GERMAN AIRMEN CAUSE 108 DEATHS IN ENGLAND

BRITISH ADVANCE IN ST. JULIEN REGION; RAID NORTH OF LENS

Number of Germans Killed and Several Prisoners Taken—Hostile Raiding Party Near La Bassee Driven Off.

London, Sept. 4.—The enemy's artillery showed great activity during the night northeast of Ypres, says today's official statement. "We advanced our lines slightly northeast of St. Julien.

"We carried out a successful raid last night directly north of Lens. Our troops killed a number of Germans and captured several prisoners. A hostile raiding party was driven off south of La Bassee."

FRENCH REPULSE ATTACKS.

Paris, Sept. 4.—Attacks were made by the Germans last night on the French lines in the Hurtebise region on the Aisne front and east of the Meuse in the Verdun sector. The war office announced today that both were checked by the French fire.

Raids by French troops at Sapigneul, between Souain and Somme, in Champagne and in the Argonne region, resulted in the capture of prisoners and material.

Losses For Germans.

The text of the statement follows:

"Not far from the Hurtebise Farm, the fire of our forces broke an attack led by detachments of enemy shock troops, who suffered serious losses without obtaining their objectives.

"In the Champagne district at the end of the day we executed an extended surprise attack along the roadway between Souain and Sompy. French detachments charged, with the bringing back of prisoners and the destruction of certain gas installations, penetrated enemy trenches along a front of 800 metres and to the entire depth of the enemy's first position. After having destroyed numerous gas tanks and blowing up vitrious shelters, our men returned to their lines bringing some forty prisoners, four machine guns, one trench cannon and other important material.

Garrison Wiped Out.

"To the east of Sapigneul French reconnoitering parties penetrated yesterday, by surprise, a salient of the enemy line. Spirited fighting followed, in the course of which the German garrison was killed or made prisoner.

"In the Argonne another surprise attack to the north of Vienne Chateau gave us prisoners.

"On the right bank of the River Meuse we checked the German attacks on minor French posts located on the outskirts of Caurieres Wood.

"The night passed quietly on the remainder of the front.

Aviators Active.

"The vicinity of Calais and Dunkirk was visited last night by German aviators, who threw down bombs. Calais reports that several persons were either killed or wounded. In the environs of Dunerille and in ten country to the north of Nancy there were also visits from enemy airplanes. The material damage was slight, and no one was hurt. French bombing airplanes covered with their projectiles the aviation fields and various barracks and railroad stations in the enemy zone to the north of Soissons. Another French air expedition was successful in the starting of two fires in the railroad station at Fresnoy-le-Grande. Furthermore, French machines bombed the railroad stations at Roulers and Lichterveide, in Belgium aviation fields at Colmar, Frescati and Habsheim and the railroad stations at Conflans, Cambria, Thionville, Metz, and Weippy, where a violent outbreak of flames occurred.

"During the day of September 3 French pursuit airplanes brought down thirteen German machines, most of which were completely destroyed."

BELFAST ASSEMBLY OF CONVENTION IS A FAVORABLE SIGN

Dublin, Sept. 4.—The assembly of the constitution convention for Ireland today at Belfast to which city the deliberations have been transferred for three days, excited great interest throughout Ireland. Very favorable conclusions for the success of the convention were drawn from it. The sitting occurred in the municipal chamber and the lord mayor, who is a member of the convention, entertained the delegates at luncheon at the city hall.

It is felt to be a great gain that Belfast should abandon its rigid position of unwillingness to discuss home rule at all and should give a cordial reception to the convention in which its views are largely reported, and whose function is to draft a constitution for the government of Ireland.

RUSSIANS STILL RETREAT BEFORE FOES ON COAST IN RIGA REGION

Also Retire in Uxkull District, Being Dislodged by Germans.

Petrograd, Sept. 4.—The Russian retirement in the Riga region is being continued along the coast in a northeasterly direction, the war office announced today.

In the Uxkull district the Russians are retiring northward, having been dislodged by the Germans in the great Jaegel River region.

Hostile ships are shelling the Riga coast, the announcement adds.

In the region of Kranzem (27 miles southeast of Riga), Milph and Ryonsk, the Russians' retirement is to the northeastward.

Considerable artillery fire has developed in the neighborhood of Dvinsk.

NO TRADES UNION DELEGATES WILL BE SENT TO STOCKHOLM

British Congress Decides This by Big Majority.

Blackpool, England, Sept. 4.—The trades union congress today placed itself on record as opposed to participation in the International Socialist Congress at Stockholm, abandoning the idea of sending British delegates. By a vote of 2,894,000 against 91,000 the congress adopted the recommendation of the parliamentary committee, which is to the effect that although an international conference is desirable in principle it would be useless in practice unil an agreement as to war aims is reached among the workers of the allied nations.

AUSTRIA'S LOSSES ON ROAD TO TRIEST ARE 128,500 MEN

Washington, Sept. 4.—Austrian losses in the fighting on the road to Triest are 215,000 men and 3,500 officers, according to dispatches received yesterday at the Italian embassy.

Gen. Borovic is reported to have been removed, being blamed for much of the failure of the Austrians, and Gen. Koevess named as his successor.

NEGOTIATIONS DROPPED

Lord Shaughnessy Resents References To His Attitude On Conscription.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Montreal, Sept. 3.—On being asked to make a statement in connection with the proposed acquisition of the Canadian Northern Railway by the Canadian Government, Lord Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has made the following reply:

"I wish to deny most emphatically the statement published in a number of newspapers, and evidently inspired that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company is offering organized opposition to the Government proposals about the Canadian Northern. Up to the present time no effort of any kind has been made by the company to influence the vote of a single member of the House of Commons or the Senate upon the measure now before parliament.

Old Threabare Ruse.

This reference to the Canadian Pacific is the same old threadbare ruse to which resort has been had on more than one occasion during the past 50 years, when railway schemes of one character or another were being considered by parliament.

It is true that the acquisition of the Canadian Northern by the Canadian Pacific was discussed by representatives of the parties concerned, but the discussion was at the suggestion of members of the Dominion cabinet.

After a time it was evident that no transaction was possible and negotiations were dropped.

Objects to Price.

"The fate or destiny of the Canadian Northern is not a matter of special moment to our company, as a common carrier, but the company having enormous interests in Canada naturally views with apprehension the possibility of the payment of an excessive price for the alleged equity of the holders of the majority stock, and feels that some less speculative and more direct means should have been used to fix the amount than the very uncertain process of arbitration.

The Dangers.

It is to be hoped that if the transaction is carried out the country will not, in consequence, be saddled with heavy liabilities heretofore undisclosed and that in fixing the amount to be paid under the arbitration proceedings no consideration whatever shall be given to personal investments in unfortunate ventures such as coal mines, lumber mills, blast furnaces and other works alleged to have been undertaken for the advantage of the Canadian Northern enterprises, but being in fact private speculations of the promoters of the railway company.

"The reference to my own attitude on conscription are offensive and unwarranted on this subject, and on every other question or work connected with the prosecution of the war. I require no advice or inspiration from that little coterie of men who are engaged in fixing standards of patriotism and whose catechism fails to distinguish between loyalty to the King and loyalty to their particular projects or interests."

RUSSIANS RETREAT IN PERSIA, STATES REPORT BY TURKS

Constantinople, Sept. 3—Via London, Sept. 4.—Russian troops in Northwestern Persia have been pressed back by the Turks, the war office announces. A Turkish detachment, advancing in an easterly direction from Merivan, is reported to have occupied Garata bridge.

HAMILTON SUSPECTS TO REMAIN IN JAIL UNTIL HEARING WEEK HENCE

Hamilton, Sept. 4.—Harry Smith, manager of the Crescent Oil Company; Walter Scott, architect; J. J. McAuliffe, well-known real estate man; and Herbert Asseltine, caretaker of the Crescent Oil Company's premises, held in connection with the slaying of Dr. MacRobbie, appeared in court this morning and were remanded without bail for another week at the request of the crown attorney. C. W. Bell, defending Smith and Scott, is also acting for Asseltine.

Smith, McAuliffe and Scott, found drunk on the premises of the oil company the night of the tragedy, have been in jail since. Asseltine was locked up last night, following the coroner's jury's verdict that MacRobbie was killed as the result of a blow believed to have been delivered by one of the four men. Manslaughter will be the charge the quartet will face.

WASHINGTON OFFICIALLY PAYS FAREWELL TRIBUTE TO MEN ABOUT TO ENTER ACTIVE ARMY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 4.—With the president of the United States, members of both Houses of Congress, high officials and diplomats participating, the national capital today paid a farewell tribute to persons who soon will enter the national army for service overseas with the expeditionary forces.

The demonstration took the form of a parade in which the men of the selective draft army, led by President Wilson and accompanied by veterans of the blue and gray, soldiers, sailors and marines, swung up Pennsylvania avenue from the capitol, past the White House.

The Senate and House prepared to adjourn early in order to take part, it being the first time that Congress has ever marched in any popular demonstration.

AT NEW YORK, TOO.

New York, Sept. 4.—For the second time within a week New York today honored her fighting men when several thousand future soldiers who were called to the colors under the selective draft law, paraded up Fifth avenue preparatory to leaving for their training camp. Not all of the men in the parade were undrilled, although all marched without uniforms. Charles E. Hughes, chairman of the district board of New York City, who has refused many hundreds of claims for exemption, made by men in today's parade, was among the guests invited to review the marchers. Many of the men in line still have claims for exemption before the district board, which, it was announced today, will make an effort to hear 3,000 of the 12,000 waiting to be decided during the next week.

Following the parade, the marchers were the guests of the city at a number of entertainments, the chief of which was the baseball game at the Polo grounds, between the Boston and New York National League teams.

DYNAMITE GANGS IN MONTREAL HAD FINE PROGRAM OF ARSON AND MURDER READY

Premier Borden and Solicitor-General Marked Men.

ALL PREPARATIONS MADE

Police Say Parliament Buildings Were To Be Blown Up.

Montreal, Sept. 4.—The anti-conscription dynamiters had mapped out the following program, according to the police: First, the murder of Lord Atholstan as he drove from his country house to Montreal; next, the dynamiting of his lordship's home and offices of the Montreal Star; then Solicitor-General Meighen was to be assassinated in Ottawa; the prime minister, Sir Robert Borden, was to be murdered, and the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa were to be dynamited.

All Was Ready.

The anarchists had everything prepared to put this program into execution when the police authorities began to get suspicious of certain of the ticket-of-leave element connected with the organization—that is Joseph Leduc, who committed suicide yesterday, and Henri Monett, now being chased in the Laurentian Mountains, near Sainte Agathe, by the police in automobiles.

Pro-German Implicated.

The police believe that the clues they have dug up in connection with the plots point to their having been hatched primarily by a prominent man here with strong German affiliations.

The police further announced that a man in clerical garb had been shadowed after they had visited the home of one of the suspects, and that information in reference to guns and ammunition, said to be in an institution in the city, was being investigated.

BOMBS DROPPED UPON BRUGES DOCKS SEEN TO REACH THEIR GOAL

London, Sept. 4.—Continuing their raids over Belgium, British aviators on Sunday night made attacks in the vicinity of Bruges. The following official account was given out today:

"Naval aircraft made a bombing raid at midnight Sunday on the docks, submarine shelters and railway sidings at Bruges. Bombs were observed to explode over the objectives, and fire was caused adjacent to the lock gates of the Ecluse Canal.

"A raid also was made early Monday morning on the airdrome at Varssenaere (4½ miles southwest of Bruges). Bombs were seen to explode among the sheds. One of our machines was attacked by six hostile aircraft and succeeded in shooting down one, completely out of control. In an engagement between one of our aircraft patrols and enemy machines there were three decisive combats. One of our machines failed to return."

CARMEN STILL OUT.

Edmonton, Sept. 4.—The employees of the municipal street railway who are on strike for a 20 per cent increase in wages are still out. They refused the city council's offer of what was practically a 10 per cent increase.

ALLIES TO DISCUSS SITUATION; CHANGE IN PLANS PROBABLE

Russian and Italian Conditions May Cause This.

ITALY IS NOW CONFIDENT

Can Destroy Austrian Power If Given Munitions and Guns.

New York, Sept. 4.—A Washington dispatch to the New York Times says: "Word reached Washington through official channels today that the Entente Allies will soon hold an important military conference in Paris to canvass the situation along the fronts. The Russian situation will be considered on account of the disasters that have befallen the Russian armies of the Riga and Galician fronts and in Rumania. These reverses and the success of the Italian offensive are expected to bring about a complete revision of the Entente military plans for the fall and winter months.

Unexpected Success.

The success of the Italians has more than met expectations of military experts in London and Paris. For more than a year, according to information reaching here, the Italians have insisted in Entente military conferences that a decision might quickest be reached on the Italian front.

The Italians are now pointing to the successes achieved along and beyond the Isonzo as a justification of the soundness of their contentions.

May Change Shipping.

At the coming council they are expected to assert that if they receive ample coal and munitions the operations on the Isonzo front can be carried to complete victory, resulting in the capture of Triest and the destruction of Austria's military power. It is possible that the conference may result in the diversion of tonnage to Italy to carry these essential sinews of Italian military success.

ORGANIZED LABOR OF U. S. A. HOLDING GREAT LOYALTY CONFERENCE

Aims Also to Warn Pacifists and Pro-German Propagandists.

Minneapolis, Sept. 4.—Organized labor mobilized its representatives here today for the double purpose of pledging support to the Government in the war and sounding a warning to pacifists and pro-German propagandists by means of a big loyalty conference under the auspices of the American Alliance for labor and democracy.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor and chairman of the alliance, will arrive here today.

NO BRAZILIAN TROOPS TO FIGHT IN EUROPE

Ria Janeiro, Sept. 4.—In a denial of newspaper reports, the minister of war has announced that Brazil will not send troops to Europe. The announcement also states that the minister of the navy will not lease requisitioned German ships to the Entente Allies.

London, Sept. 4.—British casualties reported in the last week are 15,614. They are divided as follows:

BORDEN WOULD REFUSE VOTE TO NATURALIZED ENEMIES AND ALL CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

"War Time Elections Act" Will Give Franchise To Wives and Relatives of Soldiers—Measure Only Temporary, and Likely To Meet With Strong Opposition.

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—A bill entitled "A War Time Elections Act," appears on the order paper of the House of Commons in the name of Sir Robert Borden and will be proceeded with Wednesday. This is the title given the measure better known as the federal franchise. It is, practically speaking, the only remaining piece of the sessional program in the Commons and were it of a non-controversial character the session would conclude in short order. As far as can be learned, the bill is likely to be more contentious than otherwise and unless changed from its present form, the act seems likely to give rise to opposition.

Main Provisions.

It is understood that it will have three principal provisions—the disfranchisement of the German and Austrian born, who have been naturalized in Canada, particularly in more recent years. Their Canadian-born sons would not be debarred from voting, if qualified. Another provision will be to extend the franchise to the wives and relatives of soldiers, and a third provision to eliminate from the vote the "conscientious objectors" to military service.

For War Election.

As the title of the act implies, there is to be a war-time franchise for a war-time election. The essential issue of the campaign will be the war and the underlying principle invoked by the Government is to extent the franchise to soldiers and their female relatives, but to deny to naturalized alien enemies the right in war time to vote on war issues.

New Dominion Lists.

Heretofore in federal elections provincial lists have been used. The new act will provide for Dominion lists prepared under Dominion auspices. The act, in whatever form it is finally passed, will apply only to elections during war time. It is not designed to be a permanent affair either in regard to the enlargements or restriction of the franchise.

Any radical bill—as now seems likely—will have to be put through by the process of closure.

IMMENSE PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION AT BLACKPOOL, ENGLAND

Organized by National War Aims Committee.

Blackpool, Sept. 4.—This is Anglo-American Day at Blackpool at a great demonstration in which the war aims of Great Britain and America will be restated, it having been organized by the National War Aims Committee, of which Premier Lloyd George, former Premier Asquith, Chancellor Bonar Law and G. N. Barnes, member of the war cabinet, are officials.

The following resolution was prepared:

"That this meeting records its inflexible determination to continue to a victorious end the struggle for the maintenance of those ideals of liberty and justice which are the most sacred cause of the allies."

BREMEN MERCHANTS FROTH OVER ANSWER OF WILSON TO POPE

Condemn It As Hypocritical, and Praise Kaiser.

Amsterdam, Sept. 4.—According to advices received here from Bremen, President Wilson's reply to Pope Benedict's peace proposals was the incentive to a demonstration on the bourse there yesterday. After a speech by Herr Fabrius, president of the chamber of commerce it was resolved to send the following to the emperor:

"Bremen merchants raise an indignant protest against President Wilson's hypocritical reply to the pope, in which he professes to combat the German Government in order to drive the American people, with whom Germany never had a quarrel, into a war which they reject.

Impudent and Brazen.

"It is an impudent and brazen attempt to sow dissension between the Government and the people of the German nation.

"This attempt can only fill with indignation and contempt German merchants who have had the opportunity in foreign lands to compare German with foreign conditions. In this hour Bremen merchants pledge themselves to unalterable allegiance to your majesty, bearer and the empire's guardian of the imperial crown, re-won after centuries of long struggles by the united German people in 1871. They again declare their unalterable confidence and belief in a victorious outcome of this righteous war of defence."

Assails "Rights."

In the course of his speech, President Fabrius said no other enemy utterance had evoked such wrath in every German heart as President Wilson's note, in which the most sacred rights of the German nation were assailed.

A demonstration also was held on the Hamburg bourse, where resolutions similar to those adopted in Bremen were passed.

NO TEUTON REBUFF.

London, Sept. 4.—The peace proposals of Pope Benedict will not meet with a rebuff on the part of the Central News dispatch from Amsterdam. The central powers will make separate replies to the pope, setting forth the principles arrived at in the course of these deliberations. As for the Polish question, it is said, no decision can be reached at the present.

Six Airplanes Swept Above Thames Estuary, Dropping Many Bombs.

TOTAL KILLED, 108

Wounded Number 92 in Isle of Thanet and Chatham District.

London, Sept. 4.—In last night's aid raid 107 persons were killed and 86 wounded at Chatham and in the Isle of Thanet, it is announced officially.

The victims were na[illegible] ratings. Six airplanes part in the raid.

The term "naval rat[illegible] applies to the grade of me[illegible] board ship, usually those b[illegible] fore the mast.

