REPORT

OF THE

WORK OF THE PUBLIC ARCHIVES

FOR THE YEARS 1914 AND 1915

ARTHUR G. DOUGHTY

PUBLIC ARCHIVIST.

PRINTED BY ORDER OF PARLIAMENT

OTTAWA

PRINTED BY J. DE L TACHÉ, PRINTER TO THE KING'S MOST-EXCELLENT MAJESTY

1916

OTTAWA, July 31, 1916.

The Hon. P. E. BLONDIN, M.P.,
Secretary of State,
Ottawa.

SIR,—I have the honour to submit to you a report of the work of the Public Archives for the years 1914 and 1915.

In the appendices will be found copies of early Canadian ordinances, many of which are not to be found elsewhere in print. The present collection with the ordinances printed in the report of 1913 complete the list so far as it is known.

The numerous additions to the pamphlets previous to Confederation has made it necessary to issue a list which is included in this present volume.

Papers of considerable interest have been copied in Montreal, Québec, the Maritime Provinces, and the West.

There are so many additions to the Map Division that it has been considered desirable to prepare a supplementary catalogue which will be issued in due course.

I have the honour to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

A. G. DOUGHTY.

APPENDICES TO ARCHIVES REPORT.

- A.—Reports of the Index, Manuscript, and Map Divisions.
- B.—Papers relating to the Surrender of Fort St. Johns and Fort Chambly.
- C.—Ordinances made for the Province of Quebec, by the Governor and Council of the said Province, from 1768 until 1791, being a continuation of the Ordinances published as Appendix E of the Report of the Public Archives for 1913.
- D.—Catalogue of Pamphlets, Journals, and Reports in the Public Archives of Canada, 1611-1867, with index.

APPENDIX A

REPORTS OF THE INDEX, MANUSCRIPT, AND MAP DIVISIONS

REPORTS OF THE INDEX, MANUSCRIPT AND MAP DIVISIONS

INDEX DIVISION.

The work of indexing the volumes in the "C" or Military series is being pursued normally. The documents covering the important period of the War of 1812-15 are nearly all indexed; only about a half-dozen volumes now remain to be done. Out of the 1,350 volumes forming the Military series, 326 are now completely indexed.

The number of cards prepared, typewritten, checked, classified and placed in their respective drawers, since my last report, is as follows—

C. Series.	122,462
S. Series.	57,099
Miscellaneous.	22,556
Total.	202,117

SEARCHES.

The number of requests for information and the production of documents continue to increase every year. The subjects of these numerous inquiries are quite varied; they embrace all sorts of questions: some refer to very important points of history, others relate to family histories and genealogy; while a large number deal with land applications, grants for military services, etc.

APPENDIX B

Papers Relating to the Surrender of Fort
St. Johns and Fort Chambly.

The Falls in this River are justly ranked among the Curiosities of the World, they are at the Mouth of the River about one Mile from the Entrance, and are navigable 4 times in 24 Hours, which commands great attention as only a few Minutes are required to pass in safety.

The Tide rising from 20 to 24 Feet at High-water is 6 or 8 Feet higher than the River, which occasions a Fall in the River as well as out, the whole Water of the Country having to pass between 2 Rocks 60 Yards distant.

PAPERS RELATING TO THE SURRENDER OF FORT ST. JOHNS AND FORT CHAMBLY.

Montreal, June the 8th—1775.

Sir

I have ordered a party of Savages into the woods from the Isle aux noix till below your post, but don't depend upon them so far as to omit taking the same precautions you would observe, were there no such people. I recommend to you, that the two redoubts, one to enclose Hazen's house, the other to enclose the barrack, be finished as soon as you can; you will then have more men at liberty—The soldiers might work two or four hours, at most & then be relieved, so the business might go on briskly. I shall allow half a pint of rum to those who work, or have any extraordinary fatigue to mix with their water, at your discretion, but all who get drunk are to be struck off this allowance.

In Baker's papers, mention is made of Macdonald Col: Christie's Overseer at Riviere la Colle, as a person that was very kind & free in telling him all the proceedings of the Regulars, which he found to agree with all his other accounts, but more full & particular.

Be so good as to send a Party & take this fellow up, confine him at St. John's & examine him strictly, that we may see if he is equally inclined to inform us of what he knows respecting the Rebels, You must frighten the Rascal & inform me of what you can get out of him, I then will send you directions how he is to be disposed of.

Be so good as to acquaint me when the schooner is launched & when you think she will be equip'd for 'Service:

(8) The Wind has been easterly for some time past & will consequently have detain'd the Rebels on the other side of the lake, when it changes they will probably send some of their people to reconoitre. Ensign Gordon acquainted me this morning that being on Guard last night with Capt Livingstone, some expressions which were highly improper passed between them, Captain Livingstone being very much in liquor; that this morning Captain Livingstone and he being still on Duty, the former came to him and insisted on satisfaction; that he answer'd it was an improper time, & was astonished he shou'd speak to him in that stile, when on other occasions he had told him publicly he was a scoundrel, and had threatened to treat him as Such; of which, he, Captain Livingstone, had never taken any notice, that on this Captain Livingstone spit in his face, & the other knocked him down.—

From this account, I am therefore, under the very disagreeable necessity of refusing doing duty with Captain Livingstone till he publicly clears himself; and take this early opportunity of acquainting you, (both as Commanding the troops here & having the immediate Command of the Regiment) with my resolution, as I shou'd otherwise have been in orders to relieve him this evening.—And have the honor to remain

Minutes of a Court of Enquiry held at St John's the Fifth of October 1775 by order of Major Preston. Composed of the following Members Cap^t Stuart, Cap^t Kinneer, Cap^t Newmarsh, .. Cap^t Strong & Cap^t Bailie.

Ensign James Gordon informs the Court, that he was upon Guard along with Cap^t Livingston Monday Night last the second ins^t that about Two o'Clock on Tuesday morning Cap^t Livingston came in to the Room where M^r Gordon was laying on the Table and Complained that one of the Sentinells had been absent from his post, at the same time desiring M^r Gordon to go out and visit them, that M^r Gordon did so and found them all on their posts and alert, which he reported to Cap^t Livingston; Cap^t Livingston then said it was not so, and found fault with M^r Gordon for interfering with what did not belong to him. M^r Gordon then appealed to M^r Hay and M^r Thomas the two other officers of the Guard, if he did anything but his Duty. Cap^t Livingston paid no attention to what the Gentlemen said, but gave him a great deal of abusive Language, and Challenged him. M^r Gordon told him it was no proper time to give a Challenge and took M^r Thomas witness that, Cap^t Livingston did Challenge him; in the morning after breakfast when M^r Gordon came into the Room, Cap^t Livingston told him he expected to have Satisfaction for what had passed in the Night. M^r Gordon replied if there was any one injured it was him, but that he did not think that a proper time. Cap^t Livingston still urged him to fix upon an hour to fight him, and upon his pressing him to it, he told him he would not fight him, that he did not look upon him (Cap^t Livingston) as a Gentleman, having given him language formerly that no Gentleman would put up with, which he had taken no notice of, and further told him that he would make Major Preston acquainted with what had passed and that Cap^t Livingstone was Drunk upon Guard, upon which he rose in a great Passion and Called M^r Gordon a Scoundrall & Rascall & Spitt in his face, upon which M^r Gordon gave him a blow and left the Room immediately; And went directly to Cap^t Gordon and informed him of what had passed.

Cap^t Gordon, informs the Court, that Ensign Gordon had acquainted him as abovementioned. On which he declined doing duty with Cap^t Livingston till he had Cleared up his Character.

Cap^t Livingston, informs the Court that Ensign Gordon and he had some Disputes in the course of the Night but that he gave him no Names, that M^r Gordon told him if he was not upon Guard, he would call him out; that as he had done so, in the morning after breakfast, Cap^t Livingston told M^r Gordon that he would be off Guard at Six in the Evening, that M^r Gordon made use of many Scurrilous expressions, upon which he spit in his face and M^r Gordon knocked him down.

Ensign Thomas, informs the Court, that there was some Dispute happened betwixt Cap^t Livingston and Ensign Gordon, but does not recollect the Particulars, that he remembers Cap^t Livingston told M^r Gordon frequently that he was to be off Guard at Six o Clock in the Evening and then expected he would meet him and give him Satisfaction, that he M^r Thomas advised M^r Gordon to give no ans^r wanting to avoid a quarrell betwixt them, he remembers Cap^t Livingston called M^r Gordon two or three times an Ignorant Boy—he likewise says he thinks Cap^t Livingston was much in Liquor; he recollects that upon Cap^t Livingston telling M^r Gordon, as above, that M^r Gordon replied it was an improper time to accept of a Challenge.

Lieut Hay, informs the Court, that Cap^t Livingston having been out on the Rounds, came in and said he had found a Sentinell of his post, that he ordered him to be relieved and Confined, but before the Corporall had time to relieve the Sentinell, Cap^t Livingston ordered M^r Gordon to go out and visit that Post; M^r Gordon accordingly went. And upon his return told Cap^t Livingston that he had found the Man upon his post: Cap^t Livingston seemed to think that M^r Gordon meant to reflect on him for ordering the man to be Confined, and upon that an Altercation commenced betwixt Cap^t Livingston & M^r Gordon, which continued from time to time, And to the purport as mentioned by M^r Thomas; The Sentinell was accordingly Confined by Cap^t Livingstons order, but released in the morning upon it's being found he was not from his post—after Breakfast Cap^t Livingston mentioned to M^r Gordon that they would be of Duty at Six o Clock at Night, and expected then Satisfaction. M^r Gordon replied he would not fight him because upon a former occasion he threatened to thrust a Tobacco pipe down Cap^t Livingston's throat which he did not resent properly, that he then left the Room and as he was going out at the Door he heard Cap^t Livingston mention the word Spit but does not know what he meant by it, About half an hour after that, Cap^t Livingston came up to the room where M^r Hay was, after he had been some time there he observed Cap^t Livingstons nose bleeding, who told him he had been knocked down by Ensign Gordon. Cap^t Livingston asked M^r Hay & Lieu^t. Duff (who happened to be likeways in the room) their advice how he should act, who recommended to him to send for Cap^{ts} Strong & Stuart who were in the next Room imagining them more proper to advise with than they M^{rs} Hay & Duff. M^r Hay says in regard to Cap^t Livingstons being Drunk he appeared very much flustered, which he M^r Hay attributed to two reasons, the Effect of Liquor, and the Effect of Passion M^r Gordon desiring to know whether he thought Cap^t Livingston Drunk before the Altercation happened, he answers he did not think him Drunk but flustered; he likeways says he means by being flustered a person that is a little in liquor. M^r Gordon having asked, what was his intention in desiring Cap^t Livingston not to Sing M^r Hay answers that it was, that the gentlemen who lay over the Guard Room might not be disturbed—he further says that M^r Gordon told Cap^t Livingston he was a fellow beneath his notice.

Sir

I beg leave to inform you that Yesterday the Pilot declared before Captain Mackay that he could not take charge of Piloting this Schooner up the river on any Service whilst there was a Battery that the Guns could be turned on the Vessel in different directions as she run up; because said he if our Rigging should be shot away the vessel could go no further, and under such a Fire as we must expect from both Guns and Musquetry there would be no possibility of repairing it—

Now Sir you find he differs very much from what he formerly mentioned, and I was well convinced myself, that there was no performing any Publick Service with a Vessel of this kind and in so confined a Navigation, under so many obstacles that could in any way turn out to answer the purpose intended—I always have and ever will be ready to render any Service that is practicable, and from the present arrangement of the Enemy's Vessels and their Battery's that they are determined to Stop the passage up the River; and I give this as my opinion that was the vessel double the Force and completely equipped as a Vessel of War that we could not force a passage, without there was a general attack by Land as well as Sea, and I am Sir

Sir

When you sent for me on shore to ask my Opinion with regard to the Vessel's, it was in a publick Guard Room; I expected it would have been before the Council whom I thought was the most proper Persons to be present; However, I give it as my Opinion, that as there is no possibility of being out of the range of the Enemy's Shot from their Battery's, and the Vessel's (under the present circumstances) being of no use, it is the best way to haul both Vessel's close to the shore between the Redouts, there if the Vessel's are sunk, their Artillery and Store's will be saved, and the Vessel's at a proper opportunity may be weigh'd again; but upon the other hand, was the like accident to happen on the other shore, the Vessel's with their equipment would be lost or perhaps fall into the Enemy's hands; and be assured Sir whenever there is the least probability of making the Vessel's usefull I shall not fail of embracing the opportunity; I have accordingly hauled them over between the Redoubts.

If the Gentlemen of the Council chuses to see my credentials from General Carleton I am ready to shew them whenever they think proper, and if you should think it necessary whilst the Vessel's lay in this inactive State I am ready to land with my people and render every Service that is in our power for the defence of St Johns and I am

Mr Hunter presents his Compliments to Major Preston, acquaints him that he was a great deal surprized last night that a Serjeant was sent by the Officer of the Guard to enquire of Captⁿ Thomson whether there was any Seamen on board the Vessel's, he thinks that enquiry would have been much properer thro' their Commander as those Seamen are entirely subordinate to him and can be commanded by no other Person here, but if Major Preston has given the charge of these Vessels to Captⁿ Thomson he has no kind of objection being conscious that he has always done his duty; he nor his Company has never slept out of the Vessel since she hauld from the Wharf. untill last night when it was impossible to sleep on board without being amphibious; but notwithstanding, the Seamen were employed in hauling the Galley nearer to the Shore and securing her in the best manner we were able, he has had a constant watch kept on board by the Seamen but as there are only Six of them that can do their duty, can not afford but two upon Watch he does not think it quite sufficient but leaves the rest to Major Preston—

S^t Johns, October
17th 1775.

P.S. We would have endeavoured to get the Brass Guns out last night but it was so late before we got the Galley secured could not effect it—should be glad if a Blacksmith would attend to night to take out the Forelocks, but if Major Preston has no occasion for the Guns M^r Hunter thinks they are as safe there as any where as it is impossible they can be carried off without the Centinels giving the alarm—M^r Hunter must likewise hint to the Major that he has been many Years at Sea, that he can Rigg a Ship, Navigate, and Manoeuvre her, this is notorious to many in the Navy.—

Articles of Capitulation proposed by Major Charles Preston for His Majesty's Forts at S^t John's in the Province of Canda [sic].

Art. 1. All Acts of Hostility shall cease on both sides 'till the Articles of Capitulation shall be agreed upon and signed Agreed—

Art. 2. The Garrison shall be allowed all the Honours of War, and suffered to proceed with their Baggage and Effects to the most convenient Port in America, from thence to embark for Great Britain as soon as they shall be furnished with Transports and Provisions by His Excellency General Gage or Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Troops in America.

(Ans.)—The Garrison shall march out with the Honours of War—This is due to their fortitude and Perseverance. The Noncommissioned Officers and Privates shall ground their Arms on the Plain south of the Fort, & immediately embark on board such boats as shall be provided for that Purpose. The officers shall keep their side arms; & their fire arms shall be put up in a box, & delivered to them when those unhappy disputes are ended if they do not chuse to dispose of them before.

The Garrison must go to Connecticut Government or such other province as the Hon^{ble} the Continental Congress shall direct, there to remain till our unhappy differences shall be compromised, or 'till they are exchanged—

Our prisoners have been constantly treated with a brotherly affection—The effects of the Garrison shall not be withheld from them.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

Art. 3^d An Officer or Quarter Master from each Corps shall be allowed to pass to Montreal upon Parole of Honour, there to transact & settle the Business of his respective Corps, and to bring up their Baggage, Cloathing and Pay, for which purpose they shall be furnished with Carts and Batteaux.

Agreed to its fullest Latitude—

Art. 4. The Canadian Gentlemen, Inhabitants and other Persons residing in the Province, and now at St John's, shall be permitted to return unmolested to their respective homes, with their Arms & Baggage, & remain secure in their Property and Effects.

Answered in the second; the Canadian Gentlemen, & others being part of the Garrison.

Art. 5. The Sick & wounded shall be taken care of and permitted to join their respective Corps or return to their respective homes upon their Recovery.

The sick & wounded shall be taken care of by their own surgeons, & when recovered follow their respective Corps—

Art. 6. As soon as the above Articles shall be signed, Major Preston will deliver up the Forts with the Ammunition, Provisions &c.

Tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock the Garrison will march out, having first collected their baggage & effects together in a convenient place for embarkation, & leaving a guard for its protection. The officers must be upon honor with respect to their baggage; for should any Canadian or other effect his escape, his baggage shall be given as plunder to the troops.

The Quarter Master General, with proper Commissaries, will attend at 8 o'clock to receive the Artillery, Ammunition, Naval Stores, &c.—

The deserters from the Continental Army shall not be included in the stipulation for the Garrison. The Commanding Officer to sign & deliver the Articles of Capitulation by sunset this evening—

Major Prestons reply to Montgomerys Articles of Capitulation

The Answers to the above articles will be assented to by Major Preston, provided the Expression (in Answer to Article 2^d) "I wish they had been exerted in a better cause" be entirely erased; the Garrison being determined rather to die with their arms in their Hands, than submit to the Indignity of such a Reflection.

Our Redouts were at this time (if not finish'd) at least in a very defensible State; the Insides of the parapet and the Embrasures were sodded: The ditch was frais'd and the Guns mounted, these it is true on very bad platforms. We had two eight Inch Howitz and 8 royal or Cahorn Mortars, about 30 pieces of Cannõn, among which were two light brass 24 lbs, 6 Iron 9 lb. The rest were of Smaller Calibres, and chiefly brass. The Schooner which before the Redouts carried 12 Guns and was finish'd. The Row Galley which was launch'd soon after carried one brass 24 lb. The Garrison consisted of did duty {

We had besides these, or rather were encumber'd with about 40 Women & as many children, whom we were now oblig'd to take within the Forts from huts around them, where they had hitherto liv'd.

The whole amounting to souls were contain'd in a Barrack built for 25 Men, a barn, and a large house belonging to Col^l: Christie & a M^r Hazen. It was round these buildings that the Redouts were thrown up and these were the work of 300 Men since the month of July.

The Men had neither Bedding, Straw or Blankets; for about 20 between near 200 men deserve not to be mention'd.

Provisions and a quantity of blankets which were on the way to S^t Johns were seiz'd by the rebels, a loss of great Importance in a Climate where the nights of September and October are as cold as those of the two succeeding Months in England.

17th—At about two o'clock this Afternoon a few Batteaux appear'd off Point Daniel about 1½ Miles from the Fort, and our Guard Boat cou'd perceive a Sloop, a Schooner, Gondolas, pettiangers, and a great many Batteaux. The Vessels were at Anchor and Men were landing from Boats. The Gondola's advanc'd a little and fir'd several Shot at the Guard Boats and at the Forts whilst we sent them some Howitz Shells from one of these pieces of Artillery which Captⁿ Williams had fixt so as to serve as a Mortar.

The Pennsylvania Gazette of the 11th Nov 76 says that Major (later of Connecticut) captured 2000 of the 1780 regular Congress. Said that on 13th of the Month the Enemy's Dragoon's were 4000 and that Captain Quackenbush arrived from England concerning the above statement. Supporting the same. They ought to be allowed for the small Detachment of their Regiments in these Redouts, and not have wanted so red as they are by Famine, but they did not feel bold enough to form, when their Number was ten to One in the Garrison nearly 18th—This morning we were inform'd that the rebels intended to take Post about 2 miles lower than St John's, at a Rivulet near which we had had a redoubt 'till within a fortnight, when the Enemy made their first Appearance at the Isle aux Noix. Lieut' Duff with 30 Men was sent for intelligence, with order to bring in the cattle belonging to the neighbouring farms. At his return he reported that there appear'd to him to be about 200 Men on the other Side of the rivulet entrench'd with the logs of a Bridge which they had broken. Captⁿ Strong was then sent with a detachment of 100 Men, an Officer of Artillery with a field piece and the Volunteers. The Rebels on their Appearing fir'd a few Shot and ran off into the wood. Our people took two wounded prisoners, and lost one man. (Mons^r Beaubien a Volunteer.) We had two or three wounded.

After this little Skirmish whilst the breastwork was destroying more Ammunition was sent for from the Fort which an Officer and 20 Men brought up. The Bridge was scarce repair'd when some noise was heard and an Indian who appear'd at the Edge of the wood was seiz'd by two or three who were with us. A good many Shot were fir'd from behind the Trees and Bushes but upon our returning the fire very briskly nothing more was heard of the Enemy. A Soldier of the 26th Regiment was kill'd in this last fray.

Captⁿ. Dundee, on the second firing being heard at the Fort, was order'd out with a reinforcement of 40 Men and met the first detachm^t on their return to the Fort.

During this time, the Enemys Gondola's had been insulting the redouts with a few Shot which had no Effect.

The Indian who was taken was buffeted by our Indians and sent back. M^r Hazen and M^r Tucker who were found with the Rebels (tho' indeed without Arms) were kept prisoners in the Forts. In this Affair, as there have since been throughout the Campaign in Canada There were Englishmen fighting against Englishmen, French against French and Indians of the same Tribe against each other.

Both the last night and this the Rebels were heard at work entrench^d themselves.—

19. We heard they had again taken post in the place from, which we had driven them, and had brought away the Inhabitants from between the Redouts and themselves.

We demolis'd the huts which had been built without the Forts for the Women.

The two or three Indians who were yet at St Johns were sent to Montreal We had a false Alarm in the night from a Sentry firing his piece.

It rain'd extremely hard and half the Garrison was constantly up & was reliev'd every four hours.

20. A Man was sent across the River to Hazens House. He could from thence see them entrenching very near us: We threw a Shell or two towards the place where we presum'd they were.

We had an Alarm in the night & almost a general fire from the Works. In the morning a Horse was found dead, this was the Enemy our out Sentry had seen and challeng'd.

21. A Man was sent out again a little way to the northward of the redouts, and found the road block'd in many places with fell'd trees.

It rain'd the whole night and blew very hard. One of our Batteaux drove down the River and was lost.

A large Batteau with 3 or 4 Barrels of pork and as many of Flour in which a Boy was sleeping, drove down from the Enemy. We Stopt her and at the same time a Yawl from the same quarter.

The Boy told us that the Enemy had 4 Guns and two mortars, that they were erecting a Battery, and making a road to it thro' the wood, that their Tents were insufficient and that they slept in the gondolas pettiangers &c^t: that their Batteaux were constructed for 40 Men. He likewise told us they had sent back to Tichonderoga for a 13 inch Mortar called the Sow.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

22. A deserter came in, he told us the enemy were erecting a Battery close to the edge of the wood south of the redouts, and within 400 yards of us, that they were making a road thither from the Point. We sent a good many Shot and shells to the place the deserter pointed out to us. Our Guard Batteau was fir'd on this morning.

This day we sat about pulling down the houses near the Fort and making a Line of Communication between the North and South Redouts.

Towards night a party of 100 Men was sent across the river to Hazens House to fetch away the Cattle, but the Cattle cou'd not be found & the party was fir'd on.

At about 8 o'Clock we receiv'd several shot from Musketry at the edge of the Wood, South of the redoubts. A traverse was begun at the South redoubt and we erected Sheds in the North redoubt, behind the Banquette as a Shelter for the Men on duty, The Weather being very rainy.—

23. A deserter came in this morning, he ascertains the place where the Enemy are erecting their Battery and we distress them as much as we can with Shells. The Accounts from the Deserters are that they have about 2,000 Men.

We fix'd a 6 lb ^{der} on the Batteau which the Wind and Stream brought us down and sent her towards the place where the Enemy were at work. She fir'd several Shot into their Camp.

M^r L'Orimier and Hazen were sent to Montreal thro' the woods.

24. This Morning the Batteau with the 6 lb ^{der} was sent up again. There were some thoughts of an Expedition up the River with the Schooner. 20 Soldiers were put on board and she mov'd up towards the South Redout. She soon after was order'd to her old Station and the men came ashore.

25. Captⁿ Monin a Volunteer went on a Scout this morning and saw some of the Enemy's Sentries which are posted very near the Edge of the Wood.

The Row Galley was launc'd. We were fir'd at with small arms from the brush wood north of the Redouts. Soon after this a Battery of 2 guns was open'd against us from the Water's Edge to the southward of us; The Schooner was struck once or twice, and two or three Shot came into the North Redout, one of which graz'd a Serjeant's Shoulder. We return'd the fire with Shot and Shells. At dusk the Enemy's Cannon ceas'd and towards 9 o'Clock they began throwing shells which by a Splinter we judg'd to be from a royal Mortar. We afterwards had reason to think there were two of different Sizes.—

We began throwing up traverses.

The Weather grew very cold and the Men already felt the want of covering at night very much. Men and Officers were on duty every other day.

26. A Deserter came in this afternoon, he gave us much the same information we had had before concerning the Enemys Artillery, says they have two mortars but that one is for throwing Stones and condemn'd as useless. Their numbers at the point were only 615 and Sickness and Despondency was amongst them. Towards Sun Set we had some Shots from the Battery. The orders of the 26th Sept^r were The Roy^l Fusiliers and 26th Regiment are to do duty by detachments till further Orders.

27. We threw Shot and Shells into the wood. The Enemy fir'd a good deal at the Schooner and forts; two or three Shot entered the Officers Room at the N. R. At dusk they threw 16 or 18 Shells which did no mischief. We had continual and heavy rains.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

28. Some Canadians were seen going up the opposite side of the River.

Two deserters came in.

We had a Cannonade towards night & sent a few Hauwitz shells in return.

29th We had some firing in the morning. A few drunken Savages appear'd at the Edge of the wood, and came into the Forts, among them was one Wildman a fellow very well known to us. They told us of Allens defeat and his being taken prisoner, and talk'd of 4000 Canadians being in Arms against us. They were treated kindly and sent away. We had our daily little Cannonade & 17 Shells burst amongst us in the Evening, without hurting any one.

30. We plac'd a gun behind the Wharf. The Enemy fir'd a good deal, A Carpenter was wounded in the Row Galley.
Hard frost.—

The universal Cry was to go up with the Vessels to attack the Enemy and to send a party by Land at the same time to spike their guns. Capt. Hunter did not entirely approve of the plan, it was however thought that some Scheme for an attack was fixt upon. The Pilot was willing to go and answer'd every objection started against it. Firing with small Arms from the wood.

Oct^r 1st Some firing. Several Shot struck the House. Two drunken Indians came in towards night, they confirm the Account of Allens defeat.

2^d Rain. Our Canoes almost all disabled.

3^d A Soldier of the R. Emigrants kill'd. Several of the French volunteers talked of retiring thro the wood. Shells at night.

4. Some Shells were sent us at Day break. We saw people about Hazens House. A Batteau was seen below us suppos'd to have drifted from the Enemy.

In the night two Batteaux were seen by our guard Boat. The Schooner hail'd and fir'd at them, upon which the Crews got into one Batteau and suffer'd the other to drift. We have heard since, that the latter was a sort of fire raft.

The row Galley with 12 Oars and a 24 lb^{er} went a little way down the river towards Hazens House and return'd after firing a few shot at the fellows who infested that Shore. A Soldier of the R. Fuziliers was shot this afternoon while Sentry.

8 Head of Cattle appear'd at the edge of the wood and were drove in by Capt^r Monin and Mons^r Moiquin, none of the Enemy happen'd to be near the Spot and they were not fir'd upon. We heard a great many Shouts amongst the Enemy and the sound of Axes at work.—

5th Two or three of the volunteers went off; this was the second desertion amongst them, 4 or 5 having taken themselves away a few days before. Axes were heard in almost every direction round the forts and several Boats full of Men were seen crossing over from point Daniel. The Enemys Vessels continued to form a chain across the river and were in full view.

Some imagin'd they saw men at work opposite the north redoubt on the east side of the River.

6 Two more Cows were drove into the fort, Firing was heard towards la Prairie which gave hopes that Succours might be on their way.

The Rebels fir'd a few Shot at us and threw shells which from their flight, we judg'd of a more tremendous nature than the former ones. Some Splinters afterwards discover'd them to be 13 Inch in diam^r: None fell within the forts. A singular Explosion at the mortar Battery, as the last Shell was fir'd, made us imagine the mortar was burst especially as the Shell fell short and in a bad direction and the witty observ'd the Sow had brought her pigs to a fine market. The Enemy, on their side were heard to laugh and we afterwards had reason to think that anything relating to the Sow was a better Joke to them than to us. We sent them a good many Small Shells.

7th In the afternoon the row galley was Mann'd and sent under the Command of Lieut. Abbot an Officer of Art^y towards Hazens House and along the side of the River opposite the N. Redoubt. She fir'd a great deal of grape Shot and the fire was return'd from Musketry behing the Stumps and bushes. Four Men were slightly wounded, among them was D^r Millar Surgeons Mate in the 26th Reg^t—

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

The Enemy kept firing at us during this Expedition and sent a few Shells towards us but very ill directed. We seconded the fire of the Galley by Shells.

8th We endeavour'd to strengthen our Magazine with logs and Earth. Cap^t: McKay Monin and about 15 Volunteers pass'd the night in the woods.

9th The Row Galley was sent a little way down the river at daybreak, in hopes of decoying some stragglers to fire upon her, so as to give the party in the Woods an Opportunity of surprising them—But she return'd without having been fir'd at. The Volunteers fell in with a small party and brought in two Men, one dangerously wounded and the other expiring. The former died a day or two after. The Intelligence we receiv'd was that there were 200 Canadians at Hazens, 1,000 Men at P^t Daniel and 1,000 Men below us at the Enemys lower Camp—In the Evening the Enemy threw Shells. Three large ones fell into the N. Redoubt & Several fell into the South Redoubt but only two Men were wounded and those very slightly. Two Volunteers sat out for Montreal by Major Preston's consent.

10th. We began to be more sparing of our Ammunition to make it keep proportion with the provision. A woman who lost her way from one of the Rebels Camps to the other was brought into the Redouts. She talk'd of Batteaux loaded with sick Men having left the Point, and of Guns being arrived there.

We could see the Enemy dragging Cannon on the other side of the River.

Shells at night and great shouting at the Point, together with firing of small Arms. Our Men kept their health pretty well.

11. Two Embrasures were unmasked at a Battery opposite the N. Redoubt and a few shot were fir'd from them. The Royal Savage was warp'd nearer the S. Redoubt and close in Shore, many thought she might have silenc'd a Battery of two small guns.

We had Shells in the Evening. One fell into the barn in the S. Redoubt but did no more mischief than was repair'd in two hours in the night. Men and Gun Carriages were seen crossing the River at the Point. Many thought the Enemy were going to attack Chamblis.

12. Another Carriage and more Men cross'd the River. Sleet Rain and very cold Weather. Several Volunteers again talk'd of going to Montreal but did not obtain leave. They surely suffer'd a great deal, but it was no time to complain. We were busied in raising the gunwale of the row Galley and chocking her.

13. Some small Mortars were brought down to the N. Redoubt, and one of the Howitzers. A great many Men with packs at their backs were seen going down the opposite side of the River by Hazens. We heard nothing more from the new Battery opposite us but saw 4 Embrasures and 2 Guns. We open'd an Embrasure in the East Side of the N. Redout.

14. Two deserters came in. they told us the Battery opposite us was to be of 4 guns 2 12 lbs a 9 and a 6 lb. They said more Shells were sent for from Crownpoint, that the Mortar Battery was quite enclos'd with a breast work and its guard was 300 Men.

At about 1 o'clock the Battery of 4 guns open'd upon us. The 2 Gun Battery play'd upon us and shells were thrown at the same time. The House was in a little time very much damag'd. A 13 Inch Shell fell into it which fortunately hurt no one, but broke most of the partitions, threw down a Chimney and made the inside of the House a pile of rubbish in which scarcely a habitable Corner was to be found.

The shell burst in falling and the Experiment if our Magazine was bomb proof was not tried. This day M^r. Freeman Lieut. in the Royal Fuziliers was Kill'd by a 4 lb Shot.

Part of a Barrel of Powder blew up in the S. Redoubt and hurt 4 Men, one is since dead. Two Men in the N. Redout were hurt by the rubbish a shell threw up.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a*

15. The cannonade began again in the Morning, about 140 Shot were fir'd. One of the Volunteers had both his Legs shot off at the N. Redout At the same time Musketry was fir'd from the Woods and a Man of the R. Fusiliers was shot thro' the High.

The Weather grew very cold, and as the Windows of the house were all broke; As many as cou'd find room in the Cellars slept there, The rest unble either to get a place or to bear the heat and disagreeable smell arising from such numbers being crowded together slept above in cold and danger or walk'd about the greatest part of the night. Towards Evening we were again saluted with shells; and the night being cold and wet, it was thought proper to rouse us at Midnight with a few Shells and Shot.

16. More Cannonading. A Carpenters arm was shot off. The Schooner sunk up to her ports. We found that red hot shot had been fir'd, for part of the Sch'ooner was set on fire and her Colors which lay in the hold were scorch'd.

Firing was heard in the night; we could not determine whether towards La Prairie or Chambli.

We were constantly employ'd in throwing up Traverses; These from the hasty manner in which they were constructed and the bad weather soon fell in, and were again propt and repair'd; so that our Shatter'd House together with the ruinous Traverses and mud Ditches, broken platforms &c^a exhibited a very ragged Scene— Within Doors, if that cou'd be called within doors where Doors and Windows were broken in pieces, the Appearance was no better; Heaps of boards, Earth, glass, brick and other Rubbish lay promiscuously scatter'd: The rooms, by the partitions being broke, were mostly laid together, and the roof and ceiling were open on every side, especially where the shell had markt its path. Such was the State of the N. R.

The S. Redout was no better circumstanc'd: A 13 Inch Shell had fall'n into the Barn and many Shot had struck the house. Our Rum, Wine &c^a were exhausted. Salt Pork was our daily fare, with sometimes a few roots, and we reduced ourselves about this time to $\frac{2}{3}$ of the usual Allowance. The Men were many of them flux'd, yet enjoy'd or rather had better health than could have been hop'd. The Situation of the Sick and wounded was a very cruel one. They were neither out of the reach of danger, nor were they shelter'd from the Inclemency of the Weather, or provided with any of those things which might alleviate their Sufferings; One or two were hurt in their births.

A Shot wounded a Soldier of the R. F. (he died). Another was bruis'd and the pouch of a third was carried away.

17th Firing was heard towards Chambli. Traverses were erected within the house. Captⁿ Robinson of the R. E. with two Volunteers sat out for Montreal with a Message from Major Preston. [They were taken.]

18 Firing was again heard towards Chambli. A Man of the R. A. was kill'd. In the night many fellows approach'd the Redoubts and fir'd musquetry.

We saw lights going round the brush.

19 Cannonading from the Enemy.

20 Two men appear'd at the edge of the Wood to the N. of the redoubts with a flag of Truce. They were brought in blindfolded. One was the drum Major of the R. F. This was to inform us that Chambli had surrender'd and to request leave for Batteaux to pass the Forts with the Prisoners and their Baggage.

21 The Garrison of Chambli pass'd the Forts. Three Volunteers at St^t Johns wanted to Capitulate for themselves and were refus'd Maj^r Prestons leave. A young Man came into the Forts with a flag of truce, to bring three Women whose husbands were in the Fort. He gave a letter to Maj^r Preston of which the following is a Copy.

"We were told by the drum Major that a Battery was erecting to the N.W. of us, and that an unsuccessfull Attempt had been made at Longeuil under Mon^r Rigauville who was taken prisoner.

Incessant rain.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

23 We had no extraordinary Incidents 'till this morning when a Serjeant of the R. F. received a mortal wound from a Splinter of a brick. Three Balls have at different time enter'd the Officers guard room at the S. R. and tho' there were never less than 8 or 10 people in the room & once 13, no one was ever hurt, if we except Captⁿ Stronge who receiv'd a slight contusion. The Weather began to be exceeding cold and the Men to fall sick.

We were oblig'd to diminish the guards. The duty having been too hard, Men and Officers having sometimes been two nights successively on duty for want of a sufficient number for a relief. Our Ammunition became scarce and we fir'd little, and only small Shells.

27 Firing heard towards Montreal.

28 Weather exceeding cold, one of the deserters from the rebels deserted back. An Indian came in, who told us many lies; amongst the rest, that Gen^l Carleton had made good his landing at Longueil, that 5,000 Men were arriv'd in Canada &c^a he likewise inform'd us of Capt. Robinsons Fate. We gave him a letter for Gen^l Carleton, which was fastn'd in a Silver tag he wore in his hair.

We had scarcely any firing. We imagin'd we saw a Battery rising off the N.W. Angle of the N. Redout.

29. Captⁿ Monin and Captⁿ McKoy went out this morning in hopes of getting a prisoner, and if possible to survey the Enemys position. An Officer & 25 Men were order'd to be in readiness to support them. They had been out a very little while, when they fell in with a Man who we afterward found was a straggler from a party of 200 Men, who were very near the same Spot. The Man inform'd us there were 2,000 Men at the rapids (i.e the lower Camp) and 50 Indians. He knew of no advantage gain'd at Longueil. He shew'd us the place of the Battery and told us it was to be of 4 guns. We threw a good many shells towards it and continued so doing every quarter of an hour during the night.

30. The Battery appear'd very plainly. 9 fat pigs came running towards the Fort and were receiv'd with great cordiality.

Firing was heard towards Montreal We had very little firing from the Enemy A Man was struck in the foot by a grape Shot.

Nov^r 1 A soldier of the R. F. deserted to the Rebels.—At 10^o Clock this Morning the N W. Battery of 4 guns open'd, That on the opposite Side of the River play'd on us at the same time, these with 6 Mortars kept an incessant fire 'till Sun Set. Large pieces of the Wall were knock'd in The Chimneys of the House in the South Redoubt were thrown down and the few Corners where some little Shelter from the Weather was to be had were now no longer tenable. A great many shot pass'd thro' the parapets and some wounded Men behind them. 3 Men were kill'd and 4 or 5 wounded. A good deal of provision was destroy'd.—

Towards night the Enemy beat a parley, Their Messenger was receiv'd and he brought the following letter from M^r Montgommery

The Messenger was a hair dresser of Montreal who had been taken prisoner at Longueil. He told us of Gen^l Carletons not having been able to effect a landing there. Capⁿ Stewart was sent to tell M^r M^rgommery that we shoud send an Answer next morning

The Officers were assembled. Maj^r Preston inform'd them that there was at 8 Rations, pork and flour for 8 days, from this was to be deducted the damages of the day before. The Advice of the Officers was then taken and the following letter sent.

2^d—Captⁿ Stewart and Captⁿ Williams went to the Camp with the letter and return'd with the following Answer

An Officer was sent up to the point to speak with Mons^r Despains who continu'd the Barbers deposition. There was now nothing left, but to frame the best Articles We cou'd for the Garrison.

The following were drawn up* and sent in a letter to this Purpose.

* (Here shoud follow the Articles.)

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

To these the Enemy sent the Answers following each article and a letter conceiv'd in these terms.

3^d The Troops march'd out of the redouts and embark'd for an Encampment of the Rebels two miles above S^t Johns.

We left in the Forts about 3 days provision, scarce any loose powder, and three Boxes of Ammunition of each gun that was mounted; that is the quantity kept in Case of Storm.

It is remarkable that from the first day of the blockade, we had not a Syllable of Intelligence from Gen^l Carleton, altho' we sent repeated Messages to Montreal.

The little Execution done in proportion to the number of Shot & Shells fir'd is surprising for we had not above 40 Men kill'd & wounded. that is, during the blockade; in all from the time our taking post at S^t Johns we had 60 kill'd or wounded. Near 1000 Shot & between 50 & 100 Shells were fir'd at the Redouts the last day. The Men shew'd a cheerfullness under their Fatigues which spite of Events can but reflect honor upon them, as Few cou'd be so devoid of reflexion as not to see how slender our hopes of relief were, and of course to apprehend the most unfavorable Issue.

We may thank our Enemy in some sort for leaving us in such slight field Works the credit of having been only reduc'd by Famine. Had they understood, or been a fit people to carry on obsidional Operations, Their Batterys might with their numbers by means of Approaches have been brought much closer to our Redouts have overlook'd us, destroyed our breastworks, and by a slaughter from which there cou'd have been no Shelter, have render'd our holding out, a meer sacrifice of Men who might have been reserv'd for better Services.

Upon the whole it may be said that the Garrison of S^t Johns suffer'd in their Misfortunes, dangers and hardships which have often been the price of honor to more fortunate troops.

APPENDIX C

Ordinances made for the Province of Quebec by the Governor and Council of the said province, from 1768 until 1791, being a continuation of the Ordinances published as Appendix "E" of the Report of the Public Archives for 1913.

APPENDIX C.

Preamble.

AN ORDINANCE Concerning the Licensing of Publick Victualling Houses (1).

His Majesty's disallowance of the last ordinance for licensing public houses.

WHEREAS His most Excellent Majesty by an order in his most Honorable Privy Council, dated on the Twenty sixth day of June, in the year of Our Lord One thousand Seven hundred and Sixty Seven, hath been pleased to disallow and Repeal a Certain Ordinance, made by the Commander in Chief & Council of this Province on the Seventh day of July in the year of Our Lord One thousand Seven hundred and Sixty Six, intituled, "An Ordinance for granting Licences for Retailing Rum and Spirituous Liquors and for Suppressing unlicenced houses" And whereas it is Judged to be necessary, in order to prevent Drunkenness and Debauchery amongst His Majesty's Subjects in this Province, and the Riots and Breaches of the Peace and other mischiefs that might thence ensue, that the number of Public Ale Houses and Victualling Houses be restrained within proper Bounds, and that they be kept only by Persons of good fame and Sober Conversation, who will no ways encourage any excess of disorderly Proceedings and that in order thereunto, Certain Rules and restraints be made Concerning the same, resembling, as nearly as the Circumstances of the Province will permit, the Laws that have been enacted in England for the same Purposes, by the Wisdom of the British Parliament: It is therefore Ordained and Declared by the Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of this Province By and with the Advice and Consent of the Council of the same, That from and after the Day of the Publication of this Ordinance, no Person whatsoever shall Sell by Retail, or by any less quantity than three Gallons at one time, any Ale, Beer, Cider, Perry, Wine, Rum, Brandy, or other Spirituous or Strong Liquor whatsoever, or keep any Ale House or Victualling House, without a Licence obtained for that purpose from the Governor in Chief, Lieutenant Governor, or other Commander in Chief of this Province for the time being under His hand in the manner hereinafter directed, excepting those persons who have already obtained Licences for so doing, in pursuance of the Ordinance above mentioned, which has been repealed by the afores^d Order of His Majesty in Council: And such persons may Continue to keep Public Houses for the times specified in their Respective Licences, and no longer, without obtaining new Licences According to the Directions of the present Ordinances.

Necessity of restraining in some manner the number of public Ale Houses.

No public victualling house shall hereafter be kept without a Licence from the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or other commander in chief of the Province excepting those kept by Persons who have already obtained Licences under the former Ordinance.

Method of granting Licences to keep publick victualling houses.

AN ORDINANCE for preventing Accidents by Fire (1).

Preamble.

WHEREAS many Houses in the Towns of Quebec and Montreal in this Province have of late taken Fire, and some of them have been destroyed thereby, which has been owing for the most part to the Negligence of the Inhabitants of the said Houses, in not causing the Chimneys thereof to be Swept so often as they should have been, and by keeping ashes in the said Houses on Wooden floors or in Wooden Vessels, and other such Instances of Carelessness; in order therefore to prevent such unhappy Accidents for the Time to come, and to encrease the means of Extinguishing Fires in Houses when they so happen, It is ordained by the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, by and with the advice of the Council of the same, That after the Twenty Fifth Day of the March in the present year of Our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Sixty eight, every Housekeeper in the Towns of Quebec and Montreal and the Suburbs thereof, shall cause the Kitchen Chimney, or Kitchen Chimnies (if there are more than one) of the House he lives in, to be Swept by a Chimney Sweeper once in every four Weeks throughout the whole year, and every other Chimney in the House, which is made use of either by Fire in a Hearth or by a Stove, to be Swept likewise by a Chimney Sweeper once in every four Weeks during the Winter Season of the year, Reckoning from the first day of October in every year, to the first day of May.

Chimnies that are made use of,
shall be swept once in every 4 weeks.

¹ Que. Leg. Council, C. p. 6 verso (Can. Arch.).

Every house-keeper shall keep one or two Water-buckets.

And further, every Housekeeper in the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal, and the Suburbs thereof, in whose House there shall be three or more Hearths, shall keep two Buckets for carrying water when any Houses in the said Towns shall happen to be on Fire and these Buckets shall be made either of Leather or Seal Skin, or the Skin of some other Fish, or of Canvas painted on the Outside, and Covered with Pitch on the inside, And shall be large enough to hold at least two Gallons of Water each. And every HouseKeeper in the said Towns and Suburbs thereof, in whose House there shall be only one or two Hearths, shall be obliged to keep one such Bucket; And these Buckets shall be marked with the Christian & Surname of the HouseKeeper to whose House they belong, or at least with the Initial Letters thereof.

And a hatchet.

And every HouseKeeper in the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal and the Suburbs thereof shall likewise keep a Hatchet in his House to assist in pulling down Houses in Cases of Dangerous Fires, in order to prevent the Spreading of the Flames. And every HouseKeeper in the s^d Towns & Suburbs thereof, shall likewise keep as many Ladders fixt on the Roof of his House as there are Separate Chimnies, or Stacks of Chimnies, belonging to the s^d house, And shall cause them to be so placed that there shall be a Ladder leading from the bottom of the Roof to every Separate Chimney or stack of Chimneys, to the end that, if any Chimney shall happen to take fire, it may be easy to carry up water to it, in order to extinguish the fire.

and ladders fixt on the roof of the house.

And every HouseKeeper in the said Towns, and the Suburbs thereof, shall likewise keep in his house two fire poles, of the length of ten feet, & five Inches diameter, with cross bars made of wood, stuck into them, at the distance of Six inches one from the other, in order to knock off the Roofs of Houses that are on fire, or that are in immediate danger of becoming so.

and two Fire-poles.

And where it happens that the HouseKeepers in the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal and the Suburbs thereof, are not the Owners of the Houses in which they live; it shall be Lawfull for them to deduct the expences they are at in procuring the Water Buckets, Ladders & fire Poles aforesaid, for the Houses they Inhabit and likewise the Expence of procuring new Buckets, Ladders and fire Poles, from Time to Time, as the former ones wear out, from the Rent they pay for the said Houses to the Owners thereof.

The expense of these buckets, Ladders and fire-poles to be borne by the owners of the Houses.

And to the end that the aforesaid Directions may be Complied with by the Housekeepers of the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal and the Suburbs thereof, It is further Ordained by the Authority Aforesaid, that if at any time after the Month of May next ensuing, any Chimney in any House, in either of the said Towns or the Suburbs thereof, shall be on Fire, and it shall be found that the Occupier of such House had not in the House at the time of such fire a Hatchet and two fire Poles, and the proper number of Ladders placed on the Roof of the House in manner above mentioned, or that the Chimney that was on fire, or any other of the Chimnies in the same house, that ought According to the Directions of this Ordinance, to have been Swept within four weeks, has not been Swept by a Chimney Sweeper within the said Space of four weeks immediately preceding such fire, the said Occupier of such House, shall forfeit the sum of Forty Shillings for such Neglect, of which one half shall belong to Our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other half to any one who shall sue for the same by Information before any One Justice of the new Pilotage Ordinance.

AN ORDINANCE for appointing Pilots, and for establishing Certain Rules and Regulations to be observed by all Masters or Commanders of Ships, or Vessels, Sailing up or down the River Saint Lawrence, to or from the City and Port of Quebec (1).

New Preamble.

WHEREAS the Ordinance hereunder following for the Appointment and Regulation of Pilots for the River Saint Lawrence, was prepared by the Honourable Lieutenant Colonel Irving, late president of His Majesty's Council of this Province, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council of the same, in the year of Our Lord One thousand, Seven hundred and Sixty Six, And was afterwards sent to England in order to be perused and examined by His Most Excellent Majesty in his Privy Council,—And it hath pleased His Majesty by an order in his said Privy Council to Signify his Royal Approbation of the said Ordinance and to send it back to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor and Commandr. in Chief of this province, in ord^r. to be passed by the sd. Lt. Govr. & Council, of the sd. Province. It is therefore Ordained and Declared by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of this Province, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council of the same, That the said Ordinance shall take place and be in force in the said Province of Quebec. But as it would be difficult to make the necessary preparations for Carrying it into Execution soon enough to render it of service to the Navigation of the said River Saint Lawrence during this present year; It is therefore Ordained and Declared by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of this Province, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council of the same, that the said Ordinance shall take place and be in force in the said Province of Quebec only from and after the first day of May in the year of Our Lord One thousand Seven hundred and Sixty nine, and not before.

The said Ordinance is as follows.

“AN ORDINANCE for appointing Pilots and for establishing Certain Rules and Regulations to be observed by all Masters or Commanders of Ships, or Vessels, sailing up or down the River Saint Lawrence to or from the City and port of Quebec.—

Preamble.

“WHEREAS the Stationing at proper Seasons of the year a Certain number of able Pilots, under proper Regulations, at Bic and the Island of Coudre, in the River Saint Lawrence, will be of great advantage and Safety to Shipping, bound to or from the City of Quebec, and in order to render the same effectual, it will be necessary to establish Certain Rules & Regulations, to be observed by all Masters or Commanders of Ships or Vessels, on their Arrival at Bic and Coudre from Sea; or on their Return thither from Quebec. Be it therefore Ordained and Declared by His Honour the President of His Majestys Council and Commander in Chief of the Province of Quebec by and with the advice and Consent of His Majestys Council, and by the Authority of the same It is hereby Ordained and Declared, That as soon as the season will permit in the next Spring, Eight or Ten Branch or other Pilots who shall have passed an Examination before Competent Judges and have been found sufficiently qualified to take upon themselves the charge of the Pilotage of any Ship or Vessel Arriving at Bic or Coudre, bound to Quebec, and from thence down the River, and who shall respectively have Certificates of such their qualifications Signed by the Governor or Commander in Chief of this Province for the time being, shall be ordered to attend at Bic from the time aforesaid until the middle of October in every year at which place a Convenient Log house shall be built for their use and at least Ten pilots shall likewise be ordered to attend at Coudre from the time aforesaid until the middle of December in every year who shall respectively take charge of all ships or Vessels on their Arrival at either of the said places, That is to say, every Pilot taking upon himself the charge of any Ship or Vessel at Bic shall pilot the same from thence to Coudre, at which place if he is not qualified to proceed to Quebec, he shall be discharged and paid at the rate hereinafter mentioned, and the Ship or Vessel shall take in another pilot at Coudre who shall proceed from thence to Quebec, and on their return from thence to Coudre if the Pilot be not qualified to proceed to Bic the Master of such Ship or Vessel shall take in another Pilot there to proceed to Bic; and if any Pilot respectively appointed to attend at Bic or Coudre as aforesaid for the time, and in manner as is herein before directed, shall neglect, or Refuse so to

“are hereby declared to be Subject and liable to the same payments “for Pilotage, as is herein before and herein after mentioned. And “be it further Ordained and Declared by the Authority aforesaid “that all Ships or Vessels coming up the River Saint Lawrence, shall “lye to (provided it can be done with safety) a reasonable time either
“at Bic or Coudre in order to take in a Pilot at either of the said “places; and when any Ship or Vessel taking in a Pilot at either of “the said places, and One or more Ships or Vessels Shall follow her,
“in order to save pilotage, every such Ship or Vessel so following “shall pay one half pilotage, according to the rate which would have “been paid if a Pilot had been on board; and all Single Ships or “Vessels coming up the River without a Pilot, shall pay half “pilotage, unless the Master can make appear that it was not owing “to his neglect and all Masters or Commanders of Ships or Vessels “shall aid and assist the Pilots, in working their respective Ships or “Vessels, and shall follow the pilots instructions, when to weigh and “where to anchor; and shall not oblige the Pilot on board to run any “risque, And no Master of any Ship or Vessel shall detain a Pilot on “board after the Ship or Vessel is moored at her Port, or the place “for which the Pilot is taken in, more than Twenty four hours, But “if the Master shall think it necessary for the Security of the Ship “or Vessel to keep a Pilot on board any longer time, he shall pay to “such person as is herein after appointed for receiving the pay of the “Pilots, the Sum of Five Shillings for every day the Pilot shall be “so detained as aforesaid, over and above the rates of Pilotage by “this Ordinance Established. AND BE IT further Ordained & “Declared by the Authority aforesaid That when any Pilot either at “Bic or Coudre shall offer his Service to go on board any Ship or “Vessel, and the Master or Commander shall refuse to take him in, “every such Master or Commander so refusing, And not taking in, “shall nevertheless be obliged, and shall pay the full Pilotage from “either of the said places, one quarter part whereof shall be for the “use of the Superintendant or person to be appointed to have the

AN ORDINANCE, to amend and enforce a former Ordinance, for preventing Accidents by Fire.¹

Preamble.

General neglect of the directions of the Ordinance of the 23d of February last for preventing accidents by fire.

WHEREAS the Directions contained in an Ordinance of this Province, dated on the twenty third day of February last, intitled, "An Ordinance for preventing Accidents by fire," have not been observed by the greater part of the Inhabitants of the Towns of Quebec and Montreal, which is probably owing in part to the want of a penalty to be inflicted immediately upon every neglect of complying with the said Directions, even though the Houses, or Chimnies, in Probable causes of the said neglect.

Expediency of enforcing the Execution of the said Ordinance.

And of extending it to the Town of Three Rivers.

After the first day of next January the aforesaid Ordinance of the 23d of February last shall take place in the Town of Three Rivers.

which such Neglects are Committed, do not actually take fire, and in part to the want of a proper Officer whose particular duty it shall be to Superintend the Execution of the said Ordinance, And in particular to oversee the Chimnies in the said Towns, and take care that they shall be duly Swept at the times therein appointed: AND whereas it is of the greatest Importance to the safety of the said Towns that the directions of the aforesaid Ordinance should be generally complied with: AND whereas it is likewise thought Expedient that the Provisions of the aforesaid Ordinance should be extended to the Town of Three Rivers: IT is therefore Ordained and Declared by His Excellency the Governor in Chief of this Province, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council of the same, That from and after the first day of January next, in the year of Our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and Sixty nine, the Ordinance aforesaid, of the Twenty third day of February last; and all the directions therein given, and the penalties for not complying with them, shall take place in the Town of Three Rivers, and be binding upon the Inhabitants thereof in the same manner as if the said Town of Three Rivers had been expressly and by name mentioned in the said former Ordinance.

AND it is further Ordained and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, that immediately after the day of the Publication of this present Ordinance in the Quebec Gazette it shall be Lawful for His Excellency the Governor in Chief, Lieutenant Governor, or other the Commander in Chief of this Province for the time being, to appoint Three Public Officers, to wit, One for the Town of Quebec, and the Suburbs thereof, to be called The Overseer of the Chimnies for the Town of Quebec, another for the Town of Montreal and the Suburbs thereof, to be called, The Overseer of the Chimnies for the Town of Montreal, and a third for the Town of Three Rivers, to be called, The Overseer of the Chimnies for the Town of Three Rivers, whose duty and Authority shall be as follows:

THESE Overseers shall undertake to cause the Chimnies in the Towns and Suburbs of the Towns in which they are Overseers, to be Swept at the times appointed in the above mentioned Ordinance, by able and Skilful Chimney Sweepers, whom they shall employ for that purpose: And for every Chimney which they shall so cause to be Swept, they shall receive from the Occupier of the house to which such Chimney belongs, the Tenth part of a Spanish Dollar, and no more.

And if any Housekeeper, in either of the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal, or the Suburbs thereof, or in the said Town of Three Rivers, shall refuse to let his Chimney, or Chimnies, be Swept, at the times appointed by the said Ordinance, by the Chimney Sweeper employed for that purpose by the Overseer of the Chimnies of the Town in which such Chimney shall be Situated, he shall for every such Refusal, forfeit the Sum of One Spanish Dollar, which shall be recovered by the said Overseer, by Information before any One Justice of the Peace of the District in which such Chimney shall be Situated, who is hereby Authorized and required to hear and determine such Information in a Summary manner, and upon the Oath of Three officers shall be appointed for the Towns of Quebec, Montreal and Three Rivers, who shall be called Overseers of the Chimnies.

The Chimnies shall be swept at the appointed times by persons employed by the said Overseers.

Housekeepers who refuse to let their Chimnies be Swept by persons employed for that purpose by the said Overseers shall be liable to a penalty of One Spanish Dollar.

Which shall be sued for by the said Overseers.

one Credible witness (being some other than the said Overseer himself) and to levy the said Sum of One Spanish Dollar, together with the Costs of suing for the same, by a Warrant in writing under his hand to seize and Sell the Goods of the Offender: And this Sum of One Dollar shall be forfeited for such Refusal, notwithstanding the said House or Chimney shall not have been on fire, and also notwithstanding the said Chimney may have been Swept within the appointed length of time by some other Chimney Sweeper not employed by the said Overseer.

AND of the Sum of One Dollar so forfeited one half shall belong to Our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other to the Overseer of the Chimnies for the Town in which such Chimney shall be Situated.

And half of it shall belong to the King, and half to the Overseer of the Chimnies.

The Overseers shall likewise visit the houses under their care at least once in every three months and inquire Concerning the Water Buckets, hatchets, firepoles & Ladders, prescribed in the aforesaid Ordinance.

Housekeepers that shall refuse to admit them into their houses to make these enquiries, or that, having admitted them, are found to have neglected to comply with any of the directions of the aforesaid Ordinance Concerning the Water Buckets, hatchets, firepoles & Ladders, shall be liable to the penalty of One Spanish Dollar.

