FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE
KANSAS
By John J. Ingalls

KANSAS is the nucleus of our political system, around which forces assemble, to which its energies converge, and from which its energies radiate to the remotest circumference. Kansas is the focus of freedom, where the rays of heat and light concentrated into a flame that melted the manacles of the slave and cauterized the heresies of state sovereignty, and disunion. Kansas is the core and kernel of the country, containing the germs of its growth and the quickening ideas essential to its perpetuity. The history of Kansas is written in capitals; it is punctuated with explanation points. Its verbs are imperative. Its adjectives are superlative. The commonplace and prosaic are not defined in its lexicon. Its statistics can be stated only in the language of hyperbole.

The aspiration of Kansas is to reach the unattainable; its dream is the realization of the impossible. Alexander wept because there were no more worlds to conquer. Kansas, having vanquished all competitors, smiles complacently as she surpasses from year to year her own triumphs in growth and glory. Other states could be spared with irreparable bereavement, but Kansas is indispensable to the joy, the inspiration, and the improvement of the world. It seems incredible that there was a time when Kansas did not exist; when its name was not written on the map of the United States; when the Kansas cyclone, the Kansas grasshopper, the Kansas boom and the Kansas Utopia were unknown.

I was a student in the junior class at Williams college when President Pierce, forgotten but for that signature, approved the act establishing the territory of Kansas, May 30, 1854. I remember the inconceivable agitation that preceded, accompanied and followed this event. It was an epoch. Destiny closed one volume of our annals, and opening another, traced with shadowy finger upon its pages a million epitaphs, ending with Appomattox.

Kansas was a prologue to a tragedy whose epilogue has not yet been pronounced; the prelude to a fugue of battles whose reverberations have not yet died away.

Floating one summer night upon a moonlight sea, I heard far over the still waters a high clear voice singing:

To the west! To the west! To the land of the free,
Where the mighty Missouri rolls down to the sea;
Where a man is a man if he's willing to toil,
And the humbles may gather the fruits of the soil.

A Journey to Paris.

The night of Talbot's letter seemed to fret Brett's imagination. He radiated electric energy. Both Lord Fairholme and Miss Talbot felt that in his presence all doubts vanished. They realized, without knowing why, that this man of power, this sultan dynamo, would quickly dispel the clouds which now rendered the outlook so forbidding. For the moment, heeds of his presence, he began to pace the room in the Grand Hotel which he had of his thoughts. Once he halted in front of the small bust of Edgar Allan Poe, whose pedestal still imprisoned the order.

PREMIER UNHURT IN TRAIN WRECK

Sir Wilfrid's Special in Collision With a Freight—Both Engines Wrecked and Several Passengers Injured

Regina, Aug. 7—While speeding along at sixty miles an hour late Friday night with what the engineer believed to be a clear track before him, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's special train collided head on with a fast train westbound, about midway between Moosejaw and Regina. The premier was thrown from his seat to the floor amid a litter of broken dishes and overturned furniture, but rose and declared himself unharmed.

Hon. George P. Graham and Senator Gibson, who were in another car, were also thrown down, and Mr. Graham limped for some time afterwards, but was otherwise unharmed.

The conductor of the special sustained the most serious injury, having several ribs broken.

The engineers and firemen of the two trains jumped and escaped with bruises and scratches.

The press car suffered the most severely of any in the special, many of the newspaper men receiving painful bruises. None was seriously hurt, however.

The wreck occurred far out on the prairie, about three and a half miles west of Pense. The night was dark as possible and a driving rain was falling. Some of the press men made their way along the track to Pense and a wrecking crew was summoned from Moosejaw.

The engines of both trains were smashed, as well as four freight cars and the baggage car of the special.

South Battleford, Sask., Aug. 7—(Special)—Following a day of travel in which he addressed a gathering at Davidson, Hanley, Dundurn, Langham and North Battleford, Sir Wilfrid Laurier spent Sunday resting at the residence of Senator Prince here.

The premier has been showered with congratulations and telegrams from all parts of Canada on his escape in the wreck of his train Friday night. The several addresses, at various points visited, all made reference to the accident with an expression of thanks that the premier had been unharmed.

Sir Wilfrid assured all he felt no ill effects from the shaking up. Speaking at Langham, he congratulated the people on the number of children in the gathering. "Come from Quebec," he said smilingly, "I am better able to appreciate the presence in the homes of many little ones."

There was a reception at Battleford at night with a torchlight procession and bands, followed by brief addresses by the premier. Hon. Mr. Graham, Messrs. Pardee and McDonald.

