

CITY COUNCIL

A Large Amount of Business is Considered— The Question of a Motor Engine For Fire Brigade—Some Sharp Comments are Recorded.

The regular meeting of the City Council was held in the City Hall last night the Mayor and all the aldermen being present.

Moved by Ald. Suddaby, seconded by Ald. Ward—That the payment of the time list of T. Harry Jones of Feb. 10, 1913, amounting to: Streets of $376.38; Sewers, $1,022.30 be confirmed, except the sum of $124, which should be charged to Parks Board and that the communication of W. T. Henderson re damage of the house of Geo. Cornell re flooding and letter of B. J. Asselin be referred to the Board of Works. Carried.

There was some discussion over the time sheets, and Ald. Spence took exception to $132.00 being paid to Mr. Kendall, a civil engineer secured by Mr. Jones to survey out an alternate route for the Lake Erie & Northern, who charged $7 a day for his services. Some of the aldermen wanted to know who engaged the gentleman, and who authorized him to do the work. Alderman Spence stated that "the Finance committee was no rubber stamp committee and would not sanction the payment of any bills that they did not know anything about."

Ald. Charlton wanted to know who authorized this man to make the survey.

None of the chairmen of the different committees had done it, and it was traced to the Parks Board and the City Solicitor.

"What right have the Parks Board to secure an engineer?" was the question asked.

After much discussion during which the City Engineer and City Solicitor came in for some hot shots, the amount of $132 was charged to the Parks Board.

Fire and Light Report.
That the communication of the Brantford Cordage Company be referred to the Water Commissioners, and we recommend that their request for two extra hydrants be granted, and the usual custom regarding the cost of installation be followed.

That the communication of the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association of Jan. 22, 24 and 29, 1913, be filed.

Your committee after carefully looking over the report of the Chief of the Fire Department, have agreed with him that taking into account the causes as near as can be ascertained of a great many fires, that by a little precautionary measure, 75 per cent. of these fires could be eliminated, and in connection with this matter, a by-law to enforce a better system of fire protection, is now under consideration by your committee.

The attached list of new equipment bought at once, is as follows:
The important matter of getting more pumps as the city is extending its boundaries in all directions, and a better method either by the purchase of an auto combination engine and hose wagon, or by branch lines will have to be considered in the near future, as it is impossible to expect that horses can make these long runs without destroying their efficiency.

List of New Equipment—2 Baker cellar pipes, $100 each, $200; 2 Neely hose jackets, $6 each—$12; 1 Peerless hose clamp, $15; 1 electric searchlight, $25; 2 smoke protectors; 1 Niagara hand searchlight, $10; 12 hose patches for mending host, $6; 8 smoke respirators, $2.50 each—$20. Moved by Ald. McFarland, seconded by Ald. Ryerson: That the report be adopted. Carried.

Re Spittal License.
A petition was received from John Spittal, signed by W. T. James and 97 others requesting that a license be granted John Spittal of the King's hotel. This was referred to the Finance committee. No action was taken on the matter as the Council were of the opinion that they could not increase the number of licenses unless by the vote of the people.

Finance Report.
1. In connection with the communication of J. Spittal, re Council taking action, to request License Commissioners to increase the liquor licenses in Brantford, and the Royal Templars letters of protest thereto: Your committee is of the opinion that the council of 1913, has received no mandate from the people to alter the existing condition of affairs in this municipality in regard to liquor licenses, and would recommend that the communications be filed, and no action taken thereon.

2. In reference to the Assessment Rolls now being printed in The Evening News, your committee would request all ratepayers who have any grievances either in reference to their own assessment, or that of any other ratepayer, whether assessed too high or too low, to take the matter up with the Assessment Department at once, and if through any error they do not wish to take this course, to communicate direct with the Finance committee, in care of the City Clerk, and all communications when properly signed by a ratepayer, will be treated as confidential by them, and the matter complained of thoroughly investigated.

Moved by Ald. Spence seconded by Ald. Picher that the report be adopted. Carried.

Board of Works Report.
1. That the City Solicitor be instructed to prepare the Street Watering By-law.
2. That the City Engineer and City Overseers be authorized to attend the Good Roads Convention in Toronto on the 26th, 27th and 28th of February.

On motion of Ald. Suddaby and Minshall the report was adopted.

Street Cars
Moved by Ald. Charlton, seconded by Ald. Quinnlan, that the Brantford Street Railway be requested to start at once to run their cars to West Brantford. Carried.

An Important Resolution
Ald. Minshall wanted to know as to what terms the Street Railway Company and the City Solicitor had come to, but this information was not forthcoming, but probably would be at the next meeting of the council.

Moved by Ald. Charlton, seconded by Ald. Picher, that the City Engineer furnish the council at the next meeting with names of all of the foremen in the employ of the city, together with a list of their respective duties and amount of salary and wages paid to each. That some of the ratepayers are unanimously of the opinion that there is an overlapping in the work of the different foremen in the department, over which the City Engineer controls, and that there are too many men employed. That the City Engineer shall not hire any foremen without first obtaining the approval and consent of the chairman of the Board of Works. That each and every man employed on the city work shall personally sign the pay sheet for salaries and wages paid him by the city except when they are paid by cheque, as it appears by some of the pay sheets as though one person signs the pay sheets for all the men employed in some of the Board of Works department. That hereafter no accounts owing by the city shall be paid by the City Treasurer until they have been passed by the respective board they come under and finally passed by the finance committee, except those accounts due to men for wages for work on our streets.

Year—McFarland, Sutch, Picher, Quinnlan, Broadbent, Charlton, and Spence—7.

Nays—Suddaby, Ward, Ryerson, McEwen, Hollinrake, Minshall, Gillinwater—7.

At the City Council meeting last evening a resolution was introduced by Ald. Hollinrake and Ald. Minshall, giving specific instructions to the city delegation with reference to the proposed route of the Lake Erie & Northern Railway. In this connection Ald. Spence said that at the last meeting he had been somewhat muzzled, as he occupied the chair, but he now had some remarks to make. He pointed to the fact that every train which would come in from either Port Dover or Galt on the alternate plan for the Lake Erie line would have to cross Oxford St. twice between the Grand Trunk tracks and Lorne bridge, in order to reach the terminal. This would make three grade crossings, including the Grand Trunk, within a space of a few hundred feet—in other words, one of the biggest death traps in existence. He also pointed out that certain people were holding up their hands in holy horror at the proposed alleged desecration of Jubilee Terrace, whereas the plan of City Engineer Jones totally destroyed the small gore to the south of Lorne bridge, filled up after years of labor, and likewise would destroy the present dump ground near the bridge, also intended for a park. In addition, a portion of Agricultural Park would be cut off. This meant the actual destruction of two parks and the marring of Agricultural Park, as against the affecting of one public ground, Jubilee Terrace, which the Company promised not to mar in any way. Still further, the Jones route would destroy fourteen houses in West Brantford, besides running plumb through the Cordage Company's factory. Also the Jones bridge would be practically built across the face of the dam and would have to be at the same level as Lorne bridge. This would mean when it reached the city side of the river it would be up in the air, and an immense retaining wall would have to be built along the canal to keep the filling from choking up said canal. The resolution was finally withdrawn at the Mayor's request, on the ground that it might prove an embarrassment.

THE VERY LATEST DESPATCHES

Dr. Friedman Has Sailed for the States—News of Balkan War Extremely Meagre—Arbitration Agreed to Regarding Threatened Railway Strike.

SAILED TO-DAY.
(Courier Leased Wire).
BERLIN, Feb. 18.—Dr. Friedrich Friedman, whose claims to the discovery of serum curing tuberculosis have been much discussed, sailed for New York to-day on the steamship Kron Prinzessin Cecilie. He took with him a quantity of the live germs which he asserts are so efficacious and it is understood he proposes to attempt the cure of 95 out of a hundred cases of tuberculosis, a test for which a New York banker has offered a million dollar fee if success is attained.

WILL ARBITRATE
(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The Eastern railroads agreed to-day to arbitrate the demands of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers under the Erdman Act. This breaks the deadlock.

The decision of the roads was announced shortly before 10 o'clock to-day, in an official statement by E. Lee, as chairman of the conference committee of managers.

"The managers feel," says the statement, "that the public will not tolerate a strike."

EFFORT FAILED
To Revise the Bi-Lingual Question.
TORONTO, Feb. 17.—The effort of Gustave Evanturel, Liberal member for Prescott, to revive bilingualism was fruitless. The French-Canadian member asked for an order of the House for the return of copies of all correspondence between Bishop Fallon of London and members of the Cabinet respecting bilingual schools since May 1, 1910.

When the motion came up Hon. W. J. Hanna said: "There is no correspondence, but the order may be granted." This terse statement caused a little amusement on both sides of the House.

NEWS SCARCE OF WAR.
(Courier Leased Wire).
LONDON, Feb. 18.—News of the operations in the Balkan war is extremely meagre as despatches from Constantinople are subjected to long delay owing to the strict censorship established by the Turkish government. One of the cable companies says communication by its route has been interrupted near Pera, for what reason it cannot ascertain.

The fire which broke out in the district surrounding the great Mosque of St. Sophia in Constantinople yesterday was extinguished late in the night after 200 houses and shops had been burned to the ground.

FRENCH PRESIDENT

His Inauguration is Marked by Very Simple Ceremonies—He Will Occupy the Post For Seven Years.

(Courier Leased Wire).
PARIS, Feb. 18.—The inauguration of Raymond Poincare as President of the French Republic for a term of seven years took place to-day with very simple ceremonies, but there was a great display of popular enthusiasm as the new chief executive proceeded to the Palace of the Elysee to take over the office from Armand Fallierie, who to-day completed his full term. Premier Aristide Briand shortly after 4 o'clock

Divorce Talked of Between Mr. and Mrs. Cornwallis West

(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—A cable from London says: It was announced here to-day that George Cornwallis West had determined to defend the action for divorce brought against him by his wife, the former Lady Randolph Churchill.

Early in January a rumor of incompatibility in the Cornwallis West household was made public and it was said that Mrs. Cornwallis West was about to institute proceedings for a judicial separation. The announcement made to-day points to a divorce rather than to a separation, and this, according to English law, involves a charge of infidelity.

