Guelph Evening Mercury

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 12, 1873

Town and County News. The Orangeville High School is prospering. The attendance has increased over a hundred per cent. since the 1st of May.

Constable Mason of Fergus came across a pig running at large, contrary to law, and the brute refusing persistently to be driven to pound, Charlie picked it up and carried it off on his back.

The firemen turned out on Wednesday night to fill the new tanks. Owing to something getting out of order on the engine, they were detained until the small hours before finishing the work.

Dr. McGuire, and Messrs. Raymond, Harley, and Dalgleish were over at Fergus yesterday evening, attending a Y. M. C. A. meeting there at the Mr. Morse, of New York, was expected to be present.

GALT AND OUR EXHIBITION.—The Great Western Railway Company will next Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, in addition to the ordinary trains run a train starting from Galt, at 9 a. m., and returning from Guelph at 3 p. m.

OUR LOCAL HORACE.—A schoolmaster in Guelph, who bears a remarkable facial resemblance to the late Horace Greeley, started some of the Yankees when on a visit to the States lately. They thought at first that he was a spectre, or else that the account of the Tribune editor's death had been another newspaper hoax.

Y. M. C. A.—The Literary meeting last evening was not very largely attended, but those present were pleased with the literary exercises. The first reading by Mr. G. Maddock, followed by a well written essay by Mr. Cooley, "The duty of a Christian," and a reading by Mr. T. Earl. The next meeting on Thursday will be held in two weeks, which will be the last Thursday in the month.

FIRE AT ORANGEVILLE.—The barns, sheds, and out-buildings of Mr. Alex. Mitchell, who lives about a mile from Orangeville, were destroyed by fire on Wednesday evening between seven and nine o'clock. The entire crop, including 900 bushels of fall wheat, was consumed. The loss is about $5,000, which is covered by insurance to the amount of $1,600. The fire is believed to be the work of an incendiary.

TEACHERS' FIRST-CLASS CERTIFICATES.—The Council of Public Instruction, on the recommendation of the Central Committee of Examiners, have granted first-class certificates as undermentioned. There were in all 27 candidates, of whom five only succeeded. Class 1, Grade A—John Lorenzo Davidson. Class 1, Grade B—Robert Cochrane, (Ermosa), Morris Johnson Fletcher, Thaddeus W. H. Leavitt, and Archibald Simel. The McCabe gold medal was yesterday publicly presented by the Chief Superintendent to Mr. Davison [who is teacher of the fourth division of the Boys' Model School.]

A SOCIAL was held last night in connection with the British Episcopal Methodist Church (colored) in their building on Essex-street. Rev. Mr. Johnson, the pastor, presided. A good tea was provided, and a pleasant evening was afterwards spent. Speeches were delivered by Mr. D. Moulton, Mr. Lewis, and Mr. Bollen; and two concerted pieces were sung by three little girls. The object of the gathering was to raise some money towards the payment of the expenses of the pastor in a visit he is about to make to the Southern States for the purpose of bringing home some of his children who were left there.

The Vote on the By-Law. The following was the state of the poll shortly after two o'clock:—

North Ward	For	Against
South "	28	4
East "	28	6
West "	43	13
Total vote.	121	29

Majority for By-law 82.

The Pope-Macdonald Letter. The letter investigation was continued at Montreal on Thursday, when Messrs. F. Mackay, Alexander, Empey and George Smith, merchants, of this city, were examined, but they no further light on the question. One witness stated he had heard that a copy dropped the letter in the St. Lawrence Hall, where it was picked up.

On Wednesday night a fire broke out in the house of John Shepard, a farmer residing about three miles from Strathroy, which was totally destroyed. One little girl was burnt to death, and another barely escaped with her life. The origin of the fire is unknown.

An inquest was held on the body of John Wood, a person employed by the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railway Company near Blivale, on the 9th inst., by Coroner G. E. Scott, of Wingham. The deceased dropped down immediately after taking breakfast, and in a few minutes expired. The verdict was—Died from natural causes, supposed to be apoplexy.

