SHOCKING AFFAIR; VICTIM'S HEAD

Miss Lillian Fraser Was Thrown from Train at Vanceboro

BROUGHT TO THE CITY

One Leg Cut Off and the Other Injured - She Also Sustained Internal Injuries and Was Much Cut-Died in the Hospital.

Miss Lillian Fraser, of North Port, near Amherst, N. S., was brought to the city today on the Atlantic express, in what is believed to be a dying condition, resulting from an accident at Vanceboro this morning.

Miss Fraser was on her way to her home from Boston, having left there on the train last evening. While the Montreal and Boston trains were being made up into one at Vanceboro Miss Fraser, who was standing on the end of the Pullman car, was thrown off in some manner and had one leg cut off and the other severely injured as well as receiving serious injuries to her head and internal injuries as well.

Word of the unfortunate affair was telegraphed to the C. P. R. offices here and Supt. Downie had the ambulance at the depot on the arrival of the train, and the injured woman was taken immediately to the public hospital.

Dr. Young of Vanceboro accompanied the stricken woman and did everything in his power to help her, but it was thought she could live to reach here. However life was not extant when the train arrived, and the baggage car in which she had been made comfortable on a cot, was shunted onto the south track near one of the side doors and the cot with its unaccountable broken up and conveyed as quickly as possible to the hospital. Dr. Young accompanied her to the depot at the instance of Supt. Downie, and after making a brief examination he reported that the woman would not live more than a few hours at most.

One of the passengers who was in the baggage car with the unfortunate woman, had gone out to the end of the car presumably to get the fresh air. The train was then divided previous to making up the combined Boston and Montreal train which is effected at Vanceboro. When the other cars were added there was, as usual when a connection is made, a sudden jolt which caused Miss Fraser to fall off of the car onto the track. She fell beneath the wheels of the slowly moving car and was dragged about the length of a car before the train was stopped and she was extricated at that point. She fell beneath the wheels of the slowly moving car and was dragged about the length of a car before the train was stopped and she was extricated at that point.

It was at once seen that a serious accident had occurred and a cot was hastily procured and she was carried to the baggage car, where there was more room for her to be properly looked after. Dr. Young of Vanceboro was summoned and accompanied her to the city, though he could do little for her as her injuries are such that it is not considered possible for her to live.

Her age is thought to be about 35 or 40 years. When taken from under the car her face was covered with blood and she presented such a ghastly sight that many had to turn away. It was about ten minutes to eight when the accident occurred.

Superintendent Downie wired to Amherst to notify her relatives as soon as he received word of the affair but has not as yet received a reply.

It is understood that Miss Fraser's occupation is that of a school teacher.

A telephone message from the hospital at 2 1/2 o'clock stated that Miss Fraser is dead.

SAY THEY KNEW LITTLE OF THE BANK'S AFFAIRS

Directors of Defunct Enterprise Bank Screen Themselves Behind Their Dead Cashier--All Blame for Irregular Transactions Thrown on a Corpse

PITTSBURG, Oct. 19. - Investigation into the condition of the Enterprise National Bank, which was closed by the comptroller of the currency yesterday, shows beyond doubt that the institution was conducted in a manner entirely unknown to the directors. From a representative of the bank, it is learned that since the investigation started papers and notes have been brought to the attention of the directors which they never saw before. Among these papers are two notes bearing the name of W. H. Andrews, who today stated positively that he had no papers in the bank.

The statement made today by the officials of the Santa Fe Central Railroad, the Penna. Development Co., on behalf of which the dead cashier was acting, and the directors of the bank, would seem to place all the blame on Clark, who, so far as is known, left no explanation of the bank's relations with the two companies. Supplementary statements by the signers of the statement and their attorneys show that they take the position that Mr. Clark was the fiscal agent of their companies and that as such it was his duty to look after the funds and raise money when necessary.

The directors speak hopefully of restoring the bank to solvency and resuming business in a month or six weeks, pointing to promises made by Clark to make good the amount. They also express the hope that Mr. Clark's estate will amount to some $500,000 or $600,000, but in this they seem to be hoping against hope. What ever there is of it, will be used in straightening out the bank's affairs.

The amount of the state money supposed to be in the bank will probably reach $750,000, but the exact amount will not be known for some days yet.

The state today entered judgment against the bank directors on their individual bonds to secure its deposit. These securities can be collected at once. Tomorrow the directors of the bank will hold a meeting to consider the matter of applying for a receiver of the Santa Fe Central R.R. The object of this move is to secure reimbursement for any loan which may have been made to the promoters by Cashier Clark.

GRAND BALL FOR PRINCE

WEDDING OF PRINCE LOUIS OF WALE

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 20. (Special.)--R. S. Barker, the lieutenant-governor's private secretary, is busy today making preparations for the grand state ball to be held at the parliament buildings next Friday night in honor of Prince Louis of Battenberg. Several thousand invitations will be issued for the function, and people from all parts of the province are expected to attend.

Her condition today is quite favorable. The six-year-old daughter of W. J. Sastry of Williamsstown, Northumberland, died at Victoria Hospital last night from appendicitis.

