

Spend $392,000 on Storm Sewers and Conserve City's Health, Advises Engineer Willis Chipman in Report to City Council

LONDON URGED YEARS AGO TO BUILD STORM SEWERS BY ENGINEERS WHO CONSTRUCTED THE PRESENT SYSTEM

Consulting Expert Outlines Plans Upon Which the Flooding of Cellars Will Be Averted and Cuts Previous Estimate Enormously.

HALF OF THE CITY NEEDS DRAINAGE BEFORE GOOD ROADS ARE POSSIBLE

Vehicular traffic rendered practically impossible, street-pavings delayed, building operations impeded and a serious menace to health, are the conditions existing from lack of storm sewers, according to Engineer Willis Chipman, which will require $392,000 to remedy.

Mr. Chipman's report on storm sewers arrived today, and will go before the city council tonight. He advises that the city:

1. Retain natural watercourses as open outlets, where practical.
2. Construct a trunk storm sewer in the valley of Carling's Creek, from Waterloo street, east to Eva street, to be left open between Colborne and Maitland streets.
3. Construct main storm sewers in South London, on the Wharncliffe road, discharging southward to Elmwood avenue, and on Ridout street, discharging at Carfrae Crescent.
4. Construct a storm sewer on the Hamilton road, from Maitland street to Hyla street.
5. Construct a central storm sewer on Colborne street, northward from the river to York street, and on to Queen's avenue, with branches on Simcoe street to Hamilton road, and on York street to Lyle street.
6. Construct proper catch-basins and abolish the open gullies as far as possible.
7. Construct storm sewers in the future at least one year in advance of the laying of permanent roadways.
8. Adopt an equitable frontage tax system to meet part of the cost.

A storm sewer system is not needed in the central business district, which Mr. Chipman roughly defines as the area between Thames and Colborne streets.

The Carling's Creek area should have short storm sewers extending half a block or so on some streets.

Proper outlets are needed for existing storm sewers in South London, on Bruce, Langarth and Wreay streets, and Duchess avenue.

Carling's Creek should be retained as an open waterway west of Richmond street, and east of Richmond street to Waterloo street across the C. P. R. property, but larger culverts should be constructed.

NOT NECESSARY IN CHELSEA GREEN.

In Chelsea Green storm sewers are not yet necessary, and storm sewers should not be laid on the Hamilton road southeast from Hyla street until permanent pavements are laid.

He reports that fully one-half the city is unprovided with storm sewers. He refers to his report, begun in 1891, and submitted in 1892, and over which the city councils wrangled until 1896, when construction was begun, and he points out as a serious mistake, that directly contrary to the advice of consulting engineers in 1896, since then street water has been run into sanitary sewers.

THE PRESENT SYSTEM.

The total extent of sewerage system in the city at present is 361,400 feet, made up as follows:

Combined sewers, 24 inches and larger in diameter.	14,800
Ditto, under 24 inches.	59,200
Storm sewers under 24 inches.	9,600
Sanitary sewers under 18 inches.	206,800
Trunk sewer and three interceptors.	71,000

Total feet 361,400

WATERSHEDS IN CITY.

He divides up the watersheds within the city limits as below:

Carling's Creek area, acres.	2,600
Central area, west of Maitland street.	300
Hamilton road.	700
Chelsea Green.	500
South London.	550
West London.	250
Cove area.	382

Total acres 6,302

TWO PORT BURWELL BOYS DROWNED IN OTTER CREEK

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Port Burwell, April 21.—George and Marlow Chalk, aged 21 and 8 years, sons of Samuel Chalk, a farmer residing here, lost their lives yesterday, when in attempting to cross Otter Creek to a small island a rowboat in which they were rowing, upset.

No one saw the accident, but the bodies were found in ten feet of water today, when a search was instituted as a result of the boys' not coming home.

They died locked in one another's arms and apparently the bigger boy had made every effort to save his brother, and then both sank together. Their sister saw them putting out in the boat yesterday afternoon, but as they rowed about she thought nothing of the matter.

Smashed His Nose.—Daniel McCallum was brought into Victoria Hospital Saturday night with a smashed nose and other bruises, which were at first thought to have been caused by his being struck by a Pere Marquette train. When questioned, however, McCallum said he did not know what had caused his injuries. He left the institution Sunday afternoon.

What Aldermen Have to Say

Members of the city council who could be reached were asked as to their attitude on storm sewers going to the property-owners. Engineer Chipman's report having been received. The replies are given below:

Ald. W. E. Robinson.—I think something should be done with the report right away, as nothing can be done to the streets until the sewers are laid. The amount is not large compared with that submitted by Engineer Brazier, but, of course, the system will not cover as much territory.

Ald. Bennett.—I think it should go to the people when the question of electrification is submitted.

Ald. Moore.—I don't care to make any comment at present. I have not seen the report yet, so I cannot say what I favor.

Ald. Glass.—I don't see any reason why the question should not be dealt with at once.

Ald. Ashplant.—I have been away from council proceedings for several weeks, so I am not prepared to make any statement.

Ald. Johnston.—I think the sooner we send the question to the people, the better. I would favor submitting the bill immediately if possible.

Ald. Spittal.—I have not seen the report yet and am in no position to make any comment.

