TRAPPED IN MAIL CAR

After Looting Mail Car, They Set Engine Running Wild—Collision Narrowly Averted.

BENICIA, Cal., April 17.—The China-Japan mail, which left San Francisco over the Southern Pacific Railroad for the east at 9 o'clock Thursday night, was held up by two masked men.

After setting the mail sacks, the robbers cut the engine loose from the train and sent it wild, throttle open, down the main track to the east.

The passengers on the train were not daunted and several of them did not leave the robbery until this morning.

The train robbery was the first in California for several years. It was executed in spectacular fashion.

How it was done: Before the fast mail arrived at Benicia, two men who had left Oakland on another train, two hours earlier, had left their train on the Port Closta ferry, climbed unobserved, on the rear end of the fast mail's locomotive.

The engineer and fireman quickly complied. Then the robbers compelled them to get into the mail car, which was in charge of Herbert J. Black and his assistant, Thomas A. Clancy.

"Throw out the registered mail pouches," the robbers ordered. Black started to toss the newspaper sacks, but the robbers detected the ruse at once and they threatened to kill him unless he gave them the registered mail.

Black complied. The engine crew then was forced to carry the nine sacks to the engine.

The engine and mail car were uncoupled from the coaches filled with sleeping passengers and ran down the track for two miles.

When the mail pouches were thrown out, the engine was uncoupled and its throttle pulled wide open. The engine dashed forward on its wild journey toward Tolena, 15 miles east, passing the first section of a trestle at Tolena.

As the engine passed the station at Tolena, the operator noticed it was running wild. He immediately reported to the dispatchers at Oakland and received instructions to call Tolena and instruct them to derail the oncoming engine.

Second section of mail No. 5, west-bound, had just arrived at Tolena, under orders to wait there for the China-Japan mail. The switch was thrown and the runaway engine, at this time pretty well relieved of steam, ran on a siding and smashed into a string of box cars.

Poem Which Helped to Free a Convict

CON SORDINI

There is but silence; yet in thought I heard The desperate chords of that wild polonaise, The sixth of Chopin's wizardry, but hurried, As o'er a battlefield a mournful haze 'Blots out the dying from the dead men's gaze.

Why, all the pageantry of war was there— Cannon and standard, ruined hearth ablaze, The muffled roll of death-drum, trumpet-blast, And lonely women, mute in measureless despair.

Nay, this is Cornwall; hear ye not I loed Cry to her lover in the starlit night? Swiftly, thou puppet-hero, seize and hold Until with blood-red fire the heavens' might.

Alas on the morrow, Tristan, thou shalt fight; Thou art foredoomed to loneliness and pain, Thy valiant arm, invincible for right, Upraised in evil, conquers not again.

Soon in thine ear she pours full-throated song in vain. The violins are hushed; a somber chord Startles the dim cathedral; tremblingly Pure boyish voices supplicate their Lord, Chanting dirges like minor melody, "In Babylon we wept, remembering thee."

O Zion, but they know not what they sing, "Out of the depths, O Lord"....but they are free, And thru their veins the hot blood, rioting, Attunes their cars-free hearts to madrigals of spring.

Ye that have lamed the wilderness of sound, Of your proud minstrelsy my share I claim, I have not in the darkness here fast-bound, Denied the brilliance of your sacred flame.

There is no power in agony or shame To bar me from the fire-crowned heights, In deepest silence, I may hear the same, Unearthly music that I loved of old, I crave no dole, who draw from stores of wealth untold.

ARCHITECTS MAKE BOOK OF GOVERNMENT DESIGN

OTTAWA, April 17.—P. S. Baker, of Toronto, president of the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada, has written to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, protesting against the architectural design of a new government block on Sussex-street. He says:

"The design produced by the architectural staff of the department of public works has not been published, and I submit that for its purpose it is a tragedy on good architecture."

It was intended for a Salvation Army barracks or a tobacco factory, and criticism might not be reasonable, but for a building to house the official headquarters of the government, an advanced country, I submit the design is absolutely unsuitable and calculated to increase in the minds of cultured people the inferiority of Canada in art."

Mr. Baker takes exception to the statement of the minister of public works that not one of the designs were received in the competition was "considered suitable." He says one design was selected by the government and another by the competition, and the conditions of the competition were thus suitable for the requirements of the various departments. The plan might reasonably require some alteration in different parts as happens almost in the case of every building.

He concludes with the following reference to the Victoria Museum which is now approaching completion in Ottawa: "The question is, are we in Canada to be continually made a laughing stock for the people of civilized countries, by expending vast sums of money on buildings of puerile design and questionable construction?"

