Good Things Coming to Theatres of St. John

"FADDY O'HARA," GREAT PICTURE AT IMPERIAL

The Imperial's fourth Triangle production, "Faddy O'Hara," made a splendid impression yesterday. The star of the piece was William Desmond, one of the most popular leading men on the speaking stage and nowadays before the camera. It was Mr. Desmond's debut in St. John. The Irish hero in the picture is now showing in a London newspaper correspondent during a mid-European war and the manner in which he saves a princess in distress—all the time dispensing a rich wit and a broad humor—was thrillingly pleasing. The "Country Life" (Viagraph) pictures were sweet and dainty and the Keystone comedy, "The Circus Knight," an amusing trick picture and roving laugh. Tomorrow Antonio Moreno and Edith Story play the leads in a dashing Viagraph production "The Captain of the Gray Horse Troop." The third chapter of the new Bushman-Bayne serial will also be shown.

OPERA HOUSE ILLUSION ACT CAUSES WONDER

"How does he make that ball move through the air—up and down, sideways, anyway, without any visible means of support?" "What they all say when they see Jeannette La Faron and her smiling assistant at the Opera House this week in a novel illusion act. It certainly is mystifying and quite pleasing to watch a good programme of five high grade vaudeville acts. There is good singing, dancing, comedy, music and illusion, whistling, all combined to make a pleasing, refined entertainment. Every evening at 7.30 and 9—every afternoon at 2.30.

HOW TO SAVE IN BIG HOMES

Food Administration Adopts Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt's Plan as Model.

Washington, July 18.—The food-saving programme adopted by the home of Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, has been selected by the conservation section of the food administration as a model for other large households. Mrs. Roosevelt on her pledge card said that there were seven in the family, and that the servants were employed. Each servant has signed a pledge card, and there are daily conferences.

Mrs. Roosevelt does the buying, the cooks see that there is no food wasted, the laundress is sparing in her use of soap; each servant has a watchful eye for evidence of shortcomings in the others, and all are encouraged to make helpful suggestions in the use of "left-overs."

No bacon is used in the Roosevelt home; cornbread is served once a week. The consumption of laundry soap has been cut in half. Meat is served but once daily, and all "left-overs" are utilized. Menu rules allow two courses for luncheon and three for dinner. Everybody eats fish at least once a week.

"Making the ten servants help me do my saving has not only been possible, but highly profitable," said Mrs. Roosevelt today. "Since I have started following the home-card instructions prices have risen, but my bills are no larger."

GREED OF CHICKEN MEN HOLDS UP SALE OF POULTRY.

W. S. Moore, of an American firm dealing in poultry, said this week that he had accumulated 200,000 pounds of poultry in storage in Chicago. A huge stock, he said, was accumulated to take care of orders for the British government. The latter, he said, was unable to obtain refrigerating ships and turned back most of the order.

Holders are attempting to dispose of the load at from twenty-two to twenty-five cents, but are having a hard time of it because of the capacity of the retailers," said Mr. Moore. "Dealers are trying to get all the way from thirty-three to forty cents a pound, and one in my neighborhood asked me forty-one cents the other day."

A COURT FIGHT OVER COMMISSION

French Baron Oppenheim is Suing Austrian Court Fees

Baron Oppenheim is suing the Austrian court for fees. The details of the purchase of seven Austrian steamships interest at New York and other American ports and their delivery to the United States government for $6,775,000, the cost of the ships, were disclosed yesterday through the filing in the Supreme Court of a suit by Baron Robert Oppenheim of Paris against Count Rudolf Festetics, Austrian naval reserve officer, and now a naturalized citizen of the United States, living at 241 West Seventy-second street, New York.

PURCHASE OF VESSELS

The details of the purchase of seven Austrian steamships interest at New York and other American ports and their delivery to the United States government for $6,775,000, the cost of the ships, were disclosed yesterday through the filing in the Supreme Court of a suit by Baron Robert Oppenheim of Paris against Count Rudolf Festetics, Austrian naval reserve officer, and now a naturalized citizen of the United States, living at 241 West Seventy-second street, New York.

SEVEN AUSTRIAN STEAMSHIPS THAT WERE INTERED IN UNITED STATES PORTS—PURCHASED BY AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

Baron Oppenheim is suing the Austrian court for fees. The details of the purchase of seven Austrian steamships interest at New York and other American ports and their delivery to the United States government for $6,775,000, the cost of the ships, were disclosed yesterday through the filing in the Supreme Court of a suit by Baron Robert Oppenheim of Paris against Count Rudolf Festetics, Austrian naval reserve officer, and now a naturalized citizen of the United States, living at 241 West Seventy-second street, New York.

