The home of Lyle Tomlin, ninth concession of Sombra Township, was completely destroyed by fire about 8.30 Tuesday evening. The origin of the blaze is unknown, as all members of the family were visiting in the village when it started but it thought an overheated stove was the cause. The building was a story-and-a-half brick, and was owned by Mrs. Joseph Workman of Wallaceburg. The loss will be heavy as none of the household effects were saved.

Mr. Wallace Tilden, of Point Pelee, reports that among the birds that habituate the Government Park, two parrots made their home there during the past summer remaining until Dec. 11. Their plumage was green with red tops. How they found their way to the park is not known, but it is conjectured that they were pets on some passing boat and made their escape. The remarkable feature about it is that being tropical birds they found the temperature congenial at the Point up to so late a date.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The yield of the Federal income tax in Canada in the past year exceeded the customs revenue.

An Illinois farmer has discovered that as soon as a foreigner picks up English he becomes no further use on the farm. He stops working and starts talking.

It looks as if Ireland will have troubles of its own when the hand of British authority is removed. But Irishmen will then have nobody to blame but themselves.

There are some men fortunate enough to bequeath a good name as well as a fortune to those they leave behind, but a good name is the better of the two if choice has to be made.

The Australia Government is launching a scheme for an airship service to Britain. The route, by way of Singapore, India, Egypt, France, is attractive. Australia wants to be no farther in time from Britain than Canada is.

Pope Benedict XV died on Sunday morning, Jan. 22nd, at 6 a.m., at Rome, surrounded by the Princes of the Church and other officials. He was elected Pope in September 1914. He was an Italian, being born in Pegli, Nov. 21, 1854.

How many men in Canada—or women, now that women have votes—know just what Canada agreed to at Washington the other day, when Canada's delegate signed the agreement between Japan, England, France and the United States.

Many years ago the Toronto World printed side by side, at the bottom of the front page, two items, one the notice of a Conservative picnic coming the other recording the death of a somewhat prominent citizen. A line at the bottom of one of the items dropped, and in hurry of make-up was slanted back at the foot of the other. The death report appeared the next morning with the following concluding paragraph:—"The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2.30 p.m. A very enjoyable time is promised."

W. F. MACDONALD, Secretary, Petrolia, Ont.

Dr. Seager Wheeler, wheat wizard of Rosthern, speaking at Saskatoon, intimated that he is working on a new type of wheat free from rust infection. Dr. Wheeler gave an interesting account of how he creates new seed by hand rubbing and hand picking selected heads of grain.

The South Wentworth U. F. O. member says the government will discuss a plan to allow each householder 24 quarts of liquor a year. If this became law and every man used his full allowance there would be a general jamboree all the year around.

While the ice scenery at the Falls this year is said to surpass in grandeur and beauty anything seen of recent years, fewer tourists have viewed it than during any winter season for a decade. The ice bridges form in the lower river, remain for a few days and then pass on down stream.

A Chicago tailor mended a rip in a pair of trousers for a man who was penniless. The man returned later with the 50 cents for payment, and there began a friendship which netted the tailor the entire estate, valued at $50,000, of Ernest de St. Giles, insurance expert and author.

In event of a tax of one cent per gallon being placed upon the sale of gasoline, in addition to the present sales tax, an act providing for which is expected to pass the Ontario Legislature some time during its next session, the tax will be collected from the wholesalers and oil companies and not from the consumer.

According to reports from China, the world's most powerful radio station is to be built in Shanghai. The monster station, which will be completed and in operation within eighteen months, will be able to communicate with any radio station in the world. There will be a press service of 2,500 words daily between America and China, thus establishing a continuous daily news service.

While the area in winter wheat in Ontario shows an increase of some 50,000 acres, there has been a decrease of half a million acres in the United States. The condition in the United States is also unsatisfactory, being considerably below what it was last year, and 13 points lower than the ten-year average. Kansas, the largest winter wheat state in the Union, has only 60 per cent. of a normal acreage, as compared with 88 per cent. a year ago.

Tests for substituting automatic wireless signals at sea for the S. O. S. signals have been so successful that it is predicted that the familiar S O S soon will disappear. The principle is an automatic signal with a four second beat repeated three times instead of using the old Morse code. The beat when given on a sinking ship rings an alarm bell on vessels within reach in such a way that it is really an automatic alarm. The important advantage over the S O S is that it won't enter other signal combinations and cause confusion.

One mutual fire insurance company in Ontario reports 41 fire claims last year and "unknown" is put down under the heading of cause of loss in 14 cases, while in 16 lightning is given as the cause. In seven of the lightning cases losses were on buildings or contents, and in nine on animals, the losses in the latter having apparently occurred in the open. Over $40,000 was paid out all told on claims, while receipts from fixed payments totalled less than $25,000. The fires from lightning striking buildings could have been practically eliminated by proper rodding. Of the number of "unknown" causes of fires, it can at least be said that they are distressingly large.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

LAMBTON CO. WINTER FAIR PETROLIA FEB. 8, 9 & 10th.

The Annual Lambton County Winter Fair is to be held in Petrolia, February 8th, 9th and 10th, 1922, and promises to surpass all previous attempts. This event has proven its worth and grows in extent and popularity each year. The fact of having to cancel the Annual Poultry Show this year, owing to the fact of there being no available space to accommodate the poultry, is a big disappointment to the management. However, it only means a more determined effort on the part of the agriculturists of the county to secure a permanent home or building, suitable for the growing demands of the agricultural organizations.