Civilians Suffer.

In addition to the naval casualties, one civilian was killed and six were injured.

The announcement follows:

"Lord French (commander of the British home forces), reports that last night's raid in the air was carried out by about six enemy airplanes, which proceeded up the south bank of the Thames estuary to Chatham. Bombs were dropped in the Isle of Thanet and in the Sheerness-Chatham area between 10:40 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. There were no army casualties. Civilian casualties reported at present are: Killed 1, injured 6.

Little Material Damage.

"The material damage was slight. Our machines went up and anti-aircraft guns came into action, but without result.

"The secretary of the admiralty reports that in the course of the air raid last night the following casualties were caused to naval ratings: Killed 101, wounded 86."

A dispatch to the Star from Chatham says that part of the naval barracks there was struck by a bomb during last night's air raid, this causing serious loss of life. The Chatham dockyard, the message states, entirely escaped damage.

BORDEN UNABLE TO FORESEE DANGER IN CONSCRIPTION BILL

Will Be Enforced, He Declares In Letter.

Montreal, Sept. 4.—Rumors that the military service act would not be introduced are described by Sir Robert Borden in a letter to a correspondent here, as baseless.

The prime minister also says: "I am unable to share apprehensions as to the effect of this law in this country.

"We have sent the Canadian Expeditionary Force to the battlefront in the name of Canada: it is idle and shameless hypocrisy to pretend as the chief faction opposed to this law do, that because these men went voluntarily we at home have no obligation to support them. We encouraged them to go; we organized, trained and equipped them. They have offered themselves for the supreme sacrifice on our behalf. More than thirty thousand of them are under the sod, that we may live and that our inheritance may be preserved. To desert them now on the ground of a quibble that they were merely volunteers would be as ignoble an evasion of moral responsibility as any country in all history was ever guilty of. It would be a far worse fate for our country than any that has yet been seriously suggested as possible."

ITALIAN AIRMEN BOMB AUSTRIAN NAVAL BASE AT POLA SEVERELY

Destruction and Conflagration Caused, Says Official Report.

ENEMY FLEET OBJECTIVE

All Machines Return Safely in Spite of Vigorous Shelling.

Rome, Sept. 4.—Thirty Italian airplanes have dropped nine tons of bombs on the Austrian naval base at Pola, causing destruction and large conflagrations, it is announced officially. The bombs were dropped on the Austrian fleet at anchor and also on military works.

All Return Safely.

All the Italian machines, although determinedly attacked, returned safely. The artillery fire has grown heavier on the Julian front, says the official announcement, which reads:

"From St. Elvio to Monte Rombon there were the usual patrol actions.

"On the Julian front there were more intense artillery duels and considerable activity by our airplanes.

"Last night, under favorable atmospheric conditions, 30 of our airplanes flew on Pola and bombarded the military works of this naval port and the enemy fleet at anchor in the harbor and in the Fasana Canal.

Enemy Kills Civilians.

"Nine tons of bombs were dropped on the targets, causing destruction and great conflagrations. Our machines, although attacked by airplanes and shelled by anti-aircraft batteries, returned safely to their bases. On Saturday night enemy aircraft made a bombing raid on some localities in the plain between the Lower Isonzo and the Tagliamento, causing casualties among the civil population and soldiers in hospitals."

BAR ASSOCIATION OF U. S. PLEDGES LOYALTY

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Resolutions pledging the loyalty of the American Bar Association to the Government were presented at the opening session of the annual meeting today by Elihu Root, on behalf of the executive committee, with the unanimous recommendation of the committee that they be adopted.

The resolutions recommended "the speedy dispatch of the American army, however raised, to the battlefront in Europe, where the armed enemies of our country can be found and fought and where our own territory can best be defended."

JAILING I. W. W. MEN.

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 3.—The authorities are continuing vigorously their attempts to put an end to the activities of the Industrial Workers of the World. Three more members of the society here and 34 at Broken Hill have been sentenced to six months' imprisonment for belonging to an unlawful association.

Amsterdam, Sept. 4.—The German chancellor, Dr. George Michaelis, has returned to Berlin after a trip of five days to Belgium, and the western front.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 4.—Riga was evacuated by the civilian population and foreign consuls three weeks ago. This was the news contained in the official dispatches surrounded with so much mystery at the time, and over which so much uneasiness was felt.

Official reiteration was made today by Secretary of State Lansing of a confidence in the strength of Russia.

HENDERSON NOW SOLID AGAINST ANY CONFERENCE TO FRAME PEACE

Failure of Inter-Allied Conference to Agree Has Converted Him.

PROTEST GOVERNMENT ACT

Passports Should Be Issued Delegates if International Gathering Does Occur.

BLACKPOOL, Sept. 3.—The trade union congress was opened today with a record attendance of 700 delegates. John Hill of the Boilermakers' and Shipbuilders' Union, who presided, said in his opening address that something more than resolutions were required to obtain reforms and that "worn-out methods and going cap in hand to ministers should be buried with the battle axes and bows and arrows of England of the Plantagenets.

Speaking of international relations, the president urged the delegates to agree on the principal object of the war.

They were all agreed, he said, that there must be an evacuation of Belgium and absolute independence and full reparation for it. Belgium, Poland, Alsace-Lorraine and the Trentino were all assured of a full measure of justice.

Henderson Swings Round.

Arthur Henderson, who heretofore has strongly supported the Stockholm peace conference, indorsed the recommendation of the parliamentary committee against an international conference at the present. In an interview Mr. Henderson said:

"The failure of the recent inter-Allied conference in London to reach anything within a measurable distance of an agreement rendered it inevitable that the whole question should be reconsidered. An international conference with such divergent views as were manifested at the inter-Allied conference between different sections of one nation and among the different Allied nations would not only be harmful, but it might be disastrous.

"We can have no conference at all until a common ground for agreement is reached among the workers of the Allied countries."

Committee Against It.

The congress received the report of the parliamentary committee regarding the Stockholm conference. The committee came to the conclusion that a conference at Stockholm at the present time could not be successful, and recommended that an attempt be made to secure a general agreement among the working classes of the Allied nations as a fundamental agreement condition of a successful international conference.

The committee also recommended that the congress should protest against the Government's refusal of passports to delegates to Stockholm and to demand that in the event that an international conference were held no obstacle should be placed in the way of the attendance of delegates.

Discussion of the report was deferred until Tuesday.

President John Hill referred briefly to the alarming proportions which industrial unrest had reached and declared that the Government had broken its pledge to workers regarding industrial conscription, men being obliged to accept unfair conditions under fear of being compelled to enlist.

AIRPLANE ATTACK DIRECTED AT DOVER, ONE PERSON KILLED

LONDON, Sept. 3.—One person was killed and six injured by bombs dropped in the aerial raid over East Kent last night, it is announced officially.

The attack was made by a single airplane and was directed against the important channel port of Dover.

EVIDENTLY TWO PARTIES.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—German airplanes visited the southeast coast of England last (Monday) night, dropping bombs at various places, according to an official statement issued shortly after midnight. No report of casualties or damage has been received up to the present time. The official statement follows:

"Enemy airplanes crossed the southeast coast at 11 o'clock and dropped bombs at various places. No reports of casualties or damage have yet been received.

"A number of our airplanes pursued the enemy."

STATES LABOR WILL OBEY CONSCRIPTION NOW IT IS THE LAW

P. M. Draper Gives Out An Encouraging Statement.

TORONTO, Sept. 3.—"In so far as I represent the organized labor movement in Canada, I want to say that the organized workers, as represented by the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, will accept and obey the law of conscription. The labor workers believe that with conscription of manhood the economic wealth of this country should likewise be conscripted."

This message was delivered by P. M. Draper, secretary and treasurer of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, today at the exhibition directors' luncheon, at which Mr. Draper, Ald. Gibbons, D. A. Carey and Walter Brown, president of the Toronto district trades and labor council, were the speakers.

"In statements made in the press and in many public places in Canada," said Mr. Draper, "the inference is left that the labor movement is not loyal to its King and country. The Government figures in this connection speak for themselves. Labor is doing its part well and will show its devotion to the colors until Prussianism is successfully stamped out."

AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE GIVEN BAD RIFLE CARTRIDGES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Steps looking into the supplying of defective cartridges to American forces in France were taken today.

General Crozier asked that a board of inquiry be named. He said a small quantity of bromide, which retards fire for a fraction of a second had been found in about 2 per cent of the army's cartridges.

The danger attached to the use of this ammunition is that if a cartridge does not explode promptly and a soldier opens the magazine to ascertain the trouble, it may explode in his face. Soldiers have instructions not to open the magazine for several seconds if no explosion occurs.

"Other of the allies had their minor troubles at the beginning of the war owing to the shutting down of the chemical supplies from Germany. I have every confidence that a full inquiry will show that no person in particular is at fault in this case."

AMERICAN SAILORS ATTACKED BY MOBS IN STREETS OF CORK

Gangs of Young Roughs Are Guilty Ones.

YOUNG WOMEN INSULTED

Were With Americans, and Were Roughly Handled By Crowds.

London, Sept. 4.—Attacks on American sailors on Sunday night are reported in a dispatch from Cork to the Chronicle. It is said that gangs of young men paraded the streets and set upon the Americans, who were accompanied by their sweethearts.

One instance cited is that of two Americans who were attacked on the chief street of Cork a young woman with them being insulted and having her hat torn off. The correspondent reports that the sailors did nothing improper or contrary to good taste to invite the attack, and as far as could be learned, did not retaliate. They escaped on a tram car.

All the girls who suffered at the hands of the crowds, the dispatch says, belong to the respectable middle class.

An attempt was made at 11 p.m. to break into places where Americans are staying, the dispatch continues, but after a short siege the attackers departed.

FIVE THOUSAND AT LABOR DAY SPORTS IN QUEEN'S PARK

Work of Soldiers Feature of Fine Program.

MONSTER BABY SHOW

Entries Numerous in All the Sports and Keen Contests Resulted.

About five thousand people witnessed the sports held under the auspices of the city labor organizations in Queen's Park Monday afternoon. No more successful celebration has ever been held by the labor unions of this city, both in point of numbers present and variety of events.

There was also a good attendance in the evening, but the crowd, though slightly smaller than that in the afternoon, lacked nothing in enthusiasm. The program was equally as good as that of the afternoon.

The musical side of the day's enjoyment was much in evidence, four bands being on hand. The 1st Hussars Band played in front of the platform, the Marconi Club Band was in the grandstand, the London Juvenile Band furnished music for the dances, and McClary's Comedy Band distributed laughs to the crowd.

All Had Good Time.

One of the features of the day was the spirit of goodfellowship everywhere. The committeemen, in spite of the many cares incident to the running off of a lengthy program, the crowd in the stand and the contestants all took keen enjoyment out of the day's happenings.

In addition to the usual events there were a number of quite unusual ones, not the least of which were exhibitions of bayonet fighting and physical training by picked squads of men from the infantry details at Carling Heights, under Sergt.-Major Green of the Canadian army gymnastic staff. Although arrangements had been made for Sergt.-Major Green and the four members of his staff of instructors to go to Toronto to take part in the exhibition of gymnastic work that is being given at the Toronto exhibition, at considerable personal sacrifice he and his men passed up the trip to remain here and supervise the gymnastic and bayonet fighting on the Labor Day program.

A Real Thriller.

The exhibition of bayonet fighting by picked men in full equipment, including fencing masks, heavy gloves and heavy leather head guards, proved a thriller for the crowd. Four or five good duels were put on, the men running each other from points about 30 feet apart and meeting with bayonets set and at full tilt. The bayonets used were of the blunt variety, and instead of piercing the antagonist's body the bayonet is arranged to slip back into the barrel of the rifle. The sight of the two men scuffling about in an effort to jab a bayonet into each other brought pictures of the trenches in France, with a British Tommy and a Hun at death-grips.

An event that won applause from the crowd was the performance of a number of exercises chosen from the army syllabus of physical training, by a picked squad of men in white duck trousers, white sweaters and canvas slippers, the standard outfit for physical training work in the Canadian army. About 50 men took part, and the precision with which they executed the various movements was creditable, considering that they have been in training only about two months. The crowd was able to get some idea from the exercises of how the young Canadians are put into physical trim for their army work. The members of the team received a gift of $5 from Geo. S. Gibbons at the close of their performance.

Fast Work.

For speed, the men of the London fire department are winners. Four husky fire-fighters were in bed on the platform when the fire alarm was sounded, and they were into their clothing and across the platform and onto the auto fire truck in less time than it takes to tell it. The stunt of going to bed on the platform provided many a laugh for the spectators. The truck made a speed run halfway around the track, and in record time had a stream of water playing on an imaginary fire.

A novel event for London, and one that proved a good attraction was the musical ride participated in by sixteen men from the units at Carling Heights, under Major Baron -Osborne. The horsemen looked dashing with their lances flying in the breeze, and they executed the intricate manoeuvres of the ride with beautiful precision and concerted movement.

A large number of entries came forth for the juvenile dancing events, and some excellent talent was in evidence. A pretty feature from the point of view of costumes was the gypsy dance, and the little dancers vied with each other in the gaiety of their costumes. The bright and primitive colors and the ornaments of the costumes with the rattling of the tambourines combined to make this dance one of the most picturesque of the day. The judges faced a difficult problem in awarding the prizes among so many exponents of good dancing.

Murray and Ward made a hit with the crowd in their comedy tumbling skit, "The Enchanted Cottage," and in addition to their acrobatic and comic work, the crowd received a surprise, when one of the clowns proved to be a young lady in the unmasking that followed the act.

Draw for Gold Pieces.

A drawing for four five-dollar gold pieces donated by Sir George Gibbons to the returned soldiers present, created considerable interest. The returned men were drawn up in a huge line along the track, and were each given a chance to draw a numbered ticket. Those who held the lucky numbers were: Pte. Lounsbury, Military Police; Corp. Crocker, 5th C. M. R.; Sergt. Smith, 18th Battalion, and Pte. D. McGill, of the 70th Battalion. Col. Shannon officiated at the drawing, and the tickets were drawn by Miss Barclay, daughter of Capt. Barclay. Refreshments were also provided at a special booth for the returned soldiers by Geo. S. Gibbons.

In addition to the officials of the various union bodies, those who acted as judges were: Mayor Stevenson, Controller Shaw, George S. Gibbons, Fire Chief Aitken, Ald. Ashplant and W. L. Cook.

The Baby Show.

Babies large and small, fair and dark, smiling and crying, were to be seen on the platform during the judging of the baby show competition, which included a large variety of events, and drew forth a good representation of babies.

The C. P. R. roundhouse tug-of-war teams carried all before them, both the light and heavy teams winning. The C. P. R. light team (under 750 pounds) outpulled the G. T. R. carshops team in the first event, a ten-minute pull. The C. P. R. heavy team (900 pounds) was anxious to find a worthy opponent, but none appeared to challenge their right to the Dowler cup. To supply the deficiency a team was gathered together on the spur of the moment, and an exhibition pull was put on, which resulted in a win for the C. P. R. men. The winning C. P. R. light team lined up as follows: A. Jones (captain), A. Edwards, F. Jones, J. Yake, P. Fulcher and J. Mills. The G. T. R. team was composed of J. Sprig (captain), H. Collier, W. Smith, J. McDonald, R. Perkins and L. Hill. The victorious C. P. R. heavy team consisted of H. Baldwin, J. Botherill, Fred Jones, J. Yake, J. Mills and A. Jones (captain), while the members of the team that opposed them were Corp. J. Devine, Corp. John Edgar, H. Simpson, J. Somerville, S. Korn and J. Milligan (captain).

Won the Prize.

Everybody was forced to take a back seat when President Dean of the trades and labor council, began to show how many union labels were to be found on his clothing. He was an easy winner, with labels from shoes to collar buttons, sixteen in all, and was awarded the prize for the highest number of labels.

John T. Read was likewise an easy winner of the prize for the man holding the longest continuous union membership card. He produced one bearing the date 1871, showing that he had been a member of the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners for 46 years.

SCHOOL REOPENS, LARGE CLASSES

More Rooms Are Opened To Accommodate Increased Demand.

This is Black Tuesday in the minds of many of the school children. This morning they had to rise early, get polished up, and send off to school. This day marked the opening of the public, high and separate schools of the city.

At the Collegiate, there was little work done, outside of organization. The classes were laid out, the students instructed on the books to secure, and detail work arranged. The studies will commence in real earnest tomorrow morning.

Inspector C. B. Edwards spent a busy day in getting the public schools started. There were the usual promotions, changes in the staff, and many other little problems to work out. Four additional rooms were opened, one each at the Riverview, Boyle, Tecumseh and Ryerson schools. All the teachers assigned to the various rooms were on hand with one or two exceptions, due to illness.

The attendance was large, more than 85 per cent of the expected enrollment being on hand. Some others have not completed their summer's work, and a few are away on holidays.

"The attendance is most satisfactory," said Inspector Edwards. "Everything went along smoothly, and we are away to a good start."

DAMAGES PAID AT A MONTHLY RATE TO MRS. ERNEST BEEDLE

The statement that appeared in the press to the effect that Mrs. Beedle of 665 York street, the widow of the late Ernest A. Beedle, an employee of the London and Port Stanley Railway, and accidentally killed, was awarded by the workmen's compensation board the sum of $4,200, is incorrect. Mrs. Beedle's share of the amount awarded is $20 a month, until her death or remarriage, and that of each of four children is $5 per month until death or age of 16 years.

BUY FISH WHEN RUN IS ON AND PLACE THEM IN STORAGE FOR CITIZENS

Ald. Sam Manness, chairman of the high cost of living committee, is of the opinion that the fish enterprise will be a success.

He states that through the activity of the council the cost has been lowered from 15 to 10 cents a pound, quite a saving. A considerable quantity was sold on Saturday at this figure.

It is stated that a deputation from a local organization will be on hand to protest against the city continuing in the fish business.

Ald. Manness will advocate the purchase of a large quantity of fish this fall when the run is on, and have them placed in cold storage to be sold later in the winter when there will be a falling off in the supply.

"With plenty of potatoes and cheap fish, the people will be able to get even with the high cost of living," he said.

SIX MEN PLEAD GUILTY AND PAY USUAL FINE

Six persons charged with intoxication pleaded guilty in the police court today and each paid a fine of $10 and costs rather than spend the next ten days at Castle Carter.

