

DAL EIREANN CALLED UPON TO ASSERT ITS AUTHORITY OR CONFESS ITS HELPLESSNESS

Seething Unrest Centres at Dublin Where Attacks Were Made on Wellington Barracks.

SINISTER ASPECT OF SITUATION

Revealed in O'Connor Statement Who Denies Any Knowledge of Dublin Attacks.

Dublin, April 20.—Firing broke out tonight at 11.15 o'clock and at the hour of the firing of this dispatch was going on heavily at the Wellington Barracks, Beggar's Bush and elsewhere.

A manifesto issued this evening by the Labor Party and the Trades Union Congress calls for a one-day strike and demands that the Dal Eireann assert its authority, renege the army under a single command and accept the responsibility of Government, or confess its helplessness and make way for the people to decide the issue.

The aspect of the situation here, which is regarded as sinister, is revealed in a statement published by authority of Rory O'Connor that the second of the army operating under his executive is not attacking any barracks in Dublin or under Beggar's Bush control.

O'Connor has been so responsible for his acts, having owned up immediately that he carried out the assault on the Freeman's Journal, and that he has directed the daily destruction since of copies of the Independent, in punishment for its refusal to carry out his orders, that his denial of knowledge of the attacks on barracks has had much weight with the people who assert that if O'Connor was connected with the attacks he would admit it. The conclusion drawn by those who accept O'Connor's word is that some force owing no control to any faction, is operating independently against the Provisional Government.

It is admitted that such a contingency would add to the present situation, but an alternative theory, considered hardly less serious, is that some officers of the independent army are not informing the Provisional Government of their operations. The main purpose in seizing the Four Courts has thus been defeated.

The Lord Chief Justice pointed out today that the chief difficulty was that poor people who live on periodical pay warrants obtained from the Accountant-General, who will have his office in the King's Inn but will have difficulty in ascertaining the correct amounts due to them. The Chief Justice added that the Accountant-General disburses £4,000,000. He said no final arrangement could yet be made for jury trials, but that it was hoped it would be possible to make an announcement on this situation early next week.

DEAD AND WOUNDED IN EXPLOSION'S WAKE

Several Hundred Killed, 1,000 Wounded, 30,000 Homeless and Monastir in Flames.

Belgrade, April 20.—Several hundred persons were killed, about 1,000 wounded, and 30,000 made homeless as the result of the explosion of war material stored at Monastir according to reports from that Southern Serbian city today, the disaster there taking on the proportions of one of the greatest catastrophes of the kind in history. The damage, it is reported, will amount to many millions of dollars.

The explosion blew up all the munitions which were gathered all the ammunition of the former Allied armies in the Near East. The population of Monastir, which is composed of Serbians, Turks and Bulgarians, fled in panic in all directions, principally toward Salonika and Prilop.

The United States Red Cross at Belgrade is rushing relief to the city, which was in flames at last advice, as a result of the explosion.

SYDNEY PILOTAGE COMMISSION ENDED

Sydney, N. S., April 20.—The Sydney Pilotage Commission, first established in 1912, has been abolished, according to advice received by the secretary, F. C. Kipker, from Ottawa today. In future the business will be handled from Ottawa direct and the pilots will receive their pay and allowances from the Marine and Fisheries department.

Wildest Kind Of Disorders Reported From Belfast

Several Hundred Armed Men Participated in Worst Fighting Yet Experienced in the City.

Belfast, April 20.—The worst fighting Belfast has yet experienced occurred in the East End tonight when several hundred men, all armed with rifles, participated. The gunmen came boldly into open, lying flat on street corners and shooting frantically. A hot encounter also occurred in the Short Strand district, where police used machine guns freely. A stable overlooking the Marrowbone district, which was believed to have been used as a place of concealment for snipers, was blown up by the military this afternoon. Special Constables Galbraith and Hayler were wounded on the Albert Bridge road this afternoon. Andrew McCartney was shot in the stomach in the York street district. His condition is critical.

MAKES PLEA FOR UNITED STATES TO JOIN LEAGUE

Lady Astor Praises League of Nations and Begs U. S. to Do Its Part.

New York, April 20.—Lady Astor, in praising the League of Nations before a gathering of nearly a thousand men and women tonight, received long applause when she appealed for the United States to either enter the League or some association of nations banded together for peace. She led up to this appeal, which brought the crest of the almost continuous wave of applause given her by the gathering under the auspices of the English-speaking union, by saying she did not believe war ever could be ended with war.

All Europe wants is to get back to what you call normalcy, whatever that means," she said. "I wish America had entered the Genoa Conference, for its purpose is to straighten things out. You cannot live near Europe without wanting to help her out of her sad devastation. It's all very well to say it's Europe's own fault, but it is our fault if we don't help her."

You needn't call it the League of Nations. Give it a new name every week, if you like, but for God's sake give it a chance. England and the United States are the only two nations strong enough—and in my opinion—to give it a chance.

Lady Astor said she had been told to be careful in what she said, but she declared she felt too deeply that the war had led to this to be frank. "I am speaking from the heart," she explained. "I tried my head and found it wanting."

FOUR HUMAN HAIRS GLUE TO FOUL PLAY

Manitoba Police Seeking to Solve Mystery Surrounding Young Farmer's Death.

Winnipeg, April 20.—Four human hairs—the sole clue upon which Provincial police have been endeavoring to solve the disappearance of Stephen Chrus, a young farmer, of Rapid City, Man., district, last November—have led police to the conclusion of foul play, following discovery of Chrus's body in a field near his home Wednesday afternoon. One hair was discovered on a hammer, found hidden in Chrus's home under a pile of blankets; the others on clothing belonging to the dead man.

Meagre reports failed to show whether any marks of violence had been found on the body. A post-mortem examination and an inquest will be held.

At Trieste a street battle resulted in the killing of one of the Fascisti and the wounding of three others when the Fascisti invaded the Communist quarter of the city. Reprisals are planned by the Fascisti, among whom the nationalist spirit is running high. The government has reinforced its troops to meet eventualities.

COMMONS MUST SPEED UP ITS DELIBERATIONS

Otherwise the Session at Ottawa Will Extend Far Into the Summer.

