Berlin, June 16-Via London, 4:14 p.m.-Two attacks delivered by the French yesterday and last night on the German line along the southern slope of Dead Man Hill (Verdun front) were unsuccessful, the war office announced today. In the first attack the French temporarily gained some ground, but a counterattack drove them back.

[Canadlan Press.]

Paris. June 16-11:30 a.m.-Power ful German attacks made last night on the French position southeast of Thiaumont farm on the Verdun front broke down under the French machine gun and infantry fire, according to today's statement by the war

The statement says that the Germans began their assault at 6 o'clock in the evening on the right bank of the Meuse, from Hill 321 to the edge of Hill 320. At the same time another attack was launched at the outhern edge of the Caillette wood. All attacks were repulsed.

The trench captured by the French yesterday on the southern slope of Dead Man Hill was also the subject of several German counter-attacks during the night, all of which failed. It is announced that the total number of prisoners taken by the French at the time of the capture of the trench is 5 officers and 180 sol-

FRENCH STATEMENT. The text of the communication follows: "On the left bank of the River Meuse the Germans last night delivered several counter-attacks upon the trenches on the southern slopes of Dead Man Hill, which were occupied by us yesterday. All their endeavors failed under the French fire. The total number of German prisoners taken at this point reaches 5 officers and 180 men. "On the right bank of the river the enemy at 6 o'clock yesterday evening directed a powerful offensive movement against our positions to the north of the Thiaumont fortifications, from Hill No. 321 as far as the sides of Hill No. 320. The successive attacks of this movement broke down under the fire of our machine guns and our infantry, and it resulted in heavy losses to our assailants. "Further to the east, following a violent bombardment with largecalibre shells, the Germans undertook an attack at about 10 p.m. upon our trenches on the southern side of the Caillette wood Our curtain of fire, at once brought into play, prevented the enemy from coming out of his trenches.

BIG JAPANESE GUNS SMASHING AUSTRIANS.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 16.—12:05 p.m.—A dispatch to the Central News from Petrograd says that much of the effectiveness of the Russian artillery in their great Galician drive is due to the use of big Japanese guns. These guns are said to be more powerful than any that the Russians have had heretofore, and are charged with shells filled with a new explosive, the destructive power of which is terrific.

London, June 16 .- The correspondents of the London newspapers at British headquarters in France, send details of the recapture, by the Canadians on June 13, of part of the ground lost on June 1. The attack was delivered at 2 o'clock in the morning, after many hours of steady rain, which had made the ground sodden.

The correspondents intimate that it is possible that the position will be abandoned again voluntarily. The trenches have been battered beyond recognition, deep digging is impossible because of the wet weather and sodden ground, and the position in the judgment of the higher command may not be worth what it would cost to hold it. Wakefield's Tribute.

Lord Mayor Sir Cheers Wakefield, who has just returned from a visit to the front, stated that he regretted that his itinerary did not include a stay in the Canadian lines, but that in the Ypres district he had seen convoys of Canadian wounded, which bore ample testimony to the gallant stand they had again made in that famous sector. What appealed to him most was the heroic attitude of these men, who, though even on stretchers or in beds, expressed the hope that they would yet have a chance to get even with the enemy. This spirit was characteristic of Canada as a whole, and the help of such an army was a great thing for > Judge Barron of Stratford, raised the point that the motion was out of order from the phrasing "that the Synod of Huron authorize and direct, etc." This O. E. Fleming, K. C., William Baird and Judge Barron. he designated a usurping of the pre-rogative of the bishop.

Canon Tucker stated that the synod included the bishop. While personally he was in sympathy with the intentions of the notice of motion, he didn't like the last two lines. Without them, the motion would go out from the synod with far greater dignity and with greater regard for the men who have passed away.

The lines referred to were: "So that there be not a repetition of what we lost in days past when Methodist local should have gone."

Anglicans Were Slow. Mr. Jennings explained as soon as the opportunity presented itself that he wasn't taking exception to some certain denomination. What he had been try-ing to do was to show that the Anglicans had been foolish not to seize an opportunity which others were wise opportunity which others were wise enough to see. "It's a reflection on ourselves, not on the Methodists," he declared. Moreover, he had no idea of attacking the veterans of the church, who were so few in the past they could not cover the ground. He was pleading for a revival movement and the utilizing of the services of laymen.

Rev. W. F. Brownlee expressed his conviction that while an educational revival may be good in itself, the immediate important matter is a revival on the spiritual side. "We are face to face with unprecedented conditions," he led in the spiritual side. "We are face to face with unprecedented conditions," he led in the spiritual side. Many people, appreciative of all that the name Nordheimer signifies in the piano business, have inquired whether we could not supply an instrument somewhat lower in price than the Nordheimer itself.

These are people who do not wish so expensive a piano, yet desire to buy from a house whose reputation is their guarantee of Safety and Satisfaction.

