A PLEASANT TRIP THROUGH THE TILBURY EAST OIL FIELDS

Party of Chathamites Gain Considerable Interesting Information During an Afternoon Drive—Oil Prospects are Great

A party of four Chathamites, consisting of two grain merchants and two well known lawyers, made a trip of inspection to the Tilbury oil fields yesterday, and report a very profitable and pleasant time. One of the party speaking to a Planet representative this morning said:

"A record trip of twelve miles in 45 minutes brought us to the Campbell farm on the 8th concession, where there is a good well. The striking of this well has the effect of increasing the limits of the field, it being the farthest north and west. There is a tremendous flow of gas, and two large tanks filled with oil. A local farmer on an adjoining lot informed the party that in a few days he did not expect to have to do anything, because they are going to start boring on his place, which is southeast of this well, and he had mildly put the sentiments of the whole community. Everyone is oil crazy, with apparently good reason."

"A drive south revealed the fact that there are eleven wells all producing oil. There is not a dry hole in the district. Oil is being found as a rule at a depth of 1,300 and 1,400 feet, oil bearing rock being of considerable depth, and the flow large. There is enough gas going to waste in the Tilbury oil fields to-day to light and heat the city of Chatham. In this respect the oil men have a snap. They bore for oil and get gas. They use the gas to fire the engine that furnishes the power to complete their well. Then they put on a jigger and pump the oil by means of the gas that escapes from the well. New wells give $100 per acre, and it would cost them $200 if they had to use either wood or coal."

"Oil men are notoriously secretive. We approached a driller on the Campbell well and the following conversation took place:

"What lot is this?"
"Don't know."
"Did you strike oil?"
"Yes."
"When?"
"Saturday."
"Did you get a good flow?"
"Guess so."
"Who owns the well?"
"Don't know."
"Who do you work for?"
"Don't know."
"Is the field likely to be a good one?"

"Think so. Can't never tell." Just then a man with a new pair of tan shoes and sleek grey suit and a general air of prosperity drove up and entered into conversation with us. He did not tell his name, but tried to find out all that we knew. As we were in business we became oil magnates at once, and the man went away none the wiser. "An inspection of the plants showed that wells are pumping large quantities of oil. It is expected that two or three wells will be shot this week. One was struck on the Irwin farm, and will likely be shot this week. There is a good showing of oil."

"A drive to Merlin resulted in the lawyers having to get out every few steps to hold some lady's horse till the auto got past. "In most of the cases the horses would have been all right if the drivers had only exhibited a little common sense. One man turned his horse into a gate and when the auto went past he found himself unable to go ahead so he backed up and the whole business was dumped into the ditch. In most of the cases the drivers were the only ones who noticed the auto at all. The horses rather liked the experience."

"At Merlin there are a number of oil tanks being filled with oil. There are many new rigs coming into the place, and soon a drive through the country will reveal a hundred or more rigs in view at a time. That the field is permanent can be guessed from the fact that the oil companies are preparing to pipe oil from the fields to the railway property for shipment. In the meantime the township with the usual over-cautiousness is doing all they can to prevent this."

"Merlin was a surprise party. We were dry—and so was Merlin. There was nothing doing. One of our party was eyed suspiciously and as a result in some places even the wells were not working. When we were going out of Merlin our auto scared a stage driver's team, and we were forced to find the driver and follow it up with the auto. When the team was caught, the horses walked right past the machine without even looking at it."

"Summing the trip up, the oil field is wonderful and leases are held at fabulous prices. A man was offered $50,000 for leases he gathered together during the winter time. Another man was given $12,500 for every eight barrels for a four hundred acre lease. Part of this land was bought for $2,900 two years ago. A funny part of the whole thing is that a man who has oil producing wells on his own farm made unsuccessful attempts to secure oil in Bothwell two years ago."

"A careful study of the people who drive horses revealed the fact that in most instances the horses have better sense than the drivers. The half of them frighten their own horses by getting frightened themselves when they see an auto coming. All in all the trip was enjoyable, and the result good."

CITIZEN'S CONDEMN THE ACTION OF GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY

Wave of Public Sentiment Against the Blocking of the Extension to Lake Erie—A Mass Meeting To-night

Great indignation is expressed on all sides regarding the Grand Trunk's reported action in refusing the C. W. & L. E. a right of way over their tracks on William street. A mass meeting of citizens is called for this evening to take place in the C. W. & L. E. auditorium, and it is likely that another larger meeting to consider the matter may be called to take place in Harrison Hall later.

The Planet this morning interviewed some of the citizens on the matter, and the following replies were the result:

Ex-Ald. John Watt—I think the G. T. R.'s action is a big imposition on the city and our railway, and I think a mass meeting of the citizens should be called, that the general feeling of the people might be put on record."

Mr. E. J. MacIntyre—The G. T. R. should certainly allow the electric line to cross their tracks. A citizens' mass meeting should be called at once, and measures taken to bring influence to bear on the government to compel the G. T. R. to act decently by the electric line. The people never anticipated any trouble of this kind when the building of the C. W. & L. E. was commenced."

John Pleasance—The citizens should get together, and regardless of politics, collectively take steps to have the proper representations made to the government to have this hardship removed. The G. T. R. are already taking advantage of our city and using our streets for shunting purposes. We want the C. W. & L. E. to cross at William street."

Ex-Ald. Harry Westman—Every loyal citizen ought to join in entering a vigorous protest at once to both the G. T. R. and the Railway Commission; to the Railway Commission for rendering such an unjust and ridiculous decision, and imposing such an expense on the city; and to the G. T. R. for the very selfish view they are taking of the matter. The G. T. R. are evidently not trying to help the citizens to improve Chatham commercially as it should be to their interests to do. I would suggest that the Board of Trade should send strongly worded resolutions to both the Railway Commission and the G. T. R. officials, pointing out what a drawback such action on the part of the railroad means to Chatham. Trustee W. N. Morley—I am a shame that the C. W. & L. E. should receive such a set-back from the Grand Trunk. The citizens should get together and do all in their power to help the electric line in their predicament.

Ex-Ald. John Waddell—On the face of it, it looks like a petty piece of work on the part of the Trunk. Of course there may be two sides to the story, and I would like to be acquainted with both sides before venturing any opinion. The C. W. & L. E. must gain a right of way out to the lake in the direction they are seeking, and a roundabout way will certainly not meet with the approval of people of Chatham. The public should give the C. W. & L. E. every support in their contention."

