GOMPERS GETS OPERATORS TO ARBITRATE
Announcement That Offices of the General Board of Arbitration Would Be Accepted.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—The officials of the Telegraphers' Union late today changed front on the proposition to arbitrate and announced that they would accept the offices of the general board of arbitrators of the American Federation of Labor in settling the differences. This board consists of John Mitchell of the Mine Workers, Daniel J. Keen of the Longshoremen, and Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor who made the above announcement.

U. S. Labor Commissioner Neill left today for Washington. Just before taking his train, he said that the telegraphers' strike could not be settled in Chicago, and that the only place where an adjustment could be reached was in New York.

Railway Men Stick.
At the conference held here last night between President Small and Secretary Russell of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, and several other labor leaders, it was decided definitely that there should be no strike of the 47,000 railroad telegraphers of the United States. The operators will be called upon to contribute to a strike fund of $30,000. Two of their general officers attended the conference.

Operators Welcome.
President Small arrived in Chicago yesterday afternoon and made known his intentions of calling a general conference within a few days. The conference held at the Briggs House last night with Secretary Russell, President Gompers, and G. W. Perkins, president of the International Clearmakers' Union, a crowd of two hundred striking operators, who shouted "We win. No arbitration" and escorted the president in triumph to his automobile.

TELEGRAMS BY MAIL.
C. P. R. Operators Refuse to Forward G.N.W. Despatches.
NORTH BAY, Ont., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—The effect of the telegraph operators' strike is felt very keenly in Northern Ontario by business men and others. C.P.R. operators at North Bay have refused to transmit any telegrams by operators taking the place of G.N.W. strikers, and as a large part of the Cobalt telegraph business goes over the G.N.W. lines, the C.P.R. company is taking messages for points reached by the G.N.W., subject to indefinite delay. Messages to G.N.W. points for delivery west of North Bay, formerly transferred to the C.P.R. company, are held up now as the operators meet here in a strong protest which is not sent a word of G.N.W. business.

OTTAWANS HAD A LESSON.
And Refuse to Go Out on a Sympathetic Strike Now.
OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—(Special.)—Delegates from the telegraphers' union from Montreal were in Ottawa today to endeavor to bring about a strike of local operators, but they met with a very cold reception. They were informed that there was absolutely no chance of such occurring here; that there were no grievances to adjust, and as the only reason for a strike would be "sympathy," the experience of the older hands in the strike of 1883 precluded all possibility of one now.

IRISH TENANTS' BILL.

The program was that the vessels should meet at Yokohama, where orders were to await them.

EMBRYO JIM THE PENMAN RESULTS IN ONE DEATH

WILLIAM TANNER OF OTTAWA, who has been boarding in Church-street, is an artist of no mean attainments. Dymont of the Traders' Bank building, for whom he was formerly private secretary. These signatures placed upon cheques, by means of a stamp, and cleverly inked over, formed the basis of two bank accounts which Tanner opened.

STRIKE LEADER OR MARCHIST?
How Organizer Roadhouse is Trying to Settle the Miners' Strike at Cobalt.

COBALT, Aug. 16.—(From the Man on the Spot.)—The Mine Managers and the Business Men of Cobalt—To hell with them!

The above were the closing words of Organizer Roadhouse's harangue in the square in Cobalt Town on Wednesday night, after paying considerable attention to "The Man on the Spot," Goldwin Smith, honored and revered wherever the English language is spoken, says of and to the Cobalt striking miners, "a little reflection would convince them that to deprive every man of his land, which is included in their scheme (he refers to the practical demand for the socialism of the Cobalt strikers) and all manufacturers and commercial companies, of the means of production, would take something more than the use of police power by the many. Do they seriously contemplate civil war? Unless they do, it is wise or really conducive to social justice to proclaim a general reign of confiscation, of which civil war could not fall to be the result."

Hence the public denunciation of individuals, that has passed the border of common decency. The judiciary has been styled the "capitalistic judge," mine-managers, who have lived in the camp during the camp's life and who are men, rather than the union, are abused, and Mr. Roadhouse says: "Now is the time to help the strikers take the mine-manager by the neck and wring his block off and you do not do that by killing him. I would not want to be around when some of these fellows would explode. After years of drunk and years of dissipation, etc., etc." What with Roadhouse's socialism and the mine-managers' detestation to give no recognition to the Western Federation, it is possible for any mediator?

MAKE THE PARKS POPULAR BY CHEAP REFRESHMENTS

Public Ownership Suggestion—J. F. Cowell of Buffalo is the New President.

At last evening's session of the American Association of Park Superintendents John Dunbar of Rochester, N.Y., read a paper on "Some Trees and Shrubs for Park Planting, New or Little Known."

Dr. Frank Baker of Washington, in a paper on the "Relations of the Public to Parks," strongly urged the communiting of parks, and considered that they were more for the workman and the poor man than for those whose position afforded them better advantages for more frequent recreation and outings.

A wire was received from Milwaukee, inviting the association to hold its convention there next year, but as St. Paul and Minneapolis had already been chosen, the matter was not dealt with.

Investors Turning to and Real Estate Sales Lively Demand for Small Lots and Houses Continues With Numerous Enquiries for Medium Sized Buildings.

Notwithstanding the tightness of money and the depressed conditions prevailing in the stock markets, real estate dealers report another favorable week. The demand for small lots and houses continues with unabated vigor, but the principal feature of the week has been the numerous enquiries received for the medium class house, which is a sure indication that investors are turning their attention to real estate once more, which, after all, is the best investment for small savings. There is something in the fact that every person who invests in well-selected real estate in a prosperous and rapidly-expanding city like Toronto adopts the safest and surest method of becoming affluent, for real estate is the basis of all wealth. F. B. Robins reports conditions very good, especially for small lots, of which he is selling on an average six or eight a day. H. H. Williams says business is healthy. The firm has sold several good-sized houses during the week. Copeland & Fairbairn have had numerous enquiries for medium-sized properties and have completed several sales. W. A. Lawson, whose specialty is agricultural properties, reports an exceptionally good week. He sold one big farm in the Niagara district thru an advertisement in "The World," for $32,000 and several smaller ones aggregating $50,000. Carcaless's have sold a number of small properties amounting to about $25,000. A. O. Andrews has put thru two fair-sized lots this week at 1-2 per cent. interest and has several others under negotiation. He also made a couple of good sales. A. G. Strath says things are very quiet in the market for real estate. The National Trust Company report sales slow in big properties, but anticipates an improvement as soon as the holiday season is over.

