TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

TO-NIGHT.—Remember the entertainment this evening at the Working Men's Club.

The Galt Reporter proposes a railway from Waterloo through Listowel to Kincardine.

On Monday evening a few of Mr. McMillan's friends entertained him at supper at the Dalby House, Elora, previous to his departure on the following morning to take up his residence at Whitby.

The London Free Press says a petition was in circulation in that city on Wednesday, praying that executive leniency maybe extended to the condemned criminal, Mrs Campbell, now in jail under the sentence of death.

AMATEUR CONCERT AT DRAYTON. — A concert and dramatic performance came off on Wednesday evening in Warkle's Hall, under the auspices of the Drayton Literary Society, for a benevolent purpose. It was a great success. Upwards of $100 was taken at the door.

THAMES.—Mr. Edward Parsons, on behalf of himself and wife, desires, through our columns, to return his sincere thanks to the members of the Guelph Township Council, and all other friends, for the active part they took in instituting measures for the arrest of the scoundrel Wilson, who has been found guilty of committing the outrage on his wife.

GRAVEYARD.—Mr. Cornelius Clump, of South Dunfries, has this year clipped as much as 17 lbs. of wool off his rams. This great yield of wool Mr. Clump attributes in a great part, to a wash prepared by Mr. Maxwell Clarke, of that neighborhood, which was applied to the skin of the animal some time previously.

The Galt Reporter says:—From a correspondent, who has lately travelled through the Townships of Proton, Luther and Arthur, we learn that very serious loss has occurred to the farmers in those Townships from the scarcity of feed. Stock of all kinds is dying, and only a rapid opening of spring can save much that is left, as feed cannot be obtained.

ACCIDENT ON THE GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY.—The Times of Thursday says: Two freight trains came into collision yesterday afternoon at a point near St. David's, in consequence of a misunderstanding on the part of a telegraph operator, resulting in considerable damage to two of the Company's new narrow-gauge engines and four or five freight cars, with their contents. Engine-driver Dunn received a cut on the head, not at all serious.

The Listowel Banner says that the preliminary surveys of the last section of the Southern Extension of the Wellington, Grey & Bruce Railway have been completed from Lucknow to Kincardine, and the engineers are busily engaged in making the final location between those two points. This will be done in a short time, and that section of the line will then be in a position to be placed under contract.

Y. M. C. ASSOCIATION CONVERSATION.—The conversation given by the Young Men's Christian Association on Thursday evening, in the Town Hall, was a decided success, the attendance being large and the entertainment very interesting and duly appreciated. After devotional exercises the President of the Association, Dr. McGuire, opened the proceedings with a few remarks, referring to the success of the organization in Guelph, and the duty of every member. Mr. Wilkie, Secretary of the Toronto Association, gave an interesting account of the work performed in Toronto, and the means employed, which he recommended the young men of Guelph to copy. Mr. G. A. Young, of the Hamilton Association, also gave an interesting account of the missionary work in that city. The Misses Stevenson sang a duet, "Will the Angels come to me," in a very pleasing manner. Master, Hutton was present and gave his "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep" in his usual capital style. Misses Keeling and Schofield and Messrs. Burr and Savage sang a beautiful quartette, "When I can read my title clear." Mr. M. Armour was very successful in his rendering of "Eliza," a beautiful and pathetic poem. The most attractive item on the programme, and one which created much interest, was the debate, "Should woman engage in the franchise pursuits of life, and should the franchise be extended to her?" Messrs. K. McLean and W. Strong, affirmative, and Messrs. Russell and Smith, negative. The argument was well sustained on both sides, and some of the speeches were very neat and created considerable interest, but the majority's votes were obtained, the popular prejudice being too strong against their cause. Revs. Messrs. Clarke and Hogg gave short addresses, encouraging the young men to be courageous and hopeful, and to work hard for the reform of their fellow-creatures. The Wesleyan Methodist choir was present and lent very efficient aid in furthering the enjoyment of those present. At the conclusion votes of thanks were tendered to the speakers from a distance, the ministers of the town, the choir, McLeod, Wood & Co. for the use of the organ, the ladies who assisted in the sale of tickets, and those who engaged in the programme, and after singing and prayer the meeting closed.

