ACCIDENT ON THE G. T. R.—On Saturday an express train on the G. T. R., when at Sidney, five miles west of Belleville, ran off the track. The accident was caused by the switch being left open instead of closed by the operator, who also acted as switchman. The engine and two cars were smashed to pieces. RE-ARREST OF ONE OF THE GALT ROBBERS—The two men who were arrested on suspicion of being connected with the robbery of Mr. McElroy, in Galt, and who were recently discharged, are again wanted by the authorities. On Saturday last the Berlin gaoler found a pair of cuff studs, with McElroy's initials, in the cells in which the prisoners had been confined.

FROM INFORMATION RECEIVED, Chief Constable Klippert had reason to suspect that one or both of them were in Toronto, where he proceeded on Monday, and arrested one of them, named McDonald, alias Carpenter.

THE RECENT EXPRESS ROBBERY—The Troy Times thinks it can make a pretty good guess as to the whereabouts of John I. Filkins, the Albany express robber, who recently escaped from Clinton prison. The details of the express robbery in Canada lead to the almost positive conclusion that he is skulking about in that Dominion, and the similarity between this affair and his adventure in Albany is so striking as to induce the belief that he led the plundering band of masqueraders who recently committed the express robbery on the Great Western Railway.

Board of Education.

The Board met on Monday evening. Mr. Peterson in the chair. Present: Messrs. Kennedy, Knowles, Newton, Murton, Inglis, Mackenzie, Bell, Wilkie, Stevenson, Harvey, Raymond, Dr. Keating.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Miss Addison, for increase of salary, asking $400, that being the amount previously given to the situation which she holds.

Mr. McKay, Elora, presented an application for the position of Principal of High and Public Schools, but the time for receiving these having passed no action was taken.

From Mr. Dingwall, stating that he had passed a law examination, so that if at any future time he should find it desirable to follow that profession he might take advantage of it.

An account from Wallace, Watt & Cutten of $35 51 was referred to the Finance Committee.

The report of the Special Committee appointed to consider the applications for the position of Principal of the Schools, was presented by Mr. Peterson. They recommended the following three candidates to the consideration of the Board:—Messrs. Wallace, Dingwall, and Dunn.

The report was, on motion, received, after which the Board went into Committee of the whole to consider the report. Mr. Mackenzie in the chair.

Moved by Mr. Murton, seconded by Mr. Knowles, that the application of Mr. Dingwall be accepted.

Mr. Murton said that from the testimony received by Mr. Peterson he believed that Mr. Dingwall would be a very fit person to take charge of the schools of this town.

Mr. Peterson said that when Mr. Dingwall was asked, when before the Commission, had he ever been a member of the law society at Toronto, as the name had appeared in the Globe as such, he (Mr. Dingwall) denied, saying that it was his brother who had passed the examination referred to. Mr. Peterson had made investigation of the matter and found that the name of the gentleman who had passed the examination was Kenneth Dingwall, the same name as that of the gentleman who had applied for the Principalship. Mr. Dingwall's name was enrolled as a member of the law society at Toronto in the letter from him, read by the Secretary, to-night. Further, Mr. Dingwall had studied law in the United States. When asked by the Committee if he intended to make teaching his profession for life his answer in the affirmative was given, not without considerable hesitation. He considered that the Board ought to select a man whose mind was settled upon being a teacher for life. He had no objection personally to find with Mr. Dingwall's qualifications.

Mr. Harvey said that the fact of his having studied law would not in any way detract from his usefulness as a teacher.

Mr. Wilkie said that Mr. Dingwall had his degree from Cobourg, which is not of such high standing as that of Toronto. All the experience he had, was in teaching the first half of the present year in Niagara.

Mr. Stevenson thought that a Principal should not be appointed over the High School, but only over the Public Schools. He thought the difficulty was not with the High School, but with the Public Schools. He thought that it was not desirable to put any one over Mr. Lafferty, because he had experience and had won several gold medals. The Public Schools were full of disorder, and not graded properly.

Mr. Harvey said that he would like to see the letter Mr. Lafferty had received from Mr. McLennan, recommending him to the position of Principal. In his report after the examination he had not spoken in terms at all flattering of the state of the Guelph schools, which statement he found some difficulty in reconciling his recommendation.

Mr. Stevenson said that Mr. Harvey's report was the establishment of the school at the Waterloo Road, and that "pet" scheme had failed. It was wrong to have that school there, which was in reality nothing less than a rival to the High School.