SHIP BROKER EXPLAINS TRANSACTIONS.

George A. Carden, ship broker, of 35 Broad street, who, with his partner, Anderson Herd, purchased the seven vessels from the Austro-American Steamship Company, told The Times yesterday that the Austrian court fees nor Baron Oppenheim had anything to do with the transaction that is being about his meeting with members of Phelps Bros. & Co., of 17 Battery Place, agents for the Austro-American Steamship Company.

AUSTRIANS LEFT THE COUNTRY

Oppenheim said in his petition that he wanted to question the Austrian court fees on the application by Festetics and Joseph Primitzer, president of the Transatlantic Trust Company, to vacate the order for their examination before trial obtained by Baron Oppenheim from Superior Court Justice Ford a few days ago. The commission was between this amount and the sum charged the government represents the financing of the Austrian court fees.

Baron Oppenheim, in telling of the transaction, said that in April he was negotiating for the sale of various steamships in behalf of clients and it came to his attention that the Austrian merchantmen interested in the United States were for sale. He said he associated himself with John C. Tomlinson, a lawyer, and Edward McViney, a former president of the Bethlehem Steel Company, and they entered into negotiations with Count Festetics as a result of which the ships were sold for $6,775,000, and all persons concerned in the sale were paid $150,000.

Oppenheim stated that on May 29 last George A. Carden paid $40,000 to the attorney for Festetics. He contends that he is entitled to $20,000 if Count Festetics deceived him as to the two Austrians interested in the transaction and in any event should get $12,500, but that Count Festetics refuses to give him anything.

Tells of Big Sacrifice.

From Mr. Carden the Times learned last night that he and his partner sacrificed a profit of $700,000 in order to give the ships to the government at cost. Within two days after the ships had been sold to the government, he and his partner sold them to the property of Carden & Herd, they sold them to a syndicate composed of B. F. Youkum, Percy H. Pryne, J. H. Carpenter, August Heckscher, and Robert Goetz at a profit of about $700,000, and two days later the syndicate had an order of $10,000,000 for the ships. The syndicate did not sell, believing the vessels to be worth more, and at about that

THE POLITICAL SITUATION

The interesting news comes from Ottawa that Dr. Michael Clark has been for some time under the wing of Hon. Robert Rogers, with whom he has had frequent conferences, and that it was decided some time ago not to invite him to the caucus of the Liberal party. Last May he declined to assist the Liberals in the Alberta elections, and it is said he had come to an agreement with the Conservatives to be opposed in his constituency in the next election. Dr. Clark may therefore be classed as a Conservative and a supporter of the Hon. Robert Rogers. Then there is Mr. Champagne of Saskatchewan, who has been classed as a Liberal. We are now Saskatchewan four years ago, and that at a nominating convention two years ago another candidate was chosen in his place. Moreover, he worked against the Liberal Martin government in the recent elections, and has been closely associated with Hon. Robert Rogers in regard to Saskatchewan politics.

The St. John Standard today alleges that Hon. Mr. Graham's amendment to the Borden resolution for an extension of the term of parliament was moved without the knowledge of many of the subscriptionist Liberals. The truth is that this amendment had been agreed to by every member of the Liberal party, and even Dr. Michael Clark, who voted against it, had previously endorsed the principle and wording of it. It is well to keep the record straight.

Sir Robert Borden announced yesterday that he would not proceed with the parliamentary extension bill. The elections will therefore take place within the next three months. The Standard's Ottawa correspondent informs its readers that Sir Robert is still hoping for a union government, and the other branch today takes the place of the knotted club of yesterday. The prime minister is in a very uncomfortable position. In trying to crowd Sir Wilfrid Laurier to the wall he has got himself into a situation so perilous that he is looking to Liberals for help to escape from the consequences of his own acts.

It is clear that the Liberals are united in support of the Graham amendment of the house the certainty that the elections are at hand will stimulate a new interest in the probable attitude of the party in regard to matters now under discussion. There will be a framing up of policies; a canvassing of prospects, and general preparation for the contest which cannot be long delayed, and which will undoubtedly be marked by appeals to prejudice and passion.

As the people of Canada are to go on living together after the elections, and after the war, this is a very good time for the average citizen to keep his mind clear and his prejudices well in hand.

THE STAMPS INCREASE

The Posters government has taken a bold step, and one that is justified by the situation, in that it has increased the stamp rates on crown lands. The rate will now be $3 to $4 per thousand, with the exception that where the postage haul is very long the rate may be reduced, but not in any case to go below $2.