NEWS FROM CENTRAL AMERICA.

Dublin, April 25.—The remains of Earl Mayo, late Viceroy of India, have arrived at Kingstown, Ireland, having been conveyed from Suez on the Government steam packet Enchepetra. An imposing funeral procession, nearly a mile in length, consisting of the principal officers of Government, a large detachment of regular troops, and many City societies was then formed, and passed the principal streets, which were crowded with dense masses of sympathizing spectators. Conspicuous in the funeral cortege were the Marquis of Lorne, representative of the Queen, and Earl Spenser, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. The remains will be taken to Naas, the family seat of the deceased, for final interment.

London, April 25.—The Atlanta Boat Club crew, of New York, stopped last night at the Washington Hotel, in Liverpool. Havana, April 26.—The steamer Morro Castle from New York, via Nassau, arrived this morning. She reports that a bark and a brig were ashore at Salt Key Bank, Savantera Shoal. The bark had apparently bulged, but the brig seemed to be lightening. No wreckers were seen around them. The vessel which arrived at Nassau on the 23rd reported an Aspinwall steamer ashore last week on Watlin Island. The steamer threw some of her cargo overboard, got off and proceeded on her way.

Fire near Morrisburg.

A fire took place about half-past three this a. m. The grist and saw mill belonging to Cook Bros., situated on Nash's Creek, about half-a-mile east of Morrisburg, were discovered to be on fire, and before the fire could be extinguished they were totally destroyed. Guelph Township Rape Case.

APRIL 25.

QUEEN vs. WILSON.

The Prisoner was placed on his trial for committing rape on the person of Mrs. Edward Parsons, Guelph Township, on the afternoon of the 1st of November last.

The facts of the above outrage will be fresh in the recollection of our readers. Prisoner is a man past middle age, grey haired, and is somewhat lame. He says he was once a soldier in the 16th regiment. He went to Mrs. Parson's house, which is situated in the hollow in what is known as the Beaver Meadow, close to the Erasmus road, and asked to be allowed to warm himself. After some conversation, as described by Mrs. Parson in her evidence, and after a long and terrible struggle, prisoner effected his purpose, and immediately left. Steps were at once taken to have him arrested, and he was offered for his apprehension, but it was not till a fortnight after that he was identified by the printed description near Brantford, arrested and brought to Guelph.

He was then brought up for examination before the Police Magistrate, identified by Mrs. Parson as the man who violated her person, and was committed to stand his trial.

Prisoner is evidently a violent and hardened wretch. Both at the Police Court and during his trial he used very coarse and insulting language to the legal gentlemen. Mr. Peterson acted as Prosecuter, prisoner was undefended.

Mr. Peterson having stated the case to the jury, called

Mrs. Parson, who on being sworn said:—On the afternoon of the day in question prisoner came and asked to be allowed to warm himself. He said he was hungry and would like something to eat; he remained about 3 quarters of an hour; came into the room where I was attending to the cooking; prisoner spoke to me; said it was a very dry summer, then I left the room for another little room outside the other, and while there I heard him moving, he came towards me and caught me by both hands, I released one hand and pushed him down the steps, I told him if he thought I could not get help I could soon do so, I then dragged myself to the outside door and called murder; whilst doing so he swung me round and threw me on the floor, and came on me with all his might, and grasped me tight round the throat, my left arm was under my head; I struggled with him for some time, and said if he would only let me up, I would give him anything there was in the house; when struggling with me he told me I was strong, and I said he would find so; he said he could master me, that he was an Orangeman, and that I was not the first woman he had served so; I seized him by the whiskers, and pulled some of the hair out; I struggled with him about half an hour, I told the eldest of my two little children who were at home to go for help; prisoner then caught me by the throat and said he would murder me; again struggled with him till I was quite exhausted, he then accomplished his purpose; after prisoner had done this I went to the road when a young man on horse back came up, and I told him that a man had been trying to murder me; he replied it was none of his business and rode on; shortly after I met my three elder children and told them to go for their father, as a man had nearly murdered me, the prisoner was then on his way towards Guelph; my husband came and immediately started in pursuit of prisoner; when he returned I told him all the circumstances; recognize the crutch and carpet bag, but the stick is not the same; recognized prisoner at once; have no doubt whatever that he is the person who committed the violence described; several persons were arrested I looked at them all for recognition; when the prisoner was presented I had not the slightest difficulty in identifying him.

