COLCHESTER HERO WINS CROIX DE GUERRE.

Sergt. Hilbert Clarence Lank, Upper Bass River, Royal Canadian Regiment, Frings Home to himself and His Home land.

The returned R.C.R. Veteran, Hilbert Clarence Lank, who had once served in Halifax by the S. S. on Sunday the 13th; was a soldier, Sergt. H. C. Lank, Upper Bass River, Colchester Co., N. S. son of Mr. Alfred Lank—has been thru the Great War—recorder alike creditable to him—his home friends and his home

Lank, who had once served in the United States Army when he was a time in New York city, in the 185th Bn. in Broughton, C.B., April 7, 1916. He went with the Highland Brigade to the S. S. Olympic in October 1916. He was in every battle in this fighting Regiment was engaged except one.

From a Private, he got to Lance Corporal, Corporal and Sergeant—promotions on the battlefield—of the War had not closed our Colchester soldier might still be advanced in rank.

Early in August 1918 the R.C.R.'s with the French on their right, got a mighty Scrap.

The Huns. The French troops held up by a nest of machine guns when Sergt. Lank with two companies, one he sent back for ammunition, boldly made a drive at the enemy concealed in the under-bush and bullets from Lee-Enfields until my ceased fire; 12 Germans, and two cannons captured and were saved and sent to N. C. O. did a bold charge and showed most courageous and intelligent initiative. For this he was awarded the French

"War Cross"

Croix De Guerre.

Here is a copy of the Order, by the French Colonel in command, stating the action for which this great honor was conferred on Sergt. Lank;—

Soldat de 1e Classe Hilbert Clarence Lank, No. mle 878046 du Royal Canadian Regiment.

"Alors que des elements Francais etaient arretes a sa droite a conduit aussitot sa section sur leur flanc, a tue 12 allemands, pris 2 canons et a permis la reprise de l'avance, grace a sa courageuse initiative."

The French people—a nation of unexcelled martial spirit and gallantry—do not bestow such mark honors unless worthily won; so Sergt. Lank's home paper, the Truro News extends congratulations.

Serg. Lank was with the R.C.R.'s the Princess Pats, the 42nd Bn., the 49th Bn. and the 7th Canadian Trench Mortar Battery—all Canadians of The Seventh Infantry Brigade—when, about 8 o'clock on the morning of November 11, 1918, they entered Mons, driving the Huns before them and had them well out of that city when the order "cease fire" at 11 o'clock past thru the lines;—and the Great War, of 1914- to 1918 was over!

The officers and men of this Canadian Seventh Infantry Brigade, received the "Mons Medal," presented by the Mayor the Council and other grateful inhabitants of the city of Mons.

AN INTERESTING NOTE OR TWO FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA

The following very interesting letter was received by one of our readers:

Dear Sir

Enclosed you will find a clipping from the Vancouver "Province" headed "The Bluenose." I don't know who the correspondent is, but this appears about every two weeks in the paper. I just thought I would enclose it to show you that in far away British Columbia we do not forget you.

You might make a note in the "Truro News" that we in British Columbia have not forgotten you.

Vancouver is looking up. There has been quite a bit of property changing hands the last few months. We had had a very mild winter, no frost to speak of. One can see the grass commencing to get a little green already Sometimes I think I would like to go back to Nova Scotia. As I always have a warm spot in my heart for the East.

I wish you would let me know what the Borden Milk Company pays the farmer for milk in your district.

Do they pay a flat rate of so much per pound or are you paid for the butter fat? I might say that this winter fat, which for milk testing 5 per cent, realizes $5 per hundredweight.

We have the Borden Milk Company here and they are doing a big business.

A couple of years ago the farmers of the Lower Fraser Valley formed an organization with a membership of a thousand which includes about 90 per cent. of the milk producers, and the result is that the farmers are boss of their own business now, not the milk companies.

We did over $2,000,000 worth of business last year and there is a surplus now on hand of $75,000 which will be divided in the next month among the members.

I would like to know how the prices of milk compare in your district with ours. That is why I mentioned this.

Yours sincerely,
JOHN S. PUTNAM.

A LETTER FROM A TRURO SOLDIER

Belgium, February 10th. Dear — I have not heard from you for some time, so I thought I would write today.

I am in the Fourth Division and it is to be the last division to be demobilized. I guess we are doomed to be here a while yet.

The day the armistice was signed we were in city of Valenciennes and naturally all were glad to hear the good news.

We marched with full pack containing all our possession, which made a respectable load to carry.

We were all billeted near the city of Mons, and later near Charleroi I visited both cities which are worth seeing.

I have been in Brussels twice and thoroughly enjoyed myself each time. The only trouble is that it takes a pile of money to live there, and you know soldiers are not millionaires.

Early in December we arrived in the Village of Gistoux in Belgium. We spent both Christmas and New Years there.

About two weeks ago some of our company was brought down here for guard duty on a ration dump. It is a much nicer place and more lively.

We are still doing guard duty at Mont St. Guibert. Each man has four hours on and twenty four off duty.

As I was off duty yesterday I walked back to Gistoux to get some reading matter at the Y. M. C. A.

The Minister of Agriculture was requested to take this matter up and to appoint some one to consult with the Maritime Stock Breeder's Association in regard to improved facilities for marketing.

The Pantry Sale in favor of the Returned Soldiers Fund was a Grand Success netting the sum of $179.23.

The 42nd Battalion Quebec Regiment, mostly from Montreal were on the Adriatic and these soldiers got a good idea of the way Nova-Scotians treat their returning heroes.

Lieut. Col. J. W. Margeson was a passenger by the Adriatic; he went right thru to Ottawa.

Six military trains past north Sunday afternoon and evening; one of which was filled with sturdy, stalwart officers and men of the R. N. W. Mounted Police.

The safe way to send money by mail is by Dominion Express Money Orders.

Mr. John Gunn, thru the News, wishes to return thanks to those who so kindly gave their assistance in trying to save his property during the fire at Belmont on 6th.

Mrs. Charlton Gay Mr. Pleasant, is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. B. A. Youngs, Hantsport.

The Allies will allow the German Army to consist of 100,000 men, enlisted for 12 years.

The British Government has now removed all "restrictions on imports from all parts of the British Empire to Great Britain.

A seizure of real, good old South Whiskey was made at Little Bras d'Or a few days ago, valued at $7,500.

There was big Canadian picnic, frolic and reunion at Santa Monica, Calif. Feb. 8 and 9.

At great gathering there were registered from: Nova Scotia 184, P. E. Island 98, Cape Breton 233, New Glasgow 7, Pictou 2, Amherst 40, Truro 62.

It was a big day for the "Canucks" Dr. Fringle was there and was given a great reception.

Upset Stomach

STOCK BREEDERS IN SESSION

The Maritime Stock Breeders were in session in Truro on the 6th. Many matters of importance were considered.

The Maritime Winter Fair, interrupted by the War will start again and the next Fair will be in the Wint-Biddings in Amherst from December 15 to 18 next.

The following officers were elected. President—A. E. Trites, Salisbury.

Vice-President for Nova Scotia—S. A. Logan, Amherst. Vice-President for New Brunswick—W. W. Hubbard, Fredericton.

Vice-President for P. E. Island—J. M. Laird, Kelvin Grove. Secretary-Treasurer—F. L. Fuller, Truro.

Directors for Nova Scotia—W. W. Black, Amherst; John T. O'Brien Windsor; and W. L. MacFarlane, Fox Harbor Point.

Directors for New Brunswick—A. M. Avar, Sackville; W. S. Harding, Hammond River; and Morris A. Scovil, Gagetown.

Directors for P. E. Island—J. F. Roper, Charlottetown; Walter N. Lee, Victoria; and William MacGregor, Miscouche.

The breeders were in deep earnest in the matter of the poor facilities in the Maritime Provinces for such marketing and also in regard to the lack of cold storage.

The Minister of Agriculture was requested to take this matter up and to appoint some one to consult with the Maritime Stock Breeder's Association in regard to improved facilities for marketing.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Halifax will pay $5000 for medical officer, who has the "diploma of public health." The present stipend of $2,500 too meager to attract any doctor.

A smaller cent coin, than now in Canada, is soon to be issued.

In Ontario there were 812 deaths in February from influenza; in January 1,512 and in December 1,568.

Since the War began in 1914 March 1, 1918 over 767,400 troops have gone over the Canadian Government Railways.

Rev. Dr. Rochester, General Secretary of The Lord's Day Alliance when in town, Sunday was the guest of Captain and Mrs. Murray, King Street.

Rev. Dr. Rochester, Toronto General Secretary of The Lord's Day Alliance preached Sunday at the Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock and at The Pleasant Street church in the evening. His discourse was highly instructive and interesting.

