WHAT THE GREAT WEST DID YESTERDAY

In Calgary: Calgary bank clearings for the past fiscal week were $8,400,000. For the corresponding week last year they amounted to $7,800,000. In Edmonton: Four story modern apartment house has been announced. In Winnipeg: The city of Winnipeg will immediately start the survey for a pipe line to the Lake for a viable water supply. In Regina: A sample vegetable market was opened today. The producers secured satisfactory prices, while consumers got a price lower than by the usual method of purchasing. In Lethbridge: Of twenty-two carloads of wheat shipped from Bow Island station for which gradings have been received, 21 gradings were one hard. In Calgary: The Western Horse Ranch Ltd. farm on Crowfoot creek received 10,000 sheep, purebred ewes, Cotswold, Merino, Shropshire, South-down, all registered stock. They arrived in sixty days from Chester, Montana, via O'Reille and Medicine Hat. The Western Horse Ranch company is acting on the recommendation of Minister of Agriculture, Mr. Martin, in curtailing their horse business for sheep. At present most of the Western Canadian mutton is imported from Australia frozen. This gives a great market, and the company thinks it is good time to enter the business. The announcement, coming just after the union movement of the Canadian Pacific, Federal and provincial governments to further mutton farming and animal husbandry is applauded over the entire country. The company is composed of prominent Calgary men, and farm fifteen thousand acres. They state this is just a beginning and they will import many more sheep in the near future.

MEXICANS MOVE SIGN AMERICAN OUT OF PRISON

Governor Acts on Receiving Peremptory Demand From Ambassador Wilson

Difficult Situation is Relieved for the Present; Madero's Minister Apologetic

General Campa Quits the Rebels, Saying Movement is Now Brigandage

Mexico City, Sept. 26.—W. C. Nichols, American fruit grower, for whose release the American ambassador, Henry Lane Wilson, made a peremptory demand on Gov. Matias Guera, of the state of Tamaulipas, has been removed from the Tampico jail and placed in a hospital, under the care of Nichols, and his illness was in jeopardy as a result of his confinement.

Relieves Acute Situation

This action was taken by order of the supreme court judge who previously had ordered his imprisonment, and it has relieved a situation that had become acute. Nichols was sentenced to eight years' imprisonment on the charge of having killed a Mexican bandit. The court, in reconsidering his case, dispensed the confession of a Mexican who admitted that he was the slayer of the bandit.

Governor to Give Attention

Gov. Guerra acted promptly on the demand of the American ambassador, and gave assurances by telegraph to Mr. Wilson that he would give the matter personal attention until it had been arranged to the satisfaction of the ambassador. In his message the governor practically admits the innocence of Nichols, and says that if there had been an error in imposing sentence on the American it was due to ignorance on the part of the judge rather than to persecution.

Ambassador to Follow It Up

Ambassador Wilson expressed himself as satisfied for the present, but will permit no unnecessary delay in further proceedings, which he is confident will result in freeing Nichols. Senor Lascruain, Mexican foreign minister, expressed his indignation at the action of the supreme court of Tamaulipas in ordering the imprisonment of Nichols, who, previous to the appeal, had been removed from the jail and kept under guard at a local hospital. The charge against him is the killing of a bandit, who had been pressed by the authorities for months.

Federals to Protect Americans

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 26.—Mexican Gen. Carrizosa resolved, word today that 2,000 federal troops would leave Mexico City Monday for Agua Prieta by way of El Paso and Douglas, in response to the demand of American Consul Dye that American interests in Sonora be protected. Consul Dye's request provided for a garrison of 200 troops, 500 at El Paso, 500 at Columbus, Mexico, and smaller garrisons at other places where American interests have been jeopardized.

Campa, Disgraced, Quits Rebels

Tucson, Ariz., Sept. 26.—Declaring that the Mexican revolution had become "unprincipled anarchy," Gen. Campa, who surrendered today to the United States authorities, is awaiting extradition to Mexico and the United States. The same view is taken by his aide, Col. Jose Ponce and Maj. Emilio Spitz.

However, the Mexican state department is expected to make formal application for Campa's extradition about a courier from Colonel Ghron with the courier was handing him a message at Altam.

The United States authorities expressed the belief that the man could not be held, as they had crossed the line with nothing to do.

War Will Go On, Says Colonel Orozco

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 26.—Col. Pascual Orozco, aged father of the leader of the Mexican rebels, was marched today by a United States marshal and a customs guard through the streets from the station to the jail, nearly causing a riot by hoisting Mexicans, who followed the prisoner. Colonel Orozco was unperurbed.