KITCHENER WORRIES LONDON Does Not Want to Accept Post in Island of Malta.

LONDON, April 17.—The Observer to day gives special prominence to an article dealing with "The Problem of Lord Kitchener's Future." His impending return is causing some apprehension in military political dovecots, and the sooner he is on his way to the Mediterranean to take up his new command the better certainly highly placed personages will be pleased.

But it is a question, whether he will go to Malta or will be placed at the head of the imperial defence committee, a post he ardently desires and in which his military genius would best be employed. There are grounds for believing, according to The Observer, that one of Lord Kitchener's first acts on his return will be to interview Mr. Asquith and lay before the premier his weighty reasons for wishing to be relieved of the Mediterranean post.

TREASURER IS MISSING And Several Creditors Would Like to Find Him.

LETHBRIDGE, Ab., April 17.—(Special.)—G. B. Bell, secretary-treasurer of the Western Farmers' Elevator and Milling Company, is much wanted by directors and by others. The Stacey Lumber Company started after him when they received a cheque for $5000 and found only $4 in the bank to meet it. Bell had ordered over $15,000 worth of lumber to build elevators for the company at various points on the Crow's Nest Pass, and a mile at Bow Island. Twenty cars are strung along the line, incurring demurrage.

BURGLAR-POET WINS FREEDOM

Mysterious Young Englishman, Shipped to Canada, Broke Law in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 17.—A young Englishman, known as "John Carter," who has served half of a ten-year sentence for burglary, and whose case attracted wide attention because of his poetic genius, was freed by the state pardon board Saturday afternoon. He will be released in his native country as soon as the papers are made out, which will be Monday morning, April 18, which is his 24th birthday.

Pearl Carter's freedom was made by Judge J. W. Willis and the Rev. L. R. S. Ferguson of St. Paul. Telegrams and letters were read before the board from magazine editors.

Harry Phillips, director of music at McAlister College, who has been interested in Carter thru his playing at the services in the prison chapel, and the managing editor of a Minneapolis journal also sent letters. Judge Willis read a letter from a man in England who knew of Carter as a boy, and who told of the condition of his father, the refinement of the family and the reasons the boy had been sent to Canada.

The young poet admits that Carter is not his real name, but says that he is an Englishman and of good family. He will not divulge his family name. He says that his poems, which have been published in many leading magazines, and have attracted considerable attention, were written to kill time and ease his unhappy thoughts.

His poem, "Ballad of Misery and Iron," won him special recognition. According to a statement made by the pardon board by Judge Willis, Carter was less than twenty years old when the crime was committed. His father was in an asylum, and John, who had been working in a bank building, not liking the confinement, was sent to Canada by the family, who were in straitened circumstances, to learn farming.

Being unable to secure steady employment, Carter started to "beat it" from Winnipeg to St. Paul, but during the night was put off the train at Karlstad, Minn. Having nothing to eat for 38 hours, Carter broke into the rail road station and stole $24 a silver watch, and a pair of shoes, pleaded guilty, and having no attorney, was given the maximum penalty of ten years.

During his confinement, Carter has been employed in the prison library cataloguing books and assisting in the publishing of the prison "Mirror." He also is a pianist and plays a clarinet in the prison band.

CARTER'S IDENTITY A SECRET. His English Relatives Decide Not to Allow His Name to Be Published.

LONDON, April 17.—There is little prospect of the identity of John Carter being revealed here, as after consultation with the young man's relatives, Cyril Thomas, the erstwhile friend and adviser of Carter, said today that the sacrifice would be too much.

Mr. Thomas personally favored telling the whole story, realizing that publicity might help considerably toward Carter's pardon, but he could not act without the relatives' sanction.

A family conference was held this afternoon, at which it was decided that, while it might help Carter to get a release, the dragging of the family name and honor thru the mud was not to be thought of, more especially as it would prejudice the young man's future.

Mr. Thomas said that Carter had been cut off from his family by reason of wrongdoing. They refused to have anything to do with him personally, although very likely provision would be made for him on his release from prison.

GRAND TRUNK'S BIG ORDER Three Million Dollars to Be Spent on Rolling Stock.

MONTREAL, April 17.—(Special.)—The Grand Trunk system will soon ask for tenders for rolling stock to the value of $3,000,000. A feature of the new lot will be 500 very large wheel cars, which are intended to carry wheat to be received from the Grand Trunk Pacific.

FIRE AT ST. EUSTACHE Anglican Church and Sixteen Houses Are Burned.

MONTREAL, April 17.—(Special.)—The Protestant Church at St. Eustache and sixteen houses were destroyed by fire to-day in that town.

