COULD HAVE BEEN A LIEUTENANT

But Chose the Ranks in Order to Get into Quick Action

One of the teachers of the Consolidated School at Florenceville has enlisted for overseas service. The teacher is Harold W. Goodwin of Port Elgin who has had charge of the intermediate grades. It has been known to many that Mr. Goodwin has been restless in the role of a home stayer for some time and little surprise was caused by his finally bolting for his place in the ranks. It is into the ranks he has gone, too, although he has for some time held the certificate of a lieutenant. Mr. Goodwin felt that he had already waited too long to be called so he went to the military authorities and offered for a place in the ranks. He is joining the 145th Infantry which is mobilized in his native county under Col. W. E. Forbes. Although he is a very young man for such responsibilities as he assumed when he came to Florenceville as a teacher, he has fulfilled his duties with commendable efficiency and his departure is regarded as a loss to the school. Besides teaching the intermediate grades, Mr. Goodwin was director of manual training.

Schools as well as homes, however, must make their sacrifices for the cause. That the cause has emptied the universities of Canada and the mansions of the loamy nobility of England is a testimony of no little significance to the kind of appeal which the cause makes.

Mr. Goodwin ended his work with the school on Friday last. The school was convened in the assembly hall by Principal Hetherington on Friday to give fitting recognition to his departure. A short program was carried out involving an address by the principal and another by Rev. G. A. Ross. Two pupils of Mr. Goodwin's department came forward and presented him with a wrist watch on behalf of the school. Agnes Watters made the presentation in connection with the following address which was read by Robert Ross.

Dear Mr. Goodwin: This is the last day you will teach our school for the present. Because I am one of the older boys in your room I have been asked to read what is written here. The things said here are said for all the pupils in the F. C. S., especially for the grades in our room—also for the other teachers. They want us to give you a watch to remember them by and to remind you all the time you are away of how they liked you and how they honor you because of the place you will be in.

We are all sorry that you are leaving our school. The boys and girls in your grade have always liked you for a teacher and the boys who take Sloyd say they got on fine in the shop. We wish we had tried to be quieter and do more what you told us because now you are going away. But we will all remember you always.

We are proud, though, that since you have to go you are going to be a soldier and fight in the war. No one else in our school is the right age to go. We feel that as you are going the F. C. S. is sending one soldier to stand for them in the army of the Empire. The fact that you will be there will make the news from the war more interesting to us in the future and we will always be looking for news of that part of the army where you are. Before some of us are done studying history perhaps the history of this great war against the Germans will be written in our history books. One thing we will be sure to remember will be that we had a teacher in that war. We are not surprised that you are going, because we knew that you are British.

This watch is a gift from all the grades in our school. We chose this for a gift because it is useful; chiefly because you will often look at it. Then you will think about the F. C. S. You will remember how on your last day here we tried to tell you that we respected you and that we believed you would make a good soldier of the King.

Mr. Goodwin made a brief but feeling reply to the pupils. He left on Monday to join his Battalion at Moncton.

SOLDIERS WILL COME TO HARTLAND

A Platoon of Co. D to Arrive—
Said This will be a Permanent Billet

At times it pays to be a knocker and sometimes a little vigorous protesting through a newspaper is productive of results. Hartland is to have its promised billet of soldiers—indeed, it has the first contingent already. The best part of it is the most of the lads who were recruited in this vicinity are to be returned here for their training.

When Recruiting Officer Cameron got huffy and threw up his job because the Hartland boys were sent to Perth, and when The Observer gave the matter the publicity it deserved, there was something doing. All are ready and willing, now, to let by-gones be by-gones—for the "authorities" are right around looking after the placing of men here.

Capt. Jago of St. John arrived on Friday and is superintending the outfitting of the mess room over Morgan's store, and the bunk room in the Armory. Citizens of the village volunteered to provide materials and, if called upon to pay for the work of fitting up the apartments. This work is so well advanced, already, that the men are expected to arrive today or tomorrow.

Most of the men are with Co. D, 140th Batt., which was last week sent to Perth. A platoon of these, about 54 men, are to be detached and billeted here. This will include many Hartland recruits, but not all of them, as quite a large number of them are with the 104th and other battalions.

The soldiers are coming this week. The Observer is glad to announce. Moreover, it is stated that Hartland is to be constituted a permanent billeting point, and even after the 140th sails for overseas we shall have others to occupy the quarters here.

The armory and mess room are finely equipped, and the small detachment of soldiers already here affirm the quarters are the best they have yet seen.