Prisoner was asked by the judge if he had any questions to ask, but he insolently refused to ask any, every now and again ejaculating that they were all a damned parcel of hounds; if they were decent people "he might" etc.

Edward Parsons, sworn, said, an husband of the last witness, testified that he was summoned home by his two eldest children in consequence of an intimation from their mother that she had been brutally assaulted; hastened home as quickly as possible; found his wife in a state of great excitement, and after staying for a minute, started off in pursuit of the prisoner whom she described. After the lapse of about an hour I returned home, having failed to find him; on my return found my wife in bed, and her face swollen, never saw or heard of prisoner before.

J. Langford sworn, said, lives on the town line between Guelph and Erasmus, saw prisoner at my tavern on the night before the 1st of November; my horses stable on the gravel road going to Guelph, he came with another man who was moving up to Kincardine; prisoner left my place between 11 and 12 o'clock, said he was going to Guelph to draw a pension, recognize crutch and carpet bag, very similar to the ones the prisoner had, but doesn't think the stick the same, said he could walk without the crutch, when he left my tavern he went over to the neighbouring tavern. Asked me for work, told him to go to S.W. King; when he returned, said they couldn't agree, this was before he went to the other tavern, that was the last I saw of prisoner.

By prisoner—Did not say different at the Police Court to what I have done here.

Prisoner then said that it was no use wasting more time asking him questions as the truth was not in him.

Mrs. Walter West testified that she lived about three-quarters of a mile from Mr. Edward Parsons; remember the prisoner calling at our house on the November Fair Day between 4 and 5 p. m., asked me to give him something, as he had fallen off a building in Guelph and broken his thigh and was unable to work at masonry; I gave him some apples, he remained a little while and then went away; had nothing with him but a crutch and a stick, the carpet bag was left at the gate; recognize crutch and bag, and think the stick is the same; when prisoner left he went towards Guelph; was asked to go down to Mrs. Parson's about five or ten minutes after prisoner left; found Mrs. Parson very much frightened and alarmed; she asked me if I had seen such a person as prisoner, told her that he had just passed through the toll gate a few minutes before her little girl came for me; have not the slightest doubt the prisoner is the same man.

No question asked by prisoner.

Dr. Keating testified that he attended Mrs. Edward Parsons on the afternoon of Nov. 2nd, and found her very weak and excited, her face swollen, neck the same and a red mark round it, two marks on her arm and on her shoulder blade, two marks as if made by pressure or blows, a cut on her upper lip; she complained of great tenderness on each side of the lower ribs; she accounted for all these bruises, &c., by the description of the assault given by her to-day; the injuries were undoubtedly quite recent.

By prisoner—How long a time elapsed before you visited her?

Witness—I visited Mrs. Parson in the afternoon about three o'clock.

Prisoner—Then she could not have been very bad. I suppose you wanted to have something to charge for and therefore make out these injuries were worse than they were.

Chief Constable Kelly was sworn and detailed the circumstances connected with the arrest of the prisoner. When brought before Mrs. Parson's she at once identified him.

The only witness prisoner called for the defence was W. Harris, of Streetsville, who keeps a hotel there. When questioned he said he did not recollect the prisoner at all. His wife was brought before Mrs. Parson's she at once identified him.

