Witnesses Examined Before the International Tribunal at Paris.

Many Seamen from Hull Present and Give Their Testimony.

Capt. Wood of Steam Packet Describes Approach of Strange Vessels.

PARIS, Jan. 25.—The international commission to enquire into the North Sea incident began examining witnesses today. The meeting of the commission was attended by a score of seamen from Hull, giving the place a nautical appearance.

The first witness was Captain Wood, of the steamer "Hull," who was on board when the collision occurred.

The witness added that the squadrons were proceeding at about 12 knots. They did not see any other vessels during the voyage.

Vice Admiral Douhauss (Russia) cross-examined the witness and asked what distance the squadrons were outside the usual course.

Q. Were the warships following the course habitually observed by the coast? Captain Wood answered that the ships were 10 to 12 miles from the ordinary course.

The North Sea enquiry Captain Wood testified that he saw a strange steamer during the night. She appeared to be a trans-Atlantic liner and had two masts and one funnel.

Mr. Admiral Beaumont (Great Britain) appeared to be specially interested in this statement, requiring the witness to report.

A Great Conservative Victory In Ontario

Ross Snowed Under in Most Overwhelming Fashion --Premier Whitney Will Have a Tremendous Majority--Forty-four.

OTTAWA, Jan. 25.—Laurier's strong right arm, as he once designated the government of Ontario, was smashed to atoms today.

Public opinion, which had been scandalized and outraged in the province through the revelations of electoral corruption during the past three or four years, asserted itself unmistakably.

The Liberals only gain three seats, Gleggery and two in Ottawa. A change in this city would not have taken place but for the personal interposition of Sir Wilfrid Laurier on behalf of moribund Ross.

Federal Liberals in other provinces are now sore at Laurier's action. The house sat for couple of hours this afternoon, considering the estimates.

Toronto, Jan. 25.—Editor Willison, of the Toronto News, estimates that Mr. Whitney's majority will be 44 in the new legislature.

Expect A Hot Time In Austria Elections Which Occur Today Likely to Eventuate Some Big Disorders.

Vienna, Jan. 25.—The parliamentary elections which will be begun in Hungary tomorrow (Thursday) are expected to take place amid storms of rioting and bloodshed unequalled in any previous election.

The campaign already has cost seven lives, the latest victim being Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria's private hunter, Michael Kravenko, who was shot during a fight between rival parties at Jolva.

Preparatory to tomorrow's polling special train loads of troops have been sent to Hungary from all parts of Austria.

Infantry cavalry and artillery have been sent from Vienna. Altogether 10,000 extra soldiers have been distributed in the electoral districts.

Deputies to be elected in 413 will be elected. Polling in 370 districts will be held tomorrow and the remainder in the next two or three days.

The most exciting contest is the one in the district of Budapest, where Count Tassa is contesting the seat of one of the foremost leaders, Count János Andrássy.

The general result of the elections is certain to be in favor of the government, which now has a majority of 25, without reckoning 40 members of the opposition party who are expected to support the government.

A Lombard telegram states that perfect order prevails there. The Polish parties united to believe in the demands of the Polish people can only be brought forward in this manner.

Socialists are somewhat undecided on the question, but the moderates of the party are endeavoring to restrain their hot-headed colleagues, saying that any demonstration at the present time must result in bloodshed exceeding that of St. Petersburg.

British Press On Russia

London Papers are Given Over Almost Exclusively to St. Petersburg Situation

Abnormal Estimates of Losses in the Street Disorders of Last Sunday.

London, Jan. 25.—The papers have been given up almost exclusively to St. Petersburg since Saturday.

Hostile articles and scathing editorials of the "massacre"—one of the mildest terms used—filled the papers of Saturday, and the Russian Emperor and his government are generally compared to "boats at bay."

The whole discussion of the situation in Russia serves again to reveal the poorly disguised hostility of the British press to the Russian Revolution.

Despatches to the London papers all report the conditions prevailing in Russia to be worse than the Associated Press accounts.

The Russian official figures of the killed and wounded are stigmatized as "judiciously official." The number of slain reported here in Monday's papers ranged from 2,000 to 8,000.