The retail shoe dealers of Truro have decided to sell goods hereafter for cash only, no more "charge accounts" and no more "goods home approval." Even if this should result in a little less business it is certainly more profitable.

There are still 18,000 Canadian wounded heroes to return from overseas. In Canada we have 65 hospitals and 69 overseas. These hospitals have handled 698,677 cases. By May 1, the Minister of Militia says we will have 16,000 patients overseas, who will be brought back soon as it is wise to bring them.

The town horses, a heavy pair, were sold to Mr. Spurgeon Gammon, New Glasgow, the other day, the price being $550. It is understood that the chairman of streets favors getting a lighter pair next time.

Police Officer, Peter McGillivray and Mrs. McGillivray, from Truro came over on Monday, to their home. The genial Peter who looks the picture of health and fitness returned on Tuesday. Mrs. McGillivray will remain for two weeks, a guest of Mrs. Angus McKeegan, New Glasgow.

At the premises of Chas. R. MacHeffey, Cook's Brook on March 25, at one o'clock there will be held a public auction, horses, agricultural implements, harnesses, and household furniture.

Auctioneer C. C. Fulton will sell on the premises of J. M. Fleming, Elmsdale, Hants Co., on March 19, at one o'clock plows, harrows, hay cutters, mowing machines, hay rakes, hay and straw and 14 high grade Holstein cows.

Pte. David Gillen of the 85th Bn. of Florence, C. B. was one of the victims of the rioting at Kinnel Camp.

But 125 men of the R. C. R. who left Halifax in 1915 returned to that city on Sunday.

Cure Your Rupture Like I Cured Mine

Old Sea Captain Cured His Own Rupture After Doctors Said "Operate or Death."

His Remedy and Book Sent Free. Captain Collings called the seas for many years; then he sustained a bad double rupture that soon forced him to not only remain ashore, but kept him bedridden for years.

"Follow Men and Women, You Don't Have To Be Cut Up, and You Don't Have To Be Tortured By Trusses."

Captain Collings made a study of himself, of his condition—and at last he was rewarded by the finding of the method that so quickly made him a well, strong, vigorous and happy man.

Anyone can use the same method; every ruptured person in the world should have the Captain Collings' book, telling all about how he cured himself, and how anyone may follow the same treatment in their own home without any trouble.

ANNUAL MEETING STANFIELD'S LIMITED.

The annual meeting of Stanfield's Limited was held at the company's office on Tuesday afternoon, the 4th inst. About 70 per cent. of the stock of the company was represented, either by holders or proxies.

The president, John Stanfield, presided, and in a few well chosen remarks outlined the work of the past year and the outlook for the future. The year 1918 had proven a good one for the company, as was evidenced by the figures submitted, which were very gratifying to the directors and should prove equally so to the shareholders. Of the future he considered no person competent to speak with assurance. The year 1919 was the beginning of a readjustment period, with the accompanying business uncertainties. The underwear business must, in common with every other industry, pass through this period of adjustment. Success would rest with the mill which could maintain in quality and meet competition.

The statement was then placed before the shareholders. It showed a profit from the year's operations of $104,000 out of which dividends of $37,500 were paid and the usual allowance for depreciation of mill and machinery made, leaving a balance of $16,500 to the credit of profit and loss account. The turnover for the year was $1,900,000.

The election of directors resulted in the re-election of the old board. The vice-president, Mr. Frank Stanfield, was unable to be present, owing to urgent business elsewhere, but special references of appreciation of the services he had rendered the company were made.

The Amherst Woolen Mills, which is a subsidiary of Stanfield's Limited, closes its financial year March 31st, and its annual meeting is held in April. This plant has confined its operations during the last year to cloths and yarns, and its turn-over will be in the neighborhood of $750,000—Truro Citizen.

SERGEANT H. G. WOODWORTH BERWICK, UNABLE TO SPEAK FOR THREE MONTHS, AFTER BEING GASSED.

Sergeant H. G. Woodworth 85th Battalion whose home is in Berwick was in Truro on March 5th and 6th visiting friends, and renewing acquaintances at the Nova Scotia Agricultural College, where he was a student in 1910.

Sergeant Woodworth enlisted with the Fighting 85th Battalion and went overseas in October 1916, and was in France in February 1917. He has been thru many of the big scraps with the Huns, and had many thrilling experiences to relate. He recalled with a shudder those awful hours of a big engagement, when the boys plunged thru mud to the knees and where shells were falling like rain, making it almost impossible for any man to live.

At the battle of Passendale, this brave soldier was gassed, with such dreadful effect, that he was unable to speak, not even whisper, for three months.

For ten months he was a patient in various English hospitals, and after a most severe operation on his throat he regained his power of speech.

After leaving the hospital, two months were spent in sight seeing, and then—Canada in December 1918.

Since his return from overseas, Sergeant Woodworth, has been doing conducting duty on board the troop trains.

IT Will Cure a Cold

Colds are the commonest ailments of mankind and if neglected may lead to serious conditions. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will relieve the bronchial passages of inflammation, speedily and thoroughly and will strengthen them against subsequent attack. And as it eases the inflammation it will stop the cough because it allays all irritation in the throat. Try it and prove it.

FIRE AT BELMONT COL. CO MARCH 6.

Mr. John Gunn, Truro, Lost Much Property Fully $6000 Some Insurance.

On the 6th a fire broke out in the upper part of the store rented by Willis Roode, and owned by John Gunn, Truro, at Belmont; and before the conflagration was over, this store, a dwelling house and a barn, all owned by Mr. Gunn, were destroyed.

It was impossible to save any of the buildings; and all fell before the fire fiend.

The stock of goods, owned by Mr. Roode, was saved; but the furniture owned by Mr. George Clark, in the living apartment over the store, was badly damaged.

A part of the residence was occupied by Mr. J. Atkinson and family and they suffered also from this fire.

The loss is heavy, as the insurance was small.

LONDONDERRY, COL. CO.

March 10.—The reception given in honor of our returned soldiers by the Red Cross was one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

The scene of this event was the Masonic Hall, which, under the tasteful and artistic supervision of Mrs. H. Love and Miss Jessie McLeod, was most beautifully decorated with flags, lanterns, etc. The dainty and well spread tables, covered with dainties of every kind, did credit to the managing committee, Mrs. Shatford and Mrs. Stevens and their assistants. The program for entertainment, solicited by Mrs. Williams, the committee of entertainment, was carried out with excellent order.

Music on the gramophone was supplied by Mrs. Love. Mrs. G. R. Smith, president of Red Cross Society, occupied the chair and gave a splendid address in which she extended a warm welcome to the boys. Music on violin and organ was furnished by the Carroll family and Mr. David Williams of Lornvale, who are always in demand on such an occasion and are noted for their skill in musical circles. Mr. George Scott gave some very nice solos. Recitations were given by Mrs. S. McLean and Miss Jobb of the Station. Speeches were made by Dr. R. O. Shatford, who spoke words of praise to our brave boys and also the Red Cross and leading in three rousing cheers for our brave boys. Speeches were given by Walter (Angeline), John McInnis, Howard Mills and G. R. Smith. All spoke words of praise and thankfulness for the safe return of the boys. G. R. Smith and others paid tribute to the honoured heroes, who had made the supreme sacrifice in defence of their country and suggested that a fund be started right away for that purpose. Mr. Smith wished the privilege of heading this list.

The soldiers present were Lieut. Raymond Smith, Pte. Wm. Frost, Waldo Spencer, A. Langille, B. McMullen, Albert Wells, Roy and Anton Carter and Jack Morris. Lieut. Smith acted as spokesman for the boys and also entertained the audience with comic songs, recitations and a very eloquent speech in which he thanked the ladies of the Red Cross and their supporters for their help and comfort while the war lasted and their grand reception given in honor of their return. He then led the boys in three cheers for the Red Cross, which was heartily led by his comrades. After a plentiful supper had been served and a program of entertainment had been given the boys suggested a "hop" and many enjoyed this dance for an hour or so.

Mrs. James McLean, a former resident of the place, was present at this Social event. Mrs. S. McLean was the former proprietor of the "Waverley House," which was burned some years ago. She is now a resident of Truro.

Miss Ethel Tattrie, who is attending Normal College, Truro, has contracted measles.

Mrs. H. Tattrie visited her daughter in Truro on the 8th.

Mrs. R. O. Shatford spent a day in Truro last week.

D. Phillips has moved his family into the Dunlap house.

Mrs. Shenton Bigney has returned from Truro.

A Tea was held by the ladies of Red Cross on the 8th the sum of $15.50 being realized. A. F. MacDonald also contributed $5.

MRS. SARAH L. LYNDS.

In Boston, on March 1st, there passed away Mrs. Sarah L. Lynds, eighty years and nine months of age, relict of the late Eben Lynds, of North River, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Litchfield, 1295 Washington St., following an illness of over two months.