Among the civil cases at the autumn assizes at Owen Sound was an action by Graham against the Toronto, Grey, and Bruce Railway Company, in which a verdict was obtained for $500. Mr. Sherman had an action against the same Company, in which he obtained a verdict of $9,200.

Local and Other Items

Mr. Wm. Walden, Gaoler of the County of Waterloo, died in Berlin on Thursday.

A Londoner has recovered heavy damages from a tailor who sent him an insect dum on a postal card.

On Wednesday two barns with their contents were burned in the 4th and 5th concessions of Adolphustown.

The North Riding Waterloo Show takes place on Tuesday and Wednesday next, the last of this month and 1st of October.

The Wesleyan Methodists of the Berlin Circuit have determined to purchase for a parsonage the house and lot owned and occupied by Mrs. Wait, price $1,200.

A collision occurred on the Cobourg & Peterboro' line on Thursday, between a C. & P. R. mixed and a G. T. R. freight. No one hurt, but some rolling stock was smashed.

The workmen employed in Messrs. Goldie, McCulloch & Co.'s works, at Galt, hearing that Messrs. D. Cameron John Ballantine were about to leave to enter as partners in the "Galt Foundry," presented them with a testimonial each and addresses last Friday evening.

MARRIED FOR THE FIFTH TIME.—A man named Barnabas L. Woolnough, residing in Niagara Township, was married for the fifth time on the evening of Saturday last, the 6th inst. He had been married twice in England and this makes the third time in Canada. His experience in this line ought certainly to be worth something, and all young men inclined this way would do well to consult and advise with this Nestor. His age is 67, and his 5th bride is a Mrs. Gilchrist, of Stamford Township, aged 45.

About 2 o'clock on Tuesday morning the Town Hall in the village of Burford was found to be in flames, and in a short time it was burned to the ground. The building was owned by Mr. W. H. Woodman, and occupied by the Nightingale Division of the Sons of Temperance, as the Division Court and a temporary place for divine service by the Presbyterians. All the furniture, banners, books, regalia, &c., was destroyed. Insured for $450, less $1,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

GENUINE ACCIDENT.—Last Saturday the workmen at the C. T. R. locomotive sheds, Galt, were trying to open, by means of blasting, a well in the shed, drilled through rock, with a six-inch bore; and a "shot" was sent down nearly to the bottom of the hole. The workmen thought the weight of water on top of the charge would be sufficient to prevent, but when the "shot" was fired the water above the charge was lifted in a solid body and driven slap through the roof, breaking in its way a number of rafters and the boarding of the roof for about five or six feet.

THE CROPS IN EUROPE AND THE UNITED STATES.—The harvest in Europe are generally deficient. From a most trustworthy authority, the Mark Lane Express, we have more unfavorable reports as to wheat in England, which in many localities is not expected to equal even the very poor yield of last year, and there are strong hints as to 'danger of sprouting in the shock from the present occasional showers.' In France storms have done much damage, and a deficiency of at least ten to twelve per cent. may be relied upon. There are accounts of increased prices at many local stations, and Paris flour has considerably advanced. A wheat has totally disappeared from the market, and new supplies its place at higher prices. Rye—an extensive bread crop—in France, Belgium, Holland and Germany is reckoned as very deficient and rates are rising. In Hungary the condition of the crop has been generally overcast; and from the prevalence of cholera an interference with the work of harvesting is threatened. In Germany only an ordinary yield is hoped for. The Express sums up the situation abroad by saying that "with a deficient crop, exhausted stocks, and but generally moderate prospects in Europe, low prices seem almost impossible next season."

