WIDE-OPEN INQUIRY MIGHT DISCOVER SOURCE OF LIBERAL CAMPAIGN

RECIPROCITY WILL NOT COME TO VOTE IN HOUSE

Certainly That Opposition Will Hold Back Supplies and Probabi ity That U. S. Senate Will Defeat It-Liberals Would Be Glad to Get R d of It.

OTTAWA, May 13.—(Special).—The feeling among the Liberal poli-ians in regard to reciprocity grows less hopeful. This, at least, is now tied: That the question will never reach a vote in this house of commons; That the opposition will hold back supplies in the summer session that to meet in July and force the government to go to the country in the fall

Then the prospect of defeat by the United States Senate is growing most into a certainty. So that in that case the Canadian people will not sen vote on it—only on the conduct of these who committed this country

Committee to Investigate Charges Against Hon. Frank Oliver Will Hold First Meeting on Wednesday-Scope May Be Wider Than Government Desires

OTTAWA, May 13 .- (Special.)-The mittee which is to enquire into the charges against Hon. Frank Oliver, will neet on Wednesday next. It is not known yet whether the committee will roceed at once with the hearing of witnesses or whether this will be delayed until after the resumption of parliament in July. If witnesses are called at once, it is probable that D. Gillicuddy will give first testimony. The question before the committee whether the deposits of $50,000 and $19,000 which appeared in Mr. Oliver's bank account in Edmonton two or

Still another suggestion was made in parliament that the smaller deposit came from a British Columbia rai.way and there is a rumor to the effect that coupled with a well known diplomatic one member of parliament and a member of a provincial legislature both received money from the same source. The Sunnyside Crossing

On Tuesday there will be an opportunity to reconsider the ques-tion of the Sunnyside crossing before the Dominion Railway Board. The solution so far favored is not that which the city engineer and the chairman of the railway board would have arrived at if left to themselves. Both these gentlemen have the public interest at heart. The plan they approved was the cheapest and the most satisfactory from a scenic point of view, the best in grade for traffic, the safest and the most generally approved.

The proposal advocated chiefly by Ald McBride involves the construction of a subway at a cost of $160,000 in excess of the other plan. The subway is not a straight-away subway, but, in the language of Hon. Mr. Mabee, will require traffic "to twist and turn thru a right-angled subway, and without any view of the approach on either side."

It will also shut out the view of the lake and the lake shore. There seems to be no reason for choosing the more expensive plan other than because it is more expensive, and there will be more damages to distribute. The city engineer points out in his report, for example, that the Toronto Bolt & Forging Co., which will have to be compensated under the less desirable plan, has a lease which expires in about two years. The company, the engineer understands, are "seriously considering moving the plant to Swansea, and probably their entire plant to Hamilton." He is averse from the idea of paying them for what they will do in any case. Hon. Mr. Mabee, on April 24, said: "There is no doubt about the bridge scheme being the best. I do not know anything about the expense of abuttal damages, or anything else, but, looking at it solely from the point of view of public convenience and beauty, there is not anything else in it compared to the bridge scheme

Cheaper, Quicker and More Artistic, Says City Engineer, But if the Council Favor the Subway it is for Him to Fall in With Them - Justice Mabee's Opinion

"City officials are supposed to approve of what the council approve," declared City Engineer Rust, when asked by The Sunday World what he thought of the plan for the extension of Queen-street, with a subway at Keele-street under the Grand Trunk tracks. "At first I favored the overhead bridge plan as cheaper, quicker and more artistic, but if the council wish the other scheme, it is only for me to fall in. "My original idea was that we should have both roadways, one on each side of the track, but that the bridge should come first. The scheme for the extension of Queen-street is so costly now, whereas with the possible removal of the Bolt Works in a few years, it may then be put thru at much less ex-

Up in the offices of E. L. Cousins the plans of the four propositions are on view, while in the board of control reports are full details of the estimated costs. The original plan, to build a subway under the present level crossing on a skew, would cost $145,016 on the engineer's estimate, while $287,963 would have to be paid for damages and for expropriating land. Of this later plan, little need be said. It is proposed to run Queen-street, north of the tracks, right thru to Keele-street, and there to build a subway at right angles. A NEW METHOD OF DETERMINING MENTAL DISORDERS.

Studies of mental disorder are bring-ing astonishing insight into the work-ings of the human mind. Dr. E. W. Scripture states that mental facts are revealed by three methods—(1) that of simple observation, in the usual medical treatment; (2) that of experimental psychology, analyzing a patient's men-tal condition by tests and records, and (3) that of "psych-analysis," a novel kind of inquisition in which a per-son is made to betray his thoughts. past deeds and projects by answers or acts that unconsciously indicate what is most in mind.
Dr. Junk of Germany is credited with the most striking progress in the third method. By this so-called "association" plan, the patient is asked to tell what is first thought of when any word is spoken, the time being noted with the aid of a stop watch, and after a list of 100 associations and times is made, the process is repeated, the same words being again called out. Unusual length of time, fallure to respond to a word, evidence of for-getfulness or other unusual "association," indicates a sensitive topic. well married but jealous and often violent woman showed most disturbance in the associations of "anxiety." "happiness," religion," "choose," "marry," "part," "death." "die," and the inference was justified that she was unhappy and troubled eyer the religious differences of herself and a man whom she had married against her parents' wishes, and she was ques-tioning whether it would be better to In other forms of this analysis the patient writes the first words that come to him or his first impressions of a suggested person or thing.

Beautiful Homes are Easy to Get

Our Large Illustrated Catalogue, No. 28, Sent Free to Any Address. Outside of Toronto Only.

A beautiful, comfortably furnished home doesn't necessarily mean an expensive one, at least not in the Adams Store. Neither does it mean that only those who have money enough laid by can possess one. This Store makes it easy for anyone—young folks just getting married in particular—to have as nice, as cosy and elegant a home as they could reasonably wish for, without the long disappointing delay that a large cash investment so often necessitates. Our "Charge Account" Service enables home providers to select as much or as little as they have need of from our matchless stocks, make us a moderate down payment, and arrange for a leisurely period of time to pay us the balance. A Charge Account here entitles Customers to buy anything advertised at the special prices without any extra cost being added for the privilege. Record Breaking Reductions

CONTINUE AT THE Mason & Risch "Forced Removal" Sale

With an utter disregard of manufacturing cost and former selling prices, the remaining pianos in stock have been reviewed, and the price on each and every one has been cut down so as to ensure its immediate disposal.

There is not a single feature of this RECORD DISPERSION that calls for explanation after we have stated that the contractors have failed to complete our new building on Yonge street before the expiration of our lease at 32 King street

Every instrument in this great stock, whether it be new or used, must be disposed of at once. We have no place to store them.

We will give any terms of payment in reason to any responsible buyer, and he can have the piano at once.

To dispose of this immense stock we realize that we must do something for the public we have never attempted before.

The public will only be satisfied with the bribe that means sensational value, with not a loophole left for criticism when the bargain is completed Ten Years' Hence.

Scores of buyers have attended this sale from many towns from this and adjoining Provinces, each and every one satisfied that they had secured THE bargain of their lifetime.

Don't miss this matchless opportunity. Come and Inspect Anyhow, if it is only to compare with what you have or can see elsewhere.

No one will urge or seek to unduly impress you. The prices and the goods do all the talking. If you want further information our polite attendants will give it.

King George Opens Pageant of Empire

Drove Thru Seven Miles of Perforn ers and Was Received With Loyal Enthusiasm.

NEW YORK, May 13 .- The London orrespondent of The Tribune cables: The first of the year's coronation processions, held yesterday in connection with the opening of the Festival of Empire at the Crystal Palace, by the King and Queen, had both domestic and imperial aspects.

It was an unpretentious semi-state affair, with three carriages and a traaffair, with three carriages and a traveling escort of Life Guards, and apart from the four horses and outriders, there was no display of the pomp and circumstance of royalty. It was, indeed, a family party, headed by King George, Queen Mary, the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary, driving quietly for seven miles thru hosts of loyal but humble subjects, and achangledging with smiles and courteous knowledging with smiles and courteous salutes the hearty greetings every-where received. Yet, it was an orderly and easily managed assemblage, and its de-votion to the royal family and its pride in having the King and Queen among them were unmistakable. them were unmistakable.

The object of this long drive between unbroken walls of spectators, was im-perial, and hence close to the King's heart. It was not a revival of the Crystal Palace as a place of popular reception, but the opening of a festi-val which would enable the English people to appreciate the magnitude and variety of imperial resources and inpart a genuine home feeling to the representatives from overseas domin

The reception to the royal family by the multitude within the Crystal Palace when they entered the box for the concert, could not have been either more respectful or more enthusiastic. There were princes and princesses and a brilliant assemblage in reserved sections, yet what was most conspicuous was the democratic character of the audience, and the proceedings.

The program was set thrucut in a high, imperial key. There were greetings to overseas dominions, choruses for the King and empire, songs for sea conquerors. Kipling's "Recessional" and stirring overtures to Britannia and During the present summer, with the sea rower.

The fact that Scott occupies such an mportant place on the transcontin tal insures to it permanent prosperity The farmers in the vicinity are for the most part those who have come from the United States, bringing with them a considerable amount of capital and the most modern machinery.

