

The Semi-Weekly Telegraph

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, JULY 15, 1905

NO. 85

VOL. XLIII

I. C. R. SPECIAL RACING TO BEAT VIRGINIAN TO MONTREAL

Train Left North Sydney With Mails at 10.30 Thursday Morning, and Made Fast Time to Moncton--Allan Turbinder Delayed Six Hours by Bad Weather--Passengers Stayed Aboard.

Truro, N. S., July 13--(Special)--The special train carrying the English mails from the Virginia via North Sydney to Montreal, passing Truro at 10.38 this afternoon, made the run from North Sydney here in six hours and forty-five minutes, an average of about forty miles an hour. Continuing to Moncton, the trip from Truro was made in two hours and thirty-four minutes, an average of 49.60 miles per hour. The times along the road were:

Place	Time	Miles from Truro
North Sydney	10.38	0
Grand Narrows	11.40	70
Mulgrave	12.17	113.14
Antigonish	13.19	164.43
New Glasgow	14.07	197.27
Truro	16.24	250
Lawsonville	17.13	265.84
Westville	17.48	276.28
Springhill Junction	18.15	284.02
Moncton	19.15	330

The train carried more than 900 bags of mail and was followed by a trailer. There were 500 people at Truro to witness the train pass through.

The I. C. R. had two Pullmans and sleepers at North Sydney, expecting the passengers to transfer to the Virginia. The train, and Superintendent G. M. Jarvis, of the Truro division, joined the train here and went on to Moncton.

Virginia Delayed by Bad Weather.

North Sydney, N. S., July 13--(Special)--The Allan line steamer Virginia arrived at Sydney harbor at 7.30 o'clock this morning, having made the run from Monville in five days 20 hours and 25 minutes, being the quickest time on record from mail station to mail station across the Atlantic.

She has 1,247 passengers on board, 1,047 of whom are as far as Truro on the United States. The transfer of mails took place about sixteen miles off Sydney, the time occupied being one hour and 25 minutes. After the mails had been transferred the Virginia proceeded to Montreal with passengers, the special train carrying mails leaving Sydney at 10.47 o'clock. The mails will be delivered at Montreal with a clear run to Montreal and the Allan liner proceeding full steam up the Gulf.

The mails will not reach the Montreal post office before 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, which will be seven hours later than the trip of 30 hours, but the inter-colonial anticipates doing it in less time. The Virginia had 785 bags of mail and 188 bags of parcel post. These include all the Canadian mails for this week and those for the Western States. There were no Canadian mails west by New York this week. The parcel post includes mail matter for China and Japan.

The Virginia left Liverpool at 5.48 p. m. Thursday, calling at Monville Friday morning. She lost six hours on the trip through bad weather conditions on the Grand Banks. The test is being watched with great interest. Owing to some parts of the steering gear becoming disarranged the Virginia lost about half an hour, it being necessary to stop the steamer until the repairs were effected. The actual time lost in transferring the mails from the steamer to the train was 2 hours and 11 minutes. The outcome of this experiment with regard to the fast line service is being watched with great interest.

At River du Loup at 3.19 a. m.

River du Loup, Quebec, July 14--(Special)--The mail special arrived here at 3.19 o'clock this morning.

Ocean Limited's Time Badly Broken.

Moncton, N. B., July 13--(Special)--The special mail train from North Sydney reached here at 7.10 this evening, having covered the distance of 330 miles in eight hours and 22 minutes. The average speed was a mile a minute and was attained on some parts of the Cape Breton division and between Truro and Moncton where the Ocean Limited's fast time of three hours and 50 minutes was reduced to two hours and 34 minutes.

An average speed of 45 miles an hour is expected between Moncton and Montreal in which case the special should reach here about 10.30 o'clock tomorrow morning, that is a run of about 25 hours from Sydney, again beating the Ocean Limited's time of 24 hours between Halifax and Montreal, a distance of 836 miles.

The train has clear road stops and is only made for water and oiling occasionally. The distance from North Sydney to Montreal is 981 miles.

The Virginia expects to reach Point Levis in 30 hours from Low Point from which point she sailed at nine this morning.

Experiment Disappointing.

Montreal, July 13--(Special)--According to the latest advice the experiment of the Allan line and the Intercolonial railway to reduce the record for carrying mails between Montreal and Sydney will be disappointing. Even allowing for the fastest time expected to be made by the I. C. R., the mails will not reach the Montreal post office before 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, which will be seven hours later than the trip of 30 hours, but the inter-colonial anticipates doing it in less time.

The Virginia had 785 bags of mail and 188 bags of parcel post. These include all the Canadian mails for this week and those for the Western States. There were no Canadian mails west by New York this week. The parcel post includes mail matter for China and Japan.

MUST REDUCE LIGHTING RATES

Charlottetown Proposes Sweeping Cut to Power Company

QUICK ANSWER WANTED

City will install plant of its own if Demand is Not Granted--Edward McNeill Arrested on Charge of Robbery--Plant Line Objects to Longshoremen's Wages.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 13--(Special)--Steamship Halifax came into port tonight with flag at half-mast for the death of a passenger, John McKenna, between Halifax and Hawkebury. Deceased was a bridge builder in Boston, and was on his way to his native province, P. E. Island, to recuperate, but tuberculosis got in its work too quickly. He has one brother, James, on the Boston police force.

Today Edward McNeill, of West River, was arrested and brought to the city to answer a charge of robbery of a cash box containing $150, bank deposit receipts and bank books from O. Hennebery, lobster packer at Argyle Shore, last week. McNeill was formerly a sealer with Hennebery and is supposed to be thoroughly familiar with his premises, but the exact nature of the evidence against him is not known.

At a meeting of the city council today the following proposal was made to the Charlottetown Light & Power Company: The city will agree to renew the contract for city lighting for a term of five years at the expiration of the present contract, on the following terms: $69.50 per lamp per year for arc lamps, under the moonlight schedule as at present; $75 per lamp per year for arc lamps under an all night schedule; ten cents net per kilowatt for commercial and domestic lighting; $18 per lamp per year for street lighting; $120 per street for heating and power, for city, commercial and domestic purposes. The company $1.00 per kilowatt for collecting electric light rates for city, commercial and domestic purposes. The company must give an answer before Monday.

