RUSSIA'S SICK RULER

Many Wild Rumors Circulated at St. Petersburg.

SOME CLAIM THAT HE IS DEAD

But That the Fact Has Been Suppressed

—The Czar's Suffering From Nervous Prostration—A Russian Nihilist Interviewed—Cautious Criticisms.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 22.—Despatches made public here last evening say that the Czar has rallied slightly. No confidence is felt by the people in the official announcements. The meagreness of the news has left room for the craziest rumors, which multiply on every street corner in every cafe. It is said that the Czar, who has renounced the succession, that the Grand Duke George died two days ago. Official bulletins do not dispel these rumors. The last story is that the Czar's mind has broken down under her many afflictions. Despite the intensity of the interest in the Czar's condition, the theatres and restaurants are crowded as usual. In the churches throughout Russia prayers were said for the Czar. A despatch from Moscow says that the city is grief-stricken. Nevertheless, the theatres are open. Be-

FOOLLY MURDERED

A Young Girl Near Listered Outraged and Brutally Killed.

LISTOWEL, Ont., Oct. 20.—A girl named Jessie Keith, aged 14 years, daughter of Mr. Wm. Keith, a farmer about one and a half miles from this town, was brutally outraged and murdered yesterday. The unfortunate girl was near the railway track, by a tramp it is supposed, as she was returning from town where she had been to the post-office, when the heinous crime was committed.

The railroad sectionmen, returning down the track after dinner, saw some newspapers and spilled rice on the track. Upon further investigation, they discovered the girl's body lying on a portion of the track, about half a mile distant, and upon returning and following the tracks across a plowed field, they discovered the body of the girl covered over with moss and rotten wood, the clothing having been removed and taken away. The body bore evidence of the foulest of crimes.

The perpetrator of this heinous crime no doubt came up the railroad track, met his victim and disposed of the body as stated, leaving the girl's body on the tracks of Mr. Keith's farm, directly abutting Mr. Keith's on the town line east of Listowel and across the third concession of Wallace, where he was seen about 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

It is a mystery is scouring the county in all directions and it is hoped they will succeed in discovering and bringing to justice the guilty human scoundrel.

County Crown Attorney Edington, Sheriff Hossie and the coroner from Stratford, are at the scene of the murder on the 8.15 p.m. train, stopping at the swamp where, after reviewing the body and surroundings, it was removed to her late home. A jury was sworn in and an inquest held. The body presented a frightful appearance, her throat having been cut and her body terribly cut and torn.

SUICIDE AT BRANTFORD.

A Carpenter Takes His Life in a Sensational Manner.

BRANTFORD, Oct. 20.—Robert Turner, aged 45, a carpenter, committed suicide yesterday by drinking sulphuric acid. His son on going down stairs to the dining-room saw a glass on the table, which was not there the previous night. In the glass was written the following:

"BRANTFORD, Oct. 19, 1894, 3 o'clock in the morning. This is my last voice on earth. I have been tired of life for the last few days. I have been drinking sulphuric acid all the days of my life. I am now in the hospital and I am dying. My name is Robert Turner. (Signed) R. A. TURNER."

The boy went immediately to his father's room and found him in bed, his life having passed away, though the body was still warm. A doctor was summoned, but he was too late. A bottle which had contained carbolic acid was found on the table, and it was supposed that the father had intended to take his own life, but that he had changed his mind and had committed the crime.

TRADE IN THE DOMINION.

MONTREAL, Oct. 20.—Collections here are fairly good with prices stronger, but the volume of business is not equal to one year ago. At Toronto general trade has been less active, but collections have improved. In Nova Scotia, general trade has been moderate at Nova Scotia. New Brunswick advices are that recent heavy rains have favored the interests of lumbermen. Bank clearings at Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal and Halifax amount to $19,850,000, a slight decrease from the total in the preceding week but a gain of about five per cent. from the corresponding total one year ago. The 20th failures in the Dominion of Canada this week compared with 37 last week, 34 in the week's year ago and 30 two years ago.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

GRAVENHURST, Ont., Oct. 22.—William J. Burkinshaw, son of E. Burkinshaw, of this town, who had been a driver on a street car in Toronto for some time, was killed while working in Toronto returned home on Friday and engaged with Nickie Dwyer's son to go to the lumber woods, where he commenced work clearing a roadway at a sawlog dump and had cut off a large overhanging hemlock log, and in trying to get away from it he tripped and fell in front of the log, which was fast descending with fatal results. He fell from the log, with fatal results. He fell from the log, with fatal results.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT HIMSELF.

