MAY BE JOINT CHAIRMANSHIP AT CONVENTION

Names of Premiers Gouin and Murray Mentioned

Eight Out of Nine Provincial Premiers to Be Present, Now That Liberals Have Swept Prince Edward Island

Ottawa, July 25.—Defeat of the Conservative government in Prince Edward Island is expected to result in eight out of nine provincial premiers attending the National Liberal Convention in Ottawa on August 5, 6 and 7. Credentials had already been extended to John H. Bell, as leader of the Liberal opposition in Prince Edward Island. Mr. Bell, it is expected, will now be called upon to form a government for the island and will attend the convention as one of the provincial premiers. Ontario is at present the only province in the dominion with a Conservative administration. The selection of a chairman for the convention is arousing considerable discussion. It is probable that joint chairmanship—one French and one English—will be chosen. The names of Sir Lomer Gouin, premier of Quebec, and Premier Murray of Nova Scotia, are suggested. Nothing, however, will be determined until the national committee meets toward the end of the month. D. D. McKenna, leader of the opposition in the House of Commons, has arrived in Ottawa and will remain till after the convention.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning a case against George Galbraith, charged with resisting the police, was resumed. Night Deskman Thomas said that Policeman Arbo brought the accused to the police station a little after one o'clock, and when he took the handcuffs off of him, he pulled some money out of his pocket and said he would bet the amount that he could beat the policeman. The case was again postponed until Policeman Arbo could appear for cross-examination.

William M. Ryan appeared for the defendant and asked that a deposit of $200 be accepted, that being the amount asked for by the magistrate. The latter said he would consider, but could not consent now as information was being obtained whether this man was fazed before, if so, he would have to go to jail.

The magistrate in remarking about hoodlums, and the localities where they sold bad liquor, said, "If they only paid me for detective work."

Joseph Carr, who was before the court on a charge of vagrancy was again given a further hearing. Night Deskman Thomas said that the accused came to the police station several times for protection, and on one occasion asked to be sent to the Alms house; he was taken out, but came back again. He was sent for three months to the Alms house.

James Ryan, chef in the Royal Hotel, and metals were the matter was postponed till this afternoon.

Five youths were in court over the case of J. Humphrey, who was in a motor car, which was recovered in St. Stephen. It came out that Town Marshal E. C. Hill was in his boarding house in St. Stephen when he noticed a car going along the streets very slowly, as the streets were very dark. Having been advised of the number of the missing car, he noticed that the number of this car corresponded. He hurried out and caught up to it and arrested the occupants.

Information received by the detectives is that the lady left her getting a short distance below Musquash, when they had a blow out. They slept in the car all night. In the morning another car happened along and gave them a patch, and in a short time they were on their way again. Outside of St. George they ran out of gasoline, and an American car loaned them some, which took them to St. Stephen. From there they went to Calais, Me., and about midnight returned to St. Stephen.

Detective Bidcombe and Policeman Saunders brought the lady back last night, some of them in George Parlee's car, which he was bringing home from St. Andrews, and the rest were driven back by Mr. Sheehan, who went with the detectives to drive his car back.

Some evidence was taken in the matter of a charge against the Brayley Drug Co. in connection with some Wilson's invalid port wine, said to have been sent in a shipment of goods to Bathurst and not marked just as required. The case was adjourned until August 10. J. Starr Tait is for the prosecution; L. A. Conlon for the defence.

Croatian Troops Revolt; Proclaim a Republic

Begin Fraternizing With Hungarian Soldiers

Separation From Serbia Cry of the Men—Violent Combats in Vicinity of Gratz—French Troops Sent to Luxemburg

Paris, July 25.—(Havas)—The Croatian troops have proclaimed an independent Croatian republic, according to a despatch from Agram, the capital. At several points the Croats are fraternizing with Hungarian soldiers. Paris, July 25.—Despatches from Agram and Gratz report a serious military revolt in Croatia. It is taking the form of a movement for separation from Serbia and the formation of a republic. Advice says that troops are leaving their units, officers and subalterns are leading off their insignia and the army is in a state of dissolution. The railroads and telegraphs are tied up from Cankorty southward. The Serbians are trying to suppress the revolution by the use of troops both Serbian and Croatian.

Gratz, Syria, July 25, via Basle.—Violent combats occurred Tuesday evening at Marburg, thirty-six miles south-south-east of Gratz, where a large part of the garrison revolted as a result of dissatisfaction over demobilization. Thirty persons were killed and many wounded. The movement started at a Socialist meeting where speakers advocated the formation of a republic of Jugo-Slavic-Slovenian and Croatian soldiers who were present in considerable numbers. "Let us separate from Serbia," Frankfort, July 25.—(Havas)—French troops have been sent to each Luxemburg on the demand of the communal council to protect the frontiers. This action was taken because of the presence of American troops from Luxemburg.

Unanimous consent for its immediate consideration was refused by Senator Robertson, Democrat, Arkansas.

ON HIGH LEVELS? THEN DRAW SUPPLY OF WATER TOMORROW

There will be a drought on the higher levels of the city beginning on Saturday afternoon about 2.30 o'clock. This is a plain statement of what is going to happen. The drought will be the result of the city's water supply from Lake Latimer being shut off at that hour the new section which has been laid around Lake Fitzgerald. When the main supply is cut off, the city will be wholly dependent on the supply from Little River and while this may be sufficient to supply the lower levels there will be little if any water for the heights. In announcing the plans for this work today, Commissioner Jones said they hoped to have the full supply from Loch Lomond available again by Sunday evening but this could not be promised definitely. It will be necessary for all householders living in the more elevated parts of the city to lay up a generous supply of water for their needs over the dry period. While this will be an inconvenience to many citizens it is but part of a price of a better and more dependable water service for the future.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times, "if the thing's going to fix up Prince William street for the Prince, I don't see how he'll want to see any other part of the town? If I was him I'd want to see a good look at the people he's interested in. Perhaps he would like to do that," said the reporter, "but it would never do. Our reverend leaders would never stand for it. Do you suppose for some moment they would go into the slums—even with the Prince?" "A cat," said Hiram, "I'm looking at a king."

"Quite so," said the reporter, "but if the Prince went around among all sorts of people he would be making himself too common. Our lords would never stand for it. Dear me, no."

"All sorts of people fit for him in the way of distinctions must be restored. We will just show the Prince a little of the city and then whisk him off to Rutherford, the widow of the pretentious of his clothes."

"Good Lord!" said Hiram. "Amen!" said the reporter.

COFFINS ORDERED TO MONTREAL HOME

Whence Three Children Had Been Sent to Hospital

Manchester, N. H., July 25.—Two unidentified persons are believed to have lost their lives in a fire which damaged two four-story tenement buildings in Lake avenue, a congested district, early today. When firemen were rescuing scores of occupants who had been driven from their beds by the flames they saw two persons on the piazza of an upper tenement signalling for help. One immediately concealed the piazza from view and when a ladder was raised to it no one was found. The two, despairing of help from the street, re-entered the house and were overtaken by the flames. The fire originated apparently in the kitchen of a restaurant which had closed at midnight. An explosion occurred soon after the alarm was given.

MONCTON TRANSCRIPT ON THE P. E. I. ELECTIONS

Moncton, N. B., July 25.—The Prince Edward Island elections naturally caused much interest in Moncton. The Moncton Times (Conservative), has no editorial comment. The Moncton Transcript (Liberal) in part will say: "Dominion politics always to a greater or lesser extent enter into provincial elections here in the maritime provinces, and this is especially true of Prince Edward Island. In that province the parties take themselves as the case may be, as Conservatives or Liberals, as the case may be, and it was a Conservative versus a Liberal election which was conducted on Thursday. The local Conservative party found the burdens of its own commission and obligations supplemented by those of the dominion Conservative party so great that it fell by the wayside."

ST. JOHN'S GREATEST MERCANTILE EVENT

Last Full Day Today—Ending Tomorrow at One O'clock.

This is the last full day of Oak Hall's Annual Mid-Summer Sale, Saturday being only a half day, as Oak Hall closes at 1 o'clock.

Oak Hall anticipates large numbers to visit this great event during its final hours and have prepared accordingly, by increasing its sales staff and bringing forward many additional lines of merchandise so that last minute shoppers will find practically as many money-saving opportunities as did those who took advantage of the first few days.

The Oak Hall motto of Large Volume at Minimum Profit has certainly proved itself well adopted at this time. Those who have already done their shopping realize that Oak Hall is most assuredly getting the volume, one can gain by the large crowds who have daily been visitors to this progressive firm's store. And the values offered go to prove that the very minimum of profit is in vogue, so that large volume at minimum profit is an established fact at Oak Hall, and with the great money-saving opportunities this offers for late shoppers it behooves everybody to take full advantage of it today or tomorrow morning. After that it will be too late.

NORTON GRIFFITHS SHIELD RACE

There has been some talk recently of reviving the yearly contests for the Norton Griffiths shield for power boat racing in the harbor, but there seems to be difficulty in getting any organization to stage the event. The trophy has been in the hands of the board of trade since 1918 they offered to hand it over to the St. John Power Boat Club, but so far the club has not seen its way clear to take it.

The shield was given by J. Norton Griffiths, M. P., to mark the opening of the work on the new harbor at Courtenay Bay on July 11, 1912, with the intention of promoting power boat racing in Canada and to bring the St. John harbor into prominence in this way. It was to be competed for in five consecutive years, but only three races were completed, the war interfering after the 1914 event. It is now proposed to run off the other two years' matches. The trophy is to be awarded to the boat owner who secures the greatest number of wins and in the event of a tie, there is to be a deciding race. In 1912 the Patricia, owned by Dr. Barton, won, carrying the twelve-knot course in 80 minutes 38 seconds; the following year premier honors went to Cachoona, owned by Peter Clinch, then owned by Robert McAllister, captured the event in forty-six minutes. As three boat owners have each won one of the events, the three are tied for the ownership of the trophy.

Entry for this race is open to the

N.W.M. POLICE SERGEANT, WITNESS IN CASE, SAYS HE WAS THREATENED

Winnipeg, July 24—It was learned yesterday afternoon that Albert E. Reames, chief of the Royal North-West Mounted Police service in Manitoba, was a witness against the eight labor leaders on trial for seditious conspiracy who was threatened because of his testimony.

"I know who the man is. He was no foreigner. He will be dealt with in good time," Sergeant Reames said. "He accused me and tried to make me make certain admissions. I presume he was trying to scare me so I would not give further evidence."

The fact that a witness had been threatened was announced by A. J. Andrews, K. C., counsel for the crown, at a morning session. Mr. Andrews added that he intended to place this witness in the box.

(Gloucester Gazette)

Editor Gazette, Gloucester, N. S.:
Dear Sir—Would like to conclude arrangements to bring the St. John Maroons to Nova Scotia to play some of your teams and would suggest that those in control of local teams communicate with me.

Have a fast team with a number of well known players on my line-up, including Riley, McNulty, Ramsay, Lynch, Lawlor, Parlee, Mahoney, Gorman, Hanson, Callaghan, O'Regan and others well known in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. This team is about the only semi-pro team in St. John, just returned after having defeated Calista, Mc, two games; Woodland, Mc, and St. Stephen.