FURTHER it shall be Lawful for the said Overseers of Chimnies, to visit all the houses in their respective Towns and Suburbs once in every month, and it shall be their duty to visit them at least once in every Three Months, at such times as they shall think proper, between the hours of Eight in the morning and six in the evening, and to enquire whether the Occupiers of the said houses have the Water Buckets, hatchets and firepoles, which they are directed by the aforesaid Ordinance to provide, and likewise whether they have placed Ladders on the Roofs of their houses in the manner directed by the said Ordinance, and to demand that the said Buckets, hatchets and firepoles be produced before them, and that the Ladders on the Roof may be shewn to them. And if any Housekeeper, in either of the Towns of Quebec, or Montreal, or the Suburbs thereof, shall at any time after the first day of next December, or if any housekeeper in the said Town of Three Rivers, shall at any time after the first day of next January, refuse to admit such Overseer into his House when he so comes to make this Enquiry, provided he has not visited the same within the space of One Month then last past, or shall, after admitting him, and being required by him to produce the Water Buckets, Hatchet, & Firepoles, mentioned in the aforesaid Ordinance and to shew him the Ladders on the Roof of the house, placed in the manner directed in the said Ordinance, fail to produce the said Buckets, Hatchet, and Firepoles, or to shew him the said Ladders placed in the aforesaid manner, such Housekeeper shall forfeit the Sum of One Spanish Dollar, which shall be recovered by the said Overseer, by Information before any one Justice of the Peace of the District wherein such house shall be situated, who is hereby Authorized and required to hear and determine such such Information in a Summary manner, and upon the Oath of One Credible witness (being some other than the said Overseer himself), and to levy the said Sum of One Spanish Dollar, together with the Costs of suing for the same, by a Warrant in writing under his hand to Seize and Sell the Goods of the Offender: And of the Dollar so forfeited, One half shall belong to Our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other to the aforesaid Overseer of the Chimnies, who shall have sued for the same.

Who shall themselves have half the said penalty; and the other half shall belong to the King.

In making these visits of the houses under his care, the overseer may take with

AND in these visits of the Houses of the Inhabitants of the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal, and the Suburbs thereof, and of the said Town of Three Rivers, each of the aforesaid Overseers of the

him one person as a Companion & Assistant.

Chimnies may take one person with him as his Companion on the said visits, to see and testify, if necessary, the Condition of the house with respect to the Buckets, Hatchet, firepoles, and Ladders, aforesaid; And a Refusal to admit such Companion of the Overseer into the house, shall subject the Occupier of the house to the same penalty as a Refusal to admit the Overseer himself.

The Overseer shall also observe whether any Hay or Straw is kept in any Dwelling houses or any ashes are kept on any wooden floor or in any wooden vessel in any Dwelling house.

ALSO it shall be the duty of the said Overseers of the Chimnies, when they thus visit the said houses, to observe whether or no any Hay or Straw is kept in the Garrets and Cellars, or in any other part of any Dwelling house, and whether any Ashes are kept on any wooden floor or in any wooden Vessel in any Dwelling house contrary to the Injunctions of the Ordinance above mentioned. AND on these Occasions each of these Overseers may take with him any person that he thinks fit as a Companion and Assistant in making these visits and enquiries. And if any Hay or Straw shall be found in the Garrets, or Cellars, or any other part of any Dwelling house, in either of the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal, or the Suburbs thereof, or in the said Town of Three Rivers, or if any Ashes shall be found, on any Wooden floor, or in any wooden vessel, in any Dwelling house in the said Towns or Suburbs, by the Overseer of the Chimnies for the Town in which such house is Situated; or if the Occupier of the house shall refuse to permit the Overseer and his Companion to visit every part of the said Dwelling house (the said House not having been visited by the said Overseer within one month then last past) in either of these Cases the Occupier of the said Dwelling house shall forfeit the Sum of One Spanish Dollar, of which one half shall belong to Our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other half to the Overseer of the Chimnies, who shall sue for the same, by Information before any one Justice of the Peace for the District in which such house is Situated, who is hereby authorized and required to hear and determine such Information in a Summary Manner, and upon the Oath of one Credible witness, (being some other than the said Overseer himself) and to levy the said Sum of One Spanish Dollar, together with the Costs of suing for the same, by a Warrant in writing under his hand, to seize and sell the Goods of the Offender.

And if any Hay or Straw shall be found in any dwelling house, or any Ashes shall be found on any wooden floor, or in any Wooden Vessel in any Dwelling house, the Occupier of such Dwelling house shall be liable to a penalty of one Spanish Dollar.

No person shall keep more than Twenty-five pounds weight of Gunpowder in his house.

FURTHER, it shall be unlawful for any person residing in either of the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal or the Suburbs thereof, or in the said Town of Three Rivers, whether he be an housekeeper or only a Lodger in any house in either of the said Towns or Suburbs, to keep or have at any time more than twenty five pounds of Gunpowder in his House or Lodging, or in any Stable or Outhouse belonging thereunto. And it shall be the Duty of the said Overseers of the Chimnies, when they visit the houses in the said Towns in the manner above mentioned, to go likewise into the Stables and Outhouses thereunto belonging, and observe whether any, and what quantity of Gunpowder is kept either in the said Houses, or Stables, or Outhouses.

The overseer of the Chimnies shall in his ordinary Visits of the houses observe the quantity of Gunpowder kept in them.

Penalty of refusing to permit the said Overseer to visit for this Purpose any house, stable or Outhouse.

AND if the Occupier of any Dwelling house or Lodging, Stable or Outhouse, in either of the said Towns or the Suburbs thereof, when the Overseer of the Chimnies visits the houses in the said Towns and Suburbs in the manner above mentioned, shall refuse to permit the said Overseer, together with One Companion and Assistant as is above mentioned, to go into every part of the said Dwelling house or Lodging, Stable, or Outhouse, the Occupier of the said Dwelling house, Lodging, Stable, or Outhouse, who shall so refuse him, shall forfeit for such Refusal the sum of One Spanish Dollar, which shall be recovered by such Overseer, by Information before one Justice of the Peace of the District wherein such house, Stable, or Outhouse shall be Situated, which Justice is hereby Authorized and required to hear and determine such Information in a Summary manner, and upon the Oath of one Credible Witness (being some other than the said Overseer himself) and to levy the said Sum of One Spanish Dollar, together with the Costs of suing for the same, by a Warrant in writing under his hand to Seize and Sell the Goods of the Offender.

Penalty for keeping more than twenty-five pounds weight of powder in any house, Stable or Outhouse.

AND if the said Overseer shall find on such Occasion of making those Visits of the houses (which it shall be his duty to make once in every three Months; but which he shall be at Liberty to make Once in every Month) or on any other Occasion whatsoever, in any Dwelling house, Lodging, Stable or Outhouse, in either of the said Towns of Québec or Montreal, or the Suburbs thereof, or in the said Town of Three Rivers, a larger Quantity of Gunpowder than Twenty five pounds weight, the person in whose Dwelling house, Lodging, Stable or Outhouse, it shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Spanish Dollars, together with all the Gunpowder that shall be found there more than the allowed quantity of twenty five pds. & the sd. penalty of Twenty Spanish Dollars together with the said Overplus of Gunpowder, shall be recovered by the said Overseer by Information before any one Justice of the Peace for the District in which such house, Stable or Outhouse, is Situated, who is hereby Authorized and required to hear and determine such Information in a Summary manner, and upon the Oath of One Credible Witness (being some other than the said Overseer himself) and to levy such Sum of Twenty Spanish Dollars, together with the Costs of suing for the same, and likewise to seize such Overplus of Gunpowder above the allowed quantity of twenty five pounds, or in case the said Gunpowder shall have been removed and Secreted, to levy such additional Sum of money as the said Justice shall adjudge the said Overplus of Gunpowder to have been worth, by a Warrant in writing under his hand to seize and sell the Goods of the offender.

ALSO, if more than Twenty five pounds weight of Gunpowder shall be found in any Dwelling house, Stable, or other Outhouse, in either of the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal and the Suburbs thereof or the said Town of Three Rivers, by any other persons than the Overseers of the Chimnies of the said Towns, it shall be the duty of such persons to inform the said Overseer thereof; And the said Overseer may in this case also recover the said last mentioned penalty of Twenty Spanish Dollars from the person in whose custody such Gunpowder shall have been found, by Information before one Justice of the Peace of the District in which such house, Stable, or Outhouse, is Situated, which Justice is hereby Authorized and required to hear and determine such Information in a Summary Manner, but without the Oaths of two Credible witnesses, and to levy the said

Sum of Twenty Spanish Dollars, together with the costs of suing for the same, and likewise to seize such Overplus of Gunpowder above the allowed quantity of Twenty five pounds weight, or, in case the said Gunpowder shall have been removed or Secreted, to levy such Additional Sum of Money as the said Justice shall adjudge the said Overplus of Gunpowder to have been worth, by a Warrant in writing under his hand to Seize and Sell the Goods of the Offender.

It shall be further lawful for the said Overseers of the Chimnies to visit the houses in the said Towns at any other times that they shall think fit.

provided they obtain a Licence or Warrant for that purpose from a Justice of the Peace.

And a refusal to permit them to visit on such occasion shall be attended with the same penalty as in the ordinary visitings.

And the penalties for Neglects and Offences against this and the former Ordinance shall be the same, and recovered in the same manner, as when these neglects or offences are discovered in the ordinary visitings.

FURTHER though the aforesaid Overseers of the Chimnies are authorized by this Ordinance, to visit the Several houses in the aforesaid Towns of Quebec and Montreal and the Suburbs thereof, and in the said Town of Three Rivers, only Once in every Month, and are required to do so only once in every three months, yet it shall be lawful for them to visit the said houses, and the Stables and other Outhouses thereunto belonging, at any other times that they shall think fit, provided that some person shall first have made Oath before a Justice of the Peace, that such and such particular houses which the said Overseers purpose to visit at these Extraordinary times, are not furnished with the proper number of Water Buckets, hatchets, firepoles, and Ladders, or that some hay or Straw is kept in them, or that ashes are kept in them on a wooden floor, or in a Wooden Vessel, or that more than Twenty five pounds weight of Gunpowder is kept in them, or in some Stables or other Outhouses belonging to them, and the said Justice shall thereupon have given the Overseer so applying a Licence or Warrant to visit the said houses. And a refusal to permit the said Overseer, together with his Companion or Assistant, above mentioned to visit such houses, Lodgings, Stables, or Outhouses, in consequence of such Licence or Warrant of a Justice of the Peace shall subject the Occupiers of such houses, Lodgings, Stables, or Outhouses, to the same penalties as a refusal to permit them to visit them at the ordinary times: And these penalties shall be recovered in the same manner in both cases; also the penalties for not having the proper number of Water Buckets, Hatchets, and firepoles and Ladders placed in the manner above mentioned, and for keeping Hay or Straw in a Dwelling house, or ashes on a Wooden floor or in a Wooden Vessel in any Dwelling house, or more than twenty five pounds weight of Gunpowder in any Dwelling house, Stable or other Outhouse, shall be the same, and recovered by the Overseers of the Chimnies in the same manner, as when the same Neglects and offence against this and the aforementioned Ordinance of the Twenty third day of last February, are discovered by the said Overseers in their Ordinary visitings of the said houses.

AND in all the cases mentioned in this Ordinance one half of the penalties recovered by the Overseers of the Chimnies who sue for the same, shall belong to the Kings Majesty, and the other to the Overseer who shall have sued for them.

Prosecutions for these penalties shall begin in one month after the offences by which they are incurred. This Ordinance shall not take

THE penalties appointed by this Ordinance shall be sued for within One Calendar month after the neglect or Refusal for which they shall be incurred. And they shall not be construed to Supersede or take away, or in any Degree alter or affect the larger Penalties of Forty Shillings, appointed by the Ordinance above mentioned, in the cases of houses and Chimnies that are Actually on fire.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

away the penalties appointed by the aforesaid Ordinance of February 23d. Appeal to the Justice of the Peace in their next Quarter Sessions.

AND further if any person Convicted in this Manner, before one Justice of the Peace, of any of the neglects or Offences before mentioned, shall think himself aggrieved by such Conviction, it shall be lawful for him to appeal therefrom to the next Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, of the District wherein such Conviction was had; Where the Sentence of the Justice of the Peace by whom he was Convicted, And the grounds upon which it was founded, shall be fully examined, and the said Sentence of the Single Justice shall be either Reversed or Confirmed, According to the Opinion of the Major part of the Justices there Assembled. But in order to entitle himself to this Appeal, the Appellant shall first deposit the money forfeited upon his Conviction, together with the Costs awarded by the said Single Justice upon such Conviction, in the hands of the said Justice before whom he shall have been convicted: And the said Justice shall, at his Discretion, either keep the said Money in his own hands, or pay it to the Clerk of the Peace of the Court before which the Appeal is brought, to be safely kept by him, till the Determination of the said Appeal at the Quarter Sessions; and then it shall be paid by the said Justice, or Clerk of the Peace, in the manner herein above directed, if the Conviction is confirmed, or to the Appellant if it is reversed. And further if the Conviction is confirmed, the Appellant shall pay to the Informer the Costs he shall have been put to by the Appeal, which Costs shall be levied upon the Goods and Chattels of the Appellant, by an order of the Justices in their said Quarter Sessions.

LASTLY, these Employments of Overseers of the Chimnies of the Towns of Quebec, Montreal, and Three Rivers shall never be given to any persons during their Natural lives, but only during the pleasure of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or other the Commander in Chief of the Province for the time being.

AN ORDINANCE, to restrain the keepers of Public Victualling houses from selling Liquors by retail upon Credit, beyond the Sum of half a Spanish Dollar ⁽¹⁾.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is found, by daily experience, that the too great Credit given by the keepers of Public Ale houses and Victualling houses in this Province, to those who frequent the said houses, for the sake of procuring strong Liquors, is a great cause of drunkenness, idleness and extravagance, and contributes in a great degree to the ruin of many of his Majesty's Subjects in this Province, by bringing them and their families to extreme poverty, and beggary, who might otherwise by a course of Sobriety and Industry be maintained in a decent and comfortable manner; and it is therefore become highly expedient that a Speedy remedy be provided thereto, by discouraging the keepers of such Publick houses from giving Credit to their said Customers for any but very small sums of Money: IT IS THEREFORE ORDAINED and DECLARED, by His Excellency the Captain General and Governor in Chief of this Province, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council of the same, that from and after the first day of July next, no Contract, or Contracts, express or implied, made between any keeper of a Public Ale house, Victualling house, or Tippling house in this Province and any other person, for any Ale, Beer, Cyder, Perry, Wine, Rum, Brandy or any other Strong Liquor sold and delivered to such person by retail, or by less than Three Gallons at a time, for any sum, or sums, of money exceeding the Sum of one half of a Spanish Dollar, shall be valid and binding in Law, for any more than the said Sum of one half of a Spanish Dollar; so that if any person shall, after the said first day of July have received, at different times from any such keeper of a Public Ale house, Victualling house or Tippling house, by retail, and upon Credit, or without paying for the same, divers quantities of Strong Liquors the value of which shall exceed the sum of One half of a Spanish Dollar in any proportion whatsoever, he shall be deemed in Law to owe to the said keeper of a Publick house only the Sum of one half of a Spanish Dollar on the said Account: AND no more than the said Sum of one half of a Spanish Dollar shall be adjudged to such keeper of a Publick house by any Justice of the Peace, or other Judge or Judges, before whom any such keeper of a Publick house shall have sued such person for the value of the Liquors so delivered to him. BUT this shall not affect the rights of any such keeper of a Publick house arising from the sale of Strong Liquors by retail to any of his Customers before the first day of the month of July next ensuing the Publication of this Ordinance.

AN ORDINANCE, Concerning Bakers of Bread in the Towns of Quebec and Montreal (1).

Preamble.

WHEREAS it happens, from the great and unavoidable badness of the roads in this Province at particular Seasons of the year, that it is extremely difficult and almost impracticable at such times and seasons for the Country People in the neighbourhood of the Towns of Quebec and Montreal, to bring any Supplies of Corn or other Provisions into the said Towns; And the said Towns are thereby exposed to the danger of a Scarcity of Corn and other necessary victuals, even when there is a Sufficient quantity thereof in the Province, unless care be taken by the persons who supply the said Towns with the same, and more especially by those who Bake and Sell Bread therein, to provide before hand a sufficient Stock thereof to supply the Inhabitants of the said Towns during the continuance of such unhappy times and seasons: AND WHEREAS it has been found that a great number of persons, who follow the Trade of Baking and selling Bread in the said Towns of Quebec, and Montreal, and in the Suburbs of the same, have, at particular times, when Wheaten flour has been scarce and difficult to be procured, suddenly shut up their shops, and refused to bake or sell any bread to their Customers; And their said Customers thereupon have been obliged to have recourse to other Bakers, who have not discontinued their said Trade, to be supplied with Bread for their daily Sustenance; AND these latter Bakers have oftentimes not been able to supply such Occasional Customers with Bread on these Occasions, by reason that they have only laid in a Sufficient Stock of Flour to provide Bread for their usual and Constant Customers, upon whose Custom they can depend; which has caused a great and unnecessary scarcity and dearth of Bread in the said Towns, which has been very grievous to the poorer sort of the Inhabitants of the same; AND WHEREAS the practice of suddenly leaving off the business of Baking and selling bread, when the profits attending it are small, and resuming it when it is grown more advantageous, is highly and unjustly prejudicial to the Interest of those more usefull Bakers who, notwithstanding the difficulties they Labour under at particular times, yet persevere in Supplying the public with bread constantly throughout the year: AND these inconveniences make it necessary that some Method should be taken to compell all those persons who shall for the future carry on the Trade of Baking and selling Bread in the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal, to continue the same throughout the year without such intermissions as have been before mentioned: IT IS THEREFORE ORDAINED and DECLARED, by His Excellency the Captain General and Governor in Chief of this Province, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council of the same, that from and after the First day of August next, in this present year of Our Lord One thousand, seven hundred and sixty nine, no person whatsoever shall Bake and Sell Bread in either of the said Towns of Quebec and Montreal, or the Suburbs thereof, without having first entered into a Recognizance to the King's Majesty in the sum of Four Score Spanish Dollars, with two Sureties in the sum of forty Dollars each, to keep and observe the Ordinances of this Province concerning the assize and weight of Bread, and the Regulations relating thereto, that are or shall be made by the Justices of the Peace of the district in which such Baker shall dwell, by virtue of any of the said Ordinances, and to continue to Bake and sell Bread to their Customers during a Certain reasonable time, to be mentioned in the said Recognizance, which shall not be less than one year, without intermitting their said Trade for the space of three days together. This Recognizance shall be taken by any Two Justices of the Peace of the district in which the person by whom it is given proposeth to follow the said Trade of Baking and Selling bread, in one of the weekly Sessions of the said Justices And the Clerk of the Peace of the said district shall have a fee of one half of a Spanish Dollar, and no more for making out the said Recognizance.

No person shall carry on the Business of a Baker without entering into a Recognizance to continue to Bake and sell Bread all the year, and to keep the Ordinances relating to the assize & weight of Bread.

Penalty of Baking and Selling Bread without having entered into such a Recognizance.

Eight Spanish Dollars for the first offence, Twenty for the Second, Forty for the Third, and for every subsequent offence.

Time and manner of suing for these Penalties.

Appeal to the next quarter Session of the Peace.

AND if any person after the first day of August next, in the year of Our Lord One thousand Seven hundred and sixty nine, shall Bake and sell any bread in either of the Towns of Quebec and Montreal, or the Suburbs thereof, without first having first entered into such a Recognizance, such person shall, for the first offence, pay the sum of Eight Spanish Dollars, and for the Second offence the Sum of Twenty Spanish Dollars, and for the third, and every Subsequent Offence the sum of Forty Spanish Dollars, which shall be recovered by the Clerk of the Market of the Town in which, or in the Suburbs of which, such offence shall have been committed, if the said Clerk of the Market shall sue for the same within one Month after the offence shall have been committed. AND if the said Clerks shall neglect to sue for the said penalties, within the space of one Month after the Commission of the Offences for which they are due, then it shall be Lawful for any other person whatsoever to sue for the same at any time within the space of three months after the commission of the said offences; but not after the expiration of the said Three Months. AND these penalties may be sued for by Information, before any two Justices of the Peace of the district in which such Offence shall have been committed, who are hereby Authorized and required to hear and determine the said Informations in a Summary manner upon the Oath of Two Credible witnesses (neither of whom shall be the Informer himself) and to Levy the said penalties, together with the Costs for suing for the same, by a warrant in writing under their hands to seize and sell the goods of the offender. AND one half of the said Penalties so recovered shall belong to the King's Majesty, and the other half to the Clerk of the Market, or other Informer who shall have sued for the same. AND if any person Convicted in the Manner before any two Justices of the Peace of the offence of having baked and sold bread in either of the Towns of Quebec and Montreal or the Suburbs thereof, without having entered into such a Recognizance as is before mentioned, shall think himself Aggrieved by such conviction, he may appeal from such Conviction to the next Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the district in which such conviction shall have been had; where the Sentence of the said Two Justices and the Grounds upon which it was given shall be fully examined and the said Sentence shall be either reversed or confirmed as shall seem just to the Major part of the Justices there Assembled. But before the said Appeal is allowed, the Appellant shall deposit the whole money forfeited upon his first Conviction (including the costs awarded by the said Two Justices thereupon) in the hands of the said Justices, or one of them, who shall either keep the said Money in their own hands or deliver it into the hands of the Clerk of the Peace of the district in which such Conviction shall have been had, to be kept by the said Clerk of the Peace until the Determination of the said Appeal, as the said Justice or Justices shall think fit. And after the determination of the said Appeal, by the said Court of Quarter Sessions, the said money shall be paid by the said Justices, or the Clerk of the Peace, in the manner and to the uses above mentioned, if the said Conviction shall be there Confirmed, or to the appellant if it is reversed. And further, if the Conviction is confirmed, the appellant shall pay to the Clerk of the Market, or other person, who shall have brought the Information, the reasonable Costs he shall have been put to by the said Appeal, which shall be Estimated according to the discretion of the Justices in the said Court of Quarter Session, and shall be levied upon the Goods and Chattels of the Appellant, by their order in their said Session. And if the Conviction is reversed by the said Justices in their said Court of Quarter Session and the said Justices shall be of opinion that the said Information was frivolous and vexatious, and brought without any appearance of reason, it shall be Lawful for them to adjudge the Appellant, over and above the money before deposited by him and now to be returned to him, the reasonable costs which the said Appellant shall have been put to in the whole Course of the Prosecution, both before the two Justices and before the Court of Quarter Session, or such part of the said Costs, as they shall think proper, and to order the same to be levied upon the Goods and Chattels of the Clerk of the Market, or other person who shall have brought the said Information. AND if any Baker, who shall have entered into any such Recognizance as is above mentioned, shall intermit his Trade of Baking and Selling bread for the space of Three Days together, or shall Commit any offence against the Ordinances of this Province concerning the Assize and weight of bread, or against the Regulations relating thereunto that are or shall be made by the Justices of the Peace of the District in which such Baker lives by Virtue of any of the said Ordinances, or shall do any other thing whereby the Money specified in the said Recognizance shall become forfeited, the money so forfeited shall be sued for by the Clerk of the Market of the Town in which, or in the Suburbs of which, such Baker lives, before the Justices of the Peace of the district in which such Town is Situated, in their next General Quarter session of the Peace after such Offence shall have been Committed; and if he fails to sue for it at the said next general Court of Quarter Session, then it may be sued for and recovered by the Clerk of the Peace of the said District in the ensuing quarter Session of the Peace for the said District, that is, in the second quarter Session of the Peace after the Commission of the Offence; and if the said Clerk of the Peace shall neglect to sue for it at the said Second quarter Session, then it may be Sued for and recovered by any other person in the Province, in the Third quarter Session after the said Offence shall have been committed: AND the said money so forfeited may be sued for and recovered by the said Clerk of the Market, Clerk of the Peace, or other person, by Information before the said Justices in their said Sessions. AND the said Justices are hereby authorized, and required to hear and determine, the said Informations in a Summary manner, and upon the Oath of two Credible witnesses; and if upon such an Information, the Defendant shall be convicted

by the said Justices of having committed such Offence, the said Justices shall order the said Sum of Four Score Spanish Dollars, together with such reasonable Costs as the said Clerk of the Markets, Clerk of the Peace, or other Informer, shall have been put to by prosecuting the said Information, to be levied upon the Goods and Chattels; Lands and Tenements, of the said Offender. AND if the Provost Marshal, or other Ministerial Officer, to whom the said order of the said Justices shall be directed, shall make a return thereto, that he cannot find sufficient Goods and Chattels, Lands and Tenements, belonging to the said offender to produce the said Sum of Four score Spanish Dollars, the said Justices shall, in such case, Summon the Two sureties of the said offender to come before them in their quarter Sessions, and shew cause why they should not pay the Sum of Forty Dollars each, which they had bound themselves to pay in the said Recognizance; or so much thereof as is necessary to increase the sum levied upon the Goods and Chattels of the Offender to four Score Dollars; and if they cannot produce any Just and sufficient reasons to exempt them from the payment of the said sums, the Justices of the Peace, either in the same, or in the next following quarter Session, shall make another order to the said Provost Marshal, or other Ministerial Officer, to seize and sell so much of the Goods and Chattels, Lands and Tenements, of the said Sureties, as shall be sufficient to increase the sum already raised upon the offender himself to Four Score Dollars, taking care, as much as may be, to raise an Equal Sum of money upon each Surety: and of the said sum of Four Score Dollars so forfeited and Levied, one half shall belong to the said Clerk of the Market, or Clerk of the Peace, or other person who shall have brought the said Information, and shall be paid to him by order of the said Justices together with the costs above mentioned: And the other half of the said Four score of Dollars shall belong to the King's Majesty, and shall be paid into the hands of the Receiver General of his Majesty's Revenue in this Province. AND if, upon hearing the said Information, the said Justices shall acquit the Defendant and determine that he hath not done anything whereby the Sum specified in the said Recognizance ought to be forfeited, and they shall be of opinion that the said Information is frivolous and vexatious, and was brought without any appearance of reason, it shall be Lawful for them to award to the Baker who shall have been so informed against and acquitted, such reasonable Costs, as he shall have been put to by means of such Information, or a part of the said Costs, at their discretion, and to order the same to be Levied upon the Goods and Chattels of the Clerk of the Market, or Clerk of the Peace, or other person who shall have brought the said frivolous and vexatious Information.

LASTLY, nothing in this Ordinance shall be Considered to take away, or alter in any degree, any penalties or Confiscation appointed by any former Ordinance of this Province, relating to the Assize and weight of Bread.

The Ordinance to wit.

AN ORDINANCE, for the more Effectual Administration of Justice, and for Regulating the Courts of Law in this Province.¹

Préamble.

WHEREAS it has been found by Experience, that the Several provisions contained in an Ordinance, bearing date the Seventeenth day of September One thousand, Seven hundred and Sixty four and Intituled amongst other things, "AN ORDINANCE for Regulating and establishing the Courts of Judicature," by virtue of which certain powers and Authorities are given to the Justices of the Peace for this Province, as well Separately as Collectively, to hear and determine in matters of private property, between party and party; instead of answering the good purposes for which they were ordained, have become an intolerable Burthen to the Subject, and proved the means of great disquiet, vexation and oppression: IT IS THEREFORE ORDAINED and DECLARED by His Excellency the Captain General and Governor in Chief of this Province, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council of the same, that from and after the day of the date of the Publication of this Ordinance, all Jurisdiction, power and authority in matters of private property belonging to, or exercised by, any Justice or Justices of the Peace for this Province, or any District, part or member of the same, except such as already have procured, or hereafter may procure a Special Commission for that purpose, under the hand and seal of the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being; shall be clearly annulled, taken away and determined: And that from and after the day of the date of the Publication aforesaid, No Justice or Justices of the Peace, except as before excepted, shall have any power or authority, to hear examine or determine any matter of private property, between party and party, or to make, pronounce or deliver any Judgment, Sentence, order or Decree, or to do any Judicial Act whatsoever touching the same. AND IT IS FURTHER ORDAINED and DECLARED by the Authority aforesaid, that from and after the day of the date of the Publication aforesaid, the following clauses or parts of an Ordinance, bearing date the Seventeenth day of September One thousand, seven hundred, and sixty four, and Intituled, amongst other things, "AN ORDINANCE for regulatng and establishing the Courts of Judicature," shall be repealed, and the same are hereby Repealed, and absolutely revoked and made void; that is to say; "And whereas it is thought highly necessary, for the ease, convenience and happiness of all his Majesty's loving Subjects, that Justices of the Peace should be appointed for the respective Districts of this Province, with power of determining property of small value in a Summary way, it is therefore further ordained and Declared by the Authority afore-

Preamble to the clause for erecting a new Jurisdiction.

All disputes for sums not exceeding £12 to be heard before the Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas only, except as after excepted.

Preamble to the Clause for fixing the Court of Common Pleas at Montreal.

Court of Common Pleas at Montreal Constituted an independent Court with Original Jurisdiction, in all matters arising within the District of Montreal, in the same manner as the Court of Common Pleas in Quebec, in all matters arising within the District of Quebec.

which no Execution has yet been awarded, or to Supersede, vacate, alter or Suspend any Writ or Writs of Execution, already awarded and not yet returned, but the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, is and are hereby further Authorized and required, to award Execution upon such Judgements already pronounced and given, and the Provost Marshal is hereby Authorized and required to enforce the same and also to proceed upon such Writs of Execution, as are already awarded and not yet returned, and to levy the Debt and Costs, and make such return, to the Justice or Justices awarding the same, as he would have done before the Publication of this Ordinance. AND WHEREAS the providing an easy, plain and Summary method of proceeding, for the recovery of small debts, with a due regard at the same time to a certain degree of Solemnity and Deliberation which ought ever to accompany the administration of Public Justice, very much contributes to promote Industry, and to Support and Encourage useful Credit: IT IS THEREFORE ORDAINED and DECLARED by the authority aforesaid, that from and after the day of the date of the Publication aforesaid, all manner of disputes and Differences, between party and party, for any sum not exceeding Twelve pounds Currency of this Province, except as is herein after excepted, shall be heard, tried and adjudged, before the Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas for the time being only, who are hereby authorized and required to take cognizance thereof, and the same to hear, adjudge and finally determine, as to them shall seem just in Law and Equity, any Ordinance or Ordinances, or any Cause, matter or thing in them or any of them contained, to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding. AND WHEREAS some Inconveniences have arisen from the present practice of adjourning the Court of Common Pleas from Quebec to Montreal, and from the want of a fixed, settled and Established Court, for the hearing and determining all matters arising within the District of Montreal before Judges specially appointed for that District, and constantly residing within the same; IT IS FURTHER ORDAINED and DECLARED by the Authority aforesaid, that from and after the day of the date of the Publication of this Ordinance, the Court of Common Pleas heretofore held by adjournment at different days and times in the Town of Montreal, and considered and taken to be a part or member of the Court of Common Pleas established at Quebec, shall be, and it is hereby constituted a Court of Record, with Original Jurisdiction of its own, independent of, and no wise connected with the Court of Common Pleas established at Quebec; which Court of Common Pleas for the District of Montreal shall for the future, be held before Judges constantly residing within the said Town of Montreal, who shall have the same power and authority, and the same is hereby given and granted to them, to hear and determine within the District of Montreal, and to award Execution, and to do and execute all and every matter or thing touching the Administration of Justice, in as full and ample a manner, as is now, or has at any time been used, practised or done by the Court of Common Pleas established at Quebec, in and for the District of Quebec. And that from and after the day of the date of the Publication aforesaid, the said Court of Common Pleas in the Town of Quebec, and the said Court of Common Pleas in the Town of Montreal shall be taken, and adjudged to have each their Separate Jurisdiction, independent of, and unconnected with each other, That is to say; the said Court of Common Pleas at Quebec, in and over all matters and things arising within the District of Quebec; and the Court of Common Pleas at Montreal, in and over all matters and things arising within the District of Montreal. PROVIDED ALWAYS, and it is hereby further Ordained & Declared by the authority aforesaid, that from and after the day of the date of the Publication aforesaid, where any person or persons against whom Judgement shall be obtained, in either of the said Courts of Common Pleas, shall not have any Lands, Goods or Effects, wherewith to satisfy the said Judgement, within the Jurisdiction of that Court wherein such Judgement shall have been obtained, but such person or persons shall have Lands, Goods or Effects, within the Jurisdiction of the other Court of Common Pleas, that then, and in that case, it shall and may be lawful for the Judge or Judges, of the Court of the District, in which such Judgement shall have been obtained, to award Execution to the Provost Marshal of the District, in which such Lands, Goods or effects shall be found, who shall before he proceeds to do any thing therein, carry the said Writ of Execution to one of the Judges of the Court of the District, in which such Lands, Goods or Effects shall be found, who is hereby authorized and required, to indorse the same; which Writ of Execution, being so indorsed as aforesaid, the sd. Provost Marshal of the District in which such Lands, Goods or Effects shall be found, shall proceed to levy the Debt and Costs, and make return thereof under his hand and Seal, to the Judge or Judges of the Court from whence such Writ of Execution was originally awarded, and such Writ of Execution, together with the return thereof, under the hand and seal of the Provost Marshal Subscribing the same, shall be by him conveyed, so soon after the making and Signing thereof as conveniently may be, to the Provost Marshal of the District, from whence such Writ was originally awarded, who is hereby authorized and required, to deliver the same into the Court of Common Pleas, from whence such Writ was originally awarded, on the first Court day, next after the coming of the said Writ and return into his hands, and the Judge or Judges of the said Court of Common Pleas, by whom such Writ of Execution was originally awarded, are hereby Authorized and required to receive the same, and the same shall be as valid and Effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the Provost Marshal making and Subscribing the same, had himself been present, and delivered the same into the Court with his own hand; Provided nevertheless, that the Provost Marshal executing the said Writ, and making return thereof as aforesaid, only shall be answerable, as well for the Truth of the said Return, as for any misbehaviour, Omission or neglect, in the manner of executing the said Writ, or making return thereof, before the Judge or Judges of the Court, from whence such Writ of Execution was originally awarded, and not before the Judge or Judges, of the Court of the District to which he belongs. And in case any person or persons, against whom such Judgement as aforesaid shall be obtained, not having any Lands, Goods or Effects within the Province, wherewith to satisfy, the said Judgement, shall usually reside without the Jurisdiction of the Court, in which such Judgement shall be obtained, or; being at the time of obtaining the said Judgement, resident within the same; shall alter his or their place of residence, and Proviso—that both Courts have a concurrent Jurisdiction in awarding Writs of Execution.

Where the Defendant has no Lands or Goods within the District where the cause was tried,

Execution may be awarded into the other District;

but it must be indorsed by one of the Judges of the District in which it is to be executed,

And the return must be made by the Provost Marshal to the Court from whence it was originally awarded;

but it need not be made in person.

The Provost Marshal executing the Writ only answerable before the Court of the District which awarded the same.

withdraw his or their person or persons from the Jurisdiction of the Court, in which such Judgement shall have been obtained, it shall and may be lawful for the Judge or Judges of the said Court, in which such Judgement shall have been obtained, in all cases where such Writ may legally issue, to award a Writ or Writs of Capias ad Satisfaciendum, to the Provost Marshal of the District, in which such person or persons shall reside, or be found, which Writ or Writs, being so Indorsed as aforesaid, the said Provost Marshal of the District, in which such person or persons shall reside, or be found, shall proceed to execute the same, and to arrest the Body or Bodies of such person or persons, and him, or them, to convey to the Common gaol of the District, in which such person or persons shall be arrested, there to remain, till the Debt and Costs are paid, or he or they be otherwise delivered by due Course of Law. AND IN ORDER to avoid the delays and inconveniencies occasioned by the present practice of holding the said Courts of Common Pleas, at certain fixed times and periods, according to the directions of the aforesaid Ordinance of September One thousand, Seven hundred, and sixty four, and to the Intent that the Judges of the said Courts, may be enabled to give more speedy and effectual relief in all cases, as well where the matter or thing in demand shall exceed the sum of Twelve pounds, as where it falls short of, or is equal to it; IT IS FURTHER ORDAINED and DECLARED by the authority aforesaid that from and after the day of the date of the Publication of this Ordinance, the said Courts of Common Pleas, as well at Quebec as at Montreal, shall be Constantly open to the Suitor, and they are hereby required to be kept open, at all times throughout the year, except on Sundays, and three weeks at seed time, a Month at Harvest, and a Fortnight at Christmas and Easter, and except during such vacation, as shall be from time to time appointed by the Judges, for making their respective Circuits throughout the Province, twice in every year, and the Judges of the said Courts, are hereby authorized and required, to issue their process, and to do and execute all and every other matter or thing touching the Administration of Justice, without regard to Terms, or any stated periods of time, as limited and appointed by the Ordinance of September One thousand, seven hundred, and sixty four, or any other Ordinance, Custom or usage whatsoever, all and every of which Ordinance or Ordinances, so far as they relate to the sitting of the said Courts, or prescribe any Limitations of time for that purpose, are hereby annulled, revoked, and made void, in as full and ample a manner, as if they were herein particularly enumerated, and set forth. PROVIDED ALWAYS, and it is further Ordained and Declared by the authority aforesaid, that the Judges of the said Courts of Common Pleas, as well in Quebec as Montreal, shall appoint one day in every week (except Sunday or in such vacations as aforesaid) at their discretion, for the hearing and determining all matters, wherein the cause of action, shall exceed the sum of Twelve pounds; which day shall be declared at the rising of the Court, on the Court day next preceding. And no adjournment of the Court shall be made, for any longer time than one week, upon any pretence or ground whatsoever. PROVIDED ALSO, that Friday in every week, except it be in such Vacation as aforesaid, shall be always a Court Day, as well in the Town of Quebec as Montreal, for the hearing and determining all matters, wherein the cause of action shall not exceed the sum of Twelve

IT IS FURTHER ORDAINED and DECLARED by the authority aforesaid, that if any Defendant, after having been duly Summoned as aforesaid, shall refuse to pay the said debt and Costs, and shall not appear either by himself or agent, before the Court, at the time and place mentioned in the said Writ of Summons, it shall and may be lawful for the Judge or Judges of the said Court, upon view of the Certificate of the said Bailiff, as aforesaid, or other due proof of the Service of the said Writ of Summons, in manner aforesaid, to hear the Cause on the part of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs only, and to make such order, decree, or Judgement, and to award such reasonable Costs of suit, as to him or them shall seem most agreeable to Equity and good Conscience. And if upon the day of the return of such Writ, or one such other day as shall be specially appointed by the Court, for the hearing of the cause, the Defendant so Summoned as aforesaid, shall appear, either by himself or his Agent, and the Plaintiff shall not appear, either by himself or his Agent or appearing shall not prosecute or prosecuting shall fail in the proof of the matter contained in his Declaration, that then upon due proof that such Defendant was Served with such process, it shall and may be Lawful, for the Judge or Judges of the said Court, to dismiss the said Defendant, and Decree and award him such Costs, as in his or their discretion shall seem meet, and to award Execution against the said Plaintiff, for recovering and levying thereof, in the same manner, as other Executions are hereby directed to be awarded, against the Defendant where the Plaintiff shall obtain Judgement in the Action. PROVIDED ALWAYS and DECLARED and it is hereby FURTHER ORDAINED and DECLARED by the Authority aforesaid, that no Execution shall be awarded against any Defendant, until the next Court day after that, on which Judgement shall be given in the cause, to the intent that the party may have time to satisfy such Judgement, by paying the debt and Costs, into the hands of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or his, her or their Agent, or to the Clerk of the Court, who is hereby authorized and required to receive the same, for his, her or their use, unless it shall be made appear, to the Judge or Judges pronouncing such Judgement, that the Defendant or Defendants, is, or are, preparing to leave the District, or otherwise to defeat the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, of the Effect of his, her, or their Judgement, in which case, it shall and may be Lawful, for the Judge or Judges, pronouncing the said Judgement, to award Execution immediately; but in Default of such payment as aforesaid, that then it shall and may be lawful, for the Judge or Judges giving such Judgement, on the Friday next ensuing the said Judgement, to award Execution, under his or their hand and Seal, directed to the Head Bailiff of the Parish, wherein the Defendant resides, or, to some other discreet person, dwelling in, or near the said Parish, whom the Judge or Judges, shall think proper to name for that purpose, and which he or they, are hereby Authorized and Impowered to do, commanding him to levy the debt and Costs, together with his fees, for leaving and returning the said Writ (which Fees shall be expressed in the Warrant of Execution) out of the Goods and Chattels belonging to such Defendant only, with an Express exception nevertheless therein Contained, to his, the party's, Beasts of the Plough, Implements of Husbandry, Tools of his Trade and one Bed and Bedding, unless the other Goods and Chattels of bandry, Tools of Trade and one Bed and Bedding not to be sold, unless there are no other goods, and even then the Bed and Bedding not to be sold.

Bailiff to give notice for two Sundays before he proceeds to the Sale of the Defendant's Goods.

Other Directions touching the Sale.

If Defendant's Goods & Chattels not sufficient to satisfy the Execution,

Bailiff to inquire of his Lands,

And to return the quantity and condition of them, whether arable or grass land usually reserved for Hay.

If any such, the Court to issue another Writ, directing the Bailiff to enter upon the Lands at the time of reaping or mowing, and to set apart so much as will be sufficient to satisfy the Debt & Costs;

And to sell the same upon the Land, returning the Overplus.

Penalty for obstructing the Bailiff in the Execution of this Writ.

such Defendant or Defendants, shall prove insufficient, in which case, such Beasts of the Plough, Implements of Husbandry, and Tools of his Trade, shall be sold, but not the bed and bedding. And the said Bailiff, or other person, to whom such Writ of Execution shall be awarded, as aforesaid, shall before he proceeds to do anything therein, give notice at the Church door of the Parish, wherein such Writ is intended to be Executed, immediately after divine Service, both Morning & Evening, on two Successive Sundays, next after the coming of the said Writ, of the day and time appointed, for the Sale of the Defendants Goods, on which day he shall proceed to sell the same to the highest bidder, and for the most money he can get, till he shall have raised sufficient, to discharge the whole of the said Writ of Execution, after which, if any Goods remain in execution, the same shall be immediately restored to the Defendant. And in case the Defendant or Defendants against whom such Writ of Execution, as aforesaid, shall be awarded, shall not have, Goods or Chattels sufficient to satisfy the said Writ of Execution, either in the whole or in part, that then the Bailiff, or other person so as aforesaid Authorized, shall inquire whether the said Defendant or Defendants, hath or have any Lands, in his or their possession or Occupation, or in the hands of any other person, in trust for him or them, lying within the Parish, wherein such Defendant or Defendants shall reside, or else where, within the Jurisdiction of the Court, from whence such Writ of Execution, shall be awarded, and if the said Bailiff, or other person so as aforesaid Authorized, shall be fully informed and Satisfied, that such Defendant or Defendants, hath or have, any Lands as aforesaid, such Bailiff, or other person so as aforesaid Authorized, is hereby required, to make return thereof, upon the Back of the Writ, specifying the extent and Quality of the same, and particularly, if any part thereof, be land usually sowed with Corn or Meadow Land reserved for Hay, and upon such return, it shall and may be lawful, for the Judge or Judges of the Court from whence such Writ issued, to issue another Writ, to the Bailiff of the Parish, in which such Lands lye, or to some other discreet person, residing in, or near the same, commanding him to enter upon such Arable or Meadow Land, belonging to such Defendant or Defendants, at the proper Season, immediately after the reaping or mowing the same, and before any part of the produce thereof, shall be removed and carried of, and of such produce, whether of Corn or Hay, to set apart so much, as in his discretion he shall think sufficient, to discharge the whole of the Writ, so to him directed, and the same to sell upon the Land, for the most money that he can get, leaving the Overplus, if any there be, upon the Land, for the use of the Defendant or Defendants. And it is further Ordained and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, that if any Defendant or Defendants, or any person or persons, by his or their direction; after notice to him or them of the coming of such Bailiff, or other person aforesaid, upon the Land (which notice he is hereby required to give) shall make any resistance, or prevent his coming upon the Land, to execute the Writ, or otherwise disturb him in the Execution of it, or shall remove or Carry away, all or any, of the parcels of Corn or Hay, so as aforesaid set off, without having first satisfied the whole of the said Writ of Execution, he or they, so offending, shall pay and forfeit, over and above the Sum so commanded to be levied, the sum of Ten pounds Currency of this Province to be

AN ORDINANCE, In Aid of and Addition to, Two former Ordinances for preventing Accidents by Fire.¹

Preamble.

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the Ordinances of the Twenty third day of February, and the Third day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty eight, for preventing Accidents by Fire, several Houses in the Towns of Quebec, Montreal, and Three Rivers in this Province, have of late been in great danger of taking fire, and the whole of the said Towns exposed, and do still continue to be exposed, to that dreadful calamity, as well from the evil and dangerous construction of certain Chimnies heretofore known and described in the French Language by the Words, Les Cheminées dévoyées, as also from the pernicious use of Shingles in covering the Tops of the said houses: BE IT ENACTED, and it is hereby Enacted, by the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council for the same, That from and after the Day of the Publication of this Ordinance, it shall not be Lawful for any person or persons whatsoever, but the same are hereby expressly forbid, to build, raise, or construct, or suffer to be built, raised or constructed, within any house, or Outhouse, or Room in any house, in either of the Towns of Quebec, Montreal and Three Rivers, or the Suburbs thereof any such Chimnies as aforesaid, or to make, or cause to be made or constructed, any Fire place whatsoever, at a Distance from the main Chimney or Chimnies of any House, and Communicating therewith, in a winding direction, for the purpose of discharging the Smoke through the Flue of such main Chimney or Chimnies, and if any person shall offend in the premises, and shall be Convicted thereof, in the Manner herein after prescribed, he or she shall, for every Chimney or Fire place so built, made or constructed, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten pounds of Lawful Money of this Province, and one Dollar per day, as long as such Chimney

AND all and every owner, Occupier, Lodger, Inmate or person resident in any House, Outhouse, or Room in any house, in either of the Towns of Quebec, Montreal or Three Rivers, or the Suburbs thereof, wherein there is at present any one or more of such Chimnies or Fireplaces as aforesaid, are hereby ordered and commanded within Three months after the Publication of this Ordinance, to take down and remove or cause to be taken down and removed, all such Chimnies and Fireplaces as aforesaid, or otherwise effectually to stop up the same with Masonry, so as to prevent all communication between them and the main Chimney, upon pain forfeiting the sum of one Shilling for every day such Chimney or Fire place shall remain unremoved or not stopped as aforesaid. And farther, the sum of one Dollar for every time such Fire place shall be made use of contrary to the Directions of this Ordinance, the same to be sued for, levied and disposed of as the other penalties herein before mentioned.

AND for as much as without entering the Houses in the said Towns and Suburbs it cannot be known whether due Obedience is paid to the foregoing Clauses of this Ordinance and the Directions therein contained, BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED by the Authority aforesaid, That after the Expiration of the said Three Months from the Publication of this Ordinance, it shall and may be Lawful for the Overseer of the Chimnies of this Province for the time being together with one or more experienced person or persons, not exceeding the Number of three, such Overseer having first made Oath before some Magistrate of his Suspicion that the present Ordinance in this respect is not complied with, and being also Authorized with a Warrant for that purpose under the hand and Seal of such magistrate, which Warrant he is hereby Authorized and directed to grant, to enter together with such person or persons as aforesaid in the Day time, the House or Room suspected, and examine whether any such Chimnies or Fireplaces as are herein before described, remain unremoved, or unstopped, contrary to the Directions aforesaid.

AND further, if any Owner, Occupier or person residing in any house, or Room of any house, shall refuse Admittance to the Overseer so Authorized as aforesaid, together with such person or persons as aforesaid, upon Demand from him, and notice of the Intent and built up with Masonry, Iron, or other not Combustible Materials.

Penalty on Persons offending therein.

Persons not Owners of the house or Room in which they live, may deduct all fair expences in removing or stopping such false Chimnies as aforesaid, or in raising up or taking down the main Chimnies as aforesaid, out of the Rent they pay for the house or Room.

The danger of Shingle Coverings.

Prohibition from Covering with Shingles or other Building to be Constructed hereafter in Quebec, Montreal, Three Rivers or the Suburbs thereof,

AND whereas a very Injudicious and dangerous practice has been lately introduced of raising several Chimnies in the Towns aforesaid, and Suburbs thereof, and making additions thereto, with* and other Combustible Materials for the purpose of giving a free Draught to the Air and preventing their Smoaking below, it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that in Forty days from and after the Publication of this Ordinance, every Owner or Occupier of any house in either of the Towns aforesaid or the Suburbs thereof, the Chimney or Chimnies of which house are raised with wood or other Combustible Materials, shall be obliged to take down the part so raised and build up the same, if it shall be thought expedient to continue such Chimney or Chimnies at the height to which they were raised before said removal, with masonry, Iron or other not combustible materials. And if any person of persons shall neglect or refuse to take down the part so raised as aforesaid, and shall be convicted thereof in manner as herein before set forth, he, she, or they, so offending, shall forfeit and pay the sum of One Dollar per day, for each Chimney, so long as such Additional Construction of Wood shall be Suffered to remain; the same to be Levied and Disposed of in like manner as the former Penalties in this Ordinance.

AND all and every person and persons, Occupying or Residing in any house, or Room of any house, in either of the Towns or Suburbs aforesaid, not being the Owners thereof, shall and may Deduct the Expence they are at, in procuring such Chimnies and fire places as are described in the first and Second Sections of this Ordinance, to be removed or otherwise stopped up, or in taking down any part of a Chimney raised with wood or other Combustible materials, from the rent they pay for the said house or Room to the Owner or Owners thereof, who shall allow the same, provided there is no fraud or unjust Charge in the Account.

AND whereas it has been found by Experience that the Method of late years pursued, in covering houses and other Building with Shingles instead of Boards or other more Substantial materials is extremely mischievous in cases of Fire, by communicating the same from House to house and frequently to Houses at a great distance from that in which the fire begins: To remedy therefore, and prevent as much as possible, the like Accidents for the Future, BE it further Ordained, by the Authority aforesaid, that from and after the Publication of this Ordinance, no Person or Persons whatsoever who shall build or cause to be built any one or more house, Houses or Outhouses, whether upon Old or new Foundations, in either of the Towns or Suburbs aforesaid, shall use, or cause to be made use of, Shingles for Covering the same, or any part thereof (such use of Shingles being hereby, and by the Authority aforesaid, expressly prohibited and forbid) except for covering the Windows upon the Roof, round the Chimnies, and where the covering boards join the Gables or End Walls of such houses or Outhouses. And where the Shingled covering of any such house already built, in either of the Towns or Suburbs aforesaid, is now, or shall hereafter be, so ruinous as to require to be new made, every Owner and Occupier, or person interested in putting on such new Covering, shall be obliged, and he or they are hereby expressly directed and enjoined, to make use of Boards or other more durable and Substantial Materials only, and not otherwise to employ or make use of Shingles than as before excepted. And if any person or persons shall, after the Publication of this present Ordinance, presume to use, or cause to be made use of Shingles, for covering any house, Out house, or part of any house or Out house hereafter to be built as aforesaid, or any house already built, the Shingled Covering of which requires to be new made; or shall otherwise offend in the Premises, every such person or persons so offending, shall pay and forfeit for such his Disobedience and neglect the sum of Ten pounds Lawful Money as aforesaid, and also one Dollar per day, so long as any part of such house or other Building, save as aforesaid, shall continue covered with Shingles; which said penalties of Ten pounds and one Dollar per day, shall be sued for, levied and disposed of, in the same manner as the former and other penalties already mentioned in this Ordinance.

AND whereas there are frequently one or more Ladder or Ladders upon houses in the Towns and Suburbs aforesaid, fixed to the Roofs of such Houses, and Secured with Hooks made of wood only, which often give way and endanger the Lives of those who have occasion to make use of them. It is further Enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, that, within Three months after the Publication of this Ordinance, all and every Owner and Occupier of any house, whereon are one or more Ladder or Ladders, so fixed with hooks made of Wood only, shall be obliged to take down and afterwards to refix and Secure the same, or put up new ones secured with strong Iron hooks; and no Person for the future shall be permitted to make use of, or have upon his house, any Ladder but such as is fixed and Secured with Iron hooks under Penalty of Twenty Shillings for every Ladder so remaining as aforesaid after the day prescribed in this Ordinance. The charge of taking down the Ladders, making the Iron hooks, and refixing the same, to be allowed by the Owner to his Tenant out of the Rent, in the same manner as in the Clauses above mentioned with Respect to the Alteration or Removal of Chimnies.

AND it is further provided, That the Information or Informations appointed by this Ordinance shall be sued for within two Months after the Neglect or offence against the same shall have been committed, and not after.

AND further, if any person convicted in this manner before one Justice of the Peace, of any of the neglects or offences before mentioned, shall think himself Aggrieved by such Conviction, he may appeal therefrom to the next Court of Quarter Sessions of the Justices of the Peace of the District wherein such Conviction was had, where the Sentence of the Justice by whom he was convicted, and the Grounds upon which it was founded, shall be fully examined, and the said Sentence of the single Justice, either reversed or confirmed, according to the Opinion of the Major part of the Justices there assembled. But in order to entitle himself to this appeal, the appellant shall first Deposit the money forfeited upon his first Conviction, together with the Costs awarded by the said Single Justice upon such Conviction, in the hands of the said Justice before whom he shall have been Convicted, and the said Justice shall at his Discretion, either keep the said Money in his own hands, or pay it to the Clerk of the Peace of the Court before which the Appeal is brought, to be safely kept by him till the Determination of the said Appeal at the Quarter Sessions, and then shall either pay it as before directed if the Conviction is confirmed or to the appellant if it is reversed. And further, if the Conviction is confirmed, the appellant shall pay to the Informer the Costs he shall have been put to by the appeal which shall be levied upon the Goods and Chattels of the Appellant, by an Order of the Justices in their said Sessions.

General Issue.

AND lastly, It is Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, that if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any person or persons, for anything done in pursuance of this Ordinance, the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Ordinance and the special matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the authority of this Ordinance; and if it shall appear so to have been done, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants, and if the Plaintiff shall be none Suited; or discontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as Defendants have in other Cases by Law.

GIVEN by the Honorable Hector Theops. Cramahé Esquire, Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Quebec, &c. &c. In Council, At the Castle of Saint Louis, in the City of Quebec, in the said Province, and passed under the Great Seal of the said Province, on the Twenty Second day of May, in the Thirteenth year of his Majesty's Reign, and in the year of Our Lord One thousand Seven hundred & Seventy three.

AN ORDINANCE for Establishing a Court of Appeals during the Absence of the present Chief Justice, and for Ascertaining the Powers of the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Chief Justice.¹

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is become necessary during the absence of the present Chief Justice of this Province to establish another Court of Civil Jurisdiction for hearing and determining such appeals from ¹ Que. Leg. Council, p. 136 (Can. Arch.).

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

The Governor and Council appointed a Court of Civil Jurisdiction for hearing and determining such appeals as have heretofore been brought before the Supreme Court.

the Courts of Common Pleas as in and by an Ordinance of this Province bearing date the Seventeenth day of September One thousand seven hundred and sixty four are directed to be, and Accordingly have been hitherto sued and prosecuted before the Chief Justice in the Supreme Court, and also to ascertain the Powers intended to be vested in the Commissions for Executing the Office of Chief Justice by virtue of their Commission. BE IT ENACTED, and it is hereby Enacted by the Lieutenant Governor of this Province by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council for the same, that from and after the day of the Publication of this Ordinance, and for so long time as the said Office of Chief Justice shall continue to be Executed by Commissioners and no longer, the Governor and Lieutenant Governor for the time being, or in their absence the Eldest Member or President of the Council (not being one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas) together with every other Member of his Majesty's Council in this Province shall be, and they are hereby and by the Authority aforesaid Constituted and appointed a Court of Civil Jurisdiction for the purpose of hearing and determining all such appeals from either of the Courts of Common Pleas in this Province as have been heretofore heard and Determined before the Chief Justice of the Province in the Supreme Court, and for no other purpose whatsoever.

No Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, being a Member of Council, to sit as Judge in this Court.

PROVIDED always and it is hereby further Enacted and Ordained that no Judge of either of the Courts of Common Pleas, being at the same time a Member of His Majesty's Council shall sit as Judge in this Court, or have any voice in, or give his Opinion upon any part of the proceedings, or otherwise interfere in the business thereof, than by stating to the Court the Nature of the Proceedings in the Cause together with the Grounds and reasons of his Judgement in the Court below, which he shall be at Liberty to do whether called upon by the Court for that purpose or not, and all other the Judges of the Courts below not being Members of the Council shall and may do either in person or by writing under their hands if thereto Called upon and required by the Court and not otherwise.

The Court to hold a Session once in every Month during the Six Winter months,

AND that all unnecessary delay may be avoided and speedy Justice done to the Parties, IT IS FURTHER ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid that for and during the time that this Court shall Continue to Exercise its Jurisdiction by Virtue of this Ordinance it shall and may and it is hereby and by the Authority aforesaid required to sit and hold a Session once in every Month during the six Winter Months, that is to say the months of November, December, January, February, March and April, and the second day of November next ensuing the Publication of this Ordinance, and the first day of every other of the said months as aforesaid, not being Sunday or some other great Festival, shall be and be Called the first day of the Session of the Court of Appeals, from which day it shall continue to sit by Adjournments from day to day till every appeal before them is finally determined, and no adjournment shall be made for any longer time than till the next day (except where Sunday or some great Festival intervenes) without the special direction of the Court, and except in the case of such appeals as may be thought to require a more full and Solemn Deliberation, which may be Adjourned from Court to Court as the President in his Discretion shall think prudent or necessary.

and in the month of August.

BUT there being reason to apprehend that the continued sitting of this Court during the Summer months may prove detrimental to the commercial Interest of this Country, It is further enacted and Ordained that there shall be Vacation and no Court shall sit on or be adjourned to any day, during the Months of May, June and July, but upon the last day of every Session to be held in the month of April, and before the rising of the Court, the same shall be adjourned over to the first day of August (not being Sunday or other great Festival as aforesaid) next ensuing, on which day the Court shall again meet and continue to sit during all the said Month of August, or so much of it as shall be sufficient for the dispatch of all the business then before the Court, and in like manner upon the last day of the Session of the Court for the Month of August aforesaid, and before the rising of the same, the Court shall be again adjourned to the second day of November next ensuing, and no Court shall sit during the months of September and October.

The Governor and five other members of the Council to Constitute a Court.

AND in all cases of appeals from either of the Courts of Common Pleas in this Province during the absence of the present Chief Justice or untill the Arrival of some other in his place the Governor and Lieutenant Governor for the time being, and in their absence the Eldest Member of the Council or President of the Court together with Five other Members of the Council, shall be and Constitute a Court for the hearing and determining the same, and their proceedings shall be as Effectual and their Deferrinations as final and conclusive as if every member of his Majesty's Council was present and gave his voice in the same.

The Governor to have two Votes.

