No. 4 Brings 218 and No. 6 Has 214 All Told; Major Frank Magee Going to Montreal; Cheery Welcome at Sister Port; Our Men to Leave Halifax at 7.10 This Evening

Staff Correspondence (Times). Halifax, N. S., May 9.—Back from the shell torn fields of France and Flanders some 4,000 soldiers arrived here today on the S. S. Mauretania with numbers and 6 Siege Batteries for St. John.

The large liner moved slowly up the harbor in the bright sun of a beautiful May morning and docked at eight o'clock. The decks were lined with khaki-clad soldiers, men crowded up the rigging and Halifax went joyful over the arrival of the big ship.

Major Barker looks as fit as ever. He named the correspondent that the Mauretania was received today. They are St. John men, except where otherwise stated.

Delegates Thought Frontier and Danzig Proposals Would be More Moderate — Belgian Protest and Other Views

Verailles, May 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The question whether Germany will sign the treaty or not is the pressing one of the hour. It is impossible as yet to gain an indication of the attitude of the German plenipotentiaries here but information from German sources goes to show it is quite possible the Ebert-Scheidemann government is considering its fate if it should accept such a drastic treaty.

Mayor Proclaims First Part of Day as Holiday—A Last Word on the Arrangements for Welcome—The Street Decorations

In order to meet the universal desire to do honor to the batteries to arrive tomorrow morning, Mayor Hayes has proclaimed a civic half-holiday for the morning. The whole city is brimming over with excitement over the prospective arrival of the first soldiers to return in their original units and it was recognized that little work would be done in the city tomorrow morning.

There were some requests for a whole holiday but as the welcome ceremonies will be over early in the morning there seemed to be no point to this. Furthermore, it was represented to his worship that the soldiers themselves would be likely to object as many of them will want to spend part of the afternoon or evening in the purchase of civilian outfits. It was decided that it would be unfair to the men to close the stores on their first day home.

The merchants, who were quite willing to fall in line with any decision made by the civic authorities, are pleased with this arrangement, as the loss of the entire Saturday's business would mean a heavy sacrifice to make, especially if public good was to be served by it.

One of the most striking features of the welcome ceremonies tomorrow morning will be the reunion between the original members of the battery who have been invalided home and their comrades in arms who have been carrying on since they left the unit. It is estimated that there are at least fifty men with rich records who had gone over with either of these batteries and who have returned in addition to the arrangements for greeting their old units on their return.

These veterans will parade to the depot and will take up their position inside the station ready for the first hand clasp with the men with whom they had seen service and faced death in France and Flanders.

ST. JOHN YOUNG MAN DROWNED IN FAR WEST

Sad News of Pte. Anthony S. Profit Received

Gasoline Tank Takes Fire and He Tries to Swim to Shore But Sinks — Had Just Returned to Work After War

PTE. ANTHONY S. PROFITT three years old, and left St. John when a boy.

The tragic news came in a letter of April 30 from Powell River, B. C., to his aunt, Mrs. A. H. Williams, 61 St. David street. The letter says:— "He had only got home after getting his discharge and went to work the day before. He and the boss were trying out a gasoline tug they launched on Monday night. On Tuesday they were out in front of the mill when the engine back-fired and set the boat on fire. The boss hung on to a piece of board and was picked up. Anthony started to swim ashore and was supposed to keep afloat with the battery crest in heroic size; 'Back Again To Home, Sweet Home,' 'St. John Grips Your Hand' and an outstretched hand bearing the invitation 'Put It There, Old Boy!' The whole effect is splendid and especially suitable for this reviewing location.

All that is needed to ensure the success of the welcome is continued fine weather and the active co-operation of all the citizens. While St. John people may feel deeply they sometimes show more restraint than the occasion demands. If every one will express his or her enthusiasm as fully as it is felt, the cheers of the crowds as the soldiers march through should rock the buildings.

ADVERTISER BLOCK IN KENTVILLE BURNED

Kentville, N. S., May 9.—At eleven o'clock this morning fire broke out in the Advertiser block. The entire building, which was of brick veneer, is gone.

ANOTHER FIND AT VILLA WHERE IT'S THOUGHT WOMEN WERE MURDERED

Paris, May 9.—Calcined human bones are said to have been discovered by police in a villa at Gambaix, owned by Henri Landru, who is under arrest on suspicion of having murdered several women who have disappeared in the recent past.

WELCOME THE HEROES
Early or late be the time of their arrival the soldiers who will come home tomorrow should find the people out to welcome them.

There is a general appearance of careless disregard for appearances along the streets, in painful contrast to what one sees who goes abroad.

As an illustration of what is done in the way of welcome in an American city we quote from the San Francisco Chronicle a paragraph telling of the arrival there of two battalions of troops from overseas.

And yet the case is far from hopeless. We can put more of the teaching of civics in the schools. We can appeal to grown up people in many ways.

WHERE WE FALL SHORT.
When a citizen of St. John goes to a city in western Canada or in the United States one of the first things that attracts attention is the generally well-kept appearance of streets, parks, squares and lawns, and the manifest pride of the citizens, in any but a foreign quarter of the very poorest district, in the outward aspect of the place where they live.

THE LIBERAL CONVENTION.
The whole country will be interested in the arrangements published today concerning the Liberal convention in Ottawa in August. It will be representative of Liberalism in all the provinces, and will undoubtedly be one of the most important political conventions ever held at the capital.

What shall we say of St. John? In this paper yesterday complaint was made that Red Triangle cards had been torn deliberately from posts on Douglas avenue.

St. John cordially welcomes Sir Robert and Lady Baden-Powell. Pleasant memories of a former brief visit by Sir Robert remain with members of the Canadian Club and others who met him at that time.

Her step-sons, to whom she greatly endeared herself, are Thomas Dyer, of Fort Fairfield; Edward, of Bath; Robert, of Beechwood; Harry, of Fielding, and Frank, Bertram, Percy and Wallace, of Bristol. She is also survived by one brother, Randolph Stickney, of Red Deer, Alberta; two sisters, Mrs. Emily Tompkins, of Stickney, and Mrs. Eliza Clare, of Gordonsville, and several grandchildren.

Mrs. Dyer was highly esteemed. The funeral, which was very largely attended, was held on Tuesday afternoon in the Presbyterian church. Services were conducted by Rev. M. H. Manuel. Burial took place at Bristol.

Duncan McDonald. Montreal, May 8—Ex-Controller Duncan McDonald died this morning at St. Agothe from tuberculosis aged sixty. He was the inventor of the "pay-as-you-enter" street car. He was at one time general manager of the Montreal Street Railway. He was a city controller for two years and was defeated as a mayoralty candidate in 1916.

Mrs. William Carten. Fredericton, May 8—After an illness of two weeks, following a stroke of paralysis, Mrs. William L. Carten passed away last night. She was aged fifty-seven years, and besides her husband is survived by three sons, William J. R. Carten, contractor, of this city; Gunner Douglas F. Carten, now at Gravenhurst Sanitarium, Ontario, and Louis A. Carten of Halifax; and five daughters, Mrs. Daniel Tommey of Dover, N. H.; Mrs. F. A. McCurdy of St. Andrews, N. B.; and the Misses Tilley, Mabel and Helena Carten, all at home. Two brothers, Charles and Amos Brown, of Bangor, and two sisters, Mrs. George Steeves and Mrs. George Tripp, also of Bangor, also survive.

Chief Scout Recalls His Visit Here in 1910 — Urges St. John to Organize Sea Scouts—The Girl Guides

A distinguished visitor, a big man of Empire, is in St. John—Sir Robert S. S.
Baden Powell, Chief Scout of all Boy Scouts, both in the old country and in America. Sir Robert and Lady Baden Powell, who arrived here this morning, have come to America for the purpose of solidifying the Boy Scout movement, but mainly to promote the Girl Guides' Organization in Canada and the Girl's

THE CHIEF SCOUT, SIR ROBERT S. BADEN-POWELL.

