MR. N. A. RHODES, OF AMHERST, IS DEAD

The End Came at Five O'clock This Morning

Complications, Following an Operation for Appendicitis, the Cause—Captain of Industry.

AMHERST, Sept. 30.—The death occurred here at 5 o'clock this morning after an illness of a little more than one week of Mr. N. A. Rhodes, vice president of the Rhodes Curry Co., Ltd., and one of the best known and most highly esteemed business men in Eastern Canada. Last Wednesday week while returning from Sydney Mr. Rhodes was taken ill on the train, suffering considerably until he reached Amherst. After medical aid had been summoned relief was obtained but during the night he became worse and his attending physicians realized that his condition was serious. Dr. McKay was summoned from Halifax and on arrival an operation for appendicitis was deemed advisable. The operation proved opportune, and highly successful and his many friends hoped for a speedy recovery. However other symptoms developed and it was found that his case was very serious. Two specialists were summoned, one from Montreal, via C. P. R., via St. John and another from Metaspedia last night, but it was found that nothing could be done, and the end came at five o'clock this morning. Mr. Rhodes having been unconscious since Tuesday.

A feature of the case is that his only son, Edgar N. Rhodes, M. P., is in the West and cannot reach home for at least a week. His many friends in the town, the province, and the Baptist denomination all lose a valued and highly respected friend and helper. Mr. Rhodes could well be titled a captain of industry. He was identified with everything that was for the betterment of the community in which he lived, he was a valued member of the First Baptist church, a governor and a generous giver to Acadia University, a member of the executive of the movement missionary movement and in fact prominently identified with nearly all schemes for the betterment of man. He is survived by his wife and one son, Edgar N. M. P. of Cumberland, N. Curry, President of the Rhodes Curry Co., a brother-in-law, Mr. Rhodes, Currier, and for some thirty years has been identified with him in business. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon.

S. A. JONES. Simon A. Jones, of Jones and Schofield said that his firm imported molasses and grocery sugar from the West Indies. He had no fault to find with the steamship service as fast steamers were not necessary for the trade. He suggested that if the West Indies gave Canada a tariff on goods shipped direct and limited it to goods shipped direct

DIRECT SERVICE TO THE WEST INDIES IS STRONGLY ADVOCATED BY ST. JOHN MEN

Delay in Halifax Under the Present System is Ruinous—Want Better Care Taken of Freight ---Commission Ended Its Sitting at Noon Today---Leaving for Halifax.

The inquiry conducted by the Canada-West Indies Trade Commission in this city which commenced yesterday afternoon, was brought to a conclusion at noon today. The witnesses heard this morning were Alex Rogers, of Hopewell Hill, Albert Co., Andrew Malcolm, S. A. Jones, F. A. Peters, J. S. Armstrong, C. E., G. E. Barbour and L. G. Crosby.

The West Indian trade was discussed in many phases, but the problems of transportation loomed largest in the evidence given. The commission adjourned at noon and will leave for Halifax tonight. Mr. W. H. Thorne has placed his yacht the "Dream" at the disposal of the party and will take them on a cruise around the harbor this afternoon.

The Canada-West Indies trade commission resumed its session in the Board of Trade rooms at ten o'clock this morning. Alex Rogers was the first witness. He stated that he was interested in the export of hay to the West Indies. The Canada-West Indies trade commission resumed its session in the Board of Trade rooms at ten o'clock this morning. from Canadian ports, the export trade would grow so rapidly that the problem of sufficient transportation would solve itself. The trade would be so profitable that plenty of steamers would be chartered. His firm did business on their own account, and as they imported molasses direct they paid no duty on it. They imported about 12-000 puncheons a year.

In reply to Sir J. Dickson Poynter Mr. Jones pointed out that large quantities of Canadian produce now goes through New York, and a direct preference would divert this trade to St. John.

In answer to Hon. Mr. Paterson, the witness said that if Barbados and Porto Rico were on equal tariff terms the latter would get a share of the business now monopolized by Barbados. ANDREW MALCOLM. Andrew Malcolm said that he formerly did a much larger export business than he does now. In 1898 a direct service was inaugurated and when Halifax was added to the ports of call the facilities were so much poorer that his trade dropped off. He shipped potatoes, fish, butter and general cargo. An improvement was made if the steamer made a shorter stay at Halifax or if each alternate port made a shorter stay. He would not say what additional expense this would involve to the steamer. Lord Balfour pointed out that the present service was costing the Government $7,000 a year and asked if the witness thought that with a weekly service the trade would grow to an extent to make the trade self sustaining.

MONCTON DRINKING LESS LIQUOR THAN LAST YEAR

Customs Receipts Show Heavy Decrease—Moncton Feeling Effect of Storm—City Reservoir May Overflow.

