The Bridge Scheme

It Still is a Living Thing.

Premier Emmerson to Visit Hartland Soon.

The Hartland Bridge scheme, which some months ago so much filled the minds of the people in this section, will soon again come to the front. Hon. Messrs Emmerson and Tweedie were in Woodstock on Monday and one of the county members informs the ADVERTISER that in two weeks the premier will come to Hartland when the government will be prepared to do its share in the matter that was managed by the delegates sent to Fredericton.

Every man should now give his attention to the matter, and as many as possible should manage to get together at the time of Mr. Emmerson's visit so that all may know the import of it without trusting to rumour.

BAPTIST CONCERT

Was Profitable and Enjoyable.

The concert that the young people of the Baptist Church have been preparing for some time came off last Tuesday night. The house was well filled and judging from the vigorous applause each number called forth, the programme was very entertaining. Nearly all the pretormers responded to encores.

The farce was very laughable, and all the actors did very well considering that it was their maiden effort for nearly all of them. Mr. Allen Rideout made a villiannish villian and Charles Rideout took the roll of clown to perfection.

Following is the programme:—
OPENING CHORUS... "Hail to Our Beautiful Queen."

READING:..... Miss Cameron.

TABLEAU:..... "Caught in the Act."

SOLO..... Miss Estabrooks.

SONG & TABLEAU:..... "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground."

DUET:..... Mrs. Curtis and Miss Kimball.

READING:..... Miss Thistle;

INSTRUMENTAL TRIO:..... Cornet, Violin and Organ.

READING:..... Miss Brooks.

SOLO:..... Miss Kimball.

TABLEAU:..... "Fifty years ago."

QUARTETT:..... Miss Kimball, Mrs Curtis, Prof. Fox, Mr. Campbell.

DIALOGUE:..... "Punkin Ridge."

SOLO:..... Miss Reid.

BANJO SOLO:..... Miss Estey.

TABLEAU:..... "Belle of Hartland."

CLOSING CHORUS:..... "Homeward Bound."

The proceeds go towards procuring an organ for the church and was upwards of $40.

The Sunken 'Merrimac.'

The sinking of the United States coal ship in the channel of the entrance to Santiago harbor makes another brilliant act for record in the world's war annals. Under the cover of night, manned by half a dozen brave men, the vessel steamed stealthily under the grim muzzles of the enemies death-dealing battery.

Capt. Hobson steered the craft into the narrowest part of the channel, Steam was shut off, anchors cast, and as all hands took to the little boat men sea-holes were opened and several torpedoes that had been placed in the hold were fired. The "Merrimac" sank at once.

The Spaniards captured the whole of the crew, but in recognition of their great bravery the Admiral, under a flag of truce, announced his willingness to make an exchange of prisoners. In the meanwhile they are being treated with greatest kindness.

The sinking of the ship effectively blocks ingress or egress to the harbor, and the Spanish fleet, if within, will be unable to get out.

SUNDRY NOTES.

Gleaned from various sources.

News of all kinds.

The saw mills in St. John are re-suming work.

Peter Sacobi, a well-known Indian of the St. Mary's reserve, was drowned from his canoe at Oromocto, Saturday.

In the parish of Sussex, on Thursday Wm. Tribe was fined $50 for beating his horse to death in March last. The fine was allowed to stand.

There was a basket social at Newburg on Tuesday evening and the sum of $40 was realized, which is to go towards a fund for purchasing a bell for the R. C. Church.

Sawyer's Mill which for several days was shat down on account of inability to secure cars for shipment, is now running over time, to finish an important American order that is waiting.

Thursday night at McAdam Junction S. Thompson and two others occupied a room in the Junction House. Mr. Thompson awoke and found that while he slept someone stole $80 from a wallet in his pants.

FARM FOR SALE.

Advice To Mothers.

The Health of Their Daughters should Be Carefully watched.

Young Girls Susceptible to Troubles That May Result in Decline—Pale Faces, Headaches and Fickle Appetite the Symptoms of Early Decay.

From the Sun, Orangeville, Ont.

