LONG LIST OF ACCIDENTS.

Man Buried Under Falling Wall
Percy Gallinger May Die.

John Egan, 77 Bellevue-avenue, was working at Clark's stable on Adelaide-street, tearing it down, when the wall came down unexpectedly, and he was caught beneath, the bricks covering him entirely. He had his leg fractured and a large cut that required several stitches in his head. After being fixed up at the Emergency Hospital, he declared that he was fit to go home and asked whether he could get to another hospital where they had a hospital bed.

Dr. Roy Cade was knocked down at the corner of Queen-street and Cowan-avenue on Saturday afternoon. His bicycle made off, not giving anyone a chance to get his name. He was attended by Dr. Lynd. His injury amounted to a sprained ankle, a broken several stitches, and some smaller cuts.

Nelson Huntley, an employee of the King Edward Hotel, fell from a high storey window and alighted on the porch over the main entrance on King-street. He only started in the employ of the hotel yesterday and had been down, in pulling his fingers, and that loosened his hold. At the General Hospital it was found that he had broken the bone in the left side, and he suffers considerable pain from his back and joints.

Frank Fawcett was driving in to the city when a King-street car struck the wagon, precipitating him into the road, breaking his leg and shaking him up generally.

Percy Gallinger, who was injured in a street car accident on Saturday evening, is still unconscious. Dr. Lynd says there is not much change in his condition since Sunday, but has very slight hope for his recovery.

Leg Fully Smashed.

Listowel, Nov. 2.—W. E. Weston was lowering a pulpit into place when something went wrong with the elevator, and its huge burden of some three or four hundred pounds fell upon his leg, and smashed it so badly that amputation would be necessary.

Dr. Shoop's

Rheumatic Cure

Costs Nothing if It fails.

Any honest person who suffers from Rheumatism is welcome to this offer.
For you are searched everywhere to find a specific for Rheumatism. For nearly 20 years I worked with this method. I found a costly chemical that did not disappoint me as other
Rheumatism prescriptions do.

I do not mean that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure can turn your joints to flame again. That is not the case. But it is effective from the blood the poison that causes pain and swelling, and then that is the end of Rheumatism.
I know this so well that my search was rewarded. I found a costly chemical that did not disappoint me as other
Rheumatism prescriptions do.

Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure is a potent force against Rheumatism which is irresistible.

My offer is made to convince you of my faith. My faith is born in the confidence of experience. I have seen many cases of Rheumatism cured by Dr. Shoop's Cure.

German Championship.

Berlin, Nov. 2.—Dr. George Webster, an American, has won the gold championship of the German Rheumatism Cup on trial. An Englishman on the twenty-first green, Dr. Twister also won the handicap championship.

Jockey Wilson Injured
Trisco Fell at Latonia

New Five-Furlongs Track Record at Aqueduct—Results and Entries.

Cincinnati, Nov. 2.—During the sample race at Aqueduct today, Trisco turned and fell into the ditch. Jockey Wilson was knocked senseless, his hip was sprained and he was internally injured. The horse was not hurt.

Dramatic Among Also Horses.

New York, Nov. 2.—Sweet Alice, 8 to 5

TAKING EXERCISE WHEN THE WORLD IS ASLEEP

Curious Habits of One of the Leaders of the Bar in Ireland.

Dublin, Nov. 2.—Stephen Ronan, K.C., who may be regarded as the leader of the Chancery bar in Ireland, who was one of the counsel for the Times in the Parnell Commission, together with the present Attorney-General for Ireland, Mr. Atkinson, is one of the most interesting men in Dublin. His friends and familiar methods of work have earned for him a certain notoriety. His day is divided as follows:

On leaving the courts which close at an odd hour, he goes home and sits down to dinner but does not eat. He is however honored and converses with the world.

The woman gave birth to twins. At the time there was considerable sickness prevailing in the district, and Pui man was asked to give his diagnosis of the cause.

He unhesitatingly declared it to be one of the unfortunate twin who was born with the name of Kamakina, as a woman could not naturally produce two children at a birth. As the child one night woke and became fretful again, when was present, declared the bird to be the Kamakina, father calling his child and the child's wife his answer.

The next day, at his instigation, a large hole was dug in the ground and a fire built in it. When it was well ablaze, the infant was thrown into the flames alive, sufficient to offend the deity.

But this did not suffice to appease the wrath of the spirits, and the Pui man advised a further act of punishment.

"The Pui man," he said, "is a good man, but he has not been known to walk to the courts for years. When he is ready for work at 11, when the judges sit. Suppose he is extra busy, his vacation is generally devoted to yachting, of which he is an ardent devotee."

CONEY ISLAND FIRE INCENDIARY.

Two Men Arrested Who Are Very Strongly Accused.

New York, Nov. 2.—Fourteen solid blocks of wood in rails, one life boat and two score persons injured, 500 persons homeless and a financial loss of $1,500,000 is the result of the fire at Coney Island yesterday. Frank Conroy, 27, and Peter Skele, 28, both waiters in the place where he has not been known to walk to the courts for years. When he is ready for work at 11, when the judges sit. Suppose he is extra busy, his vacation is generally devoted to yachting, of which he is an ardent devotee."

COAL RECEIPTS LIGHT.

Receipts of coal by water have been very light for October than for any month before.

The Committee met yesterday and passed the accounts of the Proprietary, Management and Supply Committee.