BRITISH CATTLE EMBARGO DISCUSSED

Political Activities of Manning Doherty in England Alleged Cause of Embargo.

Special to The Standard

Ottawa, Ont., April 20.—Unless the House of Commons speeds its operations, it will in session into the summer. Today, on the estimates of the Dept. of Agriculture, it made the speed of a snail. The house, being for the most part agricultural ones, has no profound interest in the subject. Mr. Motherwell, and this, added to a long discussion on the old topic of the British cattle embargo, prevented any substantial progress. The day, however, brought to light a number of interesting matters. It revealed, for one thing, that the Government is still engaged in endeavoring to have the British embargo lifted, and it also enabled Mr. Meighen and Dr. Tomlin to state the late Minister of Agriculture's views on the political activities of Mr. Manning Doherty in England last summer, the embargo might have been lifted long ago.

Mr. Doherty went to England with the evident intention of playing politics. He enlisted the services of Lord Beaverbrook, carried the matter into the British by-election, helped defeat the British Minister of Agriculture, Mr. Boscawen, and irritated the people of England with the matter by his British by-election matter by a Canadian Minister into their domestic affairs. The upshot was that, although a British Royal Commission reported in favor of the embargo being raised, the British Government and the British House of Commons determined that it should remain. "As time goes by," said Mr. Meighen, "the memory of Mr. Doherty's propaganda fades from the British mind, the Government and people of the United Kingdom will be more ready to accept the embargo in justice and will remove it. Meanwhile, however, we are deprived of that market because a member of the British Government indulged in the activities which I have described."

Discussion during the day also saw a notable admission from a prominent Progressive, Mr. Evans, of Saskatchewan, who was discussing reciprocity, when he admitted that, for the present, with American sentiment as it was, a resumption of the pact of 1911 was impossible. It was the first inkling which the House has had of the new light that is dawning upon this question.

Mr. King said he did not intend to give up his directorate, and the Prime Minister promised that he would stand by him in the event of his being attacked in the House.

The resolution, however, has a fair chance to carry. Mr. Meighen is likely to support it, as will practically all the Conservatives and Progressives, and Mr. Martell, the young Liberal member for Hanis, is also attending with Mr. McMaster. In the event of its carrying, Sir Lomer Gouin, who is to quit the Cabinet, in that event, there would have to be a shuffle all around, some interesting changes resulting.

"Did the court say six years?" queried Crown Attorney J. A. Parsons. "Six months," replied Judge Cousin.

It is stated that the attention of the Attorney-General may be called to the case.

LLOYD GEORGE CONFIDENT GENOA CONFERENCE WILL END WITH HARMONY RESTORED IN EUROPE

Gives Expression, Before Newspaper Representatives of Forty Nations, to a Profound Faith and Conviction That It Will End in the Reconstruction of Europe—Firmly Believes Germany and Russia Will Act to Make the Gathering Successful in Its Accomplishments.

Genoa, April 20.—Facing five hundred newspaper representatives of practically all the world nations, the British Prime Minister, today, after announcing that the Germans would accept the conditions imposed by the Allies concerning the Russo-German treaty, and that the Soviet's reply would be such as to permit of further hopeful negotiations, declared his unshakable conviction that "the Genoa Conference would prove a great success. He believed that it would restore harmony in Europe and was supremely confident that before adjourning, it would adopt an agreement whereby all the nations of Europe would bind themselves not to commit acts of aggression against neighboring countries."

"Such a pact," he declared with vigor, "is an essential to the favorable issue of this conference; without it I believe the conference will be a failure."

His first words gave disappointment—"I came not to make a speech, but rather to answer questions, and so clear up misunderstandings," he said, but immediately added, "God is in His heaven and the Conference at Genoa is all Hves and is going strong. The public may be said to be divided into two categories—those who want to see the conference succeed, and those who want to see it go down in defeat. But the latter will not see their desire crowned. We are working through our difficulties quite successfully."

The meeting of the Premier and newspapermen was then thrown open to questions, with the understanding that all should be submitted in writing. This announcement curbed the enthusiasm of some who came prepared to submit the British leader to a grilling cross-examination. The first question was:

Will Overcome Difficulties
The Prime Minister then made the announcement that the difficulties growing out of the signing of a separate Russo-German accord would be overcome, and later he made it clear that he had good reason to believe the German delegates were preparing to accept the suggestions laid down in the note sent them by the Allies representatives. In it were specific conditions that the Germans would be expected not to sit on the Commission which will henceforth deal with Russian questions, because the Germans had already settled their affairs with Russia outside the Conference.

"I don't want to anticipate the character of the Soviet answer to these conditions as they were of great benefit to the farming communities in proportion to its means the Government of Nova Scotia had done more for agriculture in many of the other provinces. The Minister of Agriculture should visit Eastern farms in order to obtain a complete appreciation of their value."

MAY ESTABLISH COLD STORAGE PLANTS HERE

Export Trade Facilities Would be Improved by Such an Establishment.

PARLIAMENT HEARS OF CATTLE EMBARGO

Hon. Manning Doherty Blamed for the Embargo Placed by British Government.

Ottawa, Ont., April 20.—(By Canadian Press)—Discussion on department of agriculture estimates today, centering around the British embargo on Canadian cattle, brought forth lengthy statements on the history of the embargo, and finally aroused Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, to remark that it was hoped the embargo would be removed within a reasonable time. Hon. Arthur Meighen and Hon. S. F. Tolmie, former Minister of Agriculture, scored Hon. Manning Doherty, Ontario Minister of Agriculture, for his methods in endeavoring to secure the removal of the embargo. Mr. Doherty, Mr. Meighen charged, had gone to England and there initiated propaganda among the British people against the British Government. The ill feeling aroused in this way, Mr. Meighen declared, was one of the chief obstacles in the way of opening the British cattle market.