During July plans were filed at To- ronto Junction Town Hall for the erection of dwellings to the value of $10,450, which clearly indicates that the remarkable expansion which has been going on in that borough for the past three years still continues. Some of these are costly structures and will add to the material wealth of the town. The most striking feature is the large number of small houses that are being built by the employes of the numerous hives of industry in the town. Industry, grit, perseverance and thrift are the chief characteristics of these people, and it augurs well for the future of the Junction that they have such unlimited confidence in the place that they invest all their hard-earned savings in real estate and homes. Brick as the building trade is, there is still need for hundreds more cot- tages that will rent for, say, $20 per month. All thru the summer many families have had to live in tents, and so great is the demand for small houses that many new ones are rented or sold before they are completed. The following are a few of the principal buildings under construction: Three pairs semi-detached brick dwellings on Victoria-street for H. Gaffney, $10,800. Two-story and attic solid brick house and surgery at 155 Ar- nette-street-West, for Dr. A. H. Perfect, $8,000. Two pairs semi-detached brick dwellings on Gilmour-avenue, by Wright Bros., value $8,000. Pair semi-detached brick dwell- ings on Gilmour-avenue, for W. G. Gibble, $3,000. Pair two-story brick dwellings on Pacific-avenue, for Thomas Gibson, $3,000. Pair semi-detached brick dwell- ings on Pacific-avenue, for A. J. Jones, $2,800. A two-story brick dwelling at 109 Conduit-street, for R. Nan- carrow, $2,800. A two-story brick dwelling at 285 Western-avenue, for J. L. Bemrose, $2,700. Pair semi-detached brick dwell- ings at 18-20 St. John's-place, for C. A. Jones, $2,300. Pair brick dwellings on T. M. Tuckett, $2,000. Three attached two-story brick stores at 4, 6 and 8 North Keele-street, for A. J. Jones, $4,000. Detached solid brick dwelling at 129 Conduit-street, for J. M. McKeown, $3,000. Two-story brick dwelling at 75 Langton-avenue, for H. Gaff- ney, $2,250. Two-story brick dwelling at 130 Gilmour-street, for J. Treble, $2,300. Six detached two-story brick dwellings on Mansel-street, for H. Gaffney, $7,800. 2 1-2-story brick dwelling at 203 West Annet-street, for W. Wilson, $2,500. Two-story frame dwelling on concrete foundation at 462 An- net-street West, for Leonard Langton, $2,000.

Any objections to the elevation of the tracks which have appeared in the press of the City of Toronto have been fully dealt with and answered, and if any further objections occur to Mr. Smith, he will try and answer them by his satisfaction. Intentionally or not, the public were being led to believe that the total cost of the bridge plan was $200,000, but when Mr. Smith was cornered the other evening he was compelled to admit that this was an error, and now, according to his own letter, the cost of the bridge plan with a western entrance for four tracks would amount to $2,100,000. What would be the cost, taking into consideration the construction of bridges over the new street which Mr. Smith proposes to create? Or, failing the construction of those bridges, how does Mr. Smith propose to give the public access to the waterfront free from danger? J. H. Duthie. Rural Phone a Fire Alarm. UNIVERSITY OF B.C.

Architects Asked to Submit Designs for New Buildings. The Royal Institution of Vancouver, B.C., has decided to erect new university buildings at Port Grey, at a cost of $300,000, and is offering prizes of $500 to the architects sending in the best design, divided into three prizes of $200, $250 and $100. It is proposed by the Royal Institu- tion to speed about $100,000 on the part of the construction and when con- ditions warrant this amount will be doubled. The plans are being called for so as to get the best general scheme of building upon which to work, and these are to be in by Octo- ber. The new building will be a hand- some structure, constructed of stone, and occupying a site overlooking Eng- lish Bay. The location is on the east side of the naval reserve, the land ap- proximating 32 acres, with 800 feet waterfront and 1600 feet depth. A survey is now being made by Messrs. Hermon & Baywell, and when this has been completed tenders will be called for the clearing of eight or nine acres. Building will be started first thing next spring.

LOADED STEAMER SINKS

Boat Goes Down in 300 Feet of Water at South Bay. BELLEVILLE, Aug. 16.—The steam- er Gunion, laden with pressed hay and tomatoes, sank in 300 feet of water at South Bay, Prince Edward County. She was at anchor at the time, and sank so quickly that the captain, the only man on board, had all he could do to escape. The cargo, which was uninsured, will be a total loss to A. Farrington & Co., American buyers.

Diamond Ring in Collection Box

From The Lewiston, Me., Journal. The Rev. A. B. Simpson of New York at the Old Orchard camp ground raised $62,368 for the Christian Al- leance foreign mission at Sunday's meeting. This is the largest collection he has taken here in eight years, and with two exceptions the largest amount he has ever raised at Old Orchard in the eighteen years he has held summer camp meetings here. The solicitation of jewelry, which made the one-time Simpson collections spectacular, but was abandoned some years ago because of public criticism, was resumed Sunday in a mild form. A diamond ring, a good necklace, two plain gold rings, a gold watch and chain and two small boxes of other jewelry were contributed.

VIADUCT OR BRIDGES

Editor World: "However, in my opinion, the adoption of a viaduct instead of bridges is vitally defective in many particulars not affected by the question of cost, and to these particu- lars no answer has yet been given by anyone." The above quotation is from a letter signed by Mr. Cecil B. Smith, and, to use his own expression, it is vitally de- fective, as it does not specify the par- ticulars which he says have not been answered. If he will kindly state for the information of the public what he has in mind, no doubt he will find that an answer is ready and waiting any questions which he may ask. With re- gard to the John-street bridge, it has already been pointed out thru the press that if the railway tracks are elevated there will be no difficulty carrying John-street to the waterfront on the same basis as Yonge or Bay-street. I would like to ask Mr. Smith to answer a question, and will try to make it specific so that there cannot be any means of evading a reply. At the joint meeting of the Trades and Labor Council, Retail Merchants' Association and Public Ownership League, Mr. Smith made the statement that the bridges were constructed a new street would be made south of the bridge, and that new docks would be con- structed south of that street. He also stated that in the interests of traffic it was necessary that the railways should reach those docks, and in order to do so public access to cross those tracks to the waterfront without being in pre- cisely the same danger that exists on the "Explanade-to-day"? In other words, while the construction of bridges on the present waterfront would eliminate the danger from level crossings at that particular point, a precisely similar situation would be created at the crossing of the new street, involving the erection of still more bridges in order to secure the safety of the people, and adding to the supposed cost of the bridge plan. Any objections to the elevation of the tracks which have appeared in the press of the City of Toronto have been fully dealt with and answered, and if any further objections occur to Mr. Smith, he will try and answer them by his satisfaction. Intentionally or not, the public were being led to believe that the total cost of the bridge plan was $200,000, but when Mr. Smith was cornered the other evening he was compelled to admit that this was an error, and now, according to his own letter, the cost of the bridge plan with a western entrance for four tracks would amount to $2,100,000. What would be the cost, taking into consideration the construction of bridges over the new street which Mr. Smith proposes to create? Or, failing the construction of those bridges, how does Mr. Smith propose to give the public access to the waterfront free from danger? J. H. Duthie.

POLICYHOLDERS, ATTENTION!

Announcement is widely made that a huge convention of life insurance men is to be held next week in this city, for the purpose of considering matters of supreme interest to the craft. The central force is the Life Underwriters' Association of Canada—an organization that for many years has had a precarious existence as an affiliation of a similar institution in the United States. In view of actual legislation in several states and prospective legislation at home, this Canadian association has suddenly developed new life, perhaps owing to the stimulation of the managers of our big companies.

It is now given out that the native organization has been extended all over Canada, even to the remotest towns of the remotest provinces. We need not, therefore, be greatly surprised if, at the reverberating ringing of the managerial tocsin during the past few months, and the sweet compulsion of their sympathizing allies applied to the agencies staff, the insurance host will invade the city some hundred strong.