Ald. Stein.—I have not given the question enough consideration to make a statement committing myself one way or the other. The amount is gratifying, as we were given to understand at first that the total would reach the half-million mark.

Ald. Rose.—I think the matter should go to the people as soon as possible. It is the only thing that will relieve the trouble in all sections of the city.

LIKE "BABE IN THE WOODS" CHILD DESERTED BY UNCLE

Pretty Little Helen Poloneski Seems to Have Been Heartlessly Cast Aside—Tells Reporter She Longs for "Grandma's Farm."

What is apparently a case of the most heartless desertion is engaging the attention of the local detectives. The victim, Helen Poloneski, a pretty little girl of 12 years, who says her home is at 3975 East Fifty-fifth street, Cleveland, is at present in the Children's Shelter in this city, while efforts are being made to communicate with her parents.

According to the story told by the little maid, who was exceedingly well dressed and of good education, was to the effect that she left her home in Cleveland two weeks ago to visit an uncle, Antonio Hynotski, and aunt, living in Detroit. They quarrelled over her, and it was finally decided to send her back to Cleveland.

Telling her that he would accompany her there, the uncle boarded a Grand Trunk train in Detroit Saturday night, and they began the journey eastward. Confident that she would find her way, and leaving her nothing but the dress she was wearing, the brakeman on the train, becoming aware of her plight, brought her on to London and turned her over to the authorities. Inspector Sanders wired her father in Cleveland, but has not yet received a reply.

The little girl was interviewed by an Advertiser reporter this morning. She was dressed in dark blue and wore a long linen coat and straw hat. Her complexion was fair and her eyes a light blue.

Tells Story to Reporter.—"I went to Detroit about a week ago to visit my uncle there," she said, in answer to the reporter's question. "He was there then, and took me back with him for a visit."

"Do your father and mother live in Cleveland?" asked the reporter. "I have no mother," she replied. Her lips trembled, as he hastily changed the subject.

"I'm told that you speak four languages," he said.

"Yes, I speak English, Polish, Bohemian and Italian," replied the little girl.

"Where did you learn Italian?" "My grandmother has a farm not far from Cleveland. We often used to go there in the summer. Grandmother sold milk to the Italians, and I learned from them."

The Joys of Grandma's Farm.

The little face lighted up, and her troubles were apparently forgotten for the moment, as she plunged into a description of the joys of grandma's farm, where were chickens and ducks and cows, and no less than four horses. Coming back to the subject of her desertion, the little girl said that her uncle was drunk when he got on the train with her Saturday night. "And he had four bottles of beer in the valise," she said. She did not know where he lived in Detroit, or what he did.

CLAIM BARBERS IGNORE ORDERS

Alleged That the Early Closing Regulations Are Disobeyed by Some.

IS NOT FAIR TO OTHERS

A number of the proprietors of barber shops in the central part of the city have expressed themselves as displeased with the way that the early closing bylaw is being enforced, and they claim that several barbers in the suburban sections of the city are breaking the regulations every day.

One of the bosses stated this morning that he was considering the advisability of breaking the bylaw and making a test case, as he had been advised by a lawyer that there was no authority for fining the offender. The case at present before the police magistrate in Toronto is being watched closely by those in this city who are interested in the matter, and if the barber who broke the law in that city is discharged it is likely that several of the local shops will remain open until a later hour than is now allowed.

One barber who was an opponent of the early closing measure, stated that he was now a firm advocate of the system, but if others were allowed to remain open he would have to do the same in order to get his patrons.

"ADAM BECK SAID IT, AND HE SAID OTHER THINGS TOO"

Controller Church Stands by His Allegation That Mr. Beck Threatened to Resign—Says He Hopes Mr. Beck Will Stand By It Too.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, April 21.—"I stand by everything I said in reference to the interview on Friday of Hon. Adam Beck with members of the board of control, and I hope the Hon. Mr. Beck will stand by what he said. Mr. Beck not only said what I stated he said, but he said a lot of other things which I did not mention."

Thus spoke Controller T. L. Church, this morning, in refutation of the allegation that he had misrepresented the power minister's statements to the board of control, in expressing his opposition to the mayor's plan of purchasing the Toronto railway and the Toronto electric light system.

Searching for the Bill.

"I learned of Mr. Beck's opposition to the proposition before his interview with the board of control on Friday," continued Controller Church. "I was up at the Parliament Buildings on Thursday night and I endeavored, without success, to obtain a copy of the bill. The Toronto members complained that the mayor had again brought forward a proposal regarding which they had no previous knowledge."

"I will stand by everything I say, and I hope that Hon. Adam Beck will stand by everything he said. I would like the mayor, and I would like Hon. Adam Beck to explain our change of attitude on this question, after we heard his representations in the board of control, if what he said in reference to the hydro did not influence us. How could we explain our change of attitude unless we made public his opposition to the bill?"

Not a Secret Meeting. "They talk about this being a secret meeting. It was no such thing, Hon. Adam Beck came to the city hall to meet the board in reference to a motion made by himself at a public meeting, and there was no mention of the intention that the meeting should be secret or that its proceedings should be kept from the public. I do not believe in secret meetings, anyway."