At her summer home North River, last August, there was a family gathering, in which there were four generations, the deceased, Mrs. A. C. MacKenzie, Mrs. Joe Garden of Calgary, and little son, Joie.

She was of a very genial disposition and had very many friends in fact to know her was to love her. In her youth she connected herself with the Methodist Church at North River, and her home was always a home for the Clergy of that particular place and many will be able to recall the kind hospitality received there.

Impressive service was held at the home of Mrs. Litchfield on Sunday March 2 at 4 p.m. by Mr. Nagarien of Peoples Temple, who visited the deceased frequently during her illness.

The remains were brought to Truro accompanied by her daughters, Mrs. Buchmann and Miss Eva, and taken to her home North River, where funeral services were held. The Rev. R. B. Mack, officiating assisted by Rev. F. T. Scoates of Belmont.

The pall bearers were—Hiram Lynds, Melburn Lynds, Charles Blair, and Albert Higgins.

The floral offerings were very beautiful and included: Pillow, Eva, Minnie, Nettie; Sheaf, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. MacKenzie; Wreath Frank and Sadie; Wreath E. Eben; Wreath, Borden and Etia; Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hall; Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Abbie; Wreath, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Glynn; Wreath, Mrs. Lockhart; Boquet, Mrs. Kellie; Spray Mary; Boquet, Philithian Class, Peoples Temple; Wreath, Mr. Mehler, and Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Garden

Messrs. Edgar P. Cox, and Vernon McLearn of Sterlings Brook Hants Co., are attending the "Short Course" at the Agricultural College. These bright young farmers called at the office of the "Home Paper" on the 12th and were highly pleased with the appearance of the News Plant.

Dr. G. C. Creelman, commissioner of Agriculture for Ontario, has resigned. The office of Assistant Commissioner is being discontinued, and Justus Miller, who has up to the present held the post, will under a new arrangement carry on the work to which he has been giving such a large share of his time during the past year or two.

OLYMPIC WITH 5000 CANADIANS. London, Mar. 12. The White Star steamer Olympic has been again placed at the disposal of the Canadian govt. and with 5,000 Canadians, sails for Canada on Saturday next. An additional thirty thousand Canadians should sail before the end of March.

CLEAR CLARION NOTE FROM VLADIVOSTOK.

Capt. Fred Schurman Tells About Our Canadian Boys On Stormy Trip Over The Pacific and In Winter Barracks In Siberia.

The Censor permits me to give our present location, which may not look as far away as "Somewhere in Siberia" This particular camp is about twelve miles from Vladivostok, where the good ship "Protesilaus" arrived on the night of January 14th, after a rather monotonous trip of twenty days from Victoria, B. C. Perhaps the word monotonous may be better understood if I state that with the exception of a few whales and sea-birds, nothing was seen from the night we left Victoria Harbor until the snow-clad hills of Japan appeared on the horizon.

Many different accounts of our trip across the Pacific have been sent back to the homes in Canada. I know this as my name appears as Censor, on many.

An ocean voyage is largely enjoyed or disliked according to one's ability to walk the deck daily, without discomfort and to those of us who were fortunate in that respect, the voyage was a fair one. True, all ranks were crowded and the steamer's cooking facilities were totally inadequate for the number of troops carried, but we had a staunch boat, which was proven during the gale on January 7th, when one of the two propellers was broken and lost and we made port unassisted.

We had one man from Ontario badly crushed when a refrigerator broke away from its lashings and caught him during one of the storms, he died shortly after, and was buried at sea.

Also in our company one of our men was caught as one of the dining tables went madly across the ship and he is still in hospital, with a broken rib.

On Tuesday the 7th when the sea was running mountains high, I managed to make my way to the Captain's bridge and the sight was one I shall never forget. Last March, returning from England on that wonderful ship "Olympic," I saw the Atlantic in a blow which cut down the daily run from an average of over 100 miles to 210 miles, but the Pacific "went one better," and it is the wish of all to take a chance on the Atlantic when the time comes to return to Canada.

On the 8th of January we made only 120 miles or and Siberia looked a long way off at that speed but with the exception of a few snow-squalls, ideal weather followed, and after our run through Tsugaru Straits and across the Sea of Japan, we arrived in Vladivostok Harbor on Tuesday night January 14th.

Early next morning we were indeed glad to see familiar faces at the wharf to welcome our arrival. The Base Guard which preceded us, having been detailed from our company while at Sussex.

Ice-brakers were early at work clearing a passage for our steamer to dock, and we disembarked after having lunch on board ship.

Fur caps, sheepskin coats and shoes had not been issued and were not as well prepared for the cold as we now are. Consequently the first issue of rum and hot coffee was made before the men entrained in box-cars for the trip to barracks at Second River; after a delay of three hours, we finally got started and after a march of about two miles by moonlight, arrived at our destination hungry, tired and cold but not downhearted. Meat, bread, butter, everything eatable being

FROM THE HOME FOLK

Nothing can take the place of a few words of cheer from those who are keeping the home fires burning.

A steamer from Canada is due today and all are anxiously waiting for the first news from home.

It seems hardly right to end this letter without something about the weather.

In the three weeks we have spent here there have been the same delightful bright sunny days, frosty and clear, not a cloud in the sky, but the air tingle and the walk has to be quickened when one ventures out.

I have given the briefest outline possible and left out many things that I would like to write about but more at a later date.

F. B. SCHURMAN Second River, Vladivostok, Siberia Feb. 3rd, 1919.

(We hope the 30,000 persons, who read this most interesting letter in the Daily and Weekly News, will take up the gentle little hint therein mentioned by Capt. Fred Schurman and will see that these gallant Canadians in the Siberian Expeditionary Force get lots of letters and papers from the "home folks."—Ed. News.)

ABOUT THE WAR. Tatamagouche Feb. 23, 1919.

Editor of Truro News: Dear Sir:—Can you kindly space to insert a few lines written by me and published in the Morning Chronicle in answer to a letter by J. L. McDougall, entitled "A Clarion Call" This piece seemed so ridiculous to me that I couldn't but answer it and my answer which I enclose I would like to have you publish same.

I also received some time ago some literature from a Mr. J. B. Wier of Halifax. In one of his pamphlets he gives Bible quotations almost from Genesis to Revelations in an endeavor to convince me that God was the author of this war. But he will have to quote to a few more to change my views from what I have written. Why if men of that belief were put on a jury to try the Kaiser, according to their ideas they would have to acquit him of any crime, and if I were to express myself in that way, I would be afraid of being called Pro-German, which I think I would rightly deserve.

Just a word about Uncle Sam. I have always felt that he should have been in at the beginning. He did not heed the call of duty as the other allied nations did. What his reasons were I do not know. He was made to hear the call however later on when that message from Lloyd George came to him from across the seas, "Come and help us." Wilson being a good man, no doubt the first thing he did was to ask God's guidance. The answer was "He that is not for me is against me" To use a phrase of Billy Sundays he said "Woodrow, show your colors!" and he responded to the call and unfurled Old Glory. The message went from Maine to Florida to gird on their armor and go forth to battle to fight Satan and his legions. And see them go! Ere long till such a mighty force of God's followers arrayed themselves and joined together, that the enemy was driven before them like chaff before the wind. In years to come they can realize that the good old Hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers" has a deeper meaning than mere words.

G. HENDERSON

Let the Guilt Rest Where It Belongs.

To the Editor of The Chronicle: Sir:—There are many diverse views held about the real cause of the war, and the guilt of the Kaiser in respect to it. I have heard one eminent divine say that the Kaiser was in league with the devil, and another call him an instrument in the hand of God. In a recent issue of your paper a correspondent calls the beginning of the war "a call of God." I do not agree with that. If there was a call from God, it was to His followers to rally to the standard of righteousness and to put down the arch fiend who had in his vain pride conspired and planned to overthrow the British Empire and the rest of the world. His telegram to England, at the disturbed sleep usually comes from some form of indigestion. Strengthen the stomach and stimulate the liver with a course of Beecham's Pills

We are much interested in the different fortifications in all directions which are open to inspection. As to the future we have very little information but the home folk may depend upon the company from the Maritime Provinces endeavoring to uphold the reputation already made on Flanders Field.

Thanks to the thoughtfulness of the Woman's Council in Truro, the members of "A" Company have a splendid library which is well patronized and much appreciated.

The leading Papers of Halifax and St. John were good enough to open their columns for subscriptions for the welfare of the men of "A" Company with most satisfactory results. We have money with which to purchase comforts, supplements rations, buy additional sporting outfits and in many ways add to the comfort of those for whom the fund was collected. The one great boon here as overseas, is letters

I can't believe that God uses Satan for the betterment of the world. Christ came to earth with a mission to save the world from sin, and He accomplished that which He came for. He made it possible for the sinner to receive pardon. Some say that the world is getting no better. I take an opposite view—the world is better in hundreds of ways, as all the institutions for betterment in the world today show.