"My capture is merely an incident of the revolution," he said. "My boy, with nearly 1,500 men, has entered the state of Coahuila. The war will go on."

The colonel was not arraigned today in the local federal court on a charge of murder preferred by the Mexican consul here, who seeks his extradition to Mexico. An old charge of having smuggled arms across the border of Mexico, brought by United States officers, also hangs over him.

SOCIALISTS REFUSED TO PERMIT DUEL

Interfered When One of Their Number Accepted Challenge

Paris, Sept. 26.—A curious conflict between the pacific ideals of socialism and the duellist's code of honor has taken place at St. Denis. A militant Socialist named Descomy insulted the doctors of the town because they displayed a certain unwillingness to assist the Socialist Municipal Council. A doctor named Wolf challenged him to a duel and he accepted. Much disturbed, the Socialist section of the town held a meeting, and after a stormy discussion passed a resolution forbidding M. Descomy to risk his life on the field of honor. M. Descomy ignored their kind intentions, but when he set out to measure swords with his adversary he found no less than 25 Socialist ready to "prove their doctrine orthodox by Socialist blows and knocks," and prevent him from endangering his own existence. Before this display of force the warlike Socialist surrendered, and the duel was adjourned "tine die."

THE MAYOR'S SALARY

If we could be sure of getting a $10,000 mayor by offering a $10,000 salary we should not hesitate to increase the stipend. There is no reason to believe that we would get such a man.

There are men in this city who would be worth $10,000 to the city if they would consent to accept the position. But unfortunately $10,000 men are not interesting themselves in municipal politics to such an extent. It is very doubtful if a $10,000 prize would attract any better men just now than are offering themselves for the position.

There are usually two classes of men who go in for municipal affairs. Some are attracted by the salary offered. Others are willing to do the work for the honor that is attached to it. A smaller salary would attract probably as good candidates as the $10,000 salary. The smaller salary will continue to attract the other class.

If Alderman Riley would name a few prominent and able men who are not attracted to municipal life with the present salary, but who would consider it for $10,000 a year, he would present a strong argument in favor of his suggestion.

It must be remembered that the salary of the mayor of Calgary at present is as large as that of any other mayor in Canada and much larger than that of other cities of our size. That is not an unanswerable argument to the suggestion, for the position of mayor of Calgary, with its many publicly owned enterprises, is a very important one.

The city should not increase the salary of mayor without some kind of assurance that it would attract a certain class of men who, because of the smaller salary, do not now seek the position.

THE DUTY ON CEMENT

The Grain Growers' Guide refers to an advertisement of the Keystone Portland Cement company in Eastern Canadian newspapers, soliciting subscriptions for stock, to show that cement needs no protection.

The advertisement points out that the company has property at Blairmore, Alta., with its raw material within 1,000 feet so that there will be no freight charges. The plant when completed is to cost $300,000 with a capacity of 1,000 barrels of cement per day. The advertisement states that cement can be manufactured for $1.00 per barrel but that it is the intention to sell at $1.75 per barrel. This will allow them a profit of $750 per day or $225,000 per year. One of the inducements held out to purchasers is 50 per cent. bonus stock with each purchase. Certainly the facts contained in this advertisement should be sufficient evidence to the Dominion government that there is no need of any duty on cement, and if further evidence is required it may be secured from the advertisement of the Edmonton Portland Cement Co., which states that its company, 140 miles east of Edmonton, can manufacture cement at 78 cents per barrel.

THE CONSERVATIVE MEETING

The most interesting incident in the Conservative meeting on Wednesday night was the introduction of the Calgary University into the mainstream of party politics. Dr. Blow, the leading spirit in the university, ushered it in without any ceremony and T. M. Tweedie, the local member, took a hand in the ceremony. Heretofore the organization of the Calgary University has been quite free from politics and it is very unfortunate for that institution that the gentleman most responsible for its present promising condition has evidently decided to risk its very existence to gain a questionable political advantage. The university so far has received the support of both parties. Some small people have said that Dr. Blow had an ulterior motive in interesting himself in the university. Such a statement was an unworthy and an untruthful one. But if Dr. Blow uses the institution now as a weapon of attack upon the provincial government, the evil result will be quite the same, whatever his motive may be.

If Dr. Blow and Mr. Tweedie insist upon bringing the university into the turmoil of party strife, the government will not suffer so much by it. The question has never been considered in the house from a party standpoint.