The bill should be passed to-day if it would be well to give a date for the act to take effect. A great many people had stamps and it would be but fair to permit them to have them redeemed.

Mr. Fitzpatrick suggested the consideration of the bill should be postponed to Monday. Mr. Borden said that from the remarks of the minister of justice it was clear there was not much enthusiasm on the treasury benches for this measure, but that gentlemen appeared to be actually hostile to it.

Fitzpatrick Opposed to the Bill.

Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick replied that Mr. Borden was right. Personally he was opposed to the bill, but he acts based on the principle of paternalism. In presenting the measure to parliament Mr. Fitzpatrick said that he was not acting for himself, but for the government.

H. L. Chipman, manager of the Plant line, will confer with Mayor Kelly and the board of trade tomorrow respecting what he calls the excessive demands of the longshoremen, who ask twenty-five cents an hour for day and thirty-five cents for night work. Mr. Chipman says these have been higher than Halifax or Boston, and if the rate is continued less freight will be taken here and rates will be increased.

TRADING STAMP ANOTHER YOUNG EVIL UP IN HOUSE WOMAN MURDERED

Laurier Scores it as a Lottery and Says it Must Be Stamped Out

HARDEST ON THE POOR

Premier Declares That People Buy Things They Don't Want in Order to Get a Chance of Getting a Chromo or Some Valuable Thing--Fitzpatrick Introduces Bill, But is Opposed to It.

Ottawa, July 13--Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick in the house today moved an amendment to the criminal code so as to do away with trading stamps.

Mr. Gervais, of St. James Division, Montreal, made a long speech in support of the proposition. He said that the only opposition came from men who were making fortunes out of the business.

Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick, in whose name the bill stood, said that while the act was framed to suppress trading stamps it seemed to him to be most undesirable to interfere with the business of advertising. While the government aimed to suppress the issuing of stamps by merchants to be redeemed elsewhere, it was not intended to make it impossible for such persons, as soap manufacturers, to issue labels which are to be redeemed by themselves. That was a legitimate transaction and the minister of justice offered an amendment to cover it. It was suggested by several members that the same sort of an amendment should be made in favor of whole sale redemptions.

Mr. Fitzpatrick suggested the consideration of the bill should be postponed to Monday. Mr. Borden said that from the remarks of the minister of justice it was clear there was not much enthusiasm on the treasury benches for this measure, but that gentlemen appeared to be actually hostile to it.

Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick replied that Mr. Borden was right. Personally he was opposed to the bill, but he acts based on the principle of paternalism. In presenting the measure to parliament Mr. Fitzpatrick said that he was not acting for himself, but for the government.

H. L. Chipman, manager of the Plant line, will confer with Mayor Kelly and the board of trade tomorrow respecting what he calls the excessive demands of the longshoremen, who ask twenty-five cents an hour for day and thirty-five cents for night work. Mr. Chipman says these have been higher than Halifax or Boston, and if the rate is continued less freight will be taken here and rates will be increased.

ANOTHER YOUNG WOMAN MURDERED

Body Found on Outskirts of Arlington Golf Club Links

HEAD NEARLY SEVERED

Evidence of Terrible Struggle--Man's Blood-stained Cuffs and Portion of Gold Watch Chain Found Near--Victim Belonged to Poorer Class, But Name is Unknown.

Belmont, Mass., July 13--The Massachusetts district police, with the police of Belmont, tonight devoted several hours to the investigation of the death of a young woman whose body was found this afternoon near the links of the Arlington Golf Club, over the Belmont town line. The club had been out, a deep jagged wound having almost severed the head from the body and as soon as the authorities saw the body they declared that murder had been committed. The identity of the victim had not been learned up to tonight, although a large number of townspeople have seen the body.

Medical Examiner Swan held an autopsy tonight and his conclusions were that the woman had been murdered. Death, he found, was due to multiple cuts and bruises on the head, face and neck. The skull had been fractured in the front part of the head. The head itself had been practically severed from the body by a sharp knife or similar instrument.

The authorities, after an exhaustive investigation this afternoon and tonight, decided that the murder was committed on an unincultivated and belonging to the farm of Walter Frost, and within seventy-five feet of the stone wall, under which the body was found. The body was found in a shallow ditch.

The crime was discovered at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon by a farm hand named Peter Igo, who had been sent through a lane which passes near the Arlington Golf Club house. Igo's attention was first attracted by a woman's hand sticking out from under a stone wall. He looked at the hand and saw that it was a woman's hand and that it was a woman's hand and that it was a woman's hand.

The murderer had evidently attempted to get the body of the woman over a barbed wire fence which skirts a small pond used by several householders as a source of their water supply. Finding that the body could not be pushed through the fence, he sought the murderer retraced his steps, as he evidently dragged the body back a number of feet, and then threw it over the fence. The murderer retraced his steps, as he evidently dragged the body back a number of feet, and then threw it over the fence.

Here it was found by Igo, who, as soon as he recovered his composure, notified the police. The police, who were notified later, found the body of the woman in a shallow ditch. The body was found in a shallow ditch.

Medical Examiner Swan said tonight that he had found no traces of alcohol on the body, and he was certain that the woman had not been drinking. He said that the woman's body had been crumpled about fifteen paces each and bearing blood stains, were found on the scene of the murder, and it is thought that the wounds on the head were made by them. After almost despatching the woman the murderer made a dash for it, and the same weapon he had used on the throat.

From the clothing and the appearance of the hands, the authorities had decided that the woman belonged to the working class. Her waist and skirts were made of inexpensive material. All those who saw the body after its removal to an undertaker's in Arlington failed to identify it up to a late hour tonight.

Later the police stated that a portion of a man's gold watch chain had been found hanging to one of the bars of the wire fence, and a woman's beaded necklace had been picked up near the body. In the pocketbook was a slip of paper on which were written two names, a man's and a woman's, but the police refuse to give the names. The police also contained a Chinese laundry check and fifty-eight cents in money. The police also stated that the clothes on the body of the woman were very badly torn, indicating that there had been a struggle.

