REPORT FROM RALPH W. DONALDSON

Not Seriously Wounded

Port Williams, June 5—The many friends of Private Ralph W. Donaldson, Port Williams, P. P. O. L. I., officially reported as wounded May 14th, will be pleased to learn with thankfulness that his wound is not dangerous and he is doing well as a hospital in Oxford, England, after two weeks' treatment in a British Red Cross hospital in Staples, France. A letter received from him June 2nd, and dated May 16th gives the following particulars: "My wound, received May 12th, which is of the most pleasant type possible, was caused by shrapnel ball passing through lower part of right shoulder muscle, leaving the bone uninjured. Under X-Ray examination yesterday, a small piece of shell was found, and a few days will be removed. My arm is stiff and sore, but not painful. In reaching this finely equipped hospital, we wounded, after receiving first aid, passed successfully through three different dressing stations and a clearing hospital. Every possible attention is shown, and it is surprising the skill and despatch with which cases are handled. Many men in our platoon were seriously wounded, others suffered shell shock, others burned and bruised with high explosives "sausages," other fine men have made the "supreme sacrifice." Things were hot all the time we had been holding this line and one had constantly to expect something unpleasant to happen. Since enlisting a year ago last April, and ten months of it spent in trench life in France, this is the first sickness or accident even for a day.

BOY BREAKS RECORD FOR POLE VAULTING.

Minneapolis, Minn.,—Sherman Landers, of Oregon, Ill., High School, broke the world's inter-scholastic record in the pole vault at the track-and-field meet of the North-western Inter-scholastic Association by clearing the bar at 12 feet 8 inches. The former mark was 12 feet 7 inches.

HEAVY CASUALTY LIST OF CANADIANS

Fresh Troops Rushed to the Front

No further casualty lists of officers have been received since this morning by General Hughes, and reports from London state that it is still difficult to get full details of the casualties during the recent fighting. The aggregate may, however, be surmised from the fact that already the names of 280 officers wounded and killed or missing have been received.

The Seventh and Eight Brigades which bore the brunt of the fight have now been replaced by other brigades, and are in the rear pending reorganization. British troops have also come to the assistance of the hard pressed lines.

Casualty List Growing.

To the long and steadily growing roll of Canadian officers' casualties another formidable quota was added today. Some of the most prominent families in the country are included in the list of eighty names. Eleven are killed, one died of wounds, thirty-three are reported wounded and fifteen missing.

No Canadian regiment suffered quite so severely as the Princess Pats. The original regiment was practically wiped out and the officers and men which have gone to take their places have largely met the same unfortunate fate. There are several additions today.

The officers' casualties so far total 280, though there are a few duplications from the original list.

DOES THE KAISER BELIEVE WHAT HE SAYS?

New York, June 5—The New York Herald comments on the North Sea battle as follows:

"Granting the greater damage inflicted on the British in the earlier stages—and even this, as the air clears, is open to doubt—the German abandonment of the battle zone is a confession, if not an acknowledgment of defeat. In the meantime flags of rejoicing are flying in the Fatherland, and the Kaiser is telegraphing flamboyant messages, reciting the triumph of his fleet over a greatly superior force. The Kaiser does well to praise the skill and gallantry of his officers, and the competency of his ships, but with the British still commanding the sea and maintaining a relentless blockade, does he believe what he says, or he kept in purposed ignorance of the truth?"

Interesting Narrative from Capt. Dr. Hugh S. Moore now in France

May 14, '16.

Dear Grandfather:

As it is a long time since I have heard from you I am beginning to think that you did not receive my last two letters, and so I am going, to try again. This time I will try to give you an account of my experiences since Xmas.

After two weeks spent with a regiment relieving another medical officer I returned to my ambulance and was at once sent up to take charge of the "Advanced Dressing Station," which was a rather unhealthy locality, as the Huns used to shell it every day. One fine afternoon a Hun aeroplane came over flying very low and a sniping officer, who was living with me in a dug-out ordered the snipers to shoot it. It was not a wise thing to do, as we soon turned to sorrow, for an hour after, the Huns commenced to shell us like blazes, with their "heavies." They used to come in pairs every minute, and we sat in our dug-out and shivered and wished we were somewhere else. One big "crump" was so close it made the dug-out rock to and fro and blew the door in, knocking down my servant, who was standing near it at the time. After sending over seventy-eight big ones the Huns stopped, much to our relief, and we took a look around to see what damage had been done. Luckily the damage was limited to our nerves and the landscape, which was badly disfigured in that neighborhood. Some of the holes were so large they would have held a horse and wagon, and jagged pieces of shell were scattered over the ground in all directions. For several days after this the Huns used to send over a few big ones at certain times, and I was much relieved to hear that another division was taking our place, and we were going out for a month's rest. The field ambulance, which took our place, after hearing our report, very wisely decided to select a new site for their "Advanced Dressing Station."