BRIDGEPORT, Ont., Oct. 22.—An accident, with fatal results, befell Jesse Coleman, an undertaker of Akron, N.Y., when hunting in Little Lake, Quebec, Muskoka, on Saturday. The deceased in company with several others was out on a hunting expedition. He got into his boat and was shifting his gun when it went off, the charge entering his right breast. He only lived a few minutes. Deceased was about 30 years old and leaves a widow and two children.

THE PARKDALE MYSTERY.

Further Evidence on the Inquest on the Shooting of Westwood.

TORONTO, Oct. 16.—The inquest into the cause of the death of Frank H. Westwood, who was shot to death in an assassin's attack on his father's door one week ago last Saturday was resumed at No. 6 police station last evening. The hall was thronged with a curious crowd, unable to gain admission, assembled outside the building. Jurors, witnesses and reporters took up the room, and detectives and police officers were everywhere.

Excitement over the murder has now cooled down a little from the fever heat of last week and the tragedy has become but a bit of current history in the daily life of a big city; still there was a look of expectation in the faces of most people present last evening, for some interesting disclosures were expected and sensational developments were whispered of.

Dr. Lynd was first called. Frank had told him that the man who shot him down did not speak a word. He described his murderer as a young man dressed in dark clothes and wearing a dark hat and light moustache. He believed the boy had told the whole truth, regarding the matter. It was possible that Frank Westwood had committed suicide but not probable.

Mrs. Card was called. She had remained at the Grand Opera House till the play was over. This means that she could not possibly have reached Janssion ave. before the shooting, for the opera was not out till 11.05. At least so swore C. B. Sheppard, manager of the house. This expelled Mrs. Card's little theory.

The evidence of several witnesses who followed was unimportant.

Stephen Leslie, 118 Victoria crescent, had heard the first shot while in front of the South Parkdale depot. The shot sounded unimportant. Leslie was seven minutes intervened between the two shots. He saw no person on Janssion avenue. He entered his own house a minute after the second shot and it was just 11.14 then. Some importance is attached to this man's evidence, as it supports a possible theory of the shooting having taken place inside the house.

Dr. Sparrow swore that it was only 11.10 when he reached Westwood's after the shooting, which contradicts Leslie's evidence as to time. From Leslie's residence he had walked upstairs after the shot was fired. He had also said he placed his right foot against the door and only partially opened it. Mr. Westwood, sr., said the shot might have been intended for him, although he knew of no motive.

Miss Bessie Stephen, the domestic at Westwood's, said that she had been awakened by Mrs. Westwood screaming, "Oh Ben, don't go." She then heard a commotion in the house but had not been called by Mrs. Westwood until ten minutes later. Frank was then lying on his bedroom floor with his coat off, and Mrs. Westwood was also in the room with him. Mrs. Westwood had told her how the shooting had occurred, and Frank had said that he had been shot in the back. Frank had not, to her knowledge, quarrelled with any other member of the family.

Frank Rice, aged 17, Star ave., had been asked by a stranger on the day of the shooting where the Westwood residence was. The stranger was about 5 feet 8 inches tall, had light curly hair and light moustache, and wore dark, heavy clothes. James Burns, express driver, swore that he was the person who made the inquiry of the boys; he had been directed to Westwood's. And another clue was proven valuable. "Private Detective" Horley, the man who had the scraps of paper, repeated his little story. No importance is attached to his story.

The inquest was then adjourned for one week.

A CANADIAN COPYRIGHT.