Mr. Peterson said that he had been very favorably impressed with Mr. Dingwall as regards appearance and everything else connected with him. He thought, however, he had equivocated in the matter of passing the law examination. He had denied the fact before the Committee, and since to say in his letter, read to-night, he had acknowledged that he had passed the examination. He had in Committee brought forward the name of Mr. Dunn, and was in favor of that gentleman.

Mr. Tyler of St. Mary's had recommended, in his opinion, superior to Mr. Dingwall. They had consulted several parties acquainted with Mr. Tyler, and in every case he had been spoken of in the most flattering terms. He said they should not be in any hurry to make his appointment until they had seen Mr. Tyler. His recommendations had not received in Committee that consideration to which they were entitled.

Mr. Harvey—Mr. Tyler's name was brought forward in Committee and dropped. He was strongly in favor of having a vote taken on this question.

Dr. Keating said, that in Committee all the members had agreed to the three names mentioned in the report. He also said, that in moving the adoption of the names mentioned, he had asked each member of the Committee individually, if they wished to add any more names to the list, and every one had answered in the negative.

Mr. Stevenson said that his opinion was, that the best thing that could be done was to dissolve the Board.

Mr. Stevenson moved, seconded by Mr. Raymond, that a vote be taken on the report, and that his duties be mentioned to the Public Schools. This was ruled out order.

The motion appointing Mr. Dingwall was put and carried by 8 to 3.

The Committee then rose and adopted the report.

Mr. Raymond asked when the duties of the new Principal would begin.

Several answered, "After the Christmas holidays."

Mr. Raymond then said, that he understood that if Mr. Lafferty applied for the position of High School teacher he would be under this new Principal.

Mr. Harvey suggested, that all the present teachers should present their certificates to Mr. Dingwall for his inspection, to see if they were all what they ought to be.

Moved by Dr. Keating, seconded by Mr. Murton, that a Special Committee, composed of Messrs. Peterson, Harvey, Murton, Wilkie, Stevenson, Rev. Mr. Torrance and the mover, be a Committee to confer with Mr. Dingwall as to his scheme of school organization, and to give him information regarding the working of the schools at present.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Wilkie, seconded by Mr. Stevenson, that Mr. Dingwall be asked to come to Guelph as soon as possible, with a view to seeing the wants of our school system previous to January.—Carried.

Our Public Schools.

The Board of Education at their meeting on Monday night appointed Mr. G. M. Dingwall, at present second teacher in Hellmuth College, London, Principal of the High and Public Schools in Guelph. The appointment was not made without much deliberation and enquiry, and we earnestly trust that the new Principal will fully realize the expectations of the Board. The position is an onerous and responsible one, and as the schools will be centralized next season, as soon as the new building is ready for occupation, much work will require to be done in arranging and systematizing the different departments, and in bringing them up to that status which in a town of this size they ought to occupy. Something in this way can be done before the Central School is ready, and we shall look to the new Principal and the Board to set about it in earnest, so that before long there will be something to show for the heavy expenditure which the support of our educational institutions yearly entails on the ratepayers.

The Municipal Debentures

The explanations made by Mr. Treasurer Crooks in his budget speech, with regard to the negotiations carried on by him for the sale in England of the Municipal Loan Fund Debentures, were very satisfactory, and entirely removed the feeling in the minds of not a few friends of the Government, that the best possible arrangement had not been made under the circumstances. He had put himself in communication with leading brokers and financial agents, and it was only after being fully assured that no better bargain could be made that the final arrangements for the sale were made. We may explain that these Debentures were given by the different Municipalities in arrears to the Government, and amounted to £313,000 sterling, maturing in various sums from 31st Dec., 1880, to 31st Aug., 1895, when £208,000 became due. The price fixed on these being the longest dated was £84 per £100, producing an interest of less than 6 1/2 per cent. to the purchaser, while the price of the Debenture maturing 31st December, 1880, was fixed at £90 10s. per £100, and which would produce an investment of about 6 1/2 per cent. The debentures [payable intervening on the 31st December in each intervening year were priced at a reduction of 10s. for each year, producing about the same rate of interest. Mr. Crooks was able to make better terms than even the Opposition anticipated, for when the scheme for the settlement of the Municipal Loan Fund was before the House, one objection urged against it by Mr. Rykert, was that the debentures would be sacrificed at a discount of 10 per cent. Mr. Crooks managed to sell them at a discount of 15 per cent., and yet Mr. Rykert is not pleased. The other day when his old objection was brought home to him, he attempted to deny that he had ever said so, but Mr. Wood's scrap book was too much for him, and he had to own that he had used such words. His looks very much like opposition for opposition's sake.