Mrs. Cornwallis West is the daughter of the late Leonard Jerome of New York. In 1874 she married Lord Randolph Churchill, and after his death in 1895 she edited the Anglo-Saxon Review. In 1899 her engagement was announced to young Cornwallis West, a lieutenant in the Scots Guards and friend of her eldest son, Winston Churchill, now first lord of the British Admiralty. George Cornwallis West is 36 years of age.

UNCLE SAM

Makes Further Preparations With Reference to the United States Interests Now Threatened in Mexico.

(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The Battleship Connecticut, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, steamed out of the Brooklyn navy yard at daybreak to-day bound for the United States naval station at Guantanamo, Cuba, where emergency forces, including 2,000 marines, are being concentrated while developments in Mexico are being watched.

Although the big battleship was in drydock when orders were received from Washington yesterday for her to proceed to Guantanamo, she was floated, provisioned and manned within eight hours, and she moved out of Wallabout Bay, at the navy yard, punctually at 6.30 o'clock, the hour set in the orders, under command of Rear-Admiral Winslow.

(Courier Leased Wire).
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Further preparations for cooperation between the army and navy for any emergency in the Mexican situation, went forward to-day with the assembling of 2,000 marines at Newport News and Philadelphia; from where they are to be transported to a concentration camp at Guantanamo. It was expected that the two regiments would sail to-day. At Guantanamo they will be seventy hours from Vera Cruz.

While a veil of secrecy was thrown about preparations for mobilizing an army expeditionary force at Galveston from the troops now on the border, it was known that troops as far north as Leavenworth, Kan., had been ordered to be in readiness. The order last night to send two of the army transports at Newport News to Galveston, disclosed that the general staff was actually organizing for the possibility of a movement from the latter point.

This would leave the first brigade of the first army division, already under marching orders, without ships, but it is assumed that the War Department has arrangements with merchant lines under a mail subsidy. Officials were kept in suspense by the continued censorship at Mexico City, and the official despatches were brief.

Anti-American.
(Courier Leased Wire).
NOGALES, Ariz., Feb. 18.—Anti-American feeling on both sides of the line here took form late yesterday in offers of a volunteer military organization to the Sonora state government. A secret order of Mexicans is said to have sprung up in anticipation of intervention by the United States. The leaders received a severe rebuke from Governor Maytorna, who was broached with a request to furnish eight hundred rifles. Three Mexican railroad men of Nogales, Sonora, signed the request. They also approached Col. Zortzer, commander of the state rural police. He likewise refused the offer.

A plan to dynamite public buildings on the American side as retaliation for intervention is said to have been on foot. Mexican authorities declare they will take immediate steps to crush the efforts of the agitators.

KISSES COME HIGH IN WEST
Aged Postmaster Near Edmonton Assessed $200 in Customs' Suit.

EDMONTON, Feb. 18.—Two hundred dollars and costs is the price Patrick A. Lary, aged 63, postmaster and stockkeeper at Villeneuve, near Edmonton, will pay Mrs. Jean Boulanger, aged 40, wife of a farmer of the same district, for a single kiss. She sued for $1000 damages, and the case was heard in the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Boulanger was at the store at the time and was behind the counter looking at some goods.

AN ENQUIRY
Into the Alleged Payment of Forty One Thousand Dollars

OTTAWA, Feb. 18.—R. C. Miller, president of the Diamond Light & Heating Company of Montreal, will be summoned to appear before the bar of the House to-day to explain his conduct in refusing to answer certain questions put to him in the public accounts committee last Friday, notably the question as to whom he paid the sum of $41,000 for the purpose of securing contracts from the Government of Canada amounting to a total of $117,000 or thereabouts, these contracts being secured between June 1907 and June 1911.

If Mr. Miller does not appear he can be arrested and locked up in the tower for the balance of the session. A similar fate awaits him if he refuses to answer the question put to him to-day. He cannot be jailed outside of the House of Commons.

QUADRUPLETS.
Nova Scotia Woman Gives Birth to Four—All Dying Well

HALIFAX, Feb. 18.—Mrs. E. Isenhauer, of Scarsdale, yesterday gave birth to quadruplets—three boys and a girl—the mother and babes are doing well. Three of the infants weigh six pounds each, while the fourth weighs slightly less. Mrs. Isenhauer is about 38 years of age and is now the mother of 12 children.

A NEW QUEBEC JUDGE

ISIDORE NOEL BELLEAU IS ELEVATED TO THE BENCH.

Sole Barrister, Who Succeeds Justice Pelletier in the Superior Court of the Province, is Founder of The Levis Echo, of Which He Was Once Editor—Sat in the Dominion House For Two Sessions.

Isidore Noel Belleau, K.C., of Sorel, has been elevated to the Superior Court Bench of the Province of Quebec in succession to Justice Pelletier, who has been retired.

Our subject is senior member of the well known legal firm of Belleau, Belleau & Belleau, of Quebec. The new judge was born at Deschambault in the county of Portneuf and was educated at the Quebec Seminary and Laval University, where he made a distinguished course and carried off premier honors. He practiced at Levis and later in the ancient capital in partnership with his brother and his son.

He is a man of marked literary taste and he is the founder of the Levis Echo, which he edited for some time with ability. He was also for a while a member of the editorial staff of Le Moniteur and he was mayor of Levis for a term, reorganizing the finances of that town. He is a doctor of laws and for a number of years has been solicitor for the Credit Foncier of Quebec. He is a distinguished orator and from 1878 to 1885 was one of the most redoubtable political campaigners in the Quebec district and has been at various times candidate in Port Neuf, Levis and Bellechasse. He was elected for Levis in 1885 and sat in the House of Commons for two sessions. Since that date he has devoted himself exclusively to his profession and has been a Queen's counsel since 1887. He is one of the most prominent members of the Quebec Bar and very popular with his conferees and his appointment to the Superior Court bench has been well received throughout Quebec Province.

Recognized Her.

There were many good stories told about the late Mr. W. S. Penley, of "Charley's Aunt" fame. Perhaps one of the best was the tale he told himself about an old friend to whom he gave tickets for the theatre one evening. His friend came, accompanied by a daughter, and settled down in his seat with every intention of enjoying the play; but he had had a tremendously busy and tiring day, and during the first act he fell fast asleep.

When the lights were turned up his laughter prodded him violently, at the same time hissing in his ear: "Papa, do remember where you are!"

"Charley," she still half asleep, only caught the last two words; but, determined to show that he was wide awake, he jumped to his feet and grasped the hand of an old lady who happened to be passing along the row of stalls in front of him.

"Charley's Aunt!" he exclaimed, shaking hands warmly. "Why, so it is! And how's Charley?"

A Gigantic Cake.

A confectioner in Peckham Eye made a Christmas cake which, when completed with almond paste and orange icing, weighed 114 tons, or 2,800 pounds. This vast cake was not baked in one piece. It was built up of large wedges of cake, each baked separately, and they were built up in eleven tiers on the plan of a bride cake. It occupied six men for a whole day's day to build the cake and put the sugar icing around it. To make it and bake it five men were busily employed for four days. The almond paste round the cake weighed 100 pounds, and the sugar coating or icing weighed two hundredweight.

Book Costs a Man His Ears.

There will shortly be sold at Sotheby's, in London, a copy of Prynne's "Histroy Mastix, the Playes," Scourge, or Actors' Tragedies." This was the book which cost the author a heavy fine, the loss of his ears, and the pillory. Prynne fulminated against stage players in 1633. While the book was in the press the Queen took part in a theatrical performance. An action was taken by Laud against Prynne, who was made to suffer for "seditious libel."

Primitive Fire-Fighting.

A curious link with the past is to be seen in St. Bartholomew's Church, Great Cranen, Hunts., Eng. It takes the form of a huge grapple hook, which, in the days of primitive fire appliances, was used for pulling the entire thatch off the roof of a cottage in the event of fire. The shape is that of a long bar with a turned-down fork at the end, the length being sufficient for men on the ground to reach the top of the roof and the weight so great that the strength of several men was necessary in using it.

LAKE ERIE AND NORTHERN ROUTES.

The two proposed routes, the original and the alternative, with reference to the above railway, are presented in map form elsewhere in this issue.

Citizens will have no difficulty in making a comparison and forming their own conclusions.

The Courier has taken the ground that if the Jubilee Terrace route could be avoided it should be, but it does not think that the proposals of City Engineer Jones constitute a desirable, or in many respects, feasible alternative.

This is only a lay view of the matter, and it will be for the experts of the Railway Commission Board to reach a final determination.

MARINE INSURANCE

The past insurance year at Lloyd's has proved a disastrous one. All claims are paid at once and in full, so that the financial loss has been appalling. In no one year since Lloyd's was instituted in a little coffee house on Tower street, in London, England, two and a half centuries ago, have the losses reached such a sum—£6,684,500, which was the total for the past twelve months, and this amount may even yet be still increased when some delayed reports come in. And yet this huge amount was paid out for marine disasters, which is not so great as it might seem. The re-floating of the Titanic saved a lot, while the re-floating of the specie on board the liner, "Oceana" and "Delhi," was another factor in decreasing the total loss. Altogether 228 vessels were lost as total losses. Of these 22 were British and 146 foreign.

It may be interesting to note that the White Star Company now pays 20 shillings per cent. for renewal of twelve months' insurance, as against 15 shillings prior to the loss of the "Titanic."

It should be noted that the heavy losses of the United Kingdom is not due to faulty seamanship or construction, but for the reason that more than half of all the mercantile shipping of the world is under the Union Jack.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Better still keep your straw hat in camp.

They ought to spell the name of that country Mexico.

The Bath Tub Trust in the States has been fined $51,000. As it refused to dissolve the authorities had to fauceit.

Another illustration of the fact of the keen attention now paid in the Old and to the Overseas Dominions is to be found in the circumstance that Hodder and Stoughton, London publishers, are offering a prize for the best novel written in Canada, Australia and New Zealand, the Empire of India and British Africa. The award will be £250 in each instance, and the judges include Sir Gilbert Parker, and Sir H. Rider.

Men's working shirts, full size black and white stripes, regular price 50 and 60 cents; brokers' price 30 cents, at 126 Dalhousie street, opposite Market.

THE CONTROL OF CORPORATIONS

The question of over-capitalization has been for some time under consideration by the Borden Government. The work is being done without any brass-band accompaniment and no gallery play, but that it is being done carefully and with a proper regard for all interests concerned is shown in a short statement given to Parliament by Premier Borden.