One prominent paper announced that the dead were numbered at 2,000 and another said 8,000. The Associated Press figure, 6,000, given on Monday, are now considered at the embassies here as the maximum.

Similar exaggerations were noticed in most of the reports. A notable instance is a long account of an alleged riot in the city of Moscow.

YATES IS A DIAMOND THEIF

Confesses to Crimes Committed In San Francisco.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—It was discovered by the police here today that the man who was supposed to be a pickpocket and who gave the name of Jack Williams, is really Andrew Yates, a much wanted diamond thief.

The man, in a confession today, said he was Yates, and that he was wanted in San Francisco for robbing a man and woman in a restaurant at the Elbow Hotel in the Dorchester hotel as a bellboy.

Said he: "I knew of a rich man and woman who were stopping at the hotel, so I watched my opportunity and stole all their diamonds. One day when Guedinger rang for water to be brought to his room, I placed a revolver in my pocket and answered the summons.

As soon as I entered the room I thrust the revolver in the man's face and ordered him and his wife to hold up their hands. They were too surprised to offer any resistance, and I had no difficulty in taking all their diamonds and money, which amounted to $2500."

Yates will be sent back to California to answer to the charge to which he has confessed his guilt.

ANOTHER APPEAL FROM ZEMSTVO

Sect in Russia Addresses Another Pathetic Document to the Czar.

Simferopol, Jan. 25.—The Zemstvo of Taurida, at its first meeting of the year, today unanimously adopted the following address to the Emperor Nicholas.

The Taurida Zemstvo congratulates Your Majesty, as well as the Emperor, on the birth of an heir to the throne. This event occurred in a terrible year of national grief, a year of cruel and bloody war, a year of bitter internal disorders.

Let peace dawn on Russia and her frontiers. That is the best wish Russian subjects can express at this tragic year.

Your decree of Dec. 15 held out to the nation hopes of internal peace in the future, which everywhere is dependent on the preservation and maintenance of the law and equal rights to citizens on freedom of conscience and religion, freedom of speech and the press, freedom of association and public meetings.

The fulfillment of all your great intentions for their inviolability can only be assured by the participation of elected representatives of the people in the government.

We sincerely believe that in the union of power of the state with that of the people can be found the only pledge for the nation's future.

If you summon representative of the nation to take part in the government, we will support you in all our new ideas. The authorities see red spectres in all our new ideas.

Autocrat In Full Charge

New Governor of St. Petersburg Vested With Power of Exile.

Authorities Now Have Situation Well In Hand and Quiet Reigns.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 25.—(6:15 p. m.)—Quiet continues in St. Petersburg. Evidence accumulated in the past few days has been supplied with money to meet their needs.

All sorts of stories are about as to the origin of the strike, but there is no way of verifying the stories. It is seriously believed in some quarters that the strike is a result of the Japanese-British success to bring on a revolution of such internal complications as will compel the government to give up their respective countries.

Some foreign correspondents who have been indulging in the widest exaggerations of the situation in anticipation of arrest are trying to arrange for the employment of their respective countries to make prompt representations in their behalf.

The strikers seem still to be without definite plans for the future. It is said that a demonstration has been decided upon for tomorrow on the occasion of the funeral of several of the more prominent victims, but this is denied.

For the moment the strikers appear to be content to remain quiet.

All the outgoing trains are filled with people going abroad, mostly foreigners. The stories of the illness of the Emperor and the Empress are officially denied.

The correspondent of the Associated Press today conversed with a member of the court who saw the Emperor walking in the garden at Tsarsko-Selo this morning.

A despatch from the St. Petersburg press reported from Interior Minister Sviatopolk-Mirsky during the day and evening of yesterday.

Convention of editors, M. Souverain, Sr. (editor of Novoe Vremya) said that the only means of restoring order in the government was to grant freedom to the press and to summon a congress of Zemstvos.

He declared that if the press had been given freedom of expression, the recent deplorable events would have happened. The minister said that the petition would be considered, but that the government would not grant freedom to the press and to summon a congress of Zemstvos.