The judge then briefly summed up, and the jury having retired, in a few minutes returned with a verdict of guilty.

The prisoner received the verdict with the same insolent indifference as he manifested during the entire trial. Scarcely a witness escaped without an outpouring of vulgar oaths, when his time for cross-examining them came.

Morrisburg Horse Show.

From our correspondent.

The annual show of entire horses was held at Morrisburg, on Wednesday, 1st inst., and proved a great success both in the quality and number of the horses exhibited. There were 12 entries.

The day was beautiful, in fact the finest we have had this season, but notwithstanding the necessity there was for our farmers being at the plough and harrow, they turned out far larger than usual, and appeared well pleased with the display of horseflesh.

The judges were Messrs. Billington, Dundas, and A. Fleming and P. Grant, Puslinch, and on the whole their judgment gave great satisfaction. The prizes were:

HEAVY DRAUGHT.—2 prizes, 1st $8, 2nd $1. 1st, Champion King, Robert Ferguson, Beverley; 2nd, Marquis of Lorne, Hector McCaig, Puslinch.

GENERAL PURPOSE.—4 prizes, 1st $3, 2nd $2, 3rd $1.50, 4th $1. 1st, Highland Rover, Wm. McKenzie, Puslinch; 2nd, Prince Alfred, Don. McCaig, Puslinch; 3rd, Grand Exhibition, D. Hefferman, Guelph; 4th, Sir Tatam Sikes, Jas. Moffat, Nassawaga.

ROADSTER.—3 prizes, 1st $3, 2nd $2, 3rd $1.50. 1st, Whitehorn, C. Cockburn, Puslinch; 2nd, Merrie Farmer, George Love, Erasmus; 3rd, Badenoch Champion, N. M. Elliot, Puslinch.

"Howling Dervishes."

And now the entire Conservative press, from the great Mail down to the Hamilton Spectator, are howling against the Ontario Government because they have seen fit to insure the Government buildings in various parts of the Province, and in so doing have allotted ten risks, amounting to $78,000, to an Insurance Company in Toronto, of which the Hon. Alexander Mackenzie is President. They demand that the Provincial Treasurer manifested a want of delicacy—in fact, that he acted corruptly—in favouring the Isolated Risk Co. Now, we presume the proper way to look at this business transaction is to enquire whether or not the required insurance was effected as cheap or cheaper than has been in any other, and as this has been clearly demonstrated, we cannot see how any unprejudiced, fair-minded man can find any fault, with the action of the Government. If the Treasurer had paid a higher rate to the Isolated Risk Co. than other Companies would have demanded, then he would have been open to censure, but not under the circumstances indicated. But the Conservative press must have something to howl about in view of the coming elections, and as small minds generally grasp at small things, it is not at all wonderful that this ordinary business transaction of the Treasurer has been magnified into an act of unbecoming corruption. Corruption, indeed! It is "enough to sicken a horse" to hear the Conservative press talk about corruption! Howl away, gentlemen.—Dundas Banner.

EDITORIAL NEWS.

Mr. McKellar gives notice that the evening classes will be opened in the School of Technology, on Monday, the 6th proximo.

OUT of the quarter million persons forming the population of Boston, it is said there are upwards of six thousand natives of Nova Scotia.

A rumor is afloat that the elections will come on in July, if not earlier. It is well to be prepared for an early date.

The Winnipeg Manitoban boasts, and perhaps not without good reason, that of the 182 persons placed in the dock of the Police Court during the seven months ending 11th April, "there was not one female."

The opinion is generally entertained that Sir John A. cannot leave the treaty an open question without violating the agreement with the Imperial Government; nevertheless, the report is still current that he will take that course.

FREDRICK DOUGLASS' paper, New National Era, says that many colored people are becoming Roman Catholics. A considerable portion of the colored population of Washington are Roman Catholics and the number is steadily increasing.

It is reported that Sir John A. Macdonald will introduce a measure for carrying the Treaty into operation, but will shirk the responsibility of making it a Government question. He will, it is said, leave it an open question, allowing individual ministers to vote as they please.