A special feature of the Corn Show this year will be the Junior Department, comprising the exhibit of the Rural School children of the county. Special lectures and demonstrations will be given by a representative of the Dominion Entomological Department in reference to the extent of damage, means of control of the Corn Borer. This insect is the greatest menace to the corn industry of Western Ontario.

The Consignment Sale of the Lambton County Pure Bred Live Stock Breeders' Association is an opportunity for farmers to secure good individuals, males and females, from the leading herds of the county. In the live stock industry, profits are small and it pays to feed only the best. The improvement of the live stock kept on the farms of Lambton reflects itself in the progress of the county.

GUARD YOUR HEALTH You Can Do This by Keeping the Blood Rich and Red.

It is useless to tell a hard working woman to take life easily and not to worry. Every woman at the head of a home; every girl in offices, shops and factories is subjected to more or less worry. These worries cannot be avoided. But it is the duty of every woman and every girl to save her strength as much as possible, and to build up her system to meet unusual demands. Her future health depends upon it. To guard against a breakdown the blood must be kept rich, red and pure. To keep the blood in this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found most useful. They strengthen the nerves, restore the appetite and bring the glow of health to pallid cheeks, and renewed energy to listless people. Women cannot always rest when they should but they can keep up their strength through the occasional use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This is shown by the case of Mrs. Minnie Swiek, residing near Simcoe, Ont., who says: "A few years ago I was in a deplorable state of health. My blood was weak and watery and the circulation poor. My appetite was poor and what food I did take distressed me. I was not able to do my housework, and often my nights were sleepless, and headache and backache added to my misery. I was finally persuaded to drop other medicines and take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This I did, and after taking the pills for a couple of months I could do my housework with ease, eat well, slept well and had gained in weight. From my own experience I cannot praise these pills too highly."

"BEWARE OF SEED CORN" AGRONOMISTS ADVISE

"Beware of seed corn this spring" Such is the warning sent out by agronomists at the Ohio Experiment Station, following a series of tests to secure disease-free seed corn. Seed corn has not been damaged by freezing, but weather conditions last September contributed to an extraordinary development of corn diseases.

The weather for September, 1921, was the hottest for that month for 34 years and the rainfall for the month was 1.67 inches above normal for the State. These conditions favored the development of diseases now present in seed corn.

Farmers are advised to begin testing seed corn at once, using six grains from each ear, and to discard all seed ears showing discolored cobs, poor germination and grains with rotted roots. Such are the evidences of corn diseases.

WINTER HARD ON BABY.

The winter season is a hard one on the baby. He is more or less confined to stuffy, badly ventilated rooms. It is so often stormy that the mother does not get him out in the fresh air as often as she should. He catches colds which rack his little system; his stomach and bowels get out of order and he becomes peevish and cross. To guard against this the mother should keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house. They regulate the stomach and bowels, and break up colds. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

VANITY

When the Preacher, according to the Book of Ecclesiastes, said, "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity," he expressed the feeling of a tired voluptuary who had devoted himself to the pursuit of pleasure and found at the end of it all, worthlessness, futility and emptiness. He had tried everything, enjoyed everything, but at the finish, it all seemed to come to nothing. The reason of this probably was that he had pursued pleasure as an end in itself rather than as a subsidiary element of life. He was not the first nor by any means the last of those who have made the experiment. His experience is a common one among those who have suddenly acquired great riches. Some of these, particularly the sons of hardworking millionaires, have said to themselves, when the legal matters attending the probate of the "old man's" will have been attended to, "now I can enjoy myself." And they have proceeded to do it in headlong fashion, arriving at the end of a period of months or years, at the conclusion of the philosopher of Ecclesiastes. This was no doubt partly because they had pursued pleasures which were in themselves unlawful and which brought detriment to others. But their attitude of mind at the disastrous close of their experiment led them to lump everything together and to declare that there was "nothing in it." On the contrary they would have found that there was a good deal in it, if they had recognized, as Lamartine keenly observes, that "life is neither a pleasure or a pain, but a business to be carried through with honor." Pleasure lies all round us, but it is a fruit that only seems to grow to perfection on the tree of duty. The theme has been worked upon by numberless didactic advisers so that it is difficult to say anything about it that does not bear the mark of trite truism. The facts, however, remain and are being illustrated every day in all places. "The morning after" is a period of disillusion that is very well known.

It may, however, be remarked that people's pleasures mark their intellectual and spiritual status. The hard-working operative after an honest day's work, enjoys his meal. It is natural that he should and nobody need grudge him his good appetite. Hunger is the best sauce, says the proverb, and his legitimate pleasure in the taste of his meat is the best thing in the world for him as far as it goes. But it does not mark any advance from his distant ancestor, the cave-man. He also enjoyed his meat as the stack of bones round pre-historic caves sufficiently testify. If we want to enquire how high he has climbed in the evolution of the ages we shall naturally ask what other enjoyments he has. For there is nothing that differentiates the status of men more truly than their special pleasures.