The House was considering an increase of capital asked for by the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company, which has large transportation interests from below Quebec up to the Welland Canal. Opposition members had been accusing the Government of not regulating the promotion of companies, more particularly transportation and utility companies. They had in the course of the debate been taking to themselves the credit of being the sole guardians of the rights of the people, when the Prime Minister rose in his place and in the quiet and impressive manner, which characterizes him, informed the House that the whole question was being dealt with by the Minister of Justice. "I do realize," he said, after pointing out the unfairness of singling out any one company, "that the subject which has been alluded to this afternoon is one of importance. As a matter of fact, it has been under the consideration of the Minister of Justice for several months past. The gentlemen who have spoken on this subject, and others who have given it careful consideration, will understand that it is a subject which is by no means free from difficulties. At the same time, one cannot help realizing that there is a good deal of force in the suggestion that there ought to be control over some companies at least, particularly those that are performing quasi public functions.

"So far as the general question is concerned, I can only say that we shall be very glad to consider it, and indeed, as I have already mentioned, the subject is receiving consideration. But it is one upon which it would be undesirable to bring in any immature or rash legislation. When anything is done, it should be done after very careful consideration and due deliberation, and it probably would have to be submitted to some appropriate committee of this House for the purpose not only of considering it, but of threshing it out by the interchange of views between gentlemen whose opinions may point in one direction and those whose opinions may point in the opposite direction."

IN AN EMERGENCY.

Sir Wilfrid—I'll take any old navy policy to get out of this.

Haggard. Manuscripts must be sent in on or before March 1st, 1914. Now, if there is any budding young authors hereabouts, all he, or she, has to do is to reach out for those 1250 simoleons.

There's that dark and gloomy object the illuminated clock.

We've got it on the list; you bet it's on the list.

And the antiquated structure, which mars the Market block,

It never would be missed,

On your life it'd not be missed,

The man who asks you if you're warm

When natural gas you use.

The girl who chatter chatters until you get the blues.

They're all upon the list; each blooming one upon the list.

A PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of the Comet Oil Company, Limited, of Toronto, offering for sale 100,000 shares of capital stock of the company at $10.00 par, which appears in another part of this issue.

From a perusal of the prospectus it would appear that the company is engaged in the merchandizing of coal oil, and that the sale of the commodity has proven to be exceedingly profitable.

Any of our readers can reserve some of these shares by simply writing or telegraphing to Athol George Robertson, 58 Colborne St., Toronto, who is acting as broker for the company during this offering.

AN INVITATION TO SICKNESS.

Thin, Watery Blood Leads to a Breakdown in Health.

Thin, impure blood is an invitation to sickness. The blood is at work day and night to maintain the health and any lack of strength or purity in the blood is a weakness in the defense against disease. Anæmia is the doctor's name for lack of blood, the watery blood. There may be an actual loss in the quantity of the blood, or one or more of its constituents may be lacking. The surest symptom of anæmia is pallor. The trouble is particularly common among young girls between the ages of fourteen and eighteen, but is also found in women of all ages, and quite frequently attacks men. It is nearly always present and prevents recovery after grippé fevers, malaria, and operations and for this reason a tonic medicine is required in all these cases to enrich the blood, build up the nerves and restore health and strength. And there is no other tonic as good as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as has been proven in thousands and thousands of cases, among them that of Miss Annie Turner, Marie Joseph Post Office, N. S., who says: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been of inestimable benefit to me. I was so badly run down that I could hardly go about, was not able to help in the work about the house. As my health grew worse the trouble brought on some species of fit, and when these attacks would come, it would sometimes remain unconscious for half an hour. After many other medicines had failed to help me, my brother got me a supply of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I began taking these. In the course of a few weeks I felt much better, and after taking the Pills for a time longer I was again in the full enjoyment of good health. I feel that I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly and I recommend them to all weak girls."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SUFFERED SO MUCH SHE WANTED TO DIE

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Her And Brought Her the Joy of Living.

ENTERPRISE, Ont., Oct. 1st. "For seven years, I suffered with what physicians called a "Water Tumor". Hypodermics of Morphine had to be given me to ease the pain.

During one of these bad spells, a family friend brought a box of "Fruit-a-tives" to the house. I was so bad that it was only when I had taken nearly two boxes that I began to experience relief.

I kept up the treatment, however, and after taking five boxes, I was cured, and when I appeared on the streets, my friends said "The dead has come to life", and this seemed literally true because I certainly was at death's door."

Mrs. JAMES FENWICK.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box. 6 for $2.50—trial size, 25c, or sent prepaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

HAS A RISKY CONTRACT

BRITISH SCOUT WILL ACT AS ESCORT IN YAQUI COUNTRY.

Major Fred Burnham, the Celebrated South African Veteran, is to Go into Unconquered Mexico With Capitalist to Quell by Peaceful Arts the Yaqui Indians—Burnham Has Had a Marvellous Military Career.

Major Fred Burnham, the British scout whose career is one of the most thrilling stories in the history of South Africa, is to undertake a remarkable task. He is to escort John Hays Hammond into the country of the Yaqui Indians in Mexico for the purpose of pacifying this unruly people in the interests of the Mexican Government.

The Yaquis, for more than thirty years have been in a state of revolt against the authorities and years ago Hammond succeeded in winning the love and admiration of these tribesmen. Their sense of honor, he maintains, is as highly developed as that of the most civilized nationalities. Mr. Hammond owns 600,000 acres of land along the Yaqui river and this he is anxious to develop.

His plan is to go with Maj. Burnham and an interpreter into the mountains, have the entire tribe, with its 1,500 fighting men, assembled, and address them. With his single white companion standing by Mr. Hammond will face the Indians and outline his proposition. This is that the Indians, assured of peace by the ### South Africa Enterprise.

Gen. Botha recently opened a new creamery at Standerton, erected by the Government at a cost of some $80,000, and which has been leased to the Mool River Creamery Co. of Natal.

In the course of his remarks, the Prime Minister said the great mistake of the people of South Africa was that they lacked the necessary spirit of enterprise. The Government would give the creamery every support and would see that there were more inspectors of dairies, and such matters able to educate the people as to the best methods to adopt. In the past farmers had proved their ability in the breeding fine transport cattle. The in breeding fine transport cattle. The best milk cows and with their opportunities he saw no reason why South African milk cows should not be of a very high standard.

Britan's Literary Output.

In 1912 there were 2,290 works of fiction published in the United Kingdom, the next in numerical order being books on religion and theology with 934. Essays and belles lettres can claim 895, botany, horticulture, and agriculture 674, and poetry and the drama a like number. Eugenics each, reprints of rare books and games and physical culture two each, philately three, anthropology four, and philology five.

Satisfied at Tea.

My Tyndale White, one of the magistrates on the Ongar, Essex, England, Bench, invited a husband and wife who appeared before him to tea at his house to talk over the matters which brought them into court, with a view to settling their grievances privately.

Yes, indeed."

Comet Oil Company, Limited

The company is engaged in Merchandising Coal Oil, a commodity which pays a gross profit of fully 100 per cent for its distribution.

The business has been established about seven years, in which term a trade of over nine thousand steady customers has been built up.

Without the advantage of this additional capital, the earnings of the business for the past year were sufficient to pay 30 per cent. upon the entire capitalization of the company.

Personally I feel satisfied that the business is an exceptionally good one, and that an investment in its shares will net a substantial revenue to those interested.

The shares are being marketed at $10.00 par, payable $5.00 per share with order, and balance at allotment.

Applications to have shares reserved may be made by letter or telegram, subject to prospectus, a copy of which will be mailed to all interested.

Subscription books will remain open for six days only, and shares will be allotted in the same order as the applications are received, and all over or late subscriptions will be returned to subscribers.

NERVOUS DEBILITY

OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure you and make a man of you. Under its influence the brain becomes active, the blood purified so that all pimples, blotches and ulcers heal up; the nerves become strong as steel; all impurities, bad habits and dependencies disappear; the eyes become bright, the face full and clean, energy returns to the body, and the moral, physical and mental systems are invigorated. All drugging cases—no more ritual waste from the system. You feel yourself a man and know marriage cannot be a failure. Don't let quacks and fakirs rob you of your hand earned dollars.

NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT
THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS

Peter K. Summers relates his experience: "I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay in bed in indolence and weakness in youth. I became very dependent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night troubled the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loss, memory poor, etc. Finally, the fingers set in and the doctor told me I feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, but received little benefit. I was induced to consult Dr. Kennedy & Kennedy, through I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through the nerve. I was cured mentally and physically. I have sent them many patients and continue to do so."

BREATHE FREELY! OPEN NOSTRILS AND STUFFED HEAD AT ONCE—END CATARRH

My Cleansing, Healing Balm Instantly Clears Nose, Head and throat—Stops Nasty Catarrhal Discharges. Dull Headache Goes. Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately. Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed, nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous droppings into the throat and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless. Put your faith—just once—in Ely's Cream Balm, and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

Faulkner, the well-known contractor, who has been absent from the city for some six weeks on a visit to his parents in England, has returned to the city looking hale and hearty. Mr. Faulkner is a younger man this morning, and with some more of the "boys," that while over home he visited Belfast, and had kissed the Blarney stone in Glasgow, Scotland, and dear old London, and while in the latter place, a friend of the family, who by the way is a member of the Parliament, took him through the Parliament buildings from top to bottom, while going through, his friend stopped long enough for him to sit in the House of Lords. It will now be "Lord Faulkner," said one of the boys. Mr. Faulkner smiled at this. He also stated that he was not aware that his barn and auto had been burned until he returned home, as the cablegram sent to him from Brantford evidently did not locate him. Mr. (Lord) Faulkner says he feels much better after his trip, and intends to settle right down to business and get both feet after building contracts.

Do not suffer another day with itching, bleeding, or protruding PILES. No surgical operation required. Dr. Chase's Ointment will relieve you at once and as certainly cure you. 60c. a box; all druggists, or H. H. Hanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. ## IN MEXICO Heavy Fighting Still Continues to Take Place--President Has Now Agreed to an Interim President.