Frontier Garrisons Ready to Prevent Crossing of Probable Revolutionists.

Breslau, Prussia, Jan. 24.—A curious story comes from Beaufort, Russia, near the Polish frontier, that the garrison there is exercising sometimes during the day and sometimes at night in sudden alarms for the defence of the Prussian frontier with the object of being prepared to prevent a violation of the frontier should the disturbances in Russian Poland make headway.

EDEY JEWELS ARE RECOVERED. Were Buried in the Ground Near The Raymond Hotel.

Pasadena, Cal., Jan. 25.—The $20,000 worth of jewelry from the room of Mrs. W. S. Edey last Saturday have been found and returned to their owner.

Chief of Police Freeman of Pasadena and Capt. Adams were taken to the Raymond hotel in the afternoon. It was ascertained by Chief Freeman that when the jewels had been taken from Mrs. Edey's room, presumably by Pollock Wilson, and carried over to Gaston, who, the police believe, engineered the affair, they were sent by mail to Harry Kellan in Monrovia, California.

According to the police story, the package was claimed at Monrovia by Pollock Wilson, who employed the Raymond hotel in this city, and by him were buried about a quarter of a mile from the hotel. Morgan, Gaston and Wilson are in the custody of the local police.

Coterie Of Grand Dukes Govern

Report That Czar and Family Will Leave Russia for Copenhagen.

Uncles of "Little White Father" Are Now In Supreme Command.

Libau, Russia, Jan. 25.—The imperial yacht Standard is expected here to convey the Czar and his family to Copenhagen. Reports from St. Petersburg indicate that the Czar and his family are in the hands of the Czar. This statement is made with deliberation and with a full knowledge of the day's doings.

The grand ducal coterie, always powerful, but until very recently held in check by the political police, is now in the power of the "little white father," in absolute command.

Several persons who have had experience in the troops, and every order, whether it be one of leniency or stern repression, is issued by him. Grand Duke Sergius is reported to be in control of the international situation.

From an excellent source comes the information that the Czar has issued no orders, has given no commands and has made no suggestions until today. He received minute reports of the night and day happenings. Beyond that the informant says His Majesty has not exercised his supreme authority.

The utmost secrecy is maintained as to the Czar's present whereabouts. Some have him at Tsarsko-Selo, others at the winter palace right along. All questions put to men in authority on that score are met with the very courteous reply that they know as little as the interrogator.

The City Council in a general way, we believe, has acted wisely in appointing an expert to report upon the several sources of supply for the proposed improvement of the water works. We believe, however, it will be found to be a more expensive method than the one recommended by the City Council.

There are engineers in British Columbia fully capable of ascertaining all the physical data necessary in connection with the sewerage systems and sources that may be in view for a preliminary report. There are several persons who have had experience in the construction of waterworks. To pay an expert for work of that kind is not a matter of course.

The report of an expert upon the data thus acquired will be of great value to the City Council in determining what should be done in the case of an undertaking to cost so much money. If the scheme proves to be a success there will be little disposition to grumble at the expense involved in the way of preliminaries.

THE SITUATION

By Associated Press.

While the military evidently have the situation in St. Petersburg and other centres well in hand and no disturbances have occurred today there are others who say that throughout the country disorder prevails.

Trepoff, the new governor-general of St. Petersburg, has been given absolute authority over the military and police, and even vested with the power of exile, and it is dealing firmly with the situation.

Many persons have been arrested, among them being Maxim Gorky, the author and reform leader, who, the Associated Press is privately informed, was taken into custody at his home in Riga.

A notice was posted today at all the works in St. Petersburg giving the strikers 24 hours to return to work, and intimating that those who do not comply will be deported to the villages. At Moscow, which today's advices indicate is the possible storm centre, and at Riga and Revel, troops are marching the streets and the strikers, although augmented, are apparently quiet.

The men in the railways have gone out, but no disorder is reported. The improvement in the situation is reflected in a generally firmer tone on European exchanges. Despatches from London to the Associated Press say the British foreign office and the press take a gloomy view of the situation, and in the exaggerated despatches printed is revealed the disguised hostility towards Russia.
