

THE STANLEY FAIR.

A Fine Day Favors all Parties for Wednesday's Show.

Large Crowds and a Splendid Exhibit—List of Prize Winners—The Annual Dinner.

The following is the prize list complete: A more pleasant and cheery day could not have been desired for the holding of a show has Wednesday, and, as a consequence, the Stanley exhibition was a great success. Hundreds of people attended from the surrounding country districts, many also traveling long distances from outside parishes to be present at Stanley's big day. Frederick was well represented. Besides the usual quota of teams that generally drive up from the city on such occasions, some thirty or more people took advantage of the cheap extension offered by the Northern & Western. Those who went by rail had a quick and pleasant trip to Cross Creek station, but the journey of about four miles over the rough and rocky road from the station to the village in crowded conveyances was not so delightful, and everybody was fully persuaded that the Stanley villagers should either have a branch railroad built at once or the condition of the country improved.

From the early morning the village presented a lively scene. Carriages containing people from the different parts, farm wagons growing under the weight of the big pumpkins and produce of all kinds, of pigs and sheep and calves, kept thronging in until near noon hour. When the exhibitors had all arrived, the display was a most magnificent one. Mr. B. McMenamin's hotel and stable were crowded to their utmost, but extensive additions and improvements that he has recently made to his fine hotel provided ample accommodations for the large crowds, and the hundreds who took dinner there were served in "dainty" well known royal style.

The horses and cattle were exhibited in the open field, a short distance from the horticultural hall. The brood mares, colts, and horses, among which there were some fine animals, seemed to attract the greatest attention while they were on exhibition. The Percherons took the lead in point of numbers, and there were some fine ones shown. Mr. Wm. Currie exhibited a Clydesdale yearling colt, and Mr. Robert Orr, of Frederick, a sucking colt of the same breed. Mr. Michael Brannen had "Angus Chien" on exhibition and entered him for a prize. The horned cattle also attracted considerable attention. There were some cattle in the grades and also a few in the breeds.

The exhibit in the horticultural department was a magnificent one. The display of roots and the surface vegetation was a good one, and a better exhibit would be difficult to find in any agricultural exhibition. A quantity of mammoth turnips exhibited by Mr. Howe attracted the attention of everyone. It was conceded on all sides that these turnips, for size and solidity, surpassed anything in the turnip line ever shown in the county, and an effort is being made by the president of the society, Mr. Beckwith, and others, to have them and some of the other roots exhibited forwarded to the London exhibition.

Some large and beautiful potatoes were shown. Mr. William Currie, who exhibited varieties of early crop, kidney, christies, dakota reds, asides and snow flakes taking the lead. But the most attractive display of all was the garden exhibit by Mr. John Thomas. He filled one long table with a great variety of ornamental garden products which had been cultivated in his garden at Cross Creek. The collection was indeed a fine one, including many varieties of vegetable never before exhibited in the province nor even cultivated. Visitors crowded about the collection at all times during the day, and many a one could scarcely believe that the products were raised in our country. The collection included: Cardoons, fruit of asparagus, yellow sweet potato, pumpkins, coleslaw, pumpkin, climbing pumpkin, and a number of other odd varieties of the pumpkin, about fifteen varieties of squash, among which was the perfect gem, cocoon, striped virgin, beauty, glaucous red, warted marrow, patagonia, olive and long necked squash, white pride of Canada, cucumbers, small seeded cucumbers, garfield tomatoes, 12 of which weighed 14 pounds; trophy tomatoes, inland beauty, fulton market and other varieties of tomatoes; red cherry and yellow plums; dwarf egg plants, ruby king and golden dawn peppers, a variety of winter cherry and many other curious varieties of products which made up a most interesting and attractive display. Mr. Thomas also exhibited two new varieties of carrots known as gate-post orange and the white roses, both varieties of which were excellent samples of carrots.

The fruit exhibit was also a good one—the best ever shown in Stanley. In apples, Wm. Howe, David Douglas, Henry Blair, Samuel Blair and others made a most excellent display. The sheep and pigs were exhibited in stalls near the exhibition building. There were a good lot of pigs shown, but the exhibit was only a fair one. There was also a fair exhibit of sheep. The two Oxford down sheep, presented to the society by Thomas Temple, H. P., were also on exhibition in the centre of the field and attracted a good many visitors, among whom was Mr. Temple, who visited the show grounds for about an hour during the middle of the day.