Forced to Reveal It.

"I was forced to make public the true story of that meeting in consequence of the garbled version of it given at the council meeting by the mayor and Controller McCarthy, and by the garbled reports which appeared in some of the papers, and especially the alleged timetable of events published by The Star."

"Life and Death," Said Mr. Beck.

"This is my fourth year on the board of control, and I have never betrayed a confidence. Mr. Beck came down to influence the board of control against the passage of this proposal, and I had no hesitation when I heard of the gravity of the situation, and that it involved the life or death of the hydro electric enterprise, to take my stand against it."

"I would like to know who suggested taking up the Toronto railway and the Toronto Electric Light in this bill? They joined together because the Toronto Railway Company and the Toronto Electric Light are tied up to agreements to take power from the Electric Development Company for all time, and no legislature can let them out."

MR. BECK INCENSED BECAUSE COLLEAGUES IGNORED HIM IN CITY OF TORONTO POWER BILL

With Hon. Adam Beck making a characteristic denial of having said that he would resign from the Ontario Government, as reported by Controller Church, of Toronto, in the event of the city of Toronto being permitted to purchase the Toronto Street Railway and the Toronto Electric Light Company, the Queen City has been thrown into a state of excitement unparalleled in the hydro-electric era.

Mr. Church, who, with Controller Foster, was the only man to stand with Mr. Beck among the twenty members of the Toronto City Council, stated to the Toronto Telegram, Mr. Beck's favorite Toronto newspaper, in an attempt to aid Mr. Beck, that Mr. Beck had delivered himself of a statement to the effect that if his will was gainsaid by the city of Toronto, by the Ontario Government, or by anyone else, he would take the stump and fight the city and the Government.

Against the Premier. Just as Mr. Beck bludgeoned the city council of London when he attempted to force electrification through, so he is alleged to have threatened the powers at Toronto, despite the fact that Premier Whitney had given his willing sanction to the bill, whereby Toronto hopes to gain control of its transportation facilities and to secure an improved service.

Mr. Beck's conferees, W. K. McNaught, on the Ontario hydro-electric commission, also a member of the Legislature, introduced the bill into the Legislature without consulting Mr. Beck. Wonder of wonders that the man most interested should have been sidetracked by his own assistant, and greater wonder that Sir James Whitney should have refused to call Mr. Beck into conference and to have given the bill his complete approval. DRINK CRAZED; GIVES HIS WIFE BRUTAL BEATING

James Arnott's Blows Send Wife to Hospital Bruised and With Throat Swollen.

"I was drunk," was the only explanation James Arnott offered, when charged with assaulting and wounding his wife Saturday afternoon. He pleaded guilty and was remanded until Wednesday for sentence, until it could be seen what the outcome of his wife's injuries would be. She was taken to Victoria Hospital in a serious condition, inflicted by her husband. The whole upper part of her face is discolored by blows, and her head is swollen to almost twice its natural size. She was taken to her home this morning.

Arnott has been in similar trouble before, and the magistrate reminded him of promises he made, not to assault his wife. "I was drunk," he replied, "and didn't know what I was doing. I don't remember now what happened. I worked all Saturday morning from 6 o'clock until 1. Then I went down town and got drunk."

He went home later in the afternoon, at 512 Simcoe street, where the assault occurred. Neighbors summoned the police, and Sergt. Monaghan arrested Arnott. The woman was found to be badly injured, and was removed to Victoria Hospital in the ambulance, to a place of safety.

ELECTION TALK IS RIFE AT CAPITAL; VOTE IN SUMMER?

Borden Said To Be Willing, But Rogers Will Not Hear of It.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, April 21.—Talk of dissolution and election is rife in the corridors of Parliament this morning. The Liberals have been seeking for an election during the past two months, and it is said that a group in the cabinet, headed by Premier Borden, is willing to give it to them. Hon. Mr. Rogers, the head of the other group, is not willing to leave the fortunes of the Conservative party at the polls just now, and insists that there shall be no election until he has been given two years in which to get his machinery perfected. However, the election idea seems to be growing in spite of him, and one Conservative member stated openly this morning that Parliament would be away from Ottawa within three weeks. This is taken to mean an election. It is known that in a good many Canadian constituencies the Conservative workers have been told to get busy and make all possible preparations for speedy election.

and I think the people should be asked to express an opinion on the question as soon as a bylaw can be prepared.

Ald. Richter.—I think the question of storm sewers and a permanent breakwater should be sent to the ratepayers at the earliest reasonable opportunity.

Ald. Saunders.—The question should have been sent to the people long ago. I think those sewers are a necessity, and no matter what we have an estimate on them, I think the question should be sent to the people as soon as possible.

Ald. White.—I think before anything is done about sending the question to the people, that our own engineer should check the plans. Maybe he could clip off a little more than Mr. Chipman.

PLAINS OF SASKATCHEWAN SWEEPED BY GREAT FIRES

Wave of Flame Fifty Miles in Width Sweeping Everything Before It, and Many Homesteaders Have Lost Their All.

[Canadian Press.]

