SOME AMENDMENT IS COMING TO PRESENT ASSESSMENT LAW IF IT IS FOUND NECESSARY

Up to the Government to Find a Remedy if Assessors Fail in Their Duty, Said Sir James Whitney—Mr. Rowell No Longer a Director or Shareholder of The Globe—Leaders Clash in Spirited Debate in the Legislature.

The debate on the speech from the throne in the legislature closed yesterday with a brilliant clash between the two party leaders. Mr. Rowell was to some extent handicapped by the record of his party, but he has set out to dissociate himself from the memories of eight years ago. After being invited by the premier for the incognito of The Globe in taking liquor advertisements while advocating the abolition of the bar, and with water-gate against unearned increment in land, Mr. Rowell stated that he was no longer either a director or shareholder of The Globe. Mr. Rowell is not going to be embarrassed further if he can avoid it by the tortuous policies which The Globe has found it necessary to support in its partisan capacity. He found a stiff example of the disadvantages of a party record in the case of the University of Toronto. He would have been discreet to omit any reference to the university considering how the Ross government treated it, and what the Whitney government has done since. The premier took full advantage of the opportunity with his usual adroit and incontestable manner.

But Mr. Rowell made an excellent speech and in touching on the questions he regarded as conspicuous by their absence from the speech from the throne, indicated wide sympathies for popular legislation and an advanced attitude on general questions which Premier Whitney commended by the assertion that it was a declaration of the most advanced political socialism ever heard in a British-American legislature. It is doubtful if socialism sounds so much like "Wolf" as it once did, and Mr. Rowell's matter was moderate and well grounded as he touched on agriculture and its vital problem of rural depopulation, the housing problem in cities, education, woman labor in factories, public health, the liquor traffic, the wages question, the proper development of citizenship, all social problems, factory inspection, competition, farm workmen, sickness and old age insurance, and finally an equitable tax system.

Absolutely Untrue. Mr. Rowell regretted that the denunciations of the hydro-electric power for farming communities had not been introduced in the speech, and he thought the charge regarding the provision of cheap transportation facilities in connection with the hydro commission should also have been noted. He thought the house was entitled to know if the government was behind Hon. Mr. Beck in this matter. This brought the premier to his feet with the assertion that public statements and private statements of a similar description, suggesting disharmony in the cabinet were all absolutely untrue. Mr. Rowell congratulated the government on the good roads grant, and hoped they would do as effectively for the masses outside prison walls as for those inside. He also assured the government that the opposition would do all it could to assist the passage of the anti-treating bill.

On the question of tax reform he offered a more elaborate argument. Premier Whitney took issue at once with the assertion that the tendency of increasing taxation on land was to bring it into use. This was merely a statement, he declared. Mr. Rowell replied that there was the evidence of reason and common sense and the evidence of experience. In Toronto 23 years ago the weight of taxation had led many to abandon their land altogether. There were three ways of spending the act, either by permitting buildings and income to be taxed on a lower basis than land, or by granting local option. The municipalities already had local option in the case of the statute labor poll tax, and Toronto had abolished it. There were four classes of municipalities to be

HALF A MILLION PEOPLE BY DECEMBER

That Will Be Toronto's Population if Present Rate of Increase Continues—New Directory Gives Present Figures as 475,296—Great Progress Along All Lines.

Toronto's population was 475,296 at the end of 1912, according to the estimate of the 1913 Directories, Limited, who will issue a new edition of the city directory in a few days, which contains, by actual count, 111,592 individual names, exclusive of firms, corporations, etc., which is an increase of 10,228 over last year. At Toronto's present rate of increase the city will have half a million inhabitants by Dec. 31, 1913. During the last ten years the city has had an average yearly increase of 6.03 per cent. If this ratio of increase is applied for the next 13 years, it is interesting to note that Toronto's population in 1925 will be 1,012,546. In 1915, according to the same arithmetic, the city will have 566,016 inhabitants.

Streets and Buildings. The fact that the city has 1645 streets and 88,024 buildings of all kinds are shown by the street directory. This is an increase of 6703 buildings over last year. The area within the city limits, not including the portion of the city land covered by water, is 29.2 square miles. There are 508.06 miles of streets and lanes, of which 229.20 are paved and 177.86 are unpaved. Toronto has 353 miles of sewers and 462 miles of water mains, with 5186 hydrants. The average quantity of water pumped in 24 hours during 1912 was 45,000,000 gallons.

Total Assessment. The total assessment of the city during 1912 was $478,922,825. The total number of real estate transfers last year was 24,473. During 1913 7178 building permits were granted, and the value of the buildings erected was $27,401,761. The enormous sum of $2,170,226,576 passed thru the Toronto clearing house during last year. Eleven thousand one hundred children were born, and there were 6312 deaths. Twelve thousand three hundred and sixteen people got married, in spite of the increasing cost of living. At the Toronto custom house in 1912 $13,307,722.68 was the huge sum collected in duties. This is an increase of $2,767,097.58 over 1911.

Toronto is still ahead of Montreal in postoffice earnings. In 1912 the Montreal postoffice earned $1,281,900.48. Toronto's postoffice earnings during last year were $2,217,704.91.

Lack of Fuel Unexplained

CHRISTCHURCH, N. Z., Feb. 12.—(Can. Press.)—Com. Minister Evans said today that, reasoning by the progress of the supporting parties, Captain Scott should have returned to Hut Point by March 17. Regarding the shortage of fuel, he said that Scott had enough fuel to last a month beyond the date of his expected return.

WOMEN BRAVE ZERO WEATHER

Less Hardy Sisters Soon Abandoned First Stage of "Hike" to Washington.

METUCHEN, N. J., Feb. 12.—(Can. Press.)—It was a half frozen "army" of 16 suffragettes—reduced by cold and exposure to that number from an original of 200, who left Newark, N. J., this morning—that struggled into this village shortly after 6 o'clock tonight to make its first bivouac of its 250-mile march to Washington to carry a message to Woodrow Wilson on the day of his inauguration as president. From town to town as the first day of arduous tramping went on hikers in tens and twenties unostentatiously left the ranks and sought warmth indoors and then confessed themselves deserters by boarding trains for their homes.

Starting at 10 o'clock from Newark, N. J., after a tube ride under the Hudson River from New York, the women covered 16 miles in the face of a bitterly cold wind and over icy roads. The temperature was hovering around the zero mark and the women arrived here with their noses and ears red and tingling. The remaining 16, commanded by "Gen." Rosalie G. Jones, are the "regulars" who pledged themselves to march the entire distance. The other 184 had volunteered for one day's march, but did not count on the cold weather, proffering their promises when the mercury stood many degrees higher than it did today.

The 16 miles were made in about five hours of actual marching. Headed by a platoon of mounted police and two volunteer men buglers, the departure from Newark was made after "Gen." Jones had made a speech announcing that they carried a secret message to the new president of the United States, to be delivered to him as soon as he will receive it, "as we hope, on his inauguration day."

Mrs. Peter Ryan Dead. At an early hour this morning, after a lengthy illness, Mrs. Peter Ryan passed away at her home, 51 Grosvenor street.

BORDEN BELIEVES LIBERAL HOPES ILL-BASED

Opposition Should Be Prepared For Long Period in Cold Shades, Premier Intimates at Banquet in His Honor—Presentation to C. A. Munson, M.P.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—(Special.)—A magnificent ovation was given Premier Borden this evening by the Conservative members of parliament, who attended the banquet tendered to the premier by Sir Edmund Osler. Few speeches were delivered, Sir Edmund, in addressing his guests, saying that members of parliament and of the press gallery must already be worried to death with long speeches. In proposing the health of the prime minister, however, Sir Edmund took occasion to say that the Conservative party was not a party of "cranks." In this connection, he recounted the strong opposition which Mr. Borden had encountered in the early days of his leadership. Now that success had crowned the efforts of Mr. Borden, as leader of the opposition everyone agreed that his selection was in the best interests of the party and of the country.

The prime minister, after a graceful acknowledgment of the applause which greeted his rising, said the welcome which he had received last summer in England was intended to be and was interpreted by him to be a compliment to Canada. (Applause.) He begged to be excused from making a speech in view of the fact that his colleagues in the house of commons had been deluged for weeks with cascades and rapids of oratory from the opposition. (Laughter.)

Liberal's Ill-Based Hopes. In conclusion, the premier said that the confidence displayed by some Liberals of today recalled the high hopes entertained by the Conservatives after the election of 1898. Many Conservatives after that election assumed as a matter of course that the Laurier government would not long remain in power. The result disappointed them as the result of many elections in the future would disappoint the opponents of the government.

A feature of the evening was the presentation to C. A. Munson, the Conservative member for West Northumberland, of a handsome silver service in recognition of his recent wedding. Mr. Munson appropriately responded, and addresses were also delivered by David Henderson, M.P., and other Conservative members of parliament. A letter of regret from Sir Mackenzie Bowell, now ninety years old, was read by Sir Edmund Osler, and the audience rose spontaneously and paid tribute to the old Tory veteran by singing "He's a jolly good fellow." The banquet concluded with "Rule Britannia" and "God Save the King."

Deciding Battle Today

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 12.—(Can. Press.)—Madero has promised to make a combined assault on the rebel positions tomorrow, but the operations of today indicate that Diaz has much in reserve. On the first day of the battle it was the government forces that burned their powder. Today it was the rebels' turn to be aggressive. Diaz brought forward heavier guns than he had used before. Two threatening features of the day were the appearance in the outskirts of the City of Zapatisas, who harassed the government troops and the release from the Bellem jail of several thousand prisoners. Some of the latter have joined the rebel ranks, but others are foot free, and may turn to looting.

TWO AMERICAN WOMEN KILLED

Shell From Federal Lines Burst Thru Wall of House With Deadly Effect.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 12.—(Can. Press.)—Americans again today suffered during the height of the battle. Mrs. H. W. Holmes, the wife of an employe of Dun's Agency, was killed and Mrs. Percy Griffiths, the wife of an employe of the Street Railway Company, was mortally wounded, both of her legs being shot off. Allie Bland, a printer, was shot thru the arm.

Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Griffiths were preparing dinner in their kitchen in an apartment building, close to the arsenal, when a shell from the federal lines burst thru the walls, instantly killing Mrs. Holmes and left Mrs. Griffiths in a dying condition. Bland was walking along Independence avenue, when he was struck by a rifle ball, apparently from the federal lines.

The American wounded in yesterday's action are improving.

SUBWAY NEEDED AT ROYCE AVE.