The hauling match took place on the road in front of McMenamin's hotel during the afternoon and evoked a great deal of interest. Daniel Elliott's well matched team came off best in the haul and the cheers of the crowd and the judges awarded the second and third prizes respectively to Mr. Wilkinson and Ed. S. Jarvis.

The prize list was completed about five o'clock and was announced to the crowds by President Beckwith from the balcony of Logan's hotel. The judges on the different exhibits discharged their duties in a most satisfactory manner. They were: On cattle—Wm. McLean, Luther Goodspeed and Wm. Young; On sheep—Wm. McLean, Robert Orr, Lieut. Young, Frederick and Wm. Bradley; On fruit—Thomas H. Parley, Henry Blair and Wm. McLean, Nashua; On roots—Alfred Howley, Margerville, Jas. S. Nix, Frederick, and A. B. Avery Stanley; On poultry—J. H. Reid, Joseph Broderick, Frederick and J. D. Doh, Miramichi; Grain pulse and seed—John B. Grier, Arthur Limerick and Wilmet Gales, Frederick.

COUNTY COURT.

Sentenced to 2 years in the Penitentiary—The Business of the Court.
John B. Guter vs. Amos Demarchant—In this case the record was withdrawn, the parties having amicably settled without the intervention of a jury.

W. Harvey Lawrence vs. Aaron Brewer.—This was an action brought by the plaintiff to recover the balance due him on supplies furnished defendant in a lumber operation. After giving Mr. Brewer credit for the lumber put in the plaintiff claimed a balance of $10.15. The jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for the full amount claimed. Mr. Hazen for plaintiff, Mr. J. A. Van Wert for defendant.

Leonard W. Johnston vs. James W. Allen.—Action to recover the amount of two promissory notes. The defendant failed to put in an appearance at the trial and the matter was left to the jury as an assessment. Verdict for $84.78. Mr. J. B. Barry for plaintiff.

William Ross, the quick doctor, was brought before the court Saturday at 10 o'clock to receive his sentence. His Honor Justice Stradman in giving him his sentence told him that it would be much better for himself and to the community at large for him to spend the remainder of his life in the penitentiary. He was sentenced to twenty years—ten for house breaking and larceny, and ten for arson. Ross is 37 years old, and it means a life sentence for him. He still pleads his innocence and states that the men are now in Houlton who committed the deed and the whole thing is bound to come out in a little while.

The soldiers John Hayward and Thomas Troupe also got their sentence this morning. Each of them getting two years' imprisonment in Dorchester penitentiary for doing grievous bodily harm to Jacob Wrasel.

THE SCOT AT.

McAdam Junction cases at the Police Court.—The unhappy fate of a West Scot. The woman Ellen How and convicted.

At the police court on Thursday P. M. Magistrate Marsh tried eight Scotch cases, six of which were against Joseph Ryan, of McAdam Junction, and two against James Russell of the same place. At the instance of the New Brunswick railway authorities, Detective Roberts went out to McAdam yesterday and placed the men under arrest and brought them to town. At the trial this morning, Ryan acknowledged the offence as the charges against him. The police magistrate fined him $30 and $9 costs on one charge and reserved judgment in the other five cases until Friday morning. James Russell pleaded "not guilty" and took up his own defence. He was convicted and fined $100 and cost in the two cases against him. Mr. E. L. Wetmore appeared for the prosecution.

The trial of Ellen Howard, on two separate charges for selling liquor, was concluded at the police court Friday morning, and resulted in a conviction. She was fined $30 and costs or two months' jail. Being the owner of some property, a distress warrant was made out against her.

Papers were made out Friday against two other parties at McAdam Junction who have been reported by the railway authorities as selling liquor. The papers were placed in the hands of constable Johnson, of McAdam.

Detective Roberts and Sergt. Vandine walked in to Russell's billiard hall, at W. Russell, proprietor, dealing out some "Old Irish" to a customer. A few weeks ago Russell came under agreement with Jas. A. Van Wert, counsel for the prosecution, that he would close his billiard room if the heavy fines against him were allowed to stand. Since that time he employed Harry Pollard to clerk for him and Pollard had to run away the other day to evade the officers who had a warrant out against him for selling liquor. When Russell was caught selling liquor himself yesterday he was unable to make any defence for a time, the stipple party proving too much for him. At ten o'clock Saturday, three officers, Roberts, Vandine and Wright paid Russell another visit, this time to punish him for not doing as he promised to do. On one of his many convictions against him they were about to seize the billiard table, when Russell, as if he had been expecting a visit from them, stepped up and paid the whole amount of the fine. They then presented him with a warrant of commitment for an old offense, and there being no alternative in this case, he was made a prisoner and taken to the county jail to serve out a three months' term of imprisonment.