The stampage rate on private lands in this province ranges from $3 to $4, and it is therefore higher in many cases than the new government rate. The crown lands are the great revenue producing asset of the province, and the great increase in the price of lumber since the old rate was established justifies an increase in the stampage rate. The new regulations also provide for a close distinction between what an operator cuts on crown land and on private land, and this will undoubtedly result in an increased revenue. The provision that the saw shall be used instead of the axe is one in the interest of conservation, and merely makes general what is already done in many cases.

The financial condition of the province when the new government came into power made it imperative to secure a much larger revenue. Legislation for that purpose was passed, affecting land, telephones and automobile licenses, but that was not sufficient, for the public services have been starved and the interest charges increased to such an extent in recent years that the financial situation became serious. The Posters government has faced that situation with courage, and the result of its action will be a greatly improved condition of the finances during its term of office. For many years past the game of politics has had far too much to do with the administration of the crown lands, and the adoption of a straightforward business policy should in the end commend itself to the lumber operators as well as to the people at large.

If it is found in actual practice that there is excessive hardship in any case, the government will doubtless be found ready to consider any representations made establishing the fact.

THE RIOT OF LUXURY

Of conditions in Canada, Mr. George Wilson, agent of the Union Bank of Canada in New York, in an article on Canada's financial and commercial relations with the United States, says: "For a few months immediately following the outbreak of war, the most drastic economy and retrenchment was practiced by all classes, and with the restoration of confidence and the placing of large war orders, the old habits of extravagance and wastage were again soon in evidence. Wages increased and money was plentiful everywhere. The purchasing power of the common people was larger than ever before and was exercised most prodigally, few seeming to realize that the universal prosperity was artificial and ephemeral and that with the cessation of hostilities the pinch would come. The United States is confronted with precisely the same conditions and too much stress cannot be laid upon the necessity for assiduously educating the people of both countries to cease wasting their substance in idleness and to lay treasure aside for the rainy day which is bound to come. The United States government has with commendable promptness set itself to the task of organizing and controlling the food and industrial output of the country, and is apparently determined to avoid the pitfalls of wastage, which have caused such unnecessary depletion in the resources of its Allies during the past three years. The mobilization of the housewives of the country on the principle that conservation begins at home is but one of the numerous examples of the efficiency organization which might be adopted in Canada to advantage."

A writer in a Montreal paper, dealing with the same question, says: "Professor Leacock in his recent attractive essay on 'Our Organization for the War,' contends that if our people were made to understand the need of it they would gladly undergo heavy taxation and would subscribe largely to low interest war loans. If not, writes Professor Leacock, it is the kind of nation we are, let us call our soldiers home from the western front. They are fighting under a misunderstanding. The homes that they are saving are not worth the sacrifice. We Canadians may as well admit that, apart from the loss of life and limb, the war is a waste of money, which after all has as yet affected but a small fraction of us, we are making but little real sacrifice and that we are living in at least as great ease and luxury as at any time in the past. Who is to blame? Has this lesson been brought before us with all its cogent force?"

The blame lies primarily at the door of a government which was more concerned with patronage and partisan advantage than with the great task of mobilizing the whole country for war.

Last week's submarine toll was only fourteen British ships over 1,600 tons. This was the same as in the previous week, while in the week of July 4 the number was fifteen. In the week of April 21 the number was forty.

The news that British armored cars are aiding the Russian detachments in Galicia, and that Belgian detachments are also there, illustrates how effectively the Allies are working together on all fronts.

The trouble in Petrograd is not serious. The great mass of the people are behind the army for a vigorous prosecution of the war.

The new German chancellor's speech in the Reichstag today is awaited with tense interest in Germany as well as in the rest of the world.

Increased activity on the Romanian front gives rise to the rumor that the re-organized Romanian army is ready to strike again.

The American troops will soon have their own section of the western front.

Catarrah Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrah deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrah Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. "FRUIT-A-LIVES" is the only medicine in the world that is made from the juices of fresh ripe fruits. Thus, it is manifestly unfair to say, "I won't take Fruit-a-lives because I have tried other remedies and they did me no good." On the other hand, the fact that "Fruit-a-lives" is entirely different from any other preparation in the world, is just why you should give it a fair trial in any trouble of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys or Skin. ### RULES OF HEALTH FOR DYSPEPTICS