It was about the middle of January when our division left the trenches for their well earned month's rest which was to be spent in various villages about twelve kilometers behind the line. I rejoined the main part of my field ambulance which as I have told you before had an old brewery for a hospital, and the next morning after saying "au revoir to the belle of the village, started in charge of the transport away from the roar of the guns for a village called A— where we were assured of a month in peace and comfort. Luckily it was a beautiful day clear and cold, and as the horses were fresh we made good time along the hard white roads lined with elms and poplars, so characteristic of France.

As is always the case on a clear day in Northern France there were many aeroplanes flying about both Hun and British and you could follow their flight by the puffs of wooly smoke from the bursting shells of the anti-aircraft guns. Shortly after we started on our journey we noticed the Tommies along the road and the natives at the doors of their cottages all gazing skywards and talking excitedly. We looked up and perceived two aeroplanes hovering around each other like two big hawks, while we, far below, could hear their machine guns spitting wickedly. It was an aeroplane duel and evidently a machine would be above the Hun, and then the Hun would manoeuvre and get above ours. This went on for about fifteen minutes when suddenly a lucky shot from our plane which was again above hit the Hun in a vital place and turning nose first it plunged straight for the earth like a shot duck, followed by cries of "tres bon," "tres bon," from the excited inhabitants.

We resumed our journey through a pleasant farming country the fertile fields stretching away on both sides of the white pave road and even at this season stretching industriously tilled by the women and girls with big white horses and old fashioned ploughs. In the distance we could see the great slag heaps so common in Northern France and which puzzled me very much the first time I saw them resembling as they do the pyramids of Egypt. Farming and coal mining are the chief industries in this part of France and even with the young men away fighting are being carried on successfully by the women the young boys, and old men. Many of the boys and the more robust of the girls work in the coal mines and you will often meet them on the roads in the late afternoon going homewards, the boys with their round black caps and blue overhauls, and the girls with red bandanna handkerchiefs tied around their heads and dressed in blue calico, all of them looking very grimy but always smiling and greeting you with "Bon jour Monsieur!"

About midday I halted the transport at a small red-roofed village where the horses were given feed and the drivers ate their haversack ration of bread and cheese, while the village children ragged and dirty gathered around, begging for a "souvenir Anglais," the souvenir required being either a cigarette or a penny. Just before we were ready to start again we witnessed a rather amusing incident which might have been tragic, however, and was certainly not amusing for those directly concerned. A big motor-lorry came along and stopped beside our transport. Just then a man of the "Army Service Corps," came along riding a large horse. Passing us, and going in our direction was an old French woman with a donkey and cart evidently on her way to market in the next town, for the cart was laden with eggs and butter and several young pigs (alive.) The horse that the A. S. C. man was riding became frightened of the lorry and bolted between the lorry and our transport colliding with the old lady in the donkey cart. A shaft of the cart got caught inside the girth of the A. S. C. horse and before we could do anything there was a hopeless struggling tangle of man, horse, donkey, market-cart, eggs and butter. Luckily the old lady had been thrown clear into the grass beside the road when the cart overturned and so escaped serious injury.

The man had fallen with his horse but managed to struggle free and escape the kicking hoofs of horse and donkey. With the aid of several of my drivers, who cut the harness from the donkey the mix-up after some difficulty was straightened up without anyone getting hurt, although the old lady's eggs and butter rather worse the wear and the pigs which had escaped from their box when the cart overturned were running about in a nearby field. The only lady was very angry and as I was the only officer present she addressed her remarks to me, she talked very rapidly with many gestures my French was not equal to the occasion. As near as I could gather however she wanted the Tommy who had collided with her to pay for the eggs and butter or be severely punished. I tried to explain to her that we were all very sorry but that the occurrence was purely accidental and that the man was not to blame. She would not be pacified, however, so I decided it was time we resumed our journey. As we rounded a bend in the road I looked back and the last I saw was the old lady with three men from the motor-lorry trying to corner three little pigs, which running and squealing dodging this way and that refused to be caught. My experience with the old French market-woman caused much amusement when told over our portwine and dinner that night.