WATERLOO RACES.—The races under the auspices of the members of the Waterloo Riding and Driving Association opened at Waterloo village on Tuesday. The entries for the various purses were numerous, and a large number of visitors were in attendance. The races on the first day commenced with the County Purse, in which Parris* won the first heat in 1.48; Lottie B. second and third heats in 1.52 and 1.53, giving her the race; Dominion-bred Purse, Montreal won the first and second heats in 1.49 and 1.48, giving him the winner's three minutes' trot; Varcoe two heats; George Brown one heat, and General Wolfe two heats. The race was postponed to Wednesday on account of darkness. On being resumed next morning the horses came to the post in good order at half-past ten, and after four or five false starts got away well together. The heat was an easy one for Wolfe, in 2.45; Brown and Varcoe acting badly, Brown cast a shoe soon after starting in the heat. The 2.32 trot was won by Varcoe in three straight heats, in 2.42, 2.41, and 2.41; Captain Tom second; Teemsh Boy third. This was one of the finest trots ever witnessed, Varcoe being lapped out in each heat. In the 2.40 trot Lady Dufferin won the first heat, Varcoe the second, third and fourth; time, 2.44, 2.44, 2.43, and 2.47. This race was splendidly contested throughout, and gave the best satisfaction. In the two mile heats, two in three, open to all, Jack Vandall, War Girl and Longwell started. The race was won in the first heat by Longwell in 3.43, distancing Vandall and War Girl. The attendance was very large.

A DISTRESSING fire occurred at Noustadt on Thursday afternoon, which entirely destroyed the fine brewery of Henry Heather, well known as the most complete establishment of the kind in this part of the country, being worth fully $75,000. The fire originated from sparks from the engine, which caught on the dry shingles of the roof, and spread so rapidly that in a short time the entire building was in flames. It was insured in the Waterloo Mutual, but the policy is supposed to be run out about a month, thereby throwing the entire loss on the owner.

The London Advertiser aptly remarks that the style of evidence being taken by the John A. Commission reminds us of the Irishman's defence. Pat was confronted with a couple of witnesses whose evidence clearly convicted him of sheep-stealing, but nothing daunted he offered to call fifty or more of his friends who could swear they never saw him do it.

Jail and Prisoners Burned.

The Big Balloon.

The Dean and the Alliance.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The Carlist forces have captured Fort Vaccarolis.

Rev. Dr. Lyman, of the United States, has arrived at Constance, to attend the Old Catholic Congress.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 11.—Plainville Park Races closed to-day. The purse of $1,500, five heats, was won by "Commodore," of Newbury, N.Y.; time 2:33. In free to all, race for $2,000 purse, four heats, "Judge Fullerton" won; time 2:25.

St. Louis, Sept. 12.—A despatch from Pleasant Hill, Mo., says the jail at that place was burned early on Tuesday morning, and all its occupants, four in number, perished in the flames. It is supposed that the building was fired by one of the prisoners in order to effect his escape, but the flames spread so rapidly that he was suffocated.

New York, Sept. 12.—The rent in the big balloon has been repaired, and if the weather is favorable it will go up to-day. The work of inflation was begun at three o'clock this morning. The Weather Bureau at Washington will notify the balloonists of the state of the weather.

Rev. R. P. Smith, Dean of Canterbury, is bearer of a letter from the Archbishop of Canterbury to the American Evangelical Alliance, expressing writer's hope that the General Conference may promote unity in all forms of Christian belief. The Dean says that there is a general feeling among members of the Church of England that the dividing line which separates the Established Church from other Christian denominations should be less marked. He accepted the invitation of the American Alliance.

Lost—A Tory "Grievance."