Man's Cuffs Found Near.

The police, in their examination of the ground, found numerous marks. In addition to the barbed wire fence, a parcel with blood stains was found near by the marks on the ground. The man, when first seen by Igo, was wearing a blue striped shirt, a pair of cuffs, belonging to a man's blue striped shirt, were picked up near the reservoir. There were also bloodstains on the cuffs. The police also found a woman's pocketbook and a whiskey bottle, the latter nearly empty, were found.

Medical Examiner Swan said tonight that he had found no traces of alcohol on the body, and he was certain that the woman had not been drinking. He said that the woman's body had been crumpled about fifteen paces each and bearing blood stains, were found on the scene of the murder, and it is thought that the wounds on the head were made by them. After almost despatching the woman the murderer made a dash for it, and the same weapon he had used on the throat.

From the clothing and the appearance of the hands, the authorities had decided that the woman belonged to the working class. Her waist and skirts were made of inexpensive material. All those who saw the body after its removal to an undertaker's in Arlington failed to identify it up to a late hour tonight.

Later the police stated that a portion of a man's gold watch chain had been found hanging to one of the bars of the wire fence, and a woman's beaded necklace had been picked up near the body. In the pocketbook was a slip of paper on which were written two names, a man's and a woman's, but the police refuse to give the names. The police also contained a Chinese laundry check and fifty-eight cents in money. The police also stated that the clothes on the body of the woman were very badly torn, indicating that there had been a struggle.

KINGSLEY MELANSON RELEASED ON BAIL

Special Session of Supreme Court Next Month to Try Prisoners in Plympton Murder Case.

Digby, N. S., July 13--(Special)--An application for bail for Kingsley Melanson, held at the Digby jail for connection with the Plympton tragedy, has been granted, and the prisoner was released tonight.

Edith King and Charles Smith, of Horton, have become liable for his appearance when wanted at the trial, which, it is said, will take place at a special session of the supreme court to be held in Digby next month.

Mr. Borden said he did not understand the principle of lottery suppression was contained in this bill.

MACKINNON CHALLENGE CUP WON BY SCOTLAND

Canada Was Second With a Score of 1447, While the Winner Made 1469--Dominion Team Was Fourth at 800 Yards Range, and Third at 900 Yards--Some Good Individual Scores.

Bisley, Eng., July 13--In the National Rifle Association tournament here today Scotland won the Mackinnon challenge cup with a score of 1,469. Canada was second with a score of 1,447.

Montreal, July 13--(Special)--A cable from Bisley camp says: The Canadians did not make a very good showing in the first stage of the Mackinnon match, finishing fourth. The wind during the firing of the Mackinnon match was very light and variable. The Canadians did not fare very well in the first stage, 800 yards, ten shots, possible fifty. They made 406 points but were fourth in the list, Scotland leading with 525, then Transvaal 523, England 515, Canada 496, Guernsey 492 and New Zealand 490.

Sergt. Russell, of the G. G. F. G., was the highest scorer of the Canadians, with forty-six. Capt. Stuart, of Vancouver, and Sergt. Kerr, Toronto, followed with forty-four. Russell was only off the bull three times in the ten shots. The scores of the Canadians at 800 yards follow:

Name	Score
Capt. Jones, Pownal P. E. I.	43
Sergt. Kerr, Toronto	43
Capt. Elliott	43
Sergt. Moore, Peterboro	43
Capt. Forest	43
Sergt. Richardson	43
Sergt. Russell, Ottawa	43
Capt. Stewart, Toronto	43
Sergt. Simpson, Vancouver	43
Pte. Wilson, Ottawa	43

The individual scoring of the Canadians at 900 yards were:

Name	Score
Lieut. Boulton	43
Staff Sergt. Crowe	43
Capt. Elliott	43
Capt. Forest	43
Capt. Jones	43
Staff Sergt. Kerr	43
Col. Sergt. Moore	43
Sergt. Richardson	43
Sergt. Russell	43
Sergt. Simpson	43
Capt. Stewart	43
Pte. Wilson	43

The scores of the other teams were Scotland, 507; New Zealand, 503; England, 494; Transvaal, 491; Guernsey, 481.

FOUR REGIMENTS OF RUSSIAN SOLDIERS SAID TO HAVE MUTINIED

Attempt to Blow Up Czar Discovered--Odessa Rioters Hanged, and Many Get Light Sentences--Terrific Result of Jap Bombardment of Sakhalin Port.

St. Petersburg, July 13, 6.40 p. m.--Rumors are current in this city that four Grenadier Regiments at Moscow have mutinied and that at Warsaw yesterday certain officers refused to give the command to their men to fire on people who were making a demonstration. Not the slightest confirmation, however, is obtainable of these rumors.

Attempt to Blow Up Czar?

New York, July 13--A World despatch from London says the following was received from the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph: Private letters from St. Petersburg state that the police have discovered elaborate preparations for blowing up the Castle of Illnessko, near the city of Odessa, where the Czar, with the imperial Japanese army landed amidst the fire, upon the arrival here of General Ignatieff. The battalions of General Ignatieff has arrived here with a fresh crew for the purpose of taking the mutineers to Sevastopol for trial by court-martial.

Terrific Result of Jap Bombardment.

Tokio, July 13, 6.30 p. m.--An eye witness of the Japanese bombardment of Karsakora, writes that the Russian forts were silenced on July 7 after the exchange of a very few shots. The piers, warehouses and other buildings were set on fire and the conflagration was reflected by the foggy atmosphere converting the sea into one mass of blood red color. The Japanese army landed amidst the fire, upon the arrival here of General Ignatieff.

THE CZAR'S PEACE ENVOY

St. Petersburg, July 13, 6.40 p. m.--The infantry quickly captured the forts from the tops of which the bewildered inhabitants were seen fleeing in every direction, carrying with them the property they could remove. The forts were not subdued for over 48 hours.

The sunken Russian cruiser, Novik, which was destroyed by the Japanese at Karsakora last August and the ruined town and forts are sad witnesses of the rapidity with which the destruction is wrought in modern warfare.

Japan Objected to Muraviev.