DIETING UNNECESSARY

There are two ways by which people who suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, flatulence, etc., can overcome the trouble. First, as practically all cases of the above are directly or indirectly traceable to acidity and fermentation, they can eliminate from their diet all foods which ferment and form acid, such as all starches and sugar and foods containing them, thus prohibiting bread, potatoes, fruit and meat. About the only safe foods are gluten breads, spinach and small quantities of white meat of chicken or turkey. This diet is almost a starvation one, but it is sometimes quite effective. The second way, which appeals especially to those who like to eat hearty meals of good foods, is to eat whatever is reasonably digestible, neutralize the acid and stop fermentation by the use of a good antacid such as bisulphate of magnesia, a teaspoonful of which in a little water immediately stops eating or whenever pain is felt, instantly neutralizes the acid, stops the fermentation and permits the diet all foods which ferment and form acid. Owing to its simplicity, convenience and effectiveness this latter plan is now being adopted. Instead of the old-fashioned, expensive, weakening starvation process. In this connection it is interesting to note that since the widespread use of bisulphate of magnesia was established, many druggists have arranged to supply it in 5 gr. tablets 2 or 3 of which are equivalent to a teaspoonful of the powder form and are much more convenient to carry.

KEEP THE POTATOES GREEN AND GROWING

(Experimental Farms Note.) Many are growing potatoes in Canada this year, for the first time and, as a result of the greatly increased number of growers the crop will probably be greatly increased. But to insure a good crop there must be an abundance of moisture in the soil and the tops must be protected from insects and disease.

The soil should be kept cultivated with the cultivator or hoe until the tops are sufficiently to shade the ground. As most of the tubers develop in the three or four inches of soil nearest the surface, and as the tubers will not develop well in dry soil, quite shallow cultivation is desirable at this season of the year. In soil which is dry there may be good development of tops but there will be few tubers. The roots in such cases have gone down deep into the soil to obtain moisture but the tubers bearing stems, which are quite different from the root system, do not develop well. Where the soil is a loose, sandy loam, hilling is not necessary and may be injurious, as the soil dries out more than if left on the level. In heavy soils it is desirable to hill the potatoes as it will loosen the soil and the tubers will be likely to do their work without pain or hindrance. When there is sufficient rainfall and moisture in the soil hilling is likely to give best results in all kinds of soil as the soil will be looser and the tubers can push through it readily. As a great development of tubers takes place during the cooler and usually moister weather of the latter part of summer, it is very important to keep the plants growing well until then. In one experiment it was shown that during the month of September there was an increase of 119 bushels of potatoes per acre.

Protection of Potato Tops from Insects. It is very important to prevent the tops of potatoes from being eaten by insects, particularly by the Colorado Potato Beetle. The Colorado Beetle does not do much harm to the foliage, as a rule, and usually the plants are not sprayed to destroy these, although the fewer there are to lay eggs the less difficulty there will be in destroying the young ones. These begin to eat rapidly soon after hatching, and close watch should be kept so that the vines may be sprayed before much harm is done. Paris green kills more rapidly than arsenate of lead but does not adhere so well, and in rainy weather it is desirable to have something that will stay on the leaves so that they will be protected until it stops raining and thus prevent the tops being eaten. At the Central Experimental Farm a mixture of Paris green and arsenate of lead is used in the proportion of eight ounces Paris green, 1-1/2 pounds paste arsenate of lead (or twelve ounces dry arsenate of lead) to forty gallons of water in order to get the advantage of both poisons. It may be that it is not convenient to get both poisons when either twelve ounces of Paris green or three pounds paste arsenate of lead, or in smaller quantities, say one ounce Paris green to three gallons or 8-1/2 ounces paste arsenate of lead to three gallons of water. An experiment conducted for six years at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, showed that, on the average, where the tops were sprayed to kill "bugs," the yield was 188.9 bushels per acre, while when the tops were not sprayed and allowed to be eaten, the yield was only 98.3 bushels per acre. It is desirable not to stop when one spraying which usually does not kill all the bugs but to spray repeatedly, if necessary, so that as little foliage as possible is eaten. Protection of the Potato Plants from Late Blight and Rot. In some years the crop of potatoes is much lessened by the late blight disease and when it follows little of the crop may be left. It is, therefore, very desirable to prevent this disease from spreading. This is done by keeping the plants covered with Bordeaux mixture from about the first week of July, or before there is any sign of the disease, until September. Sometimes the first application of Bordeaux mixture is made before the potato beetles are all killed when the plants for them may be covered with the Bordeaux. While the disease is not very bad every year it is well to be prepared. There was an average increase per acre of 94 bushels of potatoes from spraying with Bordeaux mixture in three years.