Interesting Letters From Curtis Simms

The following are interesting extracts from letters recently received by his mother from Curtis Simms in England:

I hope you save these letters as I am describing everything day by day.

Wednesday we were vaccinated and Thursday night at 5.30 p. m. every man went to work and we accomplished a feat that has never been done by a Canadian battery in England. Namely, building four gun platforms, digging four gun pits, five dug-outs, which we built out of sand bags, two trenches and buried 4 miles of cable; then we hauled four 6 inch howitzers by hand over half a mile and mounted them on the gun platforms, getting through at 3.30 Friday morning and we were soaked through and covered with mud as we carried the sand bags quarter of a mile.

We were up again at 5.30 Friday morning and did gun drill till noon and in the afternoon we hauled the guns back.

The reason for this forced work was to see who could stand it and who could not and the O. C. picked his battery of 153 men out of the 218 who came over, and he said he did not want any man who couldn't do a little extra work without being sick next day as nearly looked sick. I was kept with the battery, the rest going to the depot.

We left Roffey at 11.40 on Saturday morning and the road was thronged with people to see us off as we were the first Canadian battery there and they gave us some send off. We landed here at 4.45 p. m. and on the march to the camp I carried a little Pal's luggage with my own as he was nearly all in and when we landed here our hut had no fire or beds in it and he had lost his two blankets. So I shared mine with him and we curled up on a cold damp floor and he was sick from vaccination and not very strong. While in the Army it is "every man for himself", but I couldn't see him suffer. For myself I think God is answering your prayers as I never felt better in my life and can stand most anything. Am never sick even in the hardest of times. To-day we got coal and mattresses and beds to sleep on.

This is one of the oldest camps in England and only 15 minutes walk to the sea where I was to-day, we are 16 miles from Dover and a short distance from Westenhanger so I can go up and see the boys in the 55th.

Talk about a pretty sight but it sure is one to see 21 howitzed batteries drawn upon parade. There are 15 English, 5 South African and one Canadian battery here and the drill is the same as at the front as they use real shells. Aeroplanes do the observing and give the range. Last week the South Africans were firing within 20 yards of the huts so we were watching them most of the time. You can see the shell as it leaves the muzzle, and rises in the air till it looks like an airship in the clouds. In a few seconds you see a puff of smoke go up where it hit. At once word comes over the wire giving the result and the change in laying, if necessary.

Yesterday we were at work on the buzzer when we heard the noise of an aeroplane and we thought it was going to strike the hut, by the noise, so we ran out and it was within 10 yards of the ground. It was a huge biplane which went up almost out of sight overhead and then dropped straight down and all of us thought he had lost control. But he came within 100 yards of the huts, rose again and made a circle in less space than an auto could, and his machine was perpendicular. He then came down almost straight, right along side of us.

It is a pretty sight to see numerous ships at anchor right in front of the camp while on the

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine Affords the Greatest Relief for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Bronchitis

Miss Amy C. Davis, 301 Perth Ave., Toronto, Ont., writes: "After a severe attack of quinsy and grip, my nervous system seemed to be completely run down. I had taken a good tonic, prescribed by my doctor, but still felt very nervous; would start up at the least sound, and was very irritable. A friend advised me to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and, after taking two boxes, I felt so much improved that I continued to take four more, which completely restored my health. I cannot say too much for this great Nerve Food, and have recommended it to all my friends."

The grip epidemic has assumed huge proportions until there is scarcely a home but shelters one or more victims of this menacing disease. Urged on by sudden changes of temperature, this dreaded scourge sweeps over the country like a forest fire before the western winds. In offices, stores and factories the forces are greatly reduced because so many are away with grip, while many who stick to their posts do so with the greatest discomfort, because of the pains and aches and the great weakness associated with this disease. It only takes a few hours of this debilitating ailment to bring even the strongest to their beds and the process of recovery is often most tedious. Just at this point Dr. Chase's Nerve Food does wonders to hasten the return of health, strength and vitality. By forming new, rich blood it builds up the system as nothing else can. Here is a case to illustrate this point:

HOW TO AVOID GRIP

Rich, red blood is the greatest of germicides, and good vitality the strongest defence against disease. Keep the bodily vigor at high-water mark by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and you need have no fear of grip or other contagious diseases. 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers or Edmundson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

This great food cure has proven a wonderful blessing to people in advanced years, and all whose systems have become run down. You need not linger in weakness if you will but put this treatment to the test. By supplying the ingredients required by nature, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food hastens the process of rebuilding and you can depend on the results proving of lasting benefit.