Mr. A. Sheldrick—I think it is an outrage that our railway should be thus held back in its extension. Some means should be immediately taken to bring the G. T. R. to fair and just terms with the C. W. & L. E. I was telling Manager Warburton yesterday, I believe that if a petition were circulated in the interests of the electric line in this matter, every business man in Chatham would sign it."

Ex-Mayor Hugh Malcolmson—The Railway Commission did not report in favor of the C. W. & L. E. but I have not heard of them giving out any definite decision on the matter. At present the crisis is a most delicate one, and I think it most unfortunate that our electric line should be thus blocked in its progress. The voice of the people of Chatham is with the C. W. & L. E., and I think if you were to gather opinions from every man in the city, you would not find one dissenter."

Ald. Wm. Stone—It is simply an outrage, and one would think that the G. T. R. would have more consideration for their customers in this city."

Mr. Chas. Hadley—The citizens should take the matter up at once. There is no more reason why the C. W. & L. E. should be forced to go over or under the G. T. R. than there is that they should do so at the C. P. R. crossing. One potent reason why the G. T. R. are against having a level crossing at William street, is that they know if one were constructed there, they would be no longer able to use our city streets as shunting grounds. I am pleased to see the Planet take up the matter so vigorously, and it is obvious that the people are ready to take the matter up too, and give the electric line every support in their contention."

Ald. Chas. Austin—I think if there is any action the City Council can take to assist the electric line in bringing proper pressure to bear in the right quarters, they will be only too pleased to do so. If it cannot be arranged any other way, the business men should see that some action is taken."

AN UNUSUAL ACCIDENT

John Green, an employee of the Manson Campbell Co., while working in the woodworking department on Monday morning, was struck by a piece of wood above the eyes, the wound necessitating several stitches to close it up.

The wood flew up from a cut-off saw and struck a belt, which carried it along until it finally struck Mr. Green, such a happening being a strange occurrence.

HOMESICK AND DESPONDENT, YOUNG MAN ENDS HIS LIFE

Body Was Found This Morning Under A Tree On The Eighth Concession Dover --- Inquest Will Likely Be Held

Homesick and greatly dissatisfied with this country, Wm. Thompson, a young man, who came to Canada from Scotland only two weeks ago, committed suicide on Thursday last by hanging himself.

The deceased was 32 years of age and emigrated from Scotland at the beginning of the month in company with an uncle and aunt and three cousins. The party arrived in Chatham on June 10th and the following day the deceased went to work for Alex. McKenzie on the 8th concession, Dover. He was a steady, industrious man, and was in the best of health, but after a few days he was heard to remark that he did not like this country and would like to go back home.

His homesickness evidently reached an acute stage last Wednesday, when he appeared to be more dissatisfied than ever, and on Thursday evening he disappeared.

His relatives, who came over with him, had gone to live on the 11th concession, Dover, and it was thought that he might have gone to visit them, but upon enquiry it was learned that nothing had been heard about him since the time of his disappearance.

As he did not show up on Friday, Mr. McKenzie came to the conclusion that he had wandered off into the woods and had been overcome by sickness or had met with an accident of some kind and a search was instituted.

It was not, however, until this morning that the mystery of his disappearance was cleared up, a party of searchers finding his dead body beneath a tree in the woods on the farm, a short piece of rope about three feet long being suspended from a limb 20 feet above the ground.

The remainder of the rope was lying on his body, one end being tied about his neck. The body was much decomposed and had evidently been hanging on the tree till last night when the rotting of the rope and the wind caused it to fall.

A search party had passed under the tree a couple of days ago without noticing the corpse, and had the rope been strong enough to hold it, they probably would not have found it for some time.

Dr. J. L. Bray was summoned from Chatham and, upon examining the body, found that death was due to strangulation. The remains are now lying in the McKenzie farm and an inquest will most likely be held.

The affair has cast a gloom over the neighborhood, as the deceased, although only in the country for such a short time had made many friends and was well-liked by his fellow-workers. The news of his sad end was conveyed to his relatives this morning, and has occasioned them much distress.

POLICE COURT

At the police court this morning judgment was reserved in the case of a confectioner for purchasing on the market square before the hour of ten o'clock, for one week. It is claimed that the merchant did not go on the market, but the goods were brought to him.

A drunk named Allan Shaver, was sent to gaol for a week.

A young boy who stole some money from the Blonds Co., was remanded for a week. He was very penitent this morning, and promised to be good if he were let go this time. This is, however, the third time he has made his appearance in the police court.

PASSED AWAY

The sad news has been received by relatives in this city of the death of Mrs. Catherine Dooley, at her home in Detroit, on Sunday last. The deceased was a former resident of Raleigh, and was highly respected and esteemed in that vicinity and in this city.

The deceased's brothers and sisters are, Mr. James Dillon, Chatham; Miss Julia Dillon, Chatham; Mrs. Patrick O'Rourke, Chatham; Mrs. William Hickey and Messrs. Matthew and Michael Dillon, of Merlin.

AFTER HER FATHER

Chief Holmes has received the following letter from Hamilton. The writer is a Hamilton woman who is looking for her father:

June 15, '06.

Dear Sir,—
I hope you will take notice of this as I would like to see my father. I received word that he was in Chatham and would you kindly find him for me. Please do. His name is James Glen, formerly of Belfast, Ireland. He left there 16 years ago. He went to Chatham with his family, and if you find him tell him to write; if not, please tell me.

ENJOYABLE OUTING

The First Presbyterian Sunday School excursion to Bath Lake yesterday was not as largely attended as it should have been, but a most enjoyable day was spent by all who took it in. Everything came off nicely, and the booths did a good business.

The football match between the First Church team and the Harwich team resulted in victory for the former by a score of 1 to 0. The baseball between the benedicts and the bachelors proved a very interesting feature. The benedicts won out by a score of 22 to 10. The benedicts were captained by A. B. McCoig, M. P. P., and the bachelors by Roy Ross.

MORE DISCREPANCIES.

