BOTH GOVERNMENT AND LABOR CLAIM VICTORY AS GENERAL STRIKE ENDED

Coal Miners Remain Out Until Conference Friday; Baldwin Cheered in House

Pitmen's Leader Declares They Will Hold To Previous Position; Deadlock Lasted Eight and Half Days

TRADES COUNCIL MEETS CABINET

Wheels of Industry, Still For More Than Week, Expected To Start Turning Immediately; Announcement Received With Great Jubilation in London

LONDON, May 12.—Great Britain today won the greatest industrial war ever launched against any government when, after eight and a half days, the general strike order which caused millions of workers to leave their jobs, was cancelled.

The victory, such as it is, merely establishes the fact that the organized force of trades unionism is unable to effect a complete stoppage of trade, industry and transport.

While the nation won its fight for cessation of the straggling general strike order, Labor was not defeated in the ends for which the strike was called, namely, amelioration of the lot of the coal miners.

The coal strike would go on, A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' Federation, told the United Press today. The miners are well organized and counted on a long strike.

The miners have additional grievances, which are much the same as those of other miners throughout the world. They demand better protection from accidents. They want compensation for occupational diseases.

The termination of the general strike is based on negotiations conducted unofficially by Sir Herbert Samuel, chairman of the Royal Coal Commission and Chairman Pugh, of the General Council of the Trades Union Congress, the latter accepting Sir Herbert's proposal as a basis for resumption of negotiations.

The news was conveyed to A. J. Cook, the miners' chief, as he was leaving the headquarters of his union for lunch. He stood for a moment in silence, and then said he had received no official intimation from Downing street.

Modern mine equipment, so that piece-workers' labor will bring a just return, is another demand. Middlemen's charges absorb the pits' earnings and should be reduced, the miners say. Savings ought to be available for improving the mines and maintaining wages.

Herbert Smith, president of the Miners' Federation, said no statement was possible regarding the situation until the miners' position had been considered by the full executive of the union. The executive was in session this afternoon.

Secretary Cook sent the following telegram to all the mining districts: "The miners must not resume work pending decision of a national conference convened for Friday next in Kingsway Hall, London at 10 a.m. Please send delegates."

Mr. Cook this afternoon said: "It is my intention and that of my colleagues to report fully to the National Conference and it will be for the men to decide what action they will take in light of the circumstances after the report has been given. As far as we are concerned, we still maintain our previous position."

Official statements of the settlement, issued from the Premier's residence in Downing street, reads: "The Prime Minister, who was accompanied by the Minister of Labor, the Secretary for India, the Secretary for War, the First Lord of the Admiralty, the Minister of Health, and the Secretary for Mines, received the members of the General Council of the Trades Union Congress at 12:20 o'clock this afternoon at No. 10 Downing street."

"Mr. Pugh announced, on behalf of the General Council of the Trades Union Congress, that the general strike is being terminated today. Mr. Citrine, secretary of the Trades Union Congress, afterward made the following statement:

"In order to resume negotiations, the General Council of the Trades Union Congress has decided to terminate the general strike today, and telegrams of instructions are being sent to the secretaries of all the affiliated unions. "The members before acting must await definite instructions from their executive councils."

LONDON JUBILANT Almost as soon as the decision was made known to the cabinet, it was

Settlement Conditions

LONDON, May 12.—Sir Herbert Samuel, as chairman of the Royal Commission which made the report on the British coal industry, about which the conflict centered, was the natural go-between in the settlement of the general strike.

His memorandum, which the General Council of the Trades Union Congress accepted as basis for calling off the general strike, and resuming negotiations on the coal controversy, contains the following points:

First—The coal subsidy to be renewed for such reasonable time as may be required.

Second—Creation of a national wages board, including representatives of the miners, mine owners and neutrals, with an independent chairman to revise the miners' wages.

Third—It is understood there shall be no revision of the previous wages without sufficient assurance that reorganization of the coal industry as proposed by the Royal Commission shall be executed.

Fourth—A committee to be named by the government, with representation for the miners, which shall prepare legislative and executive measures to effect reconstruction of the coal industry.

The memorandum suggests that the revised wage scales be on simpler lines, if possible, than the old ones, and that they shall not adversely affect the wages of the lowest paid men.

It also suggests measures to prevent the recruitment of new workers over 18 years of age into the industry if unemployed miners are available, and provides that workers displaced by the closing of uneconomic collieries shall be transferred, with government assistance, as recommended by the Royal Commission. It is estimated that 250,000 men will be displaced in the mining industry by execution of the plans for complete reorganization of the industry.

Professional Matter Only Says W. A. Boys

OTTAWA, Ont., May 12.—"With me the matter from beginning to end, was a professional one; and politics had nothing to do with it," declared W. A. Boys, chief Conservative whip at the customs probe this morning, referring to his connection with the smuggling case of David Weisberg, formerly of Barrie, Ont. Mr. Boys appeared before the committee at his personal request.

NORGE PASSES NORTH POLE

Frozen Arctic Conquered By Air

BIG DIRIGIBLE DUPLICATES BYRD'S FEAT

Proceeds On Way To Landing At Nome, Alaska

2,750 MILE TRIP

News Received In First Message Ever Received From World's Top

NEW YORK, May 12.—The airship Norge, second air craft in history to fly over the North Pole, was on its way to landing field at Nome, Alaska today, the 45th birthday of Lincoln Ellsworth, New York, one of the expedition's leaders.

The great balloon duplicate within three days the feat of the three engined aeroplane Mads Josephine Ford, piloted by Lt. Commander Richard E. Byrd with the difference that Commander Byrd returned to King's Bay, Spitzbergen, in a 1,600 mile non-stop flight, while the Norge continued a 2,750 mile journey toward Nome.

Raold Amundsen, commander of the third expedition to reach the North Pole and the first human being to reach the South Pole, wireless yesterday to Ralph Lomen, Norwegian, courier at Nome, to have 100 men ready to lower the dirigible. He said he would keep 20 men advised of progress by radio, and the consul had four anchors, known as "bread men" placed in readiness to load the ship down.

First Pole Message. The Norge left Spitzbergen at 10 a.m. Norwegian time, or 9 a.m. Eastern Daylight Saving Time yesterday, and after the pole with the 17 members of its crew at 1 a.m. today, Norwegian time, or 12:30 a.m. Eastern Standard Time. The news reached the New York Times and St. Louis Globe Democrat, and the first message ever received from the pole announced the news at 3:05 a.m. Eastern Standard Time.

Commander Byrd said the Norge off but remained at King's Bay to prepare, in the words of Lt. A. N. Parker of his party, to investigate every foot of rest estate near the pole for signs of the previous expedition.

The Norge is 348 feet long, was inflated with 10,000 cubic meters of hydrogen at King's Bay and loaded with 6,000 kilograms of benzine for fuel. Its best speed is 62 miles an hour. It was built in 1928 by the State Air Ship factory at Rome, as the N-1 for the Italian air service, and originally had a luxurious special cabin for the King of Italy.

It carried the Italian flag at its stern beside the national Christian Hebrew Alliance, declared that the Christian Jew has destined to be the great unifying influence among all sects and denominations working toward the final realization of the United Protestant Evangelical Church throughout the world.

The Protestant Churches, St. Leon said, were entering upon a new era of dispensation and God had preserved the Jew for the great day when the churches needed him. He was destined to re-interpret the scriptures to the Christian church.

GROH RELEASED. NEW YORK, May 12.—Henrie Groh, veteran third baseman of the New York Giants, has been released unconditionally, says a special despatch to the New York Telegram from St. Louis today. Waiters were obtained on him from the other major league clubs.

PRIZE WINNERS AT U. N. B. ARE MADE KNOWN

United Press. LONDON, May 12.—London police courts ran late last night clearing cases arising from strike demonstrations in which 20 or 30 persons were arrested. Some were sentenced and others fined, the penalties ranging from $10 fine to three months at hard labor.

Communitists tried to hold a mass meeting on the Edgeware road last night. Police charged with batons and dispersed a crowd of 2,000. Large crowds were similarly broken up at Harrow, and a crowd estimated at almost 3,000 was dispersed at Camden town.

COUP D'ETAT IN POLAND IS FEARED

WARSAW GOVERNMENT CALLS ON TROOPS TO REMAIN FAITHFUL

BERLIN, May 12.—It is reported from Warsaw that Marshal Joseph Pilsudski, former president of Poland, is heading a revolution and is marching on Warsaw. The government has declared martial law.

PARIS, May 12.—The Havas agency Berlin correspondent says the Polish agency there reproduced an official note from Warsaw today indicating that a military coup d'etat was feared and that the government was calling on the troops to remain faithful.

Vessel With $1,000,000 Liquor Cargo Brought Into New York With Crew "Roaring Drunk"

NEW YORK, May 12.—With a cargo of whiskey, champagne and alcohol, valued at $1,420,000, the freighter Donnetta, was brought into the harbor last night by the coastguard cutter Seneca. The freighter, seized last night, 60 miles southeast of Atlantic City, flying the United States flag, but without ship's papers and with no one aboard with officers' credentials, was said by coastguard officials to come technically under the classification of piracy. Coastguard officials believed the Donnetta to be connected with the operations of an alleged boot-

TWO MAIL ROBBERIES IN NEW BRUNSWICK COME TO LIGHT

REGISTERED LETTERS ARE TAKEN FROM BAG

Theft Occurs Between Barnesville and Destination At Hampton

OTHER CASE IS ON NORTH SHORE OF N. B.

Some Letters Are Found in Refuse Can At Newcastle

TWO mail robberies occurred, one in Kings county and the other at Newcastle recently, according to special correspondents in despatches to the news. In one case registered letters were taken from a bag; in another, it was said, no money was developed.

From Barnesville comes word that a mail bag, containing registered letters, was taken from the train by a man on the Martins train, was cut open and the letters stolen before the bag reached its destination.

Mail leaving Barnesville for Hampton is placed on the St. Martins train by a mail carrier. At Uplam, the carrier and kept there overnight. The next day, it is placed on the St. Martins train bound for Hampton.

That two packages of letters, addressed to Newcastle residents and supposed to have been despatched on the N. B. Maritime Express passing through that town from Halifax on April 18, were found in a refuse can at the C. N. R. railway station by a railway employe was the second report received. The packages contained registered letters and it is said that there was no money lost.