The word vanity has another meaning, namely, where it indicates the quality or state of being vain or elated with a high opinion of one's own accomplishments or achievements, which causes its possessor to be morbidly anxious for the notice, admiration and applause of others. Whereas the vanity described by the Preacher may be imaged by that Dead Sea fruit which turns to ashes at a touch, this last finds its natural metaphor in the peacock. Here again we may perceive that it is only in the excess of this attribute of human nature that danger lies. It may be safely said that absolutely, nobody is without a touch of the love of approbation. None of us is without a favorable self-estimate of his own abilities and reproduction, and if it is absent in some directions it is visible enough in others. There are some from whom all the attractions of life will not remove their overweening conceit. But with most of us the ten-

Chance and Saving

The man who complains that he never had a chance, also never had a Bank Account. He spent everything he made. But the man higher up, and the man on top, developed the saving habit early. The man with money in the Bank does not scold fortune; he takes advantage of opportunity. A Savings Account started with The Merchants Bank is the first round up the ladder of success.

Our Stock MUST Be Reduced

It is the custom with many people to wait till after the Spring housecleaning is done before buying any new furniture. This appears to be good sense in ordinary times, as at no other time of the year can one so readily see the necessity of new pieces of furniture. Last year you noted several articles you really needed, but you put off buying because of high prices. We have removed the obstacle of price for we have marked all our goods so low that you will feel compelled to buy—and buy at once, without waiting until you tear up the house this Spring. Come in, look around and if our prices don't convince you to buy, we won't press you to do so. We have made our prices so low that we fully believe they will talk for themselves.

Goes Into Exile.

PARIS, Jan. 23.—Watched like a prisoner by French officials, ex-Empress Zita of Austria-Hungary, crossed France on her way to rejoin her husband at their exile home in Madeira. Although she wanted to go through Paris to do a little shopping, she was not allowed to do so, the Council of Ambassadors having decided more than a week ago that she should travel from Geneva via Lyons and Bordeaux.

All the arrangements give the impression that the authorities have been suspicious that the ex-Empress' trip to Europe was not unconnected with a fresh plot to seize the crown of Hungary. It is even announced that, on the initiative of the British Government, the matter is about to be laid before the Council of Ambassadors, and that ex-Empress Carl will be formally warned anew that any new attempt to effect his restoration will be followed immediately by the transfer of himself and his empire to some place of exile far more remote than Madeira.

Given Life Sentence.

TORONTO, Jan. 23.—Life sentences in Kingston Penitentiary for attempted murder of his wife, and one hour in jail for attempted suicide, was the sentence imposed in the Assizes on Saturday by Mr. Justice Riddell upon Mick Miller, a Serbian, convicted of having attempted to murder his wife, Gertrude Miller, by shooting her and stabbing her in her mother's home on Claremont street. In pronouncing sentence, Justice Riddell said:

"A more wanton, treacherous and brutal attempt I have never heard of read of, and it was only the brave and self-forgetting efforts of her mother which baulked you in your fiendish design. The wounds you succeeded in inflicting have not killed her, but that is due to the case of the hospital surgeons and nurses under the Providence of God." His lordship expressed the opinion that Miller had made only a theatrical pretence of trying to kill himself.

SUSPENSIONS REMOVED

Ontario License Board Decides to Back Down.

Commissioners After Piecemeal Reinstatements Withdraw Ban on All But Twenty-Five Offending Doctors — Dr. Forbes Godfrey Intends to Press His Action in Court Against the Board.

TORONTO, Jan. 23.—It's a long, long time since expression was first given to that homely little bit of wisdom, "Never start anything you can't finish," but apparently it has yet to travel to 15 Queen's Park, where the Board of License Commissioners holds sway. After vainly attempting to stem the tide of criticism by piecemeal lifting of suspensions, the board on Saturday threw up its hands and decided to reinstate in its good graces all but twenty-five of the three hundred and thirty-five doctors who were put on the "black list" by dictum of the commissioners about a week ago. The lifting of the suspension affects approximately 250 doctors, or all those whose December total of prescriptions did not exceed seventy-five. Since the board yielded the axe about sixty doctors who had exceeded the limit of fifty "explained" to the commissioners and have been removed from under the ban. The twenty-five whose prescriptions the dispensaries are still under instructions to refuse take in all those who gave over 75 during the month. In this category are a few doctors who, in the face of the records, have been doing a thriving business in prescriptions.

The only explanation of the change of front offered by Vice-Chairman W. S. Dingman is that the purpose of the Board — to remind the doctors that the law must be observed — has been achieved. It is elsewhere admitted, however, that the Board made a confession of weakness as soon as individual doctors put up an argument, and that this progressed to a point where the whole thing had become something of a farce and had to be cleared away. On top of this the original order made, it is said, without the knowledge of Hon. Mr. Raney, has stirred up too much dust to please the Attorney-General, and there is good reason for believing that the general lifting of suspensions followed some good advice from that quarter.

The action of the Board on Saturday does not affect in any way Dr. Forbes Godfrey's determination to fight out in the courts the question of the right of the commission to put a limit on prescriptions. Dr. Godfrey is one of those over the 75 mark. Whether he will get his case from court or not depends, of course, upon the will of Mr. Raney. On Saturday a representative of T. Herbert Lennox, K.C., called at the Attorney-General's Department to discuss the prospect of a flat being granted and was informed that a formal application would have to be made. Flats are not granted as a matter of course, but neither are they refused if a reasonable case can be made out to justify an action.

Despite the fact that the dispensaries are instructed to refuse Dr. Godfrey's prescriptions, one of them has been filled within the past week. Dr. Godfrey had issued a prescription for port wine to a woman who had been ill in bed for six weeks with a case of tuberculosis. Her daughter made two trips to the Minico but was turned away both times. She made a third trip and was again refused. She declined to accept this refusal, however, and insisted that the dispensary give her the wine. The officials finally weakened and gave it to her after requiring her to certify on the back of the prescription that her mother needed the wine medicinally.