Great Britain For Market
Great Britain, as the market for surplus Canadian farm products, was urged by Mr. Motherwell, who declared his surprise at finding only one cold storage plant and abattoir in the Maritime Provinces, and that one at Charlottetown. It was hoped that the export trade facilities would shortly be improved by the establishment of further cold storage facilities at Maritime centers. This announcement was greeted with applause from Eastern members who had urged the advisability of this course. With the introduction of mixed farming in Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Minister intimated that an effort should be made to increase the sales of Canadian produce in the Old Country markets. At present Canada only supplies two and a half per cent of the farm products requirements of Great Britain.

Assist The Fairs
Mr. Martell, Liberal member for Nova Scotia, introduced the matter of Federal assistance to agricultural fairs. He urged the advisability of the Government encouraging these exhibitions as they were of great benefit to the farming communities in proportion to its means the Government of Nova Scotia had done more for agriculture in many of the other provinces. The Minister of Agriculture should visit Eastern farms in order to obtain a complete appreciation of their value."

SEARCHING SEA FOR MAIL CARRIER

Caught With His Motor Boat in Ice Pack—Now Believed Lost.

Sydney, N. S., April 20.—The auxiliary schooner Brewer Brothers, is searching tonight for Daniel R. McNeil, a mail carrier from Ingonish, who was carried out to sea yesterday in an open motor boat while attempting to deliver mail along the coast near Ingonish.

The roads have been impassable of late and McNeil undertook to use his motor boat. He made several calls along the coast, the last stop being at Nell's Harbor. On leaving Nell's Harbor he struck out to sea to go around a small ice field. When at most out of sight of land, a squall came up and drove ice pack, motor boat and mail carrier out of sight. North Sydney was wired to send a steamer to search for the missing man, but none was available. The Brewer Brothers, the only power boat in port, went out today and will seek the mailman, but it is doubtful if he survived the night in the midst of the grinding ice pack.

THE LARGEST SOCIAL FUNCTION OF KIND EVER HELD IN ST. JOHN

Annual Get-Together of N. B. Division of C. P. R. Employees—About 2,000 Persons Enjoyed Dance in West St. John Last Night.

The largest social function of its kind ever held in the city of St. John was the annual dance and get-together of the employees of the N. B. Division of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which was held last night in the West St. John passenger terminal building. Between 1,800 and 2,000 persons comprised the gathering who attended the affair, and these included only employees of the C. P. R. and C. P. S. Ltd., their families and friends. The dance was held in the spacious baggage room of the building, which was appropriately decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting. The floor was perfect for dancing and the throng of dancers presented a most unique spectacle, as it is very probable that such a large crowd was never before seen at such a function in this city.

GERMANS MAY RETURN TO THE OLD HOME TOWN

Delegation at Genoa Hopelessly Divided in Opinion on Lloyd George's Ultimatum.

BRITISH PREMIER STILL CONFIDENT

Believes Germans Will Yet Take An Attitude That Will Make Situation Easier.

Genoa, April 20.—The Economic Conference was tonight without a definite settlement of the Russo-German incident after a day given over to private conversations, conferences between the Germans and Russians and all sorts of ententes and a great assembly of the world's press, called by Premier Lloyd George, who addressed the newspapermen and a delegation of forty nations, and announced that the Germans would accept the conditions imposed by the Allies and that the Russian attitude toward the London experts' report would be such that further negotiations would be possible.

Germans Divided

The Germans are said to be divided in their delegation. This is the reason for their delay in coming to a decision for submission to the Allies. The Russians have also withheld official publication of their reply to the London experts' report which had been promised for today. In short, the day closed with no definite advance over the position of the previous day, but with a general feeling that the Germans will take an attitude which will make the situation easier and pave the way for a conference agreement on the Russian problem.

"I don't know whether Rathenau said that or not," came back the Premier with amazing quickness. "Certainly he did not say it to me. If he did, it would have been absolutely untrue; I knew nothing about the treaty until I met my colleagues on the way to the afternoon meeting."

Mr. Lloyd George emphasized that everybody was on an equal footing at Genoa and that the Germans had a place on all the Commissions which were to discuss the accord affecting Russia and all nations. To make a separate pact, behind the backs of their allies, was an act of disloyalty on the part of the Germans.

"We were justified in taking energetic measures," declared the Premier. "The thing will have a good effect on the Conference."

The next question was: "Does the Prime Minister think that the Russo-German treaty represented a deliberate attempt to wreck the conference?"

Not Treacherous Act To this Mr. Lloyd George replied: "Whatever we may think about the accord, I do not think it was negotiated with the idea of wrecking the Conference."

The German incident, he added, had not consumed useful time of the conference, which had to wait any way for an answer from the Soviet delegates and carried on the project of a pact, or a guarantee that the nations of Europe solemnly bind themselves not to engage in aggressive acts against their neighbors.

ENTENTE REPLY TO ANGORA FINDS FAVOR AMONG GREEKS

Evacuation of Anatolia Might be Considered if Satisfactory Guarantees Were Forthcoming from Turks.

London, April 20.—The Christian Science Monitor learns from a well-informed source that the allied reply to Ankara's demand for Greek evacuation of Anatolia, as an armistice condition issued from Constantinople on Saturday, is likely to be regarded favorably in Athens. While the Greeks are still unprepared to accept the evacuation of Anatolia merely on Turkey's "acceptance in principle" of the Paris proposals, they might consider it satisfactory guarantees are forthcoming, not only for the protection of minorities but for practical self-government under an impartial administration.

The Greeks are particularly pleased with the remark that if the immediate evacuation of Anatolia were enforced "it would be practically impossible to prevent the Greek Government from transporting troops to Thrace, and compelling the war there." This they regard as opening the door to a possibility of readjusting the Paris proposals regarding Thrace, in return for concessions concerning Smyrna, and also as offering an effective guarantee in the shape of a Constantinople hinterland for the protection of minorities in the evacuated areas.

PRINCE TO VISIT NARA, ANCIENT JAPANESE CITY

It is Classic Centre of Shinto Worship and Was Nation's First Capital.