INVESTIGATING
The despatches state that Inspector John Emerson, Saint John, has been in Barnesville and in Uplam in connection with the Kings county case, and investigations into the alleged theft of the letters on the North Shore has been carried out under the supervision of William F. Griffith.

stern, and on it is an 18 inch runway called a "catwalk". The control cabin was slung under the keel, just forward of midships. The vessel has three motors, and is steered by a wheel, like any other ship. Sun compasses in the control cabin were used to check against the magnetic compasses, which is apt to be misleading so near the magnetic pole. The ship was equipped with a sled, tents and other essentials for a possible forced landing.
Amundsen, who is one of Norway's national heroes, was beaten to the North Pole by Robert E. Peary. He set out for the South Pole by dog sled reaching it December 14, 1911, beating four rival expeditions from many countries. His nephew, Lieut. Gustav Amundsen of the Norwegian navy is a helmsman of the Norge. Rold Amundsen last year made the first attempt to reach the North Pole by aeroplane but failed.
Eilsworth met Amundsen in 1924, when he paid for three aeroplanes. Amundsen had ordered in Italy. He accompanied the Norwegian on his polar dash last year, and was made second in command of the Norge expedition.

PROPHECY REALIZED

Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Canadian explorer, now living in New York, expressed delight that Byrd and Ellsworth and Amundsen are realizing a prophecy of his made three years ago that airships and dirigibles flying over the top of the world, will open the shortest and most practicable routes between the Eastern and Western Hemispheres.
Twenty-five men have now seen the North Pole, six in the Peary expedition, Commander Byrd and his mechanics and 19 on the Norge. The Norge reached the pole in 15 hours from King's Bay; Commander Byrd required 15 hours and 30 minutes to go to the pole and back to King's Bay in his aeroplane, and Peary, using dog sleds, took eight months for the trip to the pole and back to civilization.

LOST 11 HOURS

The Norge travelled at approximately 50 miles an hour, and it was estimated that if he kept this pace she would reach Point Barrow, on the North Pole, at 10 p. m. tonight, Eastern Standard time.
The ship lost 11 hours by the method of passing over the pole. That is, on approaching the pole it was a. m. today, Norwegian time, about a. m. and a moment later it was 2 p. m. yesterday.
The whole 2750 mile route was in the land of the midnight sun, making it a daylight trip throughout.
After passing the pole the Norge, which started with enough fuel for 8,000 miles, headed for an unexplored area estimated at 1,000,000 square miles. Expeditions in the past believe they have found evidences of land in this area.

CANADIAN BARRISTERS' CHIEF ARRIVES IN SAINT JOHN

Sir James Aikins, Governor of Manitoba, To Meet Barristers

COMES TO CITY ON DOUBLE MISSION

Discusses Annual Meeting Here and Will Address Canadian Club

Sir James A. Aikins, Lieut. Governor of Manitoba, prominent legal practitioner and the president of the Canadian Bar Association arrived in the city on the Montreal Express at mid-day accompanied by E. H. Coleman, a member of Sir James' law firm, and also secretary of the Canadian Bar Association.

TWO-FOLD ERRAND

Sir James and Mr. Coleman are in the city on a joint errand. The Manitoba government was accepting an invitation to address the Canadian Club as co-incidental with his visit to confer with the New Brunswick Council of the Canadian Bar Association relative to the national meeting of barristers in this city in the autumn. In other words he is very happily co-ordinating two important missions.

SIR JAMES HOST

Soon after his arrival today Sir James Aikins and his secretary sat down to lunch with a representative body of local lawyers at his hotel. The lunch was given in the private salon of the Admiral Beatty Hotel.
At the train today led by Hon. L. P. D. Tilley, president of the Saint John Barristers' Society, Sir James and his members were greeted by the president of the Canadian Bar Association, these gentlemen, with H. F. Puddington, Frederic Baxter and others were present at the lunch tendered by Sir James after his arrival. Those present were all members of the territorial council of the Canadian Bar Association. It was expected that matters pertaining to the agenda of the autumn convention here would be discussed during the luncheon. Absentees were Dr. F. R. Taylor, Hon. C. D. Richards, Dr. T. C. Allen and others.

THE FALL CONVENTION

Secretary Coleman told a Times-Star reporter that at present it was not possible to give an outline of the program to be followed when the Canadian Bar Association holds its annual meeting here. The agenda is being collected. Mr. Coleman was awaiting a cablegram from England which would have an important bearing upon the personnel of the speakers' list.

DINNER TONIGHT

This evening the Admiral Beatty Hotel Sir James Aikins will again host a luncheon at dinner party with 75 members of the local bar, with some outside guests, will be privately entertained.

Gagetown Egg Is Outdone In City

A Gagetown hen which was reported this morning to have laid an egg measuring six and one-quarter inches in circumference and seven and seven-eighths inches around lengthwise, has met its match. Yesterday one of the lady members of the flock belonging to Mrs. S. M. Sevel, 112 Duke street, West Saint John, deposited a healthy specimen in her nest, which when taped, showed the following dimensions—Circumference, six and one-half inches; lengthwise measurement, eight and one-quarter inches. Next!

PERSONALS

Mrs. A. M. Phillips, Victoria Hotel, and Mrs. Harry A. Clark, chief medical officer, left last evening for a visit to Boston.
Mrs. S. L. Turley, of Amherst, who has spent two months in Boston and New York, is the guest of Mrs. C. W. Harrington, 236 Saint James street.

GETTING ON WELL WITH REVISION OF THE STATUTES

N. B. Commission Has Meeting in City Today—Ready for Next Session

Good progress, it was reported, is being made by the commission on consolidation and revision of the statutes of the province, which was in session at the Government rooms here today.

The chairman, Hon. Wendell P. Jones, of Charlottetown, and J. A. Crenshaw, of New Brunswick, were present. The commission has before it copies of all acts passed at the recent session of the legislature, and is considering them with reference to consolidation and revision and the incorporation of the provisions of the amending acts and the new acts. A large part of the work is done at home individually by the members of the commission, who meet at various times to compare notes and go over the work each one has done.
Besides Hon. Mr. Jones, the members of the commission are E. R. Richards, of Miramichi, and J. A. Crenshaw, of Newcastle. All are here today.

RED CROSS MEN TO COME TO PROVINCE

It was announced that the new Red Cross commissioner, Dr. J. L. Biggar and Dr. James W. Robertson, C. M. G., would visit this province in June, at a meeting of the executive of the New Brunswick organization held at the Red Cross depot this morning. They are to attend the quarterly meeting in Fredericton. A committee consisting of the president, treasurer, Mrs. H. Lawrence and Miss S. Harrington were appointed with the secretary to make arrangements for their visit.

Miss Ethel Jarvis reported on her recent visit to Campbell and Deer Island and the formation of four new branches and re-organizing one. A very fine exhibit was shown of the work of the New Brunswick division. This included panels descriptive of the various departments, home nursing, Junior Red Cross, care of soldiers in hospital, relief and emergency work, care of the quardrants, public health nurses, traveling clinics and distribution of Canadian Red Cross Books. The exhibit is to be sent to the Pan-American Conference at Washington, May 25 to June 5.

Funerals

The funeral of Fred T. Perry was held this afternoon from his late residence, 40 Peters street. Employees of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, all of Saint John, and George B. Crosby, the latter on a business trip, leaving here Saturday evening, will be heavy. James E. White, Shelburne merchant, will ship 500 barrels of potatoes to Boston on this trip. The potatoes are destined for Havana and will be shipped from Foston on a United Fruit Company vessel.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. W. P. Lawton, Customs House, entertained delightfully yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the sixth birthday of her little daughter, Annie. The tea table was prettily decorated, favors at each guest's place and in the centre of lovely birthday cake with pink dandelies. The guests were Misses M. Hardy, Helen and Minnie Dundas, Hilda and Lilian Macias, Mustata Snowdy, Masters Bobbie Milne, Ronald Lawton, and Miss Ruth Lawton. The little guest of honor received some beautiful gifts. Mrs. Lawton was assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. G. Milne.

AWAY TO CONVENTION

Provincial Grand President, H. C. Marley, of the Brotherhood of Dominion Express Employees, left last evening on the Montreal train for Toronto to attend a meeting of the grand lodge and convocation of that body. L. B. Bent of Yarmouth will represent Saint John Local at the same convention.

SOLEMN SERVICE AT 40 HOURS CLOSING

Many Attend Impressive Ceremony in St. John the Baptist Church

The solemn closing of the Devotion of the Forty Hours in St. John the Baptist church last evening was attended by a very large congregation. The service opened with recitation of the Rosary, led by Rev. Francis Cronin of Holy Trinity Church. An eloquent sermon on the Blessed Sacrament, was delivered by Rev. Francis Gillen of the Cathedral. After the chanting of the Litany of the Saints, in which Rev. J. J. McDermott, pastor, led, a very impressive procession wended its way through the church. It was led by 100 school girls dressed in white, with white veils and floral wreaths. Twelve of the smaller girls strewed flowers. There were also 50 altar boys and ten attending priests, lastly His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc bearing the Blessed Sacrament and attended by Rev. C. P. Carleton of Silver Falls, as deacon, and Rev. Wilfred Malette of Fairville, as subdeacon. The canopy was borne by four members of the Holy Name Society—Ernest Wallace, Jon Kennedy, Daniel Owens and William Ward.

WANTS RESTRICTION ON WEAPONS' SALE

Bill Introduced by Senator Belcourt Given Second Reading in Commons

OTTAWA, Ont., May 12.—Senator Belcourt introduced a bill in the Senate yesterday to amend the criminal codes respecting the possession of weapons. He pointed out that the crime wave was due, in a great measure, to the freedom with which revolvers could be obtained. There was an almost universal demand for restrictive measures dealing with the possession of firearms. He proposed to amend the criminal code to prohibit the importation, manufacture and sale of revolvers and similar weapons, except under government authorization. The bill received its second reading, and was referred to committee.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE IN SIGHT.