For the nonce courting publicity, and with a laudible desire to be associated in the public mind with literature and pure science, these apostles of the red-book will go thru their evolutions at the bidding of the managers, we dare say, in perfect step and time in the convocation hall of Toronto University. The desire to be identified with such sweetness and light is supposed to emanate from halls of learning is, of course, highly to be commended; but we fear the ordinary university man who has waded thru the proceedings of the insurance commission and got a glimpse of the almost universal reign of extravagances and disregard of policyholders' interests that have characterized the operations of the companies and made a change in the act imperative will find himself soliloquizing with Pope:

Pretty! in amber to observe the forms Of hairs, or straws, or dirt, or grubs; Or worms; but things we know are neither rich nor rare, nor wondrous how the devil they got there. However that may be, a meeting of the executive was held in Montreal some time ago to make arrangements for the gathering which is to include also the annual meeting of the National Association of the Life Underwriters of the United States, and a strong committee was appointed "to deal with the problems confronting them," the most important of which was declared to be that concerning prospective legislation and the status of the insurance agent before the law. The report of the executive will doubtless form the piece de resistance of the Canadian program, and there need be no surprise in the public mind if, Demetrius-like, those who have the matter in hand will strive to excite an uproar against the commission with the specious cry that they have put the craft in danger. It would be too much to hope for so carefully, we understand, have the pipes been laid for disparaging the work of the commission and its associates—that the issue of the deliberations next week would not be altogether dissimilar to what happened in the case of the ancient preacher of righteousness:

Some therefore cried one thing and some another, for the assembly was confused and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. In such a consummation the delegates would do well to follow the advice of the prudent town clerk in disposing of the findings of the commission:

"Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet and do nothing rashly." But we greatly fear this sage advice will not be taken. The cry has gone forth: the craft is in danger, and an immense effort will be made to smash the report and the recommendations. In the absence of any explicit statement of the specific problems that will engage the attention of the convention we may venture to assume the role of prophet and predict a few things that will be done, and also a few things that will not be done.

(1) There will be a unanimous, or nearly unanimous, resolution condemning rebating.

(2) There will be an equally unanimous resolution condemning the proposal of the insurance commission to fine heavily companies guilty of rebating.

(3) There will be a strong recommendation to the parliament not to adopt the suggestion of the commission to abolish the deferred dividend and to require an annual accounting and distribution of profits.

(4) There will be entered a powerful plea for greater latitude in the investment of securities than is recommended by the commission.

(5) A terribly strong resolution will be adopted against the proposal of the commission to limit agents' commissions.

(6) The recommendation of the commission to standardize policies will be condemned as inimical to individual enterprise on the part of the companies.

(7) And generally the report of the commission will be belittled as that of weak and ignorant men, misled by a cunning and wicked American expert. Now as to what the underwriters will not do:

(1) There will be no specific condemnation for discovery of wrong-doing on the part of any company, director, lawyer or agent.

(2) There will be no clear affirmation that insurance moneys are trust funds.

(3) There will be no condemnation of extravagance in the procuring of new business.

(4) There will be no demand that policyholders shall have an effective voice in the management of the companies.

(5) There will be no condemnation of over-capitalization and stock watering on the part of the companies.

(6) There will not a syllable be breathed against trust and syndicate organizations as subsidiary or tributary to insurance companies.

(7) There will be no praise for the work of the commission, and no panegyric pronounced on insurance reform already in the United States.

In all these prognostications it is possible we may be somewhat mistaken, but the record and personnel of the active members of the association lead us to believe that a desperate fight is being planned to prevent the more important recommendations of the commission from becoming law. Every influence that the insurance companies can command, and they are neither few nor feeble, will be brought to bear upon the Dominion Government and Parliament to reject or emasculate the reforms proposed by the insurance commission.

Policyholders will do well to keep their eyes upon the doings of these insurance would-be lawmakers.

DR. FALCONER'S GODSPEED.

Public appreciation of services rendered, especially when it is expressed by representative citizens of all creeds and classes, is an excellent certification that the man who has evoked it possesses qualities of no common kind. Dr. R. A. Falconer, the new principal of Toronto University, occupied this enviable position on Thursday, when at Halifax, the Premier of Nova Scotia and other leaders in public life, dignitaries of the churches and high educational authorities united in bearing testimony to his outstanding ability and the force of his personality. The occasion will be memorable for Dr. Falconer, and cannot but remain as an inspiring influence in the wider sphere of duty, whose full burden he is now about to assume.

Nothing could have been in better taste nor more full of promise than the tenor of the response made by the principal. His words, fitly chosen, show him fully conscious of his new responsibilities, and that the work of his life is to mould the young minds with which he is to be immediately and intimately concerned, into a national type imbued with worthy ideals. Recognition of the greatness of the task undertaken, and a determination to avoid show and to

The rapid increase in the circulation of The Sunday World best proves its merit.

They are no less a certification of the independent judgment will be applied to the weighty questions that must constantly present themselves for answer. Dr. Falconer has been accorded a splendid good-will from his friends in Nova Scotia. When the time comes, as come it must, may he receive an equally sincere and universal "well-done" from his friends in Ontario.

RESPECT THE KING.

Self-appointed censors of the morals and manners of their fellows are naturally and properly expected to set a high example themselves. Yesterday the leading Liberal organ in this city published what purported to be a special cable despatch containing both in the heading and in the body of the despatch a reference in execrable taste to an incident in which King Edward was alleged to have been concerned. The story introduced with the word "laughable," was absolutely devoid of point and humor, and was a fair sample for consumption across the line. Its publication is a blot on the scutcheon of the Canadian press, and a disgrace which Toronto and Ontario might well have been spared.

The master granted the application, but allowed four weeks for appearance in order to communicate with Mr. Macdonald, who intends visiting some of the watering places in Scotland.

Political Intelligence

OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—(Special).—The Hull Labor Club has extended an invitation to Henri Bourassa, M.P., to speak at a huge labor demonstration to be held in Hull on Labor Day. Besides Mr. Bourassa, several other prominent speakers, some in opposition to Bourassa, are expected to attend. Armand Lacombe, M.P., is also among the invited.

Hon. R. F. Sutherland, speaker of the house of commons, is in Ottawa to-day. He denies absolutely that he has been seeking a portfolio, and declares that he has not given the premier any indication of any such intention.

The World correspondent writes from Montreal that Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, who has been spending some time with his constituents in Pictou County, N. S., is in Ottawa to-day, and states that he had a delightful trip to the lower provinces. He laughingly added: "I don't think I shall go on a holiday with absolutely no designs politically, but I notice that a portion of the press has been pleased to think otherwise and to make a fuss."

Nevertheless political gossip continues to Dominion politics. The Conservative papers as a rule welcome his return, but the Liberal party has no such intention. The Conservative papers as a rule welcome his return, but the Liberal party has no such intention.

The Montreal Herald, however, seems to differ from the Toronto Globe and other Liberal newspapers, and while paying tribute to Mr. Borden's high character and undoubted ability, goes on to argue that he lacks some of the most essential characteristics of a leader. One point made is that he has not identified himself with any one thing or any one issue, and that therefore he has failed to impress himself upon the minds of the people, and that he has at no time appealed to the sentiment of imagination of the Canadian people.

The Herald quotes J. L. Garvin's eulogy upon Mr. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain in describing the qualities necessary for a leader, and says that they are not possessed by Mr. Borden. The passage is from an article in The National Review, referring to Mr. Chamberlain, the writer says:

There is no one with a similar method of stripping talk and work of the superficial and keeping the essential; no one whose words have been stamped impression upon the popular mind; no one whose ideas have a similar effect in organizing other people's convictions; no one with the same instinct for identifying himself with one thing at a time; no one whose activities have the same power to keep a subject moving. He never took up any political matter, but he dealt with it as well as of interests in national life. He has large and definite purposes, initiating energy and measureless courage. He was the most potent among popular leaders, yet he never entered the house of service, he having entered the house in 1874 and 1878.

Mr. Michaud is a Liberal and has been recently in Ottawa with the other New Brunswick members looking after the vacant portfolio of railways and canals. He probably recommended Mr. Tupper, but, however that may be, he admits that the New Brunswick delegation was divided, and that Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Carvel, M.P., and Mr. Tupper, M.P., all received some support. He intimates that the premier promised positively that the portfolio should go to New Brunswick, but did not commit himself as to who would be chosen.