In this connection, Dr. Godfrey points out that the dispensary officials, after putting his patient's daughter to a great deal of expense and trouble, had finally complied with the provisions of the O. T. A., which, while giving the Board no power to restrict the number of prescriptions, makes it possible for the Board to require assurance that the liquor sought is required as a medicine. "That is their right," said Dr. Godfrey, "but they have absolutely no right in law to refuse to honor a prescription on the sole ground that the doctor who issued it is not in the good graces of the Board. I am going to press my action unless Mr. Raney refuses me the legal right to do so, and if he does it will be an admission that he is afraid to have the courts pass upon the arbitrary and illegal course of his Board."

Heroic Mother Suffocated.

OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Charles Carice was suffocated in a heroic attempt to save one of her children whom she believed to be sleeping in a back room, when fire destroyed her home, at 128 George street, shortly before nine o'clock Saturday morning. Her four children were saved through the courage of the unfortunate woman's fifteen-year-old son, Eugene, who was in bed when the alarm was given, but hurriedly slipped on part of his clothing and, finding their way of escape by the stairs cut on by the flames and smoke, dropped the four younger children from the attic window, they escaping with slight bruises, and then followed himself.

Prince Visits Historic Tombs.

MYSORE, India, Jan. 23.—The Prince of Wales on Saturday visited the ancient and historic stronghold of Srirangapatam, where he viewed the tomb of Hyder Ali, and Tipoo Sahib, Sultans of Mysore. Afterwards the prince visited Krishnaraja-Jasagara, where the second largest dam in the world is being constructed.

Engineer Killed.
OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—Engineer Holland Edward White, Prescott, was instantly killed, and 18 others injured, when the Canadian Pacific passenger train from Prescott to Ottawa plunged over a 15-foot embankment one mile south of Elwood station and seven miles from Ottawa at 4.45 Saturday afternoon. Trapped in the cab of his locomotive when it turned turtle on the downward plunge, White was scalded to death by escaping steam and water. Fireman George Elliott Prescott saved his life by jumping.

Ferry Ran On the Rocks.

OGDENSBURG, N.Y., Jan. 23.—Seventy-five passengers aboard the ferry boat Ferdinand, which went aground in the St. Lawrence, near here, early Saturday evening, in a dense fog, were transferred Sunday morning to another ferry boat. Twelve members of the crew are still aboard and fears were expressed for their safety.

Must Have Unborn.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Women at thirty only reach the wisdom and political responsibility that men attain at 24. That, at least, is the interpretation placed on the new Hungarian election law, which gives men the ballot at the age of 24, but will not permit women to vote until they are thirty.

In addition to the age restriction, the law provides that women voters must have given birth to at least three children, the youngest of which must be six years, thereby forcing early marriage.

Bachelor maids may vote at the age of thirty, if they have attended eight classes in grammar school; if they earn an independent livelihood, or are graduates of high school. Men may vote at 24, if they have attended four classes of common school, implying that it takes a woman six more years with the addition of a grammar school education to equal a man's wisdom at 24, with only half as many years of common school education.

It is expected that under the new law only six hundred thousand women will have the right to vote.

LAMBTON WINTER FAIR PETROLIA February 8th, 9th, 10th, 1922

NO MORE SHORTAGE OF HYDRO POWER

The 55,000 horsepower generator at the Queenston power house went on full load Tuesday. All tests have been made, and the generator is now in commercial service.

Under the agreement with the companies supplying auxiliary power to the Hydro-electric Power Commission, a month's notice was to be given of termination of the short-term contract. This power will be discontinued on February 1, and from that date the first generator of the Queenston plant will be earning $1,000,000 a year.

A second generator will be started in March and likewise will earn $1,000,000 a year.

It is expected that Nos 3 and 4 generators will be installed and in operation by September next, and will be contributing a like amount to the cost of the department.

The day of power shortage is past and the benefits of the greatest Hydro-electric plant in the world are now available for the people of Ontario.

OPINION OF OTHERS

Hamilton Spectator.—Hearst is reported to be contemplating the publication at Sarnia of a Canadian edition of one of his string of newspapers. Should such happen, its contents would need to vary widely from the anti-British rubbish with which he caters to U. S. readers.

Moncton Transcript.—Of 56 towns in Ontario having a population of 2,500 and over, 42 report an increase in population during the last ten years. This is quite different from the state of affairs existing in the rural districts. If anyone desires a life work, let him tackle the problem—how to get the people back to the land.

Hamilton Spectator.—Medical men are up in arms over the restrictions placed on them by the Ontario License Board. But what has been a real hardship for the laity is compelling those who are in need of liquor for medical purposes—particularly elderly and needy people—to pay $2 or upward for the privilege of receiving it.

With many business men, the habit of "wasting money year" after year on pretty pictures, alleged to be calendars, appears to have become chronic and incurable. Within a month of the time they are issued, most of these works of art will be found in dozens adorning the walls of young ladies' bedrooms and bachelor's dens the name of the men or firms who pay for them being first cut off or erased. To charge that kind of expenditure up to advertising account is grotesque.—Orillia Packet.

