living in St. John's, I am a St. John's man, born there in the East End and lived in the West End. I am neither a Longshoreman nor a fisherman, but I know that it is Coaker's intention to kill St. John's and I was told more than a year ago, that movements were then contemplated in high quarters, to remove a considerable amount of labor from St. John's, to places where no Longshoremen's offices existed and labor was cheaper. Longshoremen of St. John's, as well as the Fishermen, beware of Coaker, Squires, Campbell and such small fry as Fitzgibbon.

If I were to sign my name, I would wager that many doubtful Thomases would turn over to Bennett and the present party would never be found till we could afford to dig for them when our country becomes more prosperous and people will want to know how nobly they died, and what relics of past misdeeds they had hidden in their personal traps.
Yours truly,
LOVER OF NFDL AND ITS FISHERMEN AND LONGSHOREMEN.

The Visit of the Patriarchs.

The mighty patriarchs have been here and gone, and their places knoweth them no more. Attention was rife and undoubtedly the people here gave them a good hearing. But we were disappointed. We wanted to hear of the Humber we heard so much about, but many things were left unsaid.
We could learn nothing of what was being paid for the Reid Rd. railway or what was being granted to Reid's for their concessions to the Armstrong people. We could learn nothing of the reason why the Humber business has been kept so studiously quiet. Nothing was said about the proposed sale of the Labrador. Surely this mooted question cannot be serious despite the pronouncement on the same.
What has Coaker done Yesterday the public news features the rise of the price of fat? What is the name of goodness did Coaker have to do with it. Before Coaker was in power people held up their fat until they got better prices. Such bunkum on a political platform is nonsense to any intelligent man. Coaker's day is done, there is no doubt of that in Bonavista Bay. He heralds that he will poll 750 votes in Bonavista proper and perhaps 200 or 300 less than in 1919. What a delusion! What a foolery must a man have to make such public statements. Time forbids us writing longer, but next week we shall speak on some of Coaker's promises to the Bonavista electorate.

The Late Mr. Wm. Scott.

FUNERAL AT KINGSBARNS ON MARCH 10th.
The remains of the late Mr. William Scott, Vice-President and General Manager of the Anglo-Newfoundland Development Co., Ltd., the "Daily Mail," "Daily Mirror," "Sunday Pictorial," and "Daily Record," paper mills, were interred at Kingsbarns Parish Church Cemetery, Fife, yesterday. The funeral took place from Hillhead, Boarhills, Fife, the residence of Mr. G. Gilles, Mr. Scott's brother-in-law, and the service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Todd, of Kingsbarns Parish, who was assisted by the Rev. Mr. Milne, Craig Parish Church. The chief mourners were Messrs. David, John and James Scott, brothers of the deceased; Mr. David Scott, cousin, and Dr. Henderson, uncle.
Several Masonic representatives were present, including the Chief Constable of Fife, P.G.M., Ballie Wm. Cairns, Master of Craig Lodge, and a party of members of the Saint Andrews Craig Lodge, who acted as pall bearers. Mr. E. A. Sutherland represented Lord Rothermere and the Anglo-Newfoundland Development Co., Ltd., Mr. D. S. Middleton, the "Daily Mirror" and "Sunday Pictorial," Mr.

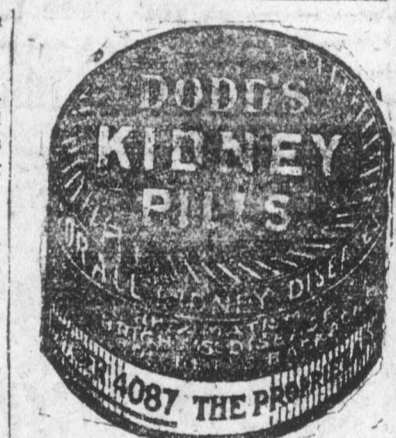

S. G. Bell, the "Daily Mail," and Mr. G. H. Hobson, the "Daily Record." Salvage Notes.

Mr. John Stead of Bishop's Hr. left last Monday, via Alexander Bay to take route for New York.
Mr. Charles Brown, formerly of Bishop's Harbor, but resident now at Alexander Bay, after a short vacation at home accompanied Mr. Stead on his way.
Mr. Allan Moss and Miss Bertha Moss of Sailor's Island, went to Grand Falls last week on a short visit to friends and relatives.
During the past few days there has been two or three new cases of Diphtheria at Happy Adventure. Several cases have recovered and so far there has not been a fatality.
We are glad to note that Mr. J. W. Dyko, who had been confined indoors during the greater part of March, is now able to get about again.
On Easter Monday night the annual Vestry meeting of St. Stephen's Church was held. Messrs. Job Stead and Edward-Oldford are Church Wardens for the ensuing year.

On Tuesday night the women of St. Stephen's gave a free tea to all and sundry, and many availed themselves of the invitation. A most pleasing night was passed.
On the succeeding night the children were entertained and suitable avenues encouraged for the ebullition of their customary high spirits.
On Thursday night a public meeting was called by the U. F. Committee and an enthusiastic conclave resulted. Nearly 40 names have adorned the active committee lists of those opposed to the present Government.
Last night (Friday) Messrs. Coaker, Abbott and Winsor paid their solicitous visit to us. They were most attentively listened to, but verily it was to laugh to hear Coaker boast of his 25 or 28 members being returned. We do not for one moment think it is possible for the present Government to get two-fifths vote in Salvage and Bishop's Harbor.—COR.

MRS. COFFMAN ILL SEVEN YEARS
Saved from an Operation by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Sidel, Ill.—"I was a nervous wreck. I was suffering from a pain in my left side, which was almost unbearable, and I could not even get on my feet at night. I had been sick for seven years, but not so bad until the last eighteen months, and had become so run-down that I cared for nobody, and would rather have died than live. I couldn't do my work without help, and the doctors told me that an operation was all there was left. I would not consent to that, so my husband brought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begged me to take it. I have taken fourteen bottles of it and I feel ten years younger. Life is full of hope. I do all my housework and had a large garden this year. I never will be without the Vegetable Compound in the house, and when my two little girls reach womanhood I intend to teach them to take it. I am never too busy to tell some suffering sister of my help, and you can use my name and letters to spread the good news of Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine."
—Mrs. I. M. COFFMAN, R. B. 2, Sidel, Ill.

THE HAPPY WARRIOR.
Dark the night and wet and dismal, as I go to milk the cow; I've excuse for grief and dismay, but no brown is on my brow. Cheerily I chant and chortle, though the clammy r a i n drops fall, as I near the crackling portal that admits to Bessie's stall. For I learned long since that swearing doesn't help one put up wood; heaving sighs and moans despairing, time has shown me, is no good. If I have a task unpleasant I approach it with a grin, smiling, as I smile at present, till I sprain my double chin. Then the chore is quickly ended which would drag, if tears were spilled, if my sore-laden beard were rased, if my care-worn teeth were gnashed. For if one is sad and bitter when he goes to milk the cow, he'll antagonize the critter and she'll kick him on the brow. Everything gets out of kilter, everything will go smash, if man lets his language filter through his rusty old mustache. Being filled with angry passion never helped one, do his chores; cursing in a frantic fashion never healed a row of sores. If I have a grief I chuck it further than the laws allow, when I take the old tin bucket and go forth to milk the cow.

Bonavista Will Return Monroe, Winsor and Little.

The Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—To the district of Bonavista, we welcome Monroe, Winsor and Little and wish them the best of luck in their efforts to raise us up from the bottom we were led into by W. Coaker. We have had a long experience of our old legiance to Coaker, and at last our eyes are open to the fact that our condition would have been much worse this Winter if we hadn't had supplies to "dribble" over the winter. We have discussed this question between ourselves as to who would be our best representative, and we have been unable to find a man who boasts of the least intelligence but who will readily admit that the party led in Bonavista by W. S. Monroe, is by far the best representation we were ever called upon to support. Men of Bonavista, we are promised the Humber by Coaker and employment for 5,000 men as a government measure if they are elected. Well, when we consider the men that are opposing the Squires-Coaker outfit, their employment of the number of men mentioned above, it is enough to make us laugh. Why, fellowmen of Bonavista District, Monroe, Crosbie and Bennett employ more men that that themselves, and when these men start in to find work and create avenues of employment as a government, we can confidently look forward to prosperity once again returning to Newfoundland.

Men of Bonavista, think seriously before voting against the Opposition ticket, do not let us be accusing ourselves afterwards, how sorry we are that we did not vote the Opposition ticket. After all, our existence depends on the fisheries and if two or three hundred from Bonavista secure employment on the Humber, what the rest of us going to do if the fisheries are discontinued, and how are we going to carry on the fisheries if we have not men like Mr. Monroe to supply us. Mr. Coaker should be telling us about what plans the government has for the encouragement of our fisheries and the creating of new markets for our fish, instead of fooling us with a Humber Deal that he knows precious little about. We always thought that his great knowledge was centred on fish, and now we find he has deserted the fish to take up the Humber and the manufacture of pulp. We are also promised sugar-refineries, flour mills, etc. "Ye shades of our ancestors!" but Coaker does take us for a pretty soft lot if he expects us to believe this rot. I wonder how many laughs did himself and Sir Richard have over their foolish political promises? Let me assure Mr. Coaker and also Sir Richard, that we are not going to allow ourselves to be bluffed any longer by this kind of "guff".

Men of Bonavista, fellow fishermen, do not forget that our very lives and the lives of our families depend upon the success of our great industry. No Humber can supplant it. No reasonable man will object to any undertaking that's going to create work, but in view of the secrecy that's maintained in connection with this Deal, leads one to suspect there's a "nigger in the wood-pile." They have a contract they say, and are afraid to tell us what it is, but ask us to support a measure we know nothing of, all the taxpayers know, is that we will have to guarantee interest and principle to the amount of ten million of dollars. We will have to find in taxes over a half million of dollars for interest alone. The best thing we can do is to advise Mr. Coaker through the ballot box that we do not want him in politics any longer. He has been active in politics for 3½ years, in fact, he's had the full control of the Government, and our lot is worse to-day than it was 3½ years ago. Not so with Mr. Coaker, he is living in the lap of luxury and we are still the "underdogs" he said so much about a few short years ago.

Men of Bonavista, we have to look after ourselves and vote for the men who are able to do the greatest amount of good work for this Bay. Throw off whatever influence that's hung like a dark cloud over your heads by being a member of the F.P.U. in its political activities and assert your freedom and exercise to the best of your ability the freedom of speech which every man has an unquestioned right to and not be governed by men behind closed doors who try to ram down our throats that we have to vote as directed by Coaker. Let us all assert our independence and rights given us under the British flag and as part of the British Empire, and vote for the men whom we consider can do the greatest amount of good for the Bay. Having considered this question, fellowmen of Bonavista, the least intelligent amongst us can arrive but to one decision, that we must elect Monroe, Winsor and Little and return to power.

BENNETT & BETTER TIMES.
Yours truly,
FISHERMAN.

Fads and Fashions.

Very smart is black and red chenille embroidery on black reps. Bottle green and wine color will be featured extensively in the fall. The side-front closing running from top to bottom is very popular. The spring wardrobe must include a white frock—this is a Paris decree. Printed and Japanese silks will be used extensively for summer dresses. Plain and printed, wool and silk jerseys are favored for early spring wear. A girle of narrow violet ribbon is effective on a frock of tucked beige crepe. Blue and pink striped ribbon trims an embroidered frock of lilac silk linen.

Skirts may be tucked up in the front and allowed to ripple into uneven hems. The front apron panel of a smart linen frock is heavily embroidered in gay colors. Boudoir robes of printed silks and silver brocades are made in slender silhouettes. When a sports frock is embroidered the hat should match the embroidery. One of the new bathing suits boasts a sleeveless bolero, and a two-tiered skirt. The sash of velvet ribbon with its center-front rosette and streamers is very quaint. The skirt length for the young girl is from twelve to fourteen inches from the floor.

Why Coaker is Bound to Fail.

It is a matter of common rejoicing to-day to know that the Union strongholds in Bonavista are in very few places more than 50 per cent. of their 1919 strength. To-day we can look at Bonavista and see there an Opposition committee of nearly 300 members. At Greenspond we find a hard-working committee of 200 members. At Newtown proper there are not ten Union men. Between the two camps there are many places with an average committee of 30 and 40 men. And mind you these committees do not comprise all the voters in favour of a clean Government. In this respect they are very unlike the Coakerites who subscribe their names to the Advocate lists.

We know what a task the Union men had to get names in some places and every possible voter was signed up. Nay more, we question very much the legality of some of them whose names appear on the lists to give a vote at all. A voter must be twenty-one.

Another thing we are sure of, viz., that some of those subscribing to Coaker will undoubtedly split their votes for Monroe. Never in the annals of our history was such an appeal made to voters as is being made to-day. Is there any truth in the alleged rumour that Coaker is offering passes to the Humber to those who will vote for him? It seems scarcely probable and yet the rumour has gained quite a bit of credence.

From Coaker's own lips we know he had 50 reasons for the private ears of the Union as to why he would be elected again. Why the secrecy of these fifty reasons.

Bluff Coaker sees his doom to-day in Bonavista Bay, and palpable fact of his unpopularity makes him rave when he faces his audiences. Some time ago he published a wonderful manifesto, but in his orations he said not a word about all the wonderful things contained therein. The Humber was given prominence in the customary platitudes of Boone and the Advocate.

The idea of Coaker or Squires compelling Reids to give them 800,000 acres to Armstrong is enough to make a Sphinx smile. Every action of the Government to-day spells disaster for the country, and there is but one redemption and Bonavista Bay will reveal its wisdom when it elects Monroe and his colleagues.

It is no new thing for us to witness Coaker's transfer of responsibility, and thus we were not surprised to learn, that according to him, the merchants were wholly and solely to blame for the notorious regulations. How strange that all the merchants except two should make such a measure to kill their own industries! And yet such we are asked to believe.

Why did Coaker fear to go to the North side of Bonavista Bay? Why did Coaker after his King's Cove reception fear to give people a chance to ask questions at any of his political meetings? The sentiments of Bonavista Bay to-day can be accurately gauged by the names appearing on the Advocate, and some discount can be made for them. Let us not be misled. The time is ripe for political change, and Coaker's bluff about no Humber if he is defeated is but a catch to fool the electorate. But what a mistake.

Coaker's day is done and very few will regret this blisful fact.—H.

"Paying the Piper" Thrilling Picture.

A striking scene from the famous Midway Frolic is one of the most lavish parts of the George Fitzmaurice Paramount production of "Paying the Piper," which will be seen at the Majestic Theatre to-day.

The story by Ouida Bergers concerns Barbara Wyndham, spoiled daughter of a New York millionaire, product of the divorce courts, who leads a hectic life of wild parties and dissipation, in which she is joined by Larry Graham, another millionaire's son.

Barbara marries Larry in order, as she says, to be able to get a divorce, as other members of her set do. A Wall Street crash leaves Barbara and Larry penniless, and they are forced to lead a simple life. After a thrilling experience in a wealthy bachelor's apartments, Barbara is reconciled to the simple things that Larry can provide.

Dorothy Dickson plays Barbara; Rod LaRouze is Larry; Alma Tell is Marcia, and Reginald Denny is Keith.