Curiously enough, the Sydney Record, owned and edited by Alex. Johnston, M.P., speaks of Sir Wilfrid Laurier having "dismissed" Mr. Emmerson. If this be true it makes all the more pointed the remarks made in the way Mr. Emmerson was treated, as compared with the way Sir Wilfrid Laurier says that he dealt with rumors respecting Mr. Hyman.

The Mount Forest Confederate (Liberal) referring to The World's "Hail to the Chief" editorial welcoming Sir Wilfrid Laurier back home from the imperial conference, says: "The Toronto Globe, a Conservative paper, paid a generous tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier on his return from the imperial conference, and that while The World nor the Conservative party any real harm, tho it has been found fault with in a few Tory quarters. We believe that frank recognition of the truth, especially as to the virtues of political opponents, while they are still alive, is for the great advantage of Canada."

The Montreal Herald of recent date publishes some political gossip from Nova Scotia. Among other things it is stated that Dr. Walden will again oppose Hon. Mr. Fielding, and that R. L. Borden will run in Halifax, and also in Carleton.

Col. Belcher, mayor of Southampton, was in Toronto yesterday. The R. L. Borden meeting in the South will probably be called off, but the North Bruce Conservatives hope to arrange for a meeting at Port Elgin. North Bruce Conservatives will convene at Tara on Sept. 18 and pick out a candidate for the Dominion house against John Tomin. Mr. Tomin would make an excellent candidate, but declined to commit himself. Major Hugh Clark is also mentioned.

On Aug. 28 at Emdeale a convention of Conservatives will be held for the district of Pary Sound. Dr. J. D. Reid, M.P., for Grenville, is in the city. As secretary of the West A. E. Wade, secretary of the West extinct and exploded. The only significance in the suggestion that there are possibilities of leadership in either is that it reminds us that the grand old party is like castaway mariners on a raft. Every cloud or whitecap on the horizon is hailed as a sail. At one time it is the White, then the Borden sail, and later the McBride sail. Now it is Sir Hibbert or Hugh John. If they will take advice from the camp of the enemy, it may be offered for what it is worth, namely, to gather loyalty around the leader whom they have, to get a set of principles by which they are prepared to stand or fall, and especially to rid themselves of the men who have cast credit upon them.

The Halifax Chronicle, the leading Liberal paper of Nova Scotia, and for years edited by the Hon. Mr. Fielding, comes in an editorial paragraph that Hon. George E. Foster is to sail with R. L. Borden thru the maritime provinces. The Chronicle says:

The Halifax papers are using their prettiest compliments in telling us what a fine fellow Mr. Bergeron, who is to tour the maritime provinces with Mr. R. L. Borden, is. But a word is said about Hon. George E. Foster of Union Trust, James E. Borden, and Mr. Bergeron. They seem to have reserved, with respect to the appearance of this eminent financier, to "keep it mum." And yet Mr. Foster is far and away their biggest gun.

But while The Chronicle appears to think that Mr. Borden should not be accompanied by Mr. Foster, it is not satisfied with the selection of Mr. Bergeron. The idea of Mr. Bergeron, filling the faithful with confidence is quite too amusing," so saith The Chronicle.

He is not likely to overshine Mr. Borden, but that must be only a partial consolation. The fact is, it is not likely that Mr. Borden or Mr. Bergeron may hammer away as much as they like, but they will hardly be able to attract any attention. The fact is, Mr. Bergeron is giving so much better an exhibition of hustings controversy than Mr. Borden, that Mr. Bergeron in their brightest moments ever knew how to give. The prospect is that until the present time, the Liberal party in Quebec gets straightened out the best Mr. Borden and Mr. Bergeron are able to offer will not rank higher than a side-show performance.

The Montreal Herald, however, seems to differ from the Toronto Globe and other Liberal newspapers, and while paying tribute to Mr. Borden's high character and undoubted ability, goes on to argue that he lacks some of the most essential characteristics of a leader. One point made is that he has not identified himself with any one thing or any one issue, and that therefore he has failed to impress himself upon the minds of the people, and that he has at no time appealed to the sentiment of imagination of the Canadian people.

DINE AT THE GRILL ROOM

THE MOST ATTRACTIVE, COMFORTABLE AND SELECT OF ITS KIND IN TORONTO, FOR MEN AND WOMEN.

The busy man or the busy woman, the hearty eater or the dainty epicure, is equally delighted with the comfort and selection which Eaton's Grill Room affords them.

You dine in rooms that are replicas of the old Dutch or early English banquet halls with such 20th century additions as electric light and telephone.

Dark oak wainscoting and real tapestry-hung walls, old Dutch art glass lamps on table and hanging from the ceiling, contrasting with the snowy-white table linen and silver. Quaint China and Steins on the China racks—the touch of color from the hunting pictures, and at noon the strains of music from Fraick's Orchestra. If comfort aids digestion, you are assured of a large measure of it.

For the rest—the service is of the best. Waiters are quick, expert, willing. The menu is unequalled. The chef and his assistants are experts and their cooking perfection. Cleanliness of everything and everywhere is assured. Breakfast is served from 8 to 11. Dinner from 11.30 to 2. In addition to the menu, a special dinner is prepared for business men and women, and served at a minute's notice.

There are two afternoon special teas from 3 to 5. A pay telephone is at every table, and a waiter will attach it on request, so that you may telephone without moving from your seat.

Come in Monday, if only to look around. Ordinary and special menus given for the asking. Courteous attention at all times.

The Broadview Boys' Institute has only an income of $1800 a year. It maintains a playground for 600 boys, who, after school hours, and after work are kept off the street and away from bad influences. They are taught many useful things and the boys do a little market gardening on their own hook and enjoy a free manual training school. The institute must have large grounds, and they must be in a place to benefit city boys. They are buying on easy term 5 1-2 acres, and the purchase price is $20,000. They urgently need $1000 about one-third of which is subscribed. Some people from outside of Toronto are helping. Toronto people should not be backward. We want to pass the $500 mark this morning.

When you read this, slip a dollar or a two dollar bill in an envelope and send it to The World or if you are passing, come in and see us. If you are sending a large amount write out a check and send it to Noel Marshall. Already acknowledged $1899. F. Belcher $1000. L.M.S., Walkerton $2000.

KINCARDINE PIONEER DEAD.

Robert Baird, Postmaster, Passed Away After Year's Illness. KINCARDINE, Aug. 16.—(Special).—In the death, to-day, in his 76th year, of Robert Baird, postmaster, this town mourns for one of its most respected citizens.

A native of Prince Edward Island, he came to Kincardine over half a century ago. For years he was prominent as a grain buyer. He also took an active interest in municipal and political affairs. A staunch Conservative, he was a personal friend of Sir John A. Macdonald. Twice he contested for parliamentary honors, once against Hon. Edward Blake. About 15 years ago he was appointed postmaster, and although for the past year he was too ill to personally attend to his duties, yet public sentiment would not hear of his being retired.

For seven years he was warden of the town, and for six years mayor of the town. A widow and one brother survive. The death occurred to-day, also, of Mrs. Joseph Barker, in her 76th year. Her husband is one of the oldest police magistrates in the province. Deceased was a sister of Alex. Campbell, license inspector for North Bruce.

WHERE IS EDGAR JACKSON?

The police have been asked to locate Edgar Jackson, who recently attended a telegraph school in Toronto. His brother is dead, having died in the west, the body having been removed to his late home at a private cost. His mother is also very seriously ill. Any information as to his whereabouts will be thankfully received by his aunt, Mrs. Myra Jackson of Arthur.

THE HAGUE, Aug. 16.—Sir Edward Fry, head of the British delegation, has communicated the text of the speech which he is to deliver before the peace conference, on the question of the advisability of the limitation of armaments.