Some months ago Maggie, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sweeney, of John street, of this town, began to fail both in health and spirits. Her face was almost as white as chalk, her appetite very fickle, and her limbs began to swell. Notwithstanding her growing weakness she persisted in attending school until one day her teacher advised her to go home, and not to return until she felt better. At the same time the teacher, who knew the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in such cases, advised her to take them. The advice was followed and Mrs. Sweeney told our reporter that almost from the outset there was an improvement in her daughter's condition. Her appetite became better, the color returned to her face, and the severe headaches that had made her so miserable vanished, and she is now feeling better than she has done for many months.

It is quite evident that this young maiden was suffering from a lack of blood, as do so many young girls who are just at a critical point in life, and it is quite as apparent that there is no other remedy the equal of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in such cases. They enrich the blood, stimulate the nerves and build up the entire system, and mothers will act prudently if they insist upon their daughters taking an occasional box. We know from experience that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done great good in Orangeville and vicinity, and there is scarcely a day that our reporter does not come in contact with some one who has a good word to say for this wonderful medicine.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease. They renew and build up the blood, and strengthen the nerves, thus driving disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every box you purchase is enclosed in a wrapping bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

Origin of Strong Drink

Interesting Facts Regarding its Manufacture And Sale.

Strong liquors are of modern invention, for the ancients knew of nothing more powerful than lightly fermented wines, and they have left many warnings of the abuse of them. Alcohol was not discovered until the seventh century, and the distillation of spirit from wine was not discovered until the twelfth century, while spirits did not come into common use until the fifteenth, sixteenth, and seventeenth centuries. Prof. Arnoldus Villanova, in the fourteenth century, made a panacea of the 'water of life,' which was said to have the virtue of 'giving sweet breath, fortifying the memory, besides being good for sore eyes, the toothache, gout,' etc. Distilled spirits came into use in London in 1450, and had to be prohibited in 1494. Michael Savonarola produced a treatise on the making of 'water of life' in the fifteenth century, which became a standard authority on the subject, and was followed by the work of Matthioli, of Scienna. These books gave an impetus to brandy-making in Italy, whence the trade extended to France. About 1520 the Irish usquebaugh began to acquire reputation in England. Before 1601 'brand wine' had begun to be distilled in the low countries from apples, pears, and malt; and in that year an ordinance was passed at Tournoy forbidding the sale of the liquor, except by apothecaries, 'partly because of the dearth of corn and partly because of the drunkenness which this cheap brandy wine caused to the great prejudice not only of homes and lives, but to the extreme danger to the souls of its drinkers many of whom had died without confession.'—N. Y. Ledger.

A Shaver Gone to War.

A barber of Lubec, Me., has closed his shop and posted the following notice on the door: 'To the Public:—This barber shop will be closed for a brief period, as the proprietor has gone to help a few of Uncle Sam's barbers (better known as soldiers) scrape the face of the western hemisphere clear of an abnoxious growth of whiskers, commonly called Spaniards. I shall not be gone long as Dewey and Sampson are applying the lather, and everything points to a quick job, and a clean one. I wish to thank the public for past patronage, and on my return hope to have a share also.'

The Kind You Need.

The True, Reliable and Easy Working Diamond Dyes.

When the Diamond Dyes are used the work of home dyeing is a pleasure to every woman. Doubts and fears regarding results are never entertained. There is a confidence in every woman's heart that perfect work will crown her efforts. It is an established fact that all colors of the Diamond Dyes come out in fullness, richness and beauty.

For long, long years Diamond Dyes have been the favorite family dyes in every civilized country, and although imitation package dyes are now being offered for sale by dealers who think more of big profits than of giving satisfaction to the public, the great inferiority, of these imitation dyes in strength, fastness, beauty and brilliancy was soon discovered, and they are now avoided and condemned by all who prize good, bright and durable colors.

Thousands of testimonials are coming in from all parts of the country testifying to the excellence and vast superiority of the Diamond Dyes.

Refuse all poor worthless and imitation dyes when they are offered to you. Ask for the "Diamond," and see that the name is on each packet.

Book of directions and card of 48 colors free to address. Write to Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal, P. Q.

FRED H. STEVENS, Editor & Publisher
HARTLAND, Carleton Co., N. B.
P. O. Box, 17.