AND where it shall happen at any time that the Court is divided in Opinion and there shall be the same number of voices for reversing as for confirming the Judgement of the Court below, in such case the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or President of the Court over and above his Vote already given by virtue of which such equality has been formed shall have one other Vote or Casting voice by which the Event of the Appeal shall be finally determined. IT IS FURTHER ORDAINED by the Authority aforesaid that as well the Original Writ for removing the Record out of the Court below, as all Subsequent Process shall be and issue in the name of the King Tested by the Governor Lieutenant Governor or President of the Court only, and by no other, and such original Writ may issue at any time upon the application of the Party and bear date as well out of Session as in, returnable if out of Session on the first or some other day of the next Session, and if in Session on some day in the same or the first day of the next Session as the Governor Lieutenant Governor or President of the Court shall think proper.

Process to issue in the King's name, tested by the Governor only, in or out of Session.

AND that the court proceed to try the real merits of every appeal, and not be confined Solely to the Examination of Errors upon the face of the Record, it shall be Lawful for, and by Authority aforesaid Power is hereby given to this Court to issue Process to bring up not only the Original Record but all papers and written Evidence of every-kind produced by either of the Parties in the Court below, and the Judges of the Court below shall also send up a List of the Witnesses who have been examined vivâ voce, in the cause in order that the Court may re-examine them if they think proper and finally determine upon the true merits of the case.

The Court may order up all written Evidence and a List of the Witnesses, to be re-examined if they think proper.

The Court Authorized to give such Judgement and award such Costs, as upon the face of the proceedings, and re-examination of the Evidence appears just.

AND if the Court shall be of Opinion that the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas have mistaken either the Law or the Fact, and given Judgement for the Defendant in Error when in truth they ought to have given it for the Plaintiff, in such case it shall be lawful for the Court and they are hereby Authorized and Impowered not only to reverse such Judgement of the Court below, but also to give such other Judgement and award such Costs as upon the whole face of the proceedings and Examination of all the Evidence it appears to them ought to have been given and warded by the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas.

Judgement of this Court to be final where the matter in dispute shall not exceed £500 Sterling.

AND it is further Enacted and Ordained that Judgment in this Court upon the appeal where the matter in dispute shall not exceed the sum of Five hundred Pounds Sterling shall be final and conclusive to all Parties without further Examination revision or appeal whatsoever, and Execution shall issue thereupon to enforce the same out of this Court, without remanding the Record upon any Occasion or sending it back to the Court below to issue Process of Execution even in cases where the Judgement of the Court below shall be confirmed.

Execution to issue out of this Court without remanding the Record to the Court below.

Preamble to the Clause for Ascertainning the Power of the Commissioners.

AND whereas it is conceived to be neither necessary nor expedient to vest the full power and Authority of the Chief Justice of the Chief Justice of this Province together with the whole Civil Jurisdiction as exercised by him in the hands of Commissioners, and it is of great Importance as well to the Commissioners themselves as to the Publick in General that the full extent of their powers should be known and the same ascertained with Clearness and precision, IT IS HEREBY further Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid that from the day of the Publication of this Ordinance and until the Chief Justice shall return into the Province, or some other be appointed to succeed him, the whole Criminal Jurisdiction belonging to that office shall be vested and reside in such Commissioners as are or shall be thereto appointed by a Publick Instrument or Commission under the Broad Seal of the Province and such Commissioners so appointed as aforesaid are hereby Authorized Impowered and required to execute all and every part of the said Criminal Jurisdiction in as full and ample a manner as has or at any time ought to have been executed by any Chief Justice since the Establishment of Civil Government in this Province.

The whole Criminal Jurisdiction of the Chief Justice to be Executed during his absence by Commissioners under the Great Seal of the Province.

Magistrates, Provost Marshals, &c., to pay due obedience to the said Commissioners, in Executing all Criminal Process, &c.

AND all inferior Magistrates, Provost Marshals, Coroners, Bailiffs, Keepers of his Majesty's Gaols and others are hereby and by the Authority aforesaid Authorized and required to pay due obedience to the Acts of such Commissioners to Execute all Criminal Process to them or any of them directed, to return all such writs as shall from time to time be awarded under the hand and Seal of one or more of the said Commissioners and otherwise to do and execute in their respective offices all such things as shall be Legally Demanded of them or any of them and as they have been used to do and execute in the time of any Chief Justice whatsoever upon pain of being Proceeded against for the Contrary by Attachment or such other Summary mode of Proceeding as has been usually adopted in the Supreme Court, and the Court shall think proper to direct.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

Preamble to the Clause for Limiting the Civil Authority of the Commissioners.

They are empowered to issue Original Process for bringing in the Defendant's Body, to mark the same for Bail, to perfect such Bail in Court, for want of Bail to commit the Defendant to Prison, to Supersede and Discharge out of Prison all persons intitled thereto, and to admit and record the surrender of the Principal and discharge the Bail, &c.

BUT for as much as the peculiar Circumstances and Situation of this Province seem to require that the Civil Authority of the said Commissioners should be Limited and restrained, the Proceedings in all causes already instituted in the Supreme Court either removed out of the said Court or Suspended, and others which may hereafter be commenced not suffered to proceed beyond a certain extent, it is further enacted and Ordained and Power is hereby given to the said Commissioners for Executing the Office of Chief Justice to issue all such Original Process for bringing in the Defendants Body as has usually issued in the time of any Chief Justice whatsoever, to mark the same for Bail upon the proper Affidavit, in cases where such Bail has commonly been allowed, to Justify and perfect such Bail in Court, or otherwise upon the Return of a Capi Corpus to grant a Rule or Rules for bringing in the Defendants Body, and for want of procuring such Bail to commit the Defendant to Prison, to Supersede and discharge out of Prison all persons intitled to their Supersedeas, to admit and record the Surrender of the Principal and in consequence thereof to discharge the Bail, and otherwise to do and execute all and all manner of things necessary to be done and executed for the institution and Commencement of a suit in the Supreme Court and for securing to the Plaintiff his Debt and Costs if upon the Return of the present Chief Justice or the coming of some other person in his place such Plaintiff shall think proper to proceed in his Action and shall afterwards recover in the same by Judgement of the Court.

Bail being perfected in Court, or the Defendant in Custody for want of it, the power of the Commissioners to cease till the Chief Justice's return.

No advantage to be taken by the Defendant for want of filing a Declaration, &c. but the Plaintiff may at any time within the first term after the Chief Justice's Return, file his Declaration, &c.

Proceedings in all cases already instituted in the Supreme Court to be stayed until the Chief Justice's Return.

AND such Bail as aforesaid being perfected in Court or the Defendant in Custody for want of finding Bail, the power of the Commissioners shall cease and all further proceedings be stayed till the return of the present Chief Justice into the province or the coming of some other in his place, and no advantage shall be taken by any Defendant for want of filing a Declaration or the discontinuance of any Process whatsoever by lapse of time or otherwise, but the Plaintiff shall be at Liberty at any time within the first Term to be held after the return of the present Chief Justice or the coming of some other, to file his Declaration and otherwise proceed in the Cause as if Bail had been perfected as of the Term in which the said Declaration shall be filed, any Law, Usage, Practice or Custom of the Supreme Court to the Contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

AND in like manner the Proceedings in all cases already instituted in the Supreme Court shall be stayed without prejudice to either party and the same shall be and remain in the same situation in which they shall be left at the Departure of the present Chief Justice until his return or the coming of some other person in his place, at which time the parties shall be at Liberty to proceed in the same manner as if there had been no interruption or stay of Proceedings whatsoever.

Provided that the Plaintiff in any Cause now de-

PROVIDED always that the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any cause now depending in the Supreme Court not being at issue shall be at Liberty to discontinue the same without payment of Costs and com-pending not being at issue may discontinue the same without payment of Costs and Commence a new Action in the Court of Common Pleas, or being at Issue may remove the Record into the said Court.

The Commissioners upon Consent of parties may Refer matters to Arbitration, and make such Reference a rule of Court.

They may examine Witnesses upon Interrogatories, enter up Judgements, &c., and issue Writs of Execution upon the same.

Before any Commissioner shall issue a Bailable Writ the Plaintiff to procure two persons as pledges for prosecuting his Suit.

Provost Marshals, &c., required to Execute all Writs and Process, &c.

mence a new Action or Actions in the Court of Common Pleas, or being at Issue and ready for Trial by a Jury may remove the Record unless he or they shall think proper to discontinue as aforesaid, as it stands upon the Pleadings into the Court of Common Pleas who are hereby Authorized and required to receive the same and try such issue by a Jury and give Judgement and award Execution thereupon in the same manner as if the cause had Originated and been brought to issue in their own Court.

AND provided also that it shall and may be Lawful for the said Commissioners upon the Consent of Parties to refer matters to Arbitration and also to make such reference a Rule of Court, and afterwards proceed thereon in case of disobedience to or contempt of such Rule in such manner as has at any time, or might have been done by the Chief Justice himself. And also to examine upon Interrogatories (in cases where such examination has usually been taken) Witnesses Aged, Infirm or under a necessity of leaving the Province, to enter up Judgement or Judgements upon an old Warrant or Warrants of Attorney together with all Judgements already pronounced by the Court and not entered, and to issue such Writ or Writs of Execution upon the same as the parties would have been intitled to if the Chief Justice had been present.

AND that no person or persons may be arrested and held to Bail upon frivolous and vexatious pretences it is Lastly Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid that before any Commissioner shall Issue a Bailable Writ in any case whatsoever, the Party suing out such Writ shall besides making the usual affidavit of the Debt procure the names of two respectable and substantial persons as his Pledges for prosecuting his Suit, which names shall be entered upon Record and the persons so named shall become liable to the Defendant and shall answer to him the whole Costs of the suit in case the Plaintiff shall fail in his Action, Discontinue, be Non Suited or the Defendant in any manner become intitled to the same, and the same shall be awarded him by the Judgement of the Court.

AND in the Execution of all Writs and Process to them sent under the hand and Seal of one or more of the Commissioners the Provost Marshals of the Province of Quebec as well as all other Ministerial Officers of Justice are hereby Authorized and Required to use all due diligence and make such Returns as they have at any time been accustomed to use and make in the time of any Chief Justice whatsoever, as they will Answer the Contrary thereof at their peril.

GIVEN by the Honorable, HECTOR THEOPHILUS CRAMAHÉ Esquire, Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Quebec, &c. &c. In Council, at the Castle of Saint Louis, in the City of QUEBEC, in the said Province, and passed under the Great Seal of the said Province on the first day of September, in the thirteenth year of his Majesty's Reign and in the year of Our Lord One thousand Seven hundred and Seventy Three.

ORDINANCES MADE AND PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR AND LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF THE PROVINCE OF QUEBEC. QUEBEC: PRINTED BY WILLIAM BROWN, BEHIND THE CATHEDRAL CHURCH, M, DCC, LXXVII.

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO.

GEORGH III. REGIS.

CAP. I.

An ORDINANCE

For establishing courts of civil judicature in the province of QUEBEC.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary to establish courts of civil judicature for the speedy administration of justice within this province, It is therefore ordained and enacted, by his excellency the captain-general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ARTICLE I.

Division of the province into two districts.

For the ease and convenience of his majesty's subjects residing in different parts of this province, the same shall be, and hereby is divided into two districts, to be called and known by the names of Quebec, and Montreal; which said districts shall be divided and bounded by the river Godfrey on the south, and by the river St. Maurice on the north side of the river St. Laurence.

ART. II.

Establishment of a court of common pleas for each district.

A court of civil jurisdiction, to be called the court of common-pleas, shall be and hereby is erected, constituted and established for each of the said districts, the one whereof shall sit at the city of Quebec, and the other at the city of Montreal, at least one day in every week for the decision of causes in which the value of the matter in dispute shall exceed ten pounds sterling; and another day in every week for the decision of causes in which the matter in dispute shall be of, or under the value of ten pounds sterling; and shall so continue their sittings throughout the whole year; excepting three weeks at seed-time, a month at harvest, and a fortnight at Christmas, and Easter; and except during such vacations as shall be appointed by the judges for making their circuits twice every year through their respective districts.

To sit one day at least in every week in matters exceeding £10 sterling and another day in matters of or under that sum

Except the vacation times.

Rule of decision.

The said courts shall have full power, jurisdiction, and authority to hear and determine all matters of controversy relative to property and civil rights, according to the rules prescribed by an act of parliament made and passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of his present majesty, intituled, "an act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec in North-America," and such ordinances as may hereafter be passed by the governor and legislative council of this province.

ART. III.

Two judges necessary to make a court. Their decision to be final in matters under £10 sterling except in certain cases in which excepted cases and in matters above that value, appeal to be to the governor and council, giving good security.

In matters above the value of ten pounds sterling, the presence of two judges shall be necessary to constitute a court of common-pleas; the decision of which court shall be final in all cases where the matter in dispute shall not exceed the value of ten pounds sterling; except in matters which may relate to the taking or demanding any duty payable to his majesty, or to any fee of office, or annual rents, or other such like matter or thing where the rights in future may be bound; in which cases, and also in all matters that exceed the said value of ten pounds sterling, an appeal shall lie to the governor and council; provided security be duly given by the appellant that he will effectually prosecute the same, and answer the condemnation, as also pay such costs and damages as shall be awarded, in case the judgment or sentence of the court of common-pleas shall be affirmed.

ART. IV.

The governor and council made a court of appeals.

The governor and council are hereby erected and constituted a superior court of civil jurisdiction (whereof in the absence of the governor, and lieutenant governor, the chief justice shall be president) for hearing and determining all appeals from the inferior courts of civil jurisdiction within the province, in all cases where the matter in dispute shall exceed the sum of ten pounds sterling, or shall relate to the taking or demanding any duty payable to his majesty, or to any fee of office, or annual rents, or other such like matter or thing where the rights in future may be bound, though the immediate sum or value appealed for, be less than ten pounds sterling.

The governor, lieutenant-governor, or chief justice with any five members to constitute a court,

And any five members of the said council (the judges who shall have given the judgment appealed from, excepted) with the governor, lieutenant-governor, or chief justice, shall constitute a court for that purpose, which shall sit the first monday in every month throughout the year, and continue sitting each month as long as the business before it may require.

And the said court of appeals shall have power to revise and examine all the proceedings in the court below, and to correct all errors both in fact and in law, and to give such judgment as the court below ought to have given, and on such judgment to award and issue such execution as the law shall direct.

ART V.

The judgment of the said court to be final in all matters not exceeding the value of £500 sterling. Appeals allowed in matters above that value to his

The judgment of the said court of appeals shall be final in all cases where the matter in dispute shall not exceed the value of five hundred pounds sterling: But in cases exceeding that value, an appeal shall lie to his majesty in his privy council; provided security be first duly given by the appellant that he will effectually prosecute his appeal, and answer the condemnation, as also pay such costs and majesty's in council.

damages as shall be awarded by his majesty in his privy council, in case the sentence of the said court of appeals shall be affirmed.

Other cases in which appeal shall be allowed to his majesty in council.

An appeal shall likewise lie to his majesty in his privy council from the judgment of the said court of appeals, in all cases where the matter in question shall relate to the taking or demanding any duty payable to his majesty, or to any fee of office, or annual rents, or other such like matter or thing where the rights in future may be bound, though the immediate sum or value appealed for, be less than five hundred pounds sterling.

And in all cases where appeal shall be allowed to his majesty in his privy council, execution shall be suspended until the final determination of such appeal; provided security be given as aforesaid.

ART. VI.

Judgments, sentences and executions of the courts of civil jurisdiction established since the 1st of May, 1775, confirmed. Subject to an appeal, &c.

All judgments, sentences and executions of the courts of civil jurisdiction which it has been found necessary to establish since the first of May in the year 1775, are hereby ratified and confirmed; subject nevertheless to an appeal to the said court of appeals in matters exceeding the value of ten pounds sterling, and in cases where rights in future may be bound.

ART. VII.

Appeal from the judgments of all the courts heretofore established, to be prosecuted within 3 months.

Any party meaning to appeal from any judgment, either of the said last mentioned courts, or any of the courts of civil jurisdiction subsisting in the province before the first of May 1775, shall sue out the writ of appeal within three months after the publication of this ordinance; after which period the same will not be allowed.

ART. VIII.

Action undetermined in the civil courts to be transmitted to the court of common-pleas.

All actions instituted in any of the courts of civil jurisdiction subsisting in the province before the first of May 1775, or in those established since the first of May 1775, and remaining undetermined therein, shall be transmitted to the courts of common-pleas hereby established for the respective districts, to be proceeded upon to judgment as if the same had been commenced therein.

All matters undetermined in any former court of appeals, to be transmitted to the court of governor and council.

Also all matters remaining undetermined in any court of appeals heretofore subsisting in this Province, shall be forthwith transmitted to the court of appeals hereby established, to be proceeded therein to judgment and execution.

GUY CARLETON.

Ordnained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the Great Seal of the province, at the council chamber in the castle of St. Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the twenty-fifth day of February, in the seventeenth year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the Third, by the grace of God of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth, and in the year of our LORD one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven.

By His EXCELLENCY's Command,

J: WILLIAMS, C. L. C.

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO

GEORGE III. REGIS.

CAP. II.

An ORDINANCE

To regulate the proceedings in the courts of civil judicature in the province of QUEBEC.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary for the ease and convenience of his majesty's subjects who may have actions to prosecute in the courts of civil judicature established in this province, that the mode of administering justice in the said courts should be clearly ascertained, and rendered as plain as possible,

It is therefore ordained and enacted by his excellency the captain-general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ARTICLE I.

Manner of proceeding in actions above the value of 10l. sterling

Issuing out the summons

In all causes or matters of property exceeding the sum or value of ten pounds sterling upon a declaration presented to any one of the judges of the court of common-pleas, by any person setting forth the grounds of his complaint against a defendant, and praying an order to compel him to appear and answer thereto; such judge shall be, and hereby is empowered and required, in his separate district, to grant a writ of summons, in the language of the defendant, issuing forth in his majesty's name, tested and signed by one of the judges, and directed to the sheriff of the district, to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's declaration, on some certain future day, regard being had to the distance of the defendant's abode from the place where the court sits: but if the judges, or any two of them, are satisfied by the affidavit of the plaintiff, or otherwise, that the defendant is indebted to him, and on the point of leaving the province, whereby the plaintiff might be deprived of his remedy against him, it shall be lawful for the said judges, or any two of them, to grant an attachment against the body of such defendant and hold him to bail, and in default of bail, to commit him to prison until the determination of the action against him. The declaration shall in all cases accompany the writ, and the plaintiff shall not be permitted to amend it, until the defendant shall have answered the matter therein contained, nor afterwards, without paying such reasonable costs as the court may ascertain.

Attachment against the body where a debtor is going to leave the province.
Declaration to accompany the writ,

ART. II.

Service thereof.

Copies both of the writ of summons and the declaration shall be served on the defendant personally, or left at his house with some grown person there, otherwise the service shall be deemed insufficient.

ART. III.

If defendant does not appear.

If on the day of the return of the writ of summons, the defendant does not appear in person or by attorney (proof of such service being produced or made in court) the plaintiff shall obtain a default against the defendant; and if on calling over the action on the next weekly court day the defendant should still neglect to appear, without any good reason for such his neglect; the court, after hearing and receiving sufficient proof of the plaintiff's demand, shall cause their final judgment to be entered against the defendant, and shall award such costs thereupon as they shall think reasonable, and issue such execution as the law, according to the nature of the case, may direct.

Judgment to be entered.

ART. IV.

If defendant appears

If the defendant appears at the return of the writ of summons, or, having made default on that day, pays such costs as the court may think reasonable, and appears on the next weekly court day after such return; he shall, either then or on such other day as he may obtain from the court, make his answer to the declaration, either in writing or verbally, as he thinks fit: provided that if his answer is verbal, the clerk of the court shall take down the substance thereof in writing, and preserve the same amongst the records of the court.

he is to answer the declaration.

If the plaintiff does not appear, or appearing, does not prosecute his action, the same shall be dismissed with costs.

If the plaintiff does not attend the action to be dismissed with costs.

ART. V.

If the parties differ in their state of facts, court shall ascertain the facts necessary to be proved.

If upon the declaration and answer, or such further pleadings as the court may, if it thinks proper, permit or direct, the parties shall appear to differ essentially in their state of facts; the court shall ascertain, and order the clerk to take down in writing, such facts material to the decision of the cause as it will proceed to receive proof upon; and appoint a day for hearing and receiving such proof as the parties shall think proper to produce.

ART. VI.

Manner of examining witnesses,

In all cases where witnesses are produced, they shall be examined and cross examined, vivâ voce, in open court; unless some good reason is shewn to the judges from departing from this rule in particular cases.

their examinations to be taken down in writing.

The examinations of the witnesses shall be taken down in writing by the clerk, and filed among the records of the court.

ART. VII.

English rules of evidence adopted in commercial cases.

In proof of all facts concerning commercial matters, recourse shall be had, in all the courts of civil jurisdiction in the province, to the rules of evidence laid down by the English Law.

ART. VIII.

OF APPEALS.

Party appealing to sue out a writ

The party meaning to appeal from any sentence or judgment of any of the courts of common-pleas, shall sue out a writ from the court of appeals; tested and signed by the governor, lieutenant gov-commanding the judges to send up the record .

error, or chief justice; stating that the appellant complains of being aggrieved by the judgment, and therefore commanding the judges of the inferior court, or any two of them, to send up the original papers and proceedings found in the records or registers of the court, concerning the same.

Such writ, when presented to any of the judges of the court below, shall be allowed by him, if the appellant has given the requisite security; and when allowed, the clerk of the court shall proceed to comply with the order of the writ; and the judges, or any two of them, shall make their return against the return day thereof.

ART. IX.

The appellant to fyle his reasons of appeal in 8 days.

If the appellant does not within eight days after the return of the said writ, and the transmission of the proceedings, fyle his reasons of appeal; the appellee shall obtain a rule or order, that unless the appellant's reason of appeal are fyled in four days, the appeal will be dismissed. And if the said reasons of appeal are not fyled within four days after service of the said rule on the appellant or his agent, the appeal shall accordingly be dismissed, with costs.

ART. X.

Appellee to fyle his answers in 8 days.

Within eight days after the reasons of appeal are fyled, the appellee shall fyle his answer thereto; or if he neglects so to do, the appellant shall obtain a rule or order, that unless the appellee fyle his answers within four days, he will be precluded from fyling them after that period; and if his answers are not fyled within four days after service of such rule on the appellee or his agent, he shall accordingly be precluded from fyling them; and the court will proceed to hear the cause on the part of the appellant, and proceed to judgment therein without the intervention of the appellee.

ART. XI.

The court, on good cause shewn, to prolong the times above allowed.

The said court of appeals nevertheless shall and may upon application made and good cause shewn by either of the parties (notice being given to the other) prolong the time allowed for fyling either the reasons of appeal or answers thereto: And in case the court shall not be sitting at the time when such reasons or answers ought regularly to be fyled, the party neglecting shall apply to the court at the next sitting thereof, and shew his reasons for such neglect; and if the court finds them insufficient, it will, as the case may be, either dismiss the appeal, or proceed to hear it without the intervention of the appellee, as above directed.

ART. XII.

Day to be fixed for hearing the cause.

When the reasons of appeal and the answers thereto are fyled, the court shall, on the application of either of the parties, fix on such convenient day for the hearing of the cause, as to it may seem proper.

ART. XIII.

In 15 days after judgment, execution to issue, in case the writ of appeal be not allowed, &c.

If the writ of appeal is not allowed by one of the judges of the court below, and a copy thereof served on the appellee or his agent within fifteen days after any judgment given in the court of common-pleas, execution shall issue.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

no appeal allowed after a year from the date of the judgment.

And no appeal shall be allowed or received from the court of common-pleas after the expiration of one year from the date of the judgment of such court.

ART. XIV.

OF EXECUTIONS.

Nature of the writ of execution.

The execution sued out from any of the courts of civil jurisdiction, shall be a writ issuing in the king's name, tested and signed, when issuing from the court of appeals, either by the governor, lieutenant governor, or chief justice; and when issuing from the court of common-pleas, by one of the judges of the court for the district in which it is given, directed to the sheriff of the district, setting forth the judgment of the court between the parties, and the kind of execution which the law, according as the case may be, shall direct, whether the same be to take the body, or to levy a sum of money out of any one's goods and chattels lands and tenements, or to do any special matter or thing whatever. The date of the judgment shall be indorsed on every writ of execution, and that indorsement signed by the judge.

ART. XV.

Personals to be first disposed of, and insufficient real estate to be sold.

In all cases where execution shall issue against real and personal estates, the sheriff shall first dispose of the personal property, and if the proceeds thereof fall short of the amount of the judgment, the real estate, or so much thereof as will produce the amount, shall be sold for that purpose.

ART. XVI.

Manner of selling personals.

Where moveables shall be seized by the sheriff under an execution, he shall cause the seizure to be published at the church door of the parish, immediately after divine service, on the first sunday succeeding such seizure; and at the same time cause to be proclaimed the day and place, when and where, he means to proceed to the sale thereof: provided that the place of sale shall be in the same parish in which the seizure is made.

ART. XVII.

Manner of selling real property.

When lands and tenements shall be seized by the sheriff under a writ of execution, he shall advertise the sale thereof three several times in the Quebec gazette, to be on some certain day after the expiration of four months from the date of the first advertisement; and proclaim the said sale at the church door of the parish in which the premises are situated, immediately after divine service, on the three sundays next preceding the sale; and cause a copy of the said advertisement to be fixed on the door of the parish church.

ART. XVIII.

When two or more writs of execution issue upon judgments given the same day, they are to be satisfied in the same proportions.

If two or more writs of execution shall be issued upon judgments given the same day against the same defendant or defendants, and so marked on the writs, such executions shall have the same privilege, and be satisfied in the same proportions; and the sheriff or other person to whom such writs of execution shall be awarded, receiving the same, is hereby authorized and commanded, after the sale of the whole of such defendant's real and personal estate, where the writ shall be awarded against both, in case the same should not be sufficient to satisfy the whole of such judgments, to pay over and divide the net produce of such sale or sales, after deducting his own costs and charges, amongst the several plaintiffs, in proportion to the amount of their respective judgments.

ART. XIX.

Allowance to the sheriff.

On every execution the sheriff shall be allowed all his disbursements, and shall be authorized to charge, over and above, at the rate of two and a half per cent. to be deducted out of the money he levies.

ART. XX.

Proceedings in actions under ten pounds sterling.

In matters either not exceeding or under ten pounds sterling, any person having a right of action against another, shall prepare, or procure from the clerk of the court of common-pleas, a declaration in the following form; viz.

Declaration.

"Quebec, }
 "Montreal, } ——— day of ——— 17—
 " A. B. ——— Plaintiff,
 " C. D. ——— Defendant,

"The plaintiff demands of the defendant the sum of ———
 "due to the plaintiff from the defendant for ———
 "which said sum, though often demanded, still remains due, there"fore the plaintiff prays judgment."

This declaration shall be fyled by the clerk, who shall make a copy thereof, and at the foot of such copy write out a summons, in the language of the defendant, in the following form; viz.

Summons.

To C. D. the defendant in the above action,

"You are hereby commanded and required to pay the plaintiff A. B.
 "—the above mentioned sum of ——— together with ——— "costs; or else, to appear in person, or by your agent, before me at "the courthouse of the city of Quebec,
Montreal, together with your wit"nesses, if you have any, on the — day of —; when the matter "of complaint against you, as ascertained in the above declaration,
 "will be heard and finally determined, otherwise judgment will be "given against you by default.

Service.

E. F. judge of the court of common-pleas."

This summons shall be signed by one of the judges of the court, and a copy thereof, and of the declaration, served on the defendant personally, or left at his dwelling-house, or ordinary place of residence, with some grown person there; and the person serving the same, shall inform the defendant, or such grown person, of the contents thereof.

Non appearance,

If at the time mentioned in the summons the defendant does not appear (proof of the service thereof being produced in court) the judges, or any one of them, shall hear the cause on the part of the plaintiff, and make such order, decree, or judgment, and award such reasonable costs of suit, as to him or them shall appear agreeable to equity and good conscience.

Appearance. But if the defendant does appear by himself or his agent, and the plaintiff or his agent does not appear; or appearing, does not prosecute; or prosecuting, fails in his action; the judge or judges shall dismiss the defendant with costs.

Judgment. If the plaintiff makes good his charge against the defendant, the judge or judges shall give judgment accordingly, and award costs and execution; but the execution shall not issue till the next court day after judgment given.

Execution. The execution shall go against the moveables only of the defendant, which shall be seized by some person to be for that purpose appointed by the court, and sold by him in the manner mentioned in the sixteenth article of this ordinance.

Exception. But the execution shall contain an exception of the party's beasts of the plough, implements of husbandry, tools of his trade, and one bed and bedding, unless his other goods and chattels shall prove insufficient; in which case, such beasts of the plough, implements of husbandry, and tools of his trade, shall be sold, but not the bed and bedding.

Debt to be levied by instalments. The judge or judges may, if they think proper, order the debt to be levied by instalments, provided the time allowed shall not exceed the space of three months from the day of issuing the execution.

ART. XXI.

If defendant secretes his effects, execution against the body. In matters as well above, as of, or under the value of ten pounds sterling, if the defendant shall convey away or secrete his effects, an execution shall go against his person, to be taken and detained in prison, until he satisfies the judgment.

ART. XXII.

In commercial matters execution against the body. For the satisfaction of all judgments given in commercial matters between merchants, as well as of all debts due to merchants for goods, wares and merchandizes by them sold; execution shall issue, not only against the goods, chattels, lands and tenements of the defendant, but also, in case they shall not produce the amount of the plaintiff's demand, against his person, to be taken and conveyed into the prison of the district, and there detained, until he pays the amount of the judgment, or otherwise settles with and satisfies the plaintiff.

Proviso. PROVIDED that if the defendant, after remaining one month in prison, shall make application to the court, and make an affidavit that he is not worth ten pounds, the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the sum of three shillings and six-pence weekly, for his maintenance, as long as he shall be detained in prison at the suit of the plaintiff. Such payment shall be made in advance, on monday in every week; in failure of which, the court, from whence the execution issued, shall order the defendant to be released; but the plaintiff shall not be obliged to make such payment, if he can prove to the satisfaction of the court, by which the defendant stands committed, that the defendant has secreted or conveyed away his effects to defraud his creditors.

ART. XXIII.

Power of awarding execution out of one district into the other.

When any person against whom judgment shall be given in any of the courts of common-pleas, shall not have sufficient goods, chattels, lands or tenements to satisfy such judgment within the jurisdiction of the court wherein such judgment shall have been obtained; but shall have goods, chattels, lands or tenements within the jurisdiction of the other court of common-pleas: it shall be lawful for the judge or judges of the court wherein judgment shall have been obtained, to award execution to the sheriff of the other district, who, after getting the writ endorsed by one of the judges of the court for the district in which the goods, chattels, lands or tenements are situated, shall execute the same, and make return thereof to the court from which it issued; and such writ and return shall be by him sent to the sheriff of the district from whence the writ was originally awarded, to be delivered into the court that issued the same. The sheriff executing such writ shall be answerable for his doings, relative thereto, before the court from which it was originally awarded. And the judges of the court of common-pleas for the one district, may, in like manner, award execution against the body of a person residing in the other, in cases where such execution is by law allowed; and the sheriff executing the writ to him in such case directed, shall convey the body of such person into the prison of the district wherein such person shall be arrested.

ART. XXIV.

This ordinance, and the several provisions and matters therein contained, shall remain in force only during the space of two years from the publication thereof.

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO

GEORGI II. REGIS.

CHAP. III.

An ORDINANCE

For ascertaining damages on protested bills of exchange, and fixing the rates of interest in the province of Quebec.

It is enacted and ordained by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT subject to 10 per cent damages and interest.

ART. I.

Bills drawn on Europe or the West Indies returning protested.

All bills of exchange drawn by persons residing within this province, upon persons in Europe, or the West Indies, that may, after the publication hereof, return under protest; and all bills of exchange hereafter to be drawn, by persons residing here, on persons in Europe, or the West Indies, and returning protested; shall be subject to ten per cent. damages, and six per cent. per annum interest, upon the principal sum furnished here, from the day of the date of the protest, to the time of payment: which said principal sum shall be reimbursed to the holder of the bill, at the par of exchange, that is to say, at the rate of one hundred and eleven pounds and one ninth currency, for every one hundred pounds sterling.

ART. II.

Bills drawn on any colony on the continent returning protested.

subject to 4 per cent damages and interest.

All bills of exchange drawn by persons residing within this province, on persons in any of the colonies on the continent of America, that shall, after the publication hereof, return under protest; and all bills of exchange hereafter to be drawn here, on persons residing in the said colonies, and returning protested; shall be subject to four per cent. damages, and six per cent. per annum interest, upon the principal sum furnished here, from the day of the date of the protest, to the time of payment.

ART. III.

Bills, orders, notes, &c., protested within the province, subject to 6 per cent interest till paid.

If drawn on distant parts of the province, subject to 4 per cent damages, besides interest.

All bills, orders, or mandates drawn, after the publication hereof, by persons residing in this province, on persons living in the same, and notes of hand given in the province; if protested for non-payment, shall be subject to six per cent. per annum interest, from the date of the protest to the time of payment: excepting only that such bills, orders, or mandates, when drawn in or upon any place beyond the Long Sault on the Ottawa river, or beyond Oswegatché, in the upper parts of the province, or in or upon any place below Cape Cat on the south side, and the Seven Islands on the north side of the river Saint Laurence, shall be subject, when protested, to four per cent damages, besides the said interest of six per cent. per annum.

ART. IV.

Expence of noting,
&c., to be allowed

In all the said cases of protest, the expence of noting and protesting the bill, and the postages thereby incurred, shall be allowed and paid to the holder, over and above the said interest and damages.

ART. V.

Rate of interest fixed at 6 per cent.

From and after the publication of this ordinance, it shall not be lawful, upon any contract, to take, directly or indirectly, for loan of any monies, wares, merchandize, or other commodities whatsoever, above the value of six pounds, for the forbearance of one hundred pounds for a year, and so, after that rate, for a greater or lesser sum or value, or for a longer or shorter time; and the said rate of interest shall be allowed and recovered, in all cases where it is the agreement of the parties that interest shall be paid: and all bonds, contracts, and assurances whatsoever, whereupon or whereby a greater interest shall be reserved and taken, shall be utterly void; and every person who shall, either directly or indirectly, take, accept, and receive a higher rate of interest, shall forfeit and lose, for every such offence, treble the value of the monies, wares, merchandize, and other things lent or bargained for; to be recovered by action of debt in any of the courts of Common-Pleas in this province; a moiety of which forfeiture shall be to his majesty, and the other moiety, to him or them that will sue for the same.

Penalty on persons taking a greater interest.

An ORDINANCE

For regulating the markets of the towns of Quebec and Montreal.

IT is ordained and enacted by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

I.

All provisions and provender to be carried to the market places.

From and after the publication of this ordinance, all kinds of live stock (horned cattle excepted) and all kinds of provision and provender whatsoever, which shall be brought to the towns of Quebec and Montreal for sale, shall be carried to the public market places of these towns, and there exposed; and if any butcher, huckster, or other person buying to sell again, shall buy or contract for, or cause to be bought or contracted for, any kind of provision or provender in the road, or in the street, coming to market, such butcher, huckster, or other person buying to sell again, shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum of five pounds; and any person who does not buy to sell again, shall, if guilty of the said offence, forfeit the sum of twenty shillings: And if any person whatsoever shall dissuade or deter any person from bringing any kind of provision or provender to market, or from selling the same when brought to market, or shall persuade any person to enhance the price of such provision or provender; such person, so offending therein, shall forfeit the sum of five pounds.

penalty on hucksters, &c., buying on the road to market.

penalty on any other person.

penalty for preventing any person to bring provisions to market, &c.

ART. II.

No huckster, &c., to buy to sell again, before 10 o'clock in summer and 12 in winter.

No butcher, huckster, or other person buying to sell again, shall, on any pretence, purchase or contract for, or cause to be purchased or contracted for, any kind of provision or provender brought to the market of either of the said towns, before the hour of ten in the forenoon, from the first day of May to the thirtieth day of September, nor before the hour of twelve at noon, from the first day of October to the thirtieth day of April; under a penalty on such butcher, huckster, or other person buying to sell again, before the said hours, of five pounds for every such offence.

Penalty.

ART. III.

Provisions and provender brought in sloops, &c., may be sold on board, giving notice.

Any person bringing live stock, or any other kind of provision or provender, to either of the said towns, in schooners, sloops, or other such like craft, shall be at liberty to sell the same on board, an hour after notice shall have been given to the inhabitants of the town, by the bellman; any person purchasing any of the above articles, on board, before the said notice shall have been given, shall forfeit the sum of twenty shillings; and no butcher, or other person buying to sell again, shall purchase such provision or provender, until three hours after such notice, under a penalty of five pounds for every such offence.

penalty on persons purchasing before such notice.

penalty on hucksters, &c., purchasing within 3 hours after such notice.

ART. IV.

Provisions coming in canoes, to be carried to the market places.

All provisions coming to either of the said towns in canoes, shall be carried to the market place, and there exposed to sale; and any person purchasing such provision before the same shall be brought to the market place, shall forfeit twenty shillings.

ART. V.

All bad meat, or fish, or other provisions to be forfeited.

All blown meat, and meat fraudulently or deceitfully set off, all veal under three weeks old, and all tainted meat, fish, or other provisions whatever, shall be forfeited; to be disposed of, in such manner as the commissioner of the peace, to whom complaint shall be made, may direct.

ART. VI.

Penalty on persons taking any commodity by force.

Any person who shall take, or attempt to take, forcibly, and at an arbitrary price, any commodity brought to market, shall forfeit the sum of ten shillings.

ART. VII.

Manner of recovering the penalties and forfeitures inflicted by this ordinance.

All penalties and forfeitures incurred by offences against this ordinance, shall be recovered by information before any one commissioner of the peace, who shall hear and determine the same in a summary manner, upon the oath of one credible witness (being some other than the informer) and shall cause the sum forfeited, together with the costs of suing for the same, to be levied by a warrant under his hand to seize and sell the goods of the offender; one half of such forfeitures (except in the case of the fifth article) shall belong to his majesty the king, and the other half to the informer. And it shall be lawful for any commissioner of the peace, to convict any person, guilty of any offence against this ordinance, on his own view of such offence; in which case, the whole forfeiture (except in the case mentioned in the fifth article) shall belong to his said majesty.

Conviction may be on view, by a commissioner of the peace.

All prosecutions for offences against this ordinance, shall be begun within fifteen days from the commission of the offence.

Prosecutions to commence within 15 days.

An ORDINANCE

For establishing courts of criminal jurisdiction in the province of Quebec.

IT is ordained and enacted by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ART. I.

Establishment of a supreme court of criminal justice.

There shall be, and hereby is erected, constituted, and established for the province at large, a supreme court of criminal justice and jurisdiction, to be called and known by the name of the Court of King's Bench, for the cognizance of all pleas of the crown, and for the trial of manner of offences whatsoever. The said court shall be held before the Chief Justice of the province, or commissioners that may be appointed for executing the office of Chief Justice, for the time being; who shall hear and determine the said pleas of the crown, and all manner of offences whatsoever, according to the laws of England, and the ordinances of the governor and legislative council of the province.

to be held before the chief justice, or commissioners for executing that office.

four sessions thereof in the year, 2 at Quebec, 2 at Montreal.

times of sitting.

Special commissions to be issued, if necessary.

And for the speedy administration of justice, and the preventing long imprisonments, there shall be held, in every year, four sessions of the said court of King's Bench, whereof two sessions shall be held at the city of Quebec, and the other two at the city of Montreal, at the times hereafter following, to wit, at the city of Quebec, on the first Tuesday of May, and the first Tuesday of November; and at the city of Montreal, on the first Monday of March, and the first Monday of September, in every year: But nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the governor, lieutenant governor, or commander in chief, for the time being, to issue commissions of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery, at any other time or times, when he may think it necessary and expedient so to do.

ART. II.

In each of the districts of Quebec and Montreal, there shall be held and kept, four times in every year, a court of general quarter sessions of the peace, by the commissioners of the peace, of each respective district, or so many of them, as are, or shall be limited in the commission of the peace; who shall hear and determine all matters, relative to the conservation of the peace, and whatsoever is by them cognizable, according to the laws of England, and the ordinances of the governor and legislative council of the province. The said sessions for the district of Quebec, shall be held at the city of Quebec, and the said sessions for the district of Montreal, shall be held at the city of Montreal, on the days hereafter following, to wit, on the second Tuesdays of the months of January, April, July and October in every year.

places and times of sitting.

2 commissioners to sit weekly.

And two of the said commissioners of the peace shall sit weekly, in rotation, in the cities of Quebec and Montreal, for the better regulation of the police, and other matters and things belonging to their office; and the names of the commissioners, who are to sit in each week, shall be posted up on the door of the sessions house, by the clerk of the peace, two days before their respective sittings.

ART. III.

As the great extent of this province may render it often impracticable for the coroner of the district, to give his attendance at the different places where it might be necessary; the captains of militia shall be, and hereby are empowered, in their respective parishes, when any marks of violence appear on any dead body, to summon together six reputable householders of his parish, to inspect the same; and he shall, according to their opinion, report the manner and cause of such death, in writing, to the nearest commissioner of the peace, that a further examination may be made therein, if necessary.

Captains of militia empowered in their respective parishes to act as coroners.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

ART. IV.

Captains of militia appointed peace officers in their respective parishes.

And as great inconveniencies might arise from the want of peace officers in different parts of the province, the said captains of militia shall be, and hereby are empowered to arrest any person, guilty of any breach of the peace, or any criminal offence, within their respective parishes, and to convey, or cause to be conveyed such person before the nearest commissioner of the peace, to be dealt with according to law.

An ORDINANCE

To prevent the selling of strong liquors to the Indians in the province of Quebec, as also to deter persons from buying their arms or cloathing and for other purposes relative to the trade and intercourse with the said Indians.

Preamble.

WHEREAS many mischiefs may be occasioned by the practice of selling rum and other strong liquors to the Indians, and of buying their cloaths and arms, and also by trading with the said Indians, or settling amongst them, without a license, It is ordained and enacted by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ART. I.

No strong liquors to be sold or distributed to Indians.

From and after the publication of this ordinance, no person or persons whatsoever shall sell, distribute, or otherwise dispose of, to any Indian or Indians within this province, or to any other person or persons for their use, any rum or other strong liquors, of what kind or quality soever, or shall knowingly or willingly suffer the same, in any manner, to come to the hands of any Indian or Indians, without a special license in writing, for that purpose first had and obtained, from the governor, lieutenant governor, or commander in chief of this province for the time being, or from his majesty's agents or superintendants for indian affairs, or from his majesty's commandants of the different forts in this province, or from such other person or persons as the governor, lieutenant governor, or commander in chief of the province for the time being, shall authorise for that purpose.

under a penalty of £5 and 1 month's imprisonment for the first offence and £10 and 2 month's imprisonment for the second,

Every person offending herein shall, for the first offence, forfeit the sum of five pounds, and suffer an imprisonment for any time not exceeding one month, and for the second, and every subsequent offence, shall forfeit ten pounds, and suffer an imprisonment for any time not exceeding two months.

besides forfeiture of the licence if a publican,

If the person so offending, be a publican, inkeeper, or retailer of strong liquors, he shall, over and above the said penalty and imprisonment, be rendered incapable, from the day of his conviction, of selling or retailing liquors to any person whatsoever, notwithstanding any licence that he may have for that purpose, which licence is hereby declared to be null and void from the day of his conviction.

ART. II.

No person to purchase the cloaths or arms of Indians

From and after the publication of this ordinance, no person or persons whatsoever shall purchase, or receive in pledge, or in under a penalty of £5 and 1 month's imprisonment for the 1st offence and £10 and 2 month's imprisonment for the 2d.

exchange, any cloaths, blankets, firearms, or ammunition belonging to any Indian or Indians within this province, under a penalty of five pounds and imprisonment for any time not exceeding one month, for the first offence, and of ten pounds and imprisonment for any time not exceeding two months, for the second, and every other subsequent offence.

ART. III.

No person to settle in any Indian country or village without a licence, under a penalty of £10 for the 1st offence and £20 for the 2d.

From and after the publication of this ordinance, it shall not be lawful for any person to settle in any indian village or in any indian country within this province, without a licence in writing from the governor, lieutenant governor, or commander in chief of the province for the time being, under a penalty of ten pounds for the first offence, and twenty pounds for the second, and every other subsequent offence.

ART. IV.

Manner of inflicting and levying the said penalties.

Prosecution to be within 6 calendar months.

It shall and may be lawful for any person or persons whatsoever, to sue for the penalties and forfeitures aforesaid, by information before one or more of the commissioners of the peace of the district, in which any offence against any of the above articles of this ordinance, shall have been committed; who is, and are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine such information, in a summary manner, and upon the oath of one credible witness (being some other than the informer himself) and to inflict the said imprisonment, and to levy the said penalties or forfeitures, together with the costs of suing for the same, by a warrant to seize and sell the goods or lands of the offenders. Provided always that such informations shall be brought within six calendar months from the time that the offence shall have been committed, and not after.

ART. V.

No goods to be carried for the purpose of trading above the foot of the long fall or St. Regis without a licence, or upon lands not granted by his majesty, under a penalty of £50.

Manner of recovering the said penalty.

From and after the publication of this ordinance, no person shall, under any pretence whatever, send or carry any goods, wares, merchandize, or provisions, for the purpose of trading, above the foot of the Long Fall on the River Outawais, or than St. Regis on the Iroquois River, or into any other parts of the province upon lands not granted by his majesty, without a pass or permit in writing for the same, to be signed by the governor, lieutenant governor, or commander in chief of the province for the time being, under a penalty of fifty pounds; which shall and may be sued for, at any time within the space of twelve calendar months from the time of committing the offence, but not after, by information before any two or more commissioners of the peace, who are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine such information, in a summary manner, and upon the oath of one credible witness (being some other than the informer himself) and to levy the said penalty, and the costs of suing for the same, by a warrant to seize and sell the goods and lands of the offenders, and for want of goods or lands whereon to levy the same, to commit the offender or offenders to the common goal, there to remain, without bail or mainprize, until the said penalty and costs shall be paid and satisfied, or the party otherwise discharged by due course of law.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

Goods carried beyond the said limits without a licence to be seized.

And further it shall and may be lawful for any person, having a warrant for that purpose under the hand and seal of any one commissioner of the peace, or of any of his majesty's commandants of the different posts or forts in this province, at present established, or hereafter to be established, who are hereby authorized and required to issue such warrant or warrants, to seize all such goods, wares, merchandize, or provisions as may be carried beyond the said limits, contrary to the directions of this ordinance; and all and every the boats, battoes, canoes, or other carriages whatsoever made use of in the transporting or conveyance of such goods, wares, merchandize, or provisions; together with the apparel and furniture of such boats, battoes, or canoes, and the horses or cattle belonging to such carriages; and to proceed against the same by information, within the space of six months, in manner herein before mentioned, before any two or more commissioners of the peace, who are hereby authorized and required to determine the same in manner aforesaid: and in case of condemnation, where no appeal shall be made from the same, or where no security shall be given for prosecuting any appeal in the manner herein after directed, or where, on such appeal, the said sentence of condemnation shall be confirmed, to cause the whole of the said seizure to be sold, and the moneys arising therefrom, after deducting all reasonable charges, to be divided as herein after directed.

And if condemned and no security given to prosecute an appeal then to be sold.

Goods so seized to be delivered to the owner on giving security for their amount.

If the owner or owners of any such goods, wares, merchandizes, or provisions so seized, or the person or persons intrusted with the same, shall give good and sufficient security for producing the same, or paying or accounting for the value of them, in case of condemnation, such owner or owners, person or persons intrusted as aforesaid, shall recover the possession of all such goods so seized.

Commandants of posts not being commissioners of the peace shall send all seizures to the nearest commissioner of the peace to be proceeded against.

All commandants of posts, not being commissioners of the peace, are hereby required to send such security, together with all informations and papers relative to such seizure, and for want of such security, to send the goods, wares, merchandizes, provisions, boats, battoes, canoes, or other carriages so seized, together with a certificate of the cause of seizure, to the commissioners of the peace residing nearest the place where such seizure shall be made, who shall proceed therein in manner herein before mentioned.

ART. VI.

Appeal to the governor and council,

If any person or persons shall think him or themselves aggrieved by the judgment or determination of the said commissioners of the peace, it shall and may be lawful for such person or persons to appeal therefrom, at any time within twelve months from the time of giving such judgment or determination, to the governor and council of this province, any five or more of whom (the commissioners of the peace who shall have given such judgment or determination only excepted) with the governor, lieutenant-governor, or chief justice, shall constitute a court of appeals for that purpose; who are hereby authorized fully to examine into the grounds and nature of the appeal, and the judgment or determination of the said commissioners of the peace to reverse, or affirm, according to the opinion of the major part of the said court of appeals:—and in case the same shall be reversed, the appellant shall be restored to all that he has lost by such seizure and condemnation, and be allowed such costs and charges as the said court shall award and adjudge.

upon giving security.

But no person shall be intitled to such appeal, unless he shall have first given good and sufficient security for prosecuting the same, and paying all such condemnation money and costs, as shall be awarded by the court of appeals, in case the judgment and determination of the commissioners of the peace shall be affirmed.

Execution suspended until the determination of the appeal.

Upon such security so given, the levying of the penalty, and the sale of the goods, wares, merchandizes, boats, battoes, canoes, or other carriages seized, shall be suspended, and be made to abide the final determination and judgment of the court of appeals.

ARTICLE VII.

Distribution of the forfeitures.

All penalties and forfeitures recovered by virtue of this ordinance, shall be divided and applied in the manner following, that is to say, after deducting the charges of prosecution from the gross produce thereof, one moiety of the net proceeds shall be paid into the hands of the receiver general of this province, for the use of the king's majesty, and the other moiety to the person or persons who shall seize inform and sue for the same.

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CHAP. VIII.

An ORDINANCE

For regulating the militia of the province of QUEBEC, and rendering it of more general utility, towards the preservation and security thereof.

Preamble.

WHEREAS his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province is, by virtue of his majesty's commission under the Great Seal of Great-Britain, empowered to levy, arm, muster, command, and employ all persons within the province, and, as occasion shall serve, them to march or transport from one place to another, for the purpose of resisting and withstanding of all enemies, pirates, and rebels, both by land and by water; which commission, in the absence of the captain general, the lieutenant governor, or commander in chief, for the time being, is authorized to execute:—AND WHEREAS the well ordering and training of the said militia, may hereafter be of great use towards preserving and securing the province from all hostile invaders thereof, BE IT ENACTED by the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

ART. I.

All persons from the age of 16 to 60 to serve in the militia.

Exception.

Penalty for refusal.

All persons, as well in the towns as in the country, from the age of sixteen years to sixty, are bound to serve in the militia of that parish, wherein they reside; and from and after the publication of the present ordinance, every person (excepting such as are herein after excepted) refusing to serve, or neglecting to get himself inrolled under the officers appointed by his excellency the captain general or governor in chief, in the different parishes, shall forfeit five pounds; and upon a second refusal, he shall, over and above a like forfeiture of five pounds for such second refusal, be rendered incapable of keeping by him or bearing any fire-arm whatsoever, under the like penalty of five pounds, and one months imprisonment, for every time he shall be convicted of having used or kept such fire-arm.

ART. II.

Militia-men misbehaving to be expelled.

Further penalties.

Proviso.

Every militia man, whose conduct or behaviour proves unworthy of, or dishonorable to the corps, shall be expelled therefrom, and in like manner rendered incapable of keeping by him, or using any fire-arm, under the penalties mentioned in the foregoing article; and as well those who have refused or neglected to enroll themselves, as those who are expelled therefrom, shall furnish sleighs and other carriages for the king's service, when called upon, in a double proportion to their neighbours of the same parish, doing duty as militia men readily and cheerfully, and for half the price; PROVIDED ALWAYS that, after the expiration of one year, any person, who has committed any of the above recited offences, and suffered the penalties directed by this and the foregoing articles, upon making his submission to the captain of militia, in the presence of the most reputable inhabitants of the parish, at the church door, on a sunday or some other feast day, shall, after report has been made thereof to the colonel of militia of the district, and being approved by the captain general, or in his absence, the lieutenant governor, or commander in chief, for the time being, be restored to the corps, intitled to the privileges thereof, and act therein, as if no such offence had been committed.

ART. III.

Captains of militia to transmit a list of their officers and men to the inspectors yearly.

The captain or captains of militia in every parish, shall, twenty days after the publication of the present ordinance, or sooner, if it can be done, transmit to the colonels of militia, or inspectors when such shall be appointed, for the respective districts, an account of the number of officers and militia men fit for service in their respective companies; as also a list of such as may have refused to enroll themselves, or disobeyed the orders of their superior officers:

and hereafter such lists, as well as of any alterations that may have happened within the last twelve-month, are to be transmitted by the captains to the colonels of militia, or inspectors when such shall be appointed, by the tenth or fifteenth of March in every year at farthest.

ART. IV.

A militia-man changing his place of residence, to give notice thereof to his commanding officer,

Penalty for neglecting to give notice.

No person belonging to a particular company of militia, shall leave his usual residence, whereby he became subject thereto, without giving due notice to his captain or commanding officer, and of the place where he intends to settle; and every person, so settling in another parish, shall give notice thereof to the captain or commanding officer of the parish wherein he settles, under a penalty of forty shillings for the first offence, and for the second, the like sum and one month's imprisonment.

ART. V.

The captains to draw out their companies on the two last Sundays in June and two first in July, penalty on every militia-man for non attendance.

Upon the two last sundays in the month of June, and the two first in July, the captains or commanding officers of the militia, shall draw out their companies in the most convenient place of their respective parishes, in order to inspect their arms, fire at marks, and instruct them in their duties; and such as disobey, and do not appear on such training days, or at such other times as the colonels of militia, inspectors, or other persons authorized to review or exercise them, by special orders from the captain general, or, in his absence, the lieutenant governor, or commander in chief, for the time being, shall direct, are to forfeit ten shillings for every offence, except they shall have first asked and obtained leave of absence, on shewing reasonable cause for the same.

ART. VI.

In time of war, &c., such number of officers and militia-men to be drawn out and marched, as the governor shall require, penalties for disobedience.

No person to buy any arms, ammunition, or equipment from any militia-man, under a penalty of £5.

In time of war, rebellion, or when any other pressing exigency of the state requires it, such number of officers, serjeants, and militia-men, as the governor, lieutenant governor, or commander in chief, for the time being, thinks fit to direct, shall be drawn out of the different companies, marched from their respective parishes, to such place as they shall be ordered to, and serve, tho' still as militia. in conjunction with his majesty's forces, under the guidance and superintendance of the officers whom the commander in chief shall be pleased to appoint for that purpose: and at the end of the campaign, or of the service they were ordered upon, shall return to their own homes, but not before they have been regularly dismissed from the same; any person refusing to obey such order, absconding, or not repairing to the place he is ordered to, shall incur double the penalties inflicted by the first article of this ordinance; and any one quitting the service, when so embodied, before he is discharged therefrom, shall moreover be expelled the corps, and never allowed to re-enter the same: And any person buying or purchasing arms, ammunition, or equipments, delivered out of his majesty's stores to the militia, when embodied, or any ammunition, furnished out of the said stores, for training and exercising the said militia, shall incur a penalty of five pounds for every such offence, to be recovered upon the oath of one credible witness, before any one commissioner of the peace in the district where such offence has been committed.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

ART. VII.

All persons holding lands en roture, to furnish carts, &c., for the king's service except those exempted therefrom by this ordinance.

All inhabitants above the age of sixty, and having one servant, as well as all others holding lands en roture, and not exempted therefrom by this ordinance, shall, when ordered by government, and called upon by the captains of the militia, in rotation, furnish carts, sleighs, or other carriages for the king's service, at such price per day, as shall be fixed upon by the commander in chief; and any who shall neglect or refuse to furnish the same, or shall desert or quit that service, without being duly discharged therefrom, shall likewise incur the penalties directed by the first article.

ART. VIII.

Captains and other officers disobeying their superiors to be deprived of their commissions, &c.

The captains and other officers of militia not paying due obedience to their superiors, or who shall be convicted of having acted with partiality, of exempting some, without being properly authorized so to do, or ordering others out of their turn, out of pique or resentment, shall be deprived of their commissions, and obliged to serve as private militia-men.

ART. IX.

Officers of the militia to take up all deserters, &c.

The captains and other officers of militia, shall take up all deserters, whether soldiers or sailors, all stragglers and other persons, travelling through their respective parishes, suspected of being emissaires from, conveying intelligence to, or corresponding with the rebellious colonies, all persons spreading false reports to the detriment of government, and persons leaving the province without a pass from the captain general, or, in his absence, the lieutenant governor, or commander in chief, for the time being; and any person, either in town or country, lodging or concealing such deserters, stragglers, or suspected persons as above, or aiding and assisting any person leaving the province without a pass, without giving immediate notice thereof to the captains of their respective companies in the country, and if in the towns of Quebec, Montreal, and Trois Rivieres, to the colonels or commanding officers, or other officers appointed for that purpose, shall for the first offence, if inhabitants of the towns, forfeit ten pounds, and be imprisoned one month; if residing in the country, shall forfeit five pounds, and be imprisoned for the same time; and double the sum, and double the time of imprisonment, for the second, and every other subsequent offence of the like nature.

Penalty on lodging or harbouring them.

ART. X.

Manner of prosecuting for the penalties.

In all cases where the manner of prosecuting for the penalties inflicted by this ordinance has not been directed; where the fine imposed does not exceed the sum of forty shillings, any one field officer of the militia, or inspector when such officer shall be appointed, of the district wherein the offence shall have been committed, being a commissioner of the peace; and where the penalty exceeds the sum of forty shillings, or directs the imprisonment of the offender, any two field officers, or one field officer and inspector, as before, belonging to the district in which the offence shall have been committed, being commissioners of the peace, or any other two commissioners of the peace for that district; is and are hereby authorized, upon information laid before them, to take cognizance of, and hear in a summary manner, all offences committed against the intent and meaning of this ordinance, to inflict the penalties, and levy the fines, by warrant under his or their hands and seals, and all monies arising therefrom, to be by him or them transmitted to the receiver-general of the province, and applied, as other public monies, to his majesty's use; subject nevertheless, in cases where the penalty is of, or exceeds ten pounds, and where the party offending is to be imprisoned for more than one month, or to be expelled the militia, to an appeal before the governor, or in his absence, the lieutenant-governor, or commander in chief, for the time being, and any five members of his majesty's council (the commissioners of the peace who shall have heard the same and given judgment therein only excepted) who are hereby appointed a court of appeals for that purpose, and authorized to hear and finally to determine the same.

