REVOLT, FAMINE AND ANARCHY HOLD GERMANY IN THEIR GRIP

Revolution is Spreading Fast and City After City Has Joined the Rebels—Fleet Has Hoisted the Red Flag—Kaiser and Crown Prince Fugitives to Holland

ARMISTICE COURIER DELAYED BY GERMAN BATTERIES FIRE

Airplane Was Ready to Convey Emissary, But at Last Order Came to Stop Firing and He Started.

London, Nov. 10.—The German courier, bearing the text of the armistice conditions, arrived at German headquarters at 10 o'clock this morning, according to the official announcement from Paris. The courier, Capt. Heildorf, was long delayed while the German batteries persisted in bombarding the route he had to follow.

VESSELS FLYING THE RED FLAG

Six More Cruisers Have Arrived at Hamburg, and Guard Ships Revolt.

Copenhagen, Nov. 10.—Six more cruisers flying the red flag arrived at Hamburg last night, says a Wolff News Agency despatch received here. The City of Hamburg generally is quiet.

Washington Believes Foch Will Still Accept Envoys' Signatures and May Delay a Few Hours.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Red revolution in Germany upon the heels of the abdication and flight of the kaiser apparently is accomplishing the unexpected by throwing the country into the hands of a workmen's and soldiers' regime without impairing the credentials of the armistice envoys waiting within the allied lines.

REVOLUTION SPREADING FAST TO ALL CENTRES OF GERMANY

Dreadnoughts Join

Copenhagen, Nov. 10.—The crews of the German dreadnoughts Posen, Ostfriesland, Nassau and Oldenburg, in Kiel harbor, have joined the revolution. Marines occupied the lock gates at Ostmoor and fought down a coast artillery division which offered resistance.

In Most Places It is Being Achieved Without Serious Disorders—Bitter Conflict at Kiel—Organizing Food Supplies First Efforts of Workmen's and Soldiers' Committees.

London, Nov. 10.—According to despatches from Amsterdam and Copenhagen, the revolution in Germany is extending rapidly, but in most places the desired effect is being achieved without violence or serious disorders.

On Saturday morning the German delegates suggested that the courier's mission might be attempted by airplane. The French high command saw no objection to this, and offered to furnish a machine on condition that the German high command pledge itself that the airplane would not be fired at. A radio message was sent to German headquarters, which was replied to without delay, as follows: "We grant free passage to the French airplane bringing our courier. We are issuing orders that it shall not be attacked by any of our machines. For the purpose of recognition it should carry two white flags very clearly marked."

ANOTHER ATTEMPT MADE ON PRINCE HENRY'S LIFE

Copenhagen, Nov. 10.—Another attempt on the life of Prince Henry of Prussia has been made at Flensburg where he was in seclusion in a villa. The result of the attempt is not known but it is believed that he escaped.

May Grant a Few Hours.

Such a request might be made by wireless if it appeared impossible for the courier to get back thru the lines on time. If granted, it is believed, the additional hours would be few, and would be given with warning that

COME ACROSS

Delays in cable transmission may make it late in the morning tomorrow before it is known here that the time fixed has passed without the signing of the armistice. It is expected, however, that the kaiser will be without any information to indicate what may be expected.

Abolish All German Dynasties.

Amsterdam, Nov. 10.—Among the latest towns to come under the control of the workmen's and soldiers' councils are Aix-la-Chapelle, Cassel, Nuremberg, Mannheim, Gladbach and Muenster. A general strike has been proclaimed at Nuremberg and Mannheim.

Red Flag Hoisted Everywhere.

Geneva, Nov. 10.—Reports received from Germany describe the revolution as continuing quietly in the principal towns and ports, which are now ruled by the soviet, consisting of workmen, soldiers and sailors. The red flag has been hoisted everywhere, even above the Cologne Cathedral.

Count von Reventlow

London, Nov. 10.—Count von Reventlow, whose pan-German writings have appeared during the war in The Tages Zeitung of Berlin, has fled to Denmark. He declared to a correspondent that the situation would be much worse in Germany when the soldiers returned from the front. General anarchy could be expected.

WORKING GIRL SHOWS SPIRIT

An eighteen-year-old girl working in an office downtown told a canvasser that with her present salary she could not buy a $50 bond and support herself, but she said that she would take one and get night work to do until the bond was paid for. The canvasser told the president of the company, who raised her $2 a week, and so the girl will not have to work at night.

WILL YOU HELP?