The Public Works Department appeared in a rather bad light, in a small matter before the Public Accounts Committee on Thursday of last week. E. J. Rainboth, C. E., district engineer on the Georgian Bay survey, refused to certify to certain charges made by a grocer from whom the Department bought ho. ses, sleighs, robes and other outfit. The trader appears to have been another of those go-between or commission purchasers. The engineer reported that the horses were not worth the price charged. Rainboth swears that a sleigh charged at $75 could have been bought from a manufacturer at $40, and that robes not worth more than $4 or $5, were charged at $18. It is fair to say that some of these accounts are not yet settled. The engineer made the further startling statement that while he was objecting to the prices two goods arrived at his residence with a coalskin coat from the dealer and an invoice of the same at $100 less five discounts of forty per cent., 25 per cent, 15 per cent., 15 per cent again and 3 per cent. Mr. Rainboth sent the coat back with a message that it had come to the wrong man, and went immediately to the Deputy Minister to tell him of the attempt to buy him off. He described the transaction as an "outrageous robbery." It may be remarked that Mr. Rainboth has retired from the public service, which explains how he ventures to tell his experience.

ENCOURAGING IRREVERENCE.

There is much irreverence in the present age, one of the things which is to be deplored amongst so many that are to be approved and rejoiced over, comments the Stratford Herald. Reference is not made to that spirit abroad which tries the foundation of all things. If the foundations are secure their trial will ultimately result in good. Apart from this there are many who believe the Christian religion in theory, at least, who show at times much irreverence for sacred things. Frequently people who would listen to sermons or take part in church services are disturbed by irreverent young people who chatter through the sermon and do not stop even during the prayers. A church seems to them no better than a playhouse. They are not all thoughtless youths that do this, and where they are, if they were taught a proper respect for an edifice regarded as sacred, they would not do it.

One practice which encourages this spirit of irreverence is that in many churches entertainments are held in which secular songs and comic recitations are introduced. Applause follows the performance, and young people who are present cannot be expected to have respect on Sunday for a building which is so used on a week night. The Catholic and the Anglican churches set a good example in this respect by allowing nothing which is not of a sacred character to be given within the walls of the building dedicated to worship, and when a sacred concert is given no applause is allowed. This is as it should be. If the other churches will follow this example it will do something to inculcate the proper feeling of reverence for houses of worship—not of awe—that old idea has been very properly exploded.

The clause in the new Lord's Day bill providing that every domestic servant who is employed on Sunday shall have a day off during the week has been mildly characterized as "extraordinary." Extraordinary undoubtedly it is and unique it is to be hoped it will remain. What right has a legislature to meddle with purely private agreements and purely domestic affairs? Domestic servants in this country are not slaves; they can and do, make their own agreements with their employers on this as on other subjects. The practical result if such meddling were to become law, would probably be the universal employment of Chinese, who could plead conscience against keeping any Lord's Day at all—Goldwin Smith.

HOUSEHOLDER'S PRIVATE OPINIONS

ABOUT THE POWER OF ZAM-BUK PROBABLY YOU KNOW THESE HOUSEHOLDERS!

If a household article is supported by householders who have tried it, therein lies its best recommendation. Zam-Buk is so widely used—not merely because the proprietors claim it can do more than other ointments and embrocations, but because householders the world over have proved this for themselves. Zam-Buk is purely vegetable, is at the same time healing, soothing, and anti-septic, and cures cuts, bruises and all skin diseases, in wonderfully short time.

Mrs. H. H. Rankin, of Appin, Ont., says:—"My hands were so sore that I could not put them in water. They had big cracks on them which caused me much pain that I could hardly work. Whenever I tried to put them near water they would smart and burn as if I had scalded them. They did not seem to be benefited by anything I tried until your Zam-Buk was introduced. To my great pleasure within a very short time Zam-Buk closed up the cracks and healed the sore places. My hands are now quite cured."

Witnessing Zam-Buk for this purpose I sprained my thumb, and again used Zam-Buk as an embrocation. In that case also it proved quite satisfactory. I recommended it to a friend who had a sore finger, and it cured that too. I think Zam-Buk a splendid household ointment, and I wish you great success."

Another householder, well known in Toronto, is M. T. H. Churchill, of 179 Arthur St. He writes: "It has occurred to me that my opinion of Zam-Buk after using several boxes, might help to extend a knowledge of its good and reliable qualities. It is a very important matter in a family of young children to know what to have at hand, and how to promptly use for the many ills and accidents which occur. I have used several such things in my experience, but your remedy outdistances all of them in effectiveness, and I am very glad to say so."

Such testimony is convincing hundreds of people every day that Zam-Buk is something different and superior to other salves and embrocations hitherto obtainable. Why not add the greatest convincing power of all—personal test? Write for a sample.

Zam-Buk cures cuts, burns, bruises, scratches, pimples, running sores, spreading scabs, scalp diseases, poisonous wounds, festering sores, piles, ulcers, bad legs, abscesses, sore breasts, boils, ringworms, erysipelas, scrofula, insect stings, baby's rash, hives, itches, stings, rheumatism, and all injured, diseased, or inflamed conditions of the skin and tissue. Of all druggists at 50 cents a box, or post paid from the Zam-Buk Colborne St. Toronto, upon receipt of price.

Learn Dressmaking IN TWO WEEKS

Have you commenced your spring and summer sewing? Are you interested in Dressmaking, either professionally or for your own family sewing? Have you broken away from the old way of depending on patterns.

Please pardon so many questions, but each one means something to you.

We have a wonderfully complete system in dressmaking—15 in all. These lessons will be of lasting benefit to you. They will throw new light on the subject, and instead of being tedious and tiresome you will find dressmaking one of the most interesting of all your diversions. It will no longer be a "duty," but a pleasure to make a dress, and your dresses will have a fit such as few women can accomplish.

We teach you how to cut, fit, and put together everything in the fashion books, from the plainest shirtwaist to the most elaborate toilette. We furnish everything to work with except tape measure, scissors, tracer and pencil.

Why spend months at a shop where you will learn nothing but how to sew on hooks and eyes, overcast, etc., and then, after you are through, what did you learn about cutting? Absolutely nothing, for you will know no more about cutting after being there a year than you did the first day you went there.

Charge for full course is only $10, to be paid when through, if satisfied, including one of the most perfect fitting systems in use, which we give free. We have taught over 2,000 ladies in this way within the past five years, and all recommend it very highly. No pay in advance.

We will teach at Chatham from June 28th to July 11th. Hours from 8.30 to 5. All wishing to learn, or for full particulars, be sure to see us at the Garner Hotel, on Wednesday, June 27th, between 10 and 5 o'clock.

PIRACY AND PROPOSAL

By EPES W. SARGENT

Copyright, 1906, by Epes W. Sargent

Perhaps one reason why Hoffman respected his nephews was because of the excellent understanding between themselves and Alice Cutler. Ewan was bashful and self-conscious in her presence, but the twins were her chums, and Ewan envied them.