(Courier Leased Wire). MEXICO CITY, Feb. 18.—Firing went on practically the whole night from both the federal and rebel positions. In the total darkness, however, it was impossible to ascertain whether any advantage had been gained by either side. Resumed Possession The government troops have again obtained possession of the Young Men's Christian Association building, which had been in the hands of the rebels since the second day's fighting, when they captured it in one of their forward rushes. They caused much trouble to the federals by mounting machine guns on the roof. Has Agreed. (Courier Leased Wire). MEXICO CITY, Feb. 18.—President Madero has agreed in principle to the appointment of a president ad interim. Disbanded. (Courier Leased Wire). WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—With sickness and famine confronting the people of Mexico in consequence of ten days of street fighting, the white and red cross organizations have been disbanded, owing to their internal political intrigues. Ambassador Wilson has established an embassy relief organization. Critical. (Courier Leased Wire). MEXICO CITY, Feb. 18.—The situation of the government force became so critical that one strong detachment of federal troops retired from the capital before noon and marched in the direction of Cuernavaca, forty miles to the southward. care, who in a few remarks accepted the responsibilities of the new post. President Poincare and ex-President Fallieres then kissed each other on both cheeks, and at the same moment the guns on the Place des Invalides began to thunder a salute, announcing to the residents of the French capital that the presidency of the republic had changed hands. 75c. ## FRENCH PRESIDENT

(Continued from page one.) this afternoon called at the private residence of the President-elect, with whom he then proceeded in a four-horse open state carriage, escorted by a regiment of brilliantly-uniformed cuirassiers, through the avenue Du Bois de Boulogne and the avenue Des Champs Elysees and the avenue De Marigny to the Palace of the Elysee. In spite of the unusual cold weather the streets were thickly lined with people who had come to see and cheer the new President. A school holiday had been proclaimed, and most of the children were lined up along the route and waved caps, handkerchiefs and small flags, and loudly cheered as the presidential procession passed. As the President-elect's carriage entered the great paved courtyard of the Palace Elysee, a battalion of infantry drawn up on three sides of the square came to the salute while the trumpeters played a fanfare. M. Fallieres, with Emile Loubet, the only other living ex-President of the French Republic, received President-elect Poincare on the steps of the palace and walked with him to the reception hall, where the speakers of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, the members of the Cabinet and a large group of French President-elect Poincare had assembled. M. Fallieres delivered a brief address, at the end of which he transferred the seat of office to M. Poin-large attendance and an interesting time was spent. Among those who took part in the programme were: Messrs. Harry Silks, Woods, Newham, Lemon and Mowbray. Two contests were put on—"An Old Time Dinner" and "Microscope."—and proved to be great entertainers. The affair was brought to a happy conclusion when the boys served light refreshments.

Hardware Convention
The annual convention of the Canadian Hardware Manufacturers' Association, and also the Ontario Stove Manufacturers Association and the Retail Hardware Association is being held in Hamilton. A. A. Bettews, representing the Gillette Safety Razor Co., is the president, and F. M. Tobin of the Tolin Arms Co. Woodstock, is the secretary. H. P. Hubbard of the Atkins Saw Co., Hamilton, is the chairman of the local committee. The convention proper will be opened to-night in the drill hall by Controller Cooper, and will be in session to-morrow. Among the Brantfordites who went to the convention to-day were Mr. Howie, of Howie and Feely, Mr. R. Butterworth of Turnbull, Cutcliffe Co., Mr. A. Ballantyne, Mr. R. Peckham of the Elliott Hardware Co., Mr. Batson of the Watt and Squires Co., and others.

St. Andrew's Men's Bible Class.
Last evening a meeting of the men of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was held under the auspices of the Men's Bible Class. The program was of a social and inspirational character, and was greatly enjoyed by the nearly 90 men present. Rev. J. W. Gordon, B.D., occupied the chair. Mr. S. P. Davies and Mr. Geo. E. Chamberlain sang a duet, and Mr. Burrell a solo, which brightened the program very greatly. A series of five-minute speeches were given by members of the class. Mr. D. McDonald spoke on the subject, "The Value of the Class to Me." Mr. H. B. Crouch on "What I Expect From the Class." Mr. Will Millard, "Why a Man Should Join the Class." Mr. W. Robertson, "My Duty to the Class." Dr. W. H. Nichol on "The Value of the Class to Me." Mr. A. Brandon on "The Value of the Class to the Church," and Mr. J. B. Wilson on "What I Miss When I Stay Away From the Class." All of which were well delivered and greatly enjoyed. Rev. Dr. Drummond of Hamilton delivered a stirring, inspirational address on the subject of "Service," and those who heard his earnest, eloquent appeal will not soon forget it. Light refreshments were then served and a fine social time was spent in conversation, and the men went home feeling that it was a great evening.

There's 10% Dividends in Corrugated Paper

I have been asked to offer to investors for immediate subscription at par $20,000.00 worth of the Capital Stock of the
CORRUGATED PAPER COMPANY, Limited
The offering is a particularly attractive one, and I may say that I have never had the privilege of securing for my clients and friends an investment carrying the apparent market opportunities of this one. The growth of the business during its brief career has been rapid and most satisfactory in character, so much so that although the company's plant is taxed to its utmost capacity, the trade continue to call for more and more Corrugated Paper Boxes. The shares are being marketed at $100.00 par, payable $50.00 per share with order, and balance within 60 days. Applications to have shares reserved may be made by letter or telegram, subject to the prospectus, a copy of which will be mailed to those interested. Subscription books will remain open for three days, and shares will be allotted in the same order as the applications are received, until the entire offering is marketed.

Boy Scouts Had a Good Time on Their Oshweken Trip

The headquarters patrol of Scouts, which accompanied His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught as a Guard of Honor to the Reserve on Saturday, report an interesting and instructive time. Immediately on entering the waiting room upon his arrival, His Royal Highness approached the Guard which was drawn up at the Royal Salute to receive him, and complimented the commissioner on the splendid appearance which the boys presented. "If your Scouts are as smart in all the branches of Scouting as their appearance and drill indicates, they are, indeed, a splendid Patrol," the Chief Scout said. Directly after presentation of the Silver Wolf to Bugler Colquhoun, the Scouts left in two automobiles for the Reserve in the rear of the Ducal party and were almost half-way to Oshweken when the front tire of the car carrying the second division of the Scouts became punctured, and was brought to a halt for repairs amid the laughing farewells of the scouts in the leading car. When repairs had been effected by the chauffeur with the assistance of the two Engineer Scouts of the party, G. and J. Matthews, their work being duly recorded by Photographer Scott F. Robertson, the car once more started on the trip to

EXPERT ADVICE

Money spent on keeping time pieces "on the job" is really a necessary expenditure. Plenty of good watches aren't doing their best work, simply because they can't. Many a fifty or hundred dollar watch is being slowly but surely ruined, because it needs a dollars worth of cleaning. If this reminds you that your watch is in that shape, let it also remind you that our repair dept. can attend to your needs on short notice.

of the Royal Party in order to be at the T. H. and B. station when he arrived. His Royal Highness before boarding his car said to the Headquarters Patrol, "I am very glad to have had this excellent Guard of Honor, because I am always glad to meet my Brother Scouts." The patrol is natural, much gratified at the position of honor accorded it, and each scout is determined to do his share towards forwarding the Canadian Boy Scout Movement, which has at its head such an illustrious chief. The local Scout Council beg to thank Mr. John S. Dowling for conveying half of the patrol to the Reserve in his automobile and Mr. Jos. Ruddy for the use of his car.

The Mayor declared the motion lost as a tie vote always negatives.

Moved by Ald Spence, seconded by Ald Pitcher, that the City Clerk communicate with all the boards who have not as yet sent in their estimates for the current year, advising that unless they are received at once, the estimates committee will go ahead and strike the rate at last year's figures, this to apply to those boards who have not sent in a draft of their estimates. The clerk to notify them to present same at once or they will be considered on last year's basis alone, as no requests will be considered unless draft estimates of itemized requirements are presented to this council along with same.

Louis Stander Account
The account of Louis Stander, amounting to $22.50 for services as interpreter at the police court came up for discussion, and it was severally criticized by the council.

Ald Minshall said that foreigners told him that they paid $2.00 for services and that they are afterwards charged up.
Ald Hollinrake stated that there are cases among foreigners brought before the police court that should not have been there at all, but they all made money for Stander.

Some of the aldermen were of the same opinion.
Ald Hollinrake was of the opinion that Stander was the cause of a number of cases coming to court.

The upshot of the discussion was the passing of the following motion: Moved by Ald Spence, seconded by Ald Hollinrake, that the mover and seconder, along with Ald Charlton and Ald McEwen and Pitcher, be a committee to investigate accounts submitted by the Crown Attorney, Lewis Stander, and that the City Clerk compile a report of amount paid last year in connection with this matter.

Gas Meters
Moved by Ald Ward, seconded by Ald Gillingwater, that the City Clerk write to the department at Ottawa having in charge the inspection of gas meters, asking for a copy of the Inspector's report of the gas meters inspected recently in Brantford. Carried.

Mount Hope Cemetery
John Muirhead, Supt. of cemeteries, wrote the council, calling the attention of the council to the delapidated state of some parts of the fencing at Mt. Hope cemetery which should be replaced with new fencing at once, also there should be more soft maple trees put out to replace those that have died. He called attention to the bad state of roads and sidewalks between the two cemeteries, which are a disgrace and should be improved. He stated that a car load of crushed stone would be necessary for Greenwood cemetery to be placed on the drives in order to improve same.

Edwin Street
Ald Hollinrake asked if Mr. A. J. Wilkes had some years ago given a free title to Edwin street, Holmedale, and now wanted pay for the same.
Ald Suddaby—"Yes."
Ald Hollinrake—"That's funny."
Ald Spence—"Don't the aldermen know that lawyers are the wisest people in the world, and that City Solicitors are wiser than that?"

CITY ITEMS

Congregational Church Y. P.
The meeting of the Young People's Society of the Congregational church held in the church parlors last night was very largely attended. Mr. Ward Foster, president of the society, occupied the chair. The meeting took the form of a consecration service, interspersed with hymn singing and Scripture reading, during which most of those present took part. During the evening the pastor, Rev. Mr. Kelly, gave a short, interesting address.

Death of Mrs. John H. Smith.
The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. John H. Smith, at her late residence, 5 Dundas street. The deceased lady was in her 83rd year and had been a resident of Terrace Hill for a great many years, and was well and favorably known. Mrs. Smith had been a member of the Shenstone Memorial Baptist church for a number of years. She leaves a husband and a grown up family to mourn her loss. The funeral takes place on Thursday to Union church cemetery.

