The Mayoralty Contest.

The results of the elections yesterday, so far as the Mayoralty is concerned, are disappointing. It is difficult to justify the choice of the electors, but they have made the choice, and whether right or wrong it is the duty of all to abide by it. They have seen fit to select the inferior man. They had a chance to have as Mayor Mr. Edward Parnell, who had been for nine years a faithful alderman, the son of a stalwart British soldier; a man who by industry and sound business methods has won success. He would worthily have occupied the Mayor's chair.

We know no reason for the mistake the electors have made, except it may be that they have been misled by the exaggerated claims made by Mr. Beck. His claims as to the money alleged to have been saved by him at the hospital, and the faults he charged against the Trust, without foundation, as they were, have evidently been believed by some. It is always difficult to meet a statement half a falsehood and half the truth. He failed to explain that the boilers, etc., the building without escapes, etc., were, if wrong, the fault of the building committee of the Council, not the fault of the Trust. He failed to tell that the trust had fire escapes on the old building. He failed to explain that the question of coal was brought up by Mr. Gilmour before Mr. Beck was a member of the Trust, and was under discussion by the Trust when Mr. Beck became a member; that Mr. Gilmour predicted the abolition of the heating system when it was first introduced. These are samples that go to show a temporary advantage may be gained by pretending to be entitled to credit where no more credit was due to him than to any other member of the Trust.

Mr. Parnell has no reason to be ashamed. He polled a splendid vote, an honest vote, not one obtained by making claims for credit where no credit was due. It is a pity that he will not be in the council, as his steadying hand may be much needed.

The aldermen elected are, however, many of them good men. They may be able to direct Mayor Beck's course, to curb him when he would go astray, to be his teachers; for we doubt not that around the board there will be several to whom he will find it wise and necessary to look for advice; several who could, more capably than he, fill the position to which he has been elected. We would have been pleased if Mr. Parnell had been the people's choice; but as he has not been, we recognize the right rests with them to make the choice, and to bear the responsibility of that choice when made.

The Hospital Trust—Mr. Isaac Waterman Elected by a Large Majority.

Mr. Waterman might have been elected by acclamation, but for the attack made by the Free Press on ex-Mayor Rumball. The fact that ex-Mayor Rumball did not want to run was well known by the electors, and probably influenced many votes.

We believe Mr. Waterman will make a good trustee. We do not believe he was a party to the libels and slanders hurled at his opponent and at the Trust generally. He went to Buffalo on business on the day of the nomination, and was called to Rochester by the illness of his sister. He did not return to the city till Friday, so that personally neither he nor ex-Mayor Rumball took much part in the campaign.

This is the first time politics have been introduced into the hospital. That honor belongs to the Free Press. We do not believe that Mr. Waterman will keep them there. We believe he will say it is the last place in which politics should be introduced, and join with the chairman, Mr. Thomas McCormick, and the other members of the Trust, to do his best for the welfare of the hospital. He has already shown his interest in the hospital by furnishing a room in memory of his daughter, whose untimely death was mourned by everyone.

There will, we feel sure, be nothing but good attempted by him, and we are equally sure that had there been an opportunity for Mr. Rumball and Mr. Waterman to meet, there would have been no contest, not even the go-as-you-please, which has resulted in Mr. Waterman's favor. Nor should ex-Mayor Rumball receive anything but praise. His term as mayor has been well filled. His reputation as a sound, level-headed, well-balanced business man is well established. There are few men who have ever been in public life in London who have made more friends and fewer enemies than he, and who is more respected in the proportion in which he is known. The hospital trusteeship was not a serious contest, and but for the chance illness of Mr. Waterman's sister, would not likely have taken place at all.

Bylaws Carried.

THE McCLARY, by 4,366 majority.
THE WHITE, by 3,507 majority.

Mr. Adam Beck is Mayor of London; Mr. Isaac Waterman is hospital trustee, and a majority of their followers were elected to the council. Mr. Beck and Mr. Waterman defeated their opponents, Messrs. Parnell and Rumball, by very large majorities, and naturally there was enthusiasm among their supporters.

The very earliest returns showed in Beck's favor and he never dropped his lead. Mr. Waterman's advantage was even more pronounced. From the beginning to the end there was not one moment that allowed even the slightest glimmer of hope to brighten the aspect of affairs, considering the situation from the Parnell standpoint. In a few divisions there were majorities for Parnell, but they were mere drops, engulfed in the great tide that had set in against him. By none of his supporters, pleased though they would have been to have believed otherwise, was the inevitable defeat recognized sooner than by Alderman Parnell himself. He had fought a plucky fight and was content to abide by the unquestionable verdict of the people. When the final result was assured he showed his stamina and evidenced the good feeling that has, throughout the campaign, existed between Mr. Beck and himself, by going to the Free Press office, where the former was receiving the returns, and congratulating him heartily upon his victory, assuring Mr. Beck also that his assistance was at the mayor-elect's service any time that they were needed. Among the large group of prominent Conservatives who were in the office at the time, the action was commented upon favorably.

The returns were collected and bulletined with astonishing rapidity, considering the large amount of work involved, and with the posting of each set of figures the immense crowd that stood in Newspaper Row expressed their approval or dissatisfaction. As usual, on election night, the car service was badly disarranged, and the boy with the horn was as lusty-lunged as ever.

The returns having been completed, it was seen that the old board of water commissioners had been re-elected, the McClary and White bylaws were carried by handsome majorities; that the new council comprised seven Conservatives and five Liberals; and that with one exception, the school trustees of last year's board were again returned. Of the aldermen only two are specifically new members of the board—Ald.-Elect Abram and Ald.-Elect McMechan. Eight were in the council last year, and the other two—Ald-Elect Douglass and Ald.-Elect Dreaney had just completed one year of retired life, having been aldermen in 1900.

Mr. Wm. Gammage defeated Dr. Ziegler for school trustee in ward 4. Dr. Ziegler's defeat will be felt by him the more severely, as he was a chairmanship aspirant. He was the only trustee nominee who took the platform on his own behalf. His opponent, Mr. Gammage, rested upon his popularity and his reputation as a business man, and his many friends learned of his success with satisfaction.

MR. BECK SPEAKS.

Mr. Beck, the successful candidate, heard the returns at the Free Press office, where he was surrounded by a jubilant crowd of prominent Conservative workers of the city. When two-thirds of the returns were in, and Mr. Beck's election was assured beyond a possibility of mistake, the mayor-elect stepped to a front window on the second floor and addressed the crowds in the street. He said in effect:

"Ladies, Gentlemen and Fellow-Electors,—I feel the high honor done me in being chosen to fill the highest office in the gift of the citizens of London, especially by such a majority. I realize most fully the responsibility placed upon my shoulders, but with the help of the men you have chosen to assist me, and the help of a yet stronger hand, I am satisfied that at the end of the year you will say, 'Well done, good and faithful servant.' I feel, also, that my election is a vindication of the course pursued by me on the hospital trust, and the stand I took, single-handed, in hospital matters. At the time, I felt I was doing my duty to you, and I now feel you agree with me and indorse me. It shall be my utmost endeavor to serve you as mayor as I did in the trust—in benefiting the city. I feel I owe to my friends in the city a debt of gratitude for the kindly way in which they have helped me, and I take this opportunity of thanking them for their efforts on my behalf. I desire especially to thank the ladies, without whose help I would have obtained no such majority.

"Gratified as I am at my own election, I am fully as much so at the election of my friend, Mr. Isaac Waterman. I know the city of London made an excellent choice in him. He is an experienced business man and a gentleman. I thank you all again."

Mr. Isaac Waterman, the newly-elected member of the hospital trust, next appeared at the window. He said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen,—I thank you for the magnificent majority you have given me, and I can only promise you one thing—to do my duty to the citizens of London. I thank you for the way in which you worked for me in my absence, and I especially thank the ladies. I desire to express my thanks for the kindly way in which I was treated by my opponent, and I have nothing but good words to say of him. The vote given me shows that the citizens have confidence in me, and when the year is over you will have no regret that you elected me. Again I thank you for your liberal support."

Ald. Neil Cooper also spoke briefly, saying that his magnificent support showed the citizens' indorsation of his course in council and his opposition to the Port Stanley Railway lease.

This ended the speaking and the crowd, after waiting for some of the later returns, gradually dispersed, the streets being comparatively quiet by 11 p.m.

[Complete Tabulated Returns will be found on page 2.]

After the Battle.

Beck and Waterman are elected—no doubt about that.

Mr. Waterman might as well have been elected by acclamation. The indifference of both candidates was remarkable, and but for Mr. Waterman's absence from the city, his election by acclamation would likely have been arranged.

Too many aldermanic candidates running knocked out some good men.

The bylaws were carried by large majorities. Evidently the people want factories.

Though all the London municipal candidates could not be elected, they can still find many ways to serve their city. No better spot in which to live and advance is to be found on this continent. We ought all to be proud of lend a hand to advance the common interests.

Going, going, gone! Back to the Council at the head of the poll—Neil Cooper.

King street is all right. Last night about ten o'clock a deputation was serenading Water Commissioner Jones, a bonfire and a blazing soap barrel illuminated Ald. McMechan's residence, while the band played "Auld Lang Syne" in front of Hospital Trustee Waterman's.

The citizens do not appear to have had a bad opinion of the Council of 1901. All of the aldermen of last year who went for re-election were returned.

"Circus" did not cut any figure in this election; all the aldermen who were connected with it were re-elected; and the one who took the circus agreement around, and engineered the deal, polled the second largest vote.

Water, soap and oil, all in one block—not bad, and all on top, too.

Then in the next block east they Winnett also.

The only question left since Billy left the ward, is whether tar can be added to water, soap and oil. What do you say, John H.? Will Tar Macadam be a winner, too?

Now is the time "for solemn thought and sober penance" on Mayor Beck's part. With increased power comes increased necessity for reflection.

Ald. McMechan objects to tar macadam. Does he object because it is MacAdam, or would he object to Adam alone?

Now that the election is over, let peace prevail. There is no need for any ill-feeling.

Story of Fatal Duel With German Army Officer—The Latter a Crack Shot.

Berlin, Jan. 7.—Full narratives of the duel fought last Thursday at Jena, in the Duchy of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, in which Lieut. Thieme, of the 94th Regiment, killed a student of Halle University named Held, by shooting him through the heart, are producing a deep sensation throughout Germany.

Lieut. Thieme is the best pistol shot in his regiment, and pistols were selected by the court of honor composed exclusively of army officers, nothwithstanding the fact that the student societies proposed the use of sabers. The court of honor stipulated that five shots be exchanged between the duellists, consequently Held had little chance of escape. He was killed at the third exchange of shots.

The duel resulted from a party of students having jostled some army officers in the street. Held was with the students and he slapped the face of Lieut. Thieme, who was in plain clothes.

About the same time that the court of honor was arranging the details of this duel, Emperor William was receiving New Year congratulations from the German generals. According to gossip current in military messes, the emperor, on this occasion, directed that the doors of the salon be closed and talked for several minutes about dueling. The emperor is reported to have said that so far as he was concerned he did not expect to trouble himself with what the subalterns might do, as he looked to the corps commanders and would hold them personally responsible to himself for the prevention of unnecessary duels. Emperor William is also credited with having said that if duels should occur in 1902 similar to some which had taken place in 1901 he would demand resignations.

An Aldboro Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Snyder, of con. 1, Aldboro, was the scene of a pretty wedding, it being the marriage of their daughter, Valeria, to Mr. W. F. Gosnell, of Highgate, on Dec. 25, at 5 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Phillips, of Wardsville, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride was handsomely attired in a traveling suit of gray broadcloth, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and carnations. The presents were valuable and numerous, among them being a gold watch and chain from the groom. After a dainty wedding supper the bridal couple left, amid showers of rice, for Hamilton and points east.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"TWO LITTLE WAIFS."

Lincoln J. Carter's latest production will be at the New Grand tomorrow (Wednesday) evening. Stanley and Lolita Lamb will essay the parts of the "waifs," and are said to be clever child artists, playing the difficult roles with an interpretation worthy of professionals. The story is one of heart-interest, with a broad vein of refined comedy, intermingled with pathos, sentiment and tears. "The Two Little Waifs" is said to be the best of Mr. Carter's pieces.

AT THE NEW GRAND.

Primrose & Dockstader's Minstrels and Mr. Robert B. Mantell are early bookings at the New Grand.

AT THE LONDON OPERA HOUSE.

The management of the London Opera House announce the re-engagement of Professor Pull, mind-reader and hypnotist, for the last three nights of this week. Professor Pull will during this engagement present exhibitions of the scientific aspects of hypnotism, including human statuary, which he did not put on before. There will be a matinee on Saturday.

It Is Time You Were Awakening to the Fact That

Malt Breakfast Food

Is a Promoter of Good Digestion.

If, up to the present, your morning dish of oatmeal or other grain foods have not given you the satisfaction you expected, it is time you were awakening to the fact that Malt Breakfast Food is an unfailing promoter of good digestion, which means comfort and happiness.

The Malt used properly and scientifically in the manufacture of Malt Breakfast Food, owing to its happy digestive action, overcomes all the troubles you now experience from starchy foods, like oatmeal and ordinary wheat preparations. The flavor of Malt Breakfast Food is simply delicious and the food value marvelous. If you are open to honest conviction, try one package of Malt Breakfast Food; your grocer can supply you.

The Cactus is Doomed.