The Halifax Chronicle has an article repeating the charge of Dr. Tupper's complicity in the corrupt scheme for securing valuable coal areas at Springhill, and challenges him to vindicate himself before a Committee of the House of Commons, which, it assumes, will be appointed to investigate the matter.

A MOVEMENT is on foot in Norfolk to get up a testimonial to F. L. Walsh, Esq., Registrar of the County and father of Mr. Aquilla Walsh, the present member of Parliament for the North Riding of the County, and a member of the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners. The Hamilton Times says the elder Walsh is a man deservedly respected, but the object of the present movement is not so much to do him honor as it is to assist the son at the coming elections. It is therefore regarded by the Reformers of the county as a mere political dodge.

A HARD CHARACTER.—The Manitoba Liberal thus bids good bye to ex-Governor Archibald:—When between his personal timidity, and his ardent desire to fulfil his instructions, there has been no degradation of his position, or dishonor to his country too low to stoop to. No injustice was too great to perpetrate, provided the peculiar ends he aimed at were accomplished. All his acts; the total want of respect to the people which he showed in the selection of his ministers; the appointment to the magistracy of men like the rebel John Bruce; his interference with elections; his injustice in mapping out the electoral divisions; discouragement of immigration; his interference with the duties of his advisers (save the mark); his screening the banditti of '69, '70; down to the final embrace of that ruffianly leader; all have served to bring the people who have submitted to them into contempt in our sister provinces, and cast a blight upon the infancy of this Province which will require the vigor of a new Governor and a new administration to overcome.

The Estimates for 1872-73. The estimates of the proposed expenditure for 1872-73 have been submitted. It will be seen that the total estimated outlay is $29,675,460 against $27,496,456 for the year about expiring, an excess of nearly $2,200,000. Of the gross estimates, $9,712,773 is regulated by statute, and therefore the amount actually controllable by the House is $19,962,686.

Under the head Charges of Management of Public Debt an increase is proposed of no less than $63,000; $4,500 of which arises from the branch offices of the Receiver-General and their contingent arrangements. The costs of Civil Government is increased to nearly $35,000; Administration of Justice, $14,000; Legislation, $61,000; Geological Surveys and Observatories, $20,000; Immigration and Quarantine, $220,000; Marine Hospitals, $9,000; Superannuations, $41,000; Public Works on Capital Account, $2,200,000; Packet Service, $30,000; Lighthouse and Coast Service, $123,000; Indians, $37,000; Collection of Costs, $34,000; Collection of Inland Revenue, $37,000; Post Office, $148,000; Public Works Revenue Account, $546,500; and subsidies to Provinces, $205,000.

On the other hand there is a decrease in interest payable on the Public Debt of $56,000; on the Statistical Department, $210,000; Militia and defence, $180,000; Miscellaneous, $132,000; Weights and Measures, $50,000; besides a few items of smaller amount.

We are not able at the present moment to analyze the details of increase and decrease. It is, however, a significant fact that out of thirty-one heads an increase has taken place in twenty-one of them. As an indication of the general tendency to a permanent increase in departmental expenditure, it may be mentioned that every clerk in Sir G. E. Cartier's department is set down for an increased salary of from one to two hundred dollars per annum, and a similar increase is to be found in other offices. Seventy thousand dollars is allotted to the several Provinces towards encouraging immigration, and there are grants in aid of the principal British Emigration Societies.

Two millions and a half over the amount of last year is set down for the construction or enlargement of Canals; $2,000,000 towards deepening the St. Lawrence below Montreal, half of the total cost being paid by the harbor commerce of that city; $500,000 as first instalment towards the new Erie Verte Canal; $51,550,000 for the enlargement of the Welland; $500,000 for the Lachine; $500,000 for the Beauharnois, Cornwall and Williamsburg Canals. There is also $350,000 towards an additional basin and wharf accommodation on the Lachine at the Montreal terminus of that canal. It is evident that the whole expenditure as well as the character of not a few of the appropriations will need the most rigid scrutiny before the House endorses them with its sanction.—Globe.