Montreal Star.—The fashion of wearing overshoes with the buckles undone, and the sides flapping loosely about, which has been so popular with the ladies this winter will soon be lost in obscurity if the style adopted by the fur coated young miss, who was walking on St. James Street yesterday afternoon, becomes the vogue. Inconvenienced no doubt by the constant knocking of the sides of her overshoes she had turned them over her ankles in such a way as to give the appearance of ankle gaiters. The effect was a reminder of the style of footwear worn by the Puritan Fathers long ago with a flavor of a "washbucklers" flapping footgear thrown in.

GET OUT OF DEBT

One of the big features of both the Dominion and Provincial Parliaments of Canada should be to purpose, plan and perfect ways and means to reduce the public debt. This may not be an easy task, but anybody can do the easy jobs and the success of curtailment of indebtedness, and a refusal to continue to pile it up will show real statesmanship. We doubt if there is anything more crippling than to be "head over heels" in debt, and no serious thought given to get out from under the load. Let us "Yo heave" for a debt paying campaign in 1922. Many a municipal scrap has been on during the past week over the same issue, and the "squaring up" at this season of the year will afford another evidence of the great desirability of following the scriptural injunction of "Owe no man anything," and "Provide things honest in the sight of all men." Don't be always on the job of trying to beat a man down in what may be a fair price for work well done. "Live and let live" but get out of debt as quickly as possible. If it can't be paid in one sum, divide it up and settle by regular instalments.—Brussels Post.

CHOP STUFF

London, Ont., has a population of 60,586 according to the new census.

City Council has decided to introduce the budget system in connection with the city finances. Each of the spending bodies of the city will be asked to submit immediately estimates of the amount of money they will require during the present year so that the tax rate may be struck as soon as the assessment is completed. In former years the rate has not been struck until late in the year. It is believed that the new system will assist in promoting a policy of economy in the city's expenditure.

James Scott, a prosperous Bosanquet township farmer met with a serious accident on Thursday while handling his shot gun. Leaving his home he slipped and in falling the trigger hit a churn and discharged, one barrel of the contents entering his right hand and left leg below the knee. The leg was badly shattered as a result and Dr. Geo. O. McDonald was called. Mr. Scott was taken to the Victoria Hospital London, on the evening train where he will receive further medical treatment.

The worms that infest children from their birth are of two kinds, those that find lodgement in the stomach and those that are found in the intestines. The latter are the most destructive, as they cling to the walls of the intestines and if not interfered with work havoc there. Miller's Worm Powders dislodge both kinds and while expelling them from the system, serve to repair the damage they have done. Use ELARTON SALT for HOME-CATTLE-LAND

RISKS LIFE TO AID HUSBAND

Sarnia, Jan. 20.—To get legal counsel for her husband, who faces a charge of attempted robbery, Mrs. Carman Mitchell risked her life by crossing the treacherous ice of the St. Clair River from Marine City to Sarnia alone on foot today. The ferries were not running because of the ice blockade. Without hesitation Mrs. Mitchell, who had arrived at Marine City from Detroit on her way to Sarnia started across on foot. She had several narrow escapes near the Canadian side, where the ice is thin. She broke through twice, and saved herself from drowning only after a struggle. Her husband is being handed over to the Canadian authorities. She was successful in getting counsel here.

Stirrett, Sarnia. The members of the board not mentioned above are: Mr. Neil Grant, Beecher; Mrs. J. E. Anderson, Oil Springs; John Donald, Plympton, (Wyoming post office.)

All necessary information and advice may be secured from any member of the board by prospective applicants.

THE AVERAGE MAN

The papers overlooked him, for he never beat his wife, He never tried to rob a bank or take another's life And he wasn't very brilliant and he didn't try for fame So there was no real occasion for the press to print his name. The papers overlooked him, he was never deep in debt, He never slipped away from town with all that he could get, He never made a million, never wrote a modern play So there wasn't much about him for the editors to say. He paid his yearly taxes just the same as you and I, He went to work o'mornings with a twinkle in his eye, He kept a little garden and his children seemed to grow Into just the sort of children that the world is glad to know. His friends were never many, but the few he had were true, For they all had discovered what the papers never knew, He was brave and clean and kindly One of millions I suppose Whose lives are ordinary from beginning to the close. And the more I think about him, it's the ordinary man Who's the glory of the nation and the strength of every clan, So I pay this tribute to him—not the genius or the crook, But the honest, normal, average man The papers overlook. —Edgar A. Guest.

The funeral of John Scouler, prominent business man of Forest, was held Thursday last under the auspices of Forest Lodge, A.F. & A.M., and Royal Oak Lodge, I.O.O.F. Mr. Scouler, who had conducted a successful falgiring business in Forest for many years, went West a couple of years ago for his health. On his return he resumed business, but only for a short time, and was forced to retire last fall, from which time he had been getting steadily worse, the end coming on Wednesday. He is survived by his widow, but no children, and besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Scouler, who reside in Forest, he is survived by three sisters and four brothers, Mrs. Hughes, Souris, Man.; Mrs. Karr of Warwick and one sister living in the States; Ben Scouler of Dutton; Willard of Montreal, and James and Lindsay, at home. Deceased was 59 years of age. Rev. John Murray officiated at the funeral.

BACK TO CHEAP CROPS

The value put on Canada's wheat crop of 1921 by the Ottawa Government statisticians is $233,000,000. That represents an average of 86 cents a bushel. The net returns of the crop were much less than in 1920, though in 1921 the wheat yield was 66,000,000 bushels larger. Considering the high cost of seed, and the carryover of many other items of inflated cost, it can be said that there was relatively little profit to the farmer from his wheat or other grains.