The premier stated his position upon a Calgary university some years ago to a deputation of Calgary university representatives. That position is favored by a great many of the most sturdy supporters of the institution. This has not been made public because, heretofore, every precaution has been taken to avoid friction of any kind. If the opponents of the government insist upon sacrificing the prospects of the institution to gain a questionable party success, more publicity will have to be given to interviews and meetings.

The Calgary University authorities, we understand, will approach the legislature at the coming session asking for degree conferring powers. Dr. Blow and Mr. Tweedie make the work of the university authorities very difficult by throwing the question into the party ring in advance.

In his address at the Conservative meeting Mr. Bennett referred to his numerous journeys in the Old Country but showed from beginning to end that he had learned nothing of that fair play to opponents and courtesy in discussion for which the Mother Country are famous. He began by calling his opponents vile names and kept it up to the end. When a man calls opponents election crooks and such like and has no facts to prove his assertions, he is merely bellowing in a very brazen and offensive manner. Mr. Bennett referred to election irregularities in the bye-elections in Alberta. He will have an opportunity to prove his assertions. He spoke of election irregularities in Saskatchewan, and condemned the franchise act in that province, forgetting to inform his hearers that the Saskatchewan act was framed on the Ontario act and is much better than the Manitoba and British Columbia acts. It took the place of our election law, which Mr. Bennett always described as very imperfect when he did not get the better of the vote.

Mr. Bennett gave a vaudeville imitation to the amusement of his enthusiastic audience of his stunt in the house of commons when the opportunity arises. He announced very positively and somewhat pompously what he intended to do to a few people, which is a habit with the Calgary member. He once foretold, even giving date and hour, of the placing of certain members of the provincial legislature behind the bars if he got them in the witness box at a certain royal investigation. But he got these gentlemen in the witness box and he imprisoned none of them, and impartial spectators say that they got the better of him in the encounter.

This bluff and bluster is fine stuff at a party gathering but if we are not mistaken, it does not convince thinking people at all or any person very much. We know what it means.

Here is an example of Mr. Bennett's idea of fair play. He has frequently complained of the Alberta Franchise Act, condemning our method of voting in his own vigorous way. He favored a change and, if we are not mistaken, the provincial legislature suggested the introduction of the system of voters' lists such as are used in the other provinces. Now, he says that the members of the government are preparing a change in the franchise act and intend to introduce the voters' list, probably very much as he suggested, and because of that he describes them as dishonest, corrupt, and generally vile. We doubt if he can convince his own supporters that any certain policy is suggested by him is correct and desirable, but if introduced by his opponents is vile and dishonest.

The speakers at the meeting predicted an early election and doubtless regarded the meeting as a sort of curtain raiser or the first shot in the campaign. They introduced the university question and produced regular monsoons of rather low-class abuse, but otherwise they left the Sifton government alone. Mr. Riley just touched upon the financial administration and Mr. Tweedie as usual attempted to inject some sectionalism in a complaint that the government policy did not bring railways to the south country. He knows well enough the cause of the delay of the railways in the south. But there was nothing else. The campaign evidently is to be one of empty abuse, narrow sectionalism and exaggeration. The opposition cannot succeed on that.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The question is: Did Sam Hughes tell King George V. about the single-handed conquest of all the Boers by a Canadian major, who afterwards became minister of militia for Canada?

Edmonton people are driving out in automobiles to Peace River Crossing and Dunsmuir, and yet neither place is marked down upon any recent map giving the city of Edmonton and its subdivisions.

THE MORNING AFTER

Oh, the sport awakes as the morning dawns with a head like a ball of brick; and his eyes are red in his scolding mood, and his poor old stomach's sick. His mouth is furrowed and he utters some bird-like buzzard-like noise. He thinks he'll have a good breakfast in his hair. He notes with dread that he won't be able to get into his shoes and hat, and he sees a man on his bedroom chair—but it's only the thimble as cat. He groans and sighs as he tries to rise from his couch of misery. "This lets me out from the fetal rot—'s never again!" sure he. To the jolt he sinks for some saving drinks, the hair of the dog, you know, a few good ones for his weakened nerves—'ll quit when the tremors go. But a slug when his safe within, call loud for a running mate; and the poor old sport takes another snort, and his up name the game with a sport awakes when the morning breaks as sick as a stammered horse; his eyes are red, his mouth is furrowed, and he utters some bird-like noise. To fill your vat with the mud like that, to sleep in your hat and shoes, do you call that fun. Oh, you sporty one, just getting the taste for booze?