UNLAWFUL TRANSFER OF STREET RAILWAY.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—"Those whom the gods wish to destroy, they first made mad." Anyone reading the recent utterances of Hon. Dr. Campbell with reference to the contemplated sale of the Street Railway outfit must surely be reminded of this trite quotation. A few nights ago, the Prescott St. Wall came out with a declaration from Dr. Campbell, speaking in the name of the Prime Minister, that arrangements had been concluded for the sale to the Government of the Street Railway of the city, and that Mr. J. W. Morris, Manager of said railway had already left for New York to complete said transfer. The emphasized type is mine, Mr. Editor, because I particularly want to draw the attention of the electors of this city, both East and West, the studied, impudent arrogance of the man who takes upon himself the entire duties and privileges of the People's House of Assembly. It would be bad enough for the unselected member for St. John's West to make this utterance right off his own hat, although most of us are not taking him seriously, but when he gives to it the official sanction of the Prime Minister, it is time that we sit up and take notice. Last year while the House was in session this matter came up for discussion and it would probably have been wellroaded through at that time but for the watchdog carelessness of the Fighting Trio in the East end, who saw to it that the rights of the people were not trampled in the mire altogether. Due to their efforts the matter was shelved and cannot legally be considered until he is re-elected except in the House of Assembly. Now we are brazenly informed that not only are negotiations going on, or being conducted but that arrangements are completed for the taking over of the Street Railway by the Government. Where is the protection for the rights of citizens in this deal? Where does the City Council fit in. What have the Mayor, Mr. Martin, Mr. Viningombe, Mr. Outerbridge and other Councilors to say about this?

It may be alright and quite within their province for this aggregation of misfits to buy in the practical tangible property such as the old worn out street cars, the track, implements, housing facilities, etc., but the value does not lie therein. It is the water power that they are after, the rights, the franchise and it is these intangible things and not the paltry equipment that the Government has no power to buy in. How long must we put up with this high-handed method of administering the affairs of a country that thinks it has no responsibility? Why, not even the infamous Minutes-of-Council style is used now, because of course there is no council, so that the whole debauchery and mockery of Government is being illegally conducted, aye, prostituted in an unconstitutional, illegitimate manner. And where are all those monies coming from? Surely, surely the lenders are not foolhardy enough to let out their good money to this bunch of irresponsible in the hope that the Bennett Government will witzwash them and pay their bills. All monies so borrowed and spent are not a just debt on the country, because the country's duly-elected representatives have had no say as to this procedure and such expense therefore becomes directly chargeable to the persons of the Ministers themselves who have openly dared to flout the will of the people. They should be impeached long ago, but what's the use of impeaching them—where does that give us back our hard-earned, sadly-wanted millions of dollars that have been so wantonly destroyed in three and a half years? How could we hope to recover anything from a set of political pirates who drifted into power with practically all their belongings in a red handkerchief, who will soon be thrown out of power sadder certainly, wiser maybe, but with their ill-gotten wealth beyond hope of recovery by an outraged country. Truly, the quotation from the famous Kip-

FROM BAY DE VERDE DISTRICT. Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—The blessings of better times are surely going to descend on us as soon as all the people here have made up their minds to have no more to do with Coakerism. We gave it a chance but it kicked worse than a steer against our livelihood and beggared so many families that it is no wonder we are going to give a big welcome to CROSBIE and PUDDISTER the candidates of the BENNETT GOVERNMENT. The fish bounty promised by Mr. Bennett will be a great encouragement for the fisheries, better by far than those stragglating rules of Coaker or which were a thousand times worse than the dogfish pest. Look out for a big majority all over Bay de Verde for CROSBIE and PUDDISTER.

THE EVENING TELEGRAM

THE EVENING TELEGRAM, LIMITED, PROPRIETORS. All communications should be addressed to The Evening Telegram, Ltd., and not to individuals.

St. John's, Newfoundland, Tuesday, April 17, 1923.

Treason to the Colony.

Confederation of the Labrador Means Confederation of the Colony.

The Mail speaks of the Labrador Boundary dispute as about "territory to which Newfoundland has not been given legal title," "to which she cannot yet show legal title," and "an addition to her possession on the Labrador."

The fact that the Mail is the personal organ of Sir Richard Squires, owned by him, and established for use in this election only, makes this pronouncement an important one, and it is reasonable to suppose that it is made on his personal authority.

This Colony has "a legal right" to all she claims on Labrador, she can "show a legal title," and she does not ask "an addition to her possession." She is only asking for a declaration of her rights as expressed in legal documents, and for a delimitation of the boundaries of the territory she has had in possession for centuries almost.

It is not charged by us that the Squires Government are negotiating to sell the hinterland only of our Labrador, but "all our right, title and interest in the Labrador" on the Coast line and in the Islands adjacent thereto.

Silence and Dishonesty

Wrapped Up in the Humber Policy.

The Mail asserts that the payment of $1,500,000 to the Reids for the Humber properties, and $2,500,000 for the Railway, is not part of the Humber project.

It is a fact discreditable to the intelligence of this country that not a candidate for the Squires Government, and not more than three members of the Government itself, have seen the actual contracts embodying the Humber Deal.

Now we say, that the Reid properties and the Reid rights in the railway are to be purchased and paid for as part of the Humber project. The scheme was impossible, the Mail itself has said, until Squires agreed that the Colony's guarantee should be given.

Political Paragraphs.

Coaker mistook Monroe's reception for his own at Greenspond and lost the buttons of his coat when he tried to pass under the triumphant arch. What a change!

The last issue of the "Quarterly" was a regular campaign. The public now hope that the Proprietor will stick to his party and "stink or swim with Coaker." It will be a great saving of taxpayers money if he does.

The breaking up of the Coaker bloc in the North by the indignant and overtaxed fishermen is causing consternation in the Government camp. The boosting about eleven seats is no longer heard.

The election of Monroe is now a foregone conclusion. The reception accorded him and Lewis Little on the North side of the Bay has never been equalled.

Coaker's sale of the Labrador off his own bat is an attempt to bring us into Confederation by instalments. It is a brazen proposal, could be conceived only by one of his monumental impudence.

The Government is gone in Hr. Grace and Squires is hurrying there in desperation to try and stem the tide. It is all in vain, the electors of that intelligent and independent constituency have a surfeit of Squires and Coaker and are determined to vote for Bennett and Better Times.

The clerk or book-keeper on Water Street who votes for Squires and Coaker will be voting to put himself out of his job. All he has to do to be convinced of this is to look at the closed up stores on Water Street.

There is hardly any business being done on Water Street and very little goods coming in. All this will be changed after May 3rd. With the election of the Bennett Party the chariot of progress will move on again, and with confidence restored, the business people will take heart and invest their money and engage in new operations with confidence that they will not be hampered or interfered with.

The wild ravings and intemperate language of the Government papers these days are the shrieks of desperate men. They are desperate now and will stop at nothing to change the determination of the electors. The public treasury, now nearly empty, is passing out of their hands and their days of "easy money" are drawing to a close.

Revision of the tariff will no doubt be the first work that Bennett's Government will take up. The fishermen duties on fishery supplies should be reduced as soon as possible so that they will be able to make their business pay the coming summer. Squires promised to do this but laughed at the fishermen when he got their votes. He won't do it again.

It is going to be a great victory for the squanders who are downhearted. You can see defeat in their faces. All flags on the Liberal-Labor Progressive Ship on May the 4th.

The South and West they knew to be gone long ago. They are driven from Conception Bay and the North is slipping away from them every day. If the election was a week later the Squires-Coaker party would not get a single seat.

Campbell and Fitzgibbon are in open rebellion because Squires won't go on the canvass with them in the West End. Squires knows he would be wasting his energy and time and has now concentrated all his energies on Conception Bay.

Piccott's friends will never forgive Squires for taking him from his sick bed and making him give up his job to go to certain defeat. It was a piece of cruelty and they will resent it on Polling Day.