What is now troubling the Ontario Tories is that Mimico agricultural farm business. By the removal to Guelph not only was better soil obtained, but buildings were had ready erected, thus saving a very large sum to the Province in the item of building. The only hope left to the Tories was that the price paid for the rejected Mimico site would be a dead loss and that the land would be found unsaleable, except at a ruinous depreciation in value. They ventured to prophecy that much through their organs and itinerant orators, and have made the most of it if they could. But it seems the unfortunate are to be disappointed. On Saturday last eighty one-acre lots, and a number of four and five-acre park lots, were put out of the property, were put up at auction. All the acre lots went off rapidly, and between twenty and thirty of the park lots, 19 1/2 acres in all, being sold for a total sum of $16,902. The average price paid per acre for the farm was $78; the average price per acre for the park lots was $85. It is wicked in the Hon. Mr. McKellar to thus take almost their last grievance out of the mouths of the Tories. If the land had gone for $77.90 per acre the Maid could have made a column of figures out of it, proving that the Province was not right on Saturday, 1873. It is in the figures work the wrong way for anything in the outrage line to be manufactured out of them.—Hamilton Times.

Scandals over Illinois divorce laws continued. Depriving a wife of either or both of her ears has now been adjudged a sufficient ground for divorce there.

The Maryville, Ky., Bulletin announces a Sunday-school picnic, and "truly hopes that for once our citizens will leave their revolvers and bowie knives at home."

A Texan town was recently visited by a clergyman for the first time in its history, and the hospitable inhabitants proposed getting up a horse-race for his entertainment.

A New Orleans jurymen was asked by the Judge if he ever read the papers. He replied: "Yes, your honor; but if you'll let me go this time, I'll never do so any more."

Only last week a beloved and gracious Princess-Marchioness attended at Wimbledon—so says a daily paper—to "witness the shooting of her husband!" And they had been married but little more than a year.

A paragraph is going the rounds of the press to the effect that at Lafayette, Ind., there are some complaining in right down earnest because troops of girls go in swimming in conspicuous places in the river. It is a device of the newspapers to draw the attention of rest-seekers to the charms of Lafayette as a watering place.

The Louisville Courier-Journal answers a contributor as follows: "Your communication, Junius Junior," is declined. It is quite too full of quotation marks and italics. You should not honor with quotation marks every stale, hackneyed sentence you choose to borrow. And you may often write for half a day without finding the use for a single italic letter. Give your reader credit for some intelligence—for at least enough to know when a word needs to be emphasized without having the fact thrust down his throat by a tippy squad of reeling italics."

Laura Cuppy Smith, the spiritualist and freelozer, writes: "The lover of my girlhood now walks the viewless causeways of the air, and inasmuch as he was cultured, lofty-souled and large hearted, he doubtless loves and is beloved by many a fair and queenly woman, in that land of light and song; yet he finds time to return to earth's turbulent scenes and bathe my toll-worn spirits in the deep waters of his passionate and intense affection, and those ebbs in my inmost being that first responded to his touch, remaining mute in presence of all others, thrill and vibrate as of yore, in an ecstasy of rapture when swept by his spirit touch." Which, says the editor in commenting upon this poetic effusion, is blissful but unsatisfactory.

Centre Wellington Exhibition.

FIRST DAY.

The Centre Wellington Agricultural Society held their Fifth Annual Show for the exhibition of live stock, grain, roots, &c., in Elora on Thursday. The first day's show was devoted to grain, roots, fruit, dairy produce and ladies' fancy work. The display was not so large as was anticipated owing to the Central Exhibition being so near at hand. The Drill Shed was fitted up for the reception of articles embraced in the first day's Exhibition. In the Ladies' department the show fully as good as last year. We noticed many very fine quilts, but few exhibited. The show of worsted work both plain and raised was very good; the ornamental needle work showed both skill and patience. The fancy knitting looked very well; so did the crochets and braiding. A fine specimen of wax fruit hair wreath was shown. The socks, stockings and mitts were well knitted. In cloths, flannels, &c., there was little competition. The Elora Carpet Manufacturing Company showed some fine patterns of carpeting; also some pieces manufactured by the Wallace patent process which make a very heavy and strong carpet, superior in every respect to the carpet manufactured in the old style. In fruit the show was very good both as regards size and quantity. But few plums and pears were shown. There was less grain than last year, but the quality was superior—in fact, all kinds of grain shown was of a superior quality. In roots the display was very good. The potatoes shown were principally of the favorite varieties known as the peerless, early rose, climax, and Garnet Chili. Although early in the season the turnips were good. In one case the weight of eight turnips was 63 lbs; there was another lot of eight, weighing 52 lbs. Mangold wurtzel, carrots and beets were good, but few in number. In dairy produce the show did not come up to last year. The butter and cheese were of good quality. There were several fine loaves of "the staff of life," also several sizes of fine leather.