Watering the arid wastes of Arizona is causing the extinction of one of the most singular plants in the world—the great cactus—better known as the saguara. When the first Franciscan Fathers journeyed north from Mexico into Arizona they carried back reports of the great cactus which covered the plains of the new country, and told about its food value to the Indians. Now, as the art of the American has reclaimed, foot by foot, the former desert, and the magic water has made orange, peach and apricot orchards and great fields of alfalfa, the saguara has been driven out, and only in spots where water cannot be placed can the odd plant be found. On the rocky, gravelly mesas, the saguras, the largest of the cactus family, point their candelabrum-like arms straight toward the sky, not unfrequently attaining a height of 60 feet. The body of the saguara, sometimes two feet in thickness, is composed of thin pieces of porous wood arranged in the form of a Corinthian column, covered and held together by the outside fibers of a pale green. At some distance from the ground large branches put out, while the whole surface is covered with sharp, prickly thorns. A large white, sometimes purple blossom comes forth early in the spring and ripens into a pear-shaped fruit by the last of June. This fruit, the petahaya, tastes like a mixture of raspberry and fig, and is highly prized by both Indians and Mexicans. Part of the fruit is eaten while ripe, and the rest is dried in the sun or boiled down to a jam.

3 MISERABLE MONTHS

South American Nervine cured this severe case of a generally upset nervous system which developed into Neuralgia of the stomach. No nervous trouble that it will not cure quickly and permanently.

William Davidson, of Thedford, Ont., put in three miserable months of very acute suffering from neuralgia of the stomach and a generally disordered nervous system. Doctors failed to find any treatment that would give me any permanent help. A friend, whom South American Nervine had cured of a very stubborn case of stomach trouble, recommended it for his case. He tried it—one bottle greatly benefited and six bottles effected a permanent cure. 90

If you value life do not allow your troubles to run on unchecked. Use Paine's Celery Compound this very week and avoid the many dangers of closing winter, a time fatal for rheumatic sufferers. Paine's Celery Compound cures surely and permanently.

THE MAX DID IT.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 7.—The French bark Max (Capt. Benoist), which was in collision with and sank the steamer Walla Walla, causing the loss of about 40 lives, on Sunday night was towed to this port, badly damaged in the accident. Her steel jibboom was broken, her stem was twisted and great gaping holes had been torn in her bow. There was one almost at the water line, and another a few feet above. Only her watertight compartments kept her from sinking. Her captain had little to say regarding the disaster, except that his vessel was closely following the rules of the road when the steamer came under the bows of his bark. He declared that the lights of the Max were properly burning and displayed. He said: "Our vessel was so badly damaged we thought she would sink, and under the circumstances we had all we could do to take care of ourselves."

A Calamity.

[Chicago Tribune.]

All at once the street car sort o' hopped,
And then, with a jolt and a bump, it stopped,
For another car was just ahead,
As motionless as if 'twere dead.
Another car was ahead of that,
Two men inside, one lean, one fat,
And ahead of that was another car,
With one lone man of the G. A. R.
Another car was ahead of that,
In which a sleeping copper sat,
And another car ahead of that
Was as empty as a looted flat.
Ahead of that was another car,
And ahead of that another car,
And ahead of that another car,
And ahead of that another car,
And another car ahead of that,
And another car ahead of that,
And another car ahead of that,
And other cars ahead of those,
And still more cars ahead of those,
And ahead of those were others still,
And stretching ahead were others still,
While each was as silent as the tomb,
And a veritable cave of gloom.

THE CAUSE.

For a wagon filled with soft-coal slack,
Had broken down on the street car track.

VARIATIONS OF CONVENTION.

The teacher of an intermediate grade in the Third Ward school was "showing off" her pupils before a number of visitors.

The spelling class was on the floor, and one small, red-headed boy was given the word "introduction."

He paused, twisted his lips, stared, and then in a faltering way spelled it correctly, and seemed rather surprised that he had done it.

"Do you know what the word means?" asked the teacher.

"No'm."

"What?" You don't know what introduction means "

"No'm."

"Well, now, I'll explain it to you. Does your mother ever have callers?"

"Yes'm."

"Well, now, suppose that two ladies came to call on your mother. Your mother knows one of the ladies, but doesn't know the other. She has never seen the lady and doesn't even know her name. Now, how would she become acquainted with this lady and find out her name?"

"She'd send me out for a can of beer."

As that was the correct answer, the teacher had nothing further to say.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Deafness Is Curable!

Sufferers from impaired hearing will be glad to know that their affliction is probably not due to any organic defect in the ear, but results probably from a thickening of the lining of the middle ear, caused by catarrhal inflammation. Hundreds of perfect recoveries as a result of the inhalation of Catarrhozone are reported, and on the highest authority we recommend this treatment to our readers. Catarrhozone quickly restores lost hearing, and its efficiency is placed beyond dispute by the case of Mr. Foxall, of St. Thomas, who recovered perfect hearing by using Catarrhozone, after years of deafness. SORE NECK

Take Scott's Emulsion for scrofula. Children often have sores on the neck that won't heal up. The sores may come and go. Parents may not know what's the matter nor what to do. Scrofula is the trouble and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine.

Scott's Emulsion heals the sores. But that is not all. Scrofula leads to consumption. This is the real danger.

Scott's Emulsion is the "ounce of prevention" that keeps off consumption.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

Surprising Results

A Simple Internal Remedy Makes Remarkable Cures of Catarrh.

People who have used sprays, inhalers, salves and washes for catarrh and have found how useless and inconvenient they are, will be agreeably surprised at results following the use of a pleasant, internal remedy in tablet form; druggists everywhere admit that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which they sell at 50 cents for full sized treatment is the safest, most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies.

Nearly all cheap cough mixtures and throat lozenges contain opiates; these cheap medicines give a temporary relief, especially with little children by destroying nerve sensation; the irritation in throat, which causes coughing is temporarily removed, not by removing the cause, but by deadening the nerves of feeling the irritation is not felt although it is still there and will promptly return.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the best remedy to remove catarrh secretion, whether in the nose throat or stomach, because they are composed of wholesome antiseptics like Red Gum, Blood Root, etc.; when you use these tablets you know what you are putting into your system and not taking chances with cocaine, opiates or similar poisons found in so many catarrh cures and cough medicines.

Dr. Randell, in commenting on catarrh cures, says: "I can heartily recommend Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because they contain no cocaine nor other dangerous drug found in so many advertised catarrh cures. I have known of many cases of long-standing catarrh of the head and throat completely cured by the daily use of these tablets for several weeks. One case in particular which I could not reach with an inhaler or spray, and where the catarrh caused daily headaches and a noticeable loss of hearing was entirely cured by this harmless but effective remedy."

Dr. Wainwright says: "I never hesitate to prescribe Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for catarrhal headaches and catarrhal deafness because I know them to be perfectly safe for child or adult, and have seen many remarkable cures resulting from their daily use; because they are advertised and sold in drug stores is no reason why any good physician should not use them because we should seize upon the means of cure wherever found."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially valuable for catarrhal colds in children, because they are pleasant to the taste and may be used freely to break up severe colds and croup at the very beginning.

All druggists sell the remedy at 50 cents for full sized package.

A NEW FORCE ORGANIZED

The Artillery Mounted Rifles Take the Field.

Reported Treachery of Boers in Shooting Two Officers Denied.

Three Officers and Two Troopers of the Canadian Mounted Infantry Thrown From Their Horses.

Johannesburg, Jan. 7.—Lord Kitchener has organized a new mounted force from the artillery. This command, which will be known as the Artillery Mounted Rifles, took the field yesterday 1,400 strong. It consists chiefly of gunners of the howitzer batteries with some others from the field batteries. The reduced forces of the Boers offer little scope for artillerymen and it is believed that they can be used with greater effect as a mobile column to crush out the final resistance of the burghers.

LAND SETTLEMENT SCHEME.

Bloemfontein, Jan. 7.—The government is purchasing 80,000 morgen of land in the Fickburg district in connection with the land settlement scheme. It has already bought 35,000 morgen in the Thaba N'Chu district. The idea is to split the lands into small holdings, and enable settlers to establish small communities and villages. The government is also buying large tracts of land for the same purpose in the conquered territory. Eighty farms have already been allotted, and there are numerous applications for others.

A NEW RAILWAY.

The Harrismith Bethlehem Railway, 70 miles long will shortly be completed. For 40 miles the line runs over breastworks that were constructed by the Boers before the war. Passenger traffic on the Bloemfontein-Sannas Post Railway, which hitherto has been used exclusively by the military, will commence tomorrow. The main line from Norval's Pont to Viljoen's Drift will be relaid immediately to provide for the extra heavy traffic.

A DENIAL.

London, Jan. 7.—The war office on the authority of Lord Kitchener, denies the report telegraphed from Pretoria, January 1, that two officers of the intelligence department who were sent to parley with the Boers who desired to surender, near Warm Baths, were treacherously shot by concealed Boers.

CASUALTIES AT HALIFAX.

Halifax, Jan. 7.—Several officers and men of the Second Canadian Mounted Rifles were thrown from their horses on the exhibition grounds, and two of them received serious, if not fatal injuries. Lieut. Woodside, of Dawson City, who was the Canadian census commissioner in the Yukon, was thrown from his horse and had his skull fractured. He is at the military hospital, and fears are entertained for his recovery. Lieut. Richards, formerly of Strathcona's Horse, and Lieut. Lamkin, of Quebec, were also thrown from their horses, both receiving slight injuries. Trooper McLennan, of Kingston, Ont., was thrown violently from his horse, and his skull was fractured. The doctors hold out little hopes for his recovery. Trooper Mayne was hurled from his horse and had an arm broken. Several others received injuries.

CLOSE CALLS.

Brampton, Ont., Jan. 7. — Saturday evening, as the two sons of Thomas Robinson, the eldest 10, the other 3 or 4 years of age, were driving a horse across the G. T. R. tracks at Queen street, the 4:50 express from Toronto struck the animal, killing it instantly. The two children escaped unhurt.

RADWAY'S PILLS

SECURE

PERFECT DIGESTION

By their ANTI-BILIOUS properties they stimulate the liver in the secretion of the bile and its discharge through the biliary ducts. These Pills, in doses of from two to four, will quickly regulate the action of the liver and free the patient from these disorders. One or two of Radway's Pills taken daily by those subject to bilious pains and torpidity of the liver will keep the system regular and secure healthy digestion.

"I am 120 miles from the nearest drug store, and want you to send me a dozen boxes of your Pills. I have muscular rheumatism, and for nine months have been at Hot Springs. My liver and kidneys are affected. I find that your Pills do me more good than all the medicine I have taken and the Springs combined. Respectfully, W. JAMES, "Harqua Hala, Yuma County, Arizona."

"Your Radway's Pills have worked wonderfully in my family. My children, when sick, have received instantaneous and complete relief by their use. Sudden colds, sore throat, I find I can quickly cure by the use of your Ready Relief and Pills. They should not be wanting in any well-kept home. That doubly serves what helps you once.' Yours truly, "DR. H. E. SCHNEIDER, "69 Hudson street, Hoboken, N. J., and Times Building, New York."

"For years I have been troubled with rheumatism and dyspepsia, and came to the conclusion to try your pills. I immediately found great relief from their use. I feel like a new man since I commenced taking them, and would not now be without them. The drowsy, sleepy feeling I used to have has entirely disappeared. The dyspepsia has left me, and my rheumatism is gone entirely. I am satisfied if anyone so afflicted will give Radway's Pills a trial they will surely cure them, for I believe it all comes from the system being out of order—the liver not doing its work. "GEORGE SCALLY, "75 Nassau street, New York."

RADWAY'S PILLS

Perfectly tasteless, elegantly coated, purge, regulate, purify, cleanse and strengthen. Radway's Pills for the cure of all disorders of the Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys, Bladder, Nervous Diseases, Dizziness, Vertigo, Costiveness, Piles.

SICK HEADACHE,
FEMALE COMPLAINTS,
INDIGESTION,
BILIOUSNESS,
CONSTIPATION,
DYSPEPSIA,
AND ALL
DISORDERS OF THE LIVER.

Observe the following symptoms resulting from diseases of the digestive organs: Constipation, inward piles, fullness of blood in the head, acidity of the stomach, nausea, heartburn, disgust of food, fulness or weight in the stomach, sour eructations, sinking or fluttering of the heart, choking or suffocating sensation when in lying posture, dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, fever or dull pain in the head, deficiency of perspiration, yellowness of the skin and eyes, pain in the side, chest, limbs and sudden flushes of heat, burning in the flesh.

A few doses of RADWAY'S PILLS will free the system of all the above-named disorders.

How to Make a ROUGH SKIN SMOOTH

There are some whose skin is naturally very tender, so much so, that a slight change in temperature, either heat or cold, will cause it to become rough and scale. This is very annoying, whether it makes the skin sore or not. A trouble of this kind is due to the skin being too dry, the underlying glands not giving it food enough. It must, therefore, be fed artificially. This may be done by using OLA CREAM, a scientific skin food. OLA CREAM is not a thin, watery fluid, but is of a creamy consistency. Prepared from a valuable formula, consisting of healthful ingredients, which feed the skin, building up the tissues, supplying to the glands that which they lack to prevent roughness.

Anyone who is troubled with roughness of the skin or chapped hands will find OLA CREAM a sure preventative.

We are receiving many testimonials for OLA CREAM. We have made a study of the care of the skin, and will be glad to give any information to anyone writing us.

Kipling's Latest Poem.