The general strike in Great Britain ended. Details of the settlement are at present wanting, but it can be safely assumed that the Trades Unions Congress has agreed to rescind its orders as a basis of negotiation between the Government and the miners' union. It is not too much to assume also that the Government has given the unions assurances satisfactory to them that further parity shall be conducted along lines which will open up permanent settlement of the crucial question. Much remains to be done. Much restraint will be necessary on both sides, but the admirable spirit evinced by the contestants in the late struggle is highly propitious for a happy and equitable issue. Men of every shade of opinion in all parts of the Empire will unite in congratulating the authorities—both Government and Labor—on having arranged a cessation of hostilities and in hoping for a speedy and permanent treaty of peace.

LOOKING US OVER.

Says the London Free Press: "One cannot help admiring the aggressive spirit of the Maritime Provinces at the present time under the leadership of those two enterprising papers, The Saint John Telegraph-Journal and The Halifax Herald. Two years ago the Maritime Provinces were seething with the spirit of discontent; there was talk of secession from Canada. Asked what they wanted, they did not know. All they did know was that the Maritime Provinces were suffering from severe business depression; that industry was languishing; there was a continual exodus to the United States, and everyone was discouraged and in the dumps. The rest of Canada and Ottawa was generally contented and conditions. It was a disturbing state of mind, that made for neither national unity or prosperity.

The Free Press suggested that instead of grumbling at the politicians, public and business men of the Maritime Provinces should visit the rest of Canada, tell us their grievances and difficulties and let us know what they wanted and needed. We felt certain that they would get a kindly reception and a sympathetic hearing. In other words, what parent would not see his boy a good Scout? The Scout movement is all good. In no particular is it militaristic. It inculcates every manly virtue and discontents, not only the major virtues, but the lesser ones natural to boyhood if left untutored. But greatest, perhaps, of all is the loyalty it inculcates, loyalty to the ideal of kingship when that prevails for the Scouts are universal, international, and patriotic to all authorities. If there were more Scouts there would be fewer strikes, or perhaps the commendable restraint of the waters in Great Britain may be, in part, attributed to the enormous spread of the Scout movement there. Therefore let us encourage our Scouts and their small Cub brethren in every way we can.

The Dreamer whose dream came true!

Of all people we Canadians can probably understand the spirit of Wanderlust. Did it not grip us and our forefathers? Byrd has realized his vision, so has Amundsen, and their well-earned successes will doubtless spur others to realize theirs—the subjugation of Everest for example. There is always exploration left.

There will always be explorers.

Till a voice, as bad as Conscience, rang out from the suburbs—both Government and Labor—on having arranged a cessation of hostilities and in hoping for a speedy and permanent treaty of peace.

And, finally, it would appear beyond question, that the sound doctrine that no class can dictate to the State has been signally vindicated.

Just Fun

WELL, anyway, there's some consolation in getting the check catalogs before the neighbors chicks are hatched.

Ushering the spring in.

EXPLORERS have discovered ancient pens and ink which could be used for writing. This last qualification precludes the possibility of the Post Office claiming them as their property.

NO ONE ever gets anything for nothing very long.

THIS world is full this spring of newly weds, nearly weds and yearly weds.

MY NEED for action is grate, said the coal, and always has bin.

DINNER STORIES

THIS anecdote dates back to the war. During his first few days in camp the recruit was the victim of so many practical jokes that he doubted all men and their motives. One night, while he was guarding the tall figure of one of the officers loomed up in the darkness.

THE BOY SCOUTS
(Telegraph-Journal)

When the citizens of Saint John are privileged to witness upwards of 800 Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs parading to church, it is something to stir their hearts. When the Premier of the province, the Chief Justice, the Mayor of the city and many prominent men take the trouble to honor the occasion, it is a very happy augury.

Timely Views On World Topics

SAYS GERMANY LEARNED LESSON IN FACT MAKING
By ARTHUR PENSONBY.
M. P. and Late Under-Secretary of Foreign Affairs in England, in a Recent Statement.

MORE speculation and apprehension than we are allowed to know of has been caused in the chancelleries of western Europe by the projected German Soviet treaty.

POSSIBLY there is something in each of these so-called secrets. In this case the German government has kept the signatories of the Locarno treaties fully informed.

Did you come inside my back room which never had openly published you saw it very preciously silks, dazzed kimono, supereau, etc. and ect strike you on eye.

On the other hand, there was also the danger in the Locarno method which would arise from the deliberate exclusion of Soviet Russia from the European system, and this might be further aggravated by the unrest and growing anti-European feeling which exists in Asia.

There may be some doubt as to whether Germany would have been inclined to conclude a special treaty with Russia had she been cordially and easily welcomed in March into the League of Nations. But she learned a lesson at Geneva. The promises and proflations of the western powers must not be relied upon too explicitly. She has been let down once; she may be let down again.

THE DREAMERS WHOSE DREAMS CAME TRUE.
Men are succeeding in the third dimension where they failed on the surface. Byrd has flown over the Pole in an aeroplane and now Amundsen has performed the same feat in an airship. The dreamers' dreams have come true. To such we doff:

CHARACTER reading has always been a fascinating diversion. There are always persons who insist that they have only to look at a face to correctly read the character of the one to whom it belongs.

Others insist that the characteristics may be read in the lines of the hand or the bumps on the head. The Very Idea!

By Hal Cockburn

THE FARMER
MY HANDS are rugged, calloused, worn; my muscles hard and labor torn. It seems that I was one man born to plant of oats and wheat and corn.

My face is reddened by the sun. At dawn, each day, my tail's begun. I have my daily row to run, and grim by my living won.

I pit my strength against the soil. It's hard and bitter; tedious toil. The sweat of brow is muscle oil, that flows, forbidding crops to spoil.

By turn of mind, and turn of hand, I am the one who feeds the land. My "gold," though not the kind that's panned, is by a world of hungry hands.

There's little else of life I see, than just the land that looks to me, to raise things as they ought to be. A slave—and yet, a slave that's free.

When a conscientious man owes money, his mind can't settle down until he has settled up.

WAVES AND BULLETS.
(Sault Ste. Marie Star.)
Some of the latest developments in gun play, and the reasons given are so sublimely foolish that they would be hard to believe unless the source of the information were so well known.

Chicago beauty parlors have been caught up in the shooting idea. Some found business hard to get and started to cut prices on permanent waves and other treatments.

Pearl's Shoppe, in the downtown section, was riddled with bullets, and the owner escaped by lying flat on the floor and allowing the bullets to pass over her.

The idea seems to be: If you cut prices, we'll shoot you.

The prospect of getting a permanent wave and a permanent bullet at one sitting keeps life from getting dull in Chicago.

SAINT JOHN LADY SEES ERUPTION OF MAUNA LOA

Writes Home Graphic Account of Spectacle of Hawaii

BURNING LAVA 20 FEET DEEP IN ROAD

Devastating Flow Thousand Feet Wide a River of Fire

A letter received from a former Saint John lady now living in Hilo, Hawaii, gives a graphic description of the eruption of "Mauna Loa." Following are extracts from the letter, which is dated April 20:

"On April 10 Mauna Loa blew a hole through her side and poured out flaming lava which ran down the side of the mountain and finally crossed the main government road. It was not until Saturday morning that we were able to go by auto from Hilo to where it crossed the road or by steamer and see it from the ocean.

"People were rushing like mad to see it. We heard a dozen times that it had crossed the road, but it was not until Saturday morning that we were sure it had done so. M— insisted on my going to see it as she had seen Halemauani volcano when it was in eruption. So we took our car, packed in enough food to last us, and started.

RIDE 94 MILES. "It meant a ride of 94 miles to reach there, and there road led through a volcanic country for miles and miles where there was nothing but lava. We had only a small puncture on our whole trip, so we were lucky. The party consisted of five, all ladies. We reached the place where the lava flow crossed the road at about 10 o'clock p. m. Just as we were driving in we could see the flow coming down.

TWENTY FEET HIGH. "It was a magnificent sight. The moon was shining from a very blue sky and the light from the lava fire made it light enough to read. The reddish glow made it sort of weird. We parked our car and went down to the flow. The lava was piled 20 feet high opposite the road and was burning red hot lava. Just opposite the road the lava had cooled on the surface so that people could climb up on it and see up towards the mountain. It was hot enough to burn the soles of our shoes but we climbed up and stood there for some time.

"The flow was about 1,000 feet wide at the center. The rock and burning lava ran down like a river of fire in the center. Then there were all sorts of gas explosions and queer forms of gas. One place it looked like water with a great light just beside it. This flow seemed to burn itself out so we returned to the car and had supper.

SECOND RUSH. "We were all obliged to remain on the roadway, as the country on either side is so rough that one would be lost among the boulders and underbrush very quickly. The lava flow and the flames reflected on the sky that another flow was coming, so we decided to wait for it. About 2 p. m. we heard it coming, crashing the trees and exploding at a great rate. It crashed down and spread over the top of the lava flow, which was the last flow—magnificent, but terrifying.

"Now a large boulder looking like an island of fire was sailing by again what appeared like a flaming ship roared past. Sudden whirlwinds would spring up with a sound like thunder and as quickly disappear. There was gas everywhere—burning out beside one on the roadside. Visitors were baled off for their lunch over these gas jets. We reached home Sunday morning about 9 a. m.

"Up to this time the lava had not reached the sea. It did so on Sunday and was a wonderful sight. I understand, friends of ours who went by sea said it was magnificent from the boat, but they anchored or rather stood off about a mile from the shore, as there was danger of a tidal wave or earthquake. As it happened the Sunday morning flow which destroyed a little village of 24 houses was about the last, and today it is reported dead. It may burst forth again or it may go to sleep for ages."

RECORD IS MADE IN RECEIVERSHIP

Banker Tells of Remarkable Work in Liquidating Morse Steamship Line

The management of the Hudson River Navigation Company receivership received praise from Judge Knox in Federal Court in New York when Francis G. Caffrey, special master, presented his final report and the receivership ended. Judge Knox attributed to the late Middleton S. Borland, who was appointed receiver in the case in February, 1921, the improvement in the company's position which followed declaration of receivership.