Two out of the six were charged with disorderly conduct. Both were soldiers and when the second charge was read one pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs in addition to the fine for drunkenness, while the other said he was too drunk to remember anything that was said or done. The nature of their disorderly conduct was using insulting language towards two women. The women were called in and identified the soldiers but stated that while the one who could not remember had not used the offensive language, the other had. He was discharged on the disorderly count.

The other four who pleaded guilty to drunkenness submitted similar alibis, viz., the holiday.

"Yesterday was Labor Day and as I had nothing else to do I thought I might as well get drunk as not," said the first one to answer.

"That about hits my case also," said Numbers Two and Three while Number Four nodded assent but said nothing.

The case of Thomas Fox, pawnbroker, charged with receiving military boots from soldiers in training contrary to the criminal code, was enlarged until Thursday upon request of George S. Gibbons.

DESPITE LATE START, CORN CROP EXPECTED TO BE BUMPER TYPE

Expectations in Oxford Will Be Exceeded.

INGERSOLL, Sept. 3—Not in years have the hoe crops of the surrounding districts been more flourishing or more promising than at present. With few exceptions, where the ground is low and was flooded during the wet period, the corn is a bumper crop. This condition is particularly true of Dereham Township, where the acreage is large, owing to it being extensively used for the dairy cattle in the winter. It is expected that the numerous silos in the township will be filled to capacity this season.

Turnips and potatoes continue to show a luxuriant growth. The frequent showers recently, followed by the bright sunshine, are conditions that make for growth, and labor, it would seem, is about the chief cause for worry at present on the part of the farmers.

PAVING QUESTION VITAL PROBLEM OF INGERSOLL COUNCIL

INGERSOLL, Sept. 3.—The action that will be taken relative to the proposed pavement on Charles street west is the cause of much speculation on the part of citizens as a whole. A petition was recently submitted to the council, bearing the signatures of all property owners between Thames and Wonham street, and when discussed at a special session of the council there was a feeling on the part of some members that it was too late in the season to undertake so much permanent work. It is understood, however, that ratepayers of Charles street who have signed the petition will insist on the work being begun this season.

A small section of the street between Thames and the west side of Oxford street, has been in bad condition for some time, and it is the intention to put down concrete this season, if satisfactory arrangements can be made. It is felt by many citizens that it is time to begin to practice economy, in view of the large outlay the town has made for permanent work during the last two years, and on which ratepayers have not yet begun to pay taxes. The proposed work will doubtless be the principal issue at the next meeting of the council.

MOTOR TRIPS POPULAR.

INGERSOLL, Sept. 3. — In the absence of any set program citizens were left to their own inclinations as to the manner in which they should celebrate Labor Day. As is invariably the case, the National Exhibition was the main attraction. There was the usual large week-day exodus to Toronto, while others even made the trip by motor today. Many others visited Port Stanley and Springbank, these resorts having become popular with a large number of the motorists of the section.

GRANDMOTHER'S BOTANIC MEDICINE

In every pioneer home the botanic recipes of our grandmothers for the treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. Every fall she gathered her various herbs; thorough-wort, camomile, sage, pennyroyal, wormwood, rue, etc. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ills we have, was originally prepared for home use from one of these botanic recipes, and the demand for this famous medicine has grown until over 350,000 pounds of roots and herbs are used annually in its preparation. It will well repay any woman who suffers from female ills to give this famous medicine a trial.

IGNORANCE PULLS GIRLS DOWN TO POLICE CAREER

Many Appear in Court as a Result of Being Held as Vagrants.

A PRESSING PROBLEM

Some Sensitive, But Others Indifferent to Fate of Youthful Female Offenders.

Despite the unceasing efforts of organizations and individuals who have at heart the welfare of young girls, the number of misguided maidens who have appeared in police court of late indicates that the social problem here is far from being solved. Today four girls, all just budding into womanhood, appeared in juvenile court before Magistrate Graydon charged with vagrancy.

Only one out of the four seemed to feel the disgrace of her position. Her grandmother with whom she lived, appeared on her behalf and stated that the girl had only started on her downward course less than two weeks ago. She had gone out on a motor trip with some others more familiar with the gay life than she. She had returned partly intoxicated and notwithstanding her grandmother's warnings continued to lead a wayward life until the police dragnet on Saturday night caught her with the other three. Upon her promise to go back and live with her grandmother again and lead a straight life she was allowed to go, but will be required to report to the chief of police once a week for six months. During her period of probation if she again strays from the narrow path she will face a term at Mercer.

The other three girls, in police parlance, are street characters, none of them claiming a home. Although only on their 'teens, the life they had been leading had nearly robbed them of their natural childish beauty.

A shocking condition has been revealed in many similar cases sent to jail or to Mercer, where medical examinations showed girls of 12 and 13 years to be suffering from diseases brought on by their brief life of immorality.

How to overcome the tendency in young girls to go wrong is a problem that has defied solution for years, and today in this city conditions seem worse than ever before.

Some students of the social question maintain imprisonment is the wrong idea, as it only hardens the mind instead of changing it to do better.

Early education against immorality and healthful environment many claim to be the greatest preventive. Ignorance is regarded as the most prolific cause of immorality.

TO SELECT SITE FOR NEW POSTOFFICE

It is stated that the postoffice department has decided to open up a branch postoffice in the east end at once.

Assistant Deputy Minister Robert Fowler, Ottawa, was in the city some days ago and looked the situation over. There was considerable difference of opinion among east end businessmen as to the location, etc., and so it was decided to open a branch postoffice as close to Adelaide street as possible, and put it in charge of an employe of the postoffice.

A building will be selected this week, it is expected, and the office put in operation at an early date.

LOCAL NEWS

MEETING CANCELLED—The board of works scheduled to meet this evening will not do so, owing to the fact that the council will hold its regular session tonight.

GENERAL RETURNS.—Major-Gen. W. H. Hodgins, adjutant-general of the militia department, left the city Sunday night for Ottawa, after spending a couple of days on military business here.

PAVING SOON TO END.—City paving for the year will cease in a couple of week. The pavement on Adelaide street will be the last. The concrete work will be done in possibly a week's time and then the surface work will be done.

GETS HIS DISCHARGE.—Sergt. Clifton A. Connor, formerly in the orderly-room of the 63rd Battery, and recently in the orderly-room of the Forestry and Construction Depot at Carling Heights Camp, has been given his discharge as physically unfit.

DRAFT WILL SOON LEAVE.—Although no orders have as yet been received with regard to a draft, it is expected that a detachment of about 70 or 80 men and two officers from the Army Medical Corps Training Depot at Carling Heights Camp will be ready to leave for the east in the near future.

AUTHORITIES SATISFIED. — The military officers of Carling Heights Camp have satisfied themselves as to the cleanliness of the refreshment booth of William Jeffries at Oxford and Adelaide streets, and the order placing it "out of bounds" has been removed.

FOUNDATIONS COMPLETED. — Preparations are being made to construct the superstructure of the hydro shop. The foundations are laid, and the materials are on the ground for the concrete work. It is expected that it will be ready for the carpenter work about the latter part of October.

WANT PHOTOS OF SOLDIERS.—Those who have protographs of soldiers who have gone overseas are asked to send them to the Overseas Chapter, I. O. D. E., as the members of that chapter intend to hold a tag day on the Wednesday of Fair week, and sell tags bearing reproductions of many of the soldiers who have left London for the front.

A NOISY DRIVER—Complaints continue to be made by residents of South London that their rest is being broken in the early morning by the noisy conduct of the driver of a milk wagon. It is said that every time he stops or starts his horse he shouts loud enough to be heard two or three blocks away. A police court action is threatened to put an end to the nuisance.

GETS PRELIMINARY HEARING.—William Johnson, Richmond street, formerly employed as driver for a local coal company, received a preliminary hearing before Squire Chittick yesterday on a charge of stealing a buggy from Thomas Miller, of the 4th concession of Nissouri Township. He was sent for trial and will appear before Judge Macbeth Wednesday morning.

HORSE DISAPPEARS.—Wm. Gould, contractor, Hamilton road, has reported to High Constable Watterworth the loss of a horse which he believes was stolen from a pasture field in which it was usually kept. The animal was missed on Saturday night, and the owner has been unable to find any trace of it since. The county authorities have the matter under investigation.

MUST PAY FOR DOGS.—The city is not getting sufficient money for dog licenses, and Inspector McCallum is going to get some more. To date tags have been taken out for 1,412 dogs, the revenue from which amounts to $2,971. It seems that Mr. McCallum has the idea that there are about 3,000 dogs being sheltered in London, and he wants money for each of them. He will go out and get it if possible.

SERIES OF FORCEFUL SERMONS.—Sergt.-Major (Rev.) Harry Edwards will fill the pulpit of the Central Christian Church, Dundas and Elizabeth streets, on September 16, 23, 30. Very special invitation to soldiers is given on these nights.

Representatives of corps from many district were present and the band from Windsor amalgamated with that of Detroit for the musical part of the service, which was held in the citadel there. Mrs. Rock, who is survived by her husband, Adjutant Nelson Rock, and three children, was a well known Salvationist, and had been in London on several occasions.

TENDER CHECK TO NUTTER AND HE CAN TAKE NEXT ACTION

Board Will Not Proceed Further, Says Mr. Rowe.

$6,000 CLAIM COMING UP

Board of Education Will Hear Details and Send Account to Committee.

The board of education will this afternoon formally receive the claim of A. E. Nutter, former architect for the technical school, from his solicitor, J. M. McEvoy, asking for $6,000 for fees, etc., in connection with the construction of that building.

Other than getting some of the details of the charges, the board will not deal with the question this afternoon. It will simply be referred to the industrial advisory committee for that body to dispose of. That committee will scrutinize the account, settle on an amount considered due Mr. Uutter, and tender him a check for the sum agreed upon. It will then be up to Mr. Nutter to take such proceedings as he sees fit in the matter. That he will sue is considered likely.

Chairman Thomas Rowe of the board states that the trustees will take no further action.

"We have got rid of him," said Mr. Rowe. "That is as far as we will go. Our solicitor is advising us to take that course, and we will follow his advice."

"No criminal proceedings will be taken?" he was asked.

"None," he answered. "If Mr. Nutter thinks he has been wronged he knows what to do."

LONDON BOARD'S ACT HELPS TO PREVENT PASSAGE OF A LAW

Proposal Regarding Containers Involved Heavy Expense.

PROTEST HAD WEIGHT

Decided Not To Proceed With Proposed Measure This Session.

Following a meeting held on August 14, the board of trade lodged strong objection to the proposed amendment to inspection and sale act having reference to containers of human food or any other commodities sold or offered for sale in Canada.

The principal provisions of this bill were that all unbroken containers or packages sold or offered for sale in Canada should be distinctly marked with the name of the dealer, with the net weight of food or other commodity contained therein and the month and year of filling same.

After careful consideration of the proposed amendment, the board lodged objection with the minister of trade and commerce on the grounds that compliance with the provisions of the act calling for net weight of food and date of filling the same to be stamped on the containers would greatly increase the cost of the retail package at a time when every effort is being made to conserve the resources of the nation.

Word has now been received from the deputy minister, F. C. T. O'Hara, that the objections raised by the board and other organizations have had weight with the Government, and that it has been decided not to proceed with the proposed bill this session.

MARKET CLERK PUTS IN VACATION ON FARM

Charles Maker, the market clerk, returned to his duties yesterday after spending two weeks' holidays helping a farmer living in the vicinity of Mossley to gather his crops. Mr. Maker states that he worked harder during his two weeks' holidays than he ever worked before. He has heard it said that a farmer demands everything there is in a man during the harvesting season and Mr. Baker believes it, after having had two weeks' experience.

According to Mr. Maker, the cows belonging to the farmer were pastured at least one mile from the farm and this entailed a walk at 5 o'clock in the morning that the animals might be milked.

Mr. Maker's employer insisted that his new hired man rise at 6 o'clock in the morning. However, the hired man demurred at this, and forthwith arose at 5 o'clock in order that the farmer would have to rise at the same early hour to get Mr. Maker's breakfast. In this manner revenge was obtained but it was not as sweet as the phrase indicates.

Other city employees intend following the city clerk's example when their annual holidays are secured.

NO WORD SENT AS TO ODELL HOSPITAL SITE

The city has received no word from the Dominion Hospitals Commission relative to the purchase of the Odell farm for a hospital site.

Some definite information was expected before this, but none has arrived. Mayor Stevenson is confident that the commission will accept the Odell site.

The funeral, which was held from the residence of his father, Samuel J. Harris, 18 Rathgar street, city, was largely attended and numerous floral offerings evidenced the large circle of friends who were touched by the death. A large wreath was sent by the Diamond Manufacturing Company. The services were conducted by Rev. H. D. Moyer of the Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church.

The pallbearers were H. Dresser, Richard, Orville and Edgar Post, Hector Boyce and Russel Pinch.

MR. DEAN CHARGES THAT MUCH LIGHT-WEIGHT PRODUCE IS SOLD ON THE MARKET TO LONDONERS

Pounds of Potatoes and Ounces of Honey Deducted When Purchases Are Made—Official Makes Test Weights and Says Some Purveyors Are Cheating the Public.

Notwithstanding the high cost of all edibles and the natural tendency of all housewives to examine and weigh food before purchasing it, market purveyors from whom the most economical of the city's housewives buy their foodstucs, are alleged to have made a practice of giving short weight in many kinds of the most popular commodities.

According to James Dean, the market weigh clerk, marketers are being continually being made the subjects of the unscrupulousness of many purveyors who consistently sell their produce at a less weight or quantity than the money of the purchaser calls for.

Deduct Many Pounds.

The practice has become prevalent among a certain class of vegetable vendors who frequently sell a so-called bushel of seasonoble vegetables having deducted from five to ten pounds of the standard weight. Mr. Dean, by way of investigating complaints which have been made by London marketers, weighed several hundred bushels of potatoes last Saturday with the result that a shortage was manifested of from five to ten pounds in each of the separate quantities weighed.

Weighs Honey, Too.

Because the price of honey has ascended over 100 per cent. during the last two years Mr. Dean also ascertained the weight of a pail of new honey, discovering that instead of weighing ten pounds and three-quarters many pails registered ten pounds and two ounces on the city weigh scales.

According to the weigh clerk an allowance of three-quarters of a pound for the weight of the pail should be made by the honey vendors but this allowance is apparently not carried out and the honey producers reap the benefit of three-puarters of a pound short weight in their sales.

Black Bass Being Placed In Thames

Several Thousand Fingerlings and Parent Fish Are Taken Out To Various Sections of River — Fisheries Department Official Here.

The River Thames is being re-stocked with black bass. This morning J. C. Brown, of the mines and fisheries department of the Provincial Government arrived in the city with five cans of fingerlings and three cans of parent bass. There would be several thousand fish in all.

P. M. Marshall Graydon, who was largely responsible for securing the stock met him, and with W. J. Boss, A. Tillmann, J. Jennings, W. E. Saunders, and others piscatorilly inclined, left in automobiles to place the young stock. No information was forthcoming as to the location of the fish, but they will be properly placed, Mr. Graydon is conversant with every detail, and will have them located where the best results will be secured.

The news is welcome to local anglers who have been trying for a long time to get some fish here.

Kiddies Rush To Get School Books

Regular Riot at One Store When Children Come For Supplies.

Any persons desirous of participating in a riot this morning should have engaged with a bookstore and spent the noon hour there.

A reporter happened to wander into a well-known shop at the hour, and in a minute he was in a whirl of popeyed gesticulating youngsters, all yelling at the top of their voices for school books of all kinds and sizes.

The scribe was borne along in a wave of kiddies, and he could not turn to the right hand or the left. When he got through he was in the back alley consorting with a flock of boxes, with a million varied noises chasing after him.

He discovered then that he was in the annual rush for school books. And it was some rush. The clerks were gasping for breath, and fagged to a frazzle trying to keep up with the rush.

Hays' shop had to close its doors for a spell to give the clerks a chance to catch up.

It was rather a busy time. If the youngsters are as eager to read and study the books as they were to get them there will not be enough medals to go round next examination time.

FIFTEEN MEN OFFER SELVES FOR SERVICE

Some Unable To Get Overseas Places, But All Accepted.

Recruiting was quite brisk during the past week-end, and a total of fifteen men donned the khaki between Saturday and Monday. Eight men arrived on Saturday, and although all were not fit for combatant units, or even for overseas service, places were found for all of them. H. Marks went to the military police, E. A. Green and D. J. Powell to the Canadian Engineers, J. C. Mulligan, E. D. Brown and R. A. Long to the 7th Regiment Details, F. Buckley to the military police and F. Black to the Railway Construction Depot. The last-named was from Woodstock, but all the rest were from London.

On Monday, J. W. Law, F. Scully, J. Miller and R. E. F. Smith of London, F. P. D. Evans of Norwich, W. E. Davey of Cleveland, Ohio, L. T. McBrien of Denver, Colo., signed up at the Armories.

Quite a number of unfit men are coming in to fill the requirements of No. 1 Special Service Company, but there is still room for a large number of men unfit for overseas service in that unit.

CASUALTY LISTS GROWING HEAVIER

Total of 6,998 Since Sunday, August 25.

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—With the proportion of killed and died of wounds on the increase the lists of casualties among Canadian troops at the front have been growing heavier every day during the past week. Between Saturday noon and Sunday midnight 1,718 names were given out from the records office. Last night's list contained 665 names. Since Sunday, August 25, a total of 6,998 casualties have been given out.

The artillery and field services have suffered heavily from gas poisoning. The list of "gassed" among all such is unusually long.

Indications are that the casualty lists will continue to be very heavy for some time.

SPORTS TO BE PART OF CAMP TRAINING

Sports are to be included as a part of the course of training through which every recruit to the Canadian army passes are to be begun at Carling Heights, starting Wednesday, September 12th. Wednesday afternoon of each week will be devoted to sports, and all ranks will take part in them. Heretofore while sports have been encouraged they have been taken up aftr the hours of training were over, but they will now be a part of the training, just as the physical exercises are at present, and the men will parade and enter into the games under the supervision of the officer commanding the district training school. Baseball, football, cricket and track and field events will be on the weekly program.

DEATH OF MRS. M. E. OWEN

Resident of London for 70 Years; a Native of Jersey.