Sir Wilfrid will be joined tomorrow at Lloydminster by Hon. Frank Oliver, who has just returned from a trip to the Yukon, and Provincial Premier Sifton.

BUSINESS METHODS NEEDED

The work of putting down a new water main on German street still drags along, and offers a fine illustration of the wasteful methods of the civic departments. The delay is not caused by Mr. W. J. Cain, who has the contract for the excavation, but by the waterworks department, which lays a few joints of pipe and then goes away to some other job.

THE STANDARD CONFESSES

The readers of the St. John Standard must have experienced a rude shock this morning. They had been led by that journal, and by Dr. Daniel, M. P., to believe that there would be no development at Courtenay Bay, and that Hon. Dr. Page was merely fooling the people. Why does the Standard confess to this? It appears to be the ground taken by the Standard. It is endorsed by Mr. Borden.

MR. FOSTER NOT INCLUDED

Mr. E. L. Borden did not attend the moonlight excursion of the Gordon Club of this city, at which Hon. George E. Foster was the chief speaker, and at which Mr. Foster was welcomed in the highest terms by Premier Hazen and other speakers. It is now announced that Mr. Borden will not have Mr. Foster with him at his series of meetings in Nova Scotia. The Standard's morning edition of the program of Mr. Borden's tour, which begins at Truro on Wednesday next and ends at Shelburne on August 24, in addition to Mr. Borden, the speaker will be Mr. Doherty, M. P., of Montreal, Mr. Currier, M. P., of West Hill, Mr. E. Tanner of Pictou, Mr. J. J. Ritchie of Halifax, and the local candidates in the different constituencies.

ant, in which capacity he accompanied Mr. Borden in his tour of Ontario.

Mr. Foster says himself that he is not politically dead but very much alive. Mr. Hazen says that Mr. Foster will take a more prominent place in the party in future than in the past. But Mr. Borden, who is the leader of the party, brings in his own province a Quebec man and an Ontario man, and leaves Mr. Foster to continue the cultivation of his Kennebecian garden.

DOES MR. BORDEN APPROVE?

The Standard is opposed to a Canadian built navy. It says: "Not only will construction cost a great deal more, but the expense of maintenance and renewal will run into millions of dollars, all of which except to provide opportunities for the grafters is uncalled for and unnecessary."

THE REASON.

McWigger dotes an Arabella's hair. He says its brown effect is really rare and that it is beyond compare. Now, why should Arabella's tresses stir the man's mind? She's taught to him. Well, I infer.

IT'S FATHER.

A little girl whose father was a commercial traveller sat on the porch holding a kitten, and creeping up close to her mother heard this: "Kitty," said the young miss, "I know you ain't know your mamma as I know all your little brothers and sisters, but I ain't ever seen your papa." "Then after a brief pause," I see he must be a travelling man."

A SURE CURE FOR GENERAL DEBILITY.

When a feller's all stove up in favor of the extraction of teeth, Physically, just hangin' his tooth 'n' nail, an' wishin' he's either well or dead an' gone, Then it aches comin' back, Feller's youth an' feller's smile, Just 't' take his pole an' fish 'n' up an' down of T. U. S. Dig his angle worms himself. Extry fat-an' eat a pole, Then steal off an' head for some Old established fishin' hole. Where the wharf, sholder deep, Where the larks an' swallows skim, 'Tis the creek where trouble an' Aches an' pains won't follow him. Scramble up old grassy banks. Down 'em, too-an' wade the run, Things a man with Hadn't oter never done! Straddle logs an' crawl around Under snags an' in a through- Things an' abode a man, Sound an' healthy, couldn't do! Set beside some hole an' fish. Half the day, afeelin' prime, More than half asleep, without But see nothin' 'till the time! Not a fish, as like as not! Mebbe not a bite, but look, 'Tis the old-time feller's hook! Nossin' round the feller's hook! —John D. Wells.

Caddy Strike a Failure

(Ottawa Free Press.) Coincident with the announcement that the Grand Trunk strike has been settled comes the welcome word that no caddies of the Ottawa Golf club, who threw up their jobs and sided behind "bankers" for an increase in wages, have abandoned their claims and are back on the job chasing long drives through the ambient atmosphere.