F. J. Lisman, of H. J. Lisman & Co., bankers for the reorganized company, which is known as the Hudson River Navigation Company, said that the receivership probably was without precedent in the American judiciary. He said:

"This corporation for a number of years was in the hands of Charles W. Morse, and in 1920 had the most profitable year in its history. Nevertheless, when the receiver took hold, the company had only about $1,000 in cash and a large amount of unpaid taxes and other liabilities. In five years we administered the receiver paid off about $325,000 on account of claims, rehabilitated the property by the sale of substantial sums and at the time of winding up its affairs had $1,000,000 in cash in the bank."

Charles W. Morse at one time controlled the Eastern Steamship Company, when the Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc. was his successor.

ROOSEVELT MISSED Was to Address Meeting, But Place was Changed Suddenly.

NEW YORK, May 12—Eugene M. Camp, on behalf of the American Board of Applied Christianity, explained why Colonel Theodore Roosevelt failed to address the chairman of the board at their dinner in the Town Hall Club last Tuesday. It seems that he had a speech all ready and was interested in the inauguration of the Seaton School, the object of the dinner, but that Mr. Camp failed to tell the Colonel where the dinner was to be. When Colonel Roosevelt was invited the dining place was to be the Hotel Commodore. Then the Church House of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church was offered, but a vote on this was necessary. Before the vote the board decided to have the dinner in the Town Hall Club. A circular was sent to the Colonel, but it evidently never reached him.

"We were in touch with him on Tuesday," said Mr. Camp, "but never thought to mention the change of place. We talked of what the Colonel was to say, but he supposed it was the Commodore and we supposed he knew it wasn't. The Colonel went to the Commodore on time and, failing to find us there, telephoned to other hotels to find out whether we were there. He got hold of his secretary, and they went over again all of our letters and could find nothing. So it was not until this morning that he knew where we really did meet."

Jersey Woman Finds War Has Its Uses

WASHINGTON, N. J., May 12—Some great statesman said many years ago that he believed a war every ten years was a good thing for the country. Most people today do not agree with him and they are doing everything possible to preserve world peace.

There is, however, one woman who lives on a farm several miles from here who believes that war has its advantages. She has some very good reasons for holding this view.

This week she was seen doing her weekly washing. She wore an American overseas cap and carried her clothebins in the pockets of an army coat which she was wearing. Near the waistbuck could be seen an American trench helmet which she was using as a soapdish.

Her little son was in the garden at the time. He wore an army shirt and army puttees. He was digging with a rusty and badly broken bayonet.

Rev. E. E. Styles Presents Statement at Meeting of Evangelical Alliance

A report on the combat waged by the Evangelical Alliance during the last forty years against the liquor traffic in Saint John was given at a recent meeting of that organization by Rev. E. E. Styles.

The first mention made of liquor traffic in the records of the alliance, he said, was on April 5, 1885, and called attention to a violation of the law prohibiting the selling of ardent spirits on the Sabbath Day. It was reported that the then mayor would give the matter his attention. A year later the alliance went on record as being in sympathy with the adoption of the Canada Temperance Act and in 1891 a committee was named to prepare an address regarding provisions of the license law. In the following year further exception was taken to provisions in the law.

In 1896 efforts were made to change legislation in regard to the law, but failed, as did the request that a pleb-

Bees Are Friends Of Fruit Growers

In spraying apple orchards in the State of Washington, large numbers of bees have been destroyed by the poison, says "Capper's Weekly."

Now fruit growers estimate they will need 200,000,000 bees to pollinate the apple blossoms. No bees, no apples. Consequently the orchardists around Wenatchee declare they will pay $6.50 a hive for the use of the bees from four to six weeks, as well as transportation charges both ways. Meanwhile if anyone can tell them how to spray fruit trees without poisoning their best friends, the bees, they will be glad to hear from him.

This Girl Should Get a Job and be Independent of Her Parents—Advice to Parents of a Selfish and Extravagant Son—The Young Wife Who Runs Home to Mother While Hubby Kisses Flappers.

DOROTHY DIX

DEAR MISS DIX—After graduating from high school, and completing a course in a business school, I should like very much to go to work in an office, as I am very ambitious to earn my own living, but my people take care of the books my father and brother use in their business. But that work requires only an hour or two of my time, and I could easily do it in my spare time after business.

My parents expect me to marry as soon as I am 21, but I do not think any one would ever care to have me. Will you tell me what to do? My parents and I will appreciate, and be guided by your advice.

ANSWER: My earnest advice to you is to get a position at once and make yourself independent.

It is a curious thing how unjust most families are to their girls. They will keep a girl at home, making her do household work for which they give her no salary, and then feel that they are supporting her. They never regard her as being self-supporting, and she has no independent income and no money of her own. For this reason a girl is very foolish not to strike out for herself and acquire her own pay envelope, unless, of course, there is sickness, or some particular need that forces her to sacrifice herself for the good of her parents.

Your father and mother are altogether wrong in keeping you from going to work on the theory that you will marry when you are 21. Perhaps you will, perhaps you won't. Desirable husbands are scarce in these days, and not every girl is lucky enough to acquire one. If you are self-supporting, if you have something interesting to do, and are making a comfortable living for yourself, it is immaterial to you whether you get a husband or don't get one.

You do not have to marry just any man who comes along for the sake of acquiring a meal ticket. You can pick and choose, and wait until you find some man whom you really love and who is worth having.

There is the blessed privilege of the independent working girl, and it makes every one of them an heiress in her own right.

Our grandmothers, who had no way of getting their bread and butter except by making it, had to take whatever offered in the shape of a husband. They might know a man to be drunken, immoral, vile tempered. He might be totally repulsive to them physically, but the lady to whom he popped the question had to say "yes," because her family wanted to get her married to get rid of her, and she had nowhere to go until she went into a home of her own.

But, thank God, all of that is changed now. The modern girl is no longer dependent on her parents. She can take care of herself as well as her mother can take care of herself, and she can be choosy and take her time about marrying.

Surely your parents who have set the age of 21 for you to marry are not so foolish as to think that a girl should marry when she comes to the marrying age just to be married. It isn't a question of age. It is a matter of opportunity.

For a woman to be happily married is the best fate that can befall her, but for her to be unhappily married is the cruellest. Don't let them thrust this upon you. Get yourself a good job, and then you can wait for heaven to send you the right man along.

DEAR MISS DIX—We have a son who is to be married in June. He makes a larger salary than his father does, but lives up to the last penny. Now he wants us to borrow money to finance him through getting married, buying a diamond ring for his sweetheart, renting and furnishing a house and paying the expenses of his wedding. Now, we have lived very economically and have worked hard, and are paying out for two or three slices of property that we hoped would be a support for us in our old age. Should we go deeper in debt for him, or let him shoulder his responsibilities as we have done?

ANSWER: I would urge you with all the earnestness of which I am capable to refuse to burden yourself with one cent of your son's debts. To do so under the circumstances will not only hurt you but injure him.

To begin with, no man has the right to get married until he has money enough to underwrite his own wedding, and certainly no man has any business giving a girl a diamond ring that he has to make his poor old mother and father pay for by sacrifice of the little comforts that they need. A diamond ring is no necessity to a legal and binding marriage. There are millions of happy and prosperous men in this country—some of whom have precious stones—who never even thought of such an extravagance as a diamond ring when they were married.

Nor is there any excuse for your son, who is earning a good salary, not having saved up enough money to rent his own house and buy his own furniture. That he has not done so shows that he has not had a proper sense of the responsibility he is undertaking in getting married, and he needs to have this forcibly brought home to him.

Therefore, the best thing you can do for him is to let him paddle his own canoe. Let him hustle for a place to live in, and have to deny himself to pay for the instalments on the furniture, and it will be the making of both him and his wife.

If your son were not utterly selfish, he would not ask you to go in debt to give him money, and this should make you realize how little you can depend upon him to take care of you if you give him all you have, and are dependent on him in your old age.

No parents are so foolish as those who impoverish themselves for their children, because the son and daughter who will rob their old parents will begrudge them a support when they are too old to work and penniless. Keep your money. Don't prepare for yourself that most terrible of all fates, a dependent old age.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am 18, and married to a man, and I don't know whether I love him or not. Sometimes I think I do, sometimes I think I don't. We have only been married eight months, and when we quarrel and I get discouraged I go back home, and my husband has been coming and getting me, but lately he took a flapper out and kissed her. What am I to do? Must I trust him again? Do you think I love him?

ANSWER: Well, if I were you, I think I would give myself the benefit of the doubt, and decide that I did. I would try Gosselin on myself and say that every day, in every way, I loved him better and better. You know a woman can think herself into anything, and so if you will just keep your mind fixed on loving your husband you can make him fill your little world, particularly if you go to work and try to make a good wife.

But if you keep on running home to mamma, like a cry baby, you needn't be surprised if he consoles himself by kissing flappers. Any man would do it.

The "Rifter" As A Goat Getter

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont
A gray shiften dinner frock never fails to be soft and lovely in effect, especially if the gray is combined with silver, as in the model above.

The long slenderizing lines of this gown make it especially appropriate for the matron. The bodice extends down to make the line at the hips appear as long as possible, and there are long tabs of delicate silver braid which extend from the bodice to drop at the sides.

With such a frock, one may wear simple black satin slippers, or gray stockings in either case should be gray.

A Thought

And as the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly broken.—Daniel 2:42.

IT IS not because men's desires are strong that they act ill; it is because their consciences are weak.—Stuart Mill.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

WITH the increasing popularity of color photography, or technicolor as it is called at the movie studios, a demand has been created for actresses who have decided coloring which screens well. Hollywood cameramen say Peggy Blake, who was seen in support of Colleen Moore in "Irene" and later with Anna Q. Nilsson in "The Second Chance," has a face which films perfectly.

To secure brilliance in natural coloring the technicolor process requires twice the amount of ordinary studio lighting, which light usually proves rousing to makeup. Miss Blake's clarity of features and natural coloring have withstood the most extreme tests of technicolor photography.

Dorothy Dunbar, new screen find, has been signed as leading lady for Richard Barthelmess in "The Amateur Gentleman," his next First National picture.

Jesse Lasky is endeavoring to find a blonde actress to play the leading role in the film version of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," the novelette by Anita Loos.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Swedish Potato Cakes—Two cups cold boiled potatoes, one egg, one teaspoon baking powder, one-half cup milk, one cup flour, salt and pepper. Beat well and drop from the spoon on well greased griddle. Cook slowly, browning on both sides.

