THE LOSS OF THE CANADIAN. The total wreck of the fine steamship Canadian and the presumed loss of eleven lives is a disaster which will excite a feeling throughout Canada.

The Canadian left Quebec on Saturday the 1st of June, under the command of Captain Graham, carrying the Canadian mails for Europe and a living freight of 400 tons. She was bound for St. John's, Nfld., and was wrecked on the coast of Newfoundland.

CAPTURE OF SHARKS ON THE LAKE COAST.—On the 25th some fishermen were engaged at their usual avocation outside Kinross harbor, when the nets were found to be entangled in something.

THE CROPS. A gentleman from Smithville, informs us that, in the Western Townships of this County, the crops look remarkably well considering how very backward the season has been.

OXFORD.—Fall Wheat will not be as abundant as in previous seasons, owing partly to the frosts in the spring, and partly to the disposition of the farmers to try other crops.

THE MARINE INSURANCE COMPANIES OF NEW YORK have resolved to impose the war risk on United States vessels; four or five and in some cases six per cent being charged. It is stated that this measure has been resorted to on account of authentic information of the fitting out of Privateers carrying letters of marque from the Southern Confederacy.

PLATE GLASS IS recommended as a preventive against burglars. Whoever the burglar enters the plate glass, he must either shatter it or break it, and he must employ force which will alarm any but the most dexterous house-breaker.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND SYNOD.

On Wednesday the 12th instant the Synod of the new Eastern Diocese, met in this city.

The Synod met in the morning at 11 a. m. for Divine service, when the preacher for the day, the Rev. Salter Green, incumbent of St. Paul's Church, Yorkville, Toronto, delivered a sermon appropriate to the occasion from Romans XIV. 19, abounding with references to existing circumstances, and affecting ones of the past.

The Synod adjourned until 4 p. m., to meet again for the purpose of electing a Bishop. The Rev. J. H. M. Bartlett and H. Mulkins, Military and Penitentiary chaplains. The Rev. J. B. Worrell appeared on the part of the objectors, and advanced sundry positions with respect to the proposed election.

At this stage of proceedings, the delegate for St. George's, Kingston, James Henderson, Esq., attempted to introduce a resolution the purport of which was to effect an unanimous ballot for the Rev. J. Travers Lewis, L.L.D., of Trinity College, Dublin, and Rector of Brookville, in the proposed Diocese.

THE BISHOP OF TORONTO. The Rev. J. H. M. Bartlett, Military and Penitentiary chaplain, delivered a sermon on the occasion of the Synod, on the subject of the proposed election of a Bishop for the Diocese of Toronto.

LATEST FROM THE WAR. PORTSMOUTH MONROE, June 8. This has been an exciting and sorrowful day at Old Point Comfort. General Butler has learned that the rebels were retreating, and he immediately moved forward with his army.

THE REBELS. The rebels have been retreating from Old Point Comfort, and are now encamped near the city of Richmond. The Union army is pursuing them closely.

THE UNION ARMY. The Union army has been successful in its operations against the rebels, and has captured several important positions. The rebels are now in a state of confusion.

THE REBELS' POSITION. The rebels are now in a very difficult position, and are being pressed closely by the Union army. They are being driven back towards Richmond.

THE UNION ARMY'S ADVANCE. The Union army has advanced towards Richmond, and is now within a few miles of the city. The rebels are being driven back towards the city.

100 of the federal troops wounded.

Lieutenant Butler received the greatest credit for bringing off the killed and wounded. Several of the latter are now in the hospital here.

The acting Quartermaster General has ordered the construction of 1,000 rags for the use of the army, to be equally divided among ten different manufacturers.

The Herald's despatch says: In my previous despatch, I should have mentioned that my informant, who was in the engagement at Bethel, states positively that the report of the cannon belonging to the federal forces having been taken, is false; they were moved back with the troops, and the latter returned in good order, only regretting the want of ammunition, and the fall of Lieutenant Greble, who inspired them more than any other officer.

The Tribune's despatch says: I am satisfied there were more men killed on our side than I mentioned in my previous despatch. The Zouaves suffered severely in attempting to carry the place by storm. They did not gallantly, and I have no doubt that it will turn out that at least 100 were killed on our side when the detailed report is received.

There is a great excitement here over the news of the conflict at Great Bethel. It is the general opinion among military men that there was gross mismanagement and bad leadership on the side of the federal forces.