Another Jury Recommends Better Protection For the Most Dangerous Crossing in Toronto.

"We find that T. J. Moffatt came to his death by accident falling under the wheels of a G.T.R. train, being overcome by heart failure while a train was passing over Royce avenue crossing. We recommend, on account of the recent and frequent accidents, that the Railway Company should have ground men, or provide a subway at the particular point to prevent further accidents."

The above is the verdict of the jury appointed to investigate the death of T. J. Moffatt, who was killed at Royce avenue crossing last Saturday. The inquest was held at the morgue last night. The evidence showed that Mr. Moffatt had gone under the gates after they had been lowered, and had stood within three feet of the tracks. He was seen to collapse and fall under the wheels of the train.

U. S. JUSTIFIED IN INTERVENING

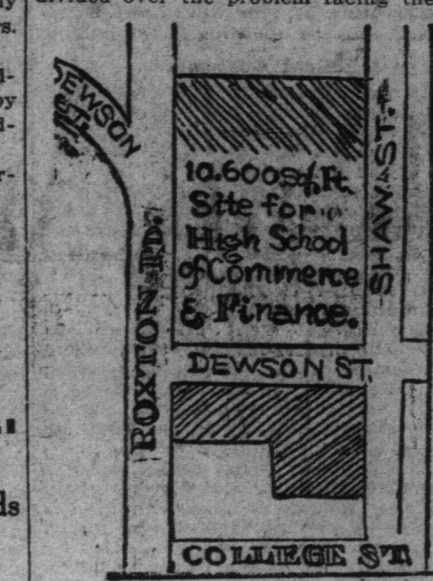

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(Can. Press.)—Several of the London morning papers print editorial comment on the Mexican trouble. They generally recognize justification for American intervention. The Daily Mail says: "American interests involved are very great. If the Mexicans are wise they will settle their differences as speedily as possible." The Standard says: "American interests in the security and stability of the Central American states will be too strong to be denied, and Mexico must get her affairs in proper order or accept the jealous supervision of her great neighbor." "American intervention is unavoidable," declares The Daily Graphic, which adds: "This may profoundly modify the political geography of North America."

SITE IS CHOSEN FOR SCHOOL BUILDING

Half-Million Dollar High School of Finance and Commerce Will Be Situated in the Block North of College Street Between Shaw Street and Roxton Road.

A half million dollar high school of commerce and finance was decided upon by the advisory committee yesterday afternoon. One hundred thousand dollars was appropriated last year for a site. The building will cost $250,000 finished, and fittings $50,000, and architect's fees, etc., will give a total of nearly the half million mark. The site selected is one block north of College street, bounded by Shaw street and Roxton road, and divided at present on the south by Dawson street. The property is claimed by the city and the Cartwright estate, and the title is before the courts. This, the committee has been advised, does not affect their right to expropriate. The expropriation will take three months and the erection of the building over a year to complete. All was agreement respecting the new building, but the committee is divided over the problem facing them.

Location chosen for new High School of commerce and finance.

In the meantime, even rooms in the King Edward Public School are now used by 350 commerce and finance pupils. Trustee Smith is active in a movement to secure the whole of the building for public school scholars at the September term. Trustee Smith said every room will be needed for the present for Borden street scholars. He proposed that the old Clinton Street School, to be vacated at midsummer, should be used as a high school of commerce and finance until their building is ready.

Mr. Marriott protested vigorously, and was quite pointed that the department of education should prohibit any such erection.

A sub-committee was appointed to confer with the management committees respecting the further occupancy of the King Edward School.

Cabinet, While Recognizing That Americans Are in Grave Danger, Declines to Take Sole Responsibility For Intervention—Thirty-Five Thousand Men in Readiness.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(Canadian Press.)—President Taft and the cabinet are in accord that congress shall share the responsibility for any intervention in Mexico.

A day of conferences between the president and his advisers ended with the understanding that, should conditions in Mexico City become so unfavorable as to demand the landing of American troops, Mr. Taft will lay before both houses of congress the full facts of the situation in a special message.

Today every preliminary was arranged for the action which might follow such a course. Thirty-five thousand men of the army, navy and marine corps were put in readiness for movement.

The first brigade of the first arm division, just created in the reorganization, three thousand men in all, and the nucleus of an expeditionary force of 15,000, was put on marching orders ready to entrain for Newport News, Va., where army transports wait under steam.

Between 2500 and 3000 marines of the Atlantic battleship fleet and at the Guantanamo naval station, were prepared for immediate movement to Vera Cruz, where they might be kept aboard ship ready for landing to blaze an avenue of escape to Mexico City for foreigners, as they did at Peking.

Dreadnoughts on the Way. Six Dreadnoughts, with approximately 6000 families and officers, now are rushing under full steam for Mexican ports—four on the Atlantic and two on the Pacific. The first should arrive at her destination Friday, the last Sunday.

Ten other crack fighting ships of the Atlantic battleship fleet, swinging at anchor 70 hours off at Guantanamo, are ready for sea. They have approximately 9000 officers and men.

Within call to supplement this force are the cruiser Denver, en route to Acapulco, Salvador; transport Buffalo at Corinto, Nicaragua; cruiser Des Moines, en route to Bluefields, Nicaragua, and three Saturday; gunboat Nashville, en route to Puerto Cretes, Honduras, and gunboat Annapolis, en route to Amoy, Honduras. It is the feeling of the administration that these plans are all that can be done at this time and that a sufficient number of warships have been dispatched, not only to observe development, but to practically create neutral zones at ports where they lie, in which Americans and other foreigners in Mexico may find safety.

It has been suggested in some quarters.

LEVEL CLASS LEGISLATURE ON LIQUOR LAW AND TAX REFORM

Sir James Whitney and N.W. Rowell Cross Swords in Debate on Speech From Throne—Premier Denounced Those Who Suggested That He Tamped With Tax Committee, and Said That Single Tax Meant Abolition of Home, Marriage and Religion.

When Sir James Whitney and N. W. Rowell clashed yesterday in the legislature in the debate on the speech from the throne, it was indeed an occasion of unusual interest. Not for many years has there been such a lively debate on the floor of the house. For three hours the government and opposition leaders hammered away.

Mr. Rowell rose to speak when the house convened, and was on his feet for nearly two hours, during which time he forcibly criticized the government, especially on such questions as tax reform and liquor laws. On occasions he was interrupted by Sir James Whitney and other government members.

The premier in his reply to the opposition leader hit hard and often. He twitted the Liberals for not entering candidates in the recent by-elections and concluded that this was an indication of the effectiveness of this party's platform. In answer to criticism regarding the government's apparent "hushing up" of the anti-treating question, he said that this legislation would come in proper time. He attacked tax reform from every standpoint, and declared that the so-called Henry Georgeism would ultimately result in abolition of home, marriage and religion. In reference to his connection with the tax committee he described those who had suggested that the government should eliminate the treating system, as contemptible, miserable and cowardly failures.

Mr. Rowell's speech. It was without doubt, Mr. Rowell's best speech since assuming the leadership of the opposition. His address, which embraced many subjects, effectively. His argument was strong and his criticism keen. On rising to speak, he immediately took occasion to join other members in paying a tribute to the memory of the late Hon. A. J. Matheson and Robert Sutherland, former member for East Middlesex. And then he graciously congratulated the premier on his having received an additional honor from King George on New Year's Day. Referring to the loss of the nation of the four explorers, he said that all the people must feel great cause for gratification in the striking examples of heroism and self-sacrifice of those who died in the Antarctic.

Mr. Rowell vigorously attacked the government, because of what the speech from the throne did not contain. He quoted an authority as to the definition of the speech, stating that it should show what was done by the government since the parliament opened, and announced general legislation which was to be brought up. "I find in the heart of the speech, references to the work of construction of the new government house, and considering that there is no reference whatever to tax reform, the sitting of the tax committee, the proposed anti-treating legislation, the government house must have more importance than the face it appears to have, he said. The speech touched on questions regarding the new library, but neglected to mention the revision of the statutes which the police magistrate had been waiting on for six years. "Surely the government should be concerned with the library as not matters of great moment," he said. "The time has come to write a new speech. This one is time worn and stereotyped."

A Vital Question. As regards agriculture, the most vital question of the day was rural depopulation, but nothing was said of this in the speech. The housing problem was not mentioned, and there is no more vital question affecting the well-being of the people. "The University of Toronto is facing a financial crisis, at least that is the information which comes from the chairman of the board of governors," he continued. "I think we have not here one of the most important questions with which we have to deal? Is it not strange that we are informed, not by the speech, but by the chairman of the board of governors, which makes no mention of it?"

Not Mentioned. The conditions resulting from the employment of women and children in factories needed remedy. This question touched the family and social life. But there was not a word about it in the speech. The question of public importance, there was no proposal from the government to consider it. As a result, apparently the government did not think it a question of sufficient seriousness to propose measures for the future. And on the question of the liquor traffic, there was not a word in the speech—the government gave this grave neglect to the public.

effect are entirely untrue," interjected Sir James. "The opposition leader then switched to the question of good roads and the announcement in the speech of a plan to expend $5,000,000. He was glad to see that the government had changed its opinion on this question. Within a year the government voted down our motion calling for an adequate system of good roads, especially ones leading to markets," he went on. "But you can take our policy. We are willing to devise policies for the government if it will be progressive."

There was only a meagre suggestion of liquor reform in the speech, and this seemingly had been inserted in "an apologetic way." "I would like to see the government do for the masses outside the prison walls as effectively as for those confined there," he said. He then criticized the government for taking five years to decide on introducing a workmen's compensation act.

Re Anti-Treating. "I am sure the public would like to have seen some mention of the liquor problem and tax reform in the speech," he said. "Surely the local option was recently was of sufficient importance to be given a little prominence. What has become of the government's policy on anti-treating? Last year, when the government motion was introduced to eliminate the treating system, we thought that they were going to fight. Or was it a signal of distress—any port in a storm? It was an evidence of sudden conversion, which I hoped, was sincere, but looks now as if the government had been an inglorious retreat, had hopelessly backslid. I can hardly force myself to believe this after the government's solemn declaration of Sir James Whitney, said that he had received information of the evils of treating from a number of wholesalers and retailers. Have these owners withdrawn their approval of anti-treating?"

"We proposed our resolution of abolition of the bar and by that policy we stand. We will introduce it again this session. Will the government introduce their bill? We would render every assistance to the government, although we think that the elimination of the treating system would not be effective as the abolition of the bar."