Baked Beets—Cut boiled beets into slices and arrange them in a buttered baking dish with alternate layers of grated Parmesan cheese. Season with pepper, salt and a little onion. Cover with a layer of buttered bread crumbs and bake until the latter has browned. Accompany this dish to the table with a cream sauce.

Rice—Indian Style—One cup rice, uncooked, one cup soup stock, salt and pepper, one cup stewed tomatoes, a little grated onion, one-half cup butter. Boil together the tomatoes and soup stock. When the boiling point sets the rice and cook until rice is done. Remove from the fire and add one-half cup of butter and let steam on back of stove for 20 minutes. Don't stir very much after the rice is put in.

Chicken Creole—One chicken, one-half pound salt pork, one onion, one can tomatoes, one green pepper, salt and pepper. Joint the chicken as for fricassee; put one-half pound salt pork, diced, in a stewing kettle; when the fat is fried out, put in chicken and tomato; reduce to a sauce. A little thickening may be added if necessary. Season with salt and green pepper or onion, or both, as desired. Onion should be fried with pork; green pepper minced and added with tomato. Serve in a border of rice.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

by OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

TINGALING AND THE TWINS FIND A TREASURE

Yes, sir! Whoever Cooty Gooty was he had taken the pocketbook and the rent-book and the pencil, and departed.

And, although Mister Tingaling and the Twins saw queer little foot-marks on the ground, they were afraid to follow them because the last letter had said, "If you follow me your hair will turn green!"

And nobody—not even a fairy landlord—wants to have green hair.

"And here I thought I was going to make my fortune," wailed poor Mister Tingaling. "Instead of that I haven't a penny. The thirty-second day of the month is over and all my rent money is stolen."

"It's just a shame!" said kind Nancy. "Now you can't get a new spring hat or a new spring coat or anything, can you?"

"No, and my wife cannot get anything either," said the fairman sadly. Suddenly Nick whispered, "Sh! I think I hear voices. It sounds exactly like the Gazoorkumses and Snitcher Snatch."

They listened carefully and then Mister Tingaling whispered, "Yes, sir! It is those little rascals as sure as anything! And they are right over there behind that big log. Let's tiptoe a little nearer. It's just like to see what they are up to now, so I would."

So the fairy landlord and the Twins went along like little mice, until they came to the log.

Then very slowly and carefully they peeped over.

And, My Dears! What a sight met their eyes! Snitcher Snatch and the three bad Gazoorkumses were sitting around a heap on the ground.

And the reap of something was Money! Fairy money!

Snitcher Snatch was emptying the big pocketbook on the pile and he was saying, "Yes, my dear Gookies, I told them my name was Cooty Gooty, and if they followed me their hair would turn green. They'll never find us now. And every bit of money we find will add to our treasure, and some day we'll be the richest people in the whole—"

But at that minute Nancy leaped over the log too far, and she fell—poor! Right on top of the money pile.

"Oh, dear!" she thought. "Now I've gone and done it! What do you suppose will happen next?"

But I'll tell you what happened next. The Fairy Queen appeared suddenly on top of a bush. And she called out in a clear voice, "Snitcher Snatch, and you naughty little Gazoorkumses! Aren't you all ashamed of yourselves! It's just dreadful the way you have been cheating and tricking this nice, dear, kind, little fairman. I've been watching everything—I and my other fairies!"

"If let you do the things you did, just because I intended to make you give it all back. Now go home and after this let my friends alone. Mister Tingaling, here is your fortune. Gather it all up and put it into your big pocketbook and take it home. You and Mrs. Tingaling can buy all the spring hats you want now."

"Hurrah!" cried the Twins, dancing for joy, while Mister Tingaling tried to thank the Fairy Queen.

They danced so hard their magic shoes came off. And in an instant Mister Tingaling and the Fairy Queen and Snitcher Snatch and the Gazoorkumses had disappeared.

TRINITY CURATE AND WIFE WELCOMED

Reception Given in Honor of Rev. W. E. Fuller and Mrs. Fuller

A greatly enjoyed congregational social was held in the upper hall of Trinity schoolroom last night when a reception was given in honor of Rev. W. E. Fuller, recently appointed curate, and his wife. The excellent program was in charge of the Boy Scout committee, headed by Scoutmaster Charles Upham and the refreshments were provided by the Men's Club. Feminine assistance was introduced only in the serving of the refreshments, Mrs. C. Regan being convener of the efficient committee which had charge of this. Those who received with Mr. and Mrs. Fuller were Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence, the rector and Mrs. Lawrence; I. H. Northrup, churchwarden, and Mrs. Northrup. Mr. Lawrence was chairman and announced the numbers of the program as follows: Comic sketch, "Two Gentlemen in a Fix" Harold Williams and Wilbert Hurs; solo, Scout Walter Dunbrack; recitation, Wolf Club George Hinchart; recitation, Wolf Club Jack Wilson; cornet solo, Victor Regan; violin solo, Herbert Nase; piano solo, Dr. Harry Dunlop; solo, Lester Howley; readings, Ronald Shaw; and a sketch "Our Flag" by 11 members of Trinity Wolf Club pack.

In the sketch Louis Green was the reader. Vocal solos were given as follows: Rule Britannia, Robert McCutcheon; Loch Lomond, George Cromwell; and Kilnree, Ralph Dick. Walter Beckingham gave a recitation "St. George" and verses of "The Flag" were recited by Gordon Cromwell and Hadley Grant. The sketch closed with the singing of patriotic choruses. The accompanists of the evening were Rev. S. Coupe and Dr. Harry Dunlop.

SCOUT LEADER PRAISED Mr. Lawrence spoke appreciatively of the excellence of the entertainment and warmly commended the good work of Mr. Upham as leader of the Scout and Wolf Clubs. Mr. Upham, he said, have 80 nights during the winter to the Scouts and Cubs and he had full charge of the Scouts' camp in the summer time.

The reception was one of the most largely attended and most enjoyable of Trinity social gatherings that have been held recently.

SONS OF RICH MEN COMMON LABORERS

Twenty years of age, heir to a fortune, handsome, unmarried, believes California girls are the best looking in the world, working on a fruit ranch at $1.75 a day. That describes David Swope, son of General Swope, president of the General Electric Company, Inc., whom reporters discovered swinging a hoe on the Harkroad ranch of the Irvine company, near Irvine, Calif., recently, according to "The Los Angeles Times." But young Swope is not the only son of riches employed on the ranch. With him is Robert Russell, twenty years old, son of R. Lamont Russell, president of the South Manchester Trust Company, of South Manchester, Conn.

Swope said that he had three good reasons for playing the part of an "agricultural vagabond"—first, in order to come into actual contact with the soil; second, to see the world; third, to be in the open air for the sake of keeping his good health. His ruddy face and bronzed arms testify to the success of the venture as far as his health is concerned.

CHILD'S DEATH NOT CAUSED BY TREATMENT

Jury Advocates Provincial Law to Govern Chiropractors in N. B.

VELMA McCLINCHY DIED OF PNEUMONIA

Comment Made in Fairville Verdict on Treatment Given Little One

LEGISLATION to govern the practice of chiropractic was recommended in the verdict returned last evening by the coroner's jury at Fairville in the case of 3-year-old Velma McClinchey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClinchey, who died recently of pneumonia.

The verdict set out that chiropractic treatment given by Dr. H. T. Baker had a detrimental effect on the child, but that the illness was so far advanced that death would in all probability have ensued in any case.

The inquest had occasioned great interest as it was one of the first of its kind in Canada, and several of the leading medical practitioners in the city had contributed to the evidence which the jury was called upon to consider.

The evidence had been concluded the previous evening and addresses by counsel and interested parties were heard last evening after which the coroner delivered his charge and the jury retired. They went out at 9.15, returning at 11.18 when they announced through their foreman, Marshall 'out, that they had reached a verdict.

"A—That the said Velma McClinchey died on the 28th day of April in the year aforesaid, at Fairville, in the Parish of Lancaster, in the County of the City and County of Saint John.

"B—And that the cause of her death was pneumonia.

"And so do further say that in our opinion the treatment of chiropractic on this patient was probably detrimental to the child, though in view of the stage to which the disease had already reached before said treatment, death most likely would have occurred; and also we are convinced that Dr. Baker, according to his own knowledge and theory, acted in the child's best interests.

"We strongly urge on the Government, who have been by the medical act imposed a very high standard on all registered physicians in this province, to which they must conform before practicing their profession, that immediate steps be taken to determine when a chiropractor is qualified and to what extent this science should be exercised. This recommendation is made as a protection to the public who must either suffer or benefit by their services."

It was signed by H. Marshall Stout, (foreman), John L. Feeney, C. A. McMaster, Joseph Boyd, Arthur W. Carton, Charles W. Masson and S. E. Chittick.

Mr. Inches in addressing the jury, said that the McClinchey child had been ill for a week. Dr. Comeau came to see it early in the week, again on Thursday. Sunday the child took alarmingly ill. Dr. Comeau was phoned for about 3 a.m., and arrived about 9. At the father's request the doctor got a nurse. All parties believed that the doctor would return in the evening. He did not get back for 24 hours.

DOUBLE PNEUMONIA. When the doctor returned he found pneumonia had developed in both lungs. If Dr. Comeau could not attend to the case he should have brought a competent nurse. Mrs. Jakes had been shown by the evidence to be incompetent to attend a pneumonia case. She had made mistakes in the story she told under oath.

Mrs. Jakes had said a chart was kept in Dr. Comeau's office from information phoned by her and that the temperatures were recorded there. The evidence showed that she never had a thermometer while on the case. The doctors understood that the case was dangerous.

vent chiropractors being employed. No evidence had been given that Dr. Baker was attempting to practice medicine or surgery.

The question for the jury to decide, Mr. Inches said, was whether Dr. Baker used reasonable care, skill and knowledge in handling the case.

Mr. Gerow explained to the jury that the law quoted by Mr. Inches was correct. He considered there was no evidence of manslaughter but they would have to decide whether the system used by Dr. Baker was one which interfered with the proper treatment of the case.