There never was a brighter prospect for good crops of farm produce. Neither has there ever been a more delightful season, from the stand point of the lover of fine weather. Old residents claim there never in their recollection has been more luxuriant verdure at the time of the year. The hay crops promises good throughout the St. John Valley; clover is growing splendidly. All grain and root crops are progressing in a manner to make the farmers heart rejoice.

A season so propitious as this should fill with renewed hope those who grew despondent with the short crops of last year.

SUNDRY NOTES.

Gleaned from various sources.
News of all kinds.

Chas Gillin has begun the erection of a new barn in connection with his two tenements here.

The Band had an open air practice on Thursday night. Major Boyer was giving drilling exercises.

There is some talk among certain members of the band and others of getting up an orchestra.

There was a meeting of the Shippers Union at East Florenceville on Monday. Messrs Carr, Keswick, and Taylor went up from here.

The work on the new sidewalks is progressing at a good rate. The work commenced at the Riverside Hotel and will continue down at least as far as the Free Baptist church. The walk is five feet wide, of two inch plank, and is a great improvement on the old.

At Greenville, Richmond, Tuesday, Wilmot Greene, son of Calvin Greene, was picking rocks in his field. He had a span of colts hitched to a sloven wagon, and stepped between the wheels with a big stone, when the colts started. He tried to throw himself forward to catch the rains, but failed, and was dragged some distance, the axle striking him behind the ear, broke his skull. He never regained consciousness.

The Murphy Murder.

More horrible and brutal than the notorious Tucker tragedy is the foul murder of Daniel Murphy at Mars Hill. Dan and his family had been separated some time but a reunion had lately been effected. During a family row on Monday evening his young son, aged 16 chopped him to death with an axe, hacking the back chest and the legs. It is said that wrappd about the victims legs, beneath his socks, was $200. in bank notes, several of which were cut in two by the axe The young lad fled but was captured at Woodstock on Wednesday, and now is lodged in Houlton goal.

Daniel Murphy was about 50 years of age, and was well known in Hartland.

A Heavy Loss by Fire Reported from Poquiock.

The ADVERTISER is in receipt of the following, written under date of June 2nd. The editor begs to venture the opinion that some of the figures are more or less exaggerated:

While a crew consisting of several men from Hartland were out killing porcupines last evening about 11:30 by moonlight, their dwelling at the wharf caught fire and while trying to save the furniture some of them were seriously injured. One man escaped by having his pantaloons burned off. The fire was caused by the flue bursting. There was an insurance of $600. Harvey Goodwin worked very faithfully trying to save some furniture, and as the house was built on logs out on the water, Mr. Goodwin had to test his swimming qualities in getting to shore.

Harvey and his crew have been doing excellent work since arriving here, and by the middle of this month they expect to have somewhere near 6,000,000 rafted. Solomon McFarlane and his big crew are not doing much at present, just about making enough for their board. Leverett Harris left the job and it was a great put back to the concern, but they may pull through after all. Andy Faulknor has gone to town with a big six-jointer. We look for his return by boat today. Harvey can now be seen waiting for Andy to come up the shore with pockets full of V's and X's. They have now on hand a small fish barrel full of the stuff.

Christian Constancy,

When a man allies himself with the Church of Christ, becomes a member of the household of God, and takes upon himself voluntarily certain vows that are related to his daily life, people are justified in expecting to see the Christ-life reflected in his life. The characteristics of the Christ should find constant and gracious expression in his life; for it is now, or ought to be, hid with Christ in God. He has yielded himself to Christ, and ought to be willing to make any and every sacrifice and surrender that his allegiance to Christ demands. This may mean that he is to walk consistently before God and among men, and that he is to do only those things that are well-pleasing in God's sight. If he fails in this, his profession to Christ is worse than vain. It becomes a block of stumbling to those who are weak in the faith, and a source of grief to the church—Christian Advocate.

I used your Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for a severe attack of Bronchitis. I got better from the time of taking the first dose. "Railway News."

The "Railway News" published by the well known E. Laurence is one of our most valuable exchanges and last week had much news of interest to people in this section. We quote:

David Tapley, trackmaster of the northern division of the C. P. R., with headquarters at Woodstock, who has been very ill for a number of months, reported for duty this week.