THE KING DENTAL PARLORS

TEXAS PHILOSOPHY. "Many a man," remarked the home-grown philosopher, "spends his courtship days in telling a girl that he is unworthy of her, and his married life in proving it." —Houston Chronicle. A slow way to become a millionaire is to work for the money. It's easy to love our enemies—after the undertaker gets them. The successful man jumps at a chance while the other fellow is balking at a logical conclusion. Nearly all your acquaintances are your friends until you are in a position to use them. After a man gets on the farther side of 40 he becomes reconciled—even though he isn't satisfied. If a man happens to have more "cold cash" than he knows what to do with, he is said to have "money to burn." Husbands and wives rarely agree on the amount of pin money the latter need. Don't think that because a man is "crank" it is always possible to turn him from a purpose. France is the best cultivated country in Europe.

THE PARK BENCHERS

Every City Has its Share of "Failures" Who Idle the Days Away. (Springfield, Mass., Homestead) Those who have heard that beautiful college song "Nearer the Kingdom of Our Old Trinity," can conjure before their mind's eye a broad expanse of campus, shaded by spreading elm trees and students talking or at study beneath the old traditional honored trees. What a different picture is seen each succeeding day beneath the elms of Court square, where the college of pauperism, the institute of neglect and the university of failure is in daily session! No one can walk through the square without his attention being attracted by the debris of life's battles cast up, as it were, on the benches that are grouped in the shade of the surviving elms and other trees. The person whose business or pleasure takes him through the square every day is struck by the similarity in face, figure and dress of the habitués of the benches, and, although if he is of an observant disposition, he may notice that the faces are not always the same, the type is unmistakable, and to a casual observer it would seem that the same man, day after day, day in and day out when the weather is pleasant, see the sunrise and set from the benches of failure. Where these men come from no one seems to know. They are there at 8 o'clock in the morning, and stay until night comes on, when they shamble off to nothing, dropping off into stupor, slumber, and when the sun shines again they are back in their old places. They do no harm, for it takes energy to be outside the pale of the law and order; those men are failures, and failure is for the most part harmless. The occupants of the benches beneath the elms all present the same general characteristics. Coats and frayed trousers that were once black, and are now a dingy nondescript green, battered derby hats and delapidated straw, shoes run down at the heel, with gaping tears in the uppers, are a la mode among the fraternity of benchers. Collars and ties are taboos, and anything dilly to smoke, from the ancient cob to the second-hand cigar butt or cigarette stub are distinctly do rigueur. As these specimens of the flotsam and jetsam of society drool the day to an end beneath the elms, only moving when the sun forces its way through the spreading leaves, they present as woful a picture as one would care to imagine. They are all old or middle-aged, all sit with drooping heads; they never look up when their silent thoughts are disturbed by the passerby (if these derelicts ever think, their thoughts must be gloomy ones). Among these wrecks on the shore of adversity, the old bronze philosopher is often seen, proudly displayed from shabby lapels. Through what adventures of fate, and buffeted by what rude seas of life, are these men who wore the blue and marched under the leadership of great generals compelled to spend the days—nay, the years—of their lives in idleness? A few evil-looking young men, with beetle brows, are among the benchers; but not many—perhaps, that kind keep away. It is the aged men that predominate—mumbling, sputtered, blue-eyed, vacantly wrinkling in the glare of the sun, rubbing their withered hands together, poring over yesterday's newspapers, leaning on nothing, dropping off into stupor, slumber, and wiping their eyes with dirty handkerchiefs—these are the weak, impotent pauperism claimed habitues of the benches "neath the elms." Moses White, aged 73, a well known resident of Marysville, died yesterday at his home there.

INDIA IS LOYAL SAYS MAHARAJA

Ottawa Citizen.—The Maharaja of Mour bhari, a small Indian state near the city of Calcutta, who is touring the world for the benefit of his health, is a visitor to the city, being registered at the New Russell. This is the first time his highness has ever been out of India, but despite this fact he speaks English with fluency and discussed social questions in and out of India with the greatest ease. "India is loyal to Great Britain," said his highness when interviewed, "and why not? The 150 years of British rule in our country has produced fruits that no other system of government could have brought forth. Had it been otherwise the different races would have been at each other's throats and chaos instead of perfect safety to life would have been the result. The most marvelous thing about British rule in India is the absolute non-interference with religious matters, yet all the same the old customs and castes are gradually breaking down before the light that is coming from the west."

When asked about the recent reported unrest in India, the maharaja said he did not care to be drawn into political discussions, but thought that it probably had been caused by the "over-education" of the masses in certain parts of the country. This had considerably abated, however. But while the missionaries did a great deal of good in India, he did not think that the country would become Christianized for some time. The system he declared, was not adapted to the Indian mind, yet he admitted that the Christian missionaries had done a great deal of good in educational work and the founding of hospitals.

His highness will probably go from here to Toronto. He is travelling unattended.