The secessionists are looking up, emboldened by the repulse of our troops. A prominent Baltimorean now in this city states that several secessionist flags are again flying in Baltimore, and that Gen. Banks is needed to keep the rebels in check.

The border warfare between Maryland and Virginia is becoming very bitter. The most satisfactory assurances are received from Belgium that there will be no recognition of the Southern Confederacy in any form by that Government.

The Federal troops are gradually pushing their way in the direction of Fairfax County, strengthening the lines of communication as they go.

A special despatch to the Gazette from Grafton, says that a company of rebel cavalry eighty strong, came up from Huttonsville last night to Beverly, and committed various outrages in the Union men.

Col. Lewis Wallace, with a portion of the Indiana regiment, left Cumberland for Romney, Va., on the 11th inst., where he surprised, and after a sharp conflict, completely routed 800 secessionist troops, capturing some prisoners, killing two, wounding one, and taking some camp equipment, provisions and medical stores; only one Union man was slightly wounded, the victors returned to Cumberland to-day.

RESIGNATION OF MR. ROSE.

An event has occurred at Quebec, which in Ministerial circles, it is said, was expected for some time but which is probably a dodge on the part of Mr. Rose to secure popularity at the coming election.

The Hon. John Rose held the office of Solicitor General for Lower Canada from the 26th of November 1857, to the 1st of August 1858. He was elected in the Sixth parliament in January 1858, for the Centre division in Montreal and was appointed a member of the Executive Council on the 6th of August 1858 accepting the office of Receiver General, which on the following day he changed by means of the "double shuffle" for the Solicitor Generalship of Lower Canada.

The New says, "the change is important so far as the personnel of the Cabinet is concerned. Mr. Rose is of British origin, M. Cauchon of French. Both are representative men—Mr. Rose of the spirit of enterprise which actuated the British residents of Montreal—Mr. Cauchon of the French element of Lower Canada, cherishing all their associations of race, and clinging to the inherited language and customs of the Lower Province with all the tenacity which characterizes the French Canadians.

The Herald.

CARLETON PLACE, Saturday, June 19, 1861.

The paper published under the auspices of a few of the respectables of the Almonte village, has in its last issue gone through a "loose," in an article which the committee supposes to be a leader. It makes an attack, in the bitterness of being foiled on the Galbraith ticket, on Mr. Bell, the only candidate now before the electors of the North Riding.

The fact is, that for some months past, a very select few of the Almonte denizens have been endeavoring to discuss the prospective prosperity of the village—the commercial importance of themselves, and to build political platforms for all and sundry the politicians of United Canada, and also to pitch upon a man who would devote himself to the conflicting interests of a small clique, whose political principles ranged from the high Toryism of the old school down to the most modern edition of clear Gritism.

In the North Riding of Lanark, the prospects of the return of Mr. Bell by acclamation are good. There was a report that D. Galbraith, Esq., had come forward in opposition, but we believe that it was without foundation, and no Conservative candidate would have any chance.

The South Riding of Lanark has the late member in the field—Col. Playfair, who has addressed the electors in a long document, in which he trumpets his deeds parliamentarily, under the head of "Central Canada expects every man to do his duty."

Col. Playfair in his address attempts a defence of his Parliamentary course to the Reformers, and justifies himself for changing a few of the planks of his electioneering platform by asserting that the Reformers never claimed him as one of their party, but only voted for him as the least of two evils; but there were slips in his Parliamentary career which neither party acknowledges as belonging to their platform, which are carefully ignored, and no allusion made in his colloquial address to the electors.

Mr. W. O. Beull has addressed the electors of the South Riding of Lanark, soliciting their suffrages as a candidate for Parliament, in a lengthy document which evinces undoubted ability, enunciating a political platform, which if carried out, would be an unblemished one as a whole. His view of the political parties in the South Riding, we opine, is a correct one, that the Roman Catholic party is a distinct one from the Reformers and Conservatives is a truism, not

CARLETON PLACE, Saturday, June 19, 1861.

The paper published under the auspices of a few of the respectables of the Almonte village, has in its last issue gone through a "loose," in an article which the committee supposes to be a leader. It makes an attack, in the bitterness of being foiled on the Galbraith ticket, on Mr. Bell, the only candidate now before the electors of the North Riding.