He had been trying for six weeks to decide whether or not Alice cared for him, and he was afraid to put his fate to the test. He was not much of a ladies' man. Until he had seen Alice his yacht had been his sweetheart, and a cruise with a lot of good fellows outweighed all the allurements of feminine society.

Now he regretted a little—just a little—his devotion to the sea. He did not even know whether Alice thought of him as his nephews' uncle or as himself. Unversed in the ways of women, he could not decide. He might have asked his sister, but he dreaded Gertrude's gibes, so he devoted himself more than ever to the twins, and thus gained a right occasionally to enter the charmed circle, the center of which was Alice Cutler.

Then came the twins' inspiration. Bedtime tales of the Spanish main had fired their imaginations. Here they were on the gulf of Mexico, whence the gold laden galleons had made their start. Nothing would satisfy but that they should go upon a pirating expedition.

Their mother was glad enough to be rid of them for the week the cruise would occupy, and Alice Cutler manfully assumed the most imposing skull and crossbones flag to be broken out from the masthead when the quarry should be sighted. The twins carefully looked after the saluting cannon and its supply of ammunition, and laboriously practiced carrying wooden daggers between their teeth.

Then came the day of embarkation. The twins kissed their mother goodbye, as dutiful pirates should, and set out with Alice for the pier, while Ewan hurried over to the postoffice to make sure that a belated business letter was properly posted.

"I'LL GIVE YOU A DOLLAR APiece AS RANSOM," HE SAID.

He cursed his fate with true piratical fervor when he came to the dock and found that Alice had returned to the hotel without a goodbye for himself, but once on board and under way he became absorbed in the twins' play.

It was one of their greatest charms that they could "make believe" with such absolute seriousness as to convince an outsider that their pretense was real, and Ewan grinned over their circumstantial account of the capture of a beautiful maiden, whom they were holding for ransom.

"We just tied a handkerchief over her mouth," exclaimed Dudley, "an' says, 'Lass we get ten thousand dollars from your father we'll send him your ears.'"

"An' she cried," supplemented Gordon, "an' tried to take the bandage off, an' we tied her hands, an' it was double-dubious, no dubious, what we said."

"Taint it's dubious," defended Dudley, and by the time the arbitrator had decided that neither was right on the pronunciation of dubious the twins were ready to go down into the cabin and decide upon their course.

"Now, what I propose," explained Ewan, "is to get out in the gulf and wait for the galleons from the mines. They should have left Vera Cruz day before yesterday. Shall we do that or shall we set sail for Brazil, land a force and plunder the storehouses of the natives?"

"I don't think mother would like it," objected Dudley. "It's too far away. Besides, we've the beautiful maid en to ransom. We ought to cable her father, as we promised."

"Pirates don't cable," suggested Gordon. "They send messengers in disguise."

"I guess modern pirates use the cable," laughed Ewan, stopping a demonstration. "You youngsters had better pile on deck and keep a sharp lookout for treasure ships."

The twins departed, still arguing the question of to cable or not to cable, and lighting a cigar, Ewan gave himself over to wondering why Alice had not waited to bid him goodbye. She had half promised that she would be on hand to wish him good luck on his first piratical adventure. It was not like her to break her word.

He was still lost in thought when the steward came in to set the table for lunch.

"Beg pardon, sir," he asked, "shall I set a place for the lady?"

"Have the boys been telling you about their captive?" laughed Ewan. "I supposed that captives on pirate ships were fed on bread and water."

"The young lady in the cabin, sir, the one the young gentlemen were telling you about, sir."

"There's no young woman in the cabin," denied Ewan. "It's a part of their make believe."

"I thought you know, sir," persisted the steward. "There's a lady in that cabin."

Hoffman made two steps to the door indicated and threw it open. There on the bunk lay Alice Cutler bound hands and feet with a towel across her mouth. It was the work of a moment to release her, but it was five minutes before her lips permitted her to speak.

"Don't mind," she smiled as she listened to Ewan's horror-stricken explanations. "I imagine that the boys told their piracy too seriously. It was all done so suddenly that I could not help myself, but I was sure that you would find it out when you came on board."

"And to think," he groaned, "that I was sitting in the cabin all the forenoon, and you were lying here suffering."

"It wasn't so very bad," she consoled, "and the boys were so full of their cruise that you really cannot blame them. I hope you will not punish them."

"Punish them?" he echoed savagely. "If they are going in for this sort of piracy they should be strung up at the yardarm."

With a whoop the boys came tumbling down the companionway. As their glance fell upon their captive they jumped upon their uncle and began to "dumel him."

"It ain't fair," protested Gordon, "to let the captives out. They might run away."

For a moment Ewan struggled with a desire to fight back, then he caught Alice's eye, and he contented himself with grasping the collars of two sailor jackets and bringing the twins in front of him.

"I'll give you a dollar apiece as ransom," he said sternly. "Not a cent more."

"You can have her," they chorused. "Give up the dollar."

Payment was made, and Hoffman sent word to the mate to head for home, to the great dismay of the twins, but on this point Ewan and Alice were agreed.

The sun was just sinking in the west as the moon, renamed the Scourge, came in sight of home. From the bridge Alice and Ewan watched the landmarks loom up, while the twins, with Ewan's best binoculars, watched at the stern for pursuers.

"It is too bad to bring the cruise to such a sudden termination," she smiled. "It is too bad to have to return to the real," he supplemented. "For the last four hours you have been my captive and now—"

"And now?" she prompted. "The situations are reversed. I have been your captive ever since I came down here."

"Then you were a very unbusiness-like pirate," she laughed softly, "to ransom me."

"Why?" he demanded. "Because," she whispered, "you had only to ask and—"

Ewan asked. The next cruise of the Scourge will be a honeymoon trip.

How They Got Up a Row.

At one of the English country inns Hook and Mathews once got up a mock quarrel before a large company. The wit and the comedian each appealed most earnestly to the sympathy of the company, who, with the true British predilection for anything in the shape of a row, eagerly espoused the side of one or other of the champions.

The contest proceeded, and Hook's cool invectives, we are told, grew more and more cutting and the gesticulations of Mathews more wild and extravagant. Blows followed, and the partisans, full of gin and valor, soon followed the example of their principals. A general melee succeeded. Candles were knocked out, tables and chairs overturned, and the glasses "sparked on the boards," and in the midst of the confusion, just in time to avoid the arrival of the police and the impressive denouement, the promoters of the riot, unobserved, effected their escape, leaving their excited adherents to compute at leisure the amount of damage done to their persons and property and to explain, if possible, to a magistrate in the morning the cause and object of the combat.