INDIA IS LOYAL SAYS MAHARAJA

Moncton, N. B., Aug. 7.—At a meeting of the congregation of the First Baptist church tonight, after the regular service, a call was extended to Rev. Mr. Archibald, of Brockton (Mass.), at present spending his vacation at Digby (N. S.). The salary was fixed at $2,200, a free parsonage and moving expenses.

Two fine looking American yachts were in the harbor on Saturday afternoon for a time, the Rambler and the Renton. The latter ran on the four ground bus came off last night.

Fashion Hints for Times Readers

A GRAY AND WHITE COSTUME WORN AT NEWPORT

Lovely frocks and hats are seen now at the fashionable functions at Newport, the season being at its height during August. At an afternoon affair last week this charming costume was worn by a young woman who was an April bride and whose frocks and hats are much talked of now. Replete with the witchery of feminine grace in its costume of white lace and net, over which is dropped a quaint overskirt of gunmetal gray net, caught in at intervals at the foot with satin ribbons of the same shade. Silver frogs at the front give the gunmetal overskirt the effect of a coat. The hat is a model of black straw frocks and hats are much talked of now. The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"I MUST tell you of a remark I overheard on the street this morning," writes one of my letter friends. "A gentleman, evidently a stranger here, remarked to his companion, 'The people in this town don't seem to know how to smile; I haven't seen anybody smiling yet.'"

"Oh, I succeeded by using the upward curve method," answered Mrs. Young.

"The gentleman's comment is just what I certainly had better try the upward curve method too, while, if we don't want to be known as the sour city."

Daily Hints For the Cook

WHY HE DISSENTED.

"All my people," said the deliberate speaking man, who always looks down when he talks, "were Universalists. But I dissented."

A MATHEMATICAL REQUEST.

Little Mary, 7 years old, was saying her prayers. "And God, she petitioned at the close, 'make seven times six forty-eight.'"

GRAPES AND PEACHES.

Raspberries are delicious served with pineapple. Cut off the top of pineapple and save. Remove the inside of fruit, cut fine and mix with one cup red raspberries. Seven and set in refrigerator. When ready to serve fill the shell with the fruit, put on the top and serve.

PEACH OMELET.

Pare and split six mellow peaches and mash them fine, adding three that nonpareil of the juice escapes. Add four tablespoonfuls of sugar and the yolks of four well beaten eggs; then stir in very lightly the whites of the eggs, beaten to a stiff froth. Turn this into a buttered pudding dish and bake in the oven for 15 or 20 minutes, taking care that it does not brown too quickly. Serve immediately.

QUILLED DESSERTS.

Ice cream and rice are well known frozen desserts, but the distinction between others is not always easily made. A frappe is a water ice. Frozen sweet, about the consistency of mush; it should be served in sherbet glasses.

TONIGHT'S BAND CONCERT

All is now arranged for tonight's band concert in King's College. The programme of the concert will take part in the concert for the benefit of the Campbellton fire accident. First there will be two selections by the St. John Pipe Band and the Calceonia Band, mated. These will occupy from 7.30 to 8 o'clock. Then the Carleton Cornet Band—Scene and Aria from Verdi's Aida, arranged by C. J. Hayes; Fantasia, A Night About Town, arranged by C. J. Hayes.

SPECIAL CONVOCATION OF KING'S COLLEGE

A special convocation will be held at King's College, Windsor, on Sept. 8 for the purpose of conferring degrees on some of the notable visitors to the bicentenary celebration. Among those who will be presented are the bishops of London, the Bishops of Glasgow, the Bishops of Washington, Massachusetts, and the Philippines. About a dozen other well known men including R. L. Borden, the leader of the opposition, will be honored by the University. A Latin oration has to be delivered when each of these is brought forward to receive his degree. This duty, which involves a large amount of study and labor, besides knowledge of the classics, will be performed by Rev. R. D. Bambrick, rector of Holy Trinity, Yarmouth, whom the college has selected as its Public Orator.

FIGURES THAT TELL STORIES

INCOMING AND OUTGOING SETTLERS

SETTLERS' EFFECTS

THE picture illustrates two lines of figures in the 1909 record of trade between Canada and the United States, and still better illustrates the present movement of population. The figures show that the movement is not by any means in one direction only. Canadians still go to the United States to settle, notwithstanding that tens of thousands of Americans are coming over to establish homes in what all the other known facts indicate that the movement of population in now decidedly in Canada's favor. There are good reasons to believe that, not only in quantity but in distribution, Canada has the better side of it, for many of those going to the United States are city-dwellers who go to increase populations already congested while those coming into Canada are mainly farmers and others who fill up places not now occupied, and produce wealth from the soil. The movement in its present proportions has been on for some years and will be seen from the following figures showing entry either way of settlers' effects since and including 1905:

Table with 2 columns: Settlers' effects from Canada into U.S., Settlers' effects from U.S. into Canada. Rows for 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909.