To satisfy this demand, we searched for a manufacturer who could produce such an instrument, according to our standard.

In the "Victor" we present an instrument that answers even our exacting re-While not of Nordheimer manufacture, the Nordheimer guarantee backs it-

German Efforts Fail. 'On the Dvina front and southwest Lake Narocz, the enemy artillery at ome points opened a violent fire, followed by attempts of the Germans to debouch from their trenches. These were all repulsed.

"In the region of Baranovichi a local action took place, in which we carried enemy trenches, but afterwards, under German pressure, fell back to the point whence we started. "In the Baltic, on the night of May 31-June 1, our torpedoboats attacked a convoy of enemy steamers sailing under escort. During the engagement with the escort we sank two steamers of a small torpedo type and one auxiliary, whose crew we captured. There was no loss or damage on our side. We refrained from pursuing the enemy steamers, because during the engagenent they took their course into Swedish territorial waters.'

The Russian statement of yesterday nnounced the capture of 1,780 officers, nearly 120,000 men, 30 cannon and 260 machine guns. It is probable that the difference between those figures and the ones given in today's statement does not represent the captures made in the interval between the issuance of the two statements, but rather that the increases are due to tion from the front.

The Baltic engagement referred to Wednesday said the German auxiliary cruiser was attacked by four Russian destroyers, and was blown up by her crew, most of her men being saved. The date of this engagement is fixed in the official Russia statement by the

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE @

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I wish to call attention to the disgraceful scenes witnessed on the streets tonight. It was pay day with the soldiers, and the bars were making the most of that fact, relieving them of their hard-earned money, and sending them out on the streets at closing time drunk, in large numbers. I never saw so many intoxicated men in the city before. I have no hesitation in saying that hundreds were under the influence of liquor; many helplessly drunk—not a few being mere boys— while the air was redolent with language vile and blasphemous. I visited several bars where the law is apparently defied with impunity. They were crowded with drunken men who were served freely with all the liquor they were able to pay for. The large number of very young soldiers intoxicated was perhaps the saddest part of this disgraceful orgy.
Sir, is there no remedy for this wholesale debauching of our splendid soldier boys? Are we forever to sit idly by and confess our helplessness? Are the authorities, whose duty it is to vindicate the laws, to be allowed continually to pretend that all is well? Such scenes of lawlessness can be stopped if the men who are paid to maintain the peace of cur city will do their duty. But they don't. Why? Well, that is a problem we are unable to understand. I have but this to say in this connection, however: If I were an official charged with such a public duty and did not do it I should expect to be accused either of gross incompetence or of being a grafter. And I think such an accusation would be strictly just.

May I mention, as worthy of all praise, the splendid activities of Major Osborne—the provost marshal—who seemed to be untiring in his responsible duties.

Yours respectfully, G. F. ASSITER. 720 Queen's avenue, London.

VILLA LEADER CAPTURED. FIELD HEADQUARTERS, June 14.— Via Radio to Columbus, N.M., June 15. -Col. Pedro Lujan, one of the most prominent Villa chieftains remaining alive, was captured yesterday by Capt. Turner, commanding Troop M, 13th Cavalry, at Hacienda, Tepehakens, Lujan was one of the leaders in the raid on Columbus, N. M., March 9. His capture nearly completes the exter-mination of the Villa leaders in the raid across the border.

Dear Miss Grey,-I liked your plan "love quilt" "Aunt Nannie's" well that I "got busy" at once, with the result inclosed. I am inclosing stamps also for mailing to "Aunt Nannie," if you will be kind enough to send it to her address.

Now, for the benefit of others who will make the pieced blocks. If the centre white block is cut exactly 51/2 inches square, and the red side blocks just half as large and the corner white ones just the size of the centre divided in four quarters, then by making all seam just 4-inch, the result will be a block just 10 inches square. A eliable quilt maker told me that turkey red cotton was best for the red. This may help someone to get it just the equired size.

I have not written the Mail-Box for some time. The care of an invalid parent keeps me very busy, but I remember I have never answered your question regarding how I get eggs these days for angel cake. Well, it is something like "Topsy"-we grow 'em have twenty chickens and get from welve to eighteen eggs a day, and we certainly eat them. By the way, Miss Grey, if that picnic ever comes off and we have to supply "the eats," I'll make an angel cake especially for you. Perhaps this is already too long for the Prospects for "Aunt Nannie's" 'love quilt" seem to be very favorable indeed. I hope everyone reads "Becky Ann's" letter and the suggestions she makes re cutting the blocks for "piecing." Of course an experienced patcher would doubtless know just what would be required, but for those less accustomed "Becky Ann's" hints are just the thing.