IDEAS OF A PLAIN MAN

(By Dr. Frank Crans)

THE TRUTH IN ART VERSUS THE TRUTH IN SCIENCE

If you want to produce a good work of art, you have only to tell the truth. And the matter is simpler than you would suppose. For the truth you are to tell is not the truth about the object you depict, which probably neither you nor any one can ever know, but the truth about the impression it makes on you.

To find out the truth about a tree, for instance, to examine, analyze and know it through and through, is science, not art. It will follow truthfully the effect the tree makes on you.

You may make but an irregular blotch as a tree-picture which may be more true, in art, than a photograph. So in literature the point is to tell exactly what you feel, so as to awaken the same impressions in the reader.

Often this is done in the fewest words. Here are two sentences of Wordsworth. Take those two lines: "But she is in her grave, and oh, the difference between that and the photograph!"

How consummately these simple words, depict the emotion!

Science is the truth about objects. Art is the truth about yourself.

THE MOSQUITO.

The mosquito is the most detested and most feared of all insects. It is one-fourth of an inch long, and weighs less than a mosquito's brain. It is a very small insect, but it is a very dangerous one. It is a very small insect, but it is a very dangerous one. It is a very small insect, but it is a very dangerous one.

The mosquito obtains his meal by roosting on his host and drilling a prospect shaft with great rapidity, after which he inserts his proboscis and drinks until he bulges. Owing to the mosquito's carelessness in most of his actions, he is generally poisoned by his victim, causing a lump which varies in size from a peanut in the daytime when you can see it, to a water-melon at night when you can't. It should be the duty of all citizens to catch and exterminate as many mosquitoes as possible. This can be done by boiling water for an hour.

Some mosquitoes carry yellow fever germs and distribute them with the enthusiasm of a Roosevelt man distributing Bull Moose buttons. Such mosquitoes can be detected by the way they stand their bodies, tall up, when drilling. When you are being prospectored on by a mosquito who does not hold his body level, remove him at once, even if you have to use force, and quarantine him for thirty days.

Mosquitoes breed in stagnant water and can be exterminated by pouring kerosene on all ponds, and pools. A barrel of oil will kill nine billion slugs in August. In some parts of the country mosquitoes are very numerous and it is a very serious pest. Mosquitoes can be kept out of the house by placing the latter on bars. The roar of lions in Africa is no more terrifying than the loud menacing hum of one mosquito who has succeeded through a hole in the screen, and is creeping about the bedroom at midnight and looking you over with a critical and hungry eye.

Mosquitoes have strong heads and can bite through the thickest material. They are a very annoying pest. They are a very annoying pest. They are a very annoying pest.

MONKEYS.

The monkey is a vest-pocket imitation of a living creature. It is a very small creature, but it is a very dangerous one. It is a very small creature, but it is a very dangerous one. It is a very small creature, but it is a very dangerous one.

The commercial monkey is the kind which enters a living room some exhausted Italian who emits hymn tunes from a hand-organ. There is also the trick monkey, who makes a cigarette with much the same facial expression as his brether-in-pants.

The most ornamental form of monkey is called the mandrill. This is a robust type, which looks as though he is the father of unappetized twins. The mandrill is about as highly colored as a Fourth of July poster, and has an elastic jaw which is only approached by a Georgia coon at a watermelon supper. When the mandrill opens his mouth to say something, he is half undressed.

The gorilla is the nearest approach to the male sex which science has yet dug out of Africa. He lives on two feet with the dignified air of a blue floor-walker. The late Mr. Darwin discovered the ancestors of some of his wife's relatives by studying the gorilla at close range.

The chimpanzee is a blood relative of the gorilla, although they do not mingle in the same social circles. They are a very intelligent and reserved animal, and has very little affection for anything except his meals. It is not safe to toy with a chimpanzee unless the person who is doing the toying is looking for a successful exit from these meeting scenes below.

SOCIALISTS EXPECT TWO MILLION VOTES

Debs Believes His Support for Presidency Will Reach That Figure

Universal Peace is One of the Objects of His Party

Kansas City, Sept. 26.—There was no mistaking the sentiment of the 2,500 men and women who paid to hear a campaign speech by Eugene V. Debs, the socialist candidate for president. They cheered, laughed, and listened attentively for an hour and thirty minutes.

"Socialism is no longer a fool's philosophy, a fanatic's dream," he began. "Why, everyone in every party is talking socialism of one kind or another this year."

The prediction was made that the national Socialist ticket would poll a vote of two million this fall.

"Abolish the Capitalists."