London, Jan. 7.—Rudyard Kipling's latest poem is a scathing attack on the lethargic attitude of his fellow-countrymen toward the Boer war and a stirring appeal to them to gird themselves anew for the fight. His plea for conscription in Britain must be regarded as the climax of militarism and the most ominous sign of the times. The following are extracts from the poem:

And ye sent them comfits and pictures to help them harry your foes!
And ye vaunted your fathomless power and ye vaunted your iron pride,
Ere ye fawned on the younger nations for the men who could shoot and ride.
Then ye returned to your trinkets; then ye contented your souls
With the flanneled fools at the wicket or the muddied oafs at the goals,
Given to strong delusion, wholly believing a lie,
Ye saw that the land lay fenceless, and yet let the months go by,
Waiting some easy wonder, hoping some saving sign,
Idle, openly idle, in the lee of the forespent line;
Idle except for your boasting, and what is your boasting worth,
If ye grudge a year of service to the lordliest line on earth?
Ancient, effortless, ordered, cycle on cycle set,
Life so long untroubled that ye who inherit forget.
It is not made with the mountains; it is not one with the deep;
Men, not Gods, devised it, men, not Gods, must keep
Men, not children or servants, tempered and taught to the end,
Cleansed of servile panic, slow to dread or despise,
Humble because of knowledge, mighty by sacrifice,
Fenced by your careful fathers, ringed by your laden seas,
Long did ye wake in quiet and long lie down at ease;
Till ye said of strife, what is it of the sword it is far from our ken,
Till ye made a sport of your shrunken hosts and a toy of your armed men.

He warns that a continuance of indulgence in the present insolent ease will result in the nation's remnant lying down under the yoke. He then proceeds to demand:

"Each man born in the island broke to the matter of war."

Gone Up in Smoke.

Hamilton, Jan. 7.—Hammill Bros.' confectionery, 73 King street east, was completely gutted by fire at 5 o'clock yesterday. Walter and Thomas Hammill, estimate their loss at from $4,000 to $5,000. Insured for $3,000. The building owned by Mrs. W. S. Pohn, of Toronto, was damaged to the extent of $800, fully insured.

The main building of the Eastern State Hospital at Williamsburg, Va. was destroyed by fire on Sunday. All the 150 patients were gotten out safely. Loss about $75,000.

The Franklin Printing and Engraving Company's plant at Toledo was entirely destroyed by fire Sunday night. Loss $92,000. There was $45,000 insurance.

Newfoundland authorities are hopeful that the Modus Vivendi will be renewed.

CHRONIC RHEUMATISM CURED

Chronic Rheumatism Cured

The action of Powley's Liquified Ozone is quick in giving relief to rheumatism. The antiseptic action of the oxygen destroys the germs which produce the disease and antidotes their toxins. It will be worth your while to read the interesting statement of Mr. A. Charbonneau.

THE OZONE COMPANY

Gentlemen: In response to your communication of late date, I am happy to state that I have made use of Powley's Liquified Ozone, and the results have been far ahead of any thing I hoped for when I was first induced to try same. I have been a constant victim of rheumatism, lumbago, etc., for nearly two years and tried all sorts of remedies and so-called cures without benefitting from their use. I must say that I obtained some relief, but this was only temporary and quite unsatisfactory. When I was induced to try Ozone I had a very limited confidence in its merits, but I had taken less than half a bottle when I was notably relieved of my trouble and continued the use of Ozone. The results, I am happy to say, have been marvellous. With less than two bottles I am now entirely free from pain of any kind and feel rejuvenated by ten years, no trouble whatever having been my lot since I used Ozone. I have since used it in my family with the same beneficial results and I mean to have it handy at all times in the house.

You are at liberty to use the present testimonial as you see fit, and to refer to me as to what Ozone has done for me and may do for anyone in a general way.

Wishing your preparation all the success it deserves, and yourselves the recognition of the public, for putting the same within the reach of everyone, I remain,

Very truly yours, A. M. CHARBONNEAU, 290 St. Hippolyte St., Montreal, P. Q.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is oxygen in stable liquid form. It's a new discovery, this way of using oxygen. If you are troubled with rheumatism, kidney disease, try a bottle, it will relieve you in a wonderfully short time.

Consult our physicians about your case. Write full details and you will get a specialist's advice free. Your letters are absolutely confidential. Address the Consulting Department, The Liquid Ozone Co., 220 Kinzie St., Chicago, U. S. A.

JOTTINGS FROM NEAR-BY PLACES

ILDERTON.

Ilderton, Jan. 6.—A grand time was given at Bachelors' Hall on Friday evening by Mr. Milton Carmichael, a box social and dance being the occasion. In the beginning of the night the crowd was entertained by a gramophone all seemed to enjoy very much. At 9 o'clock Mr. Jas. McPherson began to play on the fiddle, and the company arranged for a dance, Mr. John Fraser acting as floor manager. At eleven o'clock lunch was served, after which dancing was again indulged in until a late hour.

Miss Gilles, of Ailsa Craig, is visiting here with Misses Maggie and Minnie Kennedy.

Miss Flossie Clatworthy has returned home from Granton, after having a short but pleasant visit with her brother, Mr. John Clatworthy, lumber merchant, of that place, and others.

Detective Paisley has returned home after doing valuable work in discovering a thief.

MELBOURNE.

Melbourne, Jan. 6.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening.

This week the three churches will observe the "week of prayer." Meetings to be held in the Methodist Church on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday and Thursday.

Miss McGill, of Alvinston, who was with us last season, will open her millinery establishment in the new block in about a week.

There is a good opening for a jeweler in the new block which is nearing completion.

Everyone is taking precautions against the spreading of the dread disease of smallpox. One or two houses in our village have been quarantined.

Mr. William Tolson, Sr., is on the sick list. We hope soon to see him around again.

Danger Next Door.

Perhaps it's diphtheria, or scarlet fever. Keep your own home free from the germs of these diseases. Prevent your children from having them. You can do it with our Vapo-Cresolene. Put some Cresolene in our vaporizer, light the lamp beneath, and let the vapor fill the sleeping room. Have the children sleep in the room every night, for it's perfectly safe, yet not a single disease germ can live in this vapor. Ask your doctor about it.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. Vapo-Cresolene Co., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

EVERETT-MOORE ROAD

The Toledo and Detroit Railway in Receiver's Hands.

Toledo, Ohio, Jan. 7.—The financial troubles of the Everett-Moore syndicate have resulted in the appointment of receivers for the Toledo and Detroit Railway. Judge Larber, of the common pleas court, has appointed the Ohio Savings Bank and Trust Company and David B. Cunningham, of Detroit, receivers. The bond of Receiver Cunningham is fixed at $10,000, and an injunction bond of $5,000 was required of the Strang Contracting Company, Limited, which is the plaintiff in the case, and at whose instance the receivers were appointed.

Detroit, Jan. 6. — A lien on the Detroit and Toledo Shore Line electric road for $258,987 19 was filed in the register of deeds' office this afternoon by William B. Strang, a New York contractor. The Detroit and Toledo Shore Line is owned by the Everett-Moore syndicate, of Cleveland, Ohio.

The Municipal Elections.

London's municipal election is over.

"When the hurly-burly's done,
When the battle's lost and won,"

it is the custom of the citizens of London to good-humoredly accept the result and turn to their ordinary avocations. Mr. Beck is mayor by a large majority, and it remains to be seen whether he can satisfy the exaggerated expectations that have been raised. The Hospital Trust is reinforced by Mr. Isaac Waterman; we have no doubt his time and ability will be placed freely at the disposal of the public. Mr. J. W. Little and Mr. Wm. Jones are again water commissioners, though Mr. Pocock made a very creditable run. Among the aldermen-elect will be found both old blood and new, including a good plain kicker in the person of Mr. J. H. McMechan against extravagance in general. The new blood in the School Trustee Board is Mr. Wm. Gammage, who will justify the confidence that has been reposed in him. The bylaws adopting fixed assessments for the McClary Manufacturing Company and that of White & Sons have been adopted by large majorities, indicating the desire of the citizens to keep the manufactories we have and to obtain as many others as possible.

At each municipal election some one feature stands out more prominently than others, for the moment seizes public attention, and largely influences the general result. The "cry" this time was in connection with the Hospital, and it must be admitted it was worked for all it was worth. It will be interesting to see how far the exaggerated pretentions set forth may act like boomerangs; and it remains to be seen whether new brooms are always better than the old.

Telegraph operators by the Marconi method will never have that old reliable standby—"The wire is down."—Vancouver, B. C., World.

No; but they will have the equally valid excuse—"We can get nothing past that thunderstorm."

Gladstone, Britain's Grand Old Man, was a shrewd observer, as well as an experienced statesman and business man, and after fifty years of public life he declared, "Nothing except the mint can make money without advertising."

The Canadian Pacific Railway has done a great deal to advertise Canada at the Antipodes. But this country and its products are still far from well known. How much, by the way, does the average Canadian know about Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, for example. We all want to keep our knowledge of the wants and products of these sister auxiliary kingdoms constantly brushed up.

Some good books are likely to be issued at an early day dealing with the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York to Canada and other portions of the Empire. Mr. E. F. Knight, one of the special correspondents, has prepared a narrative of the tour, and it will be issued by Messrs. Longman at an early day. The work, which will be handsomely illustrated, will bear the very appropriate title, "Through Greater Britain."

Mr. Borden, M.P., the new Opposition leader, went into York, N. B., and it was declared that he was making such an impression that Dr. McLeod, the Conservative Candidate, would surely win. The result was a majority of over 800 votes for the Liberal nominee. It is a striking change that has been wrought since the inauguration of the new order of things. Here are the majorities in the last three contests:

	Majority.
Geo. F. Foster (Conservative	1,542
A. Gibson (Liberal	76
A. Gibson (Liberal), bye-election..	817

Mrs. Shaw, wife of the new Secretary of the Treasury at Washington, says that her husband hopes to get along without spending more than $5,000 a year in addition to his salary. Official life at Washington must be a costly affair, as Mrs. Shaw declares this over-spending is not a patch to that of some of the members of the President's Cabinet. Mrs. Shaw says she will run her house on total abstinence principles, which, in a chronically dry atmosphere like that surrounding the United States Congress, must, adhered to, mean a big saving in itself.

Mr. Belcourt, M. P. for Ottawa, who has been on a visit to England, told an interviewer that after a visit to the Yukon Territory, he had reached the conclusion that the people there would soon be able to grow most of the food supplies. This view is corroborated by the friend of ours who, writing from Dawson, the other day, said it was wonderful how good the crop of potatoes and garden "sass" had been last year. Gold is the great staple crop of the Yukon, but it seems to be also capable of yielding ordinary cereals and vegetables to a limited extent, as well. The climate, if somewhat severe in winter, is invigorating.

Meeting of the Ontario Legislature Tomorrow.

The last meeting of the Provincial Legislature begins at Toronto as usual with the Speech from the Throne. There is no reason why the session should be unduly prolonged. Its duration depends not a little, however, on the Opposition. If the gentlemen to the left of Mr. Speaker consider they can advantage their cause by observations addressed ostensibly to the presiding officer, but in reality intended for the country, they cannot well be prevented from so doing. But they will get only labor for their pains, seeing the supporters of the Government are both able and ready with answer—shot for shot, gun for gun.

Nothing has happened since last session to make Mr. Whitney stronger than he was a year ago. Mr. Whitney can hardly be called a man of magnetic power; that is, a man who comes naturally to the front. Nor can it be said he has any alternative policy to suggest in the place of that put forward by Premier Ross. The only new factor since the Legislature last met, is the decision by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, upholding the validity of the Manitoba Liquor Act, which presupposes that Ontario could enact likewise if it so desires. It seems probable, from statements that have been made, that a prohibitory liquor law will be submitted to a referendum, to be taken at a different time from the general election. If the general elections for the Legislature were held in the beginning of June, the referendum might be taken in October or November. There will be varying views on the referendum; but it would seem that an increasing number of thoughtful people throughout the Province appreciate the importance of clearly ascertaining that a prohibitory law would be sufficiently sustained by public opinion, if enacted.

Human nature being what it is, there is no need to blame Mr. Whitney for being willing to take whatever political advantage he thinks might accrue to him from the sudden dropping down of this prohibition decision from out a clear sky. But we do not think the question holds in solution any great advantage for Mr. Whitney; and if it did, in possibility, we trust Mr. Whitney will pardon us for not believing him the man to turn it to practical and effective account. It is impossible to shrivel any great moral problem into a mere question of party. The temperance question, in its various phases, belongs to men and women of both political parties, as also to those not strongly identified with either of the two principal parties; and the right solution must be found outside partisan lines.

The platform upon which Premier Ross will go to the people in the early summer includes many measures and tendencies calculated to promote the development and prosperity of this greatest Province of the Empire. Among these may be mentioned:

1. The early settlement of the unoccupied lands of the Province by colonization and by projection of railways into New Ontario.

2. The manufacture within the Province, and so far as practicable by Canadian labor, of the products of our forests, such as pine and spruce, into lumber and pulp, and the smelting and refining of our mineral products, such as iron, nickel and copper ore, for the markets of the world.

3. The increase of our agricultural wealth by improved methods of husbandry, fruit-growing, dairying, cold storage and the production of beet root sugar, and by reclaiming the undrained lands of the Province.

4. The extension of our trade with Great Britain in all natural products, but especially in cattle, horses and dressed meats.

5. The disposal of our forest wealth, with a view to its perpetuation by reforestry, timber reserves and parks.

6. The improvement of transportation by the better construction of highways and the removal of tolls.

7. The regulation of rates for passengers and freight on all railways subsidized by the Province, and the ultimate control of such railways, at the option of the Legislature.