The whole country is now up in arms to end this terrible era of hard times and semi-starvation. In the midst of it all there are about 100 people living in clover and adding to their bank accounts. They don't care how the people suffer as long as they can hold control and live in luxury. End it, boys, on May the 3rd and let us live once more in a free country.

The Coaker shareholders are now beginning to believe that the best chance of getting back their money is to elect the Bennett Party and bring back good times. They realize that with Squires and Coaker in control again it would mean that the fishery would not be carried on and all who have the price of their passage would have to get out.

News from the District of Twillingate yesterday by telegraph says: "Jones hopeless, Barnes and Brown very doubtful. Don't bet." It looks like a sure victory for Ayre, Peters and Short. It is business men to help on the fishery the people of Green Bay want, not job seekers.

MR HUNT ON STRAIGHT TICKET.

Mr. Hunt was the next speaker and was given a splendid ovation. In a short but to the point speech, Mr. Hunt dealt with some phases of the Humber Deal and said that the factious and other businesses of St. John's meant as much as a Humber enterprise. He looked to the men to help put an end to one man Government advising all to vote the straight ticket, as a vote for any of the Government was a vote for Coakerism.

Mr. Long Meeting With Great Success.

HORWOOD FOR BENNETT PARTY.

Mr. Long held a meeting here last night in the Orange Hall. The building was crowded and for nearly two hours Mr. Long told us of the wrong doings of the Government and what the Bennett party will do when returned to power. The meeting was a wonderful success and every person here is in favor of a change. The meeting closed with the National Anthem and hearty applause for our future representative.—COR.

Other speakers were Mr. John Badcock and Mr. J. W. Dave. The meeting closed at 10.45 p.m. with the singing of the National Anthem, and raising cheers for BENNETT, HICKMAN, ARCHIBALD and BETTER TIMES. AT WEST END HEADQUARTERS

Enthusiastic Gathering Assured of Victory—Speeches by Leader and Candidates

That the people are beginning to realize the absolute necessity for a change may be gauged by the ever increasing number that nightly attend the meetings of the East and West End Committees of the Bennett Party. At the West End Headquarters there was an exceptionally large gathering. Chairman Caldwell was present and announced that Messrs. Linegar and Hunt would address the meeting for a few minutes. About 6.30 the Candidates arrived and also Mr. J. R. Bennett. When they entered the hall they were given a rousing reception. Mr. Linegar was the first speaker called upon. He expressed his appreciation of the work of the committee and the telling effect their efforts were having all over the district. He then outlined the canvass he and his colleagues had made during the day. Their visit was to the Southside first and later to the Boot and Shoe Factory. Everywhere from Job's premises to the Mill Bridge they received a warm welcome. This part of the district supported the Squires Party in 1919, but to-day, Mr. Linegar said, the people realize they must have a change and they were flocking to the Bennett Standard of Better Times. At the Southside West, more than two-thirds of the vote would be straight ticket for Cashin, Linegar and Hunt.

Mr. J. R. Bennett on being called upon was greeted with loud cheering. He was overjoyed to see such a large gathering and was glad to receive any support at all. He of the Prime Minister going to the Grace he said that the people of Grace would have nothing to do with Squires. They knew him too well. Mr. Bennett referred to the West End Committee in the West End which was never equalled even in St. John's Morris's palatial day. This case as carried out in Harbor Square, outlined by Mr. Bennett as well as the receptions accorded him and his colleagues. He was gratified beyond measure by the support he and his party were receiving from all parts of the West End by his position as a candidate. Mr. Bennett gave part of his record—served six years as a Councillor and one and a half years as Acting Prime Minister, a position which fitted him for the duties of leader. In connection with the Humber Deal, Mr. Bennett wanted to see that provision was made for the man as to wages, etc. In connection with the Humber Deal, Mr. Bennett referred to the fact that he was sure that the day for Coakerism was past. Amidst much cheering, gathering dispersed all confident that Bennett and Better Times will result of the elections.

Tidal Wave of Victory

Sweeping Bonavista Bennett Candidate Will Win.

BONAVISTA, April 10, 1923.

Dear Sir.—A few weeks ago I could not hold out much hope for the Opposition Party in this District, but now, I sincerely believe that men for that party will most certainly be elected. Your knowledge of my earnest truthfulness on political matters will be all that is necessary to convince you that there is a big change in the sentiment of the people. You know that words fall me when it comes to a bare mention of sectarianism. Even the Government cannot any longer treat on the subject openly. Nevertheless, knowing that insinuations are sufficient for a few deprived individuals, they are

The True Inwardness

Squires Decides to "Sink With Coaker"

BONAVISTA VOTES.

Realizing that he was headed for certain defeat in St. John's West, Sir R. A. Squires decided to stand for Sir R. Grace instead and Captain of Bay Roberts, supposed to be the weakest of the announced trio, was hurriedly asked to come here for consultation which he did on Saturday. Mr. Cashin will hardly deny, we think, that he told this to a reporter on Saturday afternoon. But when Sir R. A. Squires told of his intention to his colleagues, and this St. John's Committee heard of it, there was the usual to pay, so to speak, and it was made too clear to him that such a move would shock his supporters in all parts of the island. Besides, he was frankly told from the district he was no stronger in Harbor Grace than his present ticket here, and that he would be only jumping from the frying pan into the fire. So the plan to "scuttle and run" had to be abandoned. And now the Advocate says like all rear guards are falling. The Advocate actually says "Cashin" planned to get Squires but though how Cashin could be such a notion in Squires' head does not appear clear. The Advocate tries to defend the idea that Squires should go to Harbor Grace, saying "it would be natural for Squires to do this." The Mail announced in these words "Squires stands for 'guns.' That sounds like 'the' but he had fled." Oh! but it's a row the Squires crowd have had. No hope on any side, the only way to do being to go down with wreck—to "sink with Coaker," were.

Bay de Verde Will Say "Yes."

BAY DE VERDE, April 14.

"Do you want Crosbie back in power, electors?" asks the Mail. The voters of Bay de Verde will answer "Yes" on May 8rd. And why not? Coaker wanted Crosbie back, when he offered him the leadership of the Nation forgo. The Advocate wanted him doses of Coaker rule; if we are to endorse a policy which our sound common sense practical economists tell us will bring about a business panic in this country, and so make the land unfit to live in.

How many intelligent families are going to remain in this country to have it ruled any longer by Coaker with his ten or eleven dummies in the House of Assembly, all sworn to bend their backs to the crack of his whip in order that he may impose upon us his wild and impractical ideas, and who amongst us will acknowledge, by remaining here, that this is a free British Colony with free elected representatives when we see the spectacle of a Prime Minister, and another ten or twelve subservient cringing followers yielding without a murmur to the imposition on the people of Coaker's Bolshevik ideas regardless of their wild and reckless consequences, of Minute of Council expenditure, with monies wrrenched from the earnings of a broken hearted and dispirited people, who have for three long years but half subsisted, and whose tender, innocent women and children have borne yet, more cruelly than them the pangs of misery and privation?

How many men of substance, men prepared to invest their capital in business ventures, in the fishing industry, in factories and warehouses where thousands may find profitable employment, are going to further risk what is already invested or whatever large sums they are prepared to further invest, if their resources and wealth are to be scattered to the winds by Coaker's reckless schemes, and only permitted to conduct their great labor giving industries according to Coaker's Bolshevik ideas? Are men of this stamp, our captains of industry upon whom every country relies to lubricate the wheels of commerce, so that from their ebullient prosperous communities may be created, going to remain in Newfoundland to have their operations manacled by an individual at the head of a pack of blind obedient dummies, joined to another pack of spineless associates, whose patriotism and interest in the people North, South, East and West is only bounded by the grab they can make for themselves and their parasites from the sweated earnings of a bleeding, suffering populace of fishermen, tradesmen and laborers?