Scouts in the United States. Sir Robert paid a visit to St. John in 1910, and at that time sowed the seeds of the Boy Scouts movement and he is immensely gratified with the results.
The Arrival
Lt. General Sir Robert and Lady Baden Powell arrived in this city on the Halifax train this morning and alighted from it at 7:30 (new time). They were accompanied by F. R. Perrott, assistant organizing secretary of the Canadian General Council and H. O. Eamanns, maritime secretary. They were met at the depot by Professor J. A. Stiles, assistant dominion secretary; A. C. Skelton, provincial commissioner; Deputy Commissioner Waring, Lieut. Holder and Rev. H. A. Cody, vice-president provincial council, Scout Master Gregg of Peltodiac was also present.
A guard of honor, consisting of sixty boy scouts, under Assistant Scout Master Sutherland assisted by Asst. Scout Masters Kee and Hoyt, formed up at 6:50 on the square and made a splendid showing. Sir Robert made a thorough inspection and had a kindly word for each one, winning their hearts immediately. After the inspection he was conducted to the Royal Hotel by the chief scout officers, where they breakfasted.
The guard of honor was marched off and they swung along Mill street and up King in true soldierly fashion and were dismissed in front of the Imperial.
This Afternoon
A boy scout's parade fell in this afternoon at three o'clock sharp on King St.
East, under their respective unit masters.
A general rally took place at 3:30 sharp. Upon the arrival of Chief Scout Sir Robert S. S. Baden Powell he was met by Commissioner B. C. Waring and his staff, Scout Master Jack Sutherland, Assistant Scout Master Ralph Kee and Deputy Commissioner Gordon Holder,
D. C. M., M. M.
On his arrival not a boy scout could be seen but on the signal of one long blast of a whistle the scouts appeared on one long and two short blasts, the scouts rallied to position, giving their several scout yells and falling in "at ease." On the command "at ease" given by the commissioner, the boys sprang smartly to attention and on the command "salute," their hands were brought smartly to the regulation salute.
The boys were then inspected by Sir
Robert and his staff, after which Sir Robert delivered a short address.
Three hearty cheers were then given for each of the following: His Majesty the King; the Duke of Devonshire, chief scout of Canada; Sir Robert Baden-Powell, chief scout; Lady Powell and Chief Sea Scout of the Boy Scouts of America, James A. Wilder.
A short parade around the town brought to a close this interesting ceremony and the boys dispersed.
Assistant Scout Master Jack Sutherland acted as district scout master for the rally and among those under him were three king scouts and one life-saving scout.
As a safety-first master, Commissioner Waring ordered that in case of fire three short blasts of the whistle would be a signal for the parade to fall back to the north side of the grave yard where they would be out of the way of the fire trains.
Speaks to Times.
In an interview with a Times' reporter this morning, Sir Robert said that he and Lady Baden Powell had made this visit to see how the Boy Scouts of Canada and of the States had prospered since his last visit in 1910, and to emphasize the necessity of having the girls organized in a similar way as the Girl Guides, wherever he goes.

THIS IS ATTRACTIVE

The plans of the Forward New Brunswick Convention, June 3 and 4, for the promotion of the hunting, fishing and tourist interests of the province are hoping for a successful meeting. Many letters are now coming in from those planning to be present at the meetings, and the general opinion seems to be that this "get-together" of provincial interests is bound to be of value to New Brunswick. Owing to the kindness and great public spirit of the St. John Power Boat Club, the programme committee have been able to announce that following the auto drive Wednesday morning, lunch will be served the delegates at the Power Boat Club House, after which there will be a sail on the beautiful St. John River for all who wish to enjoy it.

WORD COMES THAT THE 26TH WILL SAIL TOMORROW
ON WAY HOME

Simultaneously with the arrival in Canada of the siege batteries comes the announcement that the 26th New Brunswick Battalion, the infantry unit which has been the chief representative of the province in the trenches, will sail from England tomorrow.

Plans will be commenced at once for a welcome on an adequate scale when they reach St. John. So far no word has been received as to details of their sailing arrangements and it is not known whether they will come direct to St.
John or whether their steamer will dock in Halifax.

In honor of their arrival a dinner will be tendered to the returning officers of the battalion by the officers of the unit who already have returned.

Want Union Recognized.

Montreal, May 9—More than 100 drivers employed by the Guaranteed Pure Milk Company and the John Dunlop Milk Company, Limited, struck this morning for recognition of the union.
The employers acceded to the other demands made by the drivers.

He said he was delighted to see that the Canadian west coast of the States had fallen on good ground and, judging from the guard of honor which met him this morning, he was sure that the Boy Scouts of this town were splendidly organized.
"What you want here now is Sea Scouts," said Sir Robert, "and there is no finer place in the world for them than this city." He spoke of the phenomenal success which had attended the Sea Scout movement in England, and said that more than 80,000 of them had been employed all through the war as coastguards, and 100,000 had won their war service badges. He said that the Canadian Navy and the Mercantile Navy needed men to man their ships and now was the time to instill the boys with a love for the sea. The call to the sea was sounded to the boys in a way that appealed to them in the Sea Scouts and they were not only taught to swim dicks but were made all round seamen.
He went on to say that the difficulty now was the shortage of officers to take charge of the scouts, as so many had lost their lives in the war, but some 50,000 former Boy Scouts would be returning on demobilization, and their services would be required as officers.

He said that a great necessity now was to get the Girl Guides organized properly. There are 18,000 girl guides in the Canadian west coast of the States, but in eastern Canada there are practically none. Saying that the Girl Guides were to be the future mothers of the Scouts, he said that it was necessary to train them properly, both mentally and physically, to make them the efficient comrades of men and not boys, and that the Girl Guides' Organization would do this for them.

Sir Robert still has a vivid recollection of his last visit here and spoke of the meeting in the Opera House and what he termed the great kindness of the people to him. He spoke at the Canadian Club at one o'clock on the Boy Scout movement.

Lady Baden Powell addressed the Women's Canadian Club at a luncheon in the Royal Hotel today on the Girl Guides movement.

Chief Sea Scout of U. S.

James A. Wilder, chief sea scout of the Boy Scouts of America, arrived here to meet Sir Robert and Lady Baden Powell and will conduct them on their tour of America. He is here in place of James E. West, chief scout executive of America, who was unavoidably detained at the last moment.

Mr. Wilder, in an interview with a Times' reporter, said that he was here in the greetings of the national council to welcome the two distinguished visitors. "Great excitement prevails among the boy scouts in America," he said, "at the promised privilege of seeing the chief of all scouts." He went on to say that the Sea Scouts movement in the United States had been endorsed by all maritime agencies.
"On land eighty per cent. of the technical side of seamanship and of the sea-man's life and routine can be learned but this does not give initiation and sea judgment which are obtained only by actual contact with water and wind. The Sea Scouts are trained on both land and water," said Mr. Wilder.

He said that there would be a great rally in New York where thousands of Boy Scouts will be gathered to meet the British chief scout and it is planned to have boy scout orderlies wait on him
wherever he goes.

After All It's Service You Should Buy
When You Purchase Furniture

You are interested in the service you get when you trade with a store; it would help if you knew just what sort of service the owners of each store want to give; it would have a good deal to do with where you did your buying.

Because some new customers seemed surprised at the extra service they get here, we want to devote this advertisement to an explanation of Everett's service.
Our business has been built on the one idea of selling only good furniture; guaranteeing that it is good and that it will stay good; agreeing that you must be satisfied with what you buy here, not only when you see it attractively displayed in our store, but when you get it into your home, and always thereafter. Such satisfaction is a source of pleasure to you, and that means good will for us. This good will of our customers is the most valuable thing we have. Whenever a piece of Everett furniture fails to give complete satisfaction it fails to create good will; we therefore are anxious to replace it with something which will continue the feeling of good will.

These principles apply to every transaction in this store from a dollar and a half candlestick to a luxurious bedroom suite, and these principles have built our business.

FOR LIBERAL CONVENTION ON AUGUST 5, 6, 7

Statement issued by D. D. MacKenzie, Acting Leader

OTTAWA THE MEETING PLACE

Purposes and Make-up of the Gathering—Women Eligible as Delegates—Local Constituencies in Each Dominion Constituency to Choose Delegates by June 30

Ottawa, May 8.—D. D. MacKenzie, Liberal leader, last evening gave the following statement covering in detail arrangements made to date in connection with the National Liberal convention to be held in Ottawa during the first week of August.

"Pursuant to the announcement made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in November, 1918, and in conformity with a resolution adopted by the Liberal members of the Senate and of the House of Commons of Canada, a convention of the Liberal party is hereby called to take place in the City of Ottawa on August 5, 6 and 7 next.

"The purpose of the convention will be:— 1.—To draft, discuss and adopt the platform of the Liberal party of Canada. 2.—To deal with the question of party organization.

3.—To select a leader in succession to Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

"Following as closely as possible the plan adopted for the national Liberal convention of 1898, the representation at the forthcoming convention will be as follows:— 1.—All the members of the Senate and of the House of Commons, who desire to co-operate with the Liberal party, and all the Liberal candidates who were defeated at the last dominion election.

2.—The Liberal premiers and the leaders of the Liberal opposition in the several provinces.

3.—The presidents of the nine provincial Liberal associations.

4.—Three delegates from each dominion at a local convention, to be called for that purpose. In the case of constituencies having two parliamentary representatives, six delegates will be elected. Women will be eligible for election of delegates in all constituencies.