Frederick Dalrymple Replies to Mr. Lancelotti of Hamilton.

MONTEREAL, Oct. 18.—The Times of the 11th inst. printed a long letter from Richard Lancelotti, dated at the public library in Hamilton, Canada, attacking Frederick Dalrymple's statements as to the Canadian copyright. The statements were contained in a letter to the Times of last May 8. Dalrymple now replies at length, contending that the copyright Canada offers is a mockery.

Lancelotti complained that Canadian publishers cannot require the copyright of the books they publish in the United States. Dalrymple finally appeals to authors, who are a part of the imperial unity, to avow their copyright unity.

ATTEMPTED TO END HIS LIFE.

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 18.—John Askin, who is employed in the post office here as delivery clerk, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a very dull knife. Dr. Ashbaugh and Sumner were immediately called and after examining the wound declared that it would not be fatal. Askin has been drinking heavily lately and is said to be laboring under the delusion that his wife was seeking to get him into difficulty with the post office officials.

HEAVY FLOODS IN QUEBEC.

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—The inhabitants of Lake St. John Valley have suffered severely during the last week from exceptionally heavy floods. Rain has been incessant for eight days. Bridges and even buildings have been carried away. The damage will reach two hundred thousand dollars. As the bulk of the farmers in this district belong to the poorest class of settlers, great distress is expected during the winter.

A BLAZE IN COLLINGWOOD.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., Oct. 18.—A fire broke out in the stables of the Toronto House and before it could be got under control the stables, the rear part of the hotel, two cottages and several pieces of timber and shingles were destroyed. Wilson Bros., who owned the timber, lost about $200. Insurances. Mr. Cook, of the Toronto House, loses about $5,000. Insured for $1,300.

FIRE IN LISTOWEL.

LISTOWEL, Ont., Oct. 18.—Yesterday fire broke out in a frame building at Methu and Raglan streets, owned and occupied by A. Horvath as a dwelling, and partially occupied by Mrs. Gibson as a grocery. The building is badly damaged, no insurance. Mrs. Gibson's stock, considerably damaged by removal, is insured in Perth Mutual for $500.

SIXTEEN SPANISH WOMEN DROWNED.

MADRID, Oct. 18.—Twenty swimmers who were unloading the steamer September in Bilbao yesterday were thrown from the dock in some unexplained manner and 16 of them were drowned.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT IN PRESCOTT.

PRESCOTT, Oct. 19.—While Maggie Leperte, daughter of L. Leperte, of this place, was sweeping a room, she was caught in a loaded gun standing in the corner and in doing so the trigger caught in her dress and discharged the gun. The shot hit the top of the head of her little brother about five years old, killing him instantly.

COUNTY NEWS.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS. A Budget of News and Gossip. Personal Intelligence.—A Little of Everything worth Mixed up.

MONDAY, Oct. 22.—Mr. Alvin Orton, and Mrs. Gilroy, who took the benefit of the annual excursion of G. T. R. October 4th to visit friends and relatives in Detroit, City and County of Essex, Ont., have returned home feeling better and thinking very much more of home privileges, as given in the old County of Leeds, as compared with the County of Essex.

MONDAY, Oct. 22.—A very pleasant event took place in our little neighborhood last Wednesday morning, being the marriage of Lancy, fourth daughter of R. L. Taber, to Mr. Nelson Jackson of Sunbury. We offer our congratulations and our wishes for their prosperity and happiness.

Master L. Sheffield visited his father in Brockville on Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mr. L. Washburn, of Chicago, at Mr. L. Washburn's, Miss L. Stafford at her uncle's, Mr. W. Webster's; Misses D. Morrison, M. Washburn, and Messrs. H. Sharman, S. Washburn and W. McCurdy, at J. Fry's.

MONDAY, Oct. 22.—Several weeks ago Mr. S. Lillie, while working around an ensilage cutter, received a serious injury to his hand, which caused the loss of a finger. He is now undergoing treatment in Delta.

