City of Brantford.

The City of Brantford is beautifully situated on a ridge skirting the north bank of the Grand River, and in the centre of a country unsurpassed for its beauty and fertility. The site of the City was surrendered to the Government by the Six Nation Indians on the 19th April, 1830 and was at once surveyed and laid out by the late Louis Burwell.

The plot was divided into lots of uniform size which were sold by auction at an upset price of forty dollars each. In 1847 Brantford was incorporated as a town, the population then being three thousand, and on the 31st May, 1877, the City of Brantford was inaugurated and on the succeeding day, the first of its metropolitan existence, the event was celebrated with befitting ceremonies. At this date the population was 10,000. The following gentlemen had the honor of forming the first council of the new city: James W. Digby, Mayor; John Elliott, Reeve; John Ormerod, Wm. J. Scarfe, John J. Hawkins, P. M. Keogh, M. A. Burns, Thos. Large, Geo. Hardy, Geo. H. Wilkes, Geo. Lindley, Daniel Costello, Edward Fisher, George Watt, Dennis Hawkins.

The population is now about 11,000.

The first building on the site of the city was a log cabin erected by John Stalts in 1805, on the spot now occupied by Bingham's hotel. About two years after, Enos Bunnell built another log cabin a little farther west a few yards from the ford. In the year 1818 the hamlet contained 12 inhabitants and was then known by its present name. In 1823 the population exceeded 100, and the village contained three stores, a blacksmith, a tavern and two boot and shoe shops, one of which was owned by the late Arunah Huntington. About two years after Marshall Lewis built a grist mill on the river bank. In 1830 John

A. Wilkes built a distillery. This enterprise proved so successful that another was erected the year following by Wm. Keely. It appears these establishments were unable to supply the demand for stimulating beverages, for in 1832 a brewery was erected by Wm. Spencer on the site now occupied by Wickliffe Hall. It is needless to state that temperance societies had no existence in those days. In 1840 the Grand River Navigation Co. constructed a canal one and a-half miles in length connecting the village with the ports of Lake Erie. This canal proved of great advantage to the town. In 1854 the town was lighted with gas. In 1870 a complete system of water works was established. In the fall of 1854 the Buffalo, Brantford and Goderich branch of the Grand Trunk Railway was opened to Brantford and in 1873 the Harrisburg and Brantford branch of the Great Western Railway was completed. The Brantford, Norfolk and Port Burwell Railway connects the City with Lake Erie. By means of these lines Brantford is connected with the several railway systems of the continent.

Brantford is justly celebrated for its public buildings which are chiefly built of white brick. The Court house and County building erected in 1853 at a cost of $32,000 is situated in the centre of the city. Few cities in the Dominion can compete with Brantford in the number and beauty of its churches. The Methodist Church on Brant Avenue, St. Basil's Roman Catholic Church on Palace St., Grace Church, Episcopalian, and Zion Presbyterian Church on Darling St., are particularly remarkable as models of architectural excellence. Wickliffe Hall erected by the Young Men's Christian Association in 1875 at a cost of $22,000, is one of the chief ornaments of the city. It contains a lecture room and gymnasium and is provided with a number of bath rooms open to the public. The library of the Mechanics' Institute, numbering about 3,000 volumes, occupies a room in this building.

The Ontario Institution for the Education of the Blind occupies a prominent site just without the limits of the city. It is built of white brick in the Tudor style, and possesses a frontage of 220 feet. The grounds include an area of 65 acres, which are in a high state of cultivation. The Institution was opened in May 1872 and is designed for the education of the youthful blind, and is not in any sense either an asylum or a hospital.

The pupils are taught basket making, cane seating, knitting, braiding, sewing, etc., and are educated in reading, writing, arithmetic, geography and vocal and instrumental music. The attendance for the year ending September 30th, 1879, was 100 males and 100 females. Officers of the Institution, 1880, J. Howard Hunter, M. A., Principal; W. C. Corson, M. D. Physician; W. N. Hossie, Bursar; Mrs. M. Spaight, Housekeeper. The following are the teachers: W. Wickens; Thos. Truss; W. G. Raymond; the Misses M. D. Tyrrell; E. E. Montgomery, Edgar, Moore, Mahony, Forster, Jones and Nolan.

Brantford Young Ladies College is also a splendid building.

The Mohawk Institute situated about two miles from the city is a school for the education and maintenance of Indian children of both sexes. In connection there is a farm of about two hundred acres which is cultivated by the pupils under the direction of the superintendent. Every Sabbath the scholars attend the old Mohawk Church. The service is conducted by the Rev. Canon Nelles, for many years resident missionary. This Institution was founded by the New England Society for the propagation of the Gospel among the Indians. This society was established upwards of two hundred years ago and is still engaged in its laudable undertaking.

It is unnecessary in a work of this character to enlarge on the industry, energy and enterprise which has always characterized the citizens of Brantford. It is enough to say that the youthful city will compare favorably with any other in the Dominion. The principal industries of the city will be found under the head of "Classified Business Directory" in this work.

THE BEST IS ALWAYS THE CHEAPEST

— THE —

Brantford Expositor,

DAILY AND WEEKLY,

George Street, Market Square, Brantford.