The celebration in honor of Trafalgar Day is to be held here this afternoon under the auspices of the Daughters of the Empire. The school children of the city are to be mustered at the Opera House, where a programme of speeches, patriotic songs, etc., will be carried out. The obsequies of the city, members of the council, officers of the Sons of England and Daughters of the Empire will occupy seats on the platform. Mayor McNally and Mayor H. P. McLeod will be among the speakers.

The trial of Harry McCherme, charged with the murder of Rev. F. C. Hartley, was to have commenced this morning, but owing to the indisposition of R. W. McNeill, defendant's counsel, it was adjourned until this afternoon.

A LIQUOR CASE

The case against Thomas Waters, charged with selling liquor on Sunday last from the drug store of J. Everett Waters, occupied the time of the court until one o'clock.

The information was laid by Sergeant Ross to Chief of Police Clark, the latter to Inspector Jones, and the latter laid the information before the court.

The first witness for the prosecution was John Nichols of Caledon, who said that he went to Waters' drug store on Sunday morning last between ten and ten-thirty o'clock and saw Thomas Waters there. He asked for liquor, and procured a bottle for which he paid twenty-eight cents. Witness could not say what was in the bottle. Charles Nelson said he owed John Nichols fifty cents and paid it to him. About three-quarters of an hour after making the payment, Nichols brought to his house a little bottle, but gave him no money. Witness said he drank all of the contents of the bottle. Witness said he was not familiar with the bottle, but that what he got from Nichols was not whisky, brandy or gin. He could not say what it was. He would not drink water if he could get anything better.

Witness on being cross-examined stated that he got a square face of gin on this side of the harbor and took with him to his home. All day Sunday he drank it.

Serg. Ross went after Olson's father-in-law, J. Peter Wilson, who said that he went to Olson's house about ten o'clock last Sunday morning and found Olson intoxicated. He tasted the contents of a bottle on a table and thought it was gin and the supper room was cleaned out of everything. There were no more supplies. Everybody seemed to have money to spend and to be anxious to spend it. At times last evening it was impossible to get anywhere near some of the booths, especially those where the ladies were gazing in strange costumes.

The Dutch fraternal came for many admiring glances, both from the fair and sterner sex. The ladies in the Oriental booth were dressed all evening in the demand and Rebecca's were again wearing the curious ones who greatly admired the Jewish robes and jewels and the almost fabulous make-up of the fair attendants.

The quiet but rich costumes of the dames in the Domestic Society exhibit were much admired.

One of the most interesting features of the show is the French booth makes, Mrs. Chas. McLaughlin, where the pretty Goshu girls are sitting in and out continually and some adding cross-lamb on the floor with the inevitable fun, go through a picturesque bowing stunt. Mrs. DeForest in the French booth makes, di-vines and tables of quaint design are about in abundance.

This evening the St. Mary's band will be about opening schools of their own, the matter was given up for the time being. As there seems to be a prospect that these associations will now be willing to unite with this association in holding such a school a sub-committee from the associations has been appointed to interview them to consider if this will be practicable.

Field secretary--Our present field secretary has now been in the work for a little more than a year, and your committee are pleased to report that his services are giving entire satisfaction, and encouraging reports appreciative of his work have been received from all parts of the field.

Finances--It looks as if this would be the best year in our history from the financial standpoint. The treasurer's statement shows gross returns at date of writing $3,723, expenses $3,474.18. It has been the aim of the finance committee to present to the convention a clean sheet and to make no special appeal for funds during our meeting.

The secretary has given special attention to the financial side of our work with a view to a new apportionment of amounts to be raised by the counties. It is expected that the county treasurers, with the secretary and provincial treasurer will survey the whole field and so order our finances that our work may be self-sustaining, some of which have contributed largely in excess of their pledge, as may be seen by referring to the treasurer's report to which special attention is requested.

The report dealt with the necessity for teacher training and referred to the Sunday school tours and the Toronto sustentation S. C. convention and concluded with the following:

Retrospect and Prospect Twenty-one years ago in the city of St. John this Association had its birth. On reviewing its past record at least briefly and call to mind the conditions of our infancy, there was a Bible class for the first time. PROCESSES DENIED IN FAVOR OF A UNION FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

New Brunswick and P. E. Island Sunday School Associations Were Wedded This Morning--J. N. Harvey to Lead Adult Bible Class--Report of Executive Committee

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 20. (Special.)--The New Brunswick S. S. Association decided upon two important measures at this morning's session.

First, the convention acted upon the recommendation of the executive committee to organize an adult Bible class department. This new department was organized and J. N. Harvey, St. John, elected its first superintendent. The next step was historical and important in character. It was unanimously decided to unite the New Brunswick and P. E. I. Associations to be called the N. B. and P. E. I. S. S. Association.

Action in this direction was taken on recommendations from a joint committee from both associations and presented to the convention by Rev. A. Lucas.

The first clause declaring union was adopted by a standing vote, the convention singing the Doxology and prayer being offered by W. C. Pearce, international S. S. worker of Chicago.

The provisions of the union provide for the time of the general secretary being divided proportionately between the two provinces and the annual conventions are to be held alternately in New Brunswick and P. E. Island.

The minimum amount to be contributed by P. E. Island to the association is $500. The representative from the P. E. I. Association present authorized to examine the union move was Rev. F. A. Wigham and John Morrison.