A. Y. P. A.
St. John's A. Y. P. A. paid a visit to Grace Church young people last night, there being in all 120 present. President Fred Myring opened the meeting with prayer and Mr. McLeod read the lesson. A debate was the form of entertainment, the subject being, "Resolved that Borden's Naval Policy is more practicable than Laurier's." The affirmative was supported by Mr. W. Kinzerley, Miss N. Gaffney and Mr. F. Pilling of St. Judes, and the negative by Messrs J. Mellor, A. Stevens and A. Jackson of Grace church. The judges Messrs Tysoe, Broomfield and Tyler, gave their decision in favor of the affirmative.

CONFERENCE

Of the Brant County Laymen's Missionary Movement.

The Brant County conference of the laymen's missionary movement opened promptly at 11 a.m., according to the programme arranged by the executive committee. Mr. T. L. Wood took the chair and called upon Rev. John A. Neill of Burford to conduct the devotional exercises. "Come ye that love the Lord," was sung with zest by the men present, with Mr. W. C. Senior of Toronto, acting as leader. The opening song service had a swing about it that augurs well for the following sessions. Many ministers were present from different parts of the county, representing the different evangelical denominations.

The opening address of the conference was given by Rev. A. E. Lavell of Brantford, pastor of the Brant Avenue Methodist Church, and well listened to with deep interest. His subject was: "The relation of the local church to missions." The relation of the local church was declared to be one of initiation, one of cultivation and one of support. The relation of the local church to missions was declared to be one of initiation, one of cultivation and one of support. The relation of the local church to missions was declared to be one of initiation, one of cultivation and one of support.

Sometimes in our local churches we make the mistake of studying of missions is the supreme thing, in addition to this our true inspiration must come from a study of the life of Christ, to the prophets and to the apostles. Here is the true fountain of missionary inspiration. It is the joy and the privilege to have the message that all men should hear and heed is the main spring of missionary effort. The relation and support and advance is also included, and to this end we have organization. How did the church at Antioch do, which is a model in this connection. They taught the principles of missionary effort and then they sent forth Paul and Barnabas on the first missionary journey, and that movement has not stopped yet. A fundamental that must go along with all this comes from the cross of Christ, the appeal to self sacrifice. We are in a holy war and the spirit of self sacrifice must play a large place here. The church that is not missionary through and through, is not worthy of the name of church. The heroism of Capt. Scott and his men was touchingly referred to in concluding his address.
The Rev. Mr. Purton of Paris.

pastor of the Episcopal church, gave the second address of the morning, upon "The Development of the Missionary Atmosphere in the Local Church." The speaker made reference to his own church and the development of the missionary atmosphere there. The modern method of raising missionary funds was contrasted with the old fashioned way. A contribution from every member of the congregation by the duplex system of giving was much better than a few well to do men giving the whole amount. The results achieved were not satisfactory. The New Testament method of raising money for missions is having every member feel his own responsibility and securing the loyal co-operation of every member. The visits from time to time of returned missionaries had greatly stimulated his people in the development of the missionary spirit in the church.

"Development of the Local Committee" was the topic of Rev. G. A. Woodside, pastor of Zion Presbyterian church, Brantford. The place of the pastor in the leadership of the church was emphasized. The pastor is not of necessity the leader in every department of service. One enthusiastic man in the congregation can lead a whole congregation in the question of missionary giving. The organization proper must be a unit, but should not, in the judgment of the speaker, be too large. When the committee is well organized others can be added indefinitely. The committee must be representative. We need men who are students or the whole question, who know the congregation intimately—statesman-like men who can organize, enthusiasts are needed who will bring new to the committee, men who have executive ability, who are not afraid to go to work, men of vision, men who can see God and who see God in men. In all men were some of the qualifications pointed out by the speaker. The function of this committee is educational. It must show the church that the evangelization of the world is the supreme task of the church, that the biggest task is the subjugation of the world to Christ. The church must be made thoroughly missionary, and this is one of the most important functions of the committee. The great dynamic in this work is the spirit of Jesus Christ, being face to face with God is the best equipment for the members of the missionary committee.

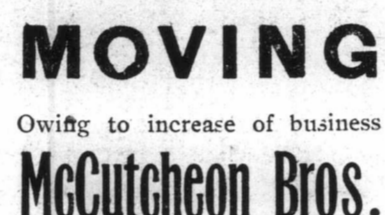

Chapped Hands AND Cold Sores

Are your hands chapped, cracked or sore? Have you "cold cracks" which open and bleed when the skin is drawn tight? Have you a cold sore, frost bite, chilblain, or a "raw" place, which at times makes it agony for you to go about your household duties? If so, Zam-Buk will give you relief, and will heal the frost-damaged skin. Anoint the sore places at night, Zam-Buk's rich healing essences will sink into the wounds, end the smarting, and will heal quickly.

Mrs. Yellen, of Portland, says: "My hands were so sore and cracked that it was agony to put them near water. When I did so they would smart and burn as if I had scalded them. I seemed quite unable to get relief from anything I put on them until I tried Zam-Buk, and it succeeded when all else had failed. It closed the big cracks, gave me ease, soothed the inflammation, and in a very short time healed my hands."

Zam-Buk also cures chafing, rashes, winter eczema, piles, ulcers, festering sores, sore heads and backs, abscesses, pimples, ringworm, skin cuts, burns, bruises, sores, sprains. It kills draughts and stings, or soothes from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Price 50c a tin.

Suffragettes are Still Smashing Windows

(Courier Leased Wire).
LONDON, Feb. 18.—Zelie Emerson, the militant suffragette, of Jackson, Michigan, who is carrying on a campaign of window smashing in the east end of London, in company with Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, was again arrested to-day. She was immediately taken before the police magistrate and sentenced to a term of two months at hard labor.

Zelie Emerson and her companion broke all the windows of the Liberal Association at Bow street last night. Miss Sylvia Pankhurst was also sentenced by the same magistrate to two months at hard labor.
Zelie Emerson has been already sentenced to jail for six weeks on Feb. 14, in default of paying a fine of $15 inflicted for a similar charge, but her fine on that occasion was paid by a friend, and she was released.

LATER DESPACHES

MORGAN IMPROVING
(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—J. P. Morgan continued to improve in health to-day, according to a cablegram sent by him from Cairo, Egypt, to his son, J. P. Morgan, Jr. The cablegram said Mr. Morgan was feeling better and much stronger to-day. He recently suffered an attack of acute indigestion.

THREE FRENCHMEN KILLED.
(Courier Leased Wire).
TOULON, France, Feb. 18.—Three French naval gunners were killed and a number of others severely wounded by the explosion of a threeinch gun on board the dread-nought Danton during target practice by the vessels of the French Mediterranean fleet yesterday in the roadstead of Salins d'Hyeres. The Danton put into this port to-day to transport the wounded men to the naval hospital.

ASSASSINS EXECUTED.
(Courier Leased Wire).
SAN SALVADORE, Republic of Salvador, Feb. 18.—Three of the assassins of the late president of the Republic of Salvador, Dr. Manuel E. Araya, were shot by platoons of soldiers on the Campo de Marte race course in the presence of a large concourse of people yesterday. A council of war had on Saturday morning condemned to death seven persons who had taken an active part in the crime. Four of them had been taken prisoners while the other three are still at large. One of the prisoners was allowed a respite as it was expected that he would die.

HAVING ITS EFFECT.
(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—A London cable says: According to an official report published yesterday London's rateable value had fallen in one year to the extent of $1,500,000, and during the last ten years there has been a net emigration of 550,801 persons. This loss to the capital is attributed to the building of modern houses in outer London with better accommodations and to the opportunities afforded by tramsways and auto buses for living in healthier surroundings on the borders of the country. In a word, the central idea of the migration has been self-preservation on grounds of health.

LAST SURVIVOR
(Courier Leased Wire).
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Major O. E. Duffy, the last survivor of President Lincoln's mounted body-guard and commander of that organization during the troubled days of the Civil War, will be buried here tomorrow. He died here yesterday, aged 88 years.

SHACKLETON TO GO AGAIN
(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The deaths which Capt. Scott and four of his men suffered in the ant-Arctic will have no effect on the determination of Sir Ernest Shackleton to go South again. At a luncheon in his honor yesterday on the eve of his departure for England, Shackleton reaffirmed his intention of leading another expedition, as there was still work to be done in the ant-Arctic. "Human lives are nothing," he said, "if by going we can add one iota to the sum of human knowledge."

ON CHARGE OF MURDER
WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 18.—The condition of Eli G. Parkins, who yesterday shot and killed his wife and attempted suicide, shows great improvement this morning, and he will recover to face a charge of murder. Parkins was a mechanic employed by the Davidson Garage and has talked freely to the police about his crime. The police believe Parkins was jealous of a man his wife met at a dance and shot her after a quarrel. Mrs. Parkins was the daughter of John M. Almen, Grafon, N.D., and was supposed to be wealthy. She and Parkins married 17 years ago and came to Manitoba from the States nine months ago.

Write Ideas For Moving Picture Plays

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25.00 OR MORE WEEKLY

WE WILL SHOW YOU HOW!

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—We will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100, and more, for single scenarios or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays, are located in or near NEW YORK CITY. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers, our SALES DEPARTMENT has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, COMET, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for Publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure

You Will Earn $100 Monthly for Spare Time Work FREE Send your name and address at once for free copy of our illustrated book, "MOVING PICTURE PLAYWRITING"

1866. The Colonel at the time was Sergeant of the Strathroy Infantry regiment.

Judge Hardy received a telephone message on Sunday conveying the sad intelligence of the death at Cairo, Egypt, of Mr. Bertie Austin, a prominent Torontonian and golfing enthusiast, who was very popular in Brantford and had spent many hours on our local links.

The executive of the National Council of Women, while in Ottawa last week, were by the invitation of the Speaker of the House of Commons, present in the Speaker's Gallery at the sitting of the House on Friday evening, and later entertained at supper by Mrs. Sproule.

By a letter from London received in the city recently, it appears that Mrs. Coates—Sarah Jeanette Duncan—was in very near proximity to Lord Hardinge, Viceroy of India, when the bomb was thrown which might have terminated fatally. A splinter from the shattered canopy was enclosed in the letter.

Miss Charles, organizing secretary of the Girls' Friendly Society, is at present in the city, the guest of Mrs. W. F. Cocks, Chatham street, during her stay. Last night a meeting was held at Trinity, to-night one at Holywell, to-morrow at St. John's, and Thursday at St. Luke's, in connection with this work, Miss Charles organized societies in all of these places during her last visit to Brantford, and splendid work is being done by them all at the present time.