8. The application of public revenues for the development of the Province and the relief of the taxpayers.

9. The revision from time to time as the public interests may require of the laws governing the municipal and political institutions of the Province, and the improvement and enforcement of all laws affecting public morality.

10. The maintenance of the independence of the Legislative Assembly as the guardian of the constitutional rights of the Province.

11. The application of sound principles of education to the courses of instruction in all our schools and colleges, including technical schools for those concerned in industrial pursuits, agricultural schools for those concerned in husbandry, and schools of mining and engineering where a wider range of scientific knowledge is required.

Substitutes for Apples.

Oranges have rarely been so good or so cheap in Canada as they have been in the past few weeks. That they have been so has been of much advantage to the great mass of the consumers who are this year unable to get cheap apples. With good oranges at moderate prices, the average householder is able to pass the crisis. In this they are aided by the supply of prunes. Many carloads of these have been imported into Canada from California, and more are on the way, though the demand, here and in the United States, has been such that there has recently been a considerable rise in price. Merchants who ordered their supplies of prunes some time ago are in luck.

Principal Grant's Thanksgiving and Retrospect.

Last night Principal Grant gave an address to students and friends in Convocation Hall, of Queen's University, a sketch of which we now give, because it is of more than local interest; it deals with the public life of a man, who for many years has appealed to the Canadian people as a true patriot and a strong independent thinker. The nature of the address can be clearly seen from the introductory statement:

"Students, my address this evening is to be so personal and autobiographical that to some outsiders it may savor unduly of self-consciousness. My only answer will be that it is addressed principally, not to outsiders, but to you; and that you constitute in a real, spiritual sense, my family. This has always been so to a certain extent, and it is more so now than ever, because the recent illness which threatened to end our earthly relations, brought out on your part a warmth, strength, and delicacy of affection that affected me profoundly, and will leave an everlasting impression on my nature. The same cause brought out from the churches and from the people of Canada, so generous a recognition of services, which had never seemed to me other than common-place duties, that it at first bewildered, and then—after emotion had given way to introspection—strengthened, humbled, and I trust purified me."

After mentioning those to whom special thanks are due, the principal says that he thinks the best public reply he can make is to narrate how he was led "to take the interest in civic and public affairs, which has received such wide-spread and public approval, and to state the principles which guided me and which shall guide me, to the end of life's journey. Of failures and short-comings I may not speak. Confessions of weakness and sins are not or the public."

The topics are dealt with in this address, which show that Principal Grant has always stood for union on a broad basis and in a liberal spirit. The three great movements referred to are Confederation, Union of the Presbyterian Churches, and Imperialism. With regard to all these things Dr. Grant is able to show that he was led to take early and energetic action because he looked at things from a large standpoint and not from a mere local or personal position. Anti-confederation sentiment was to be expected in Nova Scotia because it was a small state. The Principal gives illustrations from several countries showing that the small province or state is afraid of union. His position as a young man and as a Christian minister who loved the general good more than party is stated in the following words:

"Convinced that the time had come for bringing to the birth a nation, with all the possibilities of a great state, and that we dared not let the time go by, I wrote a little, and addressed one or two public meetings on the subject; having first counted the cost and come to the conclusion that it would be much less than any man worth his salt should be willing to pay."

This action, of course, involved friction, misunderstanding and some difficulty in the minister's congregation, but all that was temporary; in the end no real loss was sustained by vindicating independence of thought and action. Principal Grant does not advise ministers to dabble in all the details of politics, but he thinks that on great questions intelligent independent men should lead the people.

"The main elements in the confederation question were simple, provided it was borne in mind that it may be more sinful to do nothing than to take risks in doing something. If we were to rise into nationhood, what could we do but unite with our sister provinces? My second fundamental political principle flowed from the first. For the good of Canada, its own, and the world's good, the British Empire must form an effective union. Here, too, difficulties, which seem to pessimists insuperable, present themselves; for the nobler the organism the more formidable its enemies and dangers. All life is a battle, but only by overcoming these difficulties is character formed and life made complete. Separated from Britain, Canada would necessarily be always dependent on the United States, and wishing to honor our neighbors—as well we may—we must meet them as equals. But we shall be their equals only when we share burdens and responsibilities as well as the privileges and glory of the Empire."

Reference is then made to the journey across the continent with Sandford Fleming, and the impression gained that the West was a great land that only needed to be made accessible and have good work put into it. This statement, a common-place now, was received with skepticism then, and high authorities could be quoted against it.

"In 1875, the union of the four churches, which constitute the Presbyterian Church of Canada, took place. Here, also, the opposition came from the smaller churches, and most violently from the smallest, the one to which I belonged. No principle was at stake; no question now of tariff or possible financial disturbances, and evidently the work of establishing the ordinances of religion over half a continent could be done better by united action than by dissipation of our futile resources. But these considerations availed nothing against timidity and memories of old feuds."

That battle, however, was fought and won, and G. M. Grant stood as usual on the side of union and progress. In 1877, the call was given to come to Ontario as principal of Queen's. There were many things to be considered in this connection.

"Duty seemed to be clear though it was hard to pull myself up by the roots; and though many of its friends assured me of their doubts whether Queen's could survive without visible means of support, against the overwhelming competition to which it would be subjected from the east and the west, I accepted the call, keeping my own doubts to myself, and before twelve months had passed all doubts had vanished."

It was not necessary for the speaker to elaborate this point, as his unceasing work for Queen's and its grand results are known to all who are interested in the higher life of the country. With regard to the question of prohibition, the principal briefly reaffirms his position that the attempt to force a law, for which there has been no adequate preparation, and for which there is not sufficient moral support, must be disastrous to the community and hurtful to the cause of temperance.

We are glad to be able to give our readers the main outlines of this important address, and we conclude with the following words, a part of the closing appeal to the students:

"This rapid sketch of my career for nearly 40 years has been made to impress upon you who are beginning life this one lesson, that the road to the only success which satisfies is through singleness of eye, and from a deep-rooted conviction that we owe to the community of unselfish service, altogether apart from the question whether the community is or is not grateful. If I have done any good, this is the explanation: 'For in me there dwells no greatness, save it be some far-off touch of greatness to know well I am not great.' You have now the secret, and God grant that many of you may turn it to good use."

Four Murder Cases.

There are four murder cases to try at the next criminal assizes, in April, in this city. This is an unusual happening. Not in modern times has the County of Middlesex presented such a record in this the most serious of all crimes. Mayhap, after all the evidence is heard, the juries will be able to declare that one or more of the parties are not guilty, or that the crime for which they may be convicted is less serious. For the fair fame of this neighborhood, there will be a general hope that this may be so, though no one will wish that any guilty person shall escape the punishment which an offense deserves.

It is satisfactory to note that crime of a more serious nature, comparing the last decade with a similar period in former times, when the population was much smaller, has greatly decreased. The world indeed is getting better, though not so fast as many people would like.

Canada's Second Transcontinental Railway.

At the banquet in honor of Messrs. Mackenzie and Mann, the contractors for building the Canadian Northern Railway between Port Arthur and Winnipeg, on the completion of that important link of the new transcontinental system, Mr. Byron E. Walker, general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, made a pat reference. He pointed out the great debt that this country owed to the late Sir Alexander Mackenzie, the distinguished Northwest explorer and discoverer of the big river named after him. Next came Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, who, while Prime Minister, chose the route now followed by the Canadian Northern for the original route of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Now we have William Mackenzie, the third of that honored name, completing the line of railway and thereby contributing much to the building up of the great Northwest. The main line is now completed from Port Arthur to Erwood, in the Territories, a distance of 810 miles. With branch lines, however, the company owns 1,309 miles of track, of which 354 lie in Ontario, 50 in Minnesota, 883 in Manitoba and 23 in Saskatchewan.

This is a pretty good beginning for the new transcontinental line. It fills a long experienced want in the rich farming and mineral district along the Rainy River. Its construction will have the effect not only of providing for the wants of settlers in this district on the Canadian side of the border, but it will draw traffic from the State of Minnesota, into which, for a slight distance, it makes a diversion. The effect of its construction will be to add greatly to the importance of Port Arthur and Fort William as shipping points. Even now, new settlers are trooping into the district along the route of the line, as a consequence of the provision of adequate shipping facilities. West of Winnipeg the line has been built by way of Dauphin and Swan River, along the district which Hon. Alexander Mackenzie had chosen for the route of the Canadian Pacific Railway. It is in the main a good farming country, with plenty of water, and a fair amount of timber in the neighboring hills. As the line approaches Prince Albert, the country becomes increasingly rich in cultivable soil, and for hundreds of miles on either side, though at present sparsely settled, if settled at all, the present generation will probably see many thousands of happy settlers making a good living in the production of cereals and other crops, for which the land is admirably adapted. The intention is to complete the line at an early day, by carrying it to the Pacific coast, thereby opening up not only the vast agricultural territory, but the rich mineral lands as well.

Will the railway pay? Without a doubt, if it continues to be as carefully managed as it has been in its incipient stages. Already, along its route towns and villages have sprung up, and settlement of producers on near-by land, without which there would be no urban population, is proceeding at a most encouraging rate. We have the town of Dauphin, for example, less than five years old, with its 1,500 inhabitants, and all the agencies that tend to civilized comfort and convenience, and the growth of other towns and villages betokens healthy expension all along the route.

There is room for another transcontinental railway at the present time in Canada. Manitoba, the Northwest and British Columbia, as well as New Ontario, are producing at such a rate as to insure plenty of traffic for the great pioneer line, the Canadian Pacific Railway, for the Canadian Northern, and for probably half a dozen other trunk lines within the next 25 or 30 years.

Great events will be witnessed in the Dominion by those of us who live through the next quarter of a century.

Shedding His Skin.

There is a patient in the hospital at Oneida, N. Y., who is shedding his skin. The man is a printer, 52 years old, and has been similarly attacked every five years since his boyhood. The case has attracted the attention of many specialists, all of whom have been baffled in attempts to cure the disease. In New York a few years ago a specialist made him the subject of his lectures, and after his recovery placed him in a smallpox hospital to prove that he was immune. The whole body has the appearance of having been scalded before the epidermis peels off in large patches. One piece, consisting of the entire skin of one hand, resembling a glove, is preserved. The new skin beneath is as delicate and softly tinted as a baby's. The patient's hair and beard do not come out. When a boy he became lost with a party in an Arizona desert and was bitten by a poisonous snake and almost died. Since that time he has shed his skin, but whether the snake bite is the cause of it scientists and medical men have never been able to determine.

Omega Oil

OLD PEOPLE—After a man or woman has lived 50 or more years the machinery of the body is pretty well worn out. Stop a minute and think how many miles you have walked in all those years—how many thousands of pounds you have lifted—how many hours you have stood on your feet—how many times your joints have moved back and forth—how many times you have overdone things in work and pleasure. Do you wonder that you have pains and aches? Isn't it about time you did something for your poor body? Get a bottle of Omega Oil at once and rub it into every spot on your neck, shoulders, arms, back, hips, legs, knees and feet where there is an ache. Rub it in good and hard, and the first thing you know you'll feel at least ten years younger. Omega Oil is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.

Your druggist sells Omega Oil, or can get it for you of any wholesale druggist. The Omega Chemical Co., 257 Broadway, New York, will mail a bottle, prepaid, for 50c. in cash, money order or stamps. 750

Valuable Advice to Rheumatics.

Eat meat sparingly and take very little sugar. Avoid damp feet, drink water abundantly, and always rely on Polson's Nerviline as an absolute reliever of rheumatic pains. Being five times stronger than other remedies, its power over pain is simply beyond belief. Buy a large 25 cent bottle today, test it and see if this is not so. Polson's Nerviline always cures rheumatism.

THE great lung healer is found in that excellent medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages, and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.

There are in Boston 64,228 houses in addition to 100 hotels and 558 hotels.

There is no form of kidney trouble, from a backache down to Bright's disease, that DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS will not relieve or cure. y

MOST FOLKS FIND THEIR LEVEL.

When ye kind o' git t' thinkin'
You're the whole endurin' thing,
When ye think th' world must have ye—
Same's a kit must have a string—
Then it's time t' fix fer dodgin'
An' begin t' look aroun'—
'Cause they's somepin' goin' t' hit ye
That'll surely take ye down.

When ye git t' livin' reg'lar
'Way up in th' upper air,
An' when folks without no field glass
Couldn't sight ye anywhere,
Then it's time t' git yer parachute,
An' see't it's workin' right,
While ye glance t'ward terry firmy,
Pickin' out a place t' light.

'Cause most folks is lots like worter—
Finds their level off an' on;
Though they 'vaporate occasional,
An' we wonder where they've gone;
But they're bound t' light back somehow—
Fog, er rain, or coolin' dew—
An' when I say folks, I reckon
That's includin' me an' you.

FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

The attendance at the market here today was exceedingly slim. The offerings of produce, as a consequence, were light. Saturday's prices prevailed in most of the lines offered.

Hay and Straw—Thirty-two loads of hay on sale at $8 to $9 per ton; the demand is fair. Straw sells at $3 per load and $6 per ton.

Butter and Eggs—No change in prices, at 19c to 21c for butter in pound rolls, and 17c to 19c by the crock. Eggs, 20c to 23c per dozen.

There were no changes in the prices of vegetables and apples.

Poultry—Not a great deal offered; selling at 9c to 10c per lb for turkeys; geese, 6c to 7c per lb; chickens, 50c to 65c per pair; geese, 60c to 75c each; ducks, 60c to 75c per pair.