Very few visited the show during the afternoon, not many being in from the townships. A large number of villagers visited the drill shed in the evening.

The following are the names of the Judges of articles exhibited in the Drill Shed:—Messrs. James Goldie and John Ag Wood, of Guelph; John Anderson, of Arthur, and W. S. Sutherland, of Peel.

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 12, 1873

The Ottawa newspapers, all Government organs, are seriously declaring that the Governor-General has to have his official despatches conveyed by a messenger in consequence of the frequent "Post-office irregularities." The Post-office Service must be in a bad way when the Ottawa press can venture such a reflection upon its management.

The picnic of the united counties of Leeds and Grenville came off on Thursday, at the St. Lawrence Park about a mile and a half west of Brockville. The day was beautiful, and the yeomen of the counties and their wives and daughters turned out in great numbers to hear the chief of the Opposition, The Hon. Messrs Mackenzie, Currie, Pardee, and other leading Reformers discussed the political affairs of the Dominion. The St. Lawrence Park is most delightfully situated on the banks of the beautiful St. Lawrence, and the extensive grounds, managed by Mr. Molson, were crowded by about 8,000 of the Reformers of the two counties.

A subpoena will be issued to-day, requiring Sir Hugh Allan to appear before the Commission on Wednesday next. A rumour was current in Ottawa that Sir Hugh would not appear in person, but put in his affidavit made in July last in answer to the correspondence then published. This course may possibly have been suggested by the refusal of the Commissioners to allow Counsel to appear on Sir Hugh's behalf, a course which might lead to disclosures to jeopardise the position already assumed by the Government in relation to their transactions with Sir Hugh, and in regard to which Sir Hugh's published letters conflict with the testimony of witnesses favourable to the Government.

The Commission. Ottawa, Sep. 11.

SIXTH DAY.
The Commission met at noon. The first witness called was Sheriff Leblanc, who deposited to a conversation he had with Sir George Cartier on two occasions, in which he said that as long as he was in the Ministry the Americans would never get the contract for building the Pacific Railroad, and that there were enough Canadian Companies to do the work. He (Sir George) repeated this on a subsequent occasion, the 24th of June, in Montreal, and added that he would resign his place in the Cabinet before he would consent to the Americans getting the contract. He expressed the hope that the two rival Companies would amalgamate and build the line; this was said in presence of several persons; he also said he would not run his election on railway schemes, as he thought he thought he had done enough for his country and for his constituents to entitle him to re-election; witness was Sir George's most intimate friend in Montreal, apart from politics; the last conversation, as related, took place the day previous to Cartier's nomination, which was about the 20th of August.

Dr. Beaubien, of Montmagny, Director of the Canada Pacific, next deposed: I know of no arrangements between Sir Hugh Allan, McMullen or the Government; I had no relation with them that would enable me to know; I know nothing whatever of the matter contained in Mr. Huntington's charge; no money, that I am aware of, was received in the neighbourhood to promote elections; Mr Langevin asked me to take a Directorship of the C. P. R., as Commissioner of Crown Lands for Quebec last year.

Rev. Daniel McMullen was next sworn.—He stated that being to his age and infirmities his hearing was impaired, also his memory; I am a Methodist clergyman, resident at Pictou; G. W. McMullen is my son; I have some knowledge of transactions between my son and Sir Hugh, but only what I saw in the papers; my son never told his business to me except I asked him; once he told me that those Americans for whom he was acting would be reimbursed, but in what manner he did not say; never saw the original of the correspondence published by my son.