Am endeavoring to arrange a circuit to include Sydney, Glace Bay, Watford, Dominion, Shelburne and any other team that would like to get in on this. Am not desirous of making any of your expense, I only ask enough to cover expenses.

MAY NOT HOLD DOG RACE

None's annual dog race, the Borden Marathon, to Cape Nome and back, probably will not be run again, says Fred M. Ayer, winner of this year's contest, has won the event three times in succession, thereby obtaining permanent possession of the big cup offered by John Borden, Chicago sportsman.

Ayer's speedy canines this year set a new Borden Marathon record when they covered the course, twenty-eight miles and 883 yards, in 1:50:21 1/2. This record probably will stand for some time.

Since the Nome-Alaska Sweepstakes was abandoned a year ago the Borden Marathon has been the big sporting event of the year in dog racing circles.

COMISKEY OFFERS $25,000 FOR MAYS

Chicago, July 22—Carl Mays, eminent exponent of the submarine delivery, may soon be wearing the uniform of the White Sox. If President Comiskey does not offer an excellent figure it will be because he failed to come across with the cash. It was reported today that Comiskey had offered $25,000 for the Red Sox hurler.

With a pennant staring him in the face for 1919, the Sox magnate is determined to get another winning pitcher for Gleason, regardless of cost. If he fails to land Mays, the man who can beat the destinies of the South Side team will go after some other strong-armed hurler.

Comiskey knows it is difficult to grab a flag with two pitchers. He is banking heavily on Dick Kerr, whom he sees despite his diminutive stature, but Kerr, like all rookies, is an experiment.

Place in saucepan over the fire, 1 tablespoonful Benson's Corn Starch, 1 cup water, 1/2 tablespoonful sugar, 1/2 cup orange juice, 1/2 cup lemon juice, 1/2 cup milk. Remove from fire, add yolks of two eggs, 1/2 cup of orange and juice of one orange and 1/2 lemon; mix well. Line greased pie pan with very thin crust, brush with beaten egg, and sprinkle with bread crumbs. Pour above mixture and bake in medium oven till crust is light brown.

COMISKEY OFFERS $25,000 FOR MAYS

Chicago, July 22—Carl Mays, eminent exponent of the submarine delivery, may soon be wearing the uniform of the White Sox. If President Comiskey does not offer an excellent figure it will be because he failed to come across with the cash. It was reported today that Comiskey had offered $25,000 for the Red Sox hurler.

With a pennant staring him in the face for 1919, the Sox magnate is determined to get another winning pitcher for Gleason, regardless of cost. If he fails to land Mays, the man who can beat the destinies of the South Side team will go after some other strong-armed hurler.

Comiskey knows it is difficult to grab a flag with two pitchers. He is banking heavily on Dick Kerr, whom he sees despite his diminutive stature, but Kerr, like all rookies, is an experiment.

LET US ALL HELP.

In connection with the entertainment of the visiting soldiers on Aug. 14 and 15 it should be learned within ten days how many are to be entertained in private homes so that it may be known approximately for how many others provision must be made. No visiting soldier should be in doubt after his arrival as to where meals are to be had. This means that there must be prompt and thorough organization for the first essential is the personal comfort of every man. The city's reputation for hospitality and for appreciation of the sacrifices made by our fighting men would suffer greatly if after the day of the celebration it had to be said that many of the guests to be honored were left to take care of themselves. Every citizen is interested and doubtless will be found eager to help in some way to show them how it can best be done. To show them is the task of the various committees, but they in turn will be only too glad to receive helpful suggestions. The important thing is to secure harmony of effort, and for every citizen to realize that it is his or her duty to help, and not to stand aloof until formally asked to assist. The people at home now have a wonderful opportunity to show the boys who went over the top together that they, too, can do team work and reach an objective. There is still no marked evidence of general enthusiasm, but from this time forward the coming celebration should be in everybody's mind and in all hearts a desire to honor the men who endured so much that the peace we now enjoy might be made secure. They did their part—let us not fail to do ours in the true community spirit.

A LIBERAL SWEEP.

There is now but one Conservative provincial government in Canada. The Liberal sweep in Prince Edward Island yesterday leaves to Ontario the solitary distinction of having Conservative rulers and the wave of Liberalism is also rising in that province. In the island province yesterday only four Conservatives were elected in a total of thirty members. The soldiers' vote which carried the day for union government in the federal elections appears to have gone Liberal again, now that the issue which appealed to them in the federal contest no longer plays a part in the politics of Canada. If this is indicative of the solid sentiment in all the provinces Sir Robert Borden must look to his laurels. The Standard's Ottawa correspondent intimates that Sir Robert may await the result of the Liberal convention at Ottawa before deciding on the changes to be made in his cabinet. The Prince Edward Island victory will greatly cheer the Liberals in other provinces and lend an added interest to the Ottawa convention. It will also emphasize the importance of the efforts made to reunite the Liberal party everywhere. When Sir Robert Borden has reconstructed his cabinet he must announce a policy, and there is very little doubt that it will be such a policy as most Union Liberals would prefer not to support.

THE PROVINCIAL ROADS

The roads and bridges of this province were left in such a state by the old government, which was too busy with railway contractors, patriotic potes, party funds and grafters to attend to them, that Mr. Veniot nor any other man could put them all in good condition for a considerable term of years. But Mr. Veniot has made such an improvement during his term of office that to earn the praise of people who opposed the government of which he is a member. A motorist who traverses the roads a great deal said to the "Times-Star" a few days ago that if Mr. Veniot is given time enough he will give the whole province good roads, but that even if he were out of office any successor would be compelled by public sentiment to pursue the same policy, because the people now realize the benefit and see that the thing can be done.

Some members of the Retail Merchants' Association, with an eye to tourists business, have passed a resolution urging that the rough places in the road between St. Stephen and St. John be repaired at once. Mr. Veniot has already announced that extensive changes and improvements in this road have been laid out by the department. He will hardly permit himself to be hurried into a patchwork policy, but will carry out his full programme as planned. That is what we would expect of a minister who has to look over the whole province, note all the needs, and make his expenditures in accordance with the urgency and the amount of funds at his disposal.

The Standard this morning utterly misrepresents the statements made at the meeting of retail merchants. That body has not put itself on record as condemning Mr. Veniot. Too many of its members have motor cars and know the value of the work that has been done and is being done under Mr. Veniot's direction. They know also the condition in which he found the roads.

The provincial government has received from Ottawa $600,000 to be distributed as loans for housing. It will now be possible to proceed with the distribution under the terms of the act.

A CONSERVATIVE VIEW.

The Kingston Standard (Conservative) with the Toronto Globe that Hon. N. W. Rowell, if he voted for the resolution in caucus to form a permanent Unionist party, can no longer rightly claim to be a Liberal. It says— "By very virtue of his alliance with a new 'permanent' party—though of its permanence we have our very serious doubts—Mr. Rowell stamps himself of his own volition as belonging to that party and not to the Liberal party, of which for a time he was Ontario leader. That is a fact so self-evident that it needs no elucidation, since no man—be he politician or statesman—can simultaneously run with the hare and hunt with the hounds."

The Standard hastens to add, however, that it does not quarrel with Mr. Rowell "for his decision to follow Sir Robert Borden as his leader," and it adds—

"We know no man in Canada better qualified than Sir Robert to continue at the head of Government in Canada or better able to grapple with the serious reconstruction problems that must be dealt with if we are to obtain the fullest benefits of the peace which our soldiers so gloriously helped to win on the battlefield. But if Mr. Rowell or any other former or present Unionist is prepared to accept Premier Borden's leadership it follows as a matter of course—this we take for granted, without for an instant presuming to be or to pretend to be in the confidence of the premier—that Mr. Rowell and others of his kind will likewise be prepared to accept the fiscal, financial and economic policies which Sir Robert, as premier, will seek to have adopted—policies which it is only natural to suppose will not be in harmony with former Liberal ideas."

The Standard points out that Conservatives, now that the war is over and the real purpose of Unionism served and satisfied, are rather inclined to object to any surrender of principles, and to favor a return to former party conditions. It says— "The Standard, for one, has not been able to see why the unionism of today, drifting, vacillating and uncertain should be perpetuated. It is for this reason also that the Standard has advocated, with others, a reconstruction of the cabinet, so that the 'wobblers' and the irreconcilables shall be replaced, and harmony and real union be assured by the injection into the cabinet of strong men who shall be prepared unreservedly to follow Sir Robert Borden and the policies which he will enunciate and formulate—policies, we repeat, that we believe, and certainly hope, will be as his former pre-war policies, essentially in the interests of all the country and not of any section or of any group."

In other words, any Union Liberals who remain with Sir Robert Borden must endorse the Conservative policy on the tariff and all other questions. Thus "For ourselves we still cling to the belief that, the war over, the country will be better served by a return to straight party government, with the Liberals who now see Sir Robert Borden in his true perspective as a great leader, more than welcome to the fold, but with real, progressive, sane Conservatism the dominating policy of the government, however 'Unionized,' it may be in its composition. Under any other conditions the danger would be that the government would be neither fish nor fowl nor good red herring and would, therefore, not for long have the support either of the people or of the newspapers of Canada. We all of us swallowed many things during the war that we are not prepared to swallow now that peace is here."

This is a frank statement of the Conservative attitude. That party will welcome all the Liberals it can get, but they must accept the Conservative tariff and other policies. A Union government hereafter must mean a Conservative government.

If Nova Scotia had dealt months ago with the smallpox situation as promptly and effectively as was done in this province by the health department presided over by Hon. Dr. Roberts, those vexatious American quarantine regulations would never have been made. We know better now the value of a well organized provincial health department.

A citizen makes a valuable suggestion in connection with the reception of the Prince. It is that in certain side streets along the route of procession children be massed in groups under musical directors, to join in singing as the Prince goes by. Of course the success of such a feature would depend upon the weather.

THE LIBERAL LEADERSHIP
Montreal, July 25—Speaking at a meeting last night in Longueuil, J. Archambault, Liberal M. P. for Chambly-Yves, said "The new Liberal leader would have to be selected from outside Quebec, not because Quebec was lacking in men with sufficient qualifications, but because a Quebecer in the present circumstances would not secure a strong enough following in the other provinces, while the French Liberals who had had a leader of their own since 1907 would have no objection to following a chief from any other province."

Montreal, July 25—A despatch to the Gazette from Ottawa says— "An eastern leader with a western policy, or a western leader with an eastern policy seems to be the alternative before the Liberal convention, and as the time for decision draws near it appears as if the former will be adopted. From Manitoba comes reliable information that the delegation from that province will not support a western man for the leadership, but will rally round Hon. W. S. Fielding. This is a serious break in what was supposed to be a solid west for Premier Martin of Saskatchewan. Other defections in the west are rumored."

"With a break in the western contingent, Hon. W. S. Fielding can afford to lose considerable support in Quebec. From Ontario he will have many supporters."

BRITISH WOMEN AND THE FRANCHISE
London, July 25—(By the Associated Press)—The Adams bill, which provided for the giving of the franchise to women on the same terms as men, but only at the age of thirty years, was dropped by the House of Lords last evening.