There are some who make light of the story of the angels at Mons. To my mind it was quite possible for God to have tormented himself thus to the sorely tried and distressed men as a token that his presence was with them, and to inspire them and give them the courage to hold on; and they did hold on through long and weary months and years—their faith that God was with their cause was never shaken. And in due time old Kaiser Bill was brought to his knees and a glorious victory was given them.

Instead of the Kaiser being an agent of God, he is a fugitive and a vagabond in a strange land, where he will await his trial, and I believe that in due time he will be punished according to his crime.

G. HENDERSON. Tatamagouche, January 27, 1919.

THE LATE DANIEL CURRIE. After an illness extending over seven years Daniel Currie, passed away at the age of 65 years.

Mrs. Brown replied thanking the Congregation for their kindness. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be followed with the best wishes of a host of friends for every success and happiness in their new home.

THE LATE MRS. MARGARET REID. The death of Mrs. Margaret Reid occurred at the residence of her son, M. T. Reid, Glenmore Musquodoboit, March 5, at the age of 83 years and 7 months. Her long life was but a work of love and service, both in her home and church. A faithful member of the Presbyterian Church; when health permitted, she was always in her place in the Lord's House, on the Sabbath Day, and always taught her children to remember the Sabbath Day and keep it Holy. Deceased was born in Middle Musquodoboit, Halifax Co, and spent many years of her life in that beautiful valley, in the days when the Lord's day was strictly observed. She was predeceased by her husband, the late Hugh G. Reid, who died at the home of his son in Glenmore, Oct. 29, 1916 at the age of 86 years and 5 months, after 62 years of happy wedded life. They reared a large family, always had family worship in their home, and faithfully taught their children to follow in the footsteps of their master. Six of the children predeceased their parents, and six, three sons, and three daughters remain to mourn the loss of loving parents. M. F. Reid, Glenmore, Musquodoboit; L. T. Reid, Stewiacke, J. S. Reid, Truro; Mrs. Ade A. McLeod, Monrovia, Cal; Mrs. A. S. Kent, Great Village and Mrs. Howard Mingo, Denmark, Col. Co. One grandson, Geo. Fisher, fell in battle and lies in Flanders fields, where poppies blow between those crosses row on row. Loving hands cared for the mother in her last days on earth; during her short illness she suffered little pain; patient in sickness, she said: "be patient wait on the Lord." The funeral in Middleton church was conducted by the pastor, Rev. M. H. MacIntosh, who in a few well chosen words spoke sympathy to the bereaved ones. All her children were present except one daughter, who is with her sick daughter in California. After a last look, all that was mortal of one loved and respected by all, was laid "At Rest" beside the late husband in Middleton Cemetery till that blessed resurrection morn. ### OF THE LATE JOHN P. HOGAN, PORT DUFFERIN.

The Windsor Tribune, in addition to the full Obituary that was in the Truro News, has the following of the late John P. Hogan of Port Dufferin: Under the ministry of the Rev. A. B. Dickie, he was elected to the eldership in the Presbyterian Church, Sheet Harbor and was a faithful and conscientious office bearer.

He was deeply interested in Sunday School work a strong advocate of temperance often procured standard works for reading and always tithed his earnings. He often travelled on behalf of the Bible Society and raised funds to procure the scriptures for the soldiers. During his late years he sent sheets of postage stamps to Rev. A. B. Dickie, Hantsport, on different occasions to procure good newspapers from him for circulation. As the weekly parcel went forward the papers were distributed in some instances from ocean to ocean and eternity alone will reveal the results.

PROSPEROUS CONGREGATION

For the First Presbyterian Church Truro, 1918, was a successful year. The work of the numerous congregational organizations was carried on with commendable fidelity. All current financial obligations were met; debt on the new church was reduced by $9000 and missionary offerings the largest in the long history of the congregation, considerably exceeded the budget appointment. In consequence of his somewhat impaired health the Pastor Rev. W. P. Grant, M.A., has been relieved of all work for several weeks. It is hoped that rest and change may effect a complete recovery. Before Mr. Grant's departure from Truro the members of the Missionary Brotherhood handed him a generous purse. The third anniversary of the opening of the new church was observed on March 2nd. Exceedingly appropriate and inspiring sermons were delivered by Rev. Anderson Rogers, D. D.

STEWACKE CONGREGATION

Rev. D. C. Ross, B. D., Pastor, reports the most successful year yet. The amount contributed for Missions, Education and Benevolences was $3378, a gain of $1000 over the year of 1917. The total amount raised for all purposes was $1721. The budget for 1918 was exceeded by $316, notwithstanding the fact that the church was closed for eight Sabbaths. All the organizations of this congregation are doing good work. Three S. Schools are in operation and all contributions from S. Schools goes for Missions. Besides, the above the S. School subscribed for 2 Victory Bonds. A scholarship of $100 is given for Pointe aux Trembles School. The aim of the congregation is to give as much for the Schemes as for local support.—Presbyterian Witness.

BATTLE AGAINST PAIN STILL RAGES.

A Timely Red Cross Remittance from girls of Otterbrook.

The Truro Red Cross Society gratefully acknowledges Twenty Dollars from the The Young Girls' Club of Otterbrook. This is apportioned for the assistance of those hospitals in Nova Scotia in which sick or wounded soldiers are quartered, and this liberal contribution reflects credit upon the young donors, whose patriotic activities still include the knitting of much needed socks and the making of general hospital supplies. Their example may well be taken to heart by all those of maturer years who may have fallen into the error of supposing that the signing to the Armistice had some miraculous power of causing all the pain and anguish of the sick and maimed to cease with the cessation of the whizzing shells and bullets and the searching poison of the gas. The battle against physical pain and suffering is still at its height, and Cash is the most mobile assistance which may be rushed up to help the brave hosts of the Red Cross. And never be afraid of overstocking the supply of Socks.

Mar. 8 - The funeral of the late Hibbert Reynolds eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reynolds, was held in the Presbyterian Church Thursday p. m. whose early death at the age of twenty years, has cast a feeling of sadness over the community. There was a large attendance and a profusion of beautiful flowers bore silent testimony to sympathy with the living, and remembrance of the dead.

Three hymns were sung - "Safe in the arms of Jesus," "Peace Perfect Peace," and "Asleep in Jesus." Rev. J. K. McInnes spoke kindly and sympathetically from the words, "I will have mercy and not sacrifice." Beautiful wreaths were placed on the casket from the father, mother, and brother and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fulton, Mrs. Ernest and Misses Flemmings, The Girls of Seven Link Club, Agricola Division, and the School children. The officers of the Division attended in regalia and marched to the cemetery, where all that was mortal of our dear young friend was laid to rest. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds, and the members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Ada and little Catherine, surrounded the deepest sympathy of all their friends and neighbors, in their deep affliction.

Mothers Don't Take Chances If Childs Tanguie Is Coated

It Cross Feverish Sick, bilious, Clean little liver and bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is of times all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children, of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Company.

NORTH GREENVILLE AND ATKINSON SIDING.

Leslie Stewart has the contract of getting out lumber for Fred Geeham, Oxford; Geo. Parker has also the contract and has a number of men employed in the lumber business for the above mentioned firm at Oxford.

Mr. Thompson, Oxford, came thru here recently en route to Westchester Mt., where he is engaged in the lumbering business.

Oliver Rushton is busily engaged hauling props to Atkinson Siding and Ed. Pettigrew is also engaged hauling logs.

Mr. Stacy Moore is employed at Victoria.

A number of men, employed by the C. G. R., came thru to Atkinson recently and put up a new Station House and side track. It is indeed a cosy little corner, and we trust that ere long we will have a Station Agent.

Miss Hattie Pettigrew, graduate of Success Business College, spent a few days at her home here, returned again to Amherst, where she is employed with The Amherst Piano Co. Her mother, went with her to Springfield, where she spent a few days visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rushton.

Such delightful roads we are having, which enables the lumbermen to get their logs hauled to Atkinson Siding. They were good on Sundays and yet no preaching; no public meeting of any kind and so many good-looking people to attend.

Pills of Attested Value—Parnelle's Vegetable Pills are the result of careful study of the properties of certain roots and herbs, and the action of such as sedatives and laxatives on the digestive apparatus. The success the compounders have met with attests the value of their work. These pills have been recognized for many years for many years as the best cleansers of the system that can be got. Their excellence was recognized from the first and they grow more popular daily.

A NERVOUS WRECK FROM HEART AND NERVES.

There are many people at the present time whose nerves are unstrung, heart affected, and general health impaired.

To such we offer Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as the best remedy that science has produced for such troubles. These pills have a wonderful effect on the nerve cells of the body, giving them new life and energy; they strengthen and regulate the heart and make the blood rich and nourishing.