DR. COMEAU'S ADDRESS. Dr. Comeau in his address to the jury said: "I was asked by Mr. McClinchey to get someone to replace the parents because they were both very tired. I could not get a registered nurse at the time and because of the parents' financial circumstances, I thought Mrs. Jakes would be as good as she could assist in the work at the house. Mrs. Jakes deserves a whole lot of credit for being on duty all the time from Monday noon to Wednesday morning without any rest and I do not think any of you gentlemen present will criticize her for having one hour's sleep. I can swear that she gave me the temperatures on Monday afternoon and evening."

"Dr. Davidson, who was in the house for other reasons, distinctly heard her call my office and give the temperatures. How could she do it if she had no thermometer? As for myself, I can say I gave my whole heart and soul in attending in this case."

SAYS RICHARDS ERRED. "The statement of Mr. Richards that I was 24 hours without seeing the patient is absolutely ridiculous. By going twice on Monday and twice on Tuesday, besides numerous telephone calls to find about the condition of the patient, certainly proves that there was no neglect on my part. Monday noon I told the nurse that I would be back in the evening, but being called to Kellogg prevented me going down, but I called up twice to find out give condition of the patient. As for the treatment, gentlemen, you heard the expert evidence of several prominent doctors, which shows that I was right in both diagnosis and treatment."

"You heard last night Mr. Baker's evidence stating under oath that he never examined the child and did not know what was the matter with her only by hearsay. Now, what would you think of any man who would institute a treatment without any sound knowledge of the patient's condition?"

SUMMONED IN HURRY. "On Wednesday morning I was called in a hurry to see the patient and I responded immediately. If Mr. Baker's treatment was so effective, why was not he called in my place? If the patient had been an adult, I would have flatly refused to do, but as long as an innocent child was involved I thought it was my duty to go down. I can safely say that the child was in a state of shock Tuesday night. I can only say with all sincerity that I have done my duty in the case."

Dr. McDonald then spoke. He said that Dr. Baker had tried to heal the sick for reward. He was, therefore, practicing medicine. He quoted authority to support his contention.

NURSE FAITHFUL. Mr. Gerow told the jury that the inquest was not an attack on any one. He did not think that Mrs. Jakes should be blamed because she had assisted Dr. Baker. The evidence was ample that she had worked faithfully on the case.

There was no evidence of anything but an honorable intention to do good on the part of Dr. Baker. They must weigh the evidence of the medical doctors that his course of treatment was wrong. All persons appeared to have striven to do their duty in the case. If the jury saw fit they might recommend the law of New Brunswick to be altered hereby.

The parents to give their child another chance sent for Dr. Baker who came reluctantly. He was given to understand that hope had been given up. The nurse was willing to assist him in the treatment. If she had been a real nurse she would have felt an antipathy toward chiropractors and would have refused to assist. After the treatment the child was better.

The parents found that the child was brighter and improved in appearance; and yet the nurse said that the child was in a dying condition from the time of Dr. Baker's visit. In spite of this the evidence showed that she left the patient for a rest on the evening following the treatment.

Dr. Comeau swore that he found the patient was in a state of shock; and yet he had gone away and left the case. The child could not have been in a dying condition for the nurse told the mother next morning she was better.

24,000 CHIROPRACTORS IN U. S. Dr. McDonald had said that Dr. Baker had no legal status. There were 24,000 persons practicing the science in the United States. There was nothing in the law of New Brunswick to prevent chiropractors being employed.

British Tie-up Closes Down Mills In Truro. TRURO, N.S., May 11.—Stanley Mills Limited mills here, employing hundreds of people in the manufacture of underwear and other wool products, shut down tonight as a result of the strike in Great Britain which cut off the supply of raw material.

Lumber dealers in this country have also been hard hit by the industrial upheaval in Great Britain, some 2,000,000 feet of lumber destined for British markets being held up indefinitely.

DOG AWAKEN 19 WHEN FLAMES RAGE. Families Carried to Safety as Fire Sweeps Jamaica Plain Home. BOSTON, May 12.—Nineteen people, 11 of them children, were aroused by the whining of their pet dogs and were carried to safety over ladders and through flaming corridors when fire swept through the first floor of a three-story brick tenement at 168-170 Green street, Jamaica Plain, and threatened to destroy the entire building.

"Fluffy Ruffles," six weeks old Samoyede chow, and "Daisy," playmate of the Cheevers children, awakened their respective masters in time to enable them to save their lives. Sharing honors with the dogs are two patrolmen, John J. Kilduff and Charles R. Condrick of the Jamaica Plain station, who discovered the fire, turned in the alarm, aroused two other families and carried or led out 10 persons from the blazing building.

Nine other tenants, six of them children, were carried from third floor windows by laddermen who stood on the ladders at intervals and passed the children and their parents down to safety.

It was stated that "both Dr. Comeau and the father asked witness (Mrs. Jakes) not to mention Dr. Baker's visit. This should have read both Dr. Baker and the father asked witness (Mrs. Jakes) not to mention Dr. Baker's visit."

POSTAL CLERKS ASK SALARY REVISION PUT INTO EFFECT

Oppose Civil Service Body's Suggestion of Holding Up Report

OTTAWA, May 11.—Strong opposition to the request made by the Civil Service Association of Ottawa to the sub-committee of the federal cabinet that the report on salary revision prepared by the Civil Service Commission should be referred back to the commission by the Government, is being voiced by the Dominion Postal Clerks' Association and by other branches of the postal services in Eastern Canada.

L. Littlefield, president Ottawa branch of the Dominion Postal Clerks Association, who has been in conference with Dominion officers of the association and with officers of the Montreal and other eastern branches, has issued the following statement: STATEMENT ISSUED. "The Dominion Postal Clerks Association and eastern branches of other postal employees are totally opposed to the suggestion of the Civil Service Association that the report of the Civil Service Commission on salary revision be returned by the Government. As this schedule is based on the Government's order-in-council calling for an upward revision of civil service salaries, we feel that it should be, in a measure, an increase especially to the lower paid civil servants throughout Canada, we think it should be applied now and not returned until such time as a new commission be appointed to deal with this question. That is too indefinite, and the need of many civil servants requires immediate action."

Municipal Council Passes $248,500 For Permanent Highways, Sidewalks, Sewers

Committee Appointed to Make Provision For Recognition of Bravery of Harry Jones, East Saint John—Robert Crossman to Board of Lumber Surveyors

AN ISSUE OF $248,500 of five per cent. bonds for the Parish of Lancaster, $240,000 of which was for permanent highways and sidewalks, and $8,500 for sewers, was authorized by the Municipal Council at its meeting yesterday afternoon.

Mr. W. W. White was appointed a member of the Board of Commissioners of the Saint John County Hospital, and Robert Crossman was appointed a member of the Board of Examiners for lumber surveyors.

The warden, Hon. R. W. Wigmore, presided and there were present Mayor White and Commissioners Frink, Bullock and Harding, of the City Council, and Councillors Anderson, Smith, O'Donnell, McCavour, Seely, Golding, Simpson, McAllister, Mosher, McLeod and Shaw.

The warden read the certificate of the election of Walter W. White as mayor of the city and His Worship was welcomed by the warden to the council.

Mr. Robertson reported for the Moncton City committee that their book was being prepared and would be ready in a few days.

The executive decided to continue the information bureau at the Calais-St. Stephen bridge, as that office had proved of great assistance to incoming tourists.

Regrets that they could not attend the meeting were received from the Newcastle, Chatham and Bathurst committees.

Mr. Holyoke, chairman of the Fredericton Tourist committee, reported that the Fredericton book will be in the hands of the printers.

ACCOUNTANT GIVES DETAILS RE OVERDRAFT

Extended Report on Fairville Work Presented to Municipality

RESOLUTIONS ON PAVING QUOTED

Statement of Payments to Contractors and Others Is Given

A report by G. W. Mullin, county accountant, on the letter of the Bank of Nova Scotia re the overdraft account of the municipality by the Fairville branch of the bank, with copies of the orders-in-council dealing with these advances for the financing of the Lancaster paving work was presented to the municipal council yesterday.

TEXT OF REPORT

Saint John, N.B., May 11, 1926.

Warden & Members of the Municipal Council, City & County of Saint John, N.B. Dear Sirs,—As requested by your committee on finance, I beg to submit the following report on the Lancaster Highway Account with the Bank of Nova Scotia, Fairville Branch.

At the meeting of the Municipal Council of May 1924, the following resolution was passed: Moved by Councillor O'Brien, seconded by Councillor Campbell.

Resolved by and with the approval of the councillors of the Parish of Lancaster, that this municipality authorize the construction of permanent walks and highways on the highway bridge over the River Saint John to Manchester's Corner and from Sarville Corner to City Line, being one of the western boundaries of the City of Saint John, and for the purpose aforesaid that the municipality be authorized to borrow from a chartered bank approved by the councillors of the Parish of Lancaster such sums of money as may be necessary not exceeding $50,000 for that portion between the highway bridge and Manchester's Corner, and not exceeding $100,000 for that portion between Fairville Corner and the boundary of the City of Saint John, the cost of this work to be borne by the ratepayers of the Parish of Lancaster within the area.

Carleton Vets Plan Dinner to Close Season

C. H. Cochrane Is Chosen President of Branch—Good Reports Received

The annual meeting of the Carleton branch of the G. W. V. A. was held in the Carleton curling rink last night. The president, J. G. Hart, was in the chair and about 45 members were present. The reports submitted showed splendid progress in all lines of endeavor. The standing committees had all been active and much good was accomplished. The statement of finances showed the branch to be in a sound condition and that a great deal of effort had been expended in alleviating suffering among families of ex-servicemen. The branch appointed a committee to interview the Common Council with a view of inaugurating a civic memorial day, on decoration day, commemorating fallen comrades.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

The officers chosen for the ensuing year were: President, C. H. Cochrane; first vice-president, E. M. Hamm; second vice-president, A. V. Wright; secretary, W. A. Macaulay; treasurer, Frank A. Scott; additional members of the executive, J. G. Hart, A. A. Dodge, W. W. Allingham, C. H. B. Wright.

Reichstag Rejects Local Option Bill

BERLIN, May 12.—The Reichstag rejected the local option bill on third reading yesterday, 241 to 163. This action followed two days of heated debate on prohibition, flavored with plentiful revampings of United States experiences in dealing with evasion of the dry law. The Socialists and Communists voted solidly for the bill, all other parties opposing it.