Mr. J. White, who went from Philadelphia to England about two years ago, has engaged the farm of Mr. Benedict and is now doing his fall ploughing. We are pleased to have another good farmer amongst us.

Mr. B. Knapp is about to move into his new house. Frank Kilborne, who had his leg hurt some time ago, is able to walk without a cane. Harry up and get ready for winter entertainments, Francis. The Normans have ceased to invade Plum Hollow. What's up?

MONDAY, Oct. 22.—Mr. D. J. McDonald has a fine herd of Ayrshires. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. McDonald were guests of Mr. John McAvoy.

Mr. John Collins has a gang of men repairing the road between Malorytown and Caintown, which was very much needed. Mr. Acton and wife, of Gananoque, spent Sunday at Mr. J. Kelly's.

Miss Eva Tennant returned last week from Detroit. Her many friends were pleased to see her. Egbert, the road needs repairing at the west end. Farmers are busily engaged ploughing and ditching. Harry up and get ready for winter entertainments, Francis. Forrester Bros. are building a carriage house.

Mr. A. T. Trickey is very sick and the attending physicians are doubtful of his recovery. SATURDAY, Oct. 20.—Husking bees are all the rage. Mr. J. Hunt, who has been very sick for the past three weeks is slowly recovering.

Special services are being carried on in the Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Kennedy. A grand concert will be given in the town hall next Thursday night for the benefit of the Methodist church. A grand talent is being prepared by the home talent, in dialogues, recitations and singing. Besides this, the following foreign talent have been engaged: Miss Fannie Robinson, soprano, Smit's Falls; Miss Gerty Coad, elocutionist, Brockville; and Mr. C. Slack, comic singer, Athens.

TEMPERANCE LAKE. SATURDAY, Oct. 20.—The farmers are all busily engaged in ploughing. Miss Maggie Smith of Lansdowne has returned home after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Milton Mansell. One of those pleasing events which transpire occasionally took place in our midst on the 16th, when Miss Aggie Carpenter was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. W. McMaster. The happy couple, accompanied by a number of friends, drove to Athens where the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Hagar, after which the party returned to the palatial residence of Mr. George Burnham where all partook of a sumptuous repast. The bride looked charming being dressed in a suit of blue with old gold trimming and was assisted by Miss Lizzie Carpenter, while Mr. Seymour Burnham did honors for the groom. Among the honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell, Miss Minerva Carpenter and Mr. Barr of Lyn. The many valuable presents received, testify to the high esteem in which the bride is held by her many friends.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Eli Mansell, who has been slightly indisposed for the past two weeks is recovering. Dr. Kinney, I. P. S., paid our school a visit last week. We notice that Mr. Eaton, teacher of music is quite faithful in attendance to duty notwithstanding bad roads. Robert Nunn was the guest of T. I. Earl last Sunday. A number from here have attended the revival meetings at Caintown during the past few weeks. Mr. Jim Ronan and bride returned home last Wednesday after an extended wedding trip through the States.

KIDNEY FACTS. In Jan., 1892, my son was taken with kidney disease. Though attended by three physicians, and change of climate he grew worse and by '93 had fallen from 195 lbs. to 95 lbs. In 10 days from starting to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills we were able to move him home. In 4 months he gained 50 lbs. and was fully restored to health by the use of this medicine. Jno. S. Hastings, 23 St. Paul st., Montreal.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.—Local Announcements. Botted Night Down. Coarse or fine Liverpool salt at Mott & Robson's.

Evangelist Horner is now holding meetings in Newboro. Cold in the head—Nasal Balm gives instant relief; speedily cures. Never fails. The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. N. Benedict, on Friday evening at 7.30.

Dry, soft or hard stove-wood or cord-wood for sale at the wood yard of Mott & Robson. Miss Leah Addison returned from New York yesterday to attend at the bedside of her father.

Mr. Sanders M. Wilson, of Kalamazoo, Mich., spent a few days in Athens last week, the guest of his uncle, B. Loverin. Dyspepsia seldom causes death, but permits its victim to live in misery. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

The Supreme Court of Canada has decided that a betting transaction is not recognizable in law, therefore no bets can be collected legally. The editor of the Reporter spent two days in Brockville last week canvassing for advertising and cuts for the 2nd Christmas number of the Reporter, and met with the most gratifying success.