This action was taken by the lord chancellor at the suggestion of the Earl of Kimberley, who had moved the second reading of the bill.

The House of Lords on Tuesday passed the second reading of a bill, introduced by the lord chancellor, entitling women to hold public office and exercise public functions. It made no change in the franchise affecting women. The government bill was a substitute for the Adams bill, offered in the House of Commons on behalf of the Labor party.

Vain Effort
Former Senator Smith of South Carolina, tells this story of a little argument in the court room between a rising young attorney and an elderly physician. The attorney was prosecuting a damage suit, and the physician's testimony being detrimental to his cause, he was trying to show that the doctor was inept. He asked several satirical questions. The physician answered patiently. Finally he tried a final shot. "You've sent a good many of your patients to heaven, haven't you, doctor?" he asked.

"Well, I presume they went there," replied the physician, "unless they had formed too close an association with lawyers."

Filling the Gaps in Your Office Force

A GREAT many firms tell us that not only is it next to impossible to get clerical help, but many of those they do get are untrained and therefore inaccurate in their work. Fortunately this situation can be greatly relieved by the use of the Monroe Calculating Machine.

One girl and a Monroe can do the work formerly requiring two or three men. She doesn't need to be an expert. With a few minutes' instruction and practice, she can place your figure load on the

and you can be assured the work is absolutely accurate because the MONROE Mechanical Check puts a ban on operating mistakes. No rechecking is required. Look at any one of the problems listed at the left and compare the time required by the Monroe to solve it with the old pen-and-paper method. The Monroe has a range of utility that embraces any type problem in any business.

Mr. Manager, it is a difficult matter for you to determine the efficiency of the Monroe Machine by our telling you about it. Let us send a representative to demonstrate what it will actually accomplish in your own office.

You can then make your own tests and compare it with any other machine you may have in service. All of which means we have perfect confidence in the ability of the Monroe Machine to "make good." To bring the matter to a head simply mail the attached coupon. No obligation involved.

MRS. FITZRANDOLPH WINS HER CASE

Fredericton, July 24—The jury after out over two hours, in the case of Charles Fitzrandolph vs. Elizabeth Fitzrandolph, before the New Brunswick Divorce court this afternoon brought in a verdict declaring the defendant guilty of adultery.

After the verdict was rendered, Dr. J. B. Baxter, K. C., for the defence, moved for the dismissal of the libel, and such dismissal was ordered by Judge Crockett. The case was the first to be tried by jury in the divorce court of this province. It was tried previously by Judge Crockett who granted a divorce, but his decision was reversed by the supreme court of the province on appeal. M. G. Teed, K. C., counsel for the plaintiff, completed his address to the jury, after which Judge Crockett charged the jury, taking up the evidence in detail.

The jury went out some minutes before 6 o'clock and returned after 7 o'clock when the verdict was announced through the foreman, Gordon Grant. Eight questions were put to the jury by his honor, all of them relating to adulterous conduct with co-respondents. They were answered so the jury in favor of the defendant five unanimously and three with a decided majority.

LETTER CARRIERS OF TORONTO WILL NOT GO ON STRIKE

Satisfied, for Present, With News From Ottawa But Look For More Money Later.

Toronto, July 24—All danger of a strike of the letter carriers of Toronto apparently is off. They had demanded information from the department at Ottawa as to the salary and bonus under which they were working, upon which question they seemed to be very much in the dark, and had intimated that if this information were not forthcoming today they would go on strike on Friday. The information came, and was delivered by Postmaster Lemon at a meeting of the letter carriers tonight. He had received it through Deputy Postmaster-General Coulter.

It was to the effect that the letter carriers here were working on the old salary basis of $989 per annum, and that the bonus which had been cut off would be paid at the rate of $420 a year, semi-monthly, the bonus to be retroactive from April 1.

Under the new salary regulations, which have not yet become law, but are expected to become law soon, no letter carrier is to receive less than he received heretofore. It was announced that this is the assurance of the postmaster-general. In the meantime, however, the letter carriers of Toronto are asking for a bonus of $600.

At present they are satisfied with the information they have received, but are not satisfied with the amount of money they are being paid. However, they will stay on the job, hoping that they will eventually get what they want.

WARN RETURNED MEN AGAINST ORGANIZATIONS SEEKING TO EXPLOIT THEM

Montreal, July 23—The first meeting of the Canadian Workers' Federation of Returned Soldiers and Sailors was held last evening at Maisonneuve. When the aims of the organization were approved by a large crowd.

A warning was uttered against the returned soldiers having anything to do with the industrial council or any organization with the one big union complexion, it being said that these organizations were trying to exploit the returned men, and were in the main composed of a revolutionary element which at the critical period of the war had done all it could to hamper the production of war materials so badly needed by the men at the front.

GERMANS CUT FRENCH PRICES

Seek Business at Figures Below Those of French Manufacturers

Paris, July 25—(By the Associated Press)—Germans, through agents and by circulars, are offering cut prices, bicycles and other articles on the French market 75 per cent below French manufacturers' cost prices, according to a statement made yesterday during a debate in the Chamber of Deputies. Soldiers who have returned from the occupied regions of Germany, it was alleged, are calling on French merchants and trying to sell them German jewelry, drugs, thermometers, cutlery and bicycles.

It was said that some officers, as well as soldiers, are awaiting court martial for engaging in this trade.

Joseph Clausat, Socialist deputy, declared that the military authorities were permitting commercial propaganda in France by the Germans while the correspondence of French merchants is still being subjected to control.

TORONTO MACHINISTS RETURNING TO WORK

Toronto, July 25—After a joint conference between the representatives of the metal trades strikers and the employers yesterday afternoon, it was said by James G. Merrick, secretary of the Toronto Employers' Association, that the strike had failed to attain its end, and that the machinists and pattern makers had decided to return to work on the terms of the forty-eight hour week with the fifty hours pay. The strike has lasted more than two months.

Toronto, July 25—Prominent members of the metal trades council last night repudiated a statement of J. C. Merrick, secretary of the employers' association, that the number involved was 1,700. They concluded that 4,000 metal workers were still on strike, out of 6,500 who went out on May 1.

They stated that forty-three firms had signed with the metal trades council, independently of the employers' association and that the number involved was 1,700. They concluded that 4,000 metal workers were still on strike, out of 6,500 who went out on May 1.

SOME 100,000 ONTARIO CARS

In Toronto There Are 17,171 Automobile Licenses Issued

Toronto, July 25—Farmers are coming into their own insofar as the possession of motor cars is concerned. During the last five years the increase in the number of cars owned by farmers has been phenomenal. Statistics contained in the report of the Department of Highways for last year testify as to the many farmers that are replacing the horse with the motor car for pleasure and utility.

The report of the department shows that of 104,699 passenger cars owned in the province last year, 64,900 of them were owned in towns, villages and townships and only 39,799 in the cities. Of the number owned in cities less than half were in Toronto, or 17,171. There was a total registration of 109,374 cars in the province, including 7,229 motor trucks. There was an increase of 25,284 in the number of cars of all kinds registered in the province in 1918 over the previous year.

FRENCH ELECTIONS TO START IN OCTOBER

Paris, July 24—Elections for a new French parliament will probably be held October 12. Six hundred deputies will be elected on the 12th. In the municipal elections the first balloting will be held on October 19, and the second a fortnight later.

The election of senatorial delegates has been tentatively fixed for November 10, and the election of senators for November 23. Many necessary supplementary elections will be held November 30.

DANCE ENJOYED.

Much enjoyment was taken last evening in a dance at the clubhouse of the R. K. Y. C. at Millidgeville in honor of some ten or twelve returned soldiers. The clubhouse was prettily decorated for the event. A pleasing programme of dances was carried out and light refreshments served. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nisbet were chaperones.

BOOSE AND THE DRUG HABIT

(The following article by Dr. W. A. Evans in the Chicago Tribune answers the claim that prohibition increases the use of drugs.)

When the wave of ratification of the prohibition amendment was sweeping over the country the statement was made that prohibition would increase the use of opium and cocaine. This statement is incorrect. The effect will be just the contrary. The succession of drug habits is as follows—tobacco, alcohol, opium, cocaine.

A man generally starts the use of drugs by smoking cigarettes. Presently that drug loses the kick and he goes to a larger, stronger dose of tobacco. This leads to alcohol. After a while he wants a stronger kick than he can get from alcohol and he takes on opium or some of its derivatives. When opium no longer gives the sensation that is satisfactory he goes to cocaine.

Prohibition of the use of cocaine practically has been operative for several years. For a number of years there has been practical prohibition of the use of opium. The opium user now depends on the bootlegger.

Now we are to have prohibition of the use of alcohol. The opponents of the prohibition amendment would have us think that making whiskey difficult to get will cause men to take up a new habit calling for a drug that is more difficult to get. The answer is, first that it is not good physiology. The science of the thing teaches us that when we break the alcohol link we throw the links beyond that out of operation. When we short-cut one step in a progression the tendency is for the progression to stop. Some of the people who, having become hardened to whiskey, take up morphine under the old order, under the new will not become addicted to anything.

The second part of the answer is that it has not worked out that way. The prohibition of cocaine and opium has not increased the amount of alcohol addiction. Nor has it increased the number of opium and cocaine addicts. The states and cities where there has been prohibition of alcohol for a number of years have had no increase in the use of opium and its derivatives and cocaine. That there will be an increase in the use of these drugs, if prohibition of the legitimate sale is stopped, the legitimate sale increases and continues to be considerable for a number of years. No nation ever quit any habit instantly. It will take a generation wholly to stop the use of the drug. But each five-year period will witness an improvement over the one which went before.

A Larger Market For Our Wooden Ware

A. C. Mambert, Ontario timber commissioner in London, says: "I am making some enquiries into the market for wood manufacturers, such as joinery work, turned goods and all other articles made largely of primary wood. There has been more or less discussion of this business at home, and in my knowledge a certain amount of export trade has run between Canada and this country; but, so far as I can learn, it has always been of minor volume and conducted in two casual fashions."

"At the present moment an undoubted opportunity exists. It would be most unfortunate if we were not to take full advantage of the present situation. Hereofore this trade has been very largely controlled by Sweden, Germany and the United States. At the present moment all goods of this kind are either prohibited from importation outside of the Empire, or are subject to licenses."

I have received several tangible indications of interest by parties here in developing this trade with Canada. Among these I have a letter from F. A. Perrin, of Winton, Perrin & Company, 22 Great Eastern street, London, following an interview which Mr. Perrin had with me.

Andreas for Canadian Goods. "In this letter Mr. Perrin confirms his purpose of going to Canada immediately to pursue the renewal of some old relationships existing before the war, and the establishing of new ones. He is interested in purchasing the following items: Dowels, broom handles, made from soft wood, such as basswood and spruce, ash hay fork handles, ash rake handles, hickory and maple pick handles, hickory sledges hammer handles, clothes pins, wash-bowls, maple screw-down chairs, household utensils made in wood, and particularly anything in the turner and woodware lines."