Mr. Joseph Daly, Wolfe Island, Ont., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was a regular nervous wreck from my heart and nerves. I saw your advertisement in the paper and decided to try your pills. I took five boxes of them, and now I am as steady as a clock."

People said I could not be cured, but I fooled them with Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

NOTES FROM LONDONDERRY STATION.

March 10.—The "Social Circle" was entertained on the evening of the 6th at the home of Mrs. J. W. Fulton.

A large number of the people attended the reception for returned soldiers given by the Red Cross at Londonderry on the 7th. Robert MacKay, East Village, took some 17 of his double sleds hauled by a span of horses; others went in private rigs. The reception was held in Masonic Hall.

(A full account of this Reception will be found in the letter of "Civilian" in Londonderry Notes in this paper—Ed. News.)

After this Reception a very social dance was enjoyed. Mrs. Williams, who arranged the program, is to be commended on her success. So generously did all contribute to this function that a large quantity of eatables was left and a tea was held on the following day, the proceeds of which amounted to $15.50, added to this was a contribution of $5 from Mr. A. F. MacDonald of the Royal Bank.

Mispah Lodge, L. T. B. met on the 8th. The meeting was interesting. A cordial welcome being extended to a member who had been absent for some time. The ladies of the L. T. B. were invited by the Orangemen to assist in a reception, which their body is holding on Saturday the 15th Pte. Joseph Smith, in whose honor the L. T. B.'s held a reception a fortnight ago.

Mrs. A. W. West was surprised on Saturday evening when a number of her friends dropped in to spend an hour with her. Entertainment was

STERN REMINDERS OF RHEUMATISM.

Cold or Wet Weather May Start the Pains, But the Trouble is in the Blood.

Every rheumatic sufferer should realize that rheumatism is rooted in the blood and can only be cured by a treatment that will cleanse the blood of the rheumatic poisons.

The old-time relief that rheumatism was caused by cold, damp weather, is now exploded. Such weather conditions may start the aches and pains, but is not the real cause. Liniments and outward applications may give temporary relief, but cannot cure the trouble, because they do not reach its source in the blood.

The sufferer from rheumatism who experiments with outward applications is only wasting valuable time and good money in depending upon such treatment, the trouble still remains, and it is all the time becoming more firmly rooted—harder to cure when the proper treatment is applied.

Treat this disease through the blood and you will soon be rid of the pains and tortures. As a cure for rheumatism Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are unequalled. They act directly on the impure, weak blood; they purify and strengthen it, and so root out the cause of rheumatism. Mr. D. Lewis postmaster at Escuminac, N. B., says: "I was attacked with rheumatism, which settled in my elbow, shoulder and knee joints, and at times caused me great suffering. The trouble was particularly severe last spring and I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking the pills for some time the rheumatic pains and stiffness in the joints disappeared and I have not since had any return of the trouble."

If you are suffering from rheumatism, or any trouble, due to poor blood and weak nerves, you will find a cure in a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can procure these pills through any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DR. J. B. HALL RECEIVES AN ILLUMINATED ADDRESS.

The Middleton Outlook has an account of a very interesting little event that took place one evening last week in Lawrencetown.

At the close of an Address by Principal Wigle the Rev. F. H. Beals, M. A., came to the front, and in a few well chosen words, asked Dr. Hall's acceptance of a beautiful illuminated address on parchment which was presented to Dr. Hall by the citizens of Lawrencetown as a token of the high esteem in which he is held. Dr. Hall was taken completely by surprise, but very feelingly indicated his profound gratitude for such an expression of regard. "He's a Jolly Good Fellow" was then sung by the gathering and Mrs. E. C. Shaffner appropriately rendered "Auld Lang Syne." A most successful gathering broke up with the National Anthem.

The address to Dr. Hall follows:— To James Barclay Hall, B. A., Ph. D. Rendering "honor to whom honor" is due is a sentiment with which all are in cordial agreement, and it is therefore with perfect appropriateness that we today seek to do honor to you. Among the many worthy citizens reared in our idyllic Annapolis Valley Village none ranks higher in our estimation than your worthy self.

Our minds indulge in retrospection, and imagination conjures up your splendid struggle to secure an advanced education. Your elevation from the workshop to a highly honorable position in the educational life of our Province is a lasting tribute to your ability and determination.

During the years you have never lost interest in Lawrencetown, your native place. We your fellow townsmen, in the past have appreciated greatly your visits here on vacation, and now a resident in our midst. Your presence is a source of inspiration and uplift to the entire community. We value very much your labors amongst us in the Church and in the Literary Society. You have shown your concern for a more practical education in this rural locality by fostering School Exhibitions with their attendant instruction and work, and also by being one of the main factors in securing for our Town the Demonstration Building. We are grateful that your zeal for our well-being shows no sign of waning, and at the present time you are helping forward our Public Library and are also engaged in the fine work of teaching an evening school.

We respectfully ask your acceptance of this address as a slight indication of the eminent regard and honor in which you are held. We do this in no formal way, but as a spontaneous expression of our genuine feelings. We feel that in thus seeking to honor you, we are honoring ourselves. Our earnest hope is that for a long time to come we may be privileged to enjoy a continuance of your helpful leadership and genial friendship.

Signed on behalf of the Citizens of Lawrencetown.

- N. H. Phinney
- L. R. Morse
- H. H. Whitman
- J. E. Shaffner
- H. T. James

A MARITIME DAIRY SCHOOL.

An important resolution was discussed and passed unanimously by the Dairymen's Convention, recently held at the College of Agriculture, Truro calling for the establishment of a Maritime Dairy School. For the past two years the staff of the College has conducted such a school for a short term and on a small scale. The work done has been so valuable and so highly appreciated that there is now a strong demand for its extension. The expense has been provided by the three Provinces in Conjunction.

It is the universal feeling that Dairying interests that the best method of expanding this educational movement is by the organization of a central, well equipped institution. Such a school would probably arrange a three years course, and would do much better work than would be possible in several small, ill-equipped and short term schools.

The terms of the resolution referred to indicate one central school situated at the College of Agriculture, where there already is much of the necessary plant in the way of provision for instruction in Chemistry and bacteriology as well as a herd of cattle to supply the practical demands of the course. The expense would be borne by the three Provinces. In this section of Canada, where the Dairy Industry is sure to be the dominant agricultural interest of the future, the project will doubtless find hearty support.

The Dominion Government will set aside $25,000,000 for better housing conditions in Canada; and about $1,500,000 will come to Nova Scotia; and if this can be spent by a Commission, perfectly independent of party politics it can be made a great boon to the people.

Muskoka Man Tells How After Four Months' Illness He Found The Remedy for All His Ailments

Larchwood, Algoma, Ont., Mar. 7th (Special)—Dodd's Kidney Pills did me good and I want everybody to know it." So says Mr. Cyrus Correll a well-known farmer living near here. "I was sick for four months," Mr. Correll continued, "My trouble started from a combined cold and strain. I suffered from Neuralgia, and had pains in my back. I was often dizzy. "My sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I was tired and nervous and I had a nasty taste in my mouth in the morning. I was depressed and low spirited I felt heavy and sleepy after meals, and there was a heavy dragging sensation across the loins. "I didn't bother with the doctor. I had Dodd's Almanac by me, and I sent right off for two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. "Before I had taken half a box I began to feel better. Now I want every body to know how good I feel, and that Dodd's Kidney Pills did it." Mr. Correll's symptoms are all symptoms of Kidney trouble. He struck right at the root of the trouble by treating the kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills. That's why he got such good results, and got them so quick. Dodd's Kidney Pills have a national reputation as a kidney remedy. Ask your neighbors about them.

WEATHER FORECASTS FOR MARCH.

The first regular storm period for March begins with the last two days of February and runs to March 3rd or 4th. Astronomical causes of disturbances and things to expect:

We enter this period at the crisis of a Mercury period, and a Vulcan Center falls on the 1st of March. Moon is New and on the Equator the 2nd and ring and but little "disfigured."

There are good chances for some "nasty" weather at this time. As the storm areas pass across the country between the dates named, there will be considerable cloudiness, probably during most of the period for some sections, owing to the influence of the Mercury center, and foginess will develop and "hang on" in some parts. Where real precipitation occurs it will turn to destructive sleet for some parts accompanied with snow flurries in northern sections. The full force of the equinoctial storms sometimes vent themselves during the first ten or twelve days of March. We do not say positively that such will be the program this year, but no reader of these forecasts should be surprised if such conditions appear before the middle of March. As early as the 27th of February storm conditions will begin to show in the western sections, and storm areas will start eastward, developing into rain, sleet or snow according to latitude. First western sections will feel the oncoming storm conditions, the central and finally eastern parts.