"And the time is coming and soon when the present minority will be turned into a sweeping majority," the speaker predicted. "Ours is the only party to deal with the wrongs from which the working-men suffer. The republican, the democrat and the progressive parties are all creatures of the capitalist classes. There's Rockefeller putting up money for Tamm; Ryan, Belmont, and other backing Wilson; and Perkins paying the way of Roosevelt."

"I appeal to you to go away with these capitalist classes. Those capitalists play you for all they can and food you the remainder of the time."

See Only Two Sides

"First we would drive the capitalists from the control of the railroads and put them in charge of first class experts to run for the benefit of the people at large. Wilson says he would destroy the trusts. Would he divide them into bits? It has taken a century to produce them. One might as well talk of forcing the Missouri River back into a million tributaries. It is the twentieth century method of doing business. They should continue but they should be socially owned in the interests of the people."

"We should own the telegraph, the telephone, the coal mines and all the other things controlled now by the capitalists. And all should be run by experts for the people."

Seeks Universal Peace, Too

"And we should have universal peace. Why should the workmen of one nation murder the workmen of another country, or prepare to do so? We send ambassadors to The Hague conference. They return and we proceed to spend seven hundred million dollars annually for battleships and other defenses. A pretty farce, isn't it?"

The speaker concluded by declaring for women suffrage. He was preceded in his speech by William A. Weaver, of St. Louis, Socialist candidate for governor of Missouri. Mr. Debs will speak in every state in the union before the campaign closes.

COLORADO WILL VOTE ON PROGRESSIVE LEGISLATION

Watching the Outcome of Single Tax Campaign in Missouri

Will Vote on the Initiative, Referendum and Recall

Denver, Sept. 26.—Colorado is watching the outcome of the single tax campaign in Missouri, because Colorado is preparing to adopt a single tax system of its own. That is the report of J. R. Hermann, of Denver, who arrived in Kansas City yesterday. Mr. Hermann is touring Missouri in behalf of the Equitable Taxation League.

"Colorado is waking up fast," said Mr. Hermann. "We are trying to get the government into the hands of the people. This fall, for the first time, we will use the initiative and the referendum. There are thirty-two measures to be voted on, ten of which were drawn by the Direct Legislation League, an organization of the progressive elements of all parties."

Lessen the Judges' Power

"Among these measures are: the recall of all elective offices, including judges, trial by jury in contempt cases, a mothers' compensation act, a woman's 8-hour law, the repeal of the lot and a pamphlet system to advertise initiative measures."

"Unless the supreme court stops the progressive work on a technicality, we will take up the single tax question as soon as the other measures are passed. I expect to see the single tax system in Colorado in two years. The interests realize that the movement means real government by the people and are doing all in their power to stop it."

Reform—Bother the Cost

"The fact that these reform measures will cost the state $300,000 this fall alone indicates that the people are determined to have them. If the pamphlet system is adopted the cost will be reduced to one-tenth in the future."

"The men of progress in every party in Colorado are in favor of the single tax. Judge Ben Lindsey is supporting it. We expect to send two single taxers to congress this fall. There is hardly a candidate for office in Colorado who dares to come out against it."

This is his second campaign for the single tax in Missouri. Fifteen years ago I stamped the state for it. I am surprised at the progress we have made. I did not think that time we would have the means of submitting the measure so soon."

Housework Drudgery

Housework is drudgery for the weak woman. She breaks, she aches and she is on her feet all day attending to the many details of the household, her back aching, her temples throbbing, nerves quivering under the stress of pain, possibly dizzy feelings. Sometimes rest in bed is not refreshing, because the poor tired nerves do not permit of refreshing sleep. The real need is a tonic that restores the nerves and satisfies Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It Makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well

This "Prescription" removes the cause of women's weakness, kills inflammation, restores vitality, and gives strength to women. It restores the appetite and induces restful sleep.

Dr. Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know what his "Favorite Prescription" contains, a complete list of ingredients on the bottle-wrapings. Do not let any unscrupulous druggist persuade you that his substitute of unknown composition is "just as good" in order that he may make a profit out of your suffering.

PRINCE KATSURA POOH-BAH IN JAPAN EMPIRE

He Succeeds to at the Request of the Late Ruler

Will Eschew Politics, But the Opposition Doubts Him

Tokyo, Sept. 26.—The sensation of the hour in Japan, following the accession of the new emperor, was the appointment of Prince Katsura, the former prime minister, as lord chamberlain and keeper of the privy seals. A new office corresponds with that of Poshah in the opera. "The Mikado" and Katsura, according to Japanese papers just received, will be "lord chamberlain" in the new government. Katsura will be the towering figure among the older statesmen.