The depot at Newburg Junction, on the C. P. R. has been very much improved. The waiting rooms and offices have been sheathed and the floors laid with hardwood, which makes them have a very neat and attractive appearance. Newburg Junction looks now as well as if not better, as any station on the northern division of the C. P. R.

G. R. Burt's new residence building at Hartland, when completed will be one of the finest private dwellings in Carleton Co.

Bowan & Co. general merchants, Bath, have enlarged their store about twenty feet to accommodate their largely increasing business.

Presque Isle, Caribou and Fort Fairfield Me., stations on the C. P. R. are all to be repainted at once.

Benton, Florenceville and Perth stations on the C. P. R. are all to be finished the same as Newburg stations.

E. D. R. Phillips, of Bath, has completed a fine public hall over his extensive warehouses for the use of concerts, lectures and the meetings of different societies. Rooms are also let to commercial men who find it very convenient to show their samples.

The Hartland "ADVERTISER" is now printed in new quarters. The premises may not be as large as the Star office, Montreal, or the London Times office, but everything about the establishment is up to date and the ADVERTISER is fast gaining a circulation second to none in northern New Brunswick.

She was Caught.

Some men learn that the only sure way to do a charity is to administer it themselves. Yet perhaps they learn it only through the sufferings of others. B. J. Barnato, whose life has just written, was very tender-hearted, and especially was he distressed at any exhibition of destitute children in the streets.

One winter evening when the London pavements were like glass, and the air was blurred with fog, he saw a woman singing in Oxford Street; she was carrying a child, perhaps two years old. Barnato went up to her.

"There is a milk shop yonder," said he. "Here is sixpence. Get some hot milk for the child."

Then she waited in a doorway, a little distance off, to see that it was done. The woman, thinking herself unobserved, walked into a bar and had some gin. She gave the child nothing. Barnato went over and waited by the door-post, till she should come out. When she appeared, he caught her by the arm, and was almost voiceless with anger.

"You—you scoundrel!" he exclaimed. "I gave you money to get hot milk,—hot milk, d'ye understand?—for the child. You deserve to be given in charge. Come here!"

Snatching the child away from her, he walked into the milk shop, set it on the counter and with his own hands fed the shivering mite with milk and buns. Then, he gave it back to the woman with a further donation, and commanded, in a voice not to be forgotten, "Now you go straight home!"

The Passing of a Great Ship.

(London Chronicle)

One of the last of the "wooden walls of Old England" is doomed. The Admiralty has given orders for the sale of Her Majesty's ship Nelson, which has been lying in the harbor of Melbourne for many years past. She has been afloat since 1814, and was at that time the largest English line-of-battle ship. Her figurehead is an admirable bust of Lord Nelson, and underneath an artistic scroll displaying the Trafalgar signal, "England expects that every man this day will do his duty." In the sixties the Admiralty lent her to the colony of Victoria for defence purposes. According to the Melbourne papers the oak of which she is built is as sound as ever.

WELLS & RICHARDSON Co.,
GENTLEMEN:—I think it my duty, without solicitation from any one, to write in the interests of other sufferers, and give you a testimonial in favor of your (to me) almost miraculous remedy, Paine's Celery Compound. For more than a year I was suffering from the agonizing pains of sciatica, and after trying all that medical skill could devise, and using many remedies patent and otherwise, I concluded to try the Hot Springs at Banff. I took the treatment thoroughly and carefully for six weeks, and came home at the end of that time racked with pain and weighing 43 pounds less. At this juncture, when hope had almost fled, I heard of Paine's Celery Compound. It seemed suited to my case, and I sent to my druggist, Mr. J. W. Higginbotham, of this place, and asked about it. He recommended it to me, and I took a bottle. I soon began to feel better, and after taking the second bottle I was cured and threw away my crutches.

I kept a bottle on hand in case of a return of the complaint. I am now 58 years old and I feel as spry and healthy and free from pain as I ever did in my life. I was born in Norfolk, England, and came to Canada when only three years old. I was brought up in the township of Cornwall, Ontario, and came to Manitoba eight years ago. Have always been a farmer, and am able to do hard work now as ever I was.

With a heart full of gratitude for the benefits derived from the use of your remedy, and a wish to influence others who may suffer, I gladly and freely indite this letter.