Dressed Hogs—Quite a few in, selling mostly at $8 50 to $8 75 per cwt.

Live Hogs—$6 25 will be paid for next shipment from here.

A WOMAN'S ADVICE

Mrs. Maxwell Tells All Suffering Women What Made Her Strong and Well After Years of Suffering.

Elora, Ont., Jan. 6.—Mrs. Maxwell, of this town has given for publication a strong letter telling her experience with a well-known remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills. In part it reads as follows:

"Words cannot express my gratitude to God for my wonderful deliverance from pain and sickness. Every woman of my age will understand me when I say that I could scarcely move hand or foot but I would be caught with violent pains all through my system. I was dizzy-headed and altogether distressingly sick. I used Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured me, and I believe they will cure any woman who may be suffering as I was. I am well and strong today, and Dodd's Kidney pills deserve all the credit."

NEW CORONER FOR BRUCE.

Toronto, Jan. 7.—Dr. A. H. Hough, of Wiarton, has been created an associate coroner of Bruce county. Mr. T. A. O'Rourke, of Trenton, has been appointed police magistrate for the town of Trenton. Messrs. T. F. Battle, Niagara Falls, and A. F. Wilson, Toronto, have been appointed notaries public. Mr. E. J. Wilkins, Galt, has been gazetted clerk of the third division court of Waterloo.

Nervous and Sleepless.

Two horrors crowded into one life, the product of poor digestion, and the poisons that are thereby formed within the body. There's just one method of cure for this terrible condition—plenty of food, but mind, food properly digested. That's the difficulty—the digestive power of the stomach must be improved. Rich, red blood formed, strength given to the organs to drive out poisons; then comes strength; vigor and endurance. Ferrozone does all this and more; it makes sick people well; weak people strong. Sow Ferrozone and you reap health. Sold by Strong.

ALWAYS A GOOD FRIEND.—In health and happiness we need no friend, but when pain and prostration come we look for friendly aid from sympathetic hands. Those hands can serve us no better than in rubbing in Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, for when the Oil is in the pain is out. It has brought relief to thousands who without it would be indeed friendless.

VERY NEAR THE CAPITAL

Chinese Imperial Train Just Outside Pekin.

The Entire Route to the Palace Is Lined With Troops.

Mr. Chamberlain Says Hatred of England Is No New Thing in History—Twenty-Three Persons Drowned.

Pekin, Jan. 7—12:45 p.m.—A telephone message from Mia Chia Fu station, outside the city, says the special train bearing the emperor and empress dowager is just arriving. Thousands of officials have assembled there to receive their majesties. The entire route to the entrance of the palace is lined with troops.

NO NEW THING.

London, Jan. 7.—Speaking at Birmingham last night, Joseph Chamberlain, colonial secretary, referred to the hatred and jealousy of Great Britain entertained abroad, and denied that this was due to the existence of a particularly wicked government. "This is no new thing in history," he said, "and we must maintain our splendid isolation, surrounded and supported by our colonial kinsfolk."

Whilst fully admitting the necessity of finding new markets and keeping abreast of modern times and methods, Mr. Chamberlain saw no sign of any imminent or pressing danger to British trade. He said: "During the last five years we have enjoyed an absolutely unparalleled condition of trade and for the future the prospects are exceedingly good."

The colonial secretary strongly deprecated any attempt on the part of the trades union to restrict the output and reduce all workmen to a dead level of mediocrity.

A RATE WAR.

Commenting on the reported appointment of Henry Wilding, of the firm of Richardson, Spence & Co., English agents of the American steamship line, as successor of J. R. Elerman, chairman of J. Pierpont Morgan's Leyland line, which is accepted as a fact, the Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon says it understands that with the change of chairmanship will be inaugurated a notable war of rates between the American-owned lines and the White Star and Cunard lines.

TWENTY-THREE LIVES LOST.

A bark has capsized at the mouth of the River Lozaro, and twenty-three persons, mostly women, were drowned. The River Lozaro is southwest of Corunna, and in Corunna Province.

VACCINATION.

Addressing a meeting of the Sanitary Inspectors' Association, the president cited the city of Montreal as an example of the necessity of vaccination. Vaccination, he pointed out, was so stringently enforced in Montreal from 1875 to 1885 that no cases of smallpox occurred. Immunity from smallpox, however, encouraged laxity in enforcing vaccination. The result was an outbreak in 1885, when there was 3,164 deaths in nine months.

THE USE OF STRONG SOAP WILL NOT WASH OUT DIAMOND DYE COLORS.

Diamond Dye colors are absolutely fast and unfading. Washing with strong soap or exposure in sunlight cannot start or fade these imperishable colors. No other dyes in the world have such a reputation for strength, brilliancy, purity and beauty of colors. Diamond Dyes are the most economical dyes; one package will color as much material as three packages of any other dye.

If you have not yet seen the new and attractive Diamond Dye Mat and Rug patterns, send your address to The Wells & Richardson Co., 200 Mountain street, Montreal, P. Q., and you will be immediately supplied.

DEATHS OF A DAY

Demise of Justice Gwynne of the Dominion Supreme Court.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 7.—Justice Gwynne, of the supreme court, died early this morning, at his residence on Metcalfe street. He was in his 88th year. Deceased was a native of Ireland, where he was born in 1814, and came to Canada in 1832. He was first appointed a judge in 1849 and was promoted to the supreme court in 1879. He leaves a family of three daughters and one son. Mrs. Collingwood Schreiber is one of the daughters. Until a week ago Justice Gwynne was in good health.

Peterboro, Ont., Jan. 6.—Robert C. McHarrie, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce here, died suddenly this evening.

Everett, Mass., Jan. 6.—At the inauguration of the new city government today Robert H. Jenkins fell dead while making a speech accepting the office of president of the board of aldermen, to which he has been elected.

Mount Morris, N. Y., Jan. 6.—Hiram P. Mills, one of the oldest bank presidents in the United States, died suddenly here today. He celebrated his 96th birthday on Thursday last and danced with the company. He chaffed his son Charles, who is 70 years old, for quitting the dance before he did. Mr. Mills had been president of the Genesee River National Bank continually since its formation in 1853.

Mrs. Elizabeth Darroch, relict of Duncan Darroch, Collingwood, Ont., died on Sunday night. Mrs. Darroch was one of the few survivors of those who came to Collingwood from Scotland in 1852.

Clifford Smith, a well-known Windsor athlete, died Monday morning from inflammatory rheumatism. He was a member of Windsor's lacrosse team when the game flourished there a few years ago.

Death claimed one of Toronto's leading citizens in the person of Walter Sutherland Lee, general manager of the Canada Permanent and Western Canada Mortgage Corporation. Mr. Lee was 65 years of age, vigorous and robust of constitution, and his death, which was due to typhoid fever following upon a cold.

George N. Wiswell, who was sergeant-at-arms of the Philadelphia National Republican Convention, is dead at Philadelphia.

Elbridge S. Brooks, widely known as a writer and a historian, died at his home in Somerville, Mass., early today, aged 55 years.

STRANGE EXODUS

Three Nebraska Towns Will Move to a New Site.

Creighton, Neb., Jan. 7.—In its ruling that county officials of Knox county must move their offices to the farm of William Wishendoff, 12 miles from the nearest town, the supreme court of Nebraska has ended the most remarkable county seat fight in the entire west, which has been persistently waged for more than 20 years and has cost the taxpayers $20,000.

Accordingly, on April 1, the date fixed by the supreme court, a remarkable exodus will take place. Business men of Niobrara, where the county seat of Knox county has been maintained since the beginning of the history of Nebraska, and of Verdigris and Creighton, 12 miles away from Wishendoff's farm, which last named two towns will supply the largest part of the population of the new county seat, are already preparing for wholesale removal.

LONDON EAST IS MUCH DISSATISFIED

Over Manner in Which the Mails Are Delivered There.

Considerable dissatisfaction exists among a large proportion of the residents of London East at certain changes which are in progress at the London East postoffice on Dundas street, near Adelaide. Last week it was announced that mail would be no longer received there for posting, though the distribution of mail, selling of stamps and other functions of the office were continued. One of the large newspaper boxes was placed in front, and all newspapers, letters and parcels were placed in it, but parcels too large to be posted in it had to be brought down to the head postoffice. Another cause of complaint was the hour of collecting at noon, which was 25 or 30 minutes sooner than had been the case, thus causing many merchants and manufacturers in the vicinity to miss the afternoon mails. Formerly and mails were transferred to and from London East by street car, but now the box in front is opened and the mail collected by the regular carrier from the postoffice. On Saturday it was announced that on Monday the mail would be again received at the office; and this was done on Monday morning, but later in the day the receiving of mail was again discontinued. It is said that a petition will be circulated among the residents of London East, asking for the restoration of the old order of things.

Postmaster Browne, in answer to an inquiry from The Advertiser, said that changes were being made which would, when completed, probably meet the requirements of the residents in London East.

There have been from time to time rumors of the total discontinuance of the office. If such a thing became a liv issue it would be strongly opposed by the London Easters, who say the office is now doing more business than ever before, and that it does a larger volume of business than the postoffices at Strathroy and other towns of similar size. The merchants and manufacturers in the east end of the city find it a great advantage in giving them three deliveries in a day instead of two, the extra one at noon enabling them in many cases to fill orders the same afternoon, which would not otherwise be the case.

How cold it is! The snow drifts down my back,
And little sparrows, digging up stray oats,
Give me the hoot. I grate my teeth and chew
Enough iced air to freeze out seven goats.
Yet why should I be cold? My soul's on fire
With jealous fury, and my system's warm
From something like five hundred kicks, received
Before they hurled me out amid the storm!

MISS MACLACHLAN AT THE NEW GRAND

Scottish Prima Donna to Appear Here on January 15.

Lovers of music in London, and particularly those fond of the sweet melodies of Scotland, will await with the most pleasant anticipations the appearance in London of Miss Jessie Maclachlan, the Scottish prima donna, who is to sing in the New Grand Opera House on the evening of Wednesday, Jan. 15. Miss Maclachlan is so well known that any reference to her unusual ability as a singer is almost unnecessary. She will be accompanied in this concert, which is being arranged by St. Andrew's Society, by Miss Adelaide McClelland, A. T. C. M., a clever reader; Mr. J. A. Carnahan, the well-known baritone, and Mr. Donald C. MacGregor, the able Scottish baritone.

BURGLARS ENTERED CALDER POSTOFFICE.

High Constable McLoud is Watching Suspicious Man.

Thomas Hall, postmaster at Calder postoffice, Delaware township, yesterday notified the court authorities that his office was broken into on Jan. 2 of this year and money and stamps taken to the value of nearly $10. High Constable McLoud has a constable working on the case, and a suspected man is under surveillance.

BRILLIANT PAGEANT PRESENTED AT PEKIN

Chinese Imperial Cortege Enters the Forbidden City—A Thousand Gorgeously-Attired Noblemen in the Procession.

Pekin, Jan. 7.—The imperial cortege entered the Forbidden City at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. It was the most brilliant scene Pekin ever witnessed.

The procession consisted of a thousand gorgeously attired noblemen, mounted upon glitteringly caparisoned horses. The emperor, the empress dowager, Prince Chun, the empress and several princes were borne in yellow chairs, their escorts carrying hundreds of gay banners and silk umbrellas.

The troops of Gen. Yuan Shi Kai, governor of Pe Chi Li, preceded the emperor. The foreign community assembled on top of the Chien gate.

The emperor and empress dowager entered the temple in the gate and burned incense. The dowager empress upon emerging from the temple saw the foreigners peering down, and bowed. A double row of soldiers, kneeling, lined the four miles' route.

LATE LOCAL ITEMS

—Judge W. Elliot conducted a sitting in the ninth division court this morning. About 30 cases were disposed of.

—Mrs. John Watson, 148 Waterloo street, and granddaughter, Miss Marguerite Cook, Richmond House, are visiting Mrs. James McMahon, 143 Princess avenue, Hamilton, Ont.

—Invitations are out for the marriage of Mr. George Marlatt, of Moosejaw, to Miss Sara Belle Douglas, of Yarmouth Center, daughter of Mr. Alex. Douglas, Yarmouth Center.

—At a concert recently given in the town hall at Drayton, Mr. J. D. Raymond, of this city, took part in his solos and monologues, and showed considerable ability as an entertainer. The Dayton Advocate speaks very highly of his abilities, as adding very much to the success of the concert.

—Miss Mossip, of Thorndale, who conducted such successful meetings in the Kensington Mission recently, began special revival meetings in the Richmond Street North Mission on Sunday night. The church was full and a gracious influence pervaded the service. The prospect is very encouraging for a revival of religion there.

NON-PAYMENT OF WAGES.

Before Squire Lacey yesterday morning James Parsons, farm laborer, charged Wm. Fleming, of London township, with non-payment of wages, claiming $13 75, balance due on month's wages. The magistrate ordered Fleming to pay $11 50.

PRIEST PRESENTS STATUE.

A beautiful statue of St. Martin has been presented to the separate school board by Rev. Father Aylward, rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, to be placed in St. Martin's school, South London. The members of the board feel very grateful to Father Aylward for his kindly remembrance of the new school.

LATE GEORGE WALTERS.

George Walters, who was thrown out of the cutter by a runaway Sunday afternoon, and who died in Victoria Hospital about 3:15 yesterday morning, was the son of the well-known sewer contractor, John Walters, who was in Buffalo visiting his brother, who is ill, when he received the sad news by telegram of his son's death. The occurrence is a sad blow to the family. Deceased was 22 years and 11 months old, and was well-liked by everybody who knew him.