Moose Jaw, Sask., April 21.—A rider from the south country reports a fierce prairie fire which started Saturday afternoon and continued all night, beginning at Butterworth, on the expansive line and sweeping the Blue Hills and around them stopping at Fort Walsh trail, nine miles distant. James Farnsworth and his father's farm buildings suffered badly. Paddy Doyle and a man named Plaster, of Blue Hills, lost their all. No fatalities are reported.

State Prisoner May Be Released

Ottawa, April 21.—The Government is likely to lose its state prisoner. After more than two months in jail the health of R. C. Miller is beginning to yield to prison confinement. Morse, Sask., April 21.—A bad prairie fire is raging in the country to the south, estimated to be fifty miles in width and sweeping everything before it. Already half a dozen or more homesteaders have lost everything, and several have had narrow escapes for their lives. It is the worst fire known here, and has already burned over a large area with no signs of abating. Rumors of lives lost lack confirmation.

Hundreds of men are fighting the flames, but with little or no success.

mons an order for Miller's release will probably be issued. The experience of this state prisoner has shown that it is not easy to get out of the clutches of parliament when they have formally fixed anything on you. Acting on the advice of counsel it took Miller just two minutes to get comfortably into jail and in two months they have not been able to get him out. It looks now as if the medical profession would succeed where the law profession has failed.

PREMIER BORDEN IN EMBARRASSING POSITION IS SEEKING A WAY OUT OF THE CLOSURE MIDDLE

Government Will Not Go
To the Poll Through Fear of Defeat.

Special Session of Parliament May Be Called For Early Fall.

Ottawa, April 20.—The cabinet council was sitting practically all day yesterday, carefully canvassing the political situation with regard to the naval and closure bills, and the evident determination of the Liberals to force an election unless the Government backed down on both issues. All aspects of the embarrassing position were discussed long and anxiously. The decision was reaffirmed that at all costs an election at the present time must be avoided. For the past few weeks the reports which the ministers and their followers have been receiving have been emphasizing the fact that an election would be suicidal if forced on these issues, and with the party generally dissatisfied and disheartened, not only because of the developments in Parliament, but also because of patronage troubles and other weakening influences in every constituency.

Afraid of Election.
It was decided definitely that, no matter what happened the naval bill, the Government would not go to the country. As a matter of fact it will be well pleased if the Senate throws out when passed under closure, and with the majority of the electors manifestly opposed to it.

As already stated, word has been received from the Imperial Government suggesting that it would not be wise to force things to a crisis on the naval bill under the circumstances, and there is serious doubt whether the Imperial Government would accept the naval contribution even if the Government did succeed in forcing it through both Houses. As to the question of forcing through closure, which is the more immediate and more important issue, there is considerable division of opinion. The Government is both afraid to go on and afraid to draw back. It recognizes that Liberalism is in a determined mood, and is expected to be bound by closure rules passed in an unconstitutional manner by a temporary and reckless majority, regardless of all fair play, and merely as a matter of acute political expediency.

Several of the ministers, including, it is understood, Premier Borden himself, are for further temporizing. They do not wish to provoke the opposition to the necessity of open revolt in Parliament against any attempt to enforce closure. Amid the conflicting counsels it was decided to proceed, but gingerly for the present, at least, with both the naval bill and the closure resolution.

Borden in a Fix.
In a nutshell, the situation is that the Government is still looking for a way out of its embarrassing position, but has not yet found it. One thing, however, is definitely decided upon. It will put through closure if it finds it can do so without immediately provoking a situation in the Commons which will compel an election at once. Then it will not apply closure at once, but will rely on the quieting influences of time in the hope that the present intensity of public opinion will gradually die down. Meanwhile it will try to keep the Commons talking on other business, and will seek to pass some of the less contentious measures of the session.

The word has definitely gone out that a special session will be called in September. Believing that the Senate will throw out the naval bill, the Government will make an extra session calling this extra session the necessity of again dealing with the "emergency," and also it will seek to placate public opinion by promising a revision of the present closure rules. This revision will of course not remove by any means the real sting of the gag, but will be in the nature of a "bluff," with the idea of making the electors believe that belated fair play is being given to the minority.

The chief reason for the extra session, however, is to placate the dissatisfied Ministerial members. In reality it is Hon. Robt. Rogers' scheme of bribing his followers to stand pat. An extra session means an extra $2,500 indemnity per member. It is a compromise upon Mr. Rogers' promise earlier in the present session to increase the indemnity to $4,000, which was blocked by premature publication. It is also another phase of the policy of temporizing.

CONSTIPATION Can Be Cured.

You cannot expect to be well if you allow your bowels to become clogged. What is necessary is to have a free motion every day, and to keep them in this condition all the time if you wish to be strong and healthy. If you don't keep them open the system will become clogged up with poisonous matter and produce constipation, headache, dyspepsia, bad blood, etc.

Keep the bowels in good condition by using Burdock Blood Bitters; the remedy that has built up an unrivalled reputation, during the past thirty-six years, as a cure for all troubles arising from a constipated condition of the bowels.

Mrs. Thomas Calder, East Lower Fort Garry, writes:—"I am writing you to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I suffered very much from constipation and none of the medicines I took agreed with me. Now I am as well as there is nothing like it. I have not been Premier Borden, who has had poor health for some days past, is anxious to get away from the capital for a rest from his worries and a chance to recuperate. He had intended leaving yesterday, but after the situation was reviewed it was decided that it would be unwise for him to leave at the present juncture. Mr. Borden himself does not want to leave Mr. Rogers in charge until the outlook is a little less dangerous.