Silent Contempt. He then veered to the question of tax reform, which, he said, the government was treating with silent contempt despite the wishes of the people. "The time has come for the government to reconsider its action just as it did on other questions," he said. "It has long been recognized that the tax system is much more than a method of collecting revenue. It has a vital relation to the progress of the community."

Mr. Rowell went into detail to show the inadequacy of the present Assessment Act. Lands were being held idle when needed, and a proposal for improvements was handicapped seriously by local taxation, which bore an ultimate relation with all housing and social problems. The important items to consider were land and the products of labor, or improvements. If you taxed land, you forced it into use because you would render it unprofitable to the owner to allow it to stand idle. If you taxed improvements, you discouraged industry.

He then referred to the question of tax reform, which, he said, the government was treating with silent contempt despite the wishes of the people. "The time has come for the government to reconsider its action just as it did on other questions," he said. "It has long been recognized that the tax system is much more than a method of collecting revenue. It has a vital relation to the progress of the community."

towns, the townships and new Ontario. The government was strongly against local option, but today, even under the present law, every municipality was allowed to use its own judgment in wiping out, reducing or increasing the poll tax. Toronto had dropped the poll tax. Had the province suffered because of this power given the municipalities? If the government could trust them with this item why not grant a general system of home rule?"

A Big Demand. "The government says there has been no demand for this reform," he continued. "All classes of people have demanded it. 217 manufacturers, 188 labor unions and 184 citizens have signed among the advocates. The people of Toronto favored it by a large majority. And still the government says there is no demand. It has been in the house a little over a year and he has said a great many astonishing things, and I am afraid he will go on saying and doing these things. We have just heard a straight-out, advanced and matured declaration of socialism from the government. I might say, ever heard in this house."

Mr. Rowell said that he had received information of the evils of treating from a number of wholesalers and retailers. Have these owners withdrawn their approval of anti-treating? "We proposed our resolution of abolition of the bar and by that policy we stand. We will introduce it again this session. Will the government introduce their bill? ## Gray Hair Turns Its Natural Color After Applying Sage Tea

Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens Beautifully and Takes Off Dandruff. Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also cures dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays skilled chemists do this for you. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product—called "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy"—you will get a large bottle for about 60 cents. Some druggists make their own, but it's usually too sticky, so insist upon getting "Wyle's," which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair, and is the best remedy for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and to stop falling hair. Folks like "Wyle's" because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair as it does it so naturally and evenly, says a well-known downtown druggist. You dampen a sponge or brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This requires but a few moments. By morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two is stored to its natural color and looks even more beautiful and glossy than ever. Agents, Robert Simpson Co., Limited

SCAFFOLD FALLS TWO MEN DYING

One of Three Men Who Dropped Forty Feet But Little Injured. FORT COLBORNE, Feb. 12.—(Special)—Two men were probably fatally hurt here this afternoon thru the collapse of a scaffolding at the plant of the Canada Furnace & Steel Co. In the 40-foot fall Charles Edgar McMillan and William Sandy at Cleveland received injuries from which they have slight prospect of recovery. The other man escaped almost unscathed. The men, who were employed by the Variety Iron & Steel Structures Co., Cleveland, were removed to the Welland Hospital.

PICTURES TAKEN AS SCOTT PARTY PREPARED TO GO

While the Terra Nova Was Anchored Off Cardiff, Captain Scott and His Companions Posed for Photographs Which Since Have Been Lost and Are Here Reproduced.

The four pictures published on this page are taken from a collection which appeared in The Western Daily Mail, published at Cardiff, Wales, on June 11, 1910, the day before Captain Scott and his expedition sailed for the Antarctic. Aid John Chappell, who was Lord Mayor of Cardiff, was one of the photographers. Mr. Chappell sent The World the newspaper containing the pictures which now are the only ones in existence of Captain Scott and his party while the Terra Nova was at Cardiff. The original photographs of the pictures here reproduced were lost in transit quite a long time ago.

LACK OF CREDITS HAMPERING FARMERS

House, on Motion of Arthur Meighen, M.P., Agrees to Give Attention to Providing of Improved System—Lalor of Haldimand Warns Not to Embarrass Banks.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—(Special.)—An interesting if somewhat academic debate took place in the house this afternoon upon a resolution proposed by Mr. Arthur Meighen, the Conservative member for Portage la Prairie, declaring that the government should give early attention to providing a system of cheaper and better agricultural credits. Mr. Meighen took no part in the debate upon the second reading of the bill to revise the Bank Act and his utterances today were somewhat guarded, but he made it plain that, in his opinion, a large number of people in Canada desiring of credit were getting no assistance from the banks. For this he held the branch system in some measure responsible.

Mr. F. R. Lalor, the Conservative member for Haldimand, objected to any radical proposals which might embarrass the chartered banks. He declared we were facing a financial stringency at present in Canada, more severe than that which prevailed in 1907. Finance Minister White, in reply, said that money had been tight and rates of interest high for the past ten years owing to world-wide causes. Mr. Meighen's resolution passed without opposition.

Co-operative Banking. In opening the debate, the member for Portage la Prairie recalled that the legislation providing for co-operative banking had been introduced by Hon. P. D. Monk and had passed the house of commons.

The bill was subsequently thrown out by the senate. Mr. Meighen believed that the principle of the Monk bill was a correct one. The membership of the credit societies should be limited to a small geographical area and loans made only to members. He quoted interesting statistics to show the success which had attended the credit societies of Europe. He also dwelt upon the land banks of Germany, but believed their introduction into western Canada would not be feasible where land values fluctuated so violently.

Central National Bank. Mr. Meighen said a federal law was required because a central national bank would have to be established, which would be the bank in which all these scattered small banks would deposit. This national bank, he thought, should be allowed to issue circulation. Mr. Buchanan (Lethbridge) suggested that state loans secured by mortgage should be made to the farmers by the government.

Dr. Clarke (Red Deer) intimated that Mr. Meighen should have moved when the Bank Act was up for discussion. These Wednesday afternoon discussions in the house were usually philosophical and academic.

Mr. Lalor (Haldimand) deprecated any radical proposals which would injuriously affect the chartered banks.

JAPANESE EXPLORERS MAY HAVE PERISHED

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, Feb. 11.—The arrival at Christchurch of Scott's ship, the Terra Nova, has given rise to considerable uneasiness concerning the fate of the Japanese South Polar expedition under Lieut. N. Shirase, which has not been heard from.

H. G. Ponting, a photographer, who accompanied Captain Scott's expedition, was aboard the Terra Nova. He was quoted as saying that the Scott explorers had found traces of the Japanese, and that the indications were that the Shirase party might have been overwhelmed by the same Antarctic blizzard that killed Scott and his men.

The Japanese Antarctic expedition set out from Yokohama in 1910 in a 150-ton schooner.

but Donald Sutherland (S. Oxford) took another view. This result would be obtained in some measure by a number of persons combining their credit and lending money to individual members as in the case of the credit societies favored by Mr. Meighen. His observation was that the local banks in the U. S. did more to build up local industries in the smaller places than did our branch banks in Canada.

Hon. Mr. White said that the subject had been under consideration by the government and would receive additional consideration. Credit societies and land banks were quite feasible in thickly settled countries where the population was permanent and the land values fixed. They might not be successful in a country like Canada. The government, however, was prepared to study the problem and if possible to devise a system by which co-operative banking under proper safeguards could be established.

RAILWAYS DON'T RUN THIS CITY

North End Ratepayers Would Let the Companies Know It.

WANT WIDER YONGE ST.

Subway Should Be Deepened and Viaduct Widened, They Say.

An animated meeting of the North End Ratepayers' Association was held at Cottingham Street School last night. President O'Leary said the time had come for the citizens to speak out vigorously and let the C.P.R. officials know that the railway was not going to run the city. It was absolutely necessary that the viaduct should be widened and the subway deepened to 18 feet. It was also the duty of the association membership to impress upon the city council and to make known to the citizens of Toronto in general, the importance of widening Yonge street to 88 feet from Bloor street to the subway, with the vast projects in progress for a North Toronto Union Station and the converging of traffic at the Yonge street subway.

Views Approved. Controller McCarthy, Ald. McBride, Burgess, Rawlinson, Wickert and Risk expressed approval of the views expressed by the chairman.

Want it Widened. Ald. Meighen said the Teranlay street widening would cost $4,000,000 and it was of equal general public interest for Yonge street to be widened as proposed.

Dr. Crawford said the cost would be prohibitive. J. E. Murphy also spoke in opposition, but the vote was 38 to 7 in favor of an 18-foot street and an 18-foot subway.

Own a Victrola. It's a pleasure at any time to visit the beautiful Victrola parlors of Ye Old Firm of Heintzman & Co., Ltd., 128-129-131 Yonge street, and inspect their large assortment of Victrolas. The range is large enough to meet any taste and any price.

NEW ZEALAND'S JOY TURNED TO GLOOM

Thought Scott Expedition Successful Till Word Came From London.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(Can. Press.)—The Christchurch, New Zealand, correspondent of The Chronicle says: "The dreadful calamity that has befallen the Antarctic expedition has produced the utmost consternation among all classes in New Zealand. The news was not known here until early this (Tuesday) morning. We were aware the Terra Nova had arrived at Oamaru last night, but no information was available. In the dark hours before dawn yesterday two officers put off from the vessel in a small boat and landed outside Oamaru. To enquire they refused to give their own names or even the name of the vessel. After the two strangers had stepped ashore the boat pulled off to sea, which then stood out to sea.

Rumor Hardly Believed. "The mysterious visitors observed the utmost secrecy concerning themselves, but after a conversation with the harbor master, they went to the telegraph office, and on the strength of this the rumor was spread thru the Dominion that Scott himself was one of the strangers, the announcement being received, of course, with the utmost delight.

When shortly after 8 o'clock this morning a brief message was received from London reporting the loss of the gallant leader and all his companions in his final Polar dash, the rumor was hardly believed. The grim news, however, was confirmed, and quickly it had a most marked effect on the citizens here. It is as if every member of the community had lost a personal friend. Church bells tolled this morning, and as I cable every flag flies at half-mast."

SEND LETTER ON WARSHIP. LONDON, Feb. 12.—A generally approved proposal has been put forward that Roald Amundsen's letter to King Haakon of Norway, which was recovered by Captain Scott at the South Pole, should be forwarded to his majesty on board a British battleship as symbolizing the qualities of the dead heroes and the national pride felt by the British in their life and death.

Died at Age of One Hundred and Three

Kentish Woman Who Lived to a Great Age and Never Saw the Sea.