We reached our destination two hours afterwards without

HELP FOR WORKING WOMEN

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health:

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. JAMES CONLEY, 316 1/2 W. 5th St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be an unsurpassable tonic and invigorant for the female organism.

All women who are troubled by any of the following ailments should write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—It will be confidential.

further incident and were greeted by the inhabitants of the little village, as the ambulance had rested at the same place several times before. In my next letter I will tell you how I was sent as permanent medical officer of a regiment and my experiences while with them. If I make this letter any longer I'm afraid it will not pass the censor.

I'm glad that Kings County is doing so well in recruiting. I think that its up to every young chap to come out, unless he has a real good excuse for not coming. The Huns are a lot of "swine" and must be wiped out. Please give my kind regards to all my friends. Hoping you are real well and that Kentville is flourishing.

Your grandson,
HUGH.
P. S.—The other day I signed on for another year's service with the R. A. M. C. I will receive £60 gratuity for good service; will be promoted to Captain and get two weeks leave.

Major Stanley Jones Again Wounded.

The recent severe fighting last week around Ypres has brought with it its terrible toll of dead and wounded. Among the latter are Major Stanley L. Jones, formerly of Wolfville, who enlisted from Western Canada with the Princess Patricia. This is the third time he has been wounded. He is determined to do his share in safeguarding the Empire. He enlisted as a lieutenant and has been rapidly promoted. His wife, who is nursing the wounded in a hospital in France has been given the rank of lieutenant by the French military authorities for valient services. Mr. Jones' sister, Ida, is Mrs. B. J. Lawson of Amherst.

KENTVILLE, JUNE 9TH, 1916.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

Nomination Day, June 13th.
Election Day, June 20th.
Liberal Conservative Candidates for Kings County:
Lieut. J. D. Spidell, of Kentville, Officer 219th Battalion.
J. Everett Kinsman, of Centerville, Farmer.

Among the many inventions which are being launched publicly and privately against Mr. Spidell in the present contest is that which holds him up as having abandoned his much applauded resolution to go to the front as a Combatant Officer in the fight waged for civilization in which so many Canadians are now engaged. The proof of this offered is that he does not now appear in uniform at political meetings.

Ignorance cannot be set up as an excuse for this. Mr. Wickwire was connected with the Militia for a while and even a novice should be so far acquainted with the King's Canadian regulations and orders as to be ashamed to make such a statement. The 667th paragraph is as follows:

"367.—An officer or soldier is forbidden to institute or take part in any meetings, demonstrations or processions for party or political purposes, in barracks, quarters, camp or their vicinity, under no circumstances whatever will either attend such meetings wherever held in uniform." Mr. Spidell holds a permanent appointment as Lieutenant in the 219th Regiment, and but for the political contest now going on would be at Camp Aldershot with Captain George S. Cutten and other clergymen who have conspicuously occupied pulpits in this County. He could not without becoming unamenable to military discipline appear at any political gathering in uniform, and those who have been referring to the absence of his uniform better have conceived some other device less easily exposed.

Forsaking The Party.

The trend of affairs in Provincial politics shows that the Liberals are carrying too heavy a load with their 34 year old Government and everywhere their followers are forsaking the party. This is going on all over the Province and the Murray Government is sure to meet an overwhelming defeat. A change is what the public are after and the Liberals are deserting the sinking ship and joining the party of progress and reform.

W. C. Mulhall for 15 years Mayor of Liverpool a former Liberal is now Conservative candidate in Queens.

D. F. McLean for a long time mayor of Port Hood and a free lance Liberal now Conservative candidate in Inverness.

Chas. F. Blackadder, Halifax, will poll the first Tory vote this year for the Blackadar family.

Fred P. Roman, Editor of Industrial Advocate has severed his connection with his party for their criminal neglect of mining regulations also W. H. Priest of Halifax and others.

In this County Mr. E. M. Beckwith, after 35 years service for his party cannot longer support them and a large number of Liberals in Kings County will follow his example and vote for Spidell and Kinsman.