The fire started in a woodyard and it soon got beyond the control of the local brigade. When firemen from Montreal reached the town by special train, they saved the town from further destruction, as there was an ample water supply.

The Anglican church was a stone building, and, altho the burned houses were of wood, the loss reaches $40,000. The insurance is small. St. Eustache is an historic village, being a hot bed of insurrection in 1837. Dr. Chenier, the local leader, being shot in the church by British troops.

BODY OF F. J. PHILLIPS FOUND IN LAKE GOSQUAC

Went Out in a Boat Last Monday And is Supposed to Have Fallen Out.

A telegram was received about 6.50 Sunday evening by W. F. Phillips that the body of his father, F. J. Phillips, of 63 Queen's Park, was found in Lake Gosquac, near Battle Creek, Mich., between 5 and 5.30 (Central time).

Mr. Phillips went to the sanitarium accompanied by his son about ten days ago. He was receiving treatment for stomach trouble, and apparently for a row on the lake. The spring left the sanitarium about noon on Monday of last week. It was ascertained that he rented a boat and went for a row on the lake. The spring tide weather possibly tempted him on the water of which he was very fond.

The boatman watched him for fully a mile out, and didn't notice anything peculiar in his actions. It is feared that in his weakened state of health the exercise was too much for him, and he became faint and fell out of the boat. The boat was found drifting on the lake and contained his hat.

Lake Gosquac is a small lake of about one thousand acres in extent, but the water is in places from eighty to ninety feet deep. The lake was thoroughly dragged by local authorities, and search parties explored the surrounding country, without finding any trace of the missing man. Mate Ayrhord and C. Gallacher went from Toronto on Wednesday night and are thoroughly dragged the lake.

Mr. Phillips was prominent in the business life of Toronto for a great many years, being president of the Phillips Manufacturing Company, and vice-president of the Muskoka Lake Navigation Company, besides being interested in many other enterprises.

He was a member of the National and the Royal Canadian Yacht Clubs. In religion, Mr. Phillips was an Anglican, being a member of the Church of the Redeemer. He was born at Enniskeen, County Cork, Ireland, coming to Canada when quite a boy, he lived for a short time at Kingston, but since 1854 had resided in Toronto. He was in his 62nd year, and leaves behind him a wife, five daughters and two sons. The latter, H. B. Phillips, and W. F. Phillips, were associated with their father in the business of the Phillips Manufacturing Company. The daughters are Mrs. W. H. Goodrich, Mrs. G. T. Irving, Mrs. D. J. Turner, Mrs. L. Harris and Miss Charlotte.

The body will arrive in Toronto Tuesday, and the funeral will probably be held on Wednesday.

BALFOUR NOT ALONE

Has Tariff Reform Leaders With Him in New Policy.

LONDON, April 17.—(C. A. P.)—It is announced that Balfour's statement favoring free import of empire wheat was made after a careful consultation with Austen Chamberlain, Bonar Law and other tariff reform leaders.

Rosebery's appeal to the Unionist leaders to drop tariff reform for the next election and concentrate on the constitutional issue meets with no acceptance from the Unionist press. Conservative headquarters or the tariff reform league.

Oshawa Cons. To the Rescue

Pass a Strong Resolution Laudatory of Messrs. Hughes and Lancaster and Roasting City Members.

It all depends on the point of view, and whose ox is gored. On Friday night the First Ward Conservative Association passed a resolution warmly censuring Col. Sam Hughes and E. A. Lancaster, for their conduct in combating the City of Toronto members who were opposing the federal incorporation of the two railway proposals recently before parliament, and calling the attention of Leader Borden to the fact.

The substance of a resolution passed by the Conservative party in Oshawa on Saturday night and endorsed by members of the executive committee of South Ontario, thru which the proposed Toronto and Eastern Railway will run, is hereby appended:

"That the Conservative party of South Ontario desire to place upon record its appreciation of the broad-minded and national spirit of Col. Sam Hughes and E. A. Lancaster, for their manly fight to secure for this district the vital necessity of better railway facilities."

"We desire also to draw the attention of Mr. R. L. Borden to the deplorable attitude of a few men in Toronto, who constantly desire to make a national party question to every peanant game that affects the city, even should the surrounding district suffer thereby."

"In the interests of the great Conservative party of Canada, some of this political and civic narrowness must be thrown overboard."

LIGHTNING HITS BALLOON CREW OF FOUR MEN KILLED

Another Tragedy of the Air in Germany—Gas Exploded By Electricity.

BITTERFIELD, Prussian Saxony, April 17.—The balloon Delitich, which ascended here last evening, fell to the earth near the village of Reichenbach, about twenty miles northwest of Eisenach, in a thunderstorm. The crew, consisting of four men, were killed.