Tokyo, April 20.—Nara, one of the ancient Japanese cities which the Prince of Wales will visit on his tour of Japan as guest of the government, is a classic center of the nation, and was the first capital of the nation. Much of the building and beautifying begun in A.D. 710, the "Golden Age of Japan," is still intact. The great Kasuga Park conveys the impression of an English manor with its lovely pine and graceful cryptomeria, interspersed with ancient cherry trees and rows of maples, beneath whose shade hundreds of deer may be seen at all seasons. During the time of the Tokugawa Shoguns the killing of one of these deer was punishable by death and while no such penalty is meted out today, any injury to these animals is severely dealt with. The deer seem to know it and make friendly advances to all visitors. During the early days of Nara prosperity, the Todaiji, one of the seven great temples, was the head of Buddhism in Japan and the buildings covered some 20 acres. It was richly endowed with a domain of nearly 25,000 acres of rice and grounds supporting a population of 5,000 persons who labored in its service.

GRIFFITH HAS TASK TO CARRY OUT PROMISES

Much Speculation in Dublin as to Ability to Make Good Pledges to South.

Dublin, April 15.—The promises of protection made to the Southern minority by Arthur Griffith are the subject of considerable speculation here, for it is not definitely known what provisions the new Irish Free State constitution will make for carrying them out. The possibilities of a second chamber in the Irish parliament have been discussed, as well as the powers such a chamber would have, therefore the public is anxiously awaiting some authentic announcement to clear up the hints dropped by political leaders from time to time. Some importance has been attached to a public utterance by Mr. Darrell Figgis who was acting chairman of the committee formed to draft the constitution. He stated that the question of a second chamber had been tackled and answered "satisfactorily and strikingly" and in a way never attempted by any country in the world before.

COAL PURCHASES FROM UNITED STATES

Ottawa, April 20.—(Canadian Press)—Purchases by the Canadian Government of coal in the United States, totalling over 1,600,000 tons in the course of the last fiscal year, was the subject of information given to the House today in a return tabled in answer to questions placed on the order paper by Haunce Logan (Liberal, Cumberland, N. S.)

Hospital Aid Monthly Meeting

Adopted Proposed Regulations for Control of Social Service Worker — Other Business Transacted.

At the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Hospital Aid, held yesterday afternoon at the Board of Trade rooms the action of the executive in adopting the regulations proposed by the Hospital Commissioners for the control of the social service worker was endorsed. It was decided to purchase a number of verandah chairs for the use of the patients able to rest during the day time. Five of these will be the gift of the Ladies' Aid of Exmouth street Methodist church. It was reported that the new sectional book case had been placed in the reception hall and the desk for Miss Howe had been purchased. The mattresses and blankets for the children's ward had been secured and were most satisfactory, and that the usual Easter treat had been given to the patients.

Mayor Answers Some Comments

Following the Telegraph's editorial comments in its issue this, Thursday morning, April 20, I would like the readers to note the position they state themselves, as follows:

"There is only one real method of escaping from the Power Company, and that is through the City buying the power immediately after the election, and proceeding to give it to the consumers, as soon as a distribution system can be built." By this I presume they mean buying the Hydro Power. Are the citizens really awake to what the Telegraph is advocating? Imagine their asking a commitment to buying the Hydro Power immediately after the election, and holding it, paying for it all the time while the distribution system can be built, which would mean a very heavy tax for a year to a year and a half, together with making a satisfactory contract, and, in the meantime, will not the power be sold to the citizens? The power and power from the present distribution system, as advocated by my position? Surely they have answered all the arguments themselves, and surely the one intention they have in mind is to get the new development unloaded on the voters of the city. The Telegraph and Times taken care of in their claims for land damages, and then, in addition, the tax payers are asked to pay the price for the Hydro and letting it go to waste. I do not think there need be any greater argument for my proposal than the arguments of the editor of the Telegraph himself. E. A. SCHOFIELD.

Famous Knox Spencer Case before Court of Appeal

Spencer Case before Court of Appeal

Fredericton, April 20.—Argument was completed this morning before the Appeal Court in the case of James A. Rundle vs. The Miramichi Lumber Co., Ltd. Court considers. Knox, et al by next friend, vs. Frederick G. Spencer, was commenced. This is an appeal by the defendant from an order made by Chief Justice McKewen, of the King's Bench Division, dismissing an application on the part of the defendant in respect of certain points of law raised by the defendant in his defense in a libel action. A suit for libel was brought against the defendant by Wm. H. Knox, on behalf of George Allen Knox, Lester Percy Knox and Andrew Hazen Knox, infants, following the publication of an article in the St. John's Standard in connection with a prohibition campaign. The suit was lost by the defendant and damages of $2,000 ordered, whose appeal was heard by Chief Justice McKewen on three points of law and dismissed. The three points raised were: (1)—That the alleged libels, if any, referred only to the father of the plaintiffs and libel of a father only cannot give cause of action to his children; (2)—The said extracts from the daily St. John's Standard in connection with a prohibition campaign, contained no matter libelous of the plaintiffs or any of them; (3)—Statement of claim alleges no special damage. Daniel Mullin, K. C., for the plaintiff, took preliminary objection this morning on the ground that no proper notice of appeal had been made. H. A. Powell, K. C., for the defendant, was heard contra. The case was argued throughout the day and at close of the court's session was unfinished. It goes over to Wednesday next. The court will hear common motions tomorrow and hand down judgments.

University Club Entertained at Capital City

Graduating Class of High School Special Guests of the Club.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, N. B., April 20.—The University of New Brunswick Club of Fredericton tonight entertained at dance and social evening in the old Galey building. The entertainment was particularly for the student body of the University, the graduating class of the Fredericton High School and the people who are to take part in the dramatic performance which is to be presented by the N. N. B. Club shortly. Several hundred people were in attendance, in spite of inclement weather, and a very enjoyable night was spent. The U. N. B. Club, although organized only some three months ago, has displayed marked activity and, when organized fully at the annual meeting in May, will be able greatly to strengthen the sentiment in favor of the Provincial University in this section.