St. Petersburg, July 13--It has been intimated that Japan formally objected to certain utterances attributed to M. Muraviev reflecting upon the Japanese nation, but inquiries made here have failed to obtain any confirmation of the rumor.

Odessa Rioters Got Off Easy.

Odessa, July 13--Of 302 persons arrested and charged with robbery or incendiarism in connection with the recent riots here, 74 were acquitted today owing to lack of evidence and 28 were sentenced to six weeks imprisonment, the time to be served in the city prison. The extraordinary leniency of these trials has aroused much comment here.

Russian Rioters Hanged.

Odessa, July 13--Twenty-four leaders of the recent disturbances here were hanged today in various prisons. Another lot of seven were publicly executed.

GERMAN-SWEDISH ALLIANCE TALKED OF

Stockholm, July 13--The Associated Press is able to state on good authority that a German-Swedish alliance is seriously contemplated.

The question, it is said, was discussed at conferences between Emperor William and King Oscar on board the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern at Gable today. The conference lasted from two to three hours.

Reward for Her Jewels.

Newport, R. I., July 13--Discouraged by the inability of the police to apprehend the burglars who robbed her of $10,000 worth of jewelry last Tuesday, Mrs. Herman F. Oelrichs will offer a reward of $400 for the return of the missing jewels. The offer of the reward will be made public tomorrow, and Mrs. Oelrichs also announced that no questions will be asked the person returning the valuables.

LAWSON PLEADS GUILTY OF ROBBERY, BUT WILL GIVE HIS MILLIONS BACK

Minneapolis, July 13--Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, was the guest of the Minneapolis Commercial Club today. Mr. Lawson spoke before 300 members of the club after luncheon. He said in part:--

"I have several millions myself and I would like to offer a reward of $400 for the return of the missing jewels. The offer of the reward will be made public tomorrow, and Mrs. Oelrichs also announced that no questions will be asked the person returning the valuables."

"John D. Rockefeller is worth $500,000,000, and I can sit down and show you in a week's time how he got every penny of it. There is no secret about it. Every dollar that John D. Rockefeller has got dishonestly."

"If I live I'm going to make the American people sell every dollar's worth of stock they have and by that time they'll know better than to buy back."

Lawson Hoping for a Panic.

St. Paul, Minn., July 13--Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, gave a talk to a large audience at the People's church tonight. Mr. Lawson declared that should his so-called remedy, which he did not make public, be put into effect, there would be a great financial revolution; there would be no more stock in the "system" stolen from the people and the "system" would be returned to the people and because railroads and industrial corporations would have only to earn a fair percentage on the true value of their investments, the cost of living would be deduced and wage

BALFOUR DIFFERS WITH LORD ROBERTS

London, July 13--In the house of commons tonight, Premier Balfour referred to the speech of Field Marshal Lord Roberts in the house of lords Monday last, in which the latter said that the armed forces of Great Britain as a body were absolutely untrained and unprepared for war, and declared emphatically that the choice lay between conscription or some practical system of universal training. The premier said he could never be led to believe that conscription could be successfully adopted in England. He maintained that the government's scheme of army reform was the best solution of the problem.

Another Out in Sugar Prices.

San Francisco, July 13--A reduction of 20 cents per hundred pounds in all grades of sugar has been announced. The cut is attributed to the weakness of the raw sugar market, the price of that article having recently dropped 1 1/2 per cent.

WOODSTOCK CARNAVAL PROMISES TO BE A GREAT SUCCESS

Many Visitors on Hand for Opening--Fort Fairfield Baseball Team Easy for the Colts.

Woodstock, N. B., July 13--(Special)--Visitors are beginning to arrive for the grand carnival and the hotels have been deluged with telegrams asking for each merchant's place of business on the principal streets and today the main streets look like a miniature forest. The stores are all decorated with flags, bunting and streamers in preparation for tomorrow and the window displays in readiness to put on a strong team tomorrow.

The 6th Band gave an excellent concert on the square tonight.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY CONSERVATIVES SELECT LOCAL CANDIDATES

Amherst, N. S., July 13--(Special)--At a fairly well attended convention of the Conservative party held here today to select candidates to contest this county in the next provincial election, A. E. McLeod, of Springhill, the present M. P. P., and C. F. Jamieson, editor of the Amherst Telegram, were unanimously selected. It is understood that there was but one vote taken. Although the nomination was tendered to O. R. Smith, K. C. of Amherst and James W. Day, of Parrsboro, both of whom declined.

WOODSTOCK CARNAVAL PROMISES TO BE A GREAT SUCCESS

Many Visitors on Hand for Opening--Fort Fairfield Baseball Team Easy for the Colts.

Woodstock, N. B., July 13--(Special)--Visitors are beginning to arrive for the grand carnival and the hotels have been deluged with telegrams asking for each merchant's place of business on the principal streets and today the main streets look like a miniature forest. The stores are all decorated with flags, bunting and streamers in preparation for tomorrow and the window displays in readiness to put on a strong team tomorrow.

The 6th Band gave an excellent concert on the square tonight.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY CONSERVATIVES SELECT LOCAL CANDIDATES

Amherst, N. S., July 13--(Special)--At a fairly well attended convention of the Conservative party held here today to select candidates to contest this county in the next provincial election, A. E. McLeod, of Springhill, the present M. P. P., and C. F. Jamieson, editor of the Amherst Telegram, were unanimously selected. It is understood that there was but one vote taken. Although the nomination was tendered to O. R. Smith, K. C. of Amherst and James W. Day, of Parrsboro, both of whom declined.

M. WILTE.

THE EMERALD

A STORY OF LOVE, INTRIGUE AND ADVENTURE

By SCHUYLER STAUNTON

Copyrighted 1905 by The Reilly & Britton Company and published exclusively in The Telegraph by special arrangement with the Canada Newspaper Syndicate.

SYNOPSIS

Robert Harcliffe, fresh from college and a member of a firm in New Orleans, of which his Uncle Nelson is the head, is sent by his uncle to Brazil to act as private secretary and confidential companion to Dom Miguel de Pintra, head of the revolutionary movement against Dom Pedro. Dom Miguel had been a good customer of the Harcliffe, and he and the elder member of the firm were fast friends. Liking the prospect of adventure, Robert consented to go.