By the death yesterday of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Owen, relict of the late Mr. W. L. Owen, at her residence, 526 Princess avenue, in her 87th year, London loses one of its oldest residents. The deceased lady was born on the Island of Jersey, Channel Islands, coming to Canada with her parents when quite young. Her father was a veterinary surgeon, attached to one of the imperial regiments stationed at Halifax. When Mrs. Owen (then Miss Christie) was about 17 years of age the family moved to London. The house in which she resided was one of the first erected on the Dr. Slater estate, the only other house in the locality at that time being that erected by Judge Macbeth's father. The surrounding country was forest.

Mrs. Owen was predeceased by her husband, who was the first street commissioner for the city, about 21 years ago. She is survived by two sons—Wade of Nashville, Tenn., and Frank of St. Louis, Ill., and three daughters—Mrs. Thomas M. Green at home, Mrs. Wm. Ward of King street and Mrs. W. T. Hodgens, city.

The deceased lady was a well-known and highly respected member of Cronyn Memorial Church.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, services at 2:30 o'clock.

TRANSFERRED TO C. E. F.—Lieut. Harry M. Livingstone of the 18th Battalion has been transferred to the C. E. F., and attached for duty to the instructional staff at Carling Heights Camp.

QUEEN'S PARK IS HIVE OF WORKERS PREPARING FAIR

Improvements Bring Scores Into Activity for Next Few Days.

BOOTHS ARE BEING BUILT

New Buildings for Animals One of Features of This Week's Energy.

In preparation for what is expected to be the most successful exhibition ever held in Western Ontario, Queen's Park presents a scene of tremendous bustle and energy. The work of renovating and repairing the structures which for decades have withstood the wear and tear of the exhibitors and patrons alike is progressing favorably. Carpenters, painters, electricians and various other kinds of workmen are employed all over the grounds and a host of individual exhibitors are working feverishly that their particular exhibit may surpass those of their neighbors.

Filled With Workers.

The Crystal Palace, where the foundations for some 50 separate exhibits are being constructed, is virtually alive with workman. Each booth is being decorated and overhauled. The odor of varnish and paint permeates the building, while carpenters hammer and foremen instruct.

A few tents have already been erected along what will be the Midway, and stages are in the process of construction. A distinctly new and modern touch is given the park as the many alterations which will go so far toward making the Fair a great success, are nearly finished.

Housing for Animals.

A feature of the exhibition will be the new stalls and stables for animals in competition for the annual prizes. New barns of the most modern type have been built in preparation for the expected influx of entries for the animal shows.

The clerks of the office are specially busy. Entries for the dog, horse and other animal shows are coming in with a rapidity unsurpassed, and the office staff have had their hands full for the last few days dealing with them. The grandstand has been repainted and overhauled, the dog and agricultural buildings repaired, and the whole aspect of the grounds indicates that a record-breaking exhibitions will be enjoyed by record-breaking crowds during the whole of Fair week.

MISS HOTSON'S BODY DRIFTS ACROSS LAKE; RECOVERED IN RIVER

Remains of Drowned Parkhill Girl Found Near Port Huron.

FUNERAL IN THIS CITY

The funeral of Miss Maud Hotson of Parkhill, a former London school teacher, who was drowned on Wednesday while boating off Ipperwash Beach, was held at noon today from the G. T. R. station here to Woodland Cemetery. A funeral service was conducted by Rev. Capt. Graham, formerly pastor of Chalmers Presbyterian Church.

The body was recovered on Monday. It had drifted across the lake and was found five miles below Port Huron.

Identification was established yesterday, and the body was brought to this city for interment in Woodland Cemetery today. The remains arrived on the noon Grand Trunk train from Sarnia.

The discovery of the body far from solves the mysterious death of Miss Hotson. She left the cottage of A. E. Cowley of this city, with whom she was staying, early on Wednesday morning. Arrangements had been made the night before with her sister, Aleathea, to see the sunrise over the lake. The start was to have been made at 6 o'clock. Miss Aleathea was not awake when her sister left, and a note was left in the dining-room stating where she had gone. When she failed to return fishermen were enlisted in the search, and the boat, with one oar missing, was found in the lake.

What caused the accident and death of Miss Hotson will remain a mystery. She was perfectly at home in boats, and knew the district as few others of the resorters. There was no sea running at the time.

The discovery of the body yesterday was made by the captain of a passing freighter, going through the St. Clair River. By means of a megaphone, resorters on the American side were notified, and the body brought to shore.

The Port Huron police at first believed the remains to be that of an American girl, as owing to the nature of the current it seemed improbable that it could have come from the Canadian side.

Miss Hotson was well known in London and district. At Parkhill, where her father has been practicing medicine since he left the staff of the London collegiate, where he was science master, she was greatly interested in Red Cross, Women's Institute and other work of similar nature.

The A. M. C. boys have been training hard for their field day, and all the looking forward to a day of keen enjoyment. An extensive and interesting program of field events has been arranged, and fine weather alone is needed to make the day a big success.

PACIFIST GOES TO JAIL.

London, Sept. 4.—E. D. Morel, secretary of the Union of Democratic Control and one of the leaders of the pacifist movement, who was arrested on Friday last, charged with unlawfully inciting Ethel Eedgwick to convey to Switzerland a pamphlet contrary to regulations, pleaded guilty in Bow street police court today. He was sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

LONDON LADS IN TODAY'S CASUALTIES

Mrs. Shaddock Hears That Son Was Poisoned With Gas.

Mrs. James Shaddock, 604 Central avenue, has received word that her son, Private Fred Earl Shaddock, who left London with the 33rd Battalion as a stenographer, and gave up his rank of sergeant to go to the front as a machine gunner, is suffering from gas poisoning. The casualty occurred on August 20th. The family was notified Saturday. Prior to his enlistment Private Shaddock was employed in the Molson's Bank.

Word was received this morning by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wooster, of 23 Byron avenue, that their son, Sergt. Harry Wooster, has been wounded while on active service. Sergt. Wooster enlisted here with the 135th Battalion and was a member of the pay staff. He was later transferred and has been in France for over a year. Before enlisting he was employed at the Customs House.

Has Trench Fever.

Lieut. Ernest A. Steven, son of Rev. F. A. Steven, of this city, is reported ill with trench fever.

Word was received today by Mrs. Mary McDonnell, 22 Cathcart street, only son, Peter W. McDonnell, had been wounded on August 21st and was undergoing treatment at Etaples Hospital. He enlisted with the A. M. C. in January, 1916, and went overseas with a draft some months later.

He has never been wounded before although he has been for some months in the war zone. He was 30 years of age.

WANT LAND FROM VICTORIA TO ERECT SOLDIERS' BUILDING

The city council will meet this evening with just an ordinary amount of business to be disposed of. It is possible for the aldermen to get through by midnight with some care.

There will be a request from the Dominion Hospital Commission for a portion of the ground at Victoria Hospital on which to erect a vocational training building for the soldiers in the hospital. This will probably be granted.

The question of the interference by some of the municipal committee in the conduct and management of the incinerator may come up, and there will be a strenuous debate in all probability on the question. The board of control wants Mr. Brazier to reinstate a man whom he has dismissed.

The proposed vote on the advisability of handing over the management of Victoria Hospital to the council will not be granted. This will come up for discussion.

G. W. V. A. AND SOLDIERS' AID MEET THURSDAY

A conference of members of the Great War Veterans' Association and the executive of the Soldiers' Aid Commission will be held in the offices of the commission on Thursday night, it was decided at a meeting Monday afternoon. A number of matters will be discussed, and it is likely the executive will express the desire of their organization to aid the veterans in building a memorial home.

Several clauses of the annual report of the commission were considered by the executive on Monday, and one urging co-ordination of the work and presenting a plan for co-operation of the various branches was highly recommended and forwarded to the head office.

The vice-president, Mrs. S. F. Lawrason, obtained permission to send out letters of condolence to the wives and families of men who are killed in action. These will be written by women members of the commission on stationery of the commission and, in addition to expressing sympathy, will offer the services of the organization to the bereaved family.

MACHINIST SAYS HE WAS LOSING OUT

His Work Required Every Ounce of Strength.

WORK WAS A BURDEN

"Since Taking Tanlac I Feel New Life and Vigor in Every Nerve," He Says.

"My work requires good steady nerves and plenty of strength, and before I got hold of this Tanlac I was losing out both ways," said William Judges, a well-known machinist employed by the Russell Motor Company, living at 15 Harshaw street, recently.

"I had been losing weight and strength and feeling all played out for a year or more without being able to get anything to help me," he continued. "I seemed to be in a general rundown condition, was very nervous and everything I undertook to do just seemed to require every ounce of my strength. I never had much appetite, my sleep failed to rest me and I would get up mornings feeling drowsy and sluggish and unfit for anything. My work was really a burden to me, and I would come home at night completely worn out, with no inclination to do anything except lie around and rest. I was never sick in bed, but was just in that condition that unfits a man for work and keeps him in misery nearly all the time.

"Well, I have taken many different kinds of medicine in my life, but have never taken anything that would in any way equal Tanlac. I am now on my third bottle and I'm feeling fine, better than I have since my trouble began. My appetite is great and I can eat just anything set before me and enjoy every bite. I simply feel new life and vigor tingling in every nerve of my body, and my strength and endurance have increased until I can hold out to do my work without getting all fagged out like I did. My sleep is sound and restful and I'm never bothered with that dull, drowsy feeling any more. I had lost thirteen pounds in weight, but I am gaining it all back right along since I began on Tanlac, and in my opinion people in the condition I was couldn't do a better thing than try Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, under the direction of a special representative and by an established agency in every town.

To Relieve Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength) and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 teaspoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Advt.

After Vacation Peel Your Discolored Skin

Women returning from the seaside with browned, reddened or freckled complexions will be wise in immediately taking up the mercolized wax treatment. Weather-beaten skin had best come off, for no amount of "beautifying" will ever make such skin pretty to look at. The surest, safest, easiest way to shed the despoiled cuticle is with the treatment suggested. Put the wax on before retiring, as you would cold cream and rinse it off next morning with warm water. Minute particles of scarf skin will peel off day by day, gradually showing the healthy, youthful skin beneath.

One ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is enough to make any discolored or spotted complexion clear, white and satiny soft. Its action is so gentle no harm is caused and the face shows no trace of its use.—Advt.

CUTICURA HEALS ITCHY PIMPLES

On Face. Badly Disfigured. Used 2 Boxes Ointment and 3 Cakes Soap.

"I had a bad itchy lot of pimples on my face which made it badly disfigured. They were inflamed and came to a head, and I could tear my skin as soon as a little heat came near them. I could hardly sleep.

"When I saw Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised I sent for a free sample which did so much good that I bought more, and I used two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and three cakes of Cuticura Soap when I was healed." (Signed) Miss Bertha Nilsson, Stockholm, Sask.

If you have a good complexion keep it so by using Cuticura Soap daily and Cuticura Ointment occasionally.

For Free Sample Each by Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. A, Boston, U. S. A." Sold everywhere.

Just One Application and the Hairs Vanish

(Toilet Talks.)

Any woman can keep her skin free from unsightly hair or fuzz if she will follow these simple instructions: When hairy growths appear, apply a simple paste, made by mixing some water with powdered delatone. Apply this to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a harmless treatment, but be sure to get the real delatone.—Advt.

RIGA'S FALL.

THE fall of Riga at a time when President Wilson's note in reply to the Pope's peace message was beginning to have effect upon the German people would have been more disastrous than it really is were Russia at the present time a factor of importance in the war. Without doubt it is an Allied loss, particularly when it will have the result of renewing the confidence of the Teutons, who will see in it the pending collapse of Petrograd and the gaining of two Baltic ports.

German newspapers, in their guarded comment, evidence a gleam of light when they refer to Wilson's flat statement that peace cannot be made with the Hozenzollern house, but can be made with a democratic fatherland. It appears plain that this fact is beginning to sink into the German mind and it is regrettable that it has not reached the Russian armies, whose retirement made possible Teutonic occupation of Riga.

The defection of the Finns and the capture of the Baltic port will undeniably strengthen the hands of the Prussians in dealing with the Scandinavian countries. While there appeared no signs that Norway and Sweden would cast their lot with the Entente allies the addition of the weight of the United States to the allied blockade had placed these countries in a position where it was becoming disadvantageous to continue feeding the German armies with bread and bullets. With the Teutons controlling absolutely the southern shore of the Baltic Prussian pressure on the northern kingdom is liable to become more emphatic and will make it impossible to lend aid to Russia should they become inclined at any time to do so.

$5,500 FOR WHITEWASH.

CANADA must pay $5,500 for the pleasure of hearing that the McLeod-Tellier commission had declared Hon. Robert Rogers as white as snow, and guilty of nothing of which Justice Galt had found him guilty. This is the decision of the Conservative party in Parliament.

It appears to be the aim of the Conservative Government to disburse as much of the nation's cash as possible for unworthy objects in its last dying moments. First the C. N. R. purchase, and now this whitewashing bill, for "counsels' fees and other expenses." The commission was appointed to review the evidence given at the inquiry before Justice Galt, and to decide whether it justified the report made upon it. Why was it necessary to have any expense worth mentioning in connection with this action? Did these judges require counsel to tell them what the evidence was worth? Or was it necessary to have counsel present to befog them on behalf of Mr. Rogers? It was announced that these learned gentlemen of the bench would receive nothing for their services, so about $5,000 of the total sum must be for Mr. Rogers' counsel. Will the nation consider it has had its money's worth?

It is no wonder the Borden Government tries to insist on conscription, and conscription only, as the issue of the coming election. If it could only get the people to accept this view, and believe that the Liberal party as a whole is opposed to the measure, it might have a chance of being returned. But there is the whole evil-smelling mess of the past six years to consider, with the additional outrages now being perpetrated to add to it. No sane people could vote for a continuance of the debauch.

SEEDS HAVE BEEN SOWN.

GERMANY'S press has not failed to understand that President Wilson declines, as have the other allies, to enter into peace negotiations with the present Government; that Germany must be prepared either to get rid of Wilhelm and his clique, or fight until decisively defeated.

The first result of this realization is anger, but a succeeding one will be thought. Indeed, it is apparent that already some of the papers have passed the first stage and entered the second. The Vossische Zeitung is amusingly self-contradictory in its comments, and succeeds only in emphasizing President Wilson's contention that the German people is under the absolute control of its "masters." The paper says that the United States ought to accept the Reichstag resolution on peace as a proof that Parliament is able to determine the national policy, and in the next sentence admits that there is no assurance that a course indicated by the Parliament and accepted by the Government will be followed. In fact, it declares that the people are beginning to demand that the Reichstag participate in the government of the country. This is a pregnant admission, when it is remembered that the German press has been boasting that the Parliament was the most democratic in the world, and that it fulfilled all the needs of the people.

Another thought has been engendered, as shown by the Socialist Vorwaerts, when it says that the thought would be unbearable that the armies were fighting, not for the maintenance of the empire, but for the maintenance of conditions (militarism), "which were not worth being maintained; that one mother's son fell not for the people's rights, but for the privilege of individuals."

That unbearable thought is the plain truth, and its realization just a matter of time. The Vorwaerts is not yet ready to agree to it, but it has considered the possibility, and seen what an awful mockery the German side of the war would be if the contention were correct. From this to a recognition of the truth is but a short step. It is possible the president's reply to the pope will, directly or indirectly, bring about an awakening in Germany.

IS CHEESE TOO CHEAP?

LONDON Dairymen's Exchange members have passed a resolution requesting the Dominion Government and the imperial cheese commission to use their influence to have the price of 21¾ cents per pound for cheese increased. As arguments supporting this request, they quote the increased cost of all commodities used by the dairyman, and the high prices paid for milk by condensing factories and city consumers.

The manufacturer of cheese has little direct interest in the price the finished product brings from the buyers. He does not speculate; he takes the milk from the farmer and makes it into cheese at a fixed price per 100 pounds of the latter. The prevailing price paid the manufacturer ten or twelve years ago was $1 per 100 pounds, he supplying the factory and all things needed in the process. Notwithstanding the fact that the manufacturer's expenses have increased enormously in that time in labor, fuel, rennet, coloring, cotton, etc., the prevailing price paid him today ranges from $1.25 to $1.45 per 100 pounds in this district. It may be mentioned that some of his supplies, such as rennet, have increased over 300 per cent. His only interest in the buyer's price consists of getting as much as possible, so that farmers will be induced to patronize him, instead of his chief competitors, the condenser or powdered milk plants.

The milk producer's "commodities" consist of cows, labor, grass, ensilage and grain. There has been an increase in the cost of these, but there has also been an increase of nearly 100 per cent in the price of cheese during the last ten years. It does not appear that the farmer is suffering severely at present prices.

When the price of milk, made into cheese, at $1.75 per 100 pounds, is compared, as in the resolution, with the price of $2.50 paid by condensing companies, it should not be forgotten that no by-product is returned to the farmer from the latter, whereas from the former he receives back 90 per cent as much whey as he sends milk. This is most valuable pig-feed, and, at the present price of hogs, is worth a good deal of money. He also has the benefit of fertilizer for his land, which the patron of a condensing factory, not having the hogs, lacks.

The average Canadian consumer considers he is paying quite enough for cheese when he gives 28 cents—the present retail price—and the British Government is probably of the same opinion. The Dominion Government will do well to inquire carefully into the produce cost in 1907 and 1917, and the selling costs in each case, before urging an increase in the fixed price of 21¾ cents.

A NEW BUSINESS ERA.

WHILE the cancelling of munition orders in Canada may appear at first glance to be the beginning of a period of depression, which will reach its climax at the close of the war, there is certainly a much more encouraging side to the situation, viewed strictly from a business standpoint. The manufacturing and business interests of the country have realized from the first that munitions orders were but temporary, that sooner or later, and possibly without a moment's warning, the end would come. They knew that their old lines would have to be resumed; many of them appreciated that vast opportunities would open up in other lines.

It may be assumed that most businessmen, knowing these things, began long ago to prepare for them. Plans were made for resuming the old work or for branching out, so that a sudden termination of all munition orders and a suddden end of the war would not have found them altogether napping. Instead of the sudden collapse of this new-found business, however, has come a partial termination of munitions work with a timely warning. At the same time comes the announcement of plans for shipbuilding on a large scale, a new industry which will not only absorb much of the available labor, but will open the way for collateral industries of permanence.