Miss E. J. Buswell, Centralia, Ont., writes: "Last winter my mother contracted a bad cold. She was bothered with shortness of breath, wheezing, fevered and too sore to cough. Our doctor prescribed treatment which brought relief from these symptoms, but when she got up she was tired, always tired, and weak. I got her three boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and she soon improved. Her eyes became clear and bright, the ashen hue left the face and she began once more to take up the reins and look after the household duties."

It is the older people who suffer most from grip, finding them in a more or less weakened condition, grip breaks down their power of resistance and prepares the way for pneumonia, kidney troubles, or heart failure.

After every epidemic of grip the grim reaper makes a regular harvest, through the medium of these ailments. There is only one way to avoid such results, and that is by the regular use of such restorative treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This great food cure has proven a wonderful blessing to people in advanced years, and all whose systems have become run down.

Try the calf meal—it's great. We are also selling quantities of Blatchford's Calf Meal.

Blatchford Calves

Over 30,000 calves were raised last year on Blatchford's Calf Meal in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces, according to carefully computed figures. This proves again that most of the breeders are fully alive to their own best interests. Blatchford's Calf Meal is not an ordinary "feed" or "meal" to be fed indiscriminately; it is a highly concentrated, smooth milk-equal, to be fed with care. The intelligent use of Blatchford's Calf Meal insures freedom from scour. Try a bag on our guarantee.

We still have a quantity of those $1.50 and $1.25 hot water bags, which are going fast at 59 cents each. A hot water bag is needed in the home in all seasons.

PERSONAL AUTOMOBILE TALKS

Number II

Why should I order my FORD at once?

Up to Friday, March 10, the Ford Motor Co. of Canada had made and shipped 144 more FORD automobiles than they had shipped all the season of 1915. Notwithstanding this, they are 10,000 cars behind with dealers' orders. My own shipments are a month late coming, and before I get more cars the 5,000 Fords burned on the Matatua will have to be replaced.

If you order your FORD now you will have reason to be glad when the season opens.

DONALD FRASER, SR., HAS PASSED AWAY

After an illness of less than a week brought on by heart trouble, Mr. Donald Fraser, sr., passed away at his residence, Government Lane, at 12.30 o'clock today. Although it was generally known that his condition was serious, the public were scarcely prepared for the announcement of his death and it came as a shock to the community.

Yesterday an improvement was noted in his condition; he passed a comfortable night and this morning seemed to be resting easily. At 12.30 o'clock he took a sudden turn for the worse and passed away almost instantly.

Mr. Fraser was taken ill on Sunday night last while attending service at St. Paul's church. He was compelled to leave the church and was conveyed to his home, where physicians were soon in attendance. It was found that his condition was serious, and on Tuesday Dr. Hamilton, a Montreal specialist, was called in consultation with Dr. Atherton, the attending physician. The specialist was unable to hold out any hope for the recovery of the distinguished patient, although there might, he thought, be a temporary improvement.

The late Mr. Fraser was a native of Drummond, Aberdeenshire, Scotland and came to this country in 1873 as a member of a Scotch colony which took up lands on the Tobique. He was accompanied by his wife and two sons, who were then small children. He settled on a farm on the Tobique, but soon gave up farming to engage in the milling business, at which he had had some experience. After working for a time as a mill hand, in 1877 he became the owner of a sawmill at River du Chute, which he carried on for a number of years with great success. It was at River du Chute that he laid the foundation of what is now conceded to be the largest lumbering and milling business carried on under one management in the Maritime Provinces.

The concern of which the late Mr. Fraser was the head owner nine modern sawmills along with immense tracts of timber lands, employs several thousand men, and carries on a business amounting to over a million dollars annually.

Mr. Fraser admitted his two sons to partnership on their coming of age, and the firm became known as Donald Fraser & Sons. In 1894 they acquired a mill site on Government Lane, this city, and built the Aberdeen Mill which they operated until its destruction by fire about twelve years ago.

The loss was a heavy one and the mill was not rebuilt. Shortly before its destruction the firm purchased a mill at Plaster Rock and have since operated it with great success.

In 1896 they established a mill at Cabano, Que., where they manufactured large quantities of deals for the Transatlantic trade. The concern was ultimately formed into a stock company known as Donald Fraser & Sons, Ltd. Three subsidiary companies, the Fraser Lumber Company and the F. & M. Lumber Company and Fraser Limited were afterwards formed.