All Conveniences.

In the matter of accommodation Scott has two excellent hotels, there are two banks, the Union Bank and the Royal Bank, both handling a good deal of business. The young idea is well taken care of in a large school building, which has lately been enlarged. Four churches are in the town, Anglican, Roman Catholic, Presbyterian and Methodist. A well-equipped fire department has been installed, as well as a town hall and opera house. Everything bears evidence of the solidity of Scott. On May 8, 1911, the town will vote upon the question of a complete sewerage system, an electric light plant and an upto-date waterworks, all to cost upwards of $50,000. IS JOHN SMITH DROWNED?

Deckhand of Schooner "Medland" Disappeared Friday Night.

What might be described as a "perhaps drowning," occurred on the bay Friday night. The supposed victim is John Smith, deckhand of the schooner "Medland," which is lying at anchor 200 yards off the Jarvis-street docks. He is known to have been drinking heavily yesterday and last evening, and left one of the waterfront hotels and left one of the waterfront hotels at 10.30 Friday night to go to his boat. Like the negro laundress who thought herself lucky in the husband who saw to it that she did not want a day's washing, we also are grateful that each to-morrow finds the work ready for our hands to do. For work means food and shelter; and food and shelter means life. (Life, quotha! God help us!

It is a melancholy utinam, as Si Thomas Browne would say, this inhuman craving for work—the cry of the starving for food, the prayer of the lost for success, the petition of the condemned for respite. The will to live so narrow and crowded, that the market for labor is like a battlefield with the fight still going on. For we have found out but one means of hy-ing-killing the weaker and taking his place. And yet the work we get is not for the fulfilment of the spirit; it does not ennoble us. We grasp after it with the convulsive, passionate hands of the drowning man stretching for a spar that will float him to a haven; and when the haven is reached we find ourseives harnessed to a mortar-wheel. Like stupid oxen or blind horses we go, henceforward, round and round in a daily grind. And man's free spirit

For the opening attraction at Scarboro Beach, Angelo Vetale, and his band, have been secured. Tho a mere child in years, Vetale is world famous as a musical conductor, and cornet soloist. He is a pocket edition of Creatore, and by the originality of his interpretations and magnetism of his personality, has made a unique place for himself in respect of musical critics. Vetale's Band is composed of thirty juvenile members, every one early this morning by the steamer Admiral Farragut, off the Virginian Capes, will cause a loss of approximately $2,000,000, according to an estimate made to-day by H. S. Cabaud, general agent of the owning company.

Mr. Cabaud said that the Merida, valued at about $1,250,000, was insured and that the cargo and effects of passengers, valued at probably $750,000, was insured is killed. "Thou toilest for the altogether indispensable, for daily bread."

Selecting a Bishop By a Catholic Writer.

The manner in which a bishop is appointed to a see in the Roman Catholic Church is something commonly open ment, episcopal or otherwise. to a good deal of conjecture. An impression is sometimes abroad that a bishop is raised to his high office be-cause "everybody likes him," that is by the understood, if not actual vote of the people. Again, it is thought that the priests of a diocese nominate their favorite ecclesiastic and send their nomination to the Vatican to be ratified by the understood, if not actual vote pose?

The fact is, that while all or anyone of the influences mentioned might work indirectly as tending to the formation of a decision, the appointment of a bishop lies exclusively and entirely with the Pope, who may nominate someone to a see altogether of his own initiative, or may accept suggestions which come to him thru certain cus-tomary and time-honored channels. In either case the appointment is final and open to no interference from out-

47th TROOP.

The 47th Troop paraded at St. Barhabas Church at 2.40 p. m., on Saturday last and proceeded by car to Bloorstreet, where they were met by 33rd Troop and enjoyed a chat until the 34th Troop came. The 34th and 47th Troops proceeded on to the flats, and the 34th having taken up a position of defence in the dips, the 47th Troop attacked them and secured several prisoners. Enjoyment was experienced by all. Great care and tact was displayed by both sides. Mr. Butler of 34th Troop and A. E. Willis of 47th Troop formed the umpires, the troops being handled was difficult to decide the winners, so it was decided to divide honors by making it a "draw." There were several spectators who enjoyed watching the fun. The test for Marksman's Radge of judging distance was executed with successful results. Two scouts. A great deal of talk was aroused by the presence of a troop of Scouts uniform at the smoking concert of a political party in the east end not long ing the Boy Scout movement, and so the Toronto Scoutmasters' Council is issuing an order to the various troops, prohibiting their attendance in an official capacity at any political meeting or entertainment. Not only is it likely to cause internal trouble in a troop consisting of lads representing all shades of politics, but it is expressly prohibited by Scout rules. The council hopes that the rule will not be violated again in Toronto.

"Leith Serge" had a very long call last week. "Leith Serge" is bound to be popular, and the demand should grow from day to day because summer is nearly here and because "Leith Serge" is the best on the market.

Last week we told about the material that goes into "Leith Serge." The wool comes from Botany Bay, Australia, and is handled on the celebrated looms of the "Leith Mills' by expert weavers. The cloth comes in four weights and as many different weaves. It is the ideal cloth for a good summer suit.

Handier and Less Showy Flowers Now All the Rage in Old London.

LONDON, May 13 .-- As the result of its being considered unfashionable to wear anything but the simplest flowers in the button-hole this spring, the delicate blooms from the hothouse are being displaced by the hardier tho less showy flowers from the garden. It is strange that while the simpler flowers are now in vogue, the ladies' garments are more gorgeous and brilliantly colored than usual. Perhaps the contrast is deemed effective by the leaders of fashion. Bund-street florists, and those of the west end, are experiencing an unprecedented demand for daisles, lilies, wallflower, mignonette, buttercups, etc., while the exotic hothouse blooms are withering on the shelves. Instead of paying a fabulous price for a buttonhole, one can now purchase a fashionable nosegay for a quarter.

Instead of adorning themselves this spring with the more showy artificial flowers, such as clematis, irls, orchid, or large roses, ladies are wearing little bouquets consisting of a cluster of buttercups and daisles, with clover or forget-me-nots tucked away in their coats or muffs.

PELOROUS JACK" DEAD ACTED AS PILOT FISH

Was Protected For Many Years by Special Act of New Zealand Legislature.

DUNEDIN, New Zealand, May 13. -

DUNEDIN, New Zealand, May 13.—
The most famous fish in the world, known as Pelorous Jack, which had the distinction of being protected by a special act of parliament, is dead. It is not quite clear whether this special honor was due to the fact that he was the sole survivor of his species or to the circumstance that he voluntarily acted as a sort of philot for sinps. Certain ht is, however, that for twenty years and more this monster of the deep met all the steamers bound for Wellington, whether they arrived by day or night. He usually took up a position ahead of them in Pelorous Sound, as if with a perfect understanding as to their destination. Thus he earned the sobriquet of the "pliot fish," while by some he was known as the "lone fish of the French Pass."

Pelorous Jack, to give him the most familiar name, was one of the "sights" on the voyage to Wellington. Occasionally passengers had so little respect for him that they tried to "pot" him with their revolvers, but this sort of thing was stopped when the New Zealand Legislature laid it down that the fish must on no account be interfered with. No statute, however, could give Pelorous Jack an indefinite lease of life, and the report comes that his body has been found, partly eaten by the sharks. He is supposed to be the last of a race of marine monsters which flourished in French Pass half a century ago.

FARMS, FOOD, FILTH, FLIES. FEVERS.

Vastly more than mere alliterative relations have long existed between farms, food, filth, files and fevers. That these relations were neither understood nor appreciated does not alter the fact. That disease and death have been their dreadful fruits, is established beyond the possibility of successful contradiction. If there is any place where the common house fly swarms in untold num-on a badly managed farm with its hogpens, chickenhouses, cowyards, vaults, open cesspools, uncovered man-ure piles, partly filled drains, etc. The flies breed in the filth; thence, covered with it, they swarm into the houses Ontario flour-Winter wheat flour, $3.40, alight on the food, contaminate both what is to be eaten and what may be and thus carry and spread typhoid and other intestinal diseases. 25% with Application. 75% on or before June 15th, 1911

Statutory Information.—A Director must be a share-holder in good standing but need hold no more than one share. The Company has made no provision for Direc-tors' remuneration.

No minimum subscription on which the Directors may proceed to allotment has been fixed. The amount payable on application and allotment on each share is at least ten per cent., the balance to be paid as called by the Directors. It is expected that the entire amount subscribed shall be paid in cash within a few months. The Company is commencing business with the advantage of an arrangement whereby Mr. E. W. Gilbert, for many years Superintendent of one of the largest and most successful concerns manufacturing similar goods on the American side (shipping largely into Canada), will have charge of the manufacturing end of the business. Mr. Gilbert is transferring to the Company Patent Rights. Designs, Models and Patterns, which will mean that the business will be begun far past any experimental stage. Associated with Mr. E. W. Gilbert is his brother. Mr. A. H. Gilbert, who has undertaken to act as financial head of the Company. Mr. A. H. Gilbert has been active in the organization of the Company and in undertaking the sale of a substantial amount of the Preference Stock.