This shifting of forces at a time when Canada's fighting men are still in France will undoubtedly result in a readjustment of business which will have reached its fullness when the last gun has been fired and the men are on the way home to seek employment. Is this not much better than a combination of dull times and idle labor, such as would undoubtedly exist if the termination of munitions business and the war came at once? To assist in this present readjustment is the prospect of much business from United States corporations which have turned their attention to shipbuilding and munitions-making on an enormous scale, and which will need the assistance of Canadian factories, just as Canadian factories needed their assistance three years ago. Added to this is the fact that United States industries are today turning their attention to the Canadian field more seriously than ever before. The after-the-war business will centre about the British Empire, a point which American manufacturers are not slow to grasp. Their efforts to secure a share of this trade through Canadian factories is sure to give a great impetus to Canadian industry, and, indeed, is making itself felt now.

The closing down of munition business is liable to prove merely the turning-point in Canada's great advance.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Toronto is being favored with fair weather, but London is not envious. He shouts best who shouts last.

Von Hindenburg is credited with the opinion that the war must be won on the east front. At any rate it is the line of least resistance.

When German morale is reaching a low ebb the Prussian generals grab something. Having taken Riga they can assume the heroic pose for a while longer.

President Wilson has again taken occasion to remind the German-Americans that hyphenated citizenship will not be tolerated. His latest message is addressed to the head of the American Federation of Labor.

Arthur Henderson lost his place in the British Cabinet by expressing sympathy with the proposed Socialist conference at Stockholm. Yesterday he announced that he opposed the plan for British representation at the gathering. It seems probable that he has been perusing President Wilson's reply to the Pope.

TWO HUNDRED DRUMS OF GAS PROJECTED INTO HIVE OF HUNS

Germans "Soothed" to Silence by Canadians.

LABOR DAY OPERATIONS

Every Day Sees Construction Increased Upon Defenses of City.

CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, via London, Sept. 3.—(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press Limited).—The Germans in Lens struggle doggedly to loosen the constrictive grip of our men upon the defences of the city, but as the days pass the constriction increases, instead of lessening. It is on the north and west fronts that the enemy shows most uneasiness. On the south he is protected by the flooded area in the valley of Souchez and by formidable artillery and machine gun positions on the Salla mines hill. On the west the struggle is a house-to-house one, and in that sort of fighting the Canadians, because of their greater powers of initiative, have a distinct advantage and are making steady progress toward the heart of Lens.

Germans Out-Gassed.

The enemy has been using gas when the conditions are favorable, to delay the advance, but even in this form of warfare they are no longer superior. This (Monday) morning two hundred drums of gas were projected by our mortars into that part of the city in which the German posts are most numerous and the enemy has been very quiet since. In the north along Cite St. Laurent sector, there is still a wide tract of open ground between our most southerly posts and the houses of Lens. From this direction the Germans fear an encirclling attack, and they maintain strong forces in their trenches to meet any assault.

Attempt Feverish Raids.

On Sunday morning they twice tried to raid our lines here, but did not reach even the outposts on either occasion. Another sign of German nervousness on the St. Laurent front is their incessant sending up of star shells at night to light up the trench area, and the placing of heavy artillery and machine gun barrages on our trenches. The whole proceeding is an excellent example of locking the stable door after the horse is stolen.

Bright sunshine and splendid visibility today have led the enemy artillery to shell the area far behind the battle-front. Civilians are usually the chief sufferers from these venomous bombardments, and in today's experience, so far as I know, there were only two victims, two small school children, and the chief result, a day at home for the small youngsters who were dismissed from school when the shelling began.

Children Used to Shells.

In one of the mining villages near the front which has been subjected to frequent bombardment at intervals for over two and a half years the people have clung to their own. I have passed through a village several times when shelling was in progress and the grown-ups were walking warily, or sheltering in vaulted cellars, and I never failed to see children playing in thestreets, or hear them crying, in their small, shrill little voices, "Dily Piper." It is a strange thing, but true, the little gamins all use the cockney accent in calling out their wares. Not once have I seen children terrorized by shell fire. They are excited by it, but probably fear it less than they would being left alone in a dark room.

Little Interruption.

The operations in the north end, which are so often recorded in the German wireless, have proceeded with little interruption, save the suspensions caused by frequent torrential rainstorms.

It may still be news to Canadian readers that during some five weeks before the end of August on the Flanders battlefront the enemy placed in the line from time to time, about thirty-five divisions of which about three-quarters had been withdrawn exhausted, the remainder holding the enemy front at the end of that period. During the battle of Somme last year the German divisions were not withdrawn as exhausted until they had a good deal over four thousand casualties.

RUSSIA COMMANDEERS CORN, FLOUR SO SCARCE

PETROGRAD, Sept. 3.—Because of the shortage of flour on the southwestern front, orders have been given to commandeer all corn in the provinces bordering on the southwestern and Rumanian fronts.

FIGHT IN SENATE IS PROMISED ON C.N.R. PURCHASE

Prorogation of Parliament Has Been Put Back Several Days.

ESTIMATES ARE PASSED

Revotes Inserted to Look Big to Localities on Eve of Election.

OTTAWA, Sept. 3.—The hope of the Government to achieve prorogation on Saturday next has vanished. The date has now been put forward to Wednesday, the 12th, and the belief is that the governor-general will not be able to dismiss the lawmakers until the 15th.

The Government has definitely decided upon the introduction of a franchise measure, and notice of the legislation will appear on the next order paper. It is understood that the terms of the bill have not been settled finally, but that it has been decided that female kin of soldiers shall have the right to vote and the slackers and certain of the aliens in the country shall not, although they may have been naturalized.

Fight Over C. N. R. Deal.

There is growing expectation of a big battle in the Senate over the Canadian Northern legisalation, which reached the Upper House today. The leader of the Government in the Senate sought to have the second reading stage set for Tuesday, but was held to the rules and the consideration was fixed for Wednesday morning at the earliest.

It is expected that there will be amendments to the bill in the Senate, and that one which will be fought for is a definite limitation upon the amount which the arbitrators can place upon the stock shares held by the MacKenzie & Mann interests.

Dismantling the G. T. P.

At the evening sitting of the House of Commons consideration of a loan of $7,500,000 to the Grand Trunk Pacific aroused criticism from the Hon. Frank Oliver of the action of the Government in having Grand Trunk Pacific Railway lines taken up west of Edmonton for service in France. Generally speaking, Mr. Oliver said, the transaction was of such a remarkable character that the House was entitled to a great deal more definite information than it had so far received. Many hundreds of persons had been put to great damage and loss aside altogether from the damage to the railway and business enterprise in the locality had been seriously demoralized.

"I am prepared to say," Mr. Oliver declared, "that not a rail will ever go forward to France. All the shipping facilities are required for food and munitions, and my information is that the rails are not suitable, being much heavier than are required."

Rails Now in France.

Sir Thomas White replied that all the rails taken from the National Transcontinental were now in France and those taken from the Grand Trunk Pacific were either in France or on the ocean.

Sir Thomas added that he would take up half the railway lines in Canada if need be. What, he asked, would such inconvenience be as compared to the loss of life and suffering of the men.

Mr. Oliver argued that rails had been taken up in Jasper Park, 2,500 miles from the Atlantic, when they could have been taken up much nearer the Atlantic coast. They had been taken up from the Grand Trunk Pacific with the Canadian Northern Railway rails alongside.

The explanation given by the minister of railways was that the Canadian Northern Railway rails had a different boring for the bolts.

Explanation Is Nonsense.

"I am going to say," Mr. Oliver went on, "that on the information I have from France and on the common-sense that any ordinary man has, when that reason was given it was no reason at all. It was simply handing the House what was, neither more nor less than nonsense."

Mr. Oliver claimed that it was the policy of the Government to wreck the Grand Trunk enterprise. The false pretence of the matter, he contended, was that the Government had taken rails from the best road and left them on the worst, though they were the same kind of rails on both. He would like to see the documents containing the request from the British Government and would like to ascertain whether they asked for 80-pound steel or not.

Sir Thomas White did not think that anyone would believe the "preposterous" contention of the member for Edmonton to the effect that the Government had not been actuated by a desire to help the Allies in the transaction, but that it had wilfully set about to ruin a railway enterprise of the late government. Heavy rails were needed at the front to bring up the big guns. The railway commission had been applied to as a non-partisan tribunal to advise where the rails should be secured and its advice had been followed.

Different at the Front.

The minister admitted that near the seaboard 60-pound rails and 80-pound rails could be joined because special fishplates could be supplied. Near the firing line, however, standard fishplates were required. Therefore, when the first rails were taken from the National Transcontinental it was necessary to secure the same standard of rails from the Grand Trunk Pacific. Referring to the request of the British Government the minister did not think that Mr. Oliver would insist upon the tabling of a secret document, by which information might be given to the enemy. In any case he questioned the relevancy of Mr. Oliver's criticism to the item under consideration.

Mr. Oliver—"The security has deteriorated by the removal of 180 miles of rails."

Sir Thomas White—"They will be replaced."

Hon. Frank Cochrane—"They have been replaced."

Mr. Oliver—"My information is that they have not been replaced, and that there is a difference in the haulage capacity of the road of five cars per train."

Not True, Says Cochrane.

Mr. Cochrane—"It isn't true. That is a statement of yours, not a fact."

Mr. Oliver contended that the statement of the minister to the effect that information might be given to the enemy if the request of the British Government were tabled was absurd. The Government at first shuffled itself behind the British Government, and then behind the railway commission, but the people whose property had been damaged were entitled to compensation.

Hon. G. P. Graham declared that to a railroad man the reason given by the minister of finance with regard to standard fishplates would be laughable.

The item was passed, and the committee turned to consideration of a vote of $10,000 for the National Gallery of Canada. Sir Thomas White said that before the war the vote was $100,000, and it had been reduced to $8,000. The present additional vote would make it $18,000.

Mr. Morphy (North Perth), objected to the vote, as it was to encourage artists to continue to paint flowerbeds and orchards. They should paint pictures of Langemarck and Vimy Ridge.

Unjust Distinction.

Mr. Pardee also urged that artists and sculptors were not entitled to better treatment than others.

"Give the artists a military pension on the basis of total disability," said Hon. Frank Oliver, "but on the understanding that they shall paint no more pictures until the war is over."

The committee passed the item as also one of $125,000 for a new fireproof roof for the eastern block at Ottawa; $111,000 for improvements to Vancouver harbor, and $370,000 for improvements to Victoria harbor. With the vote in the main estimates this makes $1,370,000 for Victoria harbor improvements.

As a re-vote of $125,000 for new buildings on the Grosse Isle quarantine station Hon. Mr. Pugsley complained that a very large number of items had been put in the supplementary estimates in view of an election, the idea, he said, was to make people believe that a large amount of money was to be spent throughout the country.

Election in Sight.

Mr. Pardee said that this vote stood over last year because it was decided that there would not be a general election, but now, with an election in sight, the Government proposed to go ahead with the work.

Hon. Martin Burrell said he was willing to accept the responsibility for this expenditure. In the event of the close of the war and the return of the soldiers it would be necessary to have larger hospital accommodations at Grosse Isle. He assured the House that this was not an election vote.

"Perish the thought," said Mr. Pardee.

Dr. Reid assured the House that in nearly all cases the work would be proceeded with.

F. B. Carvell agreed with the minister that the work could be done in winter. There was an election in New Brunswick last winter, he said, and the Government did all kinds of work.

An item of $150,000 to provide for an extension to the Royal Military College at Kingston was passed without opposition.

Government Cannot Answer.

At question time Mr. Lanctot asked how many employees of the imperial munitions board were of military age; who among them, if any, had military badges, and on what ground such badges had been granted.

Sir Robert Borden replied that the information was not available. The imperial munitions board, he said, was under the control of the Government of the United Kingdom, and the Canadian Government exercised no control over it.

Mr. Kyte asked if it was the intention of the Government to amend the military service act to provide for the exemption of those engaged in agriculture or in other work in providing material for the war.

In reply Sir Robert said that it was believed that the military service act made adequate arrangements for the retention of all persons required for agriculture and other essential industries.

Dr. Edwards asked if it was correct that the places of from 25 to 30 English-speaking mail clerks in Ontario who had enlisted had been filled by French-Canadians.

Hon. Mr. Doherty replied: "No; only one French-Canadian has been employed in Ontario to replace mail clerks who have enlisted, and he has been discharged as medically unfit."

Irregularities in 167th.

In reply to Mr. Deslisle Sir Edward Kemp said that Col. Langton, deputy inspector-general, had, at the beginning of the year, made an investigation concerning matters of pay, canteen and regimental funds of the 167th Battalion. "This investigation," Sir Edward Kemp said, "disclosed grave irregularities. The matter was accordingly referred to the department of justice in order that it might take the necessary action." The investigation was asked up from the officer commanding the 167th Battalion, and also by the pay department and branch of the inspector-general.

On the orders of the day being called Hon. Frank Oliver referred to a report in the Minneapolis Modern Miller that Canadian and United States millers were endeavoring to secure prohibition of the sale of flour between the two countries, and that, according to the report, Hon. W. J. Hanna, the food controller, was in sympathy with the idea. Sir Robert Borden responded that no such proposal had been made to the Government and that it was the first time he had heard of it.

Wants Potatoes Free-Listed.

Frank Carvell suggested that potatoes should be treated in the same way as wheat in regard to being placed on the free list. The idea, he said, was to give the Canadian farmer a chance of selling his potatoes in the United States markets. Sir Robert Borden promised consideration and an early announcement.

Hon. J. D. Hazen informed A. K. McLean that the patrol service on the coast of Nova Scotia was partly Canadian and partly imperial. There was mixed control.

Third reading was then given to the supply bill introduced on Friday, covering additional estimates voted by the House to an amount exceeding $55,000,000.

On motion of Hon. W. J. Roche, minister of the interior, the House concurred in Senate amendments to the act respecting game in the northwest territories. The only amendment of importance provides for an extension of the closed season.

Encouraging Research.

The House then went into supply. There was some discussion on a vote of $91,600 for the bureau of industrial and scientific research. Sir George Foster in explaining the proposed expenditures for studentship said it was proposed to pick up students in various universities who are particularly adapted to investigation along certain lines. They would be allowed $600 for the first year and $750 for the second year. Subsequently, they might continue their investigation in college along the line they had taken up, or be transferred to an industrial concern to apply their ideas to practical work.

Sir George announced in this connection that the University of Saskatchewan would make inquiry into the possibility of using the large quantities of straw in the west for the production of fuel and oil.

Explaining the organization of the council of industrial research, the minister stated that Dr. McCallum of Toronto University, who receives $10,000 per annum, is the only salaried member of the council. Mr. Challie of the waterpower branch of the department of the interior, had, he said, offered to give his services free for one year as a personal contribution to the war.

Wrong Time to Start.

Duncan Ross (West Middlesex) was not satisfied with the explanation of the minister as to the expenditure. He said he approved of the scheme, but doubted if this was the proper time to embark on it.

Sir George, in reply, said that the expense incurred in connection with the holding of about twenty meetings, as well as the cost of printing and publications, would have to come out of the vote. The estimate was a rough one; it might be too much or too little.

Hon. Frank Oliver said he would take the responsibility of stating that the advisory council would prove to be "a close corporation for the suppression of individual initiative in regard to industrial and scientific research.

"I am willing to let it go at that," remarked Sir George. The item carried.

For Administering Taxes.

When an item of $150,000 to cover cost of the administration of the business war tax was taken up Sir Thomas White stated he proposed to expand the present staff into a larger staff for the collection of the new income tax. The collection of the income tax would require a large staff.

Hon. Charles Murphy suggested that appointments should be made on the recommendation of the civil service commissioner, but the minister explained that it would be impossible to find the qualified man who would be able to pass a civil service examination. What was required, he said, was men with good business training and a knowledge of men.

Mr. Kyte suggested a possibility of utilizing the services of municipal clerks and tax collectors in certain parts of the country where the number of incomes liable to taxation would be small.

Sir Thomas White said that the idea in his mind was not that the official appointed should be limited to distances, geographically speaking, in respect to the administration of the act. He would rather have a provincial organization of sufficient number to cover an entire province, and the members of the organization would be engaged all the time.

The item was carried.

GILLETT'S LYE

Are you blaming your tires for faults that lie other-where? Have they done those things which they ought not to have done, and left undone those those things which they ought to have done, in your opinion?

Look to your tubes!

Too many motorists think "a tube is a tube. It is only to hold air."

Be Fair to Your Tires

That has been an expensive thought for thousands. A tube's single duty is to hold air, but it must perform that duty honestly, loyally, or the casing suffers.

For a poor tube causes slow leaks. Slow leaks cause under-inflation. Under-inflation ruins tires.

That is why Goodyear Tubes are laminated—a quality giving Goodyear process.

By rolling the pure gum out into transparently thin sheets we are able to detect sand or other foreign matter. Then the perfected sheets are built up, layer on layer, into an extra thick, extra good tube that holds air longer and better, saving trouble and tire expense.

For added protection we vulcanize the valve patch in instead of sticking it on.

So Goodyear Laminated Tubes give longer, more satisfactory tube service.

—and save tires.

—and it is easy to say "Goodyears" when you buy tubes.

Goodyear Tubes, along with Goodyear Tires and Tire-Saver Accessories are easy to get from Goodyear Service Station Dealers everywhere.

A PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

The Title Is "Forgotten."

Dear Miss Grey,—Thank you ever so much for the address of the "lonely." I intend to write him tonight and send a box later in the week. In reading your Mail-Box today, I noticed "Augusta's" question about the song. The title is "Forgotten." The composers are Flora Wulchner and Eugene Cowles; the company's name Oliver Ditson Company, Boston, Mass. I hope this will be of use to "Augusta," and that she can get it as it is one of my favorite songs. Again thanking you for the name of the "lonely," I remain, yours sincerely DIAN.

Ans.—Thank you, "Dian," on behalf of "Augusta." She will now be able to secure a copy of the song for herself.

Wasting People's Money.