The formula for Bordeaux mixture for potatoes is 6 pounds copper sulphate or bluestone, 4 pounds fresh slacked lime to 40 gallons of water. While the bluestone will dissolve more quickly in hot water if it is not convenient to get this, it may be suspended overnight in a cotton bag in a wooden or earthen vessel containing four or five or more gallons of water. The lime should be slacked in another vessel and before mixing with the copper sulphate solution should be strained through coarse sacking or a fine sieve. The copper sulphate solution when put into the barrel, if it has not already been dissolved in one, and enough water added to half fill the barrel, the slacked lime should be diluted in another barrel with enough water to make half a barrel of the lime mixture. Now pour the diluted lime mixture into the diluted copper sulphate solution and stir thoroughly, when it is ready for use. The concentrated lime mixture should not be mixed with the concentrated copper sulphate solution, as if this is done, an inferior mixture will result. If the barrels are kept covered so that there is no evaporation, stock solutions of the concentrated materials may be kept in separate barrels throughout the season. It is important to have the quantities of lime and copper sulphate as recommended, but, in order to be sure that enough lime has been used and there is no danger of burning the foliage, let a drop of ferrocyanide of potassium solution (which can be obtained from a druggist) fall into the mixture when ready. If the latter turns reddish-brown, add more lime mixture until no change of color takes place.

U. S. TROOPS TAKE OVER FRENCH RAILWAY LINE

Paris, July 18.—Official announcement is made that the U. S. transport service is taking control of the French railway lines from the port bases to the permanent camp and the front. Trains are being laid and sidings enlarged. The roads will be manned later by engineering regiments. American locomotives, mostly narrow gauge, will be utilized. A section of the French state forests has been turned over to the United States. Lumbermen will take out lumber for railroad ties, barbed wire and other purposes. In addition to this 80,000 tons of lumber will be imported from America monthly.

Recruits Are Still Scarcer

Last Fortnight Shows Another Decline in Total—News of the Soldiers

Ottawa, July 18—Total enlistments for the first two weeks of July were 2,166, as compared with 3,036 for the last half of June. The shadow of conscription which stimulated recruiting to some extent during the latter part of May and early in June is apparently not having the same influence now. It may be noted, however, that the insistent call for farm labor and the fact that there has been no special effort made to stimulate voluntary recruiting since the conscription policy was announced, explain to some extent at least the falling off in recruiting this month.

A considerable proportion of the new recruits now coming in may be credited to the drafts of men who have been enlisted for the Canadian colors in the United States.

Toronto military district headed the list for the past fortnight with 886 men. The London district recruited 160 men; Kingston district 144; Montreal district 229; Quebec district 18; maritime provinces 219; Manitoba 228; Saskatchewan 226; Alberta 37, and British Columbia 226.

Mr. and Mrs. James O. Sentell of Salisbury were advised yesterday by Ottawa that their son, Private Victor Sentell, had died of wounds. Private Sentell was turned down when the battalion to which he belonged was about to sail for overseas. He learned that one of the members of the unit had deserted, as Private Sentell took this fellow's name and by that means got to England.

Mrs. Charles Whalen, 24 Chapel street, West St. John, received word yesterday that her son, Private Frederick Whalen, was killed in action between September 15 and 17, 1916. Private Whalen was previously reported missing. Previous to enlisting he served twelve years in the Partington Pulp mill as a machinist.

Mrs. Harry White, 18 Orange street, was advised yesterday that her husband, Private Harry White, had been killed in action. He is survived by his wife and two children.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Janet McLean of Rexton died yesterday at her home. She was eighty-four years old. The death of Mrs. Christina Macdonald of Silliker, occurred at her home on Sunday. She was ninety-one years old.

The golfer tumbled from his bed and viewed the rain clouds overhead. "See, white," said he, "a gloomy day And I shall get no chance to play! There is no need to hurry down Into the worries of the town, I've got no real excuse to shirk, On days like this I'll stick to work."

"I'll do the things that I've put off For weeks to get my game of golf; I'll answer letters long delayed, And see that all my bills are paid, I'll clear the desk of everything That I've neglected all this spring, And there's one task that I must do, I'll go and have my hair cut, too. Different "He used to say he loved the ground she walked on."

POLICE COURT CASES

In the police court yesterday afternoon Mary Waters was sent to the Good Shepherd Home for nine months. She was arrested on the charge of vagrancy. Some evidence was taken in the cases of John Hayes and Edward Baker charged with supplying liquor. Both were remanded. Leah Johnson, a nineteen-year-old Fredericton girl, charged with vagrancy and later with the theft of a suit valued at $15, the property of Miss Ingleton was also examined.