Appeal in certain cases to the governor and council.

ART. XI.

The members of his majesty's council, judges, and other officers of civil government, the seigniors, stiled here seigneurs primitifs, the noblesse, so acknowledged under the antient government of the country, half pay or reduced officers, clergy, students of the seminaries of Quebec and Montreal, and persons employed in offices of public utility, are exempted from serving in the militia or furnishing carriages; PROVIDED ALWAYS that nothing in this ordinance contained, be construed to exempt the seigniors, or noblesse, from rendering such personal services as are agreeable to the antient usage, and to which they are bound by the tenure of their lands, whenever the governor, or in his absence, the lieutenant governor, or commander in chief, for the time being, shall judge it necessary to call upon them for the same.

Persons exempted from serving in the militia, &c.

Proviso.

This ordinance to be in force for two years, and to the end of the session of the legislative council of this province, which will be held in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine.

This ordinance to be in force for 2 years.

GUY CARLETON.

GEORGH III. REGIS.

CHAP. X.

An ORDINANCE

Concerning bakers of bread in the towns of Quebec and Montreal.

Preamble.

TO prevent the frauds and abuses that might be committed by persons carrying on the business of baking and selling bread, It is ordained and enacted by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ART. I.

No person to carry on the business of a baker without entering into a recognizance

From and after the first day of May next, no person whatsoever shall bake and sell bread in either of the towns of Quebec and Montreal, or the suburbs thereof, with out having first entered into a recognizance to the king's majesty, in the sum of twenty pounds, with two sureties in the sum of ten pounds each, to keep and observe the regulations, relative to the assize and weight of bread, that shall be made by the commissioners of the peace of the district in which such baker shall dwell, by virtue of the power herein after given to the said commissioners; and also to continue to bake and sell bread, during a certain reasonable time, to be mentioned in the said recognizance, which shall not be less than one year, without intermitting their said trade for the space of three days together; this recognizance shall be taken by any two commissioners of the peace, of the district in which such baker shall propose to follow his trade, in one of the weekly sessions of the said commissioners; and the clerk of the peace shall have a fee of two shillings and six-pence, and no more, for making out the said recognizance.

to keep the regulations relating to the assize of bread and to continue to bake and sell bread all the year.

Penalty for baking and selling bread without having entered into such recognizance £5.

And if any person shall, after the said time, bake and sell bread in either of the said towns or suburbs, without having first entered into such a recognizance; such person shall forfeit five pounds for every offence, which shall be recovered by the clerk of the peace of the district in which such offence shall have been committed, if the said clerk of the peace shall sue for the same within one month after the commission of the offence; and if the said clerk of the peace shall neglect to sue for the same within the said month, then it shall be lawful for any other person to sue for the same, at any time within the space of three months after commission of the said offence; and the said penalty shall be sued for, by information before any two commissioners of the peace, of the district in which such offence shall have been committed, who shall hear and determine the same in a summary manner, on the oaths of two credible witnesses (neither of whom shall be the informer himself) and shall levy the said penalty, together with the costs of suing for the same, by warrant under their hands to seize and sell the goods of the offender, one moiety of such penalty shall belong to the king's majesty, and the other half to the clerk of the peace, or other informer, who shall sue for the same.

Any person convicted in this manner, and thinking himself aggrieved by such conviction, shall be at liberty to appeal to the next general quarter sessions of the peace; provided he first deposits the penalty and costs in the hands of one of the commissioners of the peace before whom he shall have been convicted, to be by such commissioner paid to the uses above-mentioned, if the conviction is confirmed, and to the appellant, if it is reversed. If the conviction is confirmed, the commissioners, in their general quarter sessions, shall order the costs, the informer shall have been put to by the appeal, to be levied upon the goods and chattles of the appellant; and if the conviction is reversed, it shall be lawful for them to adjudge to the appellant, the reasonable costs he shall have been put to, in the whole course of the prosecution, or such part of such costs as they shall think proper, and to order the same to be levied out of the goods of the person who shall have brought the said information.

Manner of suing for the penalty of the recognizance.

ART. II.

If any baker, who shall have entered into any such recognizance as is above-mentioned, shall intermit his trade of baking and selling bread for the space of three days together, or shall commit any offence against the regulations that shall be made by the commissioners of the peace, concerning the assize and weight of bread, or shall do anything, whereby the money specified in the said recognizance shall become forfeited, the money so forfeited shall be sued for by the clerk of the peace of the district in which such offender dwells, before the commissioners of the peace of such district, in their next general quarter sessions of the peace, after such offence shall have been committed, and if he fails to sue for it at the said next general court of quarter sessions, then it may be sued for and recovered by any other person in the province, in the ensuing quarter sessions of the peace for the said district, that is, in the second quarter sessions of the peace after the commission of the offence; and the said money so forfeited, may be sued for and recovered by the said clerk of the peace, or other person, by information before the said commissioners, in their said sessions: and the said commissioners are hereby authorized and required, to hear and determine the said information, in a summary manner, and upon the oaths of two credible witnesses; and if upon such information, the defendant shall be convicted by the said commissioners of having committed such offence, they shall order the said sum of twenty pounds, together with the costs of suing for the same, to be levied upon the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said offender; and if sufficient goods and chattels, lands and tenements, belonging to the said offender, cannot be found by the sheriff, or other ministerial officer, to produce the said sum, the said commissioners shall, in such case, summon the two sureties of the said offender, to come before them in their quarter sessions, and shew cause why they should not pay the said sum of ten pounds each, or so much thereof, as is necessary to increase the sum levied upon the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the offender, to twenty pounds; and for want of any good and sufficient cause, the commissioners of the peace, either in the same or in the next following quarter sessions, shall make another order to the said sheriff, or other ministerial officer, to seize and sell so much of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said sureties, as shall be sufficient to increase the sum already raised upon the offender himself, to twenty pounds; taking care, as much as may be, to raise an equal sum on each surety; and of the said sum of twenty pounds, so forfeited and levied, one half shall belong to the said clerk of the peace, or other informer, together with the costs above-mentioned, and the other half shall belong to the king's majesty, and shall be paid into the hands of the receiver general of his majesty's revenue in this province: and if, upon hearing the said information, the said commissioners shall acquit the defendant, and they shall be of opinion that the said information is frivolous, and brought without any appearance of reason; it shall be lawful for them to award to the baker, who shall have been so informed against, and acquitted, his reasonable costs, or such part thereof as they shall think fit, and to order the same to be levied upon the goods and chattels of the clerk of the peace or other person who shall have brought the said frivolous and groundless information.

ART. III.

Penalty on bakers selling bread under weight, or of unwholesome flour.

If any baker shall bake and sell any bread under the weight established by the commissioners of the peace, or shall bake and sell any bread made of unwholesome or adulterated flour; such baker shall for every offence forfeit the sum of forty shillings, one half of which shall belong to the king's majesty, and the other half to the person who shall sue for the same, by information before any one commissioner of the peace, of the district in which such offence shall have been committed, who shall hear and determine such information in a summary manner, upon the oath of one credible witness (being some other than the informer) and shall levy the sum so forfeited, together with the costs of suing for the same, by a warrant in writing under his hand, to seize and sell the goods of the offender.

ART. IV.

Bakers to mark their bread with the initial letters of their names.

Every baker shall mark his or her bread with the initial letters of his or her christian name, and surname, under the penalty of forfeiting all such bread, as shall be found without such mark, to be applied to the use of the poor, or the prisoners, at the discretion of the commissioner of the peace, before whom any complaint, relative to such offence, shall have been heard.

ART. V.

Commissioners of the peace to regulate and publish the assize once a month.

The commissioners of the peace, or any three of them, are hereby authorized and required to fix and regulate the assize of bread, the first monday in every month, having always regard to the price of wheat and flour, and to publish such regulations as they shall make, relative thereto, in the Quebec Gazette.

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CHAP. XI.

An ORDINANCE

For repairing and amending the public highways and bridges in the province of QUEBEC.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the king's high-roads, and the bye-roads, as well as the bridges in this province, are at present very much out of repair, It is ordained and enacted by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ART. I.

The king's high-roads to be 30 feet wide, and fenced from the fields with posts and rails.

Grand Voyer may permit picket fences.

Narrow roads to be widened.

The king's high-roads shall be thirty feet wide, with a ditch of three feet wide on each side, and of sufficient depth to drain off the water; and shall be separated from the fields by sufficient fences, made of posts and rails, or pickets and rails, in order that such fences may be taken down every year, before winter, in such places as the surveyor of the high-roads, commonly stiled the Grand Voyer, shall direct, to prevent the snow from being collected in heaps on the road. Standing pickets shall nevertheless be permitted to remain, in places where the said Grand Voyer shall be of opinion that the same can be no prejudice to the road adjoining thereto; and where the said high-roads are not already of the breadth of thirty feet, the Grand Voyer, if he shall think it necessary and practicable, shall cause them to be widened to that extent, by the persons bound to repair the same.

ART. II.

Owners and occupiers of lands, to keep the high-roads in repair before their own lands.

Every owner or occupier of land adjoining to the king's high-road, shall keep in constant good repair so much thereof as runs in the front of the land of which he is the occupier or owner, and also keep up and repair bridges over ditches or streams of water, not more penalty for every neglect.

All owners or occupiers of land, without exception, bound to perform this duty.

How the highroad is to be repaired when it runs lengthwise between two concessions.

than four feet wide, and shall clean and keep clear the ditches at the sides of such high-road, and keep up such fences as are directed by the first article of this ordinance, under a penalty of ten shillings for every neglect.

All owners or occupiers of lands shall be bound to perform this duty, whether such lands be held in a joint or separate capacity, or for the use, or in the right of others.

When such high-road shall happen to run lengthways along the lines dividing two concessions, it shall be kept in repair by the joint labour of such persons as the Grand Voyer shall appoint for that purpose, under the like penalty of five shillings for every neglect.

ART. III.

Bye-roads to run on the line of division between 2 concessions, and to be 20 feet wide, both ditches and one of the fences to be made by the joint labour of the inhabitants of the concessions who demand it.

penalty for every neglect. the other fence to be made by the proprietors of the land through which it passes.

Bye-roads shall always be run on the line of division between two concessions, of twenty feet wide, with a ditch of three feet wide on each side, and of sufficient depth to drain off the water; it shall be fenced on both sides; the ditches and one of the fences shall be made and kept in constant good repair, by the joint labour of the inhabitants of the concession who shall have demanded the same, according to the allotment or apportionment which the Grand Voyer shall make in writing, of every man's share or proportion of the work, under the penalty of ten shillings on every person neglecting to make and keep in repair, the portion so allotted to him by the Grand Voyer: the other fence shall be made and kept in constant good repair, by the proprietors of the land through which the road passes.

ART. IV.

How new high-roads are to be opened.

Trees and underwood to be removed.

penalty for neglect.

When a king's high-road is to be opened, the owners and occupiers of lands, through which it is meant to run; or in case such highway runs lengthways between two concessions, the persons to whom the Grand Voyer shall allot such labour; shall open and clear so much of it as adjoins to such land, or as shall fall to their share, and shall make it in all respects conformable to the directions contained in the first article of this ordinance.

And when any such road shall be carried through a wood, the trees and underwood on each side of it, for the space of half an arpent in breadth, shall be cut down immediately, and the wood and brush removed within two years, by the person whose duty it is to make or repair such road, under a penalty of ten shillings for every neglect.

ART. V.

Highroads through ungranted lands to be opened and repaired by the parish, if too burdensome for one parish, the Grand Voyer to lay the case before the Governor and council.

The king's high-roads running through ungranted lands, shall be opened and repaired by the joint labour of the people of the parish in which such lands lie, according to the allotment or apportionment of such labour, made by the Grand Voyer; but if it shall be necessary to run a new road through a track of ungranted lands of considerable extent, which might be too burthensome for any one parish, the Grand Voyer shall lay the affair, clearly stated, before the governor and council, with his opinion on the matter, that they may order to be done, what to them shall seem fitting: and the persons, whom the work to be done when ordered.

they shall order to do such work, shall perform the same under the penalty herein after to be mentioned.

ART. VI.

Rules to be observed by the Grand Voyer, when a new road is to be opened or an old one turned.

In all cases where it shall be necessary to turn an old, or open a new road, the Grand Voyer on application made to him, will view the same, and if he finds it necessary to have the old road turned, or a new one opened, he shall lay out the same, and he will consult with the officers of militia, and some of the principal inhabitants; and from their report and advice, he will determine what portion of the work, necessary to be done, shall be given to each person concerned, and give his order or proces verbal in writing, to be read at the church door of the parish, the next ensuing sunday after divine service: a copy of the proces verbal shall be presented to the governor and council to be ratified, if they shall think it proper, and kept amongst the records of the council, and another copy of it, when ratified, shall be delivered the captain of militia, to be retained by him and his successors for the use of the inhabitants of the parish.

ART. VII.

Roads to mills to be made according to the ancient usage.

The roads leading to mills in the different seigniories in this province, shall be made and repaired according to the antient usage and custom of the country.

ART. VIII.

Roads near precipices.

Roads made near precipices, shall be fenced and well guarded on the side of a precipice, by a strong well fixed rail of four feet high; and roads running along the face of steep hills, shall be made with an easy descent, twenty feet wide, and well guarded likewise with a strong rail, according to the directions of the Grand Voyer, by the joint labour of the people of the parish in which such roads may lie.

Roads running along the face of steep hills.

ART. IX.

No incumbrances to be left in the highway, penalty 5s.

No stones, stumps, or roots of trees, timber, pickets, dung, or any other incumbrance whatsoever, shall be left lying on the highway, under a penalty of five shillings on any person leaving them; and it shall be a necessary part of the duty of repairing the highways, to remove all kind of obstructions that may be left thereon: and no person shall allow any horses or hogs to run about on the highways, under a penalty of five shillings for every offence.

No horses or hogs to be left in the highway, penalty 5s.

ART. X.

The highways in winter to be marked out by branches,

To mark out the path in winter, the persons bound by this ordinance to repair the highways, shall, in the fall, before the ground is frozen, fix poles or branches along the sides of such part of the road as they are bound to repair; these poles shall be eight feet long, and fastened with wyths to a stake driven in the ground, and at the distance of twenty four feet from each other, and when blown down, or pulled up, they shall be replaced by the person whose duty it was to fix them there.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

and beat and kept open.

After every fall of snow, or after drift, which shall fill up the beaten track, every person shall beat and open that portion of the highway which he is bound by this ordinance to repair, of width sufficient for two carriages conveniently to pass by one another; and shall keep the same constantly level, open, and easily passable: every person neglecting any of the directions contained in this article, shall forfeit five shillings for every such neglect.

ART. XI.

OF BRIDGES.

Manner of building bridges,

Ditches which divide two grants or concessions, and run across the road, shall be covered with bridges by the owners or occupiers of the lands, through which such ditches are cut, to the breadth of eighteen feet. The sleepers of all bridges shall be of cedar, the logs covering the sleepers, shall be of ash or red spruce, well squared and pinned to the sleepers, and there shall be a rail, of three feet high, on each side of the bridge, and such rail shall reach from the corner of the bridge to the ditch, on each side of the road.

how, and by whom to be kept in repair.

All bridges already built, or to be built, over rivulets or runs of water, shall be kept in constant good repair, by the inhabitants who, from their proximity to such bridge or bridges, have by the antient custom of the country, been obliged to perform that service; and in case of any dispute among the inhabitants concerning such service, the Grand Voyer, after having thoroughly informed himself concerning the matter, will determine who shall work at the bridge, and who shall furnish and bring timber and other materials for building or repairing the same.

All bridges subject to be overflowed, shall be loaded with large stones, carried to the spot by such persons as are bound to build or repair the bridge; under a penalty of five shillings, on every person neglecting to carry and place the stones as herein directed.

Every bridge hereafter to be made, shall be built and constructed according to the directions given by the Grand Voyer, who shall in all cases of importance, refer to the governor and council for instructions relative to his duty.

When it shall be deemed a work too burthensome for the people of any one parish, to repair bridges built over rivers, such bridges shall be rebuilt and repaired by the people of two or more parishes, which shall be found most benefited by such bridges; concerning the apportionment of which labour, the Grand Voyer shall consult the captains and other officers of militia, and some of the principal inhabitants of such parishes, and shall report thereon to the governor and council, who will give such order as they shall think fit concerning the same.

ART. XII.

Captains of militia appointed Deputy surveyors or Sous Voyers.

For the better execution of the regulations contained in this ordinance, the captains or other oldest officers of militia in every parish, are hereby appointed Deputy Surveyors of the highways, or Sous Voyers, within their respective parishes; and the inhabitants of the several parishes, shall obey such orders as they may receive from their respective captains or other oldest officers of militia, touching the matters contained in this ordinance.

Inferior officers to have certain portions of the highways assigned them, for their more immediate inspection.

Duty of the captains, and of the inferior officers.

Persons neglecting to do their work on the highways, penalty 10s.

And the captains or other oldest officers of militia, shall assign to each of his inferior officers, a certain portion of the highways lying in the parish, which shall be more immediately under their inspection, and it shall be the duty of each officer, to visit the highways committed to his care, once in every six weeks, and to report the state thereof to his captain or other oldest officer of militia; and the captain or other oldest officer of militia, shall visit all the highways in the parish, once in every three months, and report the state thereof to the Grand Voyer on his circuits.

And whenever the captain or other oldest officer of militia, shall find any part of the highway out of repair, or shall find any particular work neglected; he shall immediately employ some person, at such price as he can agree upon, to make such repair, or to do such work; and the hire of such person so employed, shall be paid by the person whose duty it was to have done the work (over and above a penalty of ten shillings, which is hereby inflicted on him for every neglect) and such hire shall be recovered and levied with the other penalties as hereafter directed to be recovered.

ART. XIII.

Grand Voyer to make his visits from the 10th of May to the 20th of July.

The Grand Voyer shall employ himself from the tenth of May to the twentieth of July, annually, in visiting the highways of the province, and in giving the necessary orders and directions for the amendment thereof; and he shall keep a register of all the orders and proces verbals, which he shall make touching the same; and at his return, he shall make his report to the governor and council, of the state and condition of the roads which he shall have visited.

ART. XIV.

Penalties how recovered and applied.

Judges of the common-pleas on their circuits, to convict on their own view.

All penalties incurred by offences against this ordinance, shall be sued for and recovered by information, before any one commissioner of the peace, who shall hear and determine such information in a summary manner, and upon the oath of one credible witness (being some other than the informer) and shall levy the penalty, together with the costs of suing for the same, by warrant to seize and sell so much of the offenders goods and chattels, as shall be sufficient for that purpose; one half of all such penalties, shall belong to the king's majesty, and the other half to the person who shall sue for the same.

And the judges of the courts of common-pleas, being commissioners of the peace, are hereby directed, when on their circuits, to examine particularly into the state of the roads; and, besides hearing such informations as may be brought before them, to convict on their own view, for any offence against this ordinance.

An ORDINANCE

Empowering the commissioners of the peace to regulate the prices to be paid for the carriage of goods, and the passage of ferrys in the province of QUEBEC.

Preamble.

TO prevent the many impositions practised by carters and ferry-men within this province, It is ordained and enacted by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ART. I.

Commissioners of the peace to make regulations concerning carts and ferrys.

The commissioners of the peace, in their Quarter Sessions, shall be, and hereby are authorized and required to fix and regulate, as often as they shall see occasion, in their respective districts, the rates that shall be paid for the carriage of any goods on any cart, truck, or sled, within the towns of Quebec and Montreal, or the suburbs thereof; and likewise the rate that shall be paid for the passage at any ferry, over any river, within their respective districts; and likewise to make such further and other regulations, touching the premises, as shall to them appear necessary and expedient: and the said commissioners shall cause such rates and regulations, so made, to be published in the Quebec Gazette, and to be affixed at such convenient places as they shall think proper.

ART. II.

Penalty for disobeying such regulations.

Any carter or ferryman who shall, after the publication of any such rate or regulation as aforesaid, ask, or receive a higher price than is thereby allowed, or shall refuse to work and be employed at the price specified in such rate, or shall disobey any of the regulations to be made by the said commissioners as aforesaid, shall, for every offence, forfeit the sum of twenty shillings; to be recovered if sued for within fifteen days, by information before any one commissioner of the peace, who shall hear and determine such information in a summary manner, and upon the oath of one credible witness (being some other than the informer) and shall cause such penalty, together with the costs of suing for the same, to be levied by a warrant to seize and sell the goods of the offender, one half of every such penalty shall belong to the king's majesty, and the other half to the person who shall sue for the same.

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO

GEORGE III. REGIS.

CHAP. XIII.

An ORDINANCE

For preventing accidents by fire.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is absolutely necessary for the preservation of the lives and properties of his majesty's subjects, that every precaution should be taken to prevent the dreadful accidents that might happen by fire, in the towns of this province: It is ordained and enacted by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ART. I.

An overseer to prevent accidents by fire, to be appointed for Quebec, Montreal and Three Rivers,

For each of the towns of Quebec, Montreal, and Three Rivers, there shall be an overseer to prevent accidents by fire; to be appointed by his excellency the governor, the lieutenant governor, or other the commander in chief of this province, for the time being.

ART. II.

who shall cause the chimneys to be swept once a month,

The said overseers shall cause every chimney made use of in the towns, and suburbs of the towns, in which they are overseers, to be swept, and scraped as high as possible, once in every month, by able and skilful chimney sweepers, whom they shall employ for that purpose; and for every chimney which they shall so cause to be swept and scraped, they shall receive six-pence from the occupier of the house to which such chimney belongs: and the overseer shall forfeit the sum of five shillings, for every chimney that shall be neglected to be swept and scraped, once in every month, by the persons employed by him, whether such chimney happens to take fire or not; and if the chimney so neglected to be swept and scraped shall take fire, the said overseer shall forfeit the sum of forty shillings, to be recovered in the manner herein after directed.

under a penalty of 5s. for every neglect, and 40s. if the chimney takes fire.

ART. III.

Penalty of 5s. for refusing to allow any chimney to be swept, and 40s. if it takes fire.

If any occupier of any house, or of apartments therein, shall refuse to let his chimney or chimneys be swept as aforesaid, by the chimney sweepers employed for that purpose by the overseer of the town in which such chimney shall be situated; he shall for every whether such chimney happens to take fire or not; and if the chimney which he shall refuse to allow to be swept shall take fire, he shall forfeit the sum of forty shillings.

ART. IV.

Every house-keeper to provide buckets, hatchets, fire-poles, and ladders.

Every house-keeper in the said towns and suburbs, shall keep two buckets for carrying water when any house shall happen to be on fire; and these buckets shall be made either of leather, or seal skin, or of canvas painted on the outside and covered with pitch on the inside, and shall hold at least two gallons of water each: the said buckets shall be marked with the christian and surname of the house-keeper to whose house they belong.

And every house-keeper in the said towns and suburbs, shall keep a hatchet in his house to assist in pulling down houses, in order to prevent the spreading of the flames; and two fire-poles, of the length of ten feet, and five inches diameter, with cross bars made of wood stuck into them at a convenient distance one from the other, in order to knock off the roofs of houses that are on fire, or that are in immediate danger of becoming so.

And every house-keeper in the said towns and suburbs, shall keep as many ladders on each side of his house as there may be chimneys or stacks of chimneys, to be properly and securely fixed with iron hooks or bolts on the roof, and from the roof to the tops of the chimneys, and so placed that easy access may be had to sweep the chimneys or carry up water to them in case of fire. - And every proprietor of any buildings covered with wood in the said towns and suburbs, shall keep as many ladders on such buildings as the overseer shall think reasonable and necessary.

Penalty of 5s. for every neglect, and 40s. if the house takes fire.

And every house-keeper, for every neglect of having the said buckets, hatchet, fire-poles, and ladders, or any of them, shall forfeit the sum of five shillings; and in case any house, or the chimney of any house in or upon which any of the said articles shall be wanting, shall happen to take fire, the occupier of such house shall forfeit the sum of forty shillings.

Proprietors to bear the expense of those articles.

The expense of the said buckets, hatchet, fire-poles, and ladders, shall be borne by the proprietors of the houses; and if they neglect or refuse to furnish them, the occupiers shall procure them, and deduct the expence of them out of their rents.

ART. V.

No hay or straw, to be kept in a house, or ashes on a wooden floor or vessel in any house or outhouse.

Penalty 40s. and forfeiture of the hay and straw.

If any house-keeper shall, after the publication of this ordinance, keep or permit any hay or straw in any part of the house in which he lives; or shall keep any ashes on a wooden floor, or in a wooden vessel, in the said house, or in any outhouse; he shall forfeit the sum of forty shillings for every such offence, and likewise the hay and straw that shall be found in any part of the dwelling house.

ART. VI.

No more than 25 pounds of gunpowder to be kept in any house or outhouse.
Penalty £5 and forfeiture of the gunpowder.

It shall be unlawful for any person, in either of the said towns or suburbs, to keep or leave at any time more than twenty-five pounds of gunpowder in his house, or lodging, or in any outhouse thereunto belonging; and the person in whose dwelling-house, lodging, stable, or other outhouse, a larger quantity shall be found, shall forfeit the sum of five pounds, together with the whole of the gunpowder.

ART. VII.

No false chimneys or Chimnées dévoyées to be built hereafter.

Penalty of £10 on the owner and 5s. per day till removed.

Penalty of £3 on the builder.

False chimnies already built to be removed within 6 months, penalty of 1s. per day for every day they are allowed to stand afterwards.

No house to be hereafter covered with shingles, penalty of £10 and 5s. per day till removed.

No wooden dwelling house to be built in town, penalty £20 on the owner £10 on the builder, and demolition of the building, no fire to be made in a wooden outhouse, penalty 40s.

Manner of passing the pipe of a stove, through a wooden partition or floor, under a penalty of 20 shillings.

It shall be unlawful for any person to build, or cause to be built, in either of the said towns or suburbs, any false chimneys, called in french Cheminées dévoyées; or to make or cause to be made or constructed, any fire place at a distance from the main chimney or chimneys of any house, and communicating therewith in a winding direction, for the purpose of discharging the smoke through the flue of such main chimney or chimneys; and any person offending herein, shall for every chimney or fire place so built, made, or constructed, forfeit the sum of ten pounds; and five shillings per day, as long as such chimney or fire place shall be suffered to stand and remain; and every mason, or other artificer, that shall be employed in building such chimney or fire place, shall forfeit the sum of three pounds. And all chimneys or fire places of the above description, that are already built, shall be taken down and removed, or effectually stopt up, within six months after the publication of this ordinance, under the penalty of one shilling for every day they shall remain unremoved, or not stopped up, after the expiration of the said six months; to be paid by the owner of the house to which such chimney or fire place shall belong.

ART. VIII.

No house or outhouse hereafter to be built or new covered, in either of the said towns or suburbs, shall be covered with shingles in any part, except over the garret windows, round the chimneys, at angles where two roofs may happen to join, and where the boards touch the end walls; under the penalty of ten pounds, payable by the owner of such house, and a further penalty on the owner of five shillings for every day that any such house or outhouse shall continue covered with shingles.

ART. IX.

It shall not be lawful hereafter, to build in either of the said towns, any wooden dwelling house, under the penalty of twenty pounds on the proprietor, and ten pounds on the undertaker or contractor, and a demolition of such dwelling house; nor to make any fire in any wooden outhouse, under the penalty of forty shillings.

ART. X.

It shall not be lawful to pass the pipe of a stove through any partition of wood, or wood and lime, or through a wooden floor, without leaving six inches clear between the pipe and the partition or floor, the pipe to be surrounded with a sheet of iron which shall be nailed to such partition or floor; and the pipe of every stove shall pass into a chimney. Every person offending in the premises, shall forfeit twenty shillings.

ART. XI.

Manner of building the gable ends of houses, for the future, under a penalty of £10 on the owner, and £5 on the builder.

All houses hereafter to be built, shall have their gable-ends raised three feet higher than the roof, and projecting out far enough at the eaves, to guard them from the fire of an adjoining house; for every neglect hereof, the owner of the house shall forfeit the sum of ten pounds, and the builder shall forfeit the sum of five pounds.

ART. XII.

Overseer to visit every house once in 3 months under a penalty of 5s. for every house not visited.

Overseer to make his visits once a month if he thinks proper, penalty for refusing to admit him or to show him the buckets. &c., 5s.

Overseer permitted to visit any house at any other time having a warrant for that purpose from a commissioner of the peace, penalty for refusing to admit the overseer in such case 15.

For the better discovering offences against this ordinance the overseers shall visit all the houses in their respective towns, once in every three months, under the penalty of five shillings for every house they shall neglect to visit: and it shall be lawful for the said overseers, if they think fit, to visit every house once a month, at any time between the hours of eight in the morning, and six in the evening; and every person refusing to admit the overseer into his house, provided he has not visited the same within the space of one month then last past; or having admitted him, shall refuse to produce to him the buckets, hatchet, and fire-poles, or shall refuse to shew him the ladders which every house-keeper is bound to provide; or shall prevent him from visiting any part of his dwelling house or outhouses, in order to enquire into and discover any offence that may be committed against this ordinance; such person shall for every such refusal forfeit the sum of five shillings.

And besides the said quarterly visits which the overseers are obliged to make, and the said monthly visits which they are permitted to make, when they think proper, it shall be lawful for them to visit the houses and outhouses in their respective towns and suburbs, at any other time, provided that some person shall have first made oath before a commissioner of the peace, that some particular offence, which he shall specify, is committed against this ordinance, in or about the house or houses which the overseers propose to visit at these extraordinary times; and the said commissioner of the peace shall thereupon give the overseer so applying, a licence or warrant to visit any house, lodgings, stables, or other outhouses, so informed against; and a refusal to admit the overseer when so authorized, shall subject the occupier of such house, lodgings, stables, or other outhouses, to a penalty of five pounds for every refusal.

ART. XIII.

Overseers empowered to take one person with them in their visits, penalty on persons refusing admittance to such person.

In all cases where the overseers are directed or permitted to make their visits as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for them to take along with them one person as a companion or assistant, and a refusal to admit such companion or assistant, shall in every case subject the person refusing to the same penalty as a refusal to admit the overseers themselves.

ART. XIV.

Manner of recovering the penalties against the overseer.

All penalties and forfeitures incurred by any overseer, for any offence against this ordinance, shall be recovered by information before any one commissioner of the peace of the district, in which the town, to which such overseer shall belong, shall be situated; who shall hear and determine such information in a summary manner, and upon the oath of one credible witness (being some other than the informer) and shall cause such penalty or forfeiture, together with the costs of suing for the same, to be levied by warrant to seize and sell the goods of the offender; one half of every such penalty or forfeiture shall belong to the king's majesty, and the other half to the informer.

ART. XV.

Manner of recovering the penalties against other persons.

All penalties and forfeitures incurred by any other person than the said overseers, for offences against this ordinance, shall be sued for and recovered by the overseer for the town in which the offence shall be committed, by information before any one commissioner of the peace of the district, in which such town shall be situated; who shall hear and determine such information in a summary manner, and upon the oath of one credible witness (being some other than the overseer himself) and shall cause such penalty or forfeiture, together with the costs of suing for the same, to be levied by warrant to seize and sell the goods of the offender; one half of every such penalty or forfeiture shall belong to the king's majesty, and the other half to the overseer who shall sue for the same.

ART. XVI.

Penalties to be sued for in 10 days.

The penalties and forfeitures appointed by this ordinance, shall be sued for within ten days after the offence for which they shall be incurred.

ART. XVII.

Appeal to the quarter sessions.

If any person convicted before one commissioner of the peace, of any of the neglects or offences before mentioned, shall think himself aggrieved by such conviction, he shall be at liberty to appeal therefrom to the next court of quarter sessions of the peace of the district wherein such conviction was had; provided he do first deposit the money forfeited upon his conviction, together with the costs awarded upon such conviction, in the hands of the commissioner before whom he shall have been convicted; and the said commissioner shall at his discretion, either keep the said money in his own hands, or pay it the clerk of the peace of the court before which the appeal is brought, to be paid by the said commissioner or clerk of the peace, in the manner herein above directed, if the conviction is confirmed; or to the appellant, if it is reversed; and further, if the conviction is confirmed, the appellant shall pay to the informer the costs he shall have been put to by the appeal; which costs shall be levied upon the goods and chattels of the appellant, by an order of the commissioners in their said quarter sessions.

GUY CARLETON.

Ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the Great Seal of the province, at the council chamber in the castle of St. Lewis in the city of Quebec, the twenty-ninth day of March, in the seventeenth year of the reign of our sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the grace of God of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, King, defender of the faith, and so forth, and in the year of our LORD one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven.

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CHAP. XIV.

An ORDINANCE

For preventing persons leaving the province without a pass.

Preamble.

TO prevent injustice being done to the creditors of persons disposed to leave the province clandestinely, without providing for the payment of their debts, It is enacted by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ART. I.

Every person leaving the province to fix up a paper writing 30 days before his departure at the secretary's office
F.c.m and tenor thereof.

Every person intending to leave the province (military persons only excepted) is required to put up a paper writing in the secretary's office, at least thirty days before his departure, made out in the following form, viz.

A. B. of the parish of—in the district of Quebec Montreal, intends leaving this province after thirty days from the date thereof.
Quebec, the—day of—17—

and in case no opposition to the granting him a pass for departure, be entered within that period by any of his creditors, in the manner herein after mentioned, he shall then be intitled to have a pass granted him; and the secretary is hereby authorized and required to grant him one, in the following form, viz.

If not opposed, to obtain a pass.

Form of the pass.

Province of Quebec, ss.
Permit A. B. to depart this province [if by land, the road to be expressed, and if by sea, the master's name with that of the vessel to be inserted] he, having complied with the rules prescribed in an ordinance of this province, in that case made, Quebec, the—day of—17— for which pass the secretary shall receive the sum of one shilling only.

Secretary refusing a pass to forfeit £50.

If the secretary shall refuse to grant such pass, to any person who shall have so put up his name for thirty days, and no opposition entered in the office as herein after is directed (provided he applies for the same before the shutting up of the navigation, for that year in which he shall have so put up his name) he shall forfeit and pay to such person the sum of fifty pounds; to be recovered, if sued for within one month after refusal, by plaint or information in his majesty's court of common-pleas for the district of Quebec.

ART. II.

Creditors meaning to oppose the granting a pass

Every creditor intending to oppose the granting a pass to any person who shall have to put up his name as aforesaid, is required to make an affidavit of the debt due to him, sworn to before any to lodge an affidavit of their debt in the secretary's office, and put up a caveat there.

judge or commissioner of the peace within the province, setting forth in what manner it accrued, and the particular amount thereof, and to lodge the same in the secretary's office; the creditor may then, but not before, enter a Caveat in the said office against the granting him a pass, in the following form, viz.

Form of the caveat.

C. D. of the parish of— in the district of— having lodged an affidavit in this office of a debt due to him from A. B. of the parish of— in the district of— enters a Caveat against the secretary's granting him a pass for his departure, Quebec, the— day of— 17—

C. D.

Such creditors are to institute their suits within fifteen days, otherwise the pass to be granted.

And every creditor who shall have so entered his Caveat, is required to institute his suit against his said debtor, in the court of common-pleas of the district in which such debtor resides, within fifteen days from the date thereof: otherwise the debtor is hereby declared to be intitled to his pass, and the secretary may grant him the same, at the expiration of the said thirty days, on his producing a certificate signed by the clerk of the court of the district in which he resides, that the creditor has not instituted his suit against him in the court of that district, within the time hereby required.

ART. III.

Persons giving security may obtain a pass within the 30 days.

No person whatsoever who shall have put up his name as aforesaid, whether a Caveat be entered against him or not, shall obtain a pass from the secretary's office before the expiration of the said thirty days, without entering into an obligation with good and sufficient sureties, to pay all his creditors, who may have at the time entered their Caveats against the granting him a pass as aforesaid, or might within the remainder of the said thirty days, lodge an affidavit of debt against him in the said office as herein after is for that purpose mentioned.

The said obligation, and the condition thereof, shall be made out in the following form, viz.

Form of the obligation.

Know all men by these presents that we A. B. of the parish of— in the district of— in the province of Quebec— and — of etc.— are held and firmly bound to our sovereign Lord the King in the sum of— good and lawful money of the said province, to be paid to our said sovereign Lord the King, his heirs or successors for the uses herein after mentioned; for the true payment whereof we bind ourselves, and each of us, by himself, our, and each of our heirs, executors, and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, dated the— day of— in the year of our Lord 17—

Condition.

Whereas the above bounden A. B. did on the— day of— last [or instant] fix up a paper writing in the secretary's office at Quebec, setting forth that he intends to leave the province, after thirty days from the date thereof, but his business requiring that he should depart before that period, and willing that his creditors who might be inclined to oppose his departure, should be secured the payment of their debts, has procured the said— to be his sureties for the same, THE CONDITION therefore of the above obligation is such, That if the above bounden A. B. and the said —or either of them, their or either of their heirs, executors, or administrators, shall pay or cause to be paid to all the creditors of the said A. B. who may have already entered their Caveats in the said office against the granting him a pass for his departure, as well as all those who shall within the remainder of the said thirty days from the time of fixing up the said paper writing, lodge an affidavit of debt against him, the money which upon trial, and by the judgment of any court of record in this province, shall appear to be due to them, together with costs of suit; then the above written obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtus. For which obligation the secretary shall receive two shillings and six-pence only.

Upon security given, the secretary required to grant a pass.

And the secretary is hereby authorised and required to grant any person who shall have put up his name as aforesaid, and given the before mentioned security, a pass for his departure, if demanded, before the expiration of the said thirty days, in the same manner as if he remained all that time in the province and no Caveat entered against him.

ART. IV.

Creditors of persons who may have left the province within the 30 days, to lodge an affidavit of their debt in the secretary's office within the remainder of the 30 days, and to institute their actions within 15 days after lodging the same. The summons to be served on the sureties.

Wherever any person upon giving such security, shall have obtained a pass and departed the province, within the said thirty days from the time of fixing up his name; any creditor may within the remainder of the said thirty days, notwithstanding his departure, lodge an affidavit of debt against him in the secretary's office, made and sworn to in the manner directed by the second article of this ordinance; and such creditor is hereby required to institute his action against the said departed debtor, in the court of common-pleas of the district in which the said debtor resided, within fifteen days from the time of lodging his said affidavit in the office, otherwise he is to be precluded from his action, in like manner as if he had not made and lodged his said affidavit. The summons which he shall obtain in the suit shall be served on each of the sureties of the said departed person, and such service is hereby declared to be as good in the law, as if served on the person himself before his departure: Any law or ordinance to the contrary hereof, notwithstanding.

ART. V.

If no actions be instituted within the times prescribed, the sureties are to have their obligations cancelled.

If no actions be instituted by the creditors of persons who shall have put up their names as aforesaid, within the times and in the manner mentioned in the second and fourth articles; the sureties of such persons shall be intitled to have their obligations cancelled, and the secretary, in such cases, is hereby authorised and required so to do.

ART. VI.

When creditors shall have obtained judgment against their departed debtor, the secretary is requested to give an attested copy of the bond to them.

The secretary, at the request of the creditors who shall have obtained judgment in any actions brought against any departed debtor, is authorised and required to give the man authentic copy of the obligation of such debtor and his sureties, to be sued and proceeded upon to judgment in his majesty's name; but the money which shall be recovered thereupon, shall be ordered by the court to be paid to such creditors, in satisfaction of their said judgment.

ART. VII.

Masters of vessels, on their arrival, to deliver the governor, a list of the officers, sailors, and passengers brought with them, and after their clearance, a list of the officers, sailors, and passengers they are to take away with them, and to get a permission from the governor for their departure, under the penalty of £50. how to be recovered.

The master of every ship or vessel arriving in this province, is hereby required immediately on his arrival, to deliver a list of the names of all his officers and seamen, and of the passengers which he shall have brought with him, to the governor, or in his absence the lieutenant governor, or commander in chief for the time being: and in like manner, the master of every ship or vessel leaving this province, is required after obtaining his clearance for departure, to deliver a list of the names of all his officers and seamen, and also of the passengers which he is to take away with him, to the governor, lieutenant governor, or commander in chief as aforesaid: and every master of any ship or vessel arriving in this province without delivering such list as aforesaid after his arrival; or leaving the same, without delivering such other list as aforesaid after his clearance, and without a permission in writing for his departure from the governor, or in his absence the lieutenant governor, or commander in chief for the time being, shall forfeit for every offence the sum of fifty pounds, to be recovered by information in any of the courts of common-pleas in this province, and applied to his majesty's use.

ART. VIII.

Masters of vessels carrying away any person without a pass, made liable to pay all the debts he may have contracted in the province, how to be recovered.

No master of any ship or vessel leaving this province, shall carry away any person whatsoever (except the crew brought with him at his last arrival) without having a pass signed by the secretary, under the penalty of being liable to pay to the creditors of such person, all the debts he may have contracted in the province, to be recovered by plaint or information in any of his majesty's courts of common-pleas.

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CHAP. XV.

An ORDINANCE

To empower the commissioners of the peace to regulate the police of the towns of QUÉBEC and MONTREAL, for a limited time.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the forming a permanent police for the towns of Quebec and Montreal, seems impracticable in the present advanced state of this session, and it is necessary that a temporary remedy be applied to the inconveniencies which might result from the want of some fixed regulations in that respect: It is enacted by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ART. I.

Commissioners of the peace in their quarter sessions empowered to regulate the police of the towns of Quebec and Montreal.

The commissioners of the peace for this province, are authorized and required in their General Quarter Sessions of the peace for the respective districts of Quebec and Montreal, to make such rules and orders touching the police necessary to be maintained and observed in the said respective towns (excepting only where the same may have been already provided for, by ordinances for that purpose made in this present session) and to impose such fines, not exceeding forty shillings for any one offence committed against such rules or orders, as to them, in their discretion, shall seem requisite and proper; which rules and orders they shall cause to be publicly proclaimed in those respective towns by the bell-man, and, wherever the said commissioners may think it proper, to be published in the Quebec Gazette.

ART. II.

Penalty for disobedience of their regulations, how to be recovered.

If any person in either of the said towns shall refuse to obey any of the rules or orders so made by the said commissioners of the peace, after the same shall have been proclaimed by the bellman as aforesaid; such person shall for every refusal forfeit the sum which in every such rule or order shall be specified (provided the same shall not exceed the sum of forty shillings) to be recovered, if sued for within fifteen days from the time of such refusal, by information before any one commissioner of the peace, who is hereby authorized and required to hear and determine the same in a summary manner, upon the oath of one credible witness, (being some other than the informer) and to be levied by warrant under his hand to seize and sell the goods of the offender, one moiety whereof shall belong to the king's majesty, and the other moiety to the person who shall sue for the same.

ART. III.

Persons refusing to do any public work ordered by the commissioners, to pay the person whom the commissioners may employ in their stead.

In cases where any person shall refuse to do, or cause to be done, any work regarding the police, which by any such rule or order of the said commissioners of the peace he may be required to do, it shall and may be lawful for the commissioner before whom the information shall have been brought, to employ any other person, to do that work in his stead, for such reasonable price as he shall agree upon; and the person who shall have disobeyed such rule or order by refusing or neglecting to do the work; shall, over and above the penalty mentioned in the second article, be obliged to pay to the person who shall have done the same, the price agreed to be paid him by the said commissioner; to be levied, in default of payment, in the same manner as the said penalty is by the said article directed to be levied.

ART. IV.

This ordinance to be in force for 2 years.

This ordinance is to remain in force only during the term of two years from the time of the publication thereof.

GUY CARLETON.

Enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the Great Seal of the province, at the council chamber in the castle of St. Lewis in the city of Quebec, the twenty-third day of April, in the seventeenth year of the reign of our sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the grace of God of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, King, defender of the Faith, and so forth, and in the year of our LORD one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven.

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CHAP. XVI.

An ORDINANCE

Concerning the distribution of the estates and effects of persons leaving the province without paying their debts.

Preamble.

WHEREAS divers persons formerly residing in this province, have of late absconded and absented themselves therefrom, without making any provision for the payment of the debts by them due, AND WHEREAS it is just and reasonable that the estates and effects of such absentees, as well as of all others who may hereafter depart from the province without paying their debts, or conforming to certain rules prescribed in an ordinance of this present session, intitled, "An ordinance for preventing persons leaving the province without a pass," should be divided equally amongst their respective creditors in proportion to the amount of their respective demands: It is enacted by his excellency the captain general and governor in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, THAT

ART. I.

Any creditor of any absentee (except such as shall have obtained a pass) may call a meeting of all the creditors,

Any person being a creditor of any absentee, (excepting such as shall have conformed to the rules prescribed in the said ordinance, intituled, "An ordinance for preventing persons leaving the province without a pass,") may and shall upon application made to any one of the judges of the court of common-pleas of the district wherein such absentees resided, be authorized by him to call a meeting of all the creditors of such absentee, by advertisement to be inserted in the Quebec Gazette, at least ten days previous to the day appointed for such meeting, to assemble before the judges of the said court, on some future court day; and the creditors who shall appear at such meeting, by themselves, or persons authorized to act for them, and shall have made oath of the amount of their claims before any one of the said judges, or shall produce their accounts against such absentee otherwise proved and authenticated according to law; or the major part of such creditors, are hereby authorized to nominate and elect such and so many trustees, to take the care and management of the estate and effects of their absent debtor, as they, with the approbation of the said judges, or any two of them, shall think proper and necessary; and in cases where the judges disapprove of the nomination and election made by the creditors, the governor, or in his absence the lieutenant-governor, or commander in chief for the time being, is hereby authorized to name such and so many trustees, for the purpose aforesaid, as he in his discretion shall think proper; and the trustees shall cause such their election or nomination to be advertised in the Quebec Gazette as soon as may be.

who shall name trustees, to be approved of by the judges of the court of common-pleas;

if disapproved of by them, the governor to name such as he shall think proper;

their nomination to be advertised in the Quebec Gazette.

ART. II.

The real and personal estates of the absentee to be vested in the trustees.

All the estate both real and personal belonging to such absentee in this province, shall immediately on such election or nomination become vested to all intents and purposes in the trustees so chosen and approved of, or nominated as aforesaid; and they shall and may take possession thereof, in trust and for the use of all the creditors of such absentee, who shall prove their debts within thirteen months after the last mentioned notice in the Quebec Gazette, provided such debts shall have been contracted before the time of such absentee's leaving the province; and after having taken possession thereof, they shall make out an inventory of the same, to be filed in the said court of common-pleas.

The trustees to sell the personals

The said trustees shall and may sell and dispose of all the personal estate belonging to such absentee, rendering an account of the sales and net proceeds thereof, to be filed in the said court of common-pleas, within one month after the sale; but they shall not sell, convey, or dispose of any part of the real estate belonging to such absentee, without obtaining an order for that purpose from the judges of the said court, or any two of them (who are hereby authorized and required to grant the same, if the proceeds of the personal estate belonging to such absentee be insufficient to pay all his debts) and the said trustees having thereupon sold the same for the best but they are not to sell the real estate without an order from the court.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

price or value that can be procured, shall likewise make out an account of the net proceeds thereof, to be filed in the said court within such time as shall be for that purpose limited in the said order.

ART. III.

Trustees are to make a dividend, within fourteen months, of the money they shall have collected, and afterwards as often as they shall have money in hands sufficient to pay 6d. in the pound.

If there should be any surplus, it is to be paid to the order of the absentee.

The trustees and the survivors or survivor of them, shall within fourteen months after the time of their election or nomination, make an equal and rateable dividend of such monies as they shall have collected and received, amongst all the creditors who shall have proved their debts within the time above limited; and shall afterwards make dividends as often as they shall have money in hand, sufficient to pay the creditors six-pence in the pound.

If any surplus should remain in the hands of the trustees or the survivors or survivor of them, after paying all the debts due by such absentee, proved as aforesaid; the same shall be paid to such person as shall be empowered by the absentee to receive the same.

ART. IV.

The trustees empowered to sue, &c.

The trustees, elected and approved of, or nominated as aforesaid, and the survivors or survivor of them, are hereby empowered to prosecute, maintain, and defend any action or actions for the benefit and advantage of the estate of the absentee, in any of the courts of justice in this province, as fully and effectually as the absentee himself might do, if he was present.

ART. V.

Persons who shall have conformed to the rules prescribed for obtaining a pass, if they absent themselves from the province for more than a twelve month their creditors may proceed, after that period, against their estates and effects, in manner aforesaid.

Wherever any person who shall have complied with the rules prescribed in the before recited ordinance, shall have been absent from the province for upwards of a twelvemonth, the creditors of such person are hereby empowered, after that period, to proceed to the nomination and election of trustees to his estate and effects, and to the sale thereof, and the distribution of the proceeds thereof, in the same manner as is herein before directed to be done, concerning such persons as shall leave the province without conforming to the said rules.

CHAP. I.

An ORDINANCE

To prohibit, for a limited time, the exportation of wheat, pease, oats, biscuit, flour, or meal of any kind; also of horned cattle: and thereby to reduce the present high price of wheat and flour.

BE IT ENACTED and ORDAINED by his excellency the governor, by and with the consent of the legislative council of the province of Quebec, and by the authority of the same IT IS HEREBY ENACTED and ORDAINED.

ART. I.

That no person or persons whosoever, after the publication of this ordinance shall directly or indirectly export, carry, or convey, or cause to be exported, carried, and conveyed out of, and from this province; or shall load or lay on board any ship, vessel, or boat, in order to be carried, conveyed, and transported out of this province, or within this province, to the several posts, fisheries, and indian countries below Quebec, any wheat, pease, oats, biscuit, flour, or meal of any kind; or horned cattle.

ART. II.

Provided whensoever it may be, that his Majesty's service and the public good shall require a quantity of all or any of the above-mentioned articles of provision, or horned cattle, to be exported out of this province, and transported to any other part of his majesty's dominions;—It shall be lawful for his excellency the governor, or commander in chief for the time being, with the advice and consent of the members of his majesty's council, to grant and issue a licence and permit, under his hand and seal, to any of his majesty's subjects, to export and take from this province, any of the above-mentioned articles, therein, in such permit specifying the quantity and quality of the several provisions, or horned cattle so to be exported, and for what service or purpose intended: provided the same can be done without manifestly exposing this province to want; any thing above contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

ART. III.

Provided also, that this ordinance or any thing herein contained, shall not extend to prohibit the exportation or carrying out of this province, such or so much of all or any of the several articles of provision above specified, as shall be necessary to be carried in any ship or ships, or other vessel or vessels, for their respective voyages, for the sustenance, diet, and support, of the commanders, masters, mariners, passengers, and others, in the same ships or vessels only; or from transporting and sending to the several fisheries within this province, and the several posts and indian countries, such provisions to obtain permit to transport from the naval officer, &c.

And before any such ship, vessel, or boat, shall depart with, carry and transport any provisions or horned cattle as aforesaid, the master of such ship, vessel, or boat, the shipper or owner of the provisions or cattle therein laden or to be laden, shall obtain a clearance, licence, and permit, from the naval officer, or his deputy, to take and transport the same.

Oath of the necessity of provisions, &c., to obtain permit.

AND MOREOVER that the said master, shipper, or owner, of any of the several provisions or horned cattle as aforesaid, shall, before he or they may be permitted to take and transport the same, make oath before the said naval officer or his deputy (who are hereby authorized to administer the same) that such provisions so laden or to be laden on board such ship, vessel, or boat, are actually necessary for the respective voyage or voyages of the said ship, or vessel, or that all and every such provisions or horned cattle, so laden or to be laden on board any ship, vessel, or boat, are for the use of, and to be consumed at, the respective fishery or fisheries, or at the several posts to which the same are destined within this province.

Bond to transport provisions, &c., agreeable to permit and clearance.

And the master, shipper, or owner of all and every such provisions or horned cattle, so laden or to be laden on board any ship, vessel, or boat, shall, before he or they may have and receive a clearance, licence, and permit, from the naval officer or his deputy, to depart with the provisions or horned cattle as aforesaid, enter into bond, with two good and sufficient sureties, in the penal sum of one hundred pounds, to his majesty, his heirs and successors, that no part of such provisions or horned cattle so laden or to be laden on board such ship, vessel, or boat, shall be exported, taken or carried in the said ship, vessel, or boat, to any other port or place than such, as may be set down and specified in the clearance of such ship, vessel, or boat, so granted, or to be granted by the naval officer or his deputy. The said bond to be taken before, and delivered to, the said naval officer or his deputy. Upon pain and penalty of one hundred pounds, to be levied of the master of every ship, vessel, or boat, or the shipper or owner of such provisions, or horned cattle, who may refuse or neglect to conform to, and perform all and every the abovesaid articles and directions, according to the true intent and meaning of this ordinance. And also upon forfeiture of double the value of all the provisions and cattle which may be so laden on board, contrary to this ordinance as aforesaid.—And all and every ship, vessel, and boat is hereby made liable to, and answerable for the abovesaid penalties and forfeitures, so far as they may be of value to answer the same, and may lawfully be taken, seized, and sold by judgment of law, for and toward satisfying the penalties and forfeitures above-mentioned. And the said naval officer or his deputy, for the entry, permit, oath, and bond, as aforesaid, and also the clearance of the provisions or horned cattle as aforesaid, and certificate to the collector or other of his majesty's customs, as mentioned in the 7th article of this ordinance, shall take and receive five shillings for the said business, and no more.

ART. V.

That the naval officer or his deputy may at all times, by night or by day, enter on board any ship, vessel or boat, and the same and every part thereof to search and examine, and lawfully may seize and hold in his or their custody, all and every ship, vessel or boat, on board of which may be laden any provisions or horned cattle, contrary to this ordinance, and the same retain, until judgment of law be made in the premises.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that the said naval officer, or his deputy, shall release and give up all and every ship, vessel, or boat, which he may seize as aforesaid, upon the owner or master of such ship, vessel or boat, giving two good and sufficient sureties to the said naval officer, or his deputy, to answer the prosecution, hearing, and trial, to make good and perform the judgment of law upon and against such master, owner, or shipper, for having acted contrary, or neglected to comply with, and perform this ordinance.

ART. VI.

That all and every naval officer, his or their deputy or deputies, who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to take the entry, oath, and security above-mentioned, or who may grant any clearance of any ship, vessel, or boat, before having taken such entry, oath, and security; or who shall neglect or refuse to perform the several duties of him and them by this ordinance required, shall be liable to, and have judgment against him or them for the same penalties, and the value of all such forfeitures, as by this ordinance the master, skipper, or owner of any ship, vessel, or boat, or the provisions or horned cattle therein laden, would be liable to, for a wilful neglect or refusal to conform to this ordinance, or the particular duty necessary to be performed as above-mentioned.

ART. VII.

That no collector of his majesty's customs, his deputy, or other officer of his majesty's customs within this province, shall, during the continuance of this ordinance, clear or suffer and permit any ship, vessel or boat to be cleared, from any port or custom-house within this province, until after the said collector, his deputy, or other custom-house officer, may have received a clearance and certificate from the naval officer of this province, or his deputy, that the master of such ship, vessel or boat, hath in all things duly complied with, kept and obeyed this ordinance.

ART. VIII.

That all and every person acting contrary, or neglecting to conform, to this ordinance and the penalties and forfeitures imposed as abovesaid, shall and may be prosecuted, sued for, and recovered in any of his majesty's courts of record in this province, according to the course and usage of such courts, for the trial, hearing and judgment of causes. And the forfeitures above-mentioned recovered, divided, and paid, one moiety to the receiver-general of the province, for the use of his majesty, and the other moiety to the person who shall inform, sue and prosecute for the same.

ART. IX.

That this ordinance, and every article and clause herein contained, shall be and remain in force, from the publication of the same, for and during the space of two years, and unto the end of the sessions of the legislative council of this province, which will be held according to the statute, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two.

FRED: HALDIMAND.

Ordnained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the great seal of the province, at the council chamber, in the castle of St. Louis, in the city of Quebec, the ninth day of March, in the twentieth year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the Third, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, King, defender of the faith, and so forth, and in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

By His EXCELLENCY'S Command,

J. WILLIAMS, C. L. C.

ANNO VICESIMO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CHAP. II.

An ORDINANCE

Describing the persons who shall be deemed Forestallers, Regrators and Ingrossers in this Province, and inflicting punishments upon those who shall be found guilty of such offences.

WHEREAS the exorbitant price of wheat and flour, so necessary for the sustenance of man, requires the interposition of the legislature, in the manner most forcible, and the most likely to diminish the price; BE IT ENACTED and ORDAINED by his excellency the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the province of Quebec, and by the authority of the same IT IS HEREBY ENACTED.

ART. I.

That whatsoever person or persons who shall buy, or cause to be bought any provisions or victuals of any kind whatsoever, coming by land or water towards any of the markets, towns or villages, within this province, to be sold in the same, either from parts within the said province, or from parts beyond the seas; or who shall make any bargain, contract or promise, for the having or buying of the same, or any part thereof, so coming as aforesaid, before the said provisions and victuals shall be in the markets, towns or villages as aforesaid, or the port, creek or road thereto pertaining, and there ready to be sold openly and publickly; or who shall make any motion by word, letter, message or otherwise, to any person or persons, for the enhancing of the price, or dearer selling of any provision or victual as aforesaid; or who shall dissuade, move, or stir any person or persons coming to any of the said markets, towns or villages aforesaid, to abstain or forbear to bring or convey any of the things abovesaid, to any of the said markets, towns, villages, ports, creeks or roads, there to be publickly sold as aforesaid, shall be deemed, taken and adjudged a forestaller.

ART. II.

That whatsoever person or persons who shall by any means regrate, obtain or get into his or their hands or possession, in any market, town or village, or the ports, creeks or roads thereto pertaining, within this province as aforesaid, any corn, to wit, wheat, pease, beans, barley, oats, indian corn, rye; or any flour or meal thereof made; or any beef, pork, mutton, veal, lamb, fresh fish, calves, swine, pigs, turkeys, geese, fowls, chickens, pigeons, partridges, hares or wild fowl; or any dead victual or provision proper for the sustenance of man whatsoever (salt fish excepted) that shall be brought to any of the said markets, towns or villages, ports, creeks or roads there to be sold; and having so obtained, do sell the same again within the said markets, towns or villages, where so brought to be sold as aforesaid, or within fifty miles thereof; the said person or persons (not being licenced tavern-keepers and inn-holders purchasing for the consumption of their houses only) shall be accepted, reputed, taken and adjudged a regrator or regrators.

