Big Broadway Musical "Paint Your Wagon" At Dal Next Week

Plans for "Paint Your Wagon", the D.G.D.S. musical production of the year, are moving ahead rapidly. Publicity, including radio and television interviews, is well underway; as a result, it is hoped that this year's audiences will exceed even last year's overflowing crowds.

Rehearsals are being held every night of the week and next, until the four great nights of performances, February 25 to 28. Tickets are available at Phinneys or Blighs, or they may be purchased between rehearsals from any of the members of the cast.

Last Thursday evening a group of somewhat tense Dal students, male and female, piloted themselves to the Nova Scotia Hotel and their trial by fire, the event being the Dalhousie Alumni Dinner. The students were part of the Paint Your Wagon retinue, and had been asked to perform a few numbers for the alumni and faculty gathered there.

The students performed with practiced ease, and it seemed a sure indication that Dal will soon have another stage hit to its credit. The audience was enthusiastic, resulting in an encore.

FLASH Producer Resigns

In an interview with Julia Gosling, president of DGDS, the GAZETTE learned that Len Chapple, producer of the DGDS production, "Paint Your Wagon," has resigned. The show, slated to run four nights, starts Wednesday, February 25.

Despite this untimely resignation of the producer Miss Gosling stated: "The show is going to go on, and the show is going to be good." She declined to comment on the reasons for Mr. Chapple's resignation.

It is generally felt that the reason for the resignation is the lack of co-operation Mr. Chapple received from the members of the cast. Apparently he found attendance at rehearsals poor and the situation became intolerable to him. It must be remembered, however, commented one member of DGDS, that Dalhousie productions are not professional and that the actors cannot be treated in the same way as professionals.

Dave Matheson, president of the Council, expressed surprise at Mr. Chapple's resignation, but felt that, with the spirit students have shown recently, the show will be just as successful.

Dr. C. L. Lambertson, musical director of the show, and Miss Gosling will continue the production, and the students, after a good practice Tuesday night, are enthusiastic and ready to work hard to get the show in shape by next Wednesday night. The show promises to reach the standard set by "Finian's Rainbow."

Under the running-mate system your vote may still be split between teams. The system is beneficial insofar as each team adheres to a single platform, but voters do not necessarily have to vote for candidates as a team.

STUDENT UNION BUILDING—to continue the investigation for a SUB with regard to requirement, style and location. To obtain from the students their ideas so that when the time is right we can go before the administration with a concrete set of plans.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE — to investigate the adequacy of the Student Health Service.

BOOK BUREAU — to establish a book store on Studley campus under control of the Students' Council similar to those now operated by Meds and Engineers.

DELTA GAMMA — to aid Delta Gamma in proving its potential on campus and raising its prestige.

D.A.A.C.—to continue the promotion of interfaculty sports and ensure proper supervision of interfac games.

CANTEEN — to implement the canteen investigation committee's report and press for more dispensing machines to speed up service.

ALUMNI RELATIONS — to approach the alumni with a view to having a student-sponsored homecoming to help maintain alumni interest in Dalhousie.

Byron Reid, now in his third year Medicine, obtained both his B.Sc. and M.Sc. at Dalhousie. While here he took part in five Gilbert & Sullivan musicals, and three Dalhousie revues; he has been President of S.C.M. and is Medicine representative on this year's Council and a member of the Med executive. It was in his present position that he became interested in student government at Dalhousie.

Wally Turnbull, an Arts Junior, has been active as Vice-President of last year's Sophomore Class, Sports reporter for the Gazette, Managing Editor of Pharos, Junior Arts and Science representative on the Council, Co-Chairman of Munro Day, and a member of D.G.D.S.

Acadia Sequel

The troubles of the Acadia Athenaeum appear to be at an end.

Following the firing of student Editor Don Angus last week, twenty staff members resigned pending Angus' reinstatement, then decided in a special meeting, to ask former Associate Editor Phil Roberts to become Editor. Roberts, a Rhodes Scholar, who had resigned his position, accepted.

The Athenaeum is back in publication. Athenaeum staffers, as student newspapermen everywhere, earnestly hoped trouble was over.

Dawson-Ring Platform

Our platform is based on the belief that the principal duty of student government is to seek out and take action upon the wishes of the student body.

We believe that good student government depends on student interest and participation and interfaculty cooperation.

Here are some of our ideas for better student government at Dalhousie. We believe they present practical solutions to real problems:

*Student Employment Service — an expansion of existing services to increase contacts with alumni, business and government agencies for part-time summer employment for students and permanent placement after graduation.

*Bookstore — an investigation of the possibilities of a student-run bookstore.

*For Med Students—availability of athletic facilities after Munro Day, when Med students have finished exams but these facilities are generally closed.

*Band—adequate financial support to develop and equip a band which will provide an outlet for musically talented students and a vital boost to Dalhousie spirit.

*Delta Gamma — continuing support for an active women's society.