WEAK HEART NERVES BADLY SHATTERED

Many a woman who should be strong and healthy, full of energy is bound by the shackles of ill-health. Some disease or constitutional disturbance has left its mark in the form of a weak heart, shattered nerves, impoverished blood and an exhausted condition of the whole system. In MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS they will find a remedy that will supply food for the exhausted nerves, one that will strengthen and regulate the weak heart and invigorate the whole system. Mrs. W. W. Pearce, 14 Sention St., Toronto, Ont., writes:—"I was left with a weak heart and in a run down condition from the 'Flu.' My nerves were badly shattered, and I had such pains around my heart I could not sleep much at night. I took several doctors' medicines without getting any better. My husband got me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after I took one box I got relief, and after taking six boxes I have been well and not bothered since." Price, 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mayor Schofield On Distribution

Says Distribution of Electric Power at Cost Appeals to Him Providing Cost is Reasonable One.

Distribution of Electric Power at cost appeals to me, as much as to any one, as an ideal arrangement, provided that the cost is a reasonable one. Unfortunately I have found that in the distribution of electric power, the Masquash power, I am unable to share my eyes to some of the important factors in the situation, as do my opponents. I reported a resolution of the city council to take chances on these matters at my expense, whilst I am not. They are willing to push you off into the dark in pursuit of a "Will of the Wisp," knowing that they are playing on your prejudice to get you to consent to their actions, and then will be able to say that you wanted to embark on the path they desire to lead you if it proves disastrous for you, they will tell you then that they were only following your instructions. However much you may desire to have the cheapest light and power possible, there is a stage at which what may be cheap in one sense may be very dear in another. Light and power may be made very cheap at any moment by subsidizing it out of general taxation. That is the way you will get, only fairly good power out of a civic distribution system in competition with the existing system. You will have to pay very heavily for your power out of your taxes for several years. Those who are willing to do this should vote against me on Monday next, and those who are unwilling to pay any more in taxes for the sake of electricity should vote for me, and they will get equally good results in the same time, or sooner, without any additional burden of taxation. It can be done. I have not the slightest intention, and never had, of letting any benefit which the Masquash hydro power will give us pass into the hands of the N. B. Power Co. If they handle it, it will be as servants of the people, and with- out any regard to themselves. If they will not co-operate with us in doing this, they shall not have anything to do with it. It is absurd to say that the people of this city cannot look after their own interests in getting the utmost benefit out of a publicly owned commodity. We can get the guarantee we require and the right of control and supervision, and we will do so. There is no necessity to throw away a million dollars in duplicating what already exists. That is sheer extravagance, which we cannot afford. Canada has already done too much of that sort of thing, and we are paying heavily for our foolishness already. Let those who have confidence in themselves and our city, vote for a St. John's Electric Co. from the start, supporting me on Monday next. With your support I can produce the results we desire. Those who advocate competition are doing it from misguided and misinformed motives. My reputation is at stake, and not having lost it before, I am prepared to pledge it on the success of a policy in the best interests of the taxpayer. E. A. SCHOFIELD.

Seeking American Coal Market

Welsh Operators Quoting Figures Hoping to Benefit by Strike in U. S.

London, April 18.—British coal exporters are beginning to feel about for American markets, according to information reaching American commercial interests in London. Concerns in the United States, and some business for the Canadian market, already has been undertaken. It is understood that Canadian orders were made to insure adequately bunker supply now that American sources are closed, but there is good prospect for the New England market where stocks possibly are lower than elsewhere. British shipping interests are co-operating with coal firms in an effort to reach American customers and there have been instances where freight rate just exceeding $2 a ton has been quoted for delivery in the United States, while the normal rate on bulk cargo has been about $3 for some time. It can be learned, however, what is going on at present respecting United States buyers is concerned merely an endeavor to find out how much English coal can be sold at what price can be obtained in the event of the strike lasting sufficiently long to deplete existing stocks.

HYDRO COST.

Mr. Herbert Phillips is trying to persuade the citizens of St. John that there will be no increase in civic taxation if the City takes the Musquash current and sells it over its own distribution system, out that the users of the current will have to bear all the costs. Either Mr. Phillips does not know what he is talking about, or else he is deliberately trying to deceive the people—we incline to think the latter.

From the moment that a contract with the Hydro Commission is signed, the City will become liable for its share of the interest and sinking fund on the $2,000,000 expended on the development of the plant, and also for its share of replacement charges, and this share will, we presume, be figured out at 1.2 cents per k.w.h. on 10,000,000 kilowatts. Before the current can be sold, a distributing system must be erected, which will cost $800,000 and may cost $1,000,000. The money to erect this plant must be found, and interest and sinking fund will have to be provided on the whole amount from the day of borrowing. Mr. Phillips' very optimistic programme only anticipates capture of twenty-five per cent of the Power Company's customers for the first year, which would be 1,250,000 k.w.h. The other 8,750,000 k.w.h. bought from the Hydro Commission and remaining unsold will be "dead stock," but it will have to be paid for just the same. Are the people who buy Mr. Phillips' 1,250,000 k.w.h. to pay for this; or will it go on the City taxes? If the former, they certainly will not be getting their rent at anything like the price Mr. Phillips promises it at.

Consumers of current are only going to pay for what they get. They will not see any reason why they should pay for anything else. At the same time, the whole of the current bought from the Hydro Commission has to be paid for whether re-sold or not, as also has the interest and sinking fund of the bonds which provided the funds for installing the distribution system, until it is finished and in use, which will be several months at least. If Mr. Phillips can suggest any means of paying these charges, other than by additional taxation, we should like to know what it is. The Government cannot afford to pay interest and sinking fund; it is going to be out-of-pocket enough as it is.

NEW SOURCES OF REVENUE.

We certainly must take issue with the Journal of Commerce when it suggests, as a means of increasing the national revenue, the lowering of the minimum income on which tax is paid. The Journal suggests that the tax should be applied, as it is in Great Britain to a lower range of incomes. It is true of course that in Great Britain exemption from income tax applies only to incomes not exceeding $800, no matter whether the individual is married or single, but income tax is paid to the Government only. In this country, practically all incomes are subject to municipal taxation, and the exemption is very low. A man with a small income could not afford to pay a Dominion as well as a Municipal tax.