Lord Kitchener Universally Mourned

A Stunning Blow to Britain

LONDON, June 6.—The news that Earl Kitchener, Secretary of State for War, and his staff, who were proceeding to Russia aboard the cruiser Hampshire, were lost off the Orkney Islands last night, was the most stunning blow Great Britain has received since the war began.

This is the second shock the country has sustained within a week.

LONDON, June 6.—"K of K drowned, official" flashed newspaper placards at noon today. Ten minutes later all London knew of the tragic death of Lord Kitchener off the Orkney Islands last night.

Coming on top of the recent naval action, the news hit the public a staggering blow—the whole of London being paralyzed for a few minutes while people slowly recovered from the shock. In the eyes of the public Britain had no more popular idol than Kitchener, and his loss meant more than the death of thousands on the battlefield or the destruction of a dozen ships.

VICTIM OF A MINE

The general opinion is that the Hampshire was the victim of a mine rather than a torpedo, as the sea was running high and the ship was so speedy that it would have been practically impossible to hit her with a torpedo. She blew up in broad daylight.

Eighteen months ago Kitchener's death would have been disastrous; today it does not stop or even slow Britain's war machine.

BRITANNIA STILL RULES THE WAVES

An Edinburgh report of the great sea fight says the German fleet contained twenty battleships and battle cruisers, and that the smaller vessels brought the total up to 100. Beatty was fighting odds of three to one in capital ships until the British second division came up. He decided to risk everything, in the hope of holding the enemy at grips until the main British fleet came up to finish the whole German force in a single battle. Had the enemy been as willing as Beatty was the Kaiser would have no fleet today. As it stands the Germans will never risk another general engagement. They know it would mean the end.

Capt Barry W. Roscoe Wounded

Mr. W. E. Roscoe, K. C., received a despatch from Ottawa Tuesday stating: "Regret to inform you Captain Barry Wentworth Roscoe, Mounted Rifles, officially reported admitted No. 7 Stationary hospital, Boulogne, June 4th suffering from gunshot wound, arm. Condition satisfactory. Further information when received will be sent you."

All will regret to hear of his receiving a wound, but glad to have the report it is not serious and his condition is satisfactory.

Corporal George Hutchinson Wounded.

A late list of casualties reports the wounding of Corporal Geo. Hutchinson of the Engineers, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hutchinson Lockhartville. This family has sacrificed much in giving to our country fine young boys who are fighting in France or in training.

LIBERAL-CONSERVATIVE RALLY AT HARBORVILLE

June 1st, was a day and a night that will be long remembered by the people of Harborville and vicinity.

Posters had announced a Liberal-Conservative meeting to be held at 7.30 that evening, at which Candidates Spidell and Kinsman, were to speak, and give evidence for the faith that was in them. So there was great hustling to get the chores done and long before the time announced for the meeting the entire population of this voting precinct as well as a large number of farmers from the adjoining country had gathered at the shore in anxious anticipation of the evening's treat.

Shortly after 5 p. m. the expected gentlemen arrived in a motor car, with Captain Will McBride, that staunch old war horse of Nova Scotia Conservatism at the helm, and shortly afterwards Nathan Eaton of Canning drove in.

The Candidates with their pilot proceeded to the Sea Side Park Hotel where they dined and prepared for the meeting.

It was some time after eight, before Mr. James Cahill, called the meeting to order, and made a neat little speech that was quite a surprise to some of his auditors, as they never had suspected "Jim" of oratorical abilities before.

Mr. Cahill was very happy in his introductory remarks and presented to the audience, which completely filled the very pleasant assembly room of the Oddfellows Building, Mr. J. E. Kinsman, who, by the way, has made considerable progress as a platform speaker, and was well received by the voters present. Being a farmer, it was quite natural that Mr. Kinsman should devote himself mostly to what the Murray Government had (?) done for the poor trodden farmer. He severely criticized the Agricultural College at Truro, and giving his own personal efforts in attempting to improve his crops and cattle and failing to get anything from these institutions that had cost the people so much.

The Chairman then introduced Mr. Spidell and his, as was to be expected proved to be the speech of the evening, and was one of the best arguments that could be presented why preachers SHOULD go into politics. He then proceeded to arraign the Murray Government of extravagance and wastefulness, and presented statistics to prove it. He took occasion to deplore the insinuations made by his opponents that he had left the army to enter politics and proved that by presenting his letter of appointment and his acceptance of a Lieutenancy in the 219th and stated that he intended joining his regiment just as soon as this election was over.