"In addition there is an active demand in England and France for many other items, such as rakes, step-ladders, pails, garden barrows, washing machines, ironing boards, wooden trays, paint brush handles, etc. etc."

"My conviction is that we cannot be too aggressive in getting a full measure of the possibilities of this trade, because if we fail to do our part to meet the demand, it must sooner or later turn to other sources for satisfaction, and a decided opportunity be lost to us."

FURNITURE TRADE ENJOYS UNPARALLELED ACTIVITY

Canadian and American Factories Have Orders for Months Ahead—Prices are Steadily Advancing (Toronto Globe)

A phenomenal activity is being experienced by the Canadian furniture trade, yet still greater activity is anticipated for the near future. In the United States the furniture factories have sufficient orders booked to keep the plants working at capacity until the end of the year. Canada also has orders for many months' output. This business is practically all for home requirements, and now the export possibilities are opening up in an unobstructed way. Resulting from these and various other conditions, the value of furniture is soaring, and, according to both manufacturers and retailers, the advance will continue for an indefinite period.

It is estimated by the manufacturers that furniture prices have increased about 50 per cent in the past eighteen months, and about 100 per cent since 1914. There are, of course, certain items which have not advanced so much, but other classes have a great deal more than doubled in price during this period. Common kitchen chairs are manufactured at a cost of about thirty-nine cents prior to the war, as compared with approximately $2.40 today. This, however, is not the case of furniture wanted at present. The cheap lines are unsalable. When chairs were made at thirty-nine cents there was a great demand for them. Arenas, for instance, ordered them by the thousands, but today these cheap chairs are almost impossible to sell at a profit. The demand is now for expensive dining-room chairs, better class tables, costly couches and other pieces of furniture which in pre-war days were considered far beyond the artisans' reach.

Too Busy for Export Trade. The export possibilities have not been thoroughly explored by the Canadian furniture manufacturers. Canada's furniture output is probably about $10,000,000 per year, according to present prices. This amount of furniture is expected to be required by the returned soldiers alone. The furniture orders for soldiers in the next few months or so are estimated at $20,000,000, or approximately two years' output. Added to these orders will be the requirements for the 3,000,000 population of the United States. In view of this business the Canadian furniture manufacturers are not going after export trade in the manner they would do if home consumption was below the supply.

Other items, such as rakes, step-ladders, pails, garden barrows, washing machines, ironing boards, wooden trays, paint brush handles, etc. etc. "My conviction is that we cannot be too aggressive in getting a full measure of the possibilities of this trade, because if we fail to do our part to meet the demand, it must sooner or later turn to other sources for satisfaction, and a decided opportunity be lost to us."

Says Packers' Ring in Chicago Grips World Hide Markets

Chicago "Shanks and Bloodsuckers Prey Upon Poor," Says Shoe Manufacturer—St. John Man Among Officers Elected

Government regulation of the price of hides and an embargo on Canadian skins for export to the United States was the solution of the high price of footwear in Canada offered by Joseph Daoust, tanner and shoe manufacturer, of Montreal, in an address delivered before the convention of the Canadian National Shoe Retailers' Association in Toronto recently.

Answering the question "Who are the boot and shoe profiteers?" he put the entire blame upon the Chicago packing ring known as the "Big Five." Mr. Daoust did not mince matters. The Chicago packers he said, were sharks and blood suckers, preying upon the poor. Not only did they control the hide markets of the world, but also 700 food-packing companies, so that when they raised prices in Chicago, up went prices all over the world.

CANNOT EXPECT GOODS ON TIME

Wholesale Dry Goods Houses Unable to Promise Early Shipments (Toronto Globe)

The chief difficulty being encountered by wholesale dry goods houses is the securing of merchandise. Orders placed with Toronto wholesalers are said to call for an immediate drop in the cost of goods within the next five or six months and that they could dispose of their entire stock in two or three days.

The manager of the woolen department of one of Toronto's wholesale houses states on his return from England and Scotland that he does not expect deliveries to be made from overseas on time, and that he will not be able to get his goods at all until late in the year.

Some districts in which he found only two or three orders, and these were for the most part for the winter season. "This is due entirely to the lack of raw material," he said. "The mills were kept busy on handiwork, and there was no stock on hand, and it will be the middle of August, or perhaps the first of October, before they start to receive the Australian wool clip."

Canada on the output of these mills for a continued decline in prices, and the balance of their stocks, and the same condition in other lines.

These same conditions surround the cotton and linen trades. The Canadian textile mills are not accepting orders on a large scale, but are allotting a portion of their output to the Canadian trade.

The balance of their stocks are going overseas, where apparently the market prices even higher prices than the Canadian trade.

Canada's stocks of sheetings, prints, and other kindred lines are very much depleted, and it is not until early in the year that there is a slight recession in prices. At that time the retailers look out for a continued decline in prices, and consequently held back their orders, and now that there is every indication of still higher quotations the stockholders are placing orders far in advance of delivery on specific dates.

There is a great difference in opinion as to whether the lifting of the ban on goods going to Germany will have any material effect on Canadian or American cottons and woollens. Some manufacturers are arguing that large orders will be placed immediately, but others contend that there will be very little trading with Germany owing to the country's financial condition, and because there is no necessity of reaching out after a shaky market when there are plenty of orders to be had in the home or other countries, where credit conditions are ideal. Of late there has been a number of buyers from neutral countries adjacent to Germany territory trying to buy cheap clothing and woollens in the United States, and he plans to establish a manmoth working and salvaging station in this port. His deep-sea diving outfit will raise a wreck from several depths to which a diver will go.

Several stations have already been established in the United States, and he plans to establish them in the ports of St. John, Halifax, Montreal and Quebec.

MAY ESTABLISH NEW WRECKING PLANT HERE

J. G. Mayer, of Montreal, arrived in the city yesterday with one of the biggest business propositions that this city has known for some time. He is one of the many St. John boys who has made good in the world and is being greeted by his old friends. He plans to establish a manmoth wrecking and salvaging station in this port. His deep-sea diving outfit will raise a wreck from several depths to which a diver will go.

AERIAL MAILMEN GO OUT ON STRIKE

New York, July 25—A strike of aerial mail pilots began today. The aviators appeared to take out the plane with the express mail due to start for Bellefont, Pa., at five a. m.

The strike the first of its kind in the country, follows the refusal of the post office department to reinstate two pilots for refusing to take out planes on Tuesday on account of the fog.

FORMER ST. JOHN MAN MURDERED

(Continued from page 1) "The stars are out tonight, Jim," his reply was, "Yes, good night." His wife answered good night and he was gone. He did not dream that it was the last time he would take that walk. He observed Mrs. Sprout brokenly as she retraced these scenes of her last knowledge of his actions.

A very few minutes later, Harry Scott, who is employed in the mill office, heard two or three shots fired. He went to the windows. Mr. Scott saw an indistinct figure standing in the darkness at the back of the house. Mr. Sprout's body was found an hour later.

Grooming Was Heard The man had been shot at least twice and possibly three times, one bullet having entered the abdomen below the right lung. Another had entered the body of the neck and appeared to have passed through the body and hit his arm at the elbow.

It appears to have been no argument or struggle as the Scotts heard nothing until right after the shots. Mrs. Scott heard an exclamation.

No Definite Clues. Thus far the officers have found no clues that are definite. Near the bush where it is believed the person making the murderous assault was hidden, there was dropped by somebody a box used to contain revolvers. The cost mark on the box was a very quiet and rather five years ago, identification of the purchaser is difficult from that angle.

No one in Orono could be found who can tell of any enemy that James Sprout had among his associates. In fact, it is said that he was a very quiet and rather solitary man, as men go. He worked regularly and was one of the dependable men at the mill. After his hours of duty he spent practically all of his time in improving his little home and tending a good-size garden.

He almost never went out evening, say those who knew him well, and this is corroborated by his wife, who declared that he had not an enemy in the world. To them it is a mystery as he had about $70 in his pockets when found dead. He was wearing a suit of blue serge and a hat which had been made to get this away from him. It is believed that revenge is at the bottom of the murder, for some real or fancied wrong.

Was Shot Once Before. It may be remembered that James Sprout figured as the almost-victim in a murder when he lived in a little house at the upper end of Margie street, near the mill, about three years ago. On that occasion while he was in bed and unable to get up, an enemy in the work at the mill his life was attempted but the bullet made a wound from the chest, as a result of which he later died. Mrs. Sprout declared Thursday morning.

With time allowances off for good behavior, Mrs. Gilbert was released after serving about two years and she has been present at the trial of the man who was present at the murder of her mother's previous conviction to a reporter for the Commercial. Mrs. Sprout declared Thursday morning.

"I don't believe mamma did that to Jim a second time. She always spoke kindly of him and I can't imagine any reason why she would do that again." A little later she added, "Poor Jim didn't live to tell what he saw this time." She then explained how her husband, when the shot was fired before that nearly took his life, saw his wife's mother standing in the door of the room and so knew who it was that tried to do him. Since that occasion, says Mrs. Sprout, Jim has not been on speaking terms with his mother-in-law, who, up to that time, had been a regular member of his family.

"Mamma was up here to see me and the children about three months ago," said Mrs. Sprout, "and the last time I saw her was last Saturday, when I took one or two of them with me to Bangor to see her. She has been here several times to see us since she was released and Jim told me that she could come as often as she wanted to see me and the children. He himself has spoken to her just once since that other shooting and that was July 4 last. He was in Bangor with little Kenneth and mamma saw him in the street. She asked if there was time to buy some bananas for Kenneth, who she took care of all the time when he was little and loves very dearly. Jim told her that the Old Town car was due, but she got the bananas and got them seated in the car, with the fruit, before she left them. But Jim has never told her she couldn't come to the house, nor told me she couldn't come so. This was in response to a report about Orono that Mrs. Gilbert and Mr. Sprout had trouble over her coming there to see his wife."

Sheriff Fernandez said on Thursday that he visited Mrs. Gilbert at her home, 72 Patten street in Bangor, Thursday morning, that she asked him if he had come to arrest her and he replied that he did not, but that he was seeking for light on the murder. She replied that he would do well to move moderately in making an arrest and only after a thorough investigation, as she was a justly convicted and sentenced the other time. She contended to the sheriff that she was in her home all night Wednesday and that she knew nothing whatever of the person or persons committing the crime which took away James Sprout's life.

FINE WELCOME AND PRESENTATION TO A CLIFTON SOLDIER

Williston Carmichael Receives Gold Signet Ring—Two Other Returned Men Present

On Thursday evening the residents of Clifton gathered in the Clifton Hall to give a reception and official welcome to Williston Carmichael, just returned after nearly five years of service overseas. Practically the entire personnel of the little community were present one family being represented by four generations.

The proceedings opened with the hymn "Home Again," sung in chorus by all those present, after which the company were formally presented to the guest of honor, and two other returned boys who were present, Elms, White and Roy Green. Master Bobby Bryan sang "Smiles" followed by Mrs. P. N. Woodley who rendered "Home Sweet Home" in a beautifully sympathetic manner.