For the same reason strong pressure is being exercised on some of the Latin-American delegates, in order to prevent them from presenting, as they have announced their intention of doing, proposals regarding the limitation of armaments.

In his speech, which will be delivered Saturday, Sir Edward Fry will announce that Great Britain is ready to communicate yearly her program for the construction of warships, and agrees to furnish Great Britain with similar information.

"RED DRAGON" BOTHERED HER

Letters From Mrs. Eddy Read—Attorney Kelly Wants Trustees' Books.

CONCORD, N.H., Aug. 16.—A reading of correspondence to show the delusions alleged by counsel to be held by Mrs. Baker Eddy, was continued to-day before the masters, to whom the court has assigned the duty of determining the question of competency.

Attorney John W. Kelley, representing the trustees of Mrs. Eddy, who have brought suit for an accounting of her property, introduced the letters, reading from one by Mrs. Eddy the statement that a publisher who delayed proofs of the writing was governed by "M. A. M.", which has been explained by followers of Mrs. Eddy to mean "malicious animal magnetism."

Other letters were produced by Mr. Kelley, but counsel for Mrs. Eddy frequently objected, especially to one which was alleged to show that Mrs. Eddy had insisted on an autopsy upon the body of her husband to ascertain whether he had not been "a victim of arsenical poisoning, mental or physical." As this letter was written in 1882 it was ruled out as being too remote.

During the morning session Mr. Kelley for the next friends asked the masters for an order to bring Mrs. Eddy in court or permit an examination of her under regular court proceedings at her home and with several of the plaintiffs present. Mr. Kelley also asked for an order to the possession of several of the books in the possession of Mrs. Eddy.

The remainder of the session was occupied with the introduction by the next friends of letters written by Mrs. Eddy to her adopted son, Dr. E. J. Foster-Eddy, while he was acting as her publisher, in which she referred to "the red dragon," "mental work," etc., as being used to hinder her work, and its publication, and directed the use of "arguments" to overcome this "evil work."

O.R.T. WON'T STRIKE-BREAK. Members Are Ordered to Refuse Commercial Business.

Telegraph operators held a meeting last night at St. George's Hall, when they were addressed by W. T. Thompson, J. H. Kennedy and R. Bruce of the Toronto District Trades Council.

It was reported that L. W. Quick, secretary of the O.R.T., had sent instructions to all railway operators to refuse to handle all messages offered by the Commercial Union. A number of the operators have secured positions in the railway offices in various parts of the province.

The local strikers have established temporary headquarters on the second floor of the Aberdeen Hotel, on Queen-street.

General Manager I. C. McMichael of the G.N.W. stated last evening that there are at present 27 operators working in the G.N.W. office.

Arrangements are being made for an excursion of striking operators to Niagara Falls, where they would meet with strikers from Buffalo and other nearby points.

The report that W. T. Tebo, president of the local union, was transferred to Winnipeg as a result of the strike, is denied; he having received notice of the transfer over a month ago.

An operator of the Toronto Observatory said yesterday that work there is hindered greatly because of the strike. Only seventy-two messages were received yesterday morning when usually there are 600. Of the seventy-two, less than a score could be read by the operators.

Numbers of brokers' operators are doing extra turns on private and special wires. The "ticker" operator in the stock exchange struck yesterday.

TORONTO JUNCTION, Aug. 16.—In police court to-day, Albert French was fined $1 and costs for driving a wagon on the gravel walk on Louisa-street in York Township. Under the isolation carried out by the strenuous efforts of the health officer, there is little prospect of the disease getting beyond the present patients. The rumor that the small-pox patients were not receiving proper attention was a gross exaggeration. During their removal from Sherwood-avenue to the "hospital" conditions were not better. LUMBERMEN ILL-TREATED IN NEW ONTARIO WILDS

Montreal Paper Makes Startling Allegations of Abuse and Slavery-Like Conditions.

La Presse of Montreal in its issue of Thursday evening devoted three pages to a thrilling story of hardships said to have been encountered in the lumber camps at McDougall's, Ontario, and Duffield City, in New Ontario.

That lumbermen are half starved, robbed of their wages, ill-treated by their foremen and threatened with fire arms if they dare resist is hard to believe.

But that is what a reporter of La Presse, who spent two weeks in the wilds, declares to be true. He tells of a large number of shanties. Before they reached the camps they said they had to travel 60 miles with dry bread and cheese as their only food. During their long trip on a slow train they were not even given water to drink.

The report of this officer has been sent to Col. Sherwood. Mr. Fox states that the statements as to the condition of the laborers in the camp were "very much exaggerated."

Interest in England. LONDON, Aug. 16.—The strike of the American telegraphers dominates public interest in England, especially in the Midlands, where it delays telegraph reports. Englishmen find it difficult to understand why private corporations in America are permitted to own such vital public utilities as the telegraph and telephone systems, and to charge extortionate rates.

He the government owns the telegraph system and charges a moderate rate. It pays its operators good wages and pensions them when superannuated.

A Warning to Summer Tourists

SAYS THIS IS BEST

A leading health journal in answering the question, "What is the best prescription to clean and purify the blood?" prints in a recent issue the following: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce; Compound Salsolone, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, four ounces.

Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. A well known physician states that these are harmless vegetable ingredients, which can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy. This mixture will clean the blood of all impurities. In just a few days the skin begins to clear of sores, boils and pimples. It puts vigor and energy into run-down debilitated men and women. For many years Sarsaparilla alone has been considered a good blood medicine. But while it built up and made new blood, the impurities remained within and the good accomplished was only temporary. Sarsaparilla, however, when used in combination with Compound Salsolone and Extract Dandelion, works wonders. This combination puts the kidneys to work to filter and sift out the waste matter, uric acid and other impurities that cause disease. It makes the new blood and relieves rheumatism and lame back and bladder trouble.

The Change.

Before she went to boardin' school she used to wear a bonnet. She drove the cows from the field an' helped take in the hay. But she don't do that any more, because of this, you see— She went away as Mary Jane an' came back Jeanne Marie.

She used to wear made-over clothes, an' always with a smile. But now her dresses every one must be the latest style. She don't ride bareback any more, nor climb the apple tree— She went away as Mary Jane, but came back as Jeanne Marie.

Her hair is all in crinkles now—she calls 'em Marshall waves. She's up in all the etiquette, real stylish she behaves.

Her ma and me are mighty proud of all she's learned—but Mary Jane insid' o' Jeanne Marie! We sometimes wish for Mary Jane insid' o' Jeanne Marie!

Story of a Canoe Trip.

From the head of Georgian Bay to thirty-day canoe trip was taken by Messrs. Good and son, Fred Nichol and Max A. Friend of Toronto. According to the voyagers themselves, the trip was immense, no lack of anything being experienced on the way, from mosquitoes, grub, water, scenery and music (home product) to social intercourse, which latter was delightfully added by a fortunate encounter with a party known to Mr. Good, consisting of campers near Thessalon.

This is the way of the party, aided by his diary, a very accurate and exceedingly forbidding looking document, containing the corpse of many a pressed mosquito and blackened with the smoke of the nightly snudge, tells the story.

"We crossed Georgian Bay in the Grmanic, Mr. Good and his son arriving from Whitby and the others from Toronto. At Algoma Mills we began our trip with two Pottier canoes, packed with cooking utensils and dunnage generally, and with sailing attachments which turned out of little use, as we had head winds all the way up. In addition, we possessed a mascot, a two-months-old water spaniel, Barney, who proved the life of the party. Our first paddle was five miles, to Island Camp, so called by us because of the beautiful scenery. The first of the Thirty Thousand Islands. We spend the rest of the day there exploring and fishing, and remained for the night. Early in the morning we started again. A particularly romantic headland, just ahead, promised a wide view, and one of those sudden-down surprises, which make Georgian Bay justly famous. Round the bend we slid, and of civilization and here the interest practically ended, as the rest was simply retracing our steps. We did it quite rapidly, too, and in two days paddled thirty miles, reaching Bruce-River, where we camped and had a tour thru the copper mines.