In consideration of the above, the Company will is-

It is estimated that the preliminary expenses in connection with the formation of the Company will not exceed $800.00. In addition to a commission of fifteen percent, which is to be allowed (as per the Company's Charter) on all subscriptions for Preference Shares.

Objects of the Company.—To Manufacture Copper, Brass, Nickel-plated Iron, Aluminum, Tin and other Metal Goods and Hotel and Restaurant Sundries.

Metal Goods and Hotel and Restaurant Sundries.

This class of goods for which tremendous demand exists in the United States and Canada is not now being manufactured to any extent anywhere in the Dominion.

The American goods have established for themselves a pre-eminent position with the consumer on account of their graceful, light and dainty appearance, and approximately Half a Million Dollars worth of such goods were imported into Canada during the last twelve months.

The shipments from the United States were subject to an import dains of the states. The shipments from the United States were subject to an import duty of thirty-five per cent., in addition, of course, to the freight and transportation charges, so that it will be seen that the manufacturing of such goods in Canada from American designs, and with the latest American machinery, presents an unusually attractive assurance of profit.

Management.—The business will be under the management of gentlemen who have earned an enviable record for the successful development of manufacturing and business affairs, both in this country and the United States, and this management gives the greatest possible assurance of the conservative and energetic building up of the various branches of the Company's business.

The Company is fortunate in securing as the prac-tical head of the business a man who has been for many years the head of one of the largest concerns of this kind in the United States.

in the United States.

Mr. E. W. Gilbert, who will be in supreme charge of all details of manufacturing, has been for over ten years the superintendent of the George A. Ray Company, of Buffalo, New York, one of the largest and most successful manufacturers of this line of goods in America.

The Company feels that in view of its ample capital, its complete and modern machinery, its practical and superienced management, and the very considerable advantage due to freedom from import duty, a prosperous and growing business awaits them, needing only intelligent and conservative management to make this institu-tion one of the greatest in the Dominion. Location.—The Factory of the Company is located at the City of Toronto, which is an excellent distributing centre for all Canada.

The Company has purchased a site in Toronto on Duchess Street, running through to Britain Street, a frontage of 62 feet on the latter, and on this site a modern mill constructed factory is being erected. This factory is of brick construction, three storeys in height, and will be used exclusively for the operations of the Company.

Machinery.—A full equipment of the latest Patterns, Stamping, Embossing and other machinery has been purchased and will be ready for delivery about May 15th. on which date the completion of the factory is promised by the contractors.

which date the completion of the factory is promised by the contractors.

Dies.—A large part of the success of this business depends upon the design of the finished articles, and this point is naturally dependent upon the dies and stamps with which the Company operates.

The Company is fortunate in having secured the cooperation of a leading American firm which has made a specialty of turning out dies and stamps of this character.

They have equipped several very successful institutions in the United States and their product is acknowledged as without any superior.

Market for Goods.—It has already been stated that approgramately Half a Million Dollars worth of these goods were imported during the last twelve months despite the handicap of the heavy duty.

No intelligent Canadian need be told anything of the wonderful growth of the Dominion, and it is obvious that with the increased appeal the Company can make by offering Canadian-made goods, without the onerous import and freight charges, coupled with prompt deliveries occasioned by their home manufacture, the Company should have no difficulty in disposing of its entire output.

The margin of profit is very large and the Directors have every confidence in being able to earn a sum sufficient to put the common stock on a 5 per cent. dividend basis by the end of the first fiscal year, and as this common stock is given as a bonus with the preferred stock, it makes the proposition a very attractive one.

This Company is starting the manufacture (for the first time in Canada) of a variety of Copper, Brass, Nickel-plated Iron, Aluminum, Tin, and other Metal Goods, and Hotel and Restaurant Sundries. Canada imported over $500,000 of such goods last year under a heavy duty. Assurances of the sale of the entire yearly capacity of the plant have already been received, and the Directors expect to earn sufficient to put the Common Stock on a 5 per cent. basis the first year.

As a bonus of 100 per cent. Common Stock is given with each subscription to the 7 per cent. Preferred Stock, this is one of the best opportunities ever offered Canadian investors.

The action of the market during the road and 12 industrial securities. The action of the market during the period under reveiw could only be taken as a reflection of the dearth of public interest in the general situation. From the first of the month there was a steady decline until the 18th, but the net loss was only 1.84 points for the industrials and 2.15 for the rails. THE VALUE OF LEMONS.

Lemonade from the juice of fresh fruit is one of the best and safest drinks for anyone, whether in health or not. It is useful for most stomach diseases, being one of the best antiscorbutics we know.

If the gums are rubbed daily with a little lemon juice it keeps them in good condition, and used for the flands once a day in washing it makes the skin soft and smooth and removes dirty stains. It is good for a cold if taken in hot water on going to bed, and in intermittent devers it has been found useful when mixed with hot black coffee without sugar.—Family Doctor.

Traveling Gets Worse As Spring Comes On

Porcupine Roads Practically Impassable-Lakes Are Now Free of Ice.

PORCUPINE CITY, May 8 .- (From turning from short trips into the woods to-day state that the traveling in the timbered portion is worse than ever, and that it will be all of three more weeks before one can get out to pros-

In all the cleared portions and on the well-traveled roads, the wind and sun have dried up the water and mud to a considerable extent. Porcupine Lake is free from ice and no matter how hard it may freeze over night, lake traffic will not now be stopped. The roads to and from the mining camps are in a bad state, but it is believed that there will not be the difficulty this year that was experienced last summer in reaching the outlying mining centres, for corduroy takes the place of the muskeg on a large number of the roads.

The worst spot in the whole district is from Hill's to Porcupine. There are a few bad spots where no one has found the bottom to the muskeg yet and with travel increasing the road conditions here do not improve.

Should the work train be run as "muskeg limited," after May 15, there should be no difficulty in reaching Hill's from Kelso. Night Hawk Lake is reported to be free from ice. If so, boats will run very regularly.

Ten days more will make a tremendous difference in favor of good conditions from Kelso to Porcupine.

CAPITALIZATION, $3,000,000; PAR VALUE OF SHARES, $1.00

Royal Porcupine Gold Mines property consists of eight full claims of 40 acres, a total of 320 acres, all contiguous, in Tisdale Township of the Porcupine Mining District.

The property, known as the Waldman Syndicate, being veteran claims, carry an absolute patent from the crown, which gives to the owner all mining, surface and timber

The company's properties are located three claims—about one-half mile-south of the Hollinger Mine, which has been opened up to depth. It is claimed by those who have been on the ground that the Hollinger has $10,000,000 in sight.

Reliable engineers who have made a close study of geological conditions unqualifiedly state that Royal Porcupine is in the Hollinger ore zone, and on the strike of the big rich gold ledges that have been opened at depth in the Hollinger.

Three big and many small veins have been exposed, while only a small portion of the property has been prospected.

The location of the Royal Porcupine properties in the immediate vicinity, and same ore zone as the Hollinger and other mines, gives to the property a future second to no similar Porcupine property in the same stage of development, and engenders the belief that a mine of magnitude and great value will be developed.

In my opinion, Royal Porcupine is one of the best buys in the Porcupine district, and if bought at the market now should show splendid returns within the next few months.

MARKET LETTER

Events of Week Reviewed by Toronto Broker. Playfair, Martens & Co., say in their fortnightly letter: During the past two weeks two new veins have been opened up on the Trethewey, one at the No. 4 shaft, near the Hudson Bay Line, on the 187 foot level, and runs three inches of 3,500 oz. ore. The other on the first level of No. 1 shaft is equally rich and averages about two inches in width. Both veins are being worked at the present time. While the stock has not been overly active, it has strengthened up from 90 1.06. In spite of the production of five and a half million ounces of silver by the Nipissing last year, the ore re-serves at present are much larger. Veins Nos. 63, 64, 73 and 80 were the principal producers during the year. The physical condition of Kerr Lake is steadily improving and was never better than at the present time. The management of the company is excel-lent, and their policy of putting two tons of ore in sight for every ton taken out, is being strictly maintained. Re-299.00 gular quarterly dividends of 50c. per 60.00 share continue to be declared, and ost.00 dividend payments including the last one paid 15th March, total $3,030,000. 120.15 At current market prices this issue 567.50 earns and distributes to stockholders 120.00 a return of nearly 30 per cent. per

The Porcupine issues are lagging a little, owing to the lack of stimulus in the local market, where the process of digestion of surplus securities is still in progress. Just how long this will take is of course a matter of 360,090.30 question, but there is every confidence 8,999.00 in the minds of traders that as soon as it is accomplished there will be a resumption of the upward movement. This will probably come with the en-146,106.60 trance of the railroad into the camp, so that those that are taking advantage of present prices and discounting that event, will be in line for the larg-

What we have told you of ELDORADO PORCUPINE MINES, LIE.

Every statement made has our absolute endorsation, and further par-dculars of doings on the company's properties will be given out in bare facts. ELDORADO is too good a proposition to need any fictitious coloring. A gang of men has been engaged to start work on ELDORADO and development work will in all probability start next Monday under charge of Harry Bush, M.E., an engineer of experience. ELDORADO'S 120 acres will be thoroly proved up, and unless expert mining knowledge is at fault, ELDORADO shareholders will be proud of their holdings within a few months.