How many fathers of families are going to prevent their sons and daughters from fleeing quickly from this country if business is going to be throttled and disorganized, if men prepared to spend unlimited money for employment will find themselves too hampered to risk their wealth in order that our children may remain here?

Who among the large money investors abroad will come to a country to spend enormous sums to exploit our latent wealth when they learn it is ruled by a fanatic with Bolshevik ideas, except the adventurer who will first obtain iron bound contracts that the dollars they invest will weigh securely as a mortgage on the earnings of every Newfoundlanders who must be prepared at any moment to redeem those mortgages by the assumption of more cruel taxes, and the probable sacrifice of their savings and their property? Many such adventurers might come to this easy land to unload upon an innocent people, by means of representatives whose leaders are prepared to make them swallow down deals they are not permitted to see, all sorts of fake promotion schemes which would unload upon us, at tremendous cost, numerous white elephants, out of which the fake promoter and secret plotter would make immense initial profits and rake-offs, caring not a fiddler's curse how much the fisherman, the labourer, the tradesman and all others were soaked and steeped and boiled in taxes or how much of their property was seized on and confiscated?

How many young men or young women with any spirit of independence in them, with any thought of their future comfort would remain in an impoverished country, with business conditions unsettled or ruined, and ruled by an autocrat with a following of dummies and associates such as I have already described?

How many fathers of families would not run from it themselves, if at all possible to do so, to countries where conditions are not blighted by a menace such as ours? A community throttled with such conditions as are now in evidence would be no longer fit to exist in for any families who desire for the children thereof as we all do, the blessings of education, because poverty and privation spread their roots where parents would find it difficult to eke out but a miserable existence for themselves and families, education cannot thrive, poorly fed and miserably clad children cannot absorb instruction, no more than the root except in a barren and impovershed soil can grow and flourish. It is useless then to exploit outlandish ideas of expensive educational fads and theories in the face of such conditions, consequently the exploiter thereof merely writes himself down as, not alone a man of no practical intelligence, but an implied enemy of the children of Newfoundland, and incidentally their parents enemy likewise, in daring to hoodwink the people of this country into an insane acceptance of the menace of Coakerism, and he further aggravates the resentment of the people by throwing his dust in their eyes in order that he himself may live in the lap of further luxury, with lots of spare time to indulge in globe trotting and oratorical demonstrations of his vanity and importance, all the while the producers who pay for his expensive position and lucrative side lines, are tortured on the racks of taxation and privation.

Wipe out Coakerism first, eject into political oblivion useless automatons and spineless squandering associates by electing in their stead free representatives of a kind and generous people who deserve the best treatment we can give them, and then when Newfoundland comes into her own again on the even keel of prosperity, when business is made safe, when employer and employee, merchant and fisherman alike, work for the common good, free from the interposition of Bolshevik cranks, all the education that is needed will be generously provided by a Government that will give the material interests of our people all over Newfoundland their very first practical consideration; a Government that will act as the custodian of the rights of all classes of the people, a Government that will legislate in the interest and for the welfare of every citizen; a Government that will bend their energies to the encouragement in an open manner of all sound enterprises, that will spread the blessings of prosperity all around, and thus bring to homes now saddened, the joyful comfort of happiness and con-

Always a Prized Possession

It is a noteworthy fact that Buick owners prize their cars so highly that they are reluctant to part with them even for new Buicks. They hold for their Buicks the same sincere attachment that they might for any personal belonging which has proven indispensable to their daily comfort or which has contributed vitally to many of their most happy experiences. Owners retain this life-long affection for Buick not only because Buick dependability and comfort more than satisfy every motoring desire, but because these same qualities find added expression in each succeeding Buick that they buy.

In every way,
The People Pray
And so well they may.
For
Bennett and Better Times.

Only two more rounds to go and the Government forces groggy.

The clean earnest and enthusiastic campaign of the Bennett candidates and supporters has won the admiration of all.

Personal abuse and scurrility the main features of the Mail and Advocate scribes is looked upon with disfavour by their own followers.

Coaker's boast of delivering eleven men is heard for the last time.

Sir Richard Squires who is credited with having cost the Government $270,800 in salaries and expenses for three years since 1919 now sees his grip on the public chest vanishing.

Mr. Cave will likewise miss the $46,000 he was paid since Mr. Squires took charge.

Just imagine Mr. M. P. Gibbs warning a war veteran that if he talked in favor of Bennett he would be discharged from the public service.

It's a long time since M. P. Gibbs and Sir P. T. McGrath were in the same political camp.

Both are drawing snug sums and like the majority of the Government supporters it pays them to shout for Coaker and Squires.

Campbell and Fitzgibbon are like two lost sheep since the truth that Mr. Squires was double-crossing them leaked out.

Squires committee admits saving Sir Richard from the onslaught is hopeless.

The people of Torbay and other settlements along the shore in St. John's East district are enjoying immensely the statements made by the three "Bees" and the Mail and Advocate regarding their meetings in these places.

They say if all the reports of other meetings are as truthful as those held on Bell Island and other places they visited that they will have to hustle to save their nomination fees.

It is stated that if Calpin insists on standing for Mr. Grace, Sir Richard will be nominated for Port de Grave or some Coaker constituency.

Already several well known West Enders have turned down the offer.

Under such circumstances Sir Richard might be compelled to stick it out and take his medicine.

The Cooper shop should be an interesting place to go to night.

"The victory" Trio Higgins, Fox and Vinicombe crossed over to Bell Island this morning.

This day week is nomination day, the Premier will have to get a gait on to decide which district will have the pleasure of administering him a humiliating defeat.

Bell Island Resents

THE GALL AND VANITY OF THE COAKER TRIO.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Voters of St. John's are warned to beware of set attempts to spread reports that Bell Islanders are in favour of Coakerism. To cast such a slur on the intelligent people over here by accusing them of helping out Coakerism and therefore the three candidates who stand for that rotten and despicable cause is rightly very bitterly resented. Because Burke worked over here for a time he has the gall and impudence we learn to heel around the streets of St. John's telling people he is sure to get our votes because we know him. Well the very fact of our knowing well this political gas container for the Coaker menace makes it all the more certain that the overwhelming majority here will turn him down. There is more of pity than scorn for Bartlett who appears to have the Wm. Jennings Bryan Bee in his political bonnet, the desire to make himself an everlasting target of ridicule for a forlorn hope. The other harmless looking man is not worth wasting time on so I will cut this letter short by announcing at the request of hundreds of voters here that we are all in favour of THE BENNETT GOV. ERNMENT, and therefore will vote the straight ticket for HIGGINS, FOX and VINICOMBE.

Your truly,
ANTI-COAKERITE,

Political Pointers

From Bay Bulls.

We read with much amusement the glowing account of the Coakerites meeting at Bay Bulls on Thursday night, and when we take into account that there are 208 voters in Bay Bulls and poor Hearn could only scrape up 30 volunteers to sign their names to a report of a meeting in his own home town, we can only draw our own conclusions at what a political death Hearn and McQuire will receive in this district on Polling Day.

The meeting appeared to us to be more of a social gathering than anything else, as the two candidates as well as the other speakers appeared to be very cheerful and in the best of spirits had nothing to hand out to warrant us voting against Cashin and Moore. The Chairman who was the first to address us, seemed to be in good form and being an orator of repute introduced the candidates in a magnificent speech, though not bordering in any way upon the success of the men who opposed Cashin and Moore in—and he being one of the victims who got such a thrashing in that campaign, would not be at all anxious to duplicate his efforts in that direction, but seemed to be happier in acting as chairman in leading two more lambs to the same slaughter. Mr. Hearn being the next speaker, said he was handicapped in not being able to use his motor car, owing to the conditions of the road, as the quicker he would get through his canvass in the district the more money he would have left, as he could not afford to buy splits from Paddy Glynn or anybody else out of his $25,000. However, he said it was unfortunate that the splits he did send to town had to be purchased by a strong supporter of Bennett, and he was at a loss to know why his man could not make the proper connections on arriving in town with his splits.