"The journey back was uneventful, though beautiful as scenery. Mr. Good, who has explored Northern Ontario pretty thoroughly, says this is the best of trips to take. At any rate, it suited us, and we landed a healthy, if somewhat perspiring, quartet at Algoma Mills.

"Mr. Good is a jolly good fellow with a mahogany veneer and panama of large dimensions. Mr. Nichol is a musician, secondarily a student, and lastly, a voyageur. The boy is the lay, and the dog, like the rest of the party, a water dog."

"However, it appeared that this place boasted a health resort. We had a picnic of our own, and we all went up to the town and had some lager, after which we bought postcards and returned to our camp. Our next camp was Sea Gull Camp, so called after one of the canoes. It rained so heavily that we were obliged to shelter in the tent at once. We ate McQuid's cheese nearly all night, the McQuid's sang a damp lullaby, and finally we sank to slumber. In the morning we found that the barometer had sunk, too, so we started against a heavy sea, feeling a little out of sorts. Finally we took refuge again on an island, called it Windstorm Camp, and spent the time watching the wind. Various kinds were seen, including sawbills, black duck and whistlers. We called the bay outside Choppy Bay, and spent the time till evening blowing the weather. Supper was an enervating collation, cooked under difficulties by the chef, who will be named, and consisted of dried-apple sauce, toast, coffee and conversation.

"Our next day's hard paddling brought us to Thessalon. At one point a portage of twenty feet saved us a paddle of four miles in a heavy sea. As usual, it rained, but we pitched our waterproof tent at Rainy Camp, and as Thessalon was quite near we went up-town for provisions. Candy, bananas, bread, reads my memorandum. Oh how hard and green were those bananas! We threw them at each other in hopes to soften them and get some bad bruises. Next day we were fortunate to encounter Plover's Camp, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Feron and Miss Clover, the belle of Thessalon; Misses Fanny and Blanche Simpson, Will Tobler and others. Mrs. Feron is the champion hockey skater of Georgian Bay, and her daughter also plays. Thessalon's great amusement is skating, and we were almost sorry we hadn't come in winter on that account. An emergency call brought us over one morning to the girls' tent. Mrs. Feron wasn't there, and the girls wanted our chef to lend his aid. They didn't know what was the matter, but a smell of burning pervaded the air. This was rectified by the superior young man, who transferred the water-logged potatoes from the back of the stove to the place where the chicken was burning on the fire. Then he laughed at the girls, who promptly turned him out.

"The new woman has one virtue. She knows how to keep order. The travelers now began to have fish three times a day, to the disgust of Mr. Good, who voted the Mike a bore. The Feron Camp lay picturesquely in a clearing of fir trees, a high bluff fronted by the blue Georgian Bay flanked it on one side, and a beach on the other. To the right in the valley Nestorville, with its sawmill and beyond, as far as eye could see, the green and brown islands dotted the lake like a flock of birds resting on the water.

"From Thessalon a ten-mile paddle took us to Flat Rock Camp, chiefly Tarnish. The mouth-organ echoed here among the rocks.

"Our next stop was Sailboat Camp, so called since the wreck of a small sailboat lay on the beach. From this place to the farthest point of our journey we had the best of fishing, and were able to "swap" pike for grub with the farmers.

"Debarra was our next long stop. It is a town on the mainland, of considerable size and a very picturesque spot. There for the first time we got a Toronto paper. We pitched our camp, called Tumble Camp, because of a certain agile aquatic feat, or loss of feet, performed by one of our number. Here we rendered a grand evening concert for the benefit of all who might be lurking near. The following numbers were given: (1) Solo by Max A. Friend, "The Way to Home"; (2) tin whistle selection by Mr. Nichol, "Just One Girl"; (3) concert by the party.

"At 7 a.m. we left, and for the first time had a favorable wind and a good sail. We paid for it, however, when a squall came up, drenching us thoroughly and compelling us to take refuge on Duck Island, where we spent the day getting dry again. Two-months-old Barney was the life of the camp. He tried to smoke Feron's pipe and ran about with it in his mouth. He shared our fresco luncheon with the grace of a prince, and didn't even glance at the menu. In the morning he had just nicely struck camp and started for Lake George when a head wind obliged us to turn shore. This gave us the opportunity to see a number of cranes, which are plentiful at this point, and one of which succeeded in bagging a goose.

"Here we ran out of provisions and got lost in the bush looking for more; finally we struck a farmer's place and were rewarded with milk, butter, eggs, onions, carrots, beets, peas and cabbages. We paddled on to the mouth of the Canadian Sea, and here the interest practically ended, as the rest was simply retracing our steps. We did it quite rapidly, too, and in two days paddled thirty miles, reaching Bruce-River, where we camped and had a tour thru the copper mines.

"The journey back was uneventful, though beautiful as scenery. Mr. Good, who has explored Northern Ontario pretty thoroughly, says this is the best of trips to take. At any rate, it suited us, and we landed a healthy, if somewhat perspiring, quartet at Algoma Mills.

To the right in the valley Nestorville, with its sawmill and beyond, as far as eye could see, the green and brown islands dotted the lake like a flock of birds resting on the water.

"From Thessalon a ten-mile paddle took us to Flat Rock Camp, chiefly Tarnish. The mouth-organ echoed here among the rocks.

"Our next stop was Sailboat Camp, so called since the wreck of a small sailboat lay on the beach. From this place to the farthest point of our journey we had the best of fishing, and were able to "swap" pike for grub with the farmers.

"Debarra was our next long stop. It is a town on the mainland, of considerable size and a very picturesque spot. There for the first time we got a Toronto paper. We pitched our camp, called Tumble Camp, because of a certain agile aquatic feat, or loss of feet, performed by one of our number. Here we rendered a grand evening concert for the benefit of all who might be lurking near. The following numbers were given: (1) Solo by Max A. Friend, "The Way to Home"; (2) tin whistle selection by Mr. Nichol, "Just One Girl"; (3) concert by the party.

SEASON AT "PRINCESS" TO BE THE BEST EVER

Partial List of Manager Sheppard's Bookings—Next Week's Public Amusements.

The Princess Theatre has been in the process of renovation for several weeks, and is now open and span for the opening, which has been arranged to take place on Monday, Aug. 26. Many alterations have been made to the stage and the auditorium has been brightened up by fresh paint and furnishings.

The different attractions booked for the Princess Theatre will continue to occupy the place which it has always held since it came under the management of Mr. Sheppard. The high-class attractions of America, and the visiting players from the old country, practically all of whom make their booking arrangements thru the office of Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger, will be seen during the season at the Princess.

"Before and After," with which the theatre will be opened on Aug. 26, has been already seen by a good many Toronto spectators, and it is one of the best of the Manhattan and Astor Theatres in New York, and by a few others in London, Paris and Berlin. It is a typical European farce, said to be hilariously funny, but differing from the French farces which depend for their humor upon equivocal situations, in that it is essentially clean and wholesome. The company engaged in this exception, has seen in it here, among them being Leo Ditrichstein and Miss Kenyon Bishop, Aubrey Beattie, Edmund Elton, John Arthur, G. M. Sheldon and two of the prettiest women of the stage, Misses Hazel Chappie and Nellie Butler.