T. S. Simms, St. John, chairman of the executive committee, presented the report of the committee.

The report said in part: The committee, appointed at the Woodstock convention, immediately organized and took up the work of the year. The usual number of meetings were held and the interest of the members has been maintained by a good average attendance. All the first work to be considered was the "Four Number Two."

County conventions--This year they have all been held during the months of May and June in connection with the four number plan, and has been quite successful, but should this year be objected to by some.

Summer school--Several years ago, the matter of holding a summer school was considered by the executive committee and learning that two of the denominations both the many varied costumes and the fair wearers come in for their share of admiring glances.

In "Canada," too, where the costumes are of many kinds from the pure white of the "Our Lady of the Snows" to the more gorgeous colors of the Indian Princess, there was no lack of lookers on. Indeed with its cool looking interior was probably the most popular corner of the rink owing to the heat outside for once one managed to get in there and had a cool looking walk with the mowed roads and lockers seemed to have the effect of making the enclosure deliciously cool. In all the other booths business was rushing and the ladies in charge reaped a tidy sum from the many purchasers.

In some of the booths this morning the ladies were restocking their counters with wares the last two days having made great inroads in their supply.

Among the additions to the Japanese booth is a banner of blue with figures in gold. This banner is over here from Japan a number of years ago by a relative of Mrs. McLaughlin. The banner is a representation of a Jap on the back of a tortoise, the work is very rich and will no doubt be viewed with great interest. The articles in the Domestic Society booth which were in use many years ago are objects of great curiosity and are greatly admired. There are rare old pictures, samplers, a spinning wheel, old china and other articles of rare value.

A close inspection of the Oriental booth reveals many articles of interest, choice rugs, elegant lamps, urns, tapestries, di-vines and tables of quaint design are about in abundance.

THE GREAT LAKES ARE SOFTLY SWEEP

IRVING RESTS WITH GARRICK

White Shadow of Shakespeare's Monument Falls Across Great Actor's Grave in the Abbey.

LONDON, Oct. 20. (Special.)--Beside the other actor, Garrick, and under the statue of Shakespeare, as the interpreter of whose plays he won fame, the ashes of Sir Henry Irving were today given burial in Westminster Abbey. The service was held in the presence of representatives of all walks of life. King Edward was represented by General Sir Egerton Popham, keeper of the privy purse, and the Prince of Wales by Lieut.-Col. Wm. H. P. Carrington, comptroller of the Prince's household, while the cabinet ministers and ambassadors attended in person. Whitlaw Reid, who is visiting in Scotland, came to London purposely to testify America's regard for the dead tragedian.

Long before the hour set for the service immense crowds gathered around the abbey and those having cards of admission were in their seats as early as ten o'clock. Those who were unable to secure admittance remained about the entrance until the conclusion of the ceremony when, in common with thousands of others they passed through to the burial place.

The service, although short and simple, was most impressive. Sharply at noon the procession started from the Chapel of St. Faith, where the casket containing the ashes had lain over night, and passed through the cloisters to the space between the choir and the sanctuary where the casket, covered with a pall of laurel wreaths, was placed on a catafalque. During the procession the choir sang a hymn. Then followed the psalm "Lord, Thou hast been our refuge." The lesson was read by Canon Duckworth, the sub-deacon of Westminster, who was assisted in the service by Bishop Weldon, Archbishop Wilberforce and Canon Hensley Henson.

The balance of the memorial program consisted of an address by Mrs. J. W. Barrow, international superintendent of the primary department; teachers' lesson, addresses of 20 minutes each, by Rev. E. H. W. Mabley, "The Teachers' Chief Message," and address by Rev. E. H. W. Mabley, "The Teachers' Chief Object in Visiting," by Rev. A. Lucas; "The Teachers' Preparation, Intellectual and Spiritual," by Rev. E. C. Steeles; "Fellowship from a Baptist Convention at Toronto," by Rev. A. D. Dewar.

The convention will close tonight. The service has been well maintained through out the sessions and the attendance has been probably the largest in the history of the association.

That the death of Sir Henry is considered to be a national loss is shown by the universal mourning and throughout London. Scores of thousands of people stood in the streets for hours around the abbey as the only means of paying a last tribute, while for those who were unable to get into Westminster Abbey, services were held in several churches of the city.

Trafalgar Day Tomorrow will be Trafalgar Day and loyal Englishmen throughout the city will observe it.

Among the various celebrations will be the St. George's Society smoker in the assembly room of the York Theatre. Music will be furnished by Jones' orchestra, and D. Armstrong will accompany the singers. Arrangements for the programme are the following--Address by the president, Rev. George Skinner and Mayor White; a recitation by George King and songs by David Plagon, Harold Allison, S. Mathers, Mr. Morrison, "The Death of Sir Henry," by G. S. Mays will render the Death of Sir Henry.

The rooms have been tastefully decorated with pictures and the portraits of Sir Henry will be exhibited, and the alms' motto, "The dead shall go his duty." As the celebration will be a Sunday evening, the service will be 8.30 instead of 8 o'clock. Members are requested to wear their best.

The wedding of Miss Blanche Reynolds, daughter of Herbert A. Reynolds of the Portland Rolling Mills and E. Coleman, son of Le Baron Coleman, of Douglas avenue, manager of the Sydney Publishing Co., of Sydney, C. B., takes place on Wednesday morning next at the bride's residence.

TRURO, Oct. 19. (Special.)--A pitiful occurrence took place at the Indian reserve two weeks ago. A squaw of eighteen years, who had left her young in Dorchester has been confined around for a few weeks. A day or two ago in the open air where one of the camps, for she had no where else to go, she gave birth to a child. She is now housed in a rough shed and some of the nearby squaws look on her occasionally with pity. The child came into the world being begotten the town for clothing.

The drought surprises anything remembered here for over a quarter of a century. Small rivers, gushing brooks and low, wet swamps are dry. Partures in places have to carry water to their cattle.

OTTAWA, Oct. 20. (Special.)--The pupils of the Separate Public Normal and Model Schools were to have joined in the celebration of Nelson Day in the afternoon, but on account of wet weather it was postponed until tomorrow evening. Mr. G. H. H. W. Scott were to have addressed the children.

THE FAIR OF THE FAIR WAS THRONED AGAIN YESTERDAY

Another day of the Fair of Nations has passed and has been even more successful than the opening day. Over three thousand people patronized the show yesterday and it would have been practically impossible at times for any more to squeeze in.

There was an abundance to eat and drink yesterday, the supplies did not run short, owing to the entirely unlooked for demand. The ladies were again wearing the curious ones who greatly admired the Jewish robes and jewels and the almost fabulous make-up of the fair attendants.

MEMOIRS OF SHERLOCK HOLMES, BY A. CONAN DOYLE.

THE MYSTERY OF THE MUSGRAVE RITUAL.

(Continued) "And now how was I to proceed to reconstruct this midnight drama? Clearly, only one could fit into the hole, and that one was Brunton. The girl must have waited above. Brunton then unlocked the box, handed up the contents presumably—since they were not to be found—and then—what happened?"

some time to answer. And with that I sketched out to him the whole long chain of surmise and of proof which I had constructed. The twilight had closed in and the moon was shining brightly in the sky before my narrative was finished.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

asked Musgrave, pushing back the roll into its linen bag. "Ah, there you lay your finger upon the only point which we shall probably never be able to clear up. It is likely that the Musgrave who held the secret died in the interval, and by some oversight left this guide to his descendant without explaining the meaning of it. From that day to this it has been handed down from father to son until at last it is secret out of it and lost his life in the venture."

"And that's the story of the Musgrave Ritual, Watson. They have the crown down at Hurstons—though they had some legal bother and a considerable sum to pay before they were allowed to retain it. I am sure that if you mentioned my name they would be happy to show it to you. Of the woman nothing was ever heard, and the probability is that she got out of England and carried herself and the memory of her crime to some land beyond the seas."

HOW MONTREAL VIEWS THE WALL STREET SITUATION

The Tight Money Episode of This Season—This Season and 1902, Resemblances and Contrasts—Will Stocks Rise Despite High Money?—The Struggle for Europe's Gold—How is the Situation in England?

(Montreal Correspondence of N. Y. Evening Post.)

Although the situation in New York has a number of features bearing striking resemblance to those which caused so much trouble in the fall of 1902, financial observers here recognize plainly the important differences. The resemblance are patent enough to everybody—high interest rates, low bank reserves, property, active demand for money, with a prevailing rumor of a possible gold shortage, and a general feeling of uneasiness. But there are also many points of contrast. In the first place, the market is not so tight as it was in 1902. The money market is not so tight as it was in 1902. The money market is not so tight as it was in 1902.

The fact that the United States treasury has passed an order imposing a duty of 20 per cent on the invoice price of pulpwood going into the United States gives intense satisfaction to the pulp-producing and paper-manufacturing interests of the Dominion. For some time these interests have been agitating for the imposition of an export duty to prevent the depletion of the forests of the Dominion and the preservation of the paper industry of the Dominion.

LIFE INSURANCE FIGURES

Some figures from the report of the Canadian superintendent of insurance show how large are the interests involved in life insurance. The total amount of insurance in force when the statement was made up for 1904 was as follows:—

Canadian companies . . . $364,640,168
British companies . . . 42,938,738
American companies . . . 180,651,880

Total . . . $588,230,786

The insurance effected during the year 1904 was as follows:—

Canadian companies . . . $39,051,113
British companies . . . 3,100,778
American companies . . . 58,145,811

Total . . . $100,300,702

The business was transacted by forty active companies, including twenty-one Canadian, seven British and twelve American. The total amount of policies taken in 1904 was $6,738,297 greater than in the preceding year. The total amount of insurance taken by Canadian companies during the year was $19,800,000 greater than that by British and American combined.

IT COMES HIGH

One fact stands out with somewhat startling clearness in the report of the Canadian superintendent for insurance for 1904. It is the following, dealing only with Canadian companies:—

Received from the people, $15,640,644.88.

General expenses, . . . 5,019,467.32.

In other words, a third of the money paid by the people to Canadian companies for life insurance last year went to pay the expenses.

The Toronto Globe prints the following table:—

Table with columns: Net Premium, Canadian (including co-operations), General Expenses, and various insurance companies like Canada Life, Confederation, etc.

Totals . . . $15,640,644.88 $5,019,467.32

It is not surprising that a demand should be made for a reduction in the expense-account, and for an enquiry into the whole system of life insurance in this country. The Montreal Star has suggested that the government guarantee every insurance policy. The Toronto News recalls the statement of Sir Richard Cartwright in parliament last session relative to the possible introduction of state life insurance in this country, and quotes him as follows:—

"It is a matter which will have to be considered one of these days, that is to say, whether the time has come when a government, without interfering with the work of the companies which are now in existence, should or should not provide those of its people, who choose to ask for it, with life insurance guaranteed by the state."

The News adds: "State-life insurance seems to be successful in New Zealand and other countries, and there are Canadian insurance men who would like to see it adopted here. The theory of one of our best actuaries is that government insurance would act as a wholesome check and corrective on the life companies, and thus in the long run greatly benefit them. So much for the standpoint of the corporations engaged in the business. The position of the public is that a state insurance scheme would offer a safe alternative to the policy of the regular companies."

The Montreal Shareholder and Insurance Gazette urges an investigation, and says it understands the Canadian life companies will apply to the government to appoint a commission. The Shareholder adds:—

"The appointment of such a commission cannot in any way be distorted into a reflection upon the superintendent of insurance. Suspicious must be removed, and such an investigation will not only have that effect but it will show how efficient is the management of the insurance department."

It is perfectly clear that in the interests of the life insurance business there must be a reduction in the expense of management, and an assurance that the policyholder or his heirs will get an adequate return for the money he pays out. Walter Wellman has an interesting article in the Review of Reviews, on life insurance, in which he says:—

"A serious economic weakness of insurance companies is the large extent of deferred dividend policies, in which we do not have, 'to die to win.' In the great majority of cases the insured gets for their matured policies from 5 to 25 per cent. less than the estimates. What chance would a man have to secure good results from a deposit of $40 in the savings bank if the solicitor who induces him to make the deposit were to get 50 per cent. of the first year's deposit for merely trying the money down to the bank, then the general agent were to get 10 per cent. of each subsequent deposit service, and if the bank's management were to cost 25 per cent. of all dividends? The deferred dividend largely contributed to keep up the enormous assets of insurance companies, but public opinion is now turning against it. The one word in its favor is that it makes somewhat imprudent men save in spite of themselves.

"During the next five years the insurance managers themselves will take the lead in making insurance cheaper. The deferred dividend policy is to be pushed to the background. Economies are to be introduced. The vast accumulations are to be paid back to the people a little more rapidly. At present the companies have an enormous loaning power and are piling up assets at the rate of over $200,000,000 yearly. It is high time to check this, and start in the other direction."

PLAIN TALK TO QUEBEC

G. W. Stephens, M. P. F., the newly elected member for St. Lawrence division in the legislature of Quebec has made a striking speech on the educational needs of the province. It was at a banquet in Montreal to Hon. Mr. Turgeon, and Mr. Stephens not only declared that the present educational system was not yielding good results, but advocated sending a commission to Germany, France and Switzerland to investigate the systems in those countries and submit a report. A notable portion of his speech follows:—

"We are in the province of Quebec, in round figures, two millions of people, of whom 1,000,000 are the descendants of old France, and 400,000 are the descendants of old England, Ireland and Scotland. Our province is an area larger than the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland four times over.

"We had over to a body of eminent men, called the council of public instruction, the task of providing education for two millions of people, and we give them $210,000 per annum to work with. The council of public instruction never meets as a body, but its two committees meet together twice a year and spend just four days in deliberation upon the most important factor in our national existence.

"Female teachers in the province of Quebec in rural districts receive an average wage per day of 32 cents, and male teachers an average of 44 cents. We pay out bricklayers 65 cents per hour; we pay our plumbers 45 cents per hour; we pay our carpenters 35 cents per hour, we pay our plumbers 35 cents per hour, and we pay our teachers, who are to give these people their education, less than these people earn per hour.

"What is the remedy? 'We want education to be the free inheritance of every child born in the province, and for every child that comes to help in its building. We want to create a public school system that will pay its teachers a living wage and make the profession of the teacher throughout the length and breadth of this land an honorable calling in the eyes of the people. We want to create technical schools for the artisan, so that Canadian skilled labor can take its place alongside of any other.

"We want to create an agricultural school that will compare with that in operation in our sister province of Ontario.

"We want to have our people realize that education means prosperity, happiness, mutual confidence, greater contentment of the home, cleaner streets in our cities, better roads throughout our province, integrity in our business transactions, less crime and ignorance.

"We want our people to realize that the more money we put into public schools the less we will put into prisons and asylums and hospitals."

A man who entertains such views, and is able to state them so clearly and forcibly, ought to be an influence for good in the legislature of Quebec. The school system of that province is notoriously weak, and it is fortunate that the provincial minister who is now striving to improve the schools has the support of so eloquent an advocate.

There are days when the first page of this paper is largely given up to a chronicle of crimes and acts which do not make for the welfare of mankind. Today a good deal of space is given up to the story of the furtiveness of sundry good causes, and if less sensational it is certainly more agreeable reading.