Refreshments were served, after which the meeting was called to order, when the chairman, Col. Orme, welcomed to a short address and an official welcome to the returned boys, offering as a toast "The King and Empire." To this the audience responded by singing the national anthem. Willard Wetmore gave a brief synopsis of the work that Canada had done in the war, and gave as a toast "Canada." The company sang "O Canada." Percy Woodley followed with a toast "The Army" and Franklin Wetmore gave "The Navy," which were both suitably responded to.

The chairman after toasting "The Guest of the Evening," presented to him a handsome gold signet ring on behalf of friends in the village. Mr. Carmichael, although very much moved, responded with a short speech of thanks and after three cheers and a tiger the party had the pleasure of listening to Alfred Noyes' famous poem "Victory," beautifully read by Miss Louise Wetmore.

This being the last resident soldier to return the chairman felt that it would be an excellent opportunity to refer to the work of sending parcels to the soldiers which had been done by the local Red Cross and kindred societies and a vote of thanks was unanimously passed on behalf of the returned boys.

After the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" the gathering broke up, each one feeling glad and proud to have taken part in a heart-felt demonstration which would help to show the boys how highly their work, their sacrifices and their sufferings had been appreciated.

SWEEPING VICTORY FOR ISLAND LIBERALS

P. E. I. Opposition Wins Twenty-Six of Thirty Seats in General Elections; In 1911 Only Two

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 24.—The Liberals swept the province in the general elections today, capturing twenty-six seats out of thirty. The only Conservative survivors of the debacle were Hon. A. E. Arsenault, premier, Hon. James A. McNeill, commissioner of public works, and Hon. Murdoch Kennedy, without portfolio, and J. D. Stewart. Hon. Mr. McKinnon, minister of agriculture, was one of the slain.

This was the most one-sided election since Confederation with the exception of 1911 when the Liberals won only two seats. When the house dissolved, the parties stood: Conservatives, eighteen; Liberals, eleven, and one seat vacant.

Returned soldiers did not take an active part in the contest, but it is evident that the majority voted Liberal. Fine weather brought out a very large vote. There was a big turn-out in Charlottetown, Liberals capturing both seats by large majorities, the labor men going with the opposition.

The Conservatives came into power in P. E. Island in December, 1911, under the leadership of Hon. J. A. Matheson. When the latter became chief justice in June, 1917, he was succeeded by Hon. Mr. Arsenault.

ELABORATE JOY DAY PLANS TAKING FORM

Committees Hard at Work Arranging Features for Entertainment of Soldiers and Prince — Stares Open Friday Afternoon

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the entertainment committee, yesterday afternoon, in the mayor's office, in regard to arrangements for the entertainment of New Brunswick soldiers who will come to St. John on August 14. The meeting was well attended and was marked by whole-heartedness on the part of the various representatives of the organizations of the city who were in attendance.

The Power Boat Club, with J. C. Chesley, commodore, will have in hand the arranging of fast motor boat races to be held in the harbor in the afternoon of August 14. This programme will be carried out in conjunction with single and double scull races under the auspices of the West End Athletic Club, J. Fred Belyea, president.

A committee composed of the presidents of the East, South, North and West End Improvement Leagues, will arrange for the importation of several outstanding baseball teams and time baseball will be arranged. It is understood that several fast teams will be sought so that a real good brand of baseball will be put up for the amusement of the thousands of visitors who will be in St. John on August 14, which is to be known as "Joy Day" for the returned soldiers of the province.

The live organization of the commercial travellers and S. S. Sims have undertaken the entertainment of the soldiers in the evening. Concerts, entertainments of various kinds and refreshments for the men will be arranged. A suitable building or a large hall will be secured for this part of the programme.

On motion it was suggested to interview the commissioner of harbor and ferries for the purpose of securing free passage for all foot passengers travelling back and forth on the local ferry on both days.

A committee was appointed under the leadership of R. J. Wilkins, with K. J. MacIntyre, R. J. Cunningham, Commissioner Thornton, John Brayley and Harry Ervin to arrange for a monster parade in the morning of August 14.

The parade committee with R. J. Wilkins in the chair held a meeting last night and discussed several matters regarding the parade to be held next month. It was suggested that the members of the fire department, salvage corps, Y. M. C. A., Y. M. C. A. St. Peter's, Y. M. A. and other similar societies, also some of the leading manufacturing concerns be invited to participate in the parade, that the different bodies would be given for the best features.

The secretary was instructed to communicate with the societies and other bodies to obtain their views regarding their taking part, and to send invitations to St. John and take part. Chairman Wilkins stated that there would be a meeting of the Polymorphous Club held in the Victoria Bowling Academy on Charlotte street this evening when that body would decide on what part they would take.

Stores Open Friday 2 p. m.
The executive and advisory board of the St. John Retail Merchants' Association was called together yesterday morning to discuss the matter of a double holiday at the time of Soldiers' Joy Day and the visit of the Prince of Wales, August 14 and 15. After sending out to confer with the mayor, the meeting decided on a compromise and all stores will remain closed on August 14, until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when his royal highness leaves to attend the garden party at Government House. Hereafter, when "business usual" will be the rule.

The meeting drifted into a discussion of roads and streets and committees were appointed to wait upon both the city council and the provincial minister of public works, to comment on the condition of Douglas avenue and other roads entering the city and a resolution adopted asking for repair work to be done, if possible before the Prince's visit. The committee named to wait upon the city council consisted of William Hawker, H. H. Scovill, J. H. Marr and G. C. Emmerson.

A. N. Melan said the roads leading from the Maine border to St. John should be given particular attention because of the effect their condition has upon the tourist travel and a resolution asking the provincial government to keep them up

ORDERS FOR BRITISH SHIPS CANCELLED

Economics in Navy Programme Are Announced in House of Commons
London, July 23.—Since the signing of the armistice the British admiralty has cancelled orders for 323 ships, retelling in a net saving of £42,000,000. This announcement was made in the House of Commons yesterday by E. J. McNair, parliamentary secretary of the admiralty.
The first lord of the admiralty, Walter Hume Long, who previously announced that when the armistice was concluded there were 302 warships and 806 auxiliaries under orders, while at the present time there were being completed 100 warships and 110 auxiliaries, mainly to replace old ships or meet the needs of the navy.
The announcement of these economies in ships and men drew expressions of surprise and gratification from some of the members, including Sir Donald MacLean, who welcomed such clear signs that the navy was accommodating itself to the new conditions.
The Right Hon. George Lambert, Liberal, expressed the earnest hope that there would never be a British naval policy to build against the United States.

PROVINCE TO SELL TIMBER LIMITS

Fredericton, N. B., July 24.—It was announced that it is the intention of those in authority to have another big sale of crown land timber limits about September 15. At this sale, all unlicensed crown lands, which engineers working for the department have surveyed, will be offered for sale on a stumpage basis as was done at the big sale on October 3 last.
The establishment of a game refuge in New Brunswick by the provincial government, has been warmly commended by various parties including Dr. E. Hewitt, dominion area which comprises 407 square miles in Northumberland county.
Mr. and Mrs. James F. Price and little son arrived in the city yesterday from Seattle by motor. Mr. Price was formerly a well known local skater but has lived for about ten years in the west.
A large crowd enjoyed the band concert in King square last night by the Temple Band.

SAYS HIS CAR REQUIRES NEITHER MOTORMAN NOR CONDUCTOR TO RUN IT

Springfield, Mass., July 23.—Operating electric cars without motormen or conductors is said to be made possible through an invention perfected by H. G. Davis of 29 Saratoga st., this city, who has been engaged in special work for the United States Shipping Board. Mr. Davis was formerly manufacturing superintendent of the Gilbert & Parker Company. He says:
"The new type of car is automatically operated and requires neither motorman or conductor. It will revolutionize street car service and greatly facilitate the handling of traffic in large cities."
"These cars may be operated for about two cents a mile, but will not run as fast as the type now in use. Street railways, however, will be able to use a larger number of them and thereby more than compensate for the lack of speed. Passengers will be required to pay metal discs and deposit them on entering."
"To secure a seat the disc must be deposited in a receptacle inside the car. There will be no standing room. When the last passenger entering a car is seated the door will automatically close and the car starts. Regular stations will be established in the centre of cities and the cars will stop at every station."
"When a passenger alights an automatic sign over the door will designate how many seats are available in the car. Cars passing through sparsely populated sections may be stopped by a passenger pressing a button."
"Persons desiring to board cars may stop them by the operation of a device located near a stopping place. The cars will also eliminate strikes and the evasion of fares."
Mr. Davis is perfecting plans to be submitted to car-manufacturing firms, with the idea of putting the cars on the market.

U. S. LIFTS BAN AGAINST N. B.

The quarantine ban against New Brunswick and travelers returning from New Brunswick going into the United States, without first requiring a certificate of successful vaccination within twelve months, has been lifted, according to word received yesterday afternoon from Washington by Dr. William Roberts, minister of health for this province. The removing of the regulation was decided upon following a scheme submitted to the Washington authorities by Hon. Dr. Roberts whereby all passengers or travelers coming into New Brunswick from Nova Scotia or proceeding through this province to United States from Nova Scotia must show a certificate of successful vaccination.

"BABY" RUNAWAY BOSTON DOG, DELAYS SAILING OF CELTIC FOR 45 MINUTES

The sailing of the White Star liner Celtic for Liverpool with 420 passengers, was delayed three-quarters of an hour by the carelessness of a maid and her waywardness of a naughty Pekinese from Boston. After her thirteen trunk had gone aboard, Mrs. W. G. Gorah, her held up for the formality of having her passports signed.
In this crisis Mrs. Gorah handed Baby over to one of the maids, who set the dog down and Baby beat it. Mrs. Gorah declined to set foot on the steamer until Baby was found.
The hunt for the Pekinese was taken up, and the dog, brought up in the most fashionable of Back Bay circles, was found cowering around West street with a couple of low-life mongrels.

SAVED BRITISH FLYER. Brave German Prisoner Rewarded by Ministry.

London, July 23.—The Air Ministry announced that Private Bruckman, a German war prisoner, at great risk to his own life, saved the pilot of an airplane from the blazing wreckage of the machine after it had crashed at the Wiltshire airfield.
As a reward for Bruckman's act, it has been decided to release him forthwith and grant him free passage home. Bruckman will also be given a sum of money and a watch suitably inscribed.

CURED OF DYSPEPSIA BY USING BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

The symptoms of dyspepsia are so numerous and diversified in different individuals that probably no description could exactly represent them as they occur in any given case, but a few of the most prominent are a rising and souring of food, pain, flatulence and distention of the abdomen, a sensation of discomfort after every meal, which is sometimes followed by sickness and vomiting.
To get rid of dyspepsia a careful arrangement of the diet is necessary and due time must be given for the digestion of the meal.
You will find that Burdock Blood Bitters will help with this digestion. It does this by toning up the stomach in such a way that the dyspepsia soon disappears.
Mr. Robt. Baldwin, Winifred, Alta., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters for curing dyspepsia, of which I have been a sufferer for years. I have tried a good many doctors and proprietary medicines, so one day I thought I would try something different. I got a bottle of B. B. B. from our local store as it was about the only remedy he kept, and I can certainly say that I was more than pleased with the results, as I got better right away. I will always recommend it to other sufferers."