On the Liberal side the attitude is one of quiet and confident waiting of the Government's next move. Liberals are more anxious than ever for an election immediately, and are unanimously determined to submit neither to the closure nor to the passing of the naval bill. They want nothing better than an appeal to the electors on these two vital national and Imperial issues. If this closure resolution comes before the House again tomorrow, which is doubtful, the Liberals will press for some specific declaration from the Government as to what the new rules really involve, with a view to getting some official expression of opinion clearing up the confusion so far enunciated on the Government side as to how these rules should be interpreted.

They have no intention of prolonging the debate much further. The issue is now fairly clear to the country, and messages pouring in from every province indicate it is well understood. Liberalism has taken its stand and will stick to it. The Government must back down or there will be an election. That is the situation with which the new week opens.

DORCHESTER SOCIALS LARGELY ATTENDED

Fine Programs at Both Presbyterian and Methodist Entertainments.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Dorchester, April 19.—The social held in the basement of the Methodist Church last evening under the auspices of the Mission Circle was largely attended.

The program given by the children and the young ladies of the Mission Circle was excellent. The proceeds, which were for missionary purposes, amounted to $14. Especially good was the "Musical Romance" given under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Kern. The luncheon served at the close by the young ladies was very enjoyable.

A social was also held last evening in the Presbyterian Church under the auspices of the Guild of that church. Quite a large number were present and enjoyed a good program, which was given by the young people and children of that church. It consisted of recitations, dialogues and music. Refreshments were served at the close.

A fire was discovered about noon today in the new mill of Mr. A. Carrothers. It had only started, and was put out before it had time to make any headway. It was thought to have caught from the chimney of Mr. Abbott's house, which is immediately adjoining, and the strong wind carried the sparks across.

BROKE HER JAW

Katie Horn, of Palmerston, Was Kicked by a Horse.
[Special to The Advertiser.]

AIR TRIP WAS FATAL TO NOTED BARONET

Sir Charles Rose Found Dead in Motor Car After First Aerial Flight.

London, April 21.—Sir Charles Rose, M. P. for Newmarket, died in his motor car after returning from Hendon yesterday. On Sunday afternoon just after 2 o'clock, he left his residence in North Audley street in his motor, and drove to the London Aerodrome at Hendon. After witnessing some flights, Sir Charles himself went up in an aeroplane as a passenger.

On descending he appeared to have enjoyed the trip thoroughly. He had for a long time been looking forward to this experience. When he left his house of the address in the excellent spirits and remarked to a friend, "What a beautiful day for a flight." He returned to his residence by motor car about 4:30. Between the aerodrome and there death took place, suddenly in the car. When the chauffeur pulled the car up at the door of the house and got down to assist Sir Charles out, he found the baronet dead, and at once drove him to Dr. Milligan, Upper Brook street, a short distance. The doctor, however, after seeing the patient, could only pronounce life extinct.

The Well-Known Turfman.
Circumstances of the death, which appears to be due to heart failure, have been communicated to Sir Charles Rose's son, who is in Paris, from whence he is expected to arrive today.

The deceased represented Newmarket division from 1903 to 1910 and was again elected in 1911. Few men were better known on the turf here, both as owner and breeder, his colors being especially popular at Newmarket.

Deceased last spoke in Parliament here recently as the 11th inst., when he seconded the national service bill. He was the only Liberal to back the bill. He was elected to the jockey club in 1891, and laid out perhaps the finest tennis court in England at Newmarket. He also had a magnificent one at Hardwick's House, his beautiful Thames Valley residence. He resumed racing in 1911 after a virtual absence from the turf for several seasons.

Dr. Milligan, interviewed, declared Sir Charles died from heart failure. There can be little doubt the doctor added, the excitement of taking his first aeroplane flight was a large measure responsible. It is thought probably the primary cause was his heart's weak condition.

Many Reasons Why Liquid Cough Mixtures Can't Cure Bronchitis

But the Healing Fumes of Catarrh-zone, Which Are Breathed to the Furthest Recesses of the Bronchial
Tubes, Bring Quick Relief and Sure Cure.

Every sufferer from coughs, colds, bronchitis and all throat and chest ailments, needs a soothing, healing medicine which goes direct to the breathing organs in the chest and lungs, attacks the trouble at the source, disperses the germ of disease, and cures the ailment thoroughly. And this medicine is "Catarrh-zone."

The germ-killing balsamic vapor mixes with the breath, descends through the throat, down the bronchial tubes, and finally reaches the deepest air cells in the lungs. All parts are soothed with rich, pure, medicinal essences, whereas with a syrup the affected parts could not be reached, and harm would result through burning the stomach with drugs.

"I have been a chronic sufferer from catarrh in the nose and throat for over eight years. I think I have spent four hundred dollars trying to get relief. I have spent but six dollars on Catarrh-zone, and have been completely cured, and, in fact, have been well for some time. Catarrh-zone is the only medicine I have been able to find that would not only give temporary relief but will always cure permanently." Yours sincerely, (Signed) WILLIAM RAGAN, Brockville, Ont.