In 1922, however, wheat for seed can be bought at a low price. Labor will be comparatively cheap and plentiful. Most materials are down in price. Machinery and implements are cheaper. One of the leading implement companies announced, several months ago, a cut averaging 30 per cent. in prices on stock that had been manufactured at the high prices. The cut was made to induce buying, and to serve, in advance, as a replacement basis. Freight rates will have to be again revised downward. The C. P. R. is down almost to a normal operating ratio, and the National Railways still have an operating surplus. The cuts in operating costs in the last eight months have been remarkable, and foreshadow much better transportation conditions. If 1921 was a lean year, 1922 should, with good weather, again produce a yield that will average up profit returns. It is obvious that profit in farming in the next year or two will come from economical production than from big markets. The Western farmer who can get 25 bushels of wheat to the acre, instead of 15, or 100 bushels of oats, instead of 50 will be the profit-maker. His seedling and nearly all other costs will be much the same for the poor as for the big yield. It the West, the farmers will simply have to learn to handle their land with greater respect. A large percentage of it has to be heavily fertilized, and protected against drought and wind by every possible means. The West is still buoyant and full of hope regarding the future, and as the hard prices, will no doubt radjuse its methods to the new conditions.—Mail and Empire.

POPE BENEDICT IS DEAD

Head of Roman Catholic Church Died on Sunday.

Death Was Due to Infections Pneumonia of a Particularly Malignant Kind and Pontiff Suffered Terribly in His Dogged Struggle for Life—Dignitaries of Church Remain at Prayer in Vatican.

ROME, Jan. 23.—Arrayed in full canonicals, with golden mitre, gloves and ring, the body of Benedict XV. lies in state in the throne room, on the floor immediately below the apartment in which he died.

For many hours Sunday to the room where the Pontiff had made his fight for life came a continuous stream of officials, the representatives of foreign nations, high prelates and others. Then, late in the afternoon, in gorgeous procession, composed of Palatine guards, gentlemen, the Swiss guard, secret chamberlains and honorary chamberlains, the body was solemnly transported down the royal staircase, through Clementine Hall into the throne room, where it was placed on a raised catafalque, before which the whole diplomatic corps paid devout reverence.

The Sacristan Zampani gave absolution and the cardinal sprinkled holy water, while the penitentiaries unceasingly chanted prayers, answered by the kneeling onlookers. Immediately afterwards the doors were opened to the multitudes desirous of looking for the last time on the departed Pontiff.

The sacred congregation convened Sunday morning when the cardinals were informed of the Pope's death. With the exception of Cardinal Gasparri, the Papal Secretary of State, they gathered in Benedict's private apartments. Gasparri, in due and solemn form, escorted by the Swiss guards in full dress and accompanied by the prelates and acolytes of the Reverend Apostolic Chamber, entered the apartments a few minutes later. He will administer the Holy See during the interregnum. With him also was Monsignor Sincero, Secretary of the Sacred College.

Cardinal Gasparri, surrounded by the cardinals, then proceeded to verify the death of Benedict, extending over the lifeless form a silver wand, crying out "Giacomo." He opened the certificate of death and declared: "Dominus Papa Noster Mortuus est," thus announcing officially the Pope's death.

Pope Benedict breathed his last at six o'clock Sunday morning. The news was hurriedly communicated from the papa bed chamber to the principal ante-chamber and was announced by Monsignor Pizzardo, Deputy Papal Secretary of State, just as the ponderous bells of St. Peter's, overlooking the Vatican courtyard, began tolling the hour of six. Then one by one the bells in Rome's 400 churches joined in the horologial symphony that marked the passing of the head of the Roman Catholic Church.

The end came after a long night of intense agony and suffering, the Pontiff now and then lapsing into delirium throughout the long, anxious night. Shortly before midnight he took a little nourishment, which seemed momentarily to revive his spirits, but within an hour afterwards he began to sink rapidly. At 1.15 o'clock Dr. Battistini, emerging from the pontifical chamber into the ante-room, told the Associated Press correspondent the end was approaching, that already his hands and nose felt cold.

From that period on the Pope neared the end of his life. Breathing became a tragic, agonizing task, as the Supreme Pontiff, who had resisted the severe lung and throat congestion, was now finally too weak to overcome the overwhelming attack any longer.

His heart rapidly weakened, and at five o'clock in the morning was certain that the end was a matter of moments. Accordingly, Cardinals Gasparri, Samper and Pizzardo, and all the pontifical household, were notified that the end was rapidly approaching. Cardinal Gasparri entered the bed chamber at 5.50 o'clock. He had been there but nine minutes before the Pope breathed his last.

Pope Benedict XV. was born in Pegli, in the diocese of Genoa, Italy, November 21, 1854. Giacomo Della Chiesa, as Pope Benedict XV. was christened, spent all his boyhood in the little Italian town of a democratic aristocracy, the ancient Ligurian nobility, members of which are prominent in the learned professions in Italy. His father was the Marchese Giuseppe Della Chiesa and his mother the Marchesa Giovanna Migliorati. Both are dead. His elder brother, the admiral, inherited the title.