Mr. Daniel Y. McMullen, a banker in Chicago, and brother of the celebrated George W., was questioned as to Sir Hugh Allan's letters. He gave some particulars as to the contract between the Americans and Sir Hugh Allan. The American names were Mr. W. B. Ogden, G. D. Cass, T. Scott, Governor Smith, of Vermont; G. W. Fargo, Winslow and Company, and the President of Adams' Express Company of the United States. Witness had no idea who gave the letters to the Montreal Herald for publication. He had heard from a third brother that his brother George got $20,000 for putting the correspondence in Mr. Starnes' hands, and this sum was devoted to the payment of expenses incurred by George W. McMullen, Mr. Smith and Mr. Herbert. George told witness that if the package was not returned to Sir Hugh Allan when the session of Parliament was over, and any of the negotiations came out, that he would forfeit the package, and with it $17,500. Witness denied emphatically that George was to receive $25,000 for publishing the letters; he had told witness that nobody ever gave him a cent for publishing them. The latter part of the witness' evidence was elicited under a searching examination by Sir John A. Macdonald.

The Commission then adjourned.

The first exhibition of the Arrapric Union Agricultural, Horticultural, and Industrial Association closed on Thursday after having continued open for three days, with immense success.

"If you don't want the soap, don't go up the chimney," was the reply of an editor to "respectable" parties who requested him not to mention the fact that they had been arraigned in the police court.

"Yes, take her and welcome," responded an Illinois farmer, when a young man asked for his blushing daughter. "She's run away with a school master, eloped with a showman, shot a wildcat, and whipped her mother, and the sooner you take her the better."

Two Milesians were standing at the Fairmount water works in Philadelphia, watching the big wheels splashing the water in every direction, when one of them remarked: "Mike, isn't this a queer country, where they have to grind their water before they can use it?"

G. W. McMullen has been subpoenaed to attend the Royal Commission, but he refuses. This is the reason he gave to the Chicago reporter for his absence:—"I see by telegrams that my journey would be fruitless. The commission is merely one of paper. It cannot, under the law, subpoena witnesses outside Ontario, and as all the principal actors in the drama live in Montreal, of course the business of the commission is at an end so far as substantial results are attainable. No matter how fairly the commission may be disposed to act, they are entirely at the mercy of any witness who chooses to absent himself."

The Reason Why.
The reason why the magnificent Retail Grocery Establishments in the Alma Block and on Lower Wyndham Street, belonging to John A. Wood, are so very popular with the intelligent public:— Because the Goods are all of the best quality. Because the Prices are invariably the lowest. Because the Clerks are courteous and obliging. Because the Stock is the largest to select from. Because the goods are always clean. Because the Weights and Measures are always correct.