*Inter-faculty sports—to increase interest and enjoyment in Inter-faculty sports:

(1) Pre-Christmas start in basketball and hockey schedules.

(2) Improved organization of such minor sports as curling, swimming, volleyball, etc.

(3) Current posting of results and standings in all inter-faculty competitions.

*Student Union Building—there is general agreement that a Students' Union Building is necessary for Dalhousie. The financing of this project is a major task for student government. We propose to take immediate steps to launch a financial campaign to this end.

Rick Dawson, in first year Law and Arts graduate, has taken part in past Model Parliaments, played Junior football and basketball, a former member of the swimming team, has acted in DGDS productions, is a Sub/Lt. in the Royal Canadian Navy (Reserve), and was President of his high school Student Council.

Jim Ring, in his second year of Engineering and B.Sc., is President of the Sophomore Class, Vice-President of the Engineering Society, Chairman of the Initiation Committee, and Master of Ceremonies of this year's Dalhousie Revue.

Elections— A Time for Action

Campus elections are again upon us and with them come the perennial problems arising every year. Apathy shows itself most clearly in this situation.

Nominations deadline was Friday night and only one nomination had been received for the position of president of the Council and only one for vice-president. Our constitution, however, wisely provides that at least two candidates must stand. In a thriving democracy like ours, this clause would seem unnecessary; the Council, in all probability, one would imagine, would be besieged with nominations. But this is not the case. The students must be safeguarded against their own apathetic nature; they must be forced to exercise their freedom to choose; they must be spoon-fed democracy.

Why should nominations for president and vice-president and in fact, for all other Council positions, be so hard to fill? True, if he succeeds, any of these positions will require time, effort and hard work of the candidate, but there are numerous students with sufficient ability in their academic courses, combined with the necessary qualities of leadership and personality, capable of taking this responsibility. Where are these students, we ask? Why do they not step forward and offer their services willingly so that the competition may be stiff and the campaign worthwhile? Perhaps only the sacrifice which such a step entails can be seen by our modern generation, which does not realize the extent of the gain to the campus in general, and, far more important, does not comprehend the benefit the individual would experience. Extracurricular activities prepare the student for the time when he must leave his "ivory tower", and surely each should want to get all the practice he can.

Nor does the blame lie entirely in the hands of the qualified students. Much, in fact, must rest on the shoulders of all Dalhousians. All students who run for office soon learn that all they receive in return is harsh criticism or, at least, a cold tolerant silence. They can expect no co-operation from the students. They are beating their heads against a stone wall, and yet we are stupid enough to be amazed that they don't love it.

VOTE—that's the first step for the students to take. Then, support the candidate elected and offer him help. Don't criticize unnecessarily and praise when praise is due. When this attitude abounds, Student Government at Dalhousie will flourish actively.

You Can Win Too

Do you throw money away? Of course not, you answer agast, but the sad truth is that you do, you, and thousands of other Canadian university students, who, for seemingly no reason, do not apply for the many scholarships and bursaries which are available to you each year.