On the voyage he encountered Valcour, a spy sent by the Emperor of Brazil, who knew that the American secretary was expected. This spy had decided that Robert was the person for whom he was looking and had planned to make way with him. But the American cleverly threw him off the scent and reached Rio in safety. There he was, however, arrested, but on the way to the police headquarters his captor was murdered by Police Sergeant Marco, a revolutionary, and he was allowed to escape, finally reaching his destination through the assistance of a familiar face among these people; so I remained impassive while my captor pushed me past the guards to a small doorway near a protecting angle of the building.

He spoke with his counselors, and wired this brief reply to Lima. I am coming. Also he sent a soldier back to Dom Pedro's mansion with orders to arrest the traitor, Francisco Paol, and his sister, Leza Paol. Then he boarded the train and instructed the conductor to proceed to Rio with all possible haste. And that is all I know, senator, save that I called up Rio last evening, and learned that Fonseca was still in control of the city. At midnight the wires were cut and nothing further could be learned. Therefore, I came to the Cause I beg that you will accept my services.

CHAPTER XX.—(Continued.)
These men were not uniformed, but their appearance was a look upon their stern faces that warned me they were in deadly earnest and not to be trifled with. As my intercourse with the republicans had been confined entirely to a few of their leaders, I was not familiar with any of these people; so I remained impassive while my captor pushed me past the guards to a small doorway near a protecting angle of the building.

CHAPTER XXIII.
At the Eleventh Hour.
We aroused ourselves, at this, and regarded the captain attentively. He turned his stern gaze upon me after a moment, and gave a growl of satisfaction as he noted no craven amongst us. "You shall draw cuts, gentlemen, to decide the order in which you must expire your time. I will show no partiality. See, here are the slips, a number written upon each. Julio shall place them in his hat and allow you to draw."

CHAPTER XXIV.
The Emperor's Spy.
Although the deadly conflict was raging all about us, I passed it by regard a still more exciting tragedy. For with a roar like that from a man bull mazzano, he came rushing towards me and sprang to the spot where Valcour lay.

CHAPTER XXV.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXVI.
One Mystery Solved.
"Comrade myself, my dear Robert," said Dom Miguel, pressing my hands in both his own. "It is no ghost you are for—thanks be to God—I am still alive. I had no words to utter him. In all my speculations as to the result of Hadam Isabel's terrible deed, the fate of the vault without its key, I never had conceived the idea that Dom Miguel might have escaped his doom. And to find him here, not only alive, but apparently in good health and still busy with the affairs of the Revolution, conveyed so vivid a shock to my nerves that I could but dumbly stare into my old friend's kind eyes and try to imagine the disorder of his mind."

CHAPTER XXVII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXVIII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXIX.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXX.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXXI.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXXII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXXIII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXXIV.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXXV.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXXVI.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXXVII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XXXIX.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XL.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XLI.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XLII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XLIII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XLIV.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XLV.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XLVI.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XLVII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XLVIII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER XLIX.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER L.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER LI.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER LII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

CHAPTER LIII.
The Death Sentence.
I glanced around the room to note the effect of this startling announcement upon my fellow-prisoners. Bastro's scowling face was turned full upon the officer, but showed no sign of fear. De Pintra smiled rather scornfully and whispered a word to Mazanovich whose countenance remained impassive as ever. Paol, with the perpetual simper distorting his naturally handsome features, leaned back in his chair and regarded the scene with a single look of whimsical indifference.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH is published every Wednesday and Saturday at 11:00 a.m. PAYABLE IN ADVANCE by the Telegraph Publishing Company, 201 Union Street, St. John, a company incorporated by Act of the Legislature of New Brunswick.

Ordinary commercial advertisements taking 100 words of the paper, each insertion, 11.00 per cent a word for each insertion.

Advertisements of Wants, For Sale, etc., one cent a word for each insertion.

Notices of Births, Marriages and Deaths 12 cents for each insertion.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: All remittances must be sent by post of the order or registered letter, and addressed to the Telegraph Publishing Company.

AUTHORIZED AGENT: The following agent is authorized to collect for the Semi-Weekly Telegraph, viz: Wm. Somerville.

Semi-Weekly Telegraph ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 15, 1905.

STRANGE VALUATIONS: If Mr. W. M. Jarvis pushes the attack he has made upon the peculiar assessment system in Lunenburg he may be expected to uncover some highly interesting conditions.

Mr. Jarvis, it is hoped, will proceed without regard for the fact that he is likely to much disturb arrangements which have lasted for some time and which have been found very convenient to a circle of business men who have protected themselves against the sometime fierce and vindictive attacks of the Hon. Mr. Jarvis.

It is scandalously hinted—and we feel sure that the investigation now begun will say this spirit of detraction—that in the parish in question some property owners are much more influential in politics than others.

It is a notorious fact that gross inequalities of taxation exist. Are some to go on paying taxes which should be paid by others, or will the investigation cause the burden to be evenly adjusted?

But it is not only the military men who are convinced that they have escaped too easily heretofore we all know they will heartily thank Mr. Jarvis for thrusting upon them the opportunity to settle in full details.

TWO WARNINGS: Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener are soldiers, and if in peace civilians are sometimes apt to look upon these military men as absolute and men with spendthrift ideas of expenditure, in war time they have been willing to accept as gospel their every word upon the subject of the nation's safety.

Lord Roberts gives it as his opinion—as a practical soldier—that the British army is "inadequate, imperfectly trained, and totally unfit to govern Great Britain as a first class power."

One does not know that Halifax will secure new industries because this meeting was held, but it is reasonable to believe that the spirit of the large number of practical and influential men who participated, and the hearty agreement to push together, will not be without influence upon the industrial future of the city.

It is interesting to read, in connection with the statement of Roberts and Kitchener, an alarmist despatch of a few days ago, of which this is a part:

Calcutta, India, July 14.—A report of another military disaster has come as a revelation to the natives. That an Asiatic race has been defeated and overpowered by a European race, like an insect from previous to previous.