The balloon passed over Eisenach at midnight and soon drifted into a thunderstorm. It is assumed that it was struck by lightning and that the gas exploded. The envelope was in tatters when found and the car wrecked.

STRANGE FATALITY

Weston Girl Took Convulsions While Bipping Up Football.

Blowing up the bladder of a football ended fatally to Sarah Dunn, aged 18, of Elm, near Weston, on Friday afternoon. She was struck with convulsions while blowing. Several of the men heard groans in the house and found the girl. She died a few minutes after Dr. E. F. Irwin of Weston arrived. Death is thought to have been caused by the breakage of a blood vessel, due to strain.

The girl was the daughter of Mrs. Francis Dunn of Lakeview-avenue, Fairbank. She was in the employ of Mr. Baker of Elm. The body was brought in to Harry Ellis, the undertaker, to be prepared for burial. The funeral will be held from the residence of her sister, Mrs. O'Brien, Fairbank.

LINER IN QUEER PLIGHT OVER IMMIGRATION LAWS

Customs Authorities Claim Fine of $43,000 for Chinese Passengers, Who Insist on Being Landed.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 17.—Curious legal complications completely entangle the steamer Proteus, the new Blue Funnel liner, just arrived from Liverpool via the Orient. From Hongkong she brought Asiatic immigrants up to her tonnage allowance, also 86 extra of the exempt class—students, merchants, etc. These customs authorities refuse to land, holding the steamer liable for $200 fine in each case, or $17,500 in the total, in addition to the capitation charge of $45,000 which the Chinese are willing to pay. In preference to paying the penalty, the steamship company desires to return the Asiatic passengers to the port of their embarkation. This they object to, and will, by habeas corpus proceedings, endeavor to force entry to Canada. Should the proceedings win, the steamship line must pay.

Public Little Interested. Another feature in Mr. Asquith's triumph is that he has enlisted the attention of the country. As a Conservative weekly, it is admitted to be forty-five or fifty million people in the country possibly three thousand have followed the recent proceedings in the house of commons. The public interest taken in parliamentary maneuvering has been infinitesimal. All the districts of the Unionist organs during recent weeks have been out of barren soil. Now a note has been sounded, which all Liberal papers of all shades of opinion have taken as a clarion cry to victory at the polls.

For the moment at least, the Unionists are nonplussed that they can only repeat Mr. Balfour's statement that the government would not have the Irish vote and shriek that John Redmond is Mr. Asquith's master. But—and here is a subtle point—there is no question of importance in most material respects than the dilemma of the opposition—it remains to be seen whether the government will be able to use Mr. Balfour's words—the Irish vote at a price which the Nationalists will eventually find to be illusory, and whether after Herbert Henry Asquith is not immeasurably John Redmond's master in political strategy.

In the opinion of some very keen observers, Mr. Redmond, who now appears to be at the apogee of his fortunes, is likely to find, in the course of a very short time, that he built up the glittering superstructure of hopes of autonomy upon the slightest foundations. Monday's debate in the commons when that Redmond and William O'Brien will come to grips, is expected to throw some startling facts into prominent light.

The King Kept Informing. I have excellent authority for stating that when the inside history of the whole affair comes to be generally known it will be found that the Liberal premier has not violated constitutional propriety in any respect, and that the King has been kept perfectly cognizant of Mr. Asquith's intentions.

Curiously enough, Lord Rosebery has entered the arena with a suggestion, which, while designedly hostile to the Liberal party, of which he once was leader, brings the Unionists, whom he wants to help, face to face with just that situation which they wish to avoid.

In a letter to this morning's Times the noble earl declares that Mr. Asquith's statement makes it plain that the country will shortly be called upon to decide "the greatest question of our time; that is, whether the constitution shall be trodden out of all shape and proportion to give almost absolute power to a single chamber and its casual majority."

"In the United States," continues Lord Rosebery, "this fateful question would be called a constitutional amendment, which could only be carried by the most elaborate means under most vigilant and careful precautions."

ASQUITH MAY HAVE GOLD BRICK FOR RED WOOD

Nationalist Leader Not Certain of Reaping His Reward—Premier Has Played Winning Politics.

NEW YORK, April 17.—A special cable to The Times from London says Premier Asquith's statement of the government policy, made on Thursday in the house of commons, has raised his supporters to the highest pitch of enthusiasm and has depressed his opponents to the lowest depths of despondency.