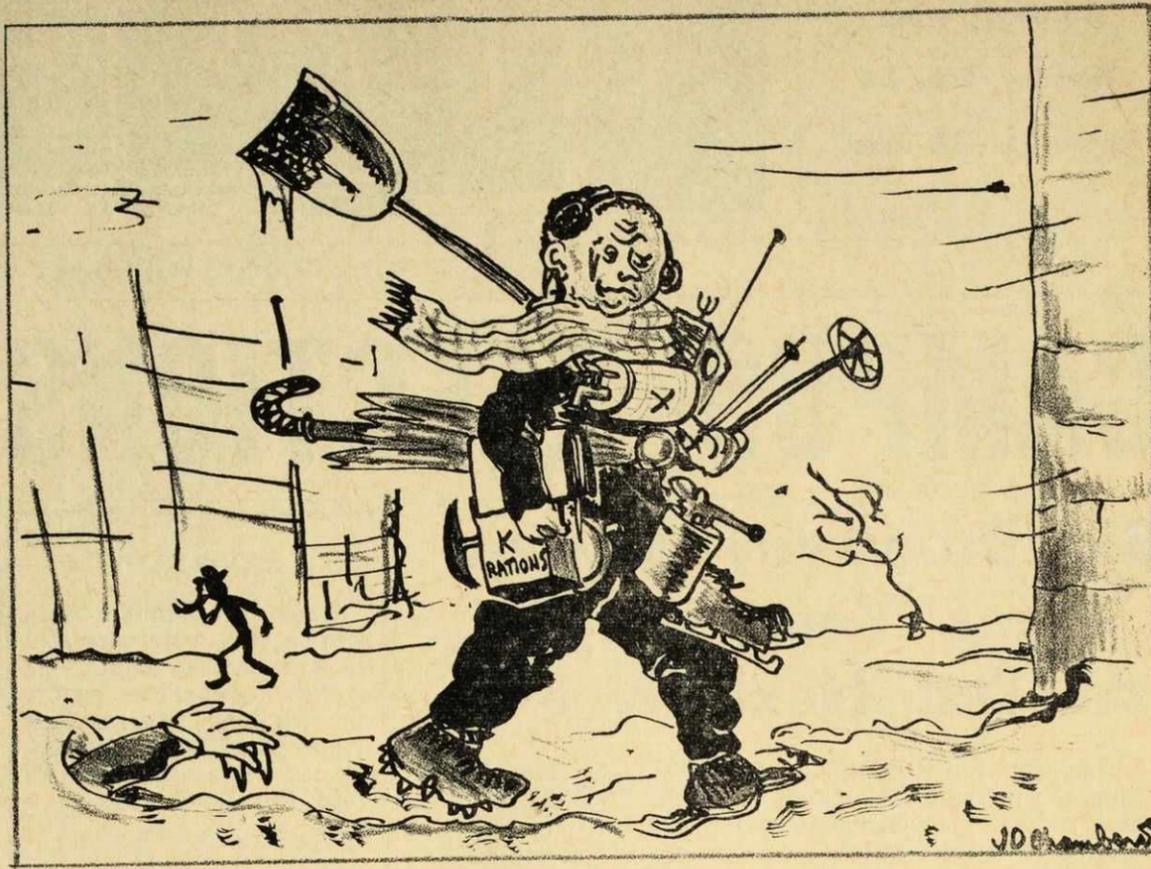

Every year these scholarships and bursaries go begging for applicants and often cannot be awarded because no student applies or so few apply that the necessary calibre of student and the competitive spirit are lacking.

The trouble lies solely with you, the student. The University posts lists of all scholarships, bursaries and prizes available and advertises them in the best ways possible, but it cannot drag students to read them and apply. What happens? The application date passes and only two or three applications out of a student enrollment of nearly 1700 have been received. And yet there are so many students with the necessary qualifications who will work all summer and sometimes part time rather than apply.

Wherein lies the problem? Surely it cannot be said that these students are lazy. Doing manual labour all summer can hardly be considered play or constitute laziness. The reason for this problem must lie, then, in the lack of self-confidence of many students. They know that the prizes are there but feel that they would have no chance and, therefore, never apply.

This defeatist attitude will get YOU nowhere. You can't win them all but you do have a chance—that is, you have a chance if you apply.

Eleven St. F. X. students were arrested last week for causing disturbances during the course of celebrations marking the end of mid-year examinations. In an article appearing in Toronto's Varsity, it was stated that police made the arrests after students refused to help push a patrol car. The automobile was stuck outside a cafe which the police attempted to clear. Having received suspended sentences from an Antigonish magistrate, the students must also appear before the University Disciplinary Committee which may, if it decides to take further action, expel them or send letters to their parents advising them of the circumstances.

The latest edition of the Acadian Athenaeum has taken no stand regarding the allegedly actionable that appeared in the previous issue. A short notice on the editorial page stated, "The Editor-in-Chief . . . has been suspended by the President of the Students' Union pending decision by the Student Judicial Committee. The present issue of the paper is therefore brought out by the Associate Editor.

Mr. T. R. McLagan of the Board of Governors at an S.E.C. meeting. According to the Daily, students were assured that "no fee raises are in the offing", although McGill's deficit for the present academic year is $2,129,000. The University refused to accept nearly $2,000,000 offered by the federal government. Duplessis has given just over a million and a half, but the article declared that "it has been openly stated that our acceptance of federal money would be countered by cancellation of the provincial contribution".

Two University of Manitoba students resorted to Jesse James tactics to free CKY announcer Brad Keene from a local jail last week. Posing as reporters for the Manitoban, they forced a police constable at the point of his own gun to release the prisoner, and, after locking the "lawman" in the vacated cell, they lead "Sheriff and Deputies" on an hour-long chase before finally being apprehended. Charges were dropped, however, when the two boys pleaded early morning lectures. Keene had been jailed as a publicity stunt for the Mother's March of Dimes. Campaign officials agreed that the student prank would boost the efforts of 8,000 marching mothers and 350 men.

The Xaverian Weekly reports that there is a fair chance that present plans for forming a national network of Canadian University radio broadcasts will bear fruit. Dave Warren of Memorial University, originator of CAUB (Canadian Association of University Broadcasters) idea, first presented his proposal as a motion in a meeting of MUN's Student Council. It was adopted and forwarded to universities all across Canada. "Nothing but favourable replies have been received so far," Warren said. NFCUS have also endorsed the plan, which calls for a weekly program originating from one of CBC's production divisions, with a CBC producer coordinating the different regions at a national level. Apparently the CBC is "still somewhat skeptical, but they are nevertheless willing to listen." The program would consist of weekly news reports from the participating universities, and its purpose would be "to give the general public a better insight into the Canadian Universities and into the Canadian University education". A conference is being held this week in Toronto to discuss the proposal.