The death has occurred at Chiddingstone, Kent, of Mrs. Coomber, who next month would have celebrated her 103rd birthday. The striking facts of her life are shown in the following table: Her eldest son is eighty-four. Her youngest son is sixty-four. She had thirty grandchildren. She had sixty-five great-grandchildren. She was one of a family of twelve. Their aggregate years of life numbered 1020. They had lived in six regions. Five of her sons have served in the army, and her brother took part in the Battle of Waterloo. The old lady said she vividly retained to the last the memory of the return of the troops after Waterloo. Nearly all her life she resided at Chiddingstone. In her earlier years she was employed as a domestic servant in the house of the father of the present Lord Hardinge of Penshurst. The old lady had never seen the sea.

Owen Sound Beaten in Run-away Final—Rinks and Scores—Governor-General's Game.

Collingwood and Owen Sound from the northern end of old Ontario, there they grew for curling early in the season, played off yesterday afternoon the final game for the 25th Ontario silver tankard.

There was a large gallery to see the start, but the one-sided nature of the combat and the decidedly chilly weather reduced the numbers to a mere handful at the finish.

In the morning Collingwood also showed contempt for their other neighbors of the north, Orillia retiring with a count of 18 against Napanee, while the latter showed the losers showed mistaken judgment in sweeping.

The Governor-General's competition was reduced to three teams. The umpire disqualified Lakeview for playing a man against Galt, who had not competed in the preceding game.

OSHAWA HAVE REAL GOOD LEAD

Handed Varsity Whitewash Dose in First Game of the Second Round—The Details.

OSHAWA, Feb. 12.—(Staff Correspondence.)—Oshawa whitewashed University of Toronto here tonight by the score of 7 to 0 in the first game of their home-and-home series, in the second round of the Junior O.H.A. Superior stick-handling and all-round speed were Oshawa's greatest assets.

The first half was replete with brilliant plays by both teams, but Oshawa gradually pulled away, and after having had a 2-10 lead at half-time, they stayed the blue content with this, they stayed the blue while off in the first few minutes, when they began to look dangerous, and came back valiantly and had Varsity disassembled as the game proceeded.

Both teams never let up, however, and worked at top speed to the limit. Reardon and Fair were a tower of strength for the purple and white, and the former compares favorably with any junior in the business speed, and the former has weighed seen so far this year. He is the fastest and best stick-handling player in the business, and he made several bad moves, but they were not fatal. Wilson in goal was a stone wall, while all the others were more or less brilliant.

LIGHT HOOD FOR CHAMPIONS

Quebec Ran Up Big Score on Toronto Pros.—Poor Hockey Through-out.

Quebec lead the N.H.A. and they will win the championship in a walk, if the other teams put up as poor an exhibition against them as Toronto did last night. It was another of the blue outfit's off-nights, and the Ancient City outfit made it just a canter, the final score being 11 to 2.

Nicholson was the only man that played the game for Toronto. He checked back the whole way and was the life of the forward line. Davidson only showed in spots, and Wilson lost out in the close mixtures. Harry Cameron featured with individual rushes.

Quebec were all over the Toronto right into the net almost without opposition. Sue McLean added for Jack Marshall on the back line, and, while he broke away several times, he was slow on his feet. He looked after his checkings well.

Harry Holmes took a sick spell in the first few minutes of the game, and the last forty minutes in the net. Both had a lot of work to do, and, with Quebec going through the defence, they were working under a handicap.

It was rough going at the first ten minutes, and both sides handed out the rough stuff. Mummery was the goal for the crowd, and he drew cat yells every time he took a trip down the ice. Mummery is a big, husky man, who uses his big arms and he is not half as rough as the spectators think.

Jack Marks got a nasty cut over the eye in the second period, when Cameron accidentally hooked him. Malone and Smith were also cut up. Marchand had the worst of the game, when he was hit by Mummery on a scuffle at the goal mouth. Mummery was banished from the ice for his pretty dodging and stick-handling.

Torontos were sadly lacking in team play, while Quebec showed nice combination at all times. Bad Joe Hall took a few lonely trips down the ice, and was also the only Quebec man that could not hold his own when he struck the defence. Malone was easily the best man on the ice, with his pretty dodging and stick-handling.

After the first few minutes Quebec had all the better of the play and started to run up a big score. Toronto had absolutely no life, and let the league leaders pound them for the rest of the game. The net was in wondrous form. In the last period he stopped them from every angle, but Toronto could not get anything past him.

Opened Ice Winners. Toronto opened last night and rained a succession of shots at Moran. Davidson got a pass from Nichor three minutes after the start, and Toronto went out in the lead when he netted it. This was Quebec up, and they came in with two hard shots, but Moran, breaking up West End's crew were bewildered. Quebec ran in four in a row, and then Toronto's defence was broken, and Moran was notched. Davidson lifted it past Moran from a face-off at the Quebec end. Marchand added another for the Stanley Cup holders before the end of the period, and it stood 5 to 2.

Quebec kept right at it in the second period, and their share was four tallies, while Toronto never had a chance. It was one of those hard strenuous affairs, and kept the spectators on the whole game start to finish. The first half finished 13-13 in West End's favor. In the second period the Salts came back and finished strong, netting out a victory. For

ASSESSORS AND ASSESSMENT.

"The tendency everywhere," says The Mall and Empire, "is to undervalue land and buildings, despite the definite instructions of the Assessment Act to the effect that land is to be assessed at the value it would have in payment of a just debt by a solvent debtor. That is to say, it is to be assessed as nearly as possible at its market value."

This may be taken as the official view which Sir James Whitney was frequently expressed, and upon which he relies as a sufficient reply to the demand for tax reform. The assessors, altho swearing to do so, persistently neglect their duty. It has been suggested that an instruction be sent to the assessors by the government. Would it not be more effective to instruct the attorney-general to proceed against the defaulting officials for their violation of the law?

PRODUCER AND CONSUMER.

That the high cost of living is due in large part to the undue proportion of expense incurred in the distribution of food products is the proposition involved in a bill now under consideration by the United States House of Representatives. It has been favorably reported upon by the committee on agriculture, and according to present appearances has a good chance to become law during the present session of congress. The supporters of the measure make the point that so far the entire attention of the department has been engaged over the question of increased production, while the equally important matter of excessive cost of distribution has been practically neglected. This particular bill aims to secure a saving of $2,000,000,000 in the marketing of farm products, one moiety whereof will reduce the cost of living and the other add to the return to the producer.

Something is defective in an economic system which makes it more profitable to distribute than to produce. Yet that, according to the committee, is the result of present day conditions in the United States. For the crop of 1912 the producer, it says, will get roundly $6,000,000,000, while the distributor will annex $7,000,000,000 out of the $13,000,000,000 charged the consumer. Very startling figures are presented in this connection, as for example, that cabbages worth $1,825,000 to the cultivator were sold in the New York market for $9,325,000; potatoes, yielding the grower $8,437,000, were sold to consumers at prices representing $60,000,000, while even more arresting is the statement that before onions, sold to the New York market for $821,000, reached the consumers their value had risen to more than ten times that amount.

This situation the bill proposes to remedy by creating a new division of the department of agriculture—that of markets. Its primary duty will be to circulate news concerning market conditions and to bring producer and consumer into closer contact. Indeed, the plain intent of the measure is the encouragement of co-operative trading between producer and consumer on the basis of eliminating unnecessary intermediary profits. Thus the committee say that its enactment should bring the producer and consumer closer together and decrease the great difference in prices, and that the farmer will thus know where to find a market for much of his produce now going to waste. The committee was convinced that there has been too great an increase in value after production leaves the farm. Of equal significance is the announcement the other day that one of the large industrial concerns in the United States is promoting a scheme of co-operative buying among its employees.

AGITATION IS LIFE.

All democratic countries, as presently constituted, contain an element which is tremendously afraid of what is called agitation. As it is composed of favored individuals that are perfectly satisfied with things as they are, they are entirely antagonistic to that other and far more numerous section who would rather have things as they ought to be. Reform of any kind means agitation, in most cases long and persistent agitation, harrowing, indeed, to those who think all things for the best in the best of all possible worlds. But the trouble is that the masses who are rightly and justly dissatisfied, are by no means inclined to remain in the rest-and-be-thankful attitude which is so eminently pleasing to the classes, whether aristocrat or plutocrat.

If any country on the earth should show signs of suffering from agitation, and successful agitation at that, it is the United Kingdom. For eight years it has had Liberal, rather Radical, government. Its political balance has been altered, large social revolutions have been effected, and if one must believe the invective of the opposition, the credit of the country must be at the penultimate stage of exhaustion. Yet, as Mr. Asquith, with pardonable triumph, declared at Leven, in his own Fifeshire constituency, trade at home and overseas was never so prosperous or the percentage of unemployment in the King dom so small. Agitation, rightly directed against injustice and wrongful exactions to the public detriment means new life to any people. Acquiescence is stagnation, and stagnation is death.

LIVERPOOL'S CITY SERVICES. Those who deny or doubt the success of city ownership and operation of public services in the United Kingdom should consider the position of Liverpool, which, by the way, is Conservative in politics. The street railway and electric light committee of the city council has been enabled to devote no less than $488,000 in relief of rates out of the profits of these departments. That amount is equal to sixpence halfpenny in the pound, according to the British system of rating. This is the first time the committee has handed over one-half of the profits for the purpose of rate relief. So rapid has been the expansion of the street railway and power undertakings during the fifteen years of city council operation that before the expiry of the prescribed time authority had to be obtained to allot one-third of the profits for rate relief. The most sanguine predictions made at the date of their inception have been more than realized. Liverpool's experience is however, paralleled by that of other great cities, while the people have greatly benefited by cheap and efficient service in addition to a considerable cut in their tax bills.

EDITOR DECLINES TO GIVE NAMES

Even Prospect of Being Imprisoned in Tower Fails to Shake Him.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(Can. Press).—L. J. Maxse, editor of The National Review, is to be brought before the bar of the house of commons for refusing to divulge to the committee investigating the government wireless agreement the names of those individuals who had furnished him the reports on which he had based his allegations of improper conduct against members of the British cabinet. The chairman of the committee warned Mr. Maxse that the committee must have the names and the documents brought into question. Otherwise the matter would be reported to the house of commons. The editor staunchly declined to reveal the identity of his informants. Confinement in the clock tower of the house of commons is the usual fate of offenders in such cases.