Daughters of the Empire.

The second annual meeting of the Brant Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, was held in the Museum of the Library on Monday afternoon. There was a large attendance. After routine business had been attended to the Regent, Mrs. Ashton spoke of the closing of the year and thanked the members for their cooperation and interest and called on Miss Scarfe for the Secretary's report which showed an increase of membership and a season of great activity. The Treasurer, Mrs. Cameron reported $313.68 in regular account and $252.11 in the special Tubercular Hospital account. The election of officers for the coming year resulted in the following—

Regent, Mrs. E. C. Ashton; 1st Vice-regent, Mrs. Gordon Smith; 2nd vice-regent, Mrs. Jos. Stratford; secretary, Miss Scarfe; treasurer, Mrs. Cameron; standard bearer, Miss Dorothy Wilkes; Counsellors, Mesdames Vates, Hardy, C. J. Watt, G. C. Duncan, Mabon, G. D. Watt, Bruce Gordon, Misses Gilkison, Van Norman and Miss Leoard. The meeting adjourned to meet again for sewing at Mrs. E. C. Ashton's on Monday afternoon, February 24th.

Julia Marlowe, who was suffering from ptomaine poisoning in St. Louis recently, but has been recuperating in Chicago, rejoins her husband, E. H. Sothorn, who is en tour, the latter part of the week.

LAUGHTER LINES
As Usual

A young woman who was very stout, and who ardently longed for a slim, willowy figure, finally decided to consult a physician, thinking he could assist her in reducing her avoirdupois. The physician drew up a careful dietary; she was to eat toast, boiled beef, etc., and to return in a month and report reduction. At the end of the month she returned and could hardly get through the doctor's doorway. He looked at her in grave astonishment. "Did you eat what I told you?"

he asked. "Yes, I did, religiously," she replied, panting for breath from the exertion of mounting the stairs. He meditated, with a wrinkled brow. Suddenly he had a flash of inspiration. "Anything else?" he asked. "My ordinary usage," she replied, calmly, seating herself more comfortably in the large arm-chair—Harper's Magazine.

A regiment in India was about to be inspected by a general, just out from England, who was particular that the captain of every regiment should know the name of every man in his company and also where he came from. Now, it happened that a captain in this particular regiment had just returned after twelve months' leave, and during his absence many changes had occurred.

On the morning of the inspection the captain addressed his company as follows:

"Now, men, the general is particular that I should know every man's name, and also to what county he belongs. Now, there are many here who are strangers to me, so whatever I say you name are, or where you belong to, mind you don't contradict it."

The general at last arrived, and as he passed down the lines he stopped before a man and said to the captain:

"This is a smart-looking soldier. What is his name?"

"Brown, sir," replied the captain.

"Where does he come from?"

"Wiltshire, sir."

The general passed on, and soon stopped before another man.

"What's this man's name?"

"Jones, sir."

"Where does he come from?"

"Devon, sir."

"Ah, I'm a Devonshire man myself. Fine county that Devon, is it not, Private Jones?" said the general.

Private Jones looked startled for a moment, and then, in a broad Irish brogue, replied:

"Bedad, an' there ain't a finer country in the world, yer honour."

SOME FASHION HINTS

Those who are making up their washable summer dresses in the early part of the year, in Devon, is it not, Private Jones?" said the general. THE CARE OF GLOVES

Gloves, if they are to look well and wear well, must be taken care of, for they at once resent rough handling and show every trace of ill usage.

Gloves that are out of shape, soiled or baggy, will destroy an otherwise well-dressed appearance, thus it is of importance that they should receive proper treatment. Reasonable care results in reduction of expenditure, and the gloves preserve their shape till worn out.

The following hints from the 'Lady's Companion' will serve to show how easily gloves may be made to last.

Care must be taken from the outset, new gloves should never be put on hurriedly.

After the glove has been powdered get the fingers on by rubbing them gently with the thumb and first finger, do this till they are down to the ends, see to it that no crease is left, and that each finger is straight, and no seam is dry. Now proceed to put the thumb in then the wrist must be gently worked straight and the buttons fastened.

It is well to fasten with a glove buttoner, otherwise the finger-tips get rubbed and the buttonholes stretched. To take a glove off, the wrist should be turned over the fingers, then take hold of the finger-tips through the wrist, gently blow inside the glove, as this prevents the kid sticking, as is the case if the hands perspire, then when each finger is quite free, pull the glove into shape and put away.

Any tiny hole or tear should receive prompt attention; cotton the same shade as the glove answers better than silk.

White kid and suede gloves are ever in demand, and become an expensive item if new ones are to be purchased as occasion demands. Two or three pairs, however, will last a long time, for they may be cleaned again and again, and the gloves will look equal to new. Other colors can, of course, be cleaned by the same means (but sometimes they will come out a much lighter shade).

Get some benzoline, pour some of it out in a basin and then put into it the gloves, squeeze them gently in the spirit, take out one glove at a time, and carefully rub it all over with a piece of flannel; if any soiled places remain dip the flannel in clean spirit and gently rub.

Proceed in this way until all the gloves are done, then put them in a clean basin, and pour over them some fresh benzoline, squeeze them in this, then take them out and pull into shape, leave them in the air to dry, and in an hour or two they will be like new gloves.

When gloves have been thus treated many times and at the finger-tips some soil remains, a glove soap may be purchased. The soap is made with spirit, and if it is smeared on the gloves before they are immersed in the benzoline, it will quickly remove any trace of soil or ingrained stain. Gasoline is used more commonly than benzoline. Remember either is inflammable.

BUTTONS BY THE SCORE

A dozen or so buttons will not begin to trim the modern blouse. These ornaments must now be numbered by the score; and of course the smaller the buttons, the more will be required to give a modish effect. If the buttons are not of glass, bone or metal, they are simulated by embroidered dots on the material; and the very latest notion is the row of pendant buttons, eyelid holes being worked in the material and the buttons strung on a long thread hanging from the holes. Touches of color on the new blouses are in line with the strong Oriental tendency in dress this season, for Oriental effects always presuppose plenty of warm and glowing color. Even the new machine embroideries have come out in colored patterns and blouses of these embroideries are made up with pipings of plain color to match. A model of this sort by Christine, is of the new Planettes embroidery which shows quaint little sprigs in stiff effect, set above dropped stitches, or drawn threads in the fabric. The little sprigs are in red and black, on a ground of sheer cotton crepe; and at the front of the blouse is a narrow V-shaped vest of Bulgarian red chiffon outlined with real Irish crochet banding. This gay and Parisian little blouse accompanies a bridal travelling costume of gun-metal gray mohair and worsted mixture and a tiny, exceedingly French toque of black tulle and straw with a long red ostrich quill shooting backward. The skirt of the suit, like all Paris-cut skirts these days—is slashed a bit to show a very smart patent leather boot with buttoned top of gun-metal gray suede.

Don't pay 50 cents for worthless hair tonics—Use old, reliable, harmless "Danderine"—Get results.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; or dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre and strength and its very life, eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

Good News From the Lumber Camp

Men in the lumber camps have free medical attendance, and while many suffer from piles on account of exposure from cold and dampness, the doctors do not seem to have any cure for piles.

Many letters come from lumber camps in praise of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and here is a sample of how they read.
Mr. Wm. Jones, cook in lumber camp at Prairie River, Sask., writes: "For a long time I suffered from itching, bleeding piles, and could not sleep nights, because of the intense itching. Two doctors treated me, but the relief was only temporary. I saw Dr. Chase's Ointment advertised in a newspaper, and it cured me completely over four months ago. Two besides me had the piles here at the camp, and were cured by ointment I gave them. After all the treatments I tried I never expected to be cured and am grateful for it." Dr. Chase's Ointment is a positive cure for itching, bleeding and protruding piles.

A PROPHET AT HOME

SIR JOHN WILLISON NOT WELL KNOWN TO NEWSDEALER.

Toronto's New Editor Knight Received Indirectly a Blow to His Satisfaction at the Honor Conferred on Him — Sir John Exhausted His Local Public Library and Then Moved to Toronto For More Books.

Though he has been a score of years in the public eye, Sir John Willison, who was knighted by the King on New Year's Day, is not as well known as he might be, even in his home city of Toronto. Perhaps that is because he is a modest editor, but on the fact of his limited fame hangs this little tale which is now being told with gusto by Sir John's friends.

It seems that the news was wired to Toronto on the last day of the year of the honor for the editor of The News, and a reporter from another paper was the first to inform the Willison household of the fact, when he called to ask for a photograph of the new knight.

Later in the evening Sir John's son went down street and dropped in at a newsdealer's to buy a late edition of an evening paper. He wanted to see what the paper had to say about it.

"Say," said the newsdealer, who, of course, was quite ignorant of the young man's identity, "who is this man Willison who has just been knighted by the King?"

The son of Sir John made a rather evasive reply to the effect that Mr. Willison was a newspaper man.

"Well," grumbled the newsdealer as he handed over the paper, "all

SIR JOHN WILLISON.

I've got to say is that honors are pretty cheap nowadays. Sir John was born on a farm up in Huron County, Ont. As this was a pretty old settlement, it's not likely he had much to do with logging-bees and stump-pulling. But he was real farming that the Willisons did. The lad John plowed with the long-handle plow, bound wheat by hand after the four-ways reaper, and the great-grand-dug potatoes with a fork and went with a pitchfork to threshing-bees when the horse-power antedated the steam engine.

And he had also a passion for reading. There must have been many a wet day when he hoped his father wouldn't be able to find a job fixing the granary or cleaning wheat, when in all probability he nixed himself to the hayrack with a book. He read every book he could get his hands on; though he omitted Shakespeare till he was old enough to vote.

Up till the age of seventeen, however, he read the newspaper more than any particular kind of books. About that time he moved to a place called Greenwood, in south Ontario county. Here for a few months he subsisted for a domestic and taught school—without a certificate. He had never gone to High School. But here, at the village of Greenwood, he found the one thing that opened to him the gates of Paradise. That was Mechanics' Institute. You have seen one of those dingy old libraries chosen by some wise old pioneers of culture, usually either in a rambling building as the town hall or above some bank. This one was a great library.