Time Mag of Acadia Trip: An Affair To Remember

Out of Halifax's slate-grey, aging Union Station (CN & CP) one day last week an ancient coal-burner emerged into the crisp February sunshine. Its mission: to carry some 175 Dalhousie students to participation in nearby (65 miles) Acadia University's first annual Winter Carnival.

The day was perfect. What pessimistic opposing faculties had days before termed would be "a flop" was in reality a stunning success for its Arts & Science sponsors. The two-hour trip was—officially at least—uneventful, and the arriving throng was welcomed by the incumbent core of Acadians backing the project. For both universities, the hockey game meant little; it was a foregone conclusion that Dalhousie would win. They did.

By contrast, the unpremeditated high-jinx of the visitors were eventful and not a little frightening to small, sleepy Wolfville's mostly retired inhabitants. A four-hour period of grace preceded the day's highlight: the Valentine and Carnival Dance, scheduled to commence at 8:30. Overcrowding of the limited dining hall soon led to the moving of many to Acadia's SUB building, where festivities continued.

The trip home, slated to start "as soon as possible after twelve" finally got under way at 12:30, arrived home in the wee small hours. To wearied merrymakers, the trip had proved one thing: trains can be fun. To relieved officials, although organization was not all it should have been, the affair was undoubtedly a project worth repeating.

SUB Agitation Reawakes Meds

An upsurge of interest in all aspects of campus life among medical students appeared strongly last Thursday evening at the most recent meeting of the Dalhousie Medical Society. The society feels that Meds should have a stronger voice in student government, especially in the year and advent of the Student Union Building.

Particularly significant of the feeling is the nomination of medical students for three exceptionally important campus posts—Byron Reid for president of the Students' Council, Don Aitken for president of D.G.D.S., and Spud Chandler for D.A.A.C. President.

Parliament In Session

The 1959 session of the Dalhousie Model Parliament opened amid pomp and ceremony, including an honour guard of UNTD's in Room 21 last night. The Speech from the Throne was read by the Governor-General.

The government in this year's Parliament is formed by the Progressive Conservative party, under Prime Minister Gregor Murray, who held a slim majority over their Liberal Opposition under Bob Radford. The majority is only four members.

Speaker of the House is Mr. A. W. Cox, a prominent Halifax lawyer. Other officials include: Clerk of the House, John Young; Sergeant-at-Arms, Denis Stairs; Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, Doug Herggett. Ushers are students from Halifax public schools.

Government legislation to be introduced includes permission for a referendum on the acceptance of the Red Ensign as the Canadian Flag; recognition of the People's Government of China, and the setting up of a diplomatic office on the Chinese mainland in the near future; the halting of American domination in Canadian industries; and the halting of production of the Avro CF-105.

Tonight's session begins at 7:30 in Room 21.

Following the nominations, the Society discussed further additions to the Award system, deciding to award the class presidents 20 points, and the interfaculty sports team members and managers 10 points. The Medical Society wishes to clear up any misunderstanding which may exist as to the nature and aims of the Award system. The system is contained within the society itself and is not in any way connected to the system presently in effect on Studley. In order to stimulate interest in both the Medical Society and the Medical Journal, a "Medical D" will be awarded, on the attainment of 80 points for work done within the society.

Around the Campus

Attention all Frosh! There will be an important class meeting on Thursday, February 19, at 12 noon in Room 234 of the Arts and Administration Building. A selection of next year's Initiation Committee will be made. Nominations will be taken for a Freshman Queen who will be crowned at a forthcoming dance. It is important that all members of the Freshman Club attend.

Anyone interested in politics, parliamentary procedure, or just plain talk is invited to attend the Model Parliament on Thursday, February 19, in Room 21 of the Arts and Administration Building.

The Arts and Science South Pacific Ball will be held on Friday, February 20, at the Jubilee Boat Club. Dancing will be to the music of Pete Power's Orchestra. Admission price is $3.00 per couple.

Dal-Kings Canterbury will present an address by the Rev. Canon H. L. Puxley on Sunday, February 22, at 8:30 at All Saints Cathedral Hall. Canon Puxley's subject will be "Church Unity and the Church Universal".

The controversial report of the F.R.O.S. Housing Committee for foreign students will be presented on Crowning of the King's College Campus Queen, Mary Archibald, highlighted the "Underwater Fantasy" Formal held on February 6 at King's College. Miss Archibald, an active third year arts student, will represent Kings in the Campus Queen Competition on Munro Day. A hard-working decorations committee, under the capable direction of Don Crawley, provided an atmosphere of under water fantasy composed of sparkling fish nets, sea horses, turtles, various multi-colored tropical fish, and a gigantic ray fish. Les Single's orchestra provided the music.

The Dalhousie West Indian Society requests the return of a West Indian flag which has been lost or borrowed. The flag has blue and white wavy stripes with an orange "sun" in the centre. The finder is asked to contact the Gazette office or Alroy Chow in the Men's Residence.