The Liberal leader has won a complete victory in the game of politics which has been going on ever since the general election. He got the Unionists in a tight place between the devil and the dissolution of parliament in the middle of the London season, which is particularly undesirable from a Conservative point of view, and the deep sea of acceptance of office under conditions precluding any possibility of carrying on the official business of the country.

In the event of another general election, he clearly defined the issues which will be fought out, and made it almost impossible for the Unionists to bring them to a head.

Only Mr. Balfour and Mr. Asquith have succeeded in bringing the house of lords so prominently into the foreground that the Unionist party, in case of a general election this summer, be forced to take up the cry of "No single chamber government!"

And there is not one Englishman in a thousand who really believes that the Liberal party desires any such thing.

Public Little Interested. Another feature in Mr. Asquith's triumph is that he has enlisted the attention of the country. As a Conservative weekly, it is admitted to be forty-five or fifty million people in the country possibly three thousand have followed the recent proceedings in the house of commons. ## Exquisite Millinery Specially Assembled For the Horse Show

Close at hand is one of the most brilliant social functions of the season, the Annual Horse Show. It's an event that calls forth all that's new and fashionable in women's dress accessories, for to this function comes society arrayed in her best.

Regarding this, the Millinery question is of the utmost importance, for on the proper selection of the hat depends to a great extent the success of your good appearance.

For this important occasion we've had specially designed and made an assortment of hats that reflect an unusual air of elegance of taste and artistic arrangement.

Remarkable about this display is the entire absence of shirred or "fussy" brims, all crowns and brims of chiffon or lace being absolutely plain; the more noticeable features are small wreaths of tiny flowers, which are seen under and across the brims quite as often as around them—tiny straw and muslin roses are used in the most effective styles—brims of chantilly lace are extremely fashionable—coral pink leads as one of the newest shades.

Particularly smart is a bicorn of fine Milan, in natural shade, trimmed only with a wide lace-covered satin band and a large crocheted cabochon with a stone drop at the side.

A fine Milan bicorn is trimmed in the most fascinating manner at the front with quantities of ospreys, and is wreathed with tiny pink roses and forget-me-nots.

Exquisitely sweet and pretty for a debutante is a creation of pink lace and tulle, with an upturned rim of chantilly lace, trimmed with large maslin roses of same delicate shade, besides hosts of others equally beautiful.

Horizon at 10 to 1 Wins First at Aqueduct and Semprolus Third at 8 to 1—Results.

AQUEDUCT, April 16.—A large crowd witnessed the racing at Aqueduct to-day, but the favorites fared badly. THESE CROWN TIMBER REVENUES.

The Ontario Government has made a decisive step forward by increasing the fees on the lumber cut from crown lands by the lumbermen of this province. Practically, the system is that the timber man buys a limit for so much cash—as a matter of fact, for the right to cut timber within that limit for one year—on the further payment of what are called stump dues, which are more or less based on lumber produced. As a matter of fact, however, the fees are not canceled at the end of the year, but are supposed to be good for a more or less indefinite period.

The World believes that it is time to put an end to all this uncertainty, and that some more definite way of doing this business ought to be devised. The thing got wrong at the start; it will be hard to change it; but changed it ought to be. First of all, we would like to see a list of the crown lands that are today held under lease, and the details of these leases. Different leases were made at different sales, and the terms consequently vary more or less. There is also a dispute as to what timber on the land the purchasers are entitled to cut; whether they have the right to cut hardwood or not has been disputed. For years the late Mr. St. John, when he was in the legislature, tried to get a list of those who held the timber limits, and the terms under which they held them, but no definite or serviceable statement could ever be got. There is no reason why this province should not have such a statement, and why it should not take exact inventory of all the crown lands there are, who have them under lease, and under what terms they have them under lease.

How is it that the opposition have been talking in the legislature now for quite a number of years and have not yet got up to this crown land timber question; it is the biggest topic to-day of provincial affairs. In the meantime Sir James Whitney gets credit, and deservedly so, for doing something to improve the revenue of the province and of getting a better share of what was originally her entire property. But the work is not finished.

WIDENING ST. CLAIR AVENUE.

Ald. Maguire and McBride represent that element which always stand for obstruction to the larger interests of the city when a question arises which requires some foresight and consideration for the future. The opposition to the widening of St. Clair-avenue is just what might be expected from a village council, and the arguments advanced by Ald. Maguire belong to the last generation. Only the present moment is considered, and only the people immediately interested are reckoned with. This is only what might be expected from men elected to serve a ward and not a city.

MR. BALFOUR AND FOOD TAXES.