What makes the situation more dangerous is the ability of the "black" to spread their wings and to fly to every end of the Indian empire with rapidity and ease.

Lord Kitchener's statement that the Indian army is practically worthless has been widely circulated among the ignorant natives. The potential possibilities of the Indian have been brought directly to the attention of the King and it is known that he has had a number of consultations with prominent Anglo-Indians since he landed in India.

Clarence M. Dewey—that he voted to loan the Dewey Improvement Company $250,000 on property appraised at $150,000 and foreclosed for $50,000.

Jacob H. Schiff—that the Equitable's books contain false records concerning the Harriman deal. That he was a dummy director until the scandal developed, when he bought five shares of stock.

It is a fact that in Central India hundreds of Afghans are being sold into slavery in couples. This is published every Wednesday and Saturday at 11:00 a.m.

No doubt this is an exaggerated account of the unrest in India. But suppose it were true, or suppose the Empire were suddenly found to be on the brink of war in another quarter, how suddenly would the people demand that Roberts and Kitchener have their way. It might then be too late.

Today the meeting place for the peace conference is fixed, the commissioners are on their way to America, and while Japan pushes the war in order to secure further hostages for Russia's sensible behavior.

As a director Dewey loaned money to himself. As a banker Schiff—the great philanthropist—dealt with himself as a trustee.

Comparatively, this is a tender hearted country. A case of unusual suffering or helplessness appeals strongly to the public. The people are quick to feel horror over death or injury to any human being.

Count Marcellini, one of the Czar's personal commissioners, writes, when the Mikado gives one of his men a disagreeable job the man does not resign.

The Mayor of Montreal, having been used by the Transcript, is now asked by that journal to resign. Only modesty prevents the Transcript from naming the Mayor's logical successor, but we can all guess.

The bad man with the revolver who used to "shoot up" the old camps is a picturesque character that has never appeared in Nook.

The first winter of Nook was characterized by what might be called high prices. Truly a commentary on the mental attitude of the day.

Under the caption "Virtue Recognized" the Chatham World says editorially: "We must congratulate the Telegraph and Times on having abandoned the penitentiary striped suits in which they appeared after getting their big new press."

Brother Stewart of the World affects dislike for the dash of color which now marks the Saturday editions of The Telegraph and The Times.

The story of Equitable's guilt is not half told, in the opinion of the New York Herald. Only a few months ago the Herald asserted materially in extending Dewey's term in the United States Senate.

The Post, a financial authority of weight and a most conservative journal, clamors for the punishment of the guilty.

Page "AGNE" NETTING: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

AN ULTIMATUM: The aldermen of Charlottetown have sent an ultimatum to the lighting company. Formerly the company told the people what they must pay for gas and electricity.

Senator DeWing's testimony is a most fearful writing of himself down—not, as he himself puts it, "a fool," but something more noxious.

The Mayor of Montreal, having been used by the Transcript, is now asked by that journal to resign.

The bad man with the revolver who used to "shoot up" the old camps is a picturesque character that has never appeared in Nook.

The first winter of Nook was characterized by what might be called high prices. Truly a commentary on the mental attitude of the day.

Under the caption "Virtue Recognized" the Chatham World says editorially: "We must congratulate the Telegraph and Times on having abandoned the penitentiary striped suits in which they appeared after getting their big new press."

Brother Stewart of the World affects dislike for the dash of color which now marks the Saturday editions of The Telegraph and The Times.

The story of Equitable's guilt is not half told, in the opinion of the New York Herald. Only a few months ago the Herald asserted materially in extending Dewey's term in the United States Senate.

The Post, a financial authority of weight and a most conservative journal, clamors for the punishment of the guilty.

Page "AGNE" NETTING: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

FOR SALE: 150-foot roll, 4 feet high, $4.00. 150-foot roll, 5 feet high, 5.00. 150-foot roll, 6 feet high, 6.00.

NOTE AND COMMENT: The Senate is discussing the Antitrust Bill. Few will believe the discussion will be of value to the country.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

Close Saturday at 1 o'clock. St. John, N. B., July 15th, 1905.

$10 SUITS FOR $8: We have several lines of our special Ten Dollar Suits which have only two or three left of each lot, and have a lot that all down $2.00 on each suit.

TEN DOLLAR SUITS NOW MARKED $8.00: J. N. HARVEY, Men's and Boys' Clothing, 199 and 201 Union Street.

W. H. THORNE & CO., LIMITED, Market Square, St. John, N. B.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

Close Saturday at 1 o'clock. St. John, N. B., July 15th, 1905.

$10 SUITS FOR $8: We have several lines of our special Ten Dollar Suits which have only two or three left of each lot, and have a lot that all down $2.00 on each suit.

TEN DOLLAR SUITS NOW MARKED $8.00: J. N. HARVEY, Men's and Boys' Clothing, 199 and 201 Union Street.

W. H. THORNE & CO., LIMITED, Market Square, St. John, N. B.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

Close Saturday at 1 o'clock. St. John, N. B., July 15th, 1905.

$10 SUITS FOR $8: We have several lines of our special Ten Dollar Suits which have only two or three left of each lot, and have a lot that all down $2.00 on each suit.

TEN DOLLAR SUITS NOW MARKED $8.00: J. N. HARVEY, Men's and Boys' Clothing, 199 and 201 Union Street.

W. H. THORNE & CO., LIMITED, Market Square, St. John, N. B.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

Care—Give the child a cart and see how delighted he will be. Two wheels cart. Four wheels cart. Six wheels cart. Sixty six cent. Sixty six cent. Sixty six cent.

W. H. THORNE & CO., LIMITED, Market Square, St. John, N. B.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

Close Saturday at 1 o'clock. St. John, N. B., July 15th, 1905.

$10 SUITS FOR $8: We have several lines of our special Ten Dollar Suits which have only two or three left of each lot, and have a lot that all down $2.00 on each suit.

TEN DOLLAR SUITS NOW MARKED $8.00: J. N. HARVEY, Men's and Boys' Clothing, 199 and 201 Union Street.

W. H. THORNE & CO., LIMITED, Market Square, St. John, N. B.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent battalions as it has come to the ears of the public, it is not every day that the command of capable and intelligent men abound.