A business directorate, the lew capitalization of $500,000 and the ELDORADO shares selling at 10 cents, embraces material of opportunity for an investment such as we have seldom if ever seen presented during our 16 years in this business. Orders for ELDORADO or other shares have our personal attention and care.

REA MINES LIMITED CAPITALIZATION: $1,000,000. Par Value of Shares $5.00

Recent reports from our Porcupine office are very optimistic on Rea. At the moment they have the deepest shaft in the camp, being down 210 feet. The fact that the controlling interest is held by The Consolidated Goldfields of South Africa and that the Bewick Moreing Company are consulting engineers, lends an air of solidity to this company.

In our opinion "REA" shares are intrinsically worth much more than the present market price, and should be selling on a par with Hollinger, we have no hesitation in strongly recommending the purchase of this stack.

THE TOWER OF BABEL.

The German excavators of ancient Babylon believe that they have identified the remains of the Tower of Babel. It is a wise plan to tell no more of your own troubles than you want to hear about other people's.

When a woman meets a man who cannot be conquered by a few tears she makes up her mind that he is a bad character.

A woman doesn't know whether to be glad or suspicious when her husband volunteers to mind the baby while she goes out a-visiting.

The German excavators of ancient Babylon believe that they have identified the remains of the Tower of Babel, altho there appears to be some doubt as to which of three structures constitutes the foundation of the real Babel. Further excavations are to be made, and are expected to settle the question. The ruins of Nebuchadnezzar's palace, where Belshazzar's feast took place, and where Alexander the Grest died, have been shown to cover the remains of quay walls built on the riverside by Sargon and Nabopolassar. The encomous brick buildings constructed by the Babylonian architects were venered with glazed and colored bricks in ornamental designs.—Youth's Companion. The German excavators of ancient

ARBITRATION TREATY NOW IN CONCRETE FORM

Ambassador Bryce Now Has Draft Ready to Submit to. the Privy Council.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The first draft of the proposed arbitration treaty between Great Britain and the United States is practically complete. The state department officials, after many weeks of patient work, have succeeded in crystalizing the main ideas of the projectors of the paet, and after the elimination of many unnecessary suggestions, the treaty has been brought to concrete form.

The principal difficulty encountered was in the consideration of matters excepted from the scheme for general arbitration, but it was found that the desired object could be attained satisfactorily by the exchange of notes between the two governemnts, explana-tory of the plan and scope of the treaty, leaving the convention itself very simple in outline. This was regarded as desirable in view of the fact that the treaty may serve as a model for similar conventions with other powers.

Ambassador Bryce will transmit a draft of the treaty to the foreign office in London for consideration. If the privy council acts promptly, the senate may have an opportunity to ap-prove the treaty during the present session of congress.

TORONTO'S NEW INDUSTRY. The Gilbert Manufacturing Company Building Factory on Duchess and Britain-streets.

Toronto has been selected as the home of The Gilbert Manufacturing Company, which is preparing to entathe Canadian market with all kinds of stamped copper, brass, iron, tin, and other metal goods for hotel, restaurant and domestic purposes.

Canada imported over half a million dollars worth of these goods last year, principally from the United States. and these goods were subject to an import duty of 35 per cent. in addi-tion to the heavy freight charges. The need of a Canadian factory is

Some of the deposits have been operBted for nearly a century, but during all that time only two mills have been established for the manufacture of gypsum products, one at Windsor in 1901 and the other at Cheticamp, Cape Breton, in 1908. In 1908 about 200,000 tons of gypsum were produced in Nova Scotia, while in 1910 the production amounted to 322,974 tons. Practically all this was shipped to foreign coun-tries, $299,949 worth being sent to the United States and there manufactured into different products. The mineral resources of Nova Scotia embraces ores of gold, silver, lead, antimony, manganese, zinc, iron and tungsten, as well as vast deposits of freestone, granite porphyry, lime-burning rock, marks and limestone suitable for cement, fluxing materials, such as silica and dolomite, barytes, infusorial earth, porcelain, brick and fire-clars. In addition to these and as transcending all other sources of wealth are its deposits of coal, gypsum and oil shales, the last two having received little attention from either state

FIRST INNINGS.

NEWARK—Browne dropped one in front of the plate, being thrown out easily by Kocher to Jordan. Nee struck out; also Kelly. NO HITS. NO RUNS.

TORONTO—Delahanty singled to centre. O'Hara hit to Nee, who threw to Louden to get Delahanty, but Louden let the bail get thru his hands, both runners safe. Shaw hit a corking double to centre, scoring Delahanty and putting O'Hara on third. Tim Jordan hit a Texas leaguer to left field. O'Hara and Shaw scoring, Jordan going to second. Bradley sacrificed, Frick to Agler. Kocher hit to Nee, who fumbled, Tordan scoring and Kocher safe on first. Kocher stole second. Mullen was called out on strikes; it looked a bad decision on the part of Pender. McGinnity has sent out a couple of pitcher's to warm up. Vaughn beat out an infield hit. Kocher was caught at the plate on the return throw, when Vaughn tried to steal second. FOUR HITS. FOUR RUNS.

time, it is aid, Gov. Dix will almost certainly sign them.

Richard T. Wilson, jr., president of the Saratoga Racing Association, has been in Albany most of the week. He has conferred with Gov. Dix, and it is said has convinced the execubive that the present laws are ambiguous and unfair and should be amended if the great industry of racing and breeding is to be saved from entire destruction.

The promised revival of the popular thorobred sport doesn't mean the returning of the slates and the high stools. On the contrary, those days are thorobred sport doesn't mean the returning of the slates and the high stools. On the contrary, those days are gone for sure, but under the conditions made possible by the new bills in the legislature wagering between friends, which became so popular two years ago under the name of oral betting, will be legalized. The fact that there is hope for the game, outside of the news that came from Albany, may be found in the changing of the plans of Sam Hildreth. Hildreth announces he will remain in this country. He will campaign part of his table on the Canadian circuit at the conclusion of the Pimilco paign part of his table on the Canadian circuit at the conclusion of the Pimlico meeting, the rest he will ship back to Sheepshead Bay, where they will be prepared for what looks like a promising season at the Spa.

The Many Names of Good Friday.

The Many Names of Good Friday.

Perhaps no Christian festival has so many names as Good Friday. Our Anglo-Saxon and Danish forefathers called it "Long Friday." In allusion to the length of the day's services and fasting in France it is "Holy Friday" in German either "Stiller Freltag" (Quiet Friday) or "Charfreitag." in allusion perhaps to the exhibition of the crucifix for adoration after being veiled all thru Lent. In the Greek Church it has been known at various times as "The Pascha of the Cross." NEW YORK, May 14 .- Twelve white men, who think they know how to fight with gloved fists and may develop sufficlent prowess to wrest the heavyweight championehip title from Jack Johnson, have sent in their names to Manager Tom O'Rourke of the National Sporting Club, expressing their desire to take part in the "white hope" boxing tournament on May 26. O'Rourke firmly believes that the only way to discover real white heavyweights is by hoding a tourney open to all-comers, the contestants being matched by lot to meet in bouts of four rounds each, the elimination process finally bringing the two best men together for first honors. The entry list has not yet closed, and O'Rourke said yesterday that he might be compelled to make the country have wired that their entry blanks have been filled out and are in the mails. The Swedish Government has made a graceful compliment to the City of Rouen, which is not a little appreciated by the French press. This year the millenary of the founding of the Duchy of Normandy is to be celebrated, and the Normans who came over to this country with the conqueror were originally Scandinavians. The Swedish Government has sent to the cathedral City of Normandy the replica of a gold bracelet found at Bragnum, in Vestergothland. er of the Yankees, enjoys one most unique distinction. He has the most impressive set of hands ever seen in professional buseball. The hams that Hans Wagner calls hands dwindle into insignificance alongside the "hooks" of the big new port-sider from Texas. Not only are Ables' hands exceptionally large—as large as patent washboards, almost—but his fingers are exceptionally long. The digits are so long that Ables can hide a regulation baseball in the palm of his hand. A regulation baseball by the way, is nine inches in circumference. Ables has as much natural "stuff" as any pitcher who has ever been in fast company. He can simply do anything with the old horsehide. Ables believes that his big hands and long fingers give him natural advantages possessed by no other major league. distinction. He has the most impressive tages possessed by no other major league pitcher. His hands and arms are power-iul, and his wrist strong. His curve ball breaks almost as sharply as his "spitter," which he uses only on rare occasions. The big fellow is strong as an ox and has no trouble at all in steaming up.

George Suggs, Cincinnati pitcher, who was released by Detroit, acquits Hughey Jennings of the charge of going wrong on him. "I hurt a ligament in my side in one of the early games," says Suggs, "and after several weeks' rest it got no better. Hughey decided I would never be right again. I continued to rest, and nature fixed up the injury." Suggs is now one of the best National League pitchers.