—London Spectator.

Norway's Seaweed.

"All along the coast of Norway seaweed is gathered and burned," writes the Christiania correspondent of the London News. "This seaweed grows in veritable forests and is not of the common grass variety. There are actual trees of it, five or six feet high, with stems like ropes and leaves tough as leather. They begin to sprout early in the year and cover the ocean bed with a dense, impenetrable brush. As a source of income the seaweed industry now surpasses the fisheries, and it is more valuable than agriculture even in one of the leading farming districts of Norway. Owners of land abutting on the seashore are reaping a great harvest. After the weeds have been burned the ashes are exported to England, where valuable chemical substances are extracted from them. The most important of these products is iodine."

Companies Sent 'Frisco Messages by Mail Instead of by Telegraph.

San Francisco, June 16.—A sensational arrangement of the Western Union Telegraph Co. is contained in the report of the special committee of the grand jury which investigated the charge that telegraph companies accepted thousands of messages in the days immediately following the fire which were sent by mail and messenger. This report, which was adopted by the grand jury, says, in part:

"The evidence of the postoffice officials is that more than half of the telegrams were addressed to points in the burned district. It is estimated by your committee that at least $1,000,000 was collected from all parts of the United States and Europe by the telegraph companies for messages which were not transmitted by telegraph, and your committee has not been able to find that the telegraph company has contributed one cent toward the relief fund.

"Your committee would recommend an indictment of officials, but for that section of the law which requires evidence of the false obtaining of a sum of over $50 to make it a felony."

Attention is called to the fact that the senders of messages which were handled in this way are by law, entitled to the return of the tolls and $50 liquidated damages for each message. The report recommends that the evidence be laid before the Federal grand jury and sent to President Roosevelt.

Earthquake at 'Frisco.

San Francisco, June 16.—A severe earthquake was felt here at 9:41 p. m. It lasted about 5 seconds. It was probably not heavy enough to do damage, but possibly it may have caused some of the ruined walls to fall.

Surprised People

Our Great Alteration Sale is surprising many people who drop in "just for a look." We're aware that there are many buyers who look upon a special sale as a "fake," a "scheme," or some sort of a trick of the trade. Perhaps they have reason for their opinion. Been trading at the

"WRONG STORE."

It's this class of buyers that are surprised to find our bargains honest bargains, and our goods just as we represent them to be.

A MAN SAID THE OTHER DAY,—

"You Do BETTER Than You Advertise."

That is the way we surprise people! The discouraged purse receives comfort here.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

NO DRY HOLES STRUCK YET

The Tilbury East Oil Field is Gradually Spreading Out.

GOOD WELLS ARE STRUCK

Special Correspondence.
Stewart, June 20.—The scope of the Tilbury East oil field is gradually spreading out and hundreds of acres are being added to the territory. The field has now been proven for about two miles north and south and one and one-half miles east and west. This makes a large area to be worked and as no "dry holes" have been found as yet, the outlook for a strong, permanent field is exceedingly bright. Eleven wells have been completed and all are producing in paying quantities.

One of the best wells in the field was brought in on Saturday. This well is on the farm of Matthew Campbell, about one and one-half miles west of Fletcher. After being shot the oil flowed at the rate of ten barrels an hour for some time. It will be a steady producer at 100 barrels per day.

The drillers on the W. F. Robertson farm were given somewhat of a surprise on Saturday. At a depth of 1,300 feet they found some oil, and as no tanks had been erected, drilling was suspended. During Saturday night the fluid broke into the well and immediately began to flow. A large quantity of oil flowed over the ground and was wasted. As the oil rose it entered but a few inches this well promises to be a good one. It will be drilled about 50 feet deeper.

This week promises to be the most interesting in the history of the field, as during this time there will be five or six wells brought in. In all of them there are good indications.

TO GO TO CHICAGO

Chatham Cricket Club will Visit the Windy City at the end of July.

The secretary of the Chatham Cricket Club has received a letter from E. C. Davies, captain of the Wanderers, Chicago, stating that the week, July 23rd to 28th, has been selected as the cricket tournament week in Chicago this year. The latter states that five teams, including the home team, will be expected to participate. They are: Chatham, Detroit and Cleveland, combined team, Manitoba and Pittsburgh. Two games a day will be played, one team resting each day, and on the last day of the week a final match will be played between picked teams representing the east and west. The experience of the Pittsburgh club, who held last year's tournament, proves that the week's cricket is more profitable and arouses more interest than a tour.

Last year Aitken, Wilson and Brundage, of Chatham, played in a combination team of Chatham, Detroit and Cleveland. This year Chatham hopes to send a full team all by itself so that our local enthusiasts must keep at work if they want to "do things."

It is expected that Chatham will play at Detroit on Thursday afternoon.

BURIED IN COAL SLAYER IS CAUGHT

One Miner Killed and a Second is Badly Injured.

Springhill, N. S., June 20.—A fatality occurred in the mines here early yesterday, by which a Welshman named Benjamin Davies, lost his life, while a companion was badly injured. They had proceeded to get timber. This section is well-known as uncertain and dangerous, the seams being very steep, and it often happens that a "slump" occurs without the slightest warning, several tons of coal rolling down the grade like an avalanche, sweeping everything movable with it. Before the men realized the nature of the surroundings, the road about them commenced to "slump," carrying both men to the roadway below, completely burying deceased, and partially covering Pervis Herring, who was held in this position four and one-half hours before being released.

The mines were idle yesterday in accordance with the custom in these events and will also be idle to-day to allow workmen to attend the funeral.

BASIS FOR UNION.

Bishop Williams Says Anglicans Will Negotiate Under Four Divisions.

London, June 20.—In his charge to the Synod of Bampton yesterday afternoon, Bishop Williams, referring to the basis upon which the Anglican Church would negotiate for unity resolved it into four divisions:

(1) The acceptance of the Scripture as the revelation of God and the warrant for faith and conduct.
(2) The acceptance of Nicene and apostolic creed and the sufficient exposition of the faith.
(3) The acceptance of the two sacraments ordained by Christ.
(4) The acceptance of the historic Episcopate.