Mr. McGuire told us if by any chance Squires and Coaker are returned to power, he was going to start a large Bakery out on the Humber, and likely to need a big staff of men in the operation of his plant out there. Southern Shore men would naturally be given the preference, and it is rumoured that the chairman, Mr. Fred Williams has the offer of foreman out there should things pan out alright.

Mr. P. C. O'Driscoll, the white headed boy was the next speaker we were honored to hear, he said he knew the cause of Coakerism was a difficult one to promote on the Southern Shore, and fearing the worst may happen the two Coaker candidates before they were finished canvassing on the Shore, he was advised by his good friend Jerry to come up and put a few more thousand and insurance on their lives, as he, Mr. O'Driscoll being a life insurance agent thought it would be an opportune time to land his men for a few thousand each, and after the meeting we heard that the cut man landed his men for 5000 each.

Mr. Jerry Williams in concluding with a few appropriate remarks and seeming to enjoy every minute of the meeting, thanked his hearers and though not enjoying Hearn and McGuire's position in championing the cause of Coakerism on this shore, yet they had his sincere sympathy and his loyal support.

This finished the business of the so-called political meeting in Bay Bulls, when the remaining 170 straight ticket voters for Cashin and Moore made the rafters ring with cheers for Cashin and Moore and BENNETT AND BETTER TIMES.

Yours truly,
OBSERVER,
Bay Bulls.

Morris for Sing-Sing

THIS SAYS HE WAS A MORRIS
 HERE IS HOW HIS PAPER
 NAME OF MORRIS FOUR YEARS

In his speech at the East End meeting a week ago, Sir R. A. Squires announced that he was a Morris man and left the country and that because he was a Morris man he had to serve under Lloyd on this. This is all very well now, but how is Squires' own paper, the Star, spoke of Morris four years ago. On July 24th, 1919, the paper stated by the name Dr. Moffatt how the Star had an article on Morris reading as follows:
 The cry was at last election let us finish his work. What work meant it is difficult to understand, but it is the effort to enrich party following at the expense of the voters, and sink the country in irreparable ruin.
 That also has been accomplished
 and it is hard to see.
 That also was aimed at it is impossible to see.
 The News will be good enough to call attention to us as to this, lift the responsibility, as it were from the programmatic phrase, and let us know what the work is that we were to let Morris finish.
 It might let us know if the work is now finished, and if not, why it was run away and left unfinished.
 Perhaps ten years is too short a time in which to finish this mighty project whatever it might be.
 It is not too short a time to lay out the News please point out to the foundation, and let us know it is figured out to lay the cornerstone of this great work that is to be a monument to progress?
 About the only foundations laid by Morris and his party were such as were rooted up again; foundations of cases unbearable; foundations of unqualified, foundations of debauchery, foundations of the foundations of big fortunes for the crowd, foundations of an ill-directed, ill-conceived policy that has brought nothing to the country but confusion and a big debt.
 This work are these the foundations on which you, the News want to continue the building?
 Let it have a care, lest they be blown about its ears. As a building New York who some years ago was erected for the erection of a brick building. He was ambitious to retire with a fortune, so he made his name of wood stained to resemble a real article. He retired early, more than he thought. The building was only partly finished.

led under its own weight, and some of the workmen were killed. The contractor retired to Sing-Sing, the famous prison on the Hudson.
 "Morris took heed and got out of the way before the crash. He retired, not alas, to Sing-Sing, but to the peerage, where, it is hoped, he is shedding lustre on his peers. The brick layers and the hod-carriers of his gang are still on the wooden walls, which are sagging badly, and cannot last beyond the tenth of November next. How many of the hod-carriers will be crushed and how many escape remains to be seen."

IS YOUR FOOD RIGHT?

A woman I know has four children whom she has to support on the money allowed
 her by the State,
 as her husband
 died leaving her almost penniless
 with three children under four and
 another one coming.
 The sum allowed her is very small but the children are so young that she cannot go out to supplement it.
 You should see those four children.
 Because they are so pathetic and ill-fed? No, because they are so rosy, plump and healthy looking.
 She Deserves a Medal.
 Evidently that mother manages somehow to get the right sort of food and cook it properly and keep those children properly fed.
 And that is what I call a tremendous achievement.
 Doesn't the Carnegie Foundation
 give a medal for simple every-day, day-in-and-day-out heroism? It is my impression that it does. And if it does, I beg to call to its attention as a possible candidate, this mother.
 Think of all the common sense and the care and the infinite capacity for taking pains (which is, you know, one of the definitions of genius) that that woman must bring to her job.
 Her Work of Art.
 Truly she has genius of a sort which the world greatly needs. Those four rosy checked healthy children are her work of art and she has a good reason to be proud of it.
 It has often been said that an army moves on its belly.
 It is as true, if not as generally recognized, that the armies of peace cannot greatly achieve unless their food is right.
 In a book on the political situation in England, which I have recently been reading, the author claims that much of the unrest and unhappiness among the English laboring classes is due to the fact that their food is not right. Many of the women go to work in the factories and then feed their families on prepared foods in which the elements of nourishment are lacking. Jam and bread is one of the staple English meals, and when the jam is a synthetic sweetness without the food value real jam would have, the family which eats it is cheated of proper nourishment.
 Not Always Poverty.
 Proper nourishment isn't necessarily a matter of plenty of money. One of the big Boston doctors declares that where it has been possible to make comparison, more malnutrition has been found in the homes of the well-to-do than in the homes of the poor. He declared that one-third of the children in the ordinary American community are underweight and malnourished.
 That isn't because they haven't enough food, but because they haven't the proper food.

 The mother who makes it her most serious interest to see that her children are fed the right food, at regular intervals, and of course plenty of it, is doing one of the biggest things for the good of the world she can possibly do.

MR. SQUIRES' STAR ON MR. COAKER, 1918:

"Away with him (Coaker) from public life. He is untrustworthy; he lacks public spirit; he has shown regard only for his own well-being and that of his pet objects; he sets self-interest before the welfare of Country and Empire; he displays intolerance and treachery; he is an offence to honest men and true—a drag on the progress of the country—a stumbling block in the way of success of patriotic effort, and an exemplar of petty meanness, and self-seeking politics. NEWFOUNDLAND CAN TOLERATE NO SUCH MAN IN ITS GOVERNMENT: NEWFOUNDLAND AND ITS REPUTATION COURT RUIN EVERY MOMENT HE IS ALLOWED TO REMAIN IN THE COUNCILS OF ITS ADMINISTRATION."

MR. COAKER ON MR. SQUIRES:

(From the official debates of the House of Assembly, May 16, 1918.
"This man (Squires) who is attacking me in the Star, and exhausting the English language to find sufficient words to vilify me, as quoted in the article (Throw Him Out) (see opposite column) opened up negotiations with the Reid Newfoundland Company in reference to the supposed failure of one of the Reids to live up to a promise made respecting financial aid to the Star, which negotiations ended by the payment in BANK OF MONTREAL NOTES OF $5,000 by Mr. R. G. Reid to the then Colonial Secretary, Mr. R. A. Squires. The public will be solely concerned with that aspect of the matter which led the Chairman of such a responsible Committee trusting and dealing on behalf of the Dominion, with claims of such vast proportions, accepting the sum of $5,000 paid him by a Company whose claims were under consideration and adjustment. I leave the public to decide as to HOW CLEAN THE HANDS OF SUCH A MAN ARE."

Doomed.

A THRILLING MELODRAMA IN ONE ACT AND SEVERAL SCENES.

(Featuring Richard Anderson Squires in the principle role for the very last time.)

The action of the play is confined to the first four months of 1923.

SCENE ONE.