Yours gratefully,
JAMES LEVERINGTON,
Virren, Man.

Mr. J. W. Higginbotham, the successful and extremely popular druggist of Virren, vouches for Mr. Leverington's statements, as follows:

I have known Mr. Leverington for two years or more, and can confirm what he says in regard to his cure by Paine's Celery Compound. Ever since his cure he has been sounding its praises, and he is a perfect enthusiast on the subject of Paine's Celery Compound. I believe him to be thoroughly reliable.

What matters it what faith or creed
My brother holds
It is to him through thought and deed
The truth unfolds?
What matters it what name he bears
If on life's way of pain and cares
He bears "the sign?"
For his own soul must learn the right,
And his own eyes must see the light,
Not mine or thine.
The same sun shines on all men's ways
And chooses none.
How should I think he sheds his rays
On mine alone?
The life eternal dwells in all.
The germ of power.
How should I, then, pronounce his doom
When in my brother's heart may bloom
The "holy flower?"
—Unknown.

He, too' made Books,

It is related of Mr. F. Marion Crawford, the well-known author, that when he was making a tour of this country a few years ago, and was travelling through a rich agricultural region to fill an appointment at a large town, a brisk-looking young man, with his hat on the back of his head, came into the car in which the novelist was sitting, held out his hand, and said, in a most affable and companionable way:

"I presume this is the celebrated Mr. Crawford?"

"My name is Crawford," replied the novelist.

"The conductor told me you were aboard," rejoined the other, "Allow me to introduce myself. My name is Higgs. I am somewhat in the book line myself, and I know how it goes."

"You are an author?" said Mr. Crawford "I am glad to meet you."

"Yes I have published a book regularly every year since 1890."

"May I ask the name of your latest book?" inquired Mr. Crawford.

"It's the Premium List of the Jones County Agricultural Fair," cordially responded Mr. Higgs, taking a small pamphlet from his pocket and handing it to him. "Allow me to present you a copy of it, I'm the secretary of the Jones County Agricultural Board. We're going to have the best fair this year we have ever had. Balloon ascensions, Roman chariot races, baseball games, and trials of speed on track till you can't rest. Come and spend a day with us, and it shan't cost you a cent. Well, this is where I get off. Good-by, Mr. Crawford. Glad to have met you."

Wringing Mr. Crawford's hand again, the genial secretary of the Jones County Agricultural Board pushed his hat a little farther back on his head, strode down the aisle, and got off the car, leaving the astonished author of "Mr. Isaacs", gasping for breath.

A Bribe to Government

An old colored citizen who had been told that the government was conscripting men for the war kept his doors double barred and locked at night and seldom ventured out in the daytime. One of his colored neighbours played a good joke on him recently.

He went to the old man's door late at night and told him through the chinks that "de conscript officer is a-waitin outside."

"Is dey only one of him?" asked the old man.

"Yes, des one."

"Look heah' Abram! Will you do me a favour?"

"Ef I kin."

"Well, I got de box heah with $9 er missionary money in it. You hea me?"

"Yes."

"Well, I ter pass it thoo de winder ter you. Gi' him de box en tell him take it en go long, en celebrate hisse'f. Buy him off, ef bough the kin be, fer God sake."

An Important Judgement—At Osgoode Hall, Toronto, on May 28th, on application of G. T. Fulford & Co., proprietors of Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., a perpetual injunction was granted by Chancellor Boyd restraining Theodore Sweet, druggist, of St. Catherines from selling a pink colored pill in imitation of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It seems necessary to again impress upon the public the fact that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can only be obtained in packages the wrapper around which bears the full, law-protected trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." Pills offered in any other form, and notwithstanding anything the dealer may say, are fraudulent imitations and should always be refused. The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., will be glad to obtain, (in confidence) the name of any dealer offering for sale any imitation of their pills, as the company is determined to protect the public against this species of fraud.

Men ought to confess Christ on the ground that it is our duty to tell the truth. If he is our Truth, then it cannot be right to withhold him from others. One who should keep to himself a truth that he discovered in science or philosophy would bring upon himself the condemnation of the world. If Columbus had kept his discovery to himself he would not have been honored as he is today. How much more should one who has found Christ make him known to others!—Ex.