THE BETTER JUDGE

Once upon a time there were two men who were hotly discussing the merits of a book. Finally, one of them, himself an author, said to the other: "No, John, you can't appreciate it. You never wrote a book yourself." "No," retorted John, "and I never laid an egg, but I'm a better judge of an omelet than any hen in this country."

Moral: The man who reads the Want Ads is a better judge of business than the man who reads only the news.

We never bother that "enough is sufficient" when the breaks are coming our way!

"FIGHTING DICK" HYLAND ARRIVED HERE YESTERDAY ALL READY FOR PAL BROWN

Mard Hitting California Boxer Says He is in Shape; Will Train for His Bout at Elbow View Hotel, Where Training Quarters Have Been Prepared

"Fighting Dick Hyland," the hard-hitting and tough San Francisco light-weight, arrived in Calgary yesterday afternoon for his bout with "Pal" Brown, which takes place at Tommy Burns Arena on Saturday afternoon October 5.

Hyland is a very quiet, unassuming fellow, and is on the small side, and would weigh around the 137, mark when not trained down to fighting weight.

Hyland will start his training this morning, and will take a run at his workout for the day. Training quarters are being fixed up at the Elbow View hotel, where he is staying, and he will work out there every day until the date of the contest.

Yesterday afternoon he met his opponent, and was introduced to Pal Brown by Tommy Burns, who is not the sort of fighter that bellies his opponent, and his remarks of "He is a fine fellow, and ought to be able to put up some scrap."

It was the first time the spectators had met. To the Albertan yesterday, Hyland said he was feeling as fit as a fiddle, and was as good today as ever he was.

He had been after Ad Wolgast for a long time, but it was a hard proposition landing a match with the champion. Wolgast, he said, was just the kind he liked to get up against, and he always had the idea Ad was one fighter he could lick.

World's Worst Criminal Does Not Look It

Fosbery, Jail Breaker, Round Shouldered and Far From Muscular

Believed That He Had Help From Inside in Getting Away

New York, Sept. 26.—Reynolds Fosbery, jail breaker, who arranged in court today to plead to indictments charging murder in the first degree and attempted murder. He refused to plead without counsel, and the case went over.

The man whom the police consider the most dangerous criminal they have handled in recent years, the only man who ever escaped from an isolated cell in the Tombs, was a disappointment to the spectators. He is round shouldered, and looks far from muscular. He answered the court's questions readily and pleasantly and showed little concern.

According to unconfirmed reports emanating from the district attorney's office this afternoon, Fosbery did not make his sensational break from the Tombs unaided. It was said that information had been laid before the authorities implicating a keeper in a plot to free the prisoner. A consideration estimated at $8,000. Where Fosbery was to get the money and whether it was paid or questions yet to be determined. One keeper at the Tombs was dismissed for carelessness after the escape.

The gink who claims a reputation as a knocker is quickly suspected when the search begins for the writer of anonymous letters.

MINISTER AROUSED PUBLIC AGAINST OBSCENE LITERATURE

Described in Pamphlet Immoral Performances at Low Toronto Theatre

Toronto Judge Then Convicted Him of Circulating Obscene Literature

Toronto Ministers Described Show as Outrage Upon Decency

Toronto, Sept. 26.—Rev. R. B. St. Clair was furious today of publishing obscene literature and was reprimanded for the distribution of the same by the Toronto board of censors.

The Toronto board of censors, which has been in existence since 1907, has been reformed in its constitution. The board is now composed of seven members, including the mayor, the police commissioner, and the chief of police.

Several prominent persons, including leading ministers of all denominations, gave evidence that the bulletin was an accurate description of the show. A Catholic priest, Rev. Father Minchin, said he had been to the show and had heard a crowd to burst their caps cool down.

Rev. Dr. Shearer approved of the action of Mr. St. Clair and said that ministers in Toronto had the faintest conception of the filth that is being put on at some of the Toronto theatres and could be convinced by anything except an exact description such as given in the bulletin.

Mr. St. Clair protested against the demand and wanted immediate sentence but he was remanded.

Mr. St. Clair was remanded for two weeks to await the decision of the board of censors. He is expected to return to the city on Monday.