Settlers' effects from Canada into U.S. 1905, $5,359,000; 1906, 7,169,000; 1907, (9 months), 4,062,000; 1908, 6,818,999; 1909, 5,761,000.

Settlers' effects from U.S. into Canada. 1905, $1,316,000; 1906, 1,616,000; 1907, 1,200,000; 1908, 1,830,000; 1909, 1,655,000.

HOW J. R. BOOTH TOLD MEN HE WAS SORRY

Paid Them $12,000 in Wages for Time Lost as Result of G. T. R. Strike—His Total Loss $25,000—Demonstration by the Employes

(Ottawa Free Press). J. R. Booth's lumber mill transformed itself into a smelt mill yesterday. Smiles not lumber or pulp were for a time the output, and judging by the speed with which 2,000 of them were turned out, the big water mill must have been turned out as fast as usual. Mr. Booth had allowed the men full pay for the time they were idle; this full pay aggregated $12,000.

At noon today the men informally took Mr. Booth for their splendid generosity. The lumber king uttered a few fitting words in reply. He had felt that he could not do better than his men, but sorrow alone wouldn't buy bread and butter. Hence, he had decided to be sorry for them. The extent of his sorrow was $12,000.

Cheers Drowned Falls. But when he ceased to speak, the sound of the falling waters could no longer be heard; it was put to shame by a mighty cheer which issued in unison from a thousand healthy sets of vocal cords.

It took the men quite a little while to realize that fortune had smiled upon them. They had to take the ban-notes home and show them to their wives and families, to let them know that they were the victims of an optical delusion. But when the grocer and butcher were willing to take a chance on the money, all doubt was removed; it was real money.

Amounted to $12,000. The fact that the wages for the time lost totalled only $12,000 for 2,000 men brought to light something which has not heretofore been known—that Mr. Booth had found a few days' work for many of the men in other parts of the mill during the period of enforced idleness.

The men had planned to express their thanks to Mr. Booth at 12 o'clock, just as soon as the machinery stopped. The lumber king beheld many wives and girls, barefooted boys coming across the Chaudiere bridge from Hull with dinner pails. He advised the men to bestow all their attention upon the dinner-pails. He would drop round about ten minutes to one.

The men were not slow to follow his counsel. After emptying the dinner pails the men flocked unceremoniously to the "mill office," where they enjoyed a few minutes' frolic before the "old man" arrived.

Smoke Chorus. There were about a thousand men there, 999 of them were smoking pipes; the other fellow was a little late in finishing dinner and he was filling his. Every late-comer was called on in French for a "speech." One fellow made a great hit by filling the paper bag in which his lunch had come, with sawdust and billing another fellow squarely in the neck with it.

At last "the old man" appeared. He had come around by the back route, from the office. The men thronged about him like a swarm of bees, and one of their number, in a very few simple words, expressed their gratitude for what he had done for them.

Showed His Agility. When the men's spokesman had finished, the lumber king turned to the right and walked straight to a wagon piled high with lumber.

The man who was climbing to the top of the wagon with the agility of a youth. Not one of the thousand heavy men gathered round showed the slightest surprise; not one of them thought it necessary to lend him a helping hand in the climb. Finally he stood before them—the man who, out of the largeness of his heart, had paid them for the time they had been idle, when he was under no obligation, legal or moral, to pay them a cent.

Right to the Point. His words were few, and to the point. He said: "Gentlemen, it is a pleasure to me to see so many of you here smiling today, to see that you are thankful for the little I have done for you. "I feel that I could stand the loss better than you could."

"Gentlemen, I was sorry for you, but that alone would not have bought you bread and butter. (Prolonged cheer). "I suppose you have heard the story of the poor man whose horse ran away and broke his leg. A crowd soon gathered around, shook hands with the man and told him how sorry they were. Finally one fellow took off his hat, put a five dollar bill in it and said: 'I am sorry for you to the extent of $5. Another fellow put $10 in the hat and said he was sorry to the extent of $10. Others did the same, and at last they had enough to buy the man a new horse."

Now, gentlemen, I was sorry for you and sorry to the extent of $12,000. "Besides this sum I lose by this strike $12,000 or $15,000 as a result of interference with the business here, so that my total loss is $25,000. Yet I am heartily repaid for this by hearing you men express your thanks to me."