The First Reactionary Period for March runs from the 6th to the 9th central the 8th. Storm causes are absent for this period, but we are at the center of an annual period of electrical unrest, and an earthquake period centers on the end. We have also the growing influence of the Vernal Equinox.

As Moon approaches First Quarter she seems to speed away from Earth in an effort to pass her, which she does between that time and Last Quarter. At the same time Earth seems to slow down, like a motor when suddenly put under a full load, causing a partial reversal of electric forces within herself, causing internal heat. This condition will continue until Last Quarter again. This see-sawing motion of these two bodies continues all the year round, causing and modifying changes of temperature in connection with Moon's positions north and south of our Equator.

The Second Regular Period for March runs from about the 11th to the 14th, with the center of storminess late in the period, that is, eastern sections are likely to get the brunt of heaviest storms. Astronomical causes of disturbances and things to expect:

In addition to the Vulcan center and the Jupiter influence and disturbances we have several minor storm causes to reckon with. Moon is in conjunction with Jupiter on the 10th, with Saturn the 13th, with Neptune the 12th and Mars and Mercury are in conjunction the 11th. To these we must add the fact that from March 10th to 14th is a regular time for unusual disturbances every year.

Seeing that a time of annual disturbance falls also within the present storm period, the two are likely to keep up the reputation of the period for nasty weather. Sleet and snow are less likely this time than though a Mercury center fell near this time, but they, or at least wet, disagreeable snow squalls will most likely visit many parts of the country. Temperatures will rise in the west by the 11th, and storms of the character named will pass eastward from that date to the 14th or possibly the 15th. Readers in central to eastern parts will most likely feel the brunt of this period. Do not forget that this is the "freakiest" season of the whole year in weather matters, thus one cannot be as certain as to what may develop. Do not forget, also that we are in the midst of a period of great electrical unrest, hence that severe storms may be expected to strike some parts of the country as this period passes over. Hurricane conditions on and near the Gulf, tornadic storms in middle sections and high gales on the great lakes are very likely.

The Second Reactionary Storm Period for March runs from the 17th to the 20th. Astronomical causes of storminess and things to expect: Jupiter and Sun are at quadrature on the 28th, and some of the influence of that configuration may be felt during this storm period, being also so near the Vernal influence, while Jupiter's regular pull is still on. Moon is farthest from the Earth for the month on the 20th.

It is possible that Moon on the Equator the 15th and Full on the 16th may drag storminess forward and envelop those two days in this period. If not, their influence will be felt during this period. We do not look for temperatures to run far to either extreme for this period. Moon at south declination the 20th will tend to coolness, but her approach to Last Quarter will likely neutralize this and hold temperatures normal. Storminess will be largely local, unless severe storms develop in Gulf or Lake regions and spread out to other sections. We must not forget, however, that we are right at the center of the equinoctial period; the "line-storm" as it used to be called, and it is very difficult to say just what conditions may be. If the disturbances usual for the period have spent themselves as before suggested, what we say above will probably be the program. If the center of the disturbances this year come later near the real "equinoctial" of the 22nd we may get considerable storminess at this time.

The Last Regular Storm Period for March falls on the 23rd to the 27th, central about the 24th; Astronomical causes of disturbances and things to expect:

This period opens right at the crisis of the annual Vernal disturbance. A Vulcan center falls on the 24th, Moon is at Last Quarter on that date only one day north of her south declination. In addition to these things, Earth "loosens her brakes" so to speak, as she passes Last Quarter the 24th. As she speeds up, Moon lags behind, which means that there will be danger of frosts if not real freezing at the end of this period. On the 21st, Sun enters Aries and spring begins, technically, but not of necessity meteorologically. Jupiter is approaching a quadrature with the Sun on the 28th, and Moon will be on the equator the 20th and New the 31st. From this distance, we do not see how the country can expect to escape a time of stormy and unsettled weather during most of the last ten days or so of March. Tornadic developments are very likely, especially in southern sections with possible heavy gales or hurricanes in Gulf regions and high gales on the great lakes.

The Last Reactionary Storm Period for March runs from about the 29th to the end of the month. Astronomical causes of disturbances and things to expect:

Four major storm causes come into action at this time, viz., a quadrature of Jupiter and the Sun on the 28th, nearness of the Vernal equinox, Moon on the Equator the 30th and New on the 31st.

As Earth has turned her south pole farther and farther away from the Sun up to the 21st when both poles were at right angles to the lines of forces plying between Earth and Sun, then begins to turn her north pole more and more into the sunlight, great lines of electromagnetic force have swept up from the south, crossing the Equator the 21st, and are now sweeping northward carrying springlike conditions with them. It is inconceivable to one having a proper conception of the solar system, that these lines of force could approach and cross our Equator, without in some considerable degree disturbing the equilibrium of atmospheric forces all about the Earth. At the same time the giant planet, Jupiter has crossed the winter line of forces which lie at right angles to the solar equinoctial forces, always a great disturbing factor, but just now, at the center of the Vernal perturbations, coming with increased power. One of three things is certain: either Earth will quake to the destruction of life and property; or hurricanes and typhoons will sweep the seas where such are usual; or tornados and cloudbursts will sweep large sections of the United States, with high gales on the Gulf and Lake Regions. Possibly there may be a touch of all three, each in its particular habit. Cool weather for the time of year will sweep in behind these disturbances, as we pass from March to April.

The statement is made that 99 per cent of the shell-shock soldiers recover. That is good news, indeed.

REV. J. D. MCGILLIVRAY.

(Here is a summary of the address, delivered at the funeral of the late Rev. J. D. McGillivray, by the Rev. H. J. Fraser, published at the request of several friends.)

Mr. Fraser in part said: In the absence of Mr. Grant, who knew the deceased much more intimately than I did, the duty devolves on me of saying a brief word about our brother who is gone. There were two or three characteristics evident to the comparative stranger and casual observer in the life and character of Mr. McGillivray.

One of these was his candour. His voice may often have seemed to us the voice of rebuke, with a note of harshness in it. But we remember to-day that everything in our modern world is not right, and it were well for us if we paid more heed to messages such as his calling us to older paths. His convictions were quite definite and decided and he never shrank from declaring them.

Another message that remains to us is his insistence upon the supremacy of the Christian home. In the conclaves of ministers and Christian workers, when plans and organizations for the safe guarding and training of young lives were under consideration Mr. McGillivray frequently reminded us that the greatest and most effective institution in the world for these purposes is the godly home. This also is a pertinent note in a world that seems to be going mad on institutionalism and paternalism toward the young.

So: "He being dead ye speaketh." His must have been in late years a lonely life. He seemed to live apart, and to belong to a generation that had passed away. This is truer of him in his thinking even than in his physical being. His was not an unusually great age, but the C. T. phrase seems more apropos in his case than in most. "He was gathered unto his fathers."

HER LITTLE GIRL

COUGHED UNTIL SHE FAIRLY CHOKED.

Mrs. John Reinhardt, Ridgetown, Ont., writes:—"My little girl at the age of 5 years and a half old had an awful cough. She would cough until she would fairly choke, and I was afraid it would go to her lungs. I thought I would use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, as I knew of quite a few persons who had used it with good results. I am glad I did so, as I only used one bottle. It is a sure cure for coughs and colds."

There is no reason why Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup should not be recognized as the very best cough and cold remedy on the market to-day, combining as it does the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree, to which are added wild cherry bark, squills, and other soothing and healing pectoral remedies.

It has stood the test for the past 30 years and is becoming more generally used every year on account of its great merits in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, asthma, sore throat, and preventing pneumonia and in many cases consumption.

So great has been its success that there have been a great many imitations put on the market to take its place. See that none of these so-called "pine syrups" are handed out to you when you ask for "Dr. Wood's." The genuine and original is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE LATE REV. J. D. MCGILLIVRAY.

The death of the Rev. J. D. McGillivray took place on Thursday, Feb. 27th, at the residence of Mr. J. H. Grant of Millstream. Mr. McGillivray had been spending the winter in Pictou, but having premonitions that all was not well with him, he came home to his sister, Mrs. J. H. Grant, just two weeks before his death. Two days later he was seized with a severe sickness from which he did not rally.

Mr. McGillivray was ordained to the ministry more than fifty years ago. He served for a number of years in Clifton and later in Middle Stewiacke. Ill health caused him to retire and for a number of years he served as school inspector in Hants Co.

Mr. McGillivray was a member of Truro Presbytery and maintained to the end a keen interest in church affairs. He was a zealous and untiring Bible student, and by word and example continually emphasized the truths of that great Book.

The burial is in Truro where Mr. McGillivray's wife and daughter, who pre-deceased him, are buried.—Eastern Chronicle, New Glasgow, March 1.

'A FARMER' OPPOSED TO DAY LIGHT SAVING.