Five hundred wounded and convalescent soldiers will take part in the big parade today if they can get there. Motors are required to convey these heroes, and military headquarters are asking that those who are willing to lend their cars for this purpose will phone College St. or College St., where they will receive instructions what hospital to call at to bring the men to the starting point on Monday at 2 p.m.

BEGGAR INDEED!

Canvasser Told There Were No Eats to Be Had.

"Go on away from my door," called a little woman from a window to a canvasser who was knocking at her door. "I haven't got anything for you to eat, and what's more I don't believe in begging," and she banged her window before the poor canvasser was able to tell her that he was no beggar but a salesman for Victory bonds.

ANOTHER BIG ONE.

The Bank of Montreal has received an application from the New York Life Insurance Company for $2,000,000 in subscriptions for the Victory Loan, $75,000 of which is represented by conversions of previous loans.

THE NEWS OF THE GERMAN REVOLUTION

Given to the Toronto Public in a Sunday Extra by The World.

The surprising war news of Sunday, that came to Toronto, was not about the armistice, but about the revolution that had broken out in Germany. And this news was so important, so far-reaching, that The World put out a special edition amplified through the day by the various bulletins as they came along. This edition was eagerly read by the public.

THE REAL SPIRIT!

Twenty-five girls getting only $6 a week in a factory up town each bought a $50 bond. "This is the real patriotic spirit," remarked the canvasser who had visited the factory.

THE CASTING OUT OF THE DYNASTIES.

Saturday and Sunday were big with events concerning the abdication of the crowned heads of Europe. Emperor William abdicated on Saturday, and the crown prince renounced his rights to the succession; on Sunday William Hohenzollern arrived in Holland, a fugitive. He had apparently dissolved the divine partnership that he had formerly claimed.

WAR SUMMARY

The Day's Events Reviewed

The revolution in Germany has, perhaps, assumed an early cessation of hostilities. But, as President Wilson has hinted at Berlin, terms for Germany if the Hohenzollerns were overthrown and if the Germans took the government into their own hands, the new German administration may attempt to secure a reduction of the allied terms. Hostilities, therefore, may not end as soon as many people expect. The allied war council at Versailles may consent to take up the question of conditions again. The allied, however, set a precedent at the time when they disregarded the so-called revolution in Austria-Hungary and enforced strict military terms. The French Government had a forwarding of the present events in Germany a month ago, and it then issued a declaration that France would hold the German people responsible for the beginning and reckless warring of war, as well as the Kaiser and the military clique. The revolution, therefore, should make no difference in the allied terms of peace, any more than the French revolution of 1871 made a difference in the terms of peace. The allies could keep quiet, or, conceivably, Germany, and they could exact their indemnity by seizing the German coal mines and collecting the customs duties at German ports.

The revolution steadily extended through Germany. The Social Democrats, having proclaimed a people's republic, and before abdication and departing for Holland the Kaiser signed the decree authorizing the political changes. With the Kaiser have gone the ex-crown prince, and, it is said, Von Hindenburg and staff officers, a point about the change in government that it took place without bloodshed. In some ways the change in the beginning resembles the change in Russia. The czar abdicated, but could not escape. The Kaiser abdicated, but has escaped. As he and Von Hindenburg figure among the chief criminals sought by the allies for punishment, the allied governments will probably compel Hindenburg to intern them, and later hand them over for trial. The chief point about the progress of the German revolution is the rise of workmen and soldiers' councils. These are Bolsheviks. If they gain the ascendancy, they will upset Germany from top to bottom.

Germany has been a highly organized state. In order to keep the organization running, the government had to employ a multitude of officials and to enforce its commands with the harshest of laws even during times of peace. Contrary to popular belief, there is no German people, but a congeries of German tribes within the boundaries of the empire.

HAMILTON

HAMILTON CHEERS THE WAR PARADE

Nearly 10,000 Marched to the Music of 16 Bands.

KAISER IN EFFIGY

Floats of Every Kind and Tractors Driven by Farmerettes in Procession.

Hamilton, Nov. 10.—For nearly two hours Saturday afternoon, Hamiltonians cheered and admired the largest parade ever held here. It was intended as a Victory Loan boom, but turned out to be a striking and realistic demonstration of the industrial strength of this city. Nearly ten thousand people walked to the music of sixteen bands. Fifty-three concerns were represented as well as thousands of motorists and thousands who joined in to swell the ranks and cheer for the Victory Loan.