It is customary at the Princess to provide a big spectacle for the second week of the exhibition. This week will be "The Land of Nod," in which over one hundred people will be seen, including a large cast of principals, headed and directed by the German comedian, Knox Wilson.

Raymond Hitchcock, always a favorite in Toronto, will return with a musical comedy called "The Yankee Tourist."

Another new comedy offering will be "Brown-Barney," with Henry Woodruff in the leading role. Others to come are Eitel Barrymore, Marie Cahoon, and the last-named being engaged to present a new comedy, "Marrying Mary." The most important of the heavier plays will be those to be given by Ernesto Novelli, the Italian tragedian, and James K. Hackett, in the London production, "John Bull in Honors." Others who will be welcomed back are Willie Collier, Louis Mann in "The White Hen," Blanche and Montgomery and "The Red Mill." The plays include "The Right of Way," "The Three of Us," "The Gravel Company," "The Gingerbread Man" and "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

Admirers of Laura Jean Libbey, the talented author, will have a chance to see and hear the real characters in her famous novel, "The Secret Garden," which is to be produced next week at the Majestic Theatre under ed, and his parents were compelled to move three times, they found quarters where the all important cornetist of the Duss band could berlieze "to his heart's content." Berlieze says that the cornet is the hero's instrument fit for the expression of the most exalted ideas. With this highly prized medium Mr. Eranson depicts the boy and soldier with bitsness gladness and sombre beauty.

From flying acrobats and hair-raising bicycle feats, the Scarborough Beach management has turned to horses to provide amusement for its patrons. No less than two different equine acts are on the bill for next week. One troupe of horses, known as Venilla's Boxing Stallions, will perform several feats probably never witnessed in this country. The horses excited the interest of New Yorkers during the "dog days" by a unique act, in which the horses appeared as gladiators of the prize ring, and boxed with each other with all the skill of a ring-veteran.

As indicated by their title, Mlle. Etouille's Society (Cross Horses) give a performance. These animals dance, and actually succeed in going thru a cotillon. Few animal acts are so powerful in their appeal to the public as those performed by horses, and these two leading attractions were depended on to fill Scarborough Beach paterne, while asking in making the regular show at the Beach a success.

When Leo Ditrichstein's famous laughter play, "Before and After," is seen at the Princess Theatre on Monday week, opportunity will be given to judge whether critical New York has been justified in declaring it "the best farce written in fifty years." The central idea of "Before and After" is ingenious. A crabbid physician, when taken on a new drug which, when taken, turns gloom to joy and makes happy people still happier. The chances for fun in this seem unlimited. The play is said to be unflagging in its action, to have the amusing twist of actors and plenty of smart dialog. One of the many engaging features, it is said, is the genius of the beautiful woman of the company.

NEW SHRINE DEDICATED. Situated at Waubushene—Afflicted Hope for Cure. At Waubushene, on Sturgeon Bay, about 900 "pilgrims" from various parts of Canada and the United States attended the dedication of a shrine to the memory of the Jesuit fathers, Lallemand and Brebeuf, who were put to death by the Iroquois Indians in 1674.

The little chapel was solemnly blessed and dedicated under the title of Shrine of the Martyrs by Archbishop O'Connor, assisted by Fathers Barrelo of Midland, Kidd of Peterborough, and McKeown of Brock. McRey of Peterborough and the Jesuit fathers in charge at Waubushene. His Grace walked thru the chapel sprinkling with holy water the seats, pictures and articles used in divine services, converting the place from an ordinary building to a house of God. After this act the priests united in chanting the litany of the saints. Solemn high mass was the next part of the service and then the sermon of the occasion by Rev. Father Moynie of Orillia. "The Martyrs' Shrine," St. Ignatius of the Martyrs is situated on what is known as Martyrs' Hill, called so on account of the belief that the summit of the hill was the exact spot on which the Indian carnage took place. It is of wood and is shaped somewhat after the fashion of a canopy in that, save for the sanctuary, it is not enclosed by walls, the roof being supported by pillars. Standing among the vast assemblage were cripples, lame persons and halt. Many of them had come a considerable distance to seek a cure for their deformities in the intercession of two martyrs who were being honored. No cures, however, are expected for a few days. Rev. Father Nolan, S.S., who is in charge of the shrine, said that if any cures took place they would be given the widest publicity.

A week from Monday the Royal Alexandra Theatre will be opened. The first production to be given there is "The Top o' the World," a big musical extravaganza, which comes here under the management of the Shubert Theatre Co. The musical comedy is in two acts and seven scenes. The action takes place in the Klondike, a locality which affords much scope for the authors of comic opera. In the cast will be 75 people, among whom are Anna Laughlin, William Rock, Kathleen Clifford, John McVeigh, Blanche Wayne, John Gilbert, Willard Curtis, Russell Bassett, Roger Dolan, Harry Fairfield and Arthur Hill. Two cars are required to transport the scenery. No expense has been spared to make this one of the most finished and elaborate productions which have been sent out of New York in recent years. After the engagement at the Royal Alexandra the company will return to New York for a long engagement.

The comedy "A Message from Mars," which was seen here last season and so well liked by our theatre-goers, will again be seen at the Grand, opening the season on Monday, Aug. 26. It teaches a lesson in a sapient way and it entertains just as the people of the present day want to be entertained. In other words, "A Message from Mars" is one of the best of plays. That was the consensus of the opinion when seen here before.

HISHON TO TRIAL

Girl Told Story of High Park Assault in Police Court Yesterday.

Elice Lashmore told the story of her assault at the hands of Cornelius Hishon, who was committed for trial in police court yesterday, charged with rape in High Park two weeks ago.

The girl told of the appearance of the man, who she said was Hishon. He carried a knife and a revolver, and came upon her and her companion as they were sitting on a bench in the park.

He displayed a badge, saying he was a police officer and would arrest them. He then demanded $20 and was given all the money that he had. Then he laid hands on the girl and the assault was committed. The escort told that if he interfered his brains would be blown out.

FRESH MEATS ARE FED TO WHIRLPOOL RAPIDS

Four Carloads of Swift's Best Thrown Into Gorge by Wreck.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., Aug. 16.—A Grand Trunk freight train was wrecked early today on the lower steel arch bridge over the Niagara Gorge. The bridge was damaged and four cars dropped into the Whirlpool Rapids. Traffic over the bridge was blocked until 11 a.m.

A heavy train of 35 loaded refrigerator cars was going from the G. T. R. yards on the Canadian side to the Lehigh Valley yards on the American side. There was an engine at each end of the train, as there is an upgrade from the bridge to the Lehigh Valley yards. About the middle of the train a car mounted the rails at the switch near the Canadian side.

The heavily loaded cars tore along over the ties for a short distance, cutting them badly, and, in fact, for probably 25 yards breaking them through the two tracks. Four cars rolled to the north side of the bridge, and leaving the tracks, shot into the chasm below. Three struck the water and disappeared instantly, the fourth struck the rocks near the water and was smashed into kindling wood. The cars were all Swift's, loaded with fresh meat.

The front engine pulled away from the wreck with 13 cars attached, but left one disabled at the American side of the bridge. The local wrecking crew was once called out and the Hamilton derrick was sent for.

It seems a very peculiar thing that two wrecks have occurred on this bridge within a few months, when it is remembered that the first that ever occurred was this spring. Only on Wednesday of this week was a new railing put up to replace the sections carried away in the last wreck.

Mr. Harriman continued, "But I am misunderstood. The time has not come for federal ownership."

Horseman is Told That He Mustn't Do It Again.

George Pepper was up before Magistrate Kingsford yesterday afternoon for galloping horses and training them to jump hurdles in the lane in the rear of Mrs. Mary Hollowell's, No. 70 St. George-street.