FIREMAN KILLED IN WRECK IN MANITOBA

WINNIPEG, Feb. 12.—(Can. Press).—A fatal wreck occurred this morning at Poplar Point, Man., when Charles W. Brazel, aged 25, fireman of the Moose Jaw local, was killed and Thomas L. Morgan, engineer of an eastbound freight, had his leg broken. The freight train was crossing from one track to another and did not get clear in time before the Moose Jaw local came along and collided head-on. The passenger engine was derailed and the freight train locomotive was turned over. Outside of a severe shaking up none of the passengers on the local was injured.

The Meteoric Display of Sunday Evening

To the Editor of The World: The undersigned would consider it a great favor to receive information regarding the meteoric display of Sunday evening. Reports from those living some distance from Toronto would be especially valuable, particularly in regard to the position in the sky in which the meteors were seen—that is, whether apparently overhead or to the east, the west, or any other direction; and if not overhead, how high above the horizon they were. Kindly give as definite information as possible regarding the following: Time of occurrence, position in the sky, direction of the motion, how many seen in all, how many at once, how long while phenomenon lasted, if any sound was heard; if so, at what time it was heard and what it was like; if bodies were broken up; if bodies had tails and how long they were; how long any body was in sight. Very truly yours, A. Chant, University of Toronto, Toronto, Feb. 11.

CONTROLLERS NOW ARE RESPONSIBLE

New System Adopted, With Church and Foster Dissenting Strongly.

THREATEN TO RESIGN

Question Will Cause Another Big Debate When Council Meets.

The majority of the board of control are against bowing to the will of the majority of council in regard to giving specific responsibility for some departments to each individual controller and the mayor. Controller O'Neill voted for it, altho protesting that the new system was brought into effect yesterday. "We have the heads of departments and there is no need for us to supervise," declared Controller Foster. "I want to be free to criticize the department at all times. Such a move would prevent me from doing my duty as I would like to."

"I'm sorry to hear that," interjected the mayor. "I doubt council's jurisdiction to compel us to do this," said Controller Church. "There is nothing in the Board of Control Act to force this upon us. I will neither assume nor take charge under this resolution."

The Departments. Under the new system it is proposed to make Controller Church minister of assessment and finance. Controller Foster will devote his attention to the works department. Controller O'Neill to architecture, fire and property. Controller McCarthy will look after health and parks. Mayor Hocken will be in charge of the legal department and the city clerk.

THOS. LEITCH DEAD HAD NO FRIENDS

Sent to Jail as a Vagrant, He Passed Away on Tuesday.

Thos. Leitch, a man who as far as is known was without friends here, died in the Toronto General Hospital yesterday. He had been taken there from the Toronto jail on Tuesday afternoon. Death was due to heart trouble.

On Jan. 31 Leitch had been committed to sixty days in jail in lieu of a $5 and costs fine, amounting to $3.25. The charge against him was that of vagrancy. He was about 45 years of age, and is said to have been a cigar-maker and to have been in jail on a previous occasion under the name of John McLaughlin.

Leitch was taken all the latter part of last week, and had been under the care of Dr. Parry, the jail physician. On Tuesday afternoon Dr. Chambers arranged to have him removed to the Toronto General Hospital, and he died there at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. His body was removed to the coroner's inquest room at 10 o'clock, and a verdict of death from natural causes was returned by the jury.

His body had been removed to the undertaker's parlors of Albert Ingram, East Queen street, and will be there for a day or so in the hope that someone who knew him will claim the body.

The Philosopher of Folly

By Sherwood Hart OLD PROBS. The Weather Man now heads the clan of wizards and astrologers; he takes the prize for looking wise while telling huge sockdologers. We all rely (we know not why) upon his daily platitudes; in faith and hope we read his dope about our long-and-latitudes. Yet when we're told the frost will hold, in words which spell sternerly, and then it rains and floods our drains, we feel slighted asperity. Oft when the day looms dull and gray, and clouds hang wet and vapory, we have some doubt ere we start out as to our outdoor drapery. Then someone scans the Weather Man's beard, which states J. Pluvius will cut the sluice and let floods loose to drown out memory. Present to parliament a rubber roof the home folks forthwith bundle up; it starts to pour, and thru the door they have hard work to trundle us. As yet and damp to work we tramp, unbrellaed and rubberous, the sun breaks thru, and then we stow all day till nearly blubberous. We should present to parliament a plea that this nonentity we call Old Probs, should cease these jobs and tell us his identity; and if he makes the mistake or uses words ambiguous when he forecasts the storms and blasts for here and parts contiguous, we must insist that he's dismissed as a joking rank insanity by all his jokers on us poor blokes he menaces humanly.

Augustine Automatic Rotary Engine Co. v. De Sherburne.—W. J. Elliott, for plaintiff, moved for judgment under C.E. 603. J. T. White for defendant. Reservant. Canadian General Electric Co. v. Hydro Electric Supply Co.—H. Ferguson, for defendants, moved for order dismissing action for want of prosecution. G. F. McFarlan, for plaintiff. Order made dismissing action with costs.

Judges' Chambers. Before Middleton, J. Yolles v. Cohen.—A. Cohen, for defendant, moved to set aside an order made on 5th February, by master in chambers. J. P. MacGregor, for plaintiff. Judgment. Upon the argument it clearly appeared that the plaintiff's proceedings were very faulty. The defendant is not in a position to avail himself of the facts appearing, as his own practice is not above reproach. I therefore set aside the order without costs. This will be without prejudice to any application plaintiff may make for a similar order.

Murray v. Cormack.—W. D. McPherson, K.C., for defendant Steele, appealed from order of master in chambers, directing this defendant to attend and be further examined for discovery. H. Ferguson, for plaintiff. Judgment: Counsel seeks to interrogate Steele as to his agreements with the Mining Co., and his transactions with stock in that Co. This I think is irrelevant. Appeal allowed with costs to appellant in any event.

Rev. v. Lapham.—J. P. MacGregor, for defendant, moved for order for writ of habeas corpus directed to the Toronto Jail, and writ of certiorari directed to Police Magistrate Denison and to clerk of the peace, Toronto, to remove papers, etc., into the supreme court of Ontario. Order made.

Flat ex rel Fitzgerald v. Stapleford.—J. P. MacGregor, obtained a writ allowing Fitzgerald to serve notice of motion in nature of quo warranto on Stapleford, reeve of Watford, upon entering into proper recognition.

Niles v. G.T.R. Co.—E. G. Porter, K.C., and W. Carney (Belleville) for plaintiff. D. L. McCarthy, K.C., and J. P. Foster for defendants. Action by plaintiff to recover $2500 damages alleged to have been caused by defendants, causing water to flood from their lands on to plaintiffs' lands. Judgment: The evidence, not of one witness, but of a number, both as to the manner in which the defendants collected and discharged the water, and also to plaintiff sustaining substantial damage, is unimpeachable. The condition of which the plaintiff complains, and the damages are continuing. I am unable to see how defendants can escape liability. Taking all the facts into consideration estimate the damage sustained by plaintiff at $1250. Judgment in plaintiffs' favor for $1250, and for an injunction restraining defendants from permitting the water, other than surface water by natural flow, from their premises and works, to come upon and overflow plaintiffs' lands. Plaintiff is also entitled to costs of the action. Injunction not to be operative for four months, but this without prejudice to any proceedings by plaintiff for recovery of any damage he may in meantime suffer.

Appellate Division. Before Meredith, C.J.O.; MacLaren, J.A.; Magee, J.A.; Hodgins, J.A. Kelly, J. Rex v. Gibson.—A. Bond for defendant. J. R. Cartwright, K.C., for the crown. New Governor of Jamaica Appointed Brigadier-General Sir William H. Manning Succeeds Sir Sydney Oliver. Brigadier-General Sir William Henry Manning, Governor of the Nyassaland Protectorate, has been appointed Governor of Jamaica, in succession to Sir Sydney Oliver, the new permanent secretary to the board of agriculture and fisheries. Sir W. H. Manning commanded the Somaliland Field Force in 1902-3. Educated at Cambridge, and the R. M. C., he joined the Indian Army in 1888, and was wounded in the thick of the fighting in the Matabeleland campaigns, after which he received the brevet rank of lieutenant-colonel. He was also in the first of the "Mad-Mullah" wars, farther north; twice acted as commissioner and consul-general in the British Central Africa, where he raised and commanded the Central Africa Regiment; and then returned to Somaliland for the desert campaigns against the fierce tribesmen of that arid country. General Manning received his Nyassaland appointment two years ago, after having been temporary governor since 1907. He received the K. C. M. G. in 1904.

UNITED STATES READY TO LAND FORCES

Continued From Page 1. Retorts that to land troops in Mexico would be such an act of war as can be justified only by a resolution of Congress.

To meet the constitutional objection in case the transports were sent to Vera Cruz, it is understood that the commanding officers would be instructed not to land troops except upon congressional authorization.

Unless one side or the other achieves a decisive victory in the City of Mexico within the next day or two, it is probable that Ambassador Wilson will be instructed to try to induce the American residents of the capital to go to the ports, or other places of safety, and the representatives of other foreign nations are expected to do the same.

A wholesale evacuation of the city by the foreign element would involve the latter in serious losses, and looking to the precedents established in the civil war, it is doubted whether any compensation could be exacted from the government.

To add to the difficulty in keeping in close touch with the situation, word came to the state department late today from Consul Garrett, at Laredo, Tex., that all wires were down south of Monterrey, and that communication between Laredo and that point could be had only by way of Mier.

FEDERALS HELD BY ARTILLERY FIRE OF REBELS

Protest Made on Behalf of Foreign Residents Proves Futile, Diaz and Madero Each Blaming the Other For Situation—President, Still Unperturbed, Confident of Suppressing Outbreak.

In complying with its duty toward compelling you to keep the peace, but upon you will rest the responsibility in history and before the Mexican nation, if, by your anti-patriotic attitude you cause greater injury to the country.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 12.—(Can. Press).—Mexico's capital was torn asunder again today by shot and shell. It was not until 9 o'clock tonight that firing in all quarters ceased.

But tonight Madero was optimistic. Throughout the bombardment and the almost continuous rattle of machine guns and rifles, the president went about his work in the palace apparently unperturbed.

Over at the arsenal, Gen. Felix Diaz, who has been directed to protect the foreign residents, has been ordered to see that the foreign residents are protected.

Many Casualties. The number of dead and wounded cannot even be estimated, but it is large. For two hours during the forenoon the rebel gunners rained shot and shell at the city.