The last speaker, was our distinguished friend from Canning, who confined himself largely to complimenting the people of Harborville, for their good fortune in living in such a beautiful spot as Harborville, and other ways jollying the people. The singing of God Save the King by the audience led by Mr. Spidell closed a very enthusiastic and successful meeting.

On Tuesday evening the Opera House, Wolfville gathered about 75 or 100 people to hear Wickwire and Campbell, the Liberal candidates. There was no enthusiasm and the candidates must have been disheartened by their reception. About 25 of those present were Conservatives from Port Williams and Wolfville.

On Saturday night a rousing meeting was held at Port Williams and the people thoroughly enjoyed the address of Spidell, Kinsman and A. L. Davidson, M. P. The candidates made a fine impression and won votes for their cause. A good meeting was also held at Nth. Alton with the hall well filled for a stormy night and everyone tired after Horse Show.

Major and Mrs. J. A. McKenzie and family who have occupied the residence of the Misses Veal, 242 Robie Street during the past winter have removed to Aldershot. The major who is the biggest officer in the 85th regiment, standing six feet three inches in his stockings, and built in proportion, is also one of the most popular and efficient. The men of "A" Company which he commands, have every confidence in him, are proud to serve under him, and sound his praises wherever occasion permits. During their stay in Halifax the major, Mrs. McKenzie, and their two boys, Hector and Ian were connected with St. Matthews church where they made a host of friends, as well as in the city generally. They will be much missed and carry with them the good wishes of a large circle of acquaintances.—Herald.

A BITTER PILL

To the Editor:

Sir:—The violation of the neutrality of Belgium, with its attendant horrors, was one of the bitterest pills ever concocted for a national conscience to swallow. It was two bitter for Great Britain, but the United States took it down, howbeit with various qualms.

The pill that has been compounded of the elements which entered into the dismissal of Colonel E. M. Beckwith from the offices of Stipendiary Magistrate and Justice of the Peace, is now presented to the voters of Kings County. We show the ingredients. They were personal spite, enmity to temperance and moral reform with a monstrous pervasion of justice to compass these ends. It is one of the bitterest pills that a British citizen could possibly be asked to swallow, and we shall watch with interest its reception by the self-respecting men of the constituency.

All who love fair play, who honor character, who appreciate faithful service of church and State, who prize loyalty to friend, will have the opportunity on the 20th day of June of saying, in the most emphatic way, what they think of the violation of these principles.

Like most bitter pills this one will have a varied reception. Some will take it on the principle of the old saying, "Open your mouth and shut your eyes, etc." Some will go on Bethmann-Hollweg's idea, "The wrong done we acknowledge, and when our military (party) purpose is served, we shall make reparation." Others will brutally say, "Served him right to be meddling with our business, and that of our friends." Many will sheepishly take the dose, thanking God for the secret ballot. Some will hope that the sugar-coating may be made as thick as possible. But there will be some who will put it away as a poisonous thing.

It is said that France, during the bloody war, is finding her soul—that the spirit of pure patriotism is trampling over the mean and sordid amongst that afflicted people. An election campaign is a soul-testing experience, and no more fitting motto could be hung in the polling booths on June 20th, than saying of Him who became a victim of party prejudice, "What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

Rev. S. S. Poole Has Resigned His Church at Middleton

Middleton, June 5—Yesterday morning, Rev. S. S. Poole read his resignation to his congregation. It is to become effective at the end of July, which is the completion of six years as pastor of the United of the United Baptist church here. Mr. Poole has a call to Germain street church, St. John. It was with universal regret that the Middleton church received the resignation, for during his incumbency he has steadily grown in favor as a speaker and an administrator.

WAR NEWS

No Excuse to Be Without Reliable Up-to-Date News From the Battle Front

We have pleasure in announcing an arrangement completed with that great family paper, The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal by which we can offer The Advertiser and The Family Herald and Weekly Star to new subscribers only for the balance of 1916 or until January 1st, 1917, for the small sum of seventy cents.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star is noted for its reliable war news summaries each week and is replete with most interesting stories from the battlefield. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is a family paper all Canada is proud of, and when combined with The Advertiser our readers are supplied with all the local news and news of the world. In addition to the news the reader receives in The Family Herald each week a magazine section equivalent to several of the best monthly magazines printed. The Agricultural section is another feature of that great weekly keenly appreciated and is alone worth many times the subscription price. We now offer the two papers for only 70 cents until 1st January, 1917. Present readers of The Advertiser may have The Family Herald and Weekly Star for the balance of 1916 for only Forty cents.