MONCTON, N. B., Sept. 30.—The storm has had its effect in Moncton. Cash receipts have been overthrown and the city employees find it necessary to make daily visits. The tides in the river are exceptionally high, completely submerging the wharves, while the reservoir has risen over two inches and will probably overflow.

Peter Dowd this morning had two fingers badly smashed in the I. C. R. erecting shop by having a piece of iron fall on them. The customs returns for the month show a decrease as compared with that of the corresponding month last year. The imports for Sept., 1909, are $4,458, compared with $59,594 during Sept. last year. The duties levied in 1909 are $750, and last year $325. It is said that the smaller importation of liquor is the cause of the decrease.

BLACKSMITH INJURED BY REARING HORSE

H. Schweinhelmer Struck on the Forehead by Animal's Hoof.

H. Schweinhelmer, an employee of J. Arthur Fitzgerald, blacksmith, of Sydney street met with quite a serious accident on Charlotte street about noon today. Schweinhelmer was leading Dr. Baxter's horse to the shop and when opposite Chipman's drug store the horse suddenly reared and struck Schweinhelmer on the forehead and hurt him painfully. He was carried into Chipman's drug store where Dr. Duttle was called and attended to his injuries. The horse ran away but was later recaptured.

A meeting will be held in the Y.M.C.A. rooms tonight at seven o'clock for the purpose of arranging a senior city football league. The prospects are that the league will be composed of the Marathons, Algonquins, St. Peter and Carltons.

MONTREAL BRICK LAYERS PLANNING A BIG STRIKE

Issue Ultimatum Saying They Will Stand Out for Closed Shop.

MONTREAL, Sept. 30.—There is likely to be a strike of the bricklayers and stonemasons after Oct. 15. Today they issued a printed ultimatum saying that they would stand out for the closed shop and no union brick layer or stone mason would work in an open shop after that date on contracts signed on or after that date. There is no wage question involved. A. B. Moly manager of the Dominion Brick Co. has resigned and will go to New York to live. The reason given is age and desire for a rest.

SACKVILLE, N. B., Sept. 30.—On a date early in October a concert will be given in the Music Hall by a concert company of St. John, under the auspices of the Sackville Fire Department. The company will include Mrs. S. Kent South, pianist, Miss Olivia Murray, violinist, Miss Frances Travers, soprano, and J. A. Kelly.

THE RIVER ROSE THREE FEET TODAY

Has Now Beaten the Record for Fall Freshet

But the Worst is Over—Railway Traffic Resumed—Son of Gov. Gordon to Visit the Capital.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 30.—For the first time in seven days the sun broke through the clouds at noon today and the weather is gradually clearing. The wind shifted to the southwest at midnight and everything points to fine weather. Both the L. C. R. and Gibson branch trains arrived this morning and it is now thought the worst is over. The tracks on these lines are in many places under water but by travelling slowly the trains manage to get through. The main river still continues to rise. During the past twenty-four hours it has come up over four feet and between midnight last night and eight o'clock this morning it rose over two feet and a half and since then about three inches. It is now within three feet of the freshet water mark reached last spring. The river is full of floating shore wood and many logs. The Star Line freight shed is flooded and a large quantity of cord-wood piled on the wharf is all about but is being saved by a boom set just below the wharf. As a fall freshet it has no equal.

The Nashuaak still continues to rise and the highway along that river is in many places entirely submerged. The highway bridge above Marysville was swept away last night and other bridges are in a critical condition. With the ceasing of the rain it is expected that the water will drop very rapidly. Hon. Mr. Gordon, son of Sir Arthur Gordon, the last Governor of the Province before Confederation, 1882-1887, is visiting Canada, and is to arrive here by boat this afternoon and register at the Queen. Mr. Gordon is anxious to once again see the old government house where so many happy days were spent. Mr. March, an old friend of the former Governor, has been asked to meet the distinguished visitor.

TAX COLLECTIONS ARE LARGER THAN LAST YEAR

Tomorrow Ends the Time Allowed for Discount and Offices Will be Open Until Midnight.

Tomorrow is the last opportunity afforded to taxpayers to save the discount on their taxes. The Chamberlain's office was thronged this morning with people anxious to add their contribution to the city funds. It was estimated this afternoon that the total collections to date are rather larger than last year, but whether this year's total will exceed the amount collected last year cannot be told until tomorrow night. The last day is always the heaviest, and the difference in the one day's collections might be sufficient to make the total go above or below the previous record.