Donald Fraser & Sons, Ltd., own mills at Cabano and Gendryne, Que., and at Baker Brook, N. B. The Fraser Lumber Company owns and operates a mill at Plaster Rock; the F. & M. Lumber Company own and operate mills at Whitworth, Que., and Escoart, Que., while Fraser Limited have mills at Edmundston, Fredericton and the lately acquired Lynch mill at Nelson. The Victoria mill was purchased three years ago and at the same time the company opened general sales offices in this city, through which the enormous business of all their mills is transacted.

The Fraser concern had intended purchasing the Gibson Lumber property when it was on the market a few years ago, but gave up the idea. Soon afterwards they acquired the Murchie lumber interests at Edmundston. They purchased the Lynch property on the Miramichi only last year.

Mr. Fraser was a director of the F. & M. Lumber Company and president of the other three. He maintained an active interest in the business up to the time of his death. Old Scotia has given many splendid men to the Province of New Brunswick but none have filled such a position of usefulness and done so much to develop the resources of New Brunswick as the late Donald Fraser. From a humble beginning he came to be recognized as New Brunswick's foremost captain of industry, and his career was one which should prove an inspiration to the young men of this province. His business dealings were ever characterized by the strictest honesty and integrity, and he enjoyed the respect of all who knew him.

A man of generous impulses, he gave largely of his means for the promotion of religious and philanthropic purposes, and was a most generous contributor to the patriotic and Belgian funds. In politics he was a staunch Liberal and in religion a devout member of the Presbyterian church. During recent years he travelled a great deal and made frequent visits to the land of his birth. A few years ago he made an extended visit to the Antipodes, where his brothers, Archibald and James Fraser, reside.

The deceased gentleman was seventy-four years of age on the 5th of last February. He is survived by two sons, Archibald, of this city, and Donald of Plaster Rock. Mrs. Fraser predeceased him by twenty years.

Primitive Baptist Quarterly Meeting

The Primitive Baptist Quarterly meeting, March session, was held with the church at Hartland from March 18 to 20. The weather and roads being in good condition, services were well attended throughout the session.

Prayer service at 9.30 Sabbath morning was led by Bro's. William Cogswell and H. H. Hartt and it proved to be one of profit. The Spirit's presence was unmistakably felt. At 11 Bro. A. Hatfield addressed the meeting for a short time.

At 2.30 Rev. P. J. Quigg spoke to a crowded house, after which the people enjoyed a social service. Near the close of this service.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girl! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scour robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fall out, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

vice the Lord's supper was observed, a very large number taking part made it one of the largest communion services we have ever had at a quarterly meeting.

Evening service was in charge of Bro. J. M. Mallory. At the business session on Monday morning many things of interest were discussed, and a number of subjects tabled until the general conference.

The closing service on Monday evening was in charge of Bro. H. H. Hartt. Through the session a number of unsaved ones expressed a desire to become citizens of the Master's Kingdom. At the close of the service a vote of appreciation was extended by speakers to the community, for the generous treatment accorded to those attending the session.

Death of Theodore Estey

The death of Theodore Estey, a well known resident of the county, occurred on Saturday evening at his home in Wicklow at the age of 81 years. His wife passed away last June. He leaves five daughters: Mrs. B. C. Wheeler, Mrs. Henry Estabrooks, Mrs. Patterson Wicklow, Mrs. W. I. Goodwin, Vancouver, Mrs. Whelpley, Manchester, N. H., and three sons, Clarence in Florida, Frank in Wisconsin and Carey at home. Shepherd Estey and Mrs. McGuire of New York are brother and sister of deceased. Mrs. Stephen Appleby, Woodstock, is a sister, Newman Estey, New York, who died two years ago—April 1, the same date—was a brother.

Mr. Estey was a consistent Christian very liberal in financial contributions for every good cause.

In religion he was a Baptist, in politics a liberal. He will be missed by a host of friends.

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS Why Demanded

"Gin Pills did for my husband and me what no other remedy could. I have advised two other parties to use them, one of them being my mother who has been a great sufferer for upwards of 20 years, and one boy cured her, so as to enable her to sleep on her left side. The doctors told her they could not cure her, but she could relieve her by an operation for a but could not do so. She is now well and did not think it advisable for her to go. Upon advice she tried Gin Pills which cured her and for which she is ever ready to speak in terms of praise."