NICKLET THEATRE HAS STRONG ATTRACTION

Capacity houses speak volumes for the Rossley Musical Comedy Company now playing their second week at the Nicklet Theatre. The aggregation comprise some 25 artists, and is the only company of its kind in the world. Kathleen Barnes, little nine-year-old star is a sure winner and the military song hits offered by this little mite are so forcibly and appealingly rendered that storms of applause greet her every appearance. "Bonnie", Rossley and Gertrude Edwards both have excellent voices and exceptional stage ability, this coupled with good comedians and a large chorus make up a show that is hard to beat.

The Rossley Co. will hold the boards all this week with a change of play each night and a matinee on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Excellent motion pictures are also shown at each evening performance.

The Parrsboro cor. to Record says: A party of about 25 Kentville people, including some of the officials of the D. A. B., came to Parrsboro yesterday on the S. S. Prince Albert and motored to Five Islands where they spent the day.

"I think it my duty to tell you what 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me. Three years ago, I began to feel run-down and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney Trouble. Having read of 'Fruit-a-tives', I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. During the 2 1/2 years past, I have taken them regularly and would not change for anything. I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using 'Fruit-a-tives', and I know now what I haven't known for a good many years—that is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain".

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When washing spinach or variety of sandy vegetable, add a little salt to the water to facilitate the process.

Potatoes may be deliciously baked on an asbestos mat on top of the range. Cover them with a tin pan and give them about one hour.

To store pears for winter use, rub them all over with a little grease or lard and put them on a cupboard shelf. They will not rot or decay.

If a bottle or fruit jar that has been used more than once is placed in a towel thoroughly soaked in hot water there is little danger of its being cracked by the introduction of a hot liquid.

Fresh milk will make cakes which cut like a pound cake. Sour milk or buttermilk makes a light cake of spongy texture.

If sweet potatoes are greased before being put into the oven, they will bake in half the time and the skin will be almost as soft as if boiled.

Here is a simple, home-made silver polish that is very effective, and will positively not injure your plate. Boil soft rags (nothing is better than the tops of old cotton stockings) in a mixture of new milk and hartshorn powder. Wring them, as soon as they are taken out, for a moment and dry them in the sun. With these rags rub the plate briskly after it has been washed and dried after daily use, and a most beautiful deep polish will result.

To Brown Pancakes—Add a teaspoonful or more of molasses to the batter before frying.

To Clean Kid Gloves—Put the glove on the hand and rub with a rag dipped in milk rubbed on white soap. Clean little by little. This method is effective for colored kid gloves; to clean white ones wash with gasoline and soap, taking care that the work is not done in any room where there is fire or lighted lamps.

Differences in Milk and Water Bread—Bread made with milk is more nutritious than bread made with water. Bread made with water and no shortening, well kneaded, gives French bread. This is a rather porous bread with tough crust; such bread is sometimes called ture bread, and bread made with milk and shortening a variety of cake. Bread made with milk and water is thought to remain moist and in good condition longer than bread made with water—American Cookery.

Nothing So Bad

The juryman with the whiskers again assumed a judicial air and intervened.
"And you say he hurled invectives at you?" he demanded. The plaintiffs looked reluctant.
"No, boss," he replied. "To tell the truth, it was only clam shells he threw at me, but what I's kicking about is the drefful way he cussed me ever' time I dodged 'em."

THE CLIMAX

A gentleman engaged a lad to do the odd jobs about the yard and stables, and to make himself generally useful.
One day he took a pair of boots to him, and said:
"Now, Bob, lad, clean these boots, and put some elbow grease on."
A few minutes later he was surprised to see Bob coming towards him, and was fairly done when Bob said:
"Please, sir, I couldn't find the pot with the elbow grease in so I've oiled 'em."

As he crawled out of the wreck of his auto a solicitous friend asked, "Are you covered?"
"Yes," he said sadly, "with mud, blood, chagrin and insurance. Is that enough?"