TRAINS AGAIN DELAYED BY THE WASHOUTS

But Lines Have Been All Repaired and the Service Will be Better Tomorrow

To accommodate those who cannot get to the City Hall during the regular hours, the office will be kept open until midnight tomorrow.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from two drops to a teaspoonful, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case that fails to cure. Miss Elizabeth Aldford, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore a dress of grey novelty cloth with hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Fred Cousin of this city. A wedding reception was held after the ceremony at the residence of Mr. Aldford, 15 Duke street. Among the many presents of which the bride was the recipient was the groom's gift of a beautiful diamond ring. The happy couple will leave on the Boston express for Ottawa, where they will make their home.

THE MASTER EYE MARKS THE WINNER

Peculiar Traits of Runners, Ball Players and Others

Simple Experiment Showing How to Find Master Eye—Billiard Players Best Illustration of Eye-Mastership.

In the physiology of sport the eyes, the brain and the voluntary muscles are the three most important things, the eye being the most vital of all. Every sportsman who depends upon his vision to measure distances or the accuracy of his shots, or the position of his ball, has what is termed the "master eye," that is he depends upon one of his eyes to do the minute calculation. It may be the right or the left, for men are differently constructed, and they vary in their methods according. To prove the existence of the master eye one need only watch the doing of the baseball player, the golfer and the tennis player.

For instance, every time the baseball pitcher tries to put the sphere sideways and can only see the batter with one eye, as he sends the ball away; the golfer on the green, as he addresses the ball before he makes the drive, has his eye on the next hole, and as he stands sideways is measuring the distance between greens with his "master eye." The same side movement is noticeable among the tennis players, for as the server stands at the base line and throws the ball in the air for a good smashing service he turns sideways as he swings the racket, all the time the "master eye" having measured the "fault" lines of the court, similar conditions apply to track and field sports and the men who take part in them.

Pole vaulters, high and broad jumpers, all do the chief part of their work with the eye, and it is a notable fact that the man who holds the world's record for the running broad jump never measured his strides to the take-off but trusted to his eye. It is a fact also that he never made a mistake or a bad break in his whole career as an athlete, and it was a very rare one and exceptionally brilliant. Every man, whether or not he might be a sportsman, has a "master eye," and it needs but a simple experiment to find out which eye it is.

Any one desirous of finding out can take a sheet of note paper and in the center cut a hole about an inch in diameter, placing the piece cut out on the floor. Then with both eyes open the sheet of paper should be held about an arm's length away with the piece on the floor visible through the hole. One eye—the left—should then be closed, and if the piece of white paper still visible through the hole the right eye is the "master eye." On the other hand, if the right is opened and the left closed and the object paper is visible to the left, it is the "master eye."

Some very interesting points are revealed by this slight experiment. When the paper is held in position with the eyes open that which is the "master eye" will be found to be in a straight line with the hole in the paper, the other eye being to one side of a line which joins the hole and the object.

Another method of finding the master eye has long been known to gun makers. When they want to find out they get a man to aim at some object and note carefully how he goes about his work, and from his movements that which is the master eye is detected; that is, whether the muscles are acting in a right or left eye vertical plane. In aiming with the gun a man usually places the master eye on the same vertical plane as the sights and then points it at the object; the master eye plane is made, it being the same as the sights on the centre of the barrel. Then as the barrel, eye and the object are one and the same plane the correct elevation is the only requisite needed to cause the bullet to hit the mark.

In the practical application of the physiological facts of the master eye there is another factor to be considered, that is motion, that is as it is applied to the sports and pastimes in which the objects are moving. These may be divided into two classes, one where the object moves, such as baseball, tennis, and clay pigeon shooting; target shooting, where the object is stationary. To be able to hit a moving object a man must be able to form an accurate estimate of the speed at which it is travelling. Therefore when the eye focuses the moving object the locating muscles of the eyeball must travel in the same direction and keep speed with the moving object so that the eye gives the cue to the brain at what rate the object is moving. It is much the same as a man trying to keep a fast moving object on the end of a camera.

But of all these games there is none better for the illustration of the master eye than billiards, for there is the real tendency for the muscles to act in what is called the vertical plane. In watching a billiard player take the ordinary shot several things can be noticed. There is the cue sitting for the stroke and worked backward and forward in the same plane as the eye, and that includes the object ball. Unlike the shot with a gun, the elevation does not come here, for the billiardist has the plane of the table to supply the want, and he has only to think of the strength and speed he has to impart to the shot. In order to always shoot effectively the billiardist should keep his cue in his master eye vertical plane when aiming at the ball. Very often he forgets this, however, and when he does his aiming is of the worst description.

The bright light and continued exertion of watching the balls is a great strain and often causes mental confusion, the hand and master eye failing to work on the same plane. A mastership which remains constant

NEW YORK MAY HAVE NOVEL BOXING LAW

Lawyers at Work Framing Bill—Would Tax Promoters Ten Per Cent of Receipts.