ACTION URGED AGAINST HABIT TOO PREVALENT

Health Board to Take Up Campaign Against Expectoration in Streets

The alarming disregard for the civic by-law with reference to spitting on the streets and the grave menace which this habit is to public health, were subjects for serious discussion at the meeting of the Saint John branch of the Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis held yesterday afternoon in the clinic rooms at the Health Centre with A. M. Peters, president, in the chair.

In a letter Commissioner Harding asked the assistance of the society in an endeavor to put a stop to the all too common practice of spitting on the streets. As there was only a comparatively small attendance at the meeting yesterday it was decided to hold a special meeting at an early date in order to decide upon some vigorous action with reference to expectoration in public places.

It was pointed out that many other diseases besides tuberculosis are spread by this objectionable habit and that it is a habit most surprisingly prevalent. A resolution of deep regret in the death of Miss Agnes Warner was passed. Miss Warner had been an honored member of the society.

Winners in the Tillson's natural Bran RECIPE CONTEST

SEVERAL thousand recipes were received in the Tillson's natural Bran Recipe Contest. The number exceeded all expectations. Great care has been taken in selecting the winners by the committee of two noted domestic scientists and our own baking expert. For over a month the testing kitchens have been busy baking up hundreds of the recipes received. The list of prize-winners published in this advertisement is the final selection of the judges. A cheque has been mailed to each prize-winner named.

$10000 in Cash Prizes

Cheques of The Quaker Oats Company have been mailed to the following prize-winners in accordance with the conditions of the Contest: 1st—Mrs. J. A. Hawpin, Beaverton, Ont.; 2nd—Mrs. Ed. Murphy, Box 345, Windsor, Hants County, N.S.; 3rd—Mrs. O. L. Waters, 134 St. John's Rd., West Toronto, Ont.; 4th—Mrs. C. Johnston, 202 Grenadier Road, Toronto, Ont.; 5th—Mrs. Jas. Rutter, Katrine Station, Ont.; 6th—Mrs. R. Cowan, 11 William Street, Woodstock, Ont.

To every one who sent recipes in this Contest, one of our beautiful Community Plate Cereal Spoons has been mailed. The remarkable response to the Contest shows that the value of natural Bran as a part of the diet has become widely recognized. It shows that muffins, bread and cookies are popular and the most effective way to take Bran, and that Tillson's natural Bran is playing a large part in the success of bran baking. To make the best recipes available to everybody, they will be printed and enclosed in Tillson's natural Bran cartons.

BUYING HEAVY ON EXCHANGE AS STRIKE ENDS

General Electric and Dupont Score Largest Gains in Rally

STERLING EXCHANGE UP WHEN NEWS KNOWN

Trading on Montreal Exchange Confined to Brazilian and Smelters

NEW YORK, May 12.—Termination of the British general strike today attracted a flood of buying orders to the stock market, rallying prices one to five points at the opening. General Electric and Dupont scored the largest gains, while a long list of one to four point advances included such representative issues as United States Steel, General Motors, American Can, U. S. Rubber, International Mercantile Marine, Pfd., Atchafalaya, New York Central and Baltimore and Ohio.

Sterling exchange rebounded to 95 1/2. MONTREAL, May 12.—Trading on the local stock exchange at the opening this morning was confined to Brazilian and Smelters, with prices revealing a strong undertone. Brazilian opened at 90 for a gain of one point, but subsequently sold at 92, for a net gain of two points. Smelters was very strong, opening at 190 for an overnight gain of five points, and was held at that level throughout the early trading. Consent lost an eighth at 100. The rest of the list was quiet.

In addition to these, several interesting addresses were delivered by P.D.D.G.M. Cunningham, W. A. Snelling and the W. M. of the lodge, E. D. Hines.

PAY NEGOTIATIONS AFFECTING 35,000 SHOPMEN TO OPEN

Men Ask Increase of 10 Cts. an Hour For All Grades in Canada

MONTREAL, May 11.—Wage negotiations affecting 35,000 rail shopmen employed on Canadian railways will open tomorrow in Montreal between the Railway Association of Canada and Division 4, Railway Employes' Department of the American Federation of Labor, the men's organization.

A flat ten cents an hour increase for all grades and a restoration of certain shop conditions prevailing previous to 1920 and 1923 which were lost by the men during the negotiations in 1920 will be asked by the shopmen.

Requests for wage increases amounting to 10 cents an hour in the case of hourly rated employees and $240 a month in the case of monthly rated men are being served upon the Canadian Pacific Railway Company by the railway and steamship clerks, freight handlers, express and station employes. This organization has served the usual 30 days' notice on the company for a desire to revise the existing agreement. In their request the men ask that the increases become effective as from June 1 and early opening of negotiations has been asked for.

WHERE IS YOUR "PEP"?

LET "FRUIT-A-TIVES" BUILD UP YOUR STRENGTH AND VIGOR

Miss EVA EMOND

"I must tell you that 'Fruit-a-tives' increased my appetite, gave me more energy and better colour, and I have gained a lot." Miss Eva Emond, Missagoo, Q.

When did you begin to lose your vitality, your enjoyment of life? When did you notice that you were paler, thinner? Of course, you want to be your former cheery self, bubbling over with energy and the happiness of good health. But how?

"Fruit-a-tives" will bring back your normal weight and appetite; give you the soft, velvety skin that glows with health; restore your strength and vitality.

"Fruit-a-tives" will correct the troubles that are keeping you pale and listless and miserable, the Indigestion, Biliousness, Constipation, Headaches and Nerve-aches. "Fruit-a-tives" is intensified fruit juices, combined with tonics. 25c. and 50c. a box — at dealers everywhere congratulation for her accomplishments, both of Miss Barriere and Miss Hyatt, whose violin selections were especially enjoyed.

The young graduate's popularity was evidenced by numerous offerings which covered the stage and to the hearty applause of a select and very appreciative audience. At the close of the program, Rev. J. B. O'Reilly, C. J. M., chaplain of the Mount, spoke eloquently in praise of the young singer and offered his congratulations of all present to her to her mother who was present, and to her deserving teacher.

Miss Barriere comes from Dalhousie, New Brunswick, and is a niece of Mrs. W. K. McKean, 50 South Park street. She is a daughter of E. Major Andrew Barriere, of Dalhousie, N. B. Her mother, who was present at the recital, was formerly, Miss A. Doyle, a sister of Mr. Paul Doyle, the general proprietor of the "Bay View Inn," Jacques River, Restoucoy Co., N. B.

LAUNCHES DRIVE FOR PAN-EUROPEAN FEDERATION PLAN

Declares in Berlin Blast Peril to Peace Greater Than in 1914

BERLIN, May 11.—In launching a campaign for the establishment of a Pan-European Federation, the Austrian Count von Coudenhove-Kalergi announced in the Vossische Zeitung that "Europe is on the verge of another war."

He went on to declare, in greater detail than in 1914, the present European developments are to be viewed from historical standpoints as the prelude to a new outbreak.

"One day Europe will have placed before her the alternative of war or a general revolution as a counter-measure to the smashing of this movement in favour of the organization of a United States of Europe."

The late Mr. Shea was in his 80th year and had enjoyed good health and the possession of all her faculties until the time of her late illness, which she bore with Christian fortitude and patience. She had led an exemplary life and was greatly beloved for her kindness and great charity to young and old.

She is survived by eight daughters, Mrs. F. A. Thomson, Portsmouth, N. H.; Mrs. Stanley, Portsmouth, N. H.; Mrs. N. B. Mrs. Will Dennis, Cambridge, Mass.; Mrs. Gordon Black, North Bathurst, N. B.; Katherine, N. and Ida, N. of Boston, Edna, teacher at Bellefleur, N. B. and Bessie, at home; and an adopted son, Louis, Nash Creek, all of whom were with her in her last illness. Two sisters, Mrs. P. L. Bassett, Oakland, Cal., and Katherine, Nash Creek, and one brother, P. H. Sheehan, C. N. R. agent at Dalhousie, also survive.

The funeral took place on Saturday morning at 9 a. m. from her late residence to St. Joseph's church, where service was conducted by Rev. E. De La Garde and interment was made in the family lot in Nash Creek cemetery.

Deaths

Mrs. John Barrett

SUSSEX, May 11.—Margaret A. Barrett, age 73, wife of John Barrett, passed away at her home in Sussex today after an illness of long duration, of which she was a patient sufferer. The funeral will be held from St. Francis Xavier church on Friday morning at 9.30, where requiem high mass will be celebrated by Rev. P. William Hanigan. Interment will be in Ward's Creek cemetery.

Captain W. Phipps

SUSSEX, May 11.—Captain William J. Phipps, age 60, passed away at his home at Sussex today after an illness of long duration. Capt. Phipps was a retired sea captain and located on a farm near Sussex 11 years ago. His death will be learned with regret throughout the province.

Service will be at his late residence on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The remains will be brought to Sussex station to meet the noon train arriving at Saint John at 1.50 for interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery, West Saint John, Rev. J. J. McPherson officiating.

Mrs. Margaret Shea

NASHVILLE, May 11.—A deep gloom was cast over the community on Wednesday, May 9, when it became known that the death of Mrs. Margaret Shea had occurred at her home in Black Point after an illness of six weeks' duration.

NEW SOUTH AFRICAN FLAG AUTHORIZED

CAPE TOWN, S. A., May 11.—The Heratog Government has adopted a design for a new flag for the Union of South Africa. The design for the flag shows a vertical red bar next to the staff and horizontal bars in green, yellow and blue.

The Union Jack will be flown in addition to the new flag on state occasions.

Early in the year a commission representative of all parties in the Union of South Africa was appointed to select a flag for the Union of South Africa.

Over 3,000 designs for the new flag were submitted to the commission.

Tibet Is Country Without Old Maids

A remarkable feature of Tibet is that there are no old maids in the country, says the "Detroit News". Apart from the Anis, or nuns, there are no women who go through life unmarried. The Tibetan woman does not marry. She uses neither powder nor rouge.

In some districts, however, she covers her face with a black pigment to protect the skin from wind and sun. According to the ideas of Tibet women, the average European is not good-looking.