W. G. & B. R. - The Hamilton Times of Monday says:-

A special meeting of the shareholders of this Company was held in the Company's office, James-street, to-day. The report of the Directors was read and approved. From the proceedings which took place, there is no doubt but that the negotiations between the Directors will come to a speedy conclusion in a few days for the opening of the Southern Extension of the line.

HALTON:-The Milton 'Champion' says that a convention for the selection of two candidates to contest the county of Halton in the Government interest, for both the Dominion and Local Parliament will be held in a few weeks. In addition to Mr. White and Mr. Barber, a number of other gentlemen are spoken of as likely to become candidates.

HAMILTON POSTMASTER. - The official Gazette of Saturday contains the appointment of Mr. Horatio N. Case, of Hamilton, to be Postmaster of that city. Mr. Case is a very old resident of Hamilton, has always been a very active citizen, and will make a very efficient Postmaster.

THE "FOUNDER OF THE TRIBUNE" - How HIS MEMORY IS CARED FOR. - On the crest of Locust Hill, in Greenwood Cemetery, is the grave of Horace Greeley still unmarked and apparently uncared for. There is no mound over it, the line between the new laid sod and the old only distinguish it from the rest of the hill. An iron park stool has been placed at the foot of the grave, and a small fourth of July flag and the old case of the great editor are by it. At the head of the grave are the remains of withered floral offerings and another faded flag. The spot is difficult to find and the only information the laborers can give is that Mr. Greeley's grave is over by the fountain some where. If the trifles that mark it were removed, the exact spot of the grave would soon become obliterated. Just beyond where a fountain plays, is the splendid solid monument over the grave of S. F. B. Morse.

Ontario Legislature.

Nov. 23. After the presentation of petitions, the House went into Committee of Supply, and quite a number of items were passed, the discussion on these being of an important character.

On the item of $19,888 for the School of Agriculture being brought up, Mr. Rykert asked if any appointment had been made in room of the late Principal. Mr. Mowat said no appointment had yet been made.

NOTICE OF MOTION.

Mr. Rykert-On Wednesday next-Address for a return showing:-1. The names of all persons who have been appointed to temporary or permanent situations in the Agricultural College of Ontario or in connection with the Model Farm of Guelph. 2. The dates of their several appointments. 3. The salary agreed to be paid to the several persons. 4. The duties assigned to each person. 5. The periods during which each person held such situations. 6. Our Friends will bear in mind

Fairies purchasing goods wish to buy them at the cheapest rate. Now the nearer you can get to the Manufacturer, the cheaper are the goods. Mr. Horsman, the popular Hardware merchant of this town, last summer visited the manufacturing district of Europe, and purchased very largely from the manufacturers there. He has also made special arrangements with manufacturers in the United States and Canada to have their goods at the lowest Cash prices. In consequence of the extraordinary bargains Mr. Horsman offers, his sales this season are largely increased; in fact, there has been a perfect rush at his mammoth establishment during the last two months. Remember, by purchasing Hardware from John Horsman the profits of the wholesale dealer, or middleman, are saved to the customers. Stoves and Tinware have been added this season, and on account of the very low prices at which these goods are offered by Mr. Horsman this branch of the business has exceeded his most sanguine expectations.

FARMERS' DIARIES.

If our farmers knew how little trouble it is to keep a diary, and with what satisfaction they would look over it in a few years, we feel sure they would, many of them, be induced to begin one. A simple record of the weather and the operations of the farm, the writing of which would not occupy two minutes a day, will, in a few years, be not only a source of pleasure, but also of great practical benefit; by reference back to the record of former years, one can see how late he ploughed certain crops, and at what time they matured, also items of interest to the family prices, &c. At Day's Bookstore will be found a large stock of Diaries and Farm Account Books. Day will sell you a large foolscap Diary for 35 cents, and Pocket Diaries from 15 cents upwards. Begin now, and it will pay you well for the few minutes' lost in entering your day's work.

TYRATHLEN LOTS.

The Venerable Archdeacon Palmer has placed in my hands for sale the Lots in his new survey, immediately in rear of his residence and lying on the north side of Grange street. The situation cannot be surpassed in the town-convenient to Market, Post Office, Church and Schools, commanding a magnificent view of the town and surrounding country. The lots are of different sizes, and well suited for private dwellings, with a first-class soil for gardening.

Those lots on Tyrathlen Terrace are well adapted for genteel residences, and will only be sold to those who will bargain to put up good buildings.

Plans of the Lots can be seen at my office and particulars learned. Purchases made this Fall, interest on balance of purchase money will not commence until 1st April, next.