ART. III.

That whatsoever person or persons who shall get into his or their hands by buying, contracting or promise taking (other than by demise, grant or lease of land or tithe, or by toll) any wheat, oats, pease, beans, barley, rye, indian corn, or any of the said articles growing in the fields; or any flour or meal thereof made; or any potatoes, or other roots or vegetables; or any salt; or any beef, mutton, veal, lamb, pork, butter, cheese, fish, or any dead victual whatsoever, proper for the sustenance of man, within this province, to the intent the same to sell again within the province aforesaid, without first having obtained a licence as herein after is mentioned; shall be accepted, reputed and taken as an unlawful grosser or ingrossers; any thing in the ordinance for regulating the markets within this province to the contrary notwithstanding.

ART. IV.

That it shall not be lawful for any marchand de côte, country shopkeeper, or other person whosoever, without first having obtained a licence and permit as hereafter mentioned, to contract for, purchase, or take in payment of and for any debt, any quantity of wheat, pease, beans, barley, oats, indian corn, rye, or any flour or meal thereof made, over and above such quantity as may be necessary for the support of his or their family, when and at such time as the current price of the said corn, grain and flour may be above the several prices by this ordinance fixed, set and limited, on pain and penalty of being punished as forestallers, regrators and ingrossers.

ART. V.

That if any person or persons shall offend in any of the things above recited, and act contrary to this ordinance; and being thereof duly convicted by the laws of the realm of England, or after the manner and form hereafter mentioned, he or they shall, for the first offence, pay a fine equal to half the value of the corn, flour or provisions so forestalled, regrated or ingrossed; or be imprisoned for a space of time not exceeding one month, without bail or mainprize: and for the second, and every subsequent offence, shall pay a fine equal to the whole value of the corn, flour or provisions so forestalled, regrated or ingrossed; or be imprisoned for a space of time not exceeding three months, without bail or mainprize.

ART. VI.

And be it ENACTED and DECLARED, that all and every miller, meal-man or manufacturer of flour, purchasing or getting into his possession any wheat, pease, beans, barley, oats, indian corn, rye, or any flour or meal thereof made; or any other victual as is above-said, contrary to the express words and true intent of this ordinance; shall and may be reputed, taken, adjudged and convicted, as an unlawful ingrosser, regrator or forestaller; any laws to the contrary notwithstanding. And all and every miller, meal-man or manufacturer of flour being lawfully convicted of any of the offences aforesaid in manner as hereafter mentioned, shall be subject and liable to the same fines, penalties, and imprisonments as mentioned and set forth in the foregoing article.

ART. VII.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that nothing in this ordinance contained, shall be construed to interrupt or prevent his excellency the governor, the lieutenant-governor, or commander in chief for the time being, from granting licence and authority to any person or persons, to purchase and collect any quantity of wheat, pease, beans, barley, oats, indian corn or rye; or the flour or biscuit thereof made; or any other provisions before-mentioned, for the use of his majesty.

ART. VIII.

PROVIDED ALSO, that nothing in this ordinance contained, shall prevent any person whatsoever, from the purchase of such necessary corn and victual as may be needful for the support of his family and domesticks, or persons by him hired and employed, and for their sustenance for the space of twelve months; or to prevent any person from the purchase of feed-corn to sow his own land; or any person having sufficient feed-corn, from purchasing other corn for exchange of feed; or to prevent any person from the purchase and transportation of all and every the articles of provision above-mentioned, which may, by such person, be judged needful for the trade and support of the indian trade and fisheries below the port of Quebec on the river St. Lawrence, and other parts within this province; such last mentioned person first having for that purpose legally obtained the licence and permit hereafter directed.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

ART. IX.

WHEREAS the ease, convenience and comfort of persons residing in the several towns and villages within this province, may make it necessary to permit certain quantities of wheat, oats, pease, beans, barley, rye and indian corn, or the meal and flour thereof made, to be purchased out of the respective towns and villages, and to be collected and brought within the said towns and villages, and there exposed to sale in small quantities, and wrought into bread and biscuit, for the sustenance of the several inhabitants of the said towns and villages: And also it may be necessary, for the reasons aforesaid, to permit the purchase of live cattle or other provisions necessary for the sustenance of the inhabitants of the respective towns and villages; and also to permit certain persons to purchase, collect and transport necessary provisions to the several indian countries and fisheries below the port of Quebec, and other parts within this province: IT IS THEREFORE ENACTED that it shall and may be lawful for any three or more magistrates (not being millers, meal-men, or manufacturers of flour) at their weekly sittings, to authorize, licence and permit such and so many persons, as well millers and manufacturers of flour, as others, as they may judge necessary (not forestalling or regrating as described in the first and second articles of this ordinance) and the said magistrates are hereby required to grant permits as aforesaid to purchase within the said province, and the same to sell again, wheat, pease, oats, beans, barley, rye and indian corn; or the meal and flour or biscuit thereof made: And also to licence and permit the purchase of live-cattle; or other provisions, for the purposes aforesaid; And also to licence and permit the purchase of any of the abovesaid provisions for the indian countries and fisheries as aforesaid. That all and every licence so to be granted as aforesaid, shall express the respective quantities and qualities of corn and provisions therein permitted to be bought, and also the period of time and continuance of such licence in force and effect; which shall not exceed twelve months from the date thereof, and at shorter continuance, as the magistrates may see needful. And for the better regulating the quantities of wheat so to be permitted to be bought, and made into flour, by millers, mealmen or manufacturers of meal and flour; the magistrates of each district, in their sessions, shall cause a list to be made out of such millers, meal-men, and manufacturers of meal and flour, as shall apply for licences; and apportion the quantities to each respectively, according to circumstances.

ART. X.

THAT the clerks of the peace, in the court of quarter sessions, at Quebec, for the district of Quebec, and at Montreal, for the district of Montreal, shall keep a book of public registry and record of every licence so to be granted as aforesaid; therein expressing the substance of each respective licence, which may be granted by the magistrates of each district as aforesaid. That no magistrate shall grant a licence or permit as above-mentioned, until after the person applying for the same, hath entered into recognizance in the sum of one hundred pounds, that he hath not, directly or indirectly, obtained any other licence than that so applied for, or then mentioned (and which shall be expressed in the said recognizance) and that he will in all things conform to this ordinance, and the purport of the licence and permit which may be to him granted as aforesaid. Neither shall any magistrate sign or grant any such licence or permit, until after he hath had reference to, and examined the public registry of such licences and permits, as may have been granted in the district where such register may be kept as aforesaid. Nor shall any magistrate grant or deliver any such licence or permit, until after the substance of the same shall have been entered in the public registry as aforesaid; which shall be certified by the clerk of the peace on the said licence, as entered in the registry, and before delivery thereof. That every clerk, of the peace shall, upon every request, and without fee or reward, at all public office hours, give communication of, and shew the said public register of licences as aforesaid, to any person requesting the same; and the said clerk of the peace, for the said licence, recognizance, and entry aforesaid, shall take and receive two shillings and six pence, and no more.

ART. XI.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that any person, who may think himself aggrieved by the refusal of the magistrates aforesaid, to grant to such person a licence and permit to purchase any of the articles of corn, flour or provisions aforesaid; or for such quantities of the several articles above-mentioned, as may be required; to obtain redress in the premises, may petition his excellency the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander in chief for the time being; who, upon fully hearing the cause of complaint and refusal abovesaid, may (by and with the advice and consent of his majesty's council) grant a licence, and permit such person so aggrieved as aforesaid, to purchase such corn, flour, and provisions, as his excellency the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander in chief for the time being, by and with the advice and consent of his majesty's council, may judge reasonable: the person so obtaining such licence as aforesaid, first having entered into recognizance before, and entered of record with the clerk of the peace, conformable to such order as may in that respect be made in council touching the same.

ART. XII.

PROVIDED ALSO, that nothing in this ordinance contained, shall be construed to prevent any farmer or grazier from purchasing horned cattle to make fat for sale, the same being by him grazed for the space of five weeks, at least, after the purchase as aforesaid.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

Neither shall any thing herein contained prevent any person or persons from purchasing such quantities of salt, as may be needful for his or their families, or for the use of the fisheries in which they are concerned, or agents for; or prevent any retailer of salt, from purchasing any quantity not exceeding three thousand minots, at a time when salt may be retailed at or under five shillings per minot; or one thousand minots, when the retailing price is above that sum.

ART. XIII.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that nothing in this ordinance shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any and every person from the purchase of wheat, oats, pease, beans, barley, rye, or indian corn; and therein to deal and traffick as goods of free merchandize, trade and commerce, without licence, when, and at such time as any of the abovesaid articles shall be at or under the current prices following, that is to say, wheat, five shillings; oats, one shilling and three pence; pease, three shillings; barley, two shillings; rye, three shillings and six pence; and indian corn, five shillings, currency for each minot. Nor shall prevent any person from the purchase of flour, meal, and biscuit, and therein to deal and traffick as aforesaid, when, and at such time as first flour shall be sold at or under the current price of sixteen shillings; second flour, or farine entiere, at or under twelve shillings and six pence; and ship-biscuit at or under fifteen shillings for each quintal of 112lb. English weight.

ART. XIV.

AND WHEREAS it may be necessary that the several prices current before mentioned, should be so ascertained and made public, as may govern and direct all persons to act in obedience to this ordinance, IT IS THEREFORE ENACTED, that the several magistrates and commissioners of the peace, at their monthly sittings in the city of Quebec and Montreal, shall and may, upon the oath of one or more credible person, or by such other ways and means as they may find just; fix, settle and determine the several prices current of all and every the articles of corn, grain, flour and biscuit above-mentioned, and cause the same immediately then after, or as soon as may be, to be published in the Quebec Gazette; and every rate of prices so made, to continue and publish until a new rate of prices shall be settled in manner aforesaid. AND IT IS HEREBY DECLARED that no person whosoever shall be deemed, taken and adjudged an Ingrosser, who may actually, and bona fide, have purchased any corn, grain, flour or biscuit, at or under the several prices established by the XIIIth article of this ordinance.

ART. XV.

That the justices or commissioners of the peace in their several quarter sessions, to be holden at Quebec and Montreal, shall have full power and authority, by virtue of this ordinance, to enquire, hear and determine all and every offence or offences, which may be perpetrated and committed contrary to this ordinance, within the respective districts where such offence may be committed; and by inquisition, presentment, bill or information, before them exhibited; and by examination of two lawful witnesses; or by any of the same ways and means, by the discretion of the justices or commissioners; and to make process thereupon, as though they were indicted before them by inquisition, or by verdict of twelve or more men; and upon conviction, to award execution in the premises. The one moiety of all fines, which may arise under this ordinance, to be paid to his majesty's receiver-general, for the use of his majesty; and the other moiety, to the informer or person who may sue and prosecute for the same.

ART. XVI.

And if any person or persons shall think him or themselves aggrieved, by the judgment or determination of the said commissioners of the peace, in their quarter-sessions; it shall and may be lawful for such person or persons, at any time within three calendar months from the time of giving such judgment or determination, to appeal therefrom to the governor and council of this province; any five or more of which council (not being commissioners of the peace who shall have given such judgment or determination) with the governor, lieutenant-governor, or chief justice, shall constitute a court of appeal for that purpose; which said court of appeal, is hereby authorized fully to examine into the grounds of such prosecution and appeal, from the proceedings and record of such cause; and the judgment or determination of the said commissioners of the peace, to reverse, or affirm, according to the opinion of the major part of the said court of appeal. But it is declared that no person shall be entitled to such appeal, unless he shall first have given good and sufficient security to be forth-coming to undergo the execution of such judgment; and to pay such condemnation money and costs as shall be awarded by the judgment of the said court of appeal, in case the judgment so appealed from, shall be in the whole, or in any part, affirmed.

ART. XVII.

That all and every prosecution for any of the several offences above-mentioned, shall be commenced, sued, and prosecuted within six calendar months after the commission of such offence, and not afterwards. And if it should appear that any such prosecution were instituted and sued after the said period of six months from the time of committing such offence as aforesaid, judgment shall not be pronounced thereupon: any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

ART. XVIII.

THAT THIS ORDINANCE, and every article and clause herein contained, shall continue and remain in force and effect for and during the space of two years, and until the end of the sessions of the legislative council, which will be held according to the statute, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two.

FRED: HALDIMAND.

A R T. II.

THAT what officer or person soever, who shall ask, demand, and take, greater or other fees than the above mentioned for the doing and performing the respective business for which fees are established by this ordinance, shall and may be prosecuted as in cases of extortion, and being thereof duly convicted in any court of record within this province, shall suffer and pay a fine of twenty five pounds current money, one moiety thereof to be paid the receiver general for the use of his Majesty, his heirs and successors, and the other moiety to the informer or person whosoever may sue for the same, to be recovered as aforesaid.

A R T. III.

THAT this ordinance and every article and clause herein contained, shall continue and be in force for and during two years from the publication of the same, and unto the end of the sessions of the legislative council of this province, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two.

FRED: HALDIMAND.

Ordnained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the public seal of the province, at the council chamber in the castle of St. Louis, in the city of Quebec, the ninth day of March, in the twentieth year of the reign of our Sovereign lord GEORGE the Third, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, king, defender of the Faith, and so forth, and in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

By His EXCELLENCY'S Command,

J. WILLIAMS, C.L.C.

ANNO VICESIMO
GEORGII III. REGIS.

CHAP. IV.

An ORDINANCE

For regulating all such persons as keep horses and carriages to let and hire, for the accommodation of travellers, commonly called and known by the name of maitres de poste.

BE IT ENACTED and ORDAINED by his excellency the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the province of Quebec, and by the authority of the same IT IS HEREBY ENACTED.

ART. I.

That from and after the publication of this ordinance, no person or persons whatsoever, acting as a postman or maître de poste, by commission from his excellency the governor, the lieutenant-governor, or commander in chief; or by commission from any person duly authorised by the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander in chief, for the purpose of granting commissions to postmen or maitres de poste, shall ask, demand, or take more than one shilling for each league for the hire of a horse and carriage, whether the same shall carry one or two persons; or more than six pence for each additional horse, which any person travelling post may demand and require to be harnessed to such carriage; or more than six-pence for each league, for every saddle-horse and saddle which may be required. That all and every person travelling post in their own carriages, shall pay one shilling and two pence, for each league such carriage may be carried by one horse, and if the person travelling demand a second or additional horse, he shall pay one shilling and six-pence for the two horses as abovesaid. That all and every person journeying as aforesaid, shall and may take and have carried in the respective carriage as aforesaid, a reasonable quantity and weight of baggage, that is to say, for every single person so travelling in a carriage as aforesaid one hundred pounds weight, and for two persons travelling as aforesaid seventy pounds weight, and no more.

ART. II.

That all and every the said maitres de poste, or postmen, shall furnish and provide to all and every person demanding the same, one or more carts or sleighs, with one horse to each, whether it be for travelling or carrying baggage for travellers, and in case of baggage, such cart or sleigh to carry six hundred pounds weight at least, and for the hire of the same shall demand and take nine pence for each league and no more.

ART. III.

That every postman or maître de poste shall support and keep four good and sufficient horses at least, with the like number of good and substantial carriages; the caleches to be commodiously wide and long, and two of them at every post-house to be mounted on iron creeks or springs. That each postman or maître de poste shall be allowed, and may retain, an assistant or aide de poste, who respectively shall keep and support two good horses, and the like number of sufficient carriages and harnesses. That each postman or maître de poste, together with two able servants whom he shall keep and support for the purpose of driving the horses and carriages as aforesaid; and also the assistant or aide de poste as aforesaid, shall be exempted, and are hereby freed and exempted, from all public service and duty, which by law otherwise they might be bound to perform: such services and duties always excepted, to which they are bound by the tenure of their land.

ART. IV.

That all and every postman, maître de poste, assistant or aide de poste as aforesaid, shall immediately on demand, and without delay, furnish and provide for persons so journeying as aforesaid, horses and carriages. And if any postman, maître de poste, or aide, shall delay or detain the person demanding any horses, carriages, or saddle horses as before mentioned, more than one quarter of an hour in the day, or half an hour in the night; or shall not drive such horse or horses, and the carriages so hired as aforesaid, at the rate and distance of two leagues for every hour at the least, provided the roads will permit; such postman or assistant so neglecting as above-mentioned, shall forfeit and pay for every offence the sum of ten shillings.

ART. V.

That no maître de poste, or aide de poste, shall on any pretence whatever, pass or drive any carriage beyond the limits and distance of his or their respective fares and stages, without first having obtained permission so to do from the next maître de poste, and to whose house his stage and fare may end; under the penalty of one shilling for each league which he or they may so transgress, to be recovered from, and paid by the maître de poste who shall so have transgressed, to the maître de poste whose permission and leave ought to have been obtained to drive and pass as aforesaid. Provided always that whensoever it may happen that all the horses or carriages retained as aforesaid, at any post-house and the house of the aide or assistant as aforesaid, shall be employed, or absent from their respective stages; in such case any maître de poste, or aide de poste shall pass, and he is hereby required, when demanded, to pass and drive beyond the limits of his or their respective stages, without incurring the penalty abovesaid. And every maître de poste and his aide are hereby respectively required to place and expose to public view in his or their houses an account of his and their lawful fare and distance of road and stage, which such maître de poste or aide may respectively drive as aforesaid, upon penalty of five shillings for every neglect.

ART. VI.

In consideration of the advanced price of provender in the several towns of Quebec, Montreal, and Three-Rivers, and in compensation for the time they may lose in attending at the respective houses and lodgings of persons taking the first stage: and also that the posts of Quebec and Montreal are only employed in driving from the said towns, IT IS ENACTED, that the maitres de poste and the aide and assistant as aforesaid, in the towns of Quebec and Montreal may demand and receive twenty pence for each league for the hire of a horse and carriage, whether the same may carry one or two persons; and for one horse and carriage from the town of Three-Rivers, one shilling and four pence per league; and in proportion for one or more horses as is above-mentioned.

ART. VII.

That all and every ferryman, and person keeping a ferry, on the public roads in this province, shall be provided with good and sufficient ferry-boats, batteaux, and canoes as they may be necessary for the ease and convenience of persons travelling as aforesaid: The persons keeping the ferries aforesaid shall not on any pretence, detain any person so journeying, under a penalty of ten shillings for every detention.

ART. VIII.

That all and every the forfeitures and penalties by this ordinance imposed shall and may be sued for, prosecuted and recovered, upon the oath of one or more credible witness, and before any one of his majesty's commissioners of the peace; and such penalties and forfeitures levied by warrant under the hand and seal of any commissioner of the peace as aforesaid, one half to be paid to the receiver-general for his majesty's use, the other half to the prosecutor.

ART. IX.

That this ordinance, and every article and clause herein contained, shall continue and be in force and effect, for and during the space of two years, and until the end of the sessions of the legislative council which will be held according to the statute in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two.

FRED: HALDIMAND.

Ordnained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the great seal of the province, at the council chamber in the castle of St. Louis, in the city of Quebec, the ninth day of March, in the twentieth year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the Third, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, King, defender of the faith, and so forth, and in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

with the approbation of his excellency the Governor and his Majesty's council, judged sufficient for building a Gaol in the town of Montreal aforesaid.

ARTICLE II.

Provided always that the sum or sums of money to be raised by the said Lottery, free of the charges and expences which may arise as abovesaid, do not exceed Four Thousand Pounds currency.

ARTICLE III.

It is Enacted that the persons above named, or any other three or more of them be, and are hereby directed to be managers and directors of the said Lottery, and are hereby empowered to make all necessary rules, and use all necessary methods to manage and direct the same: and also to direct, control and manage the carrying on, erecting and finishing the said Gaol, and to hire, contract for, purchase and employ the labour and materials necessary to be used and employed in and about the same; and to pay out of the proceeds of the said Lottery all and every the expences which may arise for erecting, perfecting and completing the building aforesaid: and generally to do and perform all and every matter and thing requisite and needful, as well respecting the completing and finishing the said Lottery, as the said Gaol and building.

ARTICLE IV.

And it is hereby directed and ordained, that the said managers, or any three or more of them, do forthwith before carrying into execution the said Lottery, and so soon as may be, draw out and prepare as well a scheme of the said Lottery, as a plan of the said proposed Gaol and building; together with full and clear estimates as well of the money to be raised by the said Lottery, as to be expended in erecting and completing the said building, and that the same be submitted by the said managers, or any three or more of them, to his excellency the Governor and his Majesty's council as above said, for their approbation and assent; in order that the same, or such other scheme, plan, rules or orders as may be approved and assented to as above said, may be carried into speedy and due execution.

ARTICLE V.

AND LASTLY, IT IS ENACTED AND ORDAINED that the said managers, or any three or more of them, do account and make return of their doings, acts and proceedings in the execution of this ordinance and the same do render and submit to his excellency the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Commander in chief for the time being, and the legislative Council of the province aforesaid, on or before the first day of January of every year, until the Lottery and Building above mentioned shall be fully completed; in order that the balance of money, if there shall be any, remaining in the hands of the said managers, may be disposed of by an ordinance of his excellency the Governor and legislative Council in some other work of public

CHAP. III.²

An ORDINANCE.

For securing the Liberty of the Subject, and for prevention of Imprisonments out of this province.

WHEREAS it hath graciously pleased the King's most Excellent Majesty, in his instructions to his Excellency the Captain General and Governor in Chief of this province, to commit to the Legislature thereof, the consideration of making due provision for the security of the personal liberty of his subjects therein, and to suggest that, for that purpose, the Legislature could not follow a better example, than that which the common law of England hath set, in the provision made for a writ of Habeas Corpus which is the right of every British subject in that kingdom: Be it declared and enacted by his Excellency the Captain General and Governor in Chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, and by the authority of the same it is hereby declared and enacted.

² Ordinances; P. of Q., M.DCCC,LXXXVI. (Printed by William Brown in Mountain-Street, Quebec.)

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

A R T. I.

THAT from and after the day of the publication of this Ordinance, all persons who shall be or stand committed or detained in any prison within this province, for any criminal or supposed criminal offence, shall of right be entitled to demand, have and obtain from the Court of King's Bench in this province or from the Chief Justice thereof, or from the Commissioners for executing the office of Chief Justice, respectively, or from any Judge or Judges of the said Court of King's Bench, the writ of Habeas Corpus, together with all the benefit and relief resulting therefrom, at all such times, and in as full, ample, perfect and beneficial a manner, and to all intents, uses, ends and purposes, as his Majesty's subjects within the realm of England, who may be or stand committed or detained in any prison within that realm, are there entitled to that writ, and the benefit arising therefrom, by the common and statute laws thereof.

A R T. II.

AND for the prevention of delays which may be used by Sheriffs, Goalers, and other officers and persons, to whose custody any of the King's subjects may be committed or detained, for criminal or supposed criminal matters, in making returns of writs of Habeas Corpus to them directed; it is hereby further declared, ordained and enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That whensoever any person or persons shall bring any writ of Habeas Corpus, directed unto any Sheriff, Goaler, Minister, or other person whatsoever, for any person in his or their custody, and the said writ shall be served upon the said officer, or left at the goal or prison with any of the under-officers, under-keepers, or deputy of the said officers or keepers, that the said officer or officers, his or their under-officers, under-keepers, deputies or other persons, shall within three days after the service thereof as aforesaid [unless the commitment aforesaid were for treason or felony plainly and specially expressed in the warrant of commitment] upon payment or tender of the charges of bringing the said prisoner, to be ascertained by the Chief Justice, Commissioner or Commissioners for executing the office of Chief Justice, or Judge or Judges of the Court that awarded the same, and endorsed upon the said writ, not exceeding three shillings per league; and upon security given, by his own bond, to pay the charges of bringing back the prisoner, if he shall be remanded by the Court, Chief Justice, Commissioner or Commissioners, Judge or Judges to which or whom he shall be brought, according to the true intent of this present Ordinance, and that he will not make any escape by the way, make return of such writ, and bring or cause to be brought the body of the party so committed or restrained unto or before the Chief Justice, or Commissioners for executing the office of Chief Justice, or Judges of the said Court of King's Bench from whence the said writ shall issue, or unto or before such other person or persons before whom the said writ is made returnable, according to the command thereof; and shall then likewise certify the true causes of his detainer or imprisonment, unless the commitment of the said party be in any place beyond the distance of ten leagues; from the place or places where such court or person is or shall be residing; and if beyond the distance of ten leagues, and not above thirty leagues, then within the space of ten days; and if beyond the distance of thirty leagues, and not above sixty leagues, then within the space of twenty days; and if beyond the distance of sixty leagues, and not above one hundred leagues, then within the space of forty days; and if beyond the distance of one hundred leagues, then within the space of three months, if from the first day of March to the twentieth of September, otherwise in the space of eight months, after such delivery and service of the writ as aforesaid, and not longer. But if such payment or tender shall not be made by the person bringing the writ to the sheriff, goaler, minister or other person as aforesaid, such sheriff, goaler, minister or other person, shall return the writ with the true causes of the imprisonment or detainer, without bringing or causing to be brought the body of the person committed or restrained as it may be thereby commanded; and shall certify on the back thereof, that a default of such payment or tender, is the reason and cause that the body of the person is not brought therewith; which shall be deemed a sufficient return.

ART. III.

AND to the intent that no sheriff, goaler, or other officer, may pretend ignorance of the import of any such writ; Be it enacted, declared and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, That all such writs shall be marked in this manner "By virtue of an Ordinance passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King GEORGE the Third" and shall be signed by the person that awards the same; and if any person or persons shall be or stand committed or detained as aforesaid, for any crime [unless for felony or treason plainly expressed in the warrant of commitment] in the vacation time, and out of term or sessions, it shall and may be lawful to and for the person or persons so committed or detained (other than persons convict or in execution by legal process) or any one on his or their behalf, to appeal or complain to the chief justice, or any one of the commissioners for executing the office of chief justice, or any judge or judges of the court of king's bench; and they or any one of them, upon view of the copy or copies of the warrant or warrants of commitment and detainer, or otherwise upon oath made that such copy or copies were denied to be given by such person or persons in whose custody the prisoner or prisoners is or are detained, are hereby authorised and required upon request made in writing by such person or persons, or any on his, her, or their behalf, attested and subscribed by two witnesses who were present at the delivery of the same, to award and grant an Habeas Corpus under the seal of the Court of king's bench, to be directed to the officer or officers, person or persons, in whose custody the party so committed or detained shall be returnable immediate before the said chief justice or such commissioner for executing the office of chief justice, or judge of the said court of king's bench; and upon service thereof as aforesaid, the officer or officers, his or their under-officer or under-officers, under-keeper or under-keepers, or their deputy, in whose custody the party is so committed or detained, shall within the times respectively before limited, bring such prisoner or prisoners before the said chief justice, or such commissioners, or judges, or any one of them before whom the said writ is made returnable, and in case of his absence, before any other of them, with the return of such writ, and the true causes of the commitment and detainer; and thereupon, within two days after the party shall be brought before the them, the said chief justice, or such commissioner or judge of the court of king's bench, before whom the prisoner shall be brought as aforesaid, shall discharge the said prisoner from his imprisonment, taking his or their recognizance, with one or more surety or sureties, in any sum which shall not be excessive, according to his or their discretion, having regard to the quality of the prisoner, and nature of the offence, for his or their appearance in the court of king's bench, at the next sessions or term, or general goal delivery of and for the district where the commitment was, or where the offence was committed, or in such other court where the offence is properly cognizable, as the case shall require, and then shall certify the said writ with the return thereof, and the said recognizance or recognizances into the said court where such appearance is to be made; unless it shall appear unto the said chief justice or commissioner or commissioners for executing the office of chief justice, or judge or judges of the said court of king's bench, that the party so committed, is detained upon a legal process, order, or warrant out of some court that hath jurisdiction of criminal matters, or by some warrant signed and sealed, with the hand and seal, either of the chief justice or of one of the commissioners for executing the office of chief justice, or of one of the judges of the said court of king's bench, or of some justice or justices, commissioner or commissioners of the peace, for such matters or offences, for which by the law the prisoner is not bailable.

ART. IV.

PROVIDED always and be it enacted, That if any person shall have wilfully neglected, by the space of two whole sessions or terms of the king's bench established by law for the district where such detention or imprisonment may be, after his imprisonment, to pray a writ of Habeas Corpus for his enlargement, such person so wilfully neglecting shall not have a writ of Habeas Corpus to be granted in vacation time, in pursuance of this Ordinance.

ART. V.

AND it is further enacted, That if any officer or officers, his or their under-officer or under-officers, under-keeper or under-keepers or deputy, or other person, shall neglect or refuse to make the return aforesaid, or to bring the body or bodies of the prisoner or prisoners according to the command of the said writ, within the respective times aforesaid, or upon demand made by the prisoner, or person in his behalf, shall refuse to deliver, or within the space of six hours after demand, shall not deliver to the person so demanding, a true copy of the warrant or warrants of commitment and detainer of such prisoner [which he and they are hereby required to deliver accordingly] all and every the head goalers and keepers of such prisons and such other person or persons in whose custody the prisoner shall be detained, shall for the first offence forfeit to the prisoner or party grieved the sum of one hundred pounds lawful money of Great-Britain, and for the second offence the sum of two hundred pounds like lawful money of Great-Britain, and shall and is hereby made incapable to hold or execute his said office. The said penalties to be recovered by the prisoner or party grieved, his executors or administrators, against such offender, his executors or administrators, by any action of debt, suit, bill, plaint, or information in the courts of common-pleas or any other court of record having original jurisdiction within this province, wherein no privilege, protection, injunction or stay of prosecution by non vult ulterius prosequi, or otherwise, shall be admitted or allowed, or any imparlance or continuances for a longer period than three months; and any recovery or judgment at the suit of any party grieved shall be a sufficient conviction for the first offence; and any after recovery or judgment at the suit of a party grieved for any offence, after the first judgement, shall be a sufficient conviction to bring the officers or person within the said penalty for the second offence.

ART. VI.

PROVIDED always and be it ordained by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons, subjects of his Majesty, shall be committed to any prison or in custody of any officer or officers whomsoever, for any criminal or supposed criminal matter, that the said person shall not be removed from the said prison and custody into the custody of any other officer or officers, unless it be by Habeas Corpus, or some other legal writ; or where the prisoner is delivered to the constable, bailiff or other inferior officer to carry such prisoner to some common goal; or where any person is sent by order of any judge of a court of criminal jurisdiction, commissioner or justice of the peace to any common work-house or house of correction; or where the prisoner is removed from some one prison or place to another within the same district, in order to his or her trial or discharge in due course of law; or in case of sudden fire or infection; or other necessity: And if any person or persons shall after such commitment aforesaid make out and sign or countersign any warrant or warrants for such removal aforesaid contrary to this Ordinance, as well he that makes or signs or counter-signs such warrant, or warrants, as the officer or officers that obey or execute the same, shall suffer and incur the pains and forfeitures in this Ordinance before mentioned both for the first and second offence respectively, to be recovered by the party grieved in manner aforesaid.

ART. VII.

AND for the preventing unjust vexation by reiterated commitments for the same offence, it is further enacted, That no person or persons, who shall be delivered, or set at large upon any Habeas Corpus, shall at any time hereafter, be again imprisoned or committed for the same offence by any person or persons whatsoever, other than by the legal process and order of such court, wherein he or they shall be bound by recognizance to appear, or other court having jurisdiction of the cause. And if any person or persons shall, knowingly, contrary to this Ordinance, re-commit or imprison, or knowingly procure or cause to be re-committed or imprisoned, for the same offence or pretended offence, any person or persons delivered or set at large as aforesaid, or be knowingly aiding or assisting therein, then he or they shall forfeit to the prisoner or party grieved, the sum of five hundred pounds lawful money of Great-Britain, to be recovered as aforesaid, any colourable pretence or variation in the warrant or warrants of commitment notwithstanding.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

ART. VIII.

It is hereby further enacted, That if any person or persons shall be committed for high treason or felony, plainly and specially expressed in the warrant of commitment, upon his prayer or petition in open court the first week of the sessions or term of the court of king's bench, and of oyer and terminer or general-goal-delivery for the district, to be brought to his trial, shall not be indicted some time in the next sessions or term of the court of king's bench, oyer and terminer, or general-goal-delivery, after such commitment, it shall and may be lawful to and for the chief justice, or commissioners for executing the office of chief justice, or judges of the said court of king's bench, and they are hereby required, upon motion made to them in open court, the last day of the sessions or term of the court of king's bench, and of oyer and terminer or general-goal-delivery either by the prisoner or any one in his behalf, to set at liberty the prisoner upon bail; unless it appears to the chief justice, or commissioners for executing the office of chief justice, or judges of the said court of king's bench, upon oath made, that the witnesses for the king could not be produced the same sessions or term or general-goal-delivery. And if any person or persons committed as aforesaid, upon his or their prayer or petition in open court, the first week of the sessions or term of the court of king's bench and of oyer and terminer and general-goal-delivery, held in and for the district where such prisoner or prisoners may be committed, to be brought to his or their trial, shall not be indicted and tried the second sessions or term of the court of king's bench and oyer and terminer and general-goal-delivery after his commitment, or upon his trial shall be acquitted, he shall be discharged from his imprisonment.

ART. IX.

PROVIDED always that nothing in this Ordinance shall extend to discharge out of prison, any person charged in debt or other action, or with process in any civil cause, but that after he shall be discharged from his imprisonment for such his criminal offence, he shall be kept in custody according to the law for such other suit.

ART. X.

PROVIDED also and it is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any prisoner or prisoners as aforesaid, to move and obtain his or their Habeas Corpus out of the court of king's bench. And if the chief justice or commissioners for executing the office of chief justice or judges of the said court of king's bench in the vacation time, upon view of the copy or copies of the warrant or warrants of commitment or detainer, or upon oath made that such copy or copies were denied as aforesaid, shall deny any Habeas Corpus by this Ordinance required to be granted (being moved for as aforesaid) they shall severally forfeit to the prisoner or party grieved the sum of five hundred pounds lawful money of Great-Britain, to be recovered in manner aforesaid.

ART. XI.

AND for preventing illegal imprisonments in prisons without this province, or beyond the seas, Be it further enacted and declared by the authority aforesaid, That no subject of his Majesty, his heirs or successors, that now is or hereafter shall be an inhabitant or resident of this province of Quebec, shall or may be sent prisoner into any province or into any state or place without this province, or into any parts, garrisons, islands or places beyond the seas, which are, or at any time hereafter shall be within or without the dominions of his majesty, his heirs or successors; and that every such imprisonment or transportation is hereby enacted and declared to be illegal. And if any of the said subjects shall hereafter be so imprisoned, every such person and persons so imprisoned, shall and may for every such imprisonment maintain by virtue of this Ordinance an action or actions of false imprisonment against the person or persons by whom he or she shall be so committed, detained, imprisoned, sent prisoner or transported contrary to the true meaning of this Ordinance, and against all or any person or persons that shall frame, contrive, write seal or countersign any warrant or writing for such commitment, detainer, imprisonment or transportation, or shall be advising, aiding or assisting in the same, or any of them; and the plaintiff in every such action shall have judgment to recover his treble costs, besides damages, which damages so to be given shall not be less than five hundred pounds lawful money of Great-Britain, in which action no delay, stay, or stop of proceeding by rule, order, or command, nor any injunction, protection or privilege whatsoever, nor any more than one imparlance or continuance (according to the practice of the court) shall be allowed, excepting such rule of the court wherein the action shall depend, made in open court, as shall be thought in justice necessary, for special cause to be expressed in the said rule.

ART. XII.

PROVIDED always that nothing in this Ordinance shall extend to give benefit to any person who shall by contract in writing agree with any merchant or owner of any plantation, or other person whatsoever to be carried to any province or to parts beyond the seas, and receive earnest upon such agreement, although that afterwards such person shall renounce such contract.

ART. XIII.

AND provided always and be it enacted, That if any person or persons lawfully convicted of any felony, shall in open court, pray to be transported beyond the seas or out of the province, and the court shall think fit to leave him or them in prison for that purpose, such person or persons may be transported into any parts beyond the seas; this Ordinance or any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

ART. XIV.

PROVIDED also, That if any person or persons at any time resident within this province shall have committed any capital offence in Great-Britain, Ireland or any province, island or plantation of the king, his heirs or successors, where he or she ought to be tried for such offence, such person or persons may be sent to such place, there to receive such trial in such manner as the same might have been used by the common laws of England before the making of this Ordinance; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

ART. XV.

AND to the intent that no person may avoid his trial at the sessions or term of the court of king's bench, oyer and terminer or general-goal-delivery by procuring his removal before the sessions or terms of the court of king's bench, oyer and terminer, or general-goal-delivery held in and for the district where he may be committed, at such time as he cannot be brought back to receive his trial there, it is further enacted, That after the sessions or term of the court of king's bench, oyer and terminer or general-goal-delivery proclaimed or advertised for the district where the prisoner is detained, no person shall be removed from the common goal of the district upon any Habeas Corpus granted in pursuance of this Ordinance; but upon any such Habeas Corpus, shall be brought before the chief justice, or commissioners for executing the office of chief justice, or judges of the said court of king's bench, in open court, who is or are thereupon to do what to justice shall appertain.

ART. XVI.

PROVIDED nevertheless, That after the sessions are ended any person or persons detained in any common goal, may have his, her, or their Habeas Corpus according to the direction and intention of this Ordinance.

ART. XVII.

"AND because many times persons charged with petit-treason or felony, or as accessories thereunto, are committed upon suspicion only, whereupon they areailable or not, according as the circumstances making out that suspicion are more or less weighty, which are best known to the justices of the peace who may have committed such persons, and have the examinations before them, or to other justices of the peace in the district where such prisoner may be committed."

BE it therefore ordained and enacted, That where any person shall appear to be committed by any judge, commissioner or justice of the peace, and charged as accessory before the fact to any petit-treason or felony, or upon suspicion thereof, or with suspicion of petit-treason or felony, which petit-treason or felony shall be plainly and specially expressed in the warrant of commitment, that such person shall not be removed or bailed by virtue of this Ordinance in any other manner than by the common law of England they may be.

ART. XVIII.

PROVIDED also and it is enacted, That no person or persons shall be sued, impleaded, molested or troubled for any offence against this Ordinance, unless the party offending be sued or impleaded for the same within two years, at the most, after such time wherein the offence shall be committed, in case the party grieved shall not be then in prison, and if he shall be in prison then within the space of two years after the decease of the person imprisoned, or his or their delivery out of prison which shall first happen.

ART. XIX.

AND be it also ordained by the authority aforesaid, That if any information, suit or action, shall be brought or exhibited against any person or persons for any offence committed or to be committed against the form of this law, it shall be lawful for such defendants to plead the general-issue, that they are not guilty, or that they owe nothing, or to plead specially, according as may be the course and practice of the court where such suit may be, and in case it be upon the said plea of not-guilty, or that he owes nothing, then to give such special matter in evidence which if it had been pleaded more specially had been good and sufficient matter of law to have discharged the said defendant or defendants against the said information, suit or action; and the said matter so given in evidence under either of the said general-pleas, shall be then and there as available to him or them to all intents and purposes as if he or they had sufficiently pleaded, set forth or alledged the same matters in bar or discharge of such information, suit or action.

GEORGIUM III. REGIS.

CHAP. II.

An ORDINANCE.

To regulate the proceedings in the courts of civil judicature, and to establish TRIALS by JURIES in actions of a commercial nature and personal wrongs to be compensated in damages.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary for the ease and conveniency of his majesty's subjects who may have actions to prosecute in the courts of civil judicature established in this province, that the mode of administering justice in the said courts, should be clearly ascertained and rendered as plain as possible.

Be it therefore ordained and enacted by his honour the Lieutenant-governor and commander in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council thereof, and by the authority of the same it is hereby ordained and enacted.

A R T. I.

Manner of proceedings in the actions above the value of £10 sterling.

That in all causes or matters of property exceeding the sum or value of ten pounds sterling, upon a declaration presented to any one of the judges of the court of common pleas, by any person, setting forth the grounds of his complaint against a defendant, and praying an order to compel him to appear and answer thereto, such judge shall be, and hereby is impowered and required, in his separate district, to grant such an order, whereby the plaintiff may have and obtain, from the clerk of the court, a writ of summons, in the language of the defendant, to be issued in his majesty's name, and tested by the name of such judge, to be directed to and executed by the sheriff of the district where such court shall have jurisdiction, and in which the defendant may be or doth reside, commanding such defendant to be and appear in such court, to answer to the plaintiff, on the day appointed by such judge in the order on the declaration, regard being had to the season of the year as well as to the distance of the defendant's abode or place of service from the place where the court may sit.

A R T. II.

Execution not to be issued against absentees till security be given.

Provided always that a copy of the writ of summons and the declaration shall be served on the defendant personally or left at his house with some grown person there, belonging to the family, and in so doing the service shall be deemed sufficient. Provided nevertheless that if the defendant be absent in the upper country or lower parts of the province, that is to say, when in or upon any place beyond the Long Sault on the Ottawa river, or beyond Oswegatché, in the upper parts of the province, or in or upon any place below cape Oat on the south side and the Seven Islands on the north side of the river St. Lawrence, and where such defendant hath not been personally served with such summons and declaration as abovesaid; that no execution shall issue, unless the plaintiff shall give good and sufficient security, to be approved by the court, to refund to the defendant or his legal representative, as much as the defendant, appearing by himself or his legal attorney within a year and a day, may be able to set aside and reverse of the said judgement, by such reconsideration of the said judgement in the court where given, as may be prescribed in the conditions expressed in the security to be given as abovesaid for rehearing of the merits of said cause.

A R T. III.

That the said declaration, so to be filed shall not be altered or amended after being filed as abovesaid, unless upon rule of the court and upon payment of costs.

A R T. IV.

Attachment against the body, where a debtor is going to leave the province.

That in all and every case where one or more judges of any court of common pleas is or may be satisfied by the affidavit of the plaintiff, or his book-keeper, or clerk, or legal attorney, that the defendant is personally indebted to the plaintiff in a sum exceeding ten pounds sterling, and may also be satisfied by the oath of the plaintiff or some other person, that the defendant is immediately about to leave the province, and whereby the Plaintiff might be deprived of his remedy against such defendant, it shall and may be lawful for one or more judge or judges of any court of common pleas, to grant a capias or attachment against the body of such defendant, to be directed to the sheriff in manner as aforesaid, to hold such defendant to bail, for his appearance at the return of such writ; and in default thereof, to commit him to prison, there to remain until special bail may be given by such defendant, or until two days after execution may be obtained by the plaintiff, if judgement be in his favour.

A R T. V.

Provided always, that if any defendant so bound in recognizance, by special bail, shall or do surrender himself in open court, pending the action, or at any time within one month after judgement obtained; or do surrender himself unto the sheriff of the district where such court may have jurisdiction at any time within fifteen days after the day on which the plaintiff might legally have and obtain execution, by capias ad satisfaciendum upon judgement obtained, that then and in such case such surrender of the defendant shall be held, taken, and considered, as a discharge of the persons bound for such defendant on special bail.

A R T. VI.

If defendant does not appear

If on the day of the return of the writ of summons, the defendant does not appear in person, or by attorney (proof of such service being produced or made in court) the plaintiff shall obtain a default against the defendant; and if, on calling over the action on the next weekly court day, the defendant should still neglect to appear, without any good reason for such his neglect; the court, after hearing and receiving sufficient proof of the plaintiff's demand, shall cause

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

Judgement to be entered.

their final judgement to be entered against the defendant, and shall award such costs thereupon as they shall think reasonable, and issue such execution as the law, according to the nature of the case, may direct.

ART. VII.

Provided always, that every proof that may be offered by the and remain of record in the same manner as if the defendant had To prevent the exportation of unmerchantable flour, and the false appeared and defended the action.

ART. VIII.

If defendant appears

Provided also that the defendant, upon his appearance at the return day of the writ, or in case of default, upon his appearance at the next weekly court after such return, and after payment of costs of such default as abovesaid, shall then or on such other day as he may obtain from the court, make his answer to the declaration, either in writing or verbally, as he thinks fit. And if the answer be verbal, the clerk of the court shall take down the substance thereof in writing, and preserve the same among the records of the court and in the said action. And if the plaintiff doth not appear at the return day of such writ, or appearing, doth not prosecute his action, the same shall be dismissed with costs to the defendant.

He is to answer the declaration.

ART. IX.

Trial by juries in certain cases at the option of the parties.

That all and every person having suits at law and actions in any of the said courts of common pleas, grounded on debts, promises, contracts and agreements of a mercantile nature only, between merchant and merchant, and trader and trader, so reputed and understood, according to law, and also of personal wrongs, proper to be compensated in damages, may, at the option and choice of either party, have and obtain the trial and verdict of a jury, as well for the assessment of damages on personal wrongs committed, as the determination of matters of fact in any such case. Provided always that the agreement of nine of the twelve jurors, who shall compose such jury, shall be sufficient and effectual to return a verdict, and that the same so made and returned shall be held as legal and effectual, to every intent and purpose, in as much as if the whole twelve jurors had agreed therein. And the clerk of the court shall set down the names of the jurors, on the register of the court, in every cause where verdicts may be returned, as abovesaid. Provided also that in all such causes and actions that may be between his majesty's natural born subjects of Great-Britain, Ireland, or the plantations and provinces in America, the juries in such causes, shall be composed of such natural born subjects as abovesaid. And in all causes and actions between his majesty's Canadian or new subjects, the juries shall be composed of such Canadian or new subjects. And in all causes and actions between natural born subjects, and the Canadian or new subjects, the jury shall be composed of an equal number of each, if such be required by either of the parties, in any of the abovementioned instances.

ART. X.

English rules of evidence adopted in commercial cases.

In proof of all facts concerning commercial matters, recourse shall be had, in all the courts of civil jurisdiction in this province, to the rules of evidence laid down by the laws of England.

ART. XI.

Where neither party is desirous of the trial by jury, proceedings as formerly.

Provided always and it is ordained and enacted, that in all causes, before the said courts of common pleas, where the parties, plaintiff nor defendant are neither of them desirous of a trial by the verdict of a jury, of and respecting matters legally within the cognizance of such jury, but that such trial should be by the deposition of witnesses, and by proofs, as at present used in his majesty's said courts of common pleas, the court shall, after issue joined on the merits of the cause, in the manner as hereafter expressed, appoint a day for hearing the evidence of the parties, plaintiff and defendant, and cause the same to be taken down in writing by the clerk of the court, in open court, and signed and sworn to by each respective witness, save and except as hereafter provided for witnesses absent by reason of sickness or of departing the province.

ART. XII.

Provision for examining Witnesses, in case of sickness or when about to depart the province.

Provided also that in case of sickness and where the witnesses cannot attend the court, to be ascertained by affidavit, it may be lawful for the court, in such cases, and of evident necessity, after issue joined as above-said, to allow and permit that any one judge, in the presence of the parties, plaintiff and defendant, or their attorneys, or in their or either of their absence after due notice signified, may take the deposition of such witness, in writing, to be signed and sworn to, and certify and record the same, in the said court, and there to be of legal effect; and moreover, that such deposition, so taken, may be offered and read to the jury, as legal evidence, if such cause be to be tried by jury. And also in causes instituted in the said court, where any witness may be about to depart the province, and by which means either party might be deprived of his testimony to be ascertained by affidavit, it shall and may be lawful for any judge of the said courts to take the deposition of such witness, in presence of the parties or their attorneys, in the manner above expressed, and the same shall be of legal effect in every cause, in the manner as above-said.

ART. XIII.

Limitation of pleadings.

And it is further ordained and enacted, that every issue in law or fact, to be formed in any cause in either of the said courts of common pleas, between the parties, plaintiff and defendant, shall be made and completed by the declaration, answer and replication; or by the plea, answer and replication, in cases of abatement and bar, of the said parties, plaintiff and defendant, and that no other or further pleadings or writings by way of plea upon such issue or matter in dispute, whether of law or fact, shall be received or admitted by the said courts of common pleas, as part of and to be put upon record, in any cause there instituted, and to be heard and adjudged upon, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

ART. XIV.

When the sheriff is concerned the process to be served by the coroner.

That every writ and process which ought to be served and executed by the sheriff, where it shall happen that the sheriff may be personally interested and concerned, shall be served and executed by the coroner of the district in which such writ, process or execution may issue.

ART. XV.

OF JURORS.

Their qualification.

That all merchants or traders of lawful age, and also all persons of lawful age, being house-holders, or occupying lodgings of the value of fifteen pounds per annum, rent, shall be held and considered qualified as jurors, and to serve on petit juries.

ART. XVI.

Sheriffs to make out lists of jurors.

That the sheriff of each district shall make out lists of all persons so qualified as above said, who may reside in the cities of Quebec or Montreal, and within the vicinage or banlieu thereof, and return the same into the respective courts of common pleas of the district in which such sheriff may officiate, and in which return shall be set down, the christian and surname, and also the profession, trade or calling, and place of abode of such persons so returned.

ART. XVII.

That from the said general list, the clerk of each court shall make two separate lists or books, the one to contain the names of all merchants, persons concerned in trade, or qualified to serve on special juries, and the other list or book to contain the names of persons of different occupations, so returned on the said general list by the sheriff as aforesaid. That the said lists or books, when so made, shall be examined by the judges and sheriff, and corrected if needful, and shall be of record and open in the clerk's office, to the inspection of all persons, without fee or reward.

ART. XVIII.

That on all and every cause where a trial may be moved for, and directed to be taken by the verdict of a jury, it shall and may be lawful for the parties, plaintiff and defendant, or their attorneys, to strike a jury from the above lists or books, so returned into court, and completed as above-said, in the same manner and under the same rules as special juries are struck in the courts of record in England, that is to say, from the first list or book so formed by the clerk, and approved by the judges, as above said, in all causes of mercantile dispute or actions of damages where the total amount, sum, dealing, or matter of account, agreement or transaction between the parties, may exceed fifty pounds. And from the second list, or jury book, where the total sum as above-said may not exceed the said sum of fifty pounds.

ART. XIX.

Juries to be taken in rotation.

Provided always that the said juries, so to be struck from either of the said lists, shall be taken from the same in rotation and following each other, by commencing at that part of the list from whence the former or preceding jury was struck or taken. And also, that in all causes that may appear to the court before which they are to be tried, to be of intricacy, and that ought to be tried by a jury from the first list, although the sum or total amount may not exceed fifty pounds, the judges of such court may permit and order the jury to be struck from the first list; the party applying for such jury, paying the difference of fees between jurors from the first and the second jury list or book.

ART. XX.

Challenges or exceptions to jurors, to be determined agreeable to the laws of England.

That all and every challenge or exception to the panel, or any particular juror returned thereon, shall be taken, made and determined upon in open court, and conformable to the laws of England. That jurors, serving on special juries as abovesaid, and struck from the first list or jury book, shall have and receive two shillings and six pence each for every verdict to be made and delivered, and before returned into court. And jurors struck from the second list or jury book, one shilling each for every verdict in manner as aforesaid.

ART. XXI.

List of jurors to be returned by the sheriffs in the month of June yearly.

That lists of jurors, in the manner prescribed by the preceding articles, shall be made by the sheriffs, returned into the several courts, and formed in the manner above-mentioned, in the month of June in every year.

ART. XXII.

Penalty on jurors not attending.

That all persons being duly summoned to attend in any of his majesty's courts of common pleas, to serve as jurors as above-said, and neglecting or refusing so to do, shall be liable to, and may be fined by the said courts respectively, in any sum not exceeding five pounds, and not less than ten shillings, to be levied, by warrant of distress, on the goods and chattels of such person so refusing or neglecting to attend, and to be paid to his majesty's receiver-general for the public uses of the province.

ART. XXIII.

Persons exempted from serving on juries.

That the members of his majesty's council, the officers of his majesty's courts, officers of the customs, naval officer, persons employed in the service of the post-office, physicians and surgeons, and officers employed in military service, shall be exempted from serving on juries.

ART. XXIV.

OF APPEALS.

Appeals from definitive judgments.

The party meaning to appeal from any definitive sentence or judgment of any of the courts of common pleas, shall sue out a writ from the court of appeals, tested and signed by the governor, lieutenant-governor, or chief justice; stating that the appellant complaints of being aggrieved by the judgement, and therefore commanding the judges of the inferior court, or any two of them, to send up the original papers and proceedings, found in the records or registers of the court, concerning the same. Such writ, when presented to any of the judges of the court below, shall be allowed by him, if the appellant has given the requisite security, which security is hereby understood to be personal security, or bail by justification, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding; provided nevertheless that an appeal may be had and obtained, in manner abovesaid, from any interlocutory sentence or judgement which may carry execution, by ordering something to be done or executed that cannot be remedied by the final sentence or judgment, or whereby the right of the matter in contestation between the parties may be in part decided, or whereby final hearing and judgment may be unnecessarily delayed, provided always that such appeal shall not be granted and allowed, except upon motion made in the court of appeals for that purpose, and a rule served upon the other party, or his attorney, to shew cause why a writ of appeal from such interlocutory sentence or judgment should not be granted. And it is hereby ordained that a rule so served shall have the effect to stay execution upon such interlocutory sentence or judgment, till the determination of the motion for such appeal, and if the writ of appeal shall be awarded thereupon, and allowed by the judges in manner as aforesaid, the clerk of the court shall proceed to comply with the order of the writ, and the judges, or any two of them, shall make their return as therein commanded.

Appeals from Interlocutory judgment.

ART. XXV.

Appellant to file his reasons of appeal in 8 days.

If the appellant does not, within eight days after the return of the said writ and the transmission of the proceedings, file his reasons of appeal, the appellee shall obtain a rule or order, that unless the appellant's reasons of appeal are filed in four days, the appeal will be dismissed. And if the said reasons of appeal are not filed within four days after service of the said rule on the appellant or his agent, the appeal shall be accordingly dismissed with costs.

ART. XXVI.

Appellee to file his answers in 8 days.

Within eight days after the reasons of appeal are filed, the appellee shall file his answers thereto; or if he neglects so to do, the appellant shall obtain a rule or order, that unless the appellee file his answers within four days, he will be precluded from filing them after that period; and if his answers are not filed within four days after service of such rule on the appellee or his agent, he shall accordingly be precluded from filing them, and the court will proceed to hear the cause on the part of the appellant, and proceed to judgment therein without the intervention of the appellee.

ART. XXVII.

The court, upon good cause shewn, may prolong the time above allowed.

The said court of appeals, nevertheless, shall and may, upon application made, and good cause shewn by either of the parties (notice being given to the other) prolong the time allowed for filing either of the reasons of appeal or answers thereto; and in case the court shall not be sitting at the time when such reasons or answers ought regularly to be filed, the party neglecting shall apply to the court at the next sitting thereof, and shew his reasons for such neglect; and if the court finds them insufficient, it will, as the case may be, either dismiss the appeal, or proceed to hear it without the intervention of the appellee, as above directed.

ART. XXVIII.

Day to be fixed for hearing the cause.

When the reasons of appeal, and the answers thereto, are filed, the court shall, on the application of either of the parties, fix on such convenient day for the hearing of the cause, as to it may seem proper.

ART. XXIX.

Execution to issue in 15 days, if appeal is not allowed or security given.

If the writ of appeal is not allowed by one of the judges of the court below, and a copy thereof served on the appellee or his agent, within fifteen days after any judgment given in the court of common pleas, execution shall issue. Provided always, that in cases of appeal from judgments in his majesty's court of common pleas in the district of Montreal, execution shall be stayed for the space of twenty days, where the party meaning to appeal shall lodge good and sufficient security in the said court within fifteen days from the date of such judgment, to prosecute his said writ of appeal with effect, and that such security shall be taken as in case of an actual writ of appeal issued and admitted. And no appeal shall be allowed, or received from the court of common pleas, after the expiration of one year from the date of the judgment of such court. Save and except such judgment, whereby the rights of infants, absentees, femmes couvertes, or persons non compos mentis, may be bound.

Limitation of appeals.

ART. XXX.

OF EXECUTIONS.

Nature of the execution.

The execution sued out from any of the courts of civil jurisdiction, shall be a writ issuing in the king's name, tested and signed, when issuing from the court of appeal, either by the governor, lieutenant-governor, or chief justice, and when issuing from the court of common pleas, by one of the judges of the court for the district in which it is given, directed to the sheriff of the district, setting forth the judgment of the court between the parties, and the kind of execution which the law, according as the case may be, shall direct; whether the same be to take the body, or to levy a sum of money out of any one's goods and chattels, lands and tenements, or to do any special matter or thing whatever. The date of the judgment shall be indorsed on every writ of execution, and that indorsement signed by the judge.

ART. XXXI.

Personals to be first disposed of, and if insufficient, real estate to be sold.

In all cases where execution shall issue against real and personal estates, the sheriff shall first dispose of the personal property, and if the proceeds thereof fall short of the amount of the judgment, the real estate, or so much thereof as will produce the amount, shall be sold for that purpose.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

Manner of selling
personals.

ART. XXXII.

Where moveables shall be seized by the sheriff, under an execution, he shall cause the seizure to be published at the church door of the parish, immediately after divine service, on the first sunday succeeding such seizure; and at the same time cause to be proclaimed, the day and place, when and where he means to proceed to the sale thereof: provided that the place of sale shall be in the same parish in which the seizure is made, and provided always that the sheriff shall not sell any chattels, so to be seized and notified, until eight days after notification of sale as above-said. And that, at the request of the plaintiff, the sheriff may cause goods and merchandises so seized as above-said, to be transported from the parish where seized, to the city of Montreal or Quebec (being in the district where seized) and there to be sold after due notice, as aforesaid. And that execution, so to be issued against chattels or personal estate, shall be made returnable at such day as the court from whence it may issue shall judge reasonable; and that execution shall issue against chattels, or personal and real estate, in one and the same writ, but that such execution shall be first levied upon the chattels or personal estate, and be returnable as to such first levy, yet nevertheless, may have force and effect, and be returnable also, at a more distant period; as to the second levy on real estate, for the full satisfaction of the execution aforesaid.

ART. XXXIII.

Manner of selling
real property.

