No. 5

A COSTLY SMALL BOOK.

At an auction sale in New York recently, among the books sold the one creating the most spirited bidding was an almanac for the year 1686, entitled "Kalendarium Pennsylvaniae; or, America's Messenger." This book contains twenty leaves, not paged and uncut, and this and another formerly possessed by George Brinley, of Hartford, are the only ones known to be in existence. It is especially valuable from the fact that it is the first work of the first printer of Philadelphia and New York, W. Bradford of the former city who, in an address printed in the book, says: "Hereby understand that after great charge and trouble I have brought the great art of printing into this part of America, believing it may be of great service to you in several respects." It was sold to Mr. Stone for $520. The other books disposed of include an almanac for 1705, another for 1693, which respectively brought $11 and $7; "Anecdotes of Distinguished Persons," $8; "The American Neptune," in three volumes, printed in 1781 for the use of the Royal Navy of Great Britain, under the direction of the R. H: Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, brought $90; the Holy Bible, with genealogies prefixed, printed in 1613 by Robert Barker, of London, bound in thick boards, with metal corners and centre, was purchased for $25.50. A copy of the original charter of Rhode Island College, now Brown's University, presented at the General Assembly in February, 1715, brought $20.54.

AN EVEN THING.

The other day two strangers were toasting their shins on opposite sides of a big stove in a ferry waiting room, and it was noticed that they often looked at each other as if almost certain that they had met before. Finally one of them got up and said:

"Stranger, I've seen a face almost like yours. Did you ever have a brother Bill?"

"Yes."

"Was he a sailor?"

"He was."

"Did you hear of him last about ten years ago?"

"Yes, just about ten years ago."

"Stranger," continued the first, seeming greatly affected. "I've sailed with your brother Bill. We were wrecked together on the Pacific, and before help came I had to kill and eat him! I knew you must be related. I'm awful sorry it was your brother, and though I was driven to it, and the law can't touch me, I'm willing to pay you damages. Be kinder fair with me, for Bill was old and tough. About how much do you think is fair?"

The other wiped a tear from his eye, spat across the stove and replied,

"Stranger where's your dad?"

"Been dead these twelve years."

"Died in Nevada, didn't he?"

"Yes, out there somewhere."

"Well, I killed him! I knew you were his son the minute I saw you. He and I were in a mine one day, and as we were going up in a bucket I saw that the old rope was going to break under the strain. When we were up about 200 feet, I picked up your old dad and dropped him over. It was bad on him, but it saved me. Now you ate my brother Bill, and I murdered your dad, and I guess we had better call it even and shake to see who pays for the drinks."

They shook, drank, and the old lake captains who could not tell a lie had to sit back and realize how sad it was that they were born with such tender consciences.—Detroit Free Press.

HOW TO START AN ECHO.

We cannot vouch for the truth of the following story, but an Austin gentleman said he was an eye-witness of the occurrence: He was on a steamboat on the Hudson river with a party of excursionists. The boat stopped at a place in the river where there is a wonderful echo. One of the gentlemen asked everybody in the crowd for a pistol with which to wake up the echoes. Nobody had any pistol, but a gentleman from Arkansas said that he had something that was a blame sight more reliable than a pistol, and pulling out of his boot a knife with a thirteen-inch blade, handed it over to the party who wanted to stir up the echoes.—Siftings.

ENGLISHTOWN, N. S., MAY & JUNE, 1883.

AN APOLOGY.

We owe our readers an apology for being so late this month. The reason was this, that a great number of advertisers were rather late in sending in their advts. for the special May edition and to accommodate them we delayed getting out our paper at the regular time. Then again through a slight misunderstanding we were delayed still further, and so to make up for lost time we date this number "May and June." This, however, will not be a loss to our subscribers, as they will receive 12 copies of the paper as paid for. You will also note that we have enlarged to double our former size. The ECHO will hereafter be issued regularly once a month in 8 paged form. You will also see that we have increased our subscription price to 25 cts. per annum.

To advertisers we will say that we give this number 3000 circulation as promised.

Hoping that our patronage will excuse

our tardiness this time, and assuring them that it will never happen again, we remain, YR EDITOR.