Was Unfortunate. "This has been an unfortunate strike. Many innocent third parties who had nothing whatever to do with the strike suffered heavily from it, and I hope it will be a long time before we see another strike like this. Some have said that I was in league with the railway company, that it didn't matter to me, because the railway company would pay me."

"Gentlemen, there is not a word of truth in that. I had no communication at all with the company except to go to them and try to get them to lease me an engine. They consented to do that. The strikers were very kind and they would not be working for the G. T. R. they would supply me with the lumber for my mill. I am very thankful to you for that. This arrangement enabled us to open the mill a week before the strike occurred."

WEDDINGS. Drinan-Gorman. At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Gorman, 33 Lombard street, at 6.30 o'clock this morning, Rev. J. E. Purdie officiated at the wedding of Miss Ethel K. Gorman and H. S. Drinan. The bride was unattended. She wore a very pretty costume of cream broad cloth and black picture hat with ostrich plumes. After a wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Drinan left on the steamship Governor Coak for Boston, Ansonia, Conn. and New York. They will reside in St. John. They received many handsome wedding remembrances.

REFUSES TO TAKE SEAT. Winnipeg, Aug. 6.—(Special)—A. L. Bon neville, Conservative candidate in Russell at the recent provincial elections, who was declared elected on the recount against W. Valens, Liberal candidate, is reported to have decided he will not accept the seat.

Friends in the city will be glad to best that John J. O'Neill, son of D. J. O'Neill of this city, is soon to join the ranks of the beneficiaries. Mr. O'Neill is at present employed in the mechanical departments of the C. P. R. at McAdam, but he was formerly located here. The bride will be Miss Charlotte Evans, a very popular young lady of McAdam Junction. The wedding will take place on August 30, in St. Clement's church at McAdam.

SITUATION IS SATISFACTORY

As Regards General Building in Canada—St. John Returns Show Slight Falling Off

Although somewhat less brisk than the preceding month, building operations in June were carried out to an extent considerably in advance of the progress noted in the corresponding period of 1929, say the August number of Construction. The returns on the whole are, to say the least, highly gratifying, showing as they do, an average increase of 14 per cent. for 23 centers reporting to Construction. These centers report more or less accurately the building situation in every locality from coast to coast. The ratio of gains to losses is a trifle better than two to one.

The west, in particular, made a most excellent showing, noting a cycle of unbroken gains, and reflecting a condition which a hardly short of remarkable, when one considers the pronounced activity of the immediate past and the settling back which usually accompanies the summer season.

Again, Winnipeg showed the largest total amount of permits issued of any city of the Dominion, having in her credit a total of 62,660, as against 22,042,850 in June, 1928. Brandon in the same province, is substantially ahead of her corresponding figures with an increase of 68 per cent., while Regina and Saskatoon, representing the condition in Saskatchewan, top their last year amounts to the extent of 100 per cent. and 30 per cent. respectively.

As for the most marked feature of the month in the western section was the tremendous upturn in Vancouver, where the aggregate value for permits amounting to $1,162,920 gives that city an advantage of 77 per cent. over the preceding corresponding period. Accompanying Vancouver report is the statement "that there is still every prospect of what will keep up." Possibly as much can also be said for Victoria, whose gain is smaller amount is noted, shows an even greater proportionate increase. In Alberta, Calgary, Lethbridge and Edmonton, in their respective advances of 183, 12 and 11 per cent., indicate the splendid progress which is being made in that province. Edmonton predicts a heavy total for July, while the past performances of Calgary and Lethbridge is possibly the best assurance of what to expect from those two places.

As regards the more eastern section, Montreal more than held her own, while St. John overreached last June's figures by an advance of 212 per cent., the third highest increase for the month. Montreal's total of $1,285,224, as against $1,038,883, representing a gain of 43 per cent., is a noteworthy one, especially so, in view of that city's unintermitted progress, and the high amount it has recorded from month to month. St. John and Halifax, however, did not fare so well, the loss in other case being 34 per cent. and 67 per cent. in order.

AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

STAR
Tonight in the Star theatre, North end, Miss Vivian King will make her bow in pretty little costume songs. The picture bill will be particularly good, as well as introducing the late Biograph drama, "The Flash of Light." There will be a good round of the merriest merriment, "The Hall-Room Boys," and a stirring western story, "The Ranchmen at War." Good music and a fine clean up-to-date show.