The Committee recommended that buildings account to $4212 be paid and school accounts of $882.

William Wattis, the manager, is still very much in evidence, and then again says there is a temporary division from both.

After dinner (generally a careful meal owing to refractory digestive organs) and a quiet walk or possible calligrapher; and then bed and sleep till midnight. Awkward punctually at the switching hour he does up his coat and hat, and starts tramping round the square in which he lives smoking the trusty briar till 1 a.m.

He then gets up, washes and reads till 8, at which hour he makes it a rigorous rule to be in bed. He sleeps till 10, makes a hasty toilet, gets dressed and washes and then walks to his office at 11, when the judges sit. Suppose he is extra busy, his vacation is generally devoted to yachting, of which he is an ardent devotee."

KILLED BY INDIANS.

Sheriff in Wyoming and One Officer
Shot by Sioux.

Newcastle, Wyo., Nov. 2.—Sheriff W. H. Miller of Weston County, and one of his posse, are dead as a result of a fight with twelve wagons of Sioux Indians, three miles below Beaver Dam, on Lightning Creek, Converse County. The Indians were from the Pine Ridge and Cheyenne agencies in South Dakota, and were violating the game laws of the state.

In a second battle with the Indians yesterday afternoon, near the scene of the first ten Indians were killed and eleven captured. None of the posse was killed in the second fight.

It is estimated that 500 men are scouring the country in search of the remaining Indians.

EVILS WILL CHEEPIN.

Possible Effect of Releasing Irish Refugee at Indianapolis.

London, Nov. 2.—The release from custody of James L. Lynchayham by Federal Commissioner Moore at Indianapolis Saturday, on the ground that while Lynchayham's crime had not been fully proved, he had been compelled to admit some of the afternoon newspaper here, The Globe claiming that police influenced the decision.

"The next assassin of a President will plead Commissioners' Moore's judgment with irresistible force if he can get away with it," said Frank Hayden, brother of Madame Hunter, and Americans will have no cause for complaint if the result throws out gear of the whole machinery of extradition between the United States and Great Britain.

The Fall Mail Gazette remarks: "By the same reasoning used by Commissioner Moore it would be impossible to refuse the extradition of the most dastardly criminal."

M. FOSTER'S VIEWS.

London, Nov. 2.—Hon. George E. Foster, speaking for the Canadian Liberal representative, said: "Since coming to England I find the need of protection stronger than ever. The English are harsher, more fighting the whole world, entrenched and armed with sabre and rifle. For the first time in the history of Great Britain she is thinking and her veneration of God is gone. I believe the working class of England is with Chamberlain."

London Butter.

London, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Caroline Putnam, colored, of Brooklyn, died today, from the effect of a murderous assault, and her son, Frederick D. Putnam, was arrested. The boy was shot in the head and was violating the game laws of the state.

On Friday morning he went to the Normal School and inspect the schools of the city, and when a trip to the Parliament Buildings, with a trip to the British Museum, he got lost.

At a second fire, but he arrived just as the flames shot up, and was unable to control them and gave the alarm to the police. The boy was given guile to-day in the Police Court to a charge of arson and remanded.

Hallowe'en Fatality.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 2.—Foray Corkum, aged 14, was shot dead while playing at Varna, Bulgaria, and his son, Frank Hayden, was allowed to go to the hospital.

He was admitted while in a frenzied condition from liquor.

Must Stay Behind Bars.

London, Nov. 2.—The British Consul here has requested, made by Emile D'Aurignac, brother of Madame Hunter, that Americans will have no cause for complaint if the result throws out gear of the whole machinery of extradition between the United States and Great Britain.

The Fall Mail Gazette remarks: "By the same reasoning used by Commissioner Moore it would be impossible to refuse the extradition of the most dastardly criminal."

Convict's Soul.

Kingston, Nov. 2.—Rev. A. W. Cooke, Anglican, of this city, has been appointed chaplain of the Kingston Penitentiary to succeed Rev. Conway Cartwright, who retired last week.

Dundas Successor.

London, Nov. 2.—Sir Edwin H. Egerton, British Minister of Agriculture, has appointed British Ambassador M. Laird in succession to Sir Henry Morimer Durand.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pain in the Chest, Croup, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and all Throat and Lung Troubles.

It is pleasant to take and has a cooling and healing action to the lungs. There is nothing to equal it for stopping that tickling sensation in the throat, and is persistent cough that keeps awake at night.

Price 25c, at all Dealers.

I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup in my family for the last six years, and have found it to be the best medicine for all kinds of coughs and colds I have ever used. My little boy has a severe attack of bronchitis, but is completely cured. I cannot pray enough.

SACRIFICE OF HUMANS WITH BRITISH FLAG

Gross Superstitions Still Rife in One of the Colonies of Edward VII.

London, Nov. 2.—Advices from Georgetown, British Guiana, say that in the hundreds of years during which the colony has been a British possession the customs of the people have been greatly improved, yet away in the interior many of the aboriginal Indians practice the most diabolical religious rites.

The Commissioner of the Essequibo and Pomeroon River district, Michael McTurk, C.M.G., reports that the superstition of Pulsim is rampant, and relates the following extraordinary incidents.

A woman gave birth to twins. At the time there was considerable sickness prevailing in the district, and Pui man was asked to give his diagnosis of the cause.

He unhesitatingly declared it to be one of the unfortunate twin who was born with the name of Kamakina, as a woman could not naturally produce two children at a birth.