For absolute, permanent cure, use Catarrh-zone. Two months' outfit costs $1; smaller size, 50c, at all storekeepers and druggists, or The Catarrh-zone Company, Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada.

BLAZE AT SIMCOE

Four Valuable Horses Perished — Alleged Tramp Held as Suspect.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Simcoe, April 21.—Four fine horses, among them a Kentucky saddle mare belonging to Mr. Yeager, which won first prize at the New York Show, were burned to death in a mysterious fire, the cause of which is being investigated.

The fire got a great start, and although Mr. Everett made every effort to get the animals out, he was unable to reach them. The sparks set a nearby house and shed on fire, and the shed was burned.

A suspect, in the shape of an alleged tramp, who had been ejected from another barn the night before is held in connection with the fire.

C. P. R. Depot Believed to Have Caught From a Spark From

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Melrose, April 20.—The C. P. R. depot, which had been used for some time past as a residence by Section Foreman McMaster, was destroyed by fire shortly before noon today. The blaze is thought to have started in the roof from a spark from a passing train. Mr. McMaster was able to save a large portion of his furniture.

"He pleaded with her to say the one little word that would make him happy for life." "Tell me quick! Did she say it?" "She did. It was 'No.'"

FIRE ON TORONTO ISLAND

Seven Summer Residences Destroyed in Sunday Conflagration.

Toronto, April 20.—Only the work of the captain of the fire tug Joe Goodwin saved the island tonight from probable total destruction by a fire which broke out tonight.

The fire started in or near the summer home of Mr. John C. Wead, on the Lakeside road, and spread rapidly. The fire department sent over only a few men, and the hose they had was too small. The fire gained rapid headway among the frame structures, and able total destruction by a fire which broke out tonight.

T HIS sale is a sale forced on the Furniture, not Furniture forced on sale, as such reductions as have been advertised would not have been made at this season but for the necessity of securing a section on this floor for the new Stove Department, the opening of which will be announced about the first of May.

Many made selection Saturday, but scores of bargains equally good are yet to be had, as reductions have been made on much surplus stock and broken suites regardless of cost of same, as well as many regular standard lines at good reductions. A general saving on furniture for every room in the home, amounting to as much as 50% on many lines. If you need Furniture, don't overlook this opportunity. Come early for best selection.

LINNEBORN PUTS DENEAU WISE TO GOOD OUTFIELDER

Left-hander Who Was With Providence Early in Spring Can Be Secured by London Club, Says Eddie in Letter to Sporting Editor of Advertiser.

[BY JINX.]
Is in Buffalo at Present.
Eddie Linneborn, in a letter to the writer Saturday, says that he can secure a good outfielder for the London club and one who will make good from the very start. The fellow's name is Deneau, and according to Eddie he is some ball player. He was a member of the Pullman team with Linneborn two years ago, but since then has drifted into faster company. He was with Bill Donovan and the Providence Greys this spring, but was let out last week. However, Eddie Linneborn says he is more than fast enough for the Canadian League, and if Manager Deneau can land, he will prove the best outfielder in this league. He is a left-hand batter and thrower and is a good hitter.

YANKEES LOSE THREE IN ROW.

New York, April 19.—Washington made it three straight over New York here today. Walter Johnson shutting out the New Yorks by a score of 2 to 0, Johnson was invincible, and only one chance's men reached second base. Sweeney and Lehigh opened the sixth with singles, and then Johnson struck out eight men. Keating and Schulz pitched well for New York, though Washington bunched hits in the third and fourth, when the visitors scored three runs. The Washingtons made only one scratch hit after the fourth.

by using Doan's Kidney Pills. A year ago I was terribly afflicted with back, and so was so bad at times I could sweep my own floor. While reading through B.B.B. Almanac, I saw that Doan's Kidney Pills were a great kidney cure, so I thought I would try a box or two and did so and found great relief. After using five boxes I was completely cured. I am very thankful to have found a speedy cure.

ATTEMPTED TO BOMB A TAMMANY CLUB

Outrage Charged to Political Enemies of Noted Party Boss.

[Canadian Press.] New York, April 21.—A bomb-throwing, which nearly wrecked the four-story, brown stone building of the Tammany Club, a Tammany organization, early today, is charged by the police against unknown political enemies of Nicholas J. Hayes, for 20 years the Tammany leader of the 23rd assembly district. Hayes, a former sheriff, is president of the Pocatello Club, which is located on 118th street in the heart of "Little Italy" of the upper east side. The bomb, heavily charged with dynamite and tightly wound with wire, was thrown into a basement hallway, where it exploded with such force that every window in that and some adjoining buildings were broken, and one of the floor timbers was broken, and the plaster of all four ceilings of the clubhouse shaken down. The only persons in the place at the time were four men playing cards and a steward, none of whom was more than slightly injured. The thickly-settled neighborhood, however, was rocked almost to a state of panic. The perpetrator of the outrage escaped without leaving any clues behind.