"We Anglicans," said his lordship, "have at least always prayed for unity. We have even made overtures to other bodies with a view to restoring the grand idea of the apostolic life—the visible fellowship of believers—and until recently we have had little response from any quarter."

A HOT TIME AT WINDSOR

A Policeman Called in to Settle Council Dispute.

A CHATHAM DEPUTATION

Windsor, June 20.—Mayor Wigle at last has effectually muzzled Ald. Trumble. The scene occurred quite early in the proceedings of the council meeting last night. Mayor Wigle decreed that a communication on the order paper be referred to the Board of Works, but Ald. Trumble wished it acted on at once. Mayor Wigle refused to put a motion made by Ald. Trumble, and then the fun began.

You take up that motion, Mr. Mayor," commanded the Irish alderman in a threatening tone. "It is no way to do business, and when we want you to do a thing, you should grant the request."

"Ald. Trumble," said the Mayor in low, decided tones, "I have stood your insolence long enough, and do not propose that you shall continue it. You keep quiet, or I will be compelled to do something to compel you to respect my wishes."

"Well, you can't chill me," replied Trumble, "and I want that motion put."

Mayor Wigle instructed City Clerk Lusted to call a policeman from the police department, and when "Big Bill" Giles walked in and took a seat just behind Ald. Trumble, the latter had no more to say.

Blocking tactics were resorted to again last night when it came to the consideration of the new by-law granting a franchise to the Windsor, Essex & Lake Shore railway. The business on the order paper could not be finished, but after an informal talk on the railway franchise by Jno. Piggott and W. R. Philmore, of Chatham, two of the heavy stockholders in the road, Ald. Foster announced that he will no longer oppose the laying of the road inside the city limits. Mayor Wigle promised to call a special meeting of the Council some night this week to deal with the by-law.

HE WAS DISMISSED

Call Fireman Refused to Obey Orders and would not Apologize to the Chief.

A joint meeting of the Property committee and the Board of Health was held in Harrison Hall last evening.

Hog dealers in the city had complained that, under the quarantine regulations now in force in Kent County, they were not allowed to weigh live hogs on foot at the market weigh scales. They claimed that this restriction was a great inconvenience and asked the civic Health Board and the Property committee to take some action in the way of removing it.

It was decided at last night's joint meeting to investigate the matter. The matter of supplying uniforms to the fire brigade will be reported on at the next Council meeting.

The call-man who was suspended by Chief Eritchard for refusing to obey orders and bad language, was examined before the committee and, as he refused to apologize for his conduct, the committee will endorse his dismissal.

Johnnie Jackum Will Pay Penalty For Four Killings.

Victoria, B. C., June 20.—John Jackum, who killed Axel Smalls over a card game, Monday night on Reed Island, was surrounded and captured while asleep in the garret of a deserted house at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Jackum will be taken to Vancouver for trial in September.

Swift Justice in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, June 20.—John Joseph Kean, the kidnapper of Freddie Muth, was given a hearing yesterday and held without bail to await the action of the grand jury. The grand jury found a true bill against Kean, and he was given an immediate trial and convicted in less than an hour. Judge Sulzberger sentenced the prisoner to twenty years. From the time of Kean's arrest until he was on his way to the penitentiary to begin sentence less than 24 hours had elapsed.

Double Rescue From Drowning.

Peterboro, June 20.—Harvey and Wilfred Adams, twin sons of Ald. Frank Adams, were bravely rescued from drowning Monday night. One boy fell off a raft in the Otonabee River and the other jumped in to save him, neither could swim. Herbert Rogers, late superintendent engineer of Trent Canal, jumped in and saved both lads by taking one in each hand and swimming to shore.

Floored by Iron Bar.

Walkerville, June 20.—Monday night, Winifred Andrews, of Supt. Andrews of the Wire Fence Co., was standing near a rapidly moving belt, holding in his hand a bar of iron about two feet long. A pulley in the belt caught the bar and caused it to strike him a hard blow on the head. He is in a dangerous condition.

BARGAINS

Men and Boys at Austin & Co's Great June Sacrificing Sale. Don't Stir a Step Until You Read This.

We've used the word "Bargains," a good old English word somewhat overworked, but it fits this sale perfectly. A short time ago we bought at our own price the surplus stock of one of Canada's foremost clothing manufacturers. They wanted the money and they knew it was far better to sell at a loss than to pack away the stock, pay extra insurance, take chances of changing styles and lose the interest on their money.

The complete is now here and our patrons will reap the benefit. Any man who expects to continue wearing clothes cannot afford to turn his back on this great sale. Here are inducements in prices that will make pocket-books fly open quickly. No more to be had at these prices. Act at once, the goods will not be here long.

SUMMER FAG

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS THE BEST TONIC FOR SUMMER.

The long hot summer thins the blood, and leaves you weary, worn, and wretched. Nothing can cure that summer fag except Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—because they actually make new blood and thus strengthen every organ and every tissue in the body.

Every dose fills you with new strength, new energy, new life. Purgative pills only weaken you more. Common tonics only stimulate for the moment. But Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood, and nothing but good, pure rich new blood can brace you to stand the summer. That is why you should take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now. Mr. J. Norfolk, White Horse, Yukon Territory, says: "I am fifty-nine years of age and have been an athlete who scarcely knew the meaning of illness. Last year, however, my health gave way. I became nervous, did not sleep well, and grew as weak as a kitten. It seemed as though I was completely worn out. I tried several so-called tonics, but it was only a waste of money, for they did me no good. Finally I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and they put me on my feet again, and gave me new health and strength."

Every weak and easily tired man and woman will find new health, new strength and new energy through a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They cure all blood and nerve diseases like anaemia, nervous exhaustion, headaches and backaches, indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism and the special ailments that afflict most growing girls and women of mature years. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WILL TAKE ACTION

Toronto, June 18.—The license department has authorized Inspector Thos. Boon, of East Kent, to return the license money paid by Mr. Forbes of Cedar Springs. The license commissioners favored his application for a license, and he commenced a sell before the beginning of the license year. The clerk of the township, however, decided that Mr. Forbes' petition to receive a license did not have the required majority of names of qualified ratepayers and so informed the department, which thereupon declined to issue the license. It is said that court proceedings may be taken in order that the whole question as to the Clerk's decision may be tested.

A DIRTY STREET

A rat-payer, speaking to The Planet this morning, complained of the accumulation of branches, twigs and rubbish, which has remained on the pavement and roadway of Park St., opposite the Methodist church, for over a week.