The south has given President Roosevelt an enthusiastic welcome. All the people there are not as favorable to the recognition of the rights of the negro as the president has declared himself to be; but they like a strong man, who is brave enough to stand by his convictions.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson says he can place the I. C. R. on a paying basis, and will unfold the scheme when parliament meets. Until that time we should hear no more talk about the sale of the road, or about a commission.

The trade statement for the last quarter shows an increase in Canada's imports and a decrease in exports. This was expected. The decrease in exports was almost wholly in agricultural products.

SENATOR ELLIS

John V. Ellis, LL. D., member of the Senate of the Dominion of Canada, is the most widely known of St. John newspaper men, having been editor of the Globe since 1897.

Mr. Ellis was born in Halifax in 1833, was educated at the public schools, and learned the trade of printer in the office of the Halifax Chronicle. Later he worked as a printer in Montreal and Boston, and then settled in St. John. He was for several years with the late George E. Fenety on the old St. John News, and then he and the late Christopher Armstrong purchased the Globe from the late Ross Woodrow and converted it into a daily paper, the first evening daily in Canada. This was about the year 1887. The late T. Nisbet Robertson died in addition to other work in the same line the bookkeeping for the Globe, and after the death of Mr. Armstrong he and Richard O'Brien became members of the company. Mr. Robertson's death in 1888 was personally in the field or not. It is said, and perhaps truly, however, that the Globe is at its best as a political paper when it is in opposition. On one notable occasion Mr. Ellis's vigor of expression brought him into the withy of the provincial legislature, and his work gives evidence of literary culture as well as of wide reading.

Mr. Ellis entered active politics in 1882, when he ran as an independent candidate for Ottawa, but was defeated. In the same year he was elected a member of the provincial legislature, and was re-elected in 1886. He was elected in 1887 to the house of commons, but was defeated in 1891. In 1896 he was re-elected, and in 1900 was called to the senate. He is an easy and fluent speaker, although not as aggressive in his political speeches as in his writings.

Mr. Ellis has always taken a great interest in educational matters, and in 1887 received the honorary degree of LL. D. from the University of New Brunswick. He has been active in the work of the Sons of Temperance, and is a Past High Chief Templar of the Temple of Honor and Temperance for New Brunswick.

He has long been identified with the Independent Order of Oddfellows, and is probably the oldest member of the fraternity in St. John, being a charter member of Pioneer Lodge and a past officer of the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick. Past Grand High priest of the Grand Chapter of New Brunswick, Past Commander in Chief of the Sovereign Great Priory of Canada, and Past Commander in Chief of the Supreme Council Scottish Rite for Canada. He is at present the Provincial Grand Master of the Royal Order of Scotland, and is an enthusiastic member of all branches of the body, including the Encampment of St. John Knights Templars, Union Chapter of Carleton, Myrtle Shrine, etc.

He is a member of the board of management of the Home for Incubables, and since the death of George A. Schofield he has been its treasurer. He is president of the Natural History Society and has several times represented it at the annual meetings of the Royal Society of Canada. He has also been for some years the president of the S. P. C. A. and has been identified with other benevolent organizations.

Mr. Ellis was married in 1864 to Mary Caroline, daughter of the late Samuel Babbitt, and it is a matter of common knowledge that Mrs. Ellis is as active as her husband in all work for benevolent institutions. They have five sons, Frank B., of the Globe staff; Dr. W. L. Ellis, examining physician for the immigration department; John V. Jr., a well known newspaper man who has now retired from the news; and two younger sons, Joseph N. a lawyer in Vancouver; George, who is a traveller for H. W. DeForest; and two daughters, Mrs. E. B. Taylor of Carleton and Mrs. H. Lawrence of Wolfville.

Several years ago a citizens' banquet was tendered to Senator Ellis at the Royal Hotel and leading men of all shades of politics united to make it one of the most notable functions of the kind in the history of the city.

BLAME IT ON WHEAT
 Slow Movement of Crop the Reason Given for Canada's Decline in Exports.
 Ottawa, Oct. 19.—(Special)—The trade statement of the dominion for the quarter ended September 30, was issued today. Compared with the same time last year, there is a decline of more than $2,000,000 in the exports which is to be accounted for by the slow movement of the wheat crop. The Montreal papers have been writing upon this fact. The imports show a gain of more than $2,000,000. The imports were $67,992,545, compared with $65,958,465 for the three months in 1904, or an increase of $2,034,080. There was an increase of more than half a million in the duty collected. The domestic exports totalled $32,623,588, as against $36,165,100, a decrease of about $3,541,512. There was a decrease of about $2,000,000 in the output of the mine, a slight increase in fisheries. The forest remained about the same, animals and their products increased by about $300,000, agriculture decreased by about $2,500,000, while manufactures show a gain of more than $250,000.

IRISH GUARDS' BAND
 Leave Montreal for England on 27th—Concerts Next Tuesday in St. John.
 The Irish Guards band left Monday evening for the people of St. John that it is the finest musical organization that has been here for years. The pleasure of those who attended the concert may be repeated on Tuesday evening next when the band will again appear at this time in the Queen's rink. Two concerts will be given, one in the afternoon and one in the evening, and the prices of admission will be lower than on the previous occasion. For the afternoon concert tickets will be fifty cents to all parts of the building, and for the evening fifty, seventy-five and one dollar will be charged. An entirely new programme will be provided, and by request several of the selections given last week will be repeated as extras. The plan of the seats will open on Monday at A. Chip, Smith's drug store, and on the seating capacity of Queen's rink is less than that of the Victoria rink, all who intend hearing the concert should secure their tickets early.
ELEPHANT PLAYED NO MORE
 (Answers)
 A circus was once going round to some of our towns, and among the performers was an elephant that could play the piano. The time came for this to be done a piano was brought into the ring and the elephant sat down on the stool and struck the keys. Immediately afterward he gave a loud groan, whereupon the manager came up, and, addressing the audience, said: "Ladies and gentlemen, the elephant has just discovered the truth of his mother in law of the key, and is overcome with grief. I will immediately telegraph for another piano. In the meantime we will proceed with the other part of the performance."
 No, Corbelle, a photographer can't necessarily a robber because he takes things.

THE LUDLOW ON DUTY
 New Ferry Steamer Made a Few Trial Trips Yesterday Afternoon.
 The new ferry steamer Ludlow was given a few trips across the harbor yesterday carrying only foot passengers. Many citizens took advantage of a trip in the new steamer. Chairman Frink of the ferry committee, and Superintendent Glasgow were in charge, with Captain Frederick Nix at the helm and Engineer Frederick Lewis at the throttle valve. The new steamer worked well, and presented quite a contrast to her older sister the Western Extension as they passed each other on the trip to and from Carleton. Today the steamer was put on the route again for a few trips so that the hands can get acquainted with her. Next week it is expected that she will be placed in regular communication.

 First Meeting of the Home Missions Committee Held Yesterday Afternoon.
 The first meeting of the home mission committee of the United Baptist churches in New Brunswick was held yesterday afternoon in Rev. Dr. Manning's office. It was decided to hold meetings of the committee quarterly in St. John, beginning with December. The officers were elected as follows: Rev. David Hutchinson, chairman; Rev. W. E. McIntyre, secretary, and Rev. A. J. Prosser, treasurer. An executive, consisting of Rev. Messrs. A. Perry and David Long, and Messrs. H. G. Haley and F. E. Bishop, was also chosen.

The board will recommend to the executive of the association that a representative be appointed to arrange plans and present claims for increasing benevolence in support of the work. A sub-committee was appointed to regulate salaries of missionaries working in the home field. It was also decided that all fields requiring aid be required to fill out application blanks to be supplied by the secretary. A grant of $100 was ordered to be paid to Whitehead church, near Miramichi. Other applications for grants were laid over till next meeting.
 At the close of the home mission meeting, a special meeting of the executive for the Baptist board was held. It was decided that all sums due to students for summer work be paid at once. Rev. David Hutchinson and J. J. Wallace, of Moncton, were authorized to pay the balance of the 29th century fund into the new home mission committee. As soon after incorporation as possible and all notes held by the previous treasurer, R. G. Haley, for money loaned by the former board, be delivered to the trustees of the 29th Century Fund, to be held until the incorporation of the new committee.
 The executive of the Baptist and Free Baptist Young people's conventions held a joint meeting in Moncton Wednesday night to make arrangements for amalgamation. It was decided to unite the work in the several fields at once. Rev. J. B. Daggart was appointed field secretary for the present year.

Keep Your Grip On Health

WHEN PHYSICAL BANKRUPTCY TERRIBLES BUILD UP WITH Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Gloomy forebodings, fear of the future, depression of something dreadful to think of, worry over little things, restlessness, insomnia, irritability—these are the indications of an exhausted nervous system.

There are certain elements of nature which go to form new blood and nerve cells—to create new nerve force, the foundation of life, energy and vitality. These elements are combined in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as it is easily assimilated by the most weakened human body.

You cannot compare Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with any medicine you ever used. It cures by the building up process, whereas most nerve treatments merely soothe and deaden the nerve. Test this great cure by noting your increase in weight.

For six months I was this way, and cannot describe what I suffered, but now I am entirely cured, thanks to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Portrait and signature of Dr. W. W. Chase, the famous receipt book, there are on every box.

Who is the man who declines to take his troubles seriously.

McKEEVER BACK IN THE RING

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—In the wind up at the weekly show of the Washington Sporting Club, Philadelphia, last evening, Charlie McKeever of this city made his reappearance in the ring after an absence of several years. His opponent was Billy Burke of Richmond. Despite his years McKeever was a fast pacer and Burke was willing a fast and hard bout resulted. McKeever did not forget his cunning, and his form was quite a surprise.

In the first round McKeever did the forcing, and he sent several lefts to the face and body, but Burke countered well. In the second round some hard and fast work was witnessed, and McKeever showed the effects of their milling when they went to their corners. Burke was bleeding from both eyes, while McKeever was bleeding from a cut on the cheek. Burke's straight lefts rocked McKeever in the third, but Charlie came back strong in the fourth and fifth.

The last round was also a very lively session with honors even at the finish. In the semi-wrap-up Tony Bender knocked out Tom O'Hara in the second round.

SANDOW'S COLLECTION FROM ALL NATIONS

Eugene Sandow, the champion of physical culture and famous man of muscle, has arrived in London after a tour of Africa and the east, and has brought back a native from every country he visited, thirty-two in all. They include Chinese, Hindos, Hottentots, Kafirs and natives of Punjab. These he has systematically trained.

Sandow conducted a mission during his tour, the gospel he has preached being the duty a man owes to his own body. One of his objects was to study the methods of physical culture adopted by the different races, but I did not see much that commended itself to me. Another and perhaps my greatest object was to prove that my own methods of physical training are equally applicable to all nations on earth.

"This I consider I have done effectively. I have chosen and brought back with me a series of specimens of every country I visited. The men chosen in the majority of cases were weaklings, and some of these were specimens from the most backward of the world with me and I trained them as I went."

He gives what he calls the most suggestive example of the hypnotic element in the religious life of the colored race.

Battle line steamer Eretia, Captain from Liverpool with a general cargo which is being discharged at the corporation pier.

E. S. Dibble has not yet received any particulars as to how his brother, John P. Dibble, met his death in Siam. Word is not expected for three weeks.

Steamer Hampstead, which has been undergoing repairs, went through the falls to Indiantown today and resumed her regular trips.

Street car No. 38 met with a slight accident on King St. at 11 o'clock this morning. A bolt connected with the wheels became loose and it was some time before the car was again on its way.

The Court block at Indiantown has been newly graded and the granite curbing has been placed in position. It is expected that the flagpole will be erected in time for the visit of Prince Louis.

The war between the wholesale grocers over the sale of certain canned goods is becoming a great draw-back to the retail grocer. The retailers who are dealing with the wholesalers who have cut prices are also selling canned peas, corn and tomatoes at a reduced price and those who buy from the houses that have not cut say they are losing trade as they can not sell at such a low figure. Thus the war is now raging between the retailers as well as the wholesale firms.

Thos. J. Durick, the enterprising north end druggist, has purchased the well-known drug business of the late F. R. Dalton, of Newcastle. This is considered one of the best retail drug businesses in the province. It is understood that Mr. Durick intends placing his brother in charge. His many friends will congratulate Mr. Durick on securing this business and wish him every success.

BLAZED TRAIL STORIES AND STORIES OF THE WILD LIFE

HARKINS GETS THE GLAD HAND

Darkest Russia, by the W. S. Harkins Co., a Great Success at the Opera House.

Harkins has made good. W. S. Harkins has brought many good dramatic companies to St. John and it has been his fortune to introduce here many ladies and gentlemen who, have afterwards, stepped into the centre of the lime light on the American stage and become leading exponents of the dramatic art. A large proportion of these have even risen to stardom.

He has never brought to St. John a more evenly balanced company or a more capable acting aggregation than that which opened a brief engagement at the Opera House last evening in a splendid presentation of Gratian Dumouly's "Darkest Russia."

St. John audiences are usually written down as cold and critical but Mr. Harkins' players could find no fault last evening for they faced one of the largest and friendliest audiences that the Opera House has held for years.

Probably the knowledge that Mr. Harkins, when he promises a good company, always keeps his word had much to do with the kindly humor of the audience out at any rate those who were present expected to be well entertained and their expectations were met and fulfilled.

There was plenty of opportunity for applause and they took advantage of all. Curtain calls were spontaneous and on a grand scale and did not, as some cases, proceed entirely from the benches of the upper gallery. From gallery to orchestra chairs, the entire audience appreciated the production and showed it.

"Darkest Russia" has been seen here many times and its story is fairly well known. It deals with the intrigues of Russian political circles and the oppression of all who dare oppose the will of the powers that be.

As a masterpiece of melodrama it ranks among the greatest ever produced. There are no weak parts and ability is required in the delineation of every role. Such a piece could not be produced except by a strong company and the fact that the Harkins Company scored a big hit gives the best possible estimate of their quality.

The ladies in Mr. Harkins' company are particularly strong and a more able quartet than Miss Sue Van Duser, Miss Powers, Miss Ethel Davis, and Miss Lucille Nelson has seldom been seen in one company on a St. John stage.

Miss Van Duser had the principal roles as Itha, the Jewish girl. Her opponent, Miss Powers, was cast in an especially exacting part. Generally her work left nothing to be desired, but she made the most of her opportunity of the evening by overdoing it.

Miss Davis was as charming and ingenious as ever. Her struggle with the English language were not only amusing but artistic.

Miss Nelson, as Olga, had a part which lacked as many opportunities as some of the others were given, but she made the most of it and won recognition from the audience.

Of the male contingent, Mr. English and Mr. Selman shone. Mr. English was excellent as Col. Cobb. Mr. Tavernier, Mr. Bowker and Mr. Brown were satisfactory in their parts. Together the production was one of the best ever seen here. As remarked at the outset, Harkins has made good.

"Darkest Russia" will continue the balance of the week with matinee Saturday.

The Portland Methodist Y. M. A. will conduct a Thanksgiving supper from 8 until 10 on Thursday evening next. The tables will be in charge of an efficient committee of ladies of the congregation and the affair promises to be a success. A tempting menu has been prepared, and includes the delicacies of the season.