"The Decemter," Hall Caine's great story, Gem, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, nine reels, 3,500 people in cast. A picture wonder.

A SUPER PASSPORT

Passports, these days, are more precious than gold and infinitely harder to acquire from a reluctant government. But there are passports and passports—those signed in ink with red sealing wax, which are good so far as they go, and other kinds such as little metal disks carried on watch chains and bearing the family crest of the owner. Of course this kind cannot take its owner into a port of entry, but it may be more potent once that barrier is passed. It is by the magic of this Alladin's seal that Levon H. Harpootian hopes to rescue his wife and three children, bringing them out of Turkey to America. An Armenian by birth, Mr. Harpootian has been an American citizen for many years, in business in New York. This he is giving up to sail in an attempt to rescue his family, caught in Turkey, from whom he has had no direct word for many months. He is also commissioned to gather as many as possible of his relatives, near and distant, whom he may find there, and he hopes there may be many. According to the last word received his people are in Harpoot, well, and under the protection of the American consul. But to come back to the seal which is to accomplish this. It is a tiny little engraved circle, this emblem of the family's influence in that part of the country—curiously wrought in silver and made to fold inconspicuously into its innocent looking case. For many generations the Harpootians have been influential and well liked in the city of Harpoot and its environs, holding a large amount of property there. Particularly with the Koordish chiefs who rule the mountain districts they have been on friendly terms, often rendering them important favors. Counting on the deep gratitude of these mountain neighbors Mr. Harpootian plans to enlist them in his cause. He will travel through Russia, down to Erzinjan and from there send messages bearing the impress of the precious seal to the Koordish chiefs. With their help and the convoy they can and will furnish, the Harpootians caught in Turkish cities will be able to escape to Erzinjan. From there they will all return to America by way of Russia, and chief among their possessions will be—one seal, king of passports!

Increase In Stumpage Rates

To Secure Adequate Revenue From Crown Lands

The Axe Is Barred

Saw Must Be Used in Felling Timber and Trimming—New Regulation Aimed at Speculators

Fredrieston, July 18.—The vital question of increased revenues for New Brunswick, more money to carry on the important public services of the country, engaged the attention of the government at its last meeting and one result was a marked increase in the stumpage rates that will go into effect after August 1. The stumpage upon spruce has been one dollar and fifty cents per thousand for some years—ever since the famous order-in-council passed by the Fleming government in 1914 guaranteeing that rate for ten years. That order-in-council cost the lumbermen fifteen dollars per square mile over and above what bonus was paid the province. But that is an old story. The order-in-council was rescinded and some at least of the "campaign fund" has been paid back to the lumbermen.

The price of lumber has increased very rapidly since that time. The stumpage rate upon private lands has more than doubled in many cases. That large corporation the New Brunswick Railway Company, which holds more than 1,000,000 acres of what was originally crown land has increased its stumpage total far beyond what the minister of lands and mines proposes to ask for lumber on the crown lands.

On all crown lands tributary to the River St. John and the Bay of Fundy the rate of stumpage will be four dollars per thousand superficial feet, whether the lumber is spruce, fir, pine or hickory. The rate on other crown lands will be three dollars per thousand, except in cases where the province exceeds forty miles, when a reduction may be made by the minister; but in no case is the reduction to bring the rate lower than two dollars.

Classifying Retail Stores

Housewives' League Will Issue Cards to Those Which Merit Their Approval; To Deal With Short Weight Cases

At the monthly meeting of the Housewives' League, held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the King's Daughters Guild, the president, Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor was in the chair. There was a very large attendance of the members and forty-nine new members were added to the roll. Important reports were submitted by Mrs. W. E. Raymond, Mrs. A. W. Adams and Mrs. Silas Alward. Members of the vigilance committee have been making inspections of retail shops throughout the city. They reported finding several stores far below the proper standard, but in every case promises of reform were given. When the inspection is complete window cards reading "Approved by the Housewives' League," will be awarded to those dealers whose methods meet the approval of this body.

The president reported that preparations for a food demonstration have been completed and that the demonstrations will be held in the McClary building, where rooms and a gas range will be at their disposal. The first demonstration will be by Mrs. Richard J. Hooper, and it is expected that the domestic science teachers will later co-operate in this work.

An address was given by Mrs. Silas Alward on Food Conservation, with particular emphasis on over-eating and lack of intelligent menus. He outlined a series of meatless meals, giving menus for properly balanced diets.

Copies of reports, published by the Women's Municipal League of Boston were submitted to the meeting for their guidance.