UNIQUE
The "Unique" should prove a popular place this evening in which to spend an hour of rare enjoyment—a big cool house, where one can listen to the band concert and at the same time see some real good motion pictures. The programme to be offered is said to be a most creditable one. Likely the interest will centre mostly around the Pathe American release, "The Champion of the Race," which will not only tell an interesting story, but will also depict a thrilling and sensational auto race in fast-going machines. Every sport fan should see it. A Kalem sentimental story called, "Grandmother" will be found to be a sweet and refreshing tale. Two others "Up in the Stars," and "The Inconvenience of Taking Motion Pictures," are both said to be good. "The Sherman" which depicts that catchy rag-time hit, "My Little Kangaroo," which will fix up an ideal summer bill.

LYRIC
Today is expected to go down in the history of the "Lyric" Theatre as a memorable one. This will be due to the new vaudeville arrangement which goes into force today, and will give this popular house's many patrons a chance to see two distinct and entirely different attractions each, one to open Monday and the other Thursday. The first act secured is Aerial McGinley's, who, with their clever dog assistant, is said to offer a daring and sensational trapeze and acrobatic act, which will surely appeal to all hands. Then opening on Thursday Van Camp and Co. will present a magical and Animal act, introducing their trained Pig, Dog, Canary Rabbit and other animals.

GEM
An enjoyable programme of pictures, singing and music, has been prepared for the Gem theatre for tonight, and tomorrow, and one which will surely prove delightful to all who witness it. The chief film is a stirring drama from the Lubin studios, entitled, "The Steppaughter," with strong situations and an unexpected ending, differing from the ordinary run of such pictures. "The Sailor's Friendship" is a thrilling tale which holds the interest of the spectator throughout its length, as it tells a beautiful story in a strikingly effective though silent, manner. Many hearty laughs will be caused by the film, "They Robbed the Chief of Police," and the travel picture, "The Canon Canal in Sweden," noted for its picturesque scenes, will prove both educational and instructive.

Mousseline scenes of two tones, one showing through another, are much worn.

Clippers, 5; St. John's, 2.
A large crowd saw the Clippers defeat the St. John's on the Every Day Club grounds on Saturday afternoon by a score of 5 to 2. At 3 o'clock, the time advertised for the game to start, the teams were ready but the dispute over the game of Friday evening was still unsettled. Manager Tilly and Captain Copeland, of the St. John's claimed that, as they were ahead when the game was called in the fourth inning, it was a win for them. Manager McElister and Captain Finnamore, of the Clippers, thought differently. Mr. McElister said that unless it was decided that Friday night's contest constituted "no game," he would not play his team against the St. John's again.

Batters Are Worried
Baseball players all over the country are making a loud howl this season against the "bean ball" used by pitchers to frighten batters. Batters say the pitchers are deliberately trying to hit them. It certainly does look like it judging from the number of batters who have been hit this year.

Notes of the Diamond.
George Mullin ("Wild Bill") Donovan, Ford, Coombs, Bender and Lake are the six American league pitchers that have beaten every opposing American league team this year.
Jack Coombs has won 17 games this year for the Athletics. His record stands: Boston, 14; Chicago, 5; Cleveland, 5; Detroit, 2; New York, 3; St. Louis, 3; Washington, 12; total, 17.
Smith and Walsh of Chicago have been the best one-man team to every other American league team this season. Cincinnati has won 45 games and lost 45 games this year. The record at home is 25-24 and away 20-21, very even going.

Graban, is doing the heaviest hitting for the Doves. He is still about 200 and among the first eight league hitters. Pitcher Oberlin, formerly of Washington, 28½ pitched seven games this year and lost them all. Graham of St. Louis has lost eight and won nine.

Sailor Burke writes from Captain Bend's place at Stratford that he is working daily with Bill Lang and that he will be ready to get back in the game at very short notice.
Lang's handling manager, Hugh McIntosh, is superintending the training of the Australian and thinks he has a sure winner. Lang is a fast worker and seems to possess the punch that counts.
Packer McFarland has joined the "I Told You So Club." He writes saying that he foretold the defeat of Battling Nelson some time ago. He is sure that he didn't get the plum himself.
Joe Humphries, Tom O'Rourke and Billy Gibson are trying to secure McFarland for three fights in New York city. With three managers of clubs bidding for his services things look soft for the Stock Yard champion.

They Mean Millions of Dollars to the Farmers Says B. F. Younk at Good Roads Convention
(Toronto World)

Patent as are the arguments in support of the improvement of the road system and urged as it is its necessity, no little difficulty is experienced in getting practical results. People are everywhere complaining about the increased cost of living and are ready to quote figures in proof of the considerable advance in the price of agricultural products. The fact is admitted, but a protest that does not go beyond its own shouting is of no avail. The problem demands a remedy and the simplest and most immediately efficacious is the provision of good roads. As Mr. Younk, a member of the New York legislature, who presided at the opening of the third annual convention of the National Good Roads Congress, said, a reduction in the cost of transportation would enable the farmer to market his produce at a lower price and at a large profit at the same time. It would, he added, bring communities together and into closer touch with the centres of population.