We want agents to canvass for the ECHO, to whom good premiums or cash commissions will be given. Write for premium list, terms etc.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

The August issue of "Cerebrations" in the "Household Journal" will contain 12 beautiful forms from the pen of "Tom. A. Hawk." Any one can obtain a copy of this issue by addressing its editor, Carl Mora, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, Pa. The subscription rates of the "Journal" are greatly reduced to puzzlers. "Cerebrations"; one of the best departments extant, occupies 3 columns. Send for a copy.

Read R. H. Mumford's advt. on last page. His "Monthly" is a splendid paper for Word Hunters.

Mr. C. W. Robie, who advertises autographs and coins in this issue, is perfectly reliable.

See Geo. F. Rowe & Co.'s advt. in this issue. You need not be afraid to trust them as they are trustworthy in every respect.

Advertisers, if you doubt that the ECHO will pay you, read the following and be convinced:—

LOCKPORT, N. Y.

April 24, 1883.

JAS. C. McLEAN,

Dear Sir,—

* * * * *

I have advertised for ten years or more and never received as many letters in return for an "ad" as I have had from your paper for same space of time. I CONSIDER IT A VERY VALUABLE ADVERTISING MEDIUM FOR STAMP AND COIN DEALERS.

Yours truly,

G. T. McCOMBE.

OUR WORD HUNT.

To the persons forming the largest lists of words from the word

FACTORY,

we will give the following prizes :—

1st, "The Mysterious Island," by Jules Verne, cloth bound. 2nd, The American Diamond Dictionary, price 50c. 3rd, Six Month Subscription to "Farm, Field and Fireside," worth 50c. 4th, "Tom Cringle's Log," price 25c. 5th, "Auld Lang Syne," by W. Clark Russell. To the next 5, 50 nice cards with name on.

CONDITIONS.

Only words found in Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, latest edition, without the Supplement, to be used.

All lists must be arranged in alphabetical order and be numbered. No proper names, abbreviations, contractions, prefixes, suffixes, or obsolete words are to be used. No letter to be used twice in the formation of a word. Competitors must be subscribers to the ECHO; subscriptions may be sent in with the lists, however.

All lists must be in by ~~July~~ 30th. Names of prize-winners will appear in the August number.

The prizes offered in the April number on the word "Umbrageous" were awarded as follows :

	words.
1st, C. A. Kizer, Lawrenceville, Ohio,	331
2nd, Frank P. Lynn, Freeport, Ill.,	307
3rd, Sherman Grime, Wind Ridge, Pa.,	306
4th, E. J. Garrison, Lineville, Ala.,	298
5th, A. Martin Vail, Auburn, N.Y.,	239
6th, Hattie A. Boggs, S. Hol., Me.,	225
7th, E. F. Smith, Halifax, N.S.,	183
8th, Lawson Silby, Polly Bog, N.S.,	147
9th, E. E. Gosher, Brandon, Vt.,	142
10th, H. C. Hornbrook, Marinette, Wis.,	116

We do not give the result of the contest on "Mineral" but will do so in our next. About prizes : Any person who has won a prize in any of our Word Hunts and has not received it will please write us, giving full particulars, and we will investigate.

Now, we want every one to go to work and make up a list on "Factory" and send in as soon as possible. We would also call the attention of our readers to the Scripture Word Hunt with $10 in gold prizes as advertised below. Address your lists to

WORD HUNT,

MONTHLY ECHO.

Englishtown, Victoria Co., N.S.

GRAND PRIZE

SCRIPTURE COMPETITION.

We will give 4 prizes of $2.50 each to the 4 first persons telling us the correct number of times the word occurs in the 4 first books of the New Testament Scripture, namely, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. All competitors must enclose 10 cents as entrance fee. Copy of paper containing names of prize winners mailed to all competitors.

KINGDOM

NOTE—Headings of the Chapters do not count. The word "Kingdoms" and "Kingdom's" do not count. Nothing but the word KINGDOM to be taken.

We got out 300 circulars advertising the above prize competition and also advertised it in several papers; but up to the present time we have received answers from only 8 competitors and of these only two gave the correct answer. We had mentioned the date of the close of the competition as July 1st in our circulars and advertisement. We now take the liberty of extending the time to Aug. 25, thus giving every one ample time to compete. In thus extending the time, we do no injustice to any one as only two of the prizes are won as yet.