Several days ago it was mentioned in this column that a bill legalizing boxing bouts before incorporated athletic clubs would be introduced at Albany at the next session of the Legislature. Since then several of the leading clubs in New York have employed attorneys to draft such a bill. While the work has not been completed, it is said that the bill will provide for a State tax on the basis of an assessment of 10 per cent of all moneys collected for initiation, fees, dues and reservations, which will be turned over to various charitable institutions. It is argued that if ten round bouts are legalized, at least $200,000 a year can be devoted to this worthy cause, while the boxing game, governed by a commission to be appointed by the Governor, can be conducted without objectionable features. Those who have the matter under advisement say that the bill could empower the commission to refuse licenses to clubs that might engage such pugilists as Jack Johnson, Jettie, Ketchel and other big fighters, on the ground that their bouts would attract too much attention. It is also pointed out that clubs of less than 1,500 members could be barred so that the sport would be curtailed. A well known member of the Assembly has expressed a willingness to introduce the measure, which will be accompanied by a petition signed by lovers of pugilism all over the State.

IRISH CRICKETERS BEATEN ON MONDAY

Geatlemen of Philadelphia Win by an Innings and 66 Runs.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 29.—Ireland's visiting cricket team finished their tour of the United States by a defeat here on Monday and suffered a heavy margin of an innings and 66 runs. The Philadelphia team continued their innings of Saturday and put on 65 runs for the eighth wicket, and the partnership was dissolved by Horden losing his wicket by a catch to Magee when he had scored 25. W. Graham was disposed of in like manner, but he had scored only 6. E. C. Jordan, who was last man for the Philadelphia, ran up to 15, when he was bowled by Harrington. King was still at the wickets when the innings closed. During his stay at the wickets he gave three chances. The read were most encouraging and that the Irishmen then went in for their second attempt and made a poorer showing than in their first innings, although three of the players got into the double figure list. G. A. Morrow scored 15, and W. P. Hone added 15 and H. M. Read 11. J. B. King and H. V. Horden were the only batsmen who were out, the former capturing 4 wickets for 12 runs, while Horden secured 5 for 18. Napier was most effective with the ball for the visitors, his analysis being 4 wickets for 72 runs. Morrow took 5 for 28, Gogey 4 for 40 and Harrington 1 for 63.

BRIGHTON TRACK PAYING DEBTS TO THE HORSEMEN

Indications That the Beach Will Ask for Dates Next Year and Will Probably Get Them.

Within the last two weeks numerous horsemen have received checks from the Brighton Beach Racing Association in settlement of purses won by them during the summer meeting of 1908. This is taken to mean therefore that Brighton will pay the Jockey Club stewards for dates next spring and will conduct a summer meeting perhaps fifteen days in July. Several months ago a man closely identified with the Enclosure business interests informed The Sun that the Racing Association owed more than $30,000 to horsemen who won races during the meeting at the Beach last year and that the entire amount would be paid in due time. It was simply a case of financial embarrassment, he explained, that put the Brighton track in the hole, but according to his statement William A. Engeman intended to make good every obligation and also was anxious to resume racing at the Beach in 1910. The fact that horsemen who have claims against the Brighton track are now receiving checks for the full amount therefore shows that Mr. Engeman has not acted without good faith and is still ready to keep his once popular track on the map.

HILLSBORO GAS FOR USE IN MONCTON

Recent Discovery of Gas May Prove a Big Thing for the Hub.

MONCTON, N. B., Sept. 29.—The City Council tonight discussed with Dr. Henderson and a proposition of piping the same to Moncton. Dr. Henderson stated the company was not yet in a position to lay anything definite before the city as to the quantity of gas available or what the company might do in reference to supplying the city, but before leaving for London to talk the matter over with his company Dr. Henderson wished to ascertain the feeling of the city council towards the enterprise. From the recent discovery of gas they felt hopeful of a large quantity of natural gas, but no definite proposal could be made to the city.

BLLIARD MEN PLAN INDEPENDENT-BODY

Will Not Depend on Manufacturers for the Holding of Future Tournaments.

Owners of all the leading billiard rooms in this city are to organize for the purpose of holding tournaments in the interest of the sport. It is an independent movement, separate and entirely from the manufacturer. Manufacturers, however, will be allowed to contribute toward this payment for prizes and the expense of the hall in which tournaments will be held, but they will not manage affairs as they have done for years past. The leaders in this movement include George Storms and Maurice Daly, the former, who has a room at Broadway and Twenty-third street, will plan a tournament that is expected to be held in the Madison Square concert hall in November. Just after the horse show. This competition is to be for the 182 ballkine championship. Mr. Daly, whose new room at Broadway and Forty-ninth street, has attracted more than usual attention, will no doubt be chosen chairman of the new association.