FIRE IN THE FORD MOTOR GARAGE THIS MORNING

Quick Action on Part of Department Held Damage Down to About $500

Work Was Dangerous for a Few Moments on Account of Proximity of Fire to Gasoline

Fire broke out at two o'clock this morning at the Ford Motor garage at tenth avenue east between Centre and First streets east. The fire was in the repairing department in the rear of the garage. The central fire hall department responded, and the chemist and two streams of water put out the flames which were making headway when the brigade arrived.

At the time the garage was filled with cars and at first it looked serious, there was considerable gasoline and oil in close proximity to where the fire had just broken out. The damage it is estimated would be about $500.

Mr. Amelia Coradetti, living at 428 sixth street A. Bridgehead, committed suicide yesterday morning by drinking carbolic acid.

The doctor took her death under most peculiar circumstances. Accompanied by her small son, she left her home about nine o'clock yesterday morning with the intention of looking at some property which she and her husband own in Crescent Heights. After looking over the property she sent her son to the store to buy some bread, leaving her in front of a shack near where she left her son. Beside her was a box containing a small quantity of carbolic acid.

Jake Coradetti, the woman's husband, was about 11 years of age. He was for some time and was quite dependent on his mother. He died in fairly good circumstances, leaving several pieces of property of value.

His mother was 44 years of age, and was the mother of three children.

Bury Laughs and Says Yarn is Too Far Fetched to Cause People of Letbridge Alarm

Letbridge, Sept. 26.—Just as The Herald was going to press here this afternoon a telegram was received from Sir Thomas Shaughnessy of the Canadian Pacific railway denying absolutely the story which was published in The Winnipeg Free Press in The Calgary Herald yesterday to the effect that the Letbridge-Weayburn line would have its location at Stirling Junction, and about Letbridge would be passed up. Mr. Bury in charge of the Western division is still laughing over the story, and says it is too far-fetched to cause any alarm to the people of Letbridge.

CRISIS IN IRISH CATTLE TRADE BECOMING ACUTE. Fat Cattle Trade, Formerly Worth $25,000,000 Per Annum, is Falling Off. Thousands of Farmers Believe Themselves Confronted With Ruin in Consequence. Dublin, Sept. 26.—The crisis in the Irish cattle trade becomes daily more acute and may have political as well as economic consequences. The fat cattle trade, which is worth about $25,000,000 a year to this country, has been very badly hit. It is true that certain English ports are open for such cattle on the condition of immediate slaughter. In the first place, however, the number of these ports is unable to cope with the Irish output. In the next place, Irish farmers and dealers complain that the trade in these congested landing places is now in the hands of "rings" and that Irish cattle are being sold at heavy loss. The gravity of the situation has been increased tenfold by the approach of the season for the export of Irish store cattle to Great Britain. This trade is the backbone of the Irish farmers' livelihood. Its value is estimated at nearly $50,000,000 a year. The tenant depends on his stores for the payment of his rent; the new peasant proprietor for the payment of his land purchase annuities. The stores are already accumulating in the great plains of the south and west, but all the ports of Great Britain are rightly about against them, and Mr. Runciman's letter to the lord mayor of Dublin shows that there is no immediate prospect of the removal of the restrictions. The outlook is really serious. Thousands of farmers believe themselves to be confronted with ruin. They say that unless the cattle trade is restored without delay they cannot possibly meet the land purchase instalments which will be due in November. This is not a threat of the ordinary political kind. The statement is endorsed by so substantial a landowner as The O'Morion Don. The Irish case for relief is being put before the country in a popular form—one which, curiously enough, is calculated to appear with peculiar force to Irish Unionists. The demand which now issues every day from a dozen meetings is that the government should cease to treat Ireland as a foreign country. It is pointed out that an outbreak of disease in Cumberland is not permitted to paralyze the cattle trade of Devon. Why, then, should an outbreak in County Dublin be allowed to paralyze the trade of Kerry or Galway? At present there is not a single case of the disease in the provinces of Munster and Connaught. Yet the vast store trade of these two provinces is at a standstill. This is the Irish point of view, and the people of Great Britain, even if they cannot accept it, ought to recognize the fact that they are on a substantial platform for a national agitation. The Irish department of agriculture, through its vice-president, Mr. T. W. Russell, agrees with the farmers that no adequate explanation has been given for the embargo on Irish stores from healthy districts. The political results of this situation may be important. The farmers, who are mainly Nationalists, are urging the Nationalist party with increasing vigor and impatience to present an ultimatum to the government. This was the verdict of a number of meetings which were held this week in all parts of Ireland. Mr. Redmond's frequent boast that his hand is chiefly responsible for his present embarrassment. The country has taken him at his word. At a large meeting of 12,000 farmers and readers the president, Mr. J. J. Kenna, said that the Irish members had simply to ask, and if the demand is not granted the government should go. A resolution calling on the Nationalist party to take immediate action was passed unanimously. Similar resolutions were presented at meetings in the counties of Mayo, Longford, Louth and Limerick. Mr. Redmond stated to a Dublin deputation a few days ago that he had no intention of turning out the government. His own followers now tell him that he is not required to turn out the government. They point out that his mere threat will be sufficient, that the government dare not entertain the prospect of defeat in parliament, and that concessions in regard to the cattle trade may be obtained without injury to the home public bill. Mr. Redmond does not seem to share this opinion. At any rate, the country is becoming more and more exasperated by his party's apparent carelessness and apathy. It is certain that if the present restrictions are much longer maintained public procedure in Ireland will compel the Nationalist party to take definite and strong action. In the event of the question of reconciling British interests with Mr. Redmond's demands will put the government on the horns of the most formidable dilemma which it has yet known. If your case really merits pity, you won't have to dish that stuff out to yourself!