When lands and tenements shall be seized by the sheriff, under a writ of execution, he shall advertise the sale thereof, three several times, in the Quebec gazette, to be on some certain day after the expiration of four months from the date of the first advertisement, and proclaim the said sale at the church door of the parish in which the premises are situated, immediately after divine service, on the three sundays next preceding the sale; and cause a copy of the said advertisement to be fixed on the door of the parish church; and that lands en roture shall be sold at the door of the church of the parish where seized. And the sheriff is hereby further required, to advertise, immediately after the seizure, that all and every person having any claim on said lands and tenements, by mortgage, or other right or incumbrance, do give notice thereof at his office, either before or after the sale, where the law makes a distinction, and to remove all doubts, the sale then, by the sheriff, without any other formality, shall have the same force and effect as the decret had heretofore.

ART. XXXIV.

When two or more executions issue on judgments given the same day, they are to be satisfied in the same proportions, unless in case of oppositions entered at the sheriff's office.

If two or more writs of execution shall be issued upon judgments given the same day, against the same defendant or defendants, and so marked on the writs, such executions shall have the same privilege, and be satisfied in the same proportion, provided always, that if any oppositions or claims may be entered at the sheriff's office, either before the sale of moveables, or before or after the sale of immoveables, and where required, by law, in the one or the other case above-mentioned, or where the moveables seized may be claimed by any other person, as to him pertaining; in all such cases, the sheriff shall return the same at the proper periods, into the court where such execution issued, that the said court may, on hearing such claims and oppositions, and the parties therein concerned, adjudge them according to law.

ART. XXXV.

Allowance to the sheriff.

On every execution the sheriff shall be allowed all his disbursements, and shall be authorised to charge over and above, at the rate of two and an half per cent. to be deducted out of the money he levies.

ART. XXXVI.

PROCEEDINGS in ACTIONS under TEN POUNDS Sterling.

In matters either not exceeding or under ten pounds sterling, any person having a right of action against another, shall prepare or procure from the clerk of the court of common pleas, a declaration in the following form, viz.

Declaration.	"Quebec	day of	17
	"Montreal	A. B.	Plaintiff
		C. D.	Defendant

"The plaintiff demands of the defendant the sum of
 " due to the plaintiff from the defendant for
 " which said sum, though often de" manded, still remains due, therefore the plaintiff prays judg" ment."

This declaration shall be filed by the clerk who shall make a copy thereof, and at the foot of such copy, write out a summons, in the language of the defendant, in the following form, viz.

Summons.

QUEBEC } ss. GEORGE the third, by the grace of God, of Great-MONTREAL. } Britain, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, to C. D. defendant in the above action. "You " are hereby commanded and required, to pay the " plaintiff, A. B. the above-mentioned sum of " together with costs; or else to appear " in person, or by your agent, before our judges of our " court of common pleas,

Quebec

"at the court-house of the city of—

Montreal

"on the day of when the matter
 "of complaint against you, as ascertained in the above
 "declaration, will be heard and finally determined;
 "otherwise judgment will be given against you by de"fault. Witness the honorable
 "one of the judges of our said court of common pleas,
 "this day of in the year
 "and year of our reign."

Service.

This summons shall be signed by one of the judges of the court, and a copy thereof, and of the declaration, served on the defendant personally, or left at his dwelling house, or ordinary place of residence, with some grown person there; and the person serving the same, shall inform the defendant, or such grown person, of the contents thereof.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

Non-appearance.

If at the time mentioned in the summons, the defendant does not appear, (proof of the service thereof being produced in court) the judges, or any one of them, shall hear the cause, on the part of the plaintiff, and make such order, decree, or judgment, and award such reasonable costs of suit, as to him, or them, shall appear agreeable to equity and good conscience.

Appearance.

But if the defendant does appear by himself or his agent, and the plaintiff or his agent does not appear; or appearing, does not prosecute; or prosecuting, fails in his action; the judge or judges shall dismiss the defendant, with costs.

Judgment.

If the plaintiff makes good his charge against the defendant, the judge or judges shall give judgment accordingly, and award costs and execution; but the execution shall not issue until eight days after judgment given.

Execution.

The execution shall go against the moveables only of the defendant; which shall be seized by some person to be for that purpose appointed by the court, and sold by him in the manner mentioned in the thirty-second article of this ordinance.

Exception.

But the execution shall contain an exception of the party's beasts of the plough, implements of husbandry, tools of his trade, and one bed and bedding, unless his other goods and chattels shall prove insufficient; in which case, such beasts of the plough, implements of husbandry, and tools of his trade shall be sold, but not the bed and bedding.

Debt to be levied by instalments.

The judge or judges may, if they think proper, order the debt to be levied by instalments provided the time allowed shall not exceed the space of three months, from the day of issuing the execution.

ART. XXXVII.

If defendant secretes his effects, or opposes the seizure of them, execution against the body.

In matters as well above, as of, or under the value of ten pounds sterling, if the defendant shall convey away, or secrete his effects, or shall with violence, or by shutting up his house, store, or shop, oppose his effects being seized; in all such cases, on due proof thereof, an execution shall go against his person, to be taken and detained in prison until he satisfies the judgment; any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

ART. XXXVIII.

In commercial matters, execution against the body.

For the satisfaction of all judgments given in commercial matters, between merchants or traders, as well as of all debts due to merchants or traders for goods, wares and merchandizes by them sold, execution shall issue, not only against the goods, chattels, lands and tenements of the defendants, but also, in case they shall not produce the amount of the plaintiff's demand, against his person; to be taken and conveyed into the prison of the district, and there detained, until he pays the amount of the judgment, or otherwise settles with and satisfies the plaintiff, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Provided that if the defendant, after remaining one month in prison, shall make application to the court, and make an affidavit, that he is not worth ten pounds, the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the sum of three shillings and six-pence weekly, for his maintenance, as long as he shall be detained in prison at the suit of the plaintiff; and in times of scarcity, the said court of common pleas may, in its discretion, augment the said allowance, not exceeding the further sum of one shilling and six-pence per week. Such payment shall be made in advance, on Monday in every week; in failure of which the court, from whence the execution issued, shall order the defendant to be released; but the plaintiff shall not be obliged to make such payment, if he can prove, to the satisfaction of the court by which the defendant stands committed, that the defendant has secreted or conveyed away his effects, to defraud his creditors.

ART. XXXIX.

Power of awarding execution out of one district into the other.

When any person, against whom judgment shall be given, in any of the courts of common pleas, shall not have sufficient goods, chattels, lands, or tenements, to satisfy such judgment, within the jurisdiction of the court where in such judgment shall have been obtained; but shall have goods, chattels, lands or tenements within the jurisdiction of the other court of common pleas; it shall be lawful for the judge or judges of the court wherein judgment shall have been obtained, to award execution to the sheriff of the other district, who, after getting the writ indorsed by one of the judges of the court for the district in which the goods, chattels, lands or tenements are situated, shall execute the same, and make return thereof to the court from which it issued; and such writ and return shall be, by him, sent to the sheriff of the district from whence the writ was originally awarded, to be delivered into the court that issued the same. The sheriff executing such writ, shall be answerable for his doings relative thereto, before the court from which it was originally awarded. And the judges of the court of common pleas for the one district, may in like manner, award execution against the body of a person residing in the other, in cases where such execution is by the law allowed; and the sheriff executing the writ to him in such case directed, shall convey the body of such person into the prison of the district wherein such person shall be arrested.

ART. XL.

That this ordinance shall continue and be in force, from and during two years from the first day of May next, and unto the end of the sessions of the legislative council which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven.

HENRY HAMILTON.

Ordnained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council, under the public seal of the province, at the council-chamber, in the castle of St. Lewis, in the City of Quebec, the twenty-first day of April, in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of our sovereign Lord, GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of GOD, of GREAT BRITAIN, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth, and in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five:

By the Lieutenant-governor's Command,

ANNO VICESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CHAP. III.

An ORDINANCE

Concerning Land Surveyors, and the admeasurement of Lands.

WHEREAS it is highly necessary, in order to secure to his majesty's subjects the peaceable possession of their landed property; by preventing frequent and vexatious suits; that such persons only should be appointed surveyors of land, as are properly qualified. And that all and every survey to be made, should be done and performed in a manner, the best to secure the rights of his majesty's subjects,

Be it therefore ordained and enacted, by his honor the lieutenant-governor and commander in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council thereof, and by the authority of the same, it is hereby ordained and enacted,

ART. I.

That a meridian line shall be properly drawn and marked, at the most convenient place, in or near the towns of Quebec, Three Rivers, and Montreal, by the surveyor, or deputy surveyor general of this province; and by which all surveyors shall regulate and rectify their several surveying instruments, once in every year at least, and in the presence of the surveyor or deputy surveyor general, or other person by them or either of them duly authorized for that purpose. And all and every surveyor of lands, is hereby required to demand and obtain, from the said surveyor or deputy surveyor general, or person authorized as abovesaid, a certificate, that their several instruments, to be used and employed in surveying, are good and sufficient. And in the certificate so to be granted, shall be set down and expressed, the variation found at the period of making such certificate as aforesaid.

ART. II.

That from and after the publication of this ordinance, no person shall act as a public surveyor of lands, nor be appointed to act as such, until he shall have been duly examined by the surveyor or deputy surveyor general, as to his fitness and capacity, his character, and the sufficiency of his instruments as above-said, and have obtained the certificate above-mentioned.

ART. III.

That all and every person to be commissioned and appointed to act as a land surveyor, for the districts of Quebec or Montreal, shall, before he enters upon the duties of such appointment, give good and sufficient security to his majesty, in the sum of fifty pounds, for the faithful discharge of his duty; and shall take the following oath, in his majesty's court of common pleas for the district wherein he may be appointed to act as above-said.

OATH.

I do solemnly swear, that I will well and truly “discharge my duty as a surveyor of lands, agreeable to law, “without favour, affection, or partiality, when, and as often as “thereto I may be required by any person or persons; or by the rule “and order of any court of justice, and that, without delay, unless “from some lawful impediment whereby I may be prevented, and “which I will faithfully and immediately submit to the party requiring, or the court directing, my duty, and a survey as abovesaid.”

ART. IV.

That all and every chain carrier shall take an oath, and be sworn on the holy Evangelists, to administer justly and exactly, according to the best of his knowledge, and to deliver a true account thereof to the surveyor, by whom he may be appointed to the performance of such duty. And which oath the surveyor, so nominating, is hereby authorized and required to tender and administer.

ART. V.

That the land measure shall be the same as before the year of our Lord 1760, in all grants of seigneuries and concessions therein, to that period.

ART. VI.

That all and every surveyor, who shall survey or measure lands, shall plainly mark and bound the lands so measured; that the boundary mark to be made on lands surveyed, between seignior and seignior, and the property of co-seignior and co-seignior, in any seignior, shall be of stone, of the length of one foot and an half at least, above the surface of the earth. And the boundary mark on lands, the property of persons holding under a seigneur, by title of concession, shall also be of stone, of one foot at least above the surface of the earth. And that, under every boundary mark, shall be placed, pieces of brick, or dross of iron, or pieces of earthen ware, conformable to the custom of the country in like cases.

ART. VII.

That all and every surveyor shall keep a book of registry of his several surveys, and also of the plot or land admeasured and surveyed. And in which registry shall be entered a minute detail of the proceedings of such surveyor, in the performance of his duty, upon every survey by him made, and from which registry copies shall be granted to persons therein concerned, in the manner following:

 the said _____ for the purposes therein mentioned.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

And if there should be found triangles in the surveying or measuring of any lands by their respective titles, the surveyor so surveying, shall particularly make mention of the same, in the survey and form of registry abovesaid. As also of curvilinear or mixtlineal figures and descriptions, and also of superficials, if it be necessary. Also if there be one or more rivers running across or through a seigniori, every surveyor, surveying and measuring the same, shall make mention, in his survey, of such rivers and their course, and also of the side of the river on which he shall have begun his survey.

ART. VIII.

That whosoever shall remove a boundary or land mark as abovementioned, without lawful authority so to do, shall be subject to an action of damages, to be instituted by the person injured, to recover such damages as the nature of the case may require, and also shall be liable to and pay a fine of twenty pounds; to be recovered by bill, plaint, or information, in his majesty's court of common pleas in the district where the offence may be committed. One moiety of such fine shall be paid to the receiver general of the province, for his majesty's use, and the other moiety, to the person who shall inform and sue for the same.

ART. IX.

That all and every person who at present may act, or may be desirous to be lawfully appointed to act, as a public land surveyor, shall, within three months from the publication of this ordinance, transmit to the office of the surveyor general of this province, his christian and surname, with the date of the commission or authority under which he hath acted, and by whom granted, that those only may be published in the gazette and authorized to act, as shall be approved of by the governor, lieutenant-governor or commander in chief upon the report of the surveyor general.

ART. X.

That on the death of any surveyor, his books of survey, and other books and papers relating thereto, shall be taken and considered as public records, of the court of common pleas, of the district wherein he may have acted as a surveyor; and shall be thereafter deposited of record in the clerk's office of the said court of common pleas, for the benefit of all his majesty's subjects; and to which they may, from time to time, freely have recourse, and on demand, may have copies thereof granted by the respective clerks of such courts, on payment of the legal and accustomed fees. That in case of the decease of any surveyor, and of his books and papers being so lodged as above-said, the widow or heirs of such surveyor shall annually be entitled to have a just account, and receive one half part of all fees for copies from the books and papers of such deceased surveyor, and for and during the space of five years from his decease.

HENRY HAMILTON.

Ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the public seal of the province, at the council-chamber, in the castle of St. Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the thirtieth day of April, in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the third, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth, and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five.

By the Lieutenant-governor's Command,

ALEX. GRAY, A. C. L. C.

ANNO VICESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CHAP. IV.

An ORDINANCE

Concerning Advocates, Attornies, Solicitors and Notaries, and for the more easy collection of his Majesty's Revenues.

WHEREAS the-welfare and tranquility of families, and the peace of individuals require, as an object of the greatest importance, that such persons only should be appointed to act and practise as barristers, advocates, attornies, solicitors, proctors and notaries, who are properly qualified to perform the duties of those respective employments, and that, under certain necessary and proper regulations.

Be it therefore ordained and enacted by his honor the lieutenant-governor and commander in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council thereof, and by the authority of the same, it is hereby ordained and enacted.

ART. I.

That from and after the publication of this ordinance, no person shall be commissioned, appointed or permitted to practise in any of his majesty's courts of civil jurisdiction in this province, as a barrister, advocate, solicitor, attorney or proctor at law, who shall not have, bona fide, served a regular and continued clerkship, for and during the space of five years, under a contract, in writing, for that purpose made and entered into, with some advocate or attorney duly admitted, and practising in the courts of civil judicature in this province; or in some other part of his majesty's dominions, or with some clerk or register of any court of common pleas, or court of appeals, within this province, for and during the space of six years. Unless such person shall have been already called to the bar, or intitled so to be, and to practise as an advocate or attorney, in some court of civil jurisdiction, within some part of his majesty's dominions. Neither shall any person so intitled to be commissioned, or admitted to practise as aforesaid, be commissioned or admitted, to practise in any of the several capacities abovesaid, until after he shall have been examined by some of the first and most able barristers, advocates and attornies of the courts of judicature in this province, in the presence of the chief justice, or two or more judges of some of his majesty's courts of common pleas, and that such person, so examined, shall be, by the said chief justice or judges, approved and certified to be of fit capacity and character to be admitted, to practise the law, in the several courts in this province.

ART. II.

That no person shall hereafter, be commissioned or appointed, a notary in this province, who shall not have bona fide served a regular and continued clerkship, for and during the space of five years, under a contract, in writing, for that purpose made and entered into, with some notary; duly commissioned and appointed, and practising as such. And until after such person so serving a continued clerkship shall have been examined by some of the eldest notaries and practitioners in that science, in the presence of the chief justice or two or more judges of his majesty's court of common pleas of the district, wherein such person may have so served his clerkship, and be approved in manner abovesaid, as a person of fit capacity and character, to be commissioned and admitted to act and practise as a notary, in this province. And all and every notary with whom any person may serve a continued clerkship as abovesaid, shall give due proof, when required, of the service performed.

ART. III.

That from and after the publication of this ordinance, all and every notary is, and are hereby directed, to collect and place, in regular and due order, all and every the minutes of acts and contracts, that may have been, or may be passed before them, in the proper order of time in which such acts may have been, or may be passed: And shall select and put up the minutes and writings, of what nature soever, of every year's transactions and acts, in separate bundles folded and covered with strong paper, in the manner of a register, and on the back of which shall be indorsed, the general contents of each bundle, and the year in which the same may have been made or done.

And that the register as abovesaid, of every notary, shall be open, to legal inspection, for examining the legal state thereof. And if on such examination, to be made at reasonable periods, it shall be found, that any notary hath neglected obedience to this article, or that his registers are irregular and imperfectly kept and preserved, he shall be deprived of the office of notary, and held and considered as disqualified to pass any future act.

ART. IV.

And all and every notary are hereby required, strictly to comply with the ancient laws of this province, which respect the passing of acts before them, or any of them, as notaries; and by which the validity of such their acts will be considered and adjudged.

ART. V.

That from and after the decease of any notary, his minutes, registers, books and acts, by him passed and preserved, as and relating to the duties of a notary, shall be held and considered as public records, of the court of common pleas, of the district wherein he may have acted as a notary; and shall be forthwith deposited in the clerk's office of the said court of common pleas, of record, for the benefit of his majesty's subjects, who may have legal interest therein.

That upon the decease of any notary, as abovesaid, the clerk of the court of common pleas of the district wherein the said deceased notary shall have resided, shall repair to the office of such deceased notary, and demand the records abovesaid; and shall upon delivery, take a regular account of the same, and in an inventory thereof, to be by him made, shall specify every particular minute, act, book, and paper, by him received, and shall sign and record the same, in the said court of common pleas, and shall deliver a copy of the said inventory to the person from whom he may receive the several minutes, acts, books, and papers as abovesaid.

That all and every clerk of any court so receiving the minutes, books and papers of any deceased notary, shall preserve a regular account of all fees, which may be by him received for copies of any act so passed by such deceased notary; and shall, once every quarter of the year for and during five years only, pay unto the widow or heirs of such deceased notary, one moiety of all fees, which may be so received as abovesaid.

ART VI.

And whereas it has been found expedient, that notaries and clerks of courts should not be permitted to practise in any of his majesty's courts of civil jurisdiction within this province, as barristers, advocates, solicitors, attornies, or proctors at law, and that land surveyors should not hold and exercise the functions of notaries. Be it therefore enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, that no person shall hereafter be appointed, commissioned, or admitted to practise, in any court in this province, as a barrister, advocate, solicitor, attorney, or proctor at law, or be, or act as the clerk of any court, who may be a notary. Nor shall any person be appointed or permitted to act as public land surveyor, who may be a notary. But that these several occupations of practising the law, in his majesty's courts in this province, and of being a clerk therein; and of notary; and of land surveyor, shall be held and exercised separately, and by different persons, to the intent and purpose that the functions and duties of the one may not interfere with the other.

And that all and every person, who at present may hold any two of the above appointments, and may exercise the joint functions and duties of those respective offices or trusts, are hereby required, that within twelve months from the publication of this ordinance, he and they, do elect and make choice of the one of these employments, commissions or offices, which he or they may be desirous to hold, exercise, and enjoy; and to transmit and file with the clerk of the court of common pleas of the district wherein such person may exercise the said employments and functions, such his election and choice.

ART. VII.

And it is hereby further ordained and enacted, that from and after the period of such choice and election taken and made as abovesaid, no person being a notary, shall be permitted to plead, or practise as a barrister, advocate, solicitor, attorney, or proctor at law, in any court in this province, or directly or indirectly to sue out any writ or process whatever, or commence, carry on, or defend, any action or suit in the name or on behalf of any other person, whether by original writ, or on appeal, in any of his majesty's courts within this province: on pain of being disqualified from acting and exercising the functions of a notary as abovesaid.

And all persons who may practise in any of the said courts as a barrister, advocate, attorney, solicitor or proctor, twelve months after the publication of this ordinance, or after the choice and election abovesaid, are hereby disqualified from passing any acts or deeds, or doing any other matter or thing in the capacity of a legal notary.

ART. VIII.

That during the period abovesaid, and until the choice and election aforesaid, all and every person holding the two commissions as abovesaid, and exercising the functions thereof, are hereby disqualified and prohibited from suing out any writ or process, or appearing in any court of justice, and there to plead or defend, or otherwise act as a barrister, advocate, counsel, attorney, or proctor in any matter or cause, wherein any act passed before such person as a notary, may be objected to, controverted, disputed, or called in question.

And all and every person, being an advocate, attorney, solicitor or proctor at law, and notary, who may have conducted, pleaded or been counselled, and have advised, in and concerning any matter in dispute, before any court of justice, is and are hereby prohibited and disqualified to pass any act as a notary, between the parties aforesaid, and wherein the matter that hath been or may be in dispute may, in any wise enter into or make any part of such act or transaction, so to be passed as abovesaid.

ART. IX.

Provided always, that all and every notary who shall comply with and perform the third article of this ordinance; and who, at or before the expiration of twelve months as abovesaid, may make his choice and election to be, remain, and act as a barrister, advocate, attorney, solicitor and proctor, or in any one of the said employments, shall and may hold and enjoy the benefit of keeping and preserving his study, and several minutes and acts by him passed, when notary as abovesaid, and of making and delivering copies of the same, when legally required, and on payment of the lawful fees. And that after his decease, the books, minutes, acts, registers and papers of such notary, shall become public records, in the manner prescribed by the fifth article of the present ordinance.

ART. X.

And for the better collecting of his majesty's rights and dues, which may arise and grow due by mutation fines, and lots et ventes, and quints.

Be it also enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every person exercising the functions and duties of a legal notary, within this province, shall regularly and duly every three months in every year, commencing on the first day of August next, send and transmit to the receiver-general of the king's domain (or to the person lawfully authorized to perform the duties of receiver-general in the city of Quebec) an abstract of all and every deed of sale, or act equivalent to sale, and deeds of exchange and deeds of gift, subject to life-rent or charge; on pain of five pounds for every neglect, to be recovered by bill, plaint or information in any of his majesty's courts of common-pleas in this province, to be paid to his majesty's receiver-general, and applied to the public uses of the province.

And for every such abstract, the notary making and transmitting the same, shall be entitled to receive from his majesty's said receiver-general, one shilling and three pence and no more.

ART. XI.

And also, that all and every sheriff, and the several clerks of the prerogative courts, in the separate districts of this province, shall, in like manner, and under the same pains and penalties, for neglect or disobedience, send and transmit to the receiver-general as abovesaid, abstracts of all and every sale by auction, or otherwise, by them made, under process of any of his majesty's courts, to them or either of them directed. And also of sales by licitation or judicial order and decree, and whereby any rights and dues may accrue to his majesty's revenue, for each of which abstracts they shall in like manner be entitled to have and receive one shilling and three pence and no more.

HENRY HAMILTON.

Ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the public seal of the province, at the council chamber, in the castle of St. Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the thirtieth day of April, in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the third, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth, and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five.

AN ORDINANCE

For granting a limited civil power and jurisdiction to his majesty's justices of the peace in the remote parts of this province.

WHEREAS it is expedient, for the ease and convenience of his majesty's subjects, who have settled or may settle, in the upper parts of this province, from and above point au Baudet, on the north-side of lake St. Francis, to the head of the bay of Quintiz, on lake Ontario; and in the lower parts of the province, from and below cape Rosier, in the gulf of St. Lawrence, to the river Richtigouche, or the eastern boundary of this province; that his majesty's justices of the peace should be authorized to hear and determine causes for the recovery of small debts, respecting personal rights and property; and until such time as permanent establishments may be made in the said districts and settlements, for the better administration of justice.

Be it therefore ordained and enacted by his honor the lieutenant-governor and commander in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council thereof, and by the authority of the same, it is hereby ordained and enacted,

ART. I.

That from and after the first day of September next ensuing, any one of his majesty's justices of the peace shall have lawful authority, in the districts above-mentioned, to issue one or more writs of summons, to call before him any person or persons residing within either of the said districts above-described, where such writ may issue; and to hear and determine any cause or matter of dispute, for the recovery of any debt respecting personal estate, where the sum demanded may exceed two shillings and six pence, and may not exceed forty shillings. And that any two of his majesty's justices of the peace, may in like manner, in the districts aforesaid, issue one or more writs of summons, and hear and determine any cause, as above-said, respecting personal rights, for the recovery of debts, where the sum demanded may exceed forty shillings, and may not exceed five pounds.

ART. II.

That the judgments which may be made, by one or more of his majesty's justices of the peace, on any matter before him or them as abovesaid, shall be held and considered as conclusive and final, and that no appeal shall be allowed therefrom.

ART. III.

That the said justice or justices may issue one or more writs of execution in his majesty's name, to levy the debt adjudged, together with costs of suit; which costs shall not exceed the sum of three shillings, in the first case, nor the sum of five shillings, in the second case.

ART. IV.

Provided always that such execution so to be issued, shall be, to levy the debt and costs from the personal estate of the debtor, and by such instalments as the magistrate or magistrates, before whom judgment may be awarded, may judge reasonable. And provided also, that the time allowed shall not, in the whole, exceed more than four months from the date of the judgment awarded.

HENRY HAMILTON.

Ordnained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the public seal of the province, at the council-chamber, in the castle of St. Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the thirtieth day of April, in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the third, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth, and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five.

CHAP. VI.

An ORDINANCE

To prevent the exportation of unmerchantable flour, and the false taring of bread and flour casks.

BE it ordnained and enacted, by his honour the lieutenant-governor and commander in chief of this province, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council thereof, and by the authority of the same, it is hereby ordnained and enacted,

ART. I.

That every bolter of flour, or baker of bread, for exportation, from any part of this province, shall each, provide and have a separate and distinguishable brand mark, and shall therewith brand each and every cask of flour or biscuit, of his own bolting or baking, for exportation, as abovesaid, before the same shall be removed from the place where such flour or biscuit shall have been packed, or put into casks for exportation, under the penalty of one shilling for every cask so removed, and not branded as aforesaid.

ART. II.

That every bolter and baker, who may bolt or manufacture flour, or bake biscuit, for exportation, shall, prior to the use of any brand-mark as abovesaid, enter, with the clerk of the peace for the district where such bolter or baker may reside, such his brand-mark or marks, together with his name and place of abode; and the said clerk is hereby directed to record the same, in a book to be kept for that special purpose; and for which registry he shall receive one shilling, and no more: And that every bolter or baker, neglecting to record his brand-mark as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the sum of forty shillings.

ART. III.

That all wheat and flour, so bolted and manufactured for exportation, as afore-said, shall, by the bolter thereof, be made merchantable, and of due fineness, and honestly and well packed, in good strong casks, well made, of staves well seasoned, and bound with ten hoops, and the tare of the cask shall be marked thereon. And that, from and after the first day of September, in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, each cask shall contain one quintal and one quarter, one quintal and two quarters, one quintal and three quarters, or two quintals, of one hundred and twelve pounds, English weight, each: And each and every cask, shall be well and sufficiently nailed, before the same may be removed from the place where packed. And if any bolter or baker, shall offend in all or any of the premises, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of one shilling for each cask.

ART. IV.

That if any person or persons, shall put a false or wrong tare on any cask of flour or bread, to the disadvantage of any purchaser of the same, the person so offending, shall forfeit and pay for every such cask, so falsely tared as aforesaid, the sum of three shillings.

ART. V.

That no person or persons, shall ship any flour for exportation as aforesaid, until the same shall have been inspected and examined, by some one of the officers or inspectors, who may be hereafter appointed for that purpose, by his majesty's courts of quarter sessions of the peace, for the respective districts of Quebec and Montreal. And the said inspectors, are hereby severally authorized and required, to search, try, and examine the said flour, so packed for exportation, by boring the head of the cask, and piercing through the flour, with an instrument to be contrived for that purpose, in order to prove whether it be honestly and truly packed, and to judge of its goodness. And the said inspector shall afterwards plug up the hole. And if the said inspector shall find and judge the said flour, so examined, to be of a proper fineness and merchantable, according to the directions of this ordinance, he shall brand every such cask of flour on the quarter, in a fair and distinguishable manner, with the name of the place where shipped, and the initial letters of his christian and surname, and for which trouble the inspector shall receive, from the purchaser, two pence per cask and no more.

ART. VI.

That, if any dispute shall arise between any of the said inspectors and the proprietor of such flour, so examined, concerning the fineness or goodness thereof, upon application made to any one of his majesty's justice of the peace, he shall, and is hereby required, to hear and receive the opinion of three persons of skill and integrity; that each of the said parties may name one of the said three persons, and the third to be named and appointed by the magistrate as aforesaid. That the said three persons shall be duly sworn, carefully to examine the said flour, and make their report to the said magistrate forthwith, according to the true state in which they find the same. And if, in the opinion of the said three persons, or any two of them, the said flour is not fit to be exported, the said magistrate shall issue an order, in writing, to the owner or holder thereof, that the said flour shall not be exported, on pain of forfeiture; and if exported, contrary to the said order, the exporter thereof shall forfeit, and be liable to pay the full value thereof. And the said magistrate shall award and order the owner of the said flour, to pay unto the inspector, two pence for each cask of flour, judged unfit for exportation as aforesaid, with reasonable costs and charges. But if, in the opinion of the said three persons, or any two of them, the said flour shall be found good, and merchantable, according to the directions of this ordinance, the charges of inspection shall be borne and paid by the inspector or purchaser, as whose request the examination was made.

ART. VII.

That the said several inspectors, so to be appointed, shall have full power, and lawful authority, by virtue of this ordinance, to enter on board of any ship or vessel, in which any flour is loading, for exportation, and the same to search and examine; and if on searching, he or they shall discover any cask or casks of flour, that may not be branded in manner as before directed, the same shall be forfeited, and so held and adjudged. And the master of such ship or vessel, who shall have received on board his vessel, such cask or casks of flour, not branded as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay, for each cask so received as aforesaid, the sum of ten shillings. And if the master or commander of any ship or vessel, or any of his servants or seamen, shall obstruct or prevent any inspector or inspectors in making such search as aforesaid, every person so offending shall forfeit the sum of thirty pounds.

ART. VIII.

That all and every inspector, so to be appointed as is directed by this ordinance, shall, before entering upon the duties of his said office, take and subscribe the following oath, in the court of quarter sessions, or before any one of his majesty's justice of the peace, for the district wherein he may be so appointed:

OATH.

“ I do solemnly swear, that I will faithfully and impartially, and according to the best of my judgment, skill and understanding, execute, do, and perform the office and duty of an inspector, and examiner of flour, according to the true intent and meaning of an ordinance of this province, intituled, An ordinance to prevent the exportation of unmerchantable flour, and the false taring of bread and flour. So help me God.”

ART. IX.

That no inspector shall purchase, or cause to be purchased, any flour, condemned by himself or any other inspector, as unmerchantable, under the penalty of thirty pounds.

ART. X.

That if any inspector, on any application to him, to attend survey, and examine flour as above-said (and who shall not, at the time of such application be employed in the examination of flour) shall neglect, or delay, to proceed to such survey and examination, for the space of three hours, after application made, the inspector, so neglecting or refusing, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of forty shillings.

ART. XI.

That any person or persons, who shall counterfeit any of the aforesaid brand-marks, or brand the same on any cask of flour, or shall empty any cask of flour, branded by the inspector as aforesaid, in order to put therein other flour, for sale or exportation, without first cutting out the said brand-mark; the said person or persons so offending, shall severally, for every offence, forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred pounds.

ART. XII.

That all and every fine and forfeiture, which may be incurred and inflicted by this ordinance, may be sued, prosecuted for, and recovered, by bill, plaint, or information, in any of his majesty's courts of common pleas in this province; the one half whereof shall be paid to his majesty's receiver-general, for his majesty's use, and the other half to the informer or person suing for the same.

CHAP. I.¹

AN ORDINANCE

To regulate the proceedings in certain cases in the Court of King's Bench, and to give the subject the benefit of Appeal from Large Fines.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is difficult to find jurors in the towns of Quebec and Montreal, who are proprietors of freehold, It is enacted by His Excellency the Governor and Legislative Council, That in all inquests and trials by jury in criminal cases, it shall be no good challenge or exception that the juror is not a freeholder, if such juror, being otherwise qualified, is in the actual possession of lands, tenements, or real estate, charged with, and paying an annual rent of fifteen pounds or upwards, and upon any such inquest or trial the defect of the pannel in petty jurors, so qualified, may be supplied, as often as it happens, by a tales, as in other ordinary cases, at the discretion of the court, in such manner as the said court shall adjudge proper, to give the party prosecuted, in any criminal cause, jurors, for his trial, one half of whom, at the least, may in the judgment of the court, be competently skilled in the language of his defence, if the same be either the English or French language.

Qualifications of jurors in criminal cases.

Terms of the King's Bench limited to ten days.

Be it also enacted by the same authority, That the terms thereof be limited to ten days from the first day inclusive, and that the return days in the terms be such as the said court shall by rule or order fix and appoint. And if it shall so happen that offenders brought up from very remote distances of the Western Country in the district of Montreal, or the witnesses may not arrive in time for the trials, while the Court is sitting at Montreal, then the bodies of the prisoners and their causes may be carried to Quebec, and be there proceeded in, to trial, judgment and execution, as fully to all intents and purposes as the same might have been had in the said district of Montreal, and by a jury of the same, and the witnesses be as compellable to attend at Quebec as they were before to appear at Montreal, and new recognizances may be taken for that purpose accordingly.

Offenders and witnesses from remote distances of the district of Montreal, to be brought down to Quebec for trial, in certain cases.

Appeal to the king in council from large fines.

*And inasmuch as his Majesty in his great grace to the subject, has been pleased to signify it to be his royal pleasure, that appeals be admitted to himself in privy council in all cases of fines imposed for misdemeanors, provided the fines so imposed amount to, or exceed the sum of one hundred pounds sterling, the appellant first giving good security that he will effectually prosecute the same and answer the condemnation, if the sentence, by which such fine was imposed in this province, be affirmed: *Be it therefore enacted by the same authority, That as often as such case may happen, the execution, and all proceedings in the nature of execution, shall be stayed, as to such fine, whenever such security shall be offered by recognizance filed for that purpose, and that whenever a doubt shall arise concerning the suffi- ciency of the security, it shall be deemed to be valid, and stay execution, unless the governor or commander in chief for the time being, shall in twenty days from the filing of the said recognizance, certify in writing to the court his disapprobation of the security so offered, and so totes quoties, until sufficient security shall be given in manner aforesaid.

CHAP. II.¹

AN ORDINANCE

For better regulating the MILITIA of this province, and rendering it of more general utility towards the preservation and security thereof.

WHEREAS the security of the state is the first principle in every well regulated government, Be it enacted and ordained by his excellency the governor and the legislative council of this province, and by the authority of the same it is hereby enacted and ordained,

ARTICLE I.

That all persons resident within this province, as well in the towns as in the country, from the age of sixteen years to sixty, are hereby declared to be militia-men, and bound to serve in the militia of the parish or township, or seigniory wherein they reside; and from and after the day of the publication of this ordinance, every person (excepting such as are herein after excepted) refusing to serve, or neglecting, for the space of one calender month, to get himself inrolled by the captains of militia, who are or hereafter shall be appointed by his excellency the captain-general or commander in chief for the time being, within the different parishes, or townships or seigniories, shall forfeit the sum of five pounds; and for every subsequent refusal he shall forfeit the sum of five pounds, and suffer one month's imprisonment.

ARTICLE. II

That all captains of militia shall within two months after the publication of this ordinance, transmit to the colonel of militia of their district, or in case of his absence to the senior field officer, a roll of the number of officers and militia men fit for service in their respective companies; and also a list of infirm persons, of those above the age of sixty years, and of every other person residing within their respective precincts, notwithstanding they may not be liable to serve in the militia, together with the names of those who shall have declined getting themselves enrolled; and they shall continue to transmit such rolls and lists, stating such changes as may have happened, to their colonel of militia or senior field officer, in the course of the month of March in every year, to be by them reported to his excellency the captain-general, or the commander in chief, for the time being.

¹ Quebec Gazette, April 26, 1787.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a.

ARTICLE III.

No militia-man belonging to any of the country parishes shall absent himself for more than a month, nor change his place of residence, without first giving notice thereof to the captain or other commanding officer of the company he belongs to, declaring to him the place to which he is going, under a penalty of forty shillings. And every person who shall go to settle or to hire himself in another parish, and shall not get inrolled by the captain or other commanding officer there, within the space of eight days, at farthest, after his arrival, mentioning the parish and company of militia to which he previously belonged, shall incur a penalty of ten shillings; and if he neglects getting himself enrolled there for the space of fifteen days after his arrival, he shall forfeit the sum of thirty shillings and suffer two months imprisonment.

ARTICLE IV.

The captains or other commanding officers shall assemble their respective companies of militia, on such day in the two first weeks of the months, between the last of May and the first of September in every year, as shall be directed from the commander in chief by the colonel, or senior field officer of the district, and in case of bad weather on the day appointed, on such other day in the same weeks of those months as the captains shall fix, in order to review their arms, make them fire at marks, and instruct them in their exercise. Such militia-men as are already armed, as well as all others who shall hereafter get arms and will not bring them to such review, those who shall be guilty of disobedience there, or who shall leave the place of rendezvous without being regularly dismissed, shall incur a penalty of five shillings for every offence.

Such militia-men as shall not attend on the days fixed for exercise (unless they are prevented by sickness, or upon good cause assigned shall have obtained leave of absence from the captain or commanding officer of the company) shall incur a penalty of ten shillings, and for every repetition of the offence he shall forfeit the sum of twenty shillings.

ARTICLE V.

Whereas circumstances may render it expedient for the security of the frontiers, that a body of well-disciplined militia should be held in readiness, It is enacted and ordained, by the same authority, That his excellency the captain-general, or in his absence the commander in chief, may whenever he shall judge it expedient, draw out and embody detachments from such companies of militia as he in his discretion shall think proper, in an equal proportion, to march and be employed, under such officers as he shall appoint, for any space of time not exceeding two years.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

ARTICLE VI.

Whenever his excellency the captain-general, or the commander in chief, shall have issued his orders to embody detachments, in the manner directed by the foregoing article, and shall have approved the distribution made by the field officer charged with that duty; the captains of militia, in obedience to the orders they may receive, shall forthwith assemble their companies, and make out a roll of the unmarried men, from the age of eighteen years to forty-five, being able-bodied, healthy, and fit for the service destined for them; and from such roll, the captain or senior officer shall command, or ballot for, if the captain-general or commander in chief should judge fit so to direct, the number required to be furnished from his company, and the men so commanded or balloted for, shall have four days to prepare themselves, at the expiration of which time they shall present themselves at the house of the captain or other commanding officer of the company, who shall cause them to be conducted to the place of rendezvous specified in the said orders. And if any militia-man thus commanded or balloted, refuses to obey, or conceals himself, in such case the captain or senior officer shall command the next upon the roll, or ballot for a person fit for the service, and so on, until the number fixed for that company is completed. If upon this occasion, or even upon any other occurrence, it should happen that there be not a sufficient number of unmarried men in a company, to furnish the quota required, in that case, the married men under the age of forty shall be commanded on the detachment or balloted for the purpose, and be obliged to march, in the same manner, as is above directed to be done by unmarried men.

And whereas the safety of the province depends much upon the due observance of this article, It is further enacted and ordained, by the same authority, That all militia-men, commanded for detachments, or balloted for that purpose, who shall not present themselves at the place of rendezvous fixed by the order, or shall desert, either before or after being assembled, shall be liable to be apprehended by any order of the captains or other commanding officers of the parishes to which they may have absconded, who are hereby authorized and enjoined to cause such militia-men to be apprehended and brought before the colonel of militia, or senior field officer, nearest at hand, who, jointly with any two field-officers, is, and are hereby likewise authorized to hear and examine them, and if they shall find them guilty, to condemn such militia-men respectively to pay a fine of ten pounds, and be imprisoned for one month. And after the expiration of such imprisonment, they shall be obliged to take the place of those serving in their stead, who shall then be discharged, and exempted from such command or balloting, until all the militia-men of the company shall have taken their turn of duty.

All those who shall have been fined and imprisoned, and who shall refuse to take up the place of those who marched for them, or who shall repeat their desertion, shall incur a penalty of twenty pounds and three months imprisonment, by sentence of the colonel and two field officers of the district, as abovesaid.

ARTICLE VII.

It shall and may be lawful for any militia-man commanded or balloted for a detachment, to put another man in his place, upon condition that he himself presents his substitute, personally, to the colonel of militia of the district, who shall give him a written discharge, provided he approves of the substitute offered as being capable for the service required; in which case, it shall be considered that the militia-man has taken his turn of duty; but the substitute shall not after the time of service is over, be exempted from being commanded, or balloted for again, in his own turn, equally with the rest of his company.

ARTICLE VIII.

All militia-men who shall decline doing the duties required of them when serving in detachments, or shall disobey their officers while they are under their command, shall be summoned before the field officers of the detachment, who are hereby authorized to hear and adjudge the offender such punishment as the circumstances of the case may require, not extending to corporal punishment beyond imprisonment for one month.

ARTICLE IX.

The captains and other officers of militia are hereby authorized and required to apprehend all deserters, whether soldiers, militia-men, or seamen, all disorderly persons, vagabonds and persons sowing dissension or disturbing the public tranquility; and whoever shall harbour or lodge any persons of the above description, without giving immediate notice to the captain or some other officer of the company, shall for the first offence incur a penalty of five pounds and suffer one month's imprisonment; and in case of a repetition thereof, double the penalty, and double the time of imprisonment. For the future, all deserters who shall have been apprehended, as well as all disorderly persons, vagabonds and others of the above description, shall be brought from captain to captain, under the charge of an officer or serjeant, and a sufficient number of militia-men, who shall be ordered upon that duty by the respective captains, or commanding officers, before the colonel of militia or other field-officer nearest at hand, who shall deal with such offender as the law directs. The militia-men commanded for that duty, who are always to be married men, shall march with their firelocks and with at least four rounds of ammunition, and those who shall disobey or suffer any prisoner committed to their charge to escape thro' negligence, shall incur a penalty of twenty shillings; and if it shall be proved that the escape happened through design, they shall, besides incurring a penalty of five pounds, suffer imprisonment for one month.

ARTICLE X.

The captains of militia shall keep a roll of the names of all those who may be employed upon any service, and shall give the officer or serjeant conducting the detachment, a duplicate of it, to which shall be added the names of those who may have missed their turn, and explaining therein the cause of it, whether on account of absence, sickness, or for any and what other reason. And as one of the surest means for preventing abuses, the field-officers who are charged with any particular duties shall keep a registry book, in which shall be inserted the names and surnames of every militia-man employed in the detachment, and the parishes to which they belong.

All captains and other officers of militia who shall be convicted before the colonel and any two field-officers of having acted with partiality, by exempting any persons, without being authorized so to do, or of having misused their authority, from pique or resentment, shall incur a penalty of five pounds, their commissions shall be annulled, and they shall be constrained to serve as common militia-men.

ARTICLE XI.

Whereas it may happen among the number of militia-men serving on detachments, that some of them may have lands in cultivation which might suffer in their absence, It is therefore ordained and enacted by the same authority, That the captains or commanding officers of parishes, when such cases happen, are hereby authorized to command and order all persons settled within their precincts, to do or cause to be done by corvée, under the direction of an officer or serjeant, the husbandry of such militia-men who are absent upon detachments, that is to say, to plough and sow their arable land, make and uphold their fences and ditches, house their crop of hay and corn, and to keep in a tenantable condition their buildings. And if it should happen that any of the said militia-men employed on detachments should have left their families without one person in each house, capable of doing the ordinary household business, the parishes shall in like manner be obliged to provide for them, as is before directed for the tillage of their land. And whosoever shall neglect or refuse to act and to obey, in those services, or to find a man in his place who is capable of doing the work assigned, shall incur a penalty of twenty shillings for every neglect or refusal.

The captains or other officers commanding companies, who shall be convicted of having neglected to cause the different business of such militia-men to be done with due precaution, and at a proper season, shall incur a penalty of fifty shillings and be deprived of their commissions.

ARTICLE XII.

In all cases where the mode of prosecution for the fines and penalties inflicted by this ordinance has not been particularly directed, it is hereby declared that wherever a fine or penalty imposed shall not exceed the sum of forty shillings, any one field officer of the militia of the district where the offence shall have been committed; and where it shall exceed that sum, and the offender be liable to be imprisoned, or that the breaking of an officer is in question, the colonel, with two field officers, or any three field officers of the district where the offence shall have been committed, is, and are hereby authorized upon an information brought before him or them, to take cognizance of, and summarily to hear all offences done in contravention of this ordinance, and to inflict the penalties thereof; to be recovered by warrant under his or their hands and seals, and to render the monies so to be levied into the hands of the colonel of the district, who is to be accountable for the same. Subject nevertheless, in cases where the penalties shall amount to, or exceed ten pounds, and where there shall be a condemnation to more than one month's imprisonment, or the breaking of an officer, to an appeal before the captain general, or in his absence to the commander in chief, who is hereby authorized to hear and determine the same definitely.

ARTICLE XIII.

The colonels of militia, as well as the field officers of the different districts, shall always have an open register, containing therein the names of those who shall have been fined and punished, naming the parish to which they belong, mentioning the dates, and the sums which they shall have paid, the space of time they shall have been kept in prison, the causes for which they shall have been condemned, and at whose instance; together with the names of the field officers who shall have been present on each occasion.

ARTICLE XIV.

The members of his majesty's council, the judges, the commissioners or justices of the peace, the seigniors who are seigneurs primitifs, the noblesse, officers on half-pay, the religious communities, and the clergy in general, are exempted from serving in the militia, and may each of them have one man servant who shall likewise be exempted; clerks of courts, advocates, attornies, notaries, physicians, surgeons and apothecaries duly authorized to act as such, custom-house officers, the students of the seminary or college at Quebec and Montreal, school-masters duly authorized, one master of a post-house, and one assistant to him in each parish, are also exempted from serving in the militia. Millers and one beadle in each parish are likewise exempted from the same services. Captains of militia, the sisters of the congregation, and millers shall have one man servant, and masters of post-houses shall have two men servants exempted. Captains of militia who have honourably retired from the service shall, with one man servant, be exempted from serving in the militia, and the widows of captains of militia, during their widowhood shall enjoy the same privileges; as likewise all others whom the captain general or commander in chief shall specially exempt, under his hand and seal; together with all such persons as are under or above the age prescribed in this ordinance, the settlement of which question, as well as of every other relative to the age of persons as mentioned herein, is hereby left to the captain of the company in the parish to which he belongs.

ARTICLE XV.

And be it further enacted by the same authority, That the several fines and forfeitures afore-mentioned, which are hereby granted and reserved to his majesty, his heirs and successors, for the public uses of this province, and the support of the government thereof, may be applied in the whole, or a proportion thereof, in such manner as the governor, or commander in chief of the province, for the time being, shall conceive to be most conducive to the services by this ordinance intended to be promoted and executed. And that the same, and the expenditures thereof shall be accounted for to his majesty, his heirs and successors, or to the commissioners of his majesty's treasury for the time being, and audited by his majesty's auditor general for the plantations, or his deputy.

DORCHESTER.

Enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the public seal of the province, at the council-chamber in the castle of Saint Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the twenty-third day of April, in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the THIRD, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth; and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven.

By his EXCELLENCY'S Command,

J. WILLIAMS, C. L. C

Anno Vicesimo Septimo GEORGE III. Regis.

CHAP. III.¹

For quartering the troops upon certain occasions, in the country parishes, and providing for the conveyance of effects belonging to government.

EXPERIENCE having demonstrated that, on account of the local position of this province, it is indispensably necessary, upon certain occasions, to quarter the troops at the houses of the country inhabitants; and that, for the same reason, it is impossible to convey, at all times, the ammunition, provisions, and other effects of government, to the different stores or magazines, without the assistance of the inhabitants, It is enacted and ordained by his excellency the governor, and the legislative council,

ARTICLE I.

That all house-holders, in the country parishes, who shall not be particularly exempted by this ordinance, shall be obliged to lodge troops, furnish carriages, and serve as battoe-men, whenever they shall be thereunto required by the captains of militia, in the manner herein after mentioned, that is to say,

Whenever the troops or militia are upon a march, the commanding officer of the battalion, or detachment, shall present to the captains of militia, or other senior officers of the parishes, the order he may have had on the part of the captain general or commander in chief, and where, upon extraordinary cases, an order could not be procured, he shall make a requisition in writing, to the said captains or other senior officers; who thereupon, without loss of time, shall so billet the troops, as to facilitate their march, and in the manner the most commodious to the inhabitants. The commanding officer of the battalion or detachment, is authorized, upon the march, to require from the captains of militia two carriages for his own use, two for the field officers, and four for every fifty men: the carriages shall be relieved, in succession from parish to parish, unless it shall be expressed in the order that they are to accompany the troops to the end of their day's march; and the said captains or senior officers are hereby authorized to command, in their respective parishes, a supply of such carriages. Whosoever shall neglect or refuse to lodge troops or furnish carriages as herein before is expressed, shall forfeit the sum of twenty shillings; and for a second offence, as well as for every subsequent offence, such person shall forfeit the sum of five pounds, or suffer imprisonment for any space of time not exceeding fifteen days.

ARTICLE II.

When the troops or militia are obliged to be cantoned in the winter, in the country parishes, the field officer ordered upon that duty by the captain general, or commander in chief, shall apportion the number to be quartered in each parish, and send his orders accordingly to the captains of militia, who shall regulate the quarters, both for the officers and soldiers, discreetly avoiding to incommode the inhabitants in their houses, but taking due care to accommodate the troops. The quarters being once established, the captain is to make a report thereof, and they are not to be changed without his acquiescence. Two soldiers only are to be lodged in each house, and one only in the houses of the poorest inhabitants. The inhabitants shall furnish them with a straw bed, coverlets or blankets, and a pair of sheets to be changed once in every month, with room at their fire and by their lights, and with permission to cook their victuals.

The officers shall be provided with a room or apartment, such as it may happen to be, but it shall not be that of the inhabitant himself, with a table, three chairs, and a bed for a servant, such as for a soldier; they shall have the use of the fire-place of the inhabitant, as well for warming, as having their victuals dressed by it; and if they should chuse to have a fire in their own apartment, all the inhabitants of the parish, according to an apportionment to be made by the captain of militia or senior officer, shall be obliged to furnish firewood, according to the rank of the officers agreeable to such regulations as the captain general, or commander in chief of the province shall make. The captains or senior officers of militia, shall likewise provide quarters for the guard, taking care that the situation be the most advantageous to the troops, and this guard is to be furnished with firewood in the same manner as it is directed to be done for the officers.

If the commanding officers of regiments or detachments in cantonments should have occasion for carriages for the service, they shall make their requisition in writing to the captains of militia, specifying the service; who shall issue their orders for the purpose.

Every person who shall disobey any of the clauses contained in this article (not being exempted therefrom by this ordinance) shall be fined ten shillings for the first offence, and twenty for every subsequent offence.

ARTICLE III.

If the troops should be guilty of any disorderly behaviour, either upon the march, or when in cantonments, the person injured, shall without delay make his complaint, supported by proof, to the captain of militia or the senior officer of the company to which he belongs, who shall forthwith conduct him before the officer commanding the troops in that parish. If such officer shall decline doing him justice, the complaint shall be laid before the commanding officer of the next principal post; and if satisfaction should not there be obtained, the complaint shall be carried to the colonel of the district, or senior field officer, who shall lay the same before the captain general, or commander in chief for his decision thereof.

ARTICLE IV.

It is further enacted and ordained, That all the country inhabitants and householders, who are not exempted by this ordinance, shall furnish carriages, and serve as battoe-men, every one in his turn of duty, in the manner herein after mentioned, whenever they shall be required so to do by their captains of militia, in consequence of the orders of government. The carters living in the towns and suburbs shall be obliged to furnish carriages in their turn.

In all cases where the government shall be under the necessity of procuring carts, sledges, or other carriages for conveying provisions, ammunition, baggage or other effects, agreeably to the orders of the captain general or commander in chief, the commissary of the district, directing that service, shall transmit his orders, mentioning the place of rendezvous, to the captains of militia, who will respectively command the number required: the loading upon each carriage shall in no case exceed six hundred weight according to the state of the roads, and shall be carried from parish to parish, unless the captain-general or commander in chief, judging it necessary for the good of the service, shall give order that they be employed for the whole day, or longer, if the case should require it.

When the conveyance is to be made by water, the battoe-men shall have two days, from the time they are commanded, to prepare themselves for the service; at the expiration of which time they shall present themselves at the dwelling-house of their respective captains, who will cause them to be conducted by an officer or serjeant to the place described in the order.

All persons who shall neglect or refuse to furnish carriages, or to march upon the battoe service, according to the directions mentioned in this article, as well as those who shall desert or quit the service without being duly discharged, shall incur a penalty of forty shillings, and for a second, and every subsequent offence, shall pay a fine of five pounds and suffer one month's imprisonment.

And all persons employed in such transport service, either by land or by water, who shall disobey those employed to conduct them, shall pay a fine of ten shillings, and for a repetition of the offence, shall suffer eight days imprisonment.

ARTICLE V.

The captains of militia, or senior officers shall regularly send to the commissary of the district, having the direction of the transport service, a roll of the brigade or party, by the officer or serjeant conducting the same, mentioning therein the names of those who shall have missed their turn, and specifying the cause, whether on account of absence; sickness, or for what other reason. And in order to prevent abuses, the commissaries, directing the transport service, shall respectively keep a register, in which they shall enter the names and surnames of the persons employed, and the parishes to which they belong.

All captains and other officers of militia who shall be convicted of having acted with partiality, in having exempted any persons without being fully authorized so to do, or having commanded others out of their turn of duty, or who shall misuse, in any manner, the authority delegated to them, shall pay a fine of forty shillings, and for a second offence may be condemned to pay five pounds.

ARTICLE VI.

In cases where the fines imposed in virtue of this ordinance shall not exceed the sum of ten shillings, any one commissioner or justice of the peace, and in cases exceeding that sum, and where imprisonment is to be inflicted, any three commissioners or justices of the peace, is, and are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine, summarily, all offences committed against the same, to inflict the punishments and to levy the penalties, together with the amount of the travelling and other expences of the person prosecuting, by order of seizure under his or their hands and seals, and to pay the monies proceeding therefrom into the hands of the receiver-general of the province, for the use of his majesty. Whosoever shall think himself aggrieved by any determination or decision of the said commissioners or justices of the peace, imposing a fine exceeding forty shillings, or a punishment of imprisonment for more than eight days, may appeal to the governor and council of this province, of which council, any five members (the commissioners or justices of the peace who shall have given such determination or decision excepted) with the governor, lieutenant-governor, or chief justice, shall constitute a court of appeal for the purpose of hearing and finally determining the same.

ARTICLE VII.

The members of his majesty's council, the judges, the commissioners or justices of the peace, the seigniors who are seigneurs primitifs, the noblesse, officers upon half pay, the religious communities, the seminary and college of Quebec and Montreal, the clergy in general, the captains of militia in commission as well as those who shall have honourably retired from the service, are exempted from quartering troops, furnishing carriages, and marching upon the battoe service, and may respectively have one servant exempted likewise.

Masters of post-houses with two servants each; the sisters of the congregation with one servant; the subaltern officers and sergeants of militia are also exempted from lodging troops, and from all transport service.

Notaries, physicians, surgeons, and apothecaries who are duly authorized to act as such; schoolmasters duly authorized; one assistant post-master, and one beadle in each parish; and millers with one servant are exempted from all transport service.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

The widows of captains of militia, during their widowhood, shall enjoy the same exemptions as captains, and all others whom the captain-general or commander in chief shall specially exempt under his hand and seal.

ARTICLE VIII.

And be it further enacted by the same authority, That the several fines and forfeitures afore-mentioned, which are hereby granted and reserved to his majesty, his heirs and successors, for the public uses of this province, and the support of the government thereof, may be applied, in the whole, or a proportion thereof, in such manner as the governor or the commander in chief of the province, for the time being, shall conceive to be most conducive to the services by this ordinance intended to be promoted and executed. And that the same, and the expenditures thereof, shall be accounted for to his majesty, his heirs and successors, or to the commissioners of his majesty's treasury, for the time being, and audited by his majesty's auditor-general for the plantations, or his deputy.

ARTICLE IX.

Whereas the conveniency and good government of the troops and militia, on their march and in quarters, as well as the conveyance of effects belonging to government, may require provisions to be made which may have been omitted in this ordinance, It is therefore further enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, that the governor or commander in chief for the time being may, and he is hereby authorized to make such other and further regulations for that purpose, as experience may point out to be expedient and fit. Provided nevertheless, That the disobedience to, or neglect of such regulations shall not in any case subject the offender to a greater punishment than a fine of forty shillings, to be levied and disposed of as herein before directed.

DORCHESTER.

Enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the public seal of the province, at the council-chamber in the castle of Saint Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the twenty-third day of April, in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the THIRD, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth; and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven.

By his EXCELLENCY'S Command,

J: WILLIAMS, C. L. C.

Anno Vicesimo Septimo GEORGII III. Regis.

CHAP. IV.¹

AN ORDINANCE

To continue in force for a limited time, an ordinance made in the twenty-fifth year of his majesty's reign, intituled, "An ordinance to regulate the proceedings in the courts of civil judicature, and to establish trials by juries in actions of a commercial nature, and personal wrongs to be compensated in damages," with such additional regulations as are expedient and necessary.

BE it enacted and ordained by his excellency the governor and the legislative council, and by the authority of the same, it is hereby enacted and ordained, That an ordinance made and passed the twenty-fifth day of April in the twenty-fifth year of his majesty's reign, intituled, "An ordinance to regulate the proceedings in the courts of civil judicature, and to establish trials by juries in actions of a commercial nature, and personal wrongs to be compensated in damages," and every clause and article therein contained, be continued, and the same is hereby continued from the expiration thereof to the end of the sessions of the legislative council which will be held in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine.

And whereas additional regulations are at this time found to be expedient and useful, Be it further enacted, by the same authority, That in every instance where the fact is not verified by a verdict of the jury, but by other proof, or the testimony of witnesses, the same shall be inserted in the record of the cause, that in case of appeal, the whole proceedings may go up to be adjudged in the superior tribunal, as regularly, and as fully as the same was before the court of common-pleas.