Truro N. S., Mar. 4, 1919.

Editor Truro News:

I noticed in your columns a short item, on Day Light Saving, and asking why the farmer should oppose it. Your statement that the farmers work all day is quite true; they frequently work from day light till dark, and often before daylight and after dark; but this is to feed the city man, who does not seem to appreciate it.

This is shown up, when a farmer, situated near a town, has to hire labor from the town or city. The labor man wants an eight hour day and when he comes at six o'clock in the morning, instead of seven, in haying time he is around for an hour or more with practically nothing to do, and at five in the evening he knocks off, leaving the farmer in the best part of the whole day. Is this not a good reason for the farmer to oppose Day Light Saving?

WEDDING BELLS

Longden—Reid.

The home of Mrs. A. Gordon Etter of Mount Uniacke Hants Co., was the scene of a very pretty event, on Wednesday evening, when Miss Janet Maude, daughter of the late Daniel W. and Eleanor Reid was united in marriage to Albert Edwood Longden, U. S. A. of Chicago. The bride looked charming in a dress of blue silk and carried a bouquet of carnations and sweet peas. Both bride and groom were unattended, and only the immediate friends and relatives were present at the ceremony which was solemnized by Rev. Mr. Mills of Wolfville. After a bountiful wedding supper was served, the wedding party drove to the home of the bride where a reception was tendered the newly married couple.

Youth and Age

"So this is your birthday, grandmother."

"Yes, dearie, I am seventy-five years old to-day. It doesn't seem possible, for I don't feel old."

"And you certainly do not look old. Besides, you are always so happy and cheerful that you do not seem at all old."

"A woman is only as old as she looks you know, and I have always tried to keep young and healthy."

"And were you never sick, grandmother?"

"Oh, yes, indeed, there was a time in my life when I never expected to live to be fifty, say nothing about seventy-five. When your mother and my other children were small I had my hands full and got run down in health. I got so nervous that I could not sleep and had frequent headaches. Every little thing the children would do seemed to annoy and worry me until, finally, I gave out entirely, and was in bed for months with nervous prostration."

"Did you have a doctor?"

"Yes, dearie, I had two or three doctors, but they only told me that it would take a long time for me to regain strength. One day your grandfather came in with some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. He said some one told him that it would cure me, and he went away to the drug store and bought half a dozen boxes."

"What did your doctor say about using it?"

"Well, what could he say? He only said that he had done all he could, and that he had run across a great many cases in which the Nerve Food had been used with excellent results. So I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and it was not long before I was on the way to health and strength."

"And did it cure you?"

"Well, the best evidence is that I am here to-day, well and happy, after all these years. And I am more than ever enthusiastic for Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, for I have used it several times during the last few years when I felt that I needed some assistance to keep up vitality. As a person gets older I think their blood gets thinner, and they seem to need something like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to increase their strength and vigor."

"That is something worth knowing, grandmother."

"If you will take my advice, dearie, you will not forget about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food when you get run down, tired out and nervous. This has been my advice to a great many people, and I know that it has done them good."

MOUNT ALLISON DOES NOT PROPOSE TO FORGET HER SONS AND DAUGHTERS WHO FELL IN THE GREAT WAR.

Much interest is being manifested in the campaign to secure funds with which to erect at Sackville a Memorial Library for the 640 Mount Allison students on active service during the war, three score of whom have laid down their lives.

The institutions have secured the services of Rev. B. J. Porter, Trinity Methodist Church, New Glasgow, and Mr. Porter is now at Sackville giving his entire time to the planning of the campaign, which it is expected will bring into line the entire Mount Allison constituency of Canada, Newfoundland and Bermuda.

Mr. Porter's friends in these parts will wish the undertaking all success and undoubtedly all friends and sympathizers of the Sackville Institutions will be prepared to show their interest in a practical manner, when on April 15th, a simultaneous canvass will be made to raise the $75,000.00 with which to erect this Memorial Library.

RED CROSS NEED CONTINUES.

We are sorry to notice the growth of an impression in some quarters that the urgency of the Red Cross need has passed.

This is a very serious error.

Take for example the great staple necessity of socks.

The Canadian Red Cross Commissioner in London has recently cabled for sixty-five thousand pairs with the intimation that even more will shortly be needed, before all the sick and wounded soldiers are brought home again.

In proof of the continuance of the Red Cross need for the present along many lines of most worthy activity we quote the following from Halifax newspaper of yesterday:—

A few of our Red Cross auxiliaries have decided to wind up their work and cease to exist as an auxiliary. This is much to be regretted, as so many supplies for the comfort of our invalid soldiers are still needed. If, however, the members feel that they must disband, the treasurers are asked to remember that any funds remaining on hand, no matter how small, the sum may be, should be forwarded to the treasurer of the provincial branch, or to the chartered branch with whom they have been working. All Red Cross money belongs to invalid soldiers, for their use it was given by a generous public, and for their comfort it should be used, not for church funds, nor for any other purpose however worthy.

Think of 25,000 Canadians still in hospitals overseas needing smokes, chocolate, sweets, toilet articles, all the little comforts they have learned to look for from the Canadian Red Cross. Our supply of money to be sent over to purchase these things

BRITISH SHIPS SUNK DURING THE WAR.

These vessels are arranged as follows: 2,475 ships sunk with their crews beneath them.

670—Fishing vessels sunk.

6,292—Total sunk.

The personnel of the merchant marine service was heavily hit, the total number of casualties exceeding 15,000 men.

"YES OR NO" IN QUEBEC.

A referendum before April 15 is to be taken in Quebec on the Liquor question. The vote will be Prohibition on the one hand and Beer and wine on the other.

If the people decide for Beer and Wine it shall not affect places now under Prohibition.

The vote will be before the whole Province and there will be no local option.

The vote will be "yes" or "No" for beers or wines of 2.51 per cent. of alcoholic strength.

Come, Let Mother See!

When the child droops, won't play or is restless, pale and grumpy, look to see if the tongue is white, the breath feverish, the stomach sour. Then hurry, mother, but don't worry! Give Cascarets, the harmless candy cathartic. Children take Cascarets without coaxing—only 10 cents a box!

TO MOTHERS! Nothing else "works" the nasty bile, the sour fermentations and constipation poison so gently but so thoroughly from the little stomach, liver and bowels like harmless Cascarets. While children usually fight against laxatives and cathartics, they gladly eat a candy Cascaret. Cascarets never gripe the bowels, never sicken, never disappoint the worried mother. Each 10 cent box of Cascarets contains directions for dose for children aged one year old and upwards.

FOUR SMART NOVA SCOTIANS.

One S. G. Archibald A Clever Colchester Barrister—Born at Bible Hill.

Something like eighty years ago, there were in Nova Scotia four remarkably clever men at the bar, namely, S. G. W. Archibald, Charles R. Fairbanks, James W. Johnstone and William G. Bliss—each of whom had a peculiar talent. For a cause requiring a thorough knowledge of mercantile law and shipping, including the wages and customs of merchants as regards bills of lading, promissory notes and all matters connected with shipping, and where a great deal of research was necessary, Fairbanks was the man; he was hard-working and indefatigable. In suits where the questions at issue turned upon special pleading, and the dry points of law, Bliss was considered the first counsel; he never had much practice as an attorney, but was engaged as counsel in almost all important suits. He was an excellent speaker in addressing the Court or jury, and could never be surprised. He was considered a most excellent and upright lawyer. In actions where law, equity and hardship were mixed up together and where full scope was presented for an appeal to the feelings of a jury, Johnstone was the man. He was a powerful speaker, and would never omit the minutest point or piece of evidence in putting his case. If there was a case to be put before a jury of which, apparently, no defence could be made, Archibald was the man. He would amuse the jury with anecdotes and witticisms until they forgot the merits of the case, and thus frequently obtained verdicts which no other counsel could hope to get. When it was known that he was to address the jury the Court House was always crowded.

BEAVER FLOUR

MILLED OF BLENDED WHEAT

"Beaver" Flour equals any of the "special pastry flours" because it is, in itself, a special pastry flour—being the choicest Ontario fall wheat, blended with western spring wheat to give it strength. This is why Pies, Cakes, Cookies, Tarts, Doughnuts, Buns and Fancy Pastry—when made with "Beaver" Flour—are so light, so flaky, so uniformly good. This is also why the Bread and Rolls—made with "Beaver" Flour—have a delicate, nutlike flavour that is totally lacking in western spring wheat flours. Just try "Beaver" Flour for anything you are baking—and see what happy results you get, every time.