MISSION TO LEPERS.

The mission to lepers held their regular meeting for January in the "Y" rooms on Monday afternoon, with a very good attendance. Mrs. Robertson opened the meeting with prayer after which Miss Tennant gave an excellent Bible reading on "Systematic Giving," which was highly appreciated. Miss Boon read two interesting letters from workers in the field, one from Miss Hatch to Mrs. Killock; one from the lady superintendant of the Nasite Leper Asylum, and one interesting article being a Bengali petition from the Leper Asylum. Miss Gunn sang very sweetly the solo entitled "Building for Eternity."

SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

Mr. John Forrestal Elected Chairman and Mr. M. O'Sullivan Secretary.

The separate school board held its first regular meeting last night for the purpose of organization. Mr. John Forrestal was elected chairman, and Mr. Martin O'Sullivan, secretary. Mr. John O. Dromgole was appointed representative on the board of education for the year in succession to the late Daniel Regan, and Mr. O. Labelle was appointed representative on the library board for a two-year term. Mr. Jas. Egan, the present regresentative, has one more year to serve.

MAYOR LEAVES TO BE MARRIED

Weds a Walkerton Lady Tomorrow Morning.

His Worship the Recipient of a Handsome Gift by Members of London Curling Club.

Mayor Rumball left the city this afternoon for Walkerton, where, tomorrow morning, he will be married to Mrs. Amelia Perdue, of that place. Following the wedding ceremony, Mayor Rumball and his bride will make a trip to Florida. He will be absent from the city for a month.

Mayor Rumball is president of the London Curling Club, and the annual match between his team and the vice-president's was held last night, the president's team winning. This, together with tomorrow's event, was the cause of a pleasant time spent after the game, at the London House. Host Evans' tables were spread in his best style, and the supper, speeches and songs were excellent. The members of the club took advantage of the occasion to show the esteem in which they hold the retiring president. They gave Mayor Rumball a magnificent case of pearl-handled knives and forks, and Mr. C. W. Andrews, secretary of the club, who made the presentation, read the following address:

"Mr. President,—Having heard that important business engagements necessitated your being absent from among us for a portion of the curling season, and that the most important engagement was of a matrimonial nature, the members of the London Curling Club embrace this opportunity of conveying to you the respect and esteem they have for you, accompanied by a small token of friendship. The intrinsic value is small, while the respect and esteem are great. We hope that at times, when the contents of this case assist you in performing the intirn, we shall all be remembered, not only as curlers, but as friends. (Signed) C. W. Andrus, secretary London Curling Club."

Mr. Andrews added that on behalf of the members of the London Curling Club, he had much pleasure in presenting him with the case, and also in wishing him and his future bride much joy and long, continued happiness.

Mayor Rumball was completely surprised, but, as usual, made a fitting reply. Shortly afterwards the company broke up, and those present crowded around Mayor Rumball to express individually the congratulations that they had extended in a body.

QUARTERLY REPORT OF COUNTY JAIL

Eighty-One Prisoners Were Committed During Three Months.

Gov. Boston's jail report for the quarter ending Dec. 31 has been compiled. It shows that 81 prisoners—38 for indictable and 43 for non-indictable offenses—were committed during the quarter. Their collective stay was 1,462 days. At the beginning of the quarter, supplies to the value of $1 70 were on hand. $82 74 worth were bought; $83 24 worth were used, leaving $1 20 worth on hand. The average cost per prisoner per diem was 5 7-10 cents, an increase of nearly three-quarters of a cent over last quarter. This was due to the large number of sick and insane prisoners, for whom the jail doctor ordered such extras as tea, milk, sugar, butter, etc.

BELLIGERENT BEES

Attack a Michigan Man With the Mercury 11 Degrees Below Zero.

Deerfield, Mich., Jan. 7.—Last spring a swarm of honey bees took up their abode between the clapboards and plastering of J. H. Tennant's house. During the late cold weather Tennant thought he would harvest some honey, supposing that the cold would have a quieting effect upon the bees. But regardless of the thermometer, 11° below zero, the little busy bee made it to warm for him, and he is still hungry for honey.

MANAGER HAYS IN THE CITY.

G. T. R. Vice-President Passed Through This Morning.

The Advertiser Reporter Has Brief Interview With the Great Railroadman.

Mr. Charles M. Hays, general manager and first vice-president of the Grand Trunk; Mr. George C. Jones, division superintendent; Mr. Maurice, third vice-president of the system, and several other officials of the road, passed through the city about 11:20 this morning. The train stopped only about two minutes.

The train was made up of the general manager's own observation coaches, which are probably the most magnificently equipped care on the system, They were pulled by one of the new fast mogul engines and the line was cleared from Detroit to Montreal for the manager's journey.

Speaking to The Advertiser, Mr. Hays said he was completely satisfied with the condition of the roadbed between here and Chicago, and stated that it was one of the finest stretches of track on the continent. Mr. Hays is now on his way to Montreal, where he will transact the important business always conected with the beginning of the year.

Mr. Hays' health seems to be much improved, and he was in a particular genial mood this morning.

PLANNED BY GEN. DEWET.

Another Descent on Natal Proposed by the Boer Leader.

British Are Fully Posted, However, and Prepared for the Raider—Enemy Secures Arms by Treachery.

Cape Town, Jan. 7.—Instead of making peace the Boers have apparently resolved upon a continuance of the war, directing the operations principally against Natal. They say that the British have destroyed their country, and they have nothing now to lose.

KRUGER HAS NO INFLUENCE.

Mr. Kruger possesses no influence with the Boers in the field. A certain number may surrender, but the mass are determined to carry on the war to the death. Dewet has supplied the keynote of the resistance. The Boer plans include a descent on Natal through the Drakensberg. Dewet is to be the chief actor in this move, and Botha is to co-operate from the north.

TREACHERY.

Swazi duplicity has resulted in arms, ammunition and correspondence from Europe getting across the border, and the enemy is well mounted and provisioned.

THE ITINERANT GOVERNMENT.

Schalkburger and Reitz continue aimlessly moving the peripatetic government. The archives, which are contained in a Cape cart, are now in the neighborhood of Roos Senekal, to the north of Middelburg, with a small bodyguard. Botha is supposed to be southeast of Ermelo, accompanied by about 800 Boers.

REASONS FOR BRITISH SUCCESS.

The recent successes in this district are due to three facts, the excellent intelligence service, the line of blockhouses from here to Ermelo, and the fact that the columns having left everything heavy with the transport have made rapid night marches.

THREE-CENT CAR FARE.

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 7.—The 3-cent street railroad fare ordinance, recently introduced in the city council at the instigation of Mayor Johnson, was passed by that body last night. The next step will be to bid for the new lines, which, if the programme is carried through, will add a number of new street car routes to the city's system.

Slowly Dying
Thousands Are Slowly Dying From Catarrh, But Don't Realize Their Danger—A Case in Point.

Mr. Breault, of Sweetsburg, Que., inherited Catarrh from his mother, and since his earliest recollections was seldom free from it. His is an interesting case, and he speaks of it as follows:

"As a child I was prone to an ulceration of the mucous lining of the throat and nasal passages. I continually hawked and spat phlegm and suffered a good deal from headache and sore eyes.

"I became pale and emaciated, lost all desire for food, got into such a distressing condition that I did not care whether I lived or not. In fact, I was slowly dying from the ravages of Catarrh, which had taken possession of almost all the organs of my body.

"The local doctors said I was in the first stages of consumption, but on his advice I inhaled Catarrhozone for ten minutes at a time every few hours of the day, and was awarded in a few days by an improvement in my condition. Catarrhozone pleased me and the doctor so well that I used it continually, and in about three weeks I had virtually recovered. The doctor says no other remedy but Catarrhozone could work such a marvel. My life was saved by Catarrhozone, as everyone in the town knows, and nothing that I or the doctor can say in its praise would adequately express our conception of its merits."

Catarrhozone is beyond doubt the most certain cure for Catarrhal and Bronchial troubles. It is simple and convenient to use, and for a two-months' treatment, which is guaranteed to cure, costs but one dollar; small size 25 cents, at druggists, or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

BOER LOSSES IN ONE WEEK.

Enemy's Strength Reduced by 378 Men.

Lord Kitchener Reports a Number of Skirmishes—In One of Them the British Lost Heavily.

London, Jan. 7.—Lord Kitchener, telegraphing from Johannesburg Monday, Jan. 6, reports the occurrence of a number of skirmishes in various parts of the war field. The most serious were at Amersfoort, Jan. 3 and Jan. 4, when Major W. H. P. Plomer and Colonel J. Spense were in contact with Commandant Christian Botha's and Commandant Opperman's commands, and drove the Boers from their positions after considerable fighting, during which the

SOMERSET LIGHT INFANTRY SUFFERED SEVERELY.

Major Vallentin and eighteen men were killed, and five officers and 28 men were wounded. The Boers left nine men dead on the field.

Colonel Colenbrander surprised Field Cornet Louw's laager, at Watervale, Jan. 5, killing 5 men and capturing 29.

Lord Kitchener mentions other minor surprises and captures.

General French reports that the Boers in Cape Colony are so reduced in numbers as to require only an elaborate police system to keep them in check.

BOERS LOSE 378 MEN.

The week's totals of Boer casualties are 36 men killed, 9 wounded, 261 made prisoners, and 72 surrendered.

IN LABOR'S FIELD

Pennsylvania Railway Train and Yardmen Get Better Pay—A Strike in Indiana.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan 6.—All the coal miners in the Birmingham district on Saturday received an advance in wages of 7½ cents per ton.

REMEMBERED HIS EMPLOYES.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 6.—George Massey, brother of Lieut.-Col. Fred Massey, and son of the late Rev. Samuel Massey, was left $50,000 by his late employer, Mr. Kemp, of Lanman & Kemp, wholesale druggists, of New York, who died recently. Large sums were left by Mr. Kemp to other faithful employes.

PENSIONS FOR EMPLOYES.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—Notices were posted Saturday in the various mills of the American Steel and Wire Company, announcing that a pension department had been created for the benefit of the 30,000 employes of the concern. It was stated at the offices of the company that the details of the scheme had not been mapped out.

INCREASE IN WAGES.

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—The Pennsylvania Railroad has announced to its train and yard men that, with few exceptions, their wages had been adjusted, to date from Jan. 1. This notice means an increase in most instances. The increase will require the payment of several hundred thousand dollars a month more than is now paid on the scale.

TRAINMEN ON STRIKE.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 7.—The Chicago and Southeastern Railway, the Midland, is again tied up by nearly all its trainmen going on strike. The men say no trains are running, but the management claims that the road is in partial operation. The strikers say they are not being paid their wages, and General Manager Stevens admits that this is the cause of the trouble, but says the difficulty will be adjusted in a few days. The company notified the local manufacturers that their orders for Brazil coal cannot be filled until the strike shall be finished.

Your Coal Money
If you have a thought inside your head that you need some coal inside your coal bin, you needn't think twice as to where to order the coal.
"Walla Walla" coal is the best "filling" your coal bin can have, because it is the best coal from the best coal-producing district of North America—the Mammoth Coal Vein.
It is hard coal. It is thrice-screened. It is mined in the summer—therefore dry and particularly clean. It is all coal. No iron ore, clinkers or real estate anywhere about it. It costs $6 50 per ton, and can be bought of no one else in London but

EARL'S DENE

It was here, then, in this little town, that, in the days of its modest prosperity, and before those of its vain ambition, "the doctor," as he was called by the neighbors, or Mr. Warden, as they should have called him, was sitting with his young wife in the parlor of his newly-furnished brick house, which stood in the outskirts of the town, and had a sort of prescriptive right to be the house of the doctor for the time being. He was a young man who had not long since come from Redchester, and had paid money for his practice in Denethorp. It was upon the strength of that practice that he had taken a wife.

Young as he was—he could not well be more than thirty—the most unskilled observer could not have taken him for anything but a country doctor of a well-known but not of the highest type. He was tall and robust, but inclined to fatness, with a red, full face that told of much exposure to wind and weather, and with a little of that undefinable look about him that belongs to a man who spends a great deal of his time on horseback as part of his regular day's work. His hands were large and red, but well trimmed and cared for; and his expression—which was by nature that of a good-humored, easy-going fellow, who would complacently take the good and ill of life, whichever might happen to turn up, without making any particular effort to secure the one or to avoid the other—had already acquired something of that unmistakable sort of artificial gravity that is peculiar to and inseparable from the profession of medicine. Women of his own rank of life, which was obviously not very high, who regarded only his number of inches, his curling brown hair, his blue eyes, his white teeth and his round and jolly voice, were unanimous in thinking the new doctor a handsome man; and, doubtless, his plain, quiet-looking wife, the daughter of a druggist in Redchester, had been of that opinion also. With the men of the place, too, he got on famously. They set him down as a good fellow, and considered him an acquisition to the club of tradesmen that met nightly behind the bar at the King's Head. Thus, what with his personal and social advantages, his youth did not tell much against his professional prospects. Indeed, for that matter, when he first came to Denethorp, its inhabitants had to exercise Hobson's choice in the selection of their physician. Patients had either to go to "the doctor" or else to doctor themselves; and it soon became an understood thing that people must avoid being taken suddenly ill when the hounds met within the reach of a man who kept but one horse.