A luxuriously furnished apartment in the Savoy Hotel, London. A man attired in evening clothes and tortoise shell spectacles, is lounging comfortably in a big arm chair before an open fireplace. He is apparently in deep thought, and little wreaths of smoke, from the Flor de Cabbage protruding from one corner of his mouth, are circling around his head. The smell of the cigar is in itself, sufficient proof that the man is Sir Richard Squires. The sound of deep gasps and hurried footsteps coming from outside the door, made by a chambermaid who has been nearly asphyxiated by the cigar fumes which are issuing through the key-hole, wake Sir Richard from his reverie. He jumps from his chair and begins to pace the room.

SQUIRES.

"To live a life to luxury and ease with liveried servants, who on bended knees attend my every want, grant each desire, see that I have all things I may require, that is my aim, money's my only need. With all I want of it I shall succeed."

He thinks deeply for a moment and places a fresh cigar in his mouth.

SQUIRES.

"There is one way to bring about my ends, I must communicate with all my friends. Tell them that if the Humber must go through, I am compelled, within a month or two, to hold elections, on the strength of these depend my hopes of luxury and ease. For if I will be wealthy, then I must obtain the Government, or bite the dust."

SCENE TWO.

The office of the Prime Minister. A party meeting in progress.

WARREN.

"This spring election is a thing I like. For in my district, even a mongrel like me, would be elected if I had to go and canvass. It would mean my overthrow."

SQUIRES.

"I'm glad you think that my idea's good. Remember all, it means your livelihood. If we're elected, but if we're turned out, we'd starve, the lot of us, without a doubt."

Coaker, of course, I can depend on you to keep with us your northern reticence. And in the meantime, we must concentrate on feeding other districts with good bait.

That we may have for our majority enough to fix the Humber guarantee.

BARNES.

"This spring election may be quite alright. But Harbor Grace I simply will not fight."

So if I am to be a candidate Coaker must make one of his men vacate a seat for me. It is my only chance. The only course that I will countenance."

COAKER.

Samson and Jennings are scrapped in Twillingate.

Why not go there as a new candidate."

SQUIRES.

That's settled. Now in St. John's West I'll stay.

And Campbell, you'll come too. What do you say?"

CAMPBELL.

Why, give me scripts enough and I'll get in.

With these and splits I surely ought to win."

FOOTE.

Though Coaker has destroyed the West Coast trade.

To Burin I shall journey, unafraid. Grand Bank won't turn me down, for I've put there a new breakwater and a splendid pier."

HALFYARD.

And what of me, my district's not too strong.

From Fog, Hibbs with me, must come along."

COAKER.

I'll soon fix that. We want a seat for Grimes.

He'll win there, though defeated many times."

SQUIRES.

Well, now we've settled everything. I think, and soon we will put Bennett on the blink."

SCENE THREE.

The Prime Minister discovered alone. He is wearing a very mournful expression, reminiscent of an undertaker's mite at a funeral. The Flor de Cabbages are still to be seen on his desk, but he has not the heart to smoke them. He glances through a pile of telegrams and heaves a sigh. The telephone bell rings.

SQUIRES, (picking up the receiver). "Hello, yes, Squires speaking. Who is that?"

Long distance—Ray Roberts—fallen fat?"

What's fallen fat—what, Calpin's meeting, why?"

I did not think he'd even have to try to hold a meeting there. Aren't they with us?"

They're not. Oh, cuss it, cuss it, cuss it!"

You say that I must go to Harbor Grace."

I can't be done. If I'm to save my face."

Since there he knows, I will not get a vote. Even the North is now no longer safe.

And Burin will elect both Harris and Chafe.

No hope I see, no matter where I look. My rule no longer will the country brook."

And Bennett will take my place. Oh, gone are my days of ease and luxury. CURTAIN.

An effective combination is a drapery gown of gray; Georges over a 'tin of silver tissue.

most optimistic. His diagnosis of the nation's financial and commercial health was delivered in a vigorous, concise style, and elicited congratulations from J. Ramsey MacDonald, Leader of the Opposition for its manner, but not entirely for its substance. The Chancellor believed the country had passed the peak of depression, but warned that his hopes might yet be frustrated by untoward events on the continent or at home. He argued that it was useless to further reduce taxation at the cost of debt reduction, saying, "to postpone debt redemption, year after year, means insolvency." He dilated on disappointment as to the results of the excess profits tax. Ramsey MacDonald condemned the omission to reduce taxes on sugar, tea and other commodities. He declared this is much more needed than reduction in income tax which mainly relieved wealthy people. He warned the Chancellor that the Labor Party would offer hostile amendments to his proposals. On the whole the reception of the Budget was distinctly favorable, the strongest opposition coming from the Labor benches.

BOSTON, April 16. Delightful Programme at the Nickel.

SPANISH DRAMA CALLED BEST OF ITS TYPE.

A delightful story of the romantic days of Spanish glories, alive with the tempestuous love and intrigue that characterize the Latin race—that is "Serenade," which opened an engagement at the Nickel Theatre yesterday. It is an R. A. Walsh-First National attraction.

One is swept along by the swiftly moving story, which grips the attention at the start and never allows it to relax. The settings are remarkably atmospheric and help to weave the spell which the picture casts over the spectator.

Miriam Cooper and George Walsh play the leads. Miss Cooper displays her versatility by giving an excellent performance as the senorita beloved by the eligible youth of Magdalena, and Walsh is a dashing lover.

An excellent cast supports Miss Cooper and Mr. Walsh, including Bertram Grassby, Josef Swickard, Noble Johnson, Adelbert Knott, Tom Kennedy, John Eberts, Rosita Marsini, James A. Marcus, Ardita Milano and Peter Ventuzela.

When You Buy Sunlight Soap

You Get More Soap For Less Money!

Every bar of Sunlight Soap is guaranteed pure Soap. Sunlight never becomes bad, in fact it improves with age, and is so pure, that it will not injure even a baby's tender skin. Levers 1000 pounds guarantee of purity proves the truth of these assertions.

Sunlight Soap, being ALL PURE SOAP, without the addition of injurious chemicals, will remove the dirt from even the finest clothing, without in any way injuring the clothing.

Cheap, injurious soaps, will injure your clothing and as clothing costs more than soap, it will not pay you to save a few cents on soap, only to lose several dollars on your clothing, therefore, use Sunlight Soap, which is guaranteed, ALL PURE SOAP.

Sunlight Soap in 12 ounce bars costs 15 cents per bar, therefore, a bar of Sunlight costs no more than any 8 ounce bar for which you pay 10 cents or any 4 ounce bar for which you pay 5 cents.

From the foregoing you will realize that an 8 ounce bar of soap for 10 cents is not cheaper than a 12 ounce bar of Sunlight for 15 cents. Don't let anyone fool you into thinking otherwise. Sunlight is the purest and least expensive of laundry soaps.

If you buy Sunlight Soap in cartons containing 3 bars of 12 ounces each, the cost will be less than for any 8 ounce soap at 10 cents, but as Sunlight is the best and purest of soap, you will really get more soap for less money.

Hr. Grace Will Come Into Its Own Again

When the Bennett Government is Elected.