In the view of the exigencies of the financial situation confronting the country there are many other potential sources of revenue which the Government would do well to tap. We agree with our contemporary that magazines and periodicals coming into this country from the United States might be taxed up to a fifth or a quarter of their sale price. It may be said that this would result in a diminution in the reading of such literature by Canadians. Well, even if it did, the gain would be greater than the loss. One can have too much even of a good thing—and not all the magazines and periodicals entering this country from the United States are very good. The influence of reading matter of this kind—particularly on young and impressionable minds—is almost incalculable. We want to see Canadians with an individuality of their own, and not imitations of our neighbors to the South which is just what too intensive a course of reading of magazines and periodicals from the United States is apt to make of them.

Another possible source of revenue would be a Dominion tax on all automobiles, except those used solely for business purposes. Any person who can afford to run an automobile can certainly afford to pay a tax of $15 or $20 to the Government in respect thereof. As a people, our chief fault is extravagance. And in no direction is this more glaringly exemplified than in the proprietorial number of people who own automobiles. If an impost of the kind suggested resulted in some reduction of this number, and hence

THE COAL STRIKE.

Up to this writing (April 19th), says the Toronto Saturday Night, the coal strike which involves hundreds of thousands of men throughout the Continent has scarcely caused a ripple of public excitement. This is to be attributed to two causes, the orderly manner in which the strike so far has been carried out, and the large stocks of coal on hand, which means that for a long time to come the public have little cause to worry. It is calculated that those out total 550,000 hands, of which 400,000 were employed in the soft coal mines and the remainder in the anthracite regions of Pennsylvania. There are still about 200,000 non-union hands at work, chiefly in the Southern States, and they are able to mine something like a million tons of soft coal per day, or at least this was their record during the big strike of 1919. The soft coal consumption is roughly 3,000,000 tons per week, so that in order to keep up with consumption previous to the strike it would be necessary to draw from stocks on hand some two million tons per week.

The weakness of the strikers' position lies in the fact that there is at present a very large surplus of coal, both bituminous and hard, indeed these disaffected workmen could not have chosen a more ill-timed period to down tools. With consumers and operators alike it is a case of "we should worry. It will be time enough to cross our bridges when we come to them, and that is a long way off." In the interval the treasury of the United Mine Workers will be sadly depleted.

Of course, all this brings about the question of the nationalization of the United States mining industry. The demand for such is by no means new, but the present situation takes it again to the front. At the moment, Senator Borah, chairman of the Senate Committee on Education and Labor, is holding this as a club over the coal mine owners, and at the same time playing into the hands of the radicals, among whom is President Lewis of the Miners' Union.

The entire mining situation on this Continent is muddled by reason of the fact that there are more miners than jobs. During the war and the years time thereafter the consumption of coal both in the United States and Canada was very great indeed. There was plenty of demand and plenty of work. The tonnage reached was a record. Then came the slump. Demand fell off and miners were put on short time. Many mines closed down because the product could not be sold, even at a considerable loss. At best, operation was haphazard. Prices remained high and demand remained low. It is one of these situations that will have to cure itself, and possibly this strike will not get an ill effect, provided it does not get out of hand. Many miners are taking advantage of the situation to speed off to their former European homes, and many more will no doubt seek other lines of work. All of which will tend to ease up the labor market.

According to James Woodworth, Labor M. P. for Centre Winnipeg, the Alberta miners have been working on an average of two days per week for which they receive $13 per day. This means, of course, curtailed production, from which the miners themselves suffer as well as the public which has to pay the price. The situation is so absurd that it scarcely needs serious criticism, beyond stating that Alberta coal fields cannot be developed on such lines, and until the situation clears it would probably be as well to close down.

In the Maritime Provinces the difficulty is clearly one between the British Empire Steel Company and the miners. The miners are of the opinion that they are being held to make dividends for the Company. There is a great deal to criticize regarding this merger, but in this instance the miners are wrong, for dividends are not being earned, and neither are they being paid. On the contrary if costs of steel products are increased, by reason of advanced costs for raw materials, such as coal, the output will suffer, and unemployment increase both in the mills and in the mines.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

To the Editor of The Standard: Your readers will doubtless remember that at the Trustees' Convention which met a few months ago, a statement was made that some teachers had decided their trustees by representing to them that the minimum salary required by the Act was exclusive of the Government grant to teachers, whereas it is inclusive of the same. It was further suggested that the Teachers' Association should take some action in this regard.

Believing that this matter, involving as it does the bona fides of the teachers, should be investigated, the Secretary of the Association on consultation with the President, sent out to the members of the Executive a circular requesting them to make diligent enquiry as to whether any well authenticated cases of this kind had occurred in their districts, and to report the same.

At the recent meeting of the Executive all the members reported that no instances of the kind charged had been discovered. As the members of the Executive come from all the Counties of the Province, it would appear that the number of cases where such deception has been practised has not been great.

In order that it might not be an ex parte investigation, it was resolved that the President write a communication to the leading newspapers of the Province, inviting any person who has knowledge of any case of the kind mentioned above to report the same to A. S. McFarlane, Insp. Secretary of the N. B. T. A., Fredericton, N. B.

As President of the Association, I call upon all persons having authentic information concerning this matter to act in accordance with the above resolution.

BERTON C. FOSTER,
President of the N. B. T. A.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Wasted Money.
(Natal Witness.)
The strikers have been losing nearly a million a month in wages, but the loss to the country is infinitely greater and will react upon every member of the community, and upon none more than the wage-earners themselves, who will have created those conditions of national poverty which always means low pay and short commons, until a revival of production and a restoration of lost capital can bring back once more a measure of prosperity.

Airships and the Empire.
(London Daily Chronicle.)
Today is a far cry from England to Suez, from Suez to India, and from India to Australia. But supposing we can reduce the journey to Bombay to five and one-half days, and to Australia to eleven and one-half days! It would have far-reaching effects on the Empire. It would reduce the length of our communications by nearly two-thirds; it would bring us, for administrative and social purposes, that much nearer. It would serve to strengthen the Empire precisely where it is weakest.

