F. S. Spence was seen by The World last night at 8 o'clock. He was found in his private room surrounded by half a dozen what wilted, but his volce did not beinzy it, as he grasped his hat and prepared to go out to get the latest news. "Friends," said F. S., "I will say a few words before I go out. I will be back stortly and will have something more to say. But we have put the question of pro- hibition into the political issues of the day. We will get a majority in its favor, and we will be able hereafter to flaunt this fact in the face of the Government." Some one suggested, "Three cheers for Mr. Spence," but the cheers were never rised, they died as a suggestion. Down the winding stairs of the Con- federation Building went Mr. Spence. Half way down, he met Dr. Fisher, who was not so joyous as Mr. Spence. The Doctors said: "Quebec fives 12,000 against." Mr. Spence winced. FRIDAY MORNING

THE TORONTO WORLD

The First Thing a Man Needs in the Autumn is A Top Coat.

His suit may be warm enoughduring these bright, fine days, but during the early morning and late evenings a Top Coat is a necessity.

In no other garment is style so essential and the lack of it so apparent as in a Top Coat. Those of our stock which we ell at 8.50, 10.00, 12.00, 14.00 and 16.00 we warrant equal to first grade tailor's made-to-order garments at double or more than double our prices. Get cloth samples from your tailor, we will fit you with Top Coat of identical fabrics without any complicated measurement or delay and but one "try on." We don't make to order but we make to fit.

> Oak Hall, Toronto's Largest Clothing House, 115 to 121 King St. E. Opp. St. James' Cathedral.

Col. Joseph M. Bennett Dies of Bright's Disease. Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—Col. Joseph M. Bennett, a philanthropist, died this morning at his home in this city of Bright's disease, aged 52 years. Col. Bennett began his work of philan-thropy in 1880, when he donated 40 acros, in what is now a section of Fairmont Park, valued at $400,000, for the greetion of the Methodist Orphanage, and afterwards con-tributed largely to its support. He also donated valuable properties to the Univer-sity of Pennsylvania, the Desr and Dumb Institute and the Methodist Dereconesses. His property is said to be worth $3,000,000, and it is estimated that Col. Bennett's charity amounted to $1,000,000.

Step-Commissioners Over Anxtous to Conclude the Treaty. Quebec, Sept. 29.-(Special.)-It is reported here that the conference will shortly adjourn to meet in Weshington. The reason for the adjournment to Washington is to enable the conference to be in close touch with the Senate of the United States, which has to be consulted at every step, so their consent is necessary before any treaty can be ratified. It is for this reason that be ratified. It is for this reason that the business will have to be done in the United States. It is reported that the Canadian commissioners are over-anxious to conclude a reciprocity treaty, and it is feared as a result that they may con-sent to arrangements which their own judgment would not approve of. The Government is no doubt anxious to ac-complish something in this line, and it is thought that it may go beyond what it otherwise would do, in order to get a reciprocity treaty of some kind.