Manager Griffith of Cincinnati or May 2 sent Pitcher McQuillan home from St. Louis under indefinite suspension for dissipation and insubordination while the Reds were in the Mount City. From all accounts McQuillan has shown himself to be as ungrateful toward the liberal Cincinnati manager ahe was toward Manager Dooln last year, and Manager Griffith is now dead sore on the seemingly incorrigible pitcher. While he lacks the finish of the veteran behind the bat, he nevertheless performs in excellent style. He also did exceptionally well with the bat and his corking two bagger in the ninth was a great starter toward the ultimate victory.

The fielding features of the week have been furnished by Bradley and Millen, the latter doing the sensational work while everyday the former is Runs Hits Inp.

Tracy Baker, first baseman of the University of Washington Basebal Team, has accepted an offer to join the Boston Club of the American League.

Manager Griffith of Cincinnati says he is not surprised at McQuillan's fall from gace; that he rather expected it; that he did not figure McQuillan as the chief factor in the deal with Philadelphia, and that Moren's failure to get into pitching form hurts worse than "Big Mac's" lapse. He adds that his main object in making the deal was to secure a competent third baseman and that he achieved his object when he secured Grant, without considering the value of Outfielder Bates.

Not a sign yet of the prophesied "blow" of Outfielder Jackson of the Clevelands. He is hitting over .300 and stealing more than his share of bases.

"You can call me a lucky ball player." said catcher Ira Thomas of the Athletics. "for I have been literally canned into two world's series. The Highlanders sent me to Detroit in time to take part in the melon-cutting with the Cubs, and then the Detroits turned me over to the Athletics to take part in another struggle for post-season gold. I believe this is a record that no player can boast of."

It would seem that Hugh Jennings has picked up a most valuable youngster in Galnor, the first baseman. As a hitter Gainor is surely holding his own, for he is cutting just about as much of a figure with the bat as the acknowledged stars, Cobb and Craw-

All the young pitchers used so far by Manager Dooin, except Schultz, have made good, and even Schultz showed real-pitching ability, the defeated. The showing of the young pitchers is fortunate, with Moore, Rowan and Ewing suffering from heavy colds.

Manager Fred Clarke of Pittsburg has invented a rubber device to be placed in front of the regulation pitching slab. The object is to prevent twirlers from digging deep holes. The Pirate leader has patents on several other baseball utensils, including a canvas jacket for the diamond.

The St. Louis Club has turned Catcher Crisp, the Newark recruit, over to the Topeka Club of the Western League. Crisp, however, refuses to ac-cept the assignment.

There was nothing out of the way doing at the Woodbine on Saturday morning. None of the Kings Platers were given more than a dimb-loosening gallop. The wind was chilly, and rail-birds few. Mr. Seagram's string was cantered and schooled at the barrier. So were others. Heresy, Trapacolium and Rush Order, two-year-olds from the Dyment Stable, were breezed a quarter in 232-5 seconds, a half in .493-5, and five furlongs in 1.042-5. Franchise, Trixy Leroy and Orion, from the same stable, and also two-year-olds, were galloped a half in .502-5, and five furlongs in 1.05. Marcovil, a two-year-old bay colt, by Cesarion, did the best work of the Barrie stable, covering a quarter exceptionally nicely in .232-5, a half in .433-5, and five furlongs in 1.03, chased all the way by the Star Shoot three-year-old. It was easily the best performance of the morning, and proved the Chief to be in excellent order. In fact, he is as fit as a fiddle, and can be depended upon to maintain his reputation.

Powderman and Legislator were given an easy gallop, and of the other King's Plate candidates, Mr. Davies' Sanderling was breezed five furlongs, doing the quarter in .24'4-5, the half in .49'1-5, and the five furlongs in 1.04'2-5. Satin Bower, last year's Coronation winner, led the plater all the was. The latter evidently has all her speed and is moving well. Fair Annie and Frolic, also from the Davies' stable, were given a nice mile in 1.47, which they navigated in fine style. Both are evidently doing well, and are likely to be heard from. Frolic, it will be remembered, won the Mapie Leaf and Stanley Produce Stakes last year, beating Commola in the former, and the King's Plate winner, Parmer, and Commola, second in the plate, in the latter. The daughter of Alies d'Or never look, ed better, while Fair Annie also appears to have developed speed. As she proved herself a stayer by running third in the long race last fall, she is llable to prove an extra useful mare this year.

Bursar, from the Mackenze stable, travelled a half in free open style in 481-4 five furlongs in 1:02, and three quarters in 1:17. He has the appearance of a breadwinner, and has a good level way of moving.

The dash of Toronto giris, it might be re-marked, is proverbial—the refined, in-telligently brought up Toronto girls. On the streets unfortunately too many of the wayward, flash-and-go sister-hood are to be seen. But in places where they assemble, where money bespeaks the rank, beauty and polite behavior reign supreme. On the pub-lic thorofares an infinite amount of prettiness and brightness is to be seen, but dress, style and action are too fre-quently of that kind that causes the moralist to moralize and the thoughtful to marvel. However, all this has little to do with the vogue of the horse show. At the function recently in the armorles swelldom was transcendent and the horses, especially the hunters and jumpers, were of the highest quality yet seen. Something worthy of note was the absence of antiquarians. TUESDAY 325 HORSES

We will have plenty of horses for next week, and will have a lot to choose from for anyone and everyone. Among our shippers for this week are Messrs. Green, Tenny, Jackson, Williamson, McDonald, Hudgings Brothers, Pearson & Watson, May and Graham. There will be plenty of heavy horses and lots of lighter ones. The city entries for our next Tuesday's auction are very numerous, and many of these are sold absolutely without reserve. We will have a big run of horses, so if you want a horse or a load, come Tuesday next, the 16th.

OUR SELECTIONS INCLUDE ALL CLASSES: Heavy Draughts, General Purpose, Express, Delivery, Farm Chunks, Workers, Wagon Horses, Drivers and Carriage Horses.

A Brougham, T-Cart, Landau, Victoria and Dog-Cart have been consigned to us for sale, and are now in our sales ring. The gentleman consigning these is purchasing an automobile, and he gives us definite instructions to sell them for him, and leaves the selling entirely to us. Will be sold on Tuesday, the 16th.

We will have a few loads extra of good Heavy Draughts next week. These will be especially good, and have been purchased in the best horse districts of Ontario. Heavy horses of the good, sound, clean type come from those districts where there is good clay land. Light and sandy soil districts produce lighter grades of horses. Our consignors choose the best parts of the country and get the horses the market needs.

We also will have for Tuesday next a consignment of Knee Rugs. These are direct from a manufacturer, and are consigned for sale. All are new, and they are to be sold. There will be over 100 of them and a big variety. Seneca Rugs, Iroquois and many others.

been very rapid in this country. In Toronto, the home of the Canadian Boy Scout movement, we have over 2000 scouts and there are more than 3000 more in the Province of Ontario; while in the whole Dominion there are at least 10,000. They are spread out from Halifax on the Atlantic to Vancouver on the Pacific.

The Boy Scout movement has spread them in their childhood.

The word "scout" has been so inter-F you were to ask any soldier what the woven with "war" that many people associletters B. P. stood for he would ate the two and thus are led to believe that promptly answer "Baden-Powell," This the Boy Scout movement has for its object general is more popular with Tommy Atthe promotion of the martial spirit. This is hins than either Lord Roberts or Lord an erroneous conception. The meaning of Kitchener and is invariably referred to by the word "scout" is "to watch or observe the rank and file as "B-P." But the initials narrowly," and in the business world it is of the name of the founder of the Boy as necessary to be proficient in the accom-Scout movement also stand for the motto plishments which mark a reliable scout, as of the organization, "Be Prepared." To train our lads to "Be Prepared" for

It is true that the lads are taught some drill, but this only consists of physical exercises and enough of marching and manoeuvring to enable them to act together and to prevent them from becoming a rabble.

The history of Canada bristles with scouts. Cartier, Champlain, Montcalia, Wolfe, the early missionaries and pioneers are the beau ideal of sturdy manhood. But besides these we have the business and professional men, the clerks, artisans and laborers. All these are scouts for all "watch or observe narrowly" in order to "Be Prepared" to make the most of their opportunities, and they have to do so in these days of keen competition. Take Sir Thos. Shaughnessy, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, or any other of our leading citizens. They have attained their prominence and usefulness only by "scouting" in their own particular lines, and their early training had everything to do with their success.

It is to train our boys to develop their, talents, by close observation and concentration, in order to make them useful and successful citizens of our fair Dominion and to enable them to "Be Prepared" for the battle of life that is the first object of the Canadian Boy Scout movement.

The Baden-Powell Boy Scout movement has succeeded where so many others have failed because it not only attracts the boys.

The boys are grouped in "troops" under a "scoutmaster," who usually has one or more "assistant scoutmasters" under him, and are thus continually under the care of men who have their best interests at heart and who do their utmost to control and direct in the right path the many young "citizens in the making" that are under their care. There are three grades of scout, viz., tenderfoot, second class and first class, and the promotion is only attained after passing various tests of efficiency. Besides these grades there are about forty different badges, such as ambulance, seaman, first aid to animals, marksman, electrician, clerk, engineer, gardener, musician, etc., which are granted to those who qualify for them. Then there is the "Kings's Scout" badge and the Silver Wolf" decoration for those who qualify in a great number of these efficiency tests. The boys of to-day should much better "Be Prepared" for life's work than their fathers were thru the inauguration of the Canadian Play Scout movement.