ST. VITUS DANCE

A Trouble Cured Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

St. Vitus dance is a disease that usually attacks young children—chiefly of a school age—though older persons may be afflicted with it. Its most common symptoms are a twitching of the muscles of the face and limbs. As the disease progresses this twitching takes the form of spasms in which the jerking motion may be confined to the head or all the limbs may be affected. The patient is frequently unable to hold anything in his hands, or to walk steadily, and in severe cases even the speech may be affected. The disease is due to debility of the nerves and is always cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which enrich the blood, tone and strengthen the nerves and in this way restore the sufferer to good health. Any symptoms of nerve trouble should be promptly treated as it is almost sure to lead to St. Vitus dance. The following is proof of the power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to cure this trouble. Mrs. Hamm, Oshawa, Ont., says: "My daughter, Minnie, at the age of 12 years, was attacked with St. Vitus dance. She was under the care of a doctor for three months, but did not improve. One side of her body was entirely useless when the trouble was at its worst, and she could not even dress herself, nor hold anything in the hand on the affected side. One day I came across a little book advertising Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and saw where they had cured similar cases. I then decided to try these pills, and by the time she had taken two boxes she began to improve, and by the time she had taken five boxes every symptom of the trouble had disappeared, and she was as well as ever."

A fair trial with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure all such cases. You can get the Pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MOTOR COMPANIES IN BIG MERGER

New York, June 5.—Progress toward the completion of the new $200,000,000 automobile construction which embraces the Willys-Overland, the Hudson and the Chalmers automobile companies as well as allied concerns, including the Auto-Lite Company, was announced here today. The new company will probably bear the corporate title of the American Motors Company, with $70,000,000 of preferred stock, with a par value of $100 and probably 2,000,000 shares of common stock of no fixed par value.

It is proposed to apportion the entire preferred stock among the companies entering into the merger and according to present plans none will be offered to the public. The consolidation involves an exchange of Willys-Overland stock for shares of the new company on the basis of three shares of the new company's preferred stock for one of the Willys-Overland. Bankers connected with the underwriting today confirmed these details but declined to make a more definite statement pending the consummation of the merger.

USE "Corona" Dry Arsenate of Lead

Spraying Orchards and Potato Plants.
"CORONA" dry is not an experiment, it has been used by many of our leading farmers for years.
One pound of "CORONA" will do the work of from two to three pounds of Arsenate Paste, and be more effective because:—
It is a perfect, dry, fine white powder, and does not contain 50 per cent water.
It is pure and contains nothing but Lead Oxide and Arsenate Oxide, the only two chemicals essential of an Arsenate of Lead. It gives an even application, covers more thoroughly, and sticks to foliage longer.
It mixes easily and readily in water, no working up to prepare for the spray tank. No straining. It is only necessary to shake the proportional amount into the spray tank.
By using the same weight each time you spray, your mixture is always the same strength.
No sediment, no lumps, no water, never clogs spray nozzles.

REV. J. B. WOODLAND DIED AT WESTBROOK

Former Editor of The Western Chronicle

Amherst, June 5—Rev. J. B. Woodland, one of the best known Baptist clergymen of the Baptist denomination, died at the home of Mr. Edgar Lewis, West Brook, this evening. Mr. Woodland was taken suddenly ill one week ago yesterday while conducting the regular Sunday service at West Brook, and taken to Mr. Lewis' home, Medical aid was summoned and it was found he was suffering a severe attack of pleura pneumonia. He seemed to rally, and only this afternoon his physician told young correspondent that his chances for recovery were exceedingly good, so that the end must have been most unexpected.

Rev. J. B. Woodland was born at Wallace, this County. He was educated at Acadia College. Being a fluent speaker he first engaged under the auspices of the Sons of Temperance as a lecturer. In 1870 he was ordained at Oxford where he had established a newspaper under the name of the "Sentinel," which was afterwards published in Amherst. He had been engaged in newspaper work and in the Baptist ministry for many years. He was a fluent speaker and an agitated writer and had held many important pastorates in the Western States and Nova Scotia. He was twice married his first wife being a Miss Livingston, sister of J. H. Livingston, ex-M.P.P.; his second wife was an American lady. He leaves besides his wife, one son, holding an important Government position in the United States. He was a man universally respected. A year ago he purchased for himself a home to Southampton, and became pastor of the group of Baptists at that place, Athol and West Brook.

Mr. Woodland was editor of The Western Chronicle for a period and preached in many pulpits in the County. News of his death will be heard with deep regret.