SCOTLAND'S WRONGS.—And now Scotland makes known her "wrongs." The Scottish American Journal prefaces an account of an eviction in Scotland with the following:—"When the Irish Land Act was passed, it was foreseen by most people who devoted any thought to the subject, that one of its inevitable consequences would be to bring into strong relief the superiority of the privileges granted to tenant-farmers on one side of the Irish Channel over those enjoyed by them on the other. A case detailed by Mr. James Caird, the well-known Scottish agricultural reformer, in a recent letter to the London Times, may prove the basis of an agitation having for its object the placing of the tenant-farmer in the United Kingdom on at least as advantageous a footing as his fellow-cultivators in Ireland.

THREE MEN OVER THE FALLS.—NIAGARA FALLS, April 25.—Yesterday afternoon about one p. m., three men were seen struggling in the rapids between the American shore and Goat Island. No help could be given them, and they all went over the falls. It is supposed they were from Chippewa, Ontario, and were on a fishing excursion, but being carried down by the current, they attempted to land at the head of Goat Island, but the boat striking a rock, was dashed to pieces. They were seen by Messrs A. B. Gantz and W. Shipman. Nothing further known at present.

HELEN MOIR OR LOVE AND HONOUR.

A TALE OF THE CLYDE.
 CHAPTER XXVII

Then they both threw themselves upon him, and a terrific struggle ensued, for the strongest passions in the nature of each were inflamed, and called forth their full strength to the utmost. Bridgenorth was a powerful man, and his rage made him fierce as a lion, so that he struck the weak-limbed Frenchman from him with the force of a projectile. But presently the long arms of the Hunchback were twined round him in a suffocating embrace, and the great strength which resided in his mis-shapen frame was more of a match for Bridgenorth's roused energy. The most strenuous efforts which the latter put forth could not free him from the vice-hold of Jaquin, and they swayed and rolled from side to side of the narrow cabin with deadly wrestle amid the smoke.

Before the struggle could be determined on either side, Dubosque had recovered, and flew to the assistance of his associate, and at the same moment two men—attracted by the report of the pistol and the noise of the struggle—rushed into the cabin, and all four throwing themselves on Bridgenorth, soon overpowered him, and bound him securely with strong cords.

Meanwhile, Helen had, with a wild scream, flown on deck, and in her distraction was about to throw herself over the side to escape the horrible fate which Dubosque had threatened, when she was caught in the arms of the officer who had lured them on board, and prevented from carrying out her rash purpose.

"For the love of heaven, do not hold me," she cried. "Oh, if you are a man, let me escape from the hands of this monster."

"Could not think of letting you leap over the side, Mam'selle," he returned, keeping close hold of her. "He doesn't mean to harm you—quite the opposite. He means to marry you, and—hilloa! she has fainted. How devilish pretty she is. Don't wonder that Dubosque wants to snatch her from the arms of the libellous pork-eating German. I'd better have her below before she comes round."

He bore his senseless burden down the companion-way, and carried her into the cabin, where by this time her father was securely bound, and rendered incapable of further resistance.

Helen revived as they carried her in, and seeing her father prostrate on the floor, she flew forward with a shriek and knelt beside him.

"Oh, father, father," she piteously cried, imagining in her terror that he was wounded and dying.

"Don't alarm yourself on his account, Mam'selle," said Dubosque. "We have not hurt him, and it is his own fault that he lies there. I have no intention to do either him or you an injury, and provided he will keep quiet and offer no useless resistance, his cords will be taken off. Rousell, you and the men can go; we shall not need you further."

The men went away, and the prisoners were once more alone with their two enemies.