This gentleman stated that the sweeping of that part of the street had been neglected for some time, nothing had been cleaned up since the storm of the week before last.

UNNERVED BY SIGHTS

Brutality Most Hideous Marked
Attack on Jews.

Bourse Gazette Correspondent Gives Vivid Description of the Awful Facts of the Bialistok Massacre—Hospitals Are Filled With the Dead and Wounded—Bodies of the Slain Are Fearfully Mutilated.

St. Petersburg, June 19.—The embargo on news from Bialistok was lifted yesterday, and the Associated Press staff correspondent was for the first time allowed to telegraph directly from the sacked city a picture of the scene of ruin and desolation left in the wake of the mob. According to bulletins order was restored and maintained throughout the day.

The Awful Facts.
Horrible details have been sent out by the correspondents of The Bourse Gazette, who arrived at Bialistok in company with Deputy Stebepkin on Saturday. The correspondent says he was utterly unnerved by the sights he witnessed at the hospital.

"Merely saying that the corpses were mutilated," he writes, "fails to describe the awful facts. The faces of the dead have lost all human semblance, and the corpses simply are crushed masses of flesh and bone soaking in blood. It is impossible to conceive of such brutality. The corpse of Teacher Apstein lay on the grass with the hands tied. In the face and eyes had been hammered three-inch nails.

Rioters entered his house and, after bestial outrages, killed him thus and then murdered the rest of his family of seven. When the corpse arrived at the hospital it was also marked with bayonet thrusts.

Beside the body of Apstein lay the corpse of a child of ten years, whose leg had been chopped off with an axe. Here also were the dead from the Schlachter home, where, according to witnesses, soldiers came and plundered the house and killed the wife, son and a neighbor's daughter and seriously wounded Schlachter and his two daughters.

Separated and Shot.
"I am told that soldiers entered the apartments of Lapidus Bros., which were crowded with persons who had fled from the streets for safety, and ordered the Christians to separate themselves from the Jews. A Christian student named Dikar protested and was killed on the spot. Then all of the Jews were shot.

"Some of the corpses were marked with fire. These had been brought from a burned tannery and showed bullet and bayonet marks. In one corner of the yard was a demented Jewess trying to cover the body of her husband, but her efforts were in vain as the pulpy flesh simply oozed from beneath its inadequate covering.

"From the wounded in the hospital, the correspondent heard many pitiable stories, all of the same general tenor. Here is the account of a badly-wounded merchant named Nemyashiky: "I live in the suburbs. Learning of the program I tried to reach the town through the Balda, but was intercepted by roughs. My brother was killed, my arm and leg were broken, my skull was fractured and I was stabbed twice in the side. I fainted from loss of blood and revived to find a soldier standing over me, who asked, 'What are you still alive, shall I bayonet you?' I begged him to spare my life. The roughs came again but spared me, saying: 'He will die; let him suffer longer.'"

The correspondent holds that the program undoubtedly was provoked, and attributes the responsibility to Police Lieut. Shermatoff, and says the distinctive characteristic of the outbreak, in which it differs from the excesses at Odessa, Kishinev, Gomel and Kiev, aside from brutality, is the comparatively small amount of actual robbery committed. The participants seemingly were inspired by motives of murder and destruction. The correspondent declares that not only the soldiers, but their officers, also participated.

In the Wrecked City.
Bialistok, June 19.—The correspondent of the Associated Press yesterday found the city a scene of horror. The streets were filled with the bodies of the slain, which were one continuous picture of horror and pillage. The windows and doors of the Jewish houses were wide open, giving a view of their wrecked interiors, or were boarded up with the rude wooden shutters. Everywhere could be seen weeping women hunting for traces of killed or wounded relatives. The principal stores either were devastated wrecks or mere mounds of ashes, among which the wretched proprietors, last week rich, but now reduced to poverty, were wandering about weakly, endeavoring to ascertain the extent of their misfortune.

In the Hospital.
The scene at the Jewish Hospital, where the majority of the Jewish dead and most severely wounded were taken, was indescribably sickening. The grass plot outside the hospital was covered with mutilated and mangled corpses, arranged in two long rows. The wooden walk from the gate to the door, over which the bodies were carried, was stained with blood, and cobblestone pavement and roadway was spattered with gore.

The dead and wounded are still arriving. Many of them had been lying untouched in the streets for two or three days. The bodies of some of the severely wounded were frightfully bruised, broken and mangled.

The hospital attendants asserted that about 100 in all had been brought in and that many more remained outside Bialistok, where it was unsafe for Red Cross detachments to venture.

At the district hospital there were six dead persons and eight or ten wounded. These were all Christians.

These bodies were not mangled as were those of the Jews, whose hands, arms and legs were sometimes chopped off from mere wantonness.

Entertained by the Salters.
London, June 19.—(C. A. P.)—Lord Strathcona and the agents-general of other colonies were entertained at dinner last night by the Salters Co.

REVOLUTION IN GUATEMALA.

President Cabrera Takes Mean Revenge on Rebel Leaders' Family.
Mexico City, June 18.—Private advices from Salvador brings news collected in Guatemala by the intelligence department of the revolutionists.

President Cabrera is charged with having caused the coffee estate of Gen. Barillas to be burned, and have driven Senora Barillas to the mountains with a few faithful attendants.

Gen. Toledo has his army in a strong position in Southern Guatemala, where he is receiving recruits and preparing for his advance on Guatemala City. His troops are promptly paid.

Refugees from Guatemala bring news of a widespread reign of terror since the revolution began.

Serious Fighting.
Panama, via Galveston, Texas, June 18.—Despatches from Guatemala say that serious fighting has taken place at Monagua, near Lake Guya. The insurgents occupied a strong position on a mountain, but lacked artillery.

The Government forces bombarded them for three days, when the insurgents retired. Fighting was confined to points adjoining the Salvador border. The Government has 2,500 troops there and good artillery.

TERRIBLE ITCHING SCALP HUMOUR

Badly Affected With Sores and Crusts—Extended Down Behind the Ears—Some Years Later Painful and Itching Pustules Broke Out on Lower Part of Body—Son Also Affected.

A TRIPLE CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"About ten years ago my scalp became badly affected with sore and itching humors, crusts, etc., and extending down behind the ears. My hair came out in places. I was greatly troubled; understood it was serious. Tried various remedies, so called, without effect. Saw your Cuticura advertisement, and got them at once. Applied them as to directions, etc., and after two weeks, I think, of use, was clear as a whistle.