The fact is, that for some months past, a very select few of the Almonte denizens have been endeavoring to discuss the prospective prosperity of the village—the commercial importance of themselves, and to build political platforms for all and sundry the politicians of United Canada, and also to pitch upon a man who would devote himself to the conflicting interests of a small clique, whose political principles ranged from the high Toryism of the old school down to the most modern edition of clear Gritism.

In the North Riding of Lanark, the prospects of the return of Mr. Bell by acclamation are good. There was a report that D. Galbraith, Esq., had come forward in opposition, but we believe that it was without foundation, and no Conservative candidate would have any chance.

The South Riding of Lanark has the late member in the field—Col. Playfair, who has addressed the electors in a long document, in which he trumpets his deeds parliamentarily, under the head of "Central Canada expects every man to do his duty."

Col. Playfair in his address attempts a defence of his Parliamentary course to the Reformers, and justifies himself for changing a few of the planks of his electioneering platform by asserting that the Reformers never claimed him as one of their party, but only voted for him as the least of two evils; but there were slips in his Parliamentary career which neither party acknowledges as belonging to their platform, which are carefully ignored, and no allusion made in his colloquial address to the electors.

Mr. W. O. Beull has addressed the electors of the South Riding of Lanark, soliciting their suffrages as a candidate for Parliament, in a lengthy document which evinces undoubted ability, enunciating a political platform, which if carried out, would be an unblemished one as a whole. His view of the political parties in the South Riding, we opine, is a correct one, that the Roman Catholic party is a distinct one from the Reformers and Conservatives is a truism, not only in the South Riding of Lanark, but throughout the whole Province.

The candidate who is most profuse in his promises to that party will receive their support. The independent manner in which Mr. Beull lays open this point deserves commendation. In the section of the address in reference to representation by population, Mr. Beull is obscure and eludes the question. He also totally omits to mention whether he sides with the coalition ministry or the Opposition. The conclusion of his address, however, is patriotic, and does honor to the author.

In the County of Renfrew there are five candidates in the field, namely: Geo. Ross, Esq., of the village of Renfrew, Mr. Reid, of the Township of Ross, Mr. Gould of Cobden, and Dr. Judge of Pembroke. To judge of the prospective success of the candidates by the frothy comments of the Pembroke rag the Dr. has the most chance of election; but all that the Observer asserts is not gospel, but very probably the ambitious little editor of that queer little paper is only wishing to ride himself into notice on Dr. Judge as his hobby; whether all the candidates will contest the election is hard to predict at the present time. We believe that Mr. McLachlin, of Arnprior, has also been induced to come forward as a candidate.

In the County of Carleton, Powell and R. Lyons are the candidates. The nomination in this County will be on the 24th day of June, polling on the 2nd and 3rd July. In the City of Ottawa, it is understood that Mr. McGillivray will be a candidate—he is a thorough business man, with practical ability of no mean order. Mr. Scott is also a candidate.

Mr. Macdonald is opposed by Mr. Mowat in Kingston; the whippersnaws will be very even in this contest. Mr. Mowat had a fine reception from the citizens of Kingston on his arrival there from Toronto a few evenings ago. The strong opposition experienced by Mr. Macdonald was unexpected by that gentleman and his friends.

In the County of Russell, Mr. Fellows, Mr. Loux, Mr. R. Bell, and Dr. Hunter are again before the county as candidates. In Pontiac, Mr. Heath, Mr. Bryson and Mr. Wm. O'Meara are the candidates. In the City of Toronto, the Opposition Candidates are Mr. George Brown and Mr. Adam Wilson; a Mr. Crawford has also addressed the electors on the independent ticket—or in other words, no ticket, or any ticket which may suit his own personal ends. He is under the patronage of the Ministerial organ.

In Brockville, Mr. Sherwood is opposed by Mr. Chaffey. The nomination occurs on Saturday the 22nd inst. In the City of Montreal, the opposition candidates are Mr. Holton, Mr. Dorion and Mr. McGee.

The colored electors of Toronto are going the opposition ticket in a body. The Ministerial leaning against the fugitive slave Anderson during his incarceration in Canada, has had this effect. In the county of Ottawa, Mr. Friel of Ottawa city, Mr. McGoey, and Mr. Church, are said to be the Candidates.

Mr. Rose of Montreal has received a requisition from the electors of Montreal Centre, to which he has responded. He is opposed by Mr. Holton, and the contest will be a close one.