The proud and delightful old city of Hr. Grace, the second in point of importance in the island, is determined to come into its own again when the Bennett Government is elected. With the return of prosperity to the whole island by the free development of our fisheries, and by the encouragement of many large industrial enterprises which capitalists will be induced to undertake when a stable Government is installed. Conception Bay will be shapers in all these benefits of progress and therefore its Capital City, Hr. Grace, will likewise participate. Once the pride and glory of its people, and a city the admiration of all visitors, years of depression, under Coakerism particularly, have left a sad impression on it, and its people, along with those of other parts of the Country, have had to endure disastrous privations. Declining fishery pursuits have caused business to be disastrous there, and consequently much want of employment has brought to the families of all classes great privation and much suffering. A continuance of such conditions would so affect Harbor Grace that it would only be a dustries beneficial alike to Hr. Grace as well as St. John's, and around the whole island, the moment the Bennett Government is endorsed at the polls. It is the contrived opinion of all men of experience in financial, commercial and industrial circles. That further stagnation and the consequent driving of all wage earners from their home towns and villages to other countries, and much suffering and increased unbearable taxation for those left at home, is the opinion of the same reliable authorities, if the Coaker-Squires combination is returned to power. On the one hand, therefore, there lies before the people of Hr. Grace the road to prosperity and the revival of the old town to the days of its historic importance, to a future where its inhabitants will thrive in comfort and build up an even greater degree of improvement; a city of homes where the old people will be happy for the remaining years of their lives, and where the young may remain with them to add to their pleasure, and comfort those whom they cherish. On the other hand they see the road to ruin and desolation, to the wrecking of their home and families, to the parting of the young from the old and the depopulation in general of this once historic city. With the outlook before them, prosperity on the one side, and ruin on the other, it would be insulting the intelligence of the voters there to ask which they will take, for but one answer could be made and that will be pronounced on election day in the straight ticket vote for Bennett, Hickman and Archibald. Farewell Message

FROM "ROSALIND'S" PASSENGERS TO THE VOTERS AT HOME.

Editor Evening Telegram

Dear Sir.—I am asked by a number of my fellow passengers who left by the last Rosalind, driven from home by the abominable rule of Coakerism to give a farewell message to the voters we leave behind. The message we tender is:—"Vote for the Bennett Government and Better Times so that our native land will revive once more and encourage us to come back again to the friends and loved ones we are leaving at home." We offer this message in all sincerity, not for our own sakes alone, but for the sake of the fond and aged parents from whom we have been forced to part. We are going now amongst strangers to earn the living we have been deprived of in our own land and in which we would much rather live if we could at all find employment, but we are confident that with a new Government in power who will restore business and prosperity, and not make a ruin of St. John's and the whole island, the day will come soon when the most, if not all of us, will again return to dwell amidst the happy scenes of our boyhood, and with the parents and friends from whom we are now forced to part. Let the young men who are still left help along the cause of good times so that their parents and themselves may not experience the pangs of parting such as we and our parents are suffering, and by so doing make Newfoundland a fit dwelling place for all the population. I know our weight of influence into the patriotic fight against Coakerism, attend the meetings of the Bennett Candidates in all your force and cheer them on to victory, but above all be sure to vote on polling day. Don't stay away from the polls and leave it to the old people only to strive for victory, and then when young and old muster in their full strength you will defeat the country's enemies. Do good for the boys who are now leaving you, retain your freedom, encourage prosperity, help the old folks at home and speedily bring about the day when we shall all be back again to clasp your hands and live once more in the land we love best, our own native country.

Yours truly
TERRA NOVA EXILE.

Child Welfare Dance.

VOTED AN OUTSTANDING SUCCESS.

The Child Welfare Dance, held in the Grenfell Hall last night was an unqualified success. The dance was organized by the volunteer workers of the Association: Miss Lightbourne, Mrs. H. Mitchell, Miss B. McNeil, Miss Edith Joyce, Miss Helen Reid and Mrs. F. R. Emerson. Upwards of 800 people were in attendance, and included in the number present were Lady Allardyce, Major Wilberforce-Bell, Capt. Goodfellow, Lady Squires, and other prominent citizens. His Excellency the Governor was unable to attend. Lady Allardyce and party were received by the Association and was expended a hearty welcome. The Prince's Orchestra supplied the music which is considered the best dance music in the city. An exhibition of modern dancing, by Miss Doris Mews and Mr. Dick Fraser, was very well done. The elimination dance was won by Miss Constance Crane and Mr. McDonald. The ladies in charge of the arrangements are to be heartily congratulated on the success of last evening's affair.

MIXING THE DOPE.

(By A. H. B.)

The West Enders are getting all the run these days! All the week they have been chucking and chortling in glee.

It appears that on Monday night Mr. Fitzgibbon was holding forth as usual—acting the goat—so as to set the stage for the nightly dramatic entrance of Messrs. Squires and Campbell, who, by way of explanation, it should be noticed are always late in arriving at the Copper Shop.

Just previous to Secretary Murphy reporting that they were on their way. Mr. Fitz was asked by a dock worker present just what the Humber Steal meant? With the usual outburst of words for which this young orator is noted, Josephus began to expatiate on the possibilities and prospects of the development of the Western Valley; and one could in imagination actually hear the hum that arises from the hive of industry—could visualize the five or ten or fifteen thousand workmen busily engaged counting over their wads of greenbacks—could witness the overworked Sub-Collector making up his remittance to Mr. LeMessurier of the Three Million Dollars collected in royalties and duties!

—could see the P. U. men who were holding down the cushy jobs (vide Coaker's circular) reading their weekly circular of the "Dear Jim" type!—could hear the sea-splitting shrieks of the squad of locomotives imported through Collishaw as they snorted down the grade (despite the fact there were only 27 tons of coal in the depot at Port aux Basques) towing the fleet of flats loaded with paper to the shipping piers!—could see in their mind's eye the Million Dollar warehouses at Humbermouth and Channel with the huge squadron of 10,000 ton steamers (see Thursday's Advocate) loading the Million and a Half Tons of Pulp!—could think of Coaker lying off in his cosy hammock in the grounds of his newly erected bungalow on the banks of the placid Humber happy and contented in the accomplishment of his Life's Dream (see Advocate again)!!!

Spellbound and entranced were everyone of the 114 committee men present. Even Chairman Ruby, usually so alert and peppy, seemed in a trance or state of hypnotism. The speaker had just finished his word picture when a stamping of snow-covered gaiters on the steps outside aroused the audience from their dream of the Humber, and let them behold before them not only the Premier himself chewing his "Governor" a la Barney Oldfield, but that steadfast devotee of the cult of Wrigley—the man who has solved that much debated question of "Does spearmint hold its favour on the bedpost overnight?"—Doctor Campbell. Instantly Ken had the crowd on their hind legs cheering vociferously. In fact, as the Mail so often states, "the appearance of Sir Richard and Dr. Campbell was the signal for a prolonged outburst of applause."

When order had been restored, the worthy Chairman, who by the way denigrated "splints" in the voting sense yet is self appointed Receiver General for them in the material sense, then announced that they would be favoured with an address by the genial Doctor as to why fur cannot be successfully grown on sheep in this country. Seeing that the vast assemblage evinced disinterestedness he began his famous essay in his usually witty way (see Mail again) on "How to be Happy though 'Splintless'." But when the Doctor was asked to speak on the Humber Deal a silence that could almost be felt resulted when the Doctor, stowing his wad of gum to the looard of his gold capped molars, declared that only six men were in a position to discuss the details, viz.: the Executive, and as they were all sworn to secrecy, could not therefore divulge the terms; further, that if any outside of the Executive were shooting off their necks about it they didn't know what they were talking about and were handing out a line of bull.

Just at this juncture, Ken got red, but Joe saw red! The Premier managed to save the situation by jumping to his feet and loudly haranguing the crowd, abusing Cashin, Hunt, and Linegar each in turn, and stating that they were making it a personal fight. He pointed out as well that as Cashin was in the habit of taking off his overcoat before he made a speech he was resorting to dirty tactics, and that such divesting himself of his clothing was to be greatly deplored in a political campaign.

It has been stated why Joe stayed at Home (or should it be "The man who was left at home") in the Petty Harbour excursion the other day, but we are in a position to state that the faux-pas about the Humber Steal described above was not the cause of the "fit" that at present exists between Squires and Campbell. And neither is it due to one of Higgins' Whispers. One thing we can state definitely, and that is that all the "whisperings" are not confined to the Opposition camp. Eh, Sir Richard? Eh, Doctor?