Ex-Kaiser Bears Up "Like a Christian"

But Former Empress Threatened To Collapse if Husband Extradited

Berlin July 23.—An intimate view of the former German Emperor is given by Friedrich von Berg, who was chief of the former emperor's civil cabinet, writing in The Aufrechte. Herr von Berg was at Amerongen when the German National Assembly accepted the peace treaty.
"It was a terribly melancholy and sad meeting," he said, "and yet it was a great joy to see the Kaiser was not broken man. It is true his features have become sharp, but he bears his lot like a real Christian, quietly and with dignity, the Fatherland's fate weighing heavily upon him than does his own. Hours of bitterness come also, but they are overcome in calm, quiet discussion and good feeling and even the quiet cheerfulness of an earnest man, constantly reappears."
"Not one complaint was uttered when it became known the ignominious extradition clauses were accepted. There was only a sigh of resignation and the Emperor, that wonderful and unselfish woman, who also bears her suffering with a calm and whose shaken health threatens to collapse under this fresh blow."

FISHERMEN LOSE "BAIT" AT BORDER

Bridgeburg, Ont., July 23.—A party of American fishermen going to Northern Ontario to fish came to grief here on a Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo passenger train when, in a chartered coach in which the party were riding, several officials discovered about thirty bottles of booze wrapped in a sheet and several pungent hot-water bottles loaded with the same brand of old King Alcohol.
The party consisted of twenty, but only one would admit ownership of the booze. He was fined $20 and costs by Police Magistrate House. The travellers were wealthy steel men from Ambridge, Penn.

HISTORY OF THE CZECHO-SLOVAKS

Hunt Cook, in Chautauqua Lecture, Tells of New Nation Which is Eighth Largest in Europe

Hunt Cook, in an interesting address at the Chautauqua yesterday, told how the Czecho-Slovaks, after 400 years of oppression, had regained their prestige in European politics.
In a rapid review of the history of the nation he said that ignorance regarding it was everywhere profound. Under its better known name of Bohemia it had carried the torch of civilization in science and learning during the sixth and seventh centuries and under its own name it had flourished as a great nation for 114 hundred years ago when the dynasty died out and Archduke Ferdinand of the house of Hapsburg had been chosen ruler. Mr. Cook traced the systematic degradation and oppression of Bohemia from that time till in Hungary the Magyars dominated the Bohemians and the Germans and Austrians dominated them in Austria. In the Austrian parliament they had three representatives out of 460 and were forbidden to speak their own language or follow their chosen religion. Not until the death of that archduke Ferdinand of Hapsburg in 1914 did they see any hope of liberty.

In explaining just what Czecho-Slovakia consists of Mr. Cook said it was the eighth country in size in Europe and the seventh in power, had a population of 12,000,000 and an area of 20,000 square miles being composed of Bohemia, Moravia, Silesia and Czecho-Slovakia, while Bohemia alone though under oppression in Austria and contained forty per cent of the grain in Austria, sixty per cent of its coal, ninety per cent of its sugar and eighty per cent of its iron. Its right to existence as a separate nation was undoubted not only from these figures but from its valiant deeds in war and its sufferings also, in telling of which Mr. Cook described wholesale hangings and crucifixions carried out by the enemy.

He contrasted the declaration of independence made by Czecho-Slovakia with that made by Czecho-Slovakia. The former country demanded a monarchical rule, permitted but three religions, Mohammedanism, Greek Orthodoxy and Roman Catholicism and relegated women to the position of slaves. Czecho-Slovakia declared itself a democracy which permitted reasonable belief and lastly, a step which was considered one of the greatest strides made in Europe, had granted equal rights in all things to women.
Mr. Cook said that though he had witnessed Paris celebrations on Armistice Day, and her parades in London and the regaining of Alsace-Lorraine and the welcoming of President Wilson at Rome none of these occasions was as impressive as the parade in Prague, the capital of Czecho-Slovakia, when the republic was proclaimed. It was taken part in by 2,000,000 people.
In closing his interesting address, Mr. Cook said Czecho-Slovakia had the distinction of being the only country in Europe that had not asked financial aid in the war. It was a country worthy of all honor and it was his hope that it would speedily know and appreciate its deeds.

AN HONEST EFFORT TO PROVIDE GOOD ROADS

(Fredericton, N. B.)
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Neill and Major and Mrs. Hanson returned last evening from a trip to St. John and Digby. The trip to St. John was made in Major Hanson's automobile and was much enjoyed. In speaking of the condition of the roads Mayor Hanson stated that he was satisfied that Hon. Mr. Veniot was making an honest effort to give the people of the province good roads and had certainly brought about a great improvement. He said that the road from St. John to Fredericton was splendid, and the back road was also good. His Worship expressed the opinion that a lot of injury was being done to the roads by the owners of big high power touring cars. Many of these cars, he said, are driven at a speed of 20 and 30 miles an hour and undoubtedly do a lot of damage. They are as a rule equipped with shock absorbers and can therefore be driven much faster than an ordinary car without inconvenience to the occupants. Some of the offenders he pointed out, come from points outside the province and he was inclined to think that some steps should be taken to curtail them.

N. B. CROP REPORT FOR WEEK

The following is the weekly report of agricultural conditions in New Brunswick, as reported by district representatives of the department of agriculture:
Reports from all sections of the province state that hay is becoming quite general. Some sections report a slight improvement in the crop, due to recent rains. The crop, generally speaking, will be light in Carleton and the northern counties of the province. In other parts it varies according to whether meadows are new or old. There are some very good new meadows in the central, southern and eastern counties. The older meadows, generally speaking, are inclined to be light.
The grain crop is heading out rapidly. It has a good color and if it rains properly there should be a fair crop. The straw is short in most sections. The potato crop continues to be quite promising. The tops have a good color and are growing well. Northumberland and Hestigouche reports indicate that the crop is looking exceptionally well. Madawaska, Victoria and Carleton counties fair to good, with spraying being carried on quite generally. Other counties report crop looking quite promising. There is some falling off in milk production reported by the various cheese factories and creameries, but this is not very marked as yet. In general, the pastures are looking up well and the milk flow is good for the time of year. Live stock of all kinds is said to be in good condition.

NEGRO LYNCHED BY CROWD BECAUSE HE PROTECTED GIRLS

Shot White Man Who Was Attacking Colored Girls KILLED FOR HIS ACT

Mob That Carried Out Lynching Was Led by White Minister, Was Report of Clergyman

New York, July 24.—Lynched by a Georgia mob because he protected two young girls of his race from an attack by white men, was the fate of seventy-two-year-old Berry Washington, according to a sworn statement sent to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People by a clergyman of the town where the crime was committed. For obvious reasons the name of the clergyman has been omitted.

The statement follows: I wish to inform you of an outrageous lynching which occurred at Milan, Georgia, May 24, 1919, Telfair County, John Williams, sheriff. On May 24, at one o'clock at night, John Dandy and Lewis Evans, white, went down into the colored people's section of the town and went to the home of a widow by the name of Emma McCollers, who had two daughters. They knocked, but the occupants refused to open the door. The bell went through the organ and the sewing machine. That frightened the girls and they ran out to another old lady's home. Her name was Emma Fisher, and is a widow with two little children. The white men went after these colored girls; the girls ran under the porch and hid. These white men broke down the door and tore up the floor. The old widow got frightened, ran and jumped in the well and the children screamed for help.

Berry Washington, colored, seventy-two years old, ran out with his shotgun in his hand. When he got near the hall he met both of the white men. John Dandy, twenty-five years old, with a wife and two children, asked the old man what he came out for. He said to see what was the matter with the women and children, and then John Dandy fired at him and said, "I will kill you, old man." The old man fired and killed him (John Dandy) first. He fell with his pistol in his right hand and a cigarette in the other, and a flask of liquor fell out of his pocket. The other white man (Lewis Evans) ran. "Another colored man came out and advised Washington to go up town and wake the chief of police and give himself up. The policeman's name is Stuckey. He sent Washington to McCrae jail at two o'clock on the night of the 24th. He stayed in jail until Saturday night the 26th at one o'clock. A mob of seventy-five or one hundred brought him back to Milan. They carried him to the same spot where he shot Dandy and lynched him. He was hanged to a post, his body shot to pieces and left hanging there until two o'clock Sunday morning, May 25. "He was lynched because he protected his own women, in his part of the town. White boys come down there late hours of the night and disturbed the peace and happiness of the colored and white people. They ordered every colored person to leave town Saturday night. 'Poor old men, women and children left their homes before dark. Not a colored person spent the night in his home Saturday or Sunday night. Up to May 27, this had not been published in any of the Georgia papers, it was so disgraceful. Please publish that a white Baptist minister directed the mob. "Yours for justice and the race."

A young lawyer whose love of flowers and all things green caused him to settle down in a distant suburb invited his old friend to spend the week-end with him. Brown was received with appropriate honor and all the attractions were displayed to his polite but not over keen gaze. At each meal he listened courteously to eulogies of "our own make" viands. He bore patiently "our own milk," "lettuce from that frame you saw," "peas from the vegetable garden," and so on. But at last it got to this: "Berry, I can recommend this chicken especially. I raised it myself." Then the victim turned—after the first mouthful of chicken, and with a sad smile remarked: "No, Will, I don't believe that. You've only been here a little over two years."

JEWS PREPARE TO GO TO PALESTINE

Two Million Zionists Are Ready to Migrate — When League of Nations Speaks Exodus Will Begin

New York, July 23.—Between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 Jews from practically all parts of the world will go to Palestine as soon as the political status of the Jewish state is fixed under the League of Nations, according to a statement given out by the Zionist Organization of America. At least 1,000,000, the statement said, will go from Russia alone. The figures were based on surveys made in different countries.

"The Zionist organizations in foreign countries and America are preparing to furnish administrators, engineers, specialists and civil servants, who will devote themselves to helping absorb the immigration," the statement continued.

"The American organization recently reported that 124 occupations were included in the first 5,000 applications. Jewish farmers headed the list with capital amounting to several million dollars. Professional and administrative callings and manual labor were included. Different countries have organized agricultural and other groups for study and training in scientific and technical questions involved in the settlement of the country.

"In Russia, Boris Goldberg, chairman of the Zionist organization of Great Russia, reports that during the last 20 months under the Bolshevik social reorganization the basis of the economic life of the Jews has been undermined. The subsistence of 70 per cent of the Jewish population has been destroyed.

"According to Mr. Goldberg, whole Jewish towns and townships have begun to make themselves ready to move as soon as communications are opened. Co-operative societies are being organized, experimental farms established and workers classified. Many of the rich have liquidated their property in preparation for the journey.

"Jews in Siberia have asked the English government for permission to settle in Palestine at once. About 1,500 Austrian war prisoners in Siberia have organized to proceed in a body to Palestine instead of returning to their native land. Fear of pogroms and Bolshevism and the stagnation of industry and commerce have caused whole Jewish communities in Poland to resolve to leave. Five thousand families in Warsaw had registered by April 4 for early migration. The movement in West Galicia is even stronger. From 8,000 to 8,500 engineers who were with the Czecho-Slovak army are anxious to join.