AM glad to see among my Summer invitations requests to join amusement-seeking and healthseeking parties at games of bowls, especially of bowling on greens at this season. For bowls has the immense advantage of being a cheerful indoor sport in Winter and an invigorating outdoor sport in Sum-

The fascinating outdoor sport with which the lovely Mary Queen of Scots regaled herself, as much for her health and beauty's sake as for amusement, and in which Charles I., while a prisoner, engrossed himself to the exclusion of his sorrows, is becoming more popular and is what may be termed one of the most useful or the sports. James I. licensed it and recommended it "to be partaken of moderately" to his son, Prince Henry. So absorbing is the centuries-old game, that the story is told that Admiral Drake, being warned that the Spanish Armada was approaching, insisted upon finishing his game of bowls before setting forth to meet the mighty enemy. Friends took me te a famous Revolutionary tavern in New York, on the lawn of which General Washington and his staff forgot their eight years of battles in engagements at bowls.

But it is no mere man's sport. Never was woman more feminine than Mary Queen of Scots, and she was by her own words "devoted to bowls." So, also, were beautiful queens, and many famous beauties who were not queens, in history. If you are invited to bowl on any green do so twice as willingly as you accepted the invitation to such a game in Winter, for it will be of twice as great value to you, for exercise out of doors always has double the value of gymnastics within enclosing walls and beneath a roof.

Bowls and singing are alike, in that every one can learn to play bowls, as every one can learn to sing. Though not cry one can excel in either, every one can derive enjoyment from their practise.

The game has the power of "taking one out of onesself" as effectually as do the "forty winks" in which we "lose ourselves." The player forgets everything except the ball, the floor or the green grass which is the scene of action, and the "alleys." Any game which prevents the mind treading consciously or unconsciously its worn paths, lifts the man or woman out of daily thought environment, is a public benefit, and howls belong in this class

The principle is easily mastered. Expertness depends upon practise and the most enthusiastic players are those oldest in their experience

The most important principle is

Mme. Lina Cavalieri. that the player give the ball a long swing backward, behind him, before delivery. This is an excellent developing exercise for the chest, increasing the lung expansion and making the muscles of the forearm

Bowling is excellent practise for the eyes. While the course of the ball is not always straight, the eye must be kept on the pins, and success depends largely upon sure-It develops, as does no other sport, the always desirable "good right arm." That member become as reliable and as necessary as the pendulum of a clock. The elbow joint is trained to become absolutely straight. The arm hangs from the shoulder as though it possessed but one joint and that the one on the Bowling teaches the body the art, almost lost to persons who spend much time in the sedentary work of the shops, the schoolrooms or offices, of stooping. The ball must be lowered to the alley by bending the body far forward from the hips.

It teaches swift adjustment and fine control of the body. Expert bowlers take two to four short, quick steps before delivering a ball.

The first position consists in steadying the ball with both hands raised and measuring the distance it has to run with the eye. Place the left foot well forward. Turn the side enough to permit the right arm to swing quite free of the body. Then swing the ball downward and back with a long sweep of the arm. Take one step forward and bend the body forward as a balance to the weight of the ball. Swing the arm backward so that the ball approaches the shoulder of the player This is the important second postwhich the hall is started. The body darts forward with the two to four steps I have described and that adds to the force of the ball's flight. The arm flashes powerfully forward, the elbow remaining straight. The ball is started on its way by a last lunge or thrust, with all its force, of the body, the body bending so that the ball just , grazes the alley as it starts on its flight. Do not drop the ball a few inches to the alley, and be sure when you drop it you do so with an arm, the elbow of which is perfectly straight. Either of these is an error that would rob the ball of its force or that would make its course a crocked one. The fourth po-

It is said that if a black cat follows you it betokens good luck, but is a cat leaves the house which has been its home some misfortune is about to happen. We wish we could have the privilege of meeting you face to face, instead of being obliged to talk to you through this advertisement. We should like to personally show you the Abbott-Detroit cars.

It is a difficult thing for anybody to convey through the printed page such intangible things as QUALITY, BEAUTY, HONESTY, CO-OPERATION and SATISFACTION, yet that is what we are TRYING to do.

We wish to impress you with the fact that nowhere can you get better quality, better workmanship, a better car for your money than in an Abbott-Detroit.

We hope the illustration will give you some idea of the beauty of the car's lines, yet we trust that you will want to see the car itself. We are sure you will be impressed with it's finish, it's upholstery, it's roominess, it's comfortableness, and it's unusual fore door construction.

As an evidence of our honesty and our desire to co-operate with our owners, we have always sold Abbott-Detroit cars under this Guarantee. WE WANT ABBOTT-DETROIT OWNERS TO BE A PART OF US NOT APART FROM US. We are BUILDING for PERMANENCE, and we know that our business can only be a success and prosper as long as our customers are satisfied, not only with their original purchase, but with the interest we take in their welfare afterwards.

The Abbott-Detroit car is ONE of the BEST NINE cars on the American market. It COSTS $2000 LESS THAN ANY ONE of the OTHER EIGHT.

The Abbott-Detroit though, primarily, a touring automobile has successfully competed (at 15-hours notice) with special speeding machines and in each instance came out of the struggle, healthy, alive and victorious, as for example the Vanderbilt Cup and Fairmount Park races.

The wonderful record of the Abbott "Bulldog," a stock touring car which has already covered 30,000 miles, and is at the present time enroute on the Mexican border is furnishing daily evidence of the Abbott-Detroit's wonderful sturdiness and reliability.

Write us for the booklet of the Abbott-Detroit or phone us and we shall be glad to send a car to your house or office and give you a demonstration. Here are the prices: Five-Passenger, Fore-Door Touring Car, $2,100; Fore-Door Roadster, $2,000; Fore-Door Demi-Tonneau (Tonneau Detachable), $2,200. Coupe, $2,800. All standard equipment.

Guarantee

This is to certify that the Abbott Mot or Company will fully warrant and guarantee the automobile covered by this certificate for its entire life, from the date of the original sale by the dealers. This guarantee also includes all material and all equipment, with the exception of tires, magneto, lamps, etc., which are warranted by the respective makers, used in connection with the construction of said automobile. If any parts of this car break or prove defective from any cause whatsoever, and the customer shall forthwith communicate the fact to the Abbott Motor Company or one of its authorized dealers, giving the number of the car and the name of the dealer from whom the car was purchased and the date of purchase, and it shall appear that such breakage was not in fact due to misuse, negligence, or accident, the Abbott Motor Company will furnish such new parts either through its dealer or at the factory in Detroit, Michigan, free of charge to the owner. This guarantee does not apply directly or indirectly to consequental damage of any nature whatsoever or to the replacement of tires which are guaranteed by the manufacturers thereof.

"THE MAN WHO STOOD STILL." The conclusion that I arrived at long kince, with some little working ex-perience, and after occasional talks with men who had wider, larger stage experience than I, is that, given a good sound homely story, well constructed and well played, melodrama with a balanced admixture of low comedy and domestic near-tragedy, in a homely setting and with a comfortably happy ending for all save the harmful necessary villain or villains, is not only pleasing to its audiences, but profitable also to its promoters. And when one comes to consider that these two things constitute the desired culmination of all theatrical effort, one wonders, at the number of blatant) burles-ques and tearful tragedies which take the road, but hardly at the large per-centage of them which are failures. Things which conceivably might hap-pen in your own household, to you and yours, are, if interesting, more in-timately gripping, than things, which seeing, you know, quite well, could not Still the broadly interesting play good things in the show are the sub-which it certainly is. Since the be-ginning of all things trouble has just naturally arisen by reason of the ex-istance of quite small girls, and here the eternal feminine (young-mark you) starts it again. Of course she is not wholly responsible. That, in truth. is the orgin of the ensuing complications. She is as wholly irresponsible as the beauteous maiden generally is—and, dear me, how much of this world's strife has been started by the malden dazed by the first budding knowledge Festival at the Royal Alexandra bepretty girl coming into her queendom, enjoying it and careless of, because unaccustomed to, the dangers which are naturally related to her attractiveness. That is the framemarriage, and, belated trouble overultimate happiness. That is the frame-work of the story, and yet, curiously. It has little to do. except as frame-work, with the high-lights of the acting. These three characters Marie Kraus (Miss Wellman) Frank Macferguson (R. T. Horton) her ultimate husband, were all very well shown, and indeed, with Alice Spiegel-Miss Parke Pattonmade a not altogether subordinate quartet, having to do a great deal with the story, and doing it with very much success, but the real drawing of character, older, maturer; fixed character, was done by Mr. Mann as the old clock maker, John Kraus, Miss Mathilde Cottrelly, as his sister and housekeeper, Katrina-John K. Kelley as Edward Spiegel and Edwin Maynard as Martin Macferguson, the two latter being respectively, fathers of the boys who sdo battle for Marie. There are several other characters in the play, all well handled, but Mr. Mann's John Kraus stood out head and shoulders above them all. His was one of the cleanest-cut cleverest bits of character acting of its kind I have seen for a long time. It was, at times, earnestly pathetic, at times cleverly carelessly buoyant, and, at times, almost terribly tragic. In every mood he was very convincing and that the conviction which, thru the force of his artistry, he conveyed to his audience was keenly appreciated, was evidenced by the generous applause they accorded him. The story of "Father and the Boys" is unusually interesting and cannot be told briefly without failure to relate some significant part of the yarn, for never before has George Ade so closely knit into a consistent whole the varied threads of his plot.