MARITIME HORSEMEN ORGANIZED AT HALIFAX

PAID MAN TO GO TO JAIL; GOES HIMSELF

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 29.—The owners and drivers of the Maritime Provinces completed the organization of their Protective Association this evening at a meeting held at the St. John dining room in the Halifax Hotel.

ALLEN TOWN, Pa., Sept. 28.—Albert S. Swartz, a wealthy resident, presented himself at jail today to serve a year's sentence.

The Supreme Court yesterday for the second time sustained a verdict convicting Swartz of conspiracy to defraud justice, he having paid a young man, William Larsen, of Wilkes-Barre, to serve a term in jail in place of a detective, William Frey, of Freeman, who was convicted here on a charge of perjury, but who failed to appear for sentence.

Swartz was the bondsmen. So close was the resemblance between Frey and Larsen that Judge Trevelick did not detect the trick.

Following a quarrel with Swartz over the pay for his part in the case, Larsen exposed the deal.

THE LAUGHTER OF LIFE

A NOVEL AND A VERY INTERESTING ONE. Copyright 1908 By MARIA ALBANESI

Lady Draycott shrugged her shoulders. "You are always like that," she said, "difficult, and pig-headed, and quick-tempered. I don't understand why she should come to those belonging to him, he could give back some that he robbed from your father. Mrs. Lingfield promised to share all she had, and of course it was not pleasant to be turned out of her big house and have to go into lodgings. As far as I was concerned, I was very glad when she went, because your father was quite prepared to do a lot of harm by upsetting you in this way."

ST. JOHN STAR.
ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 30, 1909.

Unfortunately for Canada this country has to depend to a very large extent for its European news on the efforts of a press association which exists chiefly in the interests of the American reading public.

Yes, friends, that peculiar brightness in the atmosphere today is from an orb known to our forefathers as the sun. Long ago it was frequently seen, but of late it has rarely been visible.

The death of Mr. N. A. Rhodes, of Amherst, removes one of the captains of industry of Eastern Canada.

THE CITY ENGINEER explains that because a hydrant was shut off too quickly by some of the firemen, eight or ten breaks were caused in the water mains.

Both boys had been rude to their mother, she put them into the bath and then complained to their father about them.

CAN'T SAY.
"When are you going to pay me for those wigs you had from me two years ago?" asked an anxious stage customer.

HEREDITY.
"Your daughter's music is improving," said the professor, "but when she gets to the scales I have to watch her pretty closely."

THE PRINCESS AND THE SILK HATS.
The Princess of Wales, ever thoughtful of the comfort of those about her, told the gentlemen that it would be unwise for her to remove her hats on the platform.

Uncle Walt
The Poetic Philosopher
John Bull looks forth upon the morn, and heaves a sigh, as though in pain; he wipes away the tears and cries, in sorrow: "Blow, my blooming eyes! There's funs us growing on my realm! I need a huster at the helm! These once progressive British isles are left behind a million miles! It was a blamed Italian chap that made that wireless message trap; a Frenchman made the whole world blink by flying safely 'o'er the pole; a Dutchman built a big balloon, in which he'll journey to the moon; and now I'm told, lad bless my soul, a Yankee's gone and found the Pole! Have Britons lost their steam and vim? Are we no longer in the swim? Are we content to lag behind, and trust in fate, and not to blind? Is this our England lying dead, with candles at her feet and head? Has Genius torn her robe and died, and have we nought to show our pride? A voice comes sighing 'er the land—a voice John Bull can understand; a feminine voice that's bright and gay, and in his ears it seems to say: "Cheer up! The gods are with you yet—your alms have the suffragette!"

Water and Sewerage Board Meets
Routine Business — Contracts for the West Side Water Mains Awarded.

The Water and Sewerage Board met yesterday afternoon instead of last evening, the time scheduled for the meeting. The meeting was of brief duration, the business being chiefly a routine nature. It was decided to continue the analysis of the water supply. The contract for excavation for water mains in Charlotte street, West End, and upon Dunn avenue, Lancaster, was awarded to Robert Short and Peter Arsenault.

Those in attendance at the meeting were Ald. Frink in the chair. Ald. Lewis, Ald. Scully, Ald. Christie, Ald. Belyea, Ald. Hayes, Ald. Kelley, Ald. Likely, the city engineer and the common clerk.

The tenders for the excavation for the water mains to be laid on Charlotte street, West End, were opened. The contract went to Short and Arsenault, the lowest tenders, whose prices per lineal foot were two dollars for rock and sixty cents for earth.