That Mr. Balfour is not and has never been in complete sympathy with the thorough British tariff reformers scarcely requires argument. They have indeed been the severest critics of the carefully constructed declarations by which the accomplished dilettante has managed to preserve his authority while committing himself to no definite protective system. The political campaign that preceded the last general election showed very clearly that many tariff reform candidates had adapted themselves to the character of the constituencies they contested. In the midland and southern counties stress was laid on the advantages the agricultural population would derive from the levying of import duties on grain and food products. In the industrial districts of the north, where strong objection exists to food taxes, this side of tariff reform was usually kept as much as possible in the background.

Act Directly on the Liver

Billousness and Headaches Quickly Cured by DR. A. W. CHASE'S KIDNEY AND LIVER PILLS. When you feel irritable, cranky and downhearted, you can usually blame the liver, for there is no organ in the human body which so quickly throws the system out of sorts as a torpid, sluggish liver. You don't need to be in the blues long if you know about Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, for by their direct action on the liver they relieve promptly and prove lastingly beneficial. One of the principal ingredients of this medicine is known to the medical profession as a specific for liver derangements. Quickly, naturally and certainly it awakens the sluggish liver and drives out the poison which causes headaches, billousness, bodily pains and a depressed feeling over the whole system. Vigor, strength and good nature will return when the liver is set right by Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills. One pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

Balfour's announcement will not modify the free trade campaign, but if it prompts the formulation of a clear protective policy it will do some good.

At the present moment the tariff reformers are not agreed among themselves, a condition that must weaken them in the country.

ANOTHER VIEW OF FARM LABOR.

Once more the cry of labor shortage is going up from the farmers throughout the province. In addition to the usual causes of low pay, long hours and hard labor which the farmer provides for his help, there remains the fact that a man can acquire for himself a farm by the same amount of labor as would be required of him by a farmer for wages, to strengthen the competition existing in every field of labor in the cities with the attractions that city life affords to the working classes.

There is no doubt whatever that farm labor of the best class is a highly intelligent class of labor. Men who can farm well are as capable of farming for themselves and families as for other men. It is clear, that the men who are wanted on the farm must be skilled enough to do their work without absolute supervision, and yet not entering enough to embark on independent farming. Naturally this class of labor is rare in a country like Canada, where independence and enterprise are in the air men breathe.

The skilled mechanic in the city need not be a self-reliant man. In fact as a rule he depends on his environment for his interests and amusement. If men of this stamp could take to farming with the same degree of application, and find their interest and amusement in country life and sport, the problem might be solved. But the farmer steadily refuses to recognize the possibility of union farming with regulated hours and definite work. Not a farmer in the land but declares it impossible.

All this is another argument emphasizing the approach of the agricultural trust, where the conditions of farm labor will be approximated as closely as possible to industrial conditions in factory and other city employments; where wages will be paid which will attract the class of labor needed, and where the labor employed will be used as economically as labor is used in a factory. The secret of profitable labor is in keeping the hands busy. Keeping the hands busy on the farm all the year round would be the object of the agricultural trust with its recognition of brains as well as brawn on the broad acres.

IMPROVING THE T. & N. O. RAILWAY.

In the announcement of the T. & N. O. Railway commission that the first thirty-mile of the line are to be straightened out and graded to a profitable level there is not necessarily a postponement of that other pressing need on the system for either a branch line to Elk Lake or a thru line to Sudbury.

The present improvement, however, is imperative. It should never have been necessary if proper surveys had been made in the first instance. But as there is no use crying over spilt milk, and Hon. Mr. Ross' milk has long soaked into the ground, the province is fortunate in being able to retrieve the error.

Hon. Frank Cochrane is great on the stump.

Nests of mourning doves have been mistaken for those of passenger pigeons. The error may have come from too readily identifying the ways of birds with those of men.

The Hamilton magistrate who fined three persons, two of them women, $100 and costs for owning dogs without muzzles has certainly used his giant's strength as a tyrant.

Toronto Globe: "The hard things said of W. F. Maclean in the house of his friends show that he has touched some sore spots. The man who points out the need of reforms is generally condemned as roundly as the man who tries to carry them out."

Premier Fisher, leader of the successful Australian Labor party, declares his aim is to use the powers of parliament to improve social conditions as far as is humanly possible under the existing constitution, while preserving Australia's existing relation with the empire.

Floza Hotel, New York he struck a clerk who had never heard of the distinguished British general. But is this surprising when here in Canada there are plenty of legislators who act as if they never heard of the great General Public, and are ready to put him in a back room any old time.

As there is no finality in politics it is not to be supposed that the amended Miller will prove an exception. Nevertheless it is a fair trial to show how far it can solve a problem of admitted difficulty. It is a step to multiply criminal offenses but laws that cannot be properly enforced had better remain unenacted.