Next Sabbath service will be held in the Baptist church at 10.30 a.m., and on the following Sabbath at the usual hour in the evening. The services will in future alternate thus. No change will be made in the hour for Sabbath school.

The "American High-class Novelty and Vaudeville Co.," played to a small audience in the town hall on Friday evening. The only thing "high" about the entertainment is said to have been the price of admission and the kicking. A little skin game was played to good advantage, but the result was the loss of dollars fed to the tiger.

The weather was too fine last week for a big catch of salmon at Charleston, but all who went report having taken a fair number. There were not so many foreigners at the lake as usual, but the local anglers were out in force, as many as sixteen boats being in sight at once on the east shore. Messrs. John King, Charles Johnson and Horace Brown were among the most successful, the former numbering among his catch a large herring or cisco.

The Treasurer of Unionville fair was at the Reporter office on Saturday last paying the prizes to the successful winners. They all expressed satisfaction at the amount they had received, one exhibitor volunteering the remark "that this was his first year as an exhibitor at Unionville, that he had attended four other fairs as an exhibitor, but Unionville beats them all both in the amount given in prizes and especially in the courteous treatment he received from those with whom he had business relations.

We regret to have to announce the serious illness of Dr. Addison. On Thursday last, in company with Mr. W. C. Hayes, he drove to Charleston Lake for a day's salmon fishing and shortly after arriving at his cottage, "Aberdeen" he was taken sick and was obliged to return to Athens. He has since received every attention from the local physicians, who regard his case as critical. Inflammation of the kidneys supervening a chronic affection bordering on Bright's disease is the malady with which he is afflicted.

The Presbyterian Anniversary. On Sabbath last services commemorative of the seventh anniversary of the establishment of St. Paul's Presbyterian church in Athens were held here. In the morning and evening Rev. D. G. S. Conery, M. A., of Winchester, preached and in the afternoon Rev. J. S. Hagar, M. A., conducted service. The services were all busily engaged in ploughing. Miss Maggie Smith of Lansdowne has returned home after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Milton Mansell.

How'd it be, it seems to me. It's the only prudent, right and wise. It's the way to build the business up. To regularly advertise.

You can get the best satisfaction by purchasing your tea and coffee at Mott & Robson's. A new buggy and new cutter, both latest styles and first-class material, for sale at A. Jans'. $10,000 private money to loan on real estate security. Apply to JOHN CAWLEY, opp. Reporter office, Athens.

Ladies jackets for $3.50, $5.00, $6.00, $6.50 and $7.50, at G. W. Beach's, all new, imported direct from Germany. "Wherever you go, my pretty maid" is an going shopping, kind sir," she said. "And who gets all your valuable trade?" The advertiser, sir," she said.

Mrs. Jas. P. Olds, of Morris town, and Mrs. Charles Johnston of Brier Hill, N.Y., were the guests of Mrs. B. Loverin for two or three days last week. Mrs. (Dr.) Bolton left Athens on Saturday last for New York where she will visit her brothers and return with the Dr. on the completion of his course in the city hospitals.

There having been an abundance of refreshments left after the anniversary, a 10-cent social will be held this evening in the basement of the Presbyterian church. Proceeds for the Sabbath school.

The Newboro Standard reached us last week greatly improved in every way. The new editor, Mr. W. G. Ferguson, is evidently an up-to-date newspaper man, and will no doubt make a success of his venture.

That interest in the prosperity of St. Paul's church is widespread was manifested on Monday evening by the presence at the entertainment of friends from Lyn, Malorytown, Lyndhurst, Toledo, etc.

It is said that at a meeting to be held in the Empire office to-day Ontario Conservatives will select a successor to Meredith. G. F. Marter, member for North Toronto, is spoken of as the coming man.