It was recommended to council that the water assessment of John Kerr, Queen street, be reduced by six dollars and that the valuation of H. H. Britain, St. John street, be placed at $2,000 and the assessment be reduced to five dollars.

It was recommended to council that a branch of the main sewer on Harding street be extended westward about fifty feet at an estimated cost of fifty dollars.

It was also recommended that the water rates for the C. P. R. be made the same as those for the I. C. R. The rates are to be $2.00 for 250,000 gallons or less and one cent per 100 gallons for all quantities above 250,000 during the present year.

A recommendation was passed to the effect that half a ton of forged bronze for main stop cock spindles be ordered from Glenfield & Kennedy.

It was ordered that the sum of ten dollars be refunded to James E. Cowan for raising out a sewer on King street, West side.

The city engineer made a statement concerning the leaks in the supply mains, explaining that every effort had been made to stop the leaks but that some leakage would continue.

Ald. Frink stated that on the night of Sunday, Sept. 13, when there was a fire in York Point, it had been followed by a break at Little River and on Monday and Tuesday eight or ten breaks had occurred throughout the city. The city engineer had informed him that the breaks had been caused by water hammer, due to the too hasty closing of the hydrants by the firemen. The latter had been instructed about the matter, but had evidently forgotten their orders. It had cost the city $500 to repair the breaks.

On motion of Ald. Scully, the city engineer and Ald. Frink were ordered to take up the matter with the Safety Board.

IS SHOCKED BY CORPSE THIRTY-TWO YEARS OLD

Negro Sees Body of Half Brother Who Was Hanged in 1877.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—Henry Smithers, an aged negro, lies in the Albany General Hospital suffering from shock, the result of identifying the embalmed body of his half-brother, who was hanged for murder in the old Allegheny county jail in 1877, and whose corpse, passing through the hands of two generations of undertakers, is preserved in a North Side undertaker's shop.

Smithers was in the night alderman's court, called at a witness in a minor case, when the presiding alderman remarked that the seventy-one year old

BRIDE, 66, WON'T PRAY, SAYS DIVORCE PAPER

Husband, 76, Declares She Refuses to Kneel at Family Worship.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 19.—If a bride although contending that she is a devout Christian, refuses to join her husband in kneeling at family prayers, is that a cause for divorce?

A. M. Barber gives that as his complaint in a petition filed in the District Court of Shawnee County.

Mr. Barber is 76 years old and his bride of last June is 66 years old.

Mr. Barber is a deacon in the First Baptist church, and rarely misses its Sabbath services as well as the regular weekly prayer meeting. At the time of his marriage last June, he says, his bride agreed with him as to their orthodox faith and her love for family prayers.

Hardly had the ceremony been performed, however, when she could see nothing beautiful in the ceremony. The petition says that after their marriage he held family prayers and she, instead of acting in sympathy with him in such services, refused to kneel during the prayer and refused to even bow her head.

WOODED ON EXPRESS; WED ON A 'FLYER'

Pennsylvania Girl is the Bride in a Romantic Ceremony in Idaho

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 19.—Edith Klingstuber, of Milford, Pa., and John F. Davidson, of Colfax, Wash., were married on a 60-mile-an-hour flyer on the Spokane and Inland Empire system near Moscow, Idaho, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. R. E. Kootz, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

The conductor, brakeman, candy-butcher and passengers in the chair car witnessed the ceremony and assisted in showering the couple with flowers when the train reached Moscow.

"Just a fancy we had," said the bridegroom when asked why he chose the flyer route, adding: "We couldn't hire a balloon or a diving bell. That burro craved from lack of water, viciously attacked the fallen man and had torn a big wound in his leg when the rescuers found him."

HORSE DRINKING THE BLOOD OF ITS HELPLESS MASTER

Aged Prospector Found Almost Dead in a Californian Desert.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Sept. 19.—With a vicious burro tearing at a jagged wound in his leg for blood with which to moisten its parched throat, Jacob George, an old prospector of the Mojave desert, was found unconscious and near death by a party of miners returning from the Furnace regions.

The aged prospector was lost for two days in the state range in Death Valley. In attempting to inflict a flesh wound in his pack animal to secure blood with which to moisten his swollen tongue and throat he accidentally shot himself through the leg. Falling helpless beneath the burning desert sun he lay unconscious. The burro craved from lack of water, viciously attacked the fallen man and had torn a big wound in his leg when the rescuers found him.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS EPIDEMIC IN KANSAS

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 19.—An epidemic of infantile paralysis has broken out in Norton and Decatur counties, in northwestern Kansas. Since August 10 there have been forty cases and thirteen deaths. The death list includes one man 33 years and another 11 years, both of which died within forty-eight hours after the first symptoms appeared. There are now three adults sick. The other deaths and sick are children from 4 to 11 years of age. Every one who has been stricken has shown little or no improvement.