FAITH CURE DOES WORK

SAYS REV. W. H. HINCKS

"Does 'Faith Cure' work? Most undoubtedly, thank God, it does. There are thousands of cures that are effected in this universe. I used to preach the opposite. A friend of mine can show you a clipping from a newspaper giving a sermon in which I preached that years ago, that faith did not cure." So said Rev. William H. Hincks in his sermon at Broadway Tabernacle last night.

"You might say that this is not an age of faith, but an age of analysis and reason. My friend continued. 'But are not the scientific and religious mysteries believed in?' 'I was foolish enough to go to a hypnotic seance. I believed it was a fake but a doctor with whom I was acquainted, challenged the hypnotist and was hypnotized.' 'Some people foolishly take the position that when a man takes medicine he excludes faith. Medicine has its faith side. Take medicine without faith and see what it will do. A woman from Nova Scotia was sick in Vienna, doctors did not seem to do her any good. I gave her a simple Canadian remedy, talked to her until I aroused her faith in the medicine and she was well in 24 hours. Both the medicine and faith helped.' 'Man is greater than Huxley or Darwin thought. Where reason cannot grasp faith fills in the gap.' 'The minister who did not think that Campbell Morgan was called to be a preacher, and they cold-shouldered him out. Now he is one of the greatest preachers in England. His faith in his call was superior to the reasoning of the whole church.' 'The man who does not build faith in his business and in his work, faith works everywhere it should work. It can alleviate, prevent or cure many diseases.' 'It fails sometimes. Medicine often fails, but that is no proof that it is no good. When faith does fail it shows that God has something better.' 'A woman was at the bedside. I went, felt her pulse and laughed. I said there was no pulse. She was dying. All her doctor went and laughed. The woman was up next day. Had we not given her faith in life she would probably have got what she has had today.' 'If people believe they are seriously ill and prepare to die, they probably will die. Faith is a terrific power. Like lightning it is a good servant and a bad enemy.' 'A man was told he had only three weeks to live. He believed it and arranged his affairs. At three weeks he was gone. Faith did it. He believed for death and he got it.' 'I have believed a man would yield to anything we will yield. Columbus believed in America, the no one else did. Marconi believed in wireless telegraphy.' 'What are you believing for? That is as high as you will get.'

Woman in Court for Selling Gift Railway Ticket.

LONDON, April 17.—When Mrs. Mary Fry came before Magistrate Love Sargent on the charge of selling a railway ticket which Inspector Sanders of the Children's Aid Society gave her to Toronto, she pleaded not guilty, instead of guilty, as expected.

Crown Attorney McKillop, after a conference with the magistrate, decided that he could not succeed on a fraud charge. Then it was decided that no action for theft could be taken. Under the Railway Act the woman is liable for selling ticket, but no charge was laid, so she was dismissed.

Queen's Own Week Features.

The Queen's Own Rifles' celebration will begin on Saturday, June 18, according to a revised program just issued, with a reception at government house, and in the evening a monster "smoker" at the armories. On Sunday there will be a dress parade of officers and members which will be a unique historical event. Two hundred names are now under consideration for the ex-members' band alone. On Monday afternoon at the university the formal unveiling of the memorial to the fallen soldiers of the regiment will be followed by a reception. Historical pageants on a most elaborate scale will be provided at the exhibition grounds all the week of the celebration.

Fifty Thousand Dollar Editor

Says He Would Feel Almost Ashamed to Wear Ordered Clothes.

Before an audience of Chicago gentlemen recently, Mr. Brisbane, editor of the New York American, who is reputed to be a fifty-thousand-dollar man, said that he had been following the uplift in the clothing and tailoring trade. Speaking of some of the American manufacturers who have been following the ideas of the Semi-ready tailoring in Canada, he said: "These people have built up a reputation. They have got so that a man nowadays feels almost ashamed to order such beautiful clothes for himself in the glass I saw that the trouble with me was that I hadn't a Semi-ready tailored suit." "No man need ever feel ashamed of his clothes, but Canadians cannot help being proud of the high-class product exemplified in the system which gave birth to Semi-ready tailoring."

Your Summer Vacation.

This fine weather brings to mind the question, "where shall I go for a holiday, or perhaps a 'wedding trip,' and as it is necessary in order to secure comfortable accommodations, you are recommended to make the acquaintance of an expert like Mr. C. E. Horning, who has been in the business of the Grand Trunk at the northwest corner of King and Yonge-streets, phone Main 4203, who will be glad to give you every attention, illustrated literature, etc.

An Unfortunate Comparison.