The Quilt Grows

So far, the patched blocks are leading. Names sent in are-'Scotty," "Becky Ann," "Thamar" "Faded Lily" and "Mrs. R. S. C." Blue ones have been received from "Star That Guides" and "A

All blocks must be TEN INCHES square when pieced. The blue should be of chambray or plain print, of a shade to combine nicely with the blocks of "turkey red" or red print. Blue blocks have the pen name and address of the sender worked in white across the centre, with a wreath around, worked in outline or feather-

LONDON, June 15.-8:15 p.m.-Details on some of the incidents on the cruiser Hampshire, just before she sank off the Orkney Islands, a week ago, causing the death of Earl Kitchener, are given in an official statement issued today, based on the statements by the dozen survivors of the cruiser, who were washed ashore on a

"The captain called Lord Kitchener to the fore-bridge, near where the captain's boat was hoisted. The captain also called Lord Kitchener to enter the boat. It is unknown if Lord Kitchener entered it or what happened to any boat.

"The Hampshire was proceeding along the west coast of the Orkneys. A heavy gale was blowing and seas were break-ing over the ship, which necessitated her being partially battened down. Between 7:30 and 7:45 p.m. the vessel struck a mine, and began at once to settle by the bows, heeling over to starboard, before she finally went down about fifteen minutes after.

"Orders were given by the captain for all hands to go to their established stations for abandoning ship. Some of the hatches were opened, and the ship's company went quickly to their Efforts were made without uccess to lower some of the boats. GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT

Manager of Toronto Leafs Did Not Committee Named to Report on Question in December.

> [Special to The Advertiser.] KINCARDINE, June 15. - Brue council last week. In January a committee was appointed to look into the question and report, and their report was now presented. The committee had arranged with Mr. McLean, of the Government highway department, to be present and explain the good roads legislation, which he did at length and counties had adopted the movement and not one of them had raised any objections, or tried in any way to withdraw from it. Some think it an expensive system, but Mr. McLean thought this was from some in parts where they had no gravel, and had to import crushed stone, which would run the cost up considerably. In a county like Bruce, where they had fair roads to start on, and lots of good gravel, the expense would be very light, while the roads would be materially improved. The Government was spending large sums of money to help counties in this work, and he thought Bruce should take up the question and get its share of the money.

The matter was gone into thoroughy, and the council passed a resolution approving the scheme, and appointed a committee to look into it and report at the December session.

Paris, June 16 .- The last message received from Major Reynal, commander of Fort Vaux, before the fortress fell ago, was made public here today. The message read:

"We are reaching the limit. Officers and soldiers have all done their duty. Viva la France!

Since the beginning of the real attack on the fort in March the Germans fired no less than 8,000 projectiles daily, and in the last days before its fall this number was greatly increased, according to details of the fighting given out officially today. An eyewitness is quoted as saying: "What the infantry was powerless to realize was accomplished by artillery. The men suffered greatly from lack of water, but held out, occupying and utilizing the ruins in the interior. In vindows and between the ruins of shattered walls machine guns were installed and barricades erected at all corners. All about the outer works the bodies of Germans were thick.

The combat continued under extraordinary conditions. The Germans conceived the idea of filling baskets with grenades. These were let down by cords from windows of buildings dominating her late residence, 400 Lyle street, to the French positions and exploded on St. Mary's Church, where requiem high top of the defenders. OTTAWA MOVING

Ottawa, June 15.—The Dominion Government is going into the moving picture business. It is not do-ing so with the idea of making money, but with the object of inresting people, both in and out of Canada, in the natural resources of this Dominio

Arrangements have, it is under stood, been concluded, and camera men have already started at work filming scenes from one end of Canada to the other. These will comprise views of the country's scenie eauties, and pictures of various of its industrial systems. They will carefully chosen so as to present the Dominion, not only as a garden of nature, but also as a land opportunity. They represent the application of the most modern and popular of pictorial devices to the work of promoting immigration and interesting capital in this country, and will be used in variety of ways and by different branches of the Government Mr. Francis Holley, director of the Bureau of Commercial Economies, Washington, now recognized as one of the greatest modern educational institutions in the world, was in the city today in connec tion with this matter. It is understood Mr. Holley has interested the Canadian Government in the project, and that he has offered to exhibit any views that may be taken free to millions of citizens of the United States throughout the medium of the bureau. The offer is one which, it is likely, will be gratefully accepted by the Government. The use of moving pictures with a view to promoting immigration and trade is in line with the Government's desire to use every means to prepare now for the de velopment which it is expected

Oats rose slightly on today's market, selling at from $1.76 to $1.80 per hundredweight. The rise was occasioned by the brisk demand, and the small sup-

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE. London, June 16.—The money market has taken a sharp upward turn, owing to an indication from authoritative quarters that it is necessary to raise discount rates in order to assist excash trade. Exporters took big lots to fill space and paid the best premiums for several weeks. This is said not to be due to any export demand, but because the cut in freight rates has sent the boats expected in port in July to the seaboard by the wholesale. Oats were firm with any feature. The advance was more in sympathy with wheat and a good cash demand. Cash grain:
