Specials.

Next Lord's Day. The Pastor will preach in the morning, and Rev. E. E. Gates in the evening. At the close of evening sermon the Lord's Supper will be dispensed.

Jubilee Souvenir. This brief history of our church was, by resolution, reduced to 5c. per copy. Bro. A. C. Layton should soon report a large number sold.

Death. Brother John Charles Boutlier, after weeks of suffering, passed to his reward on Sunday morning last, August 21st. His desire was "to be with Christ, which is far better." He united with us some 16 years ago, and lived a very exemplary life, kind and of few words. He loved the church, and his seat in the house of God was seldom vacant. "Gathering home, yes, one by one." We deeply sympathize with the bereaved family.

Organ Committee will meet in the parlor Monday evening at 8 o'clock. "The Busy Bees" will also meet to complete programme. The Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet at Mrs. Dumaresq's to consider plans. On Monday evening last the committee considered several specifications and other details in connection with the pipe organ, and the order was placed with Messrs. Casavant Bros., St. Hyacinth, and will be in position about the last of November.

"The Busy Bees"—who are they? Miss Annie Damaresq, chairman; Miss Flossie Keirstead, secretary; Miss Amy Witter, treasurer, with a number of other young ladies, at work for the organ fund. They invite you to the garden party at Mr. W. B. Freeman's grounds, Willow Park, on Tuesday evening, 30th inst., at 8 o'clock. Bring your purse sure. See programme.

Convention Echoes. The Maritime Baptist Convention was very largely attended. The following statistics should prompt us to greater earnestness: There are 8 Baptist Associations, 409 churches, 50,468 members. Number of Baptism during the year, 1,677, or 677 less than last year.

The W. B. M. U. held a successful session in Truro last week. $7,500 was appropriated to Foreign Missions and $2,000 for Home Missions.

Arthur Crawley Layton is Superintendent of the School and Assistant Clerk of the Church. A native of Colchester, he made this city his home and attended the Services of this church. He was converted and was baptized by Pastor Manning. Shortly thereafter he was elected Deacon and served the office faithfully. He moved to New England in 1892, and returned to us in 1896, from the church in Malden. A good speaker, noted for mildness and brevity, a singer always ready to praise the Lord, he stands well as an all-round member. He did not forget us when in U. S., and he now remembers the good ways of the Malden disciples. He is business partner of Deacon Bentley.