Because, in fact, the proprietor understands his business, desires to please his customers, makes good use of his capital, and buys for cash in the best markets, and always deals liberally with those who honor his stores with their custom.— These and many other weighty reasons have contributed very largely to make the name of John A. Wood, as connected with the Grocery trade of Guelph, so well known, and his stores so very popular.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.
A TERRIBLE SCENE—PHILIP AND JIM AT THE OLD HOUSE AT DODDEN.
"Now, Master Philip," whispered Jim, with a significant look, which the latter fully understood.
The caution was not unneeded, for the flashing and paling of the youth's face and the shaking of his hand as he laid it on the iron bolt, indicated that his self-possession was dangerously deserting him. But Jim's words, and still more the look which accompanied them, brought fully in upon his mind the supreme necessity of caution. He drew back for a moment, took a long deliberate breath, smiled, and with steady fingers grasped the bolt, and noiselessly drew it from its socket.
Then he motioned to Jim to give him the light, and remain to guard the door while he was gone—a precaution not unneeded, since Moll might take the opportunity to return and make them both prisoners.
With an outward calmness almost unnatural, yet his heart beating fast the while, Philip went slowly up the narrow stair, shading the lamp with his cap, and listening with painful intenseness for any sound which might guide him. But he could hear nothing. A deep broken stillness, which to his palpitating bosom seemed the stillness of death, held sway, and the air was chill and cold, as in the region of the grave.
On gaining the top of the stair he was at a loss where to go, for a corridor stretched before him, and the doors of various chambers met his view.
Hark!—what was this that reached his ear? A moan, a feeble plaintive moan, and it came from the nearest room. It was conclusive proof of the full command he now had of his feelings and emotions, that in answer to that wail he did not burst into the chamber whence it came, and with a loud cry reveal himself. Instead of this he opened the door with the utmost gentleness, and, keeping in a position where he could not be seen from within, allowed the light to be shed by slow degrees into the interior. He thought that by doing this—Annabel was awake—her attention would be drawn and her expectation excited.
Yet no result seemed to follow, for there was perfect silence within, till again the moan wailed in the stillness, and with more distinctness than before.
Philip could hesitate no longer, but, pushing the door far enough open to admit of his passage, he held forward the light and gazed into the interior.
What a dreary, desolate chamber he beheld! The floor was without a carpet, the walls bare and damp, no fire gleamed in the empty grate, and the furniture was scanty and dilapidated. In one corner was a bed, with a dingy covering, and underneath that Philip could discern a human form lying very still.
"Oh God! is she dead?" he gasped, tottering he scarce knew how across the chamber, his eager eyes piercing the gloom in advance of the light, to know the best or the worst at once.
At length the wavering light fell on a white, wan face—cold still and death-like. The closed eyes, the colorless cheeks, the sharp, wasted features, and the marble brow, pressed the conviction on Philip's anguished soul that he had come too late; that his darling was dead; and in the madness of despair he was about to throw himself by the side of the couch in frantic lamentation, when a slight motion of the upper covering caught his eye. Then he looked more narrowly, and he saw that it proceeded from a faint but regular heaving of the bosom, while the listening ear detected the low breathing of a sleeper.

Nassagawaga Council.
The Council met on Monday, 8th of September. Members all present. The Reeve in the chair. The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. A letter from the Provincial Treasurer containing a cheque for the sum of $186.20, was read in Council, said sum being amount due this Municipality from the Clergy Reserve Fund. Mr. Elliott moved, seconded by Mr. Gillies, that the sum of $5.67 be paid to Peter Blacklock, for three lambs; $5.34 to William Lowry, for two sheep; and $2.07 to William Hutchison, for one sheep, worried by dogs, being two thirds of their value, all the claims being duly certified.—Carried. Mr. Elliott moved, seconded by Mr. Eastbrook, that the sum of $15 be paid to James Menzies in aid of Widow Brien, a poor and indigent person.—Carried. Mr. Keen moved, seconded by Mr. Elliott, for leave to introduce a by-law to raise by assessment certain sums of money, and to levy for the same as follows, viz., one and four tenths of a mill for County; three and one-tenth for the Credit Valley Railway; one and one-tenth for township; and seven-tenths for school purposes; total, six mills and three-tenths. Said By-law passed the several readings, and the corporation seal was attached thereto. Mr. Eastbrook moved, seconded by Mr. Elliott, that a By-law be introduced at the next meeting of this Council for the appointment of a Tavern Inspector, conformable with the amended Act respecting tavern and shop licenses.—Carried. Council adjourned to the first Monday in December.
JOHN EASTBROOK, Tp. Clerk.

IRON IN THE BLOOD

PERUVIAN IRON TONIC SYRUP

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protective Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damage and waste, searching out the "ridd secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Pamphlets Free.

OUTSIDE SPORTS.

BASE BALL. PROFESSIONAL GAMES. THE BOSTONS were defeated by the MUTUALS on the Brooklyn grounds on Tuesday by a score of 13 to 6.

LOCALS. THE BRUSSELS (up the W. G. & B. R.) base ballists think they can play as well as the LISTOWEL nine, and want the CHAMPIONS to give them a game.