The Pope was educated at Capranica College, in Rome, and four years later he was ordained a priest. He at once entered the academy of noble ecclesiastics, from which the then Mgr. Rampolla took him to be his private secretary. In 1893 Rampolla was made papal nuncio at Madrid, a post of the greatest importance at that time. The young priest gave him a training in diplomacy such as probably could have been obtained from no other living man. When Rampolla returned to Rome as secretary of state to Leo XIII., he took Mgr. Della Chiesa with him and made him under-secretary. When Cardinal Della Chiesa went into the conclave, after the death of Pope Pius X., there were few who believed that his election was a possibility. But he was elected on September 3, 1914.

FIREMEN WERE KILLED.

Valuable Apartment Houses Destroyed in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.—Caught under a falling wall following an explosion, Lieut. Paul Deloges and Fireman Louis Paul Pressau, were killed and it is feared that other victims may die under the ruins of the Vimy Apartments, which with the adjoining Harvard Apartments at 5,618 to 5,625 Sherbrooke street west, were totally destroyed by fire of undetermined origin which was discovered at seven o'clock Sunday evening.

Four other firemen were overcome by gas and sustained cuts, but no one was seriously affected.

After the fire had been discovered in a laundry at 5,618 and the firemen were subduing it, there came a not very loud report, which was almost immediately followed by another explosion that tore out the front of the laundry and spread the fire in all directions with amazing rapidity. It was in this explosion that the firemen were caught. Three alarms were then turned in, the first third alarm of the year.

A high westerly wind, the bitter cold which made water pumping difficult, and the rapid spread of the fire soon settled the fate of the apartments. The two apartment houses are valued at $250,000 and there were nine shops on the ground floor of the buildings, whose contents were also destroyed.

Spectacular rescues and escapes took place during the fire. Children lightly dressed were separated from their parents and one, a boy of 11, was only found later, wandering about barefooted in the bitter cold. It is feared both his feet are frozen. A man passing in the street at the time of the explosion, Charles Chene, was struck by a piece of flying glass, and had to have six stitches put in his cheek. It is thought the Chinese, who were working in the laundry where the fire originated, were trapped in the back room.

VISCOUNT BRYCE DEAD.

Eminent Exponent of Democracy Has Passed Away.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Viscount Bryce died at Sidmouth on Sunday. The end came peacefully and somewhat suddenly. Viscount Bryce had been staying in Sidmouth for the past three weeks and was extremely energetic to the last.

Viscount Bryce was sent to Washington in 1907 as Ambassador from Great Britain. His success in negotiating the fisheries treaty was a diplomatic triumph. The treaty grew out of the constant conflict between the Canadian and American fishermen in the Cape Cod region, which caused considerable friction and annoyance to both Governments. The treaty not only served to end these disturbances, but it also operated to enhance friendly feeling between the Canadian and United States authorities.

Born in 1838 in Glasgow, the late James Bryce practiced as a barrister for some years at Lincoln's Inn. He was elected M.P. in 1880 and entered the Cabinet later. He was the author of many historical and political works, including "Modern Democracy," "The American Commonwealth," and "Studies in History and Jurisprudence."

DESPERADO IS CAUGHT.

John Bedard Murdered Governor of Jail at Guelph.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—A prisoner in the Hudson County Jail at Jersey City was identified on Saturday by Detective George Hughes of Niagara Falls, Ont., as John Bedard, wanted on a charge of murdering John McNabb, governor of the Wellington County Jail at Guelph, Ont., on November 7th last.

Bedard came to Jersey City and took a room at 100 Ocean avenue. He went to work as a milk driver during the milk strike. The man was arrested in Bayonne on Dec. 23, under the name of Joseph Kelly. His identification as Bedard was brought about through a comparison of finger prints.

Hughes was accompanied to the jail by Inspector Miller, of the Ontario Jail Department and John Conroy, an immigration agent from Ellis Island. Upon presentation of affidavits by the Canadian officials, Conroy said he would have Bedard deported to Guelph.

RHEUMATISM?

Health is the Most Valuable Asset You Have. You cannot Afford to Neglect It.

Crofton, B. C.—"I was troubled for years with inflammatory rheumatism and rheumatic fever. I tried several cures for rheumatism, but did not receive any benefit from any of them. I had been in the hospital for months, being unable to walk. A friend advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets.

After taking the first bottle I began to improve, and after taking six bottles I had no more rheumatism. I think Dr. Pierce's Anuric is the most wonderful medicine that any one can take for rheumatism. I have recommended these tablets to several of my friends and they, too, have all been benefited by them."

People are realizing that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy, and many other serious disturbances.

This can be avoided by stimulating the kidneys to increased action, and because of its tonic effect on these organs any one would do well to get Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets which are to be had nowadays at almost any drug store or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont., for trial package and write for free, confidential medical advice.

HOCKEY
WATFORD TRIMS STRATHROY

Watford O. H. A. Intermediates won easily from Strathroy on their ice last Friday evening by 11-4. Clarence Armstrong, of London, kept the game well in hand and demonstrated early in the game that nothing but good clean hockey would be tolerated. It was probably the cleanest game in the district this year, only one penalty being served on each side, both for accidental offences. The line-up:

Glencoe Wins By Close Margin 5-4

LOCALS ALREADY PREPARING FOR N. H. L. SERIES

Another Opportunity to Tackle Glencoe!

Watford's last opportunity to tie up the district burst like a bubble at the last moment of their game with Glencoe here on Tuesday evening. Fans were out en masse for miles around to see the biggest game of the season, and were well repaid for coming long distances, as it was undoubtedly the fastest, most exciting game in years.