However, the play tells of the effort, successful in the end, of a shrewd and slaving old business man to interest his two boys in the affairs of the firm. One of the boys is a siciety chap, the other a crank on athletics. When the father is brought to see that his sons are drifting away from him he attempts to win them back by plunging into the dissipation whirl with them. biological station at Copenhagen, an

Perilous Work of Moving Picture Man

Penetrating into perilous places, making thrilling rides on scenic railways in mountainous countries at spe-cial daring speed, carrying a heavy camera in mountain climbing, clash-ing with officious authorities and running risk of arrest and imprisonment in taking prohibited views, the life of the moving picture camera man is not all sunshine and roses," says H. A. Crowhurst, who is chief of Lyman H Howe's photographic staff and speak: from wide experience. He has stories without number of thrilling adventures, interesting scenes and ludicrous experiences with which he has met in practising his profession, on behalf of Mr. Howe's production, coming to the Reyal Alexandra. He has taken plotures all thru the United Kingdom and in every country in Europe. He has recorded the life of the Parisians, the military manoeuvres of the Italian cavalry, the gymnastic exhibitions in Belgrade, the cap-ital of Servia, the life of Russians in St. Petersburg and Moscow. He has recorded the movements of monarchs and crown princes and has defied authority in obtaining the photographs which afterwards delighted thousands of people. Mr. Crowhurst nearly met death sev eral times. Once, when he was taking views of the giant Olympic, while it was being constructed in the Belfast shipyards, he was hoisted far up in the structure in a bucket. With a man who was asisting him, he started to walk around and, being absorbed in his work, he did not notice just where he was going. Looking down, he suddenly saw that he was on a beam about eighteen inches wide. In one hand he had his camera, weighing nearly 100 pounds. There was no guard rail of any kind and he could only grip his any kind and he could only grip his nerve and keep on. Something brush-ed his shoulder and, glancing down, he saw that a workman above had drop-ped a heavy bolt. Had there been two inches difference in the path of the falling bolt. Mr. Crowhurst would have been knocked from the beam and to instant death.

In talking of the officiousness

European authorities, Mr. Crowhurst tells of an experience he had in Bel grade. He had authority from the military commander to take pictures of the gymnastic manoeuvres. King Peter and the crown prince and princess were expected to attend and Mr. Crowhurst was anxious to get pictures

Funny Patterers and Songsters at Majestic

Vaudeville Features of a Dazzling, Dashing Nature at This Popular Playhouse This Week.

The vaudeville offerings for the current week at the Majestic Theatre, embrace several "classy" turns which will appeal to the most fastidious playgoer. Topping the bill is Gaylor and Gaff, of musical comedy fame, who will present for the first time in Toronto their latest laughing vehicle, "Pan Handle Pete's Lucky Day," a caricature made famous in the comic sections of all the leading newspapers. The piece is produced on an elaborate scale, the comedy is clean and whole-scale, the comedy is clean and whole-some, while the cycle of song in-terpolations adds popularity to the act. Cutler and D'Arcy, who will appear as the added attraction, will present a modern sketch entitled "The stage compensar" which disaless to the allcarpenter," which divulges to the audience some of the inner working the mechanics who arrange the settings and scenery on the stage. There is also a love story interwoven in the piece which adds interest to the piece. At a rehearsal a dashing soubrette strikes up an acquaintance with a stage carpenter, a most congenial in-dividual, which soon ripens into affection, and eventually terminates in the stage carpenter discovering that he is enthralled with the sweetness and beauty of a charming young actress. The comedy of the playlet is of a most delicious character.

The remainder of the program includes acts which have never before been presented in Toronto. Notable among these are Lovering and Griham, the "Operatic Queens," who will appear in a high-cless singing act. They are gifted light opera prima donnas who devote their vaudeville specialties to song selections from different well-known operatic successes Their extensive repertoire includes the most tuneful and catchful selections, which never fail to find popular favor with the audiences wherever these talented artists have appeared. Jack Sutherland, who is known as the "Phenomenal" musical genius, recently over from the European music halls, will offer an original turn, which has been received with great

Toronto Needs a Settled Policy of Annexing Suburbs

Question of When and How Outlying Districts Are to Join the City Should Be a Fixed Policy-Time Is Ripe for Annexation of North Toronto-Benefits to Both Would Arise.

The question of annexing suburbs to a large city such as Toronto is very important one. It must be remembered first that people who go to live in suburban districts have been drawn from the city itself, and are as go down to the city each morning and draw their support from it, and morally are bound to take an interest in its weal or woo

The growth of the suburbs of Toronto has been rapid of late years, and a settled policy in regard to admittance to the city should be adopted. When a suburb on the borders of Toronto becomes a town, as in the case of North Toronto, the time is ripe for its annexation. The benefits that arise thru such a course are equally divided between the city generally and the portion taken in. All the advantages of being a part and parcel of Toronto have been given to the sections that have been annexed. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been spent in building and equipping public and high schools in these districts, in fact, the increasing amount of money that is being required to support the schools is due to the taking in of the Good roads, sewers, better telephone facilities, and it is to be hoped better railway service, are some of the rewards given to outside districts that link up with the city, and help to make a million population city. On the other hand, annexing these districts means considerable to the city. First, there is added taxes, the added population and territory, etc. Time For Action:

The time is becoming ripe in Toronto for further annexation work. North Toronto is at the door of Toronto ready to become a part of the city. In the next issue of The Sunday World there will be an article showing some of the reasons why this should be brought about.

In sections of Toronto there are districts that are considered by shrewd buyers to be good places in which to invest their money in land, and hold on to it until there is a good profit to be made by selling. Many of the best sites in downtown Toronto, as well as in other sections of the city, are being held in this way by men who are only waiting for the increase that is bound to come, thru no efforts of their own, but thru improvements that are made by the owners of neighboring property. Tax-Paying Buildings.

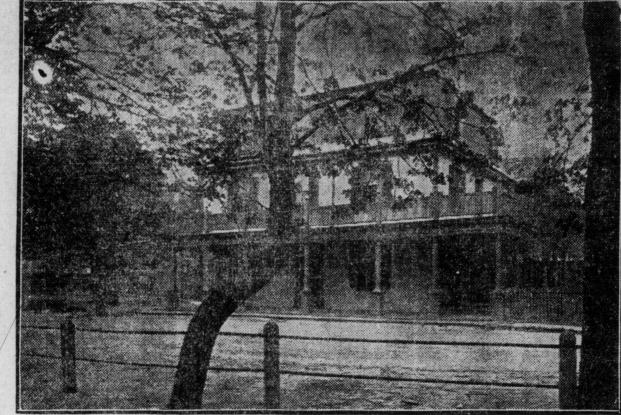

While carrying such properties, which are practically vacant land, there are taxes to be met, and the owner usually arranges to meet this claim by erecting any kind of a cheap building which will bring him in rental sufficient to pay the taxes of the land, and sometimes over in walking thru many of the principal streets, Queen, Bay, Richmond, Yonge, King and others, it can be noticed that on land worth anywhere from $1000 to $3000 per foot frontage, small stores, with offices or apartments above them occupy this land, when in justice to the locality and the money other men in the neighborhood have spent in property improvements, large lifty or hundred-thousand-dollar buildings should stand. The owners of such property do not wish to make the investment of any large sums to tie up their land in putting up large buildings, but are content to hang on and let the locality boost the prices. If all owners were to follow course of "hang back," Toronto to-day would be filled downtown with

FACTORY DISTRICT

North Dovercourt District Has Grown in a Phenomenal Manner in Factories.

What is known as the North Dover-court district has had a wonderful growth in the past few years. This is the section west of Bathurst-street, north of about Dupont-street, as far west as West Toronto and northward as far as built. It is thru this dis-trict that the C. P. Why could not each suburb of Toronto have its improvement league in the way many cities on the continent do? The purposes of such a society would be to look after the general welfare of the section they live in, and strive to make it more attractive than the rival district. Such a society could see to it that building restrictions were lived up to, that the streets were properly taken care of, and generally encourage suburbanites to make the appearances of their homes as attractive as

A SOCIAL SETTLEMENT For Toronto

The meeting held in the city hall a short time ago to discuss the advisability of a social settlement being established in Centra Toronto, appointed a committee, the personnel of which means that something will be done. Editorial.

It is surprising how enthusiastic Canadian women can get over the victories made for the Woman's Suffrage movement in other countries.

The national organization sent a cable congratulating the English women on the victory of the second reading of the Conciliation Bill by the magnificent majority of 255 over 88. We were also jubliant over the monster parade in New York which has marked an epoch in suffrage history in marked an epoch in suffrage history in the United States. Toronto has been the acknowledged head of the Canadian movement since its beginning. The national president has always resided here. I believe I quote history when I name the three national presidents:—Dr. Emily Stowe, Mr. James L. Hughes, and the present president, Dr. Stowe-Gullen. Stowe-Gullen.