BISHOP ELECT

The Synod convened by the Lord Bishop of Toronto have elected the Rev. JOHN TRAVERS LEWIS, L.L.D., of the University of Trinity College, Dublin, to the high and holy office of Bishop of Ontario. The Bishop elect is a native of Cork—son of the late Rev. John Lewis, M.A., formerly Rector of St. Anne's, Shandon, County of Cork, Ireland. He graduated as Senior Moderator in Ethics and Logic, and held the distinguished position of Gold Medalist. He was ordained Deacon in the Chapel of Christ's College, Cambridge, by the Lord Bishop of Chester, in 1848; was priested by the Lord Bishop of Down; and appointed to the curacy of Newtown Butler, in the county Fermagh. On his arrival in Canada, he was appointed to the parish of Hawkesbury, C.W., by the Lord Bishop of Toronto, from which, after a residence of four years, he was placed in the Rectory of Brockville, C.W., where he has faithfully discharged his duties seven years.

Rev. Dr. Lewis may well feel proud of the important position to which he has been elected. He obtained the almost unanimous vote of both branches of the Synod, only one vote having been recorded against him.

We perceive by the last Official Gazette, that the 20th inst. has been appointed as the day for the first meeting of the Provisional Municipal Council of the County of Renfrew, in the Village of Renfrew, and that Mr. French has been appointed to preside at the meeting. We congratulate Renfrew village on the prospect before it of being the County Town at last; the present move augurs well for it.

Arrival of Prince Alfred.

Prince Alfred arrived at Quebec in the Victoria on Wednesday evening in company with the Governor General, family and suite, and was received on landing by the civil and military authorities. His Royal Highness was enthusiastically cheered by a large concourse of spectators in his passage through the city to the residence of the Governor General.

The surplus population of Upper Canada over Lower is shown by official returns to be no less than 301,494. Upper Canada has 1,394,013. Lower Canada, 1,092,519 souls. Total population 2,486,532. The Ottawa Citizen says the Parliamentary Buildings at Ottawa were never so vigorously proceeded with as at the present moment.

"Mr. Bell's man 'Friday' who the 'Carleton Place Herald' has been moving heaven and earth to procure signatures to his requisition. Means the most unscrupulous of the kind, and nothing has been left undone to induce the unwilling and unwary to sign his names. Reformers have been told to be on their feet to divide the Reform party for the purpose of putting in a conservative and a reformer, and therefore the most entitled to their support of any man in the Reform ranks."

The above extract is one of the very few original articles of any merit that appear in the Coalition "organ" at Montreal, and we feel so highly flattered by the notice, that we cannot resist the temptation of transferring it to our columns. Whatever our friends may have thought of us in times past, they will now give us credit for being somebody. To "move heaven and earth" in the manner described above, is a feat beyond the reach of ordinary mortals! It is to be hoped, Mr. Bell and his friends will duly appreciate the extraordinary services and not leave room for the most whimsical or fertile imagination to conjure the horrid picture of "ingratitude" "neglect" or "slight" as has happened to one or two of his late friends in Montreal, to whom he was "indebted for success in former contests."

We say we feel flattered. And we put it to his friends if they were not fortunate in selecting a person of some influence to be their man "Friday"? Had the "forlorn hope" made such a choice, they might have secured names enough to their requisition to admit of its publication.

But what will the intelligent electors of the most intelligent county in Canada think of themselves, who have no minds of their own and were so easily persuaded, and by such unscrupulous means? We almost begin to feel for the host of "unthinking and unwary" Youngs and Toehachs & Sneddens and Coulters, and Dicksons and hundreds of others.

What will the public think of them? when a single individual, in one day's travel could argue them out of their senses and hoodwink and deceive them in such numbers? Either the boasted intelligence and independence of the sterling yeomanry of our country must be waning rapidly, or the writer we have stooped to notice, does them an injustice.

But, joking aside, we would seriously advise him to borrow a horse and buggy, take a drive round the several townships composing the North Riding of Lanark—get acquainted and converse with the people whom he is vainly endeavoring to enlighten, and return to his editorial chair, a wiser man. The pen is a powerful weapon when used with judgment, but the last few issues of that paper has convinced many, that the oft mentioned "quill" is frequently only transferred from the wing of one bird to the hand of another, of the same species.