John Bull and Uncle Sam, both mounted, led the parade and were followed by the battleship Victory of the Dominion Steel Foundry which, from its huge gun volleyed flags of the allies. Floats of every description and depicting many instances of the war were prominent. The sinking of the Llandovery Castle was brought to memory again by the Steers Company of Canada; a tank of water from which the bow of the unfortunate ship showed, drawing hisses from the crowds. Grim submarines, death dealing tanks, airplanes and guns, all decorated with frank remarks to the Hunns and handled by veterans, drew the attention of the parade. A German kultur was illustrated by a cage containing a huge snake about to shoot its fangs into a baby, while those unparoled enough to refuse to purchase bonds had their attention drawn to a load of hops, marked "these are the only ones don't want the bacon, it's the Rhine we want."

Kaiser in the Parade.

William, once emperor of Germany, was the most unpopular feature of the afternoon. He was present in effigy, however, and was strung up, pierced by a bayonet in the hands of a veteran, dragged by the Steers company, a tank, brought to the bar of justice, shown on the brink of his grave, crucified, and finally thrown into a huge hole. The latter place was a huge pot containing Bill and his friend, and marked "Potdam pals, Bill and the Devil."

Tractors, giving evidence of terrific strength but daintily handled by farmerettes, hauled farm implements and cheering gangs of pretty land workers. Products of the farm followed loads of bright shells and girl munition workers, whose banner read, "We work at the bench while they fight in the trench. Stand full of bills and silver were thrown into a huge flag of the allies, which was carried by men who had "done their bit."

One of the floats was a "where do we go from here?" and the crowd answered "Berlin." On a banner carried by the Canadian Westinghouse was the proud record: "747 in service, 38 dead."

Many Touches of Humor.

There were many touches of humor, especially a group of odd-looking youths, who waved a banner reading, "We split our last unit today on Victory bonds," while what the war meant to many homes was shown in a float, entitled "Fill the empty chair." A gray-haired mother and father wistfully watched the chair of the "boy who was over there." Another beautiful float, "The greatest mother in the world," was contributed by the International Harvester Company. Clowns, rube bands, street comedians, court jesters, and harlequins added merriment and laughter, while from the roofs of buildings rolls of brightly-colored paper shot down, all adding zest and fun to the biggest and best parade ever held here.

Perjury Admitted By Murder Witness

Claim for New Trial Based Upon That Settlement

FRANCESCO SENTENCED Goes to Jail for Fifteen Years on Manslaughter Charge.

That Gertrude Dyson, witness for the crown against Giovanni di Francesco, convicted of the murder of Dominic Zingari at 44 Henderson avenue on March 29, was influenced by fear of Black Hand threats from stating in evidence that Zingari had struck a knife with intent to kill, and Gertrude Dyson had therefore perjured herself at the recent trial of Francesco, was the startling statement made on Saturday when Francesco was brought before Mr. Justice Riddell for sentence at the general sessions. C. Robbette appeared for a new trial. His lordship refused to grant the appeal, and advised Mr. Robbette to appeal to the minister of justice in the matter. However, a reserved case was granted. The prisoner was sentenced to 15 years in Kingston Penitentiary.

WOMEN'S MUSICAL CLUB. Special open meeting Monday afternoon, Nov. 11, 3 o'clock, Masonic Hall, Artist: Ernest Hutchinson, celebrated Australian pianist.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips. The British Government exhibition of artists, inaugurated by her foremost efforts, depicting "Britain's Efforts and Ideals in the Great War," was opened at the galleries of the Art Museum on Saturday afternoon; also the Ontario Society of Artists opened their exhibition of small pictures by members of the association, when a great many people called themselves of the invitation to see the pictures.

The meeting of the Toronto Hunt Club had to be postponed on Saturday owing to the heavy going of the week. Della Davies' buffet luncheon at Chester Park was a great success. It was served in the large living room from a table very smartly arranged with yellow chrysanthemums and yellow and blue ribbons. The pretty little hostess wore a frock of brown silk and georgette, crepe. Mrs. Wilfred Davies, who is staying with Mrs. Davies, was in dark blue silk and crepe, trimmed with fur.

Ernest Hutchinson, the Australian pianist, arrived in town on Sunday to play at the opening meeting of the Women's Musical Club, and is staying at the King Edward. Mr. Hutchinson will play for the soldiers in Convocation Hall this morning.

Y. Stefansson arrived in town last night, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tyrrell, Walmer Road. Mrs. Dignan has returned from Barrie. Mrs. Heston is leaving for New York and Atlantic City this afternoon.

Mrs. Hartley Dewar has returned to town from Brookdale Farm, where she has spent the summer. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. McEachern are moving into Mrs. Proctor's flat at the Madison this week.

Mrs. W. J. McWhinney gave a little party on Saturday night for Miss Gweneth McWhinney and her young friends. Mrs. George H. Hees is the guest of Mrs. Merton, Hamilton, who gave a tea for her on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Hees is leaving that night for New York, where she will make her home.

The Lord Nelson Chapter, L.O.D.E., will have a flower shop on Saturday to buy comforts for the troops in Siberia. Mrs. Rea has most generously offered the flowers from her conservatories to stock the shop.

At the annual meeting of the Welsman Studio Club, the secretary-treasurer reported a satisfactory season's work. One very special item of interest was a donation from a pupils' recital of over $100 to the Prisoners of War Bread Fund. The officers elected for the coming year were: Hon. president, Mrs. Albert E. Robertson; president, Miss Muriel Robertson; vice-president, Mrs. P. E. Gribble; secretary-treasurer, Miss Lillian Wilkes; convener of program committee, Miss Edith Buckley; convener of Red Cross committee, Mrs. Walter Campbell; convener of refreshment committee, Mrs. J. M. Livingston.

PLAYS PICTURES AND MUSIC.

"Oh, Lady! Lady!" Once again F. Ray Comstock and William Elliott will offer for the approval of local playgoers a Princess Theatre production, beginning tonight, at the Royal Alexandra, Messrs. Comstock and Elliott will present "Oh, Lady! Lady!" the fifth New York Princess Theatre musical comedy success, and it is considered by far the best of all Princess Theatre offerings which this city has seen, including "Nobody Home," "Very Good, Eddie" and "Oh, Boy!"

Heading the capable cast of players are Doris Freilo, Beth Franklin, Grace Daniels, May Ellis, Harry Paul, Billy Gaston, Eugene MacGregor, Clyde Crawford and Sydney Stone. Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

"Cinderella" Remains at Grand. It is a long time since the theatregoers of Toronto have been offered such a delightful entertainment as that given by F. Stuart-Whyte's English company in the grand style of pantomime, now being presented at the Grand Opera House. It is founded on the fantasy of fairyland, "Cinderella." It is to remain another week. Saturday evening the members of the company sprang a surprise on the Victory Loan canvassers, inserting a special number to boost the campaign, and making a personal appeal. Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

Commencing with a matinee this afternoon, Shea's Theatre presents an all-star bill, headed by Mile Nitta-Jo, one of France's popular character singers. Rita Mario and her orchestra is to be heard for the first time. Herbert Clifton is giving several of his character impersonations, including McKay and Otis Ardene are old favorites. Johnny Burke in a new edition of "A Ragtime Soldier," Collins and Casper in "The Hotel Turn Over," and other features will be presented.

Loew's Theatre. A tense dramatic photodrama of Metropolitan life, "Her Only Way," featuring Norma Talmadge, at Loew's Theatre and Winter Garden this week. In contrast, Rose and Eddie will admirably and skilfully worked out with her usual dramatic force. "The Telephone Tangle" featuring Joe Bennett and Edna Moran will head the vaudeville, which includes Leonora Simonson, Francis and Wilson, Kemp and Rollison, "Who is He?," a study in contrast, and Rose and Eddie, the Victory Loan picture presents Wm. S. Hart in "A Bullet for Berlin."

The Hippodrome. Her father in the clutches of an adventuresome, Rose Hardy, daughter of a wealthy rancher, is helpless, without friends and in penury but for the rough cowboys of her father's ranges. The film is "The Border Raiders." It is at the Hippodrome, featuring George Larkin and Bessie Compton, "The Game of Chance," Coyde and Trickey, Carson and Willard, Bell and Dell and Strok and Link, vocalists, conclude the bill.

Al Reeves at Gayety. The Gayety Theatre will have as its attraction this week Al Reeves and his big beauty show, one of the prize winning attractions of the current season on the Columbia Amusement Company's circuit of theatres. The Reeves show this season is one of the very best organizations that he has had in his entire 27 years as a producer and manager of his own burlesque attractions.

Mile a Minute Girls. Everywhere it has played thus far this season, "The Mile a Minute Girls," the attraction at the Star Theatre this week, has scored a big success. With a strong cast of comedians and players and a chorus of almost bewitching beauty, the two-act vehicle, "Whining Around" fairly makes one dizzy. No show in this season's burlesque can claim scenic and costume lavishness to equal that of this production. The fun reaches its greatest heights in the novel beach scene, in the health farm scene and in the big roller skating number.