WINGHAM CONCERT

Choral Society Helped the Children's Aid By Fine Musicale. [Special to The Advertiser.] Wingham, April 19.—The concert, which was held last evening in the Wingham Opera House in behalf of the Children's Aid by the Wingham Choral Society, was a great success. It was given under the direction of Mr. John H. Christie, and the numbers were well received. Those taking part in the program were Miss A. P. Hayes, Mrs. J. C. Smith, F. J. Hill, Miss S. Farquharson and Mrs. G. C. Hanna. Mrs. Hanna was also accompanist.

It is stated that there are now 70,000 cities, towns and hamlets in the United States from which telephone messages may be sent—5,000 more than the number of postoffices in the country, 10,000 more than the number of railway stations, and nearly three times the number of regular telegraph offices.

THE SOLAR PLEXUS A GREAT NERVE CENTRE

With the single exception of the brain, the solar plexus is the most important nerve centre in the human body.

Situated just back of the stomach and close to the spinal cord, the solar plexus supplies the motor nerves to the vital organs. Injury to or weakness of the solar plexus consequently means incapacity of the vital organs of the body. This explains why a blow which reaches the solar plexus means helplessness to the person receiving it.

These nerve centres all demand an enormous quantity of good, rich blood, and failing to get this, the nerve cells are starved and depleted, and fail to supply vital energy to the digestive and eliminating organs.

JAPANESE INDIGNANT AT CALIFORNIANS

But Talk of War Comes Solely From Small Party of "Hot Heads."

[Canadian Press.] Tokyo, April 21.—The chagrin, disappointment and wounded pride of Japan, which last week were vented in angry militant talk by irresponsible people in this country, have become somewhat pacified. The entire Japanese nation now awaits with the most intense and evident anxiety the outcome of the deliberations in reference to the California alien land-holding bill proceeding at Sacramento, Cal. The Government and commercial forces of Japan are using their utmost exertions in endeavoring to restrain the unthinking agitators here. It is becoming increasingly evident that the agitation in Japan is largely inspired by a small political group, the hope that the citizens of California will spare Japan indignity and the United States embarrassment.

Two Meet Death In Kentucky Fued

[Canadian Press.] Franklin, Ky., April 21.—Two men are dead, one fatally wounded and three others more or less seriously hurt as the result of a pistol duel that took place in the streets of this city late Sunday June John H. Goodnight, aged 35 years, and William Taylor, aged 45, were slain, while James Taylor, son of William, was fatally wounded.

It is said an altercation arose between young Taylor and Sheriff Gossett following a street fair in the afternoon. The sheriff ordered young Taylor off the grounds, but some time later Taylor, accompanied by his father, came back. The altercation was renewed, and the elder Taylor and the sheriff opened fire, with the result that William Taylor fell, pierced by six bullets. Young Taylor then opened fire with two automatic revolvers, but Gossett escaped unharmed.

PONTIFF NOW ABLE TO SIT IN ARM CHAIR

From Window Views Crowds Celebrating the Foundation of Eternal City.

[Canadian Press.] Rome, April 21.—The Pope this morning was in much brighter spirits and felt altogether stronger. He still suffered from spells of coughing, but the expectation accompanying it was loose. As the day was brilliantly sunny the pontiff was allowed to rise and sit in an arm-chair, in which he was taken to a seat in front of the closed window into which the sun's rays poured in a constant flood. For the first time since his last relapse the Pope was able to look out on the immense piazza, which was alive with people. When he saw that a large number of flags were flying, he asked the reason and was informed that today was the anniversary of the foundation of Rome 2,663 years ago. The pontiff remarked: "Cities grow with age while men decline."

The physicians and attendants of the Pope are taking the greatest precautions to prevent him from making any exertion just now, any activity on his part is still regarded as dangerous, owing to his recent low condition. As the pontiff, however, is most desirous of beginning work again he often insists that Mr. Gessan and Mr. Pescini, his private secretary, read him the most important of the letters which accumulated during his illness.

Wilson's Quandary

[Canadian Press.] New York, April 21.—The London cable says that the Federal Government has issued a statement that the Japanese immigration in California is discussed editorially by the Morning Post, which says: "President Wilson finds himself in a quandary. On the one hand, as head of the Federal Government, he is bound to fulfill the treaty which stipulates that Japanese residents in the United States shall receive the same treatment as is accorded to the subjects of other powers. On the other hand, he has no control over the Japanese Government, which is determined to prevent the California legislature from acting as it pleases in the matter, and he is hampered in the pressure to be put on President Roosevelt did, by his Democratic principles."

"As to the independence of the individual States, it is said that the Japanese Government means to carry it as a test case to the supreme court, regarding the eligibility of its citizens for naturalization in the United States, apparently the claim will be made that the Japanese are not, properly speaking, citizens under the disability laid down by

Spirituality a Development Is Preacher's Belief

"Life's Spiritual Significance" was the subject of the evening sermon of Rev. William Beattie, of Cobourg, in the First Presbyterian Church Sunday.

"Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?" was his text from Matthew vi. 25. "The spiritual life," said Rev. Mr. Beattie, "is the life that makes the pleasure and the will of God supreme. Is such a life possible? The answer is that God asks no impossibilities from us. The fuller life is not found in pursuit of things material. It is a development. Spirituality is a development. Life is a variety of powers. 'Victory awaits the man who thinks he can, and victory awaits the church that thinks it can conquer the problems that face it.' 'To be less than God intended, to fail in God's purpose, to be meant for a rose and to wither as a bud, to be meant for a giant and to turn out a dwarf, that is the worst kind of hell.' 'Christ came that men might have life, and life more abundantly. Life is unmanageable without God. Spirituality is the passport to that far country to which all are travelling.'"

Zeuxis, the celebrated artist of ancient Greece, had painted the cherries so true to life that the birds came and pecked at them. Of course, the rich pork-packer who had paid five hundred thousand dollars for the canvas couldn't stand for that. "Paint a scarecrow," he commanded, "with the air of one accustomed to meet emergencies."

HOSPITAL TRUST TO ASK $43,500 FROM LONDON FOR YEAR

Last Year Amount Appropriated Was $41,500—Amount Taken, $45,243.

House Surgeons Appointed at the Annual Meeting on Saturday.

	1912.	1913.
City of London	$45,243 00	$43,500 00
Government grant	5,025 92	5,750 00
Interest on debentures	30 05	330 00
Interest on deposits	32 00	—
County of Middlesex	4,211 45	3,600 00
Paying patients	35,823 12	40,000 00
Totals	$90,665 94	$93,180 00

Above are the figures showing the total expenditure of the hospital trust for 1912, and the estimated expenditures for 1913. Last year $41,500 was appropriated by the city council for the hospital, but the amount of $3,749 40 was the expenditure up to $45,243 00. This year the trust asks for $43,500 from the city and expects to make up any possible deficit from the Government, which will be considerably larger on account of the increased number of patients, and the action of the Government in deciding to make a grant to hospitals for all patients who pay up to $1 a day. Formerly the grant was given for patients who paid up to 70 cents a day.

New House Surgeons. Dr. P. H. Clegg was appointed chief house surgeon for the year, and Drs. R. A. Lutton, J. F. Bowen and L. F. Jones were appointed as the junior staff from November to May, and Drs. A. S. Munster, P. H. Bowen and S. O. H. Jones as the junior staff from May to November. Dr. S. O. H. Jones is to be assistant pathologist. The new house surgeon, Dr. L. F. Jones, from November until May.

An item which appears in the estimates for this year, and which is a new one, is $500 for a nurse to hire a nurse to devote her time to working among the workmen of the families of the city, assisting the doctor in every way possible. This will be the first time it has ever been tried in this city, but it is expected that it will prove a boon to many poor families and a success from the start.

Donation of Shares. Twenty shares of London Loan stock were donated to the trust by the late Thomas Kent, and the bonus stock decided to add $25 to the $75 received for interest on the stock and purchase the two shares. The revenue will be used for special work. The chairman brought up the question of the unsatisfactory ice supply, and suggested that the board investigate the feasibility of installing an ice-making plant and cooler. He was appointed to secure figures, and as a machine can be purchased for $3,000 it is quite likely that the board will take some definite action shortly.

Supplied With Bread. Inspector McCallum sent 225 loaves of the bread seized from bakers to the hospital, and these were acknowledged with thanks, as were books and magazines from the Princess Patricia Chapter, Daughters of the Empire.

Anti-Japanese Legislation Raises an Awkward Situation.

The present trouble certainly affords a striking illustration of the defects of a federal constitution.

SENATOR WOULD SMASH PACTS WITH BRITISH

Thinks That the Way to Settle Differences Over Panama Canal.

[Canadian Press.] Washington, April 21.—Abrogation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, which preceded it, is the object of a joint resolution which Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, prepared today for presentation to the Senate and reference to the foreign relations committee.

Upon the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, Great Britain basins her protests against free passage for American ships in the Panama Canal. Senator Chamberlain, a leader in the Senate of the free passage movement, declared today that he considered abrogation of the treaty the easiest and quickest way to get to the bottom of the affair. Senator Chamberlain explained that while the Clayton-Bulwer treaty had been superseded by the existing Hay-Pauncefote treaty, he included it in his resolution for abrogation, upon the theory that were the Hay-Pauncefote treaty to be abrogated alone, Great Britain might refer to the foreign relations committee.

Friedman Treatment Appears to Help One Patient at Hospital

A rumor to the effect that the Indian lad, who was treated by Dr. Friedman for tuberculosis in the ankle had almost entirely recovered, and was able to walk without the aid of crutches was circulated about the city Sunday, but Superintendent Heard, of Victoria Hospital, denied it. There is practically no change in the boy's condition, according to Mr. Heard, but a young woman who was treated at the same time for pulmonary tuberculosis claims to feel considerably better.

Where London Fails

London, says the Honkey Konkey man, who is here from Detroit, fails on two points.

First, you need better street car service, and last, but not least, you need to know the value of Honkey Konkey as a drink for all seasons.

It is a new drink, and when I say new, I mean it is entirely different from all other drinks on the market today.

Many drinks are your friends so long as you do not abuse them. But Honkey Konkey is a real friend; use it or abuse it and it is still your friend.

To enjoy your meals more than you ever have, take a drink of Honkey Konkey before each one.

Your drug stores and all hotels will supply you; or call up the wholesale people for a case to be delivered at your home.