Until last month the disease was unknown and the physicians could not relieve the suffering. The state Board of Health has ordered a quarantine of the district, and has sent expert bacteriologists to make examinations of the food and food supply to see if possible to discover the cause of the spread of the disease.

It appears partially infectious, but in only one instance has more than one case appeared in any one family. The state Board of Health has forbidden children from affected homes attending school, and the disinfection of all the homes where the disease has appeared.

The only other epidemic of the disease known in this country at present is in Brooklyn.

C. OF E. COMMITTEES CONTINUE THEIR LABORS

Memorial on Deaths of Judge Hanington and Hurd Peters.

The committee working in preparation for the synod which meets at Fredericton November 1, continued their labors yesterday. The committee on theological study, which met yesterday afternoon, arranged for the formation of another clerical reading circle. At 5.30 p. m. the committee on the canon on the board of missions took up the revision of that canon and completed it. The committee on memorials prepared memorials on the deaths of Rev. David W. Pickett, Judge Hanington and Hurd Peters.

Last evening the board of missions was the only committee in session. The reports indicated that about all the parishes are filled. During the past year, largely through the offers of the bishops, twelve new clergymen have been brought into the diocese and assigned to parishes. During the summer vacations several students had been employed at various places. These students numbered about fifteen.

The Conquest of the Pole

By Dr. Frederick A. Cook

Eighth Installment (All Rights Reserved)

The warm sense of metal and physical force which follows is an interesting study. The movement of others, the sting of the air, the noise of torturing winds, the blinding rays of a heatless sun, the pains of driving snows and all the bitter elements were absent. The mind, freed of the agitation of frost, wandered to home and better times; under these peculiar circumstances there comes a pleasing sense with the touch of one's own warm skin, while the companionship of the arms and legs freed of their cumbersome furs, makes a new discovery in the art of getting next to one's self.

IN THE HEART OF A STORM. On March 27 it blew a half gale at night, but at noon on the following day the wind ceased. The bright sun and rising temperature were too tempting to remain quiescent, and though the west was still darkened by the clouds, the dogs were put to the sleds, and off they went among the wind swept hummocks.

We had not gone many miles before the first rush of a storm struck us. Throwing ourselves over the sleds we waited the passing of the ice blast. There was no suitable snow near to begin the erection of a shelter, but a few miles northward was a promising area for camp, and to this we hoped to take ourselves after a few moments' rest.

On March 27 it blew a half gale at night, but at noon on the following day the wind ceased. The bright sun and rising temperature were too tempting to remain quiescent, and though the west was still darkened by the clouds, the dogs were put to the sleds, and off they went among the wind swept hummocks.

ICE ABOUT THE FACE. The kind of torture most felt in this kind of humid air of an Arctic pack was a picturesque mask of ice about the face. Every bit of exhaled moisture condensed and from either the facial hair or to the line of forehead.

INDIAN WIDOW WILL SHARE HITE FORTUNE

Her Contest of the Late John R. Hite's Will Settled With Other Heirs

Woman Who Helped the Miner Accumulate His Wealth Now Amply Provided For.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 29.—Heirs named in the will of the late John R. Hite, a wealthy Mariposa mining man, have effected a final settlement with his Indian widow and with a few days more than $6,000,000 will be distributed among relatives and friends of the decedent.

The widow will receive enough of the estate to permit her to live in luxury for the rest of her days and at her death leave to red-skinned connections sufficient to make them the envy of every other member of the tribe.

While the amount is not given out it is said she will be possessed of an amount of gold in excess of $100,000.

This leaves the estate in shape for distribution and, as soon as the court has not brought back records left in an order will be entered accordingly.

From out of their bequests the legatees must pay to the State an inheritance tax on $100,000 which will never receive. It represents the amount lost through former Executor Frank A. Berlin, who, because of this shortage was removed from office by the court.

John R. Hite was one of the best known mining men in the state. He was one of the pioneers in the business and came to California soon after the discovery of gold and when women were scarce.

It was because of this that he took his wife a member of one of the Indian tribes in the central part of the State. As his wealth increased she was his aid. After years, when the State became more thickly populated and society began to organize, the Indian wife of the wealthy miner was forced from her position in his home.

Like hundreds of her kind who separated their husbands in the early days, she did not contest her separation. She allowed her husband to continue to reside in the state, and he prospered and was satisfied with the allowance he made for her support.

Some time before his death, Mr. Hite, according to the contentions of his heirs, sought to settle upon his Indian wife her full share of his property. So when he made his will he cut her out.

Attorney got hold of the woman, and a contest of his will followed. This is the contest which has just been settled. The estate was divided, and some property provided for in compensation of the part she played in the accumulation of the Hite fortune.