Your attention is called to the debating festival now in progress on the campus. For the next two weeks, there will be at least one debate a day in the Men's Common Room. The debating schedule is printed elsewhere in the Gazette.

Classics Society To Present Euripides' "Medea" March 3-5

A Greek classic, Euripides "Medea" will be presented in the university gym March 3-5, Dr. Mirko Usmiani, assistant professor of classics, announced recently.

The play had originally been scheduled to be produced with a display of art as part of a Classics Week program, but due to difficulty in obtaining favorable dates the art display was held last week in the art room of the Arts and Administration Building.

On display were prints of ancient vase painting, dating back to the fifth centuries B.C., reproductions of Etruscan pottery and Greek and Roman sculpture, all of which fitted into the aim of Classics Week, which is the introduction of ancient culture to students and the general public.

Dr. Usmiani, who has headed the program since its initiation on the Dalhousie campus last year, is a native of Pag, Yugoslavia. He was educated at the University of Zagreb, Duquesne University, and Harvard, and joined the staff here in 1955.

Two years ago the Classics Society presented "Oedipus Rex" as their annual production, and last year "Antigone" was presented.

Taking part in this year's production will be Carol Clark, as Medea, Penelope Stanbury, as the nurse, Leon Cole, as Jason and John Chambers, as Creon. Others in the cast include Andrew Betts and John Acker. Members of the chorus are: Bonnie Murray, Barbara Machan, Barbara Stone, Judy Bell, Susan Bell, Ben Poulos, Ann Mason, Marilyn Withrow, Susan Starr, Elizabeth Cogswell, Linda Craig, Leslie Ann Cutler, Sheila Smith and Elizabeth Moxson.

DALHOUSIE GLEE AND DRAMATIC SOCIETY

DR. C. L. LAMBERTSON

The Musical Director of this gala production is a figure well known on the Dalhousie campus, Dr. C. L. Lambertson, Professor of English. Dr. Lambertson is well known in the music circles of Halifax and he has done a good deal of composing and of arranging musicals in this area. He is noted for having written the first Canadian musical "Bonanza". Last year Dr. Lambertson was Musical Director of Dal's first modern musical production "Finian's Rainbow". The orchestra and chorus, composed of Dalhousie students are under his able direction and will supply the background music for the production.

The Star Shines

JULIA GOSLING

To the question "who is Dal's number 1 actress", Dalhousian's without hesitation would reply, "Julia Gosling." Julia has well earned this reputation. She has directed and produced the last three DGDS dramatic productions—"The Man Who Came To Dinner", "The Admirable Crichton" and this year's "The Hidden River". Her numbers in the Dal Revues are always among the best received. She has held the positions of ex-officio executive member, vice-president and president of DGDS. Last year Julia played Alizon in "The Lady's Not For Burning", the winning play of the Nova Scotia Drama Festival. She was Pamela Joyce in the December '58 coast to coast TV production "Pamela Joyce". Assistant producer of "Finian's Rainbow", Julia again proves herself in this capacity in "Paint Your Wagon".

CRAIG FRY

Craig Fry, a first year theology student at Pine Hill, comes to us from Mount Allison University, graduating last year with his Bachelor of Arts degree. He was a member of the Mount Allison Choral Society and played "The Duke" in Gilbert and Sullivan's, "Patience". In his home town, Sydney, Craig participated in musical festivals and did radio work, and also played the lead in Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pirates of Penzance". With his musical background his performance as Julio Valveras promises to be distinctive.

JIM MCKENNA

A newcomer to Dal this year and consequently to Dal musical productions, Jim plays the lead role of Ben Rumson in "Paint Your Wagon". While at Mount Allison, from which he graduated in '54 he was a member of the well know Mount A. Choral Society. He worked in Toronto for two years where he took singing lessons at the Toronto Conservatory of Music. Jim has an exceptional voice and is expected to give a fine performance.

CHARLOTTE GIBBON

If you can imagine one lone girl among four hundred goldminers in a boom town up north, then you can imagine Charlotte Gibbon as Jennifer Rumson, the female lead in the D.G.D.S. production "Paint Your Wagon". Charlotte, a third year science student from St. John, took singing lessons for seven years before coming to Dalhousie where she has been very active in all musical productions. Last year as a member of the chorus in "Finians Rainbow", she was part of the Necessity Trio, and those who enjoyed Munro Day festivities will also remember her in the Variety Show as axe-swinging Lizzie Boarden.

PLOT

The plot of "Paint Your Wagon", a fast-moving one, evolves around the scenes of the California gold rush of 1853, and portrays all the gaiety, pathos, and explosiveness of just such a typical gold rush town as Rumson was. The name of the town came from the leading character, whose name is Ben Rumson, played by Jim McKenna. Charlotte Gibbon plays the part of Ben's daughter, Jenny, and the part of Julio Valveras, a Mexican is played by Craig Fry.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Many members of DGDS are hard at work readying the stage, props and costumes for opening night. The energetic lads and lasses of the stage crew are under the management of Forbes Langestroth. Allison Petrie and Gail MacLaughlin are property mistresses and Patty Armstrong is doing a most commendable job in the wardrobe department. Although these people are never seen by the audience their work is as essential to the success of the production as that of the chorus.

