

FLOWERS.

Beautiful flowers wherever you bloom.
In your window boxes, and your flower beds...

Behold a young girl, in her childish play,
Laughing the hours of childhood away...

The scene is now changed, for years have flown;
The gay laughing girl to woman has grown...

There's a voice of sorrow—for time hath led—
A wife and mother, and a mother's bed...

In the green church, yon is a lonely spot,
Where the young sunshine enters not...

Beautiful flowers, ye seem to be Linked in the fond ties of memory...