Mr. Hite in later years made his home in San Francisco and in this city he was a heavy investor in real estate. In 1896 he was taken ill and for months it was expected he would die. He lived until the morning of April 13, 1898.

IMPROPER BREATHING MAKES CHILD STUPID

Minneapolis Physician Declares This the Trouble With Many Pupils Called Dull.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 29.—"If the proper way to breathe were taught the children in the public schools, many who now appear dull and slow to learn would be as bright as any normal child," said Dr. Margaret L. Nickerson, discussing the deep breathing campaign attracting attention in the East.

"Very often the dull child will be found to breathe through the mouth," she said. "One recalls a nice boy whose parents were worried because he could not get through his examination last spring. But they discovered that all the time he had been breathing through his mouth, and that therefore the blood which he carried to the brain was neither good in quality nor sufficient in quantity. They found out that he had been going through his life with adenoids. The adenoids were removed, but not until his chances for making up that year's school work were gone. He was as bright a boy as any after the operation."

"Nature intends us to breathe through our nostrils, which contains the mechanism that prevents injury to the lungs from the outside air. Depression and chronic headaches are common among persons who breathe through the mouth."

"The delicate girl or boy who is taking cold often is pretty certain to be a mouth breather, whether or not, adenoids are in question. Many children have gone through school labelled as stupid, when as a matter of fact they were only half alive through incorrect breathing. And parents who allow it are criminally ignorant or negligent."

It does not follow, however, that a child breathes properly after the adenoids have been removed, only it is then possible to learn to breathe properly. "A traveler recently told me how he had seen a Maori woman teaching her infant to breathe properly. These New Zealand aborigines seem a very fine race, and it is not surprising when they can give the mothers of the white race such a splendid example."

ROBERT E. PEARY'S CHARGES AGAINST DR. COOK

The Explorer Tells Why He Declares the Brooklyn Man Did Not Reach the North Pole—Fourteen Points in His Statement.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Sept. 29.—From Robert E. Peary a reporter for the New York Herald obtained a forecast of the indictment he and General Thomas Hubbard will draw against Dr. Frederick A. Cook in the North Pole case.

Mr. Peary's statement will embrace technical points on which he hopes to disprove all of Dr. Cook's claims. It will be submitted as proof not only to the court but to the public. It is entitled to be called the discoverer of the pole that has been sought for three centuries.

"You have stated that Dr. Cook's equipment was not what you saw at Etah. Remember that he had to travel 24 miles more than I did. He claims to have gone from Annotok, about 78.30 north latitude, to the pole, a distance of 11 1-2 degrees; then from the pole to Jones Sound, 76, a distance of 4 degrees, in one single sledging season.

"It is 25 1-2 degrees, or more than seven hundred miles in a single sledging season, that is from the beginning of the season of daylight in February to the breaking up of the ice. Previous to Dr. Cook another explorer has ever been able to cover more than 11 degrees of latitude in a single sledging season, and in a perfect equipment, sturdy men and dogs."

BOTTLE BLOWERS IDLE THROUGH PROHIBITION

"Don't" Wave Causes Loss of Business, Despite Rum Sellers' Assertions.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 29.—It developed here at a meeting of the glass bottle blowers and manufacturers that the wave of prohibition which has swept over the country during the last few years has worked harm to the industry, even if it has accomplished good in the communities where it is enforced.

It is estimated that more than 30,000 bottle blowers have worked on half time or been altogether idle through the slump in the bottle manufacturing business caused by prohibition.

This is not in keeping with the frequent statements of distillers and brewers that prohibition does not prohibit, but really increases the use of liquor.

The manufacturers reported that in many states the bottle blowers have been idled since it cannot be conducted on a paying basis, the same being attributed solely to the lack of demand for beer and liquor.

Many of the factories prepared in this business have given their attention to manufacturing prescription bottles.

Why didn't Whitney go back to Etah in the Jennie after leaving the Roosevelt? At the North Star Bay if he were so deeply preoccupied over the records, instruments, and the flag he says were left there?

"It is less than one hundred miles from that point to Etah, and then the Jennie could have made it in less than a day and then be right in the center of the bear country. The Jennie was Whitney's best go as he pleased and where he pleased. Why didn't he go?"

"Does it look to you as if he had left anything there of value?" "The Roosevelt met by Jennie on August 23 at Saunders Head. That was one day's sail south of Etah. The Jennie had clear water all the way to Etah on the easterly side of Smith Sound. She had no obstacle to surmount. There was no obstacle, yet instead of going north to get these things of Dr. Cook, the value of which he knew, why didn't he go? He sailed westward to hunt bear on the ice that was packed against the opposite shore of Smith Sound."