Verbal reports were given of cases of short weight and short measurement from retailers, and a committee, whose names will not be made public, were appointed and will investigate all further specific charges of this nature.

While the league has been advocating the use of whole wheat flour, it was reported to the meeting that whole wheat flour is not on sale in the city. Efforts will be made to arrange for a supply.

An economy suggestion was submitted by each member present, and these will be published with recipes and other matter in book form.

The league agreed for the distribution of 1,000 posters at the request of the dominion food controller.

Stumpage is increased upon the Blue Bell tract and the order-in-council which not only reduced the rate but remitted the stumpage on that tract was ordered rescinded. The Royal Gazette of today gives the stumpage regulations and part of them are as follows:

As a protection to the government against lands being held under license for speculative purposes and not operated on, all licenses shall make such operations annually on the lands held by them under the license as may be deemed reasonable by the Minister of Lands and Mines, and the Minister of Lands and Mines shall have the power to call upon any licensee to cut to an amount equal to at least 10,000 superficial feet of lumber for each square mile of licensed land held by him and may require that such operation or cut shall be made on such blocks of timber lands held by the licensee as the Minister of Lands and Mines may determine or direct. Should the licensee prefer to pay the stumpage that would be due on such quantity of lumber at 10,000 superficial feet per mile instead of making the required operation or cut, he shall have the right to do so in any year on his notifying the Minister of Lands and Mines to that effect and obtaining his consent thereto, and such charge in lieu of stumpage shall be paid on or before the first day of August. On failure of the licensee to comply with any of the foregoing conditions the license shall be forfeited and the berths held under them shall become vacant and be open for application by any other person.

It is provided that in future operations trees shall be sawn down at the swell of the roots instead of being chopped down, and that the saw shall be used instead of the axe in cutting the tree into lengths. The trees shall be topped off as small as five inches in diameter and the lower limbs of every fallen tree shall be lopped off so that the top will lie flat on the ground to rot. Scauers will be instructed to scale any and all tops left in the woods up to five inches in diameter. No spruce or pine trees shall be used for skidding or building roads and if such are used will become a charge against the licensee.

IN THE BELGIAN CAUSE

The national holiday of Belgium—the anniversary of her independence—will be fittingly observed on July 21. An opportunity will be afforded to all in sympathy with this sorrowful little people to help them in their hour of great trial, towards the amelioration of their many pressing needs—food, bread, the staff of life, which they sadly lack, to allay the pangs of hunger gradually creeping into the very vitals of their being, as well as to assist in alleviating the intense sufferings of two and a half million of Belgium's "wee babes." The "Belgian Day" will be under the patronage of Sir P. E. LeBlanc, and promises to receive the most loyal support from the people of Canada—judging by the enthusiastic endeavors of the fair sex, who are devoting their spare time in anticipation of this day.

The Journal "Pro Belgica" will issue a souvenir number, of sixteen pages—to comprise a history of Belgium, illustrated, and a copy will be forwarded to all subscribers.

To those, not resident in Montreal, yet anxious to share a part in this noble work, a subscription list has been opened, and any donations will be duly acknowledged on page one of Pro Belgica. These various works have been commended by the Belgian authorities as worthy of generous consideration; and any donations received will be transmitted through the Belgian cons-general at Ottawa—under whose able guidance "Belgian Day" will be inaugurated.

Special attention is directed to assistance to the Belgian children, many of whose lives have been cut short through the privations which they have been called upon to endure; and lack of sufficient nourishment in their adolescent stage, has also laid numbers of our little souls aside, by illness.

Hastings Pimbury, delegate in England for the Anglo-Belgian committee, mentions that, at a gathering of about 1,000 Belgian children at Rosendaal, I was most visibly affected by the sad scene which confronted me. These weeps were so weakened and emaciated by hunger that the Dutch soldiers—sorely touched by the sight—had to assist in supporting many of them; while others had to be removed to the hospital at Rosendaal.

We read in the recent pastoral letter from Cardinal Mercier, "Give freely of your store, brethren; you who are well endowed, give much; but you to whom little has been given, do what you can. Listen to what Saint James, the apostle says: 'For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath showed no mercy.'"

Donations, no matter how small, may be sent to, and will be gratefully received by the administration of "Pro Belgica," 82 Sussex avenue, Montreal, and a receipt and issue of the journal containing the list of subscriptions will be forwarded to subscribers. Copy of "Pro Belgica" will be mailed free upon request.