MR. GALBRAITH'S OPINION OF MR. BELL.—We cut from the "Montreal Examiner" the following extract from an article signed by "D. Galbraith," et al, and addressed to the electors in September last. It may be said that he was then trying to create a vacancy in the North Riding. Whatever his motives are we cannot judge. The following are his words:—

"If you wish to see economy and retrenchment in the public expenditure—if you wish to see the taxes reduced to what they were in 1852—if you wish to see the British Constitution and Responsible Government carried out in their integrity—if you wish to see Upper Canada obtain her just and rightful position in the Legislature—THEN VOTE FOR ROBERT BELL."

The following article is from the "Montreal Examiner" of the 18th of October last:—

"Let the friends of Reform, Progress, and Good Government rally as one man round Mr. Bell. In the event of a contest, let there be no lukewarmness on the part of any calling themselves Reformers. By a united hearty and earnest effort, let us send Mr. Bell back to the House by such a majority as will refresh and invigorate him with the certain knowledge that his opposition to the Coalition Government has been unmistakably ratified by his constituents." *

"Let no one who knows enough to understand that he has a stake in the welfare of the Province, stay away from the polls, but, at whatever inconvenience, come out and assist your neighbor, and VOTE FOR ROBERT BELL."

individuals with whom such liberties have been taken, and whose names have been forged, should be publicly mentioned, and we will feel greatly obliged to any one who will do so.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—We have received the July number of this elegant work which continues to improve. To meet the times, the sixty-third volume of Godey will be sent to subscribers for One-Dollar. This volume comprises the six best numbers of the year, and will contain seven steel engravings, six of the large double extension fashion-plates, and all the winter cloak patterns.

Address—L. A. Godey, 323, Chestnut-street, Philadelphia.

To the Editor of the C. P. Herald.

SIR.—In looking over the columns of the Montreal Express of last week, I was electrified by the amount of literary ability displayed both editorially and by correspondents on the very important subject of Parliamentary candidates for the North Riding of Lanark, but it is rather a peculiar feature that the writers of the different effusions have chosen the same text to dilate on, namely—abuse of Mr. Bell of your village, the present nominee of the Reform party in the North Riding, and the glorification of Mr. Daniel Galbraith in particular. The Editor—but who is he?—opens the attack, and leads off with what he supposes heavy artillery, and is followed by a logos "Farmer," who skirmishes on light infantry tactics, while the rear is brought up by an attacking knight in armour of brass, under the nom de plume of Z. who couching the lance—ought to have said lance—makes a terrific rush, but his Pegasus, being ill-trained and muddled, stops suddenly in demi-voite, and pitches this modern Bon Quizzote at Mr. Daniel Galbraith's feet. This combined attack is palpably apparent as the concocted beer-stimulated vituperation of a few disappointed individuals, who at all electioneering periods are troubled with caecoties scribendi, who after weeks of self-education on their intellectual gifts, educational attainments and political knowledge, have exploded over the Galbraith excitement; I hope there was 'nobody hurt.' Leaving irony out of the question, does it not denote a lamentable absence of common sense and every-day courtesy, that those select few stormy petrels could not bring forward their favorite candidate for Parliamentary honors, without pouring out their puny and futile vials of wrath on the head of another candidate of the same political complexion, and that other candidate, one who has ever filled his post with honor to himself and his constituents. If holding the seat in opposition to the present ministry, be a fault, then are seven-eighths of the electors in the North Riding guilty of the same; had Mr. Bell, as Col. Playfair has done, gone in to the House with one set of principles, and come out with another, there is no doubt that he would have obtained the countenance of the ministry, the Express, and its committee of scribblers, with their rebarbated political coat; but as it is, pursuing an honest, conscientious course, without betraying the trust which was placed in him, the Electors of the North Riding will elect him as their Representative in the next Parliament, despite all the laborious articles and communications which may emanate from the dull chambers of the Express scribbling committee's leaden heads. So mote it be.

CENSUS OF CANADA.

Below we present to our readers the final amended return of the population of Canada as furnished by the Bureau of Statistics.—The preponderance of the population of Canada West over the Eastern Province is considerably greater than even the most sanguine expectations of the advocates of representation by population. The Globe calculated the Western excess to be 282,000.—

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

MONTREAL WITNESS OFFICE.

Friday, Noon, June 14, 1861.