Mr. Pepper said that he had been doing so for the past twenty years, but added that of late none of his horses had either been galloped, or jumped in the lane. He had lived there for twenty-five years, had never had trouble with the neighbors, and did not want any, "but that woman," he continued, "was just looking for a pretext."

Magistrate Kingsford interrupted Mr. Pepper and told him the court would not start for anyone referring to a lady in the terms "that woman."

When Buying a Piano

THE most important thing to consider when buying a piano is who made it. Is the maker an experienced piano maker?

You can't tell much about a piano by just looking at it. You can't tell about its lasting qualities by playing on it a few times, BUT you CAN tell everything about a piano if you know the record of the maker.

Bird's eye view showing the enormous plant of Gerhard Heintzman, Limited, grown to these proportions through the merits of their pianos.

For nearly half a century the "Gerhard Heintzman" pianos have held the place of honor as "Canada's best piano," a record gained entirely through merit; the makers, whose lives have been spent in manufacturing pianos, can safely say that no piano of even medium grade has ever left their factory; the "best possible" has been and is their motto, so that the wonderful growth of the "Gerhard Heintzman" factory, as evidenced by the above picture, is only a fitting tribute to Canadians to their favorite high-grade piano.

Our exhibit at the Toronto Exhibition this year will again have special features in art pianos.

Send for our new catalogue, so you can post yourself before visiting the Exhibition.

JURY BEFRIEND GIRL

Return a Verdict of Shooting by Some Person Unknown.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Madeline Langlots, who figured in the tragedy of yesterday, during which her father, George Wasser, killed his wife, and the daughter, in turn, shot and killed her father, was exonerated by a corner's jury to-day and discharged from custody.

The jury, after deliberating ten minutes, found that Mrs. Wasser had met her death at the hands of her husband, while the father "had been shot and killed by a person whose name is unknown to the jury."

Mrs. Langlots told a pitiful story of her father's cruelty toward his family. It was not made clear by witness whether Wasser was killed by his own gun or by a bullet from his daughter's weapon.

SHOEWORERS ON TRIAL FOR ELECTION MISDEEDS

Bribery and Corruption to Defeat Tobin Alleged Against Two Members.

After having spent three days on preliminaries, the delegates of the Boot and Shoe Workers' International Union, holding their annual convention at the Labor Temple, got down to real business yesterday morning, when the committee appointed to try Messrs. Hickey and Murray on the charge of bribery and corruption during the last election of officers of the organization, brought against them by President Tobin and Vice-president Lovey, commenced their duties in open convention. Charles Laird and Thomas Lynch of Brockton, Mass., are acting as solicitors for Hickey and Murray, whilst Charles Morrow of West Weymouth and J. P. Murphy of Lynn, Mass., are acting for President Tobin and Vice-president Lovey. The trial is being conducted with all the decorum that so grave a charge demands, and the 250 delegates followed every point with intense interest.

Walter Edmonds of Haverhill, Mass., one of the five inspectors of elections, was the first witness called. Having been duly sworn, he was minutely examined as to the movements of Mr. Hickey and his interview with Jerry Donovan and E. Lucas during the election period. Edmonds admitted that at these meetings the question of manipulating the votes cast, to prevent the election of President Tobin, was discussed.

Wanted Revenge. Solicitor Morrow, in cross-examination, drew from Edmonds the admission that he blamed President Tobin for having brought about his dismissal as organizer of the union, and he frankly avowed that it was only natural he should direct his efforts towards the defeat of a hated rival. He further admitted that he had taken an active part in the campaign in the interests of Messrs. Hickey and Murray, and that he had taken part in several conferences which were held with a view of securing the influence and support of E. B. Lucas of Hamilton, Ont., another inspector, who it was thought might be useful. He and Lucas signed a report which he swore was as accurate as it could be, having regard to the possibility of clerical errors. Edmonds denied that he had any direct

Simpson's August Housefurnishing Club

Charge Account at This Store--Cash Prices With Time to Pay

THOUSANDS of Canadians in all parts of the Dominion are at this moment well pleased ex-members of our former Housefurnishing Club. Each and every one, without exception in shape, substance or degree, so far as we honestly know and believe, is ready to whole-heartedly endorse this plan of furnishing homes from his or her own personal satisfied experience. It has proven the most liberal convenience ever offered to home members in this country.

The plan is simplicity itself. The benefit is mutual. There is absolutely no extra charge, and there are all the advantages that membership necessarily entails. First, let us briefly go over the points of the plan itself—points which are perhaps already known to you from our former exposition of them.

First—it is a Housefurnishing Club—which means and includes carpets, curtains, furniture and all the interior fittings of a home. We offer to admit 500 members to this club and its privileges, charging not one cent of fee or interest.

These are the said privileges in so many words:

Simpson's Cash Prices on Housefurnishings with Time to Pay at Convenience.

That means you have the extraordinary advantage of a charge account at this store, while paying no more from first to last than cash customers.

There are no conditions absolutely other than that you take $25.00 worth of goods or more, and assure us of your ability and determination to abide by your agreement.

But, mind you, we limit the membership to houseowners. We'll take only 500 accounts.

The Club secretary will be at your service Monday in his private office in the curtain department. Talk it over in person with him if you can, write if you live out of town. Join now, only twelve more days remain in which to select your goods. The following specially priced housefurnishings apply to club members and cash customers alike. They are extraordinary!

TOWNSHIP OF YORK

Notice is hereby given that a by-law, No. 298, was passed by the council of the Corporation of the Township of York on the sixth day of August, A.D. 1907, providing for the issue of debentures to the amount of $10,000, for the purpose of enabling the Board of Public School Trustees of School Section No. 12, in the Township of York, to complete additions to the schools in said section, and that such by-law was registered in the Registry Office of the County of York on the 8th day of August, A. D. 1907.

Any motion to quash or set aside the same, or any part thereof, must be made within three months after the first publication of this notice, and cannot be made thereafter.

Dated and first published this 10th day of August, 1907.

W. A. CLARKE,
Clerk of York Township.

Inspector Donovan, who followed, denied that he knowingly assisted in any crooked business. He knew there were to means of finding out who were suspended, as no list was supplied, and the secretary, who was the only man who could decide that point, was not present. At the counting of the votes many irregularly marked papers were noticed, and these were put on one side, as it was not thought desirable to reject them at the time. He knew it was freely reported that Hickey was boasting that he would become coes of the union, even if it took him two years to reach the chair; also that a woman, whose name was not divulged, had stated that she held Tobin's future in the palm of her hand.

Consulted an Outsider. In cross-examination he said he could not remember how many irregular voting papers were noticed. The reason they were placed on one side was that the inspectors might have an opportunity of discovering if there was a precedent they might follow in dealing with these, so that the votes should not be lost. He admitted that Bro. Bain, who was not an inspector and who had no authority or right to interfere, was consulted as to the means that should be adopted for dealing with these votes, and he also yielded the voting station several times while voting was in progress.

There were several lively passages between the opposing solicitors during the period this witness was on the stand.

Other evidence of a similar nature having been given, President Tobin was called and stated that although he saw the inspectors during the contest, but any

It was only momentarily and he apologized to them afterwards for his seeming abruptness and told them that as he was a candidate for office he thought he would be better off of the way. Further, he had made application for leave of absence from his duties, which was granted, and he went away, so that it could not be said that he had tried to influence anyone to vote for him.

At this point Solicitor Morrow, for the complainants, said he thought sufficient evidence had been given to substantiate the charges, and he therefore proposed to close the case there, leaving the right to call such other evidence as might be necessary to reveal the inspectors during the contest, but any