SOUGHT FOR GOLD GOT RICH FURS IN LABRADOR

Toronto Man Returns From Interesting Journey in Unknown Lands Brought Home With Him Blue and Silver Fox Skins

Toronto, Sept. 26.—Dressed and tanned by two months of sun glare on the ice packs of Baffin's Land, encouraged by the fact that he did not secure gold he secured blue and silver fox skins and many other valuable furs. George Monroth, the only Toronto member of the "Lucky" Scott expedition, returned to the city this morning to tell the story of one of the most hazardous trips ever taken in search of gold.

"We left St. John's, Nfld., on July 15, in the steamship Neptune, the command of which was given to Owen Sound; S. Osgood Pell, and Dr. J. D. Knowlton, of New York; A. C. Langhorne, of New York; Ernest and Harry Holland, of Port-au-Prince, France; New York; Robert S. James, of St. John's, Nfld., and myself," he said to a Star reporter. "Our crew consisted of 12 men, thoroughly accustomed to work in Arctic waters. We reached the ice on August 2, and there for 22 days we were poked in the ice. Fortunately, however, we had arrived in the nick of time, for that very day the crew of the Algonquin and the members of Capt. Murray had been sighted earlier on the same quest as ourselves, met us in a whaleboat and two canoes. This was all they had left. Their vessel had gone down off Button Point, at the entrance to Pond's Inlet, on July 15 during a gale, and they had only 35 minutes in which to save the men and their equipment. They were together inadequate supply of provisions. They had not fallen in with us, but their intention to make their way to Labrador was a distinct relief. It is a safe bet that they would never have made the first hundred miles had we not been there. "Next day, Scott, Vassar and James left the ship with some Eskimos and dogs to try and reach Salmon River. They made their way over the ice first to Albert Harbor, where there is a government cache, taking a boat with them. This first stage was completed at about 11 o'clock, and after the men had had a most perilous journey. They encountered a number of open leads, a clear way in which they cleared them was by throwing the dogs into the water. The men made their way across while the three men clung to the boat which the dogs were towing. "The three were absent from the ship 21 days altogether, during which time they made a distance of 1,000 miles. It is a safe bet that they would never have made the first hundred miles had we not been there. "Next day, Scott, Vassar and James left the ship with some Eskimos and dogs to try and reach Salmon River. They made their way over the ice first to Albert Harbor, where there is a government cache, taking a boat with them. This first stage was completed at about 11 o'clock, and after the men had had a most perilous journey. They encountered a number of open leads, a clear way in which they cleared them was by throwing the dogs into the water. The men made their way across while the three men clung to the boat which the dogs were towing. DO YOU WANT CHEAP LUMBER

Fifty-two Yards in Alberta—Two Yards in Calgary

Few people appreciate that there is quality in lumber, the same as there is in tea or in paint, or in most other articles. Cheap cut lumber or green lumber in better grades will build a house that, when well painted, will look fairly well for a few months. Such a building in our extreme climate soon takes on a disfigured cheap look, making it difficult to sell, difficult to rent, and uncomfortable to live in.

We have always made a specialty of the highest quality, and owing to the tremendous size of our business we are able to buy on a basis that permits us to sell our lumber for as low a price as would be generally asked for a poorer quality. This has built up our large business—the largest in Western Canada.

Before building inspect our stocks and permit us to give you evidence that quality considered, our prices cannot be beaten. Particular people use our lumber. If your contractor obtains his lumber from us it is a sign that he is a particular man and demands the best of everything.