ALFALFA IN MASSACHUSETTS
In its latest crop report the state board of agriculture includes an article on "Alfalfa as a Crop in Massachusetts," by Professor William F. Brooks, director of the Massachusetts Agricultural Experiment Station. There have been many inquiries in regard to growing alfalfa in recent years and many attempts to introduce the crop into Massachusetts. Some of these have failed because the conditions for success were not properly understood. Alfalfa needs certain special conditions and certain definite treatment to succeed. This report is prepared with a view to setting forth what these conditions are and what this treatment should be. J. Lewis Ellsworth, secretary of the state board of agriculture, State House, Boston, is sending out copies of the report to all applicants, and those whose names are placed on the mailing list receive future issues. Professor Brooks says: "Alfalfa has been used trial, both at the experiment station and on a considerable number of private farms, for several years. It has been found that a good stand and a thick stand are not very difficult to obtain, but in many cases, both on the experiment station grounds and on private farms, the alfalfa has frequently died out within two or three years, giving place, with greater or less rapidity, to grasses and clovers. During the past few years, however, we have been obtaining better success than formerly. There are now several small areas of alfalfa at experiment stations and college grounds which are four to six years old and which are still in very good condition. The writer has heard also of a number of cases in which private farmers are also meeting with much better success than was common a few years ago."

Professor Brooks gives the principal advantages of alfalfa as compared with clover, the soil requirements, the proper preparation of the soil, amount and quantity of lime needed, fertilizers, quantity of seed, time and methods of seeding, soil inoculation, best spot or rust and its treatment, methods of harvesting and how to annually top dress. In conclusion he says: "While the writer does not yet feel perfectly confident that alfalfa will establish itself in all localities as one of our valuable farm crops he now begins to hope that it can be made to succeed. He would, however, counsel some caution at the start, and advise that small trial areas be put in in all localities where soils of the right character are found."

VALUE OF GOOD ROADS
The value of good roads is being demonstrated in many ways. In the United States there are only about 44,000 or two miles of good roads, which really reach a high standard, and not more than eight out of each 100 miles can boast any kind of improvement. Very little consideration is needed to realize that the poorest roads are the most expensive, and in no part of Canada should it need less argument than right here in Ontario. Nor are good roads of purely local advantage. The benefits are national and provincial quite as much as they are local. What is needed here, as Mr. Younk said of the United States problem, is concerted action on the part of the federal and provincial governments and the local authorities.

By working a little confidence game on an eighty-three-year-old farmer of Lunenburg, N. S., on Saturday, three circus-followers made $1,200 inside of half an hour. The old man parted with his coin on the promise that the others would get him a position in the electric belt business, for which he would have to show a good financial standing. So far, the men have not been caught.

Complaint is made that a number of boys and girls congregate on the convent grounds, Mount Pleasant on Sundays and make themselves generally obnoxious to the residents in the locality and passers-by. MAIN STREET PAVING St. John, Aug. 8, 1910. Editor Times-Star: Sir—On July 19th, 1910, the undersigned stood and watched the "Hassam Paving Company" lay the foundation on Main street, Ninety-Two (92) feet long by Nineteen (19) feet wide at one end, and Twenty-One (21) feet at the other, and use for this 54 bags of cement, which is the same as thirteen (13 1/2) barrels of cement. Had this material been of the best possible selected, and laid according to the concrete specifications, it would have taken at least thirty (30) barrels to have done the work required, and with very open material as shown on the King Square fountain, it would have taken at least thirty-nine (39) barrels. Yours truly, J. H. HAGUE.

MUCH INTEREST IN COUNCIL MEETING

The Main Street Paving Matter Will be Dealt With This Afternoon—Contractors Said to be Willing to Make Changes

This afternoon's meeting of the common council summoned by Mayor Frink, as the result of the resignation of Aldermen Jones Willett, Baxter, Hayes and White, to take up the matter of the Main street paving, is occasioning much interest and no little speculation. It is understood that as a result of the agitation for an investigation the Hassam Company have expressed a willingness to have the specifications changed to the end that the hand method of laying concrete may substitute the present method, providing that other modifications are made also, as it is claimed for the company that their contention is that such a change will retard the work and consequently prevent them completing the contract in the specified time.