Weak Back

Bad Liver and Kidneys

It isn't necessary to be sick in bed to feel mighty mean. You're often sleepless, a little depressed, mawkish taste in your mouth and other unpleasant sensations. You don't enjoy your food and frequently feel completely worn out. Although you eat fairly well and have the appearance of being well, still you lack vim and ambition. THIS! It's simply a slowing down of the activity of the liver, kidneys and bowels. What you need is to free the blood of its poisons—give the liver a good working up—secure thorough inward cleansing with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which contain vegetable juices that instantly help the stomach, liver and kidneys.

TORONTO STRING QUARTETTE

In every way except in point of attendance the concert of the Toronto String Quartet on Saturday night in Conservatory Music Hall was most successful. As a musical treat it was altogether enjoyable, and those who were present were highly appreciative. The viola solos by Frank Converse Smith were especially acceptable, and the sweet tones of the instrument were evoked with true musical feeling. Two numbers were given by Mr. Smith, Mozart's Adagio, from concerto op. 107, and a Menuetto of Beethoven's, which was repeated in response to a cordial encore.

Our Department of Wash Goods Announces Its Summer Readiness

WE SHOW, beginning from to-day, a complete aggregate of the world's best production of cotton dress tissues. Our stock for Spring 1910 is complete.

Consider for a moment the wonderful progress of the arts and sciences in our own time, and most particularly within the last very few years! Look how music has developed, see how color printing has come in, think how long ago was it that right here in Toronto we travelled on foot, or by aid of horses only.

Now, let us look at the textile world. Are you surprised that the arts and sciences of dyeing and weaving have not stood still? Of course not. And yet we expect to hear exclamations of surprise to-day and all season just on that very thing.

Cotton weaving, and cotton printing, and cotton mercerizing, and cotton treatment generally have made such advances that every Spring people involuntarily exclaim anew. "Just look at that exquisite voile!" they say. "And it is only cotton!"

"Cotton," mind you. People still have the old ideas about cotton. Progress has followed so quickly.

We want you to make no mistake about our Wash Fabrics this year. You can have as much delicacy, refinement and beauty in a Summer Dress that will wash as ever you saw in a ball gown.

With cotton recently has been associated Silk, and the combination of the two has resulted in the most wonderful fabrics of the century.

Our beautiful department on the second floor (Queen and Yonge St. Section) will make a special showing all this week of this season's particular novelties. You are cordially invited.

"Canton" Silks, half silk and half highly mercerized Egyptian cotton, elegant brocaded material, with all the lustre of silks at three times the price, but with three times the wear. Dainty designs of large and small dots, figures and stripes, in rose, sky, navy, Nile, pink, etc. Extra special, 49c.

"Duo-ton Rajah," another beautiful silk mixture material, good weight and rough weave, special for coats and skirts, all the new and tony shades, looks and wears longer than all silk at $1.50. Special, 59c.

New shades in our celebrated "Zurich" silk. The original cloth 28 inches wide, nearly all silk. There are many imitations of our cloth, which is confined to us in Toronto, so don't be deceived by inferior makes. Remember, too, we have 40 shades. Special, 35c.

New French printed organdies, just fresh from Paris, large and small designs, in striped or trelis effect. All the newest designs of roses, orchids, etc. Special value, 59c.

Colored Shantung Silks

The color range of this lot includes Copenhagen blue, berliot blue, reseda, heron, vieux rose, Atlantic grey, China blue, buttercup, natural, etc. If this assortment is sold out as quickly as the last you will require to come early. 34 inches wide. $1.00 per yard.

NATURAL SHANTUNG SPECIAL, 73c. For Tuesday we will offer our regular $1.00 34-inch natural color only Shantung Silk; the bright, silky finish; launders well; wears well; a thing to remember when you go away to some summer resort, where the laundry proves to be not one of the best. This specially fine quality, 34 in. wide, is a part of the latest Oriental shipment of 50 bales, and if purchased at the present prices would cost 75c per yard wholesale. On sale Tuesday 73c per yard.

CHINTZ

THE fabric of the day for house-furnishing purposes.

Do you know we have so many pretty chintz designs that the only trouble is that admirers become perplexed with the task of choosing? They do, and we can only try to help them by expressing our own preferences.

Do you know that our Wall Paper Department has chintz papers to match or contrast or harmonize with these chintz fabrics, so that you can carry out your ideas as to a chintz room complete?

And further, do you know that our Rug Department will show you chintz patterned rugs to carry out the scheme still more completely?

Come and see. We are enthusiasts on chintz. We think that some of the most successful bedrooms we ever designed were carried out in chintz. And goodness knows we have plenty of chintz choice this spring!