If desired, the lots will be pointed out on the ground. Also, 17 other lots lying to the north of Palmer street, in Macdonald's survey, and on Queen and Arthur streets.

An early call will be solicited.

HELENA GRAHAM,

THE BRIDE'S SACRIFICE.

CHAPTER V.

A young girl, beautiful as an angel, stood on an overhanging crag, with one round, white arm resting lightly on the rocks, singing to herself as she gazed on the sparkling waves.

Her figure was slight, but round and voluptuous, and there was passion and fervor, and wild enthusiasm in her look, as she stood like some stray seraph dropped from some stray cloud on that lonely island.

Herbert Clinton stood immovable, drinking in to intoxication the bewildering draught of her beauty. She was in every respect so totally different from Helena, that she seemed to him the more charming from force of contrast.

The young girl's song ceased, and turning, she leaped lightly as a young deer from her airy perch, without perceiving him who stood so intently regarding her.

Everything was forgotten now but the one intense desire of knowing who this radiant sea-nymph was. Turning, therefore, into the path she had just taken, he approached the cottage, and encountered Fritz at the door.

"Well, Master Freiburg, how are you?" said Herbert, carelessly.

"Sticking together," was Master Freiburg's concise and descriptive answer.

"Glad to hear it," said Herbert, repressing a strong inclination to laugh.

"Is Mrs. Ben within?"

"She was when I left the house," said Fritz, who seemed determined not to commit himself.

"Any one with her?" again inquired the young gentleman, looking as indifferent as possible.

"No, nobody," was the unexpected answer.

"What!" exclaimed Herbert, surprised.

"I thought I saw a young lady enter a moment ago."

"Oh, Jessie—she's nobody," said the gallant Mr. Freiburg.

"Jessie—Mrs. Ben's niece—I thought she was away!" exclaimed Herbert.

"So she was, but I went for her this morning. Couldn't be bothered doing her work and my own both any longer," said Fritz.

"I suppose I may go in?" said Herbert, feeling a sudden thrill of pleasure at the knowledge that this radiant girl was an inhabitant of the island.

"Yes, I suppose you may, if you like," said Fritz, in a tone of the utmost unconcern.

Thus kindly permitted, Herbert advanced and rapped at the door.

The door was opened by Mrs. Ben, whose surprise was only equalled by her delight at being honored by this unexpected visit.

Near the window that overlooked the lodge stood the golden-haired vision of the beach. She turned around with a quick shy glance, and blushed most enchantingly beneath the deep, dark eyes of the stranger.

"My niece, Jessie, Mr. Clinton," said Mrs. Ben, directing his attention to her with a wave of her hand; "she got back this mornin'."

"I always find it lonesome here without Jessie," said Mr. Clinton, seating himself; "but I have had the pleasure of seeing Miss Jessie before."

"Where?" asked Jessie, opening her blue eyes in wonder.

"Down on the beach, a few moments ago."

"Oh, yes!"

And again Jessie blushed vividly, as she recollected how she had been caught singing.

"Where's Miss Helena and Master Malcolm?" inquired Mrs. Ben.

"Miss Helena has gone to Glen's with the clergyman's family, and will not return for a week; and Captain Graham has gone to Strathmore, where his vessel is undergoing repairs. So I am left all alone, and came to pay my respects to you."

"Then you'll stay and spend the evening," said Mrs. Ben, smiling complacently.

Mr. Clinton professed his willingness, and the little widow, delighted at the concession, set about preparing tea instantly, assisted by Jessie, whose wild, shy glances were bent on his face whenever she fancied herself unobserved.

Half pleased, half afraid of him at first, she was reserved and timid; but as this wore off, he drew her into conversation, and to his surprise found her intelligent and well-educated.

This Mrs. Ben accounted for by saying she had gone to school for the last five years at Strathmore—residing there with the friend she had now been visiting.

The evening passed away with the rapidity of magic. Jessie, after much solicitation, consented to sing for him, and if anything were needed to fairly enchant him, that sweet, clear voice would have done it. Not once during the evening did he think of Helena. Her dark, resplendent face, and wild, fierce black eyes were forgotten for the golden locks and sweet, fair face of blue-eyed Jessie—this dainty island peri.

The hour for leaving came all too soon. As he rose reluctantly to go, he pressed the hand Jessie extended, to his lips with such passionate ardor that the blood flushed to her very temples, but not with displeasure. Ere he left, Mrs. Ben cordially invited him to visit her house while he remained on the island—an invitation he was not loth in accepting.