Mr. John Cars of this village called at the Reporter office with a monster mangel wuzel weighing 182 lbs. This vegetable grew in his garden and was not still fed for exhibition purposes.

Wm. Hickey, proprietor of the celebrated iron roof ladder and fire escape has done an immense business making and selling them in the Leeds county this season. They are the best and cheapest ladder on the market to-day.

The Reporter job department this week added to its equipment a new Westman & Baker lever paper-cutter, and the Plough cutter formerly in use will now be sold at a low figure. Any office requiring a good cutter should write for price.

Many readers will remember Prof. Kaufman, of Brockville, whose forefingers created such a scare among the moneyed men of Brockville several years ago. The Prof. was arrested, tried and convicted, and is now at liberty after serving five and a half years of his seven year's sentence.

The Reporter's company of deer slayers left per B. & W. yesterday morning for Gilmour's Station, Central Ontario Railway. The party consisted of B. Loverin, Athens; B. W. Loverin, Greenbush; Phil Halladay, Dr. Conery and C. R. Shaw, Elgin; and Albert Brown, Phillipville. At Kingston they will be joined by Rev. F. Chisholm and P. W. Day. The party expect to be in the woods about three weeks.

Mr. A. D. Barney, an old Leeds County boy, now of Carberry, Manitoba, under date of Oct. 15th says: "The Reporter is always a welcome guest, receiving more attention than my own family—I'm a bachelor. It is with much pleasure that I remit you the amount necessary to pay up all my indebtedness and a year in advance, in order to do my share towards old friends. Wishing that the Reporter may always continue to be the same newsworthy sheet."

Hands and Ankles Raw. For years I have been a great sufferer from itchy skin trouble and salt rheum. My hands and ankles were literally raw. The first relief was given by Dr. Chase's Ointment allayed the burning, itching sensation. One box and a half cured me. It is also instant relief for chilblains. Henry A. Parmenter, St. Catharines, Ont.

Fine Furniture. DEAR SIR,—I just dropped into Stevens' Dr's Athens furniture warehouse and I tell you they are immense. The parlor suits, fancy oak chairs, couches, bedroom suites, and all kinds of furniture are fine and so cheap besides. They are giving 10c. off for cash and deliver all their furniture to customers free of charge. I also examined their stock of undertaking goods and found them very cheap. Their hearse is a fine one and I think any one requiring anything in their line cannot fail to be suited both in quality and price.

AN OBSERVER. MARRIAGE. RICKETTS—KERR.—Oct. 2nd, at the residence of the bride's father, Rev. Mr. Hagar, Elizabethstown, by the Rev. W. Knox, M. A., of Greenbush, to Miss Jennie Kerr. JUMON—HOLMES.—At the Methodist parsonage, Athens, Oct. 19th, by Rev. Mr. Hagar, Mr. Malcolm Johnson, of Kitley, to Miss Helen, daughter of Mr. Geo. B. Holmes, of Kitley.

QUEENSA. Read at the L. & G. Beekesport Convention.

The queen is one of the most important considerations in the apiany. Not only upon her largely depends the national strength of the hive, but the disposition of the colony as to vitality, energy, and other traits depend upon the queen and the drone with which she mates.

Careful and dispassionate consideration of all that may influence the queen and her progeny for good or ill may at the present time be of value. The fact that many are ready upon the receipt of a good looking queen to send a letter praising her to the skies is certainly no indication that those individuals have given this matter careful consideration and are open to judge a queen according to true merit. What should the queen breeder consider before undertaking to supply the public with queens? He should by personal observation or through that of another party, absolutely reliable, have made a selection of a breeding queen. This selection should not be made without having had the queen for at least one year, and still longer is even better.