"About 20,000 Jews are ready to leave Hungary. About 1,500 have organized in Jugoslavia, 500 families in Salonica, 7,000 persons in Holland and many in Bulgaria. University students, professional men and business men head the list in Germany, which will send large numbers, as will German Austria.

"The movement is strong in Morocco, Algiers, Tunis and Egypt. Jewish farmers are going from Canada and South and Central America. In Argentina the exodus will be large because of the anti-Jewish display last January."

A member of the United States Medical Corps, recently returned to Ellwood, Kan., reports that ice cream sodas have made a profound impression upon the Samoans. The officer was detailed in charge of the soda fountain of the solitary drug store at the Pago-Pago naval station, and reports that his patients took much more kindly to the sodas than to the anti-influenza serum which he was obliged to dispense.

COOL COMMON SENSE

Alexander Graham Bell Shows Hot Folk How to Be Comfortable. (Rochester Post Express.)

It has always been the practice to put heating plants in the basement, following the law that heated air goes upward. But it has remained for Alexander Graham Bell to use cool common sense about the matter of placing and operating cooling plants; he has one in his attic which deliquesces cool air downward through an asbestos covered pipe and his Washington home shows a temperature of 65 degrees while outside the city sweaters. This is worth consideration.

Man has made life comfortable and profitable in frigid areas of the earth; he has made life profitable, but so far as records go not comfortable for himself or others in torrid areas. And yet it is in the torrid areas that most promise is given of rich harvests of natural resources once life may be made attractive to people of energy and enterprise. We have done wonders with fuel. Perhaps now we may succeed in doing wonders with ice or with some equivalent means of cooling habitations and business premises. Ice as a luxury maintains a luxury level of cost. But no one doubts the possibility of producing cooling means at low cost once the problem is given attention.

Mr. Bell's attic cooling plant may be the forerunner of new eras for business and social life in equatorial lands.

EDUCATING FOREIGNERS.

Edmonton Journal.—In an address to the Manitoba Educational Association, Dr. J. T. M. Anderson, who holds under the Saskatchewan government the position of director of education among new Canadians, made a strong plea for a persistent educational campaign among the non-English peoples of the west. In order that hundred-per-cent Canadians should be made out of the strangely assorted material that has come to us from the ends of the world, the school laws, he said, must be absolutely insisted upon in each of the provinces, for it is with the rising generation that all hope lies for developing future citizenship.

ACTORS' UNION ON THE WAR PATH

Dispute With Producers May Lead To Strike
A NEW DEVELOPMENT

Federation of Labor Considering Application for Affiliation From Body Not Previously Recognized as a Trade Organization

Unionism has spread to the theatre, and it is probable that theatre-goers in the United States and Canada will see its effects when the next season opens. A strike is threatened. The principle of collective bargaining is at stake. Both sides are well organized, and a war cloud in the Balkans has become a reality.

Eight Shows a Week.
Some six years ago the Actors' Equity Association was formed in the United States. The idea was to protect the individual actor from the individual manager and to abolish some conditions that it was thought were unfair to the profession. Previous to this, the managers or producers had formed an association called the United Managers' Protective Association. The two organizations negotiated, but most of the points at issue between them were technical, and of no interest to the general public. In 1917 the two organizations formed an agreement that was to last two years, and which will expire in a few months. It is over the new agreement that trouble is brewing.

The 1917 agreement provided for what is called a standard contract, which according to the producers, was 80 per cent actors and 20 per cent producers. The chief point in the old contract concerned the number of performances a week an actor was supposed to give. It specified eleven national holidays on which the actor was required to play a matinee without additional pay, and it required him also to appear on Sunday in those cities where Sunday performance are contraindicated, the chief of them being Chicago.

The New Demands.
For additional performances the actors were to receive payment at the rate of one-eighth of their weekly stipend. Not long ago there was another managers' association formed, for reasons that have not been made clear, and this took over the responsibility for dealing with the actors. The new association is called the Producing Managers' Association, whose president is Sam Harris. He called upon the actors' representatives to meet him to discuss the terms of the new agreement which was to replace the concordat about to expire. The actors, through their representatives, demanded that they be paid upon a basis of eight performances a week, and that they be paid extra for any more performances, no matter when or why they were given. The managers replied that this was impossible, that it was in violation of old theatrical traditions, and that it could only have the result, were the demands granted, of generally lowering the salaries of actors. They pointed out that under the existing arrangements, actors were often paid full time when they performed only six times a week.

Isolating the Actor.
By this time the Actors' Equity Association had grown until it numbered 4,000, and, conscious of its strength, asked that the points at issue be arbitrated before the new contracts were printed. As arbitrators it suggested

William H. Taft and Charles E. Hughes. The managers rejected the association's idea and proposed to continue the old contracts for one year, but said that any points of difference that might arise would be arbitrated between the individual actor and the firm with whom he made a contract. The actors at once protested. They admitted that the old contracts had provided for arbitration, but said that the case was fought or argued between the opposing associations, not between the individuals. They said that the new proposal was designed to isolate the actor just at the time when he required all the backing his association could give him. Therefore they declared that the principle of collective bargaining was at stake, and they refused the managerial suggestion of arbitration. In the meantime the new contracts were printed, and nowhere in them is the Actors' Equity Association mentioned.

The actors assert that the commercial producers, believing that the ordinary actor—if there are any such, which is vehemently denied by all actors—would rather suffer injustice than quarrel with his manager, have thus eliminated the general impersonal organization. They feel that they are being imposed upon, especially since the managers have announced that hereafter they will deal only with individuals and not organizations or representatives. Their report has been to file an application for membership in the American Federation of Labor. The application is under consideration. Should it be granted, the position of the actors would be greatly strengthened. It would indeed win their fight, for a producer could hardly carry on if the federation was hostile to him. The managers assert that the weakness of the actors' position is that the association does not include more than one-fifth of the professional actors in the United States and Canada. If the unionized actors struck, their places would be filled from stock companies, and by other actors who have never allied themselves with the organization.

Winnipeg Hearing.
Winnipeg, July 24—After being in session for one hour, during which no evidence was taken but a general discussion was entered as to the future activities of the commission, the Robson commission investigating the causes of the Winnipeg strike today adjourned indefinitely in order to give labor counsel time to prepare their case.

Too Much Americanism.
"Of course they say," he continued, "that British productions are not equal to American. I say we produce some equal to America's best. Now that they find our people are tired of American scenery, American flags, American diversions, they have come over here to theatres. They hope to conquer world power. These Napoleonic Kaiserist attempts to corner the earth are getting quite fashionable."

Buchanan referred to the plan of "Pussyfoot Johnson" to enlist the picture houses in his prohibition campaign, and warned him that the movies were a two-edged weapon.
"They can be used against 'Pussyfoot' and his plans," he exclaimed. "If British wrongs are to be righted, let's right them by British means. If he thinks he can use the cinema, he will find they are not yet American-owned."

Not Anti-American.
Throughout the meeting the speakers asked the audience not to misunderstand their frequent allusions to America. They were not anti-American, but merely opposing a particular attack on British industry which happened to be American. As Major Rees put it—
"You can be good friends with your mother-in-law, but you don't want her all over the house all the time."

J. A. Seddon, a well-known labor man, said: "I admire much in the United States, but it is a business nation. There

BRITAIN TIRED OF INVASION BY AMERICAN FILMS

Movie Exhibitors Complain at Protest Meeting—Speakers Not Anti-U.S., But Would Protect British Industry

London, July 23—Fear lest the American film producers would succeed in cornering the British market to the exclusion of British pictures, has produced a demand from the leading picture house managers here for government action against the "American invasion."
A strong patriotic note was given to the movement at a largely attended meeting called today at the Holborne Empire by the Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association of Great Britain and Ireland, and Major Rees, M. P., told the audience that R. Hon. Bonaz Law had assured him the government was fully alive to the dangers of permitting any but British control of such a great means of popular education as the movies.
The trouble has arisen through an American concern the Famous Players-Lasky, having started a British branch to produce films for the British market on this side of the water. Its policy was enterprising but strong copy was being made about the same wages—$40.00 a month. There was a very comely and beautiful young lady who was accustomed to wait on the table where these young men ate; and one day, just before Christmas, Jim said, "Boys, let's do something for the girl." They said, "All right, Jim, we've been thinking about that." Jim said, "Well, will you fellows do whatever I do?" And they said, "Yes." Jim said, "I'll give you ten dollars and I'll put up the twenty for you." They raised the eighty dollars and presented it to the young lady. The next day Jim Hill married the girl.

When Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Leggett of Palmyra, N. S., celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary recently, all their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were present. In the whole family there had not been a death in all the fifty-five years.

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity. Frees Stomach from Food Fermentation. Stops Gas, Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Do you find you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pills, bismuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.
But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bisulphated magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bisulphated magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.
Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will usually neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, causes gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.
You will find that provided you take a little bisulphated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover, the continued use of the bisulphated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

DOCTOR ADVISED HIM TO TAKE IT

A. F. Roberts, Successful Cattle Dealer, Gained Sixteen Pounds in Sixty Days After He Began Taking Tanlac.

"One of the best doctors in Colorado advised me to take Tanlac, and it has not only overcome my troubles but I have gained sixteen pounds since I began taking it sixty days ago," said A. F. Roberts, who lives at Rocky Ford, Alberta, Canada, a few days ago.
Mr. Roberts is one of the largest cattle dealers in his section of the country, and before moving to Canada a short time ago he spent most of his life in Colorado, U. S. A.
"I can now understand why Tanlac is so well known in the United States, Canada and the United States," continued Mr. Roberts, "and since it has done me so much good, I know that it is a very dependable medicine and deserves all the praise that is being given it. For the past two years I have suffered from stomach trouble, and when I commenced taking this Tanlac it was almost impossible for me to retain anything, both in the morning and at night. I was very nervous and never got a good night's sleep, and finally got so weak and rundown that I was hardly able to get about. I often had dizzy spells, and was bothered a great deal with constipation."

"My physician certainly knew what he was doing when he prescribed Tanlac for me, for it has done the work for me as I am as healthy and strong now as I ever was in my life. In fact it has done much more for me than I expected it would do. I have a fine appetite and everything I eat agrees with me perfectly, and I never have the slightest sign of stomach trouble of any kind. I am no longer bothered with constipation, and never have those dizzy spells any more. I have regained all my strength, too, and that nervousness has left me, and I sleep like a log every night. In fact, I am simply enjoying perfect health again, and I give Tanlac credit for it all."
Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—(Adv.)