They consider that Europeans have too large noses—"like beetle-spouts," they say, "and ears too big, like pig's ears; eyes blue, like children's marbles; eyesockets too deep and eyes-brows to prominent."

Immigration Laws Bar Thousands

Estimated Demand For Visas Ten Times Greater Than Quotas Allowed

NEW YORK, May 11.—Removal of the immigration restriction bars would mean an increase of approximately ten times the number of immigrants now coming into the United States under the quota system, according to statistics compiled by the Department of State from records of consular officers throughout the world. These reports show that the estimated demand for visas for entry into the United States totals 1,619,066, while the total quota for immigrants into this country is 164,667.

Of the 1,619,066 applications for visas, 1,429,000 came from Southern and Eastern Europe and the Near East, while only 20,447 visas are given a year. The demand from Northwestern Europe, men, women and children, is estimated at 149,667 visas issued each year.

Italy has the greatest number of applicants for visas, according to an estimate made by the American consul-general in Rome. Italy seeks visas for her million immigrants. Europe is allowed only 3,845 immigrants a year. Poland and Czechoslovakia tie for second place, with estimated demands for these countries if there were no immigration restrictions, and the C. P. R. left this morning for the northern part of the province on a tour of inspection.

TRIAL OF DWYER IN LIQUOR RING IS SURE

NEW YORK, May 11.—Trial of William V. Dwyer, formerly of Montreal, and six others indicted for violation of the federal prohibition law in connection with an alleged liquor ring of international proportions was assured today when Federal Judge Knud denied motions to dismiss.

The motions were made under a demurrer in which it was contended that the indictments did not set forth a sufficient cause of action. When the alleged ring was broken up last December, it was described as "the backbone of rum row." It was stated the organization controlled 18 ocean steamers in the rum trade and was responsible for bringing millions of dollars worth of liquor into the country.

COVEY READY TO SIT IN AT CONFERENCE TO SETTLE TANGLE

SAYS BASEBALL PUBLIC SHOULD BE THE FIRST CONSIDERATION

Endorses Suggestion to Sound Out Public Opinion in Tendering Olive Branch—South End League Organizes For Season

A. W. Covey, president of the City Senior League, is ready to sit in at a conference in an effort to clear up the present unsatisfactory baseball mess in the city and seek means to arrive at a solution of the trouble that will be the able to all concerned.

"Having definitely decided to settle up our own affairs and carry on a league that has existed for many years in this city," President Covey said, "we believe we have the support of the baseball public in expressing our willingness to sit in at such a conference. It is apparent that the present situation does not satisfy the majority of fans, but this is not the time or place to discuss what has been responsible. What we should do, I feel, is get together and the City League executive is ready now to treat with others in this matter."

Mr. Covey said the baseball public should be the main consideration along with the players themselves in this matter and that every effort should be directed toward smoothing out present differences in time for the opening on May 21.

BAD FOR JUNIORS
One prominent ball fan this morning said that three senior league teams only had for the standard of senior baseball in the city, but it practically ruined intermediate players into faster company. He contended that a team, as last year, functioning with a strong intermediate league was the best solution of the present mess, and he strongly commended any efforts toward a conference.

SOUTH END PREPARES
The South End lined up its forces last evening at a special meeting of the executive with three teams definitely in the league and possibly a fourth. The fourth team is the St. John's Bantams and a definite answer is expected from them shortly. The Royals will re-organize. A further meeting will be held tomorrow night. The South End grounds are being put in good shape for the coming season, the additional work on the left field having added fully 15 feet to the grounds. It has been extended considerably also in the centre.

RICKARD PLANNING OUTDOOR STADIUM

Says Public Demands Such an Arena to Seat 100,000 Spectators

NEW YORK, May 12.—Tex Rickard, whose new Madison Square Garden has housed record boxing and winter, announces completion of plans for his contemplated $2,000,000 outdoor stadium, which he expects to be available next summer.

Rickard said the demand of the public for a suitable arena to stage collegiate football, professional soccer and major boxing contests, would require a structure capable of seating one hundred thousand spectators. A site in Long Island City is under consideration.

Surprising reports are coming from men who were bald or losing hair but who acquired a new, vigorous growth by using a peculiar compound that makes life in German hair restorer.

"Four inches of hair have grown over what was bald spot," is the report of G. W. Mitchell. "I had a large bald spot and real healthy hair developed all over my head," writes C. F. Heiler. Imagine the enthusiasm of Albert H. Blazy when he reported: "My head was as bare as the bottom of my feet and now I have a good growth of hair."

Go to McCoys' Pharmacy and get a new growth started. Anyone who is losing hair or is bald may obtain a proof box of this compound free of duty and postage, by writing to: T. J. McCoys, B-180, Station 1, New York.

Contract Let and Work To Start Immediately
The diamond was fenced off last fall and is in excellent shape now for playing. Dumping and leveling that has been going on has extended the centre field considerably and it is estimated by association officials now that from the backstop to the edge is 425 feet, ample room above the regulation distance.

Local Boy Again Wins Taylor Medal

Donohoe Leads at Track Meet With 19 Points—Fraser Second
FREDERICTON, May 11.—W. W. Donohoe, Saint John boy, captain-elect of the U. N. B. football team, today at the U. N. B. track and field sports won the Sir Frederick Williams Taylor medal for the best athlete for the year in college.

By amassing a total of 19 points in the track meet he augmented the ten points he had for his showing on the football and basketball teams to 29. This gave him a clear majority of nine points over his nearest rival, P. W. Fraser, this year's football captain.

Despite the rain, which prevented great speed, the track events were interesting and closely contested. Donohoe led up to the tape with Goodspeed at his heels. A yard or so before the tape Goodspeed hurried himself forward and fairly threw himself across the line before the Saint John man.

In the 440, Stoen and Goodspeed made a spectacular race. Stoen led until the finish, when Goodspeed sprinted hard. Just before the tape Stoen forged ahead and won by a mere foot.

RESULTS OF MEET
Following are the results of the meet: 100 yards dash, 1, Goodspeed; 2, Donohoe; time, 10:3-8; putting shot, 1, Donohoe; 2, McMurray; 3, Fraser; distance, 31.3; running high jump, 1, Heaney; 2, Donohoe; 3, Goodspeed; distance, 54; pole vault, 1, Fraser; 2, Donohoe; distance, 9.2; 220 yards dash, 1, Goodspeed; 2, Seely; 3, Stoen; time, 25.4.

J. ROY BELL HEADS PAMDENEC CLUB

Suburban Association Looking Forward to Prosperous Season
The annual meeting of the Pamdenec Outing Association was held last night in the Board of Fire Underwriters' office in Princess street with J. Roy Bell, president, in the chair.

Reports were presented by the officers and showed the association to be in a flourishing condition with a membership of 149. During the last year a splendid new pavilion was erected and the total receipts amounted to $1,882.75, which was made up as follows:

Membership fees, $145.38; tennis fees, $222; bridges and dances, $916.90; and canteen and water sports, $229.30. Expenses totaled $269.11, which including the building costs. The sum of $1,800 was raised on a mortgage and stock in the association interest was sold. The net gain for the year in operations of the association was $380.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. Roy Bell; vice-president, G. Neely; secretary, Fred W. Fowler; treasurer, Donaldson Hunt; directors, D. Gordon Wilby, C. R. Mercier and G. B. Taylor.

The association is eagerly looking forward to a bigger and brighter year in 1935. It has now four tennis courts, its pavilion, a swimming raft and many other special attractions.

Dies At 79, Never Saw His Children
FERGUS FALLS, Minn., May 12.—Hugh Hunter, 79, a blind man, who used his wife and children as eyes to operate a farm for 41 years, is dead.

During the years in which he operated the farm he felled trees, grubbed stumps, plowed, pitched bundles, hoed potatoes and did many other exacting jobs of the farm. He never saw his children, the first of whom was born after he became blind in 1877.

SUPPER FOLLOWS.
After the entertainment, a committee, composed of Miss Eva Adams, Mrs. William Stoppel, Miss Helen Henderson, Miss Margaret Henderson and Miss Evelyn Allingham, served supper for the members of the two organizations. The two nicely appointed tables were centered with yellow daffodils and had yellow candles in silver candlesticks for other decoration. The same colors were used in the decoration of the room. Walter Scott moved a vote that the two organizations be united and the committee in charge, which was seconded by Fred Henderson and unanimously acceded to. Albert Panter was the accompanist of the evening.

Colored Star May Spend the Summer in Grandstand
"FREDDIE" DIGGS, one of the mainstays of the Royals colored baseball team, has been granted an amateur card to play with the St. Johns, of the City Senior Baseball League, it was reported at the annual meeting of the club held last evening. Confirmation of this report was made by W. E. Strling, N. B. vice-president of the M. P. B., this morning. "This is a bad blow for the Royals' hopes of re-organizing, particularly in view of the fact that the St. Johns also hold the amateur card of Earl Nelson, the Royals star player."

Nelson's case, it is learned, came up at the meeting last evening and was thoroughly discussed and a vote taken by the members on whether to release him or hold him. The meeting, it is believed, was unanimous for retaining him. Nelson has said he will not play with the St. Johns and under the strict amateur rules, he cannot play with any other team. The prospect of spending the summer in the grandstand stares him in the face.

Officers elected last night were: President, Lieut. Victor Markham; vice-president, T. Campbell; secretary, treasurer, W. Steen. A vote of confidence in Mr. Campbell's management of the baseball team was passed. The team is called out for practice this evening on the Barrack Green. Tomorrow night, they practise on the East End.

Boston Terrier Wins Her Championship
Lady Winchester, of Parrott kennels, registered, owned by Mrs. B. M. Frost, went to her championship at the dog show held on May 7 and 8 in the Pythian Castle. Her first points were won at last September's dog show held in connection with the Saint John Exhibition when she was judged by Alf Delmont, of Weymouth, Pa., going winners from the puppy class to best of breed.

That same month at the Halifax show held in the Arena rink she received her second win, under Vinton Breeze, of Caldwell, N. J. There were 45 Boston Terriers shown on that occasion.

Lady Winchester completed her championship in Saint John last week under the supervision of Sully and she is only a little over a year old.