And wherever the opinion or judgment of the said court of common-pleas is pronounced upon any law, usage, or custom of the province, the same shall in like manner be stated upon the minutes or record of the court, and referred to, and ascertained, that the real ground of the opinion or judgment may also appear to the court of appeals; and upon all opinions conceived by any party to be to his injury, he shall be allowed his exception to be preserved in the minutes, all which proceedings shall be transmitted under the signatures of the judges or any two of them, and the seal of the court, that all his majesty's subjects, and especially his Canadian subjects, by these means may be protected in the enjoyment of all the benefits secured to them for their property and civil rights, by the statute passed in the fourteenth year of his majesty's reign, intituled, "An act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec in North-America," and by the ordinance above mentioned.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in all cases adjudged in the provincial court of appeals where the same may be appeal'd to his majesty in his privy council, and where their opinion or judgment is pronounced on any law, custom, or usage of the province, the same shall in like manner and for the same reason as herein before mentioned, be stated upon the record, or refer'd to and ascertained.

And in all causes of which the common-pleas have cognizance above ten pounds sterling, the same shall be proceeded in, heard and determined only in regular terms, consisting of the first fifteen days, (Sundays and holy-days excepted) in the months of January and July, and the last fifteen days of March and September yearly: the first return days whereof, shall always be the first day of the term, and the rest of the return days, and the general rules of practice, such as the respective judges of the common-pleas shall fix in a formulary.

And to take away all doubts and scruples with respect to the right of appeal in any cause before the said courts of common-pleas. Be it enacted and declared by the same authority, that the court of appeals shall be deemed and adjudged to have an appellate jurisdiction, with all the power necessarily annexed to such jurisdiction, and that it shall henceforth belong to the provincial court of appeals to determine the question when security shall be requisite, and the sufficiency thereof, and the admission, dismissal or remission of appeals, and the supply of the defects of the record, and of the effect of the appeal as a supersedeas of all or any proceedings in the lower courts, for the stay of execution on the judgment of the same, or any process of the nature of execution, with authority also to make rules and orders to regulate, effectuate and accelerate the proceedings in all causes of appeal for the advancement of justice, and to prevent unnecessary delays and expence in the same.

And where appeals are brought by executors, administrators, curators, tutors or guardians, the plaintiff shall not have execution, nor any process in the nature of execution, without such security first given as the court of common pleas in their discretion shall direct, to refund the damages and costs in case the judgment shall be reversed, together with such costs as the court of appeal may award.

And for the more convenient dispensation of justice in small causes, It is enacted and ordained by the same authority, That it shall and may be lawful for his excellency the governor or the commander in chief of the province, for the time being, by and with the advice and consent of his majesty's council, to appoint by commission, such and so many persons as he shall judge fit, and for such parts of the province as he shall think proper, to hear summarily and to determine finally, without appeal, all matters of debt of ten pounds or under. And it shall likewise be lawful for his excellency the governor, or the commander in chief, for the time being, by and with the advice and consent of his majesty's council, to regulate the fees to be taken by the persons so commission'd, and by their subordinate officers, and to direct a mode of proceeding for them; whereof and the extent of their jurisdiction respectively, a notification shall be published in the Quebec Gazette for the information of all persons whom it may concern.

Whereas there are many thousands of loyalists and others settled in the upper countries above Montreal, and in the bays of Gaspé and Chaleurs below Quebec, whose ease and convenience may require, that additional districts should be erected as soon as circumstances will permit, It is enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, that it may be lawful for the governor or commander in chief for the time being, with the advice and consent of the council, to form by patent under the seal of the province, one or more new districts, as his discretion shall direct, and to give commission to such officer or officers therein as may be necessary or conducive to the ease and convenience of his majesty's subjects residing in the remote parts of the province,

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no process of attachment, except in the case of the dernier equippeur according to the usage of the country, shall hereafter be issued for attaching the estate, debts and effects of what nature soever, of any person or persons whomsoever, whether in the hands of the owner, the debtor or of a third person, prior to trial and judgment, except there be due proof on oath (to be indorsed on the writ of attachment) to the satisfaction of one of the judges of the court issuing the same, that the defendant or proprietor of the said debts and effects is indebted to the plaintiff in a sum exceeding ten pounds, and is about to secrete the same, or doth abscond, or doth suddenly intend to depart from the province with an intent to defraud his creditor or creditors, and that the defendant is then indebted to the plaintiff and he doth verily believe that he shall lose his debt or sustain damage without the benefit of such attachment.

Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to the prejudice of the rights of land-lords in their legal course for the recovery of rents, according to any former mode of proceeding by any law, usage, or custom whatsoever. And provided also, That whenever the defendant or debtor shall either pay the debt and costs, or give security to the sheriff or officer for the goods so attached, as in cases of bail on personal arrests subject to justification in court to answer the value of the goods, and abide the judgment of the court, the same shall be forthwith restored; and for that purpose, the defendant or debtor shall be allowed forty-eight hours, after which period if the debt and costs be not paid, nor security given, the goods so seized shall remain attached and held by the sheriff or officer to answer the judgment of law.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the additional regulations hereby enacted, shall be in force until the end of the sessions that shall be held in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, or as long as the ordinance hereby renewed; and that the ordinance passed in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of his present majesty, intituled, "An ordinance for granting a limited civil power and jurisdiction to his majesty's justices of the peace, in the remote parts of this province," be no longer in force than until such small jurisdictions as by this act are authorized, shall be actually erected.

DORCHESTER.

Enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the public seal of the province, at the council-chamber in the castle of Saint Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the thirtieth day of April, in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the THIRD, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth; and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven.

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE,

For the importation of tobacco, pot and pearl ashes, into this province, by the inland communication by Lake Champlain and Sorel.

B*E it enacted by his excellency the governor and the legislative council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,* That the trade and intercourse between this province and the neighbouring states or any of them, by the route aforementioned, for the importation of leaf tobacco, pot and pearl ashes, shall be free, if the same be of the growth and produce of any of the said states, and bona fide for the re-exportation of the same from this province to Great-Britain. And no tobacco shall be so as aforesaid imported otherwise than in hogsheads, casks, chests, or cases, each hogshead, cask, chest, or case whereof shall contain four hundred and fifty pounds weight net of tobacco at the least, not packed in bags or in any other packages within such hogshead, cask, chest or case, nor separated or divided within such hogshead, cask, chest or case, respectively, by any package or otherwise howsoever, upon forfeiture of all such tobacco, as shall be so imported contrary to this act, together with the hogsheads, casks, chests, cases, or other packages containing the same.

Provided always and be it further enacted, That nothing in this act shall extend or be construed to extend to forfeit any tobacco imported or brought in loose by the communication aforesaid by water or by land for the use of the person or persons employed in bringing in the same, or any passenger in the boat or carriage, not exceeding two pounds weight for each person or passenger.

And the regulations aforesaid requiring due entry of such tobacco, pot and pearl ashes, at the custom-house at St. John's on the said communication, Be it also enacted by the same authority, That all boats, carriages, and conveyances, shall be subject to visitation by the officers of the customs or either of them at St. John's aforesaid, and bond given for the re-exportation of such tobacco, pot and pearl ashes, to be void upon proof thereof by certificate or otherwise, and that no higher fee shall be exacted for such entry and bond, and the office expedition of the ladings aforesaid respectively, than the sum of a

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE

For the erection of court houses and prisons for the security of creditors and the safe custody of criminals.

WHEREAS no competent provision has been made for court-houses or public halls for the convenient administration of justice in the several districts of Quebec and Montreal, nor for suitable prisons for the detention of debtors, and the safe custody of malefactors or offenders.

And whereas by the statute intituled, "An act for making more effectual provision for the government, of the province of Quebec in "North-America," authority is given to the legislature of the province to make regulations under certain restrictions for its welfare and good government and to lay rates and taxes for making roads, erecting and repairing public buildings, or for any other purpose respecting the local convenience and economy of any town or district within the said province; and the request of the last grand jury of Montreal, in the conclusion of their presentment praying the interposition of the legislature for a suitable remedy to be provided by a law for that purpose.

Be it therefore enacted by his excellency the governor and with the advice and consent of the legislative council, That an assessment be levied on the inhabitants of the districts of Quebec and Montreal, for the purpose of building proper court-houses and goals in the following manner, that is to say, that Gabriel Elzear Taschereau, Thomas Scott, Antoine Juchereau Duchesnay, Malcolm Fraser, John Coffin, Nicholas Boisseau, Joseph Brassard Deschenaux, Jean Baptiste Couillard, Ignace Aubert de Gaspée, and Pierre Louis Brassard Deschenaux, Esquires, and Messieurs James Johnston, Adam Lymburner, Robert Lester, Jacques Perrault, Michel Riverin and Charles Riverin, be commissioners for the town and district of Quebec; and Paul Marganne La Valtrie, Chartier de Lotbiniere, Joseph Marie de Tonnancour, François Claude la Perriere, Joseph Montarville La Bruere, James McGill, St. George Dupré, Montigny the elder, Jacob Jordan, Pierre Guy, and Simon Sanguinet, Esquires, and Messieurs François Maillot, Jean Baptiste Badeau, John Lilly, Joseph La Croix, and Robert Crookshanks, be commissioners for the town and district of Montreal; and they or any five or more of them in each district, are hereby required and authorized to deliberate upon the subject of building a proper court-house and goal in the towns of Quebec and Montreal; the plan and estimate of the expense thereof shall be laid before the governor or commander in chief for the time being, and when approved by the governor, and any five of his majesty's council, the said commissioners, or any five of them, may and shall proceed to contract for the ground or site, and the erection of the work; and for defraying the expence thereof, they are hereby in pursuance of the statute abovementioned, authorized to assess the proprietors of houses in the towns of Quebec and Montreal and banlieues thereof, in proportion to the rates at which the said houses are rented; and in cases where the proprietors occupy the houses themselves, in proportion to the rates at which the said commissioners shall estimate that such houses would be rented.

And be it further enacted by the same authority, That the parishes be taxed from the number of landholders in each parish taken from the curé's tythe-life and the livres terriers of the seigniors, who are hereby required to produce the same to the said commissioners, who are hereby directed and authorized to require the inhabitants of each parish, at a meeting assembled for that purpose, to elect assessors or syndics, upon oath, to make such assessment as shall be directed in proportion to the cleared land, arable or pasture, of the respective possessors, and all other proprietors of lands or other fixed residents or citizens of the towns or province, within the limits herein after mentioned, in proportion to their respective faculties and abilities, in the judgment and estimation of the commissioners aforesaid, or any five of them; except the convents of women and the order of recollets.

The said assessment in the district of Montreal to extend from the river Saint Maurice on the north, and the river Godefroy on the south of the Saint Lawrence, to the Long-Sault on the Ottawa River and the west line of New-Longueuil and Beauharnois; and in the district of Quebec from Cape Cat and the Saguinay, to the said rivers Saint Maurice and Godefroy.

Which assessment if approved by his excellency the governor and council as above, the said commissioners, or any five of them, are authorized to issue warrants to levy the same, and if necessary by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the defaulter, with the necessary charges of executing the same, returning to the proprietors the overplus, if any there be; and of the tax lists and sums so to be levied and the expenditures thereof, and also the vouchers for the same, the said commissioners shall render full and just accounts, upon oath, filing the same accounts and vouchers with the clerk of the council, who shall lay the same before the legislative council at their next ensuing sessions. And the said commissioners are hereby enabled to include in the said assessments the reasonable allowances to be made to such treasurer, clerks and collectors to be by them necessarily employed in the business aforesaid. And when the court-house and goal shall be complete the sheriff of the district shall take the charge thereof, and preserve the same for the public uses for which they were constructed. And it is further ordained and enacted, That the commissioners abovementioned shall make oath that to the best of their skill and knowledge they will execute the trust reposed in them as commissioners for assessing the rates to be paid for the building of court-houses and prisons with fidelity and impartiality.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, That no suit shall be commenced against any person acting under the authority of this act after six months from the time of committing the fact for which the same suit is brought; and if the defendant shall prevail in any action brought against him for any matter authorized by this act, the plaintiff shall pay treble costs to be taxed, and the defendant may plead the general issue for his defence, and give this act in evidence, and the said act shall for that purpose be deemed in all courts to be a public act.

Provided always and be it enacted by the same authority, That this act nor any clause therein contained, shall be of force, until his majesty shall have signified his royal pleasure concerning the same.

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE.

Further to regulate the inland Commerce of this Province, and to extend the same.

WHEREAS a commercial intercourse with the neighbouring states, to a certain extent, was opened in the course of the last year, and it is conceived that it may, under due restrictions, be made useful to this province and to Great-Britain.

Be it enacted therefore by his Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all goods, wares, and merchandises (Beaver, Peltries and Furs excepted) of the growth and manufacture or product of this province, or of any other the dominions of Great-Britain, and such as may lawfully be imported into this province by sea, may be exported therefrom by land or inland navigation, to any of the neighbouring states, free from duty, impost or restraint. And there shall be the like freedom of importation from the said states into this province, if the same be made by the route or communication of Lake Champlain and the River Sorel or Richelieu, and not otherwise, of the following enumerated articles, that is to say, Masts, Yards, Bow-sprits, Spars, Plank, Boards, Knees, Futtocks, or any kind of ship-timber; Hoops, Staves, Shingles, Clapboards, Trees, Wood, Lumber, Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Tallow, Hemp, Flax, and any kind of naval stores; Seeds, Wheat, Rye, Indian Corn, Beans, Peas, Potatoes, Rice, Oats, Barley, and all other grains; Butter, Cheese, Honey, Horses, Neat-cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, and other live-stock, and live provisions, and fresh fish; and whatsoever is of the growth of the said states; and Gold or Silver Coin or Bullion.

And be it further enacted by the same authority, That the importation by land or the inland navigation into this province, of Rum, Spirits, Copper-coin, and of all other goods, wares and merchandises not enumerated as aforesaid, be prohibited, and such articles seized and forfeited, together with every of the enumerated articles above-mentioned, if the same shall not have been imported by the Route and communication aforesaid.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, That the Exportation of Beaver, Peltries and Furs into any of the neighbouring states be prohibited, and that the same shall be liable to seizure and forfeiture upon due proof of their being in the way towards either of the said states, with intent to be exported to the same by Land or Water; and it shall be conclusive Evidence of such Intent, if any person be found in the way to either of the said states, in any place between the South-side of the River St. Lawrence, and the Southernmost extent of his Majesty's Government; with Beaver, Furs or Peltries, and without a certificate from one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, certifying that oath has been made before him by the Owner or Proprietor, or his Factor or Agent, that the same Beaver, Peltries, and Furs are not intended for such exportation; and every person aiding and assisting, and directly or indirectly interested or concerned in any attempt to make such Exportation, shall incur a fine of ten shillings for every pound weight of Beaver, and ten shillings for every skin of Furs or Peltries, so exported or attempted and intended to be exported.

And for prohibiting still more effectually the exportation of Beaver, Peltries and Furs, be it also enacted by the same authority, That all and every person or persons who shall export, or shall be aiding or assisting or directly or indirectly interested and concerned in exporting to any of the said states by any Route from any other part of his Majesty's Government, to the Westward of St. Regis, any Beaver, Furs or Peltries of any kind, such person or persons shall forfeit and become liable to pay thrice the fines and penalties above-mentioned.

All which forfeitures, fines and penalties shall be recoverable and be divided, applied, or disposed of, as directed by the statute of the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-eight, respecting the forfeitures and penalties therein mentioned.

Provided always, and it is also hereby enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing in this act contained, shall be construed to affect travellers to and from this province and their servants, boats, carriages, and necessary baggage (not including any article whatsoever for trading purposes;) nor the effects of any kind of such persons coming to settle in this province, or others, as shall have permission, in the manner therein to be expressed, of the Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, under his hand and seal at arms: Nor to affect the importation of any of the said enumerated articles, by any route and communication to such posts, places and districts, and under such restrictions, and for such periods, as the Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, may conceive to be expedient for the common weal, and from time to time declare and make known by Proclamation under the Great Seal.

And it is also enacted by the same authority, That it shall be the duty of the officers of the customs to execute this act in the manner of executing any of the statutes made for the regulation of the plantation trade; and they shall be intitled to all such aid and assistance therein, as they are intitled to, and may demand, under all or any of the statutes aforesaid.

And be it further enacted, by the same authority, That for every certificate to be given by a Magistrate as aforesaid, he shall be intitled to the fee of one shilling, and shall not receive therefor more, under the pain of extortion, and that any Magistrate granting a certificate wickedly, knowingly and fraudulently to abet and effect the exportation of Beaver, Peltry or Furs forbidden by this act, and thereof duly convicted, shall be liable to such fine and imprisonment, as the Court of King's Bench, may impose and adjudge, and thenceforth be incapable of any office, place or employment in his Majesty's Government: And that a wicked and corrupt oath, for obtaining a certificate, fraudulently to effect such prohibited exportation, shall upon due conviction expose the offender to the pains and penalties of false swearing and perjury; and such as advise, encourage, and persuade to bring about such wicked, fraudulent, and corrupt swearing, to the pains and penalties of subornation of perjury.

Enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the great seal of the province, at the council-chamber in the castle of Saint Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the fourteenth day of April, in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the THIRD, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth; and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight.

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE.

For the easy settlement and recovery of the Crown Debts incurred on the commercial transportation over the interior Lakes.

WHEREAS the inland commerce has been for divers years past aided and protected by his Majesty's vessels and naval armaments upon the great lakes, and large sums are due from merchants, traders and others for the freight and transportation of their effects, to the payment of which transportation, though previously acquiesced in by merchants, traders and others, obstacles have been raised since the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, the recovery of which sums may require special provision to be made therefor by the legislature; the engagements, promises and securities for the freight-money being made and given to naval storekeepers, paymasters, or other agents for the crown, some of whom are absent or dead; and divers disputes and controversies are subsisting on the claims of the owners and shippers of the effects, for delays, damages, and losses, respecting the carriage and delivering of the goods for which such freight-money was to accrue. And whereas many of the debtors as well as the witnesses reside at Detroit and other remote places, where examinations, enquiries, and settlements may be most conveniently made: To the intent therefore that the said disputes and controversies may be adjusted, and the balances due liquidated, and that the persons indebted for the same may be legally discharged and quieted, and his Majesty's dues be ascertained and recovered:

Be it enacted by his Excellency the Governour and the Legislative Council, and it is accordingly hereby enacted and ordained, by the authority of the same, That all monies remaining in the hands of any person or persons that were originally paid by the merchants, traders or others for freight, in the commerce aforesaid, and not delivered over for, or already justly applied to the use and benefit of the crown; and that all monies still outstanding and unpaid for freights due in the said commerce, and all promises, bonds, notes and securities therefor, shall for the purpose of recovering the same, for the use of the crown, be deemed and adjudged in the law to have been, and to be the right and property of the trustees to be appointed as herein after mentioned; who shall have as compleat and perfect power and authority to ask, demand, compound for, agree, and adjust the same, and liquidate and receive the balances, and give acquittances, receipts, discharges, and releases therefor, or sue for and recover the same freight-monies, or any part thereof, in all or any of the courts of the province (which for that purpose shall have cognizance thereof both in law and equity) as if they were the original owners of the said freight-monies, and all the contracts and securities therefor, were made in their names, and payable to them for their own benefit and use.

And be it further enacted and ordained by the same authority, That the said trustees shall be such persons as the Governor of this province, or the Commander in Chief thereof, for the time being, shall authorise for that purpose by commission under the great seal of the province; who shall enter into recognizances to account to the crown, and for the discharge of their trust, under such instructions as they may from time to time receive under his hand and seal at arms.

And that justice may be done to all parties intitled to deductions from the freight-money, or perhaps to a discharge of the whole, on account of the non-delivery of the effects, or damages sustained in the negligent carriage thereof, if any such circumstances there shall have been: Be it also enacted and ordained by the same authority, That the defendant in any action to be brought for such freight-money, on any book debt, promise or security, touching the same, shall, and may have the benefit of such or any other just and equitable matter of deduction or discharge for his defence; and in every action at law, may plead the general issue and give the same in evidence; and by order of any of the judges of the court where such suit may be instituted, shall have access in the manner therein directed, to all such books and entries as have been kept for the purposes aforesaid, and to copies of such of them as may be requested, under the penalty of thirty pounds for every refusal, paying therefor at the rate of six-pence for every hundred words, of which every such copy shall consist, to be recovered by action of debt with costs. But nothing herein contained shall be construed to make the trustees aforesaid, any, or either of them, personally liable to suit or action for any such loss or damage out of their own estates.

And be it further enacted by the same authority, That the payment of any such sum for such freight-money to the said trustees, shall be a perfect and compleat bar against the demand thereof, by the person or persons to whom the same was originally made payable by promise, note, bond, or any other security; or by any others their legal representatives, as fully to all intents and purposes, as if such securities had been assigned or transferred to, or vested in the said trustees; or as if the person they represent never had any right or title to the same.

And if any suit or action shall be brought against the said trustees under pretext thereof they may plead the general issue, and give this act in evidence for their indemnity and discharge, and upon judgment in their favour, shall recover treble costs. And this act shall in all courts be deemed and adjudged to be a public act.

CHAP. III.¹

AN ACT or ORDINANCE,

For promoting the Inland Navigation.

WHEREAS present circumstances do not require that the transport of merchandize and peltries over the upper lakes should be carried on solely by vessels belonging to his Majesty, and the thriving situation of the new settlements of loyalists in the Western-country, makes it expedient under certain restrictions, to facilitate the transport of a variety of other articles across those lakes, which will tend to increase the exports of this province, and consequently to augment its commerce.

Be it therefore enacted by his Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall and may be lawful for all his Majesty's good and liege subjects trading to the Western-country by the way of the great lakes, who shall have taken out the usual pass conformable to the law; to cause such their effects and merchandize as shall be specified in the said pass, to be water-borne in any kind of vessel under the burthen of ninety tons, if the same be built and launched in any part or place within his Majesty's government, and all the owners of the bottom and cargo, and the captain, conductor, crew and navigators, be his Majesty's good and faithful subjects, and the said crew and navigators shall (since the first of May 1783) have taken the oath of allegiance to his Majesty prescribed by law, or on doubt thereof, shall take the same before his embarking in such adventure.

And be it further enacted by the same authority, that every vessel of any kind employed in the commerce aforesaid, shall be furnished with the following documents, under the hand and seal of such officer or officers as shall be authorized by commission under the great seal of this province, to take and give the same, to wit, a register, for which he shall be paid for every vessel not exceeding twenty-five tons burden, the sum of twenty shillings, and for every larger vessel the sum of thirty shillings, and no more, shewing that such vessel was built and launched within his Majesty's government, and that the same is wholly owned by subjects of the British Crown, with their names and places of residence, and that oath had been made thereof by such and so many, as had the greatest share and interest in such vessel, her tackle, apparel and furniture, and also a manifest, specifying the quantity and quality of the cargo, shewing to the best of his knowledge and belief to whom the same doth belong, upon the oath of the chief navigator of such vessel, and that they are also subjects of the British Crown, with their names and usual places of residence, and also a pass or clearance expressing the names of the crew and their usual place of residence, and that they had severally taken the oath of allegiance aforesaid.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, that every vessel unfurnished with the documents aforesaid (and not having lost the same by unavoidable accident) shall and may be seized and detained, by order of the commander of any of his Majesty's vessels, or the commandant of any post or fort, or of any magistrate, or other person thereunto authorized by the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, and upon due prosecution and condemnation in any of his Majesty's courts in this province, shall be forfeited and condemned, together with her apparel, furniture and lading, one half part thereof for the use of his Majesty, and the other half for him or them suing for the same.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, that the said register, manifest and pass or clearance shall on the arrival of such vessel at any post or place within his Majesty's government, be reported in twenty-four hours to the person there then authorized to receive the same, nor shall take her departure therefrom until he hath visited the same, or hath had six hours from the making such report for that purpose.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, that no register as aforesaid, shall be granted for any vessel, without bond to his Majesty first given, in a sum double the value of the same, by so many of the owners thereof as the person commissioned to grant such register, shall conceive to be competent security, residents of this province, with condition that if she shall at any time afterwards be employed in any destination, other than such as her clearance or pass shall from time to time specify, that the said sum shall be forfeited.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, that the adventurers in the commerce aforesaid shall not be punishable or accountable, for the use of any wood or timber cut down and taken for fuel, or the purpose of building, masting, equipping or repairing any such vessels, from the ungranted territories and unlocated lands of the Crown. Provided always, and be it enacted, that no new-fixed settlements shall be any where made in the Western country, except for the temporary protection and defence of commercial effects, without his Majesty's Royal grant or patent first had, under the great seal of this province.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect any small vessels under the burthen of five tons, found navigating the river St. Lawrence and the bay of Quinty, on the North-eastern side of Lake Ontario, for the convenience of the loyalists and others in their settlements: Provided always, that no such small vessels be at any time used for the purpose of any trade prohibited by this act, or any other law of this province.

And to remove the trees felled into the river St. Lawrence, and the small rivers falling into it Westward of the Eastern-bounds of the Township of Lancaster, which have greatly incommoded the navigation by compelling boats to contend with the force of the currents. Be it further enacted by the same authority, that the offence aforesaid shall incur the penalty of ten shillings for every tree so felled to be recovered in a summary way before any one of his Majesty's justices of the peace, and levied by his warrant to any constable or peace-officer, for the distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels at public auction, returning the surplus if any there be to the offender; and for the removal of the present obstructions by the fifteenth day of July next, it shall be the duty of the residents claiming the land on the shores within one league, of any tree lying in the water, and inconvenient to the navigation as aforesaid, to take away or prevent the same, and that every person neglecting such duty shall incur the penalty of five pounds, to be recovered in manner aforesaid—all which said penalties shall belong, one moiety thereof to the Crown, and be paid to the receiver-general and accounted for by him, as his duty and the Royal instructions may from time to time require, and the other moiety belong to him who shall sue for the same.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, that the persons so to be commissioned for the discharge of the trusts aforementioned, shall with all possible dispatch make out the clearance of such vessel for her intended voyage, and shall annex the same to the manifest of her cargo, which the master shall then deliver to him for that purpose, for which clearance for every intended voyage, he shall take no greater fee or reward than such as are herein after mentioned, to wit, for every vessel from ten to twenty tons burden ten shillings, for every vessel above twenty and not exceeding fifty tons burden fifteen shillings, and for every vessel exceeding fifty tons burden twenty shillings, beside the certificate of a report of arrival at and the passing a post, which is to be five shillings, and for demanding any greater fee or reward, shall forfeit twenty pounds, with costs of suit to the party injured, upon due conviction before any one of his Majesty's justices of the peace, upon a summary trial to be had for that purpose, and to be executed by warrant under his hand and seal, for the distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender returning the surplus.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, that every person convicted in due form of law of making a false oath, in any of the cases in which an oath is required as aforementioned, shall incur the pains and penalties by law annexed to the guilt of wilful and corrupt perjury.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, that if any person shall bona fide have contracted to be one of the crew of any vessel, in any intended adventuring voyage in the commerce aforesaid, and shall have entered into a written contract to perform the same, and afterwards shall desert from the services of the vessel for twenty-four hours, he shall upon due conviction thereof, before one of his Majesty's justices of the peace, be sent to the common prison and there remain for the space of one month, without bail or main-prize, unless one of the owners, or the captain or conductor of the vessel, shall in writing under his hand directed to such justice and left with him, consent to his discharge; and if such desertion be while such vessel is out, and before her return, such deserter shall lose his wages, and be also liable to imprisonment for three months, and it shall be the duty of the captain or conductor and of the crew to neglect no means in their power, to apprehend and bring to justice, upon their return from their adventuring voyage, any person of the same, or of any other crew, who shall have committed any crime, which by the law of the land is punishable by the loss of the life or limb of the offender, and for wilful neglect to give assistance in such service, or to obey the lawful command of any magistrate for such purpose, shall upon due conviction, on indictment or information, be subject to such fine and imprisonment as his Majesty's court of King's Bench shall adjudge against such person so as aforesaid convicted by the regular course of the law.

And be it enacted by the same authority, that nothing in this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding, shall be construed to make it necessary for any vessel, being a canoe or batteau, or open boat going on these lakes under the burden of ten tons, to be furnished with such register as aforementioned.

Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein enacted, shall be construed to prevent his Excellency the Governor, or the commander in Chief of this province for the time being, upon any great and urgent occasion, when he may think such order necessary and for the security of the province, to prohibit for any given time, by an order under his hand and seal, all such vessels and craft from navigating the lakes, or to prevent the said Governor or Commander in Chief from making any other temporary regulations regarding these vessels and craft under similar circumstances, by an order under his hand and seal, that he shall judge advisable or expedient for the like purpose.

Be it also enacted by the same authority, and it is hereby enacted, that in the transport of the several merchandize and effects as heretofore mentioned in this act or ordinance, the proprietors of all such vessels above twenty tons, shall be obliged without favour or affection, to transport all merchandize and effects whatever in due rotation as they shall have arrived at the place of deposit, according to an open list which it has hitherto been usual to keep at such post or deposit under the inspection of the officer commanding, and which open list it is hereby enacted, shall continue to be kept in the same manner, under similar inspection, or under that of such other person as shall be appointed thereto by the Governor or Commander in Chief of the province for the time being, and which persons are hereby authorized to see the same duly carried into execution. Provided always, that nothing in this clause shall be construed to extend to prevent the proprietors of any of these vessels above twenty tons, from putting on board in preference to those of all other persons, any goods or effects which shall be declared upon the oath of himself or his agent to be bona fide the property of his own House, to the extent of third of the lading of the vessel, altho' such goods or effects may not be entitled to be received on board according to the rotation directed as above to be kept at the place of deposit.

Enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, and passed in Council under the great seal of the province at the council chamber in the castle of Saint Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the thirtieth day of April, in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the THIRD, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth; and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight.

An ACT or ORDINANCE,

For the better security of the Revenue arising on the retail of wine, brandy, rum or spirituous liquors.

WHEREAS in pursuance of an act of parliament intituled "An Act to establish a fund towards further defraying the charges of the Administration of Justice and support of the Civil Government of the province of Quebec in America," passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, a penalty of ten pounds sterling is ordained upon keeping a house or place of entertainment or retailing liquors without licence as in the said act directed, and to the end that licences may issue only to such persons as shall keep orderly houses, and that the penalties incurred may be expeditiously recovered for the uses in the said act of parliament declared,

Be it enacted by his Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, That no grant of any licence as by the said act is authorised to be given, shall issue until the person named in the same shall file with the Secretary of the province or his agent an application for such licence, and thereon a certificate signed by the captain of militia of the parish where the same shall be declared to be carried into execution, and countersigned by either the parson, rector, or curate of the parish, or by a magistrate residing in the same parish or township, or by the seigneur of the parish, purporting that they are severally well acquainted with such petitioner, and that they recommend him as a proper subject for the liberty therein asked for, nor until he shall have taken the oath of allegiance required by law, and shall also have entered into bond to his Majesty in the sum of ten pounds, with condition that if he shall during the time such licence shall be granted do his utmost to keep the King's peace and an orderly house, nor sell any spirituous liquors after the termination thereof, without a new licence first had and obtained, nor shall during his licence vend any strong liquors during divine service on Sundays or holidays, except for the use of the sick or travellers, then the said bond to be void, or else to remain in full force and virtue; which oath and bond shall be taken and entered into in the presence of any two justices or more of the district.

And be it enacted by the same authority, That such penalty of ten pounds for selling without licence, as well as the penalty of every bond for keeping the peace and an orderly house as above-mentioned, shall and may be cognizable in a summary way by any three justices of the peace or the major part of them, to be levied with costs of suit, by warrant for the distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party convicted directed to any constable or peace officer, returning to the owner the surplus, if any then left.

And be it enacted also by the same authority, That the fines and penalties that may be recovered by the authority of this ordinance, shall be divided and applied in the manner following: That is to say, one moiety to the person who shall inform or prosecute for the same, and the other moiety to be paid into the hands of the Receiver-general for his Majesty's use. Provided always, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to extend to deprive the commissioners of the peace of the towns of Quebec, Three-rivers and Montreal, from granting certificates for licences to tavern-keepers as heretofore used and accustomed. Provided also, and be it enacted by the same authority, That such penalty to incur for retailing liquors without licence, shall be only in the case of a sale of any quantity less than three gallons.

An ORDINANCE,

For regulating the Pilotage in the River Saint Lawrence, and for preventing Abuses in the port of Quebec.

WHEREAS it is necessary for the encouragement of navigation, that the pilots in this province be properly regulated, be it enacted and ordained by his Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and by the authority of the same, it is hereby enacted, That from and after the publication of this ordinance, no person shall take charge of any ship or vessel as a pilot, without a licence under the hand and seal of his Excellency the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, on a certificate of his capacity from such person as his Excellency the Governor or Commander in Chief may think proper to appoint from time to time to superintend or take charge of the pilots, and two experienced masters of vessels or pilots.

II. The pilots shall be divided into companies of two pilots and one apprentice at least to a company, and every company on or before the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, shall have and possess a proper pilot-boat, well fitted with sails, oars and one anchor, and each company shall have one apprentice at least, not more than sixteen nor younger than fourteen years at the time of binding, and they shall serve until they have attained the age of twenty-one years. The said apprentices may pilot ships for the benefit of their masters, first obtaining the Governor's licence; after four years apprenticeship, on a certificate from the superintendent and two experienced pilots that they are qualified; the said pilots not being their masters. Each company shall be obliged to instruct their apprentices in the use of the compass, to know the soundings, bays, harbours, creeks, inlets and anchorages in the River Saint Lawrence, and the art of working a ship.

III. If any non-licenced person shall pilot any vessel or ship between the Island of Bic and Quebec, he shall for the first offence forfeit and pay the sum of five pounds, for the second like offence seven pounds ten shillings, and for every other like offence the sum of ten pounds; provided always, that nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to prevent the master or mate of any vessel, or the owner, or part owner of any vessel in the fishing or coasting trade, and belonging to this province, from piloting his own vessel, nor to subject any person to any penalties who may be hired to pilot a vessel from Bic, provided none of the licenced pilots within one hour after such vessel shall arrive at Bic, be ready to pilot the same; and if any licenced pilot shall board such vessel on her way to Quebec, he may take charge of the same, and pay the person who piloted the vessel so far a just proportion of the pilotage-money according to the distance from Bic.

IV. No pilot shall give a preference to any vessel, but shall go on board the nearest vessel first, and every pilot on his entering any ship or vessel to pilot her, shall immediately shew his licence to the master, who shall inform the pilot how many feet water his vessel draws.

V. Masters of vessels may chuse out of the first pilot-boat that boards them any of the pilots in the boat, and the directions of the pilot in working or navigating the vessel shall be followed.

VI. No person shall be continued of the number of pilots who shall not have exercised the duty of a pilot the preceding year, unless he has been prevented by sickness or other lawful cause.

VII. No pilot shall demand and take more than at the rate of eleven shillings for every foot of water the vessel he shall have piloted between Bic and Quebec may draw, under the penalty of forty shillings.

VIII. If any pilot shall from negligence lose a vessel, he shall for ever after be incapacitated from acting as a pilot.

IX. A list of the names of the pilots with their ages and places of abode, shall be affixed by the superintendent of the pilots in some conspicuous place in the Custom-house at Quebec, by the twentieth day of April every year, under the penalty of forty shillings.

X. Every pilot within hailing or sight of any vessel in distress, shall if possible go on board, and he shall there remain and use his best endeavours to get her into a place of safety; and if any pilot shall neglect or refuse such duty, he shall by such neglect or refusal be incapacitated from acting as a pilot.

XI. The pilot who boards a vessel in distress, shall be paid by the master all such reasonable charges as shall be ascertained by two shipmasters chosen by the parties and the captain of the port, or a majority of them, regard being had to the pilot's risk and trouble in his endeavours to secure the vessel.

XII. No pilot shall on any pretence leave the vessel he piloted before she is moored at Quebec, or made fast to some wharf, without leave from the master, under the penalty of one half of the pilotage, to be paid to the master of the vessel so left, on his suing for the same.

XIII. The superintendent of the pilots shall order a sufficient number of pilots to ply constantly at Bic, not less than four boats with their full compliment, in rotation from the twenty-fifth of April to the fifteenth of November in every year, there to be ready to conduct ships and vessels up the River to Quebec, under the penalty of ten pounds.

XIV. No licenced pilot shall refuse to pilot any of his Majesty's ships when thereunto duly required, nor shall misbehave himself on board any ship or vessel under his charge as pilot, nor shall refuse to obey any lawful command of the superintendent of pilots, under the penalty of being suspended from his employment for six months at the least, and if during that suspension he shall presume to pilot any ship or vessel between Bic and Quebec, he shall pay the forfeitures by this ordinance imposed on persons acting as pilots without licence, but appeal shall lie from the decision of the said superintendent to the commissioners of the peace in their weekly court.

XV. If any master or owner of any ship or vessel shall carry a pilot out of the River St. Lawrence, he shall allow the pilot three pounds ten shillings per month with his board, from the day the vessel leaves Bic until she returns to that place, and the pilot shall have the piloting of the said vessel to Quebec, provided she returns to this province the following spring; but if the vessel does not return to this province, the master or owners of the vessel are to procure a passage for the pilot, and pay him three pounds ten shillings per month until he arrives in this province, provided he makes the best of his way.

XVI. If any misunderstandings shall happen among the pilots, touching their employment, the matter in dispute shall be settled by the superintendent of the pilots.

XVII. And whereas for the security of vessels in the harbour of Quebec, and to prevent accidents by fire, the following regulations are highly necessary, be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the masters of all ships or vessels that cast anchor before Quebec, and lay more than two tides without being moored, if the weather permit, causing damage by such neglect to any other ship or vessel in the harbour, shall sustain and pay the said damage.

XVIII. That if any master of a vessel shall lay at any wharf or quay, or ground in the harbour of Quebec, with more than one pound of gunpowder on board, he shall incur a penalty of twenty pounds for every such offence.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

XIX. That if any master of a vessel throw overboard or cause to be thrown overboard in the harbour of Quebec any stone ballast, he shall incur a penalty of five pounds for every such offence.

XX. That if any master of a vessel or other person whatsoever, cause any vessel to be graved in the Cul de Sac, or at any wharf or quay in Quebec, and there make or cause fire to be made for heating pitch, tar, turpentine, oil, or tallow, he shall incur a penalty of ten pounds for every such offence.

XXI. That the master of every ship or vessel lying at anchor in the River before Quebec in dark nights, shall shew a light at the bowsprit-end, under the penalty of ten shillings.

XXII. That if any master of a vessel shall lay his vessel in the Cul de Sac, otherwise than with her head to the Shore and stern to the River, with an anchor laid down below the reef of rocks, or throw ballast of any kind overboard in the Cul de Sac, he shall incur a penalty of ten shillings, and be obliged to remove the same.

XXIII. And all the fines and forfeitures by this ordinance imposed, may be sued for and recovered before any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, on the oath of one or more credible witnesses, one half to be paid to the person who shall sue for the same, the other half to the Receiver-General for his Majesty's use and the support of the Government, to be by him accounted for to the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, and audited by the Auditor-General of the Plantations or his Deputy. And it shall be the duty of the captain of the port and superintendant of pilots to see this ordinance carried into execution, under the penalty of twenty shillings for every wilful neglect, to be recovered and applied as aforesaid.

XXIV. Provided nevertheless that nothing in this ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding, shall extend, or be construed to extend to any of his Majesty's ships of war, that may come into or be stationed in the River St. Lawrence or harbour of Quebec.

DORCHESTER.

Enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the great seal of the province, at the council-chamber in the castle of Saint Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the thirtieth day of April, in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the THIRD, by the grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth; and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight.

CHAP. VI.¹

For regulating the Fisheries in the River of Saint Lawrence, in the Bays of Gaspé and Chaleurs, on the Island of Bonaventure, and the opposite shore of Percé.

WHEREAS the Fisheries have ever been found beneficial to the trade of the mother-country, and as several large vessels have been yearly fitted out and equipped therefrom to carry on the cod-fishery in the Bay of Gaspé, at the Island of Bonaventure, at Percé and in the Bay of Chaleurs in this province, in order to encourage that valuable branch of trade, it is enacted by his Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, That all his Majesty's subjects shall peaceably have, use and enjoy the freedom of taking bait, and of fishing in any river, creek, harbour or road, with liberty to go on shore on any part between Cape Cat on the South-side of the River St. Lawrence, and the first Rapid in the River of Ristigouche, above the Islands that lie higher up than the New Mission in the said River, which empties itself into Chaleurs Bay within this province, and on the Island of Bonaventure, for the purpose of salting, drying and curing their fish, and they may cut down wood and trees there, for building, making, mending, or repairing stages, flakes, hurdles, huts or cook-rooms, and other things that may be necessary for curing and preparing their fish for exportation, and all other things that may be useful to their fishing trade, without any hindrance or interruption, denial or disturbance from any person or persons whatsoever.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commander of every ship or vessel fitted out from Great-Britain or the dominions thereunto belonging, and entering into any creek or harbour, may reserve to himself so much beach or flakes, or both, as are needful for the number of boats he shall there use, provided they are unoccupied by any other person, or are not in this and the preceding cases private property by grant from his Majesty, or by grant before the year one thousand seven hundred and sixty.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person or persons shall after the publication of this ordinance, rind any trees standing or growing on the said beach reserved for the use of the fishery, nor in the woods adjacent, nor set fire to the woods, or do or cause to be done any damage to the same, for any use whatsoever, except only for necessary fuel, and for building and repairing huts, stages, flakes and other things necessary for carrying on their fishery; and no person or persons whatsoever, shall cast anchor or do any thing to annoy or hinder the hauling of seines in the accustomed baiting places, or in places where salmon are or may be caught, or shoot his, her or their seine or seines within or upon the seine or seines of any other person whatsoever; and also, that no person or persons shall steal, purloin or take out of the net or nets of any other person, nor steal, purloin or take away any bait out of any fishing boat, or steal salmon out of any net belonging to any other person, under the penalty of five pounds.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

And be it further enacted, That no ballast or anything else hurtful to any of the harbours in the extent of coast mentioned in this ordinance, shall be thrown out of any vessel or otherwise by any person whatsoever, but that all ballast or other things shall be carried on shore, and laid where they may do no annoyance, under the penalty of five pounds.

And no fisherman or other person shall throw any fish guts, offals or gurry overboard out of any vessel or boat within the distance of two leagues of the shore or Islands within this province, under the penalty of five pounds.

And be it further enacted, That in case any difference or controversy shall arise between the masters of fishing ships, shallops, boats, or other vessels for and concerning the right and property of fishing rooms, stages, flakes, or any other conveniency or building for carrying on their fishery, or for curing their fish between Cape Cat and the Rapids in the River of Ristigouche aforesaid in the Bay of Chaleurs, at Percé and on the Island of Bonaventure as aforesaid, the said differences, disputes and controversies, shall be heard, adjudged and determined by any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the district, and in case any of the parties shall think himself aggrieved by such determination or judgment, an appeal shall lie before the Lieutenant-governor of the district, or Judge of the Common Pleas for the same, as may be most convenient for the person appealing from the said judgment, who are hereby authorized finally to determine the same; provided the effects, right or property so decided, does not exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling, in which case, an appeal from the judgment of the said Lieutenant-governor or Judge of Common pleas may be had to his Majesty's Court of Appeals for the province.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That after the appointment of such persons as his Excellency the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, may commission as cullers and inspectors, all salmon, mackerel, herrings or other wet fish packed in casks, shall prior to their being shipped for any foreign market, be carefully examined and inspected by some one of the cullers or inspectors commissioned as aforesaid; and all such as he shall find to be good and merchantable, he shall brand on the head of the cask in legible characters his name and the year in which he examined the same, and for his trouble he shall be paid sixpence for every hogshead, tierce or barrel, and three-pence for every smaller cask, and whenever any disputes happen between the seller and purchaser of any dried cod fish, the same shall be culled by such culler or inspector, for which he shall be paid at the rate of one penny per quintal; and any culler or inspector commissioned as aforesaid, who shall refuse or neglect his duty hereinbefore mentioned, when thereunto required, without a legal and just cause for such refusal, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect and refusal, the sum of five pounds.

And be it further enacted by, the same authority, That the penalties in this ordinance may be used for and recovered before any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the district, one moiety whereof to be paid to the Receiver-general for the use of his Majesty, his heirs and successors, or to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the time being, and audited by his Majesty's Auditor-general for the plantations, or his deputy, and the other moiety to the person who shall inform, and sue and prosecute for the same.

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE,

To alter the Ordinance herein after mentioned.

BE it enacted by his Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That for erecting the jurisdictions for the determination of small causes in any district of this province, or the creating of a new district or districts, as by the act or ordinance passed in the twenty-seventh year of his Majesty's reign is directed, it shall not be necessary in the law to effect the same, by the same patent or patents for appointing the officers for such small jurisdiction or district or districts; and that every such officer may be appointed by the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, by separate commissions or patents according to the ancient and accustomed manner, respecting other offices and officers, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding in the said act herein before referred to, intitled, "An Ordinance to continue in force for a limited time an Ordinance made in the twenty-fifth year of his Majesty's reign, intitled, An Ordinance to regulate the proceedings in the courts of civil judicature, and to establish trials by juries in actions of a commercial nature and personal wrongs to be compensated in damages with such additional regulations as are expedient and necessary."

And be it enacted by the same authority, That the courts of small jurisdiction by the said ordinance authorized, may have cognizance of the differences arising within their respective circles on petty trespasses by horses, black cattle, sheep and swine; and also, respecting ditches, fences, and the portion of land that by the custom of the country, people are obliged to clear adjoining their neighbour's fields, known by the word Découvert, and award damages not exceeding forty shillings; also, of all complaints of the voyer against persons neglecting to keep the high-roads in proper repair.

Provided always that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to give cognizance in any case, where title to the realty may come into question; and that if on stating the issue between the parties, either shall assert that he will question the title of his opponent on the hearing, then all further proceedings shall surcease

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE,

To prevent persons practising Physic and Surgery within the province of Quebec, or Midwifery in the towns of Quebec and Montreal, without Licence.

WHEREAS many inconveniencies have arisen to his Majesty's subjects in this province, from unskilful persons practising physic and surgery: Be it enacted by his Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, That after the first day of November next, no person whatsoever shall on any pretence sell, vend, or distribute medicines by retail, or prescribe for sick persons for gain, or practise physic or surgery within the province, or practise midwifery in the towns of Quebec and Montreal, or the suburbs thereof, without licence first had and obtained from his Excellency the Governor or the Commander in Chief of the province for the time being, which licence shall not be granted but upon certificate of the persons applying for the same, having been examined and approved by such persons as the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, may have appointed for the purpose of examining and inquiring into the knowledge of such persons in physic, or skill in surgery, or pharmacy, or midwifery, a copy of which certificate is to be annexed to the licence, which is to be enregistered in the office of the clerk of the peace of the district where the practioner resides.

And every person acting in any of the professions aforesaid without such licence, shall forfeit the sum of twenty pounds for the first offence, fifty pounds for the second, and one hundred pounds and three months imprisonment for every subsequent offence committed against the true intent and meaning of this ordinance, to be recovered in the Court of Common Pleas of the district where the offence shall have been committed; a moiety of such forfeiture to be paid to the Receiver-general of the province, and applied to the use of his Majesty's government here, to be accounted for by him to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, or to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the time being, and audited by his Majesty's Auditor-general for the plantations, or his deputy, and the other moiety to be paid to the person or persons who shall sue for the same.

Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That nothing in this ordinance shall extend or be construed to extend to the subjecting such persons, as shall have taken a degree in any University, or who have been commissioned or warranted as surgeons in his Majesty's army or navy to any examination previous to obtaining a licence; but to which licence to be enregistered as above, a copy of the degree or certificate of the commission or warrant shall be annexed.

And that no physician or surgeon doing duty in the army or navy within the province be obliged to have a licence.

Provided also, that nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent retailers or others from selling such drugs for which a royal patent has been obtained.

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE.

To alter the present method of drawing Sleds and Carioles, in order to remedy the inconveniencies arising from Cahots or Banks of Snow formed on the Winter-roads, and to amend the same.

WHEREAS his Majesty's subjects have long experienced the difficulty of winter communication, and the labour and attention required of the inhabitants to keep up and repair the winter-roads.

And whereas the present method of affixing the winter-carriages, known by the names of trains, sleds and carioles, to their shafts and runners, is the cause of the bad roads made by them during the winter-season; the cross-bar of the shaft fixed by its chain under the front part of the train, sled and cariole, collecting the new fallen snow as it is drawn along the road, and thereby forming at short distances the hillocks or banks of snow called cahots, the hollows between which are sometimes upwards of two feet in depth, to the great inconveniency of the public.

adopted will remedy the evil complained of at a very small expence, save much labour to the inhabitants, and facilitate travelling and carriage of every denomination, according to actual experience (in that department of the King's service under Isaac Winslow Clarke, Esq;) in the transportation of stores in very heavy loaded trains from Montreal to Lachine.

Be it therefore enacted by his Excellency the Governor and Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted and ordained by the authority of the same, That no winter-carriage shall be used after the tenth day of November next, not affixed to its shafts according to one of the models to be seen with the clerks of the markets of Quebec and Montreal, or one of the captains of militia of the town of Three-rivers and parishes of Vaudreuil, Soulange, l'Isle Perrault, La Prairie, Chambly, St. Jean, St. Denis, Boucherville, Vercheres, Sorel, Berthier, La Valtrie, l'Assomption, Terrebonne, La Riviere du Chene, l'Isle Jesus, Masquinongé, Machiche, Masha, La Baye du Fevre, Becancour, Gentilly, Champlain, Ste. Anne, Point aux Trembles de Quebec, Cape Santé, Deschambault, Lotbiniere, St. Antoine, St. Nicolas, St. Henri, Point Levi, Ste. Marie en Nouvelle, Beauce, Beaumont, St. Valier, Berthier, St. Pierre Riviere du Sud, Cap St. Ignace, St. Anne du Sud, Rivère, Ouelle, Kamouraska, Riviere du Loup, Malbaye, Baye St. Paul, St. Joachim, Chateau Riché, St. Pierre en l'Isle d'Orleans and St. Jean, under the penalty of five shillings on the person or persons using the same, and the seizure and forfeiture thereof. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and understood by this ordinance, That no person shall be prevented from using slays, carioles, or any other winter-carriages which are drawn by a pole with two horses or two bullocks abreast, or drawn by any other method whereby the bar of the shaft does not raise the snow, so as to form cahots as mentioned in the preamble of this ordinance.

And be it further enacted by the said authority, That after the first day of November next, the runners of every new train, sled or cariole, shall be at least nine inches high, and at least two inches broad, and six feet long at least, and shall be rounded off at the end to which the chains of the shafts are fastened, under the penalty of twenty shillings on the maker, and ten shillings on the owner and the seizure and forfeiture of every train, sled or cariole, not constructed according to this act.

And be it further enacted and ordained by the said authority, That all land-holders and others who by their tenures and the laws of the country are compellable to make and repair roads, do immediately after every fall of snow, carefully beat the King's high roads with sleds and carioles only affixed as aforesaid, continuing in other respects to set beacons, make, repair and uphold the said roads agreeable to the law and usage of the province.

And be it enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, That in the winter all high-roads in future within one league of the suburbs of the towns of Quebec and Montreal, shall run on each side of beacons to be set up between them in one straight line as exactly as may be, and that all travellers and carriages shall take the right of the beacons in going to and coming from the towns of Quebec and Montreal aforesaid, under the penalty of five shillings for the neglect of erecting such beacons by those whose duty it is at present to erect beacons, and of ten shillings for wantonly not pursuing the route above prescribed.

6 GEORGE V, A. 1916

And whereas by the ancient usage and police of the province, the public winter-roads along the rivers on the ice, were usually made by the same persons as were compellable to make the land-roads; and the roads across the said rivers leading to the towns of Quebec, Montreal and Three-rivers, by the inhabitants of the country parishes who had occasion for them to go to those towns; Be it therefore further enacted by the same authority, That the necessary and convenient public winter-roads across the River St. Lawrence, leading to the towns of Quebec, Three-rivers and Montreal, shall be traced, made, kept up, and beacons by the inhabitants accustomed to make the same; and all other winter-roads across the river St. Lawrence, and other rivers, shall be made, kept up and beacons, by the inhabitants according to ancient custom. And all winter-roads on the ice along the said river or any other river in the province, shall be traced, made, kept up and beacons, by the persons who are compellable to make the land-roads along the said river or rivers; and under the same inspection, and under the same fines, penalties and forfeitures on default, as are imposed by the ordinance of the seventeenth of his present Majesty, chap. 11.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several fines, forfeitures and penalties before-mentioned, shall be recoverable by the judgment of any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace with costs, and the sale of, at public auction, the effects of the offender by distress, and returning the surplus to the owner, on a summary hearing, and the testimony of any one credible witness or other satisfactory proof, one half of each of which penalties and forfeitures shall be paid to such under surveyor of roads, inspector of police, clerk of the market, master of provincial post-house and officer of militia, as shall bring forward the complaint for any offence against this act, and the other half to his Majesty's use; and it shall be the duty of the said officers to attend vigilantly to the due execution thereof, and every of them shall incur the penalty of fifteen shillings for every instance of his wilful negligence, to be recovered in due form of law in the Court of Common Pleas of the district where such penalty may incur.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, That the several fines and forfeitures reserved by this ordinance to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, for the public uses of this province and the government thereof, shall be paid to the Receiver-general of the province, to be accounted for to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, or to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the time being, and audited by his Majesty's Auditor-general for the plantations or his deputy.

DORCHESTER.

Enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, and passed in council under the great seal of the province, at the council-chamber in the castle of Saint Lewis, in the city of Quebec, the thirtieth day of April, in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of our sovereign lord GEORGE the THIRD, by the grace of GOD, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth; and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight.

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE.

For the Relief of the Poor, in the Loan of Seeds for Corn and other Necessaries.

WHEREAS many Farmers, distressed by the short Harvests of the last Year, have consumed what was necessary for Seed towards their Support in the next, and such as are able to spare Seed for their Supplies, may not be willing to trust it to the poorer Inhabitants, without indisputable Security for the Repayment thereof at the next ensuing Harvest: In Tenderness therefore to the distressed, and to prevent a general Dearth,

Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority of the same, That if any Contract or Agreement shall, within Two Months after the passing of this Act, be, bona fide, made in writing, for Supplies of Seed-Corn, or Potatoes, in the Presence of one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or a Curate of any Parish, or a Captain of the Militia and one other Credible Witness, not exceeding Thirty Bushels of Wheat, and Fifty Bushels of other Bread Corn or Grain, nor Twenty Bushels of Potatoes, to any one Buyer or Borrower, his Debt therefor, shall, in all Courts, be deemed and adjudged to be a privileged Debt, with the Benefit of preference to the Lender, before any other Creditor for any Demand of any Kind whatsoever, any Law Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Saving nevertheless, to His Majesty His Heirs and Successors, all the Rights of the Crown, with its Dues and Demands, as fully and effectually as if this Act had never been made.

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE,

To strengthen certain Deeds and Writings in the District of Hesse.

WHEREAS the want of a regular succession of Notaries, duly appointed, to perform the functions of that employment, in the District of Hesse; and the removal of the records or register of the contracts, mortgages, conveyances, and other writings and instruments, touching property in the said District, from the same, to the Secretary's Office in Quebec, by order of the Government, in the administration of His Excellency Sir Frederick Haldimand, for their greater security and preservation; may give occasion to doubts and controversies, detrimental to individuals, and injurious to the peace of the District: To prevent the same,

Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor, and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all such Notarial Acts, bonâ fide, transacted by any person in the said District, in the Character of a Notary, who was not duly appointed, and before the due appointment of another Notary, for the same District, shall not be invalid, merely for want of authority vested in due form of law, in the person or persons that have so acted as Notary or Notaries Public in the said District, but that the same shall be deem'd and adjudged to be as valid as if he or they then had lawful authority to perform the functions of that office or employment: And that the event and circumstance of the removal of the said records or register to Quebec, shall not be construed to destroy their authenticity and legal effect: Saving nevertheless to all persons interested and concerned, their other exceptions to the faith and authenticity of the said records and register, upon such proofs as may be offered against them, for any cause, other than the bare change of the deposit and custody of them, in the manner aforementioned.

CHAP. III.¹

AN ACT.

To continue the Ordinances regulating the Practice of the Law, and to provide more effectually for the dispensation of Justice, and especially in the New Districts.

Continuation of I.
the two former Ordinances.

I. Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Act, intituled, "An Ordinance to regulate the proceedings in the Courts of civil Judicature, and to establish Trials by Juries in actions of a commercial nature, and personal wrongs, to be compensated in Damages," passed in the twenty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign, "together with the Act continuing the same with additional Regulations," passed in the twenty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, be continued until the thirtieth day of April, which will be in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, and no longer.

Qualification of Jurors in the five
New Districts.

II. And the better to adapt the general provision to the present condition of the province, lately divided into the five New districts of Gaspé, Luneburg, Mecklenburg, Nassau and Hesse, be it further enacted, by the same authority, That it shall be no exception or challenge to a Juror on any Inquest or Trial in either of the said New Districts, that he is not a Free-holder, if such Juror, being otherwise qualified, shall have been for one year the actual occupant of one hundred acres of land under the permission or authority of the Government, within the District for which he is summoned, and shall have had a certificate thereof signed by the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, or under the signature of the Surveyor General or Deputy Surveyor General, or any Deputy of them or either of them.

Powers of the First Judge for the District of Hesse.

III. And be it also enacted by the same authority, That until the Bench of the Court of Common Pleas for the district of Hesse, shall have three Judges duly appointed to officiate thereon, all the powers and authorities of the whole number shall be vested in such person as shall have a Commission to be the first Judge thereof; any other Law, Act, or Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

On criminal prosecutions in the
New District Execution to be suspended when,
&c.

IV. And on account of the remoteness of the said New Districts, and for the security of the subject, and to prevent long imprisonments, and to lessen the public charges in criminal prosecutions, be it further enacted by the same authority, That on all trials to be had in either of the New Districts before Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, or general Gaol Delivery, when the Chief Justice of the province may happen not to be one, the execution of the Sentence or Judgment of the Court shall be suspended until the pleasure of the Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, shall be signified thereon, by warrant under his Hand and Seal at Arms.