Jessie stood at the window, watching his tall, elegant form as he walked towards the castle in the bright, clear moonlight.

"Like him, cousin Jessie—don't you?" said Fritz, when he had gone.

But cousin Jessie turned away without reply, longing to lay her burning cheek on the pillow, and muse over the new and delicious joy that was thrilling her whole heart, and in her slumbers to be dreaming "love's young dream."

And Herbert Clinton, forgetting his vows, forgetting Helena, forgetting his honor, forgetting all but this lovely island maiden, sought his couch with but one name on his heart and lips—

"Jessie! Jessie!"

SLATE ROOFING PAINT!

AGENTS WANTED IN EVERY TOWN.

A Roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate may be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better and lasting longer than new shingles without the slate, for ONE THIRD THE COST OF RE-SHINGLING. The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them.

The Paint is Fire-Proof against Sparks or Flying Embers, as may be easily tested by anyone, and appears from the fact that Insurance Companies make nearly the same Tariff as for Slated Roofs. For Tin and Iron it has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and never cracks nor scales. For Fences it is particularly adapted, as it will not corrode in the most exposed places. Roofs covered with Tar Sheeting Felt can be made water-tight at a small expense. The Slate Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP!

Two gallons will cover over 100 square feet of shingle roof, or over 400 of tin or iron. No Tar is Used in this Composition, therefore, it does not effect the water from the roof, if turned off from the eaves before the first low rains. On Decayed Shingles it fills up the holes and pores, hardens them, and gives a new, substantial roof that will last for years. Curved or Warped Shingles it brings to their place and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in tin or felt roofs, and STOPS THE LEAKS. The color of the slate when first applied is dark purple, changing in about a month to a light uniform slate colour, and is, to all intents and purposes, SLATE. The Paint has a very Heavy Body, but is easily put on, and, although a slow dryer, rain will not affect it in the least one hour after applying.

ROOFS EXAMINED. ESTIMATES GIVEN.

And when required will be Thoroughly Repaired.

Orders Respectfully Solicited.

THE DEATH OF TOM HOOD.—Tom Hood, the editor of Punch, died in London, Eng., on Friday. Mr. Hood was about forty five years of age, and was the only son of Tom Hood the poet, and a humorist from whom he inherited considerable literary ability. He had been editor of Punch, a comic periodical, and the most important rival of Punch, for a number of years, and was the author of a number of successful farces and some numerous poems, one of which, "The Test of Friendship," is a favorite with public readers. Mr. Hood has also written several bright novels.

Capt. Foster, of Port Burwell, Ont., says:—I have been troubled with a cough, at times very severe, for years past. I have found Allen's Lung Balm to relieve my cough more readily than any other cough medicine I have ever tried. My wife also used it with the most satisfactory results.

The assessor's books give Winnipeg valuation of $1,175,768.

A LUNG BALSAM

Is the best remedy for Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Spasmodic Cough, and all other lung diseases. It is recommended by Physicians, and is a valuable remedy for all who are afflicted with any of these troubles.

Dr. A. L. Scott, of Cincinnati, Ohio, says:—"I have used it with effect on the young and the old, and I can truly say that it is by far the best remedy for the coughs and croup which I am acquainted with. For coughs, and all the early stages of lung complaints, I believe it to be a certain remedy, and it is very rarely would keep it by them, ready to administer upon the first appearance of disease. About the lungs, there would be very few cases of fatal consumption. It cures the phlegm and restores the system without injury to those delicate organs. It is a natural and powerful tonic for the stomach and bowels, and a powerful purgative, it is perfectly safe in all cases, and its use is positively certain to benefit all ages and conditions of life, as it perfects the digestion and purification of food and the purification of the blood."

FIRE, SMOKE, STEAM

In consequence of the late great fire in Montreal, Messrs. McIntyre, French & Co. have sold the balance of their stock saved from the fire, $280,000 at auction, of which G. B. FRASER bought largely, at such low prices as will enable him to sell

Dry Goods this Winter much cheaper than any other Store in Guelph! FRASER'S store is crammed from cellar to attic with cheap goods. The mass of customers to FRASER'S for the cheap goods, is enormous, which causes other merchants to grumble and growl. Still FRASER is determined to look after the wants of his customers, no matter what others may think.

Being the only merchant in Guelph who attended the Great Auction Sale in Montreal, can state with confidence that he can show Goods at prices much below their regular value.

Parties buying at FRASER'S will save more money than they would elsewhere. FRASER keeps a general store where all can get suited without having the trouble of going all over town.