From early morning the sharp crack of rifles or the crash of cannon could be heard in some quarters of the city almost every minute of the day, sometimes close, sometimes far distant.

Interpretation of the Narrative Given With Fine Effect Before Filled House.

"The Tales of Hoffman," various stories of which, and usually the Olympia scene, have been made the subject of short sketches by the Montreal Opera Company last night at the Alexandra, and with a splendid effect, that further fortified the regard which Toronto has for these visitors.

By the transportation of the lighter and humorous acts with the tragic scenes, bringing the latter to the close of the performance, a very powerful and effective ending was secured.

Offenbach's opera is one that has a wide range of action, and the dramatic action is merely subservient to the singing. There are many vivid passages, and the music is of a high order.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—(Can. Press).—Colonel Roosevelt, at the Progressive Lincoln Day banquet tonight, returned to the subject of the decision of the Supreme Court of Idaho in the election cases, and again voiced the opinion that this decision constituted "an even graver offense against justice and decency, and an even greater blot on the American judiciary than the Dred Scott decision itself."

Colonel Roosevelt spoke to Progressives at their Lincoln Birthday banquet. The first political oration he has made in months, his address was permeated with passages from Lincoln's writings and speeches. In Lincoln's words, he espoused the cause of the Progressives, a party, likewise, Republican leaders to the "old, alive silk-stock Whiggery," which "opposed Lincoln before the civil war, and declared that the time had come for the people to act as the court of last resort. He said in part: "At this moment there has occurred an Idaho decision by the highest state court, which, within its own limits, is an even graver offense against justice and decency, and an even greater blot on the American judiciary, than the Dred Scott decision itself. The reactionary Supreme Court of Idaho has played into the hands of the Republican machine of which it was itself a part, precisely as Justice Taney and the majority of the supreme court of the nation in 1857 played into the hands of Presidents Pierce and Buchanan and the reactionary organization of which he and they were part. "In Idaho the result was as grave a miscarriage of justice as the election case had already occurred at the nominating convention, and the court became the most potent instrument of miscarriage of justice. This decision I hold to have been an outrage upon the people of Idaho, and not merely upon them, but upon the people of all the United States, for the change of scene, and the right of an American in any state to cast his vote and to have it counted for these presidents, is a direct and deliberate offense against the Americans of all the states.

Health and Beauty Aids

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

A. J. R.: You can have beautiful, long, glossy and fluffy hair of rich, even color if you shampoo carefully at least once every month with any wash that does not contain "free" alkali. Do not use soap. The best, most dependable and really delightful mixture is made by dissolving a teaspoonful of camphor in a cup of hot water. This is enough to cleanse both hair and scalp thoroughly of sand, dirt and excess oil and the hair dries quickly and evenly with a wonderful gloss and beautiful soft fluffiness.

Mrs. M.: Clogging skin with powder is likely to ruin the finest complexion, enlarge pores and produce pimples and blackheads. An economical, home-made spumax lotion is fine for complexion faults and frequently used instead of powder, as it is invisible when on and imparts a delightful, velvety smoothness and healthy hue to the skin. Get four ounces of spumax from your druggist and dissolve in a half-pint of hot water, to which add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. The spumax lotion prevents the skin from becoming oily and that lifeless look to the complexion.

Florence: Your gimpy skin and run-down feeling is doubtless due to impurities in the blood, which cause most skin eruptions. The best and most effective remedy is this home-made and very inexpensive one. Dissolve one ounce hard soap in a half-pint alcohol (white whiskey) then add a half-cup glycerine and enough water to make a quart. Take a tablespoonful before each meal and it will expel poisons from the system, clear the skin, and build up and strengthen entire body.

The Daily Hint From Paris

A HINT OF SPRING.

The new fashions seem to be small and simply trimmed. The straw hats are offered for southern wear. It is Dutch blue in color and is exactly matched by the feather band, which encircles it. A feature of black tulle-trimmed dresses is a contrast.

The draped hat is made entirely of white satin and shows a trimming arrangement which is used on many of the new models.

Fresh tea is all important. Ten weeks after being picked in the tea gardens of the island of Ceylon (the place tea producing country in the world) "Salada" reaches you. The flavor of tea consists in an essential oil, which deteriorates rapidly with age. In order to preserve the delicate flavor of "Salada" tea it is packed in sealed lead packets (never sold loose) which guarantee you a superior tea, in flavor, quality, purity and economy in use.

The Moving Picture Show

For some time I have considered discussing the moving picture show; not from a moral standpoint, dear, but I don't know enough about it, but from a physical or hygienic point of view.

I am not an enthusiastic fan of the "movie"; not that I do not enjoy it, for I do. I like the picture show, once in a while, as well as anybody, but I can't stand the ventilation. It is mean of me, isn't it, to make you think of it, but personally the idea of breathing air that all kinds of people have already re-breathed is distasteful. I suppose the same is true of any crowded auditorium; but my limited experience of the "movie" has led me to consider it very bad in this respect.

There is no doubt, however, that motion pictures have come to stay—in fact, they are only beginning an extensive career. They are used, and will be used more and more in educational work, and can be made a wonderful factor in the world's progress.

Probably you will be interested in knowing something of their effect on the eye. I read an interesting article on the subject only a few days ago. The normal eye, according to a leading oculist, is not equal to motion pictures, principally on account of the continual, quick movements. The eye following the pictures must keep in continuous motion, which is a heavy and dangerous muscular strain. Added to this, it is forced to the highest pitch, ready to keep pace with the rapidly moving figures on the screen. Then the light is constantly changing, which forces the pupil to make frequent readjustments.

There is one more cause of trouble. Imagine that someone is coming toward you from a distance. At first, you get him into focus, the eye muscles relax. The lenses flatten out and expand. Imagine the object coming toward you on a picture screen—say a man or horseback. As he gallops near, the eye elongates. Of course the man is really no closer. He is just being brought into focus on the screen. Your eye fails to understand. It desperately tries to get back into its proper focus and tries to stay there. Somehow it can't.

Other objects kept approaching from other distances. The eye automatically continues its attempts at readjustments. And in the end, these muscles, too, get disgusted and weary, completely refuse to function. There is a harmless headache, or, worse, a headache.

Then you have a headache, or when you go out on the street you see spots ahead of you, or perhaps your eyes run water. In any rate, any weakness in your eye is quickly discovered by the moving picture film. The stronger eye can stand a moderate amount, but the weak eye fails immediately.

I might continue this talk to include the effect on the childish mind. The stories told in picture form. Probably you have had personal experience in the matter under discussion. It depresses the comment the excitement and nervous strain, and in some cases the unhealthy effect of these pictures.

And, by the way, have you ever counted the baby carriages and go-carts under a moving picture show? Where to Buy Victrola Records.

GLASSWARE

BRILLIANT glassware enhances the plainest tables and makes the absence of heavy silver scarcely apparent. Beautiful glass candlesticks gleam as brightly as silver ones and there is a happy union of beauty and usefulness in these pleasing articles.

Table glass is not more durable than the dainty, thin ware. In fact, it will not withstand hot liquids so well, as it cannot so readily expand. A heavy cut glass punch bowl came to pieces at a dinner party a few nights ago, when hot muller cider was poured into it. Such accidents may be avoided if the cool ingredients are put in first and a silver ladle placed in the bowl before the hot liquids are added. The silver, being a good conductor of heat, will prevent the glass from expanding so rapidly.

All fragile ware will withstand heat if the simple precaution of placing a spoon in the dish, cup or glass is observed. New table ware shows glass dishes and plates for uses that glass has never been put to before.

There are salad bowls, plates, spoons and forks of this fragile ware that seem very appropriate for crisp green salads. They bear dainty fern-like tracery that harmonizes with the green garnishes.

The new individual salt and celery dips and vases now have separate linings of colored glass that may be changed to match the color scheme of the dinner. The mahogany framed glass trays are also lined with different colors for various affairs.

The mirror centerpiece, that is so popular for table decorating, is now accompanied by individual mirrors on which are placed the flower holders that mark each place.

They multiply the brightness of the flowers and their delicate colors. The life of these charming, table accessories may be prolonged by gentle handling.

The proper method of washing glass is to use warm water and borax in one pan and rinsing water of the same temperature in the second. Clean with a soft cloth and no soap, for soap makes glass cloudy and dull.

Glass must not drain after rinsing or it will show streaks; wash, rinse, dry quickly and polish at once. Soft linen, old silk, or tissue paper will make glass gleam brightly. If the articles to be cleaned are obstinate, let them soak until the dirt is loosened.

Salad bowls, oil cruets, milk glasses and pitchers are troublesome to care for as the oils have a tendency to dull their brilliancy. Wash these first in cold water softened with ammonia, then clean as usual.

Decanters and water bottles soon acquire a deposit of lime. This may be removed with lemon juice or vinegar.

Hot borax water and brisk brushing will brighten them inside and out. If the jug or bottle has an inward slope that cannot be reached by the long-handled glass brushes, tie a bit of cloth to a wire. You can bend this about so that every spot can be cleaned.

Some glass articles must never be washed. These include gas and lamp globes that are in direct contact with heat, and art glass door panels that are exposed to extremes of heat and cold. Whiting moistened with alcohol and mixed to a paste, rubbed on and brushed off when dry, will remove all grime and give a fine polish.

MOST CHARMING COLLECTION OF FINE, VARIED PICTURES

Women's Art Association Are to Be Congratulated on the Display Now on View in Their Jarvis Street Headquarters—A Combination of High Art and Pleasing Subjects.

In the loan exhibition just opened by the Women's Art Association in the new galleries, 594 Jarvis street, to be continued till the 22nd inst., there has been gathered one of the most charming collections of pictures that Toronto has seen. There are only 75, not too many for an afternoon's enjoyment, and the collection is so varied, and of such almost uniformly high merit, that association is to be congratulated on the taste and enterprise which has achieved such a result. Among 37 foreign painters, there are represented seven of Canadian birth or naturalization. These are Carl Ahrens, D. Fowler, J. A. Fraser, O. R. Jacobi, L. O'Brien, Paul Peel, and Homer Watson. The loan collection is from the homes of Miss C. Chaplin, R. Y. Ellis, P. W. G. Fitzgerald, G. P. Grant, W. D. Matthews, J. Mackenzie, W. Parkyn Murray, Frederick Mercer, J. H. Plummer, Lt.-Col. Seaton, E. S. Richards, E. H. Thord, Mrs. H. D. Warren, Frank P. Wood, and James Wood.