THE REVOLT: If one overruns the story of the insurgent batt

ORANGEMEN MAKE DAY OF GREAT REJOICING

Thousands in Parade at Fredericton

Parts of the Province Represented and Bangor Brethren Join in Demonstration-Short, But Pithy Speeches in Scully's Grove - The Day Well Observed at Lorneville, Markhamville, Whitehead and by Excurionists to Digby.

The anniversary of the battle of the banks of the Bay of Fundy... The largest gathering was at Fredericton, where a huge parade was held and speeches given.

IN FREDERICTON

A Great Day at the Capital-Excellent Parade, Big Meeting, Good Speeches.

News from the provinces was the anniversary celebrated with more enthusiasm and on a more extensive scale than in Fredericton. Between 2,000 and 3,000 members of the order gathered in that city, and after marching through the principal streets, a large parade was held in Scully's Grove, and heard speeches by the grand master, and other prominent officers.

The Procession.

W. J. Clarke, of Moncton, was grand marshal and led the lodge directors of the province, his assistant was A. D. Thomas, P. G. M. of Fredericton. The parade was formed up as follows: Police... Grand Master, W. J. Clarke, Esq., Fredericton. Grand Marshal, W. J. Clarke, Esq., Fredericton. Grand Marshal, W. J. Clarke, Esq., Fredericton.

Robert Maxwell, M. P. P.

Robert Maxwell, M. P. P., was well-received. He said in part: "I am particularly happy to be here today in the city of my birth, and in the city of York, the banner Orange Order of the province, and to see such a magnificent demonstration of the pure and many principles upon which our order has been founded."

Ladies' Costume Cloths Made at Hewson Wooten Mills, Amherst. Possess style, durability and beauty combined with economy. Ask for the latest Hewson sample for all times of year. Make up handsomely. Not too expensive.

UNION OF NOVA SCOTIA AND NEW BRUNSWICK

Pleasant River, N. S., July 8-Continued. Fine weather greeted the delegates this morning. There was a good attendance at the prayer meeting at 9 o'clock, which was conducted by J. W. Jewett.

Business was resumed at 10, when Rev. W. T. Gunn, of Embro (Ont.), was called to sit as a corresponding member. The matter of a general union of Congregationalists in Canada was given serious consideration.

ACROSS THE BAY

Excursionists from Here Had a Delightful Day

Dominion Lodge, L. O. L., 141, spent the glorious week in Digby. A large number of the Orange Order, from the Prince Rupert yesterday morning, accompanied by St. Mary's Brass Band, and the picture of the day's proceedings was a grand parade made through the streets. The concluding ceremonies part of the day's proceedings.

AT LORNEVILLE

A Fine Parade, Speeches and Ball in Honor of the Day

The village of Lorneville was the scene of one of the most successful Orange celebrations in the history of the district. Mount Purple Lodge, No. 121, the "Prestige Boys of Lorneville, and Willis Lodge, No. 70, of Fairville, participated in the day's festivities.

KINGS (EAST) CELEBRATION

Sussex, N. B., July 12-(Special)-The Orange Order of Kings (E. P.) celebrated the 12th of the Loyal Orange Order at Markhamville today. A large number of the brethren were in attendance besides the Kings (E. P.) Lodge, No. 121, of Markhamville, No. 124, Waterford, and Wellington, No. 9, Moncton.

REMEDY FOR RED NOSES

Treatment of German Specialist is Painful, But Produces Results.

Berlin, July 9.-Prof. Lassar, a famous Berlin specialist, has found means to restore red noses to their normal color. An instrument shaped like a large toothbrush, with forty parallel wires instead of bristles, is used, and electric current is applied to the instrument.

Marine News

Plates E 311 is building a Salmon River at three miles, about 40 tons. She will be commanded by Capt. Norman Berry, of the schooner "Eileen M. Berry."

There is Quick Relief From TORPID LIVER

in Fruit-Lives. And they are a positive cure for constipation and all blood impurities. Those who have used Fruit-Lives will testify to their power.

SAILOR MISSING FOR MORE STARTLING MORE THAN A WEEK

Wm. Scarey Left Schooner and Clothes and Money Behind-Now Feared He Has Been Drowned. William Scarey, able seaman, has disappeared about him. Scarey was on the Lois V. Chapelle, a three-master American schooner, employed in the coasting trade.

BOTH PARTIES FAVOR INCREASED INDEMNITY

Scheme is to Raise Members to $2,500, Give More to Ministers and Judges, and a Salary to Opposition Leader.

Ottawa, July 11-(Special)-Both parties met in caucus today. The question of increased indemnity came up at each meeting. At the Liberal caucus it was decided to raise the indemnity to $2,500 for each member.

Another American Battleship

Washington, July 12-The navy department is informed that the 16,000-ton battleship Kansas will be launched at the yard of the New York Shipbuilding Company at Camden (N. J.), Aug. 12.

MAN MARRIED

Moncton, N. B., July 11-(Special)-A young man who had looked forward with interest for some time took place at 9 o'clock this evening at the residence of Mrs. R. G. Thomson, Archibald street.

Give Them British Fair Play

When you see another being abused when he is unable to help himself you naturally become indignant. What about your feet? They sweat, blister, chafe and agonize you.

FOOT ELM

prevents perspiration, chafing, blistering, etc., and prevents your shoes from cracking.

There is Quick Relief From TORPID LIVER in Fruit-Lives. And they are a positive cure for constipation and all blood impurities. Those who have used Fruit-Lives will testify to their power.

SAILOR MISSING FOR MORE STARTLING MORE THAN A WEEK. Wm. Scarey Left Schooner and Clothes and Money Behind-Now Feared He Has Been Drowned.

BOTH PARTIES FAVOR INCREASED INDEMNITY. Scheme is to Raise Members to $2,500, Give More to Ministers and Judges, and a Salary to Opposition Leader.

A Farmer's Experience With Cows. B. H. Marshall, West Burke (Vt.), says: The farmers hereabouts all keep Jerseys, a few pure bred, but mostly grades.