The first period showed both teams practically on a par—Davenport, the Glencoe speed king was so closely watched and checked, that he had very few opportunities to make a complete getaway. "Hec" Cowan showed up like a star—all through the game with his sure check and spectacular rushes. "Hec" has certainly made himself very popular with Watford fans this winter.

Neither team made much getaway in the first round, each scoring two alternately and at the gong, score stood tied 2-2.

The second round was apparently the visitors', when they managed to slide three hit ones by "Tiny" before the locals had recovered their second wind. Odd spurts or rough playing on both sides marked the keen affection each team has for the other, and penalties were fairly evenly divided for the second round. Second period score 5-2, Watford failing to secure a tally.

"I HEAR YOU CALLING ME!" Davenport, the little Glencoe wonder, heard Reg Stone's gentle voice seven times during the evening!

In the third and last the locals went into the fight with renewed pep and strength and played cleaner hockey than in the previous rounds, while Glencoe, seeing the locals' score climbing, garnered in the penalties. Watford scored twice and came within an ace of tying several times before the final gong closed the game at 5-4.

Watford (4)—Rogers, goal; Cowan and Trenouth, defense; Bruce, center; Auld and Greer, wings; Dodds and Brown, substitutes.

Glencoe (5)—Quick, goal; Caldwell and Wall, defense; Davenport, center; Willis and Aldridge, wings; McLaughlin and McPherson, substitutes.

Referee—Reg. Stone, Ingersoll. "Soup" Irwin, the locals' right wing is up on the shelf with tonsillitis, so was unable to enjoy the feast. Greer played a good game in his place, and with "Curly" Auld, always the same!—on the other wing, held "Davy" and his crew fairly well in hand.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

THE HOME TEAM LOST Are We Downhearted? No!

This closes the O. H. A. series as far as Watford is concerned, although we still have a postponed game here with Strathroy, which will not make much difference as far as the district is concerned. All fans and players are now eagerly looking forward to the opening of the N. H. L. series in which both Watford and Glencoe are already entered. It is rumored that Sarnia may also enter yet in time. However, Glencoe is the big card, and everyone in this vicinity is all tuned up for the next game with Glencoe, when the locals will give them a little better game even than they served up on Tuesday evening. The N. H. L. schedule will be announced as soon as drawn up.

Just as we go to press, we learn that Glencoe has almost decided to drop out of the N. H. L. They do love playing Watford on their own new rink—but when they come over here—that's different. Oh, well, if we can't play with Glencoe again maybe Stratford will pay us another visit this year, like last.

Sarnia Swamped Alvinston 15-3.

Glencoe Plays in Sarnia Saturday Night. Return Game in Glencoe Monday.

Government Grant James Smith, chairman of the suburban road commission, submitted a report on the operations for 1921 which showed a total expenditure of $2,023.05. In commenting on the report, he pointed out that the commission had not received any of the 40 per cent government grant and suggested that some action be taken on that matter.

George A. McCubbin, representative of the county on the commission, also urged that the grant be returned to the commission. The act provided, he said, that the county pay 30 per cent, the city 30 per cent, and the province 40 per cent.

Reeve Miller of Moore also expressed the opinion that there should be some adjustment of the accounts.

John Cowan, K.C., and Thomas Simpson and James Smith, both ex-wardens of the county, addressed the council briefly, urging that an annuity be granted to Alex. Kelly who had served as superintendent of the house of refuge for 23 years. The request was referred to the finance committee.

GRAHAM—GRIFFITH

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, January 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Griffith, 10th line, Brooke, when their eldest daughter, Reuberta Mae, became the bride of Mr. James Russell Graham, a prosperous young farmer of the 4th concession, Ennis-killen, the Rev. A. McVicar, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

The bride, who entered the drawing room to the strains of the bridal chorus, played by Miss Velma Griffith, sister of the bride, was given in marriage by her father. She looked charming in a frock of Harding blue taffeta, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and carnations.

After the signing of the register the guests repaired to the diningroom which was daintily decorated in pink and white. The toast to the bride, given by Rev. A. McVicar, was ably responded to by the groom.

The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial check and to the pianist a pearl brooch. The many other costly and beautiful gifts to the bride testified to the high esteem in which she is held by her many friends.

The happy couple left amid showers of confetti and rice for Sarnia and Windsor. After a brief honeymoon they will reside on the groom's farm.

On the Wednesday evening, prior to the wedding, about 60 young friends of the bride gathered at her parents' home and surprised her with a miscellaneous shower.

THE FREE LIBRARY

Speaking of the free library in Acton the Free Press gives expression to views that are equally applicable to other places. It says "the free use of the library aids materially in completing the educational equipment of the young people and giving permanent value to the work of the schools. It gives the children of all classes an opportunity to know and love the best in literature, by minimizing the reading of vicious literature, in the community, thus promoting mental and moral betterment. It effects a real saving of money to every reader in the community. The library is the application of common sense to the problem of supply and demand. Through it every reader in town can secure at a minimum of cost hundreds of times the amount of good literature for reading and study as could afford to be purchased, individually. The library really adds to the material value of the property of the town, because of its privileges to all house-holders. Appealing as it does to all classes, sects and degrees of intelligence it is a strong unifying factor in the life of a town. The Public Library is the one thing which every town, however small or isolated, can have, and with it literature as inspiring as the greatest city can possess. It invariably raises the intellectual tone of the community. The Public Library is free to all."