Axemen Whip Bengals Dal-Saints In Semi-Finals

By ROD MacLENNAN

The Dalhousie Basketball Tigers wound up the regular schedule of the Nova Scotia Intercollegiate League by taking a 55-42 shellacking from the Acadia Axemen last Thursday night. The game played in the valley town was the fifth defeat in eight starts for the Varsity boys, and signalled a dismal end to the most disappointing season in recent history for Studley teams. The loss dropped Dal to the fourth and last playoff spot in the five team loop, and well behind Saint Mary's who walked off with top honors. St. F. X., Acadia and Dal were next in that order, while weak-sister Tech held down the cellar position.

The game at Acadia was a brawling affair with forty fouls being called. Typical of the refereeing was a play which saw Acadia's Pete Haley drive toward the basket, Dal's Al Murray step into him, Acadia get called for the foul, and Dal's Dave Woodworth shot the foul shots. By half time the Axemen had moulded a 32-19 lead over the hapless black and gold crew, who were hampered to a certain extent by the size of Acadia's gym (better known as the "fly-box"). Chatterton and Davis led the victors with 12 and 8 points respectively while Capt. Bill White chalked up 7 for Dalhousie.

The second half saw the game more ragged than the first, if that was possible. The refs seemed totally blind to such things as elbows, knees and thumbs. Coach Merv Shaw made good use of his second string as they accounted for most of the points in the second half. Dave Woodworth tossed in 9, Weatherston and Simmons 4 apiece. Dazey Armstrong had 7 for the red and blue.

Gene Chatterton emerged as the game's high man with 17 points, points, followed by Armstrong with a dozen. Dalhousie's Woodworth had 11. Nick Weatherston and Chatterton received the "best players of the game" awards which were decided upon by the opposing coaches. Nick had a total of eight and played headsup ball through the worst of the game.

North Pole, Chapel Bays Win In King's Basketball

North Pole Bay and Chapel Bay won games in the King's Inter-Bay Basketball League recently as the schedule came into full swing.

On Monday night Jim Hayward and Hugh Townsend were all North Pole needed to whack Radical Bay 49-35. The pair whooped 41 of the points as Hayward went on a 25-point spree and Townsend added 16. Bob Stanbrook was a star for the Radical boys as he came through with 18 points.

Two nights later Noel Andrews put on a one-man show as Chapel Bay defeated Middle Bay 33-25. Andrews scored almost enough points to single-handedly match the Middle output, with a 22-point performance.

Chapel now lead the four team loop with two wins in as many starts. North Pole and Middle each have a win and loss to their credit while Radical have dropped both their games.

In the individual scoring race Noel Andrews leads the loop in both points and average. The blond flash has racked up 42 points for Chapel in two games for a 21-point average.

Close behind is Radical's Bob Stanbrook with 40 points and a 20-point per game average. Teammate Tommy Siedule is third with 29 points, one up on North Pole's Newfoundland dash - hound, Jim Hayward. Hugh Townsend is fifth with 16 points, all scored in one game after he left varsity squad's ranks.

Bengals Trip Success Dal Downs Acadia 8-2

By HUGH FRASER

Saturday afternoon, before highly enthusiastic Acadia supporters in the University Rink at Wolfville, the Dal Tigers walked over the Acadia Axemen to the tune of 8-2, to maintain their grip on top spot in the intercollegiate hockey league. The game was not one of the best played this season, and the Tigers did not come to life until the third period when they scored four unanswered goals to put the game out of reach. The second string combination of axwell, udmore and Parsons was Dal's production line as between them they accounted for half of the Tigers' scoring.

Big Dave Gardner continued to have a banner year as he notched two goals late in the third period. Freshman Eric Parsons also played a good game, as he tallied the Tigers' first two goals to put them on their winning way. Doug Cudmore is currently setting prolific pace as he garnered four points on a goal and three assists. Cudmore has now accumulated nine points in the last two games to rank with Gardner and Graham as Dal's scoring leaders.

Parsons opened the scoring at 7:12 of the first period when he put the puck past Young in the Acadia net on a pass from Cudmore. Just over a minute later, Parsons again did the honors, as he combined with Cudmore and Maxwell to make the score read 2-0. Maxwell had picked the puck up near the boards and flipped it to Cudmore in the corner. Cudmore, acting as pivot man, shot the puck to Parsons in front of the Acadia net, who shifted Young out of position and slipped the rubber disc behind him.

At 10:24 Gardner was given two minutes for tripping, and no sooner was he back on the ice then Sanford put the Axemen on the score-sheet on a pass from Barro.