Another American Battleship. Washington, July 12-The navy department is informed that the 16,000-ton battleship Kansas will be launched at the yard of the New York Shipbuilding Company at Camden (N. J.), Aug. 12.

MAN MARRIED. Moncton, N. B., July 11-(Special)-A young man who had looked forward with interest for some time took place at 9 o'clock this evening at the residence of Mrs. R. G. Thomson, Archibald street.

Regulations of Warfare. Moreover, an army having surrendered, or laid down his arms, must not be killed or wounded. Nor is it permissible to kill or wound treacherously individuals belonging to the enemy's army, even though these may be under arms at the time.

Bullets That Flatten. The use of small-arm projectiles "which expand or flatten easily in the human body, such as bullets with a hard envelope, which does not entirely cover the core, and is gilded with indium," was prohibited at the Peace Convention at The Hague in 1864.

Poison Prohibited. Among the other things prohibited are the employment of poison, or of poisoned arms, or of any material of a nature to cause superfluous injury.

Give Them British Fair Play. When you see another being abused when he is unable to help himself you naturally become indignant. What about your feet? They sweat, blister, chafe and agonize you.

FOOT ELM. prevents perspiration, chafing, blistering, etc., and prevents your shoes from cracking.

There is Quick Relief From TORPID LIVER in Fruit-Lives. And they are a positive cure for constipation and all blood impurities. Those who have used Fruit-Lives will testify to their power.

SAILOR MISSING FOR MORE STARTLING MORE THAN A WEEK. Wm. Scarey Left Schooner and Clothes and Money Behind-Now Feared He Has Been Drowned.

BOTH PARTIES FAVOR INCREASED INDEMNITY. Scheme is to Raise Members to $2,500, Give More to Ministers and Judges, and a Salary to Opposition Leader.

A Farmer's Experience With Cows. B. H. Marshall, West Burke (Vt.), says: The farmers hereabouts all keep Jerseys, a few pure bred, but mostly grades.

Another American Battleship. Washington, July 12-The navy department is informed that the 16,000-ton battleship Kansas will be launched at the yard of the New York Shipbuilding Company at Camden (N. J.), Aug. 12.

MAN MARRIED. Moncton, N. B., July 11-(Special)-A young man who had looked forward with interest for some time took place at 9 o'clock this evening at the residence of Mrs. R. G. Thomson, Archibald street.

Regulations of Warfare. Moreover, an army having surrendered, or laid down his arms, must not be killed or wounded. Nor is it permissible to kill or wound treacherously individuals belonging to the enemy's army, even though these may be under arms at the time.

Bullets That Flatten. The use of small-arm projectiles "which expand or flatten easily in the human body, such as bullets with a hard envelope, which does not entirely cover the core, and is gilded with indium," was prohibited at the Peace Convention at The Hague in 1864.

Poison Prohibited. Among the other things prohibited are the employment of poison, or of poisoned arms, or of any material of a nature to cause superfluous injury.

Give Them British Fair Play. When you see another being abused when he is unable to help himself you naturally become indignant. What about your feet? They sweat, blister, chafe and agonize you.

FOOT ELM. prevents perspiration, chafing, blistering, etc., and prevents your shoes from cracking.

RAFFLES, the AMATEUR CRACKSMAN.

A JUBILEE PRESENT

Eighth Story in the Absorbing Raffles Series BY E. W. HORNING

PRINTED IN THIS TERRITORY EXCLUSIVELY BY THE TELEGRAPH. COPYRIGHT BY CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

The Room of Gold in the British Museum is probably well enough known to the inquiring alien and the travelling American. A true Londoner, however, myself had never heard of it until Raffles, usually proposed a raid.

able piece which I believe that they exhibit now. It's a long time since I read of it—I can't remember where—but I know they have got a gold cup of sorts worth several thousands. A number of the immorally rich climbed together and presented it to the nation, and two of the richly immoral intend to snaffle it for themselves. At any rate we might go and have a look at it. Bunny, don't you think?

als were too heavy for them. I recognized some habitual rogues going to their labor underneath the dome; of mere visitors we seemed among the first.

I ran to the door (Poised by Kylie Bellew, arrangement Lieber Co.)

We paced the cool, black leads with our bare feet (Poised by Kylie Bellew, arrangement Lieber Co.)

tion state, while we paced the cool black leads with our bare feet softly as cats.

in town at the time. The Diamond Jubilee was upon us, the Queen's weather had already set in. Raffles, indeed, declared it was as hot as Italy and Australia put together; and certainly the short summer nights gave the example of wood and sphinx and the contents of brick and mortar but little time to cool. As the British Museum the pigeons were coming under the shadows of the gilded columns, and the staid porters looked less stalwart than usual, as though their med-

"These are scenes from the martyrdom of St. Agnes," said he. "translucent on relief" one of the finest specimens of its kind. I should think it was! Bunny, my Philistine, why can't you admire the thing for its own sake? It would be worth having only to live up to! There never was such rich enamelling on such thin gold, and what a good scheme to hang the lid up—so that you can see how thin it is. Wonder if we could lift it, Bunny, by hook or crook?"

"You'd better try, sir," said a dry voice at his elbow. The madman seemed to think we had the room to ourselves. I knew better, but, like another madman, had let him ramble on unchecked. And here was a stolid constable confronting us in the short tunic that they wear in summer, his whistle on his chain, but no truncheon at his side. Heavens! how I see him now—a man of medium size, with a broad, good-humored, peering face and a limp. He looked sternly at Raffles and Raffles looked merrily at him.

same. I'm a connoisseur in all this sort of thing, and I won't have unnecessary risks run with the nation's property. You said there was an attendant just outside, but he sounds to me as though he were at the other end of the corridor. I shall write today!"

"Where the devil are you driving us?" "Charing Cross, sir." "I said King's Cross! Round you spin and drive like blazes or we miss our train! There's one to York at 10.35, added Raffles as the trapdoor slammed; "we'll look there, Bunny, and then we'll slope through the subway to the Metropolitan, and so to ground via Baker street and Earl's Court."

it was, but so light in the hand that the mere gold of it would scarcely have poured three fingers out of melting pot. And what said Raffles but that he would never melt it at all!