THE WALNUT BATTERS of Bradford defeated the ATHLETICS of Elora in Bradford on Tuesday by a score of 21 to 10. We by some means mislaid the score until this morning.

THE BRAYERS are jubilant over their victory in Elora, and want some other club to try 'em. London lacrosseists play in Woodstock to-morrow.

SO SHARP—Base ball men are agitated over the following: "Have you heard the ATLANTICS are coming?" "No," says the enquirer, "No more didn't I," says the enquirer, and makes his exit.

There is some probability that the Hamilton and Galt Quoit Clubs may measure their strength at the game at an early day. "Time tries all things," and has proved that Dr. Vetter's Balsam of Wild Cherry is the remedy par excellence for the cure of coughs, colds, croup, hoarseness, cough, bronchitis, asthma, phthisis, sore throat, and influenza.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.
A TERRIBLE SCENE—PHILIP AND JIM AT THE OLD HOUSE AT DUSK.
"Now, Master Philip," whispered Jim, with a significant look, which the latter fully understood.
The caution was not unneeded, for the flashing and paling of the youth's face and the shaking of his hand as he laid it on the iron bolt, indicated that his self-possession was dangerously deserting him. But Jim's words, and still more the look which accompanied them, brought fully in upon his mind the supreme necessity of caution. He drew back for a moment, took a long deliberative breath, smiled, and with steady fingers grasped the bolt, and noiselessly drew it from its socket.
Then he motioned to Jim to give him the light, and remain to guard the door while he was gone—a precaution not unneeded, since Moll might take the opportunity to return and make them both both prisoners.
With an outward calmness almost unnatural, yet his heart beating fast the while, Philip went slowly up the narrow stair, shading the lamp with his cap, and listening with painful intenseness for any sound which might guide him. But he could hear nothing. A deep in-broken stillness, which to his palpitating bosom seemed the stillness of death, held sway, and the air was chill and cold, as in the region of the grave.
On gaining the top of the stair—he was at a loss where to go, for a corridor stretched before him, and the doors of various chambers met his view.
Hark!—what was this? That reached his ear a moan, a feeble plaintive moan, and it came from the nearest room. It was conclusive proof of the full command no now had of his feelings and emotions, that in answer to that wail he did not burst into the chamber whence it came, and with a loud cry reveal himself. Instead of this he opened the door with the utmost gentleness, and, keeping in a position where he could not be seen from within, allowed the light to be shed by slow degrees into the interior. He thought that by doing this—if Annabel was awake—her attention would be drawn and her expectation excited.
Yet no result seemed to follow, for there was perfect silence within, till again the moan wailed in the stillness, and with more distinctness than before.
Philip could hesitate no longer, but, pushing the door far enough open to admit of his passage, he held forward the light and gazed into the interior.
What a dreary, desolate chamber he beheld! The floor was without a carpet, the walls bare and damp, no fire gleamed in the empty grate, and the furniture was nearly all dilapidated. In one corner was a bed, with a dingy covering, and underneath that Philip could discern a human form lying very still.
"Oh God! is she dead?" he gasped, tottering he scarce knew how low on the chamber, his eager eyes piercing the gloom in advance of the light, to know the best or the worst at once.
At length the wavering light fell on a white, wan face—cold still and death-like. The closed eyes, the colourless cheeks, the sharp, wasted features, and the marble brow, pressed the conviction on Philip's anguished soul that he had come too late; that his darling was dead; and in the madness of despair he was about to throw himself by the side of the couch in frantic lamentation, when a slight motion of the upper covering caught his eye. Then he looked more narrowly, and he saw that it proceeded from a faint but regular heaving of the bosom, while the listening ear detected the low breathing of a sleeper.

IRON IN THE BLOOD
PERUVIAN IRON TONIC SYRUP
MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.
The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Tonic up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damage, and waste, searching out and expelling morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.
This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.
Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.
See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Pamphlets Free.