Dear Miss Grey,—With much concernment and amusement I note the frequent discussions on the high cost of living, economy and meatless days. To me the whole affair looks like a burlesque. The overworked and already economical farmer's wife is being asked and even urged to be, if possible, more careful and saving, while at Ottawa and Toronto millions of the people's hard-earned dollars are being given away in subsidies to railway, steel and other corporations. A free hand is allowed to the grafters, boodlers and speculators of the money market. Many M. Ps. and officials of high standing have hired clerks to perform their clerical work that they themselves might do. Their wives have servants galore, beautiful homes and clothes, electric and motor cars, and they are enjoying to the fullest extent life's pleasures. The Government at Toronto is spending thousands in the purchase of oriental rugs, bric-a-brac and beautiful hangings for the new government house. In the face of such wanton extravagance in this s[illegible] war time it ill-becomes these spendthrift gentlemen to urge economy on the part of the farmer's wife. For my part until the Government can prove that it is in every way possible endeavoring to curtail the present reckless expenditure, I do not intend to even try to save one iota more than I have always done.

I often wonder, Miss Grey, what some of the saving, careful ratepayers would say if they could just take a peep into our legislative halls when some big deal is being put through and see what little concern many of the members take when millions are apparently being squandered.

I notice some one asks for a recipe for citrons. Here is one that is delicious: Pare citron and remove seeds. Cut into pieces about an inch square and cover with granulated sugar, one bowl of sugar to three of citron, and let stand over night. In the morning add one lemon to about four quarts of the fruit. First squeeze out the juice and in a separate dish mince or cut into very fine pieces the peel, add to the fruit and boil until tender. Pour in the lemon juice and stir well. Put into sterilized sealers and you have citrons fit for a king.

FARMER'S WIFE.

"Naomi" to "Lassies."

Dear Miss Grey,—Kindly allow me just a tiny space in your valuable page to thank "Lassie" for her answer to my request in regard to the canning of the peas and beans which turned milky. I am very pleased to inform you that I find they have cleared, and look as green and as fresh as when I canned them. Perhaps if I'd had a little patience I need never have written, but you know the saying,

Patience is a virtue,
Find it if you can,
Seldom in a woman,
NEVER in a man.

Please, "Lassie," forgive me if I caused you any worry, as I think we all have enough worries nowadays. Here's wishing you every success. I remain, sincerely yours, NAOMI.

P. S.—Aren't I a wicked writer?

Ans.—It is good of you to send this reasuring message to "Lassie," for she felt sorry I know if your vegetables were not going to keep. That verse about patience is most apt, and one that would look well in any man's private sanctum! Just a gentle reminder, you know, only I'd have that word "seldom" changed to "always!"

P. S.—No ma'am, you aren't!

Need Not Register.

Dear Miss Grey,—Would you please answer a few questions for me? If a Canadian girl marries an American, is she considered one also, or would she have to register to live in the United States?

2. Do you think P—— harmful to take? Have seen an the paper where it was good to make stout people thin. Would like to try it if I thought it wouldn't injure my health. Success to all the Pageites. I remain,

JUST BABE.

Ans.—1. Yes; no, she would not have to register.

2. Can give you no information about the preparation, as I simply know nothing about it. Do not know how you can ascertain its value without a trial. Perhaps a physician would advise you.

A Chat From Rose.

Dear Miss Grey,—When last I ventured into the Mail-Box, the snows of the departing winter still lingered on the ground. Now summer is waning and autumn draweth nigh, with a glory all its own. The first bright tints are already showing up in the leaves of certain vines. The time will soon come when all the forest trees will have changed their summer suits of green and arrayed themselves in gay robes of scarlet, yellow and brown. How pleasant it is to wander among these bright-hued trees, with the cool, soft winds stirring their branches! One hates to think of the time when their bright leaves are gone and they stand bleak, barren and desolate.

The sentiments expressed in a letter written by "Mary Sunshine" appealed to me very much. She spoke of mothers being to blame to a certain extent for not gaining the confidence of their daughters. This is a subject which lies very near to my heart. I have but one girl, just starting in her teens, and my earnest prayer is to so influence her that she may confide in me under all circumstances. I know a girl who once said that she could go to anybody under the sun with her troubles sooner than to her own mother. What a deplorable thing that is! truly believe, like "Mrs. Sunshine," that if we would have more confidential chats with our children there would be no danger of them withholding confidence. The letters of another writer have interested me very much; so much that I laid away several of them for future reference. This writer calls himself "Original Lonely."

I wonder if he would be offended if I claimed him as a kindred spirit? In the matter of writing, his ambitions, tastes and experience coincide with my own. Like him, I love to write and have always longed for the ability to write a good book. But of course I fully realize how very distant that goal lies beyond my reach, so far that I would never dream of even taking the first step towards it. I have written a few short stories and as "O. L." did with his, consigned them to a fiery grave. Is it not a shame, Miss Grey, for so many brilliant thoughts to fade away into ashes? I only hope that this ambitious, literary young man may yet see his fondest dreams realized, and that I may have the pleasure of perusing one of his stories or books.

Some of our best writers, such as "Parsonage Mother," "Country Mother," "March Wind" and "Mrs. Homebird," are staying too long in the background. I hope they soon deck themselves out and saunter over to the old Grey Box for a good, long social chat, and may I be there to greet them as they come marching in, is the wish of

ROSE OF SHARON.

Ans.—A wish most heartily echoed by me, "Rose," for none of you come half often enough. I'm glad to hear you speak about mothers and daughters "chumming," it is an important subject to press home, and one all too often neglected. Brighten up our box again soon, "Rose." Here is one channel for you to "see print" as often as you will!

To Keep Squash.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am writing to you as a friend in need to ask if you or any of our kind readers could help me by printing a nice recipe for a ripe cucumber mustard pickle, and if squash will keep through the winter, and oblige,

WORKING HOUSEKEEPER.

Ans.—I find this recipe in one of my cook books, and it may be what you wish: 12 large, ripe cucumbers, 12 onions sliced thin, cover with salt; let stand over night, drain and chop; 3 pints vinegar, 3 cups sugar, 1 tablespoon mustard, 1 tablespoon curry powder, 1 tablespoon flour, ½ teaspoon cayenne; let vinegar boil, then add all but mustard and flour; mix them with little cold vinegar to a paste and add last.

2. Some seasons ago a number of recipes for drying pumpkin were recommended by Mail-Box readers. Unfortunately I seem to have kept no clipping of these methods, so would ask if anybody will kindly describe the process again. It might be just what "Housekeeper" would wish for the squash. Also here is a reader's recipe for pumpkin marmalade; her pen name does not appear on the clipping, so I cannot give her "credit."

Here it is: Cut 8 pounds yellow pumpkin into small pieces and mix with 3 pounds of sugar. Let this stand 12 hours. Then peel 6 oranges and 6 lemons. Boil rind of 2 lemons and 2 oranges for 2 hours, changing water two or three times, and then cut off as much of the white as possible to prevent bitterness. Chop the remainder of rind and add with juice of fruit, and boil from two to three hours. Put in jars and keep in dark place.

First Local "Movie."

Dear Miss Grey,—"Brown Betty" was asking for something to make eyelashes grow. "Geaniece" sent in the following about six weeks ago: cologne, 2 ozs.; glycerine, 1½ ozs.; fluid extract jaborandi, 2 ozs. Put on brows or lashes with camel's hair brush, taking care not to get in the eyes.

Also find inclosed words of "Forgotten" for Augusta. It is my favorite song. I think it could be procured at any music store. I sent in a letter the latter part of June, asking for the name of the first movie picture show in London but it wasn't answered. I think it was the Victoria near the Tiser building on Dundas street, and opened somewhere in 1905 or 1906.

Yours,

LAZY DAISY.

Ans.—As always, thanks for helping. I think you mean your query was simply addressed to the office, not to me in particular? For I have no recollection at all of such an inquiry. From information available, your surmise is correct, but come citizen-reader may be able to tell us if we are wrong.

Re your postcript, how heart-breaking! One wonders why such things are. My sincere wish for you both is that faith and love and hope do not wane, until matters are righted and letters cease to be "missing."

Her Favorite Flower.

Dear Miss Grey,—Here I come for a visit to your cosy corner. I wonder if there is a vacant chair for me? I am a girl of thirteen, still going to school. Mamma often tells me that my school days are the best part of my life, if I but knew it. I am anxious to go back to school again and I intend to improve every minute of my time, so that I may be able to pass my entrance next year.

I am a lover of flowers of all descriptions, my favorite flower being lily of the valley. I like the small delicate flowers almost more than the larger ones.

I love the autumn weather; do you Miss Grey? I like to watch the trees changing their colors. When the leaves come flitting down, we children at school gather them together in heaps and play amongst them.

Well, I must trot along, but sometime again you may hear from only a

PANSY BLOSSOM.

Ans.—If not, dear little "heartcease," it will be our loss, so try and find time amid all the studies to write our page. Yes, school days are, or should be, happy ones, free of the responsibilities that come to us all later in life, although there are many of the deeper, sweeter happinesses come to us then. I think you are building well for them in your love of the flowers and nature's beauties. It betokens a happy nature to be able to find the "sermons in trees, etc."

Is Truly Lonely.

Dear Miss Grey,—Am inclosing you the name of a poor lonely soldier boy who left this city over a year ago, and who is practically alone in the world. He is very deserving and would appreciate, I am quite sure, some kind reader "adopting him." He has been at the front for some time now. He truly is a lonely soldier. Best wishes to all the readers and yourself.

A LONDONER.

Ans.—We shall certainly try to find a number of friends for this lonely. Grateful to you for telling us of him. Your kind wishes are reciprocated.

Real Nice Letters.

Dear Miss Grey,—Wrote you before for an address of a soldier in France. I received it O.K. and have sent him boxes, which he received, and sent back a real nice letter, also his picture. Now my girl friend asks me to get two names for her. Would you please send them to me for her, and we will let you know how she gets on. I will close, with love. BRITANNIA.

Ans.—What a satisfaction it is to hear of our pageite-adopters receiving letters of appreciation from their "lonelies." Thanks for letting me know, "Britannia." The names for your girl friends go forward, as requested.

VERSE
NEW AND OLD

BETTER THAN GOLD.

[Copy Sent for Rob Roy by Royal Standard.]

Better than grandeur, better than gold,
Than rank or title a hundred fold,
Is a healthful body, a mind at ease,
And simple pleasures that always please,
A heart that can feel for a neighbor's woe,
And share in his joy with a friendly glow;
With sympathies large enough to unfold
All men are brothers is better than gold.

Better than gold is a conscience clear,
Though toiling for bread in a humble sphere,
Doubly blest with content and health,
Untried by the lust or the cares of wealth,
Lowly living and lofty thought
Adorn and ennoble the poor man's cot,
For mind or morals on Nature's plan
Are the genuine test of a gentleman.

Better than gold is a thinking mind
That in realms of thought and books can find
A treasure surpassing Australian ore,
And lives with the great and the good of yore.
The sage's lore and the poet's lay,
The glories of empires passed away,
The world's great drama will thus unfold
And yield a pleasure better than gold.

Better than gold is a peaceful home,
Where all the fireside charities come,
The shrine of love and the haven of life,
Hallowed by mother or sister or wife.
However humble that home may be,
Or tried with sorrow by Heaven's decree,
The blessings that never were bought or sold
Do centre there, are better than gold.

Better than gold in affliction's hour
Is the balm of love with its soothing power;
Better than gold on a dying bed
Is the hand that pillows the sinking head;
When the pride and glory of life decay,
And earth and its vanities fade away,
The prostrate sufferer needs not to be told
That trust in Heaven is better than gold.

[BY GRANTLAND RICE.]

From an artistic standpoint the championship races of the two major leagues leave something to be desired. The great American public has been educated of late years to expect keen and gruelling struggles, with two or more clubs involved, right down to the bitter finish. This served to keep the appetite keyed for the lust of the greater battle as represented in the annual world's championship classic.

Unfortunately this year the shank of the campaign holds out little promise for excitement the rest of the way. To all intents and purposes the Giants are home and all dolled up for the big "housewarming." In the American League only two teams figure now, and of the two the world's champion Red Sox do not appear so hale and hearty as a serious contender should at this late stage of the struggle.

Amid the arguments that are being waged pro and con (a baseball fan never gives up while there is the slightest flicker of hope) it is well to turn back history's pages one brief year and see how the major league races framed up. Fifty-two weeks ago today the standings were:

National League.

Team.	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Boston	71	48	.597
Brooklyn	72	49	.595
Philadelphia	72	49	.595

American League.

Team.	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Boston	73	54	.575
Detroit	74	57	.565
Chicago	72	58	.554

It will readily be seen that one year ago three teams in the National League were virtually tied for leading honors. Brooklyn outstayed and, perhaps, outlucked the other two. Boston was setting the pace by a narrow margin in the American League, and held that margin at the end.

Labor Day Important Race Mark.

Labor Day has come to be regarded as one of the most critical points of the major league campaigns. A team that is not out in front, or within a jump or two of the leader at this time of the year, might as well begin to calculate on the next campaign.

With very few exceptions for many years past the team that showed the way after Labor Day's games has maintained its advantage to the end. Brooklyn of last year was an exception, but Brooklyn then was practically in a tie for the honor. The sensational spurt of the Braves, when they came from nowhere in 1914, carried them into a tie with the Giants for first place the Saturday before Labor Day. And on Labor Day that year they divided the two games with a team which a month before had enjoyed ten games advantage.

The Case of the Two Sox.

Against any other team but the Red Sox the present advantage of the White Sox might be interpreted as final. The Red Sox are slightly different from any other club in baseball. They play the game of their lives when real importance attaches to victory.

But it would seem that Boston's only hope is to make the best use of its pitchers in the approaching final series between the two Sox. Chicago has been far more successful at home than on the road to date. Yet, Boston need look for little assistance from the other three eastern cities. In Cleveland and Detroit two hard series are bound to confront the world's champions while the Windy City boys are finding softer game on this end of the circuit.

Smart baseball managers declare that Boston is not playing nearly so effectively as one year ago. This may be due to the general decline that is bound to hit the best clubs in the end. The cast of the world's champions is much the same as that which won a pennant and greater title in 1912. Speaker, Wagner, Stahl and Carrigan have gone. Seven years is a long time to keep any baseball machine in gear. If Boston can win its third consecutive pennant it will have accomplished a great deal more than any modern team, with the exception of Connie Mack's Athletics of 1910-1914.

A CHANCE FOR THE BOXERS.

Local managers of pugilists can help a good cause by sending their young men to Plattsburg to help entertain the embryo officers on Saturday nights. This is the only evening the students have for pleasure and recreation, and it is planned to hold a series of boxing exhibitions each week-end.

Jimmy Johnston, the boy bandit of St. Nicholas Rink, sent Joe Welling and Ted (Kid) Lewis to Plattsburg last Saturday to help furnish a fine evening's entertainment for some 4,000 prospective officers. Fight managers who care to assist in this worthy enterprise should communicate with W. O. McGeehan of Company 10, Plattsburg, N.Y.

ROWING CLUB HOLDS DRAW TOURNAMENT

Forty rinks played on Labor Day in the Rowing Club's big draw tourney. Play started at 9 o'clock in the morning and proceeded all day, the finals being played off shortly after 8 o'clock. Charlie Bush skipped the winning rink, defeating C. K. Bluett by 9 to 7. Shannon took third place by winning 11—10 from Backus.

The greens were in great shape, and the 160 bowlers who played certainly made a day of it. Some close scores were turned in. In one game Bush and Jack Griffiths played six extra ends to break a tie.

GIBBONS HAS IT ON DILLON EVERY WAY

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 3.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul shaded Jack Dillon of Indianapolis in every round of their ten-round no-decision fight, according to sport writers who saw the contest here today. Gibbons took the offensive in the first round and kept it, with the exception of the third round, when Dillon rallied, and won an even break on the round. In the fifth round Gibbons rocked Dillon's head with a left jab, and delivered repeated blows to the face, drawing blood and inflicting punishment to the eyes. In the remaining rounds Dillon showed signs of distress, but displayed remarkable grit, which kept him on his feet under staggering blows. Gibbons grew cautious in the ninth and tenth rounds, but finished with a rain of rights and lefts that sent Dillon staggering to his corner.

WOODSTOCK WINS.

WOODSTOCK, Sept. 3.—The Ingersoll Colts' baseball team was completely outclassed here in a game with the local aggregation. The battery work of Turner and Thomas for the locals, was altogether too much for the visitors. The score was 20 to 3. Batteries: Ingersoll—McIntee and Morello; Woodstock—Turner and Thomas. Umpire—Red Bloor, Ingersoll.

LABELS DIVIDE WITH BEACHES

Locals Win Morning Game, But Are Trimmed in Afternoon Encounter—Flint Does Good Work.

If the Toronto Beaches came to London on Labor Day looking for revenge they at least got part of it, when they trimmed the Blue Labels 10 to 5 yesterday afternoon. The best the Labels could do was to break the double-header with them. They won the morning game 5 to 4, but the way they lost the afternoon session leaves a blue feeling in one which overcomes the joy of the morn's win.

The morning game came to the Labels fairly easily. The London men were there all the time, and gave the Beaches little chance to get a lead. Taylor opened the scoring for the Toronto team. He was walked and came in on Graham's single through centre. Then, with two men on and two down, Flint pulled himself together and breezed Sharpe. The Labels collected one in the first. Doherty was walked, and Dinny singled to right. Armstrong went out to the pitcher and was thrown out at first. Doherty was now on third and came in when Delaney drove out through Centre. The Beaches got another in the second inning and remained in the lead, when Jeffries, Gregory and Billings went out one after the other. Flint evened things up when he came in on Dinsmore's drive to the pitcher. This one was too speedy for Sharpe to nab, though. Flint was caught napping off third just before he came in, and was almost stabbed out when both McWhirter and Taylor got after him. He reached the third sack safely when Taylor muffed the ball.

Neither team scored in the fourth. In the fifth the Labels took the lead when Flint crossed the plate. In the sixth another tally came to London, Gadsby coming in. In the seventh Turofsky brought in another for the Beaches. Neither team scored in the eighth, and in the ninth the Beaches made it a tie. Chandler singled to right; McWhirter fanned and Graham walked, so did Sharpe. Weale touched the ball out and Chandler came in. This made things look interesting and promised an extra inning if the Labels were held tight. Flint singled to right; Doherty drove it well, and Dinsmore went out on a grounder to shortstop. Flint was now on third, and came in with the winning run when Armstrong walloped a nice one out to right-centre.

In the afternoon loose playing marked the work of the Labels. Billings was hit freely and Toronto got two runs in the first inning, three in the second and three in the third. Then Billings was taken out, and Yankee Flint went in. Flint proved again, as he has proven often before, the man to pitch in tight places. He tightened things up at once, and though the Beaches got two runs in the fifth, it was all they could get off him. He held them fast from the sixth until the end. It was the fourth inning before the Labels scored, when Delaney tripled and scored on a passed ball. This started it, and things cheered up for London. In the fifth Flint sacrificed Gadsby in, and in the sixth the Labels collected three runs. Dinsmore flew out to Turofsky. Armstrong walked, and Delaney singled to left field. Armstrong scored on Bullock's double to centre. Gadsby walked. Gregory fanned. Billings walked, forcing Delaney, and Bullock scored on Flint's hit.

Flint was the star of both games, as far as London was concerned. In the morning he showed up well in tight places, although he was slightly wild at first. With three on bases he never let a run in. In Flint the Labels have quite some little hurler. After working all morning he came in in the third in the afternoon, and probably prevented the Beaches piling up a fierce score. O'Connell, too, was in good shape and did nice work. His balls were question marks to the Labels, all right. Sharpe was steady in the morning game.

Umpire Fitzmaurice had a tough time during the forenoon. He got in the way of a nasty tip from Yeates' bat in the second, and in the fourth a tip from McWhirter walloped him on the side. He immediately proceeded to organize a safety league within himself, and donned a chest protector. He did not please the Beaches too well with his decisions, but the fans were satisfied, and so were the Labels. Maguire, a Toronto umps, took good care of the field, and Fitz was behind the bat.

MORRIS DISQUALIFIED IN SIXTH ROUND FOR BUTTING

Boxer Mobbed as He Leaves Ring After Bout With Fred Fulton.

CANTON, Ohio, Sept. 3.—Carl Morris of Oklahoma City was disqualified in the sixth round of his scheduled fifteen-round go with Fred Fulton of Minnesota this afternoon for continual butting. Fulton had a big lead when Referee Matt Kinkel stopped the bout. Morris was mobbed by angered spectators as he left the ring.

Morris was not badly hurt. Morris and Fulton were battling for the right to meet Jess Willard, heavyweight champion. The title-holder had agreed to meet the winner.

Fulton tried to leave the arena at the end of the fifth round and was held in the ring by his handlers. Once during the fifth round Fulton started to his corner, saying, "I'm not going to fight any more," but Referee Kinkel ordered him to continue.

Fulton proved the better boxer and was benefitted by the clean-break rule. Morris took the aggressive in the first round and forced the going throughout. Morris worked both hands for the head, while Fulton caught Morris coming in with left jabs and left uppercuts to the head.

Referee Hinkel said after the bout: "I was forced to disqualify Morris, after I had warned him a dozen times for butting and for hitting in the breaks."

DE PALMA LOSES BIG 100-MILE EVENT

SPEEDWAY PARK, CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—After winning the first two races of twenty and fifty miles, Ralph DePalma lost the 100-mile event to Louis Chevrolet here today because he was forced to stop in the 68th to change a tire. The Frenchman's time was 56:29:05. He averaged 106 miles an hour. Dave Lewis was second, and DePalma third.

Ralph DePalma won the 20-mile race, the first of three events totalling 170 miles, covering the distance in 11:02:07, a new track record. DePalma's average was 108.9 miles an hour.

Gaston Chevrolet was second.

Louis Chevrolet, Gaston's brother, was forced out of the race in the eighth mile because of a broken engine. Despite ideal weather for racing only a few thousand persons were present.

DePalma also won the second race, speeding the fifty miles in 26:09:00. DePalma averaged 106 miles an hour. He finished a quarter of a mile ahead of Dave Lewis. DePalma broke the track record of 31:57, made by Dario Resta in 1916.

DePalma and Louis Chevrolet fought a thrilling race for the first half of the 100-mile event, Chevrolet showing the way by a few feet. The time for the distance was 28:36. Tom Alley gave the spectators a scare by throwing a wheel while racing past the grandstand. He managed to keep the car in the track.

BENNY WON EASILY

TORONTO, Sept. 3.—Young Rector proved no match for Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, at the Sportsmen's Patriotic Association bout at the Island stadium today, and his seconds threw in the sponge in the middle of the fifth round, when Rector was forced to his knees for the second time. Leonard simply overwhelmed the Jersey City boy with his speed and skill, raining punches upon his opponent from all angles. The bout was scheduled to go six rounds.

GOELITZ IS ALL-ROUND AMATEUR CHAMP OF U. S.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 3.—H. Goelitz of the Chicago Athletic Association today won the all-round amateur championship of the United States in the national tournament of the Amateur Athletic Union here. The contests this afternoon closed the three-day meet. L. Karimo of Detroit, was second and P. F. O'Connor of New York third.

Ten events were comprised in the all-round championship. Each event was judged on the basis of 1,000 for the present world's record, or in some cases, a shade better.

J. Howard Berry of the Meadowbrook Athletic Club, Philadelphia, did not compete for the all-round championship, which he won last year, but entered the relay events.

HOME TEAM WON.

NEWBURY, Sept. 3.—The junior baseball team of Glencoe played the return game with the boys of this village. The fans were delighted to see the home team win by a sccore of 6—5.

CROWD BROKE RECORD BUT TIME DOES NOT

Opening Spasm of Betless Detroit Racing Brings Thousands.

STAKE EVENT IS PULLED

In 2:20 Pace, Deaborn Shows Rare Form and Should Produce Later.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 3.—In the presence of the greatest crowd that ever saw horse-racing in Detroit, or on one of the Windsor merry-go-rounds, for that matter, trotters and pacers disported themselves at the State Fair track this afternoon.

Not only was the crowd of wonderful proportions, but it was the start of a betless meeting, which is another record. Until the middle of last week it had been supposed there would be betting through the hole in the fence, but the Oakland County prosecutor put a padlock on the gate.

The sport itself was not much, the field being rather ordinary, and the stake event having to be declared off because only two of the horses engaged were on the spot.

The best contest of the afternoon was in the 2:20 pace. Patch Minor took them away in the opened and never was headed. Dearborn had come fast at the end, and in the second he worked up until he was at Patch Minor's wheel at the three-quarters pole. Then, pacing around, he caught the other and won by a head.

Dearborn trailed in the third until ready, and then stepped by Patch Minor. The fourth round Dearborn out in front, with Wigle Pointer making him step the first half in 1:07. On the back-stretch Dearborn drew away, having the track to himself in the last quarter.

This race stamps Dearborn as one of the best of the local pacers, and his owner-driver, George Holmes, probably will have the gelding in the stakes next year.

The 2:22 trot had five starters, and if there had been betting Rolla Hall would have brought the money and the field nothing, for they were a cheap lot at best.

TIGERS ARE SARNIA CHAMPIONS, WINNING AFTER 14-INNING GAME

Five Extra Innings Necessary to Decide Game at Sarnia—Score Was 4-3.

SARNIA, Sept. 8.—Two games, one a five-inning affray, were necessary to decide the championship of the Sarnia City Baseball League today, which was awarded to the Tigers, after 14 innings of play by a 4-3 score, over the Mueller Brass team. At the end of nine innings of nip-and-tuck baseball the Muellers were leading by 11 to 10, and as they were one game to the rear in the standing this tied up the race. An additional five-inning game was decided on and the Tigers carried off the championship by the narrow margin of one run. It was the unanimous opinion of the spectators that the games were two of the best ever witnessed in the city. Summary:

LIVE UNDERWRITERS' CONVENTION.

A convention was recently held of Life Underwriters at Winnipeg. The address of Professor W. W. Swanson of the University of Saskatchewan, was a valuable contribution. It dealt with several phases of the question, which have been from time to time referred to in The Advertiser. We take the following extracts from his speech:

SAVING AND HOARDING.

"It is scarcely necessary at this late day to dwell long upon the distinction between saving and hoarding. Nevertheless, there is still, in some quarters, much confusion of mind on this subject—a matter of fundamental importance in the life insurance business. Aside from those in control of insurance corporations, too few realize that the hundreds of thousands of premiums paid annually for life insurance, small as the individual contribution may be, amount in sum total to an enormous volume of capital, which is used productively to fertilize industry, commerce, and agriculture throughout the length and breadth of the nation. The railroads that have opened up the fertile West, the towns and cities that have been built almost over night, the vast industrial equipment that has made America the workshop of the world—these and a thousand other enterprises—have all been rendered largely possible through the investments of life insurance corporations.

The truth is that, aside from the benefits that the individual derives from his policy, the whole nation shares in the fruits of such enterprises. If the business of life insurance were destroyed, the nerve centre of the nation's economic life would be paralyzed. While comparisons may not be adequately made between life insurance corporations on the one hand, and banks and other financial enterprises on the other, it may be safely said that the former have contributed more to the upbuilding of the basic industries of the nation than the latter—that the railroads, the municipal utilities, the canals and the shipping of the country owe much more to life insurance investments than to banking accommodation. All this comes about because of the essential difference in the nature of the business of these social organizations—the life insurance corporations depending upon long-time investments for their income, and the banks upon short-time commercial loans. They play equally important roles in different ways.

It will be seen by the extracts above that life insurance makes for thrift, economy and stable investments; that it belongs to the class of business that is not injuriously affected in any way by financial panic. London has been very much benefitted by being the second city in Canada with reference to loan companies. Its life insurance companies are increasing their assets from year to year. The class of investments made by them include all the investments made by loan companies, and they have still a wider field. Life insurance is the class of investment that will become more and more popular as it becomes better understood. The day will come when it will be almost universal.

INVESTMENT CONDITIONS.

By Albert E. Turner.

Nothing so deters business as uncertainty. It is this factor that interferes with judgment as to investments. No man can fix the time of the war's end. It may come from exhaustion—it may come suddenly. In the latter event a great many calculations might be upset. In case of its prolonged continuance it is manifest that exceedingly great amounts of Government bonds must be sold, and it follows of course that this will interfere with other investments, particularly if the rate of interest has to be raised.

In the face of a situation such as this, it becomes necessary to fix some arbitrary standard insofar as our foresight can warrant. The common disposition at present is that the greatest element of assurance rests in short term high grade notes and bonds yielding about 6 per cent. This is based on the assumption that in no event would the Government go higher than 5 per cent. This is extreme as there does not seem to be the faintest likelihood that 4 per cent would have to be exceeded on our nation's bonds. It may be assumed that an increase of 2 per cent over the possible 4 per cent would fairly represent the difference warranted between Government and high grade corporation securities.

A large number of industries and businesses have been making extraordinary earnings such as will never be made again. Some of these are considering improvements and delaying them until construction costs are lower. One thing is clear for them to do, and that is not to distribute the surplus of their great earnings but to invest it in two and three year safe notes, yielding about 6 per cent, so that the money will become due at a fixed time and they can make their engagements accordingly.

As to the individual investor, we believe it sound investment advice that he shall have a large proportion of Government bonds., From an investment point of view alone, entirely apart from patriotic considerations, we believe that he will get a substantial premium on his bonds after the war is closed. There will be large amounts of these bonds outstanding, and for the first time they will be active in the market.

The individual has splendid opportunities to acquire excellent first mortgage 5 per cent bonds that yield between 5 and 6 per cent. Indeed, standard corporations that have found it necessary to do financing recently, and which under normal conditions could readily do it on a 5 per cent basis, are now doing it on a 6 per cent basis. To those who prefer tax free railroad securities, some of the 4½ per cent bonds are attractive. Investors who are content with ample security and good income, eliminating war conditions from their mind, who make purchases at this time, will find, at the close of the war, that they have obtained good security very cheap.

It is folly at present to keep any large amount of idle funds. It is highly injurious to industry and is unwise for the investor, as there has not been a time for a generation when so large an income could be obtained with as high a degree of safety.

LOYALTY OF SERVICE APPRECIATED.

The esprit de corps of any institution is largely built up on the known and felt appreciation of the employer. The success of any organization may be made or marred by the attitude of the staff toward its chief. Thorough co-operation is not adequately meted out by a willingness to do all that can be justly required under wage or salary scale, but should include as well, the whole-souled desire and constant aim to think and work out in as far as may be possible in each one's capacity, anything that will contribute to the employer's success. In other words, the first thought of every employee, every morning, should be: "How can I best serve the interests of this business today?" and the working out of such a spirit on the part of any staff will soon force itself upon the notice and consideration of the head of any large organization and usually brings about compensating features that well repay such loyalty of thought expressed in action. Salary may be adequate to cover hours of service, but rarely is it supposed to cover that added strength to an organization which can only come from having a joy in the work and an ever-pressing desire to see it a great success. Time servers as a rule, get more than they earn. Those who serve with head and heart as well as hands, are often underpaid.

Some employees are continuously harping upon that threadbare saying, "Corporations have no souls," but quite frequently of late we see striking contradictions of this attitude on the part of those who have profited most by such loyalty of service, and we cite the following as an example:

"John Bartlett Pierce, founder of radiator business in the United States and vice-president of American Radiator Company, who died June 23, left seven-tenths of his $5,000,000 to 400 of the older employees of the company. In addition to $1,000,000 to be distributed at once, 60 per cent of the income on $2,500,000 is to go to these employees, the principal ultimately to be divided among them."

WHEN "U" IS "V."

From Printers' Ink.

Why do some modern architects assume that U is V and carve in stone that palpable and bold absvrdity?

Now that we possess the U, with soft and gracefvl cvrve, or vnexcelled docility and willingness to serve, why do they carve VNITED STATES and PVBLIC SCHOOL and svch and make the English langvage look as fvnny as the Dvtch, with RESTAVRANT and PVLLMAN CAR and VNIVERSITY and other marks of edvcational perversity?

That V impresses some of vs as cheap and gavdy bivff, which parvenves may pvll in place of more svbstantial stvff, bvt people who are fashioned ovt of vnpretentiovs dvst, view all svch affectation with an vnassvmed disgvst. Svch exhibitions always make vs glvm and blve. Now, honest Injvn, don't they have the same effect on yov?

PRINCIPLES ARE ETERNAL.

An army of principles will penetrate where an army of men cannot enter. The Rhine cannot stop it or the ocean arrest its progress. It will march to the horizon of the world, and it will conquer, and the conquest is permanent.—James G. Blaine.

WALL STREET CONDITIONS.

The past week has been one of receding prices in many stocks, but more especially in steels. It would appear as if the slump has gone about far enough, and the market being now rid of a good many narrow-margined accounts, should be about ready for a healthy reaction. The fact that the Government has set the price for steel at $75.00 per ton does not imply that the operations of the steel companies from now on will be attended with a struggle for profits. We must not forget that it is not so long ago these same industries were making dividend, enabling profits on steel rails at $28.00 per ton. Steel stocks may go some lower but may it not be the time to pick up some good bargains when other stocks much less affected than steels, but which fall abnormally low in sympathy, reach figures not warranted by actual conditions.

The coming U. S. loan will, we are told, be subscribed to by probably five times as many as subscribed to the first Liberty Loan and these will include many who never invest in either railway or industrial shares; who are largely savings bank depositors, and have become cognizant of the fact that a Government loan offers even a safer depository for their savings than the savings banks, at the same time giving opportunity for larger earnings. The railways are earning more than sufficient for dividend purposes even though so seriously harassed by the Inter-State Commerce Commission and labor troubles, and some of them give excellent promise of continued dividends at a rate which, at the present price of shares, gives an excellent return on the money invested.

HOW MUCH INSURANCE SHOULD ONE CARRY?

For the ordinary wage-earner, it is quite manifest that $2,000 or $3,000, or possibly $5,000 insurance is all that should be undertaken. But with the man of good salary or business income the conditions are different. His standard of living is perhaps higher, and $5,000, or even $10,000, however large the sum may seem when considered by itself, will not last long in the support of a family. If invested at 5 per cent, $10,000 will yield only $500, and this, of course, cannot begin to take the place of the fine salary which has been lost forever in the death of the bread-winner. Insufficient insurance is a serious mistake, and a large majority of men are making it. The man, therefore, whose means can possibly afford it, in measuring the size of his insurance, should approximate as near as possible such a sum as will yield a good support to his family without encroaching upon the principal. It is not always wise to count too largely on one's vested accumulations, for these may slip away even before one's own final departure. Besides the more a man has the easier it is to carry a large amount of insurance. In these days of great fortunes thousands of men are carrying from $100,000 to $200,000, while a few have $1,000,000 or more. The amount of insurance should be limited only by the ability to pay the premiums.

Life Insurance is one of the greatest economical factors in modern life.

THE LOCAL MARKET

Few changes were recorded on a sparsely attended market this morning. The offering of all kinds of produce, with the exception of eggs and butter, was comparatively large, and the demand generally poor.

Fruit was in good demand and a slightly better offering sold readily. Peaches showed a big increase in price although the offering was practically the same as in market days of last week. Clingstone peaches sold at 80c to $1.25 a basket, which is an increase of about 30 cents over last Saturday value. Growers are hopeful that with the advent of the freestone peach the price will come down to some extent, although no substantial decrease is looked for. Plums maintained their relatively high value, selling at from 90c to $1 a basket, and pears were scarce in similar quantities and prices. The offering of thimbleberries was small, which indicates that the season for this fruit is drawing to a conclusion sooner than was anticipated.

Potatoes remained unchanged, the demand being somewhat brisker and equal to the large offerings which have been prevalent for the last week. By the bushel potatoes sold at $1.25 to $1.50 a few purveyors demanding a larger price, but few receiving it during the morning.

Tomatoes are very plentiful, selling at from 50c to 65c per basket. A distinct preference is shown for the home-grown variety of tomato, and this kind consequently sells at the maximum value of 65c. Imported tomatoes are in abundance at 50c a basket, but the demand is not up to the mark, because of the comparatively poor quality. Other seasonable vegetables remained unchanged, almost every kind being abundant and in the usual good demand.

Butter and eggs were very scarce, the former kind of dairy produce not being offered on the market through out the morning. Eggs sold in sparse quantities at 45c per dozen retail.

One of the largest advances in the price of cow hides recorded for some months was shown this morning when all hides offered sold at 22c and 21c per pound for No. 1, 2 and 3 grades, respectively. The advance in the price of hides of all varieties has been abnormal during the last year. In the summer of 1916 the prevalent value was from 17c to 18c a pound, which was an increase of 5c over the prices of two years previous.

Live hogs advanced this morning, when they sold at $16.50 per cwt., an increase of 25c over the values of Saturday. Fat sows sold at $14, and dressed porkers brought $21.50.

