To the Electors of Charlotte County.

GENTLEMEN.—At the urgent request of a great many of the voters and working men from every part of the County, I am over more induced to offer my services to represent your interests in the Local Legislature. Two members will be wanted to fill the seals vacated by Messra Stevens and Chandler, who have played their game oas the political chess board, and von.

Now gentiemen, I wish it distinctly understood that I am now, as I have ever been, the Candidate of the working men. Independent and free from all party transmets or ties, I dare act and think for myself, soth in politics and other matters concerning the interests of the working class; and this i shahi aways do, in spite of the few men in St. Stephen who presume to rule the whose County. I am not the nomit ee of a few designable man, and the candidate of the independent working men who have dared to stake off the shackles that have hitherto bound them, men who dare show the world that they are not cowards, and will not be political slaves. I will, as I have always do, no, stand by them in all matters of progess and reform, until, like our brethren in England, we gain our objects, POLITICAL EQUALIFY. Too long have one class of men ruled and governed us. Too long have they set themselves above us, treating us with scorn, except at election times, when they want our votes; then their hypornisy knows no bounds, but, think God, we can see through them, and understand their motives.

Gentlemen.

In compliance with the flattering Requisitions, and personal solectations that have been rendered me, I eg to offer myself as a Candidate for the representation of Charlotte County, in the House of Commons.

Strong in the belief, that in Union, we shall also realize the benefits which its promoters predicted, my best efforts shall ever be given, if elected, to add in developing our national resources, in extending commerce, in encouraging industrial interests, and in afforming facilities for the settlement of our country with an educated and prosperous population.

To the Government as at present constituted, I whall yield a candid support, until by their polity, or want of policy, they prove to be unworthy of it.

Convinced that the commercial and financial interests of the Dominions, demand the Intercolonial Railway should be built on the shortest, least expensive, and most practicable route, I shall have persistently arge the adoption of the Western line, as possessing the susuantages named I shall be ever ready to oppose extravagance in any form, emanate where it may.

To promette the interests of our Province, and the general prosperity of our common codurty, shall be any constant aim.