"The Hun Within" at Allen. A finer patriotic drama than "The Hun Within," the new special Paramount Artcraft production which will be shown at the Allen Theatre this week, would be hard to find. It is a delightful love story. Dorothy Gish and George Fawcett have the leading roles. Herman Wagner, a loyal German-American, sends his son Karl to a German university. A pretty American girl, Beth, who is a ward in the Wagner home, is in love with Karl. Karl returns from Berlin at the outbreak of the war with pro-German views, and plots against the United States. But his designs are frustrated thru the efforts of Frank Douglas and Beth.

Keenan at the Regent. One of the finest dramatic gems of the season is the feature attraction at the Regent Theatre this week. Frank Keenan, possibly the greatest character actor of the day, stars as Mathias in the play made famous by Sir Henry Irving, "The Bells." Charles Chaplin is here with his Victory Loan appeal. Harold Lloyd has a bright comedy, Frank Bessenger, one of the sweetest singers Toronto has ever heard, will sing songs that are sure to make a decided hit.

Allen. Nobody should miss seeing "Crashing Thru to Berlin," the great pictorial history of the war in seven acts and will speak for the Victory Loan presented at the Madison Theatre today, tomorrow and Wednesday. It is comprehensive and complete—the mightiest of all spectacles.

Hear Stefansson Tonight. Tonight in Massey Hall Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the famous Canadian explorer, will speak for the first time since his return from the Arctic regions and tell the story of his five years in the hitherto unknown north. Official recognition will be given him by Hon. W. D. McPherson, provincial secretary, chairman, while at noon he will be tendered a civic reception and will speak for the Victory Loan in front of the city hall. At 1 o'clock he will be the guest of honor at the Empire Club. His narrative tonight will be a new chapter in Canadian affairs, and one of the most interesting events in the city's history. A number of rush seats will be placed on sale at 7.15.

Galli-Curci Sale Today. The sale of seats for the vocal recital on Wednesday by Mme. Galli-Curci opens this morning at Massey Hall.

Boy Scouts Victory Loan Parade Today. Boy Scouts will assemble on Christopher Street east of University Avenue, at 1.15 p.m. Full uniform, with staffs. District of Toronto Boy Scouts' Association.

Ontario Temperance Act. Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the Board of License Commissioners for Ontario will be held on Tuesday, November 12th, at the hour of seven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of the balance of the license year 1918-19, for the premises situated at 110 and 112 Church Street in the said City of Toronto, in the room and stead of James S. Gilze.

All persons interested will govern themselves accordingly. E. H. LEWIS, License Inspector for Toronto. Dated at Toronto this 11th day of November, 1918.

Hall box office. All indications point to a tremendous audience, and it would be well to secure seats early.

"Experience" Returns. The management of the Royal Alexandra Theatre announce the return of "Experience" on Nov. 18 for the entire week.

"Mutt and Jeff" Coming. Mutt and Jeff, the two funny fellows in "The Woolly West" will be at the Grand Opera House the week of Nov. 18.

PETITION FOR CLEAN BREAD

THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL, City Hall, Toronto

WE, the undersigned, request you to pass a By-Law at once to compel the wrapping of all bread, so as to protect it from the dust and dirt of the City and the contamination of human hands.

Respectfully,

NAME _____ STREET ADDRESS _____ TORONTO

(Cut out, Sign, and address to the Mayor and City Council, City Hall, Toronto.—Put 2c. Stamp on Envelope.)

Every Man and Every Woman who wants to eat Clean Bread should sign the above and mail without delay.

Dr. Hastings Says That Unwrapped Bread is the Filthiest Article of Diet We Have

UNWRAPPED BREAD IS A MENACE

The bread as now delivered is a disgrace to Canada. Unwrapped bread is the greatest carrier of the germs of influenza, consumption and other contagious infectious diseases that we have to contend with.

Application was made to Ottawa about the matter, and the Food Board replied that the wrapping of bread was purely a municipal matter, and in Toronto if the bread was not wrapped before delivery it was the fault of the municipal authorities.

There are no politics in this bread matter, it is a question of life and death, and any Council which does not do its part to keep the main staple of life, viz., bread, clean and wholesome, is no friend of the people. Dirty bread, and all unwrapped bread is naturally dirty, means disease and perhaps death, especially during the present deadly epidemic. Until bread is wrapped before delivery, it is not safe to eat the crust of any loaf unless it is put into a hot oven for at least five minutes, or cut off the loaf and put into boiling water, when it can be used with milk. Don't eat the crust as you get it from the bakers, it is better to cut it off the loaf and burn it. This is cheaper than to get disease germs into the mouth.