Flour.—Considerable parcels of Superior No. 1 having been pressed upon the market but without effect, sales have been made at $4.50, and even in one instance as low as $4.45. In fact there has been something like a panic, for which we think there is no adequate cause. New York State Extras, which compare with our No. 1, are quoted at $5 to $5.15, which is about 50 cents above our market, being the difference of freight to England from the port of Montreal. This will draw supplies from the interior to New York, and indeed has already changed the destination of several parcels, and this market will probably get bare of Flour soon, whilst tonnage will doubtless become more abundant, being attracted by the high freight here. Freight are, therefore, we think likely to fall, and prices of produce to rise in Montreal.

Wheat.—The winter ground No. 1, has since been sold as low as $4.40. Fresh ground is $4.50 to $4.62. Good Pollards have been sold at $2. The range is $1.75 to $2.25; Middlings, $2.50; Fine $3; No. 2, $4.10 to $4.25. Fancy has receded, and may be quoted $4.90 to $5.10. Extras, $5.75 to $6.75.

Wheat.—The industry continues, and it is almost impossible to obtain an offer for small parcels, $1.08, delivered on board, being about the price. We hear of no transactions in large loads, which may be quoted at $1.10 to $1.12, for U. C. and Western Spring Wheat.

Peas.—In small quantities are difficult of sale in large parcels they bring about 70c per bush for good quality.

Coarse Grains.—Oats—33c per 40 lbs.—Barley, 55c to 60c per 56 lbs. Indian Corn, 45c to 50c per 56 lbs.

Oatmeal.—Nominal, $3.70 to $4 per bush of 200 lbs.

Pork.—Mess, $15.50 to $18; the latter being retail price. Prime Mess, very dull nominally $13.50 to $15. Prime $13 to $14. There is nothing doing in Beef.

Butter.—Grease continues at 8c. New Butter is held at 12c to 15c; but we hear of no sales of shipping parcels yet.

Ashe.—The price has fallen materially on account of the difficulty of procuring freight. Vessels prefer grain, which they get much better, and this year they get grain and are quite indifferent about Ashe. The low rate of Exchange, and difficulty of drawing beyond a certain amount also operate against shipments, as some shippers of Ashe have taken up their line at the Banks with Bills against grain. The price in Britain continues at about 25s for Pots, which would authorize, in ordinary circumstances, a considerably higher price than shippers are paying here. This has fallen gradually within a few days till the quotation for to-day is $6 for Pots, and $6.50 for Pearls.

JOHN DOUGALL, Commission Merchant.

WEEKLY COMMERCIAL REPORT.

Produce.—Business is exceedingly dull in every branch, and sales are forced at very low prices. The English markets are dull and declining, and with the high rates of freight from our port, very little encouragement is afforded to shippers.

Wheat has kept its ground better than Flour, but transactions in either are limited in extent, and immediate prospects are anything but hopeful. Large arrivals of Flour and Grain have poured in, and, with a general disinclination to store, all has been pushed on the Market.

We are however in hopes that freight will decline, and if to this we could add a little more confidence between commission men and the bank, (and see consequence a better price for exchange), trade in paying rates would soon revive, and a good year's business ensue.

Flour.—Ordinary No. 1 has been sold in limited quantities at $4.50, and forced contracts have been made at loss. The only demand is for local trade, but occasional purchases are made on speculation.—Low grades bring relatively higher prices than No. 1.

Butter.—In better demand than hitherto, and we have heard of sales at $2.50 per cwt.—In less demand at 70c for 66 lbs. for large parcels; but small lots are unsaleable at anything over 60c.

Oats.—Sales made at 30c to 35c per 40 lbs. Oatmeal—Fair qualities bring $3.60 to $3.70 per 200 lbs. what will keep over a very light demand. Kegs are bringing 22c to 13c in small lots and tinsels 1c to 2c more. We would advise Western shippers to hold over and wherever they have accommodation in their own cellars to put it there and save themselves storage and disbursement if shipped to Montreal. We have received several lots which came to hand so soft as more to resemble thick oil than butter, and nothing under a week in a cool cellar will render the article at all saleable. We would recommend caution in buying butter, and say, buy nothing but what will keep over if necessary. Old butter is offering at 10c and new at 12c at St.

Pork.—Little doing and no improvement. Ashes—Dull and declining. Pots, $6; Pearls, $6.75.

Groceries.—No change to record since our last. Sales have been few and purchases light. For everything but Salt, our last week's quotations are unchanged.

Salt is now held in store at 55c to 60c, and there is none offering "ex ship." How long this will continue, we have no means of knowing, but at present date we have no advice of further cargo. We are reserving our purchases for first arrival.