Lloyd George and Thrift.
(London Free Press.)
In the course of his recent speech in the House of Commons in exposition and defense of the Genoa conference policy, Premier Lloyd George made the following vivid statement: "If the European countries had gathered together their mobile wealth in one pyramid and set it on fire, the result could hardly have been more complete as far as the capital wealth of Europe is concerned."

This terse statement comprises a sweeping description of one of the chief underlying conditions of the present time. Destruction of such a large accumulation of capital cannot be effected without incurring a debt that all humanity must pay. The annihilation of so much of the wealth in Europe affects each of us in our daily lives today.

We are each helping pay the debt incurred through destroyed capital. And herein lies a powerful lesson in thrift.

Whatever is wasted must be regained through careful saving. The economic equilibrium can be restored only through the processes of prudent thrift.

What is thrown away today, figuratively speaking, must be restored tomorrow through thrift. This is a truth that applies alike to the gravest problems of world-wide economics and to the personal experiences of each individual.

The young man who wastes his income in merely having a good time cannot escape the penalty of his extravagances any more than all mankind has been able to escape the indebtedness incurred through the destruction of capital during the war.

FIRST REPORT OF OUTBREAK AT CHAURI CHAURA

Volunteers Swooped Down on Police Station, Slaughtering Small Police Force. Lucknow, India, April 20.—(Special)—One of the British officials stationed here gives the following version of the sanguinary outbreak at Chauri Chaura, which has been briefly mentioned by cable.

"Chauri Chaura is a police station in the district of Gorakhpur, United Provinces, in pursuance of the Gandhian non-cooperation policy of boycott, bands of volunteers were gathered round the village market, intimidating and forcing people to avoid foreign cloth and liquor shops. The police, fearing the outbreak of a riot, went to keep the peace in his circle, warned these volunteers on a market day against the consequences of intimidating people, the volunteers had no heed to this warning and threatened to punish the police officer.

"On the date of the tragedy (Feb. 4) a large number of volunteers, followed by thousands of ignorant and credulous villagers, came in a procession and made a demonstration before the police station. A howling mob of nearly 4,000 people, whose feelings had been worked up by the oratory of the volunteers, surrounded the building. The mob, which consisted of Indian officers and 18 men, fired their guns and shot the police officers. When the fire ceased the volunteers were armed with muskets, fired cartridges in the air to scare away the mob. When the fire ceased the volunteers shouted:

"Thanks to Gandhi, the bullets won't hurt you, and are all changing into water." The howling mob immediately advanced in a body and attacked the police building. The policemen, seeing the mob, fled in all directions. Some of the mob then entered the building and set fire to it. The fire spread rapidly and the building was completely destroyed. The mob then turned on the police officers and shot them. The police officers were killed and the mob then looted the police station.

New York, April 20.—Bonds followed the uneven course of the stock market today, but dealings were large and comprehensive. The Liberty series rose and fell within narrow bounds, closing for the most part at gains.

Common Council Mot In Committee

Application from Telephone Co. for Permission to Erect Poles Was Discussed and Laid on the Table. The Common Council met yesterday morning in committee with Commissioners and providing in the absence of the mayor.

Permission was granted to F. W. R. to install two gasolene tanks and pumps on his premises, 15 Lester street. Authority was granted Com. Frink to call for tenders for 1,510 lineal feet of gasolene pipes, 4 inches and 1 1/2 lineal feet of electrical, for use on Waterloo street, between Union and Goulding, and to be paid out of an unexpended balance on a bond issue of 1918.

An application was read from the Telephone Co. Ltd., requesting permission to erect two poles and remove several old ones. The streets on which the changes are to be made are Colville, Power and St. George streets, York and St. James, Victoria, Moore, Laramie, Orange, Wentworth, King Street East and Pitt on the East Side, and St. Marshall of the Telephone Company said the object was to increase efficiency.

Head Engineer Hatfield said he had inspected the lines referred to in the petition and found that some lighting poles might be interfered with. Commissioner Thorton objected to the installation of two poles overhanging the street, and suggested that underground conduits should be installed. He called attention to the difficulty of fire-fighting in view of the narrow streets and poles in the street at present and also remarked that there are a number of "dead" wires which should be removed. He also suggested that the telephone poles should be painted. He asked where the company purchased their poles and added that every effort should be made to get straight poles and not have the streets made unsteady with crooked poles.

Mr. Marshall replied that the company had recently received two carloads of straight poles from the Telephone Co. Ltd. He said that the poles were not painted. He said there were no "dead" wires in the main lines, but that there were some in the service lines and he would see that orders for installations frequently came in from buildings to which dead wires were attached.

ANOTHER GRAVE WAVE OF CRIME HITS NEW YORK

Four Youthful Thugs Gag Four Fur Merchants—Escaped With $75,000. New York, April 20.—Holdups and robberies marked by the brutality of armed thugs and coming a few hours after the accidental killing of Harry Cross in a pistol battle between policeman and bandit, a "grave" wave of crime hit New York yesterday.

While Police Commissioner Baright was calling on Mayor Hylan to talk over the still rising tide of crime and to renew his request for six high power motor cars with which to harry automobile bandits, reports were still coming in from the streets of a series of crimes which increased the apprehension of citizens regarding the apparent helplessness of the police. Two daylight payroll holdups, a $75,000 holdup in Flatbush, a revolver duel between the police and negro burglars high in the air, the capture of six plotting to loot a booze warehouse, the holdup and savage beating suffered by a man who had just driven $1,400 from a bank, the attempted robbery and shooting of a candy store owner in East Savoyville street, the blackjacking of a policeman in Broome street were only a few of the criminal activities. It was one of the most violent periods noted in some time.

Rally to be Called. To meet this situation, one not unlike the breakdown of law and order in old-time western cities of the vigilante days, various civic movements were getting under way. In addition to the blackjacking of a policeman by the mayor and his police commissioner or to stem the criminal tide. Most important of all the civic movements was the instigation of a number of members of the State of New York to call representatives of other organizations and of the people generally for a conference of public safety.

Four Young Thugs. Detectives of the East 156th Street police station searched yesterday for four youthful, well-dressed bandits, who robbed F. M. Sandberg, a furrier, 187 Madison Avenue, his manager, and two friends of $15,000 in furs, jewelry and money the night before. Except for a rather meagre description of the four robbers, who were not masked, and the fact that they used a taxi to escape, the police were without clues.