Liberals United On Win-the-War Policy

Ottawa, July 18.—In connection with yesterday's divisions in the house of commons it is to be noted that for the first time since the conscription issue came before the house the whole Liberal party in the commons presented a united front on Hon. Geo. P. Graham's amendment demanding that parliament should proceed forthwith to perform the second half of its duty in regard to war organization of which the first half is the mobilization of men and the second half the mobilization of reserves in food, money, munitions and transportation.

On the first half of the problem as to the wisest means of securing men for the front there has been and still is honest division of opinion in the Liberal ranks. On the second half of the problem there is a united demand for drastic and vigorous though related governmental action. It is being made to appear in the Conservative press that even on Hon. Mr. Graham's amendment there was a party split since Dr. Michael Clark, of Red Deer, and Albert Champagne, of Battisford, who had been regarded as supporters of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, voted with the government.

On the representation of the fuel commissioner the matter had been allowed to stand until August; there would likely be an increase then of forty cents. Consideration of the new railway act was then resumed in committee. When clause 320 providing that time tables, bills of lading, station signs, etc., in the province of Quebec must be printed in both French and English languages, H. Boulay, of Rimouski, moved an amendment declaring that "all employees coming in contact with the public should understand both official languages of the country."

After some further discussion Hon. Frank Cochrane agreed to accept an amendment providing that on local trains the trainmen should know both French and English.

Mr. Carevell led a short discussion upon the question of railways charging higher freight rates to certain points than others, although the former might be farther away than the latter. He could not understand why the railway commission would allow the railways to charge less to competitive points and more to non-competitive points. Mr. Cochrane agreed with him that it was unexplainable.

Comedy Given In Aid of Veterans

A good-sized audience last night witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "Breezy Point" at the Lyric, by the young members of the West Side Soldiers' Field Comforts Association. The show was given under the auspices of European War Veterans' Association to the funds of which organization the proceeds were donated. The most dainty number in the specialties was doubtless the "Dance of the Dying Swan" by Baby Lorna Waring who showed an ability far beyond her years. She was loudly applauded and favored with an encore equally as dainty as the first number. The Gibb Trio lived up to its reputation of past performances and Mrs. Murray Long was heard to excellent advantage in a vocal selection. The Misses Hawker, in instrumental selections, were very much enjoyed. The play was directed by Private A. Gibbs.

Collectors, instead of Washington, to Issue Export Licenses.

Under instructions from the Export License Bureau at Washington, the New York office of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, has advised steamship owners that hereafter all applications for licenses for bunker coal would be referred to collectors of customs in the respective districts. The original plan had been to refer such applications to Washington, but this practice was found not to be expeditious enough to satisfy the shipping interests.

Mayor Hayes said this morning that he intended to bring the matter before the council at the next meeting.

Extended Tour of Canada and States After Month's Rest—The Rhodes Scholarships

A Fredericton despatch says that Dr. George R. Parkin and Mrs. Parkin of London, England, arrived here this morning. Dr. Parkin is one of New Brunswick's most distinguished sons and one of the prominent alumni of the U. N. B. Graduated as B. A. in 1867, he was given the degree of M. A. in 1872 and L. L. D. in 1894 and in 1911 was honored by the University of Oxford which conferred upon him the degree of D. C. L. From 1872 to 1889 he was principal of the collegiate school in Fredericton, now the Fredericton High School. In 1889 he was Canadian correspondent for the London Times. In 1896 he became principal of Upper Canada College and four years later was appointed a Rhodes scholarship commissioner.

Interviewed today Dr. Parkin said that since his arrival from England, he had spent some weeks in the eastern states and Canada in connection with the re-organization of the Rhodes scholarship system. Experience of the last several years had shown the commissioner where changes could be made to advantage and the war had given an opportunity for such reorganization, as the number of scholars had been greatly reduced. German scholarships were cancelled at the outbreak of hostilities. Colonial scholars had gone into the army. American scholars now would do likewise.

Dr. Parkin is now on his way to Shadac where he will spend a month's vacation. After that he will leave on a long tour which will include the Pacific coast and the southern states.

"A tour through the states," he said, "will give one an opportunity to present the British view before the people."

RECEPTION FOR NEW PASTOR AND WIFE.

A very enjoyable reception was held last evening in the school room of Carmarthen street Methodist church, when the members of the congregation met to welcome their new pastor, Rev. H. Penna and his wife. The room was prettily decorated with plants and willow flowers.

After a few remarks by the chairman, Wm. McCavour, the new pastor gave an appropriate and helpful address. An interesting programme was carried out by the young people of the church, who afterwards served refreshments. Before the gathering dispersed a large circle was formed about the room, and the meeting was brought to a close with the singing of "Best Be The Tie That Binds."