On the whole, it was thought by her friends that Mrs. Warden had done very well indeed for herself and her family in marrying the doctor at Denethorp. It is true that when she and her husband had become well settled down, she found that she had to spend a good many solitary hours; but that she took as a matter of course. To spend his evenings among his acquaintances, settling the affairs of the world, the nation and the town, until he had drunk more punch than was quite good for him, was, according to her experience, only a necessary phenomenon of the masculine nature. Her father had always done the same; so had her brothers; so had every tradesman and professional man in her native place; and, had her experience been very much wider than it was, she would have found much the same state of affairs everywhere throughout the kingdom. It was, at all events, a symptom of the time, of which she never complained or dreamed of complaining.

But on this particular evening it was far too cold to tempt the doctor to turn out unnecessarily, even to go as far as the King's Head. So he contented himself with drawing his chair well up to the fire, placing his big feet on the brightly polished fender, mixing himself a stiff tumbler of hot grog, and so preparing to enjoy a domestic evening with his wife, who was devoting to needlework all the attention that she could spare from the baby.

It must not, however, be supposed that the hour was by any means late. The doctor used to begin his evening as soon as he had dined, supposing that his patients had not kept him from home; and the church clock had struck no more than four when he took the first sip from his glass. By the time that he had taken a second, a horn was heard, of which the well-known sound announced the arrival of the coach from Redchester.

"Poor devils of outsiders!" said the doctor. "They must be frozen to each other's sides. Well, thank the Lord, I'm not likely to be wanted to-night."

"I say, Lorry," he said, after a pause of some ten minutes, "this frost is a confounded shame. I meant to have had at least two days. But that's always the way when the meet's hard by and one has just a bit of spare time."

Just then the clock struck the quarter, and as this is the whole of the conversation that passed between them in the space of fifteen minutes, it may be fairly assumed that the doctor belonged to that numerous class who are by no means so sociable at home as they are when abroad.

But he was not fated to lose his evening's gossip, after all. The clock had not had time to chime another quarter when a knock at the door announced the arrival, cold as the evening was, of a young man of about the same age as the doctor, but of a smarter and sharper appearance.

"Why, White, my boy!—well, I do call this friendly. Hope nothing's the matter, though?"

"Nothing but cold, and that you can set right for me without going to the surgery. How snug you are in here! Have you any sisters, Mrs. Warden? Because, then—"

Mrs. Warden smiled pleasantly.

"Have you looked in at the Head, White?" asked her husband.

"Just a minute, but it was dull as ditch water. There were only Willet, you know, and old Smith; and I couldn't stand that, of course. So as I knew my fire would be out, I came on to yours."

"Make yourself comfortable, then."

"I will. What's the news?"

"Oh, there's a good crop of rheumatism just now, and that sort of thing. But, between you and I, the place is a bit of a sell."

"Why so?"

"One can't make much out of rheumatism. What I like are patients with gout, my boy; they're the sort to pay."

"I see."

"We're not like you lawyers; we can't make patients if they're not ready made."

"I don't know about that."

"Well, anyway, it's a poor sort of place—only to have one good family within a dozen miles."

"The Raymonds? But then, they're a dozen in themselves."

"Poor little things!" said Mrs. Warden, compassionately.

"Yes, they take a lot of physic; but then they give one a lot of trouble. Mrs. Raymond seems to think one has nothing to do but run after her children if one of their little fingers aches. And what's the news with you?"

"With me? Oh, nothing. But there's some news of one of our clients that'll interest you—and you, too, Mrs Warden."

"And what's that?"

"Old Clare's coming back."

"What!—to Earl's Dene?"

"Yes—and Miss with him."

"Then there'll be some fine doings this winter, I suppose?"

"Hm! The old gentleman's coming to be quiet, he says; and Miss must have changed from what she was if we get any fine doings out of her."

"What was she, then?"

"She wasn't down here much, you know. But she was very odd—deuced odd, in fact; and I don't think she and the old gentleman used to pull too well together."

"Will of / own, eh?"

"And a /ery queer will, too. I don't believe she ever danced since she was born."

"Methodistical?"

"Proud, I should say."

"Pretty?"

"So, so. But, I don't care much for that style. I think a pretty woman's one that will let you kiss her—ha, ha, ha!"

"For shame, Mr. White!" said Mrs. Warden.

"Why, there were a lot of fellows mad about her, I know; and she'd never speak to one of 'em. And well they might be, for I don't mind saying that I'd give a round plum for her myself if I had it, and be a good many pennies the richer."

"Perhaps she did her flirting up in town?"

"She was queerer up there than down here."

"What did she do there, then?"

"I have to see the old gentleman sometimes, you know, up in London; so I've met her at dinner. I sat next a bishop once, at the last election time. I wonder who'll stand for the county now?"

"And Miss Clare?"

"Miss Anne? She talked—didn't she talk! The bishop was scared out of his seven senses, and the old gentleman got to look like a lobster—and no wonder."

"And what did she talk about?"

"Lord knows what she didn't! But she made out everything to be shams—Crown, and Lords, and Parliament, and law and all; and as to the Constitution—I can't say what she didn't say; I know she made me stare.

"But that was treason," said the Doctor.

"And blasphemy!" said his wife.

"If I'd been her father, I'd have whipped her and packed her off to bed. I expect that's why he sent her abroad."

"Why, the devil must be in the girl," said the Doctor. "I must get up diseases of the brain before they come home, and lay in a stock of straight waistcoats. We are to have nice neighbors, it seems."

Hard Colds.

People whose blood is pure are not nearly so likely to take hard colds as are others.

Physiology goes into the reason.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure, causing healthy action of the mucous membrane and giving strength and tone to all the organs and functions.

This great medicine recovers the system after a cold, as no other does. g

SURE REGULATORS.—Mandrake and Dandelion are known to exert a powerful influence on the liver and kidneys, restoring them to healthful action, inducing a regular flow of the secretions, and imparting to the organs complete power to perform their functions. These valuable ingredients enter into the composition of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, and serve to render them the agreeable and salutary medicine they are. There are few pills so effective as they in their action.

Housekeeper's Backache.

Many women lift and strain, over-work and over-tax their strength. Their back gives out. Their kidneys becomeaffected. They have a painful or sore feeling in the small of the back that takes all the life and ambition out of them. They feel dull, depressed, lifeless.

Listen! The hard work you've been doing has thrown extra work on the kidneys. They cry out in protest through the aching back. You feel wretched all over because the kidneys are not working right and poison is circulating in your system. The kidneys must have help—better give them the benefit of the best Kidney Medicine made—Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets—the prescription of a kidney specialist—the result of years of study of kidney diseases.

PAIN PREVENTED SLEEP.

Mrs. N. Laviolette, Arnprior, Ont., writes as follows: "I have used Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They are beyond question the best kidney remedy I have ever used. I had lameness and an acute pain between the shoulders. I could not sleep nights. I had more or less headache. Often I suffered from indigestion caused by uric acid in my system. These troubles departed after I had used Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, my kidneys were strengthened and I rested better nights. I think these Tablets the most effective kidney remedy I have ever seen. I know that they surpass every other that I have tried heretofore, and I do not hesitate in recommending them."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a Box, at all druggists or by mail, THE DR. ZINA PITCHER CO., Toronto, Ont.

ELECTIONS ELSEWHERE.

The Mayors of Toronto and Hamilton Re-Elected.

Two Labor Candidates Were Successful at Ottawa.

A Number of Candidates Returned by Acclamation—The Results in Various Parts of the Country.

Following are the results of Monday's elections in the larger cities and in Western Ontario municipalities:

TORONTO.

Toronto—The expected happened today when Mayor Howland defeated W. F. Maclean, M.P., in the mayoralty contest by a majority of 4,652. The majority, however, was considerably less than was anticipated. The vote was 13,424 for Howland, 8,775 for Maclean, and 633 for Woodley, the Socialist. The total vote, 22,832 was considerably below the average, as it was 24,944 in 1901, and 26,347 in 1900. This shows that there was a good deal of apathy among the electors. Mayor Howland, speaking after the polls closed, said the decisive victory over Mr. Maclean would show the people of Canada that the great city of Toronto wished its affairs conducted on business principles, and did not take Mr. Maclean's promises of things he could not perform. The bylaw to provide $133,000 for a new main building and dairy building for the Industrial Exhibition was carried by 5,097 for. The intention is to have the building ready in time for this year's exhibition. There are very few changes in the aldermanic list. Twenty-three out of the 24 aldermen ran for re-election, except Ald. Cox, Henry Sheard, J. R. Starr, Dr. Fraleigh, and W. W. Hodgson. The new men in council are F. S. Spence, who comes back at the head of the poll in the second ward, R. Fleming and S. Curry, a well-known architect, John Dunn, for many years in council.

OTTAWA.

The victory of two labor candidates in today's municipal elections were a feature of the results. Three labor candidates were in the field, and the two successful men were elected in the leading wards—Central and Wellington, T. D. Ross, editor of the Journal, polled the largest vote ever given an alderman in Ottawa. The race cry in the two French wards resulted in the return of three French candidates in each of these wards. A majority of 1,000 was given in favor of establishing municipal telephones; the ratepayers, by a majority of 900, indorsed a special tax for hospitals and a majority of 1,200 was given on the question of abolishing the parks board.

HAMILTON.

Hamilton—the municipal elections here today excited very little interest, it being a foregone conclusion that Mayor Hendrie would defeat his opponent, Wm. Barrett, Socialist, by an overwhelming majority. In the aldermanic contest this was the first time on which the new bylaw electing the aldermen from the city at large, instead of from the different wards, was tried, and as was generally predicted, the vote was polled very slowly, and the result was long delayed after the poll closed. Forty-one candidates qualified for the honor of sitting at the council board, of whom only 21 could be elected. Out of the 21 aldermen elected today 15 are Conservatives and 6 Reformers. In the vote for mayor, following are the figures: Mayor, J. S. Hendrie, 5,133; W. Barrett, Socialist (labor), 1,782—majority for Hendrie, 3,351. Two bylaws were voted on—one to issue debentures for $25,000 for the building of a trunk sewer on Catherine street north, and the other to take $25,000 worth of stock in the Hamilton and Caledonian Electric Railway, to be built immediately. The bylaw voting resulted as follows: Sewer bylaw, for, 1,463; against, 1,397; Electric Railway bylaw, for, 2,297; against, 733.

Aldboro—Reeve, D. Campbell; councillors, M. Leitch, F. A. McCalium, B. House, D. McLean.

Alvinston—Reeve, W. A. Moffatt.

Amherstburg—D. D. Wigle, J. Ryan, T. Tomlinson, F. J. Maloney, J. Fillon and A. Fox, councilors; F. Wigle, F. M. Falls, F. P. Smith, school trustees.

Arkona—Reeve, Jos. Jaynes; councilors, A. E. Augustine, H. Benedict, Alex. Thomas, Wesley Lucas.

Ayr—Councilors, John Goldie, J. D. Paton, A. E. Watson and George C. Ress. The bylaw for the issue of debentures to raise the amount of $3,000 for permanent sidewalks carried by large majority.

Barrie—Mayor, W. A. Boys.

Beaverton—Mayor, Duncan McMillan.

Berlin—Mayor, J. R. Eden.

Biddulph—Reeve, George Westman; councilors, Bryan, Ryan, Armitage, Toohey.

Blenheim—Mayor, Greenwood; councilors, Bacon, Ferguson, Haggart, Morris, Vester, Williamson; school trustees, Kinnard, Burroughs.

Durward, M. Harris, J. Leitch, all by acclamation. The only ward in which election took place was in No. 4, resulting in the election of F. Corey, S. F. Whitham and J. Ham.

Brockville — The labor ticket was a winner in the municipal elections here. The result is a complete turnover.

Caradoc—Reeve, W. M. Falls.

Cayuga—Mayor, T. H. G. Denne.

Chatham—Mayor, Sulman (acclamation); water commissioners, Bray and Sheldon (acclamation); aldermen, A. McCoig, W. E. McKeough, W. S. Marshall, Wm. Fleining, Geo. Cowan, Wm. O'Brien and John Waddell. School trustees—Ward 1, Wm. Robertson; ward 2, W. H. Benson; ward 3, Dr. McKeough (acclamation); ward 4, W. F. Cornish; ward 5, G. S. Heyward. Aldermen—Mounter and Thomson. The Chaplin bylaw to loan $25,000 to that firm to start a new industry was carried by a large majority.

Clinton — The following were all elected by acclamation: Mayor, Thos. Jackson, sen.; councilors, A. McKenzie, Thomas McKenzie, J. Ford, H. Combe, C. Overbury, C. Stevenson; trustee, Chas. Hale.

Cobourg—Mayor, C. S. Huycke.

Colchester—Colchester South—Reeve, James Howie; the old councilors returned; bylaw to purchase land for agricultural society carried.

Collingwood—Mayor, J. A. Hogg.

Cornwall—Mayor, W. J. Deruchie.

Delaware—Reeve, Howlett; councilors, Bell, Elvige, Garnett, Stevens.

Dresden — Councilors, J. C. Tassle, E. Haslett, J. Blackburn, R. P. Wright, T. Steeper, W. Ward.

Dutton — Reeve, John Dowswell (acclamation); D. Black and John Clark, councilors (acclamation). New election will be necessary for remainder of council, as all but two withdrew.

Elma—Reeve, J. Donaldson; councilors, W. Wherry, W. Coats, S. Corrie, S. Boyle.

Embro — Reeve, Hodgkinson; councilors, Dr. Green, Campbell, Geddes, McBurney.

Exeter — W. H. Levett, reeve; J. Muir, John Wood, Jos. Davis and W. Harding, councilors.