"Even now, when I have a library of my own, perhaps a score more complete," said Sir John, with considerable enthusiasm, "I recall that Greenwood Mechanics' Institute as a really fine collection of books. And I read them all; not because I wanted to turn my reading to any particular account, but because I couldn't stay away from the books.

Behold him every evening and Saturday afternoon, pulling along to the shelves, taking down a book that he began yesterday and left a mark in; poetry or history or sciences or philosophy—for they had them all.

But even in those years without more than passing advice from a domestic or a lawyer or some doctor with a few books, or more than likely the village preacher who might happen to have been a B.A. or a theologian in his time, he got the idea that it was better to read up one subject pretty thoroughly till he had got the general drift of it before going to something else. In this way he read economics and history. He memorized long passages of both poetry and prose. He revelled in Macaulay and Gibbon and Goethe in French and Gladstone and Burke, in Carlyle, Emerson and Ruskin.

"I still believe that is the best way to read," he said. "I don't mean that a man necessarily reads a fair knowledge of the sort of men the authors were; the color of the times and the customs—Augustus Brindle in Canadian Courier.

"Mouveys" in Britain Alone.

In view of the fact that in March next an International Cinematograph Exhibition and Conference will be held at Olympia, London, in order to arouse public interest in the educational, scientific, and general usefulness of the cinematograph, it may not be uninteresting to review the amazing development of the picture palace since Robert Paul showed moving pictures for the first time in public sixteen years ago at the Finsbury Technical College and the London Institution.

Scientists hailed the invention with delight, royalty became interested, and King George—then, of course, regarded it as a novelty. The attention of the Admiralty, to accompany him on a cruise. As a matter of fact, His Majesty was responsible for the suggestion that these naval films should be shown to the Queen at Osborne House, and they were the only moving pictures Her Majesty ever saw.

In those days, however, people were inclined to scoff at the moving picture, and while admitting that it was a wonderful novelty, refused to regard it in any other light but that of a passing craze.

But there were those who saw great commercial advantages in the idea, and it was due to their enterprise, and the genius of those who perfected the cinematograph, that picture palaces began to spring up in every town of importance.

Today it is estimated that there are close upon 6,000 picture palaces in the British Isles, which have been equipped at a cost of over a million pounds, and that something like 10,000,000 people pay every week to look at the moving pictures in these palaces.

In London alone and its suburbs there are 450 picture theatres, in which half a million people find amusement every afternoon and evening.

As a matter of fact, there is scarcely a town of any size in the world that has not at least one picture theatre, and in the coast towns of China and the Philippines, in all parts of South Africa and South America, India, Turkey, Greece, and Russia, they flourish, and now even Jerusalem can boast of its picture palace.

One interesting feature of this amazing development of the cinematograph is that the prosperity of the picture palaces is meaning employment for hundreds of thousands of men and women. At least a hundred industries have been created or revived, while electricians, engineers, architects, builders, decorators, printers, carpet weavers, and men of other trades are sharing in the prosperity, not to mention the poster designer, typist and clerk.

The stages used by some of the biggest firms in the States and on the continent of Europe are often as big as the floor space of a large theatre. The masons, having got notice of the particulars of this will, was naturally anxious that his children should take equally of the doc-jacking country. He took the whole family together, and having informed them that Dr. Stewart had left $500 to each of them, except one, which he did not name, recommended them to sign an agreement that the $5,500 should be equally divided among the twelve.

To this proposal all parties cheerfully consented, as no one could tell on whom the loss would fall if any one should refuse to concur in such a measure. Thus the whole family were very nearly as well provided for as if each had been left $500.

Winston's Joke. The First Lord of the Admiralty was apprised that a very dear friend was down with appendicitis. Mr. Churchill was about to write a note of sympathy for despatch by messenger straightway, when the whole family that the attack had proved to be one of acute indigestion only.

Greatly relieved, the "ruler of the King's Navy" worded his letter thus: "Dear — I am very sorry to learn that you are ill; that the trouble is with the table of contents rather than with the appendix." Mr. Churchill's friend, who dabbled in literature, simply roared on reading this, and having been properly dosed up by his doctor was quickly all right again.

They Braved the Hoodlums. A short time ago a company of scoundrels formed a Thirteen Club in London as a protest against superstition. On the way to dinner the members passed under ladders. They sat down in thirteens at separate tables, broke mirrors, opened umbrellas over each other's heads, split salt and helped their neighbors to it, crossed knives and forks, and did many other equally foolish and daring things. The club no longer exists, but it was not superstition that killed it. The percentage of mortality, or even of evil fortune, among its members has not been higher than the average rate applicable to the community as a whole.

One Woman Executed. In the British House of Commons recently Mr. Ellis Griffith said that during the last seven years sentences of death had been passed on twenty-one women, and in one case the sentence was executed. During the same period the capital sentence was passed on nine persons in their teens, and in four the judgment was carried out.

Found Her Brother. A wealthy London resident who received a draper's Christmas circular was astonished to find that the writing on the envelope resembled that of her long-lost brother. Inquiries were subsequently made, with the result that the man, who had been engaged by a firm of envelope addressers, was found, and spent Christmas Day with his sister.

THE SLEEPY DUKE.

His Grace of Devonshire Was Bored From the Day of his Birth.

The seemingly perpetual drowsiness which was so characteristic of the late Duke of Devonshire is recalled by a story which Mr. H. M. Hyndman tells in "Further Reminiscences." Mr. Hyndman was born in 1892 before the Royal Commission on Labor, of which the duke was chairman, and it was a blazing hot day in August, when he was called upon to give his evidence.

"The Duke," he says, "seemed bored to death, and I did not wonder at it. Of course, he always was bored to death in politics, and most other things too. Boredom was born with him and was part of his being. The only time I ever saw him quite half awake to the actualities of life was one day when my wife and myself were out on a picnic on the Thames with some well-known society people, and my wife who had discarded pomp and circumstance for the nonce, and were rowing their own boat, and making ready to prepare their own provisions for a jolly party indeed. The man was the Duke of Devonshire, then Lord Hartington; the woman was the Duchess of Manchester. He was taking his passenger up-stream right against the current, and I cannot praise them too much."

They have cured the Kidney ills of thousands of people all over Canada. If you have Kidney Disease in any form they will cure you.

Not only did the late duke suffer much from boredom and sleepiness, but he was very absentminded, too, and Mr. Hyndman relates that the first important incident which happened when he sat down after giving his evidence was that the chairman could not find his spectacles.

"He had doubtless been dozing," says Mr. Hyndman with characteristic frankness. "He groped for them among his papers, lifted up his desk, felt in his pockets, and went through all the fussy movements natural to anyone who had mislaid his artificial eyes and chanced to want them in a hurry. 'I see' at the time where they were well enough, seated as I was directly opposite to him. He had pushed them up from his nose right into his hair, and there they stuck, glaring me from that bold eminence. At last one of his fellow royal commissioners espied them too and called the duke's attention to their situation."

Everyone Satisfied. Dr. Stewart, the founder of Stewart's Hospital, Edinburgh, had no near relations. It happened, however, in the latter part of his life that he became acquainted with a mason of his own name, who proved to be a distant kinsman. This man, who was in humble circumstances, had a family of twelve children, and was very poor.

WHEN AILING ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS

That's How Magnus Johnson Got Relief From Kidney Troubles

They told him to use Dodd's Kidney Pills.—He did and his Backache and other sickness speedily vanished.

LAC LA NONNE, Alta., Feb. 17. (Special)—If you have Kidney trouble of any kind, from Backache to Bright's Disease, and don't know how to cure it, ask your neighbors. They'll tell you to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Such is the experience of Magnus Johnson, a well known farmer residing near here. In an interview, Mr. Johnson says:

"In the year 1907 I took a pain in my back, due to a strain and hard work. I kept getting worse. In the fall of 1908 I was unable to do any hard work and began to suffer a great deal. I did not know what to do, and told one of my neighbors. He handed me a Dodd's Almanac. After reading it I concluded to try Dodd's Kidney Pills and after using five boxes I feel fine and able to do any kind of hard work. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured my Kidneys, and I cannot praise them too much."

Lady Marjorie's Love

CHAPTER IX

The Countess had been exceedingly gracious, and, moreover, she continued to be so. Nothing could exceed her kindness and cordiality to Mr. Chaddburn's agent during the first week or so of his residence at Castle Marling. In her calm, cool way it pleased her ladyship to take a fancy to him. She approved his dress, his manners, his looks, which were all those of a gentleman; she announced that she had formed the highest opinion of his intelligence and business ability, and who was a better judge of all these things than the Countess, who was so superior herself and so modestly aware of her own perfection. In fact she avowed herself charmed with Mr. Barrington. She quoted all sorts of revolutionary scraps from her Socialistic and Republican readings, all triumphantly illustrative of the fact that if you wanted all that was desirable in the mental, moral and physical way you must search among the masses and leave the classes severely to themselves. Altogether it was not to be wondered at that her stepdaughter speedily made up her mind that she immensely disliked Mr. Barrington, and that she recompensed herself for all this display of cordiality and friendliness—which was absurd of Fenella, though just like her, and to which the man had no right whatever—by keeping out of the agent's way whenever she could and snubbing him crushingly whenever she couldn't.

Not that he was entirely without his redeeming points. Even Lady Marjorie, though ungraciously, found herself bound to admit that. He was sensible for instance, in electing to take his meals by himself, the Countess's invitation to their own table notwithstanding; and he showed some idea of the glimmer of things in never intruding upon the precincts of the drawing room, preferring, it seemed, when he was not out on foot or horseback, to spend most of his time in the oak parlour, which was filled with all sorts of ledgers, account books and bill files, and had the odor of a cigar box, for Mr. Barrington, perhaps, to keep up his spirits in so much solitude, smoked amazingly. Marjorie passed the half open door one evening—a thing she never did if she could help it—and seeing the agent's long figure stretched comfortably back in an equally long chair, half enveloped in a faint blue cloud of tobacco smoke, and certainly looking as lazily as he could do, wondered indignantly what Mr. Chaddburn would say if he could see her, and almost smiled at the thought of old gentleman. Still, he was less objectionable than he might have been, though Marjorie, as a rule, was consistently ungracious to him.