Hughes, and the present president. Dr. Stowe-Gullen.

About six months ago public suffrage' headuarters were established. Splendid work has been done here thru the Toronto Suffrage Association with Dr. Margaret Gordon as its president. It seemed an easy matter to keep the Headquarters running after they were once furnished and established but altho many appeals have gone forth the burden of carrying the expenses rests with a few and it would now look as the these delightful Headquarters with have to be given up if the sympathizers of the movement do not come forward with their contributions. I feel that I am making legitimate use of this department, "The Open Road Towards Democracy," in making this appeal because we can never reach democracy while half the face is distracted and its an so terribly Cantal and I am so terribly Canta Towards Democracy," in making this appeal because we can never reach democracy while half the face is distracting on the face is distributed, and I am so terribity Canadian and still more Ontarion (is that correct) that I feel humiliated to even contemplate a backward step in this great suffrage movement and this will undoubtedly occur if the Headquarters at 259 Yonge-street should have to be abandoned thru lack of funds—and while congratulating our English cousins let us all remember that it is thru self-sacrifice, thru prison and even death that this great victory has been won. Are Ontarion men and women of 'meaner stuff?" I cannot believe it.

To judge by quite a little batch of speeches made during the last week or so in the States, there would seem to be an unusual unanimity among American politicians as to the desirability of Reciprocity, and the welding of the U. S. and Canada into one community under one flag. This policy may seem advisable even beneficial—both to Canadians and Americans, but probably there will always be a distinct difference of opinion as to which "One Country" ter absolutely demanding instant attention—the Coronation is, and, anyway, one may judge by Sir Wiifrid's attitude toward the proposition that it will likely come to it's better solution with him out of it than with him in it. However that may be, his position in Canadian public life demanded that he should allow nothing to interfere with his duty to repreopinion as to which "One Country" to interfere with his duty to represent the Dominion, in line with the Why some of the Canadian papers do not strongly advocate the Colonies, and it is satisfying to learn do not strongly advocate the Colonies, and it is satisfying to learn fusion of territory under the name, at last that he will duly present him-"CANERICA." and under the segts of the Union Jack, does not seem quite apparent. Doubtless the Americans, in pretending to assume that their going concern, is inevitable, are just cluffing and we might do worse than "raise" their bluff by suggesting that Canada is quite willing to become "one" with them so long as Canada is THE ONE, and the Stars and Stripes gives place to the Union Jack. The one proposition is no whit the more impertthent on every ground, quite as defen-and on every ground, quite as defenofble in argument.

The Supreme Principle of Education Eleanor Hallowell Abbott

Some call it "common sense"; others, less polished "hoss sense"; the learned disguise it under that sonorous and mouth-filling term "psychology." As "psychology" it forms a part of the pro-fessional training of our school teachers, for whom it is smothered in such a bewildering maze of technical phraseology that they are never very sure what it means. It does not strike them that they have been studying the laws of the mind or the working processes of the brain, and they go out into the great world having missed the most important and most practical points in mental training simply because these have not been put before the mplainly and foreibly in everyday language. The students of schools, colleges and universities in their turn are sent forth with a finished (?) education, but utterly untrained in the simple, yet most pregnant of processes-the process of controlling their own minds. Could had been charmed with "Molly Make-I do so, I would put into the hands of every teacher, professor, Believe." educator and student a copy of Arnold Bennett's "The Human Machine"—a little book containing a series of talks on the management of one's brain—a book of little more than one hundred pages, which can be read in an hour and can be applied in every other story. I doubt if I ever will, for once waking hour during the rest of your life.

The heart of the book is in this extract: You can control nothing but your own mind. Even a twoyear-old babe may defy you by the instinctive force of its personality. But your own mind you can control. Your own mind is a band. It would seem as if almost sacred enclosure into which nothing harmful can enter except by your permission. Your own mind has the power to transmute every external phenomenon to its own purposes.

"If happiness arises from cheerfulness, kindness, and rectitude (and who will deny it?) what possible combination of circumstances is going to make you unhappy so long as the machine remains in order? What Makes A Poem Bad?

Rule for Determining Quality of

If we could only formulate some in-fallible test of poetic merit and then apply the formula as a dry goods clerk ies his yard measure to a roll of calico, what a great relief that would be to some kinds of people. Maybe the new laboratory psychology will de-velop such a formula some day and poetic merit will then be determined by a chart and a wavy line across it hat indicates the average intensity of feeling awakened by a poem in a se-lected class of readers. Or perhaps a new meter will be invented that will measure the number of volts generated by the reading of a poem, and our poet syndicates will then send a man around each month to read the meter and charge us according to the number and intensity of the thrills we have received from the bards. But that happy day is still distant. Until it comes we shall have to depend upon uncertain standards that give varying results as applied by different persons. Edith Sichel, in her paper in a recently issued book of essays, published in Oxford ("Fasays and Studies by

THE WORLD AT LARGE AND SPORT IN GENERAL & H. J. P. GOOD

Affairs of the Day

Morality of Divorce. Ministers nowadays are apt to say almost anything. They break out in unexpected places. Here is the R. J. Hutcheon of the Jarvis Street Unitarian Church declaring that orce is not immoral. It is a strange doctrine for a minister, of the gospel to give utterance to. The Roman jesty, King George V. is evidently doing his best to "wake up Britain." We Catholic Church does not claim the sole right to administer a sacrament or to perform marriages, and Mr. al vigilance is the price of liberty, un-Hutcheon knows that. It does its best to discourage marriages between Catholics and Protestants. The Pro-testant churches and Protestant societies do the same, and are conferring a benefit upon the community in doing so. At times marriages in which the parties are opposed to each other in religion turn out satisfactory, but more frequently they do not. It is surely better to avoid danger than to run into it. Mr. Hutcheon says "divorce rightly conditioned and administered does not" make for immorality. Indeed, what kind of example do the Indeed, what kind of example do the children of divorced parents receive? It is safe to say that a large percentage of the children of such parents are inclined to immorality. At any rate, divorce must have a painful and lasting effect upon a household. More, it undoubtedly makes for race suicide. Heroes and heroines of divorce, it is perhaps fortunate to be able to say, rarely have offspring. They are simply given over to selfish indulgences and take every means possible to prevent child-birth. Time and time again I have urged that the sale of preventatives should be prohibited, or at least not allowed except on a prescription from a doctor. There is nothing that would more tend to decrease immor-ality than this and, incidentally, it would discourage divorce. Mr. Hutche-on says further that the rigid and unbending attitude toward other religions of the Roman Church had brought all religions into contempt brought all religions into contempt among three-quarters of the French people, and that a similar attitude towards divorce would not perpetuate, but tend to destroy the sacrament of the marriage bond. When a minister of the gospel indulges in such rodemontade, he himself does infinitely more to foster immorality, to appears more to foster immorality, to encour-age doubt, to breed infidelity, than he does to encourage good living. He de-secrates the sanctity of the home and makes mockery of the heavenly decree forbidding the putting asunder of those who have been joined in holy matri-mony. It is such doctrines as those of Mr. Hutcheon that make young people rush heedlessly and recklessly into marriage and to regard the sacred rite as a mere license to satisfy their lust-.

Wherein, then, will the farmer benefit by reciprocity? This argument is a two-edged sword, it is true, but it is all a question of multitude and multiplicity. And prices to the consumer would not be lower in Canada because of reciprocity because the cost of distribution and of transportation and of loss incurred by storage has to be added.

An Ancient Rain Gauge.

The credit of inventing the rain gauge has always been given to Castelli, a contemporary of Galileo, who made one in 1639, but the director of the Corean Meteorological Observatory, Dr. Y. Wada, has shown that it is due to a Corean king. The latter, King Sejo, in the year 1442, caused an instrument of bronze to be constructed to measure the rain, and it is set out in the historical records of Korea that this was a vase fifteen inches deep and seven inches in diameter, placed in the observatory, and each time the rain fell the officials were instructed to measure the height and to make it known to the king. Other instruments were distributed to the provinces and canton, and the results of the observations made were sent to court.—Knowledge.

VICTOR HERBERT'S "RED MILL."

The score of "The Red Mill" is by Victor Herbert, who has long been accepted as the foremost American composer. He has written nineteen light operas, among them "The Prima Donna," "Mlle. Modiste," "Babes in Toyland," "It Happened in Nordland,"
"The Tattooed Man," "The Serenade,"
"The Fortune Teller," "Babette," "The Wizard of the Nile," "The Idol's Eye," "Wonderland," "Dream City," "The Magic Knight," "The Singing Girl," "Dolly Dollars," etc., all of which have been big successes and many of which are still being played both in America and Europe. He is equally well known as a writer of serious music and is himself a virtouso of the highest type. His symphonic poems are included in the programs of symphony orchestras all over the world. His concertos for the 'cello are the accepted standard of musicianship. When Oscar Ham-merstein decided to have grand opera written upon an American sub-ject for production at his Manhattan Opera House, Mr. Herbert was the one musician in the States worthy of this commission, and he was unhesitatingly