"Monsieur is too hot and hasty," observed the Frenchman, whose cue was to conciliate his victims if he could. "I was provoked into saying what I did not mean. I am too deeply penetrated by love for Mam'selle to offer her an insult. And though I have taken this unusual method to secure the prize, I shall not abuse the power I have gained. For the rest of the voyage you shall not be molested by our presence—only kept in this cabin in safe custody. So soon as we land in France our marriage shall be duly and regularly celebrated, and after that when Monsieur and Mam'selle find that matters are unalterable, they will no doubt submit with a good grace, and become pleasant and agreeable. Here is a small knife, Mam'selle, with which, when we are gone, you can cut the cords by which Monsieur is bound. For the present, farewell. You shall have every comfort compatible with your safe custody.

He laid the knife on one of the cushioned seats, and he and Jaquin quitted the cabin—the latter casting back on them a hideous grin as he closed the door and thrust its bolts into their sockets.

With an eager yet suppressed exclamation, Helen darted to where the knife was lying and snatched it up. Her first act with it was to cut the bonds from her father's limbs, but, with a concentrated thrill of feeling, she placed it carefully away in her bosom, rejoicing in the thought that, should the moment of extremity come, she had the means of escaping for ever from the polluting hands of Victor Dubosque.

It is stated that during the past year ten thousand accessions in proportion to membership have been made to Episcopal churches in any other American churches in the city of New York.

Too much cannot be said as to their superiority over the ordinary glasses worn—there is no glimmering, wavering of the sight, dizziness, or other unpleasant sensation, but on the contrary, from the peculiar construction of the Lenses, they are soothing and pleasant, causing a feeling of relief to the wearer and producing a clear and distinct vision as in the natural and healthy sight. The Murder at Newport.

In our issue of Thursday we gave some particulars regarding a murder said to have been committed at Newport, near Brantford on Monday last. The following further particulars respecting the tragedy are taken from the Ontario of Wednesday—

An inquest was held last evening, at Newport, on the body of David Green, the Indian so foully murdered a short distance from that village on Monday evening. From the evidence it appears that the murdered man, in company with two cousins, had been in Brantford on the day of the murder, going from there to Newport, on the evening proceeded from thence home. On the road home they met a wagon, when Green proposed taking a ride, but as they could not all three ride the cousins advised him to remain with them and walk. This, it seems, he did. The cousins, however, have not since been heard of, nor have the authorities been able to obtain any clue as to their whereabouts. It is said that a dispute was pending between the parties as to the ownership of some land, and which was in possession of the deceased, but that any foul play has resulted out of the dispute in question we can only surmise, as doubtless others will do from the evidence through the examination at the inquest.

Nothing was added to prove that any of the parties were the worse of liquor, although they had partaken of less or more while at Newport. The inquest was adjourned for further evidence, of the progress of which we shall keep our readers notified. In the meantime suspicion points strongly to the two cousins as perpetrators of this foul deed, or accessories.

Bread and Molasses.

The following relating to the Washington Treaty appears in the Brooklyn Union:

"A girl who desperately wanted to get married, but her mother wouldn't let her, found consolation in a slice of bread well served with molasses. The Dominion government strongly remonstrated with the home government because she did not in the Washington Treaty urge damages from the Fenians, and secure commercial advantages as a price for the temporary use of the fishery ground by Americans. For a time Canada refused to be reconciled to the treaty which her mother earnestly sought her to respect, but has finally consented, as the British government has promised her the bread and molasses in the shape of a £2,500,000 loan to construct a Canadian Pacific Railway and the extension of her canal system."

The amount of damages sustained by the Peruvian is reported to be much less than at first supposed, and but a small portion of the cargo has been injured. She will be taken to Portland for thorough repairs.

BREAKFAST—Epps' Cocoa—GRATEFUL and COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor bills.—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labeled "James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps' Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

Oppression after eating, headache, nervous debility, are the effects of indigestion. One, or two at most, of Parson's Purgative Pills will give immediate relief. Johnson's Anodyne Liniment may be administered to children with perfect success, in cases of croup, whooping-cough, influenza, and almost any of the diseases to which they are liable.