But not quite always; on several occasions she had allowed him to relax just a little. Now and then they encountered each other in their favorite place—the hall—and it was not always possible, or at any rate, not easy to pass him by with a mere frigid bow. They had talked for a minute or two on these occasions, or for more perhaps which might surely be done without compromising the dignity of Lady Marjorie Wynne. Then once in the park Jack, in one of his scrappings and rummages, had run a thorn into his foot and had promptly rent the air with piteous howls as of a dog in the last gasp, and the agony and terror of his mistress, Mr. Barrington, providentially chancing to pass that way, had extracted the thorn and afterwards carried the squirming victim home, after which achievement she had found it impossible to snub him for a clear round of the clock. Indeed, Lady Marjorie, when she was up in her room afterwards and sat looking at Jack as he sprawled on a cushion and tickled and whimpered over his wounded foot, took herself to task for having, in the impulse of her gratitude, given her hand to Mr. Barrington as she thanked him—a thing she had never done before, and certainly had had no intention of doing then. But she did it again when she met him the next morning—it was almost impossible to avoid, it when his hand made a movement to take hers—and stood talking to him for quite ten minutes, with the old lozenge pans of stained glass—making crimson and purple splashes upon her hair, until the Countess came rustling along with her stiff crepe covered skirts and disturbed them, sending Barrington off to the oak parlour and Marjorie running upstairs to her room. She scolded herself again when she got there, of course, but if she wanted an excuse it was easy to find one, for the Countess was so very full and she was so terribly lonely—terribly lonely and growing resentful too, for in spite of the letter which she had written, half in defiance of the Countess, half in obedience to her suggestion, Lof-

WOMAN SICK FOR YEARS

Wants Other Women to Know How She was Finally Restored to Health.

Hammond, Ont. — "I am passing through the Change of Life and for two years had hot flushes very bad, headaches, soreness in the back of head, was constipated, and had weak, nervous feelings. The doctor who attended me for a number of years did not help me, but I have been entirely relieved of the above symptoms by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills, and give you permission to publish my testimony."—Mrs. LOUIS BRAUACAGE, St., Hammond, Ont., Canada.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Brunswick, Canada. — "I can highly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any suffering woman. I have taken it for female weakness and painful menstruation and it cured me."—Mrs. DEVERE BARBOUR, Harvey Park, New Brunswick, Canada.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

CASCARETS CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

CASCARET USERS NEVER HAVE HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS OR SICK STOMACH.

It is more necessary that you keep your bowels clean and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction. Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important. Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascarets-to-night will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing too.

Home Dyeing

CHURCH NOTES

THE FIRST BAPTIST
Rev. R. R. McKay of the Baptist Foreign Mission Board of Ontario and Quebec was the preacher at the morning service on Sunday, which was largely attended. He preached a most illuminating and inspiring sermon on the call of the non-Christian peoples to the Christian churches. It was a masterly review of the present missionary situation, and his appeal for increased offerings for this great work was indeed very forceful. There were 370 present in the Sunday School. At the evening service the church was taxed to its utmost capacity to seat the great audience that gathered. The service was of special interest to men. The pastor made touching reference to the tragic death of Captain Scott and his men and asked the audience to sing softly "Abide With Me." Mr. George Goodwin of the local Y. M. C. A. spoke on the claims of the church upon the men who are outside the church. He began by defining what the church was and then proceeded to emphasize its claims upon men. The pastor followed with a short sermon on the subject, "Should Smith Join the Church?" dealing with three arguments in favor of this union:

1. Because the church relates him to the power necessary for the highest success in life.
2. Because the church furnishes him with the only task adequate to fill manhood.
3. Because the church introduces him to the noblest of fellowships—the fellowship with God without rear and a fellowship with men with service as the impelling motive.
Mr. Broadus Farmer, violinist of Toronto, and Mr. Earl Lund, who contributed two numbers, which were greatly appreciated by the large audience present. "The Day Thou Gavest, Lord, is Ended" brought a most inspiring service to a close. Next Sunday evening the pastor will speak on the subject, "After Smith Joins the Church, What?"

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
The Congregational Church was the scene of two bright services on Sunday. In the morning the pastor took his text from Genesis 22:1, "God's Test of Abraham's Faith." Abraham's temptation was a strong trial of his faith; he had many elements in his life to make him happy, and this proving came as lightning from a clear sky. It was a testing, not a temptation. We are all struggling in our lives, as Christ's temptations each were an increasing glory for Him. It is in the moral world as in the realm of chemistry, the testing acid proves the value. Yet Abraham stands firm to his faith in God, even though it meant the utter obliteration of his family and his hopes.
Now what caused Abraham to entertain the idea of making this sacrifice? He had been raised in a heathen country where children were sacrificed to idols, so God takes this opportunity to test his faith, and by staying his uplifted hand to denounce to the world forever human sacrifice, teaching us also that we should not let anything which touches us in life weaken our faith in God. The music consisted of

ALEXANDRA PRESBYTERIAN
Large congregations greeted the Rev. D. T. McClintock for both services. The pastor's morning service was one of an interesting series on the life of Sampson, who was to be the deliverer of Israel. Sampson was endowed with splendid qualifications for the work, 1st, physical strength; 2nd, wisdomness of man; 3rd, the gift of the Spirit of God.
For the evening service the pastor was accompanied by Mr. Knox Macdonald, a student of Knox College, who read for the scripture lesson the delightful story of the good Samaritan. It was unnecessary to introduce Ross to Alexandra congregation, he being one of them. Rev. Mr. McClintock was pleased that Mr. Macdonald accepted his invitation to assist him. The address was on home missions. It is our duty to make others happy, and true happiness consists in the religion of Christ. We are to begin at Jerusalem, or in other words, at home and do our duty towards the extension of the Christian religion. The speaker referred to the pleasures and difficulties on the mission field, but was pleased as a young fellow, to advise other young men to enter the work, in so doing make others happy. At the conclusion of the service, Ross was the recipient of congratulations from the pastor and his many friends on the splendid address. Two anthems were sung by the choir, the congregational singing is at all times good. Persons without a church home will receive a welcome at Alexandra, WELLINGTON STREET.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.
Large audiences were present at the services in Wellington Street church yesterday. The pastor Rev. R. D. Hamilton was in fine form and delivered two eloquent and inspiring sermons. His morning theme was "witnesses" and the evening subject "To-morrow." The music by the large choir and soloists under Mr. T. Darwin, was of an exceptionally high order. The anthem work was very good especially the evening one when "The heavens are Telling" (Haydn's Creation) was sung. Miss Limburg sang, "He Leadeth Me" very acceptably at the morning service. Two features of the evening music were a pleasing duet by Misses O. Graham and R. Kerr, and a well rendered male quartette by Messrs. Moyer, Strickland, W. Darwin and C. Darwin. The Sunday school session was very interesting. The attendance is fast increasing. Mrs. and Miss Limburg sang a duet at the close of the exercises.

ST. LUKE'S.
St. Luke's celebrated its third anniversary Sunday. Splendid congregations were present at all services. The morning service was hearty and impressive. Master Charles Bonine sang a solo during the offertory. The morning service was hearty and in the afternoon was a record one being the largest in its history. Difficulty being experienced in seating the choir rendered an appropriate anthem with good expression. Mr. R. J. Cole sang a beautiful solo with great expression. The Rev. Mr. Whitaker conducted the service and preached a sermon in which he predicted a great future for the congregation.

ECHO PLACE MISSION.
The Sunday school held a very interesting session at this mission on Sunday. New members are being added every week. The attendance at the cottage meetings are also increasing and great interest is being shown in the work on all sides.

Like Magic To Weak Nerves

With the nerves exhausted both mind and body are of little use. You feel tired, worn out and down-hearted, and the organs of digestion fail to perform their all-important functions. Nervous troubles do not go away of their own accord, but gradually grow worse and worse, until some form of paralysis is developed. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food can be depended upon to revitalize feeble, wasted nerve cells as nothing else can. Here is a case in illustration:
Mr. A. Stuard Dana, Sask, writes: "When I began to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, on the recommendation of a friend, my system was so much run down that I was weak and exhausted, and could not at times attend to my work. The effect of the Nerve Food was almost like magic. For in a few days the weakness wore away and I found strength and vigor being restored to the body. That cure was effected three years ago, but I generally use the Nerve Food in the spring, as I can find no treatment so effective as a spring tonic."

THE RIFLE.

The third of the series of miniature rifle matches was held yesterday afternoon at the Collegiate armories. The shooting was not so good as that of last year, due probably to not so good accommodation as at the 38th armories. The scores of the three teams are as follows:

First Team—Lieut. Burr, 99; Cdt. Neill, 94; Cdt. Dempster, 94; Cdt. Thomas, 93; Corp. Lake, 92; Cdt. Smith, 88; Cdt. Pearce, 88; Cdt. J. Matthews, 88; Cdt. G. Matthews, 87; Cdt. A. Howard, 87; total, 910; last year, 977.
Second Team—Capt. Genet, 87; Cdt. Meadows, 85; Corp. Secord, 83; Cdt. Andrews, 83; Cdt. Smith, 82; Cdt. Fraser, 82; Cdt. Bennett, 82; Cdt. Beckett, 82; Cdt. Foster, 81; Corp. Quirk, 79; total, 826; last year, 939.
Third Team—Cdt. McIntyre, 79; Cdt. Van Someren, 78; Cdt. Westbrook, 77; Cdt. Deagle, 77; Cdt. Waddington, 76; Cdt. Luck, 75; Cdt. Mitchell, 74; Cdt. Schertzberg, 73; Cdt. Force, 71; Corp. Palmer, 69; total, 749.

FOR WOMEN ONLY.

That is the nature of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—the one remedy for women which contains no alcohol and no habit-forming drugs. Made from native medicinal forest roots. Dr. Pierce tells its every ingredient on the bottle-wrapper. Prominent physicians and some of the best medical authorities endorse these ingredients as being the very best known remedies for ailments and weaknesses peculiar to women.

This is what Mrs. GENEVIEVE E. CORVAX, of Longstreet, Ky., says: "I feel it my duty to write and tell you what your medicines have done for me. I was a great sufferer for six years from a trouble peculiar to women, but I am thankful to say, after taking four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' I am not bothered with that dreadful disease any more. I feel like a new woman. When I first wrote you for advice I only weighed 115 pounds—now I weigh 135. I thank you very much for your kindness. You have been as a father to me in advising me what to do, so may God bless you in every effort you put forth for good. I hope this testimonial will be the means of some poor suffering woman seeking health."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition, answers hosts of delicate questions about which every woman, single or married ought to know.