Alexandria, June 7.

The United States steamer Reliance arrived in the harbor at noon to-day. She brings news from Fort Washington that the rebels at Aquia Creek have so far only used rifled pieces, which they have used at various points, changing them to fire according to the fire of the United States vessels.

CLEANING COPPER WITHOUT EGGS.—When eggs cannot be obtained, boil the coffee in a bag made of millinet, or any other coarse cloth. It will be as clear as amber.—Rural New Yorker.

Dr. Franklin says that "every little fragment of the day should be saved." Oh, yes, the moment the day breaks, set yourself at once to save the pieces.

ARRIVAL OF THE "JURA." DEATH OF COUNT CAUVOUR. Garibaldi coming to America. TREASONOUS CONSPIRACY BROUGHT TO LIGHT AT MILAN. Father Point, June 17.

The Jura arrived at 9:30 last night, with 42 cabin and 169 steerage passengers. The Emperor of Austria is suffering from ill health.

The Prussian Chamber was closed on the 5th by the King in person.

The Chambers by a decisive vote materially reduced the credits asked by the Government for army purposes.

The Parliamentary proceedings on the 5th were unimportant.

Lord Stanley asked what steps the Government had taken to prevent the violation of neutrality, in case of regiments of volunteers who had offered their services to the United States.

Five cases, containing 100 rifles, directed to the Commercial Bank, New York, and intended for the steamer Adriatic, were stopped at Galway by the agent of the line refusing to let them pass.

Lord John Russell said the Government had no information of Canadian volunteers having tendered their services to the United States, and of course could not say what action would be taken.

Lords of the Admiralty directed them not to permit privateers to take prizes into British ports, and say it is done to secure the strictest neutrality.

Mr. Siddle is to ask Ministers if this variance with former practice is a reason for a change of maritime policy.

The Times reply to the outcry of the Northern States against England, shows it is wholly groundless.

The Paris correspondent of the London Herald expresses that Italian independence will be buried in Cavour's grave, and that the Peninsula will become a mere dependency of France.

Count Cavour died at seven o'clock on the morning of the 6th instant, which has caused profound grief. The evening proceeding his death his state had become so alarming, that great emotion was excited by the people of Turin, and immense crowds surrounded his residence.

Signor Minghetti has been intrusted ad interim with the portfolio of foreign affairs, with Gen. Fanti as provisional administrator of marine.

It is rumored that Garibaldi contemplates coming to America.

The East India Wharf, Quebec, with all the buildings on it, were sold on Thursday last, by auction, and adjudged to Mr. Thomas Fraser, for $2615.

The soldiers at Fort Pikes, Florida, find scores of rattlesnakes in and around the fort. These serpents are said to abound on Santa Rosa Island, and are the cause of the loss of the troops in the recent operations of the fort. They have had unmitigated residence for years.

HAVING had several years' experience in the sale and manufacture of Sewing Machines, we are enabled to sell and believe that a good Machine manufactured in our own country, will be appreciated by the Canadian public. By its introduction into our country, we have taken unwearied pains in preparing a large supply of the best machinery particularly adapted to the manufacturing of Sewing Machines, together with the best and most improved workmen. We are happy to say that, after some five months of labor, we have selected especially for the business, we are now able to offer a Machine that, for its simplicity, portability, and workmanship, has not been surpassed in the United States. We are fully confident that our Machines, being manufactured in the State of Canada, can not only be sold at a lower price than those of any other country, but will also be more durable, and require less repair. We are also enabled to offer a Machine that will sew on any kind of fabric, and is adapted to the use of the Old Dutch Churn, which notwithstanding all the new inventions, has proved to be the best for making butter.

If you wish to afford your children amusement, and at the same time make them highly useful, buy one of these New Churning Machines. As their power is such they may be worked by a mere child, and will make Butter in much less time than the ordinary way. Their simplicity, convenience and cleanliness elicits the praise of all. They work slow or fast, or with an short or long stroke of the Dash as required. It occupies little space and may be removed at pleasure. In fact it only requires to be shown to be appreciated, and should be in the possession of every Butter maker at once! Farmers who can spare your families labor, save your time, and thus save your money, by buying one of the cheapest and best of Churning Machines. They are different sizes, and sold on terms to suit purchasers. Saleable Produce and old iron taken in exchange, or a discount for Cash. On exhibition by the Agents.