Martin made it 3-1 for Dal at 8:11, when he caught Cunningham's long pass, as his shot slid along the ice into the lower right hand corner of the net.

Dickie tallied Acadia's last goal with only 20 seconds left in the period. His backhand shot went past Brown, not giving him a chance for he was flat on his back.

The second period was relatively slow. Martin went off at 6:36 for tripping but Acadia could not score. The second line continued to show good teamwork as Cudmore and Parsons combined to beat the defense, but the latter just could not seem to find the target.

With five minutes left, an Acadia goal was disallowed for handling the puck, and once again Parsons and Cudmore had a golden opportunity. The diminutive Med student took the former's pass and did not have a man within 20 feet of him, apart from the goaltender, but Young made the save.

At 17:57 Barro was given the gate for illegal checking and he was promptly joined by Martin who received two minutes plus a ten-minute misconduct. Barro went back on the ice with a minute still remaining in his penalty, but this was ignored as Sim scored from MacLeod and Graham to make it 4-2.

At the start of the third period, Parsons' screen shot hit the post, and Barro had Acadia's last chance to get the Axemen back in the game as he had a breakaway, but he tripped, letting the puck roll lazily to the Dal net where Brown easily turned it aside.

Then with ten minutes left in the game Dal scored four goals to walk away with what had started out to be a close game. Maxwell scored from Cudmore to make it 5-2. Gardner made it 6-2 on a pass from Sim. The score continued to mount as Cudmore accounted for the Tiger's 7th goal, Parsons and Maxwell being credited with assists.

Gardner hit the post at 18:15 as his backhand shot slid along the ice, but he made up for it with 34 seconds left as he scored his second goal, Johnny Graham assisting.

Thus, the Tigers continue their winning ways and should finish as league leaders, unless they suffer an upset at the hands of St. Mary's in the final game of the regular schedule.

Meds Lead Hockey

Medicine roared into first place in the interfaculty hockey league last week with two lopsided victories over the hapless Engineers. The doctors clobbered the shackmen 9-4 in the opener of a doubleheader last Monday. In the second game Arts and Science battled Dentistry to a 2-2 deadlock.

Tuesday, Medicine again pounded the Engineers, this time to the tune of 10-2. Hill and McPhail sparked the Med attack with two goals each. In the second game, Commerce massacred Pharmacy 11-1 as Gavin Rennie tallied four times for the moneymen.

Thursday Law moved into a second place tie with Arts and Science and Dentistry by gaining a tie with King's 5-5. McInnes and Arsenault scored twice for the Lawmen and Wentzell tallies twice for King's. Leach scored the tying goal for King's late in the final period.

DALHOUSIE GIRLS GAIN FIRST BASKETBALL WIN

by BOBBIE WOOD

Dal Girls' Varsity Basketball team trounced Acadia Axettes last Tuesday night 56-43 to chalk up their first victory of the season in the Intercollegiate wars. The game was fast, despite many fouls and violations.

In the first quarter, play was ragged as both teams failed to settle down. Dal's lone scorer during this period was Libby MacRae with 9 points. Acadia also picked up nine points in this frame.

The second quarter saw Dal catch fire as they outscored Acadia 14-7. Dal controlled the play, and intercepted several passes. The MacRae sisters starred in this quarter, dumping in 12 points between them. Half time score stood at 23-16 for Dal.

In the second half Dal improved even more and turned in a 33-point performance. The Acadia guards were leaving Dal forwards open, and Dal took advantage of their position, going in to score time and time again. Dal found plenty of use for lay-ups, with Pam Dewis scoring almost all her eleven points in this manner. The Dal guards were working very well together, and their tight zone defense had the Axette quintet baffled.

Ann Mosher starred for Acadia, and was high scorer in the game as well, with a 22-point performance collected mostly on long shots. Donna MacRae for Dal sank 21 points, 14 of them in the second half, and Libby MacRae held third spot in the scoring parade with 14 points.

Dalhousie: D. MacRae 21; L. MacRae 14; L. Dewis 11; J. Bennett 8; S. Ball 2; E. Brown, F. Boston, M. Sinclair, J. Murphy, J. Bremmer, J. Sinclair—Total 56.

KING'S GIRLS DEFEAT ACADIA

An up and coming team from King's College overwhelmed a speedy Acadia intermediate team 50-13 in an exhibition girls basketball game played at Acadia Friday, February 13.

King's, showing their best form to date, had little trouble with the Acadians, and the score was 8-2 in favour of King's threaten the sensational lead. Sharon Green sparked the U.K.C. girls with 40 points possibly the most points ever scored by a girl in intercollegiate play. She was followed by Judy Coates and Mary Jane Reed with 8 and 2 points respectively. Muriel Newcombe was high point-getter for Acadia. King's guards played a standout game, forcing the Acadians to make all their points on long shots and free throws. Janet Mader, particularly, proved herself effective in blocking Acadia's efforts to score.