CANADIAN GIRL WHO IS STARRING IN GRAND OPERA IN LONDON

Mme. Edvina a Native of Quebec Educated in Sacred Heart Convent and Studied Music With De Rezke

Very few Canadians are aware that a Canadian lady is starring in grand opera at the Covent Garden Theatre in London. The following is clipped from the London Daily Mail and refers to Mme. Edvina, or, as she is known in her home town, Mme. Cecile Edwards.
She was born in Quebec and is a daughter of the late F. X. Massenet, the composer of the Sacred Heart in Montreal and studied singing under at Covent Garden with Melba, Cuzzoni, Tetrazzini, Desi, Inova, Farrar and other famous artists.
The article is as follows:—
There is no half-heartedness in such a compliment, as paid by a musician to the interpreter of his heroine. The musician is Gustave Charpentier, whose fame rests on his fortunate experiment of writing an opera on contemporary work-a-day life. The compliment is written in gold—it is inscribed on a gold thimble (Louise being a Parisian girl), and the interpreter is, of course, Mme. Edvina—otherwise the Hon. Mrs. Cecile Edwards—of Canada and of Covent Garden.
All the world knows that Melba is Australian. It is not, perhaps, so generally known or so easy to realize that her friend and great fellow-soprano, Edvina, is equally British. Covent Garden has for the last ten years seen her in French opera; and her French is so perfect—herself is so French—her Louise and her Massenet shines indeed so Parisian.
The explanation lies in her French-Canadian extraction together with her Paris training under Jean de Reszke. When she talks you feel how she has been enriched with a double tradition—her English is an Englishwoman's, with-out the least exotic shade; her charm of manner, which opera-goers have acclaimed in a dozen different parts, has a French quality.
"I love French music for its grace and measure and clarity," she says, "and my favorite parts are in modern French operas. When I sing Louise I live through a Paris working-girl's experiences. But it is not only in Massenet's or Charpentier's music that I delight. I am greatly hoping to sing, too, as the poor little foreign princess in Debussy's

Wife not very ill—but never real well

A Message to Husbands
Giving advice to husbands is generally conceded to be not a very healthy occupation. Also comment as to the causes of marital unhappiness is an unpopular subject.

But, nevertheless, it is an obvious fact that there are in Canada to-day thousands of wives who, while not being sufficiently ill to go to hospital or require a trained nurse—yet are weak, anaemic, nervous and run down, and in this condition they are not happy—their husbands are not happy, and the home life is not what it ought to be.
Good health in a wife makes not only for the ease with which she manages household affairs, but reflects a contentment and calm over the rest of the members.
Husbands! Remember that good health is a valuable possession, and

The motor boat races at Indiantown last evening attracted a large number of people. The feature event was the speed race, but this proved somewhat of a disappointment as the Anzac, reputed to be the fastest speed boat in the maritime provinces, developed engine trouble and had to drop out.

LOCAL NEWS

LOCAL DEMOBILIZATION
It is understood that the strength of the military police is to be considerably reduced between now and the first of the month.

CELEBRATION PLANS.
When the citizens' committee meets this afternoon to forward plans for the entertainment of the returned soldiers it is expected that one of the suggestions which will be discussed will be a proposal for a programme of field sports at the barrack square.

GREAT DAY FOR PICNIC.
St. Mary's church annual Sunday school picnic is being held today at Crystal Beach. This morning a large number of women and children left on the steamer D. J. Purdy for the grounds and this afternoon the steamer Majestic took a large number of people there.

JURY EMPANELLED.
Coroner Kenney this morning empaneled a jury to enquire into the cause of the accident and subsequent death of Lester Brown, who died in the hospital yesterday from injuries sustained at the Atlantic Sugar Refineries. The jury is composed of Walter Brown, foreman; Frank Wetmore, Blake Ferris, Patrick Cosgrove, William E. Craft, F. A. Hollis and William Crabb. The jury will meet at the body this morning and will look over the site where the accident occurred. A date will then be set for the holding of an inquest.

PRINCE MAY MISS IT.
When the Prince of Wales arrives in St. John on August 15 he may not have the privilege of seeing what the Market Square fountain will look like when erected on its new site. The contractors, who are—or were—making the transfer, have secured a stone cutter to do the work required before the fountain can be set up again, but the cutter expresses doubts about his ability to complete the job before August 15. If his estimate is correct the square is likely to present a rather untidy appearance on the occasion of the double celebration.

PERHAPS END TOMORROW.
Vacation of passengers for United States points leaving the city will continue until at least tomorrow. Dr. W. L. Ellis, American health representative, was at the station this morning and will be again tonight for the departure of the Boston train to vacillate passengers unable to show the required certificates. He said that after tomorrow, when it was expected that the new arrangements made by Hon. Dr. Roberts, provincial minister of public health, would come into operation, he did not expect to be kept so busy in his work. The change in the regulations is referred to in another page of the Times.

WANT IT CONTINUED.
There has been some talk to the effect that the military information bureau in the Union Depot was to be done away with, but the members of the citizens' committee and others wish it to be continued at least until after the visit of the prince. It is felt that this office can be used to advantage in connection with the expected visit of returned soldiers for the big reception on August 14. Just what will be done with this office when the military has finished with it is a matter of conjecture, but there is a feeling that it will be turned over for the use of the C. N. R. police at the depot.

MISSING BOY RETURNS.
Gordon Donald, seven year old son of E. J. Donald of 117 King street east, caused his parents a great deal of anxiety when he was missing from his home all Wednesday night and did not return until early on Thursday morning. He had been around the house during the afternoon, but when night fell he was not to be found, and though a diligent search was made, no trace of him was found. He returned early yesterday morning, and although he could not tell clearly where he had been, it was established that he had become lost and strayed into a barn in Waterloo street, where he spent the night, hiding his way home at daybreak.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT.
There will be a band concert on Tilley Square, West Side, this evening from eight to ten. The City Cornet Band will play the following numbers—March—Washington Grays—Gratula. Overture—Oriental—Bleger. Waltz—Fm Luna. Tone Poem—Apple Blossoms—Roberts Operatic Selection—La Sonnambula—Donizetti. Popular—Beautiful Ohio. Popular—Beautiful Ohio, "Ja Da." Medley—A Day With Robbie Burns. Home. Serenade—A Night In June. Popular—I Am Always Chasing Rainbows; Till We Meet Again. God Save the King.

WERE LARGEST IN CITY'S HISTORY
The fact that the bank clearings in the city for the week ended yesterday were the largest in the history of the city has caused a great deal of satisfaction amongst the business people of the city and the steady increase is interpreted as a sure sign of gaining prosperity. The clearings for the week amounted to $2,889,480, as compared with $2,377,577 for 1918 and $1,796,552 for 1917. The increase over last year is more than a million dollars. It is interesting to note that Halifax bank clearings also showed a good increase of half a million dollars.

IN HONOR OF SOLDIERS
About thirty friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hatfield of 204 St. George street, west, in honor of their son, Sergt. Minchin Hatfield, recently returned from overseas after four years' service with the 26th B. B. Battalion.

A double presentation was made at the reception, Sergt. Hatfield receiving a signet ring and Corporal Walter Darrah, Bayswater, who served in the same battalion as Sergt. Hatfield, received a set of gold cuff links. The presentations were made by Harold Currie of Bayswater, and were fittingly responded to by both Sergt. Hatfield and Corporal Darrah. A most delightful evening was spent in music, games and dancing, and refreshments were served. The party broke up at a late hour, all present congratulating the soldiers on their safe return from the war.

LIEUT. COL. BROWN TO HAVE COMMAND

Plans for Re-organization of the 62nd Regiment, as Reported Today

The matter of the reorganization of the 62nd militia regiment is getting well along and with a meeting of the officers interested soon to be held to further the plan it is expected that steps will be taken to have work in hand in order to begin recruiting in the early fall. While not authoritatively announced as yet the understanding is that Lieut.-Col. W. R. Brown, D. S. O., will be commanding officer with Major Alex. McMillan, D. O., second in command and Capt. Reg. Major, M. C., adjutant.

Whether or not the name of the battalion will be changed has not yet been definitely decided upon, but the tendency seems to favor retaining the old number rather than reverting it into the company strength which has been promoted by some members of the latter. No decision has been made as yet whether the company strength will be eight or four per battalion but it will probably be four. E. W. Elliott, who came home a few weeks ago with the 26th Battalion, of which he was battalion quartermaster-sergeant, will probably be regimental sergeant-major, a permanent appointment, while the other permanent officers will be those of adjutant for which it is said Captain Major is approved, and an orderly room clerk yet to be selected.

HOME FROM WAR

More Arrivals in City—Sad News Greeted Sapper M. E. Brosnan

Among those listed as returning aboard the S. S. Regina from overseas yesterday was Capt. Wm. Warwick of this city, but he did not arrive today and it is thought that he remained in Halifax a day or so. Captain Warwick left St. John as medical officer with the 11th and has seen considerable service in France. He was for a long while with a mobile laboratory which did excellent work. Doctor Warwick will be heartily welcomed.

Sad News on Arrival.
Sad news greeted Sapper Maurice E. Brosnan this morning on his arrival in the city after having been overseas for nearly five years. He left here with the signalling section of the first contingent and had been in France continuously up to a few months after the armistice. Since then he had been in England awaiting transportation home.

His sister, Miss Mary Brosnan, died at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Brosnan, Main street, a few weeks ago but not until this morning did the returning brother learn the sad news. The word had been sent to him but his mail had gone astray.

This morning on being welcomed upon his arrival he asked for his sister and was greatly shocked to know that she was dead. Another brother, Lieut. Joseph D. Brosnan, also died during his absence, having been killed with the flying corps in Texas.

Four officers and seventy-seven other ranks returned to the city this morning on the early train from Halifax, after having landed from the S. S. Regina on reception committee and the Knights of Columbus Army Huts were at the station to greet them, as well as many friends and relatives. They received a hearty greeting. With the exception of some of the local men the remainder went to the dispersal station at the armory, where they were restored to civilian status.

SISTER OF A. W. BROOKS BADLY HURT IN ROXBURY

A. W. Brooks of the city hall staff received word today that his sister, Mrs. John Campbell, of Roxbury, Mass., had been seriously injured and her recovery is uncertain. Mrs. Campbell was walking along a street in Roxbury when a portion of a cornice fell from a building, striking her on the head. She was rendered unconscious and had not recovered consciousness when the word was sent and the doctors were unable to tell exactly what her chances for recovery were.

It was said that she undoubtedly would have been killed instantly had it not been that a raised umbrella she was carrying broke the force of the falling cornice.

CONFER WITH MR. FISHER RE PAVING

A delegation consisting of William Hawkes, H. H. Sewell, J. H. Marr and G. C. Emerson, representing the Retail Merchants' Association, waited on Commissioner Fisher this morning to discuss street paving. They took up with him some of the most pressing problems, including improvement of the streets in the central part of the city, and particularly those over which the prince will travel during his stay in St. John.

Mr. Fisher explained what work had been done this year, what still remains on the programme and what he has in view. He also went into the financial aspect of the matter, expressing his willingness to undertake work on a much larger scale if the money could be provided, and explaining his present limitations.

The conference lasted more than half an hour and the delegation seemed satisfied with the willingness of the commissioner to do all in his power to improve the city streets.

VISITING CUSTOMS OFFICER.
William Acker, inspector of customs at Ottawa, was in the city this morning on his return to Ottawa after spending a few days with relatives in Halifax. Mr. Acker is well known in the maritime provinces and has a son who is medical officer on the R. M. S. P. liner Carisquet. He visited the custom house this morning.