Manners-Sutton Coal.—The well known Manners-Sutton Coal has again struck coal. This time it has been found in sinking a well for Wm. Mear at Tweedside, so called. The seam is good two feet in thickness, and the quality, as far as can be judged, excellent, being very bright in color. There is no doubt a thicker bed of coal at a greater depth. The previous find was at John Daley's in Cork.

The Staff of Life.—Mr. G. J. Burns gives notice that hereafter he will sell bread at 5 cents per loaf, and will continue so to do until further notice. Bread was never known to sell for less than this in the history of our city. The quality of Burns' bread is too well known to need any remarks. It is enough to know that he sells it for five cents.

If you experience a bad taste in your mouth, salivaceous or yellow color of skin, feel stupid and drowsy, appetite uneasy, frequent headache or dizziness, you are "bilious," and nothing will arouse your liver to action and strengthen up your system like "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery." By druggists.

REWARD OFFERED.—To any person showing a case of headache, toothache, cramps, bruise, sprain, cough, cold, croup, quinsy, hoarseness, burns, or sunburn, or any other ailment that can be cured by Mear's Liniment. It is good as a gargle in diphtheria and sore throat, and is perfectly harmless when given according to directions. C. C. Richards & Co., sole purveyors for the Dominion and Newfoundland.

EXPORTED TO THE STATES.

From Border County Stations on the New Brunswick Railway.

Returns obtained from the New Brunswick Railway give some idea of the quantity of goods, agricultural and other, exported from the border counties. The figures refer only to articles conveyed by this line of railway to points west of Bangor. From Benton station, 300 bushels of potatoes, 100 thousand shingles, 1,200 sleepers, and 371 cords of bark. From Debec, 11,125 bushels of potatoes, 102 thousand shingles, 781 cords of bark, and 472 tons of hay. From Woodstock, 18,367 bushels of potatoes, 39,918 thousand shingles, 40,000 pounds of starch, 756 sleepers, 1,313 cords of bark, and 3,574 tons of hay. From Hartland, 844 cords of bark and 218 tons of hay. From Florenceville, 105 thousand shingles, 192 cords of bark and 898 tons of hay. From Kent, 1,000 bushels of potatoes, 324 thousand shingles and 104 cords of bark. From Kilburn 312 cords of bark and 29 tons of hay. From Bath 2,700 bushels of potatoes, 182 cords of bark and 695 tons of hay. From Perth 12 cords of bark, and from Andover 65 cords. Grand total: 87 thousand shingles, 12,443 sleepers and 48 tons of hay. Edmundston, 2,513 thousand shingles, 1,008,500 pounds of starch and 27,343 sleepers. St. Leonard 26,677 sleepers. This statement only includes six articles and of course takes no account of the immense quantity of farm produce sent to other parts of New Brunswick.

Church of England Notes.

Thanksgiving services will be held in all the Episcopal churches to-morrow.

The next meeting of the Woodstock diocese will be held with the church at Prince William on November the 2nd.

The church people in Queensbury and Southampton, says the Chronicle, are very anxious for the appointment of a clergyman over them. Parents complain that their children are drifting away to the sear, owing to the lack of instruction in the church schools. The people are prepared to pay the amount required of them by the D. C. S., and those interested in these parishes alone know what the church has lost and is losing by the want of a resident priest.

A writer in the Church Chronicle speaks of the Gazette, having received a letter from "A Parishioner" "who," he says "with blaseful ignorance declares that the Clergy of the Federation Diocese are under No. 73 of the Canons of 1662 ipso facto excommunicated for having met in Diocesan and discussed the rubrics of the Prayer Book! This is news to me, and it is to be hoped that the Rural Deans and their Chapters will take warning of the fate that has befallen Federation Diocese!"

Driving Operations.