Mr. Sandberg's store, an extensive establishment for the manufacture and sale of fur garments, is located at 187 Madison Avenue, a block south of Mount Morris Park. The street outside was crowded about 8:30 o'clock Friday evening, when the four men in dark overcoats entered the store and asked to look at mink pieces.

Obituary. Mrs. Miriam Wright. An obituary notice was published yesterday in the Standard regarding the death of Mrs. Miriam Wright, widow of Peter Wright of Centre Village. The late estimable lady was one of the family of Irishmen of the late Robert and Hannah Keith, and was born in the town of Centre Village, where she spent her childhood, removing with her parents to Centre Millstream, at the age of twelve years. In 1860, she married Peter Wright, who was a native of the town of Centre Village. They were married in the town of Centre Village, where they spent their married life. Mrs. Wright was a devoted wife and mother, and was well known in the town of Centre Village. She died at her home in Centre Village, on April 19, 1922, at the age of 83 years. The Get Together Meeting Yesterday

C.P.R. Employees Assembled from All Parts of the Province Discussed Working Conditions.

A large and influential meeting of C. P. R. employees from all parts of the province travelled to St. John to take part in what is termed a "Get Together" meeting and at 3.30 p. m. when the meeting was called to order by J. M. Woodman, Gen. Supt. 150 employees of all grades of service were in attendance in the large immigration building in West St. John.

Mr. Woodman opened the proceedings by congratulating the employees on the satisfactory results of the winter port traffic, emphasizing the fact that the great safety which had characterized the movement of passengers during the past winter was the very best veritable result of the C. P. R. could have for every passenger was a good booster for the Company. Mr. Woodman in conclusion gave unstated praise to the efforts of the employees handling freight, mail, and express.

On motion A. C. Fraser, Supt. of Telegraphs was appointed Chairman of the meeting.

The Chairman spoke in praise of the passenger service during the past winter, then called on Mr. Langley of Aroostook Jet, who recited an original composition entitled "Get Together" which was heartily cheered. Conductor Styles of Brownville spoke on working conditions on the C. P. R.

Mr. Court spoke on efficiency and co-operation on the C. P. R. chairman N. R. Diabry, District Passenger Agent, spoke on past and present methods of transporting passengers, also of the advertising methods of the C. P. R. who has at the present time some 30 men in Europe showing films of Canadian scenery.

W. S. Elliott, known as the Colonel, spoke on co-operation amongst the employees, and stated that some 4000 cars were used more than last year. Mr. Elliott caused much amusement by his genial manners and humorous remarks.

John R. Haycock, Dom. Express, expressed his great pleasure in being associated with the C. P. R., and emphasized the fact that "service" was a strong point with the Express Company.

W. J. Pickrel, Master mechanic, spoke on the great advantage of co-operation in place of the old time system of passing responsibility on to "the other man."

C. C. Kirby, Div. Engineer, spoke on co-operation with different departments of the service.

Agent Deacon of St. Stephen, N. B., caused much amusement regarding shipments of "wet" freight across the St. Croix river at St. Stephen, claiming the C. P. R. was shipping only legitimate freight.

Mr. Woodman closed the meeting with thanks to those who had travelled from all parts of the Province to attend.

The original composition recited by J. C. Langley of Aroostook Jet, which made such a hit with those assembled is as follows:

Get Together

(By J. C. Langley)

The C. P. R. have workers from the "Shamrock," "Rose" & "Heather" from all parts of New Brunswick they meet to "Get Together."

From Aroostook Jet to the North to Megantic in the West, They come to have some jolly fun and they do it with a zest, Let every one with heart and soul who likes it, have his part to play, Remember "Get together" is the motto that's a star.

We've representatives here today from every branch of the service, The Engineer has left his throttle which he does not like to shirk, The Fireman has laid down for once his "shovel and his hoe" and And to-day he'll not be looking down the track for his Mary or his Pio. The Conductor leaves his train for he surely has a hunch That he is going to have a rest and a holiday, The Sectionman lays down his spade and brings along his wife and To have a little change and fun in his life, The Superintendent leaves his desk and comes down in great style And hopes that everything goes right when away for just awhile. The B. & I. Dept. too who are always in a hurry Have thought it time to have a rest especially Frank Currie, The Aggr. has his tickets and his tabulated freight, And hurries off to catch the train for fear he may be late, For he too has a routine task and to "get together" with the girls and have a little dance. The Operator gets tired of pounding on his key, and have a rest this is his only plea, For though his work is all indoors nor affected by the weather He joyfully re-echoes this, "Let's go and get together."

The harassed Loco Foreman's clerk with his multifarious duties Feels bound to come and gaze upon the various types of beauties, The Master Mechanic has a staff who dearly love to work And if there's any who should rest it surely is his clerk, The Fireman and Grand Lake which is called the Minto Line With Victor Harshaw at the helm is also running fine And surely Victor will be here to swell our railway ranks And if he shows his smiling face he'll surely earn our thanks, And now I have a kindly thought which I must give confess Regarding those who run the cars which are known as the "Express" They carry trunks and bags and grips and anything you choose And one time it was often said they used to carry EOOZE. Now as Bret Harrie said long ago, "Things are not what they seem" So railway men put not your trust in "water and ice cream" Now in conclusion I would say if dry or wet the weather gathered here, If two or three are gathered here, "Let's go and get together."

NEWMAN BROOK BRIDGE

The last step in the removal of the old bridge which once spanned Newman Brook, commenced yesterday, when public works men started to cut away the steel girders on both sides of the bridge in the centre of the structure. Traffic is now going over the fill which was placed there during the winter. A temporary guard rail will be placed along each side of the fill until permanent fence can be erected.

Three others of the party did not appear and warrants were sworn out for their arrest, and they will be apprehended within a short time by Constable Crawford, who is looking after all offenders. In addition to the charges mentioned above in the Rodney street case, Constable Crawford has made charges of being drunk and supplying liquor in a public place, and these additional charges will also be dealt with.