Forest — Mayor, W. H. Bartram; councilors, McLean, Van Valkenburg, Jameson, Hay, O'Donnell and Flavin (acclamation).

Fort Erie—Mayor, E. Hawkins.

Galt — Voting on a municipal bylaw to provide a free site for North American Beet Root Sugar Company, now in process of organization, resulted in a majority of 825 for the bylaw. The total vote polled was 911. Opponents of the bylaw only numbered 43.

Glencoe — Councilors, J. N. Currie, P. D. Keith, W. Vair and Geo. Parrott.

Goderich — Councilors, Elliott, McKim, Knox, Hunter, Thompson and Murney; M. G. Cameron, mayor (acclamation).

Grimsby—Mayor, S. Wismer.

Guelph — Mayor, J. Kennedy (acclamation). Aldermen — St. Patrick's ward, Stull, Taylor, Newstead; St. George's ward, White, Day and Drew (acclamation); St. John ward, Barker, Carter and Hamilton; St. David's ward, Barber, Scott and Kilgour (acclamation); St. Andrew's ward, Hastings, Mahoney and Barber; St. James' ward, Crowe, Slater and Irving. Vote on municipal ownership plebiscite, majority 316; general vote bylaw, majority for, 227.

Hanover—Councilors, Hallam, Bail, Ahrens and Frook.

Harriston—Mayor, J. M. McKay.

Hay—Reeve, P. Lamont; councilors, Wm. Consit, Wm. Steick, Alex, Thompson, A. Goetz.

Howick—Reeve, J. J. Greeg; councilors, J. A. Strong, Thomas McKee and John Spence; trustees for Gorrie, Jas. Armstrong, J. R. Williams and Wm. Bennett.

A Strong Man

Is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from indigestion or some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs of digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man doesn't feel just right, when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous and irritable, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man needs to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, stimulates the liver, nourishes the nerves, and so gives health and strength to the whole body.

Mr. Thomas A. Swarts, of Sub. Station C, Columbus, Ohio, Box 103, writes: "I was taken very sick with severe headache, then cramps in the stomach and my food would not digest, then kidney and liver trouble and my back got weak so I could scarcely get around. The more I doctored the worse I got until six years passed. I could only walk in the house by the aid of a chair, and I had given up to die. Then one of my neighbors said, 'Take my advice and take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and make a new man out of yourself.' The first bottle helped me and after I had taken eight bottles in about six weeks I was weighed and found I had gained twenty-seven (27) pounds, and I am as stout and healthy to-day, I think, as I ever was."

HOCKEY.

THE PARKHILL CLUB.

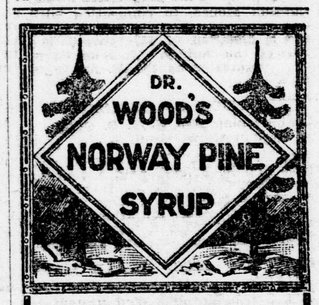

The Parkhill hockey enthusiasts met the other evening for the purpose of organizing a team to chase the puck this winter, and appointed the following officers: President, Mr. J. H. Laughton; vice-president, Mr. Thomas Monroe; secretary, Archie Buckley; treasurer, Mr. Fred. Zapfe; managing committee, Messrs. W. J. Jamieson, J. Graham and Thomas Magladery; captain, Mr. Bert Ferguson. Canada's national winter game has received heaty support there since first organized, some five years ago, and the prospects for a good, fast team of "home-brews" this winter are excellent.

YACHTING.

ANOTHER HERRESHOFF RACER.

Bristol, R. I., Jan. 7.—Anticipating another international yacht race, Capt. Nat Herreshoff, it is understood, has plans all under way for a 90-footer to defend the America's cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's proposed Shamrock III. No order has been given, nor has it been decided as yet that the Columbia and Constitution will be set aside in favor of a new sloop, but Mr. Herreshoff is looking to the future as he did in 1900.

Rheumatic sufferers find Hood's Sarsaparilla a permanent cure for their inflamed and swollen joints and stiff muscles.

Cures Coughs, Colds, Lung and Bronchial affections that other remedies won't touch.

MR. THOS. J. SMITH, Caledonia, Ont., writes: "A year ago I had a very severe cold which settled in my lungs and in my throat, so that I could scarcely speak louder than a whisper. I tried several medicines, but got no relief until I used one and a half bottles of Norway Pine Syrup, which completely cured me."

A Woman's Vote

There is a kingdom in which woman has a vote. It rests with her almost altogether to say what shall appear upon the table. It is the voters of this realm who have given the proud place they occupy to-day. They only maintain their premier position by their high and unvarying grade.

TILLSON'S PAN-DRIED OATS

Women voters vote for "TILLSON'S" because they can be proud of the porridge they make.

London Advertiser.
Typographical Union Label London

A LOCAL BUDGET.

—Mr. Reginald H. Hudson has just returned from Goderich, where he was the guest of the family of the late Rev. James Carrie and Rev. J. W. Robinson.

—The prayer meetings held under the auspices of the Ministerial Alliance started yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. The Dean of Huron and the Rev. George Bishop presided. Rev. W. J. Clark and Rev. T. S. Johnston presided this afternoon.

—The first of the series of meetings held in connection with the week of prayer in the Anglican churches took place at St. George's School last evening. The meeting was presided over by Bishop Baldwin and Ven. Archdeacon Davis.

—A Detroit dispatch says: A chicken fight was held on Saturday night at Frank Kramer's, between birds owned by "Mickey" Curney, of London, Ont., and some said to be owned by Ald. "Toney" Weller, of this city. The local birds won nine out of twelve battles, and the Canadian sports are said to have been compelled to borrow money to get across the river.

—Circulars have been received by the two Horticultural Societies of the city, from the deputy minister of agriculture, warning them that while working as a horticultural society they must not encroach on the work of an agricultural society. It also stated that those entitled to vote at the annual meetings were only those who had paid yearly subscriptions.

—The anual meeting of the Belvidere Club was held on Saturday night, and speeches were given by the retiring and newly-elected officers. Mr. R. Rider, the retiring president, had helped the club much during his term of office, increasing the membership almost two-fold. The officers elected for the year were: President, Chas. Ellis; first vice, P. Kingsnorth; secretary, J. McPetrie; treasurer, E. Moule; reporter, E. Stinson; chairman room committee, R. Wray; auditors, G. Wyatt and R. Southcott.

LIBERAL DONATION.

The Advertiser learns that, in the settling up with the proprietors of the Tecumseh House, in connection with the recent St. Andrew's dinner, they made a donation of $25 towards the funds of the society. This action is much appreciated by the St. Andrew's people.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

Last evening Bro. S. T. S. Gale, D. C.R., and Bro. R. Whitton, G. McBride, L. Barton, D. Cameron, F. Howie and F. Friend, paid a visit to Court Excelsior, A. O. F., West London, and installed the officers for the ensuing year. After initiation and installation took place a pleasant hour was spent in speech-making and song.

DEATH OF MRS. SARAH MARSHALL.

Mrs. Sarah Marshall died yesterday at the residence of her son, Mr. Finlay Marshall, Mill street, at the age of 83 years. Mrs. Marshall was one of the earliest of the old class settlers in the city, most of whom are now with the great majority. She moved from this city in 1849 to Lobo, where she lived till eight years ago, when she again came to London to reside with her son. She is survived by a family of four sons: John, of Forest; Arthur S., of East Williams; Dr. James, of Pontiac, Illinois, and Finley, of the London Mutual Fire Insurance Company. The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning.

A Throat and Lung Treatment

That Has Been Largely Imitated, But Never Successfully Rivaled, is Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

There is no guesswork about the virtues of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It has been before the people too long, and withstood too many a battle brunt from aspiring rivals to be considered an experiment of unknown value.

Year by year, as the fall and winter seasons come and go, the sale of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine increases steadily and certainly. It has proven its remarkable value, won its laureis, and continues to lead the van as the most popular and most largely used cough and cold medicine of the country.

Children especially are fond of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, because it is sweet and pleasant to the taste, and quickly relieves and cures them when gasping for breath with choking-up air passages, or tearing the linings of the throat and bronchial tubes with a severe and painful cough.

Bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, sore throat and severe chest colds and painful coughs are relieved and cured promptly and thoroughly by this famous preparation. It also frees the asthma sufferer from the dreadful paroxysms which cause him such keen agony, and cures asthma, as has been proven in a hundred cases.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine aids expectoration, clears the throat and air passages, soothes and heals the inflamed linings of the bronchial tubes, and cures coughs of every description. But it is far more than a mere cough cure, for its action is far-reaching, and it thoroughly removes the cold as well.

You cannot compare Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine with any remedy you ever used. It is unique as a treatment for throat and lung troubles. There are other preparations of linseed and turpentine put up in imitation of Dr. Chase's, and it is therefore important that you be careful when buying; 25 cents a bottle; family size, three times as much, 60 cents. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A handsome and useful Christmas present for your mother or grandmother is a copy of Dr. Chase's last and complete Receipt Book. Illustrated folder free.

NARROW ESCAPE OF MAN IN CUTTER

Mr. Thomas Sanborn Came Near Being Crushed by Engine.

Mr. Thomas W. Sanborn, of William street, narrowly escaped serious injuries or perhaps death at the Lake Erie and Detroit River tracks at Hill street, while driving in a cutter yesterday afternoon.

At this point on the tracks a number of passenger coaches are always side-tracked and persons walking cannot see an incoming train except when near the tracks. This was Mr. Sanborn's case and he drove directly in front of a Michigan Central St. Thomas train. The horse was caught on the fender, and carried some distance and the cutter was also dragged a short way. Mr. Sanborn jumped and escaped injury. The horse and cutter were not seriously injured or damaged.

WESTERN ONTARIO

Live Items Culled for Busy People's Information.

Clifford Smith, a well-known Windsor athlete, is dead from inflammatory rheumatism. He was a member of Windsor's lacrosse team when the game flourished there a few years ago.

Sarnia Observer: Dr. E. P. Westell is now proprietor of the Normandie House, having purchased the business lately carried on by the late Willard Slocum. Wm. Hendrie, formerly of the Mansion House, at the tunnel, is now proprietor of the Belchamber House, having purchased the business from Dr. Westell.

Herbert Wilson, yard brakeman, M. C. R., St. Thomas, was injured on Saturday morning while at work in the east end of the yard. He was setting the brake of a coal car, and when stepping over to another car fell to the ground. He fortunately did not strike the rails of the adjoining track. The only injuries were a badly bruised right side.

On Friday evening last a new chopper burst at the Plattsville mill and was completely wrecked. Two employes were standing near by. George Taylor was struck on the side by a piece of flying stone, and is seriously injured. Levi Holme escaped unhurt. One piece of stone, weighing about 70 or 80 pounds, went through the ceiling, cutting off a joist about 10x3.

J. R. Williams, once a bootblack of Sarnia, but now a "steeplejack" of Pittsburg, has two diamond rings valued at $300, which the customs officials of Port Huron are holding for duty. Williams came to that city during the holidays and tried to sell one of the rings. The customs officials were notified, and Customs Officers Buzzell and Bailey confiscated them. The property was purchased in this country, and no duty was paid on the stones.

The proposed telephonic connection between Berlin and London is, after all, not to be carried through, notwithstanding the conference of a couple of years ago.

N. TEMISCAMINGUE SENDS A STORY

A Sturdy Farmer Stricken With Rheumatism Is Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

This Man Was So Bad That He Was Almost Paralyzed—A Wonderful Case and a Very Happy Cure by This Excellent Remedy.

North Temiscamingue, Que., Jan. 6.—At the Douglas Farm near here lives Mr. W. H. Johnston, who today considers himself a very happy man indeed.

The cause of Mr. Johnston's happiness is his somewhat sudden and very remarkable recovery from the most severe case of rheumatism ever seen in this county.

For a long time he suffered with the Rheumatism which gradually grew worse till it threatened his life. His principal trouble was in his left side, and it was so bad that his neck stiffened so that he could scarcely move it, and was beginning to fear paralysis. The pain would go away for a time, but return with greater force, and a strange feature of his case was that after the pain would leave any part, it left behind it that prickly "pins and needles" sensation.

He thought that perhaps his smoking tobacco had somthing to do with it, and he gave this up, but received no benefit at all till he used Dodd's Kidney Pills.

This remedy he found to be a complete and absolute cure for his malady, and very soon after commencing its use, the pain began to leave him, and now he is strong and well.

That such an extreme case should yield so easily and quickly proves that Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure any case of rheumatism.

The first theater in the United States to be lighted with gas was in Philadelphia, which put in gas pipes in 1816.

THEY WAKE THE TORPID ENERGIES.—Machinery not properly supervised and left to run itself, very soon shows fault in its working. It is the same with the digestive organs. Unregulated from time to time, they are likely to become torpid and throw the whole system out of gear. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills were made to meet such cases. They restore to the full the flagging faculties, and bring into order all parts of the mechanism.

Women are now admitted to the two universities in Baden, but they have not been able to secure permission to study dentistry.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURE BACKACHE LAME BACK RHEUMATISM DIABETES BRIGHT'S DISEASE DIZZINESS AND ALL KIDNEY & URINARY DISEASES ARE CURED BY DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

MRS. I. STEEVES, Edgett's Landing, N.B., writes on Jan. 18, 1901: "In the fall of 1899 I was troubled with a severe pain in the back. I could scarcely get up out of a chair and it gave me great pain to move about. I took one box of Doan's Kidney Pills and was completely cured. I have not been troubled with it since."