A small crew of men began work at the Douglasbooms Wednesday some logs having arrived from the driving operations that are going on along the river. Mr. Rix Brown, of Bear Island, who is controlling the lower part of the corporation drive, is now at Macdonquack, and has about fourteen teams employed. Mr. Hayes has been at work on the upper part of the river also.

A crew of men are driving Mr. Gibson's lumber on the Nashwaak. The head of the jam is at Nashwaak village.

Moose Hunting.

Mr. Edward Berry, of this city, and a friend, while out partridge shooting Wednesday, near the Burpee mill stream, about 10 miles from the city, came upon a bull and cow moose. The latter leaped over the road into the bushes and the bull stood and looked at them, when Mr. Berry put in a bullet on the top of the shot and fired at his highness, who gave a snort and bounded away into the bushes after the cow. The bull had a fine pair of antlers on him.

County Court Proceedings.

The grand jury on Thursday afternoon found a true bill against the soldiers Howard and Troupe. The first case brought on was the Queen vs. Ross, for burglary. The prisoner pleaded "not guilty" and detained his own case. The jury found him guilty on this indictment and also on the indictment for arson.

THE UNIVERSITY CRICKETERS.

Defeat Woodstock Two to One and an Innings to Spare.

The University boys had very pleasant weather for their match with Woodstock yesterday. The team, accompanied by a number of other students, took the early morning accommodation to Hartland, where it had been arranged for the match to take place. The Woodstock team was composed of several players from the Hartland team. Play was commenced about ten o'clock, the twenty men then went to the bat first. They did not stand long, though, before the bowling of Fowler and Skinner of the University and were all put out for 14 runs. The visiting men then went to the bat and rolled up a score of 70. In the second inning Woodstock made 23 runs—a total of 37 runs for the two innings. News of this overwhelming victory was received here by telegram last night, and the students and old graduates of the university were very much pleased over the success of the boys in their first match outside of the city. The university team was composed of Messrs. Fowler, Randolph, Shawcross, Skinner, Dinean, McKenzie, Eady, Stewart Skinner, Grimmer, Akersley, Fisher, and O. Skinner. They did not arrive home this morning as expected, but are no doubt taking advantage of the fine weather for another day's outing in the country.

Lost in the Woods.

From Thursday's Gleaner.
Five men, who left this city about a week ago to work in the woods for Mr. Timothy Lynch on the southwest Miramichi, have had a pretty rough experience of it. The men were under the guidance of Mr. P. Sproule, who is well acquainted with the woods in that region, but to reach their destination they left the portage road to take a short cut through the woods. In doing so Sproule lost his way. They had a pair of horses with them which the men alternately mounted, but the further they traveled their situation became more perilous. When about finished with hunger, two of the men, Kincaid and Holmes, who belong to King's county, resolved to retrace their steps, which they did, leaving the other three men, Sproule and his brother and a man named Straight to journey on with the horses. The two men who returned had not travelled far, when Kincaid became exhausted with hunger, having been without food for three days and nights. He lay down on the ground telling his comrades to go on and leave him there to die. His comrades left him but to return shortly after with a party that he had killed with a stone. A fire was built, the party roasted, and the scanty meal revived their strength and ambition to reach their destination. They succeeded in getting to the clearings, which they accomplished on the fourth day. The three men who went on with the team, have not been heard from, but it is believed they have succeeded in finding their way. Mr. Lynch, though, has not heard anything from them yet, except that one of the men reached the camps they started out for.

Turned up Right.

From Saturday's Gleaner.
Mr. Timothy Lynch informed a Gleaner reporter this morning that the missing men, the two Sproules, and Straight, had turned up right at the lumber camp they set out for. They found their way soon after the other two men left them.

A Good Man Gone.

The remains of Frederick A. Adams, of New Maryland, whose sudden death while visiting at a friend's home took place on Wednesday evening last, was brought to town Friday afternoon, followed by a very large number of relatives and friends who came to pay their last respects to an old acquaintance and a much valued friend. His sudden death has cast a gloom over the whole community in which he resided. His business was a miller and owner of a threshing machine brought him in close acquaintanceship with all his neighbors. A good hearted neighbor, a friend of the poor, and a kind and an affectionate husband and father, he was beloved by all. He was fifty-seven years old and leaves a sorrowing widow and two children. His remains were interred in the old burying ground, Rev. Mr. Manzer, (Baptist), conducting the funeral services.