In fact, we are only doing justice to ourselves, as 80 cts. is rather a small amount to receive from an outlay of $20. We want every one to compete in this word hunt. All that is required in a word hunt of this kind is to be careful not to skip the word when looking through the pages of the Testament.

Now, we ask you again, one and all, to compete and be sure and enclose 10 cts. when sending in your result. Address,

JAS. C. McLEAN,
Englishtown, Victoria Co., N.S.

There seems to be no call for an exhibition of grief at a circus. Yet the audience is always in tiers.

COIN AND STAMP DEPARTMENT.

We wish to purchase at all times stamps of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, P. E. Island Newfoundland, and Old Issues of Canadian stamps. Highest cash prices paid. This Office.

NEW ISSUES.

Ceylon.—Two provisionals have appeared, being the current 24 and 64 cent stamps surcharged with 16 and 20 across the top and cents on the bottom of the Stamp.

France.—A new Envelope, green on green paper—Value 5 centimes.

Nauritius.—We have seen the 17 cent stamp surcharged 16 cents.

Labuan.—A forty cent stamp, orange.

New Caledonia.—The 75 centimes has been surcharged 25 centimes.

Peru.—A new provisional, value 25 cents has appeared, color, carmine.

United States.—The design for the new two-cent postage stamp will be as follows:—A medallion of Washington in a pannel and half round the top, the words United States Postage at the lower portion of the stamp are the words "Two cents" divided by the figure "2." The design is conspicuous for its plainness and neatness and there is an absence of any decoration not in keeping with the subject.—Philatelic News.

NOTES.

The new 5-cent piece now has some cents to it.—News.

When you answer advertisements in this issue mention the MONTHLY ECHO.

The first Philatelic paper appeared in 1864. The first collector arose 3 years before that date.

We want good contributions on all subjects relating to Philately. Good prices paid. The finest and most valuable stamp collection in this country numbers 10,105 specimens including 460 essays and proofs and 107 revenue stamps. It is owned by J. K. Tiffany, a St Louis attorney—O. C. S.

We have some splendid specimens of Kyrolite from Greenland, which we would like to dispose of. We will send a first class specimen to any collector of minerals on receipt of 25 cts. Send along your orders.

We have also some splendid specimens of N. S. and Nfld. stamps to dispose of. If you need any write us.

POSTAGE STAMP COLLECTING.

BY B. W.

If stamp collecting had been introduced by a schoolmaster as a "Royal road" to acquiring a knowledge of history, geography, national statistics, etc, he certainly would have been considered a clever person and would have received the thanks of many parents for his ingenuity, and the success which attended his labors.

When stamp collecting was a new thing, it was thoroughly ridiculed by non collectors. I will however in this short article endeavour to lay before the reader some of the reasons which render stamp collecting not only an amusing but an instructive pursuit. The first thing which it teaches is I think a knowledge of Geography; for instance, 9 collectors out of 10 will tell you where Tolima, Alwur, or Labuan are situated but I very much question if 1 out of 10 non collectors could tell you.

Then I will take History; turning over the pages of an album. I come to Portugal. I see that the first stamps were issued in 1853 and bear the head of Donna Maria II, but in 1855 it has changed and in its stead is that of King Pedro I, then in 1862 that of King Louis I and so on—Then again take the stamps of England and its Colonies; they all have the Queen's effigy, and a collector knows at a glance that, Heliogoland, Hong Kong, St. Vincent, Canada, New Zealand etc., are British possessions for the simple reason that the stamps of these countries have the Queen's head on them—even to a non-collector it must be of interest to see how the various issues of some countries faithfully reproduce the various changes of Government, &c.

France and Spain are perhaps two of the most interesting.

France shows us, on her stamps first, the Republic of 1848, then, Napoleon III as president of that republic, then, as Emperor, then, after the French victories his assumption of Cassanian laurels, then after the German war, another republic.

Spain shows Queen Isabella, then a Republic, then the short reign of King Amadeus, then Alphonso, besides the stamps which show the Carlist troubles, etc.

Of course it is impossible in a short article like this to do more than glance here and there.

It may also be mentioned that stamp-collecting teaches a knowledge of the coinage of each country, also of the various methods of printing, engraving, &c.