WM. WATT, Jr., PROPRIETOR.

THE DAILY EXPOSITOR

Was established on the 3rd of April, 1873, and is therefore in the eighth year of its publication. It enjoys a good and daily increasing local circulation, and secures the general patronage of a discerning public. It is admitted to be the best local advertising medium in town. Subscription, $5 per annum.

THE WEEKLY EXPOSITOR

Is now in the 28th year of its publication, having been established on the 12th day of October, 1852. It is the largest paper in the County of Brant, and enjoys a first class circulation. It is well printed, carefully written, and, we flatter ourselves, as energetically conducted as any other country journal in Canada. Yearly advertisers liberally dealt with. Subscription price, $1.50 a year in advance.

THE EXPOSITOR JOB PRINTING DEPARTMENT

Is one of the best appointed in the west. All the latest and most fashionable styles of type are promptly introduced. Prices moderate, and fair dealing towards customers strictly adhered to. Large orders carefully estimated and filled at lowest living rates. Orders by mail or otherwise promptly filled.

The last named township is an Indian reserve, and has no municipal organization.

This county is unsurpassed for its fertility and great natural agricultural advantages, is well watered by the Grand River and its tributaries. The county is traversed by the Grand Trunk and Great Western railways—the leading lines of Canada—and also by the Harrisburg and Brantford and Wellington, Grey and Bruce branches of the Great Western and the Brantford, Norfolk & Port Burwell railways. The last named line is intended to form, with the Credit Valley railway, a direct communication with the city of Toronto, and consequently with the entire railway system of the continent.

The county is divided into two electoral districts, North and South ridings. The representatives in the Federal Parliament are Messrs. Gavin Fleming and Wm. Paterson, and in the Local H. Finlayson and Hon. A. S. Hardy. The population of the county, census of 1871, was 32,259, and at present it may be estimated at about 37,000.

The confederacy known as the Five Nations was formed about the year 1540, and consisted of the Mohawks, Oneidas, Onondagas, Cayugas and Senecas; about the year 1712 the Tuscaroras were admitted, and the allied tribes were subsequently known as the Six Nations.

In the year 1784 a tract of land six miles on each side of the Grand River, extending from its mouth to its source, was surrendered by the Ojibways to the Government and transferred to the Six Nation Indians, the faithful allies of the British during the revolutionary war, under warrant of Sir Frederick Haldimand, dated 25th October of that year. This tract included about 700,000 acres. The Indians took immediate possession and formed a settlement about two miles below the present city of Brantford, to which they gave the name of Mohawk, after the valley where they had formerly resided in the Province of New York. Here they erected the first Protestant church in Upper Canada, which is still standing.

The land at present in possession of the Indians consists of 44,000 acres, forming the township of Tuscarora, and about 8,000 acres in the Township of Oneida. The Indian population (May 1880) is 3,205. The Chiefs are Teypercoga, Johnson and Capt. Brant

JOSEPH BRANT (Thayendanega), a Mohawk Indian of pure blood, was born on the banks of the Ohio in 1742. He received a good education in Connecticut. In the revolutionary war of 1776 he became the ally of the English, and as a prominent chief among the Iroquois he influenced several cantons of that celebrated league to join the British standard. During that war he was chiefly engaged in raids upon the border settlements of New York and Pennsylvania with John, the son of Sir Wm. Johnston, and Col Butler. During the revolution he held a colonel's commission from the King. At the close of the war he removed to Canada with the Six Nations. He translated the gospel of St. Mark into the Mohawk language, and in many ways exerted himself to promote the temporal and spiritual welfare of his people. He was greatly respected and beloved by them, and by the English. He visited England in 1783, and died near Wellington Square November 24th, 1807, aged 65 years. His remains were removed to the Mohawk village, and interred near the church which he had erected there. His son John led the Mohawks at the battle of Queenston, in October, 1812. Joseph Brant was a noble specimen of a Christian Indian, and did much to alleviate the horrors of Indian warfare during the period of the American revolutionary war. A monument to his memory is to be erected in Victoria Park, Brantford.

TOWNSHIPS.

TOWNSHIP OF BRANTFORD.—This is the largest township in the county, having an area of 78,400 acres. The greater part of the land was sold by the Indians in 1830 and following years. It formed part of the county of Wentworth until 1852, when it was annexed to Brant.

Bow Park, the finest and largest stock farm in Canada, is in this township, and is situated about 3 miles south-east of the city. This estate, the property of the heirs of the late lamented Hon. Geo. Brown, consists of 900 acres, 780 of which are under cultivation, the remaining 120 consisting of roads, building sites, orchard grounds and belts of ornamental timber. Few more beautiful farms are to be found anywhere, and it is visited by tourists from all parts of the world.

TOWNSHIP OF SOUTH DUMFRIES.—This township, with North Dumfries, formed a tract of land 12 miles square which, in 1798, was sold to P. Stedman by Capt. Brant for the sum of £8,841, but the title was not legalized until the year 1816, when it was surveyed and settled. It contains an area of 46,495 acres.