Federation Curling Club.

The annual meeting of the Federation Curling Club was held at the risk on Wednesday evening. The meeting was well attended. The election of officers resulted as follows:—

A. F. Street, president;
T. C. Allen, 1st vice president;
J. E. Noll, 2nd vice president;
E. H. Allen, secretary treasurer;
Rev. A. J. Howatt, chaplain;
John Nell, Gibson, representative members;
T. D. Loggie, F. S. Hilyard, G. W. Hoegg, E. H. Allen, H. C. Rutter, committee of management.

The club passed a resolution of condolence to the widow and mother of the late Geo. S. Miller.

A meeting of the maritime branch of the Royal Canadian Curling Club will be held at Moncton on Wednesday, the 20th. The president was elected a delegate to attend this meeting, and E. H. Allen as substitute.

St. Dunstan's T. A. Society.

At the regular weekly meeting of St. Dunstan's T. A. Society held in St. Dunstan's Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 5th, the following officers were duly elected for the ensuing term:—

P. H. McGrath, president;
A. W. Davis, 1st vice president;
G. F. Clinton, recording secretary;
J. Tomney, financial secretary;
J. E. Perkins, treasurer;
W. Perkins, librarian;
J. Walsh, sergeant at arms.

go and ask the leader of these orchestra-

favorite of mine and your father's, too."

A canine with a tin can attached to his down street. "Is that dog going?"

inquired an anxious pedestrian. "Well,"

A case of West's Cough Syrup, in a recent letter from R. W. Dutton, of Delaware, Del., he states that he has recovered from the worst

You always notice that when there is nothing about the garden to cut the grass with but a common break-back scythe the wife always does the work; but when there is a new patent lawn mower, the man of the house is always very willing to accept the responsibility.—The prevalent fatal and sudden attacks of diseases are those incident to the summer and fall, such as Cholera Morbus, Bilious Colic, Diarrhea, Dysentery, etc., that often prove fatal in a few hours. That ever reliable remedy Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Straw-

The rule brokenman again. "Is this this the right train?" a lady asked of a brakeman the other day. "Where are you going, madam?" replied the brakothe superintendent for impudence." And she actually did.—New York

MOONDYNE.

THE GOLD MINE OF THE VASS.

This tender thing had stolen inside her guard. Its sweet fragrance, before she knew of its presence, had carried her back to the happy days of her girlhood.

She kept the flower to her lips, kissing it.
She fed her vision with its beauty.
She had been so long without emotion
she had so carefully repressed the first promptings of imagination, that her heart had become thirsty unto death for some lovely or lovable thing. This sweet young flower took for her all forms of beauty. As she gazed on it, her soul drank in its delicious breath, like a soft and sensuous music; its perfect coloring filled her with still another delight; its youth, its form, its promise, the rich green of the two leaves, its exquisite complexion, made a very symphony for the devotee heart.

Two hours passed, and still she fondled
the precious gift. She had not once thought of how the flower had come into her cell.

You are pleased at last, Number

Four, to see the face of the warder, who had been looking into Alice's cell.

Number Four raised her eyes from the flower, and looked solemnly her answer.

For the first time in five years, the warder saw that her eyes were flooded with tears.

She did not see any more that day,
and, strange to say, the officers took no note of her silence. There was a change in her face, a look of unrest, of strangeness, of timidity.

When first she looked upon the flower,
a well had burst up in her heart, and she could not stop its flow. In one hour it had swept away all her barriers, had swamped her repression, had driven out the hopeless and defiant second self, and had carried into her cell the wronged, unhappy, but human and loving heart of the true Alice Walmsley.

She was herself. She feared to think it, but she knew it must be so. When the warder spoke to her now, she shrank back from him. Yesterday, it would have passed her like the harsh wind, unheeded.

That night, unlike all the nights of her imprisonment, she did not lie down and sleep as soon as the lights were extinguished. With the little flower in her hand, she sat on her low bed in the still darkness, feeling through all her nature the returning rush of her young life's sympathy with the world.

The touch of the rosebud in her hand thrilled her with tenderness. She made an attempt to shut out the crowding memories. They flooded her heart, and she drank them in as in a parched field drinks the drenching rain.

Toward midnight the moon rose above
the city, silver-white in a black-blue sky, lower than ever she had seen it. Alice thought, as she looked through the bars of her window. She stood upon