Oats are plentiful and sell at unchanged prices, the old kind being preferable to the newly-harvested oats and necessarily demanding a larger price in exchange for checks was not done in the board of trade, but in an office building a couple of squares distant.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 4.—Oats opened ½c to ⅝c higher for October at 64⅜c, and ⅛c up for December at 60½c.

Flax was 3½c down for November at $3 21; October was 2½c lower at $3 25. There was a bid of $3 15 on December.

The market is not expected to be very active until the new wheat price is fixed.

Inspections were 361 cars, of which 201 were contract.

GRAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Government buying of wheat began today, and proceeded as automatically as operations over the counter at any ordinary national bank. There was only one standard of value, the base of $2 20 a bushel for No. 1 northern grade. Consignees in receipt of wheat merely had to send their commodities into store at a warehouse, and on turning the receipt over to a representative of the food administrator, were given a check for cash in full payment. The turning over of the warehouse re-

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

London, Sept. 4.—The stock market maintained a firm undertone today, despite the Russian news, which only weakened Russian bonds and mines. Other Allied bonds, principally Colonials, were in good demand, while a broadened business was noticeable in Nigerian tins, Rhodesian lands and oil and rubber shares at higher prices. Shipping stocks were firm, but American securities closed dull.

WALL STREET.

New York, Sept. 4.—Resumption of operations on the stock exchange after the triple holiday was attended by many substantial rallies from last week's final prices. United States Steel, the market leader, opened at 116⅛ to 111, a maximum gain of 1½ points. Crucible Steel advanced as much, and other industrials as well as equipments and coppers rose 1 to 2 points, with shippings and prominent specialties. Rails were irregular, material gains in New York Central and Reading being offset by the heaviness of Pacifics and the southern division.

Noon.—Except the rails, which were retarded by the weakness of New York Central and New Haven, almost all early prices were surpassed. Texas Company advanced 7½, Marines and other shippings 1½ to 3½, Baldwin Locomotive 4, and other industrials and metals 1 to 2. United States Steel extended its gain to 111⅝, and some of the high-grade specialties, including Industrial Alcohol, registered further advances with motors. Prices reacted fractionally at noon on the 6 per cent call money rate.

RUSSIANS ABANDON RIGA REGION; RALLY SEEMS IMPOSSIBLE

Petrograd Statement Says Retirement Forced by Threatening Situation—Russ Force May Be Trapped.

RUSSIAN FORCE MAY BE TRAPPED.

Riga, Russia's big port on the Gulf of Riga, is in the hands of the Germans and its garrison and the civilian population are in retreat eastward.

With the falling back of the Russians from Riga city and the advance of the Germans northward along both sides of the Dvina Riva, the Russians still defending the western bank around Dahlen, seemingly are in danger of being caught between the two fast moving bodies of the enemy and made prisoners. Behind them the Russians in their retreat from Riga, are leaving the country in waste, burning villages and farms. Whether the city itself remains intact has not yet been made known, but doubtless the guns in the fortress and the ammunition stores either were removed or destroyed to prevent them from falling into the hands of the Germans.

Aside from the strategic value of controlling the Gulf of Riga and of a base nearer the mouth of the Gulf of Finland at the head of which Petrograd is situated, for the moment it is impossible to see the importance of the German gain, especially with the near approach of winter, when military operations in this region are almost impossible. Where the Russians will draw their new line in the north to connect with that below the point of penetration by the Germans also remains to be seen.

Petrograd, Sept. 3.—The Russians have abandoned Riga, the war office announces.

The statement says an order has been given for the abandonment of the Riga region on account of the threatening situation.

Some Russian detachments voluntarily left their positions and are retiring towards the north.

The German offensive on the Riga front was begun Saturday by an attack on the Russian Uxkull position, following artillery preparation, which lasted several hours. The Russian troops defending the Dvina River withdrew, and the Germans succeeded in throwing two bridges across the Dvina and passing to the eastern bank.

The Russian infantry, in spite of the brilliant action of the artillery, which destroyed one of the enemy's bridges, could not stop the German thrust, and the enemy, taking advantage of this, rapidly developed his success and began an advance northward. Russian counter attacks against him were unsuccessful.

Democratization Is Demanded by Paper Printed In Leipsic

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 3.—The Volks Zeitung, of Leipsic, an independent Socialist paper, says in reference to President's Wilson's reply to Pope Benedict:

"The German people for the sake of its own interests must demand democratization of its political institutions, and must repudiate the cherished argument of the conservatives and pan-Germans that these demands must be abandoned because they are made by enemy countries.

LITTLE BOY HAD DIARRHOEA

Only Blood Passed Bowels.

Diarrhoea, dysentery and summer complaint are responsible for more deaths, especially of children, during the summer months, than any other form of disease.

Diarrhoea does not need to persist for any length of time until the whole system is weakened, and no other disease so quickly undermines the strength and brings about a condition of prostration and often collapse.

Mrs. E. Stoddart, Lower Clark's Harbor, N. S., writes: "When my little boy was a year and a half old, he was taken awfully bad with diarrhoea. I had the doctor, but he got worse, so that only blood passed his bowels. I tried everything, but he got no relief. One day while I was at work, I picked up a piece of paper, and on it was an advertisement for Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. After trying a bottle he began to get better, and the second one made a cure. I would not be without it in the house for my little ones. I am proud to say "Dr. Fowler's" saved my little boy's life."

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for the past 72 years, and there are many imitations of this wonderful bowel complaint remedy. See that you get the genuine when you ask for it. Price 25c.

SECRETARY MOVES TO FAIR GOUNDS

Secretary A. M. Hunt and his staff have moved out to Queen's Park, where they will remain until after the exhibition. The grounds and buildings are rapidly taking on shape and are practically ready for the exhibition. On account of the large number of automobiles expected, arrangements have been made whereby delivery rigs of all kinds are to enter the grounds by the Campbell street gate. The live stock entry will be large this year. Last evening's mail brought some very heavy entries from Toronto, of cattle, sheep and swine, and it is fully expected that the best stock of Ontario will be here. Coin controlled turnstiles will be used on both gates and grand stand, this will avoid the usual rush for tickets. All that is necessary is the use of the coin and pass through the stiles. All information given at the general offices, exhibition grounds. Phones 752 or 336.

PRES. WILSON VIGOROUSLY DENOUNCES PRO-GERMANS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—President Wilson, in a striking letter to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, made public at the White House yesterday, vigorously denounces pro-German propagandists who are endeavoring to confuse the minds of the people, especially of the laboring classes, over the issues of the war between the United States and Germany.

"It is necessary," Mr. Wilson declared, "to oppose at home the organized and individual efforts of those dangerous elements who hide disloyalty behind a screen of specious and evasive phrases."

CORNER-STONE OF HYDRO SHOP WAS OFFICIALLY LAID

Large Crowd of Citizens Witnessed the Ceremony.

BUSINESS IS GROWING

Figures Show That City Has $2,500,000 Invested in Public Utilities.

The cornerstone of the hydro shop was officially laid on Labor Day, Sir Adam Beck placing the stone in place. The ceremonies took place at 11:30 o'clock in the presence of a good crowd of citizens.

Chairman Philip Pocock was in charge of the arrangements. He thanked the citizens for attending in such large numbers, and gave a history of the hydro project here. In 1910 the investment in public utilities was about a million dollars. Now it had reached $2,500,000 in waterworks and electricity alone. The total income in 1910, when he went on the board, was $123,000, while in 1917 it will be about $800,000. The permanent staff then numbered 18, and now there were 115. More than 100 men were engaged in extra work this year, as against 30 men seven years ago. The income from the sale of fixtures, etc., last year ran about $100,000, with a profit of $8,000. This portion alone would clear off the indebtedness on the building.

Mayor's Address.

Mayor Stevenson followed with a brief speech. This was the first building of the kind erected by the people in Ontario, and it was an event worth marking. Had the former prices for electricity been charged, the whole indebtedness on the hydro plant would have been paid off by this time. He called upon Sir Adam Beck to lay the cornerstone.

Sir Adam gave a speech of about an hour's length. It was marked by innumerable statistics, showing the growth of the hydro enterprise. He stated that the laying of the cornerstone marked another milestone in the progress of democracy, and of radicalism. He rejoiced in the radical spirit of the West, as compared with Quebec and Eastern Canada. The war could only be settled on the basis of equal rights for all, and that was at the foundation of municipal ownership. He paid a tribute to the men who have handled the utilities in London. The hydro idea took root about fifteen years ago, and its influence was spreading not only over the North American continent but over the wide world, inquiries coming to the commission from New Zealand, Australia, South Africa and other nations.

Hydro Investments.

He gave some figures as to the investment in hydro. In 1910, the sum of four and half millions were invested. Now there were $45,500,000, and in a few years it would grow to one hundred millions, possibly $250,000,000. The amount of horsepower consumed had increased from 738 in 1910 to about 200,000 in 1917. More than 80,000 munitions workers were employed in factories using hydro power exclusively. Had it not been for this enterprise Canada would not have been able to take the place it had in munitions making and in other patriotic work. He advised the country to make an effort to prepare for after the war, so that Canada would take its proper place in the upbuilding of the nations. Democracy was in the ascendant.

Sir Adam paid some attention to F. B. Carvell, M.P., who had the temerity to criticize the project and wonder at the hypnotizing of the people of Ontario.

"He is not doing the people of Ontario any harm, he is doing himself harm," said Sir Adam. "If Carvell is talking for the C. P. R. and the Montreal money ring, he is doing the right thing in criticizing hydro."

Paid In Thirty Years.

Sir Adam spoke of the purchase of the Ontario Power Company's plant, and declared that it would be paid for in 30 years, out of the profits of $9 power.

Commissioner F. G. Mitchell then presented a silver trowel to Sir Adam with which to lay the stone.

"It gives me the greatest pleasure to make this presentation," he said.

In the stone were placed copies of The Advertiser, the Free Press, the Industrial Banner, the Hydro Electric Commission's report for 1916, the utilities commission's report for 1916, a city year book of 1917, and the names of Mayor Stevenson, Commissioners Philip Pocock, E. R. Dennis, F. G. Mitchell, T. W. McFarland, General Manager E. V. Buchanan and Secretary O. Ellwood with other articles.

The proceedings broke up with the singing of the National Anthem.

Later Chairman Philip Pocock entertained the guests to lunch at the Tecumseh House. After the health of the King was drunk, Col. L. W. Shannon, O. C., No. 1 Military Division, responded to the toast to "His Majesty's Forces." Col. Shannon declared that the militia was a democratic organization, serving no autocratic king, but the servants of the people. He gave his unqualified support to municipal ownership of the necessaries of life.

Municipal Work.

"The Day We Celebrate," brought responses from Commissioner E. R. Dennis and Ald. H. B. Ashplant, who gave credit to Sir Adam Beck and Philip Pocock for what they had done for municipal enterprise.

J. W. Lyon, Guelph, president of the Hydro Radial Association, spoke on behalf of that organization, and advocated the nationalization of all railways in Canada. He characterized Sir Adam Beck as the Moses who was leading the people out of the bondage of private and corporation greed.

"The Press" was replied to by E. J. Carty and J. H. Fowler.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Pocock for his kindness and hospitality. In response he gave all credit to the officials of the commission for the success of the enterprise.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated—can't harm tender stomach, stomach sour?

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender tomach, liver, bowels.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

PATRICIA.

Gail Kain, in "The Upper Crust," an American Mutual protodrama, unfolding a pretty romance, is the principal screen attraction at the Patricia Theatre the first half of this week.

"The Upper Crust" is a cleverly constructed play with a strong love motive and a strain of comedy running through it, albeit the plot is full of dramatic complications that involve keen suspense, interest and plenty of thrills.

When Mrs. Van Rensellaer Todd advertises for a housekeeper to take charge of her new country home on the Pacific coast, and pretty Mollie O'Toole, in the person of Miss Kane, gets the job, it is natural enough that young Algernon Todd becomes interested enough to follow Mollie to the coast, engage himself as her chauffeur and play up to the villagers' belief that Mollie is Mrs. Todd, a wealthy young widow.

Mollie falls in love with Algernon and he with her, so that, although a millionaire wants to marry her, she prefers the supposedly penniless young chauffeur, who turns out to be too rich to count his money and who receives his mother's blessing after Mollie has consented to marry him.

Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle in "His Wedding Night," is one of the latest and at the same time funniest comedies in which this big, good natured screen star has been featured.

The production might best be described as being a "scream" from beginning to finish.

Most of the action takes place in a combination drug store and soda parlor. "Fatty" proves the proprietor's daughter. Al. St. John is an unconquerable rival. But "Fatty" succeeds in impressing the girl and the wedding date is set. A special messenger brings the wedding gown and the bride, anxious to see how it fits, insists that the messenger put it on.

Al. makes preparations to steal the bride and when he sees the messenger dressed in the bridal gown, he believes it to be the girl, and kidnaps her. They dash off in a buggy followed closely by "Fatty," and father in a wagon drawn by a mule. When the girl comes to look for her wedding gown and hears the appointments in the shape of three charming daughters, Noel, Willie and Tommy. Both the Marchioness and her husband longed for strapping boys to ride with them behind the hounds and perpetuate the old family name.

To offset the disappointment, the Marchioness, whose husband died during the childhood of his girls, brought up the three girls as nearly in the manner of sons as possible, much to the scandalization of the villagers to whom the antics of the hoydenish and charming trio was a constant source of gossip.

They wore boys' clothes constantly around their home village, and when Tommy, the youngest and most hoydenish, was invited for her yearly visit to some relatives at London, it cost her many a pang to leave them behind, in fact on one visit she managed to smuggle in her dress suit and evening hat, and after two or three days of decorous life in the hateful girls' frills and ruffles, she rebels.

Putting on the dress suit and silk hat she slips out of the house, takes a cab and orders the driver to take her to the "liveliest music hall in London." Here she meets with trouble in the shape of a Cockney bully, who tries to fight her, but whom she cleverly knocks down with a quick blow that she and her sisters had learned in their thorough boxing lessons. Frightened at what she had done, she jumped from the box and runs from the theatre with the crowd at her heels.

Tommy, who has fainted, comes to, and finds herself in a strange room. After a series of exciting adventures all ends well.

"Whose Baby," the funniest of funny Keystone comedies, is a scream for every foot of the two reels.

The Majestic Concert Orchestra is playing this week "Songs of Scotland," and the manner in which this high-class musical organization, under the leadership of Mr. Joseph Tirri, rendered this overture was a revelation. At the Sunday afternoon concert at Port Stanley, the orchestra was tendered a reception beyond that ever received by any body of musicians who have appeared at the lakeside concerts this summer.

They finally all arrive at the minister's and after a scramble "Fatty" and his bride are married. "Fatty" gaily gives the preacher a handful of bills, and while the happy preacher is counting his money, "Fatty" produces a chloroform bottle, chloroforms the preacher and takes the money back.

Theda Bara in "The Tiger Woman," at the Patricia, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Patrons of the silent drama are fast becoming as critical for good acting by those playing upon the screen as they are demanding of those of the legitimate drama. The fact that there is a general demand throughout the country for higher art in photoplays has brought forth new efforts on the part of producers to give to patrons what they want, and that is one of the reasons why the higher class of artists are becoming identified with the drama of the screen.

It has always been the desire of William Fox to produce plays given by the best dramatic talent available. This is emphasized in the person of Miss Theda Bara, who has become recognized throughout the world where pictures are shown as a young woman endowed with an unusual amount of histrionic talent. Miss Bara herself has been endeavoring for some time to establish a higher standard of dramatic art in the picture world. It is needless to say that she has already accomplished a great deal, assisted by her manager, Mr. Fox.

It is believed that public opinion will accord to her a proper credit for having done much to advance the quality of dramatic art as set forth on the screen, especially as shown in her latest play, "The Tiger Woman." At the Patricia Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

"Birth of a Nation" at the Patricia All Next Week.

No one who has seen "The Birth of a Nation," that spectacular production with music which will play all Fair week at the Patricia, will say aught but that D. W. Griffith has shown himself to be the master stage director of the world. "The Birth of a Nation" is not a photoplay in the accepted sense of that word. It is a master creation, an epic story presented with the realism of actuality by talented players, who seem to be living again in the "times that tried men's souls." There is no one who is not moved and thrilled by the clash of great armies on the field of battle, and that appeal is to all sorts and conditions of men, women and children, as is evidenced by every audience that gathers to enjoy this eighth wonder of the world.

While the fine artistic execution is truly epoch-making, probably the basic reason for its phenomenal success is to be found in the theme. It is a big historical romance, treating of the most momentous period in the history of the United States, a period which is not only highly important in the story of that country, but one which is still remembered by living men.

WOMEN! MOTHERS! DAUGHTERS

You who tire easily, are pale, haggard and worn; nervous or irritable, who are subject to fits of melancholy or the "blues," get your blood examined for iron deficiency. NUXATED IRON taken three times a day after meals will increase your strength and endurance 100 per cent in two weeks' time in many cases.—Ferdinand King, M.D.

NOTE—NUXATED IRON recommended above by Dr. King can be obtained from any good druggist on an absolute guarantee of results or money refunded. The usually prescribed dose is five-grain tablets to be taken three times daily after meals.

HOW HE QUIT TOBACCO

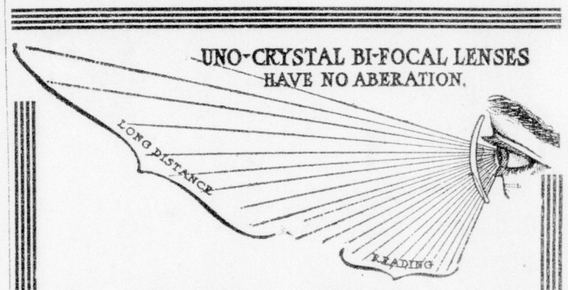

This veteran, S. B. Lamphere, was addicted to the excessive use of tobacco for many years. He wanted to quit, but needed something to help him.

He learned of a free book that tells about the tobacco habit and how to conquer it quickly, easily and safely. In a recent letter he writes: "I have no desire for tobacco any more. I feel like a new man."

Anyone desiring a copy of this book on tobacco habit, smoking and chewing, can get it free, postpaid, by writing to Edward J. Woods, 549 P, Station E, New York City. You will be surprised and pleased. Look for quieter nerves, stronger heart, better digestion, improved eyesight, increased vigor, longer life and other advantages if you quit poisoning yourself.—Advt.