The progeny of that queen should have as far as possible the following combined traits—good honey producing qualities, finish of comb honey, non-swarming propensity, good handling qualities, transmit this characteristic to her daughter, and finally, that she will be seen in I have not said anything about wintering and building up in the spring prolific qualities, and longevity. The reason is that the proof of these lies in the power to produce honey and still retain the vitality and beauty. It is then as to drones in the apiany, as careful a selection should be made and the drones from all inferior strains kept well under. Difficult as it is to select a good queen, it is not so difficult to select a drone, and perhaps here is the reason that careful head-headed stock men do not pay greater attention to selection for desirable traits in queens. But because we must run on a certain amount of chance on the second half of the loaf it surely no reason why we should spurn that getting, and again if we succeed in getting a fairly fixed strain in the queen if she does get mixed with a drone of a kind of her own, the fixed strain will very much overshadow the inferior.

The work thus far has been difficult and can only be done by an exceedingly careful and painstaking apiarist, yet doing so will be well repaid by getting a desirable mother for our worker bees has no means ended. There are many ways of securing queen cells and I am really not prepared to say what is the best way of starting queen cells, although I could easily give you the details of the various methods. I have not made a success of starting queen cells in colonies with queens. My method has often been described. Put a comb in the colony you desire to start a queen, and lay eggs in it, hatched ready when the colony which has been made queenless for the purpose of starting cells is ready.

To get a colony which is to rear cells, I take a strong stock of bees and remove the queen and all her attendants, leaving the queenless hive. I give them the brood. I first remove all brood sealed or unsealed leaving only two or three combs of honey and pollen. Then I cut out strips of comb with the queen cells and all of the same age and shove the cell wall within about 1/2 of an inch from the septum and with the phosphorus end of a match destroy two cells leaving the third. This prevents queen cells from being fastened by means of melted wax and resin to the under side of strips of wood fastened in an ordinary frame averaging about 15 cells to the batch. Many can often be secured but after 90 days the cells are carefully removed and without chilling or jarring separated and put with nuclei. These nuclei consist of 2 Langstrath frames with brood and bees enough to keep all warm. I slip a cell protector over the cells to prevent taking down the bees should their inclination run in that direction.

If the above precautions are taken to get good queens, it means a good deal of careful work as queens so reared cannot be sold at the same price as those inferior. I believe and know a nice looking queen can be reared but I am by no means certain that the chosen queens are those which are the best. I have tried to rear queens in this way and have had three or four failures. It is a comparatively easy matter to breed for external appearance, but the true friend of bee-keeping will not be satisfied with so superficial selection.

Of course I do not claim that by the above method queens can be reared superior to a queen from the same mother under the swarming impulse, but I think the queens are quite as good, and it is impracticable to rear queens under the swarming impulse. My paper is longer than I intended it should be but it has even now been treated in only a very general way. The balance is left for discussion. EL. CANFIELD, Bee Journalist.

Attempt to Wreck a C. P. R. Train. MOST FOREST, Oct. 22.—John Warrack was made about two miles east of here to wreck the C. P. R. passenger train. A tie was thrown across the track, but no serious results occurred except slightly damaging the engine. There is no clue to the desperadoes.

A Pumpmaker Killed. VARSNA, Oct. 22.—William Lang, a pumpmaker, was killed while fixing a pump on Oct. 22. The pump was over him and in some way gave way, falling on him and killing him instantly. Mr. Lang was unmarried.

Warwick Gets Fifteen Years. CHARLES GREEN, of Warwick, who killed John Radcliffe, at Tilbury, on September 19th, and who was found guilty of the murder, is being lodged in his head near the right neck. He was about 34 years of age and came here from London, Ont., in the summer of 1890. No case is assigned for the unfortunate man's rash act. He is reported to have been steadily and in fairly good circumstances. He was unmarried and boarded at 102 Victoria street. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of death by his own hand.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—Charles Judd, a temporary clerk in the Department of Agriculture, committed suicide yesterday. He shot himself while in bed at 6 o'clock. He was 34 years of age and had been in his head near the right neck. He was about 34 years of age and came here from London, Ont., in the summer of 1890. No case is assigned for the unfortunate man's rash act. He is reported to have been steadily and in fairly good circumstances. He was unmarried and boarded at 102 Victoria street. JAPAN'S TROOPS REPULSED.