"I have to state also that late last fall, October and November, 1904, I was suddenly afflicted with a bad eruption, painful and itching pustules over the lower part of the body. I suffered dreadfully. In two months, under the skillful treatment of my doctor, combined with Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, I found myself cured.

"Six years ago my son was laid up with a severe cold, a hard cough, and finally painful eruption all over the body. I procured the Cuticura Remedies as soon as possible, and after his faithful use of same was as well as ever in two weeks, as well as I can recall. He has never had a return of the illness, as far as I know.

"I have always been pleased to commend the Cuticura Remedies, and testify as to their efficacy. I am a veteran of the late Civil War, '61-'65, between seventy and eighty years of age. Yours truly, H. M. F. Weiss, Rosemond, Christian Co., Ill., Aug. 31, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every Humour, from Pimples to Scrofula, from Infancy to Age, consisting of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Remedies in form of Chocolate-Coated Pills, in vial of 60, may be had of all druggists. A single trial often cures the most distressing cases when all else fails. Potter Drug & Chem. Co., Sole Prop., Boston, Mass.

Another serious accident occurred a few minutes before noon in the James Warnock Co., Limited, works, when George Taitia was struck by a piece from a grindstone, which burst while revolving at a rapid rate. SOCIETY

DAVIDSON-NORTHWOOD.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Northwood, William street, was the scene of a very pretty and popular event this afternoon at 2.30, when their daughter, Miss Edith May, was made the charming bride of Mr. Richard Davidson, Ph. D., of Toronto. This event has been looked forward to for some time by Chatham's society, and it was quite generally remarked by the seventy guests who were present that a more attractive wedding was never celebrated in the Maple City.

The house was very handsomely decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being white and green in the drawing room where the ceremony was performed, and pink in the refreshment room. It was a white wedding, the young ladies of the bridal party being robed in white. The bride, upon whom all admiring eyes were centered, looked the picture of health, beauty and grace as she entered the room at the appointed hour, on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She was robed in an elaborate gown of ivory white Messaline silk princess dress with a lace bolero, and pearl trimmings. Her only ornament was a beautiful amethyst surrounded with pearls, the gift of the groom. Her bridesmaid, Miss Louise Sillman, of Chicago, made a very fitting attendant to the bride. She was richly dressed in a becoming creation of white Swiss mull, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and carried pink roses. The bride carried bridal roses, and lilies of the valley. Katharine and Helen Northwood, cousins of the bride, were the pretty flower girls. They were neatly dressed in white, wearing wreaths of daisies and carrying baskets of daisies. Miss Sheldon, of Evanston, Ill., also assisted as maid of honor.

Mrs. Northwood, the mother of the bride, wore a beautiful gown of mauve silk. She was attended by Prof. Young, a friend of the groom, and a member of the faculty of Trinity College, Toronto. The ceremony was performed under a shower of wedding bells and green drapings, and directly in front of a large embankment of ferns and palms. Rev. Rural Dean McCosh, pastor of Christ Church, conducted the wedding service. The wedding march was played by Miss Nellie Richards, and at the conclusion of the ceremony Miss Olive Richards sang very sweetly "The Voice that Breathes O'er Eden." The ushers were Messrs. J. A. Sewell, of Windsor, and Harry Northwood, of this city. The bride is one of Chatham's most attractive, accomplished and intelligent young ladies, and she has a very large host of friends in this and other cities who are all one in extending to her their very best wishes. The groom is a member of the faculty of the University College, Toronto, and is very well known and esteemed in this city. To him the heartiest of congratulations are offered.

The happy young couple were the recipients of a handsome number of presents, the number being materially increased by several choice gifts from out of town friends. After a pleasant reception Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left on the 5.18 Grand Trunk for the coast. They will take a trip up the lakes, and will spend the major portion of the summer around Georgian Bay and Manitoulin Island. They will afterwards take up

Four Simple Rules

Follow Them and Health, Happiness And Prosperity Will Be Yours.

If one would be healthy, happy and prosperous, follow these four simple rules. (1) Keep the bowels open every day. (2) Chew your food slowly and thoroughly. (3) Avoid indigestible foods. (4) If there are any symptoms of stomach troubles, take Mi-o-na before each meal until cured.

No matter how many years you may have suffered with stomach troubles or how worried by sleeplessness, nervousness, loss of appetite, furred tongue, specks before the eyes, headaches, indigestion or other ailments that are caused by a weak stomach, you can be cured by the faithful use of Mi-o-na.

Take one of the little tablets before each meal with the fixed determination to get the most benefit out of it.

Mi-o-na is not a fanciful experiment. It is not a patent medicine. It is not a cure all. It is a scientific remedy recommended but for one trouble—weakness of the digestive organs.

When Mi-o-na has been used for a few days, the digestive system will be so greatly improved that all the food eaten is converted into nutriment, so that nourishment and health are given to the whole system and there is a rapid increase in weight, strength and spirits.

If you cannot obtain Mi-o-na of your druggist, it will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price. Write us for advice on your case from a leading stomach specialist which will be sent free. The R. T. Booth Company, Ithaca, N. Y.

"OLD LONDON"

On Monday evening Rev. J. W. Hoyt, pastor of the William St. Baptist church, addressed the Park St. Epworth League, on his recent visit to Old London. Mr. Hoyt is a very eloquent speaker, and on Monday evening his lecture was very entertaining as well as instructive. He spoke of the great amount of business which is daily transacted in this the world's greatest metropolis and pictured the immense amount of traffic of pedestrians, horses and vehicles mingled together in some of the narrow streets. He took his hearers through the great London Museum and dwelt at length on his visit to the Tower, where so many of England's royalty had been executed and where the original knife, block and thumb screws still stand to the view of the curious of ancient historical deeds. The main part of the lecture was based on the speaker's visit to the slums. Here he saw with his own eyes the drinking and eating in the hotels together with the men, and pretty arranged birch-roads dealt out the liquor at the bar. Mr. Hoyt took occasion to loudly congratulate our government on the stand they have taken in introducing a bill whereby the services of lady-bartenders are prohibited in our Dominion.

During the evening the Misses Groves rendered a very nice duet entitled "Loving this way." and Miss Tenon Harper also sang a very expressive solo. The scripture lesson was read by Miss Ethel Sandison, and the meeting was presided over by J. Mackness, 2nd Vice Pres. of the League.