V. And to the end that the Government may have full information of the proceedings of the said Courts of criminal Jurisdiction, be it also enacted by the same authority, That it shall be the duty of the said Courts, with all convenient speed, to transmit to the Governor, for the time being, not only copies of the indictment, information, or charge, and of the plea and other proceedings in every cause before them had, but of the written and parole testimony read and given to the Jury, and the scope and substance of the points ruled in Evidence, and of their charge to the Jury, and copy of the Verdict, and of every material transaction in the cause, together with such observations as they may think proper to make on every such cause and trial, and the whole under the signatures of the majority of the Judges before whom every such trial was had. Provided always and be it nevertheless enacted by the same authority, That it shall not be necessary to make such report of the proceedings, nor to stay the execution of the Sentence or Judgment in any case where it shall not extend to life or limb, nor to any greater fine, penalty or forfeiture than the sum of twenty-five pounds sterling money of Great-Britain.

Copies of the Proceedings to be transmitted to the Governor.

Proviso.

Cases, where execution shall be stayed, upon fines, &c., adjudged.

And wherever so great a sum shall be adjudged for a fine, forfeiture or penalty in any Court of Sessions of the Peace to be held in either of the said New Districts, execution shall in like manner be stayed, until such information is given to the Government by the major part of the Justices before whom the Trial was had, or Judgment given, as is above directed to be given by the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, except that it shall not be necessary in such Courts of Sessions to reduce to writing all the testimony that may be given to the Jury on Trials before them had, but that instead thereof it shall suffice to report only the main scope and substance thereof, and that the execution in every case to the amount aforesaid given by either of the Courts of Sessions of the Peace of the said New Districts, shall also await the signification of the pleasure of the Governor or Commander in Chief in the manner afore-mentioned.

Exception.

Persons convicted of a Capital Offence in the New Districts, may be conveyed to any of His Majesty's Prisons.

VI. And be it also enacted by the same authority, That until the New Districts aforesaid shall be furnished with safe Gaols and Prisons, and as often as the majority of the Commissioners of such Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery sitting therein, shall conceive it to be unsafe to continue within their District any Prisoner convicted before them of a Capital Offence, they may take course for conveying him to such other of His Majesty's Prisons, as they may designate, for his being safely kept to abide the Judgment of the Law; and the Sheriff and Gaoler, Bailiffs and Officers to whom any such Traitor or Felon shall have been delivered shall be respectively answerable for the Prisoner, and upon his escape shall severally be subject to all such punishments, pains, penalties and forfeitures, as they would respectively have incurred, had such Prisoner received such Judgment upon a conviction for the like offence committed within the Bailiwick for which they serve.

VII. And whereas the detention of prisoners until the sitting of the Court of King's Bench or the sitting of Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, hath been very burthensome to the public, and is likely to be increased by the insufficiency of the Gaols in the Old Districts, and the total want of them in the New Districts, and it often happens that persons committed for simple larcenies are either acquitted or only found guilty of petty larceny,

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

Petty Larceny extended to twenty shillings sterling.

Three Justices (one being of the Quorum) empowered to hear and determine breaches of the Peace and Petty Larceny.

Be it therefore enacted by the same authority, That simple larceny where the goods stolen shall not in value exceed twenty shillings sterling money of Great-Britain, shall be deemed and adjudged only petty larceny, and whenever any person shall stand committed to gaol for no higher offence, than a breach of the peace or petty larceny, and shall not within forty-eight hours after his commitment find bail sufficient in the opinion of any one Justice of the Peace for his appearance at the next Sessions of the Peace for the District where the offence is charged to be committed, it shall be lawful for any three Justices of the Peace (one of whom shall be of the Quorum) to meet and cause the offender to be convened before them at some public and convenient place, and then and there or at such other time and place to which they may adjourn, to hear the charge and defence with the Evidence for and against the prisoner, and to determine the same, and upon their conviction of the Guilt of the prisoner, to give Judgment against him for such corporal punishment (not extending to Life or Limb) as they or the major part of them shall in their discretion think adequate to the demerit of his offence, and that after the execution thereof the offender shall be discharged; but if he shall not have been a stated Resident of the province for twelve months preceding his commitment, and shall in twenty days after his discharge be found within the same District, and shall wilfully have remained in the same, it shall be lawful for any one Justice to commit him to prison, and for three Justices to proceed against him in manner aforesaid, and to adjudge him to such further correction (not extending to Life or Limb) as they in their discretion shall think proper, unless he shall find good and sufficient sureties in the opinion of the Justices by whom he shall be tried, to recognize in such sum as they shall appoint for his good behaviour for seven years, on giving which he shall be set at liberty, and the recognizance be filed with the Clerk of the Peace.

Gaolers & Peace Officers, to aid and assist.

And all Gaolers, Constables and Peace Officers, when thereunto required, shall be aiding and assisting to the Justices employed in the said service under the penalty of ten shillings for every default, to be recovered before any one Justice of the Peace, in a summary way, by warrant of distress and sale of the Offender's goods and chattels, returning the overplus to the Owner, if any there be, after deducting the penalty and the costs, one half of which penalty shall belong to the person suing for the same, and the other to the Crown, and be forthwith paid by the Officer executing the said warrant into the hands of His Majesty's Receiver General.

VIII. And in as much as the annual collection of the Trade will require yearly Circuit Courts to be held in the northern parts of the District of Hesse, Terms, &c. for the District of Hesse, how to be ascertained.

Be it also enacted by the same authority, That it shall be lawful for the Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, by Proclamation to be issued under the Great Seal of this province, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Council, to ascertain the terms of such Sessions, and the cognizance of the causes there to be tried and adjudged, and the mode of proceeding therein, and whatever shall appear to be requisite for the effectual administration of Civil Justice, at such Circuit Courts, or the perfecting the business thereof in any other Court of the said, or any other District; this Act, and any other Law usage or custom to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Jurisdiction of the Civil Courts in the District of Hesse relating to Domicile.

IX. And be it further enacted by the same authority, That in Civil Actions to be instituted in the District of Hesse, it shall not be a ground of Exception of any kind whatsoever to oust the Courts of the said District of Jurisdiction, that the Cause of action arose out of the same, or that by reason of the Domicile of the Defendant it ought to be brought elsewhere, but that all the proceedings in causes there instituted, and the Judgment and Execution thereon, shall be deemed and adjudged to have the like force, effect and consequences in all respects whatsoever, as if the cause of action, and ground of defence had arisen, and all transactions relating to the same had happened within the said District of Hesse.

X. And forasmuch as for want of a regular Magistracy, and an establishment for the convenient dispensation of Justice in the District of Hesse, attempts may be made to elude the payment of just debts, under pretext of the Laws of prescription or limitation, which presuppose a state of general tranquility, and the easy and free course of Justice, Particular limitation of actions in the District of Hesse.

Be it also enacted by the same authority, That every such Plea or Defence under the Laws of prescription or limitation be adjudged to be null and void in every Cause to be instituted in the Courts of the said District of Hesse, except in actions and cases accruing posterior to the first day of January which will be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety. Provided always, and be it enacted that nothing herein contained shall be construed to revive a demand for cause of action arisen prior to the first day of January in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six.

Proviso.

XI. And whereas the western Districts of Luneburg, Mecklenburg, Nassau and Hesse are, and also the District of Gaspé probably will be chiefly inhabited by persons born within the ancient dominions of the Crown of Great-Britain, Proofs, admissible in the five New Districts.

Be it further enacted by the same authority, That in civil causes hereafter to be tried or adjudged and determined in either of the said New Districts, where the title to the Freehold shall not come into question, no proof offered in such cause shall be deemed to be inadmissible that would be sufficient to sustain the point for which the same is offered, either by the ancient or present laws of the province, or by the laws of England.

Sale of Moveables in the New Districts.

XII. Where moveables shall be taken in Execution by the Sheriff of the District of Hesse, Luneburg, Mecklenburg, or Nassau, or Gaspé, he shall cause such seizure to be published at the church door of the parish immediately after divine service, on the first Sunday succeeding such seizure; or if there be no Church in the Township or Parish, then such Seizure shall be notified by publication or advertisement in writing affixed to the door of the Court-house of the District, and also at the nearest Grist-mill, as soon as may be after such seizure, and the said notification shall design the day and place where and when he means to proceed to the sale thereof, not protracting such sale beyond fourteen days from the date of such publication. And when Lands and Tenements shall be taken in execution by the Sheriff of either of the said Districts, he shall advertise the Sale of Real Estates.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

sale by three several publications in writing to be fixed at the Door of the Court-house of the District, and in some ostensible place in the office of the Clerk of the Court whence the Execution issued, and at the nearest Grist-mill; such notice to be renewed the first Monday of three successive months preceding the Sale, which shall not take place in less than four months after the date of the first publication.

In personal actions, no exception to be taken by reason of the Domicile of the Defendant.

XIII. Be it further enacted by the same authority, That in all personal actions to be instituted in any of the districts in this province, it shall not be a legal exception that the cause of action arose out of such District, or that by reason of the Domicile of the Defendant it ought to be brought elsewhere, but that all the proceedings in such actions, and the Judgments and Executions thereon, shall be deemed and adjudged to have the like force and effect in every respect, as if the cause of action, and ground of defence had arisen, and all transactions relating thereto had happened in the District where the action is instituted; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Executions to issue from one District to the other.

XIV. And be it enacted by the same authority, That the course and power given by the said Act, intituled, "An Ordinance to regulate the proceedings in the Courts of Civil Judicature, and to establish Trials by Juries in actions of a commercial nature, and personal wrongs to be compensated in Damages" for perfecting the execution of a Judgment out of the District where the same was rendered, shall be pursued in every old or new district of the province.

Appeals from the New Districts.

XV. And that parties adjudged in the said New Districts may not be deprived of their Right and Benefit of Appeal,

Be it further enacted by the same authority, That the giving security as heretofore used on the bringing of a Writ of Appeal, shall as effectually suspend execution in Causes of the said Districts, as in the Old Districts on the actual production of a Writ of Appeal, such Appellant in all other respects conforming to the Law of Appeals as it now stands, and suing out within twenty days after Judgment an office copy of the proceedings in the cause adjudged; which, to prevent delays, shall be as effectual before the appellate Jurisdiction, as if transmitted according to the present Law and Usage in Appeals, from the Common Pleas Courts of the Old Districts.

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE,

To explain and amend an Act, intituled, "An Act or Ordinance for better regulating the Militia of this Province, and rendering it of more general utility towards the preservation and security thereof.

Preamble.

I. WHEREAS an Experience of two years hath shewn the Expediency of making some amendments and additions to the Ordinance passed the twenty-third day of April, which was in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty seven and in the twenty-seventh year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Ordinance for the better regulating the Militia of this Province and rendering it of more general utility towards the preservation and security thereof," Be it enacted by his Excellency the Governor and Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That whenever any person shall be convicted of the first offence mentioned in the first article of the above recited Ordinance, and shall not have paid the fine of Five pounds within forty-eight hours after such conviction, it shall be lawful for the Field Officers who tried the offence, to commit the Offender to prison, provided such imprisonment shall not exceed the term of one month.

Penalty for refusing to enrol.

II. Whereas inconveniencies have arisen from the Court of Field Officers not being authorised to diminish the Fines and Penalties imposed by the subsequent articles of the said Ordinance, be it enacted by the same authority, That the said Courts of Field Officers shall have full power to reduce and diminish the said Penalties and Fines according to the circumstances of the case and their discretion.

Penalties and fines may be diminished.

III. And be it further enacted by the same authority, That when the Fine shall exceed Ten shillings, the Court of Field Officers shall consist of the Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, and Major, and in case of the absence of any of them, of the Officers next in rank.

Concerning fines exceeding ten shillings.

IV. And in order to explain in a clearer manner the times of review fixed by the said Ordinance, as well as to anticipate the particular circumstances that may require them,

Times of Review.

Be it therefore enacted by the said authority, That the Militia shall assemble and be reviewed one day in every month from the first day of May to the thirtieth day of September, and at such other times as the Commander in Chief shall think necessary.

Insulting an Officer or Serjeant in the execution of his duty.

V. Be it further enacted, That whoever shall quarrel, or insult by abusive words, or otherwise, an Officer or Serjeant, being in the execution of his office, shall suffer punishment according to the nature of such offence, by sentence of the Board of Field Officers, not exceeding however a Fine of Forty shillings and Fifteen days imprisonment.

Serjeants exempted to serve on Juries, &c.

VI. Be it also enacted, That the Serjeants of the towns, suburbs and precincts, shall not be compelled to serve in the offices of Jurors or Constables as long as they continue to be serjeants.

The Governor may make regulations for disciplining the Militia.

VII. Be it also enacted by the same authority, That it shall be lawful for the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, to make from time to time, and issue under his Hand and Seal, such Regulations as he shall think necessary for the better discipline of the Militia. Provided nevertheless, that the Offenders against such Regulations shall not be liable to a higher Fine than that of Forty shillings, and to an imprisonment of more than Eight days.

Proviso.

VIII. And be it also enacted by the same authority, That in the Regulations so to be issued for the better discipline of the Militia, either of the Fines and Penalties in the said Act mentioned may be lessened, as the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, shall in his discretion be pleased to ordain in manner aforesaid: And that in all levies of the same by Warrant of Distress or otherwise, the costs and charges attending the levy, shall be also recoverable. Provided always that such costs do not altogether exceed the

CHAP. I.¹

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE,

To amend the Ordinance intituled "an Ordinance for regulating the Pilotage in the River St. Lawrence, and for preventing Abuses in the Port of Quebec."

FOR more effectually preventing accidents by fire, and without unnecessary restraints on shipping, Be it Enacted by His Excellency the Governor and Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the publication of this Ordinance, it shall not be lawful to have fire on board of any ship or vessel laying in the Cul-de-sac or at any of the wharfs or quays in Quebec or the Suburbs thereof, in any other than close cambuses or fire-places made of iron or other metal, brick or stone— and every fire on board any ship or vessel laying in the Cul-de-sac or at any of the wharfs or quays aforesaid, shall be put out at Sun set and shall not be lighted again before Sun-rise the next day, and the master or owner of any vessel using fire-places on board, other than as aforesaid, shall incur a penalty of five pounds, likewise the same penalty for permitting fire to be made on board from Sun-down to Sun-rise, and the like penalty for every repetition of either of such offences.

And be it further enacted by the same authority, that if any vessel shall in the night-time use any lighted candle while laying in the Cul-de-sac or at any wharf or quay aforesaid, such candle not being in a lantern, the master and person or persons using the same shall for every offence incur a penalty of twenty shillings; but this clause shall not be construed to prevent the necessary use of candle in the cabin or steerage tho' the same be not in a lantern.

And be it further enacted by the same authority that all proprietors of wharfs facing or fronting the Cul-de-sac, shall affix sufficient ring-bolts at thirty feet distance from each other in the front or face of their wharfs, and permit the shipping to make fast thereto, or incur a penalty of ten shillings for every refusal or neglect.

And whereas no danger can arise from permitting pitch or tar, turpentine, or rosin to be heated or boiled in the Cul-de-sac or any other part or place where vessels lay for the purpose of graving, if the fire and pitch-pot be at a proper distance from any wharf, vessel or building, Be it therefore enacted by the same authority, that notwithstanding any thing to the contrary in the twentieth section of the said Act or Ordinance or any other law or ordinance whatsoever, it shall and may be lawful for the purpose aforesaid to boil tar or pitch, turpentine or rosin in the Cul-de-sac or at any wharf or quay in or about Quebec. Provided always the same be done at the distance of twenty feet at least from any vessel, wharf or building whatever, and provided that while the same is heating or boiling, a person constantly attend with a tarpauling and shovel at hand to cover the same in the case of its taking fire; and provided also, that the fire be immediately thereafter carefully put out and extinguished; any master or owner of a vessel or other person making default therein shall incur a penalty of five pounds for every such default or neglect.

No Pitch to be boiled on board any vessel in the Cul-de-sac, &c.

And be it further enacted by the same authority that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to permit any pitch-pot to be heated or boiled on board of any vessel, or any vessel to be breamed or blazed while laying in the Cul-de-sac at any of the wharfs, quays or places aforesaid. And any person guilty of either of these offences shall be subject to a penalty of ten pounds for every of them.

Pilots on their arrival at Quebec to report to the Superintendent.

And be it enacted by the same authority, that every pilot who shall have piloted any ship or vessel into the port of Quebec shall in twenty-four hours thereafter make report thereof to the superintendent of pilots or Captain of the port, and shall produce a certificate of his behaviour while on board, if any such he has obtained, or incur a penalty of five shillings—and the master or commander of every such ship or vessel is hereby directed to grant such certificate to every such pilot truly representing his conduct in the execution of his duty as a Pilot,—And any master refusing such certificate upon the demand of the pilot shall incur a penalty of twenty shillings to his use.—And if any pilot shall stay in Quebec above eight days at one time, after being discharged from piloting in any ship or vessel, from the first of May to the first of November, except in the case of his being engaged to pilot out any ship or vessel, or of sickness, or other lawful hindrance or restraint, of which he shall inform the superintendent or master of the port, naming the ship and master, or other cause of detention, he shall incur a penalty of ten shillings for every such offence. And if any pilot or other person shall fraudulently use the branch or branches of any deceased pilot, he shall incur a penalty of twenty pounds, and suffer three months imprisonment for every such offence.

Masters of vessels to give the Pilot a certificate.

Pilots not to stay at Quebec above eight days at a time.

Nor to use the branch of any deceased Pilot.

And be it further enacted by the same authority, That any person or persons wilfully removing or destroying, or maliciously procuring to be removed or destroyed, any buoy, beacon, or land-mark placed for the purpose of navigation in the River or on the shores of the St. Lawrence, between the Island of St. Barnaby and the town of Montreal, or in any of the navigable Lakes or Rivers of the Province, he or they, shall incur a penalty of twenty pounds, and be committed to prison three months for every such offence.

Buoys, beacons, &c., not to be removed.

Penalty.

The Captain of the Port to select certain laws.

And be it further enacted by the same authority, that the Captain of the Port, or other person thereunto to be appointed by His Excellency the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, by any writing under his hand and seal at arms, do select all the laws and regulations concerning Pilots and the navigation of the River St. Lawrence below Montreal, or expressive of the duties of masters of vessels in the Ports of Quebec and Montreal, and that he do deliver the same printed or in writing, and signed by him, to every such master on his arrival in Port, if he be desirous thereof; for which service, the master of the Port or person so appointed, may lawfully take and receive from every ship master the sum of five shillings and no more.

Penalties how recoverable.

And be it enacted by the same authority, That all penalties incurred under this act, shall be sued for, recovered and applied as penalties under the act aforesaid.

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE,

In Addition to the Act, intituled, "An Act or Ordinance further to regulate the Inland Commerce of this Province and to extend the same," passed in the twenty-eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the importation of divers articles of Goods and Merchandize, particularly enumerated in the said Act, is permitted, under certain restrictions in the same mentioned, and it may be expedient to extend the same:

Pig-iron permitted to be imported.

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the free importation given by the said Act to the articles therein distinguished, as enumerated articles, shall extend to Pig-iron, as fully as if the same were enumerated in the said Act, and under the like terms, conditions and regulations; and that every Pig of Iron so imported shall be marked in the mould in legible letters "VERMONT."

Fines, &c., may be prosecuted in the Courts of Common Pleas.

And be it further enacted by the same authority, that nothing in any former Act or Ordinance of this Province, shall be construed to compel the Officers appointed, or to be appointed under the Great Seal of this Province, for executing the regulations relating to the Inland Commerce thereof, to proceed in the Vice Admiralty for the forfeitures, fines, and penalties thereby incurred, but that the same may be sued for and prosecuted as effectually as the case may require, in either of His Majesty's Courts of Common-Pleas.

the several Tolls herein after mentioned, for passing the same, that is to say, for every calesh, chaise or cart, loaden or empty drawn by one horse and for the driver, four pence; for the same with two horses and driver, six pence; for every horse and person riding the same, two pence; for every foot passenger, one half penny; for every ox, cow, or horned cattle, two pence; for every calf, sheep or swine, passing on foot, one half penny; and so in proportion for a greater number: And whereas it is apprehended that other and different articles, not comprized in the said Letters Patent, may require to be transported over the said Bridge, and for which it is proper to ascertain a certain fixed rate; Be it Enacted and Ordained by His Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Justices of the Peace for the District of Quebec, in their Quarter Sessions, may, and they are hereby authorized, from time to time, to fix a Toll for all and every Carriage or kind of Cattle which may be required to pass over the said Bridge, as are not enumerated in the said Letters Patent or Ordinance, as herein before mentioned. And the said Patentees, and their several Heirs, Executors and Administrators, are hereby authorised to exact, collect, and receive not only the Toll specified in the said Letters Patent and Ordinance referred to, but also such Toll as shall at any time, and from time to time be fixed by the Justices in their Quarter Sessions as aforesaid during the term granted by the said Letters Patent.

Justices of the Peace, in Quarter Sessions empowered to fix a Toll for carriages and cattle not herein enumerated.

And Whereas the laudable Undertaking of the Patentees in the construction of the said Bridge, tending to promote His Majesty's service, and conducing to the manifest advantage of His Majesty's Subjects in the city of Quebec, and the vicinity thereof, requires encouragement and protection; It is hereby further enacted by the same authority, that no person or persons whatsoever shall, at any time hereafter during the term granted by the said Letters Patent, erect or cause to be erected any Bridge, or use or erect any Ferry Boat or Canoe for the passing or conveying, or shall in any manner pass or convey, for lucre and gain, any person or persons or any of the articles enumerated in the said Letters Patent, or those to be ascertained by the Justices in their Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, over the said River St. Charles, between the North-West boundary of the land the property of the Honorable William Grant, Esq. and the North-East boundary of the lands of the Ladies of the General Hospital; and if at any time any person or persons shall, for lucre or gain, pass, transport, or convey any person or persons, or any of the articles specified in the said Letters Patent, or to be ascertained by the Justices in their Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, during the time the said Patentees shall enjoy the same, such offender shall, for every offence, forfeit the sum of ten shillings, recoverable by complaint before any one or more Justices of the Peace, and to be levied by warrant of distress under his or their hand and seal, one half of which forfeiture shall be paid to the Receiver General for the Use of His Majesty, and the other half to the person suing for the same.

An ACT or ORDINANCE,

For preventing Cattle from going at large, or l'Abandon des Animaux.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been represented by many respectable inhabitants of the Districts of Quebec and Montreal, that the usage or custom of allowing Cattle to go at large in the fall and spring of the year, known under the name of l'Abandon des Animaux, is hurtful to improvement and Agriculture, Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council of this Province, and by the authority of the same it is hereby enacted and ordained, that from and after the first day of September next, the aforesaid custom known by the name of the Abandon, shall be abolished; that the fences shall be kept up and maintained at all seasons of the year; nor shall it be lawful for any person, at any time, to break down the fences that separate his and his neighbour's lands, or the lands of any other person, or let his Horses, horned cattle, sheep, goats or hogs trespass on individuals, or stray in the public high-roads; any usage to the contrary notwithstanding. And if any neat cattle, goat or sheep be taken in trespass, or straying in the public high-way, the proprietor thereof, over and above the damage which may be recovered in due course of law, shall incur a fine of one shilling for each neat cattle or goat, and three pence for each sheep.

Cattle taken in trespass.

And any cattle taken in trespass may be detained until reclaimed by the owner thereof, and the reasonable charges of maintaining them shall be added to the damage done, together with all costs of suit, and execution shall issue against the defendants goods and chattels for the amount thereof. Provided always that the person detaining any such cattle shall have caused the detention of them to be cried or proclaimed at the Church-door of the parish where taken, on the three subsequent Sundays after their detention, immediately after divine service if the owner does not claim them at the first or second crying.

Penalty for breach of the Regulations.

And be it enacted by the same authority, that any person or persons who shall break any fence, or tread down any growing corn, or hemp, or flax, or pulse, or growing vegetable for the sustenance of man, or enter upon any hay-field, while the grass for hay is growing thereon, shall incur and pay a fine of two shillings and sixpence, over and above the damage which may be recovered by the proprietor thereof for every such trespass in due course of law.

Where recoverable.

And be it enacted by the same authority, that every injury and damage which shall be sustained by every such straying or trespass as beforementioned, may be used and recovered in the Court of Common-Pleas of the district, or other Court for the trial of small causes in the circle where the same shall be incurred or sustained, and may be ascertained upon the oath of one or more credible witnesses not interested in the damage sustained. AN ACT OR ORDINANCE,

To form a New District between the Districts of Quebec and Montreal, and for regulating the same Districts.

Preamble.

WHEREAS divers inconveniencies arise by the immoderate extent of the said Districts of Quebec and Montreal, and earnest requests for relief are made by the inhabitants on both sides of Three Rivers, in the middle distances between the cities of Quebec and Montreal:

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is accordingly hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the district of Quebec shall extend no farther West-ward than to the Eastern line of the seigniory of Dorvillier, and along the course of the same to the Northern boundary of the Province, on the North side of the St. Laurence, and to the Eastern line of the seigniory of Le Bequet, and along the course of the same to the Southern boundary of the Province on the South side of the St. Laurence; nor the District of Montreal farther East-ward than to the Western line of the seigniory of Masquinongé, and along the course thereof to the Northern boundary of the Province on the North side of the St. Laurence, and to the Western line of the seigniory of Yamaska, and along the course thereof to the Southern boundary of the Province on the South side of the St. Laurence; and that all the intermediate country, between the said Districts of Quebec and Montreal shall be henceforth separated therefrom and be a New District, and be called the district of THREE RIVERS, and that the chief or County town thereof shall be the Town of Three Rivers.

And be it enacted by the same authority, That as soon as the said New District of Three Rivers shall be organized in the manner of the said Districts of Quebec and Montreal, by like Courts and Judicatures, Magistrates, Commissioners, Offices and Officers, it shall enjoy all the like privileges and benefits, and be subject to the like burdens and service, now common to the said Districts of Quebec and Montreal, of which it was a part, except in such cases as the same shall be varied from by this Act or Ordinance, or such as may be hereafter for such purpose enacted.

Similar powers vested in the courts of the new districts with those of Quebec and Montreal.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, that the Courts, Offices, and Officers, to be established and constituted for the said New District, shall have all the powers and authorities of the like Courts, Offices and Officers in either of the said Old Districts of Quebec and Montreal, and be subject to the same Laws, Rules and Regulations in all cases whatsoever.

Proviso.

Provided always, and be it also enacted, That the Court of Common Pleas to be erected in the said New District, shall hold but Two Sessions in the Year, viz. One commencing the first Tuesday of February and the other commencing the first Tuesday of August, and each continuing for eight days, (except Sundays and Holy-days) which are not to be counted for Law-days.

Two sessions in the year.

And the better to enable the Judges of all the said Districts to officiate on the Bench of each, and that the business may be the more conveniently attended in the Courts of all of them, Be it also enacted by the same authority, that the Sessions of the Court of Common Pleas for the District of Quebec, shall commence and be the first fifteen days (Sundays and Holy-Days excepted) in the months of January and July, and the last fifteen days of March and September, yearly, and that the Session for the Court of Common Pleas for the District of Montreal shall commence and be the last fifteen days of February, May, August and November, yearly, Sundays and Holy-Days excepted.

Sessions of the Court of Common Pleas for Quebec.

Sessions of the Common Pleas for Montreal.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt the proceedings and Judgments of the Common Pleas of the said New District from the Powers and authorities of the Court of Appeals, and all Laws and Ordinances heretofore made and binding upon the Common Pleas of the Districts of Quebec and Montreal, and the course of practice thereof, shall as effectually bind the Common Pleas of the said New District and all Officers and others, as if the said District had been especially named or included in any Law or Ordinance with the said Districts of Quebec and Montreal.

Powers of the Court of Appeals over the new district.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, That until future provision be made by Laws for that purpose to be passed, it shall be lawful for the Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, to designate, set apart, and appoint a place or places for holding the Courts of the said New District, and the Gaol or Prisons for the confinement and punishment of prisoners, as well in Civil as in Criminal cases, and for the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Council, to take Order to provide for the better police and government of the said town of Three Rivers, to the intent that the same town may be regulated, as nearly as the condition and circumstances thereof will permit, in the manner now used and practised in the said Cities of Quebec and Montreal, and that such temporary orders and regulations to be directed and made by Proclamation under the Great Seal, shall be as binding upon all Officers and others, as if the same were particularly and specially hereby enacted and declared.

The Governor to designate places for holding courts of justice there, and the goal, and, with the Council, to provide for the police of the town of Three Rivers.

AN ACT OR ORDINANCE,

For the better Preservation and due Distribution of the Ancient French Records:

Preamble.

WHEREAS there are several hundred volumes of Papers, Manuscripts and Records, very interesting to such of the inhabitants of this Province, as hold property under Titles acquired prior to the conquest, which ought so to be disposed of, as to give a cheap and easy access to them; and it is expedient that they be kept in a state of preservation and safety, and that measures be pursued to make them known and useful; And whereas the ancient records of the district of Montreal require a speedy attention to preserve them from danger and ruin, and the erection of the New District of Three Rivers, separated from the Districts of Quebec and Montreal renders it necessary to restore to the said District of Three Rivers, such of the Public Records as may be found elsewhere and more immediately concern the inhabitants of the said District of Three Rivers: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall and may be lawful, for the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice of the Council, to make orders from time to time touching the arrangement, removal, digesting, printing, publishing, distributing, preserving and disposing of the same papers, manuscripts, and records, or any parcel thereof; and every person possessed of any of the said papers, manuscripts, and records, anciently appurtenant to any Public Office or deposit prior to the conquest, who shall surrender the same, as by such order may be required, shall be as justifiable therefor in the law, as if the same were delivered up in pursuance of any act or Ordinance for such purpose specially made and provided.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, from the quantity of wheat and other grain in the Province, a scarcity of bread, so necessary for the sustenance of the people, may be apprehended, if the exportation of wheat, pease, barley, rye, oats, biscuit, flour or meal, be not prevented for a limited time: Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor, by and with the consent of the Legislative Council of this Province, and by the authority of the same it is hereby enacted and ordained, that after the publication of this Ordinance no person or persons whatsoever, shall directly, or indirectly, export, carry or convey, or cause to be exported, carried or conveyed out of this Province, or shall load on board of any ship, vessel or boat, in order to be carried, conveyed and transported out of this Province, any wheat, pease, biscuit, barley, rye, oats, flour or meal of any kind. Provided always that this Ordinance, or any thing therein contained shall not extend to prohibit the exportation or carrying out of this Province, such or so much of all or any of the several articles of provision above specified, for the victualling of such ships and vessels trading to and from this Province, as shall be necessary for the support of the crew and passengers of the same, or for the support of any horses, cattle, or other live stock on board such ship or vessel for their respective voyages only, or to prevent, hinder or restrain the transporting and sending to the several fisheries within this Province, or to the King's posts, such provisions as may be necessary for the support of the same, the masters of all such ships and vessels that pass sea-ward from the Port of Quebec or the shippers of the several provisions, or the owners thereof, having first complied with the directions respecting such exportation as are hereinafter contained.

Be it enacted by the same authority, that all masters of vessels, merchants or their agents, or whoever may have the direction of clearing from the Custom-House or Ports within this Province any ship or vessel to depart from the same, laden with such provisions as herein before specified, to any of the fisheries or fishing posts below Quebec and within the Province or the posts as aforesaid, or shall have occasion to take in such provisions for the use of the crew and passengers of any ship or vessel trading to or from this Province, that such masters of ships or vessels, or such merchants and others as aforesaid, shall before lading on board any such ship or vessel any such provisions as aforesaid, make an entry with the Naval-officer or his Deputy, of the several quantities and qualities of the provisions above specified which may be necessary or permitted to be laden on board, and that such master of such ship or vessel shall obtain a clearance, Licence and permit from the Naval Officer or his Deputy to take on board and transport the same.

Proviso, on security being given to answer the prosecution.

Naval-officer not to neglect his duty.

Provided always and it is hereby enacted, that the masters of all such ships and vessels shall previous to their obtaining such permit and clearance, make oath before the Naval-Officer or his Deputy (who are hereby authorized to administer the same) that such provisions entered for the ship's use are bona fide for the use and support of the crew and passengers of the same, and that for such provisions as may be shipped for the support of the fisheries and fishing-posts dependant on this Province below Quebec, he the said master the owner or shipper shall enter into bond to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, with two good and sufficient sureties, in a penal sum to the full amount of the value of such provisions so to be entered and shipped, on condition that the whole shall be duly carried and conveyed to the port or place specified in the entry and there landed, and that no part thereof shall be exported or landed in any other port or place out of the limits of this Province. And it is hereby ordained and declared, that a service of process against such person or persons shall be liable to the penalties and forfeitures secured by such bond, whether present or absent shall be deemed good service, if left with, or notified to, all or any of the persons so becoming security as aforesaid, and that it shall not be in any respect necessary to proceed to a discussion of the person or persons adjudged to pay such penalties or forfeitures, but that the persons so bound as aforesaid, shall be immediately answerable for the same, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it enacted by same authority, that whosoever shall contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, ship or load or cause to be shipped or loaden, on board of any ship, vessel or boat all or any of the articles of provision herein before mentioned, without having previously complied with the several clauses, terms and conditions of this Ordinance shall for every such offence be liable respectively to the penalty and forfeiture of the sum of one hundred pounds, besides the forfeiture of the provisions so shipped or laden, and the ship, vessel, or boat, in which such provisions shall be shipped or laden as aforesaid, contrary to this Ordinance, is hereby made liable and answerable ad valorem for the penalties hereby imposed, and may be lawfully seized and sold for payment of the same. And be it enacted by the same authority that the Naval Officer or his Deputy shall have full power and authority to enter on board any ship or vessel, and the same and every part thereof, to search and examine, and after having with all diligence ascertained the quantity of provisions so illegally laden and the same cause to be brought on shore, which he is hereby authorized to do, lawfully may seize and hold in his or their custody every ship or vessel on board of which may be laden any provisions contrary to this Ordinance, and the same retain until judgment of law be made on the premises. Provided always that the said Naval Officer, or his Deputy, shall release and give up such ship or vessel so seized upon the Owner or Master entering into bond with two good and sufficient sureties in a sum adequate to the penalties and forfeitures hereby imposed to the said Naval Officer or his Deputy, to answer the prosecution and to make good the judgment of law against such Master, Owner or Shipper for having acted contrary or neglected to comply with this Ordinance.

And be it enacted by the same authority, That the Naval Officer or his Deputy or Deputies; who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to take the entry, oath and security above-mentioned, or who may grant any clearance of any ship or vessel, before having taken such entry, oath, and security, or who shall neglect or refuse to perform the several duties by this Ordinance required, shall be liable to and have judgment against him or them for the same penalties, and the value of all such forfeitures as by this Ordinance the Master, Shipper or Owner of such ship or vessel, or the provisions therein laden, would be liable to, for a wilful neglect or refusal to conform to this Ordinance, or the particular duty necessary to be performed as above-mentioned.

Prosecutions.

Be it enacted by the same authority, That all and every person concerned acting contrary, or refusing or neglecting to conform to this Ordinance, and the penalties and forfeitures imposed as above, shall and may be prosecuted, sued for and recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of record in this province, according to the course and usage of such Courts, for the trial, hearing and judgment of causes, and the forfeitures above-mentioned being recovered, shall be divided and paid one moiety to the Receiver General of the province for the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the person who shall inform, sue for, and prosecute the same.

Forfeitures how to be divided.

This Ordinance to be in force for one year.

And be it enacted by the same authority, That this Ordinance shall be and remain in force, from the publication of the same, for and during the space of one year, with authority nevertheless to His Excellency the Governor or Comander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Council, at any time from and after the fiftenth day of August next, if they shall think it expedient by proclamation under the Great Seal of the province, to take off the Embargo directed by this Ordinance, on all or any part of such provisions as are therein specified; and the same again in like manner by proclamation, to lay on or continue, reviving the several clauses and conditions of this Ordinance thereby in whole or in part, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Governor with the advice of His Majesty's Council, may after the 15th of August take off the Embargo, in whole, or in part.

CHAP. I.¹

AN ACT,

To explain and amend the Act intitled, "An Act or Ordinance for promoting the Inland Navigation," and to promote the Trade to the Western Country.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to the prosperity of the Commerce which it was the intention of the said Ordinance to encourage, that it be unlogged with any unnecessary impediments, Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the Oath to the manifest of the Cargo of such vessels trading to the Western Countries which by the said Act are required to have Registers, shall suffice as to such Articles as are not shipped upon the private Account of the Chief Navigator, if he shall swear that the quantities and qualities are in his Manifest stated according to his Bills of Lading, and that the Manifest doth express the whole thereof according to the best of his knowledge and belief, and likewise every article of trade on his private account or on account of any person whatsoever.

Effect of the Oath to the Manifest.

And be it further enacted by the same Authority, that as often as the vessel may be seized for not being documented as by the Act is required, it shall not expose to confiscation either the Vessel or her Apparel and Furniture, or the Property therein, of any of the Shippers not being privy thereto or concerned therein, provided they shall respectively be His Majesty's good and faithful Subjects, residing within His Dominions.

Undocumented Vessels not exposed to Confiscation.

Proviso.

But for the prevention of Frauds in the Navigation and Commerce aforesaid, Be it further enacted by the same Authority, that as often as any Vessel shall be found sailing on the interior Lakes or Rivers, from any Part of His Majesty's Territories, not documented as by Law directed, the Captain or Chief Navigator shall not only be answerable to all and every Person and Persons who may receive Loss and Damage thereby, but shall incur a Penalty of Two Hundred Pounds to His Majesty, to be sued for and recovered in any Court of Justice within this Province, one third of which forfeiture shall belong to the Person or Persons suing for the same; And for the more secure recovery thereof, such Captain or Chief Navigator shall be detained and imprisoned until he shall have entered into recognizance in double the said Penalty, with two sufficient Sureties in the Judgment of one of the Judges of the Common Pleas of the District of the Port, Post or Place to which he may be brought, personally to appear in the Court of King's Bench, within one Year from the Date of such Recognizance, there to answer to any Suit to be brought against him for the said Penalty, and to abide the Judgment of the said Court.

When the Captain shall be answerable and incur a Fine of £200.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

In case of Acquittal, or Discharge, no Damages or Costs to be recovered, if reasonable cause of Seizure or Prosecution be inserted in the Minutes.

And be it also enacted by the same Authority, that whenever the Court, before which any proceedings may be had for any such Seizure or Penalty, shall give Judgment for the acquittal of the acquittal of the property seized, or the discharge of the Party prosecuted, but shall at the same time cause to be entered in the Minutes of the Court, that the Prosecutor had reasonable cause for making the Seizure or commencing the same Suit, the Owner or Defendant shall not recover any Damages or Costs against any Persons concerned in such Seizure or Prosecution.

No license for trading necessary.

And to the end that the Trade to the Western Districts and Indian Countries may be free and open to all His Majesty's faithful Subjects in every Part of His Majesty's Inland Dominions and Territories whatsoever, Be it enacted by the same Authority, that from and after the publication of this Act, it shall not be necessary for any of His Majesty's Subjects, carrying on Trade or other stated Residences of this Province, to take out any where or from any Person or Persons any Licence, Pass, Permit or other Writing whatsoever, for going into or trading with the Indians or other inhabitants of the Western Countries, Districts or Counties of this Province, or Territories whatsoever, or for carrying or conveying thither or elsewhere, in Boats, Battoes or Canoes, Wares or Merchandize, or Provisions, or other effects not specially prohibited, or for returning with the same or any Part thereof, or with the Produce in Bever Furs or Skins, or such other Effects as may be legally carried, transported or imported, nor to subject Traders to take Licences for the sale of Strong Liquors to Indians, except at a fixed Residence in a settled Part of the Province for keeping a House of Public Entertainment, as is required by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to establish a Fund towards defraying the Charges of the administration of Justice and support of the Civil Government within the Province in America" any Law, Ordinance or Regulation of this Province heretofore made or passed to the contrary notwithstanding.

Nor for the sale of Strong Liquors.

Exception.

Proviso.

Provided always nevertheless, and be it enacted by the same Authority, that it shall and may be lawful for His Excellency the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the Advice and Consent of His Majesty's Council, to restrain the Trade and Commerce to any Part or Place of the said Western Countries and Inland Territories, and regulate the same with any of the Indian Tribes or Nations, or other Inhabitants thereof, and likewise to restrain and regulate the sale and distribution of Spirituous Liquors, in all Forts and Garrisons, and other Places where Indians resort, and of Arms, Ammunition and other Warlike or Naval Stores, when and so often as the Public Safety and Peace may require, declaring the same from time to time by Proclamation under the Great Seal.

How the Trade may be restrained.

And in order to prevent the Accidents that happen to Canoes, the Property therein, and the Navigators thereof, in the dangerous Passage down the Rapids of the Outawais or Great River, between the lower Carrying-place of the Chaudiere and the Allumets, by reason of Persons selling Spirituous Liquors to the Canoe-men, thereby intoxicating them, and rendering them incapable to conduct and manage the Canoes in the said Rapids, to the great Injury of the Trade, and the risk of the lives of the Navigators, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that every Person who shall be convicted before any one or more Justices of the Peace, upon the Oath of the Informer and one more credible Witness, of having sold or given any Spirituous Liquors to any Canoe-men in his Passage down the Outawais or Great River, between the lower Carrying-place of the Chaudiere and the Place called the Allumets, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and loss the benefit of his Licence if any he has for selling Spirituous Liquors, which Penalty may be sued and recovered summarily before one or more Justices of the Peace and applied as aforesaid.

No liquor to be sold or given to Canoe-men coming down the Rapids in the Outawais River.

And whereas it is made Penal to settle in the Indian Villages without Licence, by an Act or Ordinance of this Province passed in the seventeenth Year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Ordinance to prevent the selling of Strong Liquors to Indians in the province of Quebec, as also to deter Persons from buying their Arms or Cloathing, and for other Purposes relative to the Trade and Inter-course with the said Indians,"—Be it further enacted by the same Authority, that nothing in the said Act shall be deemed to affect such as are lawfully employed in the Inland Commerce or such as resort to this Province with the Intention bona fide of settling the Waste Lands of the Crown, and who are in the course to conform to the Regulations by the Government for that Purpose made and established, and shall so declare upon Oath when thereunto required, or to any other His Majesty's liege Subjects, but to such only as not being His Majesty's Subjects shall arrive at any Port, Post or Place where any Magistrate may reside, and shall not within twenty-four hours thereafter take the Oath of Allegiance to the British Crown, being required, and shall refuse to take the Oath in this Clause first aforementioned, such Defaulter shall incur a Penalty of Ten Pounds, and may be committed and proceeded against as concerned in illicit Trade.

Provided always nevertheless, that it shall be lawful to all Persons to pass and repass any Part of this Province, with a Permission under the Signature of such Person as shall be authorized to grant the same, by any Instrument to be issued by the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, under his Hand and Seal at Arms, such Person conforming to the Conditions, Regulations and Terms in his Permission prescribed or expressed.

Provided also, that nothing in this or the afore-mentioned Act shall be construed to extend to any Vessel navigating without a Manifest, Pass or Clearance, from the Head of the Bay of Quinty, or any other Part of the District of Lunenburg, and not passing beyond the Islands called the Grande Isle, and Isle of Tonty, to the Southward and Eastward.

CHAP. II.¹

AN ACT,

To continue and amend the Acts or Ordinances therein mentioned respecting the Practice of the Law in Civil Causes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, an Act was passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Ordinance to regulate the Proceedings in the Courts of Civil Judicature and to establish Trials by Juries in Actions of a Commercial Nature, and Personal Wrongs to be compensated in Damages," and in the Twenty-seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign the said Act was continued by another Act, with certain additional Regulations, and by another Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, both the said Acts were further continued to the Thirtieth Day of April Instant, by an Act which made further provision for the dispensation of Justice, and especially in the New Districts, And for as much as there is reason to apprehend that the Condition of this Country may soon be the Subject of Reforms, by the Authority of the Crown and Parliament of Great Britain, Be it further enacted by His Excellency the Governor and the Legislative Council, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority of the same, that the several Acts and Ordinances afore-mentioned, shall continue to be in Force until other Provision be made for the Subjects to which the said several Acts and Ordinances relate.

The former Acts continued.

But for as much as it may be expedient to alter the Regulations heretofore made respecting the Conduct of the Business of the Courts of Request, be it enacted by the same Authority, that such alterations may from Time to Time be made by His Excellency the Governor, or Commander in Chief, with Advice of the Council, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, and shall have the same Force as the original Regulations already established, and the same original Regulations, so far as they shall be so altered, shall thenceforth be deemed and adjudged to be repealed from the Time to be declared for that Purpose by such subsequent Letters Patent as may be issued for the Purposes afore-mentioned.

Alterations authorized respecting the Courts of Request.

And to avoid Delays and prevent Expence where Witnesses in Civil Causes reside in the Indian Countries and other remote Places, Be it also enacted by the same Authority, that the Testimony of such distant Witnesses may be obtained by Commission in the nature of the Commission rogatoire, the Carriage whereof shall belong to the Party moving for the same, and the Commissioners shall be appointed in the manner following, viz. Each Party where both join in the Commission shall name four Commissioners, and afterwards alternately strike out two, and that the Commission shall issue to such three of the same four as two of the Judges of the Court issuing the same Commission shall name, and with the Commission there shall go such interrogatories and cross interrogatories as the Parties may have respectively filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Court out of which the same Commission shall issue, which Interrogatories shall be kept secret, as well as the Depositions returned therewith, until the Order of two Judges of the Court be given for the Publication thereof; and in Default of joining in such Commission, the same may issue to the Commissioners named by the Party moving for and having the carriage thereof.

And be it also enacted by the same Authority, that whenever such Commission shall be executed according to the Tenor thereof, and conformable to such Instructions as the Judges granting the same may under their Signatures order and direct, to be annexed thereto, for the better Execution thereof the Proofs and Depositions returned therewith shall be as valid as if rendered in open Court in due form of Law, and every such Commission may be granted in the Vacation, by two Judges of the Court, after reasonable Notice to and due hearing of the opposite Party or his Attorney or Counsel, and it shall not be denied to any Party requesting the same, whenever such cause shall be shown therefor as would be sufficient by the Law as it now stands for issuing a Commission rogatoire, for taking such Proofs and Testimony as could not be obtained within the Jurisdiction of the Court in which the Suit or Action may be Instituted.

Proofs taken by Commission to be valid.

Provido.

Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the Court from proceeding in the Cause, and to determine the same, without a return of the Commission, whenever it shall appear that the same Commission was issued merely for delay, or that the return thereof is suspended for a longer Period than Justice and Equity may require, nor to give the Proofs and Depositions so to be obtained by Commission, any greater Authenticity and Admissibility than they would have or be intitled to upon the offer of them in open Court.

may be made.

And be it also enacted by the same Authority, that the Rules and Orders so to be made, may extend to any City, Town or Village of the District to which it belongs, and for which they shall be declared to be intended, if the Object of Regulation shall be of the nature of that internal Polity appropriate to Cities and Towns, and respect Streets, Lanes, Alleys, Markets, Water-courses, Drains, Nuisances, the Health of the Inhabitants, prevention of Accidents by Fire, the Assize of Bread, the due exercise of the necessary Trades of Butchers, Bakers, and other necessary Occupations, Sign-posts, Cartmen and their Carriages, Pumps, Wells, Fish, Game and Provisions, and such other Objects as are mentioned in the Regulations made by the Commissioners or Justices of the Peace of Quebec of the Month of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty, and not repugnant to any Law or Ordinance of the Province, nor to the Duties of any of the public Officers thereof, every of which said Rules and Orders shall be valid for no longer Period than Six Months from the Publication thereof, unless the same shall be continued or revived and published, by a subsequent Order or Regulation in like manner limited and regularly made and ordained.

Validity of the Rules and Orders.

And be it further enacted by the same Authority, that every Rule, Order and Regulation of Police to be made under the Limitations and Restrictions above-mentioned, shall be as valid and binding in the Law as if the same was specially enacted by an Ordinance of the Provincial Legislature, and that the same, being duly made, may be enforced and carried into Execution by the infliction of Penalties upon Offenders, and in every Instance exceeding Forty Shillings shall be recovered with Costs, by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information in any Court of Record, one Moiety whereof shall belong to the Informer prosecuting for the same, and the Remainder be paid into His Majesty's Treasury for the use of the Crown; and where the Penalty shall not exceed Forty Shillings it shall be recoverable summarily, before a single Judge of the Common Pleas, as in Causes where the Demand shall be of Ten Pounds Sterling and under, and be divided and applied in the manner afore-mentioned; And that the Ordinance first above-mentioned and the last Act or Ordinance to continue the same, shall be of Force for and during the continuance of this present Act.

1st Proviso.

Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the same Authority, that the Power of establishing Regulations of Police, shall extend to no Town or Village with fewer inhabited Houses than thirty, nor unless the Regulation of the Police thereof shall be desired by a Majority of the Heads of the Families in such Houses, under their Signatures before a Notary, filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace of the District, and that no such Regulation for any Town or Village in future, shall bind any Inhabitant without the Precinct of such Town or Village aforementioned. SESSIONAL PAPER, No. 29a

An exclusive privilege granted to Mr. Samuel Hopkins.

the authority of the same, That no person whomsoever shall before the first day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, manufacture Pot or Pearl Ashes within this province in the manner used by the said Samuel Hopkins, and described in the writing afore-mentioned, without a written licence therefor under his hand and seal attested by two credible witnesses; and whoever shall offend in the premises, shall for every pound weight of such Pot or Pearl Ashes forfeit the penal sum of ten shillings with costs of suit, one moiety whereof shall belong to His Majesty and be paid to the Receiver General, and the other moiety thereof to such person as shall sue for the same, and be recoverable by action of debt, bill, plaint, information or otherwise, before any Court, Judge or Judges having cognizance of causes and controversies to the amount of the penalty or penalties in demand.

And be it also enacted by the same authority, That the party or parties offending against this Act shall also be answerable to the said Samuel Hopkins or his legal representatives or assigns for any damages by such offence sustained, to be recovered with costs of suit in any special action to be brought therefor grounded on this Act or Ordinance.

Provido, respecting patents granted by His Majesty.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the same authority, That no person or persons shall be liable to such penalty or damages who shall have authority to make Pot or Pearl Ashes under Letters Patent from His Majesty, tho' the same be made in the manner so discovered by the said Samuel Hopkins, the burden of the proof whereof shall lay upon the maker sued or prosecuted for the same, nor shall this Act be construed to affect any person or persons manufacturing Pot or Pearl Ashes according to any other method heretofore used, and not in that method so as afore-mentioned, to have been discovered by the said Samuel Hopkins.

An exclusive privilege granted to Mr. Angus Macdonell and others.

And whereas a method equally advantageous for manufacturing Pot Ash has been invented by Angus Macdonell, Alexander Macdonell, late Lieutenant in the Corps of Rangers, James Macdonell, late Ensign in the eighty-fourth Regiment, and Christopher Carter, assistant Surgeon to the General Hospital, who have lodged the discovery with Government by a writing deposited in the Council-Office; Be it therefore further enacted by the same authority, That in reward for the same they shall have the same securities, benefits, privileges and advantages herein before given to the said Samuel Hopkins, as fully to all intents and purposes, as if every clause of this Act herein-before contained, relating to the Invention of the said Samuel Hopkins had referred to and been expressly made for the sole benefit of the said Angus Macdonell, Alexander Macdonell, James Macdonell, and Christopher Carter.

APPENDIX "D"

Catalogue of Pamphlets, Journals and Reports in the Public Archives of Canada, 1611-1867, with Index.

INTRODUCTION.

The addition of a large number of pamphlets to the Library of the Archives since the publication of the "Catalogue of Pamphlets, etc., in the Dominion Archives," published in 1911, has rendered that catalogue, as a work of reference, inadequate.

The wide circulation of that publication awakened a new interest in the pamphlet and placed the Archives in touch with a large number of private collectors in Canada and in the United States, and with many dealers and collectors abroad. The systematic gathering together of a collection of pamphlets dealing with the affairs of early North America and, more particularly with Canada from the earliest times until 1867 was pursued with new vigour, and no opportunity was lost to secure from these collectors and dealers pamphlets not already on the shelves. Many rare and valuable pamphlets were received from the collections of Abbé Dubois, Archdeacon Raymond, Professor Shortt, the late Sir Sandford Fleming, and from many other persons. Such additions increased the number of pamphlets from 1454 in the year 1911, to 2,931 at the beginning of 1916. These, following the form of the 1911 publication, have been arranged in chronological order, and have been numbered as indicated in this catalogue.

In this catalogue the exact title of each pamphlet or report, excepting the epigraph, is given. Where the epigraph is of unusual length it has been abbreviated. In the selection of pamphlets considerable latitude has been taken; many volumes will be found which will exceed the size usually attributed to a pamphlet. In each case, however, the importance of the volume has been considered as sufficient justification for its mention. Likewise in the list of government reports, only those dealing with special subjects have been included. The list has not been designed to serve as a Blue-book Catalogue, hence the regular annual reports of the various public departments have not been mentioned. The index includes references to the author and the chief subjects of each volume.

This volume has been prepared by Mr. Fee, of the Archives Department.

- 537. Le Conciliateur, ou LETTRES D'UN ECCLÉSIASTIQUE à UN MAGISTRAT, sur les Affaires Présentes.

Par feu M. Turgot, Ministre d'Etat.

Nulle puissance humaine ne peut forcer le retranchement impénétrable de la liberté du cœur. La force ne peut jamais persuader les hommes; elle ne fait que des hypocrites. Quand les Rois se mêlent de la Religion, au lieu de la protéger, ils la mettent en servitude. Accordez donc à tous la tolérance civile, non en approuvant tout comme indifférent, mais en souffrant avec patience tout ce que Dieu souffre, et en tâchant de ramener les hommes par une douce persuasion.

M. de Fénélon, Arch. de Cambrai.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, IN THE GULPH OF ST. LAURENCE.

ADDRESSED TO THE REV. JOHN WIGHTMAN, MINISTER OF KIRKNAHOE DUMFRIES-SHIRE.

BY WALTER JOHNSTONE,
A Native of the same County.

The Author of these Letters went out for the express purpose of surveying Prince Edward Island, and collecting information on the subject of Emigration. During two Summers, and one Winter, he was assiduously engaged in the prosecution of this object; and the small Volume now presented to the Public, will be found to contain a full and particular Account of the Climate, Soil, Natural Productions, and Mode of Husbandry adopted in the Island; together with Sketches of Scenery, Manners of the Inhabitants, &c. &c.; the whole being intended for the guidance of future Emigrants, particularly as to what Implements and Necessaries it may be proper to provide themselves with before crossing the Atlantic.

FIRST REPORT

OF THE

Central Committee of the inhabitants of Upper Canada

Whose rights were liable to be affected by the provisions of the Naturalization Bills, reserved last session of parliament for the royal assent.

JESSE KETCHUM, Chairman.

York, Dec. 14th 1827.

YORK:

Printed at the Office of the Colonial Advocate, by William Lyon Mackenzie, Printer to the House of Assembly.

Published by order of the Committee.

A statement of the proceedings adopted by Robert Randal, Esquire, M. P. during his mission to London, as the bearer of the petition from, and agent on behalf of, the people of Upper Canada, whose rights might have been affected by the provisions of the Naturalization Bills which passed the two houses of the provincial parliament at its last session. Laid before the central committee at York, on the 10th December 1827.

Instructions to Robert Randal, Esquire M. P. from the committee of the inhabitants of U. C. whose rights are affected by the provisions of the Naturalization Bill.

To Robert Randal Esq. a member of the provincial parliament of Upper Canada.

Dear Sir:—

The undersigned, being the central committee appointed to nominate, instruct, and correspond with a fit and proper person to proceed to London on behalf of a large portion of the inhabitants of this province, whose civil rights are deeply affected by the provisions of the Naturalization bill of last session, and which has been reserved for His Majesty's assent: have made choice of you as their agent, and as the agent of the persons whose petitions to the British Parliament have been entrusted to their (the committee's) charge: they are ready to defray, from and out of the funds placed in their hands by the petitioners, your expenses on the journey, and herewith enclose to you said petitions.

Your instructions are; to proceed forthwith to London in the capacity of agent for the petitioners against the Naturalization Bill of last Session, and on your arrival there, to cause said petitions to be laid before parliament by a member of the House of Commons, and further that you take such other measures as you may deem most expedient to obtain for the petitioners their requests as expressed in the prayer of their petition.

JESSE KETCHUM, | JOSEPH SHEPHERD, } Committee.
ALEX. BURNSIDE, | THOMAS STOVELL. }

York, April 11th, 1827.

Additional Instructions from the committee entrusted by the people of Upper Canada affected by the provisions of the naturalization bill reserved last session for His Majesty's assent, to Robert Randal, Esquire M. P. agent for the petitioners against said bill.

1136. A Brief Extract from the JOURNAL OF THADDEUS OSGOOD, Minister of the Gospel, with some anecdotes and Remarks on men and occurrences, during a residence of six years in England.

Should this brief statement of facts and opinions be useful in removing prejudice and promoting truth and true religion, the author will feel himself well rewarded.

It having been reported that the author was dead, it may be gratifying to many friends and acquaintances to learn that he has returned to Canada in health. And during a long residence in England, has been usefully employed in preaching the gospel, and visiting and instructing the destitute.

This small publication will be lodged at book-shops in this city and other populous towns in Canada, and in London. Should more than sufficient to pay for the work be obtained, it will be employed in publishing more from the same journal.

A copy of some testimonials will appear on this cover; and if any error or misstatement should appear, it will be corrected when made known to the author.

By a Clergyman of the Church of England, lately resident in America.
O What are these?
Death's ministers, not men; Who thus deal death
Inhumanly to man: and multiply
Ten thousand fold the sin of him who slew
His brother; for, of whom such massacre
Make they, but of their brethren, men of men?

2616. The Future of British America. INDEPENDENCE! HOW TO PREPARE FOR IT. Consolidation is Preparation for a New Nation: Confederation is Preparation for Annexation.
It would appear that every motive that has induced the union of various Provinces into a single state exists for the consolidation of these Colonies under a common legislature and executive.—Lord Durham.
I nevertheless leave you with every hope that the unity of all the British Provinces will be a great fact.
I think those legislators will at least come to the right conclusion, and that unity and strength will take the place of division and weakness. This unity bears with greater weight upon the defences of those vast Colonies than it does on the commercial advantages, which are in themselves obvious and most important.—
Sir W. F. Williams.

The simple question to be determined is: shall the Constitution of the United Provinces of British America be formed after the model afforded us by the constitution of the United Kingdoms or that of the United States?