LOVES AWAKENING.

feet... Time passed on, but I never heard anything of Royal. At thirty years of age I married Bertie Lumley, a man twenty years older than myself. He had had his romance—I mine; but we were very happy together, and grew dearer to each other as the years went on. You know, don't you, child, that for two years before his death my husband was a helpless sufferer? Well, it may seem strange to say so, but I look back upon those two years as among the happiest of my life. I was eyes, and hands, and feet to him; I learnt more and more of the chastened beauty of his mind and character as our quiet companionship went on from day to day and from week to week. By day I sat beside his couch and read or talked to him, or walked beside his chair under the shadow of the old trees over there in the gardens. By night I slept in a little camp-bed at the foot of his, and was wide awake in a moment at the sound of his voice or a restless movement. He suffered much, yet never complained throughout those two long years. When he died, it was as if a strain of music had died out of my life... At the time of your mother's death, Nell, I wanted your father to let me take charge of you; he refused, and I proved myself a quarrelsome old woman. That is how it has come about that you and I have seen so little of each other. Well, not very long ago—four years or so—I went to an exhibition of pictures; among them was one that everybody was talking about; I turned to the catalogue, and found the artist's name—Royal Drew. Then some one said softly to me, "There is the artist himself; see—at the other side of the room, talking to that lady in olive-green." Nell, I turned round and saw the Royal who had stood by my side in the sunshine that filtered through the fresh young leaves in Kensington Gardens. "Dear Mrs. Lumley, are you ill?" said the friend who was with me. No, I was not ill, but I had seen a ghost of my youth, and the sight had sent the blood curdling round the heart that should have been too old to beat so heavily at the sight of a pair of blue eyes...

CHAPTER XIII.

Love's Awakening.

The winter with its short days and long delightful evenings had passed away. I say delightful advisedly, for in truth no colder word would describe them aright. For the most part we used to sit in the snugger, auntie and I with our work; Tabitha, who had become reconciled to her tail as to the inevitable, and had taken to sitting demurely on the wide arm of the sofa; Pug staring at the fire, and Royal, sometimes chatting with us and telling us all the art gossip of the studios, sometimes reading aloud in that sweet, yet sonorous voice that was one of his greatest charms. Thus it came about that when auntie said casually, 'How the days are beginning to lengthen out!' I sighed.

The suggested visit to Royal's studio had been accomplished; he 'bits' picked up in Egypt and elsewhere, looked at, and the marvellous Mediterranean sunsets that were suggestive of all the colours of the rainbow having gone mad, had been duly wondered over. We had had tea out of cups without handles—priceless gems of old china, and had eaten cake off plates that looked as if they ought to be framed for pictures. I had noticed a group of gardenias in a tall and slender vase of Bohemian glass the color of imprisoned sunshine, and wondered if Mr Drew put them there, because I had said they were my favorite flowers? We had admired the perfect taste of all the appointments of his house at West Brompton, and then, just as this pleasantest of visits was coming to an end, a strange thing happened, and the sad past that I was forgetting in the happy present came up before me once again.

Aunt Ida and her adopted son, ere holding a disputation over a certain ancient vase of much ugliness and inestimable value, and I, wandering from one picturesque room to another, took to enjoying myself my own way. First one snatch of a song and another rose to my lips, and was crooned very softly to myself, until at length I drifted into the old song unawares, when I stopped short, and uttered a sound that was half a sob and half a cry.

Te souviens tu Mrie
De notre enfance—

There before me was a small round painting framed in ebony—only vine leaves, their green just veined here and there and tipped with vivid red, the forming a background for a woman's face. In an instant I seemed to be back in my Land of Beulah, back in the wood behind the coppice by the babbling brook. I seemed to see a mass of leaves whereon hung ripe, ruddy-tinted bunches of hazelnuts, and against the mingled green and red a woman's face—the face of my false friend, Eulalie! Could this be some chance likeness? Yes, it must be so yet, how marvellous was the sad appealing sweetness of the soft dark like eyes; the lovely lines of the small, close-braided head? "It is some chance likeness, I thought, 'but auntie must not see it. She will say something dreadful—something that I could not bear to hear said before a stranger about papa's wife. Thinking thus, I hurried back to the corridor where still those two disputed about the ugly vase.

'Are you tired, child?' said Aunt Ida, in the brougham on our way home. She might well ask, for every word I spoke was an effort, and my head ached miserably.

Blessed ailment! what should we women do without those scapegoats—our headaches? How often have cases ended in death! So a recent Canadian investigation showed. These were not cases of infectious diseases—of consumption—of typhoid! They were cases where a person had sustained no slight injury—a cut, a burn, a sprick—and where the wound, being thought not serious enough for careful treatment, had been neglected. Blood-poisoning and death resulted.

When you or your children sustain any injury, ensure against infection by applying Zam-Buk. This balm soothes the pain, stops bleeding, and by destroying all germs prevents blood-poisoning, etc. Hence no time need be lost from work or pleasure by those who use Zam-Buk. All dealers, 50c. box.

they to, o duty for a heart-ache—or a temper-ache. A cup of strong tea, a darkened room, a rest upon the couch at the foot of my bed with Tabitha curled up in a furry ball at my feet comfortably encircled by the tail to which she was now so fully reconciled, and then the stinging pain across my eyes had left me.

'I shall never take you to Roy's studio again,' said Aunt Ida that evening; 'I don't believe they half ventilate their dwellings.'

'They' stood for that art brotherhood to which Royal Drew belonged, though auntie would incense his feelings by speaking of him as an "amateur."

'You were a "struggling artist" once, Roy, she would say, with a gleam of fun in her eyes; 'but since you have had fortune left you, you have become an amateur—a patron more than a student of art.'

For of late years a great change had come over Mr. Drew's fortunes, which had previously been remarkable rather for a want of fortune than a superabundance of it. Auntie said that the early years of effort had "done him good, braced him up and made a man of him." Then she added, 'He got into some trouble or other, too, and disappeared suddenly; took to wandering on the face of the earth, and picking up 'bits' in all sorts of outlandish places. There as a woman at the bottom of it all, my dear, there always is; I know nothing unworthy—nothing unfit for your ears or mine—could touch Roy's life, therefore she must have been to blame, whoever she was. I had not seen him for ever so long, an only once heard of him—sitting on the top of a pyramid, my dear, and trying to paint sand glittering in a burning sun under a sky of molten lead—until he came strolling the other day and Terence took him for a dogstealer. If there is one thing a man hates more than another, it's a woman who asks questions. Bear that in mind, Nell, when you come to be a wife; half the unhappiness in married life, I believe, comes from silly women prying into the trifles of a man's life and making him look back regretfully on the days of his liberty. I did not want Roy to hate me, so I asked nothing. I want I thought some day he would tell me all about it, but he never has done so, now I know the woman was to blame, and like the honest loyal fellow he is, he does not care to speak hardly of her.'

The thought of this woman who had behaved ill to Royal was henceforth a blot upon my content. I tried not to hate her; but the attempt was less successful than it might have been. It was not jealousy that made my heart ache so sorely as I thought of

LEMONS BRING OUT THE HIDDEN BEAUTY

Make this lotion for very little cost and just see for yourself.

An attractive skin wins admiration. In social life and in business the girl or woman whose face and hands show evidence of constant care enjoys a tremendous advantage over those who do not realize the value of a healthy skin and a spotless complexion. At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and an, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothening and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two ounces from the grocer and make up quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen and bring out the beauty of any skin.

Girls! Thicken And Beautify Your Hair and stop Dandruff.

Try this! Your hair gets wavy, glossy and abundant at once.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now for a few cents—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

CAUSE OF RIOT AT KINMEL.

London March 7

An official statement issued by Canadian military headquarters in reference to rioting at Kinmel Park says it is regretted that some of the accounts of the fighting, in which Canadian soldiers took part, exaggerate the seriousness of the incident, but gives no details of what happened.

It is explained the lack of shipping facilities to take Canadian soldiers back home is due particularly to strikes and it is said that the dissatisfaction of the soldiers over alleged preferential treatment in embarkations may be attributed to the fact that the men have been divided into sections according to the Canadian Military districts from which they come. By this means some short service men were sent home ahead of some who had been under arms of a longer period.

A special court of inquiry has been ordered to conduct an investigation.

DEMONSTRATION FARMS.

For many years there has been a greater or less demand for Demonstration Farms here and there over the Province. This demand has largely lost its point through the fact that in most communities there are already one or more farms which may be regarded as models. These have been developed in the best possible way, through the initiative and industry of men who have availed themselves of all possible information from Colleg. Agricultural Depts. and other sources. While conditions on these farms may not be ideal, they embody a good working adaptation to local circumstances, and after a valuable lead to their neighbours.

There is a saying in the Book that is worthy remembering in this connection "Wisdom is before him that hath understanding but the eyes of the foolish person are in the ends of the earth." Every farming community can profitably take advantage of the intelligence and the progressiveness of its own members. One farm is successful along one line, another along another. If the experience of each leader in his own line is made available to the whole community through Associations, etc., the demonstration idea will be perfected.