5.—The Liberal members of each provincial assembly and the Liberal candidates defeated at the last provincial election in each province, acting jointly, shall have the right to select from among themselves a number of delegates equal to one-fourth of the total number of representatives in each provincial assembly.

"The Liberal press throughout the land is especially and earnestly invited to attend.

"Owing to changed conditions arising out of the war, and to the desirability of co-operation among all ranks of Liberal democracy in dealing with grave national problems, invitations will be extended to the Canadian Council of Agriculture, the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, the Great War Veterans Association, and the Canadian Railroad Brotherhoods to send representatives to the convention for the purpose of presenting such views as these national bodies may desire to present, prior to the drafting and adoption of a national Liberal platform."

"To expedite and systematize the work of preparing for the convention the following resolutions have been adopted:— The call for the convention shall be sent to each provincial Liberal government, to each provincial Liberal association, to each dominion Liberal member, and to each Liberal candidate defeated at the last dominion election.

"The provincial Liberal association, in conjunction with each dominion member of the defeated candidate, as the case may be, shall arrange the date, place and hour of meeting of the local convention in each dominion constituency at which three delegates for the national convention are to be elected.

"If the sitting member, or the defeated candidate, refuses or fails to act, or, in the event of the death of such member or candidate, the parliamentary general committee may select a resident of the constituency affected by such failure, neglect or death to act in conjunction with the provincial Liberal association in taking the necessary steps to have a local convention held and three delegates elected in accordance with these regulations.

"In each constituency in which there is an active Liberal association, the sitting Liberal member, the defeated candidate or the resident selected as in the next preceding paragraph mentioned, may request the president of such association to co-operate with him in all matters relating to the calling and holding of the local convention for the election of the said three delegates.

"A local convention shall be called in each dominion constituency not later than the thirtieth day of June, 1919, for the election of the said three delegates by a majority of the votes of those present at the meeting. To ensure a representative attendance at each of such conventions, sufficient advance notice shall be given by advertisement or otherwise, and the date, hour and place of meeting shall be mentioned in such notice.

"In addition to the said three delegates there shall also be elected three alternate delegates at each of the said local conventions. Each person so elected shall be furnished with a certificate of his election as such delegate, or alternate delegate, and each of the said certificates shall be signed by the chairman and the secretary of each local convention.

"Similar certificates will be issued to the defeated Liberal candidates who are

Goulds Quarrel Over Millions Left By Jay

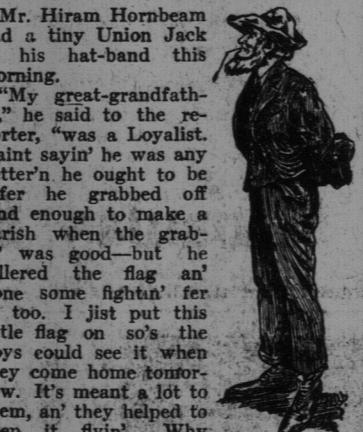

Move To Oust George J. as Chief Executor of Estate

As Hiram Sees It

New York, May 9.—The heirs of Jay Gould, railroad financier, who accumulated one of America's greatest private fortunes, are in a quarrel over the administration of the $88,000,000 estate he left them. His son, George J. Gould, chief executor of the estate, is required by a state supreme court order signed yesterday to show cause why he should not be removed.

Gould is charged with frauds "perpetrated by him even on his own brothers and sisters" and which "resulted in an aggregate loss to the estate of $25,000,000," in affidavits filed in the supreme court by his brother, Frank J. Gould, his sister, the Duchess of Fallyrand, formerly Anna, Countess de Castellane, and the guardians of several of the Gould children of the third generation.

In answering the affidavit George Gould denies the charges and is supported by a deposition made by Mrs. Helen Gould Sheppard, his sister, formerly Miss Helen Miller Gould. Mrs. Sheppard declares that the charges are "inaccurate and distinctly misleading."

Mr. Hiram Hornbeam had a tiny Union Jack in his hat-band this morning. "My great-grandfather was a Loyalist. I ain't sayin' he was any better'n he ought to be—'er he grabbed off lend enough to make a parish when the grubbin' was good—but he followed the flag an' done some fightin' fer it, too. I jist put this little flag on so's the boys could see it when they come home tomorrow. It's meant a lot to them, an' they helped to keep it flyin'. Why they was a slow-wain' young feller out to the settlement before the war that didn't seem to have more'n one idea every four weeks. Well, sir, he jined up an' went to France an' he's comin' back with a medal or cross of some kind for not knowin' one day when he was licked. The Germans didn't know it either—an' they run fast. He'd 'ave jist naturally staid there anyway, fer he never knowed when he was licked when he was a boy at school. Now he's seen a lot an' done a lot, an' by Hen! we're proud of him—yes sir. I see by the papers them Germans don't like their medicine. Well, a young feller told me last night about the fine house he stayed at in Mons for a few days. The Germans had been there a long time. One of their officers stayed at this house. He took the best bed room, punched holes in the house to get wires in, bossed everybody around, an' when he an' his crowd left they stole whatever they wanted. Nice fellers they are to talk about 'intoxicated brutality.' What would they have done to us? Soy, Mister, when them boys comes home tomorrow I'll be thinkin' about that, an' jist listen to your Uncle Hiram's yellin'.

CANADA AFTER FOREIGN TRADE

Energetic Campaign Bids Fair to Push Peace-time Exports up to Unprecedented Figures

entitled to attend the national convention as delegates. "Forms of certificates will be prepared under the direction of the parliamentary general committee at Ottawa and the persons whom they are mailed will be held responsible for their proper distribution and return. Each of such certificates duly filled in and signed as representatives must be returned so as to reach Andrew Haydon, the general secretary of the convention at 440 Elgin street, Ottawa, before the fourteenth day of July, 1919.

Paris, April 16.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Canada is in the midst of an energetic campaign for foreign trade which, from results thus far achieved, bids fair soon to push her peace-time exports up to unprecedented figures. On an average day Canada's foreign commerce, outside of that in war materials, was virtually at a standstill, that before the war, and the receipts to be greater. Canada's exports in 1914 were valued at approximately $450,000,000.

As Sir George E. Foster, Canadian minister of trade and commerce, who is in Paris, pointed out to the correspondent of the Associated Press, the foreign field for Canadian activities is virtually without limit. The difficulty which is being encountered is the inability of European countries to pay for goods, although they are anxious to get them. Canada already has granted credits of $25,000,000 each to Belgium, Greece, Rumania and France, making a total of $100,000,000. Other credits are under discussion. Large advances also have been made to the mother country to enable her to pay for products for herself and her Allies.

Canada is operating in the foreign field through a well organized system of trade commissioners. This has been supplemented by a trade mission in London and a branch mission in Paris. This machinery is designed to get into close and quick touch with European necessities with a view to placing Canada's natural and industrial resources at the service of the countries over here for reconstruction. The results thus far achieved have given rise to great optimism in regard to Canada's immediate future in trade.

A large part of Canada's war-time industries are said to be convertible for peace-time manufactures. Canada's war industries were, as a matter of fact, really an organization of her peace facilities. Sir George Foster estimates that the losses which will be sustained in the conversion will be a minimum.

Coupled with the quick return to the successful working out of the demobilization scheme for the troops. These men are rapidly being absorbed into their old occupations. All the Canadian troops remaining on this side will be back home in about two months, it is said, ready to take up their pre-war work.

DISCUSSION OF GOVERNMENT IN THE SENATE

Hon. Mr. Donville Says Effect Will Be Good

MATTERS OF DIVORCE

Sir James Loughheed's Hint in Reference to Provincial Divorce Courts—Curious Ones, or Worse, Who Want to Read Evidence

Ottawa, May 8.—Need for improvement in the machinery of the government was debated by the senate again yesterday. Senator Lynch-Staunton supported Senator McLennox's resolution in favor of a small, inner cabinet to deal exclusively with questions of policy, and also for the securing of expert technical advice on all large questions of administration. Canada, he said, had suffered greatly in the past through absence of sound, expert advice before launching upon a big enterprise.

Senator Tanner said that if Senator Lynch-Staunton's remarks were carried to their logical conclusion we would have established in Canada a system of government modelled after the administration of the Standard Oil. That, manifestly, was outside of the pale of reason. Canada must have one of two things in her government; she must have representative government, as at the present time, or government by some kind of an oligarchy.

Senator Donville said that in any case the discussion would have a good effect. It would go out to the country and would have a tendency to increase the public interest in the conduct of the people's affairs.

Senator McLennox, mover of the proposition who closed the debate, said that his intention was not to destroy, but rather to improve the usefulness and increase the efficiency of representative government.

The question has been referred to a special committee of the senate for a report.

A government bill providing that in order to prevent duplication of railways the location of all lines be referred to the railway commission, was given a third reading.

Senator Choquette, asking an explanation of the failure of the committee on divorce to collect the regular fees of divorce applicants, said that he favored the provinces having their own divorce courts, something which would be far better than "the scandalous things going on here now."

Sir James Loughheed, government leader, explained that so far as he knew the only applicants from whom fees had not been collected were returned soldiers and some others who were not in position to pay. He added:—"We may have to call upon the honorable gentleman's support for what he advocates in regard to provincial divorce courts very soon."

Senator Dandurand objected to Senator Choquette's reference to scandalous proceedings in connection with the divorce committee.

Senator Choquette replied that he had reference to the publicity divorces received through being brought to parliament. He had heard of cases where copies of the evidence taken before the divorce committee passed into the hands of people not entitled to see them, and members of the committee were frequently written to for such evidence.

PROUD OF BELONGING TO 6TH AND RETAINING NUMBER ON RETURN

The information, since proved incorrect, which was received in St. John's short time ago, to the effect that all the New Brunswick men in the heavy artillery were to be absorbed into the 4th battery for the return home, drifted back to England and there touched a tender spot in the pride of the 6th battery.

A member of the latter unit, in a letter to his home folk writes:—"I saw a clipping from a St. John paper yesterday. It stated that all the New Brunswick men in the heavy artillery had been absorbed into the 4th battery and were going home under the leadership of the O. C. of that battery. But that is not true. The 6th battery (known three years ago in St. John as the 7th) still remains a unit and is going overseas. We did our part in the 'absorbing' and added a good number of N. B. men to our roll. We are proud of the name that the battery has made in action and proud to be carrying our own number with us. 'So we don't wish it to be understood that we have been broken up, and our N. B. boys associated with the 4th battery. You can not believe how deeply the reading of that clipping touched the spirit of rivalry in the members of the 6th, not mentioning their spirit of pride, which also was badly outraged."

Of course the writer is quite correct in this and the two batteries which were recruited at about the same time and which have won glory in France will PROCLAMATION Civic Half Holiday Saturday Forenoon May 10th In order that a fitting reception may be given the fourth and sixth Siege Batteries, the first Saint John units to return as units, I hereby proclaim the forenoon of Saturday, May tenth, a civic half holiday, and request that business be suspended for this period to enable all citizens to take part in welcoming the men who have given such splendid service in defence of home and empire. R. T. HAYES, Mayor.

GERVAIS DECLARED SANE; TRIAL BEGUN Prince Albert, Sask., May 9.—"Doctor" Joseph Gervais, accused of the murder of James McKay at Steep Creek, east of here, on November 15 last, was yesterday adjudged sane and competent to stand his trial, by a special jury empanelled for that purpose. At the afternoon session of the court, Victor Carmel related some details of the shooting. He complained that he was completely under the influence of Gervais. There was practically nothing new added to the story of the shooting.

SCHEDULE OF THE SALARIES ASKED BY THE TEACHERS

Fredericton, N. B., May 7, 1919. To the Editor of The Telegraph: Sir,—I am enclosing copy of schedule of salaries of the New Brunswick Teachers' Association...

The lack of sufficient inducements to attract the best talent into the profession, the constant drain upon the profession by our teachers being attracted to lucrative pursuits and the continual exodus of our teachers to the western provinces where the salaries are much greater—these are the chief causes which have almost entirely driven men from the profession and created an alarming situation in our province.

The accompanying schedule of salaries, we think, moderate and the demands reasonable. In view of the fact that the cost of the necessities of life has about doubled, the advance of some twenty-five per cent. can surely not be considered excessive.

ENCAENIA AT HISTORIC KING'S UNIVERSITY

Degree of D. C. L. for Rev. W. R. Hibbard and Canon Smithers —St. John Students Receive Degrees

Windsor, N. S., May 8.—The King's College encaenia proceedings for today commenced with the celebration of holy communion in the Hensley memorial chapel by his grace, the Archbishop of Nova Scotia, Dr. Boyle assisting. At 10 a.m. the annual encaenia service was held in Christ church, Windsor. The members of the university, with the King's College school, cadets preceding, paraded to the church in their robes. The service was choral throughout and was presided by rector E. W. Vroom, the college choir lending splendid assistance and giving an excellent rendering of the chants and hymns.

The Convocation. Convocation was called at 2 p.m. The following programme was carried out:

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR. Bring Back its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage Tea.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients in a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wetly's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of mess.

HOW THIS NERVOUS WOMAN GOT WELL. Told by Herself. Her Sincerity Should Convince Others.

Christopher, Ill.—"For four years I suffered from irregularities, weakness, nervousness, and dizziness. Two of our best doctors failed to cure me. I heard so much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound had done for others, I tried it and was cured. I am no longer nervous, am regular, and in excellent health. I believe the Compound will cure any female trouble."

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION. Create Gas, Sourness and Pain. How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning gas, flatulence, and constipation are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Constipated Children Gladly Take California Syrup of Figs

For the Liver and Bowels. Tell your druggist you want genuine California Syrup of Figs. Full directions and dose for babies and children of all ages who are constipated, bilious, feverish, tongue coated, or full of cold, are plainly printed on the bottle. Look for the name "California" and accept no other "Fig Syrup."

Henry Smart, M.A., B.D., New York, (in absentia). Doctor of civil law, honoris causa—Rev. W. R. Hibbard, M.A., headmaster of Rothesay Collegiate school; Rev. A. W. Smithers, M.A., Fredericton. Bachelor of divinity, (in absentia)—Rev. Edgar H. Fletcher. Master of arts—Robert A. Miller, B.A., Sydney Smith, B.A., Rev. Edwin Jones, B.A., Henry T. Pimm, B.A., (in absentia), Rev. J. William Foster, (in absentia), Cyril George Pearce, (in absentia). Bachelor of arts—Class 2: T. B. Wintle, Class 3: A. E. Gabriel, Class 2: J. F. Shupe. Bachelor of civil law, (ad eundem)—J. M. Keefe, LL.B., Grand Falls; Rev. H. C. St. Clair, H. B. Vaughan Evans, L. E. Manning, A. W. Carson, C. J. Mellday, St. John Law School. Licentiate in theology—Rev. Joseph Prescott, Rev. Edgar H. Fletcher, (in absentia). Valedictory—A. E. Gabriel, B.A.

University Announcements. Governor-general's medal—T. B. Wintle, B.A. Stephenson scholarship, October, 1918—Miss A. E. Miller. Binney exhibition—Miss Lesley Pickett, Reginald Parnell. Almon Walford testimonial—H. W. Hickman. Bishop Binney prize—Horace Walsh. Debolis prize—T. B. Wintle. Dr. M. A. B. Smith prize—H. Parnell, J. Bennet. Matriculation scholarships—G. Festsforth, Rothesay school; H. J. Best, Rothesay school. Alumni oration—L. A. Forsyth, M.A., '06. A. E. Gabriel, '19, gave the valedictory. The college students entertained the proceedings with songs and yells. L. A. Fodys, M.A., '09, gave the alumni oration.

Dr. Boyle's Address. The president of the university, Rev. T. S. Boyle, D.D., welcomed the large gathering present to the convocation. He enforced in words sharp and to the point the necessity for larger and more frequent gifts of money to the institution. He said that no university can be kept going without large grants of money and that our people must dig deeper into their pockets if they wish to keep their college going.

His grace the Archbishop of Nova Scotia then gave a short speech. He reiterated the glory of Kings in the past and prophesied even more glory in the future. He emphasized the president's plea for more money. He congratulated the valedictorian and the alumni orators on their excellent orations and commented on some of the chief points of these papers, especially the proposed confederation, with Dalhousie. He, as well as the other speakers agreed in saying that Kings should remain where she is if possible. Archdeacon Forsyth also gave a short speech. He gave his congratulations to all the men who had been honored in convocation.

An "At Home." The president and Mrs. Boyle were "at home" at 4 p.m. and everybody spent an enjoyable time there. The annual encaenia ball was given at night, commencing at 8 p.m. There were about 300 guests present. The pretty dresses of the ladies and the charming decorations presented a very varied and delightful picture. The chaperones were Mrs. Boyle, Mrs. Vroom, Mrs. C. E. Willets and Mrs. J. B. MacArthur. This was the closing feature of the encaenia proceedings. The students will leave for their respective homes tomorrow. The summer vacation lasts until September 25.

The college seems to be recuperating and returning to its pre-war condition. The advance movement is almost at the end of its objective and the buildings will probably undergo thorough repairs during the summer. The prospects are very bright for a good and successful year next year and if the past one can be any indication of the future, Kings ought to go "over the top" and be an alma mater to be proud of. It has been decided to put the play "The Private Secretary" on Friday night for G. W. V. A. benefit.

Among the law graduates, who yesterday received the B.C.L. degree at the convocation of King's College, at Windsor, was John M. Keefe, barrister, of Grand Falls. Mr. Keefe studied law at Dalhousie University, Halifax, and received the LL.B. degree from that University in the class of 1911. Since his admission to the bar in 1913, he has been successfully practicing his profession at Grand Falls. He has received the law degree from King's College upon examination.

DOMINION STEEL CLERKS REQUEST CONCILIATION. Sydney, N. S., May 8.—That they will ask Ottawa for a board of conciliation under the industrial disputes act before proceeding with the proposition for a strike was the decision reached at a meeting last night of the union clerks employed by the Dominion Steel Company. The clerks also took a strike vote, the result of which is being withheld.

USE The Want Ad Way. Washing Won't Rid Head of Dandruff. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arsenic; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arsenic at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

Government Has Big Shipbuilding Plans

Parliament Asked to Vote Another Thirty Millions for Construction; Forty-four Steel Ships Now Under Contract

Ottawa, May 8.—An important statement on the government shipbuilding programme was made by Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine and naval affairs, who asked the house of commons this afternoon to vote another thirty million dollars for the construction of ships.

$42,000,000 In Contracts

The value of the contracts placed is forty-two millions and up to the end of August $20,000,000 will have been paid out. In addition to the ships being constructed for the Canadian government, many are being built for the governments of other countries.

Mr. Ballantyne said prospects for the extension of Canada's export trade were never brighter than at present and ships were absolutely necessary.

The government has placed contracts at $180 to $200 a ton deadweight which is $25 a ton lower than the prices secured by the American government, said the minister.

He added that all the plates used in the construction of the ships in Canada have been imported from the United States. Touching on the future policy of the government he announced that it had not yet been decided how many more ships would be ordered. The thirty millions he was asking for was to complete the contracts already let.

40,000 Men Employed

He said there were thirty thousand men engaged in the shipyards of the Dominion and another ten thousand in Allied industries producing boilers, engines, etc. If the government ceased building ships, forty thousand men might be thrown out of employment. For that reason the government proposed to order additional ships to keep the yards busy throughout the year 1919 and probably during part of 1920, but they ther, any who subsequently satisfied the terms of any legal conviction thereby become relieved of the disqualification provided by the act. Sir Sam Hughes—"Does this include all the defaulters under the justice and militia departments, the whole six clauses?" Mr. Meighen—"Yes."

Militia Auditor

James A. Robb was told by the minister of militia that on Feb. 8, 1918, an order-in-council was passed providing for the appointment of a general auditor for the militia department responsible to the deputy-minister, but on May 22 of the same year the general auditor of the militia department was removed from the jurisdiction of that district and made responsible to and under control of the auditor-general. He was informed that the auditor appointed was Lieutenant-Colonel D. F. Pidgeon, who joined the C. E. F. on Aug. 10, 1914, as a lieutenant, was promoted to the rank of captain, and served overseas twelve months, nine months of which he was in France. His salary was stated to be $4,120, the same as the general auditor overseas. His previous occupation was a financial and real estate broker.

In reply to Hume Cronyn, Sir Thomas White said that the signing of the peace treaty was an executive act. After the signing, the treaty would be submitted to parliament for consideration and legislative sanction. The treaty would become binding on the powers upon the disposal of the ratifications in Paris.

Another Domestic Loan

Ottawa, May 8.—The leader of the opposition, Mr. McKenna, complained in the course of the evening session of the could not go on ordering ships because there will be a limit to everything and they were getting very near that point. The shipbuilders must not expect there would be many more government orders to fill, still he realized the Canadian shipbuilders could not compete with the world and the question of bonuses or production of some kind would have to be taken into consideration. The minister referred briefly to the sensational decline in the price of steel plates from 4 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents per pound since the armistice and said negotiations would be carried on with a view to the modification or cancellation of government contracts. A quarter of a million tons had been contracted for in the United States.

Disfranchise Defaulters

Ottawa, May 8.—Hon. Arthur Meighen presented in the house this afternoon his bill to disfranchise defaulters under the M. S. A. The classes covered by the bill comprise all those who failed in their obligations under the act. They are disqualified in the following respects for a period of fifteen years:

- 1. From holding office under the Crown.
2. From being a member of parliament or a member of the senate.
3. From voting in any Dominion election.

The bill provides that any defaulters who have satisfied any conviction lawfully obtained and the punishment imposed, shall not be included. Nor are those included who came in under the amnesty proclamation of August last, nor any having been apprehended, actually served in the military forces. Fur-house tonight, that demobilization of men in the naval service at Halifax was being delayed. The men, he said, asserted that they were simply being kept there by the officers as an excuse for the officers to retain themselves in office. The bill to appropriate $850,000,000 for demobilization and other purposes was reported from committee shortly before midnight and now stands for final reading in the house. Sir Thomas White intimated that the government intended to float another domestic loan, probably in September. The amount was not stated.

AIRMAN TELLS HOW HE FLEW ACROSS ANDES MOUNTAINS

Washington, D. C., May 8.—Latin America rapidly is producing notable aviators. Every encouragement to flying is given by numerous private clubs that look upon aviation as a sport and as the solution of difficult problems of the transportation of mail, passengers and merchandise. Frequently only a few miles of air line separate two important towns between which communication except by wire is a matter of days, if not weeks. This is due to mountainous topography, lack of railways and the rough and winding character of the few roads and trails. These handicaps seem only to stimulate the young South American to greater feats in the air and the governments to overcome them by establishing regular service as a matter of business. Together these forces are working a development of aviation in South America of which North America has but little conception.

At the moment when interest in flying in centred on the proposed transatlantic trip from Newfoundland the particulars of the recent flight across the Andes of Lieutenant Dagoberto Godoy, of Chile, have come to the Pan-American Union for publication in its next bulletin. As the ocean adventure will be the greatest straightaway flight ever attempted, so was the accomplishment of the young Chilean aviator the breaking of the world's record for height in crossing mountain ranges. There are higher mountain chains than the Andes, but none, it is held, so difficult to cross by flying. To pass over the highest peaks has long been the ambition of Chilean and Argentinian aviators. The daring engineer, George Newberry, of Argentina, was the first to be killed at the foot of one of them in an attempt to accomplish the feat. Another Argentinian engineer, Senor Masias, also was killed. Lieutenant Zani next got within a few miles of the divide and was forced to come to earth. Fierros, the popular Chilean flyer, failed in turn. Bradley and Zuloaga, two aeronauts of Argentina, a year ago crossed the Andes in a balloon and Luis C. Candelaria crossed the southern ridge at a height of 2,000 meters from Zapala to Cuzco still later in an airplane.

Godoy's flight was made from Santiago to Mendoza, a distance of 210 kilometers, in one hour and twenty-eight minutes at a height of 17,300 feet. He used a monoplane with a 110 horse power Le Rhone motor. No account of his victorious achievement can excel the description he gives of it himself in a contribution to the Bulletin, in which he says: "At last I was to get a bird's-eye view of the peaks upon which I had so often gazed from the track of my airplane. The Bristol mounted into space for a time. I had not yet looked downward. I had to watch my altimeter, my compass, the regular throbs of the oil engine and the revolutions of the motor. I had to change the carburization continually and regulate the Le Rhone; and then, when my altimeter had passed the 17,000 feet, I looked downward.

"I was in an unknown world. The mountain range stood out wonderfully clear; everywhere were canyons, immense black-moutn valleys, gentle foothills and icy slopes. At the left Tupungato rose near me to my own height, or perhaps higher, like an enormous skyscraper, a magnificent yet graceful tower rearing itself toward heaven. On one side it had a long, gradual, almost horizontal slope, like a palm of the hand, white and frozen, but hospitable, inviting me to alight and linger. But the impression was fleeting. The Bristol told me I was going 180 or 190 kilometres an hour, hence the scenery altered rapidly. A moment later I crossed the frontier. My country was behind me; before me lay the sister nation and triumph—my slight but longed-for victory. "At that moment the motor missed and nearly stopped. I guessed what was the matter. The automatic engine was not working and the gasoline couldn't reach the carburetor. I worked an instant and the engine and rotary started up again before the change had affected the apparatus. I had to land. So I descended the supply of gas slightly and began to descend slowly. The needle, which had reached a maximum of 17,300 feet, gradually lowered. Then the battle began, which lasted perhaps three or four minutes. The plane seemed to be crazy. That morning there had been a wind storm on the Argentinian side. Perhaps that was the result of the cyclone. Then—calm again. And there in work. It was pointed out that this was necessary if justice was to be done to the cases brought to the attention of the society. The monthly report of the agent showed that much of his time since the last meeting had been occupied by court work. As a result of one case a boy was sent to the Boys' Industrial Home on an indeterminate sentence. In another a man was committed to stand trial on a serious charge. Three children had been placed in foster homes during the month. Several complaints had been received of cases of child neglect in which investigations had been made.

TWO OF THREE U. S. AIRPLANES REACH HALIFAX

Halifax, May 8.—Commander John H. Towers who brought N 1 and N C-4, two of three American naval hydro-aeroplanes, which left Rockaway Beach (N. Y.) at 10 o'clock this morning into Halifax harbor at 8 o'clock this evening, completing the first leg of a trans-Atlantic flight, expects to get away tomorrow on the second leg of the journey to Trepassy (Nfld). The expectation is based on the report of Professor Alexander McArdie, the meteorological expert of Harvard University, who stated tonight that the present atmospheric conditions were likely to continue for twenty-four hours at least.

Meanwhile the search for the missing N C-4 commanded by Lieutenant-Commander Read, proceeded. It was reported late tonight she had been sighted near Halifax.

Shortly after passing over No. 1 destroyer, the McDermid, stationed off Cape Cod, and before reaching the Cape Cod, the Kimberley, had been sighted, Captain Read reported that engine trouble had developed and that he would be forced to descend.

Wardships Search. The McDermid was last seen coaling up and rushing to the assistance of N C-4, but up to a late hour tonight no word had been received aboard the U. S. Baltimore, the mothership stationed here to indicate that she had been picked up. The airman report, however, that at the point at which N C-4 was forced to descend the sea was reasonably calm, with strong gusts of wind prevailing, and they anticipate no serious difficulty in rescuing the men or plane.

All the aviators agree that the leg presented the most severe one and all are delighted with the performance of the hydro-aeroplanes. They stated that the new meteorological equipment stood up especially well. Strong head winds were encountered, throwing the planes thirty degrees off their course, an extraordinary condition, according to Commander R. L. Birch who piloted No. 3 plane, the first to arrive into Halifax harbor, and the apparatus recorded perfectly the divergence entailed, enabling the ships to hold to their course with the greatest ease.

Could See Well. Commander Towers stated that the visibility throughout the trip was remarkably good and as an instance said that the Cape Cod district was spread out before them like a map before they turned east for the Nova Scotia coast. The two planes flew at various altitudes during the trip, No. 1 plane at one point ascended to 8,000 feet, the highest altitude recorded during the journey. At times the two planes were out of sight of each other, but they adhered closely to the schedule and came flying up the harbor within ten minutes of each other. An enthusiastic reception awaited them at this port, accompanied by United States Consul Young and a gathering of ladies and gentlemen prominent in official life in Halifax, where the two naval tag troops, stationed near the entrance to the harbor, and wildly cheered the planes as they took the water.

The craft anchored in the harbor, joined in the enthusiasm and the city was appraised of the fact that a real start had been made in the conquering of the Atlantic by hydro-aeroplanes. Later Captain Hines and Consul-General Young went aboard the Baltimore and warmly congratulated the aviators upon their achievement. They found the intrepid airman at dinner thoroughly tired as a result of the day's trip but enthusiastic over the performance of their planes and eagerly discussing with Professor McArdie the possibilities for the morrow. Just before the official party left the Baltimore a look-out reported that the N C-4 was in sight, but the searchlights which were immediately brought into play were unfortunately failed to detect the missing seaplane.

In the present weather conditions continue and a start is made tomorrow on the second leg, the aviators plan to hug the Nova Scotia coast until they are off Louisbourg and then make directly for Newfoundland. They say that after the experience of the run to Halifax they are absolutely confident of completing the second leg on schedule time.

No. 4 Passes Cape Cod. Washington, May 8.—Commander Albert C. Reed, of the seaplane No. 4, reported to the navy department at 2 o'clock through the Chatham (Mass.) station, that his plane was experiencing engine trouble and might be forced to land.

A station ship north of Cape Cod reported that the N C-4 passed here at 2:18 p. m., showing that the seaplane was still going despite the engine trouble.

A radio message from the N C-4 reported that the oil pump on the motor that had been causing trouble had been repaired. It was assumed at the navy department that the plans was proceeding.

The seaplane squadron was in communication with the third station ship, the destroyer Delphy, at 4:10 o'clock this afternoon, according to an intercepted message. Commander Towers had not reported passing the Delphy, however. Station ship No. 3 is approximately 350 miles from Rockaway Beach and less than 200 miles from Halifax where the first lap of the flight ended.

Again Postponed. St. John's, Nfld., May 8.—Flying was again abandoned today owing to bad weather conditions.

The American airman at Trepassy are likewise inactive, three inches of snow having fallen this morning and a heavy rain storm is now raging. It is regarded as probable that both British and American fliers will make their start from Newfoundland on or about May 14, with weather expected to be favorable for aerial navigation.

Denial in Commons. London, May 8.—(Reuter's)—In the house of commons replying to Lieutenant-Colonel Malone, member for Leyton, Major-General Seely, contradicted the report that the air ministry had recently interrogated prospective fliers regarding the reasons for their delay in starting. An attitude of the air ministry, far from urging on the attempt, was to enjoin caution. The officers attempting the flight were not under the ministry's control.

BRITISH GUNBOATS REPEL BOLSHEVIKI IN THE NORTH. Archangel, May 7.—(By the Associated Press)—British gunboats were active against the Bolsheviki for the first time yesterday. They co-operated with a strong patrol which broke through an enemy outpost north of Tulgas and destroyed dumps and an ammunition dump. A Bolsheviki attempt against the British, American and Russian positions at Malo Beresnik was repulsed.

Paris yesterday. That is the all-important part of the instructions. The Tribune—A wild beast, breaking all fetters of morality and demoralizing savage jaws, sprang at the throat of civilization. To cage the monster—this was the war, its shibboleth, "Unconditional surrender." But it was not enough temporarily to confine. Duty demanded the bars be thick and strong. This was the Herald—What difference of opinion there may be concerning the practicability of a League of Nations, there can be none over the inspiration of the terms upon which Germany is permitted to have peace. These are dictated by retributive justice. There should be no misunderstanding of this fact.

ADD ANOTHER STOREY TO THE COURT HOUSE? If the walls will stand it, the municipality will add another storey to the court house and fix up the ruined building. At the meeting of the buildings committee of the municipal council, held yesterday afternoon in the county secretary's office, John Thornton presiding, the rebuilding of the court house was the only matter taken up. There was considerable discussion and it was the opinion generally that the old court house should be rebuilt and it was decided to appoint G. G. Hare, city engineer, and a builder, yet to be named, to go over the building and find out if the walls are fit to stand another story. This course means that the question cannot be disposed of at Tuesday's session of the council, in which case it will have to stand for another three months.

It is learned that the bills' committee of the council will propose a bill at Tuesday's meeting, to extend the police district from the City Line, West End, as far as South Bay, for the purpose of providing police protection for points along the line. It is uncertain how the council will dispose of this for it will probably mean the appointment of one or more mounted policemen. There has been quite a clamor from this section of the county for more protection because of the recent burglaries. The finance committee of the council met again yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the General Public Hospital for the purpose of viewing the proposed sight for the new nurses' home. No definite decision was reached. It is stated, but the proposition is to come before the full council. The home will involve an expenditure of $105,000.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND TO HAVE OPEN VOTING. Charlottetown, May 8.—According to resolutions submitted in the legislature today by Premier Arsenault the ballot act is to be repealed and replaced by open voting in the provincial elections. At present half the members in the house are known as councillors and the other half as assemblymen. The former are elected by property holders only and the latter by property owners and popular vote. It is proposed to abolish the dual qualification. Soldiers and sailors who served overseas or in Canada are to be given the franchise. The reason given for the change in the election act is that the system of dual qualification necessitates a double ballot which resulted in a large number of ballots being spoiled at the last general election.

The delegates said they had expected from the newspaper reports that the demands in many respects would be far-reaching, but were not prepared for the terms as actually laid down in the printed copy of the document. New York Comment. New York, May 8.—The following comment on the peace treaty appears in the New York press: Times—Against the German peril the world is made safe by the terms of the treaty handed to the representatives of that vanquished and humbled power at Versailles, May 8.—(By the Associated Press)—The German delegates to the peace congress complained bitterly today to one of the French officers of the unexpected harshness of the conditions of peace.

The delegates said they had expected from the newspaper reports that the demands in many respects would be far-reaching, but were not prepared for the terms as actually laid down in the printed copy of the document.

POLICE TROUBLES IN BRITISH MEROPOLIS. London, May 8.—(By Canadian Associated Press)—The home secretary, while admitting that the police had legitimate grievances, was very emphatic in assuring the house of commons last night that no official recognition would be extended to the London police trades union. Little doubt is, however, felt that the cabinet is considerably uneasy about the unrest in the London force. It is stated that Sir Neville MacCreedy, chief police commissioner, has gone to Paris to see Premier Lloyd George, a remarkable proceeding in view of the fact that the home secretary is responsible to parliament for police matters. Several thousand London police held a demonstration in Trafalgar Square on Sunday. The proceedings which were quite orderly, were watched by the home secretary and the police commissioner. The police talk of barbarous punishment given to certain members, but the police chief declares some men have been dismissed for forsaking patrols at night, and others for defying all authority. So far there has been no open talk of another general strike.

AFGHANS INVADE INDIA

London, May 8.—Afghan tribesmen have crossed Afghan border with the assistance of Afghan regular troops and have occupied certain positions on the India side of the border, according to a despatch from the Indian foreign office. Military precautions have been taken by the British who have addressed a vigorous note to the Amir. It has been reported for some time that the new Amir had adopted unfriendly attitude toward the British, and contemplated a violation of the northwest frontier and Khyber Pass, the principal northern pass into that country from India. No large number of tribesmen are concerned, but they have occupied some heights of importance commanding two roads leading across the frontier.

TORONTO GUNNER AT RHYL IS ACQUITTED

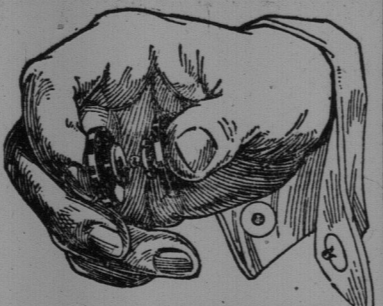

Liverpool, May 8.—(Reuters).—At the Kimmel Park court-martial today a Toronto University student, Gunner Elliott Evans, of the Canadian artillery, was acquitted after two previous hearings on a charge of participating in mutiny. Sergeant Wingham stated he had witnessed the attack by the rioters on a body of cavalry while mounting their horses. The accused, he said, had a brick and stone in his hands and was one of those who threw missiles at the cavalry. Next day witnesses saw the accused in the Salvation Army hostel at Rhyll in conversation with other soldiers regarding the riots. Witness heard him say "I was through it all. I got six thousand cigarettes. If I am not away soon it will start again."

Regina, May 8.—The royal commission appointed to investigate the causes of industrial unrest throughout the country, presided over by Chief Justice Mathers of Manitoba, opened sessions in Regina today and evidence of industrial unrest was disclosed by five witnesses representing the employers and employees. Three statements bearing on general industrial conditions were submitted, some suggestions for remedying them were offered and these included nationalization of the lands and production for use instead of for profit. Those who appeared before the commission were J. Sambrook, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council for Working Women; W. Wilson, representing the builders' exchange; Daniel MacDonald, representing the machinists' union in the Trades and Labor Council; Mrs. R. Asals, representing the Women's Labor League, and T. M. CAPTURE OF McCULLOUGH

Toronto, May 8.—Frank McCullough, condemned murderer, of Youngstown, Ohio, who made his escape from Toronto jail on April 15, with his evasion fixed for May 2, was recaptured this morning. When the police knocked at the door of a room in a house on Bathurst street, he jumped out of a back window to a shed in a lane, and gazed into the muzzles of five revolvers held by police and detectives. The man gave up and was led to the cells at the City Hall, his hands bound by strong cords. The discovery of his hiding place undoubtedly came out through the arrest of Vera Lavelle and the tracing of her movements since April 15. The window of the room in which McCullough had been hiding since his escape over the Cross livery stable on King street, where McCullough in November last killed Acting Detective Williams, who was seeking to arrest him for store robberies. The room was rented two weeks ago by Vera Lavelle, who gave her name as Mrs. Knight, and said McCullough was her husband. She is now on trial for assisting him to escape. He was furnished with food by her and he has been in hiding there since his escape. Read All About Himself.

After the arrest of Vera Lavelle the landlady got him what he wanted in the way of food. She declares he used to read to her the stories about himself in the newspapers. She never suspected who he was till the police called on her today. McCullough was preparing to get away on a bicycle when captured today. He made no further attempt to escape when the police covered him with their revolvers. When he saw he was covered he exclaimed: "I having nothing on me. I am off guns. What are you going to do?" In the opinion of experts in criminal law there is no doubt that date upon which Frank McCullough is to be hanged under the circumstances of the two previous, is June 13. The date originally set for the executive was May 2.

FORMAL WELCOME FOR REV. MR. YOUNG

The congregation of the Mission Church met last evening to welcome Rev. J. V. Young on his return to the city after his six months absence due to injuries received in Montreal.

The formal welcome was held in the evening in the school room of the church and was preceded by a short thanksgiving service in the church when special prayers of thanksgiving were offered by Rev. Father H. E. Bennett for Father Young's recovery. After the service the very large gathering repaired to the school rooms which were gayly decorated with flags and bunting and presented a festive appearance. Everyone was eager to shake hands with the priest in charge and Mrs. Young and when this had been accomplished the meeting was called to order by Colonel E. T. Sturdee, one of the trustees, who formally welcomed Rev. Father Young and Mrs. Young on behalf of the congregation, stating how anxiously it had watched for news of him during his illness and how his prayers had been offered daily in church and at home. Colonel Sturdee said also that all were glad to see Father Young amongst them and hoped he would continue to improve in health daily. The three cheers for the priest which were then called for were heartily given.

In reply, Father Young spoke feelingly and said that it was the happiest day of his life. He told how he had longed during his illness to be back among his people, and said that now he realized he thanked his congregation for their patience in awaiting his return and for all the kindness shown to him and Mrs. Young. He also thanked them for responding to his request to pay off the deficit at Easter. He had been astounded to hear that the offertories had amounted to $1,200. In concluding Father Young referred to the grand work done by Rev. Father Bennett in his absence.

Addresses by Others. Addresses were then given by Venerable Archbishop Crowfoot, Canon Armstrong, Rev. G. A. Kubring and Rev. J. W. Millidge. A piano solo by N. Mackenzie followed, after which the chairman addressing Rev. Father Bennett, thanked him in the name of the congregation for carrying on the work of the church so faithfully and presented him a purse of more than $120 in gold, amid much applause. Father Bennett said that the presentation was a great surprise and thanked the people for their gift. He told of his difficulties and how he had often been helped by the city clergy in carrying on the services.

A song by Miss Reynolds followed and was much appreciated. The gathering, the largest in the history of the Mission church, then turned into a conversation and bountiful refreshments were dispensed by the ladies of the Guild of St. Monica.

AIDS TO NAVIGATION INTEREST ENGINEERS

The St. John branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada held an interesting meeting last night with C. C. Kirby in the chair. There was a large attendance and much interest was taken in a paper on "Aids to Navigation in New Brunswick waters," given by G. S. Macdonald, resident engineer of the marine and fisheries department. He described the different types of lighthouses and equipment, foghorns and buoys, comparing the modern ones with the obsolete methods. He explained, too, that in the last few years a saving of fifteen per cent. was made in the cost of maintenance because of the improvements. He told at some length of a buoy recently installed which is run by compressed gas cylinders which operate for a year without attention. The latest equipment includes a daylight valve which cuts off the main burner during daylight hours and relights it at dark.

The paper was fully discussed, bringing out interesting information on the action of sea water on concrete works in local sea waters. As a result a committee was appointed to investigate this. The committee recently appointed to act as an employment bureau for engineers reported having sent out circulars to employers of engineers notifying them that they could furnish capable men.

Plans were discussed for the general professional meeting to be held in the fall in co-operation with the Halifax branch.

AMOUR'S ENLARGING THEIR FIELD SOON

To Open New Store at 247 Union Street, Next Door to Wiesel's Shoe Store

Determined by fair square dealing, compelled by high quality and dominated by the lowest prices the markets permitted, the business established by Amour's in West St. John in 1916 has in a remarkably brief period, developed and expanded to such immense proportions that the firm has been forced to extend their operations to the city proper.

Several new departments in the West End store have been taxed to supply patrons from the eastern as well as the western section of the city, and with the object of increasing the efficiency of the Amour's service, the firm will soon open at 247 Union street, next door to Wiesel's shoe store, a large and well-equipped retail store in which high grade merchandise consisting of millinery, ladies' wear, dry goods and men's furnishings will be offered for approval to the public.

From a "standing" start absolutely without good will, prestige or even wide social acquaintance in West St. John, Amour's have built up the largest retail business in that section of the city; it is only reasonable to assume that with the assets of an established reputation and a long list of satisfied customers, they enter on their new venture with promise of even greater and swifter success than they achieved in West St. John.

Low prices as soon and as often as the market permit has been and will continue to be the watchword of the firm, and this fact combined with the quality and service Amour's provide is certain to carry their new store forward and upward among the leading retail houses of the city.

The firm's expansion have developed an additional buying power for the promotion of volume of sales and great benefit to patrons. They will be able to purchase merchandise in larger lots, having two channels, east and west, in which to distribute them, they will be able to get and give very best prices. It is planned to celebrate the opening of the new store at 247 Union street by holding a sale during next week, which announcement will appear "previous to sale with full details."

Stock is already being received from New York, Montreal and other centres in considerable quantities and Amour's are planning special inducements in their inaugural sale.

The entry of Amour's into the city proper is only logical after their phenomenal success; their coming is an event of marked interest; their opening sale is a matter of concern to all to whom good quality and low prices are of significance.

Peruvian Government Makes Announcement That Railway Will Be Built Connecting With Amazon's Headwaters

Washington, D. C., May 9.—An official announcement has been made that the Peruvian Government has undertaken an ambitious project designed to connect the Pacific with the Atlantic in the widest part of South America.

Government officials here are greatly interested in this undertaking because of American interests in Peru that will be benefited, and because of the practically unknown territory that will be opened up. About all that is known of much of this territory, both in Peru and Brazil, is that it is rich in agricultural possibilities and virgin forests of lumber of many kinds and of vast extent exist in these regions.

An American company owning the Cerro de Pasco mines in Peru has been forced to import lumber for timbering the hillsides at the mines, in spite of the fact that these extensive forests are so close at hand. The lack of communication with these forests has prevented the owners of the properties from getting the lumber necessary for their work without shipping it from far distant points.

With the construction of the new railway line, this lumber will be brought within easy reach. But mine timber is the least of the advantages that will be obtained by means of the new line. The forests abound in valuable woods widely sought by furniture makers and cabinet workers, some of it hitherto rare and difficult to secure.

The interest of the Peruvian Government in the development of the country that the new railroad will bring about, lies in the fact that it will make communication between the capital, on the Pacific coast, and the Peruvian river port, Iquitos on the Amazon river, comparatively easy. This will facilitate public administration and the section of the country, as well as develop commercial intercourse between the different parts of the republic.

It was further announced that the formation of Louis Sherry, Incorporated, a four-hundred-thousand-dollar corporation, to carry on the candy and catering business, comprehends an alliance with the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, which will put the Sherry service into that hotelery. Sherry's will not, as had been previously proposed, occupy quarters opposite its present site.

Part of the business will go to the Waldorf and the rest to the new shop, for which Mr. Sherry has leased quarters at the corner of Fifty-eighth street and Fifth avenue. C. K. Wilson for many years Sherry's manager, will be vice-president in charge of operating details. The alliance with the Waldorf, Mr. Sherry believes, is an excellent business stroke. The public rooms at the Waldorf will care for the functions regularly at Sherry's. Sherry's present place will be occupied by the Guaranty Trust Company.

BREWERS GAINING HOLD IN CUBA

Chicago, May 9.—Cuba, for its own protection, must adopt a prohibition act or face ruin at the hands of the brewers who are gaining a strong hold there," said Dr. W. C. Johnson yesterday.

The brewers in Havana are organizing in expectation of increased trade when the United States goes dry.

At Panama, every large saloon is controlled by former Americans, according to Dr. Johnson, who is head of the Temperance Board of the Presbyterian Church. His home is in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Recently he toured Cuba and Central America in the interests of universal prohibition.

REV. A. H. SYKES DISCUSSES HIS WIFE'S TROUBLE

Prominent Minister of the Gospel Believes It His Duty To Make Public the Facts In the Case.

It is seldom, indeed, that men of prominence, especially ministers of the gospel, willingly express their indebtedness publicly to a proprietary medicine. However, when a medicine obtains of that singular purity and efficiency that is shown by the uniform preparation, Tanlac, statements from our best citizens are to be considered thoroughly commensurate with the good that is actually being accomplished.

Rev. A. H. Sykes, pastor of the Watkins Park Presbyterian church, Nashville, Tenn., prominent not only as a minister of the gospel, but popular as a man and citizen, who has been true to his friends and every trust, said recently:

"For the past ten months Mrs. Sykes has been in very delicate health, suffering from both stomach and kidney trouble, which gradually developed into a general nervous breakdown. At times her condition was alarming and I frequently sought medical advice, but nothing we could do for her seemed to bring any relief.

"In fact, she suffered so long and so much that I felt it my duty to let everyone know what this medicine has done for her. For several months her condition was such that she had to remain in bed and as a last resort I decided to let her try Tanlac.

"I am a conservative man," continued Rev. Sykes, "and have always been skeptical regarding the use of proprietary medicines, but this case has certainly proved an exception. Tanlac is a remedy of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think I have ever seen anything give such prompt results.

How San Francisco Welcomed Returning Heroes

Formations Shattered

Reception Programme Lasted Until First Mother Sees Son. Then Shock Division of Relatives Flatten Platoons Into Long Thin Line

(San Francisco Chronicle.) Rome in the days of her glory knew the meaning of high old times when the senate ordered a triumph for some conquering Caesar who returned from the battlefields of Gaul or Germany with captive kings in manacles trotting beside his chariot wheels.

But Rome in its glory never saw anything that foreshadowed a ghost of the splendor of the welcome that San Francisco gave yesterday to the heroes of the gallant 368th and 347th regiments. The city of the Golden Gate overdid itself and all its records. It is improbable that in any city at any time any body of troops was received with such a joyous whirlwind of enthusiasm.

Police, street ropes, military—every available human agency of restraint and limitation, was swept away in the irresistible surge of affection and delight that obsessed the multitude.

That multitude was so vast—so unexpectably great in its exuberance and its numbers—that the line of march was not long enough to afford room for all within the barriers. Had that line been denser than was ever before seen at any similar gala demonstration in any city of the union.

As it was, Whoop! Argonne and Powder River, Private Jones and Mary Jane, father, mother, the adjutant and the babies, were all mixed up in one hopeless swirl of kisses, cheers and yellow poppies before the million horsepower siren, or whatever else it is on the ferry building, had ceased to hurl its stentorian welcome to the blue skies.

Mother love and sweethearts' kisses smashed military regulations to splinters before the head of the 368th had even reached Beale street.

Tears and embraces overwhelmed the fighters who had licked the Prussian Guard. Military formations melted before the onslaught of mothers and sisters and sweethearts, military discipline was barred from the spot at Market and Beale, where the banner lay in the mayor's car, and struggled back with it to the place where the mayor, with Colonel Cavanaugh and the regimental staff were held up.

A space was cleared, fully six feet wide, and the mayor presented the flag. Colonel Cavanaugh waved the banner; "This is our guidon, boys," he shouted; "we will follow this."

But they did not follow it. In that press they could not. Neither could the colonel advance. One hour later Colonel Cavanaugh was not fifty yards farther up the street. The flag disappeared for a time, finally to reappear and to stand for an hour or more between Spear and Beale streets as a rallying point for the home folk.

Who could have believed before that those boys had so many relatives and so many sweethearts? From the Ferry to Fremont, Market street was jammed with the home folk, searching that thin line as it filtered westward through the press. Mothers stood weeping, waiting for their sons to struggle through. Here, there and everywhere, where shouts of triumph, cries of joy and sobs of pure happiness as the women folk caught their men and pulled them out of line into embraces they had been saving up for two long, anxious years.

There were times when ripples of kisses ran along the line. In the hour when the soldiery was completely held up by the crowd, the line became a string of knots of women and non-comrades and fathers, sisters and brothers, wives and sweethearts, hanging on to their soldier boys.

One Long Thin Line. As the line worked its way through it brushed on either side a wall of eager faces, straining for the first glimpse of the boy. Momentarily the cry broke out, "Here he comes!" The soldier struggled forward, fell into his mother's arms, was overwhelmed with tears and laughter and kisses tried to break away to keep with his comrades, and succeeded only in drawing his dear ones into the current.

The warriors who rushed the Prussian machine guns in the Argonne thickets cried frankly and openly in their mothers' arms.

Tears Dampen Uniforms. Mothers and sisters cried with them. Uniforms were wet with tears. Those who had not yet found their boys were sometimes inclined to look on these demonstrations with disdain, but they forgot it when their turn came.

Those people ought to be ashamed to carry on so," said a young woman who waited long at Market and Beale streets. Two minutes later she gave a cry, dove into the mass, seized a soldier and wept honestly and openly with him.

Two years of waiting, two years of anxiety, had brought those wives and mothers to such a pitch of feeling that emotion broke all bounds in the joy of realizing that hope long deferred. No one who saw it will ever forget the glory that shone on the faces of those mothers and sisters, and in the bronzed countenances of the stark warriors who met them.

Samples of concrete blocks for house building were received yesterday by the city engineer and were placed on exhibition at city hall. They are of the kind used in rebuilding the devastated portion of Halifax.