The alphabetic catalog, gives Carl Ahrens first place. He is represented by five canvases, lent by Mr. Mercer. They illustrate very forcibly and artistically a series of such a nature as to be of great interest to Europe and America. Of the five pictures, it is difficult to choose, but the "Landscape" (4) is one of his finest examples, with its gorgeous yet restrained color effects around the fire-bitten roots, while the great tree in the foreground rises majestically in the gloom against the effective neutral blue behind. "The Forest" (1) gives a vivid picture of the wilderness of the solar disk behind a tree trunk. The life and individual spirit in all Ahrens' trees is a remarkable feature of his work.

A. Fraser is represented by three pictures. "The Life and Individual Spirit" (6), very effective from a distance. An interesting example of Sam Bough's work shows "Edinburgh Castle" (8) and of even more interest is the John Constable (9), with its clear definition and frank manner. There is also a fine marine piece (10), by R. G. Cording, a fine landscape study, and C. Cottet's "The Sea," a very fine piece of work. In this corner of the gallery, a gloomy "The Dwelling" (7) is particularly good. A clever study in action is M. Fortun's "Study for the Rape" (5). John A. Fraser is represented by three pictures. "Meadow, Moor, and Mountains in Perthshire" (27) is a careful and faithful rendering; (28), "Mid Rumbling" shows a gloomy, dark stream impressively painted, and a fine and dramatic mountain effect is found in (29).

Whereas Richard River Meats (11) is a splendid study of a bull in the sun, a splendid study of a bull in the sun, a splendid study of a bull in the sun.

Another clever young Dutch artist is Gidding, whose lovely, "Canal and Mills" and "Meadow and Mills" (31 and 32), are for sale. A weird decorative effect full of Chinese spirit and atmosphere is Edward B. Hornell's "Spring" (33). It is of decorative intent, but very clever and not tedious. Jacobi is well represented by a landscape (37), and a fine example of Karl Klippenberg's (38), "Canal at the picture" is for sale. Of the folk picture genre, Kovacs' "The Lesson" (39), and Miss A. C. MacCormac's "The Book" (42), are excellent. The latter is a pleasantly lightened group of figures and grandchild. Arthur McVicar's "Past and Present," is the work of a Scotsman who died young, and who evidently had great things in him. "A Prophet Taking His Ease" would be a better description of this boldly sketched but perfectly composed figure with the depth and glow of white marble around him as strikingly painted as Alma Tadema might have done it.

William Noble represents a highly successful "Landscape" (43). The late P.R.C.A. Luens O'Brien is finely represented by "Old Houses, Quebec" (46), which has a certain glow from Devon; the atmosphere, however, is cold and Quebec. A brilliant bit of characterization is Tommy O'Brien's "Interior" (45), with its unobtrusive but perfect coloring. A typical George Poggenbeck is the landscape (46), with its cattle and grass green field and the tree-thrown shadows. Paul Peel's "Figure" (47), is a charming young man reading a teacup. An excellent ecclesiastical interior with font, pulpit and window is Margaret Rayner's "The Chapel, Haddon Hall" (48). An interesting group of animal studies by J. M. Swan, R.A., lions, tigers, etc., are hung on the stair's study. One of the finest sheep pieces in the country is William Stearn's "Shepherd and Sheep" (61), and "Sheep" (62), is an excellent companion. A very lovely piece of work, and perhaps the most charming in the collection is "Zoelettel Tromp's" "Food for the Goat" (64). Tromp is one of the best known of the younger Netherlands, and he is son-in-law of B. J. Blommestein. Leslie Thompson's is a notable study with sky lowering and himbus effect in "Isle of Fidis" (65). A wonderful drawing of a cow and sheep is Verweckhoven's "Sheep" (66). Homer Watson is represented by two canvases in his later manner, of which "The Storm" (68), is perhaps, the more preferable. The rich and gorgeous coloring of F. Wasley's "Ancient Roman" (69), with its Turnersque suggestions will attract attention. Cornelis Westra's "Meadow, Moor, and Mountains in Perthshire" (27) is a careful and faithful rendering; (28), "Mid Rumbling" shows a gloomy, dark stream impressively painted, and a fine and dramatic mountain effect is found in (29).

February Sufferers

How would you like to go without socks and underwear this bitter weather? How would you like to face the icy blasts of winter without an overcoat, with but a ragged shirt, no vest, a scanty coat and cozy boots? Many have to, and Yonge Street Mission, the home of the homeless, the friend of the friendless, and the provider of the penniless, well knows it. February, in these experiences, sees more poor who children, destitute women and men in dire distress than any other month of the year. The poorest of the poor come to their doors, and they distribute without charge to them any clothing which may be donated. Have them send for it by phoning Main 3546, or a card to 351 Yonge street.

TELEGRAPH ISN'T PAYING BUSINESS

Many Offices Earn Only Five Dollars a Year, Statement Made.

NO ACTUAL SURPLUSES Old Indebtedness to Parent Company Swallows Profits of G. N. W.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—(Can. Press.)—That a considerable number of the 1000 odd Great Northwestern Telegraph offices in Canada earned gross receipts of only $5 a year was the statement made by the general manager of that company at this afternoon session of the telegraph enquiry before the railway commission. A general impression of extreme poverty with hints of vanishing business and non-existent surpluses was, in fact, conveyed. Chairman Drayton, however, asked George D. Perry, general manager, why with a $7,000 surplus in 1911 the G.N.W. had not declared a dividend and was informed that it was because of an old debt of $475,000 of the Western Union Telegraph of the United States, which has taken over bonds of the former Montreal Telegraph Co., acquired by the G.N.W.

CARE IS ADVISED BY ALD. ROBBINS

Should Go Slowly in Acquiring Right of Way, He Says.

The special transportation committee met for the first time at the city hall yesterday afternoon to decide upon a policy for the future needs of the city. Ald. Wickert was elected permanent chairman, and immediately decided that the meetings should be in the interests of the city, be more private and that recommendations in conjunction with the board of control will be made to council from time to time. A trip over the Home Smith property was made during the afternoon. Ald. Robbins advised the committee to exercise care when entertaining the proposition of taking over the railway right of way, according to Home Smith's scheme. "You will have to see that the city is not assessed for certain liabilities not met by Mr. Smith," said he. "Another thing, a three-minute service would not pay."

WE CHALLENGE YOU

It has been said that the people of Toronto are over-cautious when a great artist visits them. They are accustomed to wait until millions of dollars have been spent in advertising, and the artist has been many years in the making. Then they willingly pay two or three dollars a seat to see a famous actor or actress. A voice which has lost most of the power which made it its own famous. If not, we challenge you to hear Leo SLEZAK

Baths and Fittings at Isolation Hospital Were Too Expensive.

Ald. May is not satisfied with the material used in the alterations to the south wing of the Isolation Hospital, and stated so at the health board's meeting yesterday. He also objected to paying 7 per cent. to the architects for supervision. "It cost the city $4600 for the installation of nine baths and eleven fittings, when I only paid $200 for 31 baths and the necessary equipment," said he. "Another thing, the stairs, located as they are now, are veritable firetraps. The board will look into it."

Estimates have been received for the erection of a new laundry costing $4475, exclusive of the cost of water supply and electric service for laundry motors. This recommendation by the medical health officer was held back for the purpose of taking into consideration the proposed construction of a two storey power house, the second floor to be utilized for laundry space.

Messrs. Williams and Cole submitted a scheme for the generation of its own light, heat and power by the hospital, stating that it would entail an approximate saving of fifty per cent. of the present cost. This will be considered.

Repairing the Station. The hallways and principal offices on the five floors of the Toronto Union Station are now undergoing the process of redecoration and painting. Officials point out that it will be two years at least, even if a start on construction is made this spring, before the new Toronto Union Station will be ready for occupancy.

"Another thing, the stairs, located as they are now, are veritable firetraps. The board will look into it."

Estimates have been received for the erection of a new laundry costing $4475, exclusive of the cost of water supply and electric service for laundry motors. This recommendation by the medical health officer was held back for the purpose of taking into consideration the proposed construction of a two storey power house, the second floor to be utilized for laundry space.

Messrs. Williams and Cole submitted a scheme for the generation of its own light, heat and power by the hospital, stating that it would entail an approximate saving of fifty per cent. of the present cost. This will be considered.

Repairing the Station. The hallways and principal offices on the five floors of the Toronto Union Station are now undergoing the process of redecoration and painting. Officials point out that it will be two years at least, even if a start on construction is made this spring, before the new Toronto Union Station will be ready for occupancy.

HELD FOR SHOPLIFTING

Nurses Had Collection of Valuable Dresses in Trunk.

Silk dresses and dancing slippers were apparently too great a temptation for Vera Kehoe, a young Irish girl. She was arrested in the Robert Simpson Co. store on a charge of shoplifting yesterday by Detective Tip-

Two silk dresses and two pair of slippers were found on her when arrested and a search of her room

SINKING STEAMER BROUGHT TO SHORE

U. S. Revenue Cutter, Receiving Wireless Message, Went to Freighter's Aid.

SOUTHPORT, N. C., Feb. 12.—(Can. Press.)—The steamship Lassale sent signals of distress from a point 25 miles south of Bryling Pan Lighthouse today, reporting she was in sinking condition and was beached six hours later at Fort Caswell, by the U. S. revenue cutter Seminole, Capt. G. L. Gardner, which went to her assistance from Wilmington, N. C. When the Seminole received the wireless call for aid she was in the boilers making repairs. Under steam in only one boiler, the cutter set forth to the rescue. Arriving alongside the Lassale she found the steamship with 14 feet of water in the hold and making inches of water an hour. The Lassale was trying to make the mouth of the Cape Fear River. The Seminole has a hauler to her and will try to make a tow with her. She is expected to be on the water as soon as the water has been pumped out. The Marine Register contains no record of a steamer named Lassale. The disabled vessel is assumed to be the Lassale, an American freighter, which sailed from Brunswick, Ga., Feb. 10, for New York, carrying a crew of 23 men.

No Finance Committee

There will be no special finance committee appointed to look into the feasibility of increasing the civic revenues by fifty per cent., as proposed by a member of the treasury board yesterday afternoon.

"The treasury board has no power to do this," declared Chairman Dunn. "Let us leave it to the board of control or council."

PLAYED VIOLIN AND WENT INSANE

Miss Lambert Remanded For an Examination by Jail Physicians.