Following the game, the King's players attended the Variety Concert, a part of the Acadia Winter Carnival program, which proved to be very enjoyable.

BASKETBALL TIGERS BOW TO XAVERIANS, "X" HITS STRIDE, DAL LOSES GROUND

By MIKE KIRBY

Saturday, February 7, the Dalhousie Tigers travelled to Antigonish to take on the second-place Xaverians. The result was a 65-48 victory for the boys from the Cathedral town as they built up a substantial lead in the first half and then held on to win.

"X" started right from the opening whistle and soon the brilliant shooting of Moran, Davenport and Walsh had them out in front. The pace settled down after the first ten minutes as Dal began to pick up, so that the half ended 40-26 in favour of the home team.

As usual Dal opened strongly in the second stanza, but this time "X" was prepared. The Tigers attack, which always improves as the game goes on, met a stone wall defense and an offense on a par with their own. The result was some of the best basketball seen this year with the Xaverians topping the visitors 25-22 in this half's scoring.

The big guns on the winning side were Davenport, with 20 points, and Moran and Walsh, with 15 apiece. It is notable here that out of the 65 points scored by "X" 59 were notched by the first string. This shows that should any of the starting quintet get fouled out early in one of the playoff games "X" will be in serious trouble.

Dal showed a much more balanced attack as nearly everyone figured in the scoring and all played equally well. Bill White was hitting again on his long set shots and scored 10 points, an output which was matched by center Dave Woodworth.

Scoring:

STAD HALTS DAL 50-47, WATSON CLINCHES WIN

By ROD MACLENNAN

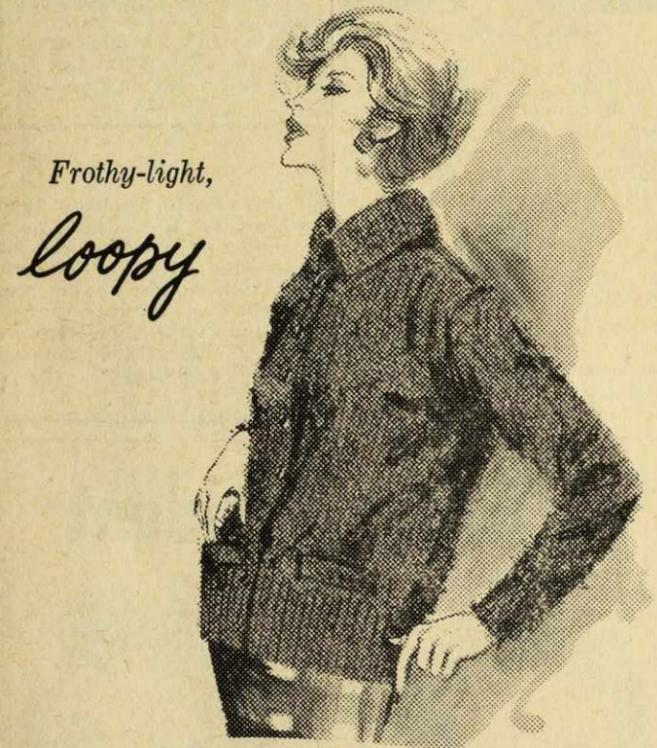

Dalhousie's Varsity Basketball Tigers scraped to a new low Friday night at Studley gymnasium as our boys lost a 50-47 contest to a peppy Stadacona crew in a scheduled Senior "B" game. The game hung in the balance throughout the last five minutes, and it was not until Watson dunked two foul shots with 55 seconds remaining that the game appeared to be in hand. Despite a last ditch effort by Dal, Stad held on for a well-earned victory.

The game was a rough one from start and Stad drew first blood. With two-thirds of the first 20 minutes gone the sailors held a 20-10 lead which was whittled down to a 24-17 margin by the half. Woodworth had seven of Dal's total, while Pattendon had an equal number for Stad. Dalhousie's attack could not seem to get organized against the zone defense drawn up by the navy. Using a new pattern which was remarkably ineffective in breaking through, Dal's offence was stymied from the start.

In the second half the pace was stepped up considerably with Studley employing a full court press and changing full lines often. The second-stringers again looked good on many plays. Ted Wickwire, who has experienced a disappointing season, showed several flashes of old-time drive. He scored 10 points for the game.

In your reporter's opinion the game represented the worst brand of ball yet displayed this season. Dalhousie has the potential, but they are playing nowhere near it! Coach Shaw is certainly doing his best, but the spirit, the drive, and the desire to win of the players is virtually non-existent, excepting perhaps a very few. Dal meets St. Mary's in the "semis" of the Intercollegiate League. If they play to their limit, they can win. If they don't, it will mark the end of a black season.

Dalhousie: White 5; Wickwire 10; Woodworth 7; Murray 2; Weatherston 3; Stewart 8; Brown 8; Fisher, Simmons, Nickerson—47.