Those Interested in This Work of Rescue Gather at Toronto. TORONTO, Oct. 19.—A first conference of provincial politicians that of those engaged in child-saving work in Ontario, was convened yesterday in the Conference hall, a splendid success. In numbers and social standing, as well as for the representative character, the attendance was a remarkable one.

Judge McDonald, of Brockville, was chairman in his opening remarks he paid a high tribute to Superintendent Kelso for the admirable arrangements of the conference. Hon. J. M. Gibson, Provincial Secretary of Ontario, made the opening speech, dealing with the Act, of which he is the author, passed two years ago, giving official recognition and special powers to children's aid societies. The chief aim of this legislation, he said, was to prevent the child from being placed in a deplorable and neglected condition, and to place them for adoption in suitable families.

Senator G. W. Allan commended this fostering system as far better than allowing children to become criminals for punishment. Nothing was better for the child than the sweet influence of home life. Judge Arlidge, of Barrie; Mr. J. K. Macdonald, president of the Toronto Children's Aid Society, and Mr. E. W. Kingston, deputy police magistrate of Toronto, also spoke at the opening session.

The afternoon addresses were made by Warden Maase, of the Central prison, on "Neglect of Youth and its Bearing on Crime"; Chief Detective Stark, of the Toronto police department; Rev. Thomas Goehagan, of Hamilton, on "Industrial School Work"; and by Superintendent McCrosson upon "The Work of the Ontario Reformatory for Boys."

A meeting of the Creditors of the said P. J. Shea will be held at the office of M. A. Everts, Chief Justice of the Peace, at the Court House, on Friday 26th October at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for appointment of inspectors and giving directions with reference to the disposal of the estate. H. H. ARNOLD, Attorney, Ont. Dated at Athens this 18th October, 1894. 21

MONDAY, Oct. 22.—A telegram has been received at the Japanese legation, stating that on the 19th instant, upon the assembling of the Diet at Hiroshima, the Hon. Prime Minister of Japan, made an elaborate speech in the House of Lords, in which he explained at length the causes of the war between Japan and China. The feeling of the Diet appears to be unambiguously in favor of the course pursued by the government. The two Houses on the 20th instant passed by a unanimous vote the bill which the government proposed relating to war expenditures involving a total sum of 150,000,000 yen.

TO BE NEGLECTED CHILDREN.

Those Interested in This Work of Rescue Gather at Toronto. TORONTO, Oct. 19.—A first conference of provincial politicians that of those engaged in child-saving work in Ontario, was convened yesterday in the Conference hall, a splendid success. In numbers and social standing, as well as for the representative character, the attendance was a remarkable one.

Judge McDonald, of Brockville, was chairman in his opening remarks he paid a high tribute to Superintendent Kelso for the admirable arrangements of the conference. Hon. J. M. Gibson, Provincial Secretary of Ontario, made the opening speech, dealing with the Act, of which he is the author, passed two years ago, giving official recognition and special powers to children's aid societies. The chief aim of this legislation, he said, was to prevent the child from being placed in a deplorable and neglected condition, and to place them for adoption in suitable families.

Senator G. W. Allan commended this fostering system as far better than allowing children to become criminals for punishment. Nothing was better for the child than the sweet influence of home life. Judge Arlidge, of Barrie; Mr. J. K. Macdonald, president of the Toronto Children's Aid Society, and Mr. E. W. Kingston, deputy police magistrate of Toronto, also spoke at the opening session.

The afternoon addresses were made by Warden Maase, of the Central prison, on "Neglect of Youth and its Bearing on Crime"; Chief Detective Stark, of the Toronto police department; Rev. Thomas Goehagan, of Hamilton, on "Industrial School Work"; and by Superintendent McCrosson upon "The Work of the Ontario Reformatory for Boys."

A meeting of the Creditors of the said P. J. Shea will be held at the office of M. A. Everts, Chief Justice of the Peace, at the Court House, on Friday 26th October at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for appointment of inspectors and giving directions with reference to the disposal of the estate. H. H. ARNOLD, Attorney, Ont. Dated at Athens this 18th October, 1894. 21