While playing the Kreutzer Sonata on a violin in an east end residence on Tuesday night a young woman, known as Miss Lambert, became violently insane. She scratched the strings of the violin during the night and kept the whole family awake. When her condition was not improving yesterday morning the police were summoned, with the result that Miss Lambert appeared in the police court. While standing in the dock the young woman repeatedly cried "She's my mother, she's my mother!" The magistrate remanded her to jail for medical examination.

FOREIGNER ARRESTED.

Held in St. John's, Quebec, For Theft in Toronto.

The memory of the law was long in the case of Frank Melosky, a Pole, and yesterday he was arrested in St. John, Quebec, for a crime he is alleged to have committed in Toronto in November, 1911. He became acquainted with a fellow countryman on board ship, and the two roomed together in Toronto. The contents of the trunk included some valuable jewelry. The police here got word this week that Melosky was in the Province of Quebec and the result of enquiries sent out only Tuesday night was his arrest in St. John's yesterday. Detective Mitchell left last night to bring him back.

The Source of Many Ills

So many of the pains and aches we suffer, and so much of the serious disease, is directly traceable to constipation of the bowels and sluggish action of the liver and kidneys that most people realize the danger of neglecting these conditions.

The question is what treatment to use, and this is where Dr. Luttrell leaves no doubt on this score. He has personally proven the effectiveness of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in cleansing the system and invigorating these filtering and excretory organs.

Mr. Alex. Luttrell, 142 Bridge Street, London, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for many years, and have always found them satisfactory as a cure for constipation and the management of the liver and kidneys. They do their work in a quiet way every time—no griping—no sickness, but most beneficial results. We've a family here; Dr. Chase's Ointment is our family for a long time, and so long as we can get these medicines shall not use others."

IMMIGRATION IS STEADILY GAINING

Continental Europe Sends Nearly Hundred Thousand People in Ten Months.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—(Can. Press.)—During the ten months April 1 to February 1 of the current fiscal year, 344,983 immigrants arrived in Canada, made up of 130,699 British, 118,826 from the United States, and 95,468 from all other countries combined.

The figures for the corresponding months of last fiscal year are: British 121,661; from the United States 111,706; from all other countries combined, 67,333; giving a total for the ten months, April 1 to February 1 of the fiscal year 1912-13, of 300,700. Percentages of increase are: British 7 per cent., American 6 per cent., others 42 per cent.

WENT FOR COAT, WAS ARRESTED

Stanley McArdell Charged With Stealing Money From Room-Mate.

To return to the place where only a few hours previously he is alleged to have stolen a sum of money, was the action of Stanley McArdell, a Whittby Ont., when he was charged with the theft of a sum of money from his room-mate. The fact that he was returned by the influence of liquor when he was returned is perhaps the only explanation.

McArdell met Fred Eastham in the Hotel Vendome on Tuesday night, and on McArdell assuring Eastham that he was Tom Flint of his own town, the two became quite friendly and took a room together at the hotel.

When Eastham awoke yesterday morning he felt in his sock for $45 which he had placed in it for safe keeping. The $45 was not to be found, however, and neither was "Tom."

Last night McArdell returned to the hotel to get an overcoat which he said he had forgotten to take with him that morning, and his arrest was effected by Detectives Armstrong and Miller.

After the Toronto authorities get thru with McArdell he will face three charges of aggravated assault which he is charged with having committed in the Town of Whittby in 1910.

MONTREAL TUNNEL

C. N. R. Expects to Have it Finished This Year.

Officials of the Canadian Northern Railway now expect to see the completion of the Montreal tunnel before the close of this year. The tunnel is now more than a third of the way thru and the work is being rushed with a small army of men, divided into gangs, and the temporary shortage of labor last fall, owing to the immigration to the western frontier fields, and the foreign labor leaving for the seat of war, is now over and plenty of men have been secured to carry on the work.

TEMPERANCE VOTE IS CONTEMPLATED

Toronto "Drys" May Endeavor to Launch a Municipal Campaign.

Some of the Toronto drys who attempted to launch a municipal temperance campaign here a year ago, are talking of securing a vote next January. The matter will be dealt with at the approaching annual meeting of the Toronto branch of the Ontario Alliance.

In Toronto, to evade the three-fifths majority requirement, the vote would have to be under the Canadian Temperance Act, which requires a petition of its submission signed by one-fourth of the resident electors.

TRENTON WILL GET CREOSOTING PLANT

The Canadian Creosoting Co., whose capital is held by two American companies, together with a few Canadian shareholders, have bought thirty-eight acres of land in Trenton, between the C.P.R. and C.N.R. tracks, and will erect a quarter million dollar plant there.

The town council passed two resolutions of a bylaw tonight, granting the company a fixed taxation and there is little doubt that this will be carried by the people.

The plant will start with 100 men, and eventually the number of employees will exceed 600.

Trade a Little More Active—Hogs and Lambs Go Higher.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yard were 48 cars, 782 cattle, 127 sheep and 177 hogs, a little more active owing to the light deliveries and prices were about steady with those paid on Tuesday.

The supplies of hogs, lambs, sheep and calves were very firm. Hog quotations, selected fed and watered, were $12.25 per cwt. in two or three instances.

CATTLE HELD FIRM IN MONTREAL YARDS

Small Supplies Came Forward Owing to Colder Weather—Hogs at Another Advance.

MONTREAL, Feb. 12.—At the Canadian Pacific live stock market, the receipts of live stock for the week ended Feb. 9 were 500 cattle, 160 sheep and lambs, 240 hogs and 400 calves. The offerings on the market this morning for sale consisted of 750 cattle, 700 sheep and lambs, 1800 hogs and 800 calves.

Canadian Markets Inclined to Weakness--Brazilian at 97

ADVERSE FACTORS MORE ALARMING

Mexican Revolt, Balkan Crisis and Money Stringency Three Bugbears of the Market.

PRICES ON DOWN-GRADE

Further Reaction in Toronto Stock Exchange Led by Brazilian.

The adverse factors in the financial situation have assumed more alarming proportions during the last few days and some apprehension has been occasioned among brokers thereby. The continued money tightness, and the probability of a further rise in the price of any material funds for speculative purposes until spring have removed much of the buoyancy which was just making itself felt. The crisis in Mexico and the uneasy feeling incident to the Balkan war, while the quite evident sign of new issues in London has also not been without its effect.

While traders in Toronto are paying but little attention to the situation across the border, it is not being lost sight of there. It is being held as a factor not the least important of those confronting our markets. The action of the New York list on Tuesday plainly evidenced the calibre of sentiment in that exchange, while the comparative ease with which the bears depressed prices was readily noted.

Narrow Speculation.
The holiday across the border yesterday was reflected, as usual, by very slow trading in the Toronto market. The trend to prices was toward lower levels and several declines of greater or less moment bore out the growing apprehension over the accumulating bearish factors. Brazilian was off to a new low record for the month at 97, down half a point for the day. General Electric sold at 112 1/2 for a broken lot, the lowest since December. Twin City at 105 1/2 stood at a new low for the month. Canada, Duluth Superior, Toronto Rails, Tooke and Tuckett were all lower, Mexican L. and P. changed hands at a new low. The rights duplicated their recent low record.

LONDON EXCHANGE TO ACT ON COMMISSIONS

Brokers Forced to Rescind Arbitrary Rules Enforced Last Year

The London Stock Exchange is to act next week upon several changes to its commission rules. Regulations were adopted last June, under which charges were made according to market value of stocks, and result was that dealings in high priced shares fell off to a minimum. It is now proposed to reduce commission to 1 1/2 per cent. on sales of stock from 5 to 15, instead of from 5 to 10; while 3d a share will be levied on those selling from 15 to 42, instead of 5d from 10 to 21, and 4 1/2d for those from 21 to 42. Rate of half commission on transactions over 42,000 will not be changed. Sale on bearer shares, other than American, will be raised to same level as registered shares.

STEADIER TONE IN MONTREAL MARKET

C. P. R. Showed Small Gain on Today's Trading--General Offerings Limited.

MONTREAL, Feb. 12.—Local stocks displayed a somewhat sterner tone today and the market inclined to dullness partly, no doubt, as a result of New York being closed. There was no attempt to bid up prices and the market as a whole was a quiet liquidating affair, in which prices were inclined to sag under limited offerings. C. P. R. was fairly steady in London at the lower prices sent over from the market during the week. In the afternoon there was an advance of 1-2 here and the close showed a net gain of about 1-2 on the day. The rights were active and firmer, closing at 151-2, the best of the day.

Montreal Power concurrently held steadier and after selling off 1-1-2 to 22 1/2 1-4 in the morning, recovered to 230 and remained unchanged at that level thru the rest of the day. Upward of 400 shares were absorbed at the 230 level, this contrasting with a break of about four points on sales of 250 shares on the previous day.

Cotton Stocks Dull.
The cotton stocks were dull and steady, Canadian Cottons common and preferred and Textile common closing just level with Tuesday's prices.

Ottawa Power, which broke 2 1-2 to 22 1/2 1-4 in the morning, recovered to 18 1/2, Shawinigan 1 point lower at 140, Richellen 1-1-4 lower at 114-1-4. Bell 1 down at 152 and Laurentide, which sold at 230 in a broken lot, five points below last sale on the market, were among stocks to show changes.

Total business 4181 shares, 3313 rights and $5000 bonds and debentures.

MADE BIG PROFITS IN REAL ESTATE

MONTREAL, Feb. 12.—The shareholders of the Pointe Claire Lands, Limited, held their annual meeting yesterday and adopted their financial statement, which showed about 40 per cent. net earnings. A dividend of 4 per cent. was declared after voting a substantial amount for reduction of mortgage.

BRITISH BANK IS BRANCHING OUT

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—A cable to the Bank of New York announces that the German Bank of London, Ltd., has taken over commercial firm of Donieton, Cross & Co., and will raise capital from £400,000 to £800,000. It is also proposed to change name of German Bank of London to London and Liverpool Bank of Commerce, Ltd.

RUN ON GERMAN BANKS NO TRIVIAL EVENT

Statistics compiled by the Association of German Savings Banks show that run on German savings banks in November, because of Balkan war scare, was most serious ever known in country, resulting in withdrawal of more than $17,000,000 from banks.

POOR PICKINGS FOR BROKERS IN WALL ST.

The dealings in stocks in the New York stock market since the beginning of the year amount to 10,000,000 shares in round numbers, compared with 14,000,000 shares in the corresponding period of 1912. An unduly large proportion of this season's 10,000,000 shares has been contributed by American Can. Leaving that issue out of consideration, the transactions since the beginning of the present year are only about two-thirds of what they were for the same period last year.
